Don't let the name fool you. Amsterdam's is the epitome of American Bistro. The most popular eat at this new hotspot is the Rotisserie roasted chicken. Also choose from a variety of delicious appetizers such as spicy fried squid and steamed mussels. Stick around after dinner on Sunday and Monday nights to catch live Jazz from 9-2am. Casual dress. Open 7 days until 2am.

Ararat
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof, 1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA, 272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose, 21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef, 604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Come on down! Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles, Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537 A,D,MC, V
$$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Choose from a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees and grilled fresh native seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am-11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

Cactus Club, 939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200 A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Café Marliave
10 Bosworth St., Boston 423-6340
$$
If you're an aspiring poet, there's a special place here for you: The Poet's Corner. On the sun-filled roof garden is where the famous American poet John B. O'Reilly was inspired to write his best works. If you're looking for delicious food, there are 14 pasta sauces here to tempt every Bostonian, a spacious glassed-in cocktail roof garden and a wonderful family to make you feel at home. See ad on left.

Caffe Dello Sport, 308 Hanover St., Bos. 523-5063 $
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu- sublime; or order up a confection to go

Caffe Graffiti 307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016
$
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Pompei, 280 Hanover St., Bos. 523-9498
$$
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city , is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4AM. Famous for it's homemade banana gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinnermenu, Caffee Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Casa Portugal, 1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880 A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia, 15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali, 415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254 A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Four Winds, 266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922 A, MC, D, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open from noon to 2am daily.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050 A,D,MC,V
$$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I, 71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces. Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus, 3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499
$
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner

"Home of Italian Pizza and Pasta"
NOW SERVING DINNER

SIENNA'S

Come Dine with us in our Friendly and Casual Atmosphere with Great Italian Food.

Dinner Served Mon. - Sat.; 5p.m. -11p.m.
214 LINCOLN ST., CORNER OF KNEELAND ST.
426-6665

caffé paradiso
est. 1966

gelati

sorbetto

apertivi

liquers

cognacs

scotches

soft beverages

panini

pizza

255 Hanover Street Boston
3 Water Street Boston
1 Elliot Street Cambridge
349 Newbury Street Boston (May '92)

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

NEWBURY'S
Steak House

Our tradition of fine seafood specialties is as well known as our reputation as a steak house. All our entrees are served with limitless salad bar, fresh vegetables, and homeade bread.

For 50 Years Back Bay's Neighborhood Restaurant
94 Massachusettes Ave (at Newbury Street)
536-0184 Open Noon • Midnight
Seven Days A Week

2 for 1 Lunch

Select any two lunch entrees
and recieve the lesser priced entree with our compliments
maximum value of coupon $12
valid anytime, with this coupon, offer expires June 23, 1992

2 for 1 Dinner

Select any two dinner entrees
and recieve the lesser priced entree with our compliments.
maximum value of coupon $12
valid any time, with this coupon, offer expires June 23, 1992

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

Buy one entreé and get a second entreé of equal or lesser value FREE

Good Sunday - Wednesday
Not valid for lunch specials, take-out or delivery.
Tax and gratuity based on full value of meal. Offer expires 6/30/92

Signature _____ Date _____

86 Peterborough St. Boston, MA (Behind Star Market in the Fenway) 424-7070

specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Joyce Chen, 115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373
A, MC, V $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring a new spring menu. In addition to Joyce Chen's wide variety of dishes on the year-round menu, the seasonal dishes include Chicken Macadamia with asparagus and Wok-seared shrimp with asparagus. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

Loading Zone
150 Kneeland St., Boston695-0087
V, A, MC, DC, D$$
You can load up on a number of barbecue specialties while enjoying one of Boston's more artistic restaurant experiences. Tables are glass-topped over a variety of paintings, sculptures and more - all by Boston artists. For a new patron, you can't go wrong with their combination platter, or "Pig Out" as it's affectionately labeled. This platter offers a wonderful sampling of 3 spare ribs, baby back ribs, pork shoulder, brisket and bbq chicken. Lunch 11:30am to 5pm, dinner from 5pm to midnight. Don't miss their club nights - 3 times a week.

L'Osteria
109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Triestinl - three veal cutlets with prociutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 V,MC
$$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century. Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury S. Open daily noon to midnight.

Noble House, 1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580 A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

Ottavio's
257 North St., Bos. 723-6060
A, D, MC, V $$$
Casual Northern Italian dining with impeccable service and the best Caesar salad served tableside. Mirrored walls, fresh flowers, candles and windows - complete with a sculptured floral design, add flare and romance. Try the chicken ottavio - chicken with prosciutto and cheese in a mushroom sherry sauce or a succulent lobster, only 2 pounders and up in this classy joint! Open daily for dinner 4:30 - 11:00pm.

Rattlesnake, 382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555
$$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. If you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Ristorante Carlo Marino, 8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltimboca alla Romano - veal layered with prosciutto with fresh sage, sautéed in wine; Spinaci di Casa - spinach sautéed with garlic oil, cannellini beans and prosciutto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Slenna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC/V/AMEX $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary situated in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston.

Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

MUSIC

STONED

An Improper Interview with Mick Taylor

by A.J. Wachtel

Mick Taylor is something of an anachronism in today's world of rock and roll: here is a noted gunslinger still willing to perform and pour his heart out in the smoke-filled intimacy of a nightclub. After ascending to the top of the entertainment industry as a Rolling Stone and globally touring to countless huge arenas, it was a rare pleasure catching both of his sets at Nightstage and later discussing with him the past, present and future in the hip life of a true rock star. Highlights of his performances were bluesy renditions of "You Got To Move" and "Hipshake" from two of the best albums his old bandmates ever made; twenty years after their releases "Exile On Main Street" and "Sticky Fingers" are still showcases for Taylor's unique and unparalleled guitar skills. Interestingly enough, while blazing through Willie Dixon's "You Shook Me," Mick stuck surprisingly closer to Led Zep's cover of the tune from their initial album Led Zep I than to the original version. Taylor doing Page was audial nirvana. Special thanks to Nightstage manager Steve Martinez and bartender Jimmy Coyle for their cooperation and to Mick for the friendship and time given me at the end of the show and for once again proving he's one of the finest guitarists who ever picked up a Les Paul.

I.B.: Did you really say you were the only guitarist to ever leave the Stones and live?

M.T.: I never said that; other people did.

I.B.: You have two solo albums out, are you working on one now?

M.T.: Not really, we're doing some recording but this is the first time I've been out with this band. (a singer, bassist, and drummer)

I.B.: So you're touring just to get your ya-ya's out?

M.T.: And to work with the band.

I.B.: On your first solo album you did a song that you wrote called "Leather Jacket." I have a Stones version of that song on The Trident Tapes bootleg that was never released. Why not?

M.T.: Did we do that? Oh yeah, the instrumental version. I don't know why we never followed through on that one.

I.B.: Is that why you left The Stones cause they weren't allowing you enough creative freedom? And not enough credit? I mean Exile reeks of your arranging input. Or were there other reasons?

M.T.: There were other reasons. (smiles)

I.B.: How come The Stones song Claudine (Accidents Will Happen) about Claudine Longet was never released?

M.T.: Hmmnn. I thought it was.

I.B.: The song "Silver Train" from Goatshead Soup first came out a year earlier on Johnny Winter's Still Alive and Well album. Did Mick and Keith write that song for him?

M.T.: Not to my knowledge.

I.B.: For a while you were going to start working with Jack Bruce (from Cream). That had the markings of a supergroup. Rumor has it that he's a real difficult person to collaborate with and that you guys couldn't get along. Any truth?

M.T.: Things just didn't work out. Leave it at that.

I.B.: Jimmy Miller recently produced a still unreleased album called Boston Gets Stoned where local bands do versions of Stones tunes. Jimmy Miller and your names are synonomous with The Stones' highest periods of creativity and many of the chosen songs are from your days in the group. Any comment?

M.T.: (eyes rolling to the ceiling) Send me a copy!

I.B.: At The Stones' induction into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame your appearance with your old bandmates raised a lot of speculation that Bill (Wyman) is leaving the band...

M.T.: He is.

I.B.: That Woody (Ron Wood) is moving from guitar to bass...

M.T.: That's right.

I.B.: And that you would rejoin the band as lead guitarist.

M.T.: We're talking about it. It could happen sometime in the future. We'll see what happens. ❑

A.J. Wachtel

Mick Taylor threw in some old Stones' tunes in a recent set that left no doubt that this guy can still jam with the best.

SPRING SPECIAL

MINTA 386DX/33 MHZ COMPUTER

• 64 K Cache • 4 MB Ram • 5¼" and 3½" High Density Disk Drives
• 120 MB Hard Disk • Super VGA 1024 x 768 Monitor (.28 Dot)
• 101 Key Keyboard • 2 Serial, 1 Parallel, 1 Game I/O
• Mouse • DOS 5.0 • Windows 3.0

• 5-DAY DELIVERY • LOCAL SUPPORT • ONLY $2135

CALL
XON Computers
17 Station St.
Brookline, MA
(617) 254-8413

2 YEAR GUARANTEE – NORMAL USE
Hard Disk 1 Year Guarantee

Back to the Future: Orpheus

by Mickey O'Halloran

From the wilds of Worcester, Mass., in 1968 came a new sound, glorious in its swirling approach, and much more melodic than the area acts it was hyped with as the industry created promotion, the so-called Bosstown Sound. The act was named ORPHEUS and consisted of Bruce Arnold and Jack McKenes, on guitar and vocals, John Eric Gulliksen on bass, and Harry Sandler on drums. All the boys sang but it was the thought provoking songwriting that first brought them to the attention of local impresario Alan Lorber.

This melodious pop group was signed by Alan (to MGM) and the deal yielded two albums, "Orpheus Acending" in 1968 and the follow-up "Joyful" in 1969. Founding members Bruce Arnold and Jack McKenes had played out in the folk-duo called The Villagers and it was their tune, "Can't Find The Time To Tell You" which cracked the Top 100 at Number 80. That classic cut was backed by another fine tune "Lesley's World" and released as the first single. The success of the record warranted a second single and the lead lp cut "I've Never Seen Love Like This", which featured more of the group's signature sound was also released. The disk was backed by "Congress Alley", a bit of an "in" joke as it depicted an area in the group's hometown noted for it's depravity.

The second lp was heralded in Playboy as the Tenth Best Lp of the Year and hit the Billboard charts for 12 weeks on the strength of the first record. But not enough people read the magazine for the articles and even that hype couldn't carry the effort. The fleeting success was already all over when "Joyful" peaked at only #159 despite the label releasing "Brown Eyes In Houston" (b/w "It'll Make The Sun Rise") as a single and the original act broke up before Christmas of 1969. A reunion tour failed about 1974. although there was an album release ("Orpheus" on Bell Records) with Bruce Arnold and a song-writing partner, Steve Martin who sang lead, Elliot Sherman on piano, Howard Hersh on bass, K.P Burke on harmonica and Bernard Purdie on drums. The project was decent enough but nothing serious happened and Bruce went back to teaching guitar before moving to California where he is an ordained minister. Original drummer Harry Sandler was a long-time mainstay in the Cambridge music scene and went on to work with the then fledgling A.I.B. (Assassination Information Bureau) and played out with HUMMIT and the apt-named HARRY SANDLER CIRCUS. He too was last heard from in California, where he ran a modeling agency.

Ironically, "Can't Find The Time To Tell You", the tune that started it all, is still a major request on the oldies stations and actually reached Number 54 when covered by a group by the name of ROSE COLORED GLASS in 1970! ❑

Album Reviews

The Cure
Wish

On the Cure's long-awaited new release Wish, singer-songwriter Robert Smith is smiling behind the trademark gloom of Britain's alternative superstars. He seems to be in a better mood, singing about happiness and love, than he was in making their last downer of a disc, Disintegration.

The 12 cuts on the album run to over 70 minutes of sweeping melancholy from swishing guitars and keyboards to Smith's tortured vocals. There are a lot of pretty songs about breakups and such, like "Cut" and "To Wish Impossible Things," but nothing too arresting to the listener. One gets the sense that after over a decade of churning out angst, it comes too easy for Smith and the songs lose any emotional intensity.

The stand-outs of the album are the unusually bubbly songs. It's downright weird hearing Smith cry "Skip jump sing and shout/Let's get happy!" in "Doing the Unstuck," or for him to be in a rare ecstatic moment about being in love in "Friday I'm in Love." The band should trade in their black and smile more. It suits them.

- Shawn Whalen

Beautiful South
0898

Wielding the lyrical wit of Jeffrey Dahmer and the incredible musical integrity of George Gershwin, the Beautiful South have taken yet another fatal stab at the heart of meaningless pop music. 0898, their excellent third and most sardonic release to date, has brought these Brits to a pinnacle of immoral perfection. Musing less about physical slaughter which Welcome to the Beautiful South and Choke explored, 0898 taps into the duality of love vs. hate, mere admiration vs. fatal obsession, man's primal instinct to get laid vs. woman's plea to be treated like a person rather than filet mignon. The classic nasal staccato of ex-Housemartin P.d. Heaton is complemented once again by one-time bandmate Dave Hemingway's mid-range hush and ex-Anthill Runaways Briana Corrigan's schoolgirl innocence. With smarmy night-club instrumentals, Heaton and crew mask the often wickedly vicious lyrics beneath the glitter and comfort of jazzy Muzak. "36 D" ponders about a certain buxom woman's other talents besides being just "another 365

(continued on following page)

Nobody Rocks Like The Fighting Cocks

by Randee Dawn

With a name like Fighting Cocks, you know straight off they aren't playing for the same crowd as Michael Bolton. And yet they aren't out there to make your ears bleed, either.

"We just play rock and roll and have a good time," says Jamie Sever, lead singer and co-founder of the year-old Boston band.

A lofty ambition in these days when every band seems to need a gimmick. Are you glam, are you thrash, are you somehow user-friendly? The very basic, down-to-earth idea of hard rock has fallen so far out of disuse it deserves to be redefined. With the Fighting Cocks, the attempt is being made. "Our roots are in the Stones and Aerosmith and we get compared to the Black Crowes sometimes," says Sever. "But we're not a metal act, we're a hard rock act with metal roots. We all like the same music and that means blues, country, whatever. On the way to the Rumble we all had Loretta Lynn playing."

That idea of incorporating crunchy guitars without burying the song in sheer noise is one the Cocks would like to reinvent. On their recent self-titled cassette, Sever, Charlie Leger and Geoff Abraham (guitars), Jones (bass) and Tom Leger (drums), all mix a straightforward, simplistic cocktail of music that has as it's core what the combination of rock and blues originally meant. Their song titles are even colloquial, as if by rock 'n roll obligation: "Sleepin' With Mrs. Jones" and "Ain't No Satisfaction Guaranteed."

What Sever says makes the Cocks different, though, is that they all work on the same wavelength. And after over a decade of playing with various other groups and even once writing for Alice Cooper, Sever says new bands are the most exciting. "A new band is like a new girlfriend; it's like a relationship-it's always more special when you haven't been dragging it along for longer than it was supposed to be dragged on."

As for the long-term, Sever mentally shrugs: "Sure, the other guys in the band, they'd like to make it big, but me-I'm just doing it for the fun. The great thing about it is people pay us to go out there and have fun. And if we can make a living out of having fun, well, what else could your ask for?" ❑

MUSIC

Musical Notes

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

After The Celtics eliminating playoff loss, Kevin McHale and Dee Brown were seen in Bill's Bar commiserating with x-STF pounder Jesse Mayer...At The Lyres gig at Bunratty's x-Lyre Jack Hickey, Tupper and Blind Lemon were all seen wearing Real Kids t-shirts. The Real Klds are unreal...Lyre Monoman, Erlc Martln from The Neats and Dan Zanes from The Del Fuegos seen talking shop together at a recent gig. Monoman's stewardess sister worked on the plane that brought the Fuegos back from their recent tour of Spain. Small world!...X-Fuego Woody now in Big Dipper....Local bands with names taken from The Beverly Hillbillies show: The Varments, The Drysdales, The Doublenought Spys, Da Bodines, and N. Orleans transplants Dash Riprock...Congrats to Carolee and x-Hoods guy Tyler Sweet on tying the knot...Go see The Candles and their Grateful Dead stuff at O'Brien's every Saturday night and say high to barkeeps Jim Calambos, Aaron Mateychuk and Chuck Sullivan...Doorman of the week has to be Jerry Piccione from The Paradise cause in his words "I've let you in free alot of times!" O.k. Jerry, well I just made you famous!...Listen for "Cold dark Icy Stare" by Macey's Parade...Get well to Ed Burke's barkeep Bibby who's got bleeding ulcers. Did you get your medical problems from listening to Ed talk about his sore gams or from working with fellow barkeeps Bernie and Mark-joint winners of the 1991 Idi Amin Personality Award?...Check out x-Face To Face Laurie Sargent at The Tam on the 17th and Letters To Cleo and The Barnles on the 20th and say high to booking agent Dana McDonald...Bartender of the week is Al Waitt from The Hard Rock Cafe who is responsible for creating almost all of their drink menu including "Blue Suede Booze." He's also in The Syphoids with Llzzle Borden-x-Llzzie Borden and The Axes now working at Axis! Strange but true!

Jamie Shaler's new tune "Cold Blue Eyes" is red hot !...Hellcats at The Middle East on the 11th, and the craziest band ever, The Dwarves, and The Super Suckers on the 19th. And don't forget Monday night jazz series or c&w god J.Lincoln Wright every Tuesday...Acoustic star Miriam getting alot of Canadian airplay with "Politics" and "The River." See her at Edible Rex on the 13th...Happy happy to Sean Jenness from Johnny Groove. Johnny Groove is groovy every Monday night at Bunratty's. And don't miss A.J.'s birthday party at the club on the 24th with Snidely Whiplash and The Allston Brothers Band...The Barnies do the best version of "Hey Bulldog" since you know who...Waitress of the week is waitbabe Holly Devine the Queen of Catch A Rising Star cause she's a beautiful brunette !...Crabdaddy back from a national tour. They did some horseback riding in Missouri and it turns out that Hutch is quite a cowboy...The Vlsagoths now called Large...X-New Kids soundman Tim Miller just back from a nat'l tour with Marky Mark...Turntable song of the week is "Pig In Shit" by The Turbulent Daughters cause its the stuff college radio hits are made of...At The Rat: The Premiers' rockabilly upstairs, Fryin' Jimmy Ryan and his great food on the main floor and The Neighborhoods and Hotbox downstairs! It's still the hottest nightclub with the coolest people...Nightstage soundguy Steve Barry off to Switzerland with The Failures and in the studio with 3rd Estate and DeSade featuring members from The Slaves...Guitarist Darren Alch x-Ducktape Messlahs now in Anlmal Traln with a jazzy five piece horn section and gutsy r&b vocalist Michelle Willson...Danny Kleln x-J.Geils now in Soma Crush just gigged at a benefit at T.T.The Bears...The Tats are semi-finalists in Muslcian Magazine's Best Unsigned Band Contest...Entertainment Crulses Music On Board '92 series started with The Cliffs Of Doneen and concerts with Liv Taylor and Herb Reed and The Platters are planned...Go to an Aids Benefit at The Paradise with spirited acoustic act Kathy Phipps and Wendy Sobel x-GNO and progressive band Jigglescreen. WBOS jock Barry Scott will m.c....Donations to The Delta Blues Museum can be sent to 114 Delta Ave p.o. box 280 Clarksdale, MS 38614 or contact MFO blues jock Holly Harris...At the recent Sire Records signing party for Seka at Venus, BCN jock Albert O overheard saying about The Rumble: "People are into seeing bands again. Besides the caliber of bands in The Rumble, a lot of folks showed up to see the bands. People care!" Seka also had a gift for jock Bradley J-a "Love Ewe"...Bob Stanton has left T.H. and The Wreckage to pursue other projects and has been replaced by Steven Paul Perry who spent years playing with Rick Berlln...Bands send us your updates so we can tell the world about your talents! ❑ night stand." In "Something that You Said," Hemingway and Corrigan determine that "the perfect kiss is with the boy you just stabbed to death." To the Beautiful South, mixing poisonous lyrics with bouncy melodies is as deceiving as Dahmer himself; they may be clean cut and nice looking, but their beef is anyone's guess.

(continued from previous page)

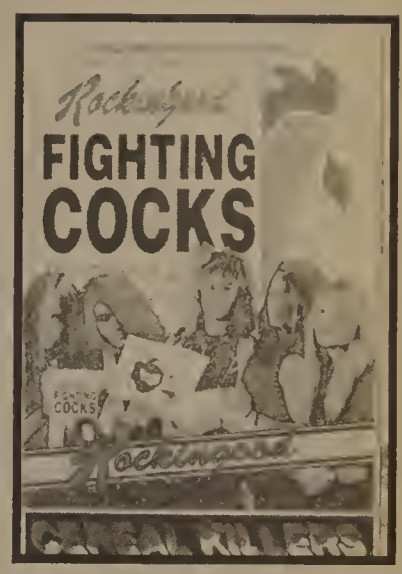
-Rey Roldan

The Soup Dragons Hotwired

"Everlasting," "Forever / Yesterday," seventh heaven. "Absolute Heaven," The Rolling Stones. The hit song "Pleasure," is Jim McCulloch on guitar (but not the guy from Wings cause he kicked off at about 18 years of age, and was good friends with Jo Jo Laine), reincarnated again on "Everything," "Mindless" and "Running Wild."

Gary Rubin at Polygram in Woburn handed my ex this CD for me to review. The Soup Dragons have everything but the kitchen sink in their soup. T.Rex, the Fixx, Psychedelic Furs, Tribe - even their own lyrics seem to keep re-appearing in this mix.



Very listenable, very pleasurable, but who will they be 8 months from now? Not one of Janis' conquests, I can assure you.

- Janis Reed

The Fighting Cocks
The Fighting Cocks

I bet The Fighting Cocks have a lot of Aerosmith records at home. The four piece local band displays all the best and worst things about hard-cock rock in their four song self-titled e.p.

This isn't anything that people haven't heard before, but the bluesy-metal is delivered with style by the band who were runners up in this year's WBCN Rock 'N Roll Rumble.

Vocalist Jamie Sever's typical banshee wail is at its best on the opening track "Sleeping with Mrs. Jones." The rest of the tracks are in a similar vein, as the band flirts with a bad boy image and plays many guitar solos. Good music to drink beer to on a Saturday night, but not much more.

- David Fenigsohn

COMING NEXT ISSUE:

The Smithereens
Norman Greenbaum
The Neighborhoods

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD, 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 t'o 9, WZLX's "Sportsrock" is broadcasted live inside.

•ALLEY CAT , 451-6200, t Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated s'ingles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short fine, but its worth the wait. No cover.

•ALLEY PUB, 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peac'eful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of "play" on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites.

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE, 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT, 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about," what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•ARBUCKLES, 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated Between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual bu"t the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON, 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also"bo"asts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes requir"ed. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night.

•AVENUE C, 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos., A chichl dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases afte"r 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights.

Thur 11th.--5 Gone Mad Thur 18th.--The Del Fuegos

•AXIS, 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested.

Wed 10th.--Spread Eagle Fri 12th.--Jah Wobble

•BEACON HILL PUB, , 49 Charles St., Bos.. "A scene straight out of Star Wars" reads the "Worst of Boston" award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freel"y with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN, 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos.. Self-proclaimed the "happiest tavern in Boston", this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm.

•BILL'S BAR, 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, p"rogramed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed.

•BLACK GOOSE, 6t7-720-4500, 2t Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an "I love jazz" attitude on your sleeve. No cover.

Thur 11th.--Appearing Thurs thru Sat members of the Brian Walkey Band from 7:30 to 11:30pm Mon 15th.–live piano music Mon thru Fri from 5-7 pm

•BLACK ROSE, 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos.. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is ho"me spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at "your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress.

•BOATHOUSE, 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb.. A Harvard Square Institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands ou"t to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price.

•BORDER CAFE, 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb.. If you're not In a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned "with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB, 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often liv"e. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

•BOSTON BILLIARDS, 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Voted #t billiard club In the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd Is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Fr"ee pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE, 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos.. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No c"over. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD, 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos.. An active gay bar In the Fenway area. Patrons range In age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT, 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there Isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB, 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb.. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE, 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS), 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the B"ull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S, 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code.

•CACTUS CLUB, 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos.. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prair"ie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress.

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY, 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb.. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Gold and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress." Pub tare served. Live bands Sat. Free appetizers weekdays 5-7pm.

Sat 13th.--Chuck Morris Sat 20th.--Bad Art Ensemble

•CANTAB LOUNGE, 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Central Sqare's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES, 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb.. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

•CASABLANCA, 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks "are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped.

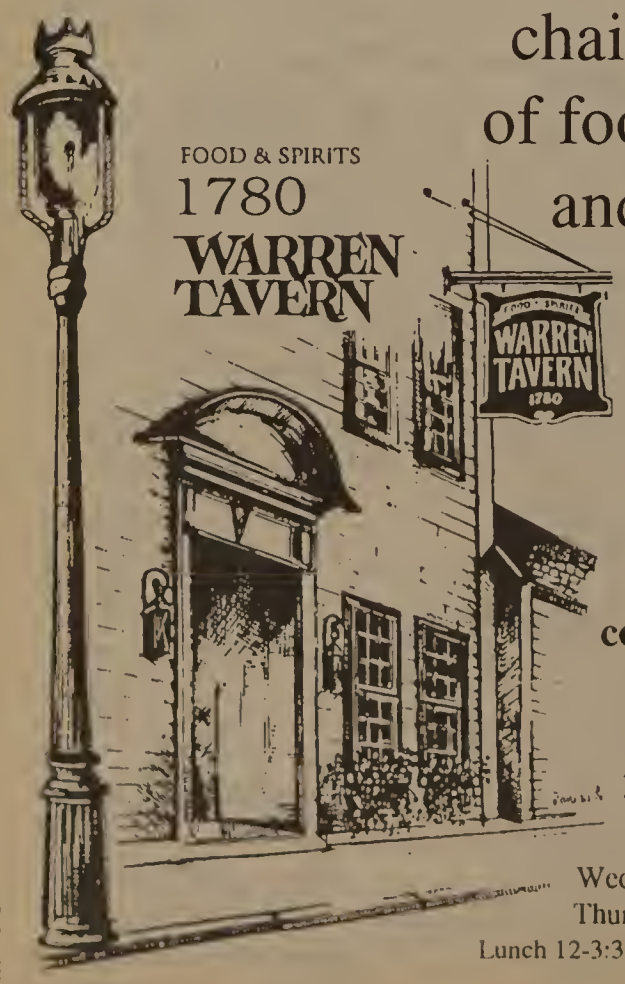
•CASK, 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. F"ree appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games.

•CELEBRATION, 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Teenybopping Kenmore style, Is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix "of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes.

•CHAMPION'S, 236-5800, t10 Huntington Ave., Bos.. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's Is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young protessionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very wef'l be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S, 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and focals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest "cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.

Thur 11th.--Jen Trynin and Kevin McCluskey Fri 12th.--Laura Wood with McDonnell and Tane Sat 13th.--Masia Shuron Harris Sun 14th--Jim Infantino with Fuzek and Rossoni Thur 18th.--Dawna Hammers and Highway Acoustics Fri 19th.--Peter Calo Sat 20th.--Martin Sexton Sun 21st.--Rick Berlin and John Yannis



•CITYSIDE, 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Ni"ghtly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

•CLARKE'S, 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos.. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect" a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant

•CLUB 3, 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the

Don't get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable livingroom chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over two hundred years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty-five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country; 212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:30-12:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00
Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30, Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

Rebel Yell: Two Pianos equals Twice the Fun

by Tobin Streett

Picture two pianists staring across matching baby grand pianos at each other - teeth gritted while dueling back and forth with only a song as their weapon. People clap and sing along - all the while sipping drinks and nibbling on pub food as conversation flows and two piano players tickle the ivories with all the vigor of a speed freak on his fourth glass of Jolt Cola. Welcome to Rebel Yell.

Rebel Yell is situated in a sea of dance clubs on Boston's nightclub avenue - Lansdowne Street.

Situated like an afterthought at the end of Lansdowne, the Yell sits nestled in between Bill's Bar and Jillians Billiards. Once inside, you'll notice some very distinct differences between this club and others on the road. For starters, you can actually see inside. And conduct a conversation without feeling obligated to purchase a megaphone for your next visit. At Rebel Yell, a good time comes in all colors and sounds (they're just a little softer).

Rebel Yell is a piano bar. As one of the Lansdowne Street's newer establishments, Rebel Yell is an attempt to provide the more mellow cat of the late night crowd with an alternative to the pounding beats and black-clothed vampires normally spotted along the sidewalks. If you enjoy listening to live piano music played by pianists who are pretty damn tough to stump on requests, then this is the place.

Aynsley Floyd

Twin dueling pianos are the main attraction at Rebel Yell.

Four house pianists - Chuck Christianson, Arthur Offen, Kevin Clover and Cindy Chen - entertain the crowds here (most of whom make Friday and Saturdays the most popular nights). Manager Matthew Ahern says, "We imported these players from Cincinnati and Georgia. They've all played dueling piano in similar bars before." In fact, the idea for Rebel Yell came from Michael Lavery, who had worked in similarly styled bars in the past.

Rebel Yell is an alternative to the kin of alternative bars on Lansdowne Street. The crowd ranges from students to young professionals who all seek a place to listen - not dance - to music. With two bars and a menu featuring what Ahern calls "pub food ranging from Chicken sandwiches and hamburgers to skins and nachos," Rebel Yell provides the necessary comforts required to listen to some great piano tunes. The performers hit the keys from 8pm to 2am every night of the week except Sunday, and boy, do they rock. You'll hear all of your favorites - and if you're smart enough to rub a little green in their tip jars, you'll almost be guaranteed to hear what you want. This is a piano bar "of the people and for the people." ❑ weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

Wed 10th.--Urban Acoustic Dude, Junky Donkey and The Speaker Thur 11th.--Legacy, Sarvella and Midnight Angel Fri 12th.--Collectics doing a double set split up with One Big Room Sat 13th.--Falcon, Free Society and The Lonely Guy Sun 14th--Amyl's Demo Tape and Jam Night from 7-11 Wed 17th--House of Fire and The Insurance Thur 18th.--New Speak, Returnables and Back Lash Frf 19th.--Ultra Blue, House of Cards and Rescue Squad Sat 20th.--Gas Food Lodging, The Fables and Hangnail Sun 21st.--Amyl's Demo Tape and Jam Nite 7-11

•CLUB M-80, 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A New York/Euro-styie club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music' is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances.

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY, 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos.. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!

Fri 12th.--Kirkland Bodie Fri 19th.--Kirkland Bodie Sat 20th.--One Peopie

•COPPERFIELD'S, 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must.

•COTTONWOOD CAFE, 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months.

•CRICKET'S, 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. A cappella singing Tue.-Thur. Live Jazz Sun.-Mon.

•DAD'S DINER, 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos.. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S, 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos.. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS, 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR, 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos.. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear.

•DIVISION 16, 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress..

•DOCKSIDE, 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos.. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs.

•ED BURKE'S, 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos.. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual..

Thur 11th.--Stub Junkman Fri 12th.--Tailor Made Sat 13th.--Johnny Clyde Copeland Mon 15th.-- Thur 18th.--Ray Greene and Universal Language Fri 19th.--Phillip Walker Blues Band Sat 20th.--John Connor

•EDIBLE REX, 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required.

•ELIOT LOUNGE, 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches.

•FRED P. OTT'S, 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos.. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line.

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL, 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment.

•GREEN BRIAR, 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress.

Wed 10th.--Karaoke every Wed. Thur 11th.--Dennis Healy Band Fri 12th.--Classic Five Sat 13th.--4 to the Bar Sun 14th--Every Sun. is DJ Chris Mon 15th.--Irish Session happens every Mon. Tue 16th--Tim Crandall Thur 18th.--Mark Morris and the Cat-Tunes Fri 19th.--4 to the Bar Sat 20th.--4 to the Bar Tue 23rd.--Tim Crandall

•GRENDEL'S DEN, 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb.. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code.

•GROG, 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy).

Thur 11th.--The Roads Fri 12th.--Gary Shane and The Free Radicals Sat 13th.--The Rick Russell Band Sun 14th--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. from 6-11pmPeter Giltos Mon 15th.--Cabaret is every Monday from 8-10pm Thur 18th.--Search Party Fri 19th.--The Steve Canty Band Sat 20th.--The Nor' Easters

•GROVERS, (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

•HARBOR CLUB, 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos.. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons.

•HARD ROCK CAFE, 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos.. Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway.

•HARPER'S FERRY, 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required.

Wed 10th.--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Thur 11th.--Barence Whitfield and The Savages and theThe Bruce Marshall Group Fri 12th.--Young Neil and The Vipers and Bones of Contention Sat 13th.--Boston Baked Blues Sun 14th--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 15th.--The Paciliers Tue 16th--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!) Thur 18th.--T.H. and The Wreckage and The Bruce Marshall Group Fri 19th.--Appearing Fri. and Sat. Nite The Band That Time Forgot Mon 22nd.--Word Of Mouth

•HONG KONG LOUNGE, 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll

BARS & CLUBS

The greatest sites in history are on the horizon.

The Vantage Points of BOSTON PROJECT

Copyright 1992 Steven M.Walker Clear AdVantage Design Co.

Rising Soon...

need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S, 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best SIngles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS, 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos.. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu.

•INDIGO, 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb.. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code.

•JACOB WIRTH'S, 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos.. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS, 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos.. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards,

•KINVARA PUB, 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code..

Wed 10th.--5-0 Thur 11th.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Fri 12th.--4 to the Bar Sat 13th.--Swinging Johnsons Sun 14th--Every Sunday is the Irish Session 9-12pm Mon 15th.--Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 16th--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues. Fri 19th.--Look Alikes Sat 20th.--Look Alikes

•LAST HURRAH, 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos.. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors James Michael Curley, for additional information on this former Boston Mayor's controversial past, call Don Aucoin at the Boston Globe 929-3000, ext. 3060, while you're at it, inquire about the award he received for outstanding journalism. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights.

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE, 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos.. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S , 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code.

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S, 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Mattress students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. No cover.. ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal..

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE, 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Frl. 5-7:30pm.

•JOHNNY D'S , 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing..

Wed 10th.--Jaime Brockett Thur 11th.--From Eunice LA John Delafose and the Eunice Playboys Frl 12th.--Maceo Parker Sat 13th.--Del Fuegos and the Dennis Brennan Band Sun 14th--Blues Jam From 4-8pm and African House with Ibrahima Tue 16th--Orrin Star Wed 17th--Athena Thur 18th.--Country Rock Band the Courage Brothers and Pat Wallace Frl 19th.--11 piece Rythm and Blues Band the Animal Train Sat 20th.--Sun Rhythm Section with Sonny Burgess, DJ Fontana and Paul Burlusin

•KENDALL CAFE, 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb.. This cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment . Cover on Mondays only. No dress code.

•MANRAY, 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb.. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged..

Wed 10th.--Every Wed. is Industrial Rage Sat 13th.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE, 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress.

•MAXWELL JUMPS, , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor..

Wed 10th.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 11th.--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 12th.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 13th.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 15th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 16th--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR, 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos.. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS, 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance club located near downtown crossing and the Boston Opera House. The crowd consists of mostly young professionals. Proper dress., Open for lunch and dinner.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT, 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb.. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere..

Wed 10th.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Sat 13th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Mon 15th.--Jazz 8-12pm Wed 17th--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Sat 20th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Mon 22nd.--Jazz 8-12pm

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE, 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of fab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. .

•MR. DOOLEY'S, 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from 11 to 5 followed by a selsiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartenders!! You never know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint)..

Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX, 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos.. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB, 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos.. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat..

•NARCISSUS, 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE, 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb.. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Wed 10th.--Blues Master Jorma Kaukonen of Jefferson Airplane and Hot Tuna on stage at 9:00 Thur 11th.--CD release party for Drumming On Glass Fri 12th.--From Cameroon and presented by World Music Les Tetes Brulees Wed 17th--Blues Favorite Taj Mahal Thur 18th.--Back To Boston from Boulder Co. The Acoustic Junction Sun 21st.--The Long Awaited return of John Martyn

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB, 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos.. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and International acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show.

Sat 13th.--The Arc Angles and Slash Jordan Fri 19th.--Pale Saints Sat 20th.--Leon Russell

•PASSIM , 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb.. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

•PERRY'S, 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night

Todd Feinsmith ESQ.
Brown Freed Resnick & Gesmer Law Firm
& Laurie Morin of Boston V.L.A.

Thank you for putting a dream into reality.
Steven M. Walker
Clear AdVantage Design

BARS & CLUBS

away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-t1pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S, 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

Fri 12th.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA, 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos.. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS, 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE, 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos.. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night.

•PURPLE SHAMROCK, 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos.. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu.

Thur 11th.--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 16th--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER, 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code.

• REBEL YELL, 247-1222, 1 Lansdowne St., Bos. .. This latest addition to Lansdowne Street comes in the form of a turbocharged piano bar. If you've ever spent a Mardi Gras in New Orleans living on Hurricanes at Pat O'Brien's, you'll understand the motivation behind Rebel Yell. Inside you'll find throngs of participants singing to the high energy music of two head to head baby grands playing an energetic combination of rock and roll, r&b, country, TV themes and novelty tunes. Open Tue-Sat 6-2, no dress code, no cover before 8 pm. M/V/AMEX

• RED HAT, 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos.. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGATTABAR, 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb.. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.

•RITZ BAR, 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos.. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•ROXANNE'S SOUNDSTAGE, 773-3401, 79 Parkingway, Quincy. This brand spanking new club located right in Quincy Center makes no bones about being strictly rock and roll. Attracting both local and national acts, live music is one of their top priorities. Casual atmosphere. Cover varies with the act. Most shows start at 8..

•ROXY, 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos.. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required..

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB, 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb.. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress.

•SCULLERS LOUNGE, 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb.. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..

Wed 10th.--Donal Fox and John Stubblefield Thur 11th.--Special Guest Claudio Roditi with the Alain Mallet Ensemble Fri 12th.--Fri and Sat Carol Sloane is appearing with Colin Baley, Steph Scaggiari and John Lockwood Tue 16th--Brad Hatfield with George Garzone, Ed Friedland and Jim Gwyn Wed 17th--Myanna plus special guest Kristine Key Thur 18th.--Thurs-Sat Junior Walker and The All Stars Tue 23rd.--A tribute to the Stan Getz, Jimmy Raney Quintet. Featuring Mitch Seidman, Tony Zano and Alex Elin

•SEVENS, 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos.. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S, , 59 JFK St., Camb.. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress.

•STOCKS AND BONDS, 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos.. Hit it big in the market, the meet market that is. Mingle with investment types from the nearby brokerage firms during the day and with young collegiate and professionals at night when Stocks and Bonds turns into a lively dance club. Situated near Faneuil Hall. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts..

•SWEETWATER CAFE, 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE, 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code

Wed 10th.--From England, Senseless Thing Fri 12th.--Lyres and Rising Storm Sat 13th.--Captain America Wed 17th--Cud Thur 18th.--Kingmaker Fri 19th.--Shonen Knife Sat 20th.--Babes In Toyland

•T'S PUB, 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER, 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress.

Wed 10th.--Pipes and Agusta Furnace Thur 11th.--King Kanes Junko Partners with Dave Champange and Freestyle Fri 12th.--The Subterraneans and The Swinging Steaks Sat 13th.--The Incredible Casuals Sun 14th--Mike Duke and The Soul Twisters Mon 15th.--OPEN JAM 10-2am Tue 16th--Tsunami Poets record release party Wed 17th--Absolute Thur 18th.--Talking to Animals Fri 19th.--Laurie Sargent Sat 20th.--Letters to Cleo and The Barnies Sun 21st.--Songwriters 21 Showcase(benefit for childrens Aids program) Mon 22nd.--Jazz Night Tue 23rd.--Nevermore and Mark Nelson

•THE CLADDAGH, 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress.

Wed 10th.--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•THE LITTLEST BAR, 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays

•33 DUNSTER STREET, 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch.

•TIA'S, 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm

•VENUS DE MILO, 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted.

•WALLY'S, 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat

Mon 15th.--Blues Night Mon 22nd.--Blues Night

•WARREN TAVERN, 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St., Boston. A funky little bar whose clientiele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is alwayson for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive.

•WESTERN FRONT, 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress

•WHO'S ON FIRST, 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB, 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code

Wed 10th.--The Fringe performs every Wednesday!

•ZANZIBAR, 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos This large two-story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. Cover varies. Jacket and tie required

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Cambridge Brewing Company

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

WEDNESDAYS
Reggae Night
Live Bands
R.D. Riddim June 10th
Nodda Clue June 17th
Jammin' Tunes
Cool Cats
Cold Beer
$3 Cover

THURSDAYS
Dance
DJ Mike Lynch
Spinner
Extraordinaire
Playing Your Favorites
$1 Cover

ALLEY CAT LOUNGE

"Where Cool Cats Meet To Tip A Few Back"

1 Boylston Place • Boston • USA • 451-6200

Bring in this portion of our ad with as many friends as you can round up !
ALL OF YOU
GET IN FREE ON THURSDAY
OR FOR $2 EACH ON WEDNESDAY
Expires May 31, 1992

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

King Henry.
Let's see what a faithful friend you are. If you get this message, you win a free trip to Atlantic City!
-Wellyn

L-face,
From what I hear you are one outta control mama. You are sadly mistaken if you think finding you waiting on the door step is a welcome sight.
Gettagriptrollop.

NYU-
Summer living was never so expensive. I guess the Voice will have to wait another year.

Heidi,
Your hands were so soft when they held mine last night, let's make a habit of doing our laundry together. I can't believe you've been listening to all my problems, thanks girlfriend.

To the guy in Kenmore Square-
Blondes do have more fun but you're sure as hell not going to find out!

Whitey White,
You angel face, I think you must be too good to be true. Keep calling. I'm starved for attention.

To the sex-god at the Panino,
I missed you while you were gone. When are you going to take me out for a cappuccino? You know who.

Benno-
You sold out when you prostituted yourself for Whittle. Will Rodin get yet another promotion?
-A disillusioned Yalie

Pam,
You owe me $70 unless Sara pulls through. My Visa bill is not happy.

M. Star-
Why the hell would you move to Austin? Haven't you seen the Texas Chainsaw Massacre?

Hey Cheeky Cat! You don't have to offer me a newly buffed body as an incentive to wait around for you to finish school. I'd wait forever. Love, Cheeky Bird

SK-
Yet another anonymous note. Keep away from those receptionists. They'll ruin your image.
-Your Boston Grapevine

Danny Q.-
You deal with your own stupidities and let me handle my baby. The nation does not approve of your attempt to prove your masculinity.
-Murphy B.

Ross Perot-
You say you have no platform, so why have you already begun excluding people from your cabinet? Your true colors are showing. Let's see how your popularty dwindles.

Mike M.,
Don't you feel stupid paying $50 a week for a mattress on the living room floor? If you cook, you can move in for a while. Maybe.
-JL(not John Lee!)

To the guy who gave me an azalea bush for my birthday:
When I put the plant outside, I didn't realize it was in danger of being torn from the ground, ripped to pieces, and thrown all over my porch. I'm sorry, but I'm not interested. There was no need to drag an innocent bush into all this. We are not amused.

Marty-
Drugs! I need drugs!

Rock Box Mikey G. Thanks for keeping me entertained. May the Source be with you.

My housemates on Babcock Street,
I'm employed!!! I'll miss watching the WLVI Kids Club with you. Say hi to the Bradys, the Flintstones, and Bugs for me. I expect my dinner to be on the table when I get home.
-Deb

Whitey, You angel face, I can't wait to get to know you. Keep calling, I'm starved for attention.
- I'm much more patient.

To the major babe at the Panino,
Glad you got your job back, I sure did miss you. When are you going to take me out for a cappucino? You know who.

To A not so upset anymore Habs fan;
The glory and enjoyment of watching the beating the B's put on the Habs, far outweighs the disappointment in Pittsburgh. You're a disgrace to be living in Boston, so move back to Montreal you stinking Habs fan.
Signed, A B's fan forever.

To my Mommy,
I can't tell you how happy I am to have you here. I am fully counting on you helping me to get my life (and apt.) back in order. Your loving, improper daughter.

Evan,
Mon amie nouveau, hope you squashed your opponnent, and continue to ride the culinary swell you're on. Glad we were able to re-inspire each other. See you when I get back. EWC

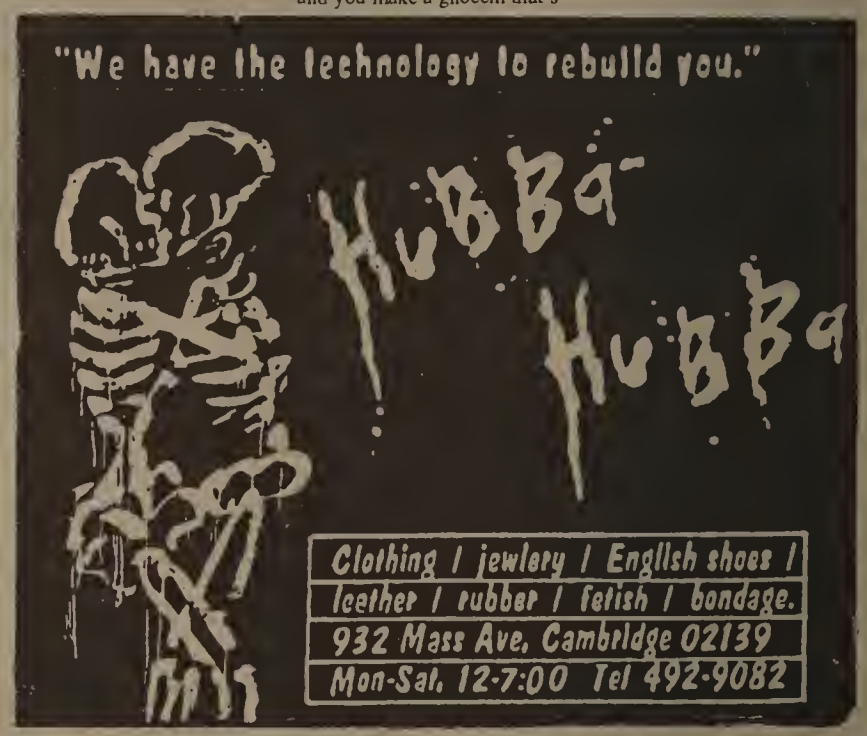
MB, I can't tell you how much I missed you while you were gone. I had to talk to myself at 2 in the morning when I got the urge.
P.S. It's not heathy to eat too many peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. Love from, the church lady.

Dolly, Love and kisses from your NYC crew, Absolut thanks for your insight and help. Sincerely, your hotel mates.

Roberto, roses are red, violets are blue, talk to a new Sam before the summer's through.

Hey Veggie, you tasted great doused in carrot juice, now how 'bout trying the life of a carnivore?

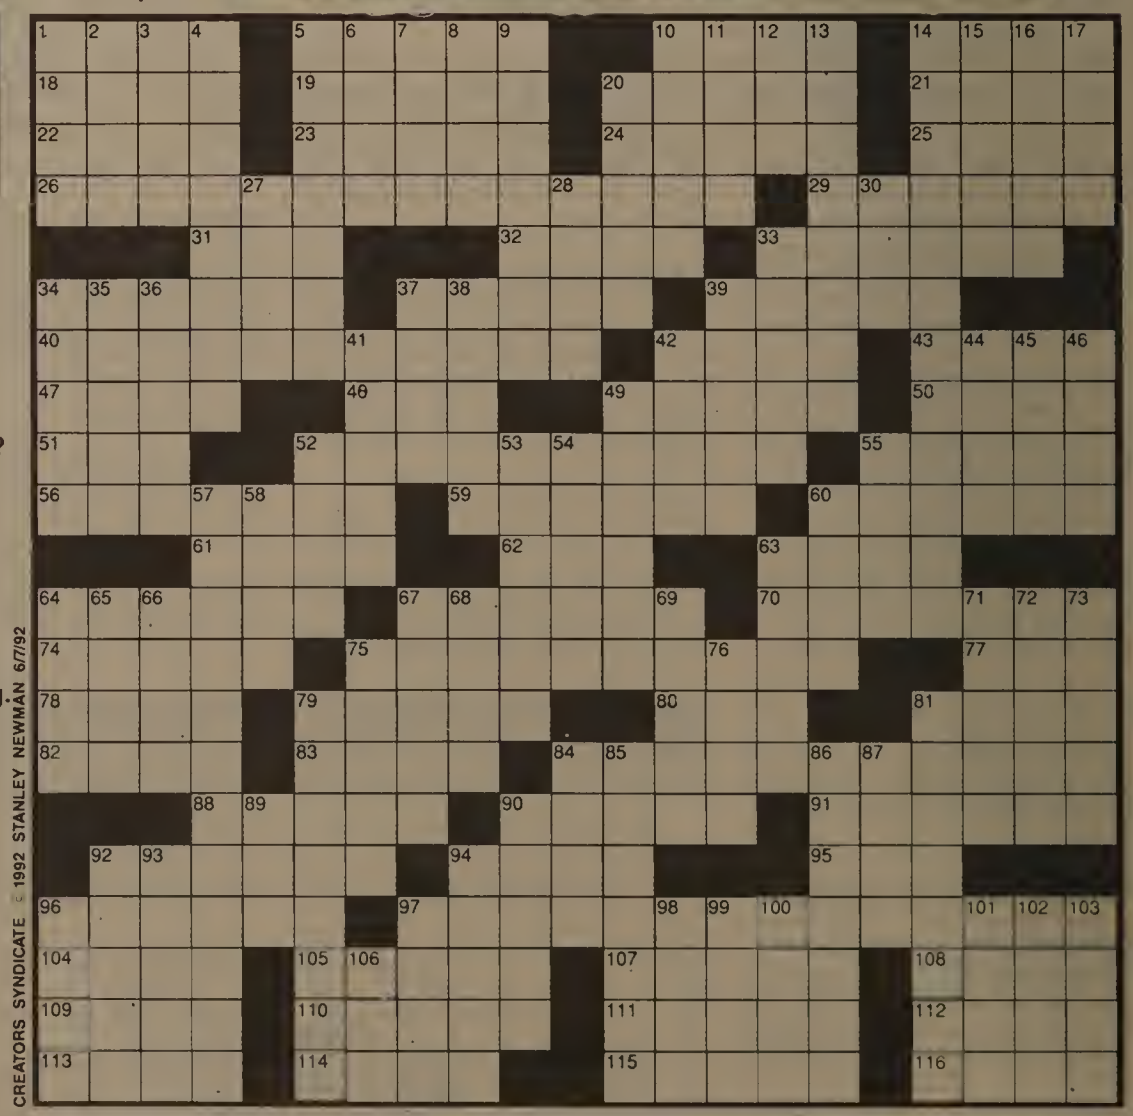
Darling Sarah, you just don't get it, do you? I know what you did, keep looking here to find out exactly what I and the rest of the world will soon know. Your ex.



Cathy, you know, adultery is one of the worst sins. What would your kids say if they knew? A word from the wise, get a grip on your marrage and get your life in order before its too late.

Paparazzi, next time you squeeze my breasts in public, I'll give you a drop kick so hard, it will raise your voice three octaves.
A vengeful model.

Hey, hey mama. Your spaghetti and meatball dinners are superb and you make a gnocchi that's unbeatable, but you'll have to shed at least 40 pounds before I'll consider being seen in public with you.



Live and die in 3/4 time. It's your ticket to success. From your ghost of Christmas future.

If my memory serves me correctly, you promised five years ago that you'd find a new husband. Get a grip and axe the bum.
Your closest confidant.

THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman
WHODUNIT: Detective wordplay
by Shirley Soloway

CREATORS SYNDICATE © 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN 6/7/92

ACROSS
1 Fabricated
5 Check for flavor
10 Navigates on snow
14 British baby buggy
18 Corrosive chemical
19 Choir members
20 Milan's La __
21 Healthy
22 __ En-lai
23 Claims on property
24 Alaska souvenir
25 Graven image
26 Clownish detective?
29 Beauty spots
31 Roddy McDowall role of '68
32 Well-ordered
33 Break time
34 Valuable violins
37 Org. cofounded by Victor Herbert
39 Aviary sound
40 Irascible detective?
42 "Down by the __ Canal" (Cohan tune)
43 Miss Ellie, to J.R.
47 Big name
48 "Pardonnez __!"
49 Swung around
50 Dutch import
51 Poetic night
52 Sewing detective?
55 Flat surface
56 Bounty hunter, often
59 Can't stand
60 Chief Justice Chase
61 Bowlers, but not golfers
62 "Eureka!"
63 Lombardy lake
64 Candidates' forum
67 Horse operas
70 New Mexico city
74 Not in the dark
75 Sharp detective?
77 Opponent
78 Creator of Felix and Oscar
79 Public Citizen, Inc. founder
80 Vaudeville routine
81 Dog bane
82 Sparkling-wine spot
83 Saint-Tropez summers
84 Muscular detective?
88 Typo, e.g.
90 Rebel Without a Cause actor
91 Makes happy
92 Ameche's Oscar film
94 Gelatin shaper
95 Board insert
96 American nut
97 Musical detective?
104 "Diana" singer
105 Mount the soapbox
107 Partner of 109 Across
108 Hard to hold
109 Partner of 107 Across
110 Desert spots
111 Stamp-back substances
112 Jamie Farr's outstanding feature
113 Legal wrong
114 __ up (spill the beans)
115 Emma of Dynasty
116 Moore poem starter

DOWN
1 Speed-of-sound word
2 Dull pain
3 "New Look" designer
4 Horace Mann, by profession
5 Sears Tower description
6 "I cannot tell __"
7 Short distance
8 Author Morrison
9 Basic nature
10 Go quickly
11 Paul Drake, Jr. portrayer
12 __ de France
13 Fast detective?
14 Easygoing detective?
15 Radioactive gas
16 In the course of 17 Diner in Alice
20 Watchband
27 __ arms (outraged)
28 Bring up
30 "We __ not amused"
33 More bashful
34 Store's inventory, e.g.
35 Bishop's headdress
36 Maytag rival
37 Out of control
38 Got a look at 39 Dressing holder
41 Mideast rulers
42 Stately trees
44 Eliot's __ Bede
45 __' War (racehorse)
46 So be it
49 Like cheap mascara
52 Dole (out)
53 Auto part
54 The heavens
55 Dawber and Shriver
57 Singing detective?
58 Actress Capshaw
60 One of these days
63 Irakllon's locale
64 Carvey of Wayne's World
65 Wool sources
66 Worms, often
67 Charles, vis-à-vis Andrew
68 Pub orders
69 Emulate Witt
71 Musical key
72 Camelot composer
73 Depends (on)
75 Shirley of Goldfinger
76 Early communications satellite
79 Barking detective?
81 Odd piece
84 Occupy
85 Raining cats __
86 Hold back
87 Cheese choice
89 Sturgeon-to-be
90 Double agents
92 Poem part
93 Actor Werner
94 Horn accessories
96 Play roster
97 Pitched low?
98 __ podrida
99 Woebegone
100 Per __ worker
101 Maltese remark
102 CNN fashion reporter Klensch
103 Crusty breads
106 Comedienne Charlotte

Bonaduce Interview

(continued from pg. 13)

row. I've done my sleeping," he says in reference to his years of drug use and delinquency. "Hopefully, I'll be doing an HBO comedy special soon. Originally, I wanted to call it Danny Bonaduce - Live From the Court House Steps [in Phoenix] but my attorney said it was a bad idea. Poor timing."

As for a Partridge Family reunion, Bonaduce has his doubts but says that if it was suggested, he would most likely join in on the fun. "I certainly would. I'm a disc jockey. I have no pride. There's such an interest in this whole nostalgia thing right now. We (the ex-Partridge Family actors) all keep in touch by proxy because I keep in touch with David, he keeps in touch with Shirley and so on."

Contrary to what some may think, Danny never actually played the bass on the show. "Nope. We were the original Milli Vanilli." Though he never played on any of the albums, he admits to enjoying the music. "I think my favorite song was Echo Valley 26809."

That song and a whole lot more of their favorites could be heard on a recent David Cassidy tour, part of which showcased the talents of Bonaduce. He opened for Cassidy's recent tour, which, in a laughable way, reunited the two in an eerily similar role to that of their TV characters. "I almost didn't do the first tour. I'm 30 years old and I'm riding around the country in a bus with David Cassidy! I thought it was a step back. I'd be on the bus and David would come in and knock on my door and say, 'Danny, is everything o.k. in there?' It was a nice thing to do. I think that he thought that I was getting into trouble again."

As for today's troubled child stars, Bonaduce has little sympathy for any of them. "When I was getting into trouble back then, I was hanging out with my friends who weren't in the business. If you ask me about these kids today, I think they're a bunch of wimps and should shut up and get jobs."

Bonaduce's show ends with a 20 minute question and answer session open to anyone in the audience - even transvestites. Sounds like a night of comedy with Danny Bonaduce could be pretty darn fun, huh? ❑

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

JUNE

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10 BAL 7:35	11 TOR 7:35	12 TOR 7:35	13 TOR 1:05
14 TOR 1:35	15 NY 7:35	16 NY 7:35	17 NY 7:35	18 NY 6:05	19 TEX 8:35	20 TEX 9:05
21 TEX 8:05	22 DET 7:35	23 DET 7:35	24 DET 1:35	25	26 MIL 7:35	27 MIL 1:05
28 MIL 1:05	29 DET 7:35	30 DET 7:35

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 DET 7:35	2 CHI 8:05	3 CHI 8:05	4 CHI 7:05
5 CHI 2:35	6 KC 7:35	7 KC 7:35	8 KC 7:35	9 CHI 7:35	10 CHI 7:35	11 CHI 1:05
12 CHI 1:05	13	14	15	16 MIN 8:05	17 MIN 8:05	18 MIN 1:05
19 MIN 2:05	20 KC 8:35	21 KC 8:35	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 7:35	19 CAL 7:35	20 CAL 7:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 30 CAL	24 OAK 31 SEA	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:05	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 NY 1:05

TV GAMES ON
WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

Away
Home

HOT TICKET

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

June 11 k.d.Lang
Portland City Hall, ME ($26.50/$19.50)

June 13 Tracy Chapman
Great Woods, ($22.50-$15.00)

June 17-July 26 Annie Leibovitz Exhibit
Institute of Contemporary Art, ($5.00)

June 19-20 Crosby, Stills & Nash
Great Woods, ($25.00/$15.00)

June 22 Ringo Starr & His All Star Band
Great Woods, ($27.50-$18.50)

June 26 Spinal Tap
Great Woods, ($17.50)

June 27-28 Mostly Mozart Festival Orchestra
Great Woods, ($35.00/$25.00/$15.00/$5.00 lawn)

BAY STATE TICKET

Wang Center:
Kirov Ballet - Romeo and Juliet	6/17
Phontom of the Opero	9/5
Worcester Centrum Events:
Bruce Springsteen	8/13, 8/14
Neil Diomond	8/28 - 8/30
Foxboro Stadium Events:
Guns N' Roses / Metallico	7/31
U2	8/20, 8/22
Great Woods Events:
Jimmy Buffett	7/9, 7/10 ond 7/11
George Thorogood / Little Feot	8/6
Lollapalooza '92	8/7 - 8/8
Michael Bolton	8/15
James Taylor	8/27 - 8/29

We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold

(617) 731- 4588

American Security Bureau

American Security Bureau is a multi-service security company. At A.S.B. we offer the highest degree of competence, courtesy and professionalism on all work assignments no matter how large or small.
Most of our employees have ten plus years experience in various aspects of the security field.

Services Offered
- Bodyguards: Armed and Unarmed
- Repossession Work
- Escort Services
- Investigative Work
- Bounty Tracers
- Alarm Installation (Commercial and Resdential)
- Security Consulting Seminars

A.S.B is a fully insured and bonded, incorporated security company.

24 HOUR SERVICE
945-4269
5 Daniel Ct.
Hyde Park , MA 02136

It costs less than you think.

Advertise in The Improper Bostonian and have your ad seen in 80,000 issues every two weeks.
For more info contact our advertising department at (617)232-3507

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

Edited by
Suzanne MacRae

BOATING

Boston Sailing Center
54 Lewis Wharf, Boston
On Saturday, June 20 from 1 to 6pm Boston Sailing Center is hosting free sailboat rides along the waterfront.For more info call 227-4198

CONCERTS

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall on Mass. Ave., Boston
266-1492
Usual Cost: $19 to $52.50
Rush Tickets: $6 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Tues.-Thur. and Sat., with shows beginning at 5pm. Doors open at 6:15pm. Fri. ticket sales begin at 9am for 2pm shows (cost is $10).
Open Rehearsals: $9.50 (limit one per customer). Symphony Hall.
Available: Wed. 7:30pm. Thur. 10:30am.
A pre-concert lecture is offered one hour prior to curtain for all ticket holders. Wed. and Fri. lectures start at 6:30pm. Thur. lecture is at 9:30pm.

Dartmouth Courtyard Lunchtime Jazz Series
Off Dartmouth St.next to Copley Place
WCDJ hosts a jazz series for lunchtime pleasure. June 11: Brad Hatfield Quintet, June 18: Tony Lada/ Larry Monroe Sextet

The Surrey Room
381 Summer St., Davis Sq. , Somerville
Every Sunday night from 8 to 11:45 pm the Cellar Dwellers Blues Band and Circus from Hell play at Surrey Room. Admission is free.

EXHIBITS

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Usual Cost: $4 all persons.
$1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun. Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays. The Annie Leibovitz exhibit opens on June 17 and runs until July 26. The exhibit is open seven days a week from 10am to 9pm. Tickets are only $5 and can be purchased in advance thru the ICA or Ticketmaster.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
267-9377
Usual Cost: $6 adults, $4 children
Free Admission: Wed. 4-6pm and every day for students of most local colleges (with presentation of valid ID):

FILMS

Bill's Bar
Landsdown St., Boston
Every Monday night BIll's hosts Monday night Movie Madness. SRS Films shows independent films and music videos before the evenings featured film. Films start at 9pm. Admission is free and free popcorn is served.

Boston University
George Sherman Union, 775 Comm Ave, Boston
BU's summer film festival has begun and will continue on every Tues. at 7pm until August 4 in the Conference room of the GSU. On June 16 is Truth or Dare and June 23 is Dominick and Eugene.

Boston Film/Video Foundation
1126 Boylston St. Boston
On Saturday, June 13 at 8pm is the Boston Film Collective Film Festival which highlights short films by local Filmmakers. Admission is $6 and $5 for students.and proceeds buy film for local filmmakers.

LECTURES

AIDS Action Committee
131 Clarendon St., Boston
On Thurs. June 18 from 6:30 to 8:30 pm in room 401 there is a free and confidential seminar to answer the financial,legal and job related questions of those who have tested HIV positive. For more info contact Ellen West at 437-6200, ext 281.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
To help celebrate Architecture Month. the Museum is hosting Kids Build, an exhibit that allows kids to team up with professional architects to build their own cities. The exhibit is free with regular museum admission. Times are June 19, 12-7pm, June 20,21 12-5pm.

TOURS

Boston Society of Architects
For Architecture month the Society is sponsoring Inside The Firms, open houses at architecture firms on June 20 form 5-7pm. Admission is free. For info call 951-1433

Christian Science Publishing Society
1 Norway St.(off Dartmouth), Boston
Walk through the world in a giant globe made out of stained glass. The Mapparium,has a 30 foot diameter and 24 hr. clocks that show the time zone in any region. Don't forget the experience the acoustics. Admission is free. Hours are every day 9:30 to 4pm.

Commonwealth Brewing Co.
138 Portland St., Boston
The Brewing Co. holds tours of their facility on Saturdays at 3:30 and Sundays at noon. The tours are free.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain 522-908
On Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at 12 and 2pm, the Brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a $1 contribution is requested.

ZOOS

Arnold Arboretum
Jamaica Plain
524-1717
Harvard University's Arnold Arboretum is a living museum, featuring more than 14,000 trees, vines and shrubs. Self-guided tour maps are available at the visitors' center; call to see which flowers are currently in bloom. Public transportation from the Orange Line (Forest Hills stop) or Copley Square (Bus #39). May 17 is Lilac Sunday.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
973-5200
Usual Cost: $7.50, $3.50 for kids.
Sea lion show starts at 6:30pm. The aquarium currently features "Fantasy, Fears and Fish," an exhibit that examines the myths and realities behind the creatures of the sea.
Hours: Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm; Thurs., 9am-8pm; Fri., 9am-5pm; Sat., Sun., and Holidays, 9am-6pm. Admission booth closes one-half hour before the main building.

We welcome submissions of free and discount events to this section. Please send pertinent information including prices, dates, telephone number and contact person to: Free Boston, The Improper Bostonain, c/o Suzanne MacRae, 17 Station St.,Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146. Or fax to (617)232-4305

We're Looking For a Few Stars

Boston's fastest growing newspaper is now taking on many additional employees. If you're hard working, possess outstanding talent and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success. We offer unparalleled opportunity, plenty of responsibility and a fun working environment.

Account Executives

If you have achieved success in print or radio advertising sales and would like an opportunity to earn higher levels of income while working in the charged environment of a start-up, here's your chance. The Improper Bostonian is looking for a few experienced and proven account executives for its rapidly expanding sales staff. Must possess outstanding interpersonal skills and strong work habits.
Entry level account executive positions also available.

Advertising Sales Manager

We have an opening for a hard working, ambitious, experienced sales manager. Must have a fantastic sense of humor, several years of print advertising experience and a proven track record, preferably in the Boston market.
Send all resumes directly to the Publisher or call 232-3507 for more details.

Distribution Staff

Looking for steady work a few days a week. Make $5 to $10 per hour delivering The Improper Bostonian in your spare time. Must have valid driver's license. Automobile preferred.

Classified Account Executives

Break into advertising sales through our soon to be expanded Classified Advertising department. Must have pleasant phone voice and experience dealing with people. Computer knowledge a plus.

Photo Journalist

Freelance Writers

Movie Critic

Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.

Please send all resumes to: or FAX it to 232-4305
The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

80 DATSUN B210 Wgn., Automatic, Stk. No. P269K	$799	81 PLYMOUTH ARROW P.U., Stk. No. P-633	$1395
83 TOYOTA TERCEL 2 Dr., Stk. No. 92-531A	$899	87 MERCURY TOPAZ Auto., AC, Stk. No. JG200	$2799
84 PLYMOUTH RELIANT 4 Dr., Stk. No. JG600	$995	84 NISSAN SENTRA 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92439A	$1999
81 TOYOTA TERCEL 2 Dr., Clean, Stk. No. IC211	$995	83 MERCURY COLONY PARK Wgn., Stk. No. P602A	$1995
80 OLDS CUTLASS 2 Dr., Stk. No. PIC10	$1299	88 DODGE SHADOW 2 Dr., Stk. No. 91782B	$2895
82 MERCURY CAPRI 2 Dr., Stk. No 92067A	$1595	87 MERCURY GRAND MAROUIS 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92226A	$4995
85 OLDS CUTLASS 2 Dr., Stk. No. 92409A	$1999	86 MAZDA 626 TURBO 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92429A	$2995
86 FORD LTD BROUGHAM Stk. No. 92185B	$2995	85 LINCOLN TOWNCAR 4 Dr., dark blue, Stk. No. 924738	$4495
86 DODGE RAM P.U., Stk. No. P636	$1995	86 FORD TEMPO 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92321A	$2995

BAD CREDIT? Don't Worry, We Finance.

MORE ARRIVING DAILY!

ARLINGTON AUTO WHOLESALE
Arlington, Massachusetts
Call Mr. Green (617) 648-6538
Mon. - Fri. 10 - 7, Sat. 10 - 5, Sun. 12 - 4

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

AMERICAN EXPRESS · MasterCard · VISA

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

How To Write A Classified AD That Sells

- Decide on classification of Ad
- Begin your ad with what you're trying to sell.
- Be descriptive, list all the standard features of your items first.
- State the terms of the sale, the price, whether you're "flexible or negotiable."
- Include phone number and times to call.

INFORMATION & PRICES

RATES: Open rates are $8.99 for the FIRST 15 WORDS and .50¢ for each additional word. There is a minimum of 15 words per classified.

REGULATIONS: All AD copy is subject to approval before publication. Any AD deemed obscene will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the AD will not be credited. Errors must be reported within the first wek of publication. All ads must be prepaid.

CIRCULATION: The Improper Bostonian reaches over 190,000 people every two weeks, making it the largest bi-weekly newspaper in the Boston area. The newspaper is available at newsstands, schools, hotels, entertainment oriented businesses and by subscription.

AGENCY DISCOUNTS: 15% Call for more information.

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
1
2
3
4
5
6

Section Heading: _____

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline,
MA
02146-7303

Run Dates:
From: _____
To: _____

First 15 Words	8.99
Additional Words X .50¢	+
= Total Amount:	$

Name_____ ❑ Check enclosed (pay to: IMPROPER PUBLICATIONS)

Address_____ Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX

City_____State____Zip_____ Card _____Exp.___/____

Phone(____)_____ Signature (if paying by credit card)

X_____

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705

OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Alterations/Design

ALTER EGO Designs-Clothing, & Home Items. Alterations/creations by appointment. Newbury St. Pick-up/delivery-Limited, fee. Great rates! 332-0160

Apartments

APT FOR RENT. 6 rooms each side. Prime Davis Sq location.One side, $900 tile bath. Other side $1100,11/2 tile bath. No utilities. Call 237-1992

MEDFORD. For rent. Luxury Condo w/ eat in kitch. 2bdrm 2 full bath, balcony, washer & dryer. Fully appliances. Indoor pool, racquetball courts, weight room, parking, 24hr security. Close to shopping & trans. Call Lillian at 391-0282 or work 862-7528

ROOM FOR RENT. Sunny W.Sommerville home in quiet neighborhood.Share kitchen & bathroom. 13 steps to the T and bus terminal. $75/wk 617-625-9479

WATERTOWN. House. 6 rooms up, 6rooms down. Possible convert attic lor in-law appt..Tile ath each floor. $209,000. Call 237-1992

2BDRM APARTMENT 4.5 blocks from Lynn beach near Swampscott line. $550 negoc. Leave message 596-0222

Clothing/Tailoring

QUALITY pre-owned designer and better clothing.Do come browse! $$$ for your wardrobe.Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm daily. 739-3399. See display ad this page.

Counseling

EXPEDITE YOUR RECOVERY Incorporating a unique blend of therapy and healing, In an atmosphere of loving humor and acceptance; a nationally known therapist and healer will expedite your emotional and physical recovery from abuse, fears, and traumas. Yulia, 617-731-9529

Entertainment

"BROADWAY BABIES." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)396-0550 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744-4094

For Sale

BOAT FOR SALE. 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider. 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/ roller. New boat cover.Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617) 279-4857

Health Services

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

TIRED, ACHING, MUSCLES? Then you knead a massage. Come in on your lunch break or after work. Mon-Tue-Wed 10am to 7pm $45/hr loc on Boylston St. across from the Boston Common. Call Mary Foster 617-643-8916 leave message. Certified and licensed.0

Help Wanted

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DAYS A WEEK? How about doing a few deliverles around the Boston area? For more info call 232-3507. Ask for Mark.

House For Sale

NO MONEY DOWN. Take advantage of low market prices! Two family home within walking distance of Lynn beach. Leave msg. 596-0222

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage license. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve267-7171

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASE and HIV testing. Confidential doctors office. Robert Taylor, M.D. Brookline 232-1459

Miscellaneous

83 YAMAHA XT 550 MOTORCYCLE. 20K. Great cond. $900. Call 232-3507

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles.Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

KEY-BORED? Berklee Prof offers private keyboard instruction. All levels, styles. Develop your potential! 617-628-7364

Painting

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition. Call Joey 776-1706

Services

SHORT-TERM COGNITIVE THERAPY Substance abuse, sexual adjust, or performance issues, dating, couples therapy, living with HIV, depression, anxiety. Cognitive therapy by psychologist, Most Ins. accepted, referrals as well as sliding scale avail. One block from back bay T stop. 424-1612

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE On the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificate available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE On the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificate available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

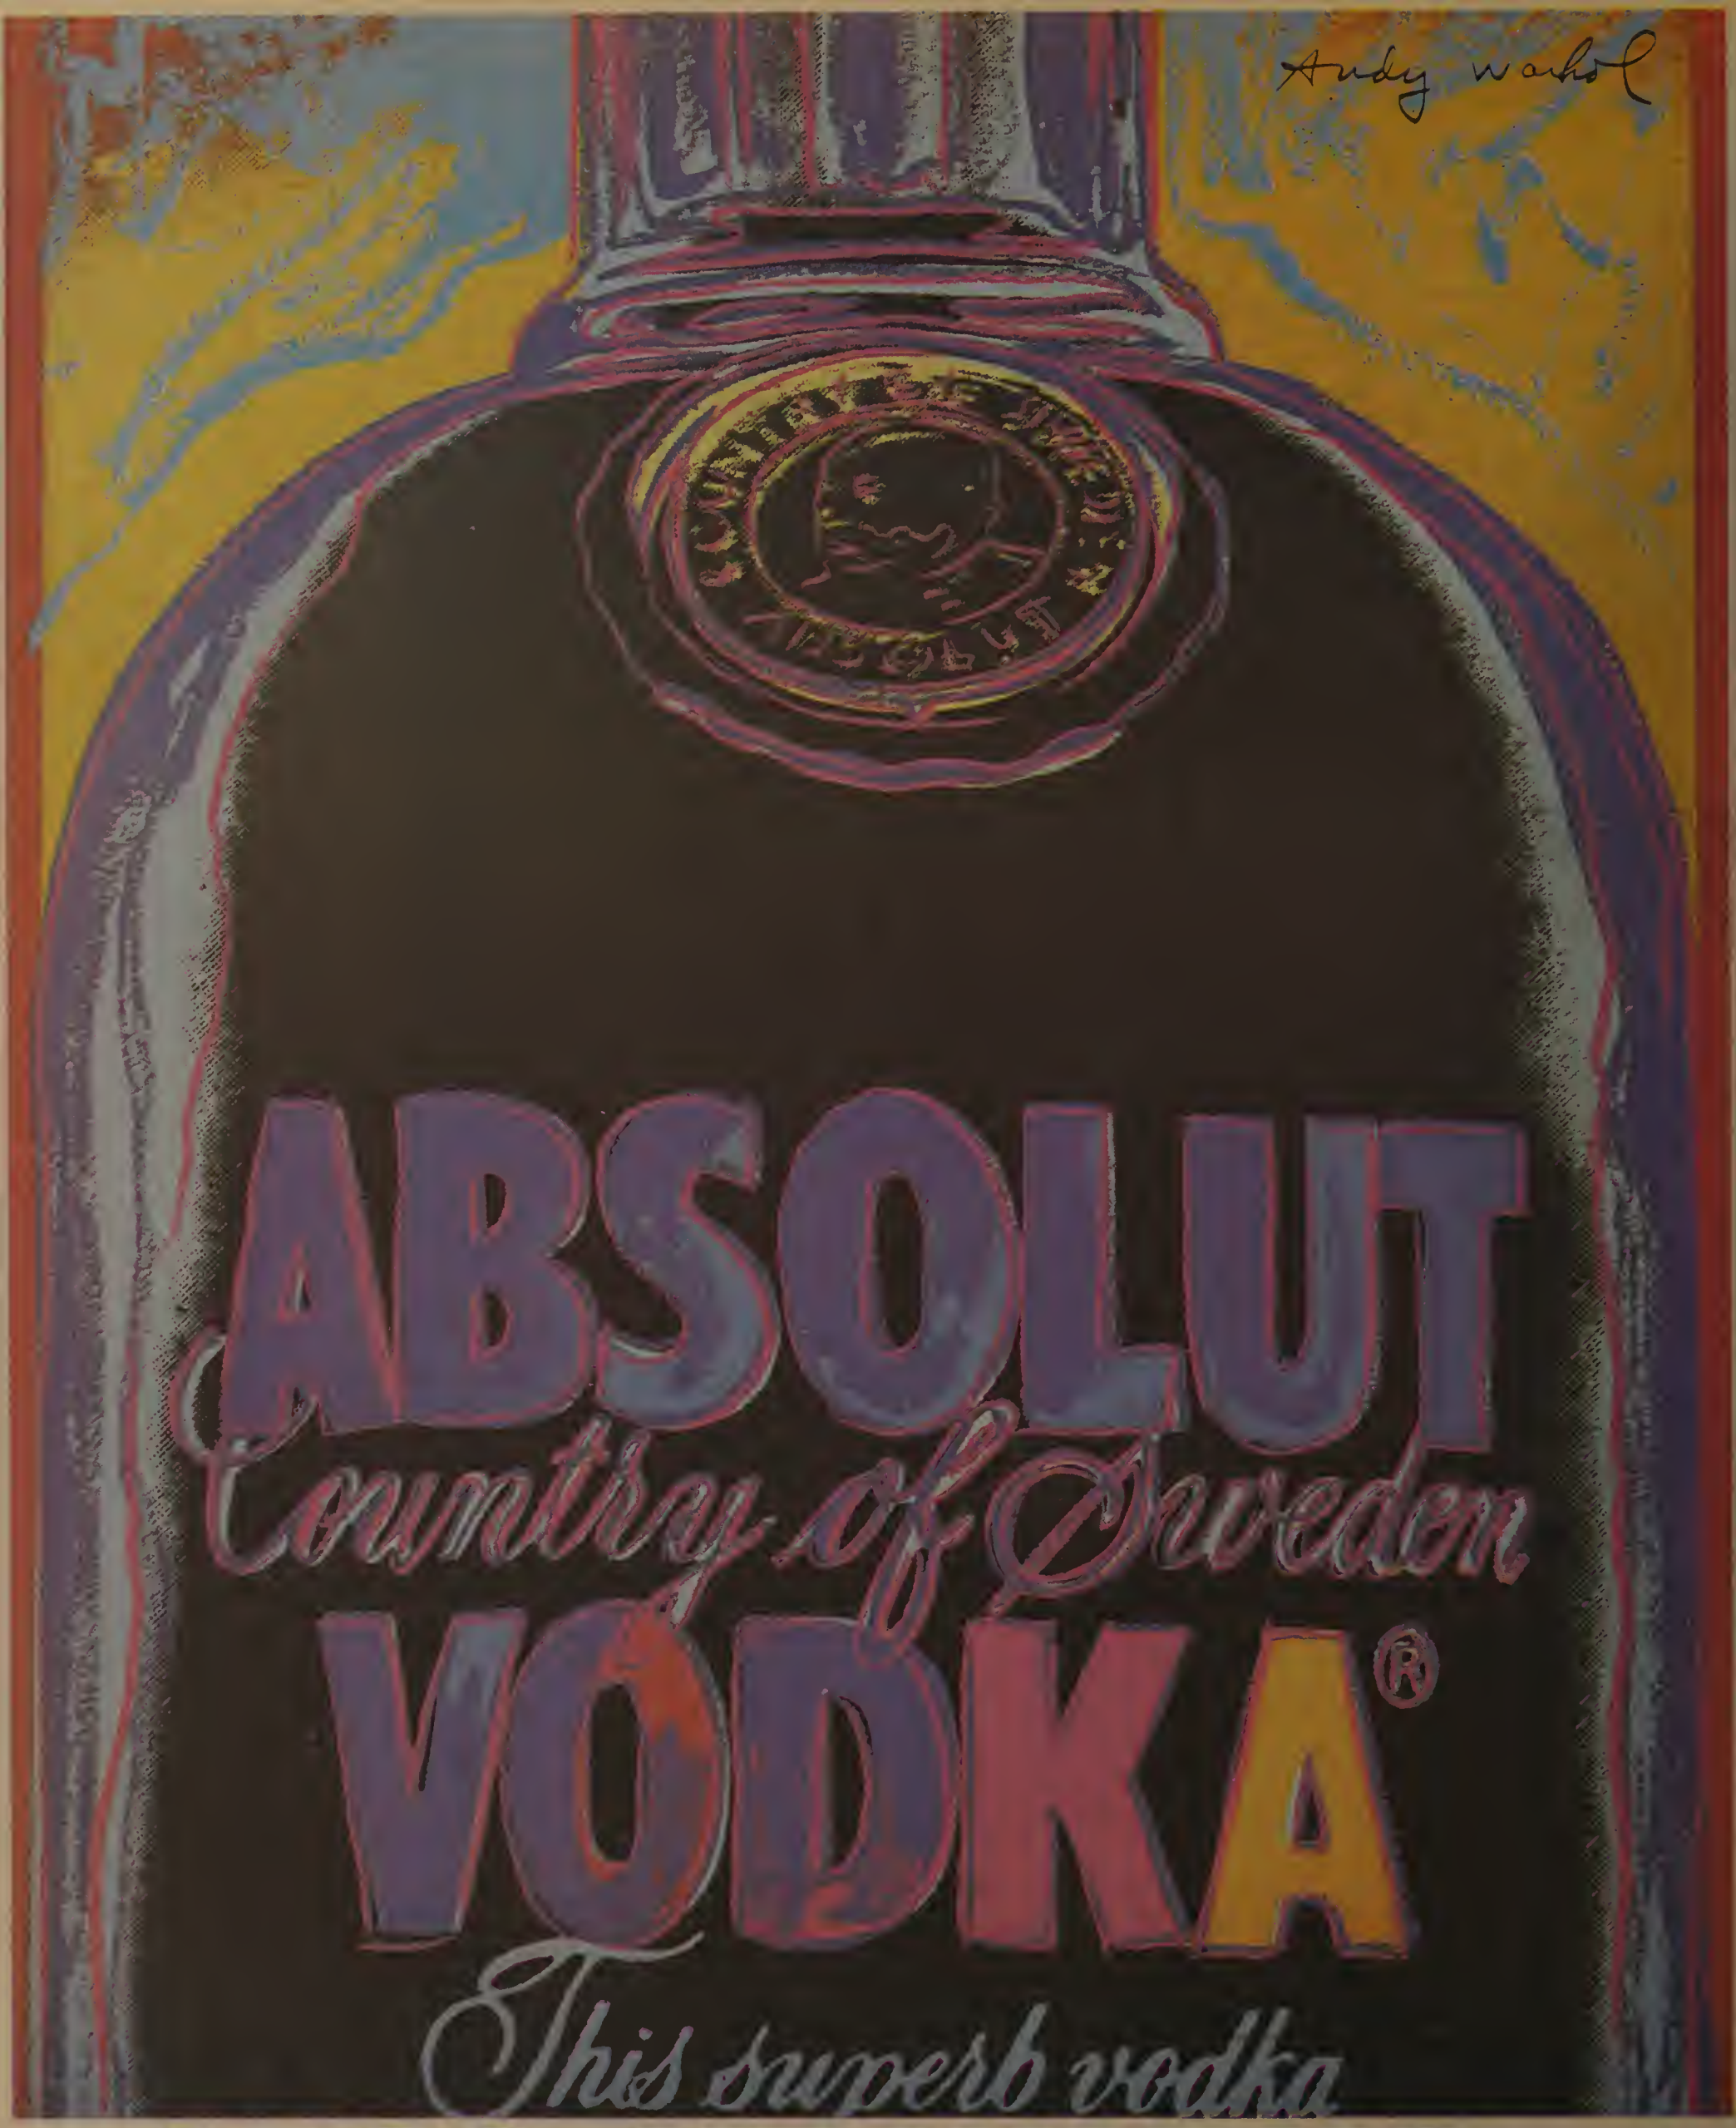
Adapter Productions
• Audition/Demo Tapes
• Weddings
• Legal
Digital Stereo Video
Rob Wellens
BRIGHTON, MA
(617) 782-0466

Silk Road Consignerie

Quality pre-owned designer and better clothing.
1368b Beacon Street
Brookline, Ma 02146
(617) 739-3399

Mon-Sat 11-6
Do come browse!
We buy and consign
by appointment

With the best classified prices in town, you can't afford not to give us a try!



THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

CAPTURE YOUR MARKET

30% OFF
ALL POSTERS AND PLAQUE LAMINATION (FRAMING)

OFFER VALID WITH COUPON AT THE GRAPHIC ART CENTER
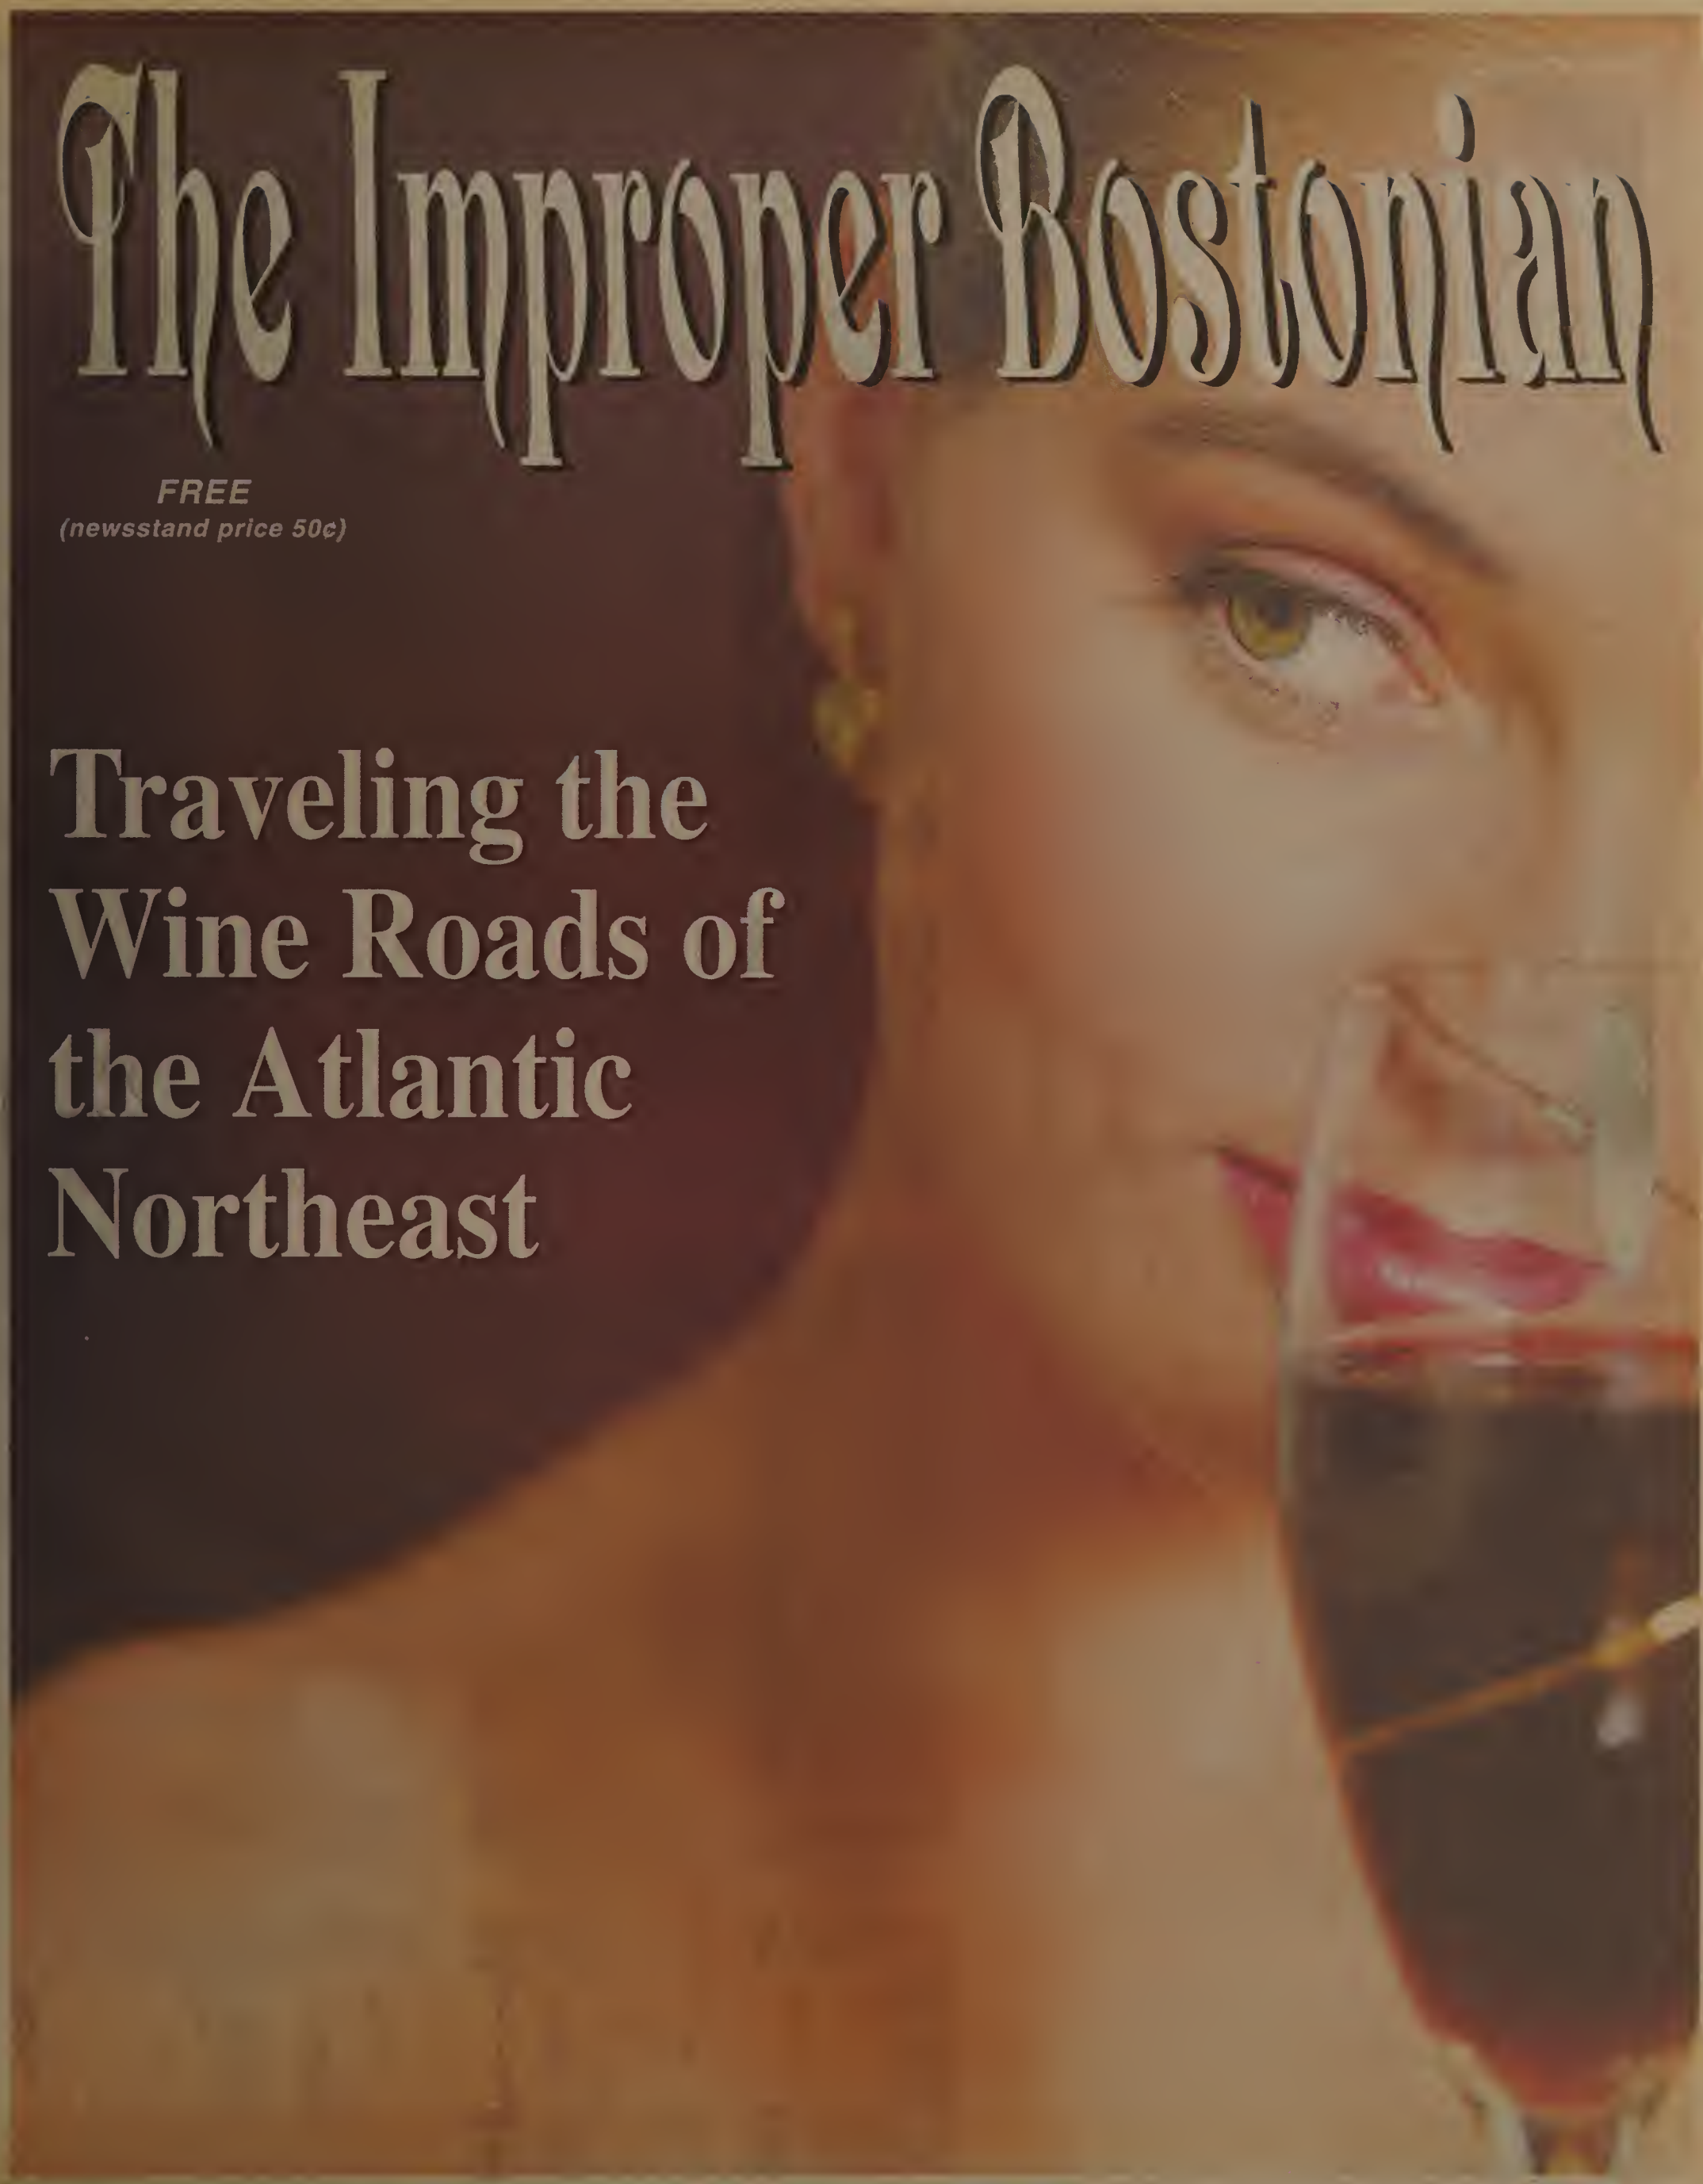
194 Washington Street
Brookline Village, MA 738-4498



FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW) CALL 1-800-243-3787.
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1985. ESTATE AND FOUNDATION OF ANDY WARHOL.

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)

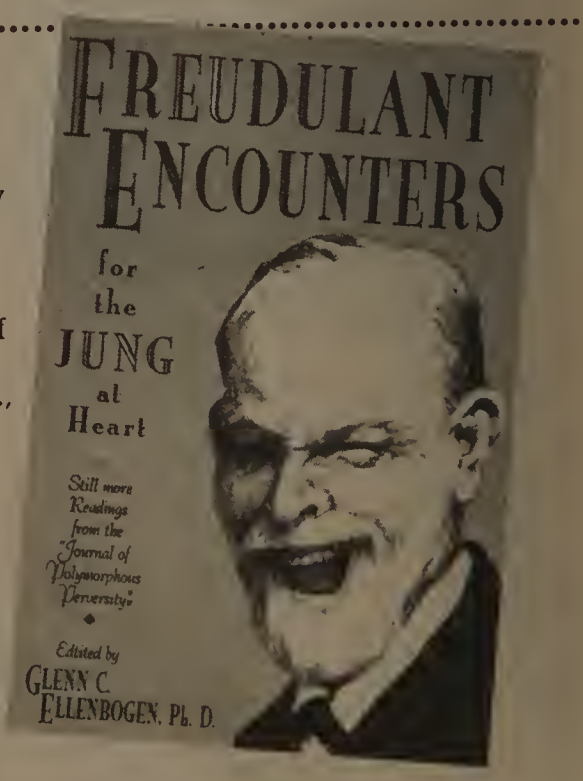
Traveling the Wine Roads of the Atlantic Northeast

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Serious Foot On Vacation

The summer foot - if it's a hiking, rafting, backpacking, cycling, scrunching-around-in-the-muck sort of foot - needs something that combines the airiness of a sandal with the Birkenstockian stolidity of a "work shoe." A one-time river guide on the Colorado River, Mark Thatcher is the inventor of this Sport Sandal, which, like so many products with a specific useful purpose in mind, drifts and crosses-over to become, also, something people wear ...just around. The practical features of the Teva (or Deckers as they are sometimes called, after the company that manufactures them) include a contoured, non-skid rubber base and a simple connection of high-tech nylon webbing straps, with rings and buckles or Velcro enclosures that stabilize the heel, toe and bridge of the foot. Such podiatric features place them beyond the absent-minded floppiness of other thongy footwear, and make them (though this is not a sexy word, and they are only at the edge of fashion) functional. A water ejection system in the sole literally pumps water out of the footbed as you walk, thus useful for watering your lawn.

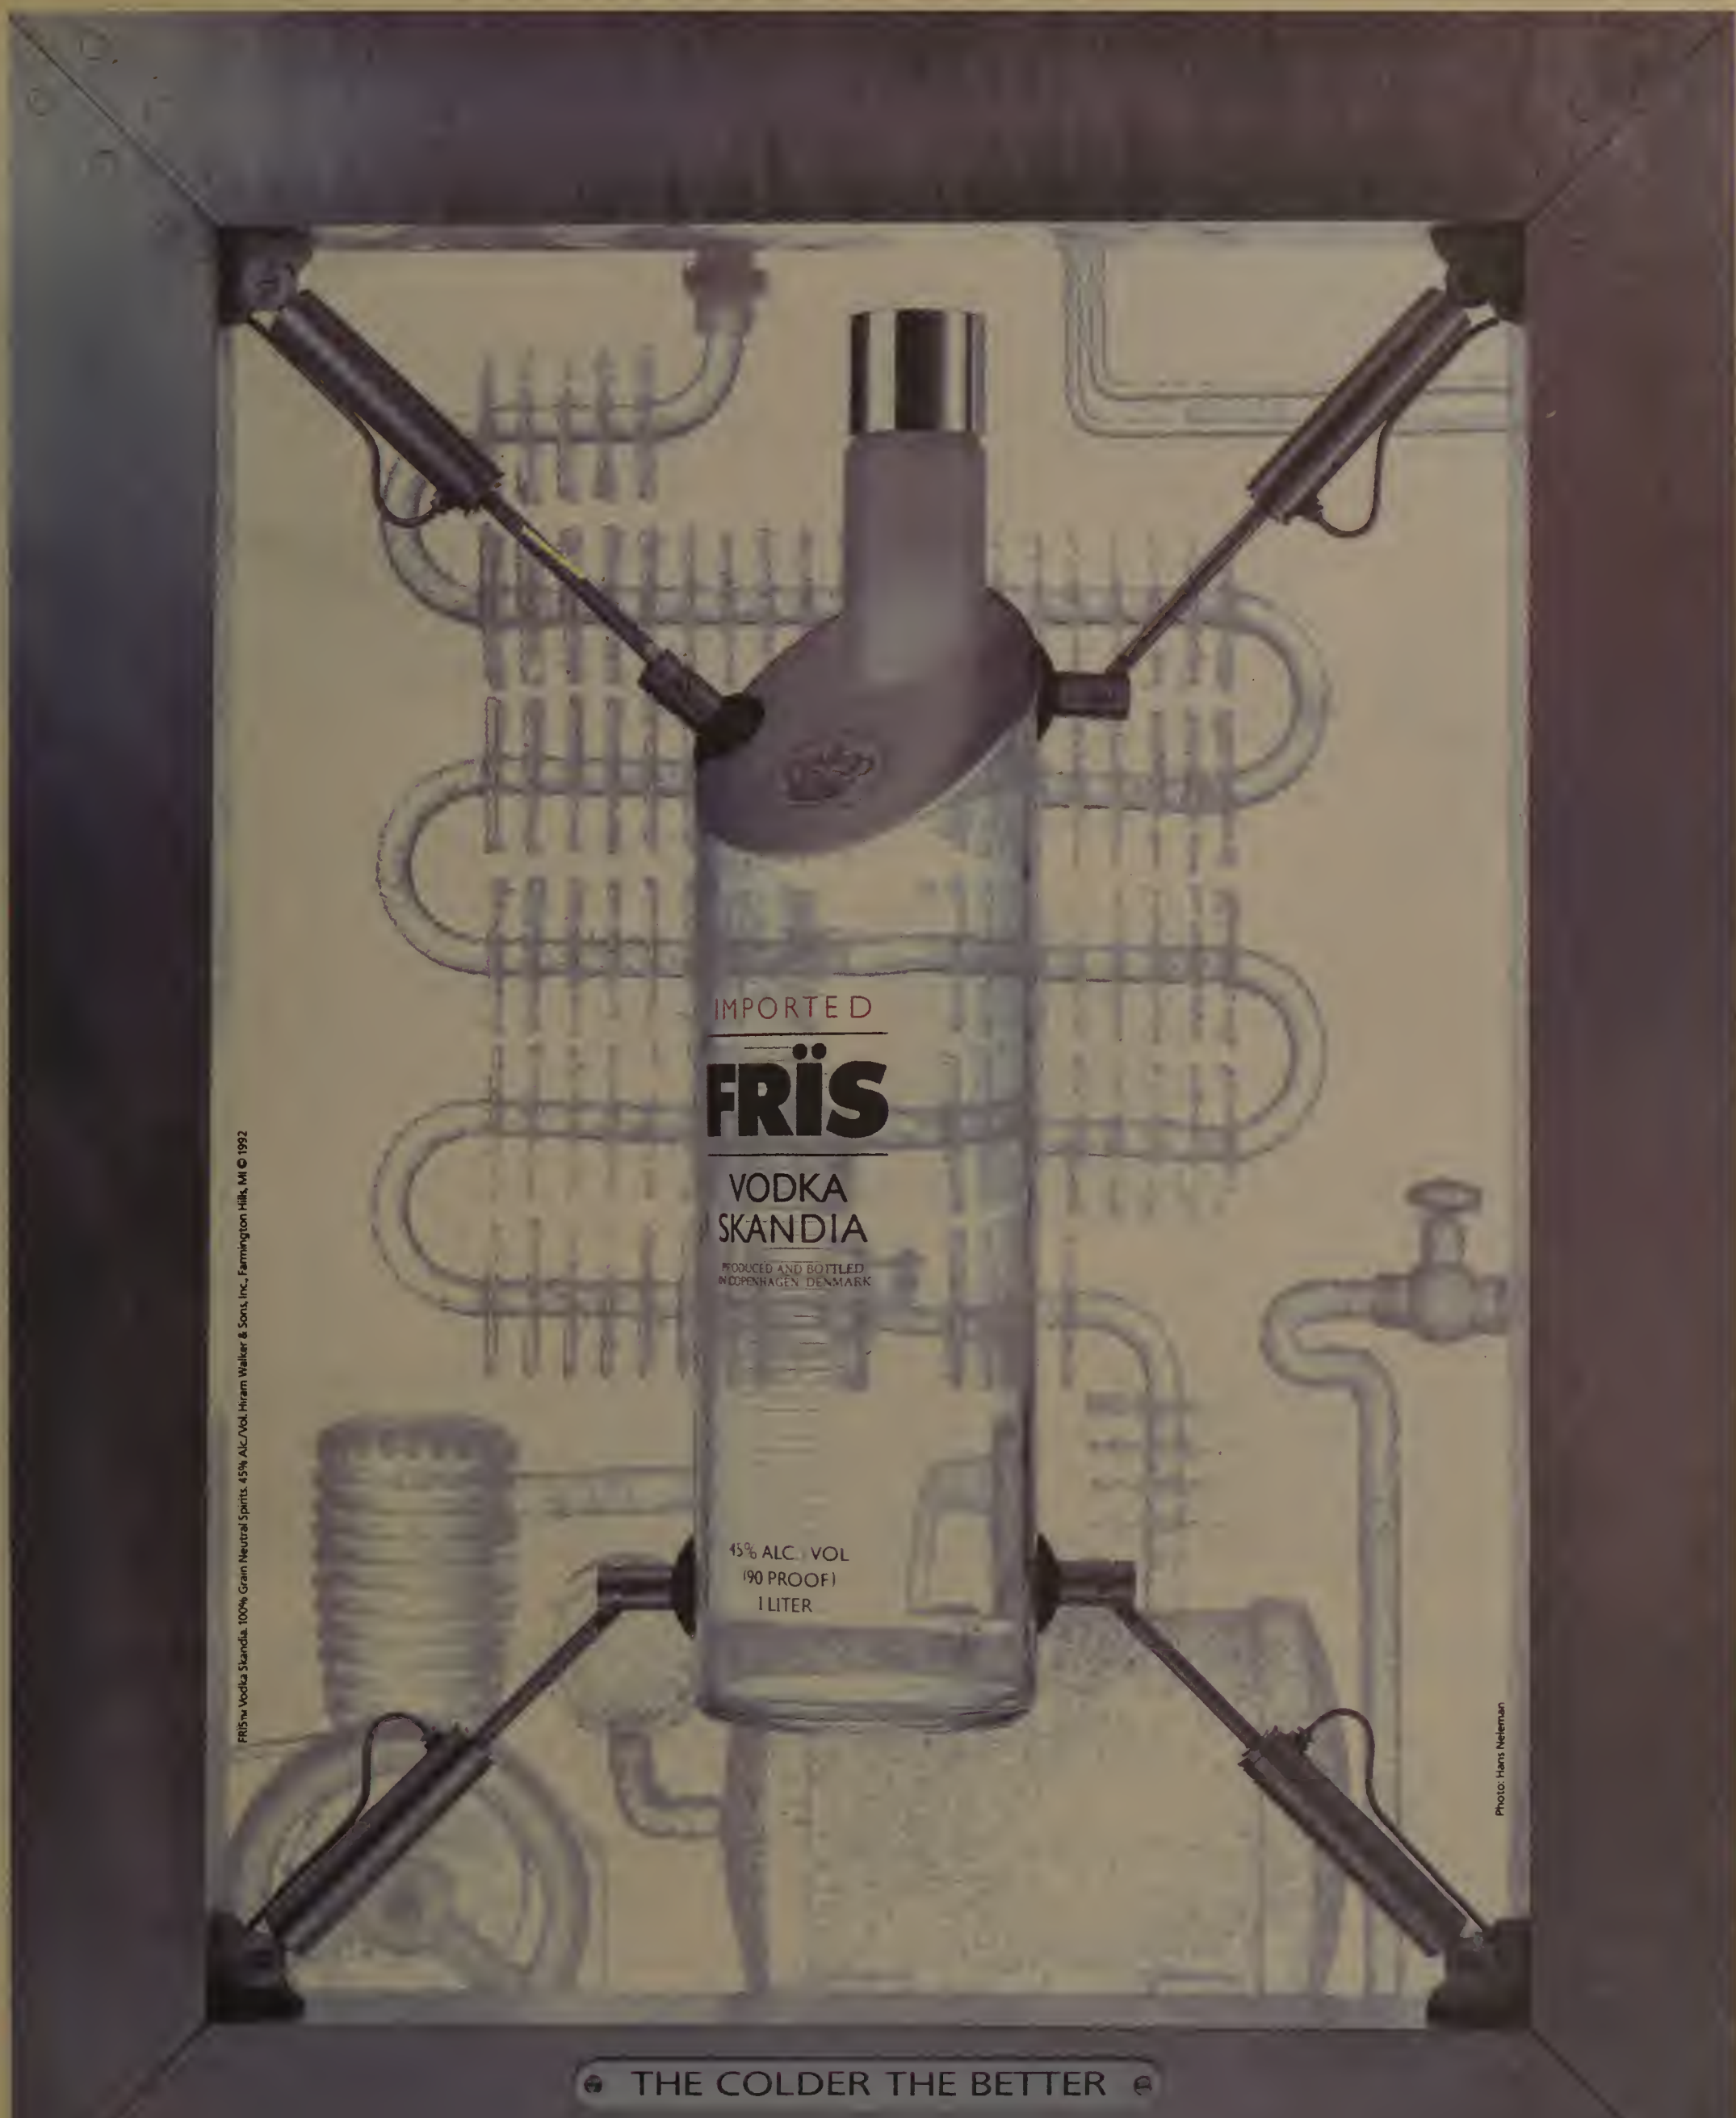
At The Tannery in Harvard Square
or call 1-800-433-2537



Heaven On Harvard

Trailing some of the leftover coolness of atmosphere from when this little shop was an ice cream store, The Necessary Angel focuses its pleasingly light touch on those winged white celestial beings. A silvery tin and gold-colored angel by Jim Reynolds enunciates in a swooping fashion from the wall - bearing a celebratory cake with just the right feeling of angelic billow. A pale pinky-red, high-relief head of a boy angel is cast from one in the Duomo in Florence, Italy, and there are white plaques with delicately-wrought scenes that can be hung like pictures. More folky and funky angel scenes include a huge ceramic Mexican tree of life with Adam, Eve, the Snake, God and an Angel (the latter dressed in earthy Spanish Colonial costume), hardly ethereal, but proof of the many angelic ways to go (this is $1200). And a fanciful scene made of wood incorporates an angel in a large wooden cat shape ($220). Several paintings of night scenes in crayons and pastels on glass show the fierce and darkly emphatic element of angeldom. This is a shop full of reasonably priced things - even the large pieces have a rather heavenly price tag - and that includes tinkling tin earrings in the anointed and appointed shape for around $8 to $30. They're open Tues-Fri., 12-6; Sat., 10-5.

The Necessary Angel
37 Harvard Street
Brookline, Mass. 02146
277-2114



Dr. Spitball, PhD.

Psychology - with its dry, objectifying language ("Patient displays low affect" is the more professional way to say "Harry feels like hell") - is a sitting duck for satire, a great splash of which is provided in these collections from The Journal Of Polymorphous Perversity. The newest is Freudulent Encounters For The Jung At Heart, which followed the it-could-almost-be-for-real title Oral Sadism And The Vegetarian Personality, edited by Glenn C. Ellenbogen. This one included the classically poker faced Etiology And Treatment of Childhood which laid out some of the "symptoms" of this disorder, to wit: Congenital Onset, Dwarfism, Emotional Lability and Immaturity, Knowledge Deficits, and Legume Anorexia. The footnotes included works by Howdi, C., Doodi, C. and Beauzeau as well as one citing Tom C., and Jerry, M. whose book is called Human Behavior as a Model for Understanding The Rat. (In M. de Sade, The Rewards of Punishment.) Among the essays in the new book is one that advises on how to be a psychotherapy patient. Some of those things that people may secretly want to say in this peculiar institution are enumerated in a list of Do's and Don'ts. "Don't say to your therapist 'So, tell me something I didn't know' or 'At least a plumber guarantees his work,' or 'Is doing therapy the only way you can get your intimacy needs met?'" Another essay offers some comically bitter short-term cognitive therapy for authors of rejected manuscripts, which proceeds through catastrophic and pissed-off thoughts: "I have been personally rejected," and "Trash gets published but my manuscript is rejected," to "I'm going to hurt the members of the editorial board." (to which the therapist says, "Whoa! Hold that thought. Rage will get you nothing but a jail term and, almost surely, will delay publication.)

Published by Norton, $19.95.
Oral Sadism And The Vegetarian Personality
&
Freudulent Encounters (For The Jung At Heart)
at most area book stores.

MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY IS A FREELANCE WRITER.
PLEASE SEND ALL CORRESPONDENCE TO:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, 17 STATION ST., SUITE 7A BROOKLINE, MA 02146

IMPORTED
FRÏS
VODKA
SKANDIA
PRODUCED AND BOTTLED
IN COPENHAGEN DENMARK
45% ALC./VOL
(90 PROOF)
1 LITER
FRÏS® Vodka Skandia. 100% Grain Neutral Spirits. 45% Alc./Vol. Hiram Walker & Sons, Inc., Farmington Hills, MI © 1992
Photo: Hans Neleman
THE COLDER THE BETTER

CONTENTS

June 24, 1992

Features

8 Traveling The Wine Roads of New England

Wine connoisseur Jonathon Alsop hits the winding roads of New England with an eye on our areas well-hidden vineyards. Complete with tasting notes and directions, you'll find all you need right here to get you out of the house and onto the vine.

by Jonathon Alsop

29 The Katz Out of The Bag

Jonathan Katz has done it all. He's sold shoes, worked as an usher and even been a puppeteer. With spots on Letterman and Carson, and a radio show on the horizon, this Boston-based headliner is ready to explode.

by Kathy Matheson

31 The Honest Urgency of The Smithereens

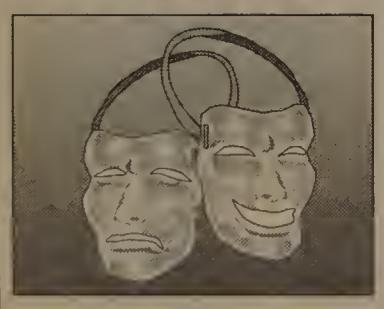
As a guitar-driven pop band, The Smithereens constant comparisons to The Beatles do no justice to their emotion-packed, intricate and very danceable style of music. You'll feel their rhythm as you get to know one of the most intense bands in the business.

by Kathei Logue

Departments

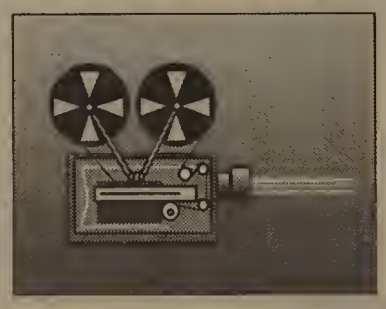
Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Movies
- Review: Batman Returns 10
- Review: Adam's Rib 11
- Interview: PM Entertainment Director John Widener 12

Arts
- The Evil Twin Gallery 14
- Play Review:The Servant of Two Masters 15
- Arts Calendar 16



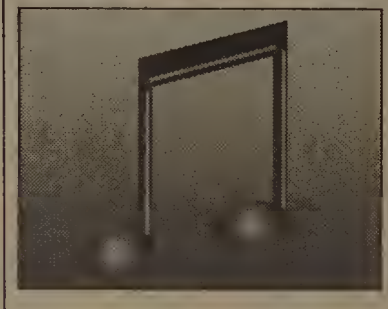
Woman on the Street 16
Perspectives... 18
The Leisure Study 20
Dining
- The Moveable Feast: DuBarry 22
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Daiquiris 23
- Appeteasers 24
- Brunch Board 25
- Restaurant Listings 27

Comedy
- Comedy Listings 29



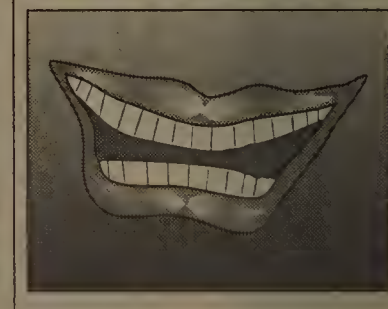
Improper Impersonals 30
Crossword 30
Music
- The Neighborhoods 32
- Retrospectives: Norman Greenbaum 32
- Wachtelligence 33
- Album Reviews 33

Bar & Club Listings 33
- Review: Brendan Behan's 35



Sports Schedules 36
Free Boston 38
Classifieds 39

PAGE 14



PAGE 10

PAGE 31

PAGE 22

PAGE 29

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

AROUND TOWN

You've seen it on TV, now here's your chance to try out for the show of your dreams. Star Search is coming to Boston to audition young performers in Boston's music scene on Friday, June 26. Musicians can enter as bands, solo male and female acts, teens and juniors. Twenty to 30 acts will be chosen, and the lucky few chosen to appear on the show will be flown to Disney Studios in Orlando for taping. If you want to test your talent on Star Search, send an audio demo tape, picture, and biography to Anastasia Roarty, 1110 Beacon Street, Suite 4B, Brookline, MA, 02146 by June 26.

Tim Morse

Save up your clams (six for adults and four for kids) for the 11th annual Boston Chowderfest on July 5 at City Hall Plaza. Sponsored by Boston Harborfest, some of the best restaurants in town will compete for "Best Chowder in Boston" from 11am to 6pm in one of our city's most popular events. Harborfest will also sponsor the First Annual Wingfest competition on July 3, also at City Hall Plaza. Twelve restaurants will compete for Best Buffalo Wings in Boston, 1992 while wing fanatics sample and vote on their favorite Boston Wing maker. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for kids. Music for the event is provided by Free World. For information on either of these events, call 227-1528.

The Cambridgeside Galleria 1992 River Music Fest, sponsored by Sears, the Boston Herald, and Kiss 108-FM, is here to rock Boston through August 27. The free concerts take place every Thursday from 6-7 pm on the floating stage at the Lagoon at Lechmere Canal Park. Barrence Whitfield and The Savages will be the next act to rock the River Music Fest on June 25, and Kate Taylor will be in Boston on July 9. Also, keep an eye out for Aimee Mann of 'til Tuesday (pictured above) on August 20. While you're there, enter to win a Lechmere Sony Discman in the River Music Fest Sweepstakes held at each concert.

Witches may have once been the main attraction in Salem, but this summer come to this superstitious town to celebrate the 300th anniversary of the Salem Witch Trials. You probably won't see many children barking like dogs because of witches, but you will be able to attend events commemorating this infamous episode from history. Some of the events include Tituba's Tale (an excerpt from "Salem's Daughter's"), Days of Judgement (at the Essex Institute) and a celebration of Nathaniel Hawthorne's birthday at the House of Seven Gables. For more information, contact the Salem Chamber of Commerce at (508)744-0004.

Bjorn Borg points to this year's 1992 U.S. Pro Tennis Championships at the Longwood Cricket Club as a big step to his well-touted comeback. Grab your sunblock and head over to catch the action happening from July 27-August 2. Boston's only professional tennis event will draw 28 singles players and 14 doubles teams - all of whom are playing on Longwood's new Decoturf II surface (the same as the U.S. Open). Tickets are on sale now for this event which boasts such greats as Ivan Lendl, Aaron Krickstein, MaliVai Washington and Borg. Call 731-4500 to order now. Prices range from $10-$30 for a one day ticket (Package deals are also available).

Kennedy enthusiasts won't want to miss Jackie: An American Life playing at the Hasty Pudding Theater in Harvard Square. The play is a comical look at Jackie's life from her Long Island childhood through the White House years with JFK. Eight actors round out the cast playing over 100 characters including Marilyn Monroe and Frank Sinatra. The play runs through July 12 with performances Tuesdays through Fridays at 8 p.m., Saturdays at 5 and 9 pm, and Sundays at 2 and 7 pm Tickets are $18-$29, and are available at the Hasty Pudding Box Office, 496-8400, or charge by phone at 1-800-828-7080.

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

PRODUCTION MANAGER
DAVID LOUIE

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE ROSS
LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
AL STANKUS

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

Music Writer
A.J. WACHTEL

Contributing Writers
JONATHON ALSOP, JOHN HABER
JOHN GALLIGAN, ANDREA SPENCER
CECILLE MARKELL, PRITHA RAYSIRCAR
MICKEY O'HALLORAN, JOE VIGLIONE
KATHEI LOGUE, REY ROLDAN
DAVID FENIGSOHN, SHAWN GOODWIN
DOUG THOMS, MIKEY DEE

Staff Photographers
JILL CONNELLY, MICHAEL POWERS
AYNSLEY FLOYD, DANIELLE PUCCI

Advertising Design Consultant
STEVE WALKER

Inside Sales Manager
HARVEY BRAVMAN

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, UGO MAZZAROLO,
DAVENPORT CROCKER, MARK STEVENS
JOHN TED, SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN
WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Specialty Foods Critic
SEYMOUR KAUBALZ

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Production Assistants
GAIL MARCARELLI, JEFF FILIPOV

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
SUZANNE MACRAE, JENNIFER MCCANN
TREVOR FORD, MARIANNE MURPHY
JENNIFER LEVITSKY, PAUL BRODKIN
DEBORAH PIRRAGLIA, JASON PRING
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS: Listings are printed without charge and at the discretion of the editor. Send your listings to The Improper Bostonian, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village, MA 02147-0820. Listings must be received no later than 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 15
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.
Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

The greatest sites in history are on the horizon

The Vantage Points of BOSTON© PROJECT

The event everyone is looking forward to Clear Ad Vantage

design concepts

Putting the future in the best perspective.

rising soon

©1992 Steven M. Walker

On the Cover

Photographer:
Sandra Kimball
Model:
Carole Tremblay
Ford Models Management
Wine Courtesy of:
New View Liquors

If you enjoy reading The Improper Bostonian, thank us by patronizing our advertisers' businesses.

Corrections for the June 10 issue: The photograph for LA Trends in the Leisure Study should have been credited to Melanie Dunea.

born 2b wild®

Boston's Only Rock n' Roll Hair Salon

Unstressed tresses, minimal styling, long layers create body & movement, glamorize the natural look...

born 2b wild

Concept Elvis/Leigh/Jodie Photo Mim Michelove Hair Omar Clothes Parachute

Travelling New England's

by Jonathon Alsop

Every summer is the same for the true wine lover. A tidal-force yearning to get out of town blends with the memory of enjoying wine in the open air. The next thing you know, you're drawn back to the vineyard, and closer to the wine itself. I often find myself surprised and delighted when the vineyards actually survive the winter. For Doc, my own best friend and today's designated driver, surprise and delight take the form of revving up his 1979 Triumph TR7 convertible to see if it's survived the winter. Naturally enough, once the engine turned over, we threw down the top and headed south of town.

We planned to start at Diamond Hill Vineyards in the upper northeast corner of Rhode Island just next to North Attleboro Ma. - about 45 minutes from town. Next came Westport Rivers Vineyard and Winery in Westport Ma., not far from Horseneck Beach, and another 30 minutes or so from Diamond Hill. The trek continued to Westport's neighbor in Little Compton RI - the giant of the coastal vineyards and wineries - Sakonnet.

We came as far as Sakonnet this day, but from there, it's another 30 minutes to Vinland Wine Cellars in Newport RI, and another half-hour to Mystic CT. Just north of Mystic are two Stonington vineyards, Crosswoods and Stonington. We left these spots to future pursuits.

The last leg of our itinerary was to have taken us south beyond New London near Old Saybrook to Chamard Vineyards in Clinton CT. Chamard is the most remote vineyard that's still accessible to Boston, and it's not quite two hours at highway speed. The rest are around an hour's drive or so, and the three on this side of Narragansett Bay are approximately an hour (or less on a good day).

DIAMOND HILL VINEYARDS
3145 Diamond Hill Road
Cumberland RI
401-333-2751

The view from the porch at Diamond Hill's wine shop is dominated by an immense Copper Beech tree, with shading the color of red burgundy wine. The setting of the Copper Beech is only too appropriate, as owners Peter and Claire Berntson's first love is their 5 acres of pinot noir, the red grape of Burgundy.

The Berntson's make only 150 cases a year of their premier cuvee, the superb Berntson Pinot Noir which is available only at the vineyard. The most recently released vintage, 1988, was very young and fresh tasting - easy to drink now, but having lots of life to live at that point.

In 1990, the Berntsons experienced something of a B-flat harvest, and instead of making what would probably have become a pretty thin red wine, they made a very full-bodied, completely dry blush wine: Pinot Noir Blanc. This wine had layer upon layer of nice soft fruit and was beautifully dry. Deep down inside were several delicious red wine flavors (it was a keeper).

Also in the Diamond Hill repertoire is a line of high-quality fruit wines. The Berntsons make fine wine - their Pinot Noir and Pinot Noir Blanc - and supplement it with a line of tasty fruit wines, which they sell hand over fist and actually manage to make a living.

Peter Berntson's NV Pommes Blanc is an oak-aged apple wine for wood-lovers, filled to the brim with aromas and flavors of fresh oak. The ripe apple fruit flavors were very big and fresh. This Pommes Blanc's big oak/big fruit balance is good winemaking and makes the perfect summer "wake up" wine to serve with fruit and cheese after a big day on the beach.

Diamond Hill is the only place I've been where the vineyard had its own traffic light. Had there been another car coming down the narrow stretch of road, it probably would have passed already. Unless, of course, it chose to play rural roulette and decided to run the light a la my wheelmaster, Doc.

The Triumph rolled through the woods and pulled up over the crest of a little hill. To the right was some new land Peter had cleared off last winter for several more acres of vines. He should put in some more wine red Copper Beeches, too. The more burgundy, the better.

Nectar Of The Gods

Summer on the New England wine farm is a romantic beauty. Somewhere in the winery, last fall's harvest is busy percolating away. Somewhere deeper within the winery, the previous harvest is resting in casks or enjoying some bottle age. But today, out in the fields and among the rows of vines, harvest is a long way off, and something else is happening. Come summer, it's best to lay back, let the leaves come in at their own pace and just watch the fruit fill up your glass.

Most of the vineyards and wineries that are an easy drive from Boston run along the coast from the Cape and Islands south, through Westport and Rhode Island and down into coastal Connecticut to Mystic and just past New London. They stay close to the shore so the grapes warm themselves in the ocean air.

A perfola at Westport Rivers in Westport, Ma. awaits the planting of grapes for the season.

WESTPORT RIVERS
VINEYARD & WINERY
17 Hixbridge Road
Westport MA
508-636-3423

We turned off the main road just a couple of miles north of Horseneck Beach and saw the vineyards of Westport Rivers stretched out over the crests of two hills long before we came to the winery itself. Winemaker Bill Russell took us in and we tasted from barrels, in addition to some of his own blends. Life was good.

First time I met Bill Russell, I thought for sure that he was about 17 years-old. He was talking about the Gruener Veltliner grape, something the Austrians grow and make into a full-bodied Soave-like wine. Bill said he was working on making some wine right now and Doc said he should be working on being old enough to buy some wine. But the baby face and the boyish impetuosity are just one side of this guy's coin.

Bill Russell's and Westport Rivers' first vintage ever, the 1989, blew all minds when we first tasted it in the Spring of 1991. His '89 Chardonnay was lean and ultra-modern. The '89 Riesling was just brilliant, huge and exploding with citrus fruit flavors, like no other American Riesling we'd had. We could not believe what we were tasting.

Bill's 1990 Chardonnay and 1989 Chardonnay Reserve followed this spring, and they were in the same vein. The Reserve will become more interesting over the next couple of years. The '90 Chardonnay was very New World again, very "right now," as it were. But Bill coaxed this New World/right now vibe from the stuff of Atlantic Northeast grapes, not Napa, not Sonoma and not even the North Fork of Long Island. For 1990, Westport Rivers chose not to make another reserve. Instead, the reserve portion went right into their standard cuvee. This made the '90 somewhat fuller-bodied than the '89. Bill tossed in a dose of oak and maybe a little vanilla as well.

He clearly has something

Wine Roads

in mind. And is Gruener Veltliner really all that much harder to pronounce than Gewuerztraminer?

A Lot Has Changed

Five years ago, the vast majority of New England's wines were over-priced, tourist-targeted regional curiosities. Of course, there have always been a few pricey exceptions. Diamond Hill and Sakonnet in Rhode Island, Crosswoods in Connecticut and even Chicama on Martha's Vineyard always turned out high-quality individual vintages. But these exceptions challenged the rule ("Stick with the maple syrup cranberry wine. People buy it by the case!"), and the rule won. What fine wines New England did make were few and far between - and please pardon my vulgar mercenary instincts - but so expensive that they couldn't hope to compete on price, no matter what they tasted like.

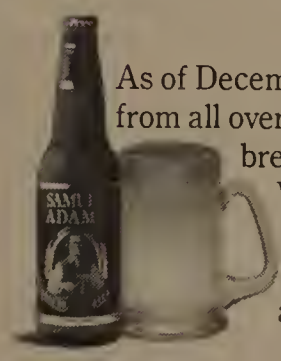
Five years later, everything has changed and the wines of the Atlantic Northeast have attained, as they say in the wine biz, "positive QPR" (quality/price ratio). At long last, New England's wines are on the right side of the power curve. Disregard the regional appeal, even eliminate the tourist factor. Today, wines of the Atlantic Northeast are absolutely worth the money by any standard.

Sakonnet Vineyards
162 West Main Road
Little Compton RI
401-635-4356

When Sakonnet owners, Earl and Susan Samson hired Tom Cottrell as their winemaker in 1990, it was the first sign many of us saw that something was shifting in New England's wine orbit.

Sakonnet is the anchor winery for the wines of the Atlantic Northeast. Earl and Susan are leaders, and Sakonnet automatically dominates the region just by virtue of its very size. It's reminiscent of the position Chateau Ste. Michelle near Seattle holds in the Pacific Northwest. Sakonnet has made some award winners over the years, but for whatever reason, people had failed to fall deeply in love with their products. Tom was clearly about to change that.

After working as a winemaker in California at Chalk Hill and Pine Ridge (two well respected wineries), it was hard to imagine that Tom was on his way east for just the weather.



This spring, Sakonnet released the first wines made

(continued on page 13)

Over 60 French oak barrels are responsible for aging Westport Vineyards' award winning Chardonnay.

Whether It's A Wild Boar Or A Gator, An Indian Or A Buffalo, An Anchor Or A Light Ship, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

As of December 4, we'll proudly serve over 50 different micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES
RESTAURANT&BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON • BOSTON

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Patriot Games
"The Audience Comes Out The Loser"

After an hour of watching Patriot Games, the latest adaption of a Tom Clancy pot boiler, it's fairly easy to guess what'll happen in Reel Two. Erstwhile CIA analyst Jack Ryan (Harrison Ford) thwarts an assassination attempt by an IRA fringe group, killing the baby brother of the group's leader. Ryan returns to his happy yuppie domain in Baltimore, and the vengeful assassin follows in pursuit, Cape Fear-style. Although Ford makes a more seasoned and believable Jack Ryan than Alec Baldwin, we are hardly rooting for his lackluster wife and their annoying kid. The man defending home and hearth from intruders has been done more successfully in Cape Fear and Straw Dogs. Rent those for the same price of Patriot Games and have a more chilling and suspenseful evening. T.S.L.

Alien 3
"One Monster and a Script With a Few Holes"

In Alien 3, we rendezvous with heroine beauty Ellen Ripley (Sigourney Weaver) and her intergalactic beast, and while the thrills are in no short supply, the movie relies on the suspense tactics of the first two Alien movies to fuel its engines. This time around, Ripley and a planet of reformed rapists fight the alien in the same race-against-time scenerio we saw in Alien 2. Charles Dance hands in a fine performance as Ripley's paramour Dr. Clemens, and Charles Dutton is strong as the unflinching, iron-chinned Dillon, the most thoughtful and intimidating inmate. Few movies will give you the scare Alien 3 will, but you might be happy that it's the last sequel. T.S.L.

Sister Act
"Divine Comedy"

Sister Act's weak plot is saved through the hilarious performances by the film's stars. Whoopi Goldberg is Deloris Van Cartier, a second-rate lounge singer who witnesses a murder and is forced to seek refuge in a convent. In addition to taking the vows of poverty, charity and chastity, Deloris, "Sister Mary Clarence," is given the ungodly task of teaching the less-than harmonious choir how to groove. Maggie Smith is wonderful as Mother Superior who gives Deloris a hiding place and a sense of responsibility. Harvey Keitel convincingly stars as Deloris' slimy lover/boss who has the contract out on her life. Sister Act, written by Joseph Howard and directed by Emile Ardolino, is chock full of nuns and laughs. J.M.

Lethal Weapon III
"Unbeatable Chemistry"

It's easy to enjoy a sequel when Director Richard Donner knows in advance exactly what the audience wants. All the right ingredients - action, suspense and comedy - are present as officers Riggs and Murtaugh are back in a very funny sequel. Lethal Weapon III reunites the team of Mel Gibson and Danny Glover whose chemistry as two of Los Angeles' most unlikely police partners proves that once again, you don't need a great plot to make a film enjoyable. Only six days before Murtaugh is to retire from the force, his kamikaze partner, Riggs, uncovers a gun smuggling plot that's leaving young gang members dead on the street. Solid performances from Gibson and Glover while Joe Pesci again annoys us in the role of Leo Getz ("O.K., O.K., O.K.; they fuck you at the drive-through...). So when is Lethal Weapon IV? T.A.S.

Batman Returns With Mixed Feelings

The mysterious Catwoman (Michelle Pfeiffer) confronts Batman (Michael Keaton) in a seductive and dangerous clash of wills and skills in Paramount Pictures Batman Returns.

by John Haber &
Jon Galligan

In 1966, Batman starring Adam West, pitted the Caped Crusader against four of his best rogues-gallery foes; Catwoman, the Joker, Riddler and Penguin.

In 1992, Batman Returns also features multiple villains. This time, however, the center does not hold.

In this latest installment to the Tim Burton Batman series, Michael Keaton returns in the title role to battle The Penguin played by Danny DeVito, a freakish, bile-spewing troll who has teamed up with the villainous industrialist Max Schreck (named after filmdom's first Dracula and played by Christopher Walken) to steal Gotham City's mayorship. Michelle Pfeiffer, transformed by Walken's assassination attempt into a decidedly exotic Catwoman, plays all sides off against each other as she goes on her own reign of terror. The Penguin, leading a gang of murderous circus performers, has his own agenda to bring misery to Batman and the citizens of Gotham City.

And this is only the beginning of the multiple plot convolutions which help cripple Batman Returns . In the 1966 film, the four villains were united by a single, albeit bizarre, plot to kidnap the U.N. security council using a dehydration ray. In Burton's new film, each of the three villains has his or her own set of complex schemes. The Penguin wants to run for mayor, carry off all of the first-born male children of Gotham City and destroy Gotham with a horde of penguins armed with TOW missiles. Catwoman wants to kill Max Schreck, defeat, humiliate and seduce Batman and otherwise run amok. Max Schreck wants to drive up the price of electricity in Gotham by building a phony power plant, bankrolling Penguin's mayoral campaign and generally playing the role of a bastard.

Batman Returns
Paramount Pictures
Directed by Tim Burton
Starring
Michael Keaton
Michelle Pfeiffer
Danny DeVito
Christopher Walken

While each scheme has its moments (notably Danny DeVito's Nuremberg style harangue before a forum of missile-laden penguins at the zoo), this kaleidoscope of conflicting schemes leaves the film unable to sustain any momentum, sense or suspense at the all-important climax.

Despite this, Batman Returns has its strong points, particularly the performances of each of its leads.

Keaton shows a firmer grasp of the Batman role this time around. Fans complained about his lack of natural athleticism, but Keaton has improved upon the schizoid mental, even physical qualities which make up the Dark Knight.

Danny DeVito does what he can with a Penguin role which requires him to be insane, calculating, pathetic, homicidal, yet just clue-less enough to respond to Chris Walken's raw-fish political blandishments.

Michelle Pfeiffer nearly steals the show, creating a Catwoman who rolls both Thelma and Louise into one crazy, leather-clad, whip-wielding package. All scenes with her and Keaton (both in and out of costume) are magic.

Christopher Walken does what he can with a character that should have never been allowed into the script. The evil industrialist looks positively threadbare alongside Pfeiffer and DeVito's fresh interpretations of Batman's more cartoonish foes.

The deco-Stalinist Gotham City also returns in this sequel, albeit without Anton Furst, creator of Gotham's look in the original 1989 film. Gotham still looks great from the rooftops. Ground level scenes, however, seem stuck in the same town square.

In short, Batman Returns, with a script showing as many seams as Michelle Pfeiffer's costume, is less than the sum of its parts. Burton has decided to play it safe repeating all of the virtues of the original film (great performances and good sets) while repeating (even expanding) the vices (a convoluted plot and overblown climax).

Keeping in mind that a schizoid movie will endanger a schizoid review, Batman Returns is worth seeing, but not worth spending the weekend in line. ❑

Adam's Rib Lives in Mother Russia

by Cecille Markell

Adam's Rib is not a chip off the MGM classic block, which starred Spencer Tracy and Katherine Hepburn. It is a Russian film directed by the noted Vyacheslav Krishtofovich, and concerning three generations of women who live together as they work and love their way through the deteriorating Soviet society.

The film focuses on a harried mother, Nina (Inna Chourikova), who has had two daughters by two husbands and is now being pursued by another prospective spouse.

A household of women without men. This is the charm of Adam's Rib. These women are no different from their American counterparts. They worry about money, wrinkles, clothes, subway passes, vitamin C and love. Vladimir Kounine's screenplay, based on the book, A House of Young Women by Anatole Kourtchatkine, is like a day-time soap opera, but the director has made the anguished heroines so universal that it's hard not to become immersed in their sad and funny problems.

Nina (Inna Tchourikova) models a black market bikini for her two daughters Lida & Nastya in Adam's Rib an October films release.

The dysfunctional foursome is led by the grandmother (Elena Bogdanova), who rules the roost from her bed, where she lies semi-paralyzed and unable to speak. She has an eye on the television set and on each woman's lives and loves. They, in turn, argue over who is going to empty her bedpan and bring her food.

Mama works as a guide in a museum and resents that her mother never thought either of her husbands was good enough for her. Husband number one, a student when married to Nina, went on to become a rich Party official and husband number two, Goldberg, was resented because he is Jewish.

This is one of the very few Russian films showing modern women at work, wearing smart clothes, debunking that awful commercial showing the overweight Russian model.

The film culminates with the celebration of grandmother's birthday -a family gathering consisting of Nina, her two daughters, her two husbands and current beau. Although the scene is funny and poignant, it still misses.

This is Krishtofovich's third film. He has his own style of expression and a distinctly personal Russian outlook on life. With Adam's Rib, Krishtofovich has created a film which flows like vodka but throws in a twist of lemon at the end. ❑

Adam's Rib
October Films
Directed by Vyacheslay Krishtofovitch
Starring
Inna Tchourikova
Sveltano Riabova
Macha Goloubkina

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Housesitter
"Dirty Rotten Housebreakers"
Steve Martin displays his usual élan in comic reaction and timing in Housesitter, but unfortunately his reactions to the movie's comic scenes are funnier than the comic scenes themselves. Martin is Newton Davis, a Boston architect who has built a home for his childhood sweetheart. She refuses his hand, leaving one-night-stand Gwen (Goldie Hawn) to move into the abandoned home and tell Davis' hometown that she is the new Mrs. Davis. The zany panic builds in a frantic escalation of lies that is slightly reminiscient of Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. Fans of Martin and Hawn won't be that disappointed with Housesitter and the suporting cast for the two stars is strong and amiable. Call it Martin Lite. T.S.L.

Encino Man
"Rad filmage for your melon, bud-dy..."
This tale of cro-magnon Pygmalion featuring MTV's Pauly Shore is not the bone-headed bogus adventure you might imagine: Encino Man is a rock solid good teenage time, the story of two high school seniors who unearth a caveman in their backyard and try to integrate him into the L.A. lifestyle. Pauly's L.A.-Speak peppers the movie with a hip flavor and Brendan Fraser as the caveman Link is comical and quite likable. Encino Man is a great flick to bring your kid brother or sister to (or heck, they can bring you to it). This film has no profanity, no nudity and no mindless partying - just a totally rad time, bud-dy... T.S.L.

Howard's End
"Enchanting To The Last Frame"
Director Jim Ivory gratefully escorts another E.M. Forster novel to the screen in an exploration of familiar Forsterian themes of class antagonism, social convention and the nobility of asserted independence. Helene Bonham Carter stars with Anthony Hopkins and Emma Thompson in this drama which interweaves the lives of two conflicting and diverse families who are ultimately thrown into a plot involving the deception of a home willed to one of the family members, Helen Schlegel (Carter). Avory has difficulty establishing a host of characters in the first half but ties things together nicely in the second half. A great movie that's sure to stir up some emotions. T.S.L.

Antarctica
"Ice, Ice, Baby"
"Great God, this place is awful," wrote British explorer Scott, referring to the Antarctic, the subject of the Omni Theater's current show at the Museum of Science. In near-horizontal position, Omni viewers are surrounded by the dome screen and swept over glaciers, down ice ravines and deep into sub-zero waters where penguins play. The narrative content of Antarctica is simple, on the level of the elementary schoolchildren who fill the Omni daily. Regardless, the up-close panoramic perspective of the ice continent is stirring - at times unnerving - in its unpeopled expanse. On this continent that is as "remote as the moon," the thundering sound is all part of the Omni experience. Antarctica as documentary is so-so, but one goes to the Omni for the cinematic roller coaster ride, not to earn college credits. T.S.L.

The Player
"Hollywood On A Skewer"
Director Robert Altman (M*A*S*H*, Nashville) comes back with a vengeance in this scathing satire of Hollywood and the sleazebags, backstabbers and bootlickers who make the trash you shell out $7.00 to see. Tim Robbins plays the paranoid movie executive who rises higher with each crime he commits while Whoopi Goldberg plays the detective who stalks him. Greta Scaatchi is the ice goddess with a heart of stone and dozens of stars appear as themselves in inconsequential cameos. From the long opening shot that pays tribute to Orson Welles' Touch of Evil to closeups of classic movie posters that end many scenes, Altman constantly pays tribute to the art of filmmaking as he skewers the studio alchemists who turn trash into gold. .J.B.

CRITICS CHOICE

KEY
A Winner
A Toss up
For the birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	People	Time	Newsweek	LA Times	Village Voice
Patriot Games	bird	toss	bird	win	win	bird	toss	toss	bird
Alien 3	toss	toss	bird	win	win	toss	bird	toss	toss
Encino Man	win	bird	bird	bird	toss	bird	—	toss	—
Sister Act	toss	toss	toss	bird	win	bird	toss	win	bird
Far and Away	toss	bird	bird	bird	bird	win	bird	toss	toss
Wayne's World	win	toss	bird	bird	win	toss	toss	bird	win
The Player	win	win	toss	win	bird	win	win	win	toss
Lethal Weapon 3	win	bird	bird	bird	bird	toss	toss	bird	toss
Class Act	toss	toss	bird	toss	toss	bird	toss	bird	toss
Beethoven	bird	bird	bird	win	—	—	—	toss	—

MOVIES

Maximum Thrills! Maximum Gunfire! It's Maximum Force!

by Tim Lemire

The movie Maximum Force is exactly what you'd expect from its title: a low budget action film with a high quota of explosions, gunfire and dialogue straight out of Action Comix . It's the sort of guilty pleasure flick that enjoys limited theatre distribution before shooting straight for the cable, video and foreign markets. Due out in April, Maximum Forces promises to avoid deep plots while delivering enough action to make Steven Segal pony-tail rise. Three renegade cops pursue a crime lord who has corrupted and controlled the metropolis of Los Angeles with an abundance of drugs. The outcome? Oh, take a wild shot.

Screenwriter John Widener may not cop an Oscar for penning Maximum Force, but in a phone conversation from the Los Angeles studios of his employer, PM Entertainment Group, Widener didn't seem to mind. Maximum Force is all about having fun, and writing action movies is a good way to get a foothold in LA's movie industry.

Mr. Widener co-wrote the screenplay for Maximum Force with his writing partner of three years, Ken Lamplaugh, on a schedule that's a little more abbreviated than most movie deadlines. "We wrote it in nine days, shot the movie in 13 days and cut it in 25 days," says Widener. Described by him as "comedy with a lot of gunplay," Maximum Force has the slick night look of MTV, a cameo appearance by Mickey Rooney and no nudity. How about that (But wait, isn't this an R rating)?

"I think violence lends itself more to humor and gags," Widener explains. "Sex isn't funny. It's love, it's passion, but it isn't amusing or entertaining." Entertainment, for Widener, is the primary goal of Maximum Force, even if some elements in the script fall a little short of reality.

Widener seems undisturbed by the fact that the police heroes in Maximum Force kill villains rather than arrest them; that the good guys discharge their weapons more than the bad guys; that the police are mostly white while the bad guys are mostly foreigners. "We don't try to be exploitive," Widener says, attributing the racial issues of Maximum Force to the casting department. "I don't think the point of movies is necessarily to be realistic, it's to entertain. The point of Maximum Force is not to provide a realistic world."

While American audiences may be able to distinguish fantasy from reality, the same may not be true of Maximum Force's potentially larger audience: those who constitute foreign markets. According to Widener, up to 80 percent of the receipts of Maximum Force - or any American movie - come from overseas. "The domestic receipts for movies are trivial compared with the foreign receipts," says Widener.

For Europeans, Asians and our neighbors in the Middle East, Maximum Force will represent American cops at work as gun-happy vigilantes who make the real L.A.P.D. look like boy scouts.

So just how does one become an action-film screenwriter? For John Widener, the path to PM Entertainment began with an education in cinematography. He studied film history and theory at Manhattan's Hunter College, and screened several of his early experimental shorts at the Collective For Living Cinema. Eventually, this experimental filmmaker arrived at PM Entertainment and*Maximum Force*. "It was a definite jump in my personality," Widener chuckles, admitting that he eventually had to choose between trying to live on NEA grants for the rest of his life or writing something that would get him into the business. "The action films are a means to an end," he explains, saying that in time he hopes to return to more personal and creative projects.

Widener's advice to young hopeful screenwriters is to make two purchases: a ticket to Los Angeles, and once there, a telephone. "Get out here to LA." "Get to know people, keep writing, presenting your work and networking, and see what happens." A true lover of his work, Widener adds, "If you're doing it for the money, I'd say get out of it."

Maximum Force is due for a mid-August release. ❑

Why take a plane to Hollywood, when you could walk there in 10 minutes?

Valley of the Dolls
Barbara Perkins
Patty Duke, Sharon Tate
Susan Hayward

Mike's MOVIES

Featuring Films You Won't
Find Anywhere Else
557 Tremont St. (At Clarendon St.)
Boston's South End 266-9222

The early bird catches the lasagne al forno for just $8.95.

Not to mention Prime Rib for $9.95, Grilled Chicken for $8.95, Baked Schrod for $9.95, and the Chef's Special of the Day for $9.95. You'll find these complete dinners for under $10 when you come to Parmizzano's between 5 and 7 pm. The food is plentiful, the service delightful, and the check very easy to swallow. Call (617) 252-4444 for reservations.

ITALIAN Parmizzano's CAFFE

Located at the Cambridge Center Marriott • Two Cambridge Center, Cambridge
Parking up to 3 hours for $1, 3-6 hours for $2.

BOOKS

Impossible Vacation

by Spalding Gray
Knopf, $22.00

From Brewster North's first idyllic moment on a Rhode Island beach at five, to his cathartic swim in the Grand Canyon thirty years later, we follow his pursuit of the perfect vacation- that is, a moment of perfect peace. In this, Spalding Gray's first novel, dreams, insanity, LSD hallucinations, pornographic Zen and mega-vitamin therapy weave the flawless circle of Brewster North's self-inflicted disillusionment.

This first person narrative reads like a journal, a confession and a primal shock scream to be recognized in a world where Brewster is defined not by what he is, but by what he does, which is pretty much nothing. In his endless search to be recognized, to literally be "able to remember who I was:," Brewster floats from one attention-getting quest to another: modeling, screaming in grocery stores - even being a bit player in an X-rated film. But this last maneuver doesn't satisfy him because it wasn't as good as he'd imagined (which is Brewster's problem). Ever since that flawless minute on the beach in Sakonnet as a child - his father not yet a lush, his mother still sane - Brewster's life has been a downward spiral, for nothing lives up to the ideal in his mind.

Paula Court

Spalding Gray

This modern day quest plays against a backdrop of pop-culture icons and self-help camps. Always just one step away from Bellevue, Brewster's "impossible vacation," or holy grail, becomes the final attempt to reconcile his past with the present.

Spalding Gray's first novel, (though really not so different in style from his "monologues," such as Swimming to Cambodia) is at once both hysterically sad and achingly funny, the way life often is. -A.J. Spencer by Tom Cottrell, and they were more accessible and easier to drink right across the board. One real standout was Tom's '90 Vidal Blanc. Sakonnet has been making Vidal Blanc for years because it's a flavorful grape that yields tons per acre, but the previous vintages were plain and simple examples of a good "vin ordinaire."

Vineyard Tours

(continued from page 9)

With the '90 Vidal Blanc, however, Tom brought out all the good strong fruit flavors you could ever want. The wine showed very citrusy fruit with a light acidity that added lots of brightness, especially when chilled down nicely. Sakonnet bottled the '90 Vidal Blanc in a classic white Bordeaux bottle. The look was very sexy. It had tall shoulders that were very appealing and inviting.

Before we left Sakonnet, we walked through the vineyard and down the main road toward Sakonnet House where Earl and Susan stage events, meetings and wine dinners. We heard a sound behind us and turned around to see a deer springing up the rows between the vines. We froze. The deer stopped, looked at us hard and seemed to know we were nothing but harmless wine lovers, then went racing off towards the woods that ring the vineyard.

The true wine lover takes every experience on the vineyard as some kind of wine omen. We knew then and there we would rev up the Triumph again and tour the vineyards and wineries on the far side of Narragansett Bay on another weekend. Perhaps this weekend. ❑

A Sakonnet Vineyard guide demonstrates the process of wine-making to an interested tour group.

Tasting Notes

Chamard
1989 Estate Chardonnay
Martignetti's. $10
Score: 86
Warm, golden color. Earthy nose with mineral aromas and a touch of oak. Nice over-ripened fruit flavors. Very smooth and creamy to the taste. Very French, very serious, reminiscent of a good Macon or a Chablis. Tasted more than once. Previous bottles have been better.

Crosswoods
1985 Merlot Ressler Vineyards
Brookline Liquor Mart, Marty's. $13
Score: 88
Very dark color, almost inky. Wonderful cream and fruit in a full nose. Smooth and soft Merlot flavors overall. Nicely concentrated. Layers of fruit and earth and sap. Very well-balanced, well-made wine.

Diamond Hill
1988 Berntson Pinot Noir
Available at the winery. $12
Score: 87
Light purple in color. Lightly clouded with very fine sediment. Bright Pinot Noir aromas. Very juicy, very spicy. Light body with very smooth tannins. Friendly and easy to drink. Could stand to be chilled very slightly. Tasted more than once. Previous vintages have improved significantly with age. Will be even better in 1995. Only 150 cases made.

Mellea
NV Revolutionary Red
Available at the winery, Delucas Market, Murrays, and more. $7
Score: 82
Bright garnet color. Creamy nose with solid fruit. 93% Pinot Noir, 7% Cabernet Franc. Unusual blend with honest Pinot Noirs flavors. Simple, refreshing and straightforward. Mellea plans to release in Boston this summer. A very, very good buy at $7.

Sakonnet
1990 Vidal Blanc
Marty's, Blanchard's and almost everywhere else. $7
Score: 86
Almost clear straw color. Big citrusy fruit in the nose followed by big fruit flavors everywhere! Very bright and nicely acidic with super balance. Some spice, some spritz. Great summer wine to drink young and well-chilled. Beautiful white Bordeaux bottle sets expectations, and the wine delivers.

Sakonnet
1989 Chardonnay
Marty's, Blanchard's and almost everywhere else. $12
Score: 85
Very light golden color. Clean, clear nose with very soft Chardonnay aromas. Lean, bright Chardonnay flavors overall. Good acid behind the fruit, but the finish is a little bit under-ripe. May improve in the bottle over the next decade or so. A very well-made wine, but frankly, kind of a tough sell above $10.

Stonington
1990 Estate Chardonnay
Available at the winery $10
Score: 92
Clearly the crowd's favorite. Deep, golden color. Big oak and butter in the nose, huge oak and butter to the taste. Nice and creamy. Very good fruit, well-ripened grapes. Nicely balanced with some acidic zing. Stonington is now shopping around for a distributor in town. Hope they find one quickly. Solid wine at $10. Worth every penny.

Westport Rivers
1990 Chardonnay
Marty's $12
Score: 90
Medium golden color. Big nose of bright oak and wet stones. Very well-balanced and certainly well-made. Tight, ripe fruit and good acidity. Nice wood flavors with a splash of butter, cream and vanilla. Long, smooth finish. Tasted more than once. Previous bottles have been somewhat better.

Chamard Vineyards

New England Wine in its Most Elegant Form

Tours and Tastings by Appointment only.
Call 203-664-0299

Available in Fine Wine Shops through The Carolina Wine Company

Chamard Vineyards
115 Cow Hill Road, Clinton, Ct. 06413

MELLEA WINERY

Let The Tradition of Europe Overwhelm Your Senses

Free Tasting and Tours

Enjoy our brookside picnic area and 30 acres of New England Countryside

July 12 is Bastille Day- Come and enjoy authentic French music, food and arts in our celebration.

"As Massachusetts residents, you are required to try it." - David Raines, Gordon's

Mellea Wines can be found at:
Cornucopia, West St.
On The Square, Watertown
Beacon Hill Wine and Spirits, Charles St.
De Luca's Market, Charles St.
Wine Cave, Union St.
Kenmore Liquor, Kenmore Sq.
Bauer, Newbury St.
Murrays, Newton Center
Gordons Liquor, Waltham

108 Old Southbridge Rd.,
W. Dudley, Ma. 508-943-5166
Call for info. on summer events; arts shows, concerts & chef visits.

Mellea Farm Vineyards
Only 75 Minutes from Boston

WEST COUNTY WINERY

Premium Hard Ciders

In the Northeast Berkshires, off the Mohawk trail, is West County Winery, the first New England Winery to specialize in hard cider.

Try our light, dry and fruity cider - a Great Summer Drink.

West County Winery
Pine Hill Orchard, Colrain, Ma.
Call 413-624-3481 for orders and information.

ARTS

Everyone's Evil Twin

Angela Wooldridge

"Nancy", Bernard DeLory

by Leslie Ross

Up one flight of stairs at 107 Brighton Ave, in the heart of the Allston Mall, the Evil Twin Gallery conveys all that is hip, creative and challenging in the Boston art scene. No, this isn't a theme gallery. Owner Mary Kalin-Casey emphasized that the naming of the gallery was purely a random act without any deliberate references. "We thought of a few names that were possibilities. It had enough different interpretations and enough different ways you could take the name. It wasn't based on any specific reference. The more we thought about it, the more we liked it." On posh Newbury Street, would a gallery dare to be called the Evil Twin? The name alludes to counterfeit behavior, but within the walls, the artwork is testimony to a liberal infrastructure. Twin to what?

The Evil Twin's purpose is not to mirror those uptown, uppity galleries. It wants to be different. The gallery's primary goal is to focus on the exhibition of art, rather than potential sales. Kalin-Casey attests, "We definitely do not think that if something is sellable, then we'll show it. We wanted to create a venue where artists could exhibit and be more in on the process than the price. Our criteria is based on quality, which of course, is completely subjective. If we like it and it will work well within the space, then we'll use it. It all boils down to quality and our taste."

Along with her husband John, Casey developed the Evil Twin Gallery last autumn, realizing a long-time goal. "The art world tends to be very competitive," remarked Casey. "Sometimes its a matter of beating out a hundred other people, and then waiting 2 years just to get shown."

Although Mary and John Casey have exhibited works of their own in the gallery, the hangings generally display other artists. "Our focus is work that tends to be excluded from the traditional art market because of theme, content medium or lack of commercial potential," says Kalin-Casey. Casey contends further that the Evil Twin is open primarily to show - not sell works of art.

Artists like Bernard DeLory and Timothy S. Murphy, two local artists whose work is currently on display, work with figurative art which accounts for some of the 29 pieces of art on display. On Saturday, June 27 at 7:00 p.m., the Evil Twin will host an opening of a new exhibition. Entitled Previews, 93, the exhibition will be a sampler of works from artists whose work will be highlighted during the upcoming season. The mediums range from constructural sculpture, painting, photography and even hand-made books. The artists featured will be Christopher and David Faust (twin brothers who sculpt together), Deborah Davidivits, John Hyde Jr. and Martha McCullough.

At the same time, across the hall in the Allston Mall, the 88 room will also be hosting an opening. This exhibition contains among other pieces, an interesting collage of things gallery owner Andrew Guthrie found on the street. Another work is titled simply, "Letters from the Artist's Mother." It is a wooden box in which the envelopes are sealed, but the letters are open so that the viewer can take them out and read them.

While you're there, the rest of the Mall is worth a look around, too. The Primal Plunge Bookstore specialized in alternative press books on a wide range of topics. It also offers toys for adults, jewelry, and off-the-wall jumble. Hot Sugar Swap and Shop has a beautiful array of funky clothes and jewelry, mostly vintage. On the drawing board for the near future is the Hot Sugar Record Swap and Shop.

The galleries are open 5-8 Fridays, 12-6 Saturday and Sunday, or by appointment (254-6050). 107 Brighton Ave, Allston. Up one flight of stairs.❑

Angela Wooldridge

Another Work in Bernard DeLory's "Nancy" series

"Blue Time", Timothy S. Murphy

ARTS

The Servant of Two Masters

An Evening of Mad Mayhem for an Elementary Appetite

by Nancy Leonard

The American Repertory Theatre is making a strong showing about our home-grown vaudeville that was born in the improvisational antics of the commedia dell'arte. Its spirited and coarse update of Carlo Goldoni's mid-17th-century classic, The Servant of Two Masters, could easily find a home on the old-time touring circuit, appealing to fans of farcical action and outrageous indignities (without regard to wit).

This is an evening of tasteless intemperance, masquerading as art. Some will love it, and some will find it wanting. Translated and adapted by Shelley Berc and Andrei Belgrader (whose direction provides a fractured, circus-like atmosphere), Goldoni's comedy has essentially been reassembled from its basic elements into a loose and lengthy form of entertainment - with music.

The servant Truffaldino dominates the action, which runs nearly three hours, and ostensibly turns on romance and disguise. Actually, it's an opportunity for Thomas Derrah to show off as the ART's premier clown - and he does so mightily. This stock character is dim-witted, constantly yearning to eat, and more than a little vulgar. But he's also ingenious, and gentle enough to win us over in his own budding romance. The actor underlines each characteristic with zestful enthusiasm.

The comic set-pieces have their foundation in Goldoni, but they've been punched up with distinctly modern sensibilities. Largely a side-show interrupting the plot, the sketches become the heart of the evening. Many involve audience participation - including one that gives a whole new meaning to body-sculpting (a young man transformed into "muscles marinara"). Truffaldino, who can neither count nor read, must steer a delicate path between his two masters (each unknown to the other). He wins, laughs and scorns as he mixes up their mail and clothes, and his appetite nearly sabotages a parade of food for their separate dinners. The servant confides in his audience and easily commands them to his bidding - whether it's a single person to tie his shoe, or a gaggle of participants to help him set a table.

Alvin Epstein, Jeremy Geidt, Royal Miller and Jennifer Roszell star in The A.R.T's The Servant of Two Masters

The rest of the company is equally crass and energetic. Jeremy Geidt's Pantalone - the domineering but not heartless father - is a stout buffoon, dressed in top hat, tails and clown shoes. Alvin Epstein's spare, stringy-haired Dr. Lombardi is another sort of clown, spouting Latin while believing he's superior to everyone else. Their rivalry adds zest to the action, though the loud insults are more crude than clever.

Derek Smith brings a comic, Elvis-like intensity - part menace, part earthiness - to Florindo, one of the masters. Stephanie Roth adopts an extravagantly hood-y accent as his lover Beatrice who is disguised as her dead brother Frederico. She sounds like Tracey Ullman doing Al Pacino for a Virgin Atlantic commercial. Garbed in blue organdy, Jennifer Roszell is a woefully put-upon fiancee, given to an occasional temper tantrum and bursts of ungraceful exuberance. Royal E. Miller's earnest Silvio is funny in his angry eruptions and decorative musical lament.

While genial, robust and very proud of his culinary accomplishments, Miguel Perez's innkeeper/chef Brighella barks at the audience, all the while managing to keep Venice as spotless as his kitchen. Kate Burke's sluttish maid Smeraldina is rather winsome under all the powder and paint, and effectively commands the audience to stand and cheer for romantic forgiveness as though they were rekindling Tinkerbell's light.

Despite all the talent and effort in these brightly variegated proceedings, not everything works, and the evening doesn't really endear. Part of the problem may be the tension between the snot-eating, gluttonous vulgarity and the emphasis on food - one cancels the other, and little joy emerges from the confections. The evening would also be stronger with more wit. Too much is simply sophomoric. The improvisational assaults in student productions are far more exhilarating.

Rusty Magee's music and lyrics are certainly pleasant enough, though the dozen or so numbers are rather small-scale and often sound like an echo from Les Miserables. Dr. Lombardi's bouncy Latin patter-song is the high point, yet it could be wittier. Magee's contribution pales next to Liz Swados' eclecticism. Catherine Zuber's circus-like costumes are wonderfully bright and fanciful. Natasha Katz's lighting casts a mostly cheerful glow on Anita Stewart's minimalist open set.

The ART's updated Servant is an evening of mad mayhem for an elementary appetite. ❑

Constitution Marina

Boston's Friendliest Marina would like to Welcome YOU Aboard !

Come stay with us for a night, a week, or a season!

- Sheltered, secure, convenient location– walking distance to historic downtown Boston
- Rated Best-of-Boston, 4 Anchors: Offshore Magazine
- Slips available for boats up to 138'
- All slips with electric & water connections & cable TV
- Showers, ice, laundry, FREE PARKING
- Guaranteed reservations with Visa, M/C
- Chart Kit Region 2, page 50
- We guard Channel 09/69

Constitution Marina
28 Constitution Road
Charlestown, MA 02129
617-241-9640

We Have the Best Stuff

Photo by Concordia

Starving Artist

224 Newbury St • 247-9453

ART & FASHION BY BOSTON'S FINEST UNKNOWNS

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are now on sale for Boston Ballet's 1992-93 season. Performances include The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, Etudes Program, Cinderella, All Balanchine and Romeo and Juliet. Call 931-2000 for more information.

Sargent Dance Theatre
at Boston University
1 University Road, Boston
Boston-based dancer/choreographer Anna Myer will perform two original works June 25 at 9pm and June 26 & 27 at 8pm. Performed in collaboration with a local musician, the first piece, Vivian, is inspired by the human struggle with the question of intimacy. The second piece, Dark Angels, explores order vs. non-order.

PHOTOGRAPHY

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Come see NESOP's student exhibition, work from graduates of the two-year Professional Photography program. The show consists of work in black & white, color, experimental color, advertising, corporate, editorial, photojournalism and portraiture. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm; the show runs through Aug. 28.

CLASSICAL

Great Woods
Mansfield
The Mostly Mozart Festival Orchestra performs June 27 at 8pm and June 28 at 3pm. Conducted by Gerard Schwarz, the orchestra features pianists Mish and Cipa Dichter and 11-year-old violinist Sarah Chang. The group's program will include Mozart's Symphony in B flat and Symphony No. 34, as well as Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto in G and Haydn's Symphony in A Major ("Fire").

New England Conservatory
at Brown Hall
corner of Huntington & Mass. Ave., Boston
The NEC Extension Division Opera Studio will perform opera scenes from Verdi's Falstaff, Mozart's The Marriage of Figaro and Cosi fan tutte, and Mascagni's Cavalleria Rusticana on June 25 & 26 at 8pm. Admission is free.

Newton Arts Center
61 Washington Park, Newtonville
Harmonie Chamber Winds, one of Boston's leading wind ensembles, presents its summer concert June 27 at 8pm. Their program consists of rarely performed wind octets by Beethoven, Krommer, Gordon Jacob and Ezra Lederman. Tickets are $8. Call 964-3424 for more information.

Symphony Hall
corner of Huntington & Mass. Ave., Boston
One of the great singers and musicians of her generation, Nina Simone will perform June 29 at 8pm. Known as the "High Priestess of Soul," she is famous for her renditions of "I Loves You Porgy," "Mississippi Goddam," "To Love Somebody," and "Backlash Blues." Tickets are $24.50-$34.50. Call 266-1200 for more information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass. Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Boston Gay/Lesbian Film Festival
at various locations
This 8th annual festival is held Fridays at the Museum of Fine Arts, Saturdays at the Harvard Film Archive, and Sundays at MFA and the Institute of Contemporary Art. The festival opens on July 2 at 6pm with a gala party at the ICA running simultaneously with a double feature film screening at MFA. The festival runs until Aug. 1. For more information, call 266-9129.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
The BPL screens award-winning documentaries every Thursday at 6pm this summer: On July 2, see In the Shadow of the Stars. On Tuesdays at 6pm, the library salutes Marilyn Monroe: June 30 is All About Eve and July 7 is The Asphalt Jungle. Admission for all films is free.

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Each day has a different theme: Sundays are the films of Robert Altman; Mondays are Bogart; Tuesdays are Documentaries Today; Wednesdays are Art Films; Thursdays are Directed by Francois Truffaut; Fridays and Saturdays are the Urban Landscape. Special presentations include The Proud Ones, a Martin Scorsese Presentation, and The Iron Man, directed by Shinya Tsukamoto (Japan's answer to David Lynch). For further film information, call 876-6837.

Harvard Film Archive
at the Carpenter Center for the Visual Arts
24 Quincy St., Cambridge
Meet the King of the "B" Movies, producer Samuel Z. Arkoff June 26 & 27 at 8pm; see his films in the series "Classic Arkoff: At the Drive-In with American International Pictures" through July 8. Call 495-4700 for more information.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
To Fly!, a movie about balloons over the Vermont countryside and Niagara Falls, the Blue Angels, and cliffs in Hawaii, is currently showing. Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only museum in the world devoted solely to educating the public about computers and their impact on society. Enjoy over 100 interactive exhibits, including the award-winning Walk-Through Computer. Come see "Tools & Toys: The Amazing Personal Computer," where you can explore over 35 hands-on exhibits that show the versatility of this remarkable little machine: Visitors can fly a jumbo jet on a flight simulator, paint on the walls with a giant infrared pointer, zoom through the 3-D world of virtual reality and compose songs on computer-based musical instruments. Hours: Daily 10am-6pm; Fridays until 9pm. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
Come see the work (1970-1990) of phenom photographer Annie Leibovitz from June 17-July 26. It's something you don't want to miss. This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

The ICA presents several encore performances of comedian Betsy Salkind's "All My Life" June 25-28 at 8:30pm in the ICA Theater. "All My Life" uses autobiographical narrative and Salkind's baby book as a structural backbone in a performance that reflects the darkness of her comedy and philosophy that the best humor is deadly serious. Tickets are $8-$10; call 266-5152 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 6:30pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
More than 30 superb examples of handcrafted, highly ornate ship models will receive a permanent home at MFA beginning June 26, just in time for Sail Boston's parade of tall ships on July 11. Among the European and American models on view will be a model of the U.S.S. Constitution and the intricately carved ship known as "Royal George." Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Prized Possessions," European paintings drawn from the private collections of over 50 Boston-area and regional collectors. Artists featured include Monet, Degas, Beckmann, Rembrandt, Mondrian, Pissaro and many others. Through Aug. 16.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!" The nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs remains on display through Sept. 7. Also now open is The Observatory, a new permanent exhibit where visitors can journey thorugh microscopic worlds, discover what's really at the end of a rainbow, and meet the denizens of a single drop of pond water. From May 30 to Sept. 13, ponder the Norman B. Leventhal collection of more than 60 colorful, extraordinary maps ranging in age from before Columbus' voyage to the present day. Examine global climate change— its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it— in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth.". Exhibit hall hours are Tues.-Sun., 9am-5pm, Fri. until 9pm. Admission is $6.50 for adults, $4.50 for ages 4-14, elders, $5 for students with ID and free for children three and under.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
at Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
Under the direction of Robert Brustein, the A.R.T. presents Hedda Gabler, Henrik Ibsen's groundbreaking exploration of repressed sexuality and frustrated social ambition. The production runs from May 8 to July 4, in repertory with Carlo Goldoni's The Servant of Two Masters, directed by Andrei Belgrader, which runs through July 12. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Beacon Hill Playhouse
54 Charles St., Boston
Come see the New England premiere of Beth Henley's latest play Abundance, running June 17-July 12. Set in the Wyoming Territory of the late 1860s, Henley's new madcap comedy chronicles the adventures of two mail-order brides who have traveled west to meet their prospective husbands. Tickets are $12. For times or reservations, call 720-0039.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and

(continued on following page)

ESPRESSO ROYALE CAFFE™
44 Gainsborough Street celebrates our 1st Anniversary. Join Us!
June 26

75¢ ICED CAPPUCCINO

ARTS

(Theater continued)

9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
At Wit's End, an irreverent evening with music starring Stan Freeman as the late Oscar Levant will run until July 19. The play glimpses the life of Levant, an unrivaled raconteur whose great style, panache, famous impressions and piano talent made him nationally renowned. Call 426-6912 for times and ticket prices.

Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
The Cambridge Theatre Company presents a return engagement of Jackie: An American Life from June 3-July 12. Written and directed by Gip Hoppe, this production tells the life story of Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis, from her days as a young girl in the Hamptons to her first date with JFK to the Onassis yacht.

Lenox Hotel
65 Exeter St., Boston
Manhattan is a dynamic musical revue that features a theatrical collage of memorable musical moments from top Broadway shows. It is celebrating its third month in Diamond Jim's piano bar, and will run until June 30. Call 536-5300 for times and ticket prices.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

North Shore Music Theatre
62 Dunham Rd., Beverly
Come see the Tony Award-winning musical Damn Yankees from July 2-18. When baseball fanatic Joe Boyd sells his soul to the Devil (played by loveable M*A*S*H* transvestite Jamie Farr), the hilarity begins as the Devil and his seductive sidekick Lola plot to keep him forever! Call 508-922-8500 for times and ticket prices.

Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
"What would you do with a million green stamps?" is the question Threshold Theatre answers with the Boston premiere of Les Belles Soeurs, a raucous comedy about 15 desperate women who want nothing more than a decent life for themselves. Shows run June 18-July 12; call 931-2000 for more information.

Publick Theatre, Inc.
Outdoor Theatre
Christian A. Herter Park
Soldiers Field Road, Boston
The Publick Theatre, Inc., Boston's oldest resident theatre company, announces the opening of their upcoming 22nd summer season with As You Like It by William Shakespeare on June 3. The production runs Weds.-Suns. at 8pm through June 28. Set in the magical Forest of Arden, As You Like It is a tale of jealousy, friendship, romance, loyalty and love; it is one of The Bard's most beloved comedies. Call 782-5425 for more information.

Shubert Theatre
265 Tremont St., Boston
Andrew Lloyd Webber's musical megahit Cats, based on T.S. Eliot's "Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats, runs from June 16-28. Those lucky enough to get tickets will not only be seeing a spectacular Broadway musical, but a theatrical phenomenon unparalleled in the history of musical theatre. Tickets are $25-$50; call 1-800-233-3123.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Triangle Theater Company
58 Berkeley St., Boston
A long-running hit in Chicago, Claudia Allen's Movie Queens will run from June 3-27 at Triangle's Paramount Penthouse. Performances are Weds.-Suns. at 8pm; all tickets are $15. The play centers around the the reunion of two legendary stars of Hollywood's Golden Age in a new Broadway play some 40 years later. Call 426-3550 for more information.

LECTURES

B.U. Bookstore
660 Beacon St., Boston
On June 11 at 7:30pm, Mary Morris reads from her latest work, Wall to Wall: From Beijing to Berlin by Rail, in the Charlesbank Reading Room on the 5th Floor. On June 15 at 5:30pm, Jay McInerney reads from his latest work, Brightness Falls, also in the Charlesbank Reading Room.

WORKSHOPS

Brookline Adult & Community Education Program
at Brookline High School
115 Greenough St., Brookline
Do you spend nights tossing and turning? Join Dr. Gregg Jacobs, director of the Behavioral Medicine Program for Insomnia at Deaconess Hospital, for an informative workshop discussing sleep and the behavioral factors that affect it. You will learn clinically proven, non-drug techniques that will help you fall asleep faster, stay asleep throughout the night and awaken feeling refreshed. Fee is $20. Call 730-2700.

Playground Entertainment, Inc.
Hanover Station, Boston
This new company is presenting a series of workshops led by Hollywood actor Frank Annese. Discussions include how to audition and whom to call. Basic Acting and Advanced Acting classes run for six weeks. Call 723-8625 for more information.

Silhouettes in Motion - Classic Movement for Actors, Models and Dancers
361 Newbury St., Boston
Call 247-2435 for more information and ask for Dianna.

GALLERIES

Cheremeteff Gallery
121 Newbury St., Boston
On view now through July is "New Russian Realism: The Traditionalists," portraits and landscapes by Gerasimov, Shankov, Shytkhno and Danilin. Artist-in-residence Shankov is available for commissioned portraiture and landscape renderings. Contemporary Russian iconography by Gassel and Sheglov. Unique and diverse selection of limited editioned prints and graphics. Call 536-1121. Open Tues.-Sat. 10am-7pm and by appointment.

Coco's Salon Gallery
544 Tremont St., Boston
This gallery shows new works every two months, ranging from impressionist works to those of cubism in paintings and sculptures. Hours are Tue and Sat., 9am-5pm; Wed-Fri., 10am-7pm. Call 451-2050 for more information.

Concord Art Association
37 Lexington Road, Concord
The CAA is proud to present an exhibition of Boston-area African-American artists until June 27. Gallery hours are Tue.-Sat. 11am-4:30pm; Sun. 2-4:30pm. Call 508-369-2578 for more information.

Galerie Mourlot
119 Newbury St., Boston
From June 12-July 7, come see "Art and Architecture of the 20th Century, Buildings by Boston Architect Jeffry Pond." Open Tues.-Sat., 10am-6pm, and by appointment. For more information, call 536-1177.

Gallery Equus
125 Kingston St., Boston
Gallery Equus presents the Boston-area debut of Dutch artist Peter Diem, acclaimed throughout Holland as the "Al Pacino of the canvas." His extremely colorful, exuberant, emotional canvases exude thickly painted images of Smarmy Flying Cows with Juicy Kissable Lips or Manic Clusters of Harpies and Yammering Crows. Through July 5. Call 482-8699.

Levinson Kane Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston
Come see "The Dog Show: Celebrating Man's Best Friend" from June 27-Labor Day. For dog lovers of all ages, this canine-inspired exhibit salutes dogs with paintings, sculpture, prints, ceramics, handmade books, photographs and more. Call 247-0545.

Mu Gallery
354 Congress St., Boston
See "Blood, Sweet and Tears," an exhibit highlighting the work of 10 women artists in 1992. All different media will be represented. Call 451-9528 for more information.

Nostalgia Factory
324 Newbury St., Boston
From July 1-30, the Nostalgia Factory hosts "Ad Lib," an exhibition of original old advertising dating from the 1890s through the 1970s, featuring images and stereotypes of women. Hours: Mon.-Sat. 10am-7pm, Sun. 11am-6pm. Admission is free; call 236-8754 for more information.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston
101 Arch St., Boston
The SAC celebrates spring with concurrent exhibitions of art for the garden called "Garden Treasures," which runs until July 11. Curator Gretchen Keyworth has commissioned major craft artists to create works for three environments: city, fantasy and country. Fountains, fishpools, birdhouses, lanterns and the like will be featured.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Boston Urban Gardeners
at Club Metropolis
533 Washington St., Boston
First of all, you have to know that Boston Urban Gardeners is a non-profit organization that transforms the city's vacant lots into community gardens in low-income neighborhoods. Now you can pay $8 to support them at a fundraiser called "Paradise Reclaimed" on June 26 at 9pm. Enjoy live jazz music, a buffet and dancing; three pairs of round-trip tickets to Hawaii will be given away during the course of the night. Call 522-1259 for more information.

Chinese American Civic Association at the New England Aquarium
CACA sponsors "A Taste of Asia Benefit Gala" June 24 at 6pm. It includes ethnic performances as well as food and wine tastings (representative cuisine from China, Japan, Korea, Cambodia, India, Vietnam and Thailand). Tickets are $45; call 426-9492 for more information.

Olympic Torch
on the steps of the State House
Governor Weld will be the first of thousands of New England citizens to carry the authentic U.S. Olympic torch for one leg (200 yards) of the 1992 U.S. Olympic Pride Torch Run. The 10-day relay begins on the State House steps on June 25 and makes its way through New England to end back in Boston on July 4 at the Hatch Shell.

The Arts Calendar Listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editor. We welcome the submission of press releases for all events in and around Boston. To reach us mail to The Improper Bostonian, Attn. Kathy Matheson, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village, 02147-0820. Please include information such as date time, duration, price, adress, phone nnumber and contact person. Listings must be recieved no later than 9 days prior to release.

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"What Motivates You?"

Marion, 50, Newton
"My urge to do the best for my children and help them to attain their goals."

Troy, 27, Dorchester
"Women with intelligence, class and big breasts."

Tina, 25, Somerville
"To accomplish what very few have done and to make people smile."

Tom, 55, Newton
"To help other people grow, develop and change."

Margaret, 22, Newton
"Knowing that tomorrow brings new challenges, hopes and accomplishments."

Don, 31, Walpole
"Working hard to play harder."

Perspectives...

Harvard Square is a way of life ...

to some people - like the high school students trying to disguise their age, and the Doc Marten's crowd that hangs around the T station. Most visitors just take the requisite tour of Au Bon Pain, the Coop, Wordsworth, Tower Records, and Urban Outfitters. But there's more to the Square than these well-known places. Catch the red line to Harvard Station and get ready for an evening full of good, cheap food, interesting folks and entertainment that's practically free.

For dinner, grab an all-beef Vienna hot dog (Chicago-style) at Chicago Frank's on Eliot St. If you're willing to spend a bit more money and prefer the atmosphere of a real restaurant, check out Bangkok House at 50 JFK St. for great Thai food at reasonable prices.

To experience Harvard Square at its best, watch some of Boston's most talented street performers and you won't want to leave. There's real talent out there, and the performers are worth tipping, especially if you stick around for a while. The most creative performer has to be the owner of the Majestic Bellowphone. If you haven't seen him play this homemade instrument consisting of kickballs, horns and a nose flute, you should look for him across the street from HMV. Some people may debate the instrument's musical value, but for silly and creative entertainment, there isn't a performer with a more original act in Harvard Square.

Other acts include magicians, jugglers and guitarists with the occasional violinist or opera singer thrown in for a little variety. One of the best musicians I've heard in Harvard Square is Flathead, a.k.a. Ned Landin. With his original songs, quirky guitar, and intriguing voice, he is a welcome change from the other musicians playing the usual renditions of Bob Dylan and Grateful Dead songs ad nauseam. Flathead normally plays to a good-sized crowd in front of the Body Shop.

If you need a break from the sixties revival that permeates Harvard Square, fast forward to the nineties in Learningsmith, a sophisticated toy store filled with interesting gadgets and computer games galore. Since it opened next to Bertucci's on Brattle St., Learningsmith has become one of the most popular nighttime spots in the Square. The store has books and toys covering every subject from gardening to space exploration, including Star Trek collectibles. The second floor is entirely devoted to computer software. The store also has computers set up so people can try out games before buying them. But I doubt most of the players have any intention of buying. So try to snag a seat at a computer, if you can convince someone else to give up their coveted seat!

To end your evening, head down to Herrell's on 15 Dunster St. to get the best ice cream in town. Then sit and watch a few more of the street acts that give Harvard Square its unique flavor. Don't forget to tip the performers, they'll appreciate it.

-J.L.

Angela Wooldridge

SALON GALLERY
NEW CLIENTS: RECIEVE A HAIRCUT FOR $15
OR 20% OFF ANY CHEMICAL SERVICE!
(Offer Not Good On Saturday)
EXISTING CLIENTS: BRING A NEW CLIENT,
AND GET TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE.
WE NOW OFFER FULL NAIL SERVICES.
544 Tremont St. Boston
(617) 451-2050
Across From Boston Centre For The Arts

The longest days of summer...

seem to inspire in all of us the desire to travel. It's time to visit grandparents, catch up with cousins and get to know the young children of your best old school friends. This summer it looks like I'll have it fairly easy, because for once in a very blue moon, all the people I'll be seeing are coming to see me! Anyone who has lived in Boston for a while knows how difficult it is to get people (especially parents that live in Florida!) to visit at any time other than the summer, because very few are willing to take the chance of freezing to death during their vacation. Therefore, summer is the best time to convince your friends and family to spend a few days of their holiday with you in good ol' Beantown.

Once you've accomplished the hard part of actually getting these loved ones to commit to visiting, the fun, yet challenging part looms on the horizon. How are you going to entertain these people, and show them such a good time that they'll want to return the next year? For my mom (who will be here for two weeks), I have planned a variety of activities. She brought her bike, so we'll do plenty of riding along the Charles, and catch a movie and concert or two at the Hatchshell. I'd also like to languish in the lush life with her a bit, so we will definitely go out for breakfast at one of Boston's most elegant hotel restaurants. I'm partial to Season's Restaurant at the Bostonian Hotel for entertaining tourists, because the elevated view of Faneuil Hall can't be beat. But the Four Seasons, the Ritz and the Meridien all offer white tableclothed, silver service, complimentary newspapers and a feeling of the good life that's all too enticing. I'll save the relaxed elegance of the Bristol Lounge at the Four Seasons for a weekend evening when we are looking to indulge our sweet tooths. Every weekend, they have a Viennese dessert buffet that is absolutely decadent. You can choose two or four desserts from their selection, and savor them while enjoying a view of the Public Garden and the great sounds of a live jazz trio.

When my two little cousins visit with their mom, the scenario will be slightly different. I don't think you could ever get away without a trip to the Aquarium when you're entertaining children or foreigners. I'm going to seize the opportunity to check out the Children's Museum while they're here as well. And the swan boats! Wow! With a 5 and 7 year-old in tow, I finally have the chance to do the most touristy thing in Boston!

Two of my very best friends from high school are planning visits as well. They'll have no problem entertaining themselves while I'm working, and will no doubt be more than satisfied when we're sunning ourselves in Christopher Columbus park, listening to random guitar men, and laughing at the suits walking swiftly past us. My old chums will be dying to check out the bar and club scene, and one girl is even bringing her rollerblades. All in all, it should be an excellent summer, and I don't plan on under-appreciating one single day of it. Even all the tourist-dodging my North End friends and I will be doing will be a welcome and joyous change of pace, especially since we'll be doing so from the protective sanctuaries of our rooftops, preferred cafés or favorite underground restaurant.

-E.C.

on life in Boston

The trance of the summer heat...

makes you want to groove to the beat. With so many rip-roaring, outdoor places in the Boston area, where should you go to let loose? The Tent on Marina Bay in North Quincy is the place to be if you want to party outdoors. Whether it be day or night, you can always count on a cool summer breeze while sitting by the ocean, sipping your frozen mudslide and having fun with a few good friends. Listen to music, dance or even play a game of hoop. It's all at The Tent.

How about a cruise on the Boston Harbor? The Bay State Cruise Company offers an exciting array of entertainment cruises day and night. Enjoy a continental breakfast and lunch while viewing the largest Tall Ship flotilla ever seen in the U.S. Give then a call at 723-7800 for a full schedule of the cruises that will be run during the Sail Boston extravaganza. If you're in the mood to dance the night away, the Bay State Cruise Company also offers "musical-on-board" cruises to suit a myriad of tastes.

If you're the type of person who gets bored easily, how about Faneuil Hall? Lily's, located smack in the center of this tourist area, is a relaxing outdoor restaurant and bar. People-watching is great while listening to the piano man. After swinging to the tunes coming from the piano, you might be in the mood to sing. Take a short walk to The Seaside restaurant and bar for a little karaoke. For a Mexican environment to go with the sweltering heat, El Torito, right around the corner, will cool you down with a frosty margarita. How about ordering a tequila shot from the waitress with a holster of shot glasses at her side? Boston offers it all in its fun spots. The hardest part is choosing one. -E.P.

Angela Wooldridge

Boston Natives crawl out...

of the woodwork as summertime rolls in. The winter-weary natives, mingling with the onslaught of tourists, canvas every patch of public greenery with bared limbs. Yet there are still places, far from the madding crowd, that are but a train ride away. From Long or Rowes Wharf, at the Aquarium stop on the blue line, ferries cruise through the harbor to George's Island. After the 45 minute ride, you can plant your feet back on solid ground and spend the day exploring. Fort Warren, used as a prison during the Civil War, is open for tours. Free water taxis to Gallops, Lovells, Bumpkin and Peddocks Islands are also available. All the islands have fishing, picnic areas, trails, and guided walks. To quench the sizzling summer rays, you can swim at the Lovells Island beach. Camping is allowed on several of the islands, but permits are required. For details, call Friends of the Boston Harbor Islands at 523-8386.

There are also leafy gems within the city itself, nestled behind the brownstones and pizza pads. Hall's Pond Sanctuary, hidden between Commonwealth Ave. and Beacon St., is a three and a half acre site preserved and protected as a wildlife refuge. After watching the ducks on the water - with the shady grass as your couch - you'll wonder why you ever needed a television. Nearby, the Brookline Conservation Commission has created a garden walk, with signs explaining the vegetation and ecosystem of the woods. You can sit on a bench counting squirrels or stand in the midst of the trail beneath a small dome which echoes like the Christian Science mapparium. The sanctuary is accessible by the C Train on the green line, at the Hawes St. stop. For information about the refuge, contact the Brookline Conservation Commission at 730-2088. -D.P.

A Modern Day Definition

Lifestyle \ 'lif-sti(ə)l \n: Ups and Downs B: Ins and Outs 2: A Way of Life (living it up yet trimming it down, tucking it in and working it out!) SYN: See Boston Athletic Club.

The Boston Athletic Club would like to announce to all Improper Bostonian customers The Summer Membership $199 starting June 1st!

Please call for further definition 617-269-4300

BOSTON ATHLETIC CLUB

653 Summer Street, Boston MA 02210

Not just your Fitness Club, it's your Lifestyle...

FREE PARKING!

(Im)proper Bostonians:

We want your Perspective!

Share with other Bostonians your unique outlook on fun, dating, sports, literature, entertainment or whatever it is that makes your life in Boston something to talk about.

Send contributions along with a short self-description to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station Street, 7A
Brookline MA 02147
Fax: 232-4305
Attn: Erica Cantley

CONTRIBUTORS

J.L- Jennifer Levitsky is a Yale student who doesn't like to admit she likes Harvard Square. She only goes there wearing her Yale sweatshirt so everyone knows which school holds her loyalty.

E.C. - Erica Cantley is a self-professed social butterfly, wanna-be writer, and frustrated chef.

D.P. - Deborah Pirraglia has thrown her B.U. diploma into her junk drawer and hopes to find a rich husband.

E.P. - Elizabeth Pantelakis is a contributing writer who has also taught aerobics and been a lifeguard.

Background photo by Melanie Dunea

A What, Where, When and H

The Leisu

Michael Powers

An Hits The Golf Course

An art gallery in Allston is "putt-ing" social consciousness into the ol' summer-time activity of miniature golf. Enigma Nine opened to the public last Saturday, displaying a revolving art exhibit on a miniature golf course. Instead of the usual windmills, churches and waterfalls, the holes at this mini golf course are portrayals of grim urban realities such as violence, drugs and homelessness. Owners Ed McCallister and Brian Roche decided to attract patrons by introducing an off-the-wall exhibit which combines a relaxing summer pastime with portrayals of current social ills, rather than resorting to expensive advertising. Visit this "cultural arcade" at 32 Rugg Road #9, off Cambridge St. in Allston. Donate $2 to play mini golf, and keep your scorecards - they contain information on the various local artists whose work is displayed here. For more information, call Enigma Nine at 783-9170.

Melanie Du

Victorian England is Alive in Boston

Bob Vila would certainly be bored with "this old house" - The Gibson House on 137 Beacon Street. Built in 1859 by Charles Gibson as a monument to his family and the Victorian age, the house has now been open to the pub lic since 1957. Among the earliest houses in the Back Ba the Gibson House's ornate interiors can be seen from Ma to October 31, Wednesday through Sunday at 1, 2, and 3pm. Guided tours are also offered by special arrangeme

This June and July, the Gibson House will present an informal summer series of lectures such as "Baywindow Botany;" plants for the Victorian Home, "Cutting a Dashing Figure;" silhouettes as a nineteenth-century art form and "Stitches in Time;" preserving the significance of the Gibson House. The lectures will be held Thursday evenings beginning at 6pm. Admission is $3. Proceeds from the series will go to the museum's conservation fund. For more inform tion, contact the Gibson House at 267-6338.

Melanie Dunea

Rat-Catching Made Fun

Are you an unfortunate city dweller who hasn't had the good fortune of nesting up in your apartment or home with your own furry little rodent? Well, now's the chance to show your friends that you, too, are in the know. Rat in the Trap, a battery-operated rodent comes complete with batteries, trap and realistic beady red eyes. Imagine the looks you'll get as you pose the device in your home while complaining about your rat problems (all the while, the rat is gyrating and wiggling in the trap). Set it up in the bathroom to welcome unsuspecting guests or place it in your kitchen the next time you throw a dinner party. Anywhere in the home, Rat in the Trap will make you proud. Fortunately, the rat is sonic-controlled, so a clap, whistle or loud noise will start it up and run for seven seconds. For the "ratless," this is a great way to keep up with the Joneses. Just head over to Funny Farm in Harvard Square to pick up your rat, today.

Throwing Up With Seymour Roaches

Some folks are vegetarians. Some love to eat meat. And some, like myself, enjoy nothing more than a nice plate of sautéed cock roaches, boiled crop locusts, termites, grasshoppers and meat worms. All the information you need to convince yourself that insects are good food can be found in The Food Insects Newsletter. Published by the Department of Entomology at the University of Wisconsin, this little treat is packed with the latest in insect-eating trends and recipes. For me, all it took was one of their recent articles on June Beetles (a delicacy in the Philippines) to insure that never again would anything

e Study

Throw Your Money To The Wind

Learn the art of smooth sailing this summer from the Boston Sailing Center during their "Learn to Sail Vacation Week." You'll be put through an intensive, five-day course to study the theory of sailing in a classroom for two hours each morning. After the indoor instruction, you'll literally step outside to the water and "do the real thing" on one of a fleet of 27-foot Olympic-class Solings for three hours of practice. On the last day of your sailing adventure, practice your navigating skills on an all-day cruise to a harbor island, and learn how to fly a spinnaker. You'll end the day with a picnic lunch and exploration at Gallops Island. Tuition for the course is $365 - 20% less if you bring a matey. The Center guarantees you'll be a confident sailor by the end of the week. If not, they'll provide extra instructions at no extra cost. To sign up, stop by the Center located at 54 Lewis Wharf or call 227-4198.

...ard worms slide down my gullet. ...ctly raw meat. No fish heads or monkey ...certainly, no more cow testicles! From ...ercise on insects, though it's not all ...fun and games. Like most people, bug banqueters ...are not without their problems. Cockroach shells ...are a good example of something that's tasty and ...nutritious but they're easily lodged in your teeth. ...Worms are very tasty - especially meal worms - ...but they have a tendency to slide down your ...throat before you can truly enjoy their flavor.

There are so many taste nuances in these creatures that there is also a technique involved in chewing these little guys. For instance, it's best to slowly crack the cockroach between your teeth so that the juices and meat locked under the shell can squirt out onto the back of your tongue. But the best way to enjoy a roach is in Paté de le Roach—a lovely paté of ground body meat and head parts.

Flies are different. If they've been fried, the whole body breaks up into a million pieces but if they're lightly sautéed, the heads will break cleanly off of the rest of the body and you can savor the sweet taste locked inside the mini torso. (It's best to remove the wings, as they can tickle your throat on the way down.)

For a real treat, try frying some worms (meal or Southwestern Earth) with lemon and garlic and roll them in a pita with some tartar sauce. Surprisingly, these creatures go perfectly well with a nice Bordeaux - '87 Chateau Le Fite, if possible. Write to The Food Insects Newsletter c/o 545 Russell Laboratories University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, Wisconsin 53706 for your copy of this most interesting food service.

LA TRENDS

Trends Analyst/Surfer Louis C. Horowitz has kindly allowed the I.B. to reprint an excerpt from his new book, entitled How to Murder Your House Plant. Due out in a few weeks, Horowitz says that the idea came to him from "years of mistreating horticultural creations. I really abused some fine specimens to the point where I deliberately began buying them just to watch them die. At one point, I would actually photograph my plants as they were dying."

Enjoy this passage from his new book.

Who cares if plants produce oxygen or if they make some people happy. Most end up dying anyway so I figure, why not kill them earlier. Pick up the nearest plant (preferably an affectionately-named one, like Harriet) and throw it against the wall. It's so easy and it's fun to do. One new trend in my city is to throw a plant-killing party. In a city as oxygen-needy as Los Angeles, I'm surprised that so many of my friends would adopt this sub-culture phenomenon, but they really seem to enjoy this new sport. Once you've picked the plant of your choice, you can throw them, burn them, over-water or "drown" them, pull the branches off of them (and patch them back up so they become diseased and die a slow death), poison them, freeze them, dehydrate them and more. This is the perfect murder, made safe. There are currently no laws against killing your own house plants so join the gang and be proud of that black thumb.

Horowitz claims that his book should sell well in the Los Angeles vicinity, but is unsure how it will be perceived in other parts of the country. "It really doesn't matter that much to me. I have a follow up book this fall: Advanced Riflery: How To Get Rid of Your Neighbor's Cats."

Melanie Dunea

DINING

The Moveable Feast

Du Barry - The Best of France Thrives in Boston

by Meg Worden
& Peter McNamara

Melanie Dunea

Treat yourself to a taste of France at The Du Barry Restaurant.

There are times when it is nice to put aside all thoughts of diet and things that are supposed to be good for you. In fact, there are times when nothing appeals so much as good old fashioned French food - the kind that went out of fashion with the introduction of cuisine nouvelle and cuisine minceur. The Du Barry restaurant is one of the few establishments in the area to have steadfastly stuck to its menu of traditional French cooking - you know, the sort of menu that includes old popular standbys such as duck with orange sauce, chateaubriand with béarnaise sauce, coq au vin, French onion soup and the like.

We had a splendid meal that brought back many fond memories, and despite our fears that the meal could be heavy, we left feeling satisfied and comfortable.

We were seated in the front part that resembles a glass-roofed terrace; when looking up, you can see passers-by on Newbury Street, and conversely, they can stare down at you while you eat. Though not the most comfortable of arrangements, nor the most attractive of dining areas, we fell upon our food with so much enthusiasm that we completely forgot about our surroundings. There are two other dining areas, which we liked better; one beside the bar, where seating is in booths, and a larger room with pink walls, coral chairs and a mix of booths and tables. In fine weather, there is seating in the garden behind the restaurant.

The selection of appetizers was a real "blast from the past," and although tempted, we avoided items like smoked salmon and imported foie gras in favor of homemade dishes. Escargots de Bourgogne ($5.50) were six very tender snails served in a tasty - albeit skimpy - portion of garlicky snail butter (we recall snails in the past whose texture has resembled that of an eraser, so we were delighted at the melt-in-the-mouth texture of ours). Paté de poisson ($4.25) was two slices of what should really be called a terrine made, our waiter told us, from sole and haddock. It came in three attractive layers colored green, white and salmon, though we couldn't distinguish a difference in taste. It was delicate without being bland, and a few green peppercorns studded throughout added a peppery dimension. Best of all, the appetizer we tried was the paté du chef ($4.00) which we would have called a terrine because of its course texture, but whatever its correct name, the flavors were nicely balanced and we loved its rich succulence.

We had a hard time choosing entrees from classics like tournedos Rossini, daube de boeuf, frogs legs, coquilles Saint-Jacques, veal sweetbreads, veal cordon bleu, calves brains, beef tongue and calves liver. We finally opted for steak au poivre ($19.50), served medium rare rather than "bleu" as requested, but nonetheless, its luscious taste resulted from a liberal coating of black, green and pink peppercorns and cognac flambée; lapin sauté Dijonnaise ($15.75) - portions of very tender rabbit in a mustard cream sauce with a hint of pepper and a special of the day: magret de canard with peppercorn sauce ($18.00) - slices of tender, medium rare duck breast in a light sauce combining cream and green peppercorns.

For dessert we splurged on crêpes suzette ($12.50 for two), which were good, but tough, and the sauce needed more butter. The soufflé Grand Marnier ($8.00 for two) was the highlight of the evening and worth every cent. The outside was crusty with nice crunchy bits of sprinkled sugar, while the inside was soft and light. It was served with a very good crème anglaise, though the sauce wasn't even needed.

"A little corner of France in Boston," says the menu, and after our meal, we had to agree it was the next best thing to being there. ❑

Du Barry

Du Barry 159 Newbury Street Boston, tel. 262-2445.
Open for lunch Mon. - Sat.
Dinner served daily.
Reservations: Accepted
Credit Cards: AE, Disc., MC, V.
Handicapped: Access through back entrance (call ahead); bathrooms not wheelchair accessible.

Pat's Pushcart Restaurant

Stop in on your way to the Tall Ships

Pat's Pushcart Restaurant has been serving fine Italian Cuisine for the past 20 years in Boston's Historical North End

BE SURE TO ASK ABOUT OUR SPECIALITY DISHES.

61 Endicott St., Boston's North End 523-9616

DINING

In the Realm of the Spirits

Alize - Paradise on Ice

by Al Stankus

Even before I whipped up my first Alize Daiquiri, the label notes clued me in that the folks responsible for this "unique blend of natural passion fruit juices and Cognac" were doing something right. On the back, sandwiched between the corporate pitch that blabbed about Alize's tropical trade wind inspiration and the tag line from the Surgeon General was a tiny caveat: "Refrigerate after opening."

Damn if there wasn't pure fruit juice trapped inside the bottle - stuff so real that if it wasn't kept cold it just might spoil. In the world of chemical-added beverages, maybe this Alize was indeed like a gentle, unspoiled tropical breeze.

So off came the cap, and out came a pour. Now if you've ever eaten passion fruit, you know that dealing with the voluminous number of seeds is priority number one. Once that's taken care of, what you get is a fruit whose scent just may be more evocative of the islands than even that of the mango. Add a bit of cognac to the potent juice and suddenly, it's time to turn up the Merengue and bring on the cocktail shaker.

Sweet, but not cloying, and low in alcohol (16 percent), these characteristics impart Alize with a chameleon-like quality that serves it well for summer mixing. It can flavor rum punches and daiquiris without overpowering them, or be used as the primary spirit with a tart mixer such as cranberry juice or with a mix of grapefruit juice and sparkling water.

At Sugar Reef, possibly Manhattan's most successful Caribbean restaurant, Alize's mixability led their bar staff to create a dandy cocktail. A mainstay of the drink menu, the recipe for the Alize Daiquiri is included in The Sugar Reef Caribbean Cookbook (Dell Publishing).

Described by author Devra Dedeaux as "an instant hit," here's the recipe for the Alize Daiquiri, as made at Sugar Reef:

Alize Daiquiri
(serves 1)

1 oz. Alize
2 oz. white rum
1/2 oz. triple sec
1 oz. lime juice (not Rose's or frozen limeade)
1/2 oz simple syrup
1 scoop crushed ice
fresh mint and lime wedge for garnish

Combine the Alize, rum, triple sec, lime juice, simple syrup and ice in a blender and blend until smooth. Pour into tall glass and garnish with mint and lime. NOTE: In experimenting, I found that shaking the ingredients in a cocktail shaker and straining the liquid into a cocktail glass created a more evocative and visually pleasing drink.

Recipe reprinted from The Sugar Reef Caribbean Cookbook by Devra Dedeaux and published by Dell. ❑

Great seafood with a great seaview

CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS
BAR and RESTAURANT

Appetizers
Mix & Match Raw Bar $1.00 each N.E. Clam Chowder Cup $2.50 Bowl $3.50

Entrees
VEAL SCALLAPINI MARSALA $14.95
(Veal sauteed w/ mushrooms &prosciuto in butter &marsala wine sauce)
BROILED SCROD $9.95
SOUL OSCAR $12.95
(Fillet of soul wrapped around Asparagus, topped w/ lobster meat & shrimp sauce)
CHICKEN CUTLET PARMIGIANA $9.95

On The Waterfront 25 Rogers St.
Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930
1-800-254-0014 508-283-0007

S U m e r

New American Cuisine

summer provides us with a palate of the freshest and most interesting ingredients for our menus. get it while it's hot.

(617) 338.4600

cornucopia

15 West Street Downtown Boston

We Welcome Diners Club International validated parking at the lafayette mall garage after 4pm

Four Winds

266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront

(617) 742-3922

seafood grille

DINING

Appeteasers

by
Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

It's Not Just A Rumor
Yes, Cornucopia is indeed still open at 15 West Street, Boston, and yes, the rumors are true, they will be moving - but not until the beginning of next year when the present lease expires. Current plans are to hold their New Year's Eve party in their new Back Bay premises (we've promised not to reveal its location yet, but we think it will make the Cameron brothers happy). Meanwhile, watch this page for updates on their exciting August and September wine tastings.

Hot Chili Peppers
We hear that the second Hotter Than Hell Night at the East Coast Grill was, shall we say, a flaming success. If you missed it, don't despair as more are planned. Actually, special dinners are being served the first Monday of every month, though details are not usually available until one week beforehand. For information, call 491-6568.

Got The Blues?
The outside eating area at the Blue Room has recently been redecorated and not only looks really "cute" but can also accommodate 50. At lunch time, you can order from a cart serving salads and sandwiches, while from 5pm-midnight, bar food and cocktails are served.

Bring On The Night
The latest hotspot at night nowadays is Gyuhama, where from midnight to 2am it transforms to Rock 'n' Roll Sushi, with the waitresses shedding their kimonos in favor of sequined toreador jackets and mini skirts. Celebrity spotters should note that this is the place to be. Those of you who were here in the '70s will remember the late night crowd at the Boylston Street Ken's; well this is the '90s version.

Farewell, Farewell
A fond farewell and our best wishes to food critic Bob Levey and food editor Gail Perrin, both of the Globe. We'll miss you both.

Hasta La Vista, Zapata
We're sorry to report the closing of the popular and well reviewed Zapata Cantina in Brookline. Their talented chef Ruben Roman can now be found cooking southwestern fare at 1280 Beacon Street, also in Brookline. Ruben is well known in the Boston area for his innovative approach.

Coffee Burnout
We recently found a solution to the problem of coffee burning and developing a bitter taste. Just stick the Full Circle Coffee Ring made by Progress Unlimited on the bottom of your glass coffee carafe and your coffee will taste fresh brewed for hours. Best of all it costs very little - we found it at Lechter's for just $1.99.

Stop Your Wining
Somehow, during the summer, Rhode Island doesn't seem that far away, so traveling wine lovers should note that during July, Al Forno in Providence will be hosting a wine tasting dinner featuring winemaker Giovanni Puiatti from Friuli, a region of Italy noted for its lovely white wines. At press time, the date had not been set, so call (401) 273-9760 for further information.

Baldini's II
We are great fans of the pizzas and the eggplant parmesan at Baldini's at 304 Stuart Street (near the Park Plaza Hotel), and it seems we are not the only ones. They are in the process of opening up a branch at 71 Summer Street.

Unsung Heroes
From time to time, our dining experience is heightened by better than average service, and we'd like to give these hard working and underappreciated individuals some credit. At the Marais, you'll not only dine in impressive surroundings, but if you're lucky enough to have Patricia or John R. as your waitstaff, you'll be indeed blessed. Keep up the good work! ❑

OTTAVIO'S
RISTORANTE
FINE ITALIAN CUISINE
Sunday through Wednesday 4:30 - 10:00
Thursday through Saturday 4:30 - 11:00
257 North Street, North End, Boston
723-6060
Free Limousine Service Also Available

The North End's Getaway for American Home Cooking
Oasis Cafe
"HOME OF THE HEARTY APPETITE!"
Lunch and Dinner, Tuesday through Saturday and Sunday Brunch
176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

"I'll treat you just like family except you won't have to do the dishes"
Come for our Veal Saltimbocca alla Romana
You'll want the recipe after feasting on this delicacy of veal layered with prosciutto and served with fresh sage, sauteéd in wine.
Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street"
8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

fresh adj., 1. Recently made, produced, or harvested: fresh vegetables.
Fresh Louie's Farm Mkt. & Seafood
Hours: Mon-Fri 9am-8pm, Sat 9am-7pm, Sun 12-5pm
349A Newbury St. Boston 247-1474
For a minimum purchase of $10, you can have validated parking right next door.
♿

Brunch Board

Menu Items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a varicty of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz B

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. Adults $12.95, Children $5.95. All you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American homestyle fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

Warren Tavern, 2 Pleasant St., Charlestown, 241-8142
Take a step back into history this Sunday, approximately 212 years. The Warren Tavern is one of the oldest restaurants in the country and the first place to be rebuilt after Charlestown was burned down in the Battle of Bunker Hill. The Tavern features an original decor of low beamed ceilings, church pew benches and a 25 foot oak bar. Cuisine is straight forward American with a little international flair. Brunch served from 12:00 to 3:30. $4.95 - $6.95

ARARAT
RESTAURANT

Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates
4.75 Each

Falafel, Hommos, and Tabouleh

Musaka
Eggplant with Rice Pilaf

Mujadra
Lentils and Rice with salad

Pilaki
Kidney Beans and Rice Pilaf with Salad

Hommos, Tabouleh, and Yalanji
with Rice Pilaf

We also serve beer and wine. Please come in and visit us.

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 Arlington Street, Watertown, MA.
(617)924-4100*(617)934-7011

"Home of Italian Pizza and Pasta"
NOW SERVING DINNER

SIENNA'S

Come Dine with us in our Friendly and Casual Atmosphere with Great Italian Food.

Dinner Served Mon. - Sat.; 5p.m. -11p.m.
214 LINCOLN ST., CORNER OF KNEELAND ST.
426-6665

It Costs Less Than You Think
Advertise in the Improper Bostonian
(617) 232-3507

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Restaurant listings are provided as a service to advertisers. If you would like to have your restaurant listed, please call the Improper Bostonian Advertising Department at 232-3705.

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727
A,MC,V$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Amsterdam's,
54 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel
426-1111
A, MC, V $$
Don't let the name fool you. Amsterdam's is the epitome of American Bistro. The most popular eat at this new hotspot is the Rotisserie roasted chicken. Also choose from a variety of delicious appetizers such as spicy fried squid and steamed mussels. Stick around after dinner on Sunday and Monday nights to catch live Jazz from 9-2am. Casual dress. Open 7 days until 2am.

Ararat
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof,
1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA,
272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose,
21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef,
604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Come on down! Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles,
Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537
A,D,MC, V$$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Featuring a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees & grilled fresh seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am -11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

Cactus Club,
939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200
A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Café Marliave
10 Bosworth St., Boston 423-6340 $$
If you're an aspiring poet, there's a special place here for you: The Poet's Corner. On the sun-filled roof garden is where the famous American poet John B. O'Reilly was inspired to write his best works. If you're looking for delicious food, there are 14 pasta sauces here to tempt every Bostonian, a spacious glassed-in cocktail roof garden and a wonderful family to make you feel at home. See ad on left.

Caffe Dello Sport, 3
08 Hanover St., Bos. 523-5063 $
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu- sublime; or order up a confection to go

Caffe Graffiti
307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016 $
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Italia
279 Newbury St., Boston, 536-3556 $
Sip cappuccino and espresso from the early morning light into the balmy summer night at this authentic Italian cafe. Mangia imported pastries, Gelati, calzone, arancini, panzarotti and more from 8 am-12am Monday through Thursday and 8am-2am Friday through Sunday. Relax and enjoy a late night dessert on their outdoor terrace open until 2 am on weekends.

Caffe Pompei,
280 Hanover St., Bos. 523-9498 $$
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city , is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4AM. Famous for it's homemade banana gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinnermenu, Caffee Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Casa Portugal,
1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880
A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia,
15 West St., Bos.. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

CAFFÉ Graffiti
"Come In And Sign Our Wall."
▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato
CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

CAFÉ BRAZIL
Bem-vindo! Welcome!
Serving Beer and Wine.
Listen to Live, Acoustic Samba and Bassa Nova While Enjoying a Scrumptious Dinner!
15% off w/ this coupon.
*Not valid unless presented when seated.
Good Sun - Thurs for lunch or dinner.
Expires July 30, 1992
421 Cambridge St., Allston MA
789-5980

YOU BE THE JUDGE - BEST BBQ
LOADING ZONE BBQ
BOSTON
617.6950087
PIT CREW
INDUSTRIAL STRENGTH
FREE BBQ RIB
1 SAMPLE PER COUPON EXP. 6/30/92
COUPON
150 KNEELAND ST.
WATCH OUT REDBONES, BOB THE CHEF, JAKE & EARLS [YES THIS IS A CHALLENGE]

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali,
415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254
A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Four Winds,
266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922
A, MC, D, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open from noon to 2am daily.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050
A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I,
71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces.
Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus, 3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790
A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499
$
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Joyce Chen,
115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373
A, MC, V $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring a new spring menu. In addition to Joyce Chen's wide variety of dishes on the year-round menu, the seasonal dishes include Chicken Macadamia with asparagus and Wok-seared shrimp with asparagus. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all the fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house laboratory under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

Loading Zone
150 Kneeland St., Boston 695-0087
V, A, MC, DC, D$$
You can load up on a number of barbecue specialties while enjoying one of Boston's more artistic restaurant experiences. Tables are glass-topped over a variety of paintings, sculptures and more - all by Boston artists. For a new patron, you can't go wrong with their combination platter, or "Pig Out" as it's affectionately labeled. This platter offers a wonderful sampling of 3 spare ribs, baby back ribs, pork shoulder, brisket and bbq chicken. Lunch 11:30am to 5pm, dinner from 5pm to midnight. Don't miss their club nights - 3 times a week.

L'Osteria
109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Triestini - three veal cutlets with prociutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959
V,MC $$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials .steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century. Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury St. Open daily noon to midnight.

Noble House,
1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580
A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

Buy one entreé and get a second entreé of equal or lesser value
FREE
Good Sunday - Wednesday
Not valid for lunch specials, take-out or delivery.
Tax and gratuity based on full value of meal. Offer expires 7/15/92

Signature _____ Date _____

86 Peterborough St. Boston, MA (Behind Star Market in the Fenway) 424-7070

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

The Original Sports Saloon
47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
This neighborhood restaurant and bar is the only place to go in Boston to watch a sporting event. This true authentic establishment roars with excitement no matter which sport is showing on their five satellite T.V.'s. As far as their menu, barbeque is the name of the game here. The Saloon also offers a variety of other menu items from burgers to seafood, but they do it different than anyone else. All items are available for take-out and delivery. Open 11 am-2am, 7 days a week.

Ottavio's
257 North St., Bos. 723-6060
A, D, MC, V $$$
Casual Northern Italian dining with impeccable service and the best Caesar salad served tableside. Mirrored walls, fresh flowers, candles and windows - complete with a sculptured floral design, add flare and romance. Try the chicken ottavio - chicken with prosciutto and cheese in a mushroom sherry sauce or a succulent lobster, only 2 pounders and up in this classy joint! Open daily for dinner 4:30 - 11:00pm.

Patisserie Francaise
54 JFK St., Cambridge, 354-9850
$(lunch)$$(dinner)
If you yearn for Paris in the summertime, try out this little French café in Harvard Square. They serve fresh food from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday and Monday, and until 10 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Lunch consists of omelets, salads, soups, and sandwiches. Dinner adds typical French cuisine, freshly-cooked, to the menu. And the deserts include every chocolate and fruit-filled concoction you could imagine.

Rattlesnake,
382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555
$$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. If you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Ristorante Carlo Marino,
8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltimboca alla Romano - veal layered with prosciutto with fresh sage, sautéed in wine; Spinaci di Casa - spinach sautéed with garlic oil, cannellini beans and prosciutto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Sienna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC, V, A $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary situated in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston.

Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

1280
Mexican Restaurant

THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD. LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.

The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

EMPOWER YOUR LIFE

Meditation Enlightenemnt
Buddhsim Happiness
Power Miracles
Balance Wisdom
Career Success Reincarnation

The First and Second Church
64 Marlborough St., Boston
☆ Tuesday June 30 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.
☆ Monday July 6 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.
☆ Tuesday July 7 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.

The Westin Hotel Copley Place
10 Huntington Ave., Boston
☆ ThursdayJuly 2 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.
☆ Friday July 3 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.

The Sheraton Commander
16 Garden St., Cambridge
☆ Saturday July 11 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.

FREE FREE

Sponsored By The Boston Meditation Society.
For Info Call (617) 937-7077.

HOW IMPORTANT IS THE RIGHT ROOMMATE?
RUN YOUR AD UNTIL IT WORKS FOR $19 AND WIN A LIMO RIDE AND DINNER FOR TWO.
BOODLES

NEW FROM THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIEDS
"THE $19 AD!"

NOW, WHEN YOU PLACE YOUR HOUSE OR APARTMENT-SHARE CLASSIFIED WITH THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, WE'LL RUN A FOUR LINE ADVERTISEMENT UNTIL YOU FIND THAT SPECIAL SOMEONE
"THATS $19 UNTIL IT WORKS!"

WHEN YOU'RE SUCCESSFUL IN YOUR SEARCH, WE WILL ENTER YOU IN A DRAWING TO WIN A CITY TOUR IN A LIMO FOLLOWED BY A DINNER FOR TWO AT BOODLES!!

COMEDY

The Katz Out of the Bag
An Interview with Jonathan Katz

by Kathy Matheson

Jonathan Katz is a jack of all trades. If he hasn't ripped your ticket in a theater, sold you shoes, an artificial Christmas tree ("It was a seasonal thing"), or a set of curtains from Curtain World, then maybe he entertained you as a puppeteer in a Macy's window.

Or maybe not.

Katz has worked in all types of media. A partial list of his credits includes a TV pilot he co-wrote in 1977 with long-time friend and now well-known writer David Mamet called Smashville, and he later used his musical talents to write the theme song for the sitcom Mork & Mindy. In the late 1980s, he and Mamet collaborated again on the screenplay for the film House of Games, in which Katz himself played a comedian.

Now living in Newton, he's currently working on a pilot radio program for WGBH, which debuts June 29. It's a variety show format, complete with a with a five-piece band to back him up. "It's something I haven't done in a long time," he says.

But he says that he's most comfortable performing stand-up. Some people may think stand-up is a much better medium for comedy because you get an immediate reaction from your audience; in recorded media such as film and TV, you're only guessing how the viewer will react to a "funny" line.

Katz, however, was not bothered by the lack of a live response during his movie stints. "The hardest part for me," he explains, "was saying lines someone else wrote."

"[As a comedian], it's not easy to invent your career everyday, Every once in a while, I think of becoming a mailman."

And speaking of things other people wrote, are comedians at all competitive, jealous and petty about their material? "The Boston comedy community here is very supportive," says Katz. In other markets, there is definitely more back-stabbing - especially Los Angeles. "The higher the stakes," he says, "the more vicious the scene."

A 10-year veteran of the business, Katz may seem firmly established to some, but he concedes that it's still not easy. "As much as I love the freedom [of the comedy business], there's an enormous amount of uncertainty," he says. [As a comedian], "it's not easy to invent your career everyday," explains Katz. "Every once in a while, I think of becoming a mailman."

But Katz has continued to create. Although the comedian has outgrown some things used in past routines, he has retained some older material. "I write material and shed material at about the same rate," he says. Comedian Dom Irrera, who won an ACE award for a comedy special on cable, encounters people who chant with him as he performs the old material they know and love.

Katz and Irrera will appear together at Nick's Comedy Stop the first week in July, and Katz says they work really well together: "I'm funny and he's lucky." (Just kidding, Dom.)

There's really no question that the lucky ones during his performances will be those in the audience. ❑

Comedy Listings

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Sandwiches and cold appetizers served. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.

Every Mon. is Cross comedy. Every Tue. is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. Wed 24th.- Paul Provenza, Dana Gould, Cathy Ladman, Barry Sobel. Thu 25th. thru Sat 27th.- Fred Greenlee, Brian Powers, Mary Martha. Sun 28th.- Jeff Marder, Tim Slagle, Don White. Mon 29th.- Cross Comedy. Tue 30th.- Brian Kiley. Wed 1st. thru Sun 5th.- Jackie Flynn, Chuck Sklar, Paul Elwell. Mon 6th.- Cross Comedy. Tue 7th.- Lauren Dombrowski.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country. Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Fri. and Sat. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat.

Wed 24th.- Jimmy Smith, Cindy Freeman, Jon Groff. Thu 25th.- Dave Fitzgerald, Tim Monohan, Chuck Sklar. Fri 26th & Sat 27th.- Mike McDonald, Jon Groff, Greg Fitzsimmons. Sun 28th.- Billy Martin, Bob Aubin, Jon Priest. Mon 29th.- Dave Fitzgerald, Rick Jenkins, Jon Shipman. Tue 30th.- D.J. Hazard, John Rodgers, Rayme Albert. Wed 1st.- Jimmy Smith, Helene Lantry, James Lemur. Thu 2nd.- Mana Falzone (Ladies Only Show), Julie Barr, Kathy Byron. Fri 3rd & Sat 4th.- Brian Powers, Al Ducharme, Helene Lantry. Sun 5th.- Dave Fitzgerald, Mike Cappy, Gazzo.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700, Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.

Wed 24th.- Ed Regine, Debbie Dickins, Dan Law. Thu 25th.- Anthony Clark, Ed Regine, Teri Pepitone. Fri 26th.- Don Gavin, Anthony Clark, Ed Regine. Sat 27th.- Anthony Clark, Ed Regine, Diane Bean. Sun 28th.- David Bagni, Mary Downes, Martin Waters. Mon 29th.- D.J. Hazard, Wendy Wilson, Frank Sugrue.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• ImprovBoston at the Lync Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundays at 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE. Nick's will be the official host to Sail Boston 1992 (July 11-16). Comedy get-togethers are planned.

Wed 24th.- Scott Bruce, Jay Mohr. Thu 25th.- Chuck Martin, Vic D'Benedetto. Fri 26th & Sat 27th.- Steve Sweeney, Chuck Martin, Scott Bruce. Sun 28th.- Kevin Knox, Caito & Morin. Mon 29th.- Open Mike Nite with Billy Martin. Tue 30th.- Eddie Brill, Paul D'Angelo. Wed 1st.- Scott Bruce, Mike Cheselka. Thu 2nd.- Jim Lauletta, Eddie Brill. Fri 3rd.- Tony V., Jay Mohr. Sat 4th.- Tony V., Eddie Brill.

• Renegade Duck 277-0550, at Play it Again Sam's, 1314 Commonwealth Ave., Allston. Boston's improvisational comedy troupe appears every Saturday at 9pm. Admission is $5.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. Every Tue: "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos. Every Wed: Anthony Clark. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-$10. No dress code.

Wed 24th.- Anthony Clark. Thu 25th.- Chance Langton, Al Ducharme. Fri 26th. & Sat 27th.- Chance Langton, Dave Chapelle, Kevin Flynn. Sun 28th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 30th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). Wed 1st.- Anthony Clark, Mike Bent. Thu 2nd.- Cross Comedy. Fri 3rd. & Sat 4th.- Randy Credico, Chance Langton, Jim Decroteau. Sun 5th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 7th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Little Jeannie, Thought you might like to see your name in print, since I know you are an avid reader of the Impersonals. We all looked in your skylight from E's roof deck the other night. Hahaha! Guess who?

Amy,
Portland Trailblazers #1!
Shhyeah right! In your dreams, maybe.
-Mike J.

To B:
Just take the Gene Simmons approach and hold your nose.
In The Know

Tegan/Regina,
I've done a lot of thinking , and you are pitiful. Will you still be the same next fall?
-Your ex-roommates

Mike G.-
Thanks for trusting me with your bike. Can you believe I'm still alive?

Soleman,
Before we hit Buffet, let's remember: bread before cheese and always sit behind - not in front of - the fan!
Fresh Air Funder

Cathy-
Keep your shirt on in France, okay? He's a much nicer boy than you realize. Plus he's already been well-trained. What more could you asked for ?
-J

To the man/woman in the Gay Pride parade:
How do you make your legs look so luscious?
-An envious admirer

SK-
Shall I send you a note all summer long? I'll talk to you when I'm alone in my room any time! I miss you a lot more than I think you know. And its not just your body.
JL

Mrs. H,
Now that we're on a regular basis, I'll already know about your sins. Bless You and your cute little ass.
Father Rod

Marc-
Don't leave! I've asked you twice now. Don't make me beg.

Cheeky Cat,
You say my eyes are crazy eyes. Sometimes they are and so are you. And if you wonder what I would do, I would do anything if I could. You know I would.
(Cheer up!)
Love, Cheeky Bird.

Patrice: Only you can prevent forest fires. A candle is not a toy.

Kirk and Jen,
Thanks for the haircut. What are a few bald spots between friends?

Kirrill: DId you know that the word "gullible" is not in the dictionary? Honest!
The Fibber\

Ghost of Christmas Future- Life is just a tire swing. It's time to go fishin', down to rock bottom again. - Just a new friend

Steve: Welcome to Beantown. It isn't the wild West End, but you've got to admit: the babes are awesome.

Ninjo: It's okay about Inky. You're actually much more bouncy than he was, anyway.
Your little love-puppy

To All My Friends:
Don't call me at work anymore, at least until the economy picks up.
Leslie

Kath: Q: Why did the man cross the road?
A: Who knows? Why do they do anything?
'Nuff said.

French Man and English Man, Where are you guys? It's time for another dinner party, don't you agree? You know where to find me. - The Coffee Girl

To the long-legged, beautiful blonde I saw on Hanover Street last week, That was a mighty funny shade of green you were turning. Hope you're back to your cheery self by now.
-Not just another Greek

Dalia- All work and no play makes for a burnt out little yupster. Hope we can remedy this situation soon. I miss you.

Dante, Time to resume our Saturday-night-after-work regime. From your culinary partner in crime

M.B. - Just wanted to confirm we're still on parallel paths. There hasn't been a white out in a while - when was your last peanut butter and jelly. - The Church Lady

Evan - The North End is all the better now that you've taken up residency. Hurry up and get your serviceware situation in order - I'm hungry! -EWC

Scott, We've never seen a man so driven to risk life and limb in Boston traffic in order to get a free beer! Next time, lose the bike and join the Magical Mystery Tour Bus for some real partying! The IB Crew

Whitey, I hardly remember what you look like, but I certainly remember your kisses. I'm not interested in any others, so I'll just wait until the next time.

Jennifer, all the neighbors are complaining about the noise from your new stereo, I can hear it all the way down at my house. Not! Just wanna see if you're reading the paper.
Love from Erica

N.
You'll be happy to know that we've gi ven you an extension on your next piece. It'll be just in time for our 50th year anniversary issue.
-Mr. Bridge

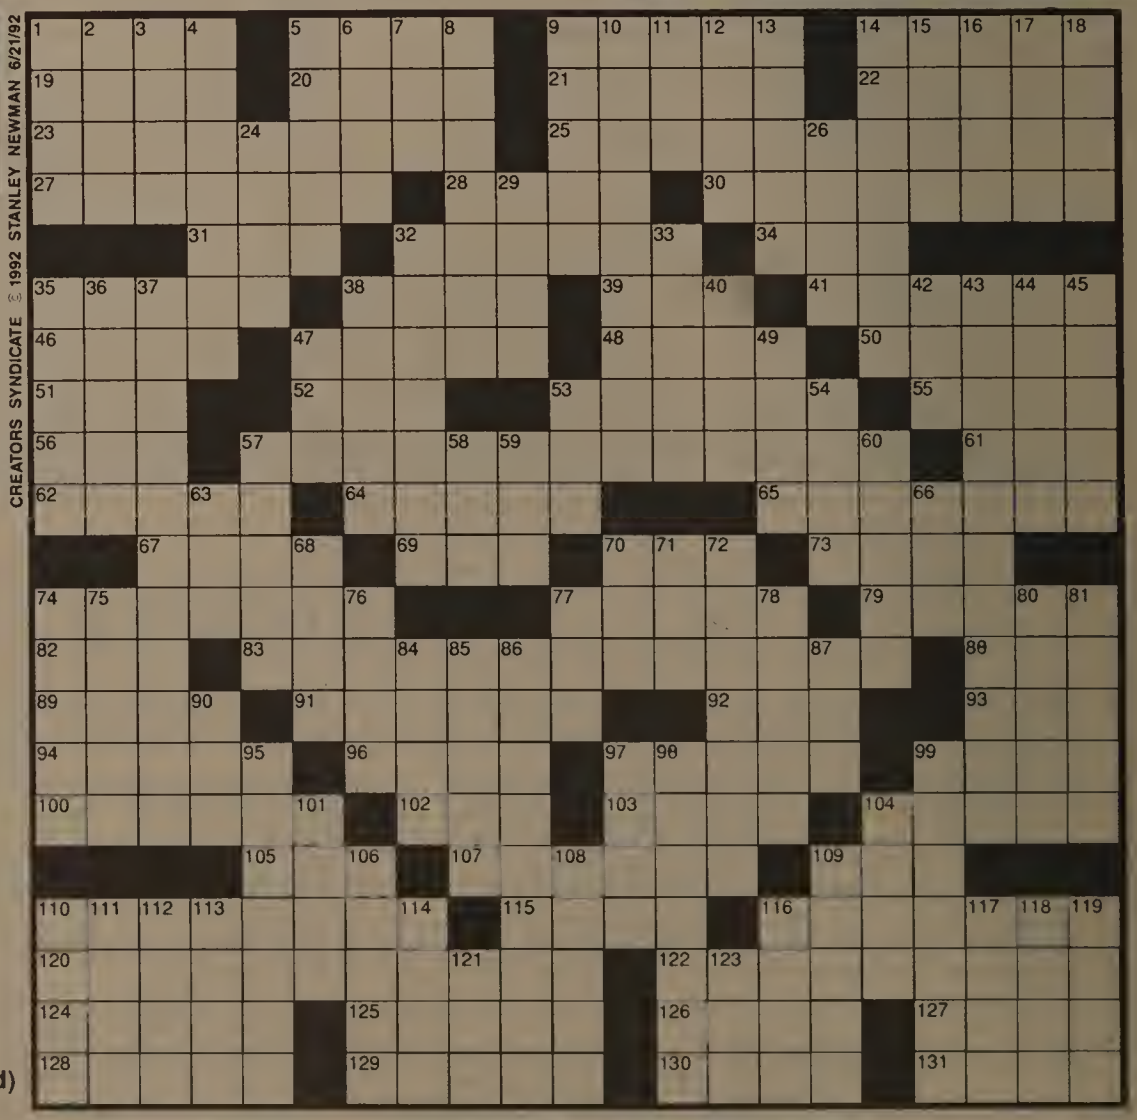
Suzanne,
We suddenly have a huge surplus of food cluttering up the office and we don't know why. Please come back, we barely have room to work.

Mel,
Just one thing before you go. That's 500 Leisure Study photos due next Friday. Yes, the velcro wall too.
-Dave & Toby

Miss Illegal Sea Foods,
Remember, that's one pint of B&J's for every lie. By our calculations, fill up the Grand Canyon and we'll call it even.

The Improper Bostonian welcomes you to berate someone with your own personal message. Thery're free, so send your Impersonals to The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

Answer to Previous Puzzle



M	A	D	E		T	A	S	T	E		S	K	I	S		P	R	A	M
A	C	I	D		A	L	T	O	S		S	C	A	L	A		H	A	L	E
C	H	O	U		L	I	E	N	S		T	O	T	E	M		I	D	O	L
H	E	R	C	U	L	E	P	I	E	R	R	O	T		S	A	L	O	N	S
			A	P	E			N	E	A	T		S	P	R	I	N	G
A	M	A	T	I	S		A	S	C	A	P		C	H	E	E	P
S	I	M	O	N	T	E	M	P	E	R		E	R	I	E		M	A	M	A
S	T	A	R			M	O	I			S	L	U	E	D		E	D	A	M
E	E	N			M	I	K	E	H	E	M	M	E	R		P	L	A	N	E
T	R	A	C	K	E	R		D	E	T	E	S	T		S	A	L	M	O	N
			H	A	T	S			A	H	A			C	O	M	O
D	E	B	A	T	E		O	A	T	E	R	S		R	O	S	W	E	L	L
A	W	A	R	E		E	L	L	E	R	Y	K	E	E	N			F	O	E
N	E	I	L		N	A	D	E	R			A	C	T			F	L	E	A
A	S	T	I		E	T	E	S		F	A	T	H	E	R	B	R	A	W	N
			E	R	R	O	R		M	I	N	E	O		E	L	A	T	E	S
	C	O	C	O	O	N		M	O	L	O				P	E	G
C	A	S	H	E	W		B	U	L	L	D	O	G	D	R	U	M	M	E	R
A	N	K	A		O	R	A	T	E		O	L	L	I	E		E	E	L	Y
S	T	A	N		O	A	S	E	S		G	L	U	E	S		N	O	S	E
T	O	R	T		F	E	S	S			S	A	M	M	S		T	W	A	S

THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman

FATHER'S DAY: Famous fathers from film and TV

by S.N. and Eric Albert

ACROSS

1 Doorway piece
5 Worry (about)
9 Let up
14 Schubert string work
19 Author Dinesen
20 Timber wolf
21 Missouri major leaguer
22 Surflike
23 The Courtship of Eddie's Father father
25 Father of the Bride father
27 Filled state
28 Make out
30 Enjoy the rink
31 Air-gun ammo
32 Some pants
34 Chinese belief
35 Jazz singer Carmen
38 Beef cut
39 EPA measurement
41 Walks heavily
46 It's often pumped
47 Physical condition
48 Father
50 Insignificant pest
51 Pen point
52 Umbrella part
53 California's motto
55 Ontario's neighbor
56 Vane dir.
57 Life With Father father
61 Jo's Boys monogram
62 Sally Jessy's colleague
64 Portrays in words
65 French artist Honoré
67 De __ (too much)
69 Le Carré character
70 Smidgen
73 Read quickly
74 Working parents' need
77 Three-dimensional
79 Was roused
82 Alter follower
83 I Never Sang for My Father father
88 Tennis ploy
89 Sing the praises of
91 Reet __ (zoot-suit features)
92 Formal wear
93 Theater abbr.
94 Pitchfork parts
96 Punjab sectarian
97 Dostoevsky subject
99 Low in fat
100 Izaak Walton fan
102 __ off (doze)
103 Stairs alternative
104 Marlo's dad
105 Brazil, for one
107 Grand Canal locale
109 Pryor role of '78
110 Evergreen shrub
115 Mocking remark
116 Produce bunch
120 Like Father, Like Son father
122 Father Goose "father"
124 Yeats contemporary
125 Group of experts
126 River near Stonehenge
127 __-the-mInute (latest)
128 Falling ice
129 "I Talk to the __"
130 Tear down
131 Flow out slowly

DOWN

1 Triangular sails
2 Inside __ (Gunther book)
3 Distillery purchase
4 Cat cartoonist's signature
5 Skims along
6 Welcome Home, __ Carmichael ('91 film)
7 Cabaret lyricist
8 Junior's favorite emporium
9 Fiery offense
10 Popular toast
11 Scot's assent
12 *Rikki-Tikki-*__
13 Vote in
14 Puzzle-clue phrase
15 City near the Blarney Stone
16 Parting words
17 Give off
18 Actress Daly
24 Neuwirth of Cheers
26 Substantial content
29 Calumet, for one
32 Dry white wine
33 Richard's first VP
35 Exodus actor
36 Lively, as prose
37 Father Knows Best father
38 Dessert direction
40 Shot up
42 Inspirational feeling
43 Father Murphy "father"
44 Steak grade
45 Broccoli bit
47 __ Lanka
49 __ out (supplemented)
53 Printer's measures
54 Word of regret
57 "__ I?" (amnesiac's question)
58 Tiny troublemaker
59 Whichever
60 Star Wars director
63 Orbit segment
66 Animal's throat
68 Get ready, for short
70 Pair
71 __ Dhabi
72 Kind of operator
74 United rival
75 "Encore!"
76 RIght-angle shapes
77 LP successors
78 Close cluster
80 Islam's Bible
81 Durable wood
84 Ore source
85 Comic Smirnoff
86 UltImate extent
87 Bunyan's Implement
90 Sen. Biden's state
95 Keystone Studios head
97 Corn bIn
98 Indy particIpant
99 Cartoonist Mell
101 Man with a megaphone
104 __ Dong School
106 Sweet-talk
108 PhysIcist Bohr
109 Hockey star Gretzky
110 Shelley selections
111 Break In the action
112 SInger Adams
113 Shampoo additive
114 Crowd sound
116 Tito's real name
117 Back of the neck
118 Starter chip
119 Street-corner warning
121 Unified
123 Actress Gardner

MUSIC

The Honest Urgency of The Smithereens

by Kathei Logue

So, you thought pop music was dead. Tuning into MTV, you might have been fooled into thinking that Rap and Metal rule the '90's. Well you're wrong - dead wrong.

As long as bands like The Smithereens remain at the top of the pops, Pop music is far from being relegated to the back racks. And The Smithereens are the essence of pop music! Clean, clear, intelligent lyrics with a beat you can dance to is what you'll find on all five of their albums.

Starting out in the early '80's as a four piece power pop band from New Jersey (where drummer Dennis Diken and bassist Mike Mesaros had been buddies since third grade and where Jim Babjak was an old neighborhood friend of Mike's), the three began playing together during high school. The Smithereens officially began twelve years ago when budding songwriter, Pat DiNizio, placed a classified ad in the Aquarian Magazine (later called East Coast Rocker) looking for a drummer. Dennis responded, bringing along his band mates, and the rest is history.

The band released a four-track independent EP in 1980 and proceeded to tour relentlessly. By the time they put out 1983's Beauty and Sadness (reissued by Enigma in '88 and again by Capitol in '91) they were already beloved by the music press.

Although the band hated the constant comparisons to the Beatles, their early releases, with the intricate harmonies and clean, simple pop style couldn't help but bring to mind the original pop mastery of the Fab Four. Pat (DiNizio) once told me that he didn't get the comparison. Yet almost every music writer in the early '80's compared the Smithereens stylistically to tne Beatles as well as other '80's rockers.

The Smithereens - Mike Mesaros, Pat DiNizio, Dennis Diken and Jim Babjak

In 1983 they toured as backup band for the legendary Otis Blackwell, who wrote "Don't Be Cruel," "All Shook Up," "Great Balls Of Fire" etc. And it wasn't until 1986 that Enigma Records released their first full album Especially For You (reissued by Capitol in 1991) containing their first two radio hits "Blood And Roses" and "Behind The Wall Of Sleep."

With the release of this album, The Smithereens were well on their way to outgrowing any superficial '60's comparisons that had been tagged onto them by their critics. Especially For You was an extraordinary LP. Produced by Don Dixon and written entirely by Pat DiNizio, The Smithereens truly came into their own sound with this release.

Three hits off the album gave them the national attention necessary to get their music distributed by Capitol Records.

But if you only listen to the hits, you'll be missing some incredibly good music. "Cigarette" is a hauntingly beautiful song that still makes me cry. When the band performs the song live, they usually begin with Patrick sitting alone in a spotlight playing an acoustic guitar and (of course) smoking a cigarette.

Their 1988 Capitol release, Green Thoughts, was a successful follow-up and produced the classic hit "Only A Memory," followed by "11" in '89 and Blow Up in 1991, both on Capitol Records. The Smithereens catalog is still growing, and it's filled totally with quality pop rock tunes!

After the Enigma release of Especially For You, the band hit the road in earnest, racking up in excess of 300 gigs a year. The amazing thing about The Smithereens is that no matter how many shows they play, no matter if it's the first night of a new tour or the last night of a two month run, the band always seems to be having fun on stage (Dennis still takes photos of the audience).

On one of their first visits to Boston, when they were just starting out, after having spent the night sleeping on people's floors, the guys were up bright and early to check out Boston's famous baseball stadium. Oh, not Fenway Park. No, they wanted to see Braves Field, home of the old Boston Braves. So, we trundled over to B.U. to see the famous turf of legend.

It's easy to describe the Smithereens; they're a guitar driven pop band. Sound simple? Sure seems to be for them; they make it look easy, getting up on stage, putting on an exciting, fun-filled, energy packed show every night. I've seen the Smithereens perform almost every time they've played Boston and can honestly say they've never given a dull show. Never seen them act jaded, faded or cold.

The Smithereens' songs have an honest urgency to them. They express feelings common to us all. The pain and discomfort of lost relationships and missed opportunities - all said with insight and without self pity. The Smithereens love to play, they love the cities, they love the people, but most of all, they love the music. ❑

"I lie in bed and think of her sometimes I even weep then I close my eyes and dream of her behind the wall of sleep."
- Pat DiNizio from "Behind
The Wall Of Sleep"

COMING NEXT ISSUE:

Lou Reed
Seka
Al Wilson / Canned Heat

It's A Wonderful Day With The Neighborhoods

by Doug Thoms

Over their 14 years of existence, The Neighborhoods have proven themselves over and over to be one of Boston's most beloved musical exports. Though their membership has changed several times over that period, the group has continued to rack up major accomplishments all along the way: four LPs, winning the first BCN Rumble, Miller Beer sponsorship, and being hand-picked by David Bowie to open at Foxboro Stadium in '87.

With a major label (Atlantic/Third Stone) and as much popularity as the group continues to enjoy (they play an average of 150-200 shows per year all over the country), The Neighborhoods are not exactly seated in the lap of luxury. David Minehan, 'Hoods singer/guitarist (and only original member) elaborates.

"People think that your problems are over when you get signed. The reality is that your problems are just beginning," explains Minehan. "We had some bad results last year with Atlantic Records in terms of promotion (of their album Hoodwinked). They even admitted they did a bad job." (Large studios are notorious for not advertising albums by comparatively smaller groups.) "Dealing with major labels is always a gamble. They can refuse our demos, they could drop us from our contract, that's the thing with this business. Anything can happen and you just don't fucking know."

Presently, the band is doing something they don't often get the chance to do: writing songs, rehearsing and recording their next Third Stone LP.

"We just finished almost two albums worth of material at Underground Studios with Ed Reimer engineering. We sent the tape to Third Stone and they love it," beams Minehan proudly. "Atlantic just got the tape, so we haven't heard from them yet. If they don't love it, maybe we belong somewhere else. It's really gratifying, this new material. We've got some great new songs, and I feel really confident with it."

David and I then played a small game of "Name Association," using the monikers of musicians closely or somewhat involved with The Neighborhoods.

David Minehan, Lee Harrington and Carl Coletti of the Neighborhoods.

Imp. Bost: Carl Colletti (drummer for The 'Hoods for about the last two years).

Minehan: Monster player! Carl taught us another dimension to take advantage of. He helps us explore different avenues with his drumming. He's the best musician in the band! You can't exhaust his voracious musical appetite. Carl's just been great for us, and I hope we get to hang on to him. When we were on tour with Tin Machine, I kept thinking to myself "Is Bowie watching Carl too closely?"

Imp. Bost: Dan Batale (the only musician to ever be "the fourth 'Hood).

Minehan: Dan was in the unfortunate position of filling shoes that were never there to fill. He is a great guitar player and a great guy, but he had a tough go of it. Our fans were a bit resistant to the change, and we didn't really know, either. Lee (Harrington, bassist) and Carl will probably kill me for saying this, but I still have an open ear for the player who could compliment the band in that way. Dan is also a talented songwriter who has something to offer, and I'm sure he'll do it at some point.

Imp. Bost: Crispin Wood (guitarist/vocalist for the late and lamented Boston trio, The Bags. He played a handful of shows with The 'Hoods last fall.)

Minehan: Crispin! My buddy. A man amongst men. We talk pretty regularly. I'm putting together a home studio (after being robbed of it last year), and I'd like to work with him. He's a musician's musician. He can play those quick-fingered leads, and he knows when to lay out of it, too. I think The Bags went over a lot of people's heads, and they never got their due, even around Boston, until just before they broke up.

Imp. Bost: What do the 'Hoods have as outside interests?

Minehan: Lee has been taking horseback riding lessons lately. He's also into Civil War history. For instance, we'll be on the road and Lee will leave the hotel at 6:00 a.m. to visit Gettysburg. As for me, I still enjoy working in the studio with other bands as a producer. I guess that's not really an "outside" interest. And Carl, he just eats, lives and sleeps music. Actually, he and Lee have been rollerblading together around town. They must do o.k. They're not dead yet!

On June 27, The Neighborhoods will be playing two gigs: First at The Cape Cod Melody tent in a benefit for Muscular Dystrophy (with The 360's, Bim Skala Bim and O Positive) and later that night at Club III in Somerville. Show up on time and be ready to rock ❑

Retrospectives
Norman Greenbaum

by Mickey O'Halloran

In 1966 "The Eggplant That Ate Chicago" was the unlikely name of a novelty hit by a group with just-as-unlikely a name: Dr. West's Medicine (Show and Junk) band. The group sang unconventional songs dealing with subjects as diverse as fish and fruit peddlers, the melange being pushed forward by a wildly assorted cacophony of sound which emanated from a combination of kazoo, harmonica, washtub, washboard, Taiwan finger piano, Tibetan temple block and even a dented 1949 Buick car bumper fender. Given the production technology of the day, it's a wonder that the players had a chance to combine six and twelve string guitars. The stage show was equally shocking as the boys sported painted faces with a psychedelic slide-show that created a wonderfully surreal effect. Strange goins-on, indeed.

The moderate success of their bizarre single led to an album of the same name and then a follow up disk "You Can Fly" in 1967. These were the first releases on the GoGo label. "Bullets Laverne" backed with "Jigsaw" was released as Dr. West's Medicine Band on Gregar in 1968 but it was already too late and the novelty had worn off. The label then issued the act's swan song in 1969, a strong version of "Twentieth Century Fox," which should have done better. The lead singer was then signed to Frank Sinatra's Reprise Records, distributed by Warner Brothers whose promotional machine helped his initial release for the label to click immediately. "Spirit In The Sky" was a powerful but refreshingly delightful rock tune. It was a definitive ode of a definitive era as the rollicking refrain was imbedded in a gospel sentiment and played with an honest and raucous gusto that was popular enough to go gold.

As a rock song, "Spirit In The Sky," was pitched with intense fervor by the artist, Norman Greenbaum (who later went on to preach from the pulpit) and was believable in its lyrical content and overall message. It lasted a pop lifetime - a full 14 weeks on the charts, peaking at Number 3. The fan fave didn't survive through, as the follow-up album, Back Home Again failed to duplicate the success of the first effort. A few years later Petaluma met with similar disinterest as the fickle public went about their 1973 business blissfully unaware. Although it was over, the Gregar label re-entered the picture and attempted to cash in on the fleeting success of the lead singer's somewhat marketable vocal presence by repackaging and releasing the original Eggplant LP intact except for the novelty tune. This sham project entitled "Norman Greenbaum with Dr. West's Medicine Show and Junk Band" went nowhere.

Our local hero, Norman Greenbaum was born in Malden on November 20, 1942. He had two compilation releases on Warner Brothers in 1983. "Jubilee" is found on the Big Ball album while "Circulate" resides on Hot Platters. "Spirit In The Sky" did for Norman Greenbaum what "The Spirit Of St. Louis" did for Charles Lindberg as fame on both sides of the Atlantic caused royalties to continue to roll in as the million-seller was covered by the Brit group Doctor and the Medics in 1986.

(Historical footnote: The Medics were led by none other than Craig Leon, who produced Willie Loco Alexander's two MCA efforts in the late seventies.) ❑

MUSIC

Musical Notes

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

All-star wedding: Tyler and Carolee Sweet with The Neighborhoods and T.H. And The Wreckage playing at the reception. The Public Gardens hasn't seen a hipper affair and so much long hair and suits since the Boston Tea party!...Friday nites at O'Brien's has waitresses Carla (Mills) and Diane (Johnson) on duty. Cheers !...Zug Zug pounder Buzzy Klavans, Blind Lemon and Charlie "The Snake" from Doghouse have something in common; their vooonces...See Rick Barron and The Quavers at The Midway Cafe on the 2nd for good time country rock...See Elements with Danny Gottlieb x-Pat Metheny at The Willow Jazz Club on the 25 and 26 or at the Summit Hill pool when he visits mom in N.J...Waitress of the week is Bayyinah Morton from Wally's cause she's got a great smile. When you go to her club say high to barkeep extraordinaire Elynor L. Walcott-Diagne...Bunratty's has a new state of the art 24 channel Soundcraft mixing board. Mgr. J.D. Crump played with the knobs all the way back from Va...Doorman of the week is Gary Voss from Narcissus cause he listens to loud metal and lives...Springa from SSDecontrol jumped onstage with old bandmate Chris Foley and his current band Bulkhead and did "How Much Art" their old thrash hit...Gang Green to Japan...OBE for great alternative noise...Mung spells punk .Facts About Rats rule.

Juliana Hatfield x-Blake Babies has a new solo debut album out with help from Evan Davido from the Lemonheads and Todd and Clay from Bullet LaVolta..Snidley Whiplash with Seka at Outer Limits on the 30th...Subterraineans four stringer Rob Jefferies' new hairdo makes him look like a cross between Nipsey Russell and the dog at the end of Pink Flamingos...Song of the week is "Bulldozer" by Concussion Ensemble cause of its apt title. See them at The Paradise on the 17th...Ripe does the best version of "Somebody To Love" since you know who...Cantab barkeep Joe The Assassin celebrating 21 years on the job. Owner Fitzy says: "It's no big deal, he has seven birthdays a year!"...Bartender of the week is Kathy "Pepper" MacKinnon from Molly's cause she puts up with mgr. Bob...Willie Alexander back from touring France with The Boosters...X-Dogmatic Peter Halloran seen at Father's II with brother Johnny harrassing Dano, Peter Winkler and Marty Connors...Sports/rock dept: Father's II dart team headed by Steve Lewis has members of Hotbox and The Johnnies on it. Bun's pool team headed by Peter Kohler is in first place...See Wheeler's and Dealer's at The Tam on the 30th and x-Push Push Dennis Brennan's Iodine Brothers there on the 25th...Anything for press dept: The Barbaloot Suits do a song "Guzzling With A.J."...Bim Skala Bim just back from Bermuda. Catch them at The Rat on the 27th...X-Blockyard crooner Amy Rome at Diamond Jim's in The Lenox Hotel on the 25th...Happy happy to Bun's barkeep Trina and to Kathy Lepore...See harp master Jerry Portnoy x-Muddy Waters Band at Ed Burke's on the 27th. He really blows ...The Termini twins Warren and Tom were seen with the Nelson twins Gunner and Mathew. It's enough to make you go on the wagon...Birdsongs Of The Mesozoic with Willie Alexander Persistance Of Memory vet Ken Field going to the West Coast and Hawaii in the fall..Bands send us your updates so we can tell the world about your talents! ❑

ALBUM REVIEWS

Aerosmith
Big 10"
CBS/Sony Records

Well, Rod Stewart released a single "Best Of" CD from his boxed set, and this 10" withdrawn from Pandora's Box is also a lot of fun. "Helter Skelter," recorded in 1975, is different from the Sgt. Pepper's film version. "Big Ten Inch" (the song - not the CD or the implication) was recorded Live At The Texas Jam concert which, coincidence of coincidences, is also available on Video cassette (simultaneous with this release). Pandora's Box fans might feel cheated by the Texas Jam stuff. It should have been released on a separate record and left the "Downtown Charlie" and "All Your Love" tracks for Pandora's Box. "Back In The Saddle," "Last Child," "Mama Kin," "Sweet Emotion," "Walk This Way" and "Dream On" are already on one of the biggest selling midline albums of all time, Aerosmith's Greatest Hits; why duplicate them in a boxed set?

- Janis Reed

The Neighborhoods
The Neighborhoods
Third Stone Records

The Neighborhoods are a tribute to persistence. After years on the Boston scene, playing everywhere from Foxboro Stadium to the smallest dive, they have continually cranked out their own brand of straight ahead, no frills rock and roll.

Now the band has finally released their self-titled major label debut, produced by Aerosmith's Brad Whitford. It varies little from their previous sound, as David Minehan's vocals are well suited for his power chord soloing, and the trio's rhythm section of Lee Harrington on bass and vocals and newcomer Carl Coletti on drums are quite competent, but unexceptional.

Standout tracks include "Hoodwinked" with it's catchy crunch, and "King Of Rats," the album's hardest rocker. And the Hoods even take a stab at social consciousness in "Hate Zone." Worth picking up.

- David Fenigsohn

Willie Alexander
Willie Loco Boom Boom Ga Ga: 1975-1991
Northeastern Records

Willie "Loco" Alexander is entering his fourth decade of life as a rock-n-roll star. STAR? Well, not exactly, but along with Mickey Rourke and Jerry Lewis, Mr. Alexander has earned the respect of France, and he hasn't done too shabby for himself here in the states. A onetime member of the Velvet Underground, a writer and a painter, this Renaissance man also managed to put out two MCA releases in the 70's with his "Boom Boom" band. He also has done plenty o' solo sessions and is currently gigging with his new 90's project, The Persistence Of Memory Orchestra.

Thanks to Bill Ewing and the kind folks at Northeastern Records, we now have the ultimate Willie collection, encompassing almost every stage of the ageless beatnik's career.

This CD compilation is a must for any local music fan or someone with eclectic musical tastes in general. The songs vary from The Persistence Of Memory Orchestra's first studio effort, "Abel and Elvis" about the shooting of Bunratty's bartender Abel Harris, complete with 90's rap sounds, to date all the way back to the Boom Boom heyday of such Willie standards as "Gin," "Mass Ave," and the 1976 live recording of "At The Rat" with BCN's Oedipus (then a young upstart) giving Willie a rousing intro.

This compilation also benefits from some hard to find recordings such as "Hit Her Wid De Axe" that still rocks 15 years later! It's obvious Iggy Pop also played an important part in Willie's singing career. And speaking of which, these are some of the best recordings of Willie's voice ever captured on tape. Just listen to the vocal on "Girl Like You" and you won't believe it's the same person!

The best part of this CD is the interesting liner notes, as to who produced what, or when a particular song was recorded or what Willie was doing that particular evening. The recordings were not cleaned up but put out just the way they were meant to be heard - complete with pops and snare buzzings. A perfect Willie home companion, well, even if he did leave out "Radio Heart."

- Mikey Dee

BARS & CLUBS

•33 DUNSTER STREET, 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb.. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch.

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD, 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside.

•ALLEY CAT , 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait No cover

•ALLEY PUB, 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE, 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT, 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•ARBUCKLES, 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated Between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON, 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required Great place to see live shows Sun. night is gay night.

Wed 24th.--The Mighty Mighty Bosstones Sat 27th.--GWAR Mon 29th.--Charlatans UK

•AVENUE C, 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat nights.

Thur 25th.--Figures on a Beach, Velcro Peasants Thur 2nd.--5-0

•AXIS, 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested

Wed 24th.--Tin Pan Alley

•BEACON HILL PUB, , 49 Charles St., Bos. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN, 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm.

•BILL'S BAR, 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed.

Mon 29th.--Every Monday Movie Madness. SRS Films Producer Eric Yellin will show independent films and music videos before a feature film. Free admission and popcorn. Tue 30th.--Local bands every Tuesday

•BLACK GOOSE, 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover. Live piano music Monday through Friday from 5-7

Wed 24th.--Brain Walkley Thur 25th.--Michelle Burke Fri 26th.--Phil Harding, Joe Fairweather Sat 27th.--Brian Walkley Mon 29th.--Appearing Mon. and Tues. Bob Talalla

•BLACK ROSE, 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress.

•BOATHOUSE, 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price.

•BORDER CAFE, 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB, 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

Wed 24th.--The Stormdogs Thur 25th.--The Lime Rockets Fri 26th.--The Limit Sat 27th.--Sat. and Sun. DJ Al Perez Mon 29th.--Silas Jr. & the Hot Rib Blues Jam Tue 30th.--Calypso Hurricane

• BOSTON BILLIARD CLUB, 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions Located just outside Kenmore Sq Free pool lessons Mon. nights Waiters bring drinks to your table No cover Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE, 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV Enthusiastic crowd No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD, 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT, 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB, 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE, 267-3100, 575 Comm Ave., Bos. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts No cover. Casual dress. Full menu Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS), 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years. The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S, 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s) No dress code.

Wed 24th.--A.J 's Birthday Show Thur 25th.--Benefit for the North American Indian Center of Boston Fri 26th.--Heretix, Twisted Roots, Brave New World, Pipes Sat 27th.--Dambuilders, Cake Kitchen, Seam Flying Nuns Sun 28th.--Freedom Festival Mon 29th.--Every Mon. Pajama-Jammy Blues Jam Tue 30th.--Muskellunge, Captain Black Groovyhead

•CACTUS CLUB, 236-0200, 939 Boylston St Bos. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls ' No cover Casual dress

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY, 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber Charles River Porter, Tall Tale Pale Ale and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served Live bands Sat.

Sat 27th.--Hyena Club Sat 4th.--Asa Brebner and Friends

•CANTAB LOUNGE, 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb. Central Sqare's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES, 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb. A funky dance club featuring five music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

•CASABLANCA, 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped

•CASK, 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm Beware of long lines before and after Sox games

•CELEBRATION, 536-1950, 533 Comm Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes.

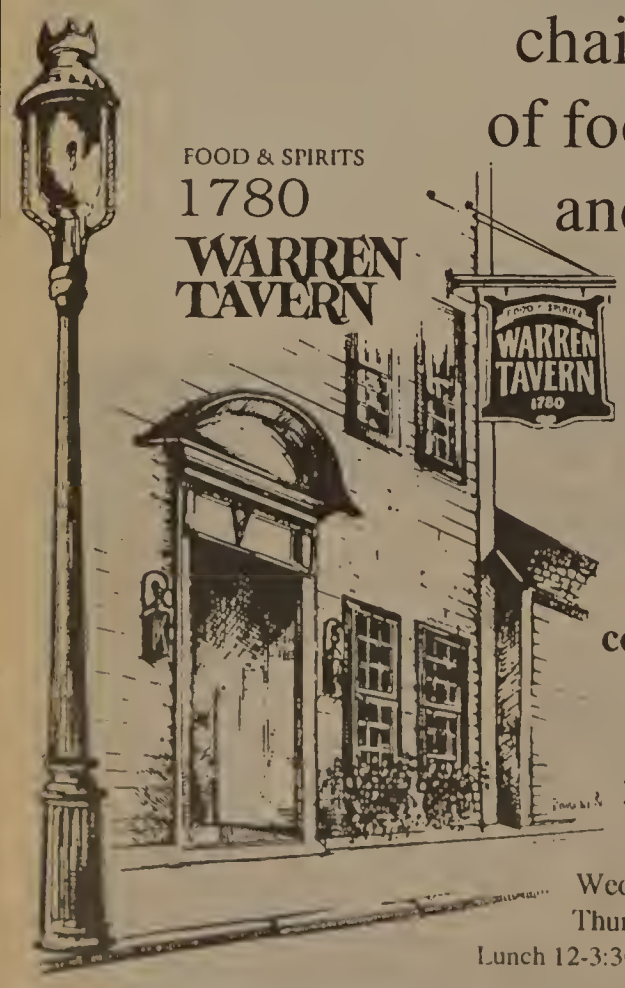
•CHAMPION'S, 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S, 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.

Thur 25th.--Wild Women & Cinnamon with Ellie Marshall Fri 26th.--Kathy Pipps & Wendy Sobel Sat 27th.--Flathead Sun 28th.--Diane Taraz & Sande Sharlet Thur 2nd.--The Colleen Sexton Showcase Fri 3rd.--Randy Black Sun 5th.--Singer/Songwriter Night

•CITYSIDE, 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

Wed 24th.--Sean and Jamie Thur 25th.--Inquiring Minds Fri 26th.--Fri. and Sat. Stormdogs Sun 28th.--Kris Whales Mon 29th.--Steve Caraway Tue 30th.--Used Blues Wed 1st.--Tim Crandall Thur 2nd.--Inquiring Minds Fri 3rd.--Yvonne Taylor and the Perscription Horns Sat 4th.--Out of the Blue Sun 5th.--Kris Whales Tue 7th.--Pride and Joy



•CLARKE'S, 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row Bos Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down Expect a line on weekends No cover Casual dress Full menu in the restaurant

•CLUB 3, 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave Somerville An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing Moderate cover varies

Wed 24th.--12 Strung Gypsy, Feldmen Thur 25th.--Verdict, Laugh the Monkey Fri 26th.--Big Dipper, Hartwell, Absolute Sat 27th.--Neighborhoods, OW!! Sun 28th.--Amyl's Demo Tape and Jam Nite Thur 2nd.--Heavy Metal Horns, Sal DiFusco's Tribute to Jeff Beck Fri 3rd.--Knights Past, Small Towr No Airport Sat 4th.--Benefit for Veterans Upper U.S., Bruther Sun 5th.--Amyl's Rock n' Roll Blues Jam

Don't get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable livingroom chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over two hundred years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty-five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country; 212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:30-12:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00
Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30, Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

A Pub for All Poets

by Leslie Ross

Above all else, it's a neighborhood bar. A couple of guys are throwing darts over in the corner. A Labrador snoozes under a bar stool as his owner works on a Guinness overhead. Somebody borrows the backgammon board from the bartender and sets up a game at a table. Sometimes casual and quiet (sometimes lively and jam-packed), it's a neighborhood bar that people drive in from all over Boston to enjoy. The comfortable, warm atmosphere has won the Brendan Behan the "Best of Boston"" title for the last two years.

It's not just the atmosphere, either. Any beer-drinker will tell you that this Irish pub serves real Irish beer. All three of Ireland's famous stout beers - Guinness, Beamish and Murphey's - are available here, poured with pride and skill. (There's a technique to pouring a glass of stout that few Boston bartenders have mastered.)

If you're a sports bar faithful, this isn't the place for you because there's no television. Upon its opening four years ago, Behan proprietors Butch Murray and Jerry Brennan had it removed, replacing it with a fish tank. Their reasoning? T.V. is distracting and sports are competitive. "A bar should be a place to relax and forget about competition," says Murray. "Besides, when you're talking, I should be listening to you, not looking over your shoulder at the game."

And conversation aside, there's plenty to listen to at the Brendan Behan. Most nights the music is a pleasing blend of new and older tunes.

Angela Wooldridge

Bob Marley, the Waterboys, U2 and the Farm; - the songs slide into one another as smoothly as the Guinness on tap.

The Behan additionally offers live music a few nights a week. On Monday, the Iodine Brothers play the blues. Tuesday is traditional Irish music, complete with fiddles, guitars and mandolins. Even Mayor Flynn has been known to show up and enjoy the music. For the summer, a new music feature is slated to go on Saturday afternoons: reggae. But what's the best news? There's never a cover, but you'll want to come early to get a seat and linger over a Guinness before the show begins.

The Behan is adorned with photos of Ireland, adding to that neighborhood pub feel. It's a place where non-drinkers and designated drivers don't feel out of place ordering a cup of tea, while their drinking friends down pint after pint of stout. Some have attested that you never get a hangover from Guinness. The Brendan Behan even has it in writing, in the form of an old advertising sign that proclaims "Guinness is good for you."

Brendan Behan, the Irish poet, was known almost as much for his drinking as his writing. It's not surprising that Murray and Brennan chose him as their namesake, as the hospitality and friendliness at the bar they run bring a sort of poetry to drinking. This is what all bars should be like.

The Brendan Behan is at 378A Center St., Jamaica Plain. It's open seven days a week, with last call occurring at 1 a.m. ⌟

•CLUB M-80, 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances.

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY, 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!

Fri 26th.--Calypso Hurricane Sat 27th.--Diversity Sat 4th.--Search Party

•COPPERFIELD'S, 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too Modest cover Thur.-Sat Collared shirts are a must

•COTTONWOOD CAFE, 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months

•CRICKET'S, 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors No cover charge Casual dress.

Wed 24th.--Every Wed Calypso Hurricane Thur 25th.--Every Thur. Hamish and Dave Fri 26th.--Martin Sexton Trio Sun 28th.--Hot Shots Mon 29th.--Every Mon. Hamish and Dave Tue 30th.--Every Tues. North Shore Acapella

•DAD'S DINER, 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S, 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos. This Newbury St late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS, 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR, 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear.

Wed 24th.--Ellen White, Thom Troy Thur 25th.--Michelle Currie, Cabaret Hour with Richard Luongo and Amy Rome, Thom Troy Fri 26th.--Doug Hammerschmitt, Todd Gordon Sat 27th.--Thom Troy Tue 30th.--Ellen White, Michelle Curne

•DIVISION 16, 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place No cover. Casual dress

•DOCKSIDE, 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles Large-screen TV for game viewing Jukebox music No cover Casual dress More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs

•ED BURKE'S, 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave Bos This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays Bands on Thur. and weekends Modest cover charge on band nights Dress is casual.

Thur 25th.--Transit Fri 26th.--Heavy Metal Horns, Subterraneans Sat 27th.--Jerry Portnoy and the Streamliners Mon 29th.--Thur 2nd.--Johnny Groove, 100 Proof Fri 3rd.--Close Quarters

•EDIBLE REX, 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required.

Wed 24th.--Farewell, Hurricane Alley, Sweat and Bullets Thur 25th.--Guido, Dead Behemouth, Placebo Fri 26th.--T.H. and the Wreckage, The Kind, The Pigs Sat 27th.--Mystery Jones, Guy Smiley Sun 28th.--All ages shows every Sunday Wed 1st.--OW!!, The Evaporale, Fire Pig Thur 2nd.--Sky Children, Entourage, Just What Is Fri 3rd.--Lord Bane, Marshal Law

•ELIOT LOUNGE, 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches

•FRED P. OTT'S, 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri and Sat Casual dress Arrive early to beat the line

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL, 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment.

•GREEN BRIAR, 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates Modest cover on weekends Casual dress.

Wed 24th.--Karaoke every Wed. Thur 25th.--Legend Fri 26th.--Classic Tracks Sat 27th.--Joe Glynn and the Irish Mist Sun 28th.--Every Sun. is DJ Chris Mon 29th.--Irish Session happens every Mon. Tue 30th.--Tim Crandall Thur 2nd.--Joe O'Mara and Shoot the Moon Fri 3rd.--Poorboys Sat 4th.--Boston Irish Mon 6th.--Irish Session Two Year Party Tue 7th.--Third Year Open Party

•GRENDEL'S DEN, 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code.

•GROG, 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy).

Thur 25th.--The Fools Fri 26th.--Catherine and the Greats Sat 27th.--Bugaloo Swamis Sun 28th.--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. from 6-11pm Mon 29th.--Cabaret is every Monday from 8-10pm Fri 3rd.--Dick Kaplan Surf Party Sat 4th.--Shadow Sun 5th.--Blues Party

•GROVERS, (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues Moderate cover varies Casual dress

•HARBOR CLUB, 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur Free buffet every Wed - Fri. Also available for private functions Valet parking Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons

•HARD ROCK CAFE, 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos Sure it's trendy and sure it's a touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway

•HARPER'S FERRY, 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required.

Wed 24th.--Open Mike Blues Jam hosted by the Rick Russell Band happens every Wed. Thur 25th.--Holmes Brothers Fri 26th.--Taylor Made, Soul Rockers Sat 27th.--Eight to the Bar Sun 28th.--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 29th.--House of Cards Tue 30th.--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!)

•HONG KONG LOUNGE, 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure No cover Casual dress.

•HOULIHAN'S, 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS, 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only No cover Casual dress Full menu

•INDIGO, 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early No dress code

•JACOB WIRTH'S, 338-8586 37 Stuart St Bos Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut) Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri nights. Free parking with dinner

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS, 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal.

BARS & CLUBS

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE, 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm.

•JOHNNY D'S , 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing.
Thur 25th.--Charmaine Neville Sat 27th.--Bonedaddys Sat 4th.--Anson Funderburgh

•KENDALL CAFE, 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code.

•KINVARA PUB, 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code.
Wed 24th.--5-0 Thur 25th.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Fri 26th.--Appearing Fri. and Sat. Gorman and O'Kane Sun 28th.--Sun. and Mon. Donegal Cordorise Mon 29th.--Open Mike every Mon. 8pm-1am Tue 30th.--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues. Fri 3rd.--Brogue Sat 4th.--D'Alterboys Sun 5th.--Joe O'Mara and Shoot the Moon Mon 6th.--Donegal Cordorise

•LAST HURRAH, 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors the former Boston Mayor, James Michael Curley. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights.

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE, 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm.

•LILY'S , 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code.

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S, 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover.

•MANRAY, 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged.
Wed 24th.--Every Wed. Is Industrial Rage Sat 27th.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat.

•MARKET PLACE CAFE, 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress.

•MAXWELL JUMPS, , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor.
Wed 24th.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 25th.--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 26th.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 27th.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 29th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 30th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR, 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night.

•METROPOLIS, 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance club located near downtown crossing and the Boston Opera House. The crowd consists of mostly young professionals. Proper dress required, open for lunch and dinner.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT, 354-8238, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere.
Wed 24th.--The Asexuals, Ginger Butkis, Droll, Sub Machine Thur 25th.--Crazy Alice, Morphine, Zuzu's Petals, Tulips Fri 26th.--Left Nut, Satanics, Chloe, Mung Sat 27th.--Cosmos Factory Mon 29th.--Jazz 8-12pm Tue 30th.--Surgery, Bob Evans, Madbox Wed 1st.--Open Mike 7-8:30pm Sat 4th.--Blues Jam 3-6pm, International Dance Nite Mon 6th.--Jazz 8-12pm

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE, 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. .

•MR. DOOLEY'S, 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from 11 to 5 followed by a selsiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartenders!! You never know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint).
Mon 29th.--Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX, 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress.

•NAPOLEON CLUB, 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.

•NARCISSUS, 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE, 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info.
Thur 25th.--Thursday Night Dance Party with DJ Chris Walsh Fri 26th.--Kanda Bongo Man Sun 28th.--Rickie Lee Jones Wed 1st.--Every Wednesday in July: WCGY Band Showcase

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB, 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show.
Wed 24th.--Warren Zevon Thur 25th.--Steve Wynne Fri 26th.--Cliffs of Dooneen 7pm, 10pm 21+ Sat 27th.--Shockra Sun 28th.--Dead Milkmen Thur 2nd.--The Oyster Band Fri 3rd.--The Lemonheads, Juliana Hatfield Tue 7th.--The Beautiful South

•PASSIM , 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch Inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

•PERRY'S, 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm.

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S, 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress.
Fri 26th.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA, 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm.

•PLOUGH AND STARS, 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap.

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE, 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury Street and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a truly lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night.

•PURPLE SHAMROCK, 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu.
Thur 25th.--Jim Plunkett every Thur. Tue 30th.--Starmakers $100.00 Singing Contest every Tue.

•RATHSKELLER, 537-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code.

• RED HAT, 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St.,.Bos. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGATTABAR, 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.
Wed 24th.--The Laszlo Gardony/Mick Goodrick Duo Thur 25th.--Didi Stewart and Friends Fri 26th.--Charlie Sepulzuda and the Turnaround Sat 27th.--The Ritz

•RITZ BAR, 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required.

•ROXANNE'S SOUNDSTAGE, 773-3401, 79 Parkingway, Quincy. This brand spanking new club located right in Quincy Center makes no bones about being strictly rock and roll. Attracting both local and national acts, live music is one of their top priorities. Casual atmosphere. Cover varies with the act. Most shows start at 8.
Wed 24th.--Call for listings.

•ROXY, 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

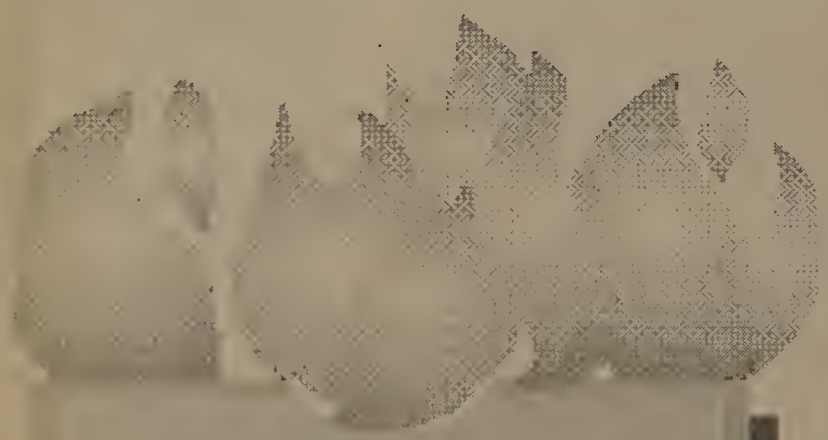
JUNE

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24 DET 1:35	25	26 MIL 7:35	27 MIL 1:05
28 MIL 1:05	29 DET 7:35	30 DET 7:35

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1 DET 7:35	2 CHI 8:05	3 CHI 8:05	4 CHI 7:05
5 CHI 2:35	6 KC 7:35	7 KC 7:35	8 KC 7:35	9 CHI 7:35	10 CHI 7:35	11 CHI 1:05
12 CHI 1:05	13	14	15	16 MIN 8:05	17 MIN 8:05	18 MIN 1:05
19 MIN 2:05	20 KC 8:35	21 KC 8:35	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST



Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 7:35	19 CAL 7:35	20 CAL 7:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 30 CAL	24 OAK 31 SEA	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:05	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 NY 1:05

HOT TICKET

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

June 26 Spinal Tap
Great Woods, ($17.50)

June 27-28 Mostly Mozart Festival Orchestra
Great Woods, ($35.00/$25.00/$15.00/$5.00 lawn)

June 28 Beach Boys
Riverside Park Stadium, ($19.95-$9.95)

July 9-11 Jimmy Buffet
Great Woods, ($25.00/$18.00)

July 13 Ozzy Osbourne
Great Woods, ($22.50-$17.50)

BAY STATE TICKET

Wang Center:
Phantom of the Opera	8/14, 9/5, 10/2, 10/31
Worcester Centrum Events:
Bruce Springsteen	8/13, 8/14
Foxboro Stadium Events:
Guns N' Roses / Metallico	7/31
U2	8/20, 8/22, 8/23
Great Woods Events:
Jimmy Buffett	7/9, 7/10 and 7/11
Santana	7/21
George Thorogood / Little Feat	8/6
Lollapalooza '92	8/7 - 8/8
Michael Bolton	8/15
James Taylor	8/27 - 8/29
B52's / Violent Femmes	9/5

We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold

(617) 731- 4588

BARS & CLUBS

performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required.

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB, 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress.

•SCULLERS LOUNGE, 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers.

Wed 24th.--Boston Jazz Orchestra Thur 25th.--Ronnie Earl and the Broadcasters Fri 26th.--Frl. and Sat. Roy Haynes Quartet Tue 30th.--Through July 4th: Stan Strickland

•SEVENS, 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap.

•SHAY'S, , 59 JFK St., Camb. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress.

•STOCKS AND BONDS, 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos. Hit it big in the market, the meet market that is. Mingle with investment types from the nearby brokerage firms during the day and with young collegiate and professionals at night when Stocks and Bonds turns into a lively dance club. Situated near Ianuell Hall. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts.

•SWEETWATER CAFE, 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE, 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code.

Wed 24th.--Cat Box Theatre Cabaret, Milc, Sweetie Thur 25th.--Orangatang, Peacocks, Facts about Rats Fri 26th.--Parade, Blister, Sloe Club Sat 27th.--Team Slam Championships featuring W.D. Ehrhart in conjuction with Wm. Joinier Center-U.Mass Sun 28th.--Cambridge Earthday Benefit: a multicultural performance extravaganza 3-7pm; Svengali Cafe- Latino Dance Night with Luz Helena and Carribean Tropix Mon 29th.--Stone Soup Poetry- Compost Magazine performance featuring Kevin Gallagher Tue 30th.--Sometimes Why, Gypsy Mechanics, Large, Missionaries

•T'S PUB, 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER, 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress.

Wed 24th.--The Derangers, Harmony Rocket Thur 25th.--Plain Jane Fri 26th.--The Olivz Sat 27th.--Big Blue Meanies Sun 28th.--The Act Band with Sally Sweitzer Mon 29th.--OPEN JAM 10-2am Tue 30th.--Wheelers and Dealers Wed 1st.--Iration Thur 2nd.--Down Time Fri 3rd.--Universal Language featuring Ray Greene

•THE CLADDAGH, 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress.

Wed 24th.--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•THE LITTLEST BAR, 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays.

•TIA'S, 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm.

•VENUS DE MILO, 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted.

Tue 30th.--Local bands every Tues.

•WALLY'S, 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly et Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat.

Sun 28th.--Afternoon jazz session every Sunday 3-7pm Mon 29th.--Every Mon. Is Blues night

•WARREN TAVERN, 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St., Boston. A funky little bar whose clientiele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is alwayson for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive.

•WESTERN FRONT, 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress.

Wed 24th.--IFA: Spirit of Divination Thur 25th.--Motion Fri 26th.--Frl. and Sat. Kirkland Bodie

•WHO'S ON FIRST, 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB, 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code.

Wed 24th.--The Fringe performs every Wednesday Thur 25th.--Thur. and Frl. Elements Sat 27th.--Collective Experience Sun 28th.--Jeff Covell Mon 29th.--Scott Mullet Quartet Tue 30th.--Monty Craig Band Thur 2nd.--Dave Weigart Quartet Fri 3rd.--Fri. and Sat. John Licata Quintet Sun 5th.--Sun. and Mon. Tom Zicarelli Quartet Tue 7th.--Corey Eisenberg Quartet

•ZANZIBAR, 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos. This large two-story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. Cover varies. Jacket and tie required.

Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Serving Fine Food and Drink

Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials

Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood

Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees

Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95

Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"
One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

TAKE OFF WITH THE ROCKET

The Original Sports Saloon Launches the Boys of Summer with the "Pitcher of the Week" Baseball Promotion.
Pick the best performing pitcher in the American and National Leagues and win great weekly prizes. Plus each week there'll be a cold frosty Pitcher of Beer at a terrific price. So come on in and play ball.

SPORTS The Original SALOON

CORNER OF HUNTINGTON & EXETER IN BOSTON'S BACK BAY • (617) 536-1904
THE PLACE TO TOUCH BASE BEFORE YOU RUN HOME

WEDNESDAYS
Reggae Night
Live Bands

Jammin' Tunes
Cool Cats
Cold Beer
$3 Cover

THURSDAYS
Dance
DJ Mike Lynch
Spinner
Extraordinaire
Playing Your Favorites
$1 Cover

"Where Cool Cats Meet
To Tip A Few Back"

1 Boylston Place • Boston • USA • 451-6200

Bring in this portion of our ad with as many friends as you can round up !
ALL OF YOU
GET IN FREE ON THURSDAY
OR FOR $2 EACH ON WEDNESDAY
Expires May 31, 1992

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

Edited by
Suzanne MacRae

CONCERTS

Bud Light Summer Music Series
Charles Sq. Courtyard, Cambridge
491-5282
It's Baaaack. Playing on Jul. 8 from 6-7pm is The Story. Free admission.

Cambridge Brewing Co.
1 Kendall Sq. Building 100, Cambridge
Have a beer and some tunes at the Sat. Night Music Series. On June 27, Hyena Club, and on July 6, Letters to Cleo. Only a $3 cover at the door.

Dartmouth Courtyard Lunchtime Jazz Series
Off Dartmouth St. next to Copley Place, WCDJ radio hosts a jazz series for lunchtime pleasure. The next concert is June 25 and the performer is still to be announced.

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge
In the Bach's Lunch Series, on July 1 is Shaylor Lindsay on Piano with a program of Debussy and Hayden. The concert begins at 12:15pm and admission is free.

The Surrey Room
381 Summer St., Davis Sq. , Somerville
Every Sunday night from 8 to 11:45 pm the Cellar Dwellers Blues Band and Circus from Hell play at Surrey Room. Admission is free.

EXHIBITS

Boston University
Graduate School of Arts and Sciences
705 Commonwealth Ave, Boston
On June 24 at 8pm BU is hosting Open Observatory night for the viewing of planet Jupiter. Admission is free. For info call 353-2630.

Enigma Nine
32 Rugg Rd. #9, Allston
Who says art isn't functional? Enigma Nine, an alternative art gallery, recently opened a mini golf course with the hole themes a little more focused on reality. Hours are Sat. 1-8pm and Sun. 1-5 pm. Only a $2 donation is requested. Call 783-9170.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Usual Cost: $4 all persons.
$1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun. Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays.
The Annie Leibovitz exhibit opens on June 17 and runs until July 26. The exhibit is open seven days a week from 10am to 9pm. Tickets are only $5 and can be purchased in advance thru the ICA or Ticketmaster.

FILMS

Blll's Bar
Landsdown St., Boston
Every Monday night BIll's hosts Monday night Movie Madness. SRS Films shows independent films and music videos before the evenings featured film. Films start at 9pm. Admission is free, and free popcorn is served.

Boston Public Library
Copley Sq. ,Boston
Showing in the Feature Film Series on June 25 at the South Boston Branch at 646 East Broadway, is the Oscar winning picture, "Mutiny on the Bounty." Screening time is 6pm. Admission is free.

Boston University
George Sherman Union, 775 Comm Ave, Boston
BU's summer film festival has begun and will continue on every Tues. at 7pm until August 4 . All films are shown in the Conference room of the GSU. Showing on June 30 is "Gallipoli" and on July 7 , " Boyz N the Hood".

Performing Arts Series at the Hatch Shell
On the Esplanade, Boston
Summer is here and WBZ and the MDC are again hosting Free Friday Flicks at the Hatch Shell. Showing on June 26 is "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and on July 10 is "An Evening of the Three Stooges". Movies begin at 8pm and admission is free. Stay tuned for more movie updates.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Ben & Jerry's One World Onene Heart Festival
Sugarbush South Resort, Warren, Vermont
On June 27 and the 28, from 11am to 7pm, join Ben and Jerry for the annual free festival featuring bands such as Blues Traveler. For more info call 1-800-BJ-FESTS.

Boston Harborfest
The five day celebration begins on July 1 and includes more than a 100 events including Chowderfest. Most events are free to the public. Don't forget to attend the Boston Pops concerts at the Hatch Shell from the 3rd-9th and the fireworks display on the 4th at 9:30pm.

TOURS

Chrlstian Science Publishlng Society
1 Norway St. (off Dartmouth), Boston
Walk through the world in a giant globe made out of stained glass. The Mapparium has a 30-foot diameter and 24-hr. clocks that show the time zone in any region. Don't forget to experience the acoustics. Admission is free. Hours are every day 9:30 to 4pm.

Commonwealth Brewlng Co.
138 Portland St., Boston
The Brewing Co. holds tours of their facility on Saturdays at 3:30 and Sundays at noon. The tours are free. For a $3 cover they also host concerts. June 26 is Calypso Hurricane and the 27th is Diversity.

The Copley Soclety of Boston
158 Newbury St., Boston
See art in the making at the fourth annual Fresh Paint Auction and Fundraiser on Sunday, June 28. It begins at 9am when 70 painters set up easel on the Common and Public Gardens to create. To wander and watch is free to the public. For more info call 536-5049.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
On Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm, the brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a $1 contribution is requested.

VOLUNTEERING

Women's Lunch Place
67 Newbury St., Boston
If you have time to participate in Free Boston activities, perhaps there is time to volunteer at the Lunch Place on Saturdays for the summer. Volunteers are needed between 7:30am and 3pm with many available shifts. Call 267-1722.

We welcome submissions of free and discount events to this section. Please send pertinent information including prices, dates, telephone number and contact person to: Free Boston, The Improper Bostonian, c/o Deborah Pirraglia,P.O. Box 820 Brookline Village, MA 02147- 0820, Or fax to (617)232-4305

We're Looking For a Few Stars

Boston's fastest growing newspaper is now taking on many additional employees. If you're hard working, possess outstanding talent and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success. We offer unparalleled opportunity, plenty of responsibility and a fun working environment.

Account Executives

If you have achieved success in print or radio advertising sales and would like an opportunity to earn higher levels of income while working in the charged environment of a start-up, here's your chance. The Improper Bostonian is looking for a few experienced and proven account executives for its rapidly expanding sales staff. Must possess outstanding interpersonal skills and strong work habits.
Entry level account executive positions also available.

Advertising Sales Manager

We have an opening for a hard working, ambitious, experienced sales manager. Must have a fantastic sense of humor, several years of print advertising experience and a proven track record, preferably in the Boston market.
Send all resumes directly to the Publisher or call 232-3507 for more details.

Distribution Staff

Looking for steady work a few days a week. Make $5 to $10 per hour delivering The Improper Bostonian in your spare time. Must have valid driver's license. Automobile preferred.

Classified Account Executives

Break into advertising sales through our soon to be expanded Classified Advertising department. Must have pleasant phone voice and experience dealing with people. Computer knowledge a plus.

Photo Journalist

Freelance Writers

Movie Critic

Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.

Please send all resumes to: or FAX it to 232-4305
The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

80 DATSUN B210 Wgn., Automatic, Stk. No. P269K	$799	81 PLYMOUTH ARROW P.U., Stk. No. P-633	$1395
83 TOYOTA TERCEL 2 Dr., Stk. No. 92-531A	$899	87 MERCURY TOPAZ Auto., AC, Stk. No. JG200	$2799
84 PLYMOUTH RELIANT 4 Dr., Stk. No. JG600	$995	84 NISSAN SENTRA 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92439A	$1999
81 TOYOTA TERCEL 2 Dr., Clean, Stk. No. IC211	$995	83 MERCURY COLONY PARK Wgn., Stk. No. P602A	$1995
80 OLDS CUTLASS 2 Dr., Stk. No. PIC10	$1299	88 DODGE SHADOW 2 Dr., Stk. No. 91782B	$2895
82 MERCURY CAPRI 2 Dr., Stk. No. 92067A	$1595	87 MERCURY GRAND MARQUIS 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92226A	$4995
85 OLDS CUTLASS 2 Dr., Stk. No. 92409A	$1999	86 MAZDA 626 TURBO 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92429A	$2995
86 FORD LTD BROUGHAM Stk. No. 92185B	$2995	85 LINCOLN TOWNCAR 4 Dr., dark blue, Stk. No. 92473B	$4495
86 DODGE RAM P.U., Stk. No. P636	$1995	86 FORD TEMPO 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92321A	$2995

BAD CREDIT? Don't Worry, We Finance.

ARLINGTON AUTO WHOLESALE
Arlington, Massachusetts
Call Mr. Green (617) 648-6538
Mon. - Fri. 10 - 7, Sat. 10 - 5, Sun. 12 - 4

MORE ARRIVING DAILY!

CLASSIFIEDS

LOOK FOR NEW IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIEDS !

STILL THE BEST WAY TO REACH OVER 190,000 OF THE BEST READERS IN TOWN!

AND WHEN YOU PLACE A NON-COMMERCIAL AD, WE WILL RUN IT UNTIL IT WORKS FOR JUST

$19! WHY PAY MORE?

IF YOU HAVE A NEW, SMALL OR MAIL ORDER BUSINESS, OR IF YOUR BUSINESS JUST ENJOYS THE CLASSIFIEDS, WE WILL RUN A DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENT FREE WHEN YOU RUN YOUR COMMERCIAL CLASSIFIED AD IN 6 ISSUES OF

CALL 232-3705 or FAX: 232-4305

The Improper Bostonian

MASTER CARD, VISA AND AMERICAN EXPRESS ACCEPTED
MORE INFORMATION BELOW.

Alterations/Design

ALTER GO DESIGNS- Clothing/Home Item Alterations, Reconstruction and Repair. Pillows Custom Made. By Appt. Newbury St. Location. GREAT RATES! 332-0160

Apartments

APT FOR RENT. 6 rooms each side. Prime Davis Sq location.One side, $900 tile bath. Other side $1100,11/2 tile bath. No utilities. Call 237-1992

WATERTOWN. House. 6 rooms up, 6 rooms down. Possible convert attic for In-law apt..Tile bath each floor. $209,000. Call 237-1992

Apartment Shares

ALLSTON, Roomate wanted: small room, clean bright apt.. Close to Harvard & BU/call Jen or Lee/783-0847/$300/MO I.e.

CAMBRIDGE, Near Galleria Prof. male seking roomate 2 bedroom apt. lt. housekeeping 864-0007

Clothing/Tailoring

QUALITY pre-owned designer and better clothing.Do come browse! $$$ for your wardrobe.Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm daily. 739-3399. See display ad this page.

Entertainment

"BROADWAY BABIES." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)396-0550 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744-4094

For Sale

BOAT FOR SALE. 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider. 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/ roller. New boat cover.Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617) 279-4857

Health Services

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

TIRED, ACHING, MUSCLES? Then you knead a massage. Come in on your lunch break or after work. Mon-Tue-Wed 10am to 7pm $45/hr loc on Boylston St. across from the Boston Common. Call Mary Foster 617-643-8916 leave message. Certified and licensed.

Help Wanted

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DAYS A WEEK? How about doing a few deliveries around the Boston area? For more info call 232-3507. Ask for Mark.

JOB FOR THE NINETIES. 100 Growth Occupations, Free Brochure; Reid Enterprises, 640, Dept. TB, Harvard Ave, Allston, Ma 02134

INTERN NEEDED TO ASSIST INSIDE SALES MANAGER GREAT OPPORTUNITY CALL 232-3705 FOR MORE INFO.

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage license. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve267-7171

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASE and HIV testing. Confidential doctors office. Robert Taylor, M.D. Brookline 232-1459

Miscellaneous

83 YAMAHA XT 550 MOTORCYCLE. 20K. Great cond. $900. Call 232-3507

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles.Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

KEY-BORED? Berklee Prof offers private keyboard instruction. All levels, styles. Develop your potential! 617-628-7364

VOICE LESSONS, Beginner to Intermediate, Jazz/Pop styles. Harmony, Ear Training, Sight Reading, Affordable. Sabina 787-4254

Painting

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition. Call Joey 776-1706

Paul Ward Lives!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Services

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

Stuff Wanted

TABLE - Large enough to be used as a small conference table. Call 332-4710

LARGE Comfortable Couch wanted. Call 332-4710

ITEMS NEEDED - Large Kitchen Table, Juicer, VCR, Futon Bed Frame, Used MGB., Macintosh LC Call 899-9362

Team One
P.C. and Networking Consultants Call (617)566-7358

Even The Improper Bostonian uses PRESSXPRESS (PXP), greater Boston's most comprehensive resource of event information. PXP researches and lists all events to which the public is invited up to ONE YEAR in advance -- everything from black-tie and cultural events to business seminars nd conventions -- and transmits it weekly via fax. Just think of the possibilities for your business, clients, organizations or personal life! Stay in the know -- call PRESSXPRESS at (617) 742-2092 and ask for your FREE faxed sample today

Adapter Productions

- Audition/Demo Tapes
- Weddings
- Legal

Digital Stereo Video

Rob Wellens
BRIGHTON, MA
(617) 782-0466

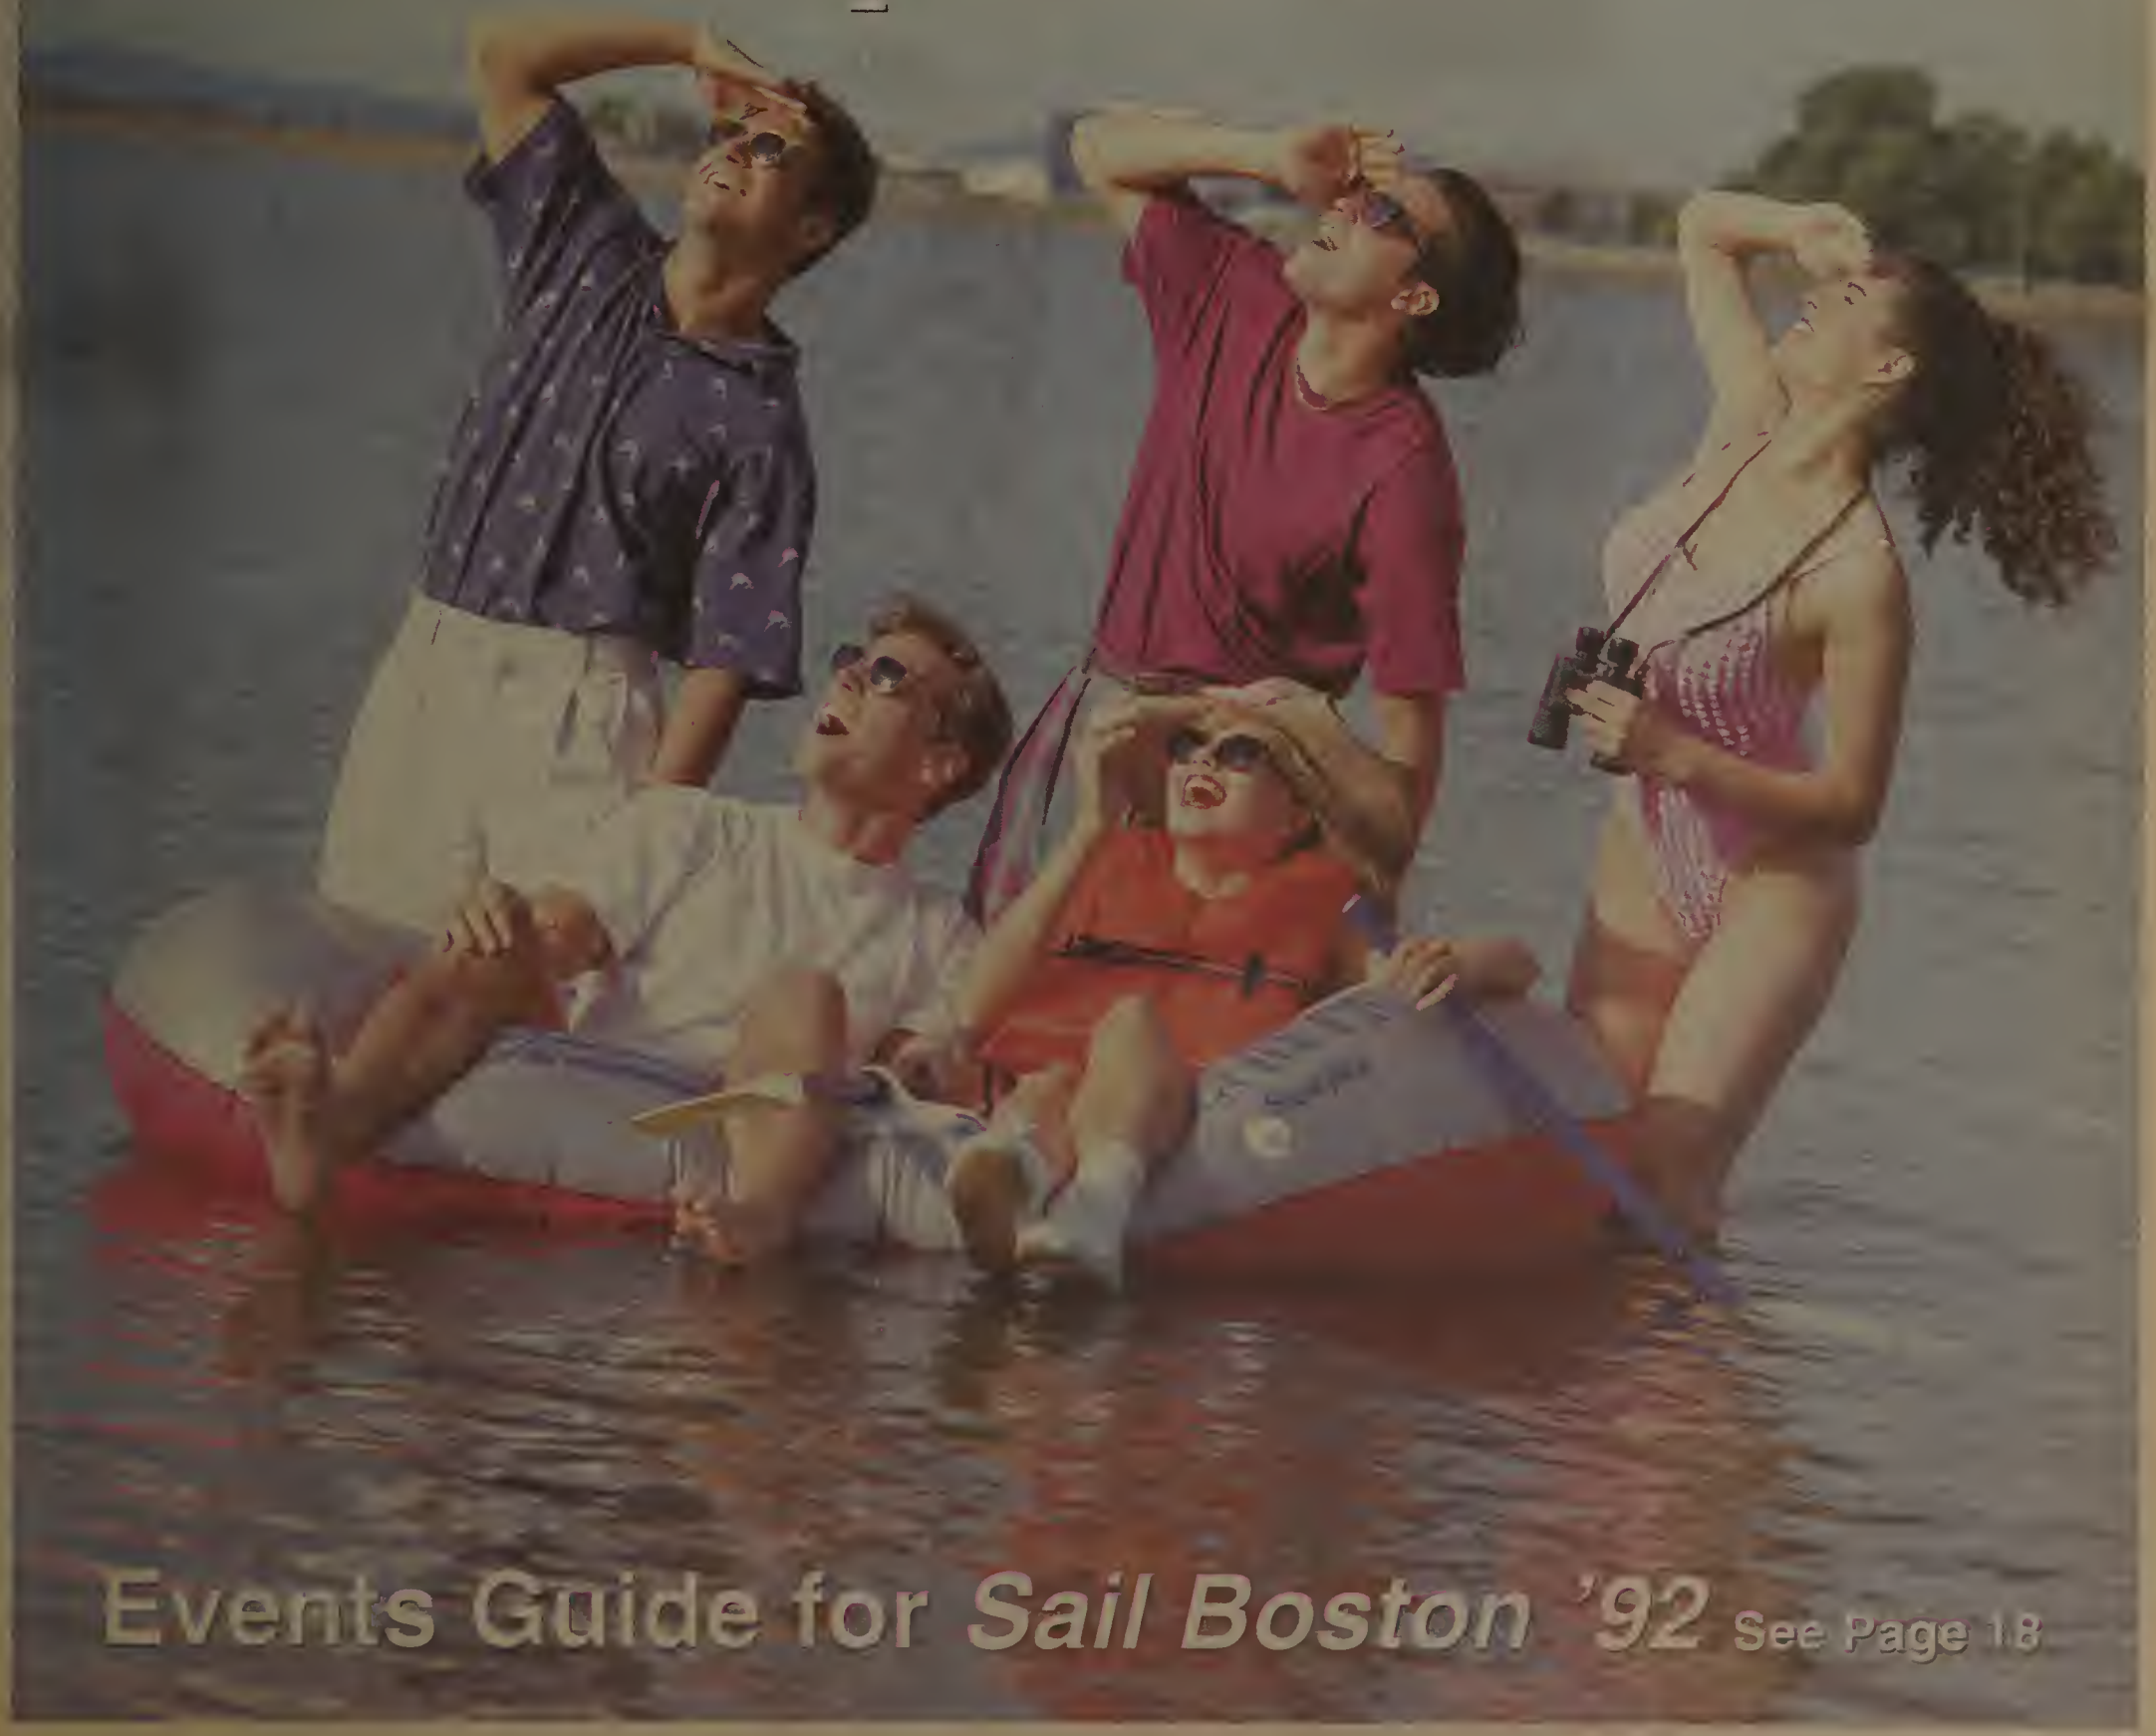
Silk Road Consignerie

Quality pre-owned designer and better clothing.
1368b Beacon Street
Brookline, Ma 02146
(617) 739-3399

Mon-Sat 11-6
Do come browse!
We buy and consign by appointment

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
The best classifieds in town.
Call 232-3705
or Fax 232-4305
CAPTURE YOUR MARKET

RATES: NON-COMMERCIAL- $5 PER LINE. $15 FOR BOLD HEADLINE. COMMERCIAL- $7 PER LINE. $17 FOR BOLD HEADLINE.
THE $19. "RUN IT UNTIL IT WORKS" ADVERTISEMENTS ARE FOR NON-COMMERCIAL ADS ONLY. REAL ESTATE OWNERS WHO NEED PLACEMENT FOR MULTIPLE UNITS ARE SUBJECT TO COMMERCIAL RATES. COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS WHO PLACE A CLASSIFIED AD IN SIX CONSECUTIVE ISSUES WILL RECEIVE A 6 COLUMN INCH CLASSIFIED DISPLAY AD. COMMERCIAL CUSTOMERS THAT PREPAY FOR SIX ISSUES, MAY RECEIVE A CLASSIFIED DISPLAY IN ANY ISSUE THEY CHOOSE.
COPY REGULATIONS: ALL AD COPY IS SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BEFORE PUBLICATION. ANY AD DEEMED OBJECTIONABLE WILL BE EITHER EDITED OR REMOVED. THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN SHALL BE UNDER NO LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO INSERT AN ADVERTISEMENT. ANY ERRORS THAT DO NOT AFFECT THE MATERIAL VALUE OF THE AD WILL NOT BE CREDITED. ERRORS MUST BE REPORTED WITHIN THE FIRST WEEK OF PUBLICATION.
CANCELLATIONS AND CHARGES: ALL ADS MUST BE PREPAID. THERE WILL BE NO REFUNDS FOR CANCELED ADS. SPACE CREDITS WILL BE ISSUED FOR ADS CANCELLED BEFORE 5 P.M.ON THE THURSDAY BEFORE PUBLICATION. THERE ARE NO COPY CHANGES OR REFUNDS FOR NON-COMMERCIAL ADS. AGENCY DISCOUNTS:15% AGENCY DISCOUNTS APPLY. CALL FOR MORE INFORMATION.



ABSOLUT
Country of Sweden
VODKA®
This superb vodka was distilled from grain grown in the rich fields of southern Swede
It has been produced at the famous old distilleries near Åhus in accordance with more than 400 years of Swedish tradition and sold under the name Absolut
Since 1879.
80 PROOF
BOTTLED IN SWEDEN 1 LITRE (33.8 FL. OZ.)
IMPORTED
IMPORTER AND SOLE DISTRIBUTOR FOR THE U.S.
CARILLON IMPORTERS LTD., NEW YORK, N.Y.
ABSOLUT ATTRACTION.
FOR GIFT DELIVERY ANYWHERE CALL 1-800-CHEER-UP (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED
80 AND 100 PROOF/100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS (ABSOLUT COUNTRY OF SWEDEN™) © 1986 CARILLON IMPORTERS LTD.,

July 8 - July 21, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)

The Tall Ships Come to Boston!

Events Guide for Sail Boston '92 See Page 18

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

An Unsafe Place

Interspersed with touchingly fluffy pictures of herself as a child (some of them ominously darkened by photocopying), Dorothy Dundas' poster Behind Locked Doors is art yanked from the gizzard of real-life suffering. Beginning during an adolescent "breakdown" in 1961 that was variously diagnosed as acute schizophrenia and adolescent adjustment reaction, Dundas went from one mental hospital to the next where she was drugged, shocked, secluded and sexually abused. She also fell mute, refused food and resisted "treatment." Her poster, Behind Locked Doors is covered with snippets from her hospital charts, in which needles full of Thorazine are strategically jabbed into the the poster at ironic points, such as into the words "Improving The Quality of Life" from the logo of the Menninger Clinic. Interspersed with eerily bland, workaday orders for "Restraint, seclusion or Pack order" and "Maintenance Dosage of 400 mgs. of Thorazine a day" are quotes from her school teacher who reports she was "Elected Vice President of the Student Government." Others describe her as "Too conscientious," "Kind," "Understanding" and "Sympathetic." She was always noted to be a very well controlled and obedient child but "rarely confided in anyone" says another quote. The painful juxtaposition of the snake-pit conditions in which her desperate memories and her very self were being bludgeoned into drugged submission makes the poster searing to look at. Even the typewriter-print of the words looks archaic. From way inside, it's a plea for seeing "mental patients" as human and suffering beings.

$8 plus $150 postage : Make payable to Behind Locked Doors, Dorothy W. Dundas
Behind Locked Doors
P.O. Box 404
Newton Highlands, MA 02161
244-5833

Behind locked doors:

The Body Knows

Think of the relieved sensation of remembering a forgotten name - and the sort of blood-fed cellular plumpness that ensues - or imagine anticipating something challenging and fun accompanied by that kind of silvery sharpening-up feeling that may produce a figurative ridge in your arms and chest. Think of any of the dolphin leaps and plunges that attend getting a good idea, or losing hope. A technique called "Focusing" uses what they call a "felt sense" which contains and expresses, your "body's wisdom" about happenings in your life - emotional and otherwise. By tuning into the very nature of this sense (is it heavy? is it light? what are its worst and its best aspects?), one can deepen and then also change this sense and undergo what they call a "felt shift" in an experience that may have other possibilities (relief or more promising landscapes). Anger, in a focusing session, may turn out to be - more accurately - disappointment. This one-day workshop (July 18) at Interface will demonstrate this infinitely usable take-home technique, which can be practiced alone or with a partner. Its application is not limited to the darkness of problems; you can also "focus" on intuitive or creative puzzles, or tumbling conundrums looking for new ways of being known.

FOCUSING FOCUSING FOCUSING FOCUSING FOCUSING FOCUSING FOCUSING FOCUSING FOCUSING FOCUSING

Focusing Workshop
Presenter: Joan Klagsburn, Ph.D.
Interface on July 18 10-5
Call 876-4600
$60 for Members; $70 for Non-Member

The Sweet Smell Of A Bargain

With as much fanfare of glamour as you'd expect on Newbury Street (at the full, pay-for-the-location price), you can get perfume at prices that are almost cataclysmically low. In descending prices and colors of sale tickets (green tickets are 20% off, pink are 40-50%, and red-hot red ones represent a 60% reduction), the array of fancy perfumes - representing the four fragrance winds of floral, spicy, fresh, and green - are here in their own glossy, authentic wrap-not copycats, but the real thing. Fendi, Ferre, Alfred Sung, Dior, Byzance, Hererra, XXX, Perry Ellis go singing along the shelves. Pretty salesgirls - loaded with information and test strips you can take home and rub on your wrist, car and cat - explain the aroma philosophy, the relative heaviness or lightness and the proper application of each bottle. It might almost be wine. The entire range, ascending from Eau to cologne to Toilette to Parfum de Toilette to the apogee of concentration, and price-Eau to Parfum is often available in a given scent in their boxes. Testers and unboxed bits are sometimes sold for even less. Some conglomerations that combine some perfumes and talc or body lotion, come collected in a Christmas-like bundle and, with a pretty bag, become . . . boom! - an instant present. The hard to shop for man, for instance.

Perfumania
201 Newbury Street
Boston
437-9410
Cambridgeside Galleria
Cambridge

Mopsy Strange Kennedy has freelanced for the Atlantic, NY Times Book Review and Magazine, Parent's Choice, Red Book, The Washington Post, Chicago Tribune and was a staff writer for Glamour. She also worked for another local (though their name assumes a much more worldly significance) paper for 10 years, 5 months and 28 days.
Please send all correspondence to: The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

PRODUCTION MANAGER
DAVID LOUIE

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE ROSS
LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Restaurant Critics
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
AL STANKUS

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

MUSIC EDITOR
REY ROLDAN

Special Projects Director
MARGE SHANKEN-SOLCOFF

Special Projects Art Director
ALLISON BEGNER

MUSIC COLUMNIST
A.J. WACHTEL

Contributing Writers
ED GRASSO, LISA M. BONNELL
PRITHA RAYSIRCAR
BETSY CARPENTER, A.J. SPENCER
JOE VIGLIONE, THERON HOPKINS
LIZ O'BRIEN, THOMAS ULLMAN JR.
RANDEE DAWN, SHAWN GOODWIN

Staff Photographers
MICHAEL POWERS,, JILL CONNELLY
AYNSLEY FLOYD DANIELLE PUCCI

Inside Sales Manager
HARVEY BRAVMAN

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, UGO MAZZAROLO
MARK STEVENS, ADAM KURZMAN
RAMSEY R. TRIMBLE, WENDY SEMONIAN
STEPHEN D'ENTREMONT, EMILY GROSS
JOHN TED, SUZY MORRIS-MARDEN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Production Assistants
GAIL MARCARELLI, JOE SHARRINO
JEFF FILIPOV

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
JENNIFER MCCANN, JENNIFER LEVITSKY,
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE, TREVOR FORD
DEBORAH PIRRAGLIA, JASON PRING
MARIANNE MURPHY, MEG C. LELKO

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS: Listings are printed free at the discretion of the editor. Send your listings to The Improper Bostonian, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village, MA 02147-0820. They must be recieved 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 17
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.
POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below.

All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.
Please send all inquiries to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

On the Cover

Photographer: Tracy Aiguier
Makeup: Jay Pendley
Models: Mary Detore / Ford Models Mgmt.
Steve Roy / Models Inc.
Carrie McLellan / Models Inc.
Anthony Cucinatti / Models Inc.
Tim O'Toole / Models Inc.
Special Thanks to: Dean Aiguier

If you enjoy reading The Improper Bostonian, thank us by patronizing our advertisers' businesses.

Coming Next Issue:

The Best and Worst of Improper Boston

Traffic & Transportation

Trends

Eateries

Drinkeries

Arts

Excitement

and much much more!

CONTENTS

July 8 - 21, 1992

Features

6 Dig, Set . . . Spike!

Though often overshadowed by trendier summer sporting activities, Volleyball has made its mark in New England, thanks in part to organizations like Shot Block. Hear one man's story of his decision to discard his business suit in favor of a bathing suit and a new career as a promoter of amateur volleyball tournaments. -Ed Grasso

12 Nubia: Ancient Kingdoms of Africa

The Museum of Fine Arts has gathered a collection that showcases a civilization comprised of many different cultures, and linked by common traditions. Now a permanent exhibit, the bulk of the collection was recovered during archeological excavations conducted from 1913-1932. After reading about this amazing exhibit , you'll want to dig through these treasures yourself. -Pritha Raysircar

18 Looking Up To The Tall Ships:

They're almost here! The event of the year begins July 10 and runs through July 16. For your complete pull-out guide for the week of the Tall Ships, consult the Improper Directory of Sail Boston 1992. Everything from a Tall Ships history and ship berthing locations to an easy-find map, directions to great viewing areas and lots more are at your fingertips. -Marge Shanken-Solcoff

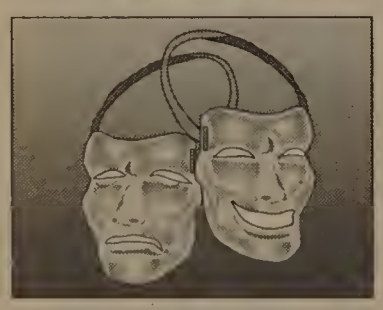
Departments

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Movies
- Review: Boomerang 8
- Review: A League of Their Own 9
- Interview: Zvi Dor-Ner, A Modern Voyager 10

Books
- Brightness Falls, ... 11
- The Things They Carried 11

Arts
- Play Review:The Servant of Two Masters 13
- Arts Calendar 14

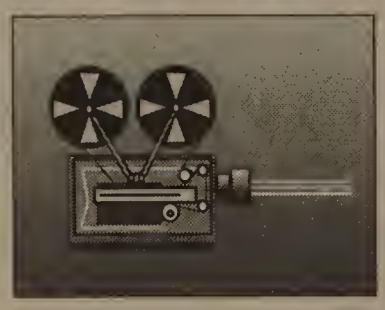
Woman on the Street 15
Hatch Shell Events 16
Perspectives... 17
Comedy
- Interview: Cathy Ladman 25
- Comedy Listings 25



Dining
- The Moveable Feast: Bombay Bistro 26
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Este Margarita Es Mejor 27
- Appeteasers 28
- Brunch Board 29
- Restaurant Listings 30

Music
- The Soup Dragons 33
- Lou Reed 34
- Wachtelligence 35
- Album Reviews 35

Bar & Club Listings 33
- Review: The Sail Loft 35



Improper Impersonals 41
Crossword 41
Free Boston 40

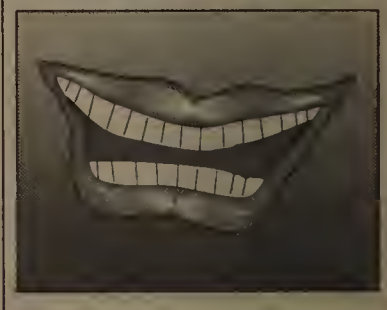
ARTS

PAGE 12

MOVIES

PAGE 8

MUSIC



PAGE 33

DINING

PAGE 26

COMEDY

PAGE 25

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name_____

Address_____

City_____State_____Zip_____

Phone(_____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)

Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____

Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

AROUND TOWN

If you like jammin' too, head down to "Club Boonoononos," reggae night at Catch a Rising Star on Thursday nights from 10:30 pm to 2 am. For only $8 admission - $7 with student ID, you'll hear the best in roots rock reggae from a live DJ and live bands including Technophonic featuring guitar great Stone Montgomery on July 9 and Boston-based Mighty Charge on July 16. Also featured at Club Boonoononos (which, in case your wondering, means "something special" in Jamaican) is Red Stripe, the Jamaican brew. So, if you're 21 or over, "emancipate yourself" on Thursday nights at Catch a Rising Star. Call 661-0167 for more information.

The Three Stooges (No, not Bush, Clinton and Perot) arrive in town on Friday, July 10 as part of the Performing Arts Series at the Hatch Shell. "An Evening of Three Stooges" will be shown at 8:00 pm joining the list of old favorite flicks and hot new movies such as Close Encounters and The Addams Family. Grab a picnic basket and a blanket and enjoy a free film in the great outdoors alongside the scenic Charles River on the Esplanade. Don't forget to schwing by the Hatch Shell on July 17 to catch Wayne's World. For more information, call (617) 727-5215.

If the thought of one more Sail Boston activity makes you want to scream, head out to the New England Wild Flower Society in Framingham for a tour. The 45-acre botanical garden contains the largest landscaped collection of wildflowers and native plants in the Northeast. Trails lead you through woodland groves, by a small pond, past a sunny wetland and beside a brook. Let these inviting images of summer beckon you to stroll amidst the wild flowers. Admission is $6 for adults, $5 for seniors, $3 for children and members get in free. Call (508) 877-6574 or (617) 237-4924 for more information about the tours.

For those of you who still reminisce about the good 'ole days of the '50s and '60s, be sure to catch OLDIES-103's free concerts in honor of Sail Boston 1992. On the Boston City Hall Plaza, July 11, come by to hear oldies music with headliner Peter Noone (pictured above) of Herman's Hermits. Others scheduled to appear are Pat Benti and Shaboom, the Uptown Revival Band, The Marsels, and the cast of Forever Plaid, Boston's long-running "heavenly music hit." The free Saturday night concerts begin July 11 at 2 pm. For more information, call 426-2200.

Tired of comedy performed by chickens? Then get a taste of The Other White Meat who are coming to Catch a Rising Star on Monday, July 13. Their show, called Gritty Diddlin', will be a much better way to spend a Monday night than watching Northern Exposure reruns. The troupe consists of six comedians, mostly with Emerson College connections, and three "musician type peoples" (so they tell us), performing sketches and music to both annoy and enjoy. The show starts at 9:00 pm, so be sure to arrive on time. Curious? You'll just have to catch their show.

Put on your dancing shoes and head on down to The Cambridge Center for Adult Education on Sat. July 18 for an evening of Mid-Summer Arts, featuring one of the hottest bands in town, Mozamba. The night kicks off at 7pm with new art exhibitions and readings throughout the Center. Mozamba, a blend of Afro-Cuban, Brazilian pop, calypso, reggae and soul, will take the stage at 8:30 in the Center's air-conditioned dance studio. Tickets are $10 in advance, and $12 at the door. Proceeds will benefit the Center's Adult Education Scholarship Fund. For further information call 547-6789.

Dig, Set . . . Spike

Amateur Volleyball Lives In Boston

by Ed Grasso

It's inevitable. You're sitting on the beach with a group of friends, chasing the late afternoon sun with a cold drink, when someone professes, "I wish I didn't have to go back to work tomorrow." Another follows with, "Yeah, wouldn't it be great if we could do this for a living?"

One good soul who took this wish quite literally is Brad Van Dussen. Once a broker for a shopping center developer in Brookline, Van Dussen called it quits and started Shot Block with former partner Joe Milando. According to their mission statement, "Shot Block was created as an outlet for New England volleyball enthusiasts."

I've spent many summers on the beach with Brad. A good deal of that time was spent on the volleyball court where our involvement with the game grew from just something to do between flipping tapes on a boom box to a life-time subscription to "Volleyball Monthly." For Brad, it has become "a great way to make a living." After a taste of the professional volleyball business, he vows that he'll never again spend nine to five in business clothes. "I'd much rather wear a bathing suit than a zoot suit to work."

When Brad and Milando discovered that work was having an adverse effect on their over-hand serves and back-line spikes, they adjusted their priorities. Van Dussen and Milando stocked up on sun-block and formed Shot Block, an organization designed to bring outdoor volleyball to New England . . . at least that's what their press release says.

In only their second season, Brad and Joe have more than tripled their number of amateur beach volleyball tournaments. Are they surprised ? " Before we started Shot Block," answers Brad, "we would set up a net on the beach in Wellfleet and have a sign-up sheet two pages long with people wanting to play. We had no idea there were this many people who are really into volleyball." Milando added, "Practically every YMCA and gym is booked in the winter months with leagues and pick-up games. The funny thing is, there really hasn't been a lot of organized outdoor volleyball. So it's not too surprising that we've had this much success so far."

They're quick to add that one of their days at the beach isn't always a day at the beach. "Like any new venture, Shot Block involves a lot of work," says Van Dussen. "But so does coal mining. At least we get a better tan."

Their hard work is paying off in gold as well as tan. This year they've brought several major sponsors on board, including Bud Light, who is the title sponsor for the tournament schedule. A visibly excited Van Dussen comments, "They've not only been very helpful, they're as psyched about this as we are." "And," grins Milando, "if you've ever met Brad, that's not an easy thing to do." Van Dussen agrees. "Other people can't get as psyched about volleyball as I am." (Brad was getting ready to go to a wedding when we spoke, but before going, he had plans to play a few games, "bathe in the ocean and then hit the wedding."

There are no doubts that this business is going to have a banner year with dedication like Van Dussen's. Shot Block will present 11 outdoor amateur tournaments throughout the summer and fall of this year. The events are open to all skill levels and will award prizes in doubles, sixes and co-ed categories. Three of the tournaments will be held on grass with the other eight played on sand at parks and beaches throughout Massachusetts. "These tournaments are really for anyone who likes to play," says Milando. "There are some teams who are real competitive, but a lot of people just come out to have fun."

Which is how Brad and Joe got started in the first place. Brad smiles, "I remember when we thought a carry was something you did with whatever you were drinking when the side rotated." And every now and then, when the Shot Block founders take the weekend off and go back to their humble seaside beginnings, they remember why volleyball is their sport of choice. ❑

SEALY'S FINEST
DOWN-BLEND
EXCLUSIVELY AT
JENNIFER

Sealy Sofabed with the Queensize Posturepedic mattress.

$999.

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Classic Sealy sofabed with gently rolled arms and dressmaker skirt. Overstuffed down-blend cushions for deep-down seating comfort.

The quality and style you would expect on a sofabed twice the price. Covered in luxurious linen blend tea-stain print. Or choose from hundreds of other designer fabrics—Robert Allen, David & Dash, Chris Stone and others—all available at a range of prices you'd otherwise pay more for elsewhere. C.O.M. available.

JENNIFER
CONVERTIBLES

Open 10-9 pm Sat 10-6 pm Sun. 12-5 pm America s Largest Sofabed Specialist

Please call 1-800-JENNIFER for the showroom nearest you

NEW YORK NEW JERSEY CONN N HAMP WASH DC MARYLAND VIR FLOR IL IND MISSOUR MICH

The Boston Strangler
Remembering The Terror

by Leslie Ross

Thirty years ago this month, without realizing it, Boston was heading into a siege of terror. The Boston Strangler, one of the most infamous serial murderers of criminal history, was in the process of making 1962 a year to remember. Within the next twelve months, thirteen women would die at his hands - literally - strangled with articles of their own clothing, in their own apartments.

The doorbell rings, and a man says he's come to check on something in your apartment - a leak or the paint. So you let him in, in spite of an all-points alert about a serial killer strangling women in their own homes.

After saying, "Oh, yes, the paint above that window will have to go, he grabs you in the crook of his arm, rapes you, either in the usual fashion, or with a bottle or broom, and a few minutes later, you're dead. It's not just homicide; it's sexual violation to boot. He leaves you, naked and exposed, lying in the direct view of the door, so the next person to enter won't be able to miss the sight.

Albert DeSalvo, the Malden man who confessed to the Boston Strangler murders - as well as hundreds of other sexually deviant acts - was never brought to trial for his crimes. His confession came about only after he was already in Bridgewater State Hospital, held for psychological evaluation after a separate charge of rape.

But this isn't entirely about Albert DeSalvo and his crimes, the gruesome details of which are available in any number of books, if you want to check them out. It's about a siege of terror, and victims who continued to open the door.

The women who opened the door - for the most part - are dead. In The Boston Strangler, by Gerald Frank, the story is told of a woman who actually let DeSalvo in, but who, when she sensed his motive to check out the paint was not entirely legitimate, lied - telling him that her husband was in the next room. Suddenly flustered, he left. A woman in the next apartment building was later found dead: the next strangling.

All over Boston, Cambridge, Lynn, Salem, and Lawrence, there are women still alive because one day the buzzer rang and they didn't let in a stranger. There are also women lying dead.

There are women who don't even know, who never guessed that they came very close to being one of DeSalvo's victims. In his confession, DeSalvo admitted that sometimes he would stand in a vestibule and ring all the buzzers labeled with women's names, going to the first apartment that buzzed him in.

So it's 1992, and things are different now . We put ambiguous initials on the mailbox, hoping no one will guess our sex. We carry mace in our purses and do model-mugging workshops. We screen our phone calls before we answer the question "Who is this?" And of course we never, never let strangers into our homes .

Albert DeSalvo said he was bewildered by the ease with which he could kill his victims. They made it easy for him, he remarked over and over again in the interrogations with psychiatrists and law-officials that confirmed his guilt . They made it easy for him.

It's unclear to history whether or not DeSalvo knew he was doing the strangling. In a vague way, he did. But he described killing a girl and going home, just not thinking about it, even when watching the news of his latest killing on TV with his kids. "I sat down to dinner and didn't think about it at all," he said.

And I say, Go ahead and open the door. Maybe it's not AIDS, the new Boston Strangler who will snuff out your life with something that belongs to you - your choice - who will rape you, one way or another, and who will leave you naked, exposed and lying in the doorway for the next person to find.

You can just not think about it, if you prefer. But thirty years have passed. We should know better by now. In this siege of terror, let's not let another killer in the house. ❑

Whether It's A Winter Lager Or An Amber, A Pale Ale Or A Pilsner, A Celebrated Porter Or A Bock, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

Boodles Restaurant and Bar proudly serves over 50 micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT&BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Highway 61
"Twin Peaks Hits the Road"

Trying to woo the weird movie-goer is Highway 61, the saga of Canadian barber Pokey Jones (Don McKellar) and renegade heavy metal roadie Jackie Bangs (Valerie Buhagiar), who transport a corpse down the length of America's most famous highway. Sort of a Twin Peaks road movie, Highway 61 contains characters and situations that are appealingly weird, but disjointed. We don't learn much about our heroes along their journey, and as for the strange characters they encounter, we leave them just as we begin to enjoy them. One wonders why Highway 61 was chosen and not Route 66, or Route 95, for that matter. Highway 61 is not drudgery, it's an all right ride, but longer and stranger trips there have been. T.S.L.

Poison Ivy
"Teen Blonde Wreaks Havoc"

Once again, an innocent suburban family is undone by a blonde, and this time the hand rocking the cradle is Drew Barrymore, ex-child actor and drug addict. Mysterious blonde chick Ivy (Barrymore), shacks up in their humble mansion of a dysfunctional California family Her friend. Cooper (Sarah Gilbert) needs a friend, her emphysemic Mom (Cheryl Ladd) needs a lift, and Dad (Tom Skerritt) needs some confidence building. Ivy dopes up the dog, gives Cooper's Dad a Lolita complex, and pushes Mom over the edge. Sara Gilbert is a likable black-garbed teen, but Drew Barrymore is empty and blasé. Edited down, Poison Ivy would make a scary ABC Afterschool Special. It's like, really wild if you're in, maybe, eighth grade? But if not, like, not. T.S.L.

Batman Returns
"Worth Seeing, But Not Worth a Wait"

Batman Returns has its moments of glory, but too many evil plots make a mess of the story. In Burton's sequel to 1989's Batman, each of three villains — the Catwoman (Michelle Pfeiffer), the Penguin (Danny Devito), and Max Schreck, corporate mogul (Christopher Walken), — has his or her own set of complex schemes. Conflicting plots leave the movie unable to sustain any momentum or sense of suspense at the climax. Michael Keaton shows a firmer grasp of the Batman role this time around, and Michelle Pfeiffer nearly steals the show. Director Tim Burton has decided to repeat the virtues of the original film (good sets and great performances), while expanding its vices. Batman Returns is worth seeing, but not worth spending the weekend in line .J.H., J.G.

Adam's Rib
"Soviet Soap Opera"

Adam's Rib, the third film by Russian director Vyacheslay Krishtofovitch, focuses on three generations of Soviet women as they live, work and love their way through a deteriorating country. The charm of Adam's Rib is that mother Nina (Inna Chourikova) and her two daughters are no different from American women: they worry about money, wrinkles, vitamin C, subway passes and love. This is one of the very few Russian films showing modern women at work, involved in family issues and domestic crises. Although the film ends on a disappointing note — a birthday party scene for the family matriach fails to match the emotional power of the rest of the movie — Adam's Rib is a personal look at Russian life that flows like vodka (albeit with a twist of lemon at the end) .C.M.

Boomerang

You'll Hope It Won't Come Back

Marcus Graham (Eddie Murphy) falls in love with Jacqueline (Robin Givens), the one woman in his life who puts career before romance and treats him the way he usually treats women .

by Betsy Carpenter

Eddie Murphy's latest film Boomerang, attempts to be a coming of age picture for its star. It's the story of a womanizing perfume executive who meets his match in the company's beautiful new boss (Robin Givens). Perhaps Murphy hoped that this film would make him not only a recognized comedic force, but the number one, sensitive leading man for the 1990's. With recent movies The Golden Child and Harlem Nights falling short of his hilarious early work in 48 Hours and Trading Places, Boomerang is in some way, Murphy's comeback picture.

Boomerang is a poorly edited, schizophrenic mess. It casts itself as a comedy, complete with grotesquely exaggerated characters which waste the talents of Eartha Kitt and Geofrey Holder. But, it comes back to us as a morality soap opera performed with "deep feeling" by Murphy, Givens and newcomer Halle Berry (the good girl who gets Eddie in the end). In the meantime, there are far too many scenes with Eddie's two male friends whizzing by, which try, but fail to elevate the film by introducing important social issues.

Boomerang could have been helpful to women. The film portends itself to be a "get even" picture with it's billboard slogan "the player is about to be played." It features contemporary female characters who hold jobs as equally good as Murphy's (and, thus, the power to trounce him), but what lumbers within is the same old story line we've been seeing for decades. Givens starts out as a powerful career woman. She doesn't fall for Eddie's tricks and is disinterested in having a relationship with her employee. But by the end, she boomerangs back as the heartless, "bad" woman who has lost a changed-man-with-a-lot-of-80's-potential to that sweet, understanding girl in the art department.

The film also promises to be a comedy of role reversals. Mr. Murphy could have been spectacular if his cocksman character had descended into the underworld, groveling for love. But Murphy - who created the story for the film - holds himself aloof from such misery. He suffers the agony of waiting for one phone call, and, later, the discomfort of finding his boss whispering about him with the female staff. That is all the intended humiliation the film allows him... and even these scenes are not played for comedy. Instead, the character suddenly begins to love children and behave as if he's been in self-help for years.

All in all, it was wise for Murphy to try to get out of the rut that began with Golden Child. While we are throwing Boomerang away, we still love you Eddie. Find a solid script and we'll be around to catch it. ❑

Boomerang
Paramount

Rated: R
Directed By: Reginald Hudlin
Starring: Eddie Murphy, Robin Givens, Halle Berry

Answer to Previous Puzzle

J	A	M	B		F	R	E	T		A	B	A	T	E		O	C	T	E	T
I	S	A	K		L	O	B	O		R	O	Y	A	L		F	O	A	M	Y
B	I	L	L	B	I	X	B	Y		S	T	E	V	E	M	A	R	T	I	N
S	A	T	I	E	T	Y		S	P	O	T		I	C	E	S	K	A	T	E
			B	B	S		C	H	I	N	O	S		T	A	O
M	C	R	A	E		C	H	O	P		M	P	G		T	R	A	M	P	S
I	R	O	N		S	H	A	P	E		S	I	R	E		T	W	E	R	P
N	I	B			R	I	B		E	U	R	E	K	A		E	R	I	E
E	S	E		W	I	L	L	I	A	M	P	O	W	E	L	L		L	M	A
O	P	R	A	H		L	I	M	N	S			D	A	U	M	I	E	R
		T	R	O	P		S	P	Y		D	A	B		S	C	A	N
D	A	Y	C	A	R	E			C	U	B	I	C		A	W	O	K	E
E	G	O		M	E	L	V	Y	N	D	O	U	G	L	A	S		L	O	B
L	A	U	D		P	L	E	A	T	S			T	U	X			S	R	O
T	I	N	E	S		S	I	K	H		C	R	I	M	E		L	E	A	N
A	N	G	L	E	R		N	O	D		R	A	M	P		D	A	N	N	Y
			N	U	T		V	E	N	I	C	E		W	I	Z
O	L	E	A	N	D	E	R		G	I	B	E		B	A	N	A	N	A	S
D	U	D	L	E	Y	M	O	O	R	E			C	A	R	Y	G	R	A	N	T
E	L	I	O	T		P	A	N	E	L			A	V	O	N		U	P	T	O
S	L	E	E	T		T	R	E	E	S			R	A	Z	E		S	E	E	P

A League of Their Own
Steals Home

by Lisa M. Bonnell

Doris (Rosie O'Donnell), Mae (Madonna) and Dottie (Geena Davis) discuss strategy in "A League of their Own."

The year is 1943. The men are off to war and the women are taking over the baseball fields. Baseball fields? That's right, in 1943, when America's men were off fighting World War II, some of America's finest baseball players were starting the first-ever female All-American Baseball League.

This year, Penny Marshall directs A League of Their Own, a fictional movie based on the true events of the first women's professional baseball teams. With an all-star cast on the field, Marshall scores big. Geena Davis plays Dottie, a dairy worker who gets recruited by a scout - the incessantly sharp John Lovitz. Quick-witted and sharp-tongued, the Saturday Night Live player is one of humorous highlights of the movie, too bad his part is so short.

Dottie's ever-competitive kid sister, Kit (Lori Petty), tags along and the ball game begins. At the try-outs, we are introduced to "All the way Maye" (Madonna) and tough talking Delores (Rosie O'Donnell), who in tandem keep the lines cracking and the audience laughing. Once the "Rockford Peaches" assemble the roster and hit the rode, Davis assumes the leadership for an apathetic and always drunk Coach, Jimmy Dugan. Tom Hanks plays the washed-up, ex-baseball player with perfection; however, his repulsive character is remarkably reminiscent of Walter Matthau in The Bad News Bears. But these "Peaches" can play ball and that's the real story.

The adventuresome team travels from game to game with a busload of female ballplayers from all over the country (and one from Canada) to overshadow the wartime blues and hold America's attention. But due to lagging ticket sales, the team is threatened to be closed down. That's when the spunky girls gets flashy and Dottie makes the cover of Life magazine with her all-star catches. Sibling rivalry between Dottie and Kit is the crux of the movie and although somewhat dramatic at times, it gives the film the tension that it needs. Hanks pulls through when he realizes the potential of the girls, and tries with all his power to refrain from reprimanding them to tears.

With a first-rate soundtrack, including songs by Carole King, Madonna, James Taylor, and Manhattan Transfer, this high tempo movie flows along without many hitches. The film portrays progressively strong women who come out to support the nation and find a dream: "Beverly always said the best days of her life were when she was playing ball."

Interspersed with old movie clips and pictures, Marshall recreates the era. She recognizes a virtually unpublicized hallmark in history, when the All-American Girls League was honored by the baseball hall of fame in 1988. As she did with her Oscar-nominated Awakenings, Marshall has once again enlightened the public to a heartwarming and noteworthy story. ❑

A League of Their Own
Columbia Pictures

Rated: PG
Directed By: Penny Marshall
Starring: Tom Hanks Geena Davis, Madonna Lori Petty,, Jon Lovitz

KEY
A Winner
A Toss Up
For the Birds

CRITICS CHOICE

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	L.A. Times	Village Voice	Newsweek	People	Time
Batman Returns	◎	★	◎	★	✓	★	◎	◎	★
Alien 3	◎	◎	✓	★	◎	◎	✓	★	◎
House Sitter	★	★	◎	✓	✓	✓	★	◎	★
Sister Act	◎	◎	◎	✓	★	✓	◎	★	✓
Far and Away	◎	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	★
Patriot Games	✓	◎	✓	★	★	✓	◎	◎	✓
Encino Man	★	✓	✓	✓	◎	✓	—	◎	✓
Lethal Weapon 3	★	✓	✓	✓	✓	◎	◎	✓	◎
Class Act	◎	★	✓	◎	✓	◎	—	◎	—
Beethoven	✓	✓	✓	★	◎	—	—	—	—

FLICKS IN A FLASH

Housesitter
"Dirty Rotten Housebreakers"

Steve Martin displays his usual élan in comic reaction and timing in Housesitter, but unfortunately his reactions to the movie's comic scenes are funnier than the comic scenes themselves. Martin is Newton Davis, a Boston architect who has built a home for his childhood sweetheart. She refuses his hand, leaving one-night-stand Gwen (Goldie Hawn) to move into the abandoned home and tell Davis' hometown that she is the new Mrs. Davis. The zany panic builds up from there, in a frantic escalation of lies that is slightly reminiscient of Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, a far superior comic tour de force. Fans of Martin and Hawn will not be that disappointed with Housesitter — perhaps only by the rushed and improbable ending — and the suporting cast for the two stars is strong and amiable. T.S.L.

Proof
"Unfocused Negative"

First-time Australian director Jocelyn Moorhouse botches up a potentially engrossing tale of the relationship between a blind photographer, a bellboy who helps him compose his shote and the shutterbug's jealous landlady. What starts out as a promising Pinteresque exploration of manipulation, trust and betrayal dissolves quickly into platitudes and cliches. It doesn't help that none of the characters are even remotely likeable, let alone deserving of our attention or sympathy. Proof is as out as focus as it is underdeveloped J.B.

Sister Act
"A Divine Comedy"

Sister Act's weak plot is saved through the hilarious performances by the film's stars. Whoopi Goldberg is Deloris Van Cartier, a second-rate lounge singer who witnesses a murder and is forced to seek refuge in a convent. In addition to taking the vows of poverty, charity and chastity, Deloris, "Sister Mary Clarence," is given the ungodly task of teaching the less-than harmonious choir how to groove. Maggie Smith is wonderful as Mother Superior who gives Deloris a hiding place and a sense of responsibility. Harvey Keitel convincingly stars as Deloris' slimy lover/boss who has the contract out on her life. Sister Act, written by Joseph Howard and directed by Emile Ardolino, is chock full of nuns and laughs. J.M.

Patriot Games
"The Audience Comes Out The Loser"

After an hour of watching Patriot Games, the latest adaption of a Tom Clancy pot boiler, it's fairly easy to guess the outcome. Erstwhile CIA analyst Jack Ryan (Harrison Ford) thwarts an assassination attempt by an IRA fringe group, killing the baby brother of the group's leader. Ryan returns to his happy yuppie domain in Baltimore, and the vengeful assassin follows in pursuit, Cape Fear-style. Ford makes a more seasoned and believable Jack Ryan than Alec Baldwin. The man defending home and hearth from intruders has been better portrayed in Cape Fear and Straw Dogs. Rent those two for the same price of Patriot Games and have a more chilling and suspenseful evening. T.S.L.

Alien 3
"One Monster & a Script With a Few Holes"

In Alien 3, we rendezvous with heroine beauty Ellen Ripley (Sigourney Weaver) and her intergalactic beast, and while the thrills are in no short supply, the movie relies on the suspense tactics of the first two Alien movies to fuel its engines. This time around, Ripley and a planet of reformed rapists fight the alien in the same race-against-time scenerio we saw in Alien 2. Charles Dance hands in a fine performance as Ripley's paramour Dr. Clemens, and Charles Dutton is strong as the iron-chinned Dillon, the most thoughtful and intimidating inmate. Themes of euthenasia and sexually-transmitted disease run through this film. Few movies will give you the scare Alien 3 will, but you might feel that the Alien series has lapsed into formula; you'll be happy you saw it, but you might be happier that it's the last sequel. T.S.L.

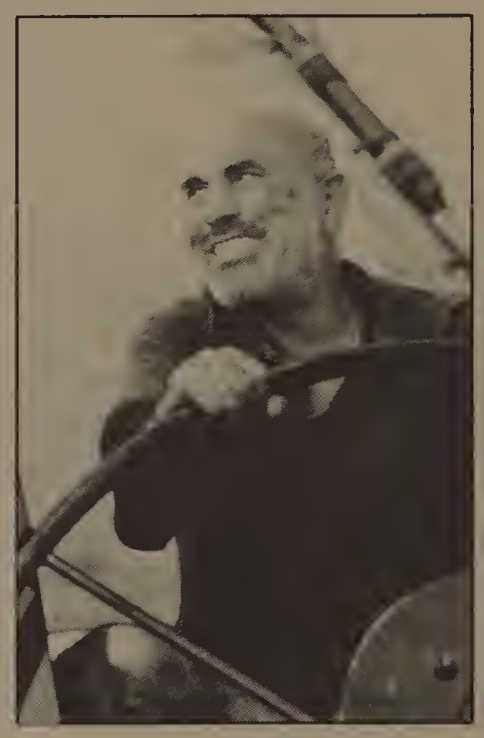
Columbus Lives:
An Interview With A Modern Voyager

The arrival of the Tall Ships have sparked a renewed interest in exploring the waters of today's world. In celebration of the 500th anniversary of Columbus' discovery of America, WGBH will re-run Columbus and The Age of Discovery beginning July 20 and running through August. The man behind this fascinating production is executive producer Zvi Dor-Ner who recently discussed the making of this seven-part series.

by Tim Lemire



Beside the desk of Zvi Dor-Ner, executive producer at WGBH, is a peculiar object: a Globe on which there is no Massachusetts, no United States and no Americas. Seeing Japan where the Caribbean Islands should be located may be strange to modern eyes, but in 1492, such was the prevailing perspective of the world. One man, however unknowingly, changed the global map and with it, the futures of all the lands upon it: Christopher Columbus, the subject of the seven-part WGBH series Columbus and the Age of Discovery, (which aired earlier this year and will be rebroadcast this October), influenced not only the history of the world, but also Zvi Dor-Ner, its writer, producer and director.

Improper Bostonian: You wrote, produced and directed Programs Three and Four and were executive producer for the entire series. Other writers and directors were at the helm for other episodes. Was it difficult maintaining a uniformity of vision having different people in charge at different stages?

Zvi Dor-Nor: It was difficult. What we had going for us was that we had a plan that was constructed long before other producers came on. I think you have to grant other producers the right to learn the material and understand it anew . . . and it modifies and changes. If it's lousy. you try to clamp it down and correct it and control it. In the case of Columbus, we had some real problems.

IB: What sorts of problems?

ZD: We were working on some aspects of the story while others were totally uncertain and they were in a shambles. I can tell you that on the day of my departure to film Program Four, which was the voyage into the Americas, I got a fax from the Spanish partners saying that they are pulling out. And the meaning of that was that 'We don't have the replicas.' [Replicas of the Nina, Pinta and Santa Maria were being built to recreate Columbus' voyage.] And we needed the ships; they were the center of Program Three, and we needed them as a sort of emblematic footage for almost everything else.

Zvi Dor-Ner, executive producer of Columbus and the Age of Discovery

IB: You must have thought the whole series was going to fall apart.

ZD: I remember flying to Miami to join the Westward I, the ship journeying into the Americas for a period of about a month, during which we were pretty much incommunicado, thinking that I don't have an essential part of the series. And I remember not sleeping that night, and the next night thinking that the filming of Program Four is completely secondary stuff. It's so easy by comparison to that kind of managerial production task of pulling in the necessary components.

By the time I got to shoot on the replicas, I thought about one fraction of the time about what I needed to shoot and how I needed to shoot it and what would be the best directoral approach to shooting the stuff. My energy was totally drained by bringing together the opportunities by which the crew is finally on the replica to show that history still lives. I hope that that's the total impact of the series - to understand how these events still affect us, still work on us, and that these commemorations are part of this process.

Sure, it's advantageous, but it's part of our material because of the subject of the series. I think that people often thought that we dressed these people, that the series produced these events rather than a sort of documentation that these events are still important to these people doing it.

IB: How did you find the experience of filming at sea?

ZD: It was terrific. You are on the ship, your equipment is there, your charges are there, your crew is there, and for two weeks, nobody can go away. Working at sea is very difficult, just physically. The ships roll like crazy, and the cameras do not tolerate the wet. So just controlling motion, to get footage that looks steady and solid, it takes just physical power and people get exhausted.

But by that time, it's a pleasure. That's not the difficult part. The difficult part is making it happen.

Dor-Ner's previous documentary projects include Enterprise, a fifty-part series on the world of business and War & Peace in the Nuclear Age. Dor-Ner plans to make the adventure of the sea happen again with his next documentary project, whose subject will be great sea voyages of the world. ❑

WHAT'S PLAYING • WHAT'S PLAYING

CALL THEATERS FOR TIMES

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)
ALIEN 3 (R)
CLASS ACT (PG-13)
DEEP COVER (R)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST.(227-1330).
CASABLANCA (PG)
THE PLAYER (R)
FAR & AWAY (PG-13)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)
PINOCCHIO (G)
WATER DANCE (R)
HOUSESITTER (PG)
ENCINO MAN (PG)
WHITE MAN CAN'T JUMP (R)
SISTER ACT (PG)
WAYNE'S WORLD PG-13)
ADAM'S RIB (R)
PROOF (R)
INCIDENT AT OGLALA (PG)
MY COUSIN VINNY (R)
FERNGULLY (G)
THE PLAYBOYS (PG-13)
POISON IVY (R)
BEETHOVEN (PG)
BASIC INSTINCT (R)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM AVE NR.KENMORE SQ(424-1500)
ZENTROPA
MONSTER IN A BOX (PG-13)
MEDITERRANEO
HIGHWAY 61 (R)
HOWARDS END (PG)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)
THE PLAYER (R)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)
ZENTROPA
MEDITERRANEO
THE PLAYBOYS (PG-13)
HOWARDS END (PG)
POISON IVY (R)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BOOMERANG (R)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
PINOCCHIO (G)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)
HOUSESITTER (PG)
FAR & AWAY (PG-13)
SISTER ACT (PG)
LETHAL WEAPON 3 (R)

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL 628-7000
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BOOMERANG (R)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
PINOCCHIO (G)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)
HOUSESITTER (PG)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
LETHAL WEAPON 3 (R)
SISTER ACT (PG)
ENCINO MAN (PG)
BEETHOVEN (PG)
FAR & AWAY PG-13)

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)
BOOMERANG (R)
LETHAL WEAPON 3 (R)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700
THUNDERHEART

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140
BASIC INSTINCT (R)
CLASS ACT (PG-13)

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500
HOUSESITTER (PG)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
SISTER ACT (PG)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)

CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040
BOOMERANG (R)
FAR & AWAY (PG-13)
THE PLAYER (R)
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
LETHAL WEAPON 3 (R)
POISON IVY (R)

COOLIDGE CORNER
290 HARVARD ST.- BROOKLINE 734-2500
THE GOOD WOMEN OF BANGKOK
NIGHT ON EARTH (R)
RAISE THE RED LANTERN
A WOMAN'S TALE
THE FAMINE WITHIN LASERMAN
THE TOURIST

BRATTLE
40 BRATTLE ST.- HARVARD SQ. 876-6837
BROADWAY BILL
DETOUR

FRAMINGHAM CINEMA
RTE. 9 SHOPPER'S WORLD 235-8020
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
LETHAL WEAPON 3 (R)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)
FAR & AWAY (PG-13)
SISTER ACT (PG)

WEST NEWTON CINEMA
1296 WASHINGTON ST. (RTE. 16) 964-6060
STRANGERS IN GOOD COMPANY
PINOCCHIO (G)
PROOF (R)
RAISE THE RED LANTERN
ADAM'S RIB
FERNGULLY (G)
NEWSIES (PG)
WATER DANCE (R)
THE PLAYBOYS (PG)

NATICK LOEWS
RTE. 9 ALONG SHOOPERS WORLD 237-5840
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BOOMERANG (R)
THE PLAYER (R)
PINNOCHIO (G)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
HOUSESITTER (PG)

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500
ANTARCTICA AND THE NE TIME CAPSULE
RING OF FIRE AND THE NE TIME CAPSULE
TO THE LIMIT AND THE NEW ENGLAND TIME CAPSULE

BOOKS

Brightness Falls

Jay McInerney
Knopf
$23.00

A saga of the decline and decay of the yuppie, Brightness Falls is a chronicle of an era - a battered BMW driving back to the years of power lunches, mergers and acquisitions and Vanity Fair gossip columns. McInerney's fourth novel relives 1987, before and after Wall Street's apocalyptic Black Monday.

Amid the movers and shakers, Corrine and Russell are the only happy couple on an urban island that specializes in unimaginable excess. Together, they join the frenzy in their search for the new and improved American dream. To prevent a last place finish in this race for it all, they become as carnivorous as those they once feared. As their ambition swells, their marriage and friendships disintegrate in a haze of drugs, money and adultery. One of their best friends since college has his own problems: the pressure of writing a second best-selling novel, heroin addiction and a disillusionment that now finds justification are representative characteristics of a lifestyle of overindulgence.

Brightness Falls is much more than a tale of greedy people getting what they deserve. It explores the ease in which people slip into avariciousness and the struggle involved in reclaiming a past life. This is a novel for the new Jazz Age. There is no clean, shining Gatsby figure here to absolve the indulgent characters with an innocent smile. They find themselves laid to rest in their own waste.

(c)Marion Ettlinger

Jay McInerney, author of Brightness Falls

Written with sophistication and clarity, McInerney guides us through a maze of recognizable figures who speak and react like the shadows of our not-so distant past. Though the ambition of realistically depicting clichéd, familiar characters is a daunting task, McInerney manages to pull it off. Brightness Falls is a smart novel, filled with insightful observations about compromise and disloyalty. As a history lesson on the rules of the game in the eighties, this book deserves a read. Buy it.

A.J. Spencer

The Things They Carried

Tim O'Brien
Penguin Books, Penguin Paperbacks, 1990: $8.95

"True war stories do not generalize. They do not indulge in abstractions or analysis..." instructs Tim O'Brien in "How To Tell A True War Story," just one of the rich and heartfelt stories in his 1990 book, The Things They Carried. O'Brien, a Boston area resident and Vietnam Vet, uses himself and several other men in his platoon as namesake characters in his stories that loosely, yet remarkably, make this fictional book whole.

His voice, sometimes thick with grisly details of war and other times smooth and poetic in his tales of the human spirit, centralizes the Vietnam experience and makes it personal to all who read it. Through seven men's experiences, a unique understanding is gained. The "true war" story may or may not be told — this is a work of fiction. "You pin down certain truths. You make up others. You start with something that truly happened ... and you carry it forward by inventing incidents that did not in fact occur but that nonetheless help to clarify and explain," O'Brien writes in "Notes."

The title story, "The Things They Carried" juxtaposes the actual objects of weight the soldiers bore on their backs to the immeasurable burdens of fear, guilt and the vision of death they contained inside. He writes of endless amounts of machine guns and ammunition, rations and water they carried along with small mementos of love such as letters, snapshots and good luck charms.

O'Brien shows his true literary skill by transposing mere war stories into life stories. He writes in, "The Lives of the Dead," that even after thirty years he is writing to try and save his own life with a story. Through these cathartic processes, a new life is opened up for the reader. The reader cannot simply forget or ignore this life after closing the book. For those who haven't read this stirring account, it's a good reminder that Vietnam is still alive in the lives of many Americans.

Lisa M. Bonnell

Where can you tell that special someone how deeply they really disgust you?

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

A unique forum where you can vent your frustrations, parade your convictions, or just be a little mean.

SALON GALLERY
NEW CLIENTS: RECIEVE A HAIRCUT FOR $15
OR 20% OFF ANY CHEMICAL SERVICE!
(Offer Not Good On Saturday)
EXISTING CLIENTS: BRING A NEW CLIENT,
AND GET TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE.
WE NOW OFFER FULL NAIL SERVICES.
544 Tremont St. Boston
(617) 451-2050
Across From Boston Centre For The Arts

All this under one roof at...

GOOD TIME BILLIARDS

Indoor baseball & softball batting cages

Over 35 Gold Crown pool tables & Verhoeven billiard tables

Indoor driving range & miniature golf

Bar & restaurant & Color T.V.'s everywhere

Only 5 Minutes From Boston
A/C • Free Parking!

Off Rt. 93 at Assembly Sq. & Loews Theatre
30 Sturtevant St., Somerville 628-5559

ARTS

Nubia: Ancient Kingdoms of Africa
A Permanent Collection at the MFA

Shawabtis of Taharqa, 690-664 B.C.

by Pritha Raysircar

Finally. An articulate, breathtaking and definite challenge to the long standing "fact" that Egypt represents Africa's most ancient culture. The Museum of Fine Arts, has placed on permanent display Nubia: Ancient Kingdoms of Africa, an exhibit that showcases a civilization comprised of many different cultures linked by common traditions, but also distinguished by their unique works of art and individual customs.

Ancient Nubian civilization flourished for more than six thousand years (from 6,000 B.C.-350 A.D.). Geographically, what is referred to as Ancient Nubia covers modern day southern Egypt and northern Sudan. Located from the first cataract (rapids) of the Nile River to the foothills of Ethiopia, ancient Nubia was a fertile crossroads: both a contact and a transfer point between Africa and - in chronological order - Ancient Egypt, Greece, Rome and the Christian and Islamic worlds. As a consequence, Ancient Nubian artistic traditions, recorded social practices, jewelry and even hairstyles reflected the discourse (either friendly or hostile), of its people with the world which surrounded them.

The bulk of the collection of objects which comprise Nubia: Ancient Kingdoms of Africa were recovered during archaeological excavations conducted from 1913-1932 by the Harvard University - Museum of Fine Arts, Boston Archaeological Expedition led by George A. Reisner. As the curator of the Department of Egyptian and Ancient Near Eastern Art at the MFA, Reisner was asked by the Egyptian government to head an archaeological survey of Nubia for future plans to enlarge the Aswam dam.

Preliminary excavations made by Reisner and his archaeological team previous to the 1913-1932 dig, unearthed more than 150 ancient Nubian sites, located today in Egypt. Moreover, this survey established the chronological infrastructure upon which all Nubian studies were consequently based. The MFA is fortunate to possess important material from these sites that was given to Reisner by the Egyptian government. Included in the "Egyptian" collection is exquisitely-painted pottery from the Nubian A-Group (about 3100-2800 B.C.), jewelry and figurines of people and animals from the C-Group (2000-1500 B.C.) and also from the little-known Pan Grave culture (so named for the frying pan-like shape of their graves; 2200-1700 B.C.), the world's first earring.

The nineteen year long "Sudanese" Nubia excavation yielded an additional twenty sites. Most notable of these sites were the capitals of the most powerful and glorious Nubian Kingdoms - Kerman, Napata and Meroe - spanning a period from about 2000 B.C. to 370 A.D. Again, the government of Sudan agreed to give half of the objects found to the Harvard University-Museum of Fine Arts, Boston Expedition. Outside of Khartoum, The Sudan, the MFA houses the finest and most extensive collection of Nubian art.

Nubia: Ancient Kingdoms of Africa is installed in the east side of the MFA, opposite the gallery of Indian art. The gallery presents two long cases along the north and south walls, with major monuments highlighted on the central floor. The north wall presents a chronological sequence dating from Prehistoric Nubia (6000 B.C.) to the fall of the kingdom of Kush and at the end of the pre-Christian era, (about 350 A.D.). The exhibit is divided into periods rather than dynasties.

Bottle in the Shape of a Bound Oryx, 700 B.C.

The south wall houses a selection of the famous treasures from the royal pyramids of Kush, dating from about 740 to 250 B.C.

What is most compelling about this exhibit is the realization that while Nubia predated Egypt as an ancient civilization, it somehow lost its position of eminence in the historical perspective. Continuously overshadowed by the many splendors of ancient Egypt, Nubia remained a quiet and somewhat unknown neighbor. Recognizing Nubia's major role as an ancient civilization is a valuable step towards understanding Africa's place in world history.

Nubia: Ancient Kingdoms of Africa has been made possible through grants from the NYNEX foundation and New England Telephone. Additional support has been provided by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, a Federal Agency. ❑

Photos Courtesy of MFA, Boston

"Blue Time", Timothy S. Murphy

ARTS

At Wit's End - A Fast End To A Great Start

by Nancy Leonard

If you caught Stan Freeman as Oscar Levant at the Charles Playhouse - where his ingratiating one-man show, At Wit's End, had an all-too-brief run - you'll be sure to check out the real Oscar, who appears in Humoresque, the John Garfield/Joan Crawford movie that will be on channel 2 at 10p.m. on Saturday, July 25.

Though the live show includes an anecdote about the difficulties of having the non-musical Garfield play a violinist, the tantalizing prospect is much more than seeing the close-up shots specifically described. It's really an immediate opportunity to find out more about the tormented talent, whom some remember as a controversial guest on early TV rather than as a performer.

Oscar Levant was born in Pittsburgh in 1906 and died in Beverly Hills in 1971. Primarily a pianist and a composer, he subordinated his own career to George Gershwin, and after that composer's death in 1937, became the foremost interpreter of his music. Levant also was a writer, a star of radio (Information, Please, Kraft Music Hall, Duffy's Tavern), film (The Bandwagon, Rhapsody in Blue, An American in Paris) and television. Controversy stalked him because of drug addiction, mental illness and his corrosive wit.

At Wit's End touches more or less topically, upon all these points. Drawing on material from Levant's autobiographies, Joel Kimmel has crafted a "concert with a commentary" that imagines :Levant returning to the stage after a long hiatus and institutionalization. The format, which includes the supportive off-stage presence of wife, June, accommodates a deft mix of biographical information, music, name-dropping and cynical one-liners.

Freeman doesn't really get to the heart of the person whom people "either hate or loathe" - though one can't help wondering if his reference to George Gershwin's doubtful manhood mirrors Levant's own uncertainty in that area, masked by other torments. This is a fairly gentle creation, more a reflection than an impersonation. Maybe, two hours of the actual Levant would be intolerable. But two hours of endless wit and virtuoso piano playing here make for a fine entertainment.

Stan Freeman stars as Oscar Levant in At Wit's End

At Wit's End could be strengthened with some editing, a sharper focus, and dutiful identification of each musical number (Particularly the Gershwin compositions). It's a giddy evening, not actually endearing, but surprisingly provocative. Compare, for example, Levant's vociferous viewpoints expressed on radio and television in a repressed age with the blandness of the media in our more enlightened times. Consider, too, the cultural span of the mid-20th century, as Levant recounts his journey from posh New York nightclubs through radio, film and TV - from the literary lights of the Algonquin Club to late-night TV talk shows.

Freeman is a gifted pianist, and while the early numbers seem to add little to the proceedings, the musical interludes eventually provide considerable substance and panache. His virtuoso playing - in contrast to the amnesiac's stumblings - electrifies the close.

Playwright S.N. Behrman said that Oscar Levant is "a character who if he didn't exist, could not be imagined." At Wit's End portrays Levant in a more temperate manner, as a curmudgeon near the end of his career, but it still has plenty of destructive quips and put-downs to spice the portrait. This is the kind of entertainment that makes you want to know more about the man and his times - and that's commendable. Although it's too late to catch the "morbid rondo" at the Charles Playhouse, the upcoming Humoresque might be a good place to start.❑

TYPESETTING
DESIGN
ILLUSTRATION

Resumes
Photostats
Business Cards
Advertising
Proofreading
Brochures
Logo Design
Copy Writing
Mechanicals
Direct Mail
Letterheads
Copy Editing

BD DESIGN GROUP
BORTMAN

Phone/Fax:
(617) 964-5523
950 Boylston St.
Newton, MA
02161

How to End the Silent Treatment Without Saying a Word.

So you really goofed up this time and your name is "Mud". Well, that's why there's ROSExpress. Our very polite tuxedo-clad delivery person will present your object of desire with a dozen beautiful long-stem Royalty roses for just $29.99 with FREE Delivery in Downtown Boston. Our stunning bouquets are the best way to insure your good night kisses will last well into morning.

ROSExpress
617 269 4444

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are now on sale for Boston Ballet's 1992-93 season. Performances include The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, Etudes Program, Cinderella, All Balanchine and Romeo and Juliet. Call 931-2000 for more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
See The Berlin Wall, an exhibit of photographs taken from the Boston Herald-Traveler that document the evolution— and conclusion— of the Cold War (1945-1989). On display in the Wiggin Gallery balcony from 9am-5pm through July. Call 536-5400 x280 for more information.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
World-renowned climber, cartographer and aerial photographer Bradford Washburn displays more than 40 stunning black-and-white photos of the world's most dramatic mountain ranges. Through Sept. 7.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Come see NESOP's student exhibition, work from graduates of the two-year Professional Photography program. The show consists of work in black & white, color, experimental color, advertising, corporate, editorial, photojournalism and portraiture. Hours are Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm; the show runs through Aug. 28.

Hungry i

Fine dining nightly

and Sunday Brunch.

Reservations Suggested.

71 ½ Charles Sreet
Beacon Hill, 227-3524

CLASSICAL

Concord Academy Performing Arts Center
166 Main St., Concord
On July 9 at 8pm, the Thoreau Society presents a concert of music by Charles Ives and Boston composer Thomas Oboe Lee. Featured in the program is That Mountain, which uses poems by Henry David Thoreau to present a multi-faceted portrait of the man. For tickets and information, call (508) 369-5912.

Great Woods
Mansfield
Victor Borged, the celebrated comedian-pianist, brings his unique blend of humor and music to Great Woods on July 12 at 8pm. He will perform his one-man show, "An Evening of Music and Mirth." Tickets range from $10-$30. Call 931-2000 to reserve seats.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
Widely regarded as one of the country's leading Dixieland bands, The New Black Eagles will heat up the night July 9 at 7:30pm with New Orleans and classic jazz from the 1920s and '30s— including their versions of the music of King Oliver, Jellyroll Morton, Sydney Bechet and Duke Ellington. The concert will take place in the MFA's elegantly landscaped courtyard, and the courtyard opens at 6pm for picknicking: buy it there or bring your own. Bring a blanket or lawnchair, but no alcohol, please. Call 267-9300 x306 for ticket information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass. Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Boston Gay/Lesbian Film Festival
at various locations
This 8th annual festival is held Fridays at the Museum of Fine Arts, Saturdays at the Harvard Film Archive, and Sundays at MFA and the Institute of Contemporary Art. The festival opens on July 2 at 6pm with a gala party at the ICA running simultaneously with a double feature film screening at MFA. The festival runs until Aug. 1. For more information, call 266-9129.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
The BPL screens award-winning documentaries every Thursday at 6pm this summer: See The Wonderful World of Dogs and Cane Toads: An Unnatural History on July 9; July 16 it's Wild by Law and Yosemite: The Fate of Heaven. On Mondays, the BPL salutes Frank Capra: July 13 see Mr. Deeds Goes to Town; July 20 it's Lost Horizon. On Tuesdays at 6pm, the library salutes Marilyn Monroe: July 14 see Niagara; July 21 it's the classic Gentlemen Prefer Blondes. Admission for all films is free.

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Through July 9, see Broadway Bill, a rediscovered lost Frank Capra film (1934) starring Warren Baxter and Myrna Loy. For further film information, call 876-6837.

Harvard Film Archive
at the Carpenter Center for the Visual Arts
24 Quincy St., Cambridge
See the films of Samuel Z. Arkoff, the King of the "B" Movies, in the series "Classic Arkoff: At the Drive-In with American International Pictures" through July 8. Call 495-4700 for more information.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
See the film series "Classics of French Cinema— Restored!" On July 8, at 6pm, come enjoy An Italian Straw Hat by Rene Clair (1927) and at 8:15pm, The Golden Coach by Jean Renoir (1952). An Italian Straw Hat will be reshown on July 12 at 3pm. All films are screened in Remis Auditorium. Call 267-9300 for more information.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
See Antarctica through November: An extraordinary excursion across Earth's last wilderness in this breathtaking adventure film. Also showing are Ring of Fire (about the active volcanoes in the Pacific Ocean), To the Limit (telling the story of three athletes' quest for the ultimate performance) and New England Time Capsule (giving a breathtaking glimpse at the beauty of New England). Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only museum in the world devoted solely to educating the public about computers and their impact on society. Enjoy over 100 interactive exhibits, including the award-winning Walk-Through Computer. Come see "Tools & Toys: The Amazing Personal Computer," where you can explore over 35 hands-on exhibits that show the versatility of this remarkable little machine: Visitors can fly a jumbo jet on a flight simulator, paint on the walls with a giant infrared pointer, zoom through the 3-D world of virtual reality and compose songs on computer-based musical instruments. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
Come see the work (1970-1990) of phenom photographer Annie Leibovitz from June 17-July 26. It's something you don't want to miss. This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 5pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
More than 30 superb examples of handcrafted, highly ornate ship models have received a permanent home at MFA, just in time for Sail Boston's parade of tall ships on July 11. Among the European and American models on view will be a model of the U.S.S. Constitution and the intricately carved ship known as "Royal George." Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Prized Possessions," European paintings drawn from the private collections of over 50 Boston-area and regional collectors. Artists featured include Monet, Degas, Beckmann, Rembrandt, Mondrian, Pissaro and many others. Through Aug. 16.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
July 11 is sign-language interpretation day for deaf visitors. Celebrate National Space Week and International Space Year with a weekend of demonstrations, lectures and special star shows July 17-19. "DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!," the nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs, remains on display through Sept. 7. From May 30 to Sept. 13, ponder the Norman B. Leventhal collection of more than 60 colorful, extraordinary maps ranging in age from before Columbus' voyage to the present day. Examine global climate change— its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it— in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth."

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
at Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
Under the direction of Robert Brustein, the A.R.T. presents Hedda Gabler, Henrik Ibsen's groundbreaking exploration of repressed sexuality and frustrated social ambition. The production runs from May 8 to July 5, in repertory with Carlo Goldoni's The Servant of Two Masters, directed by Andrei Belgrader, which runs through July 28. And returning for a limited engagement is George Bernard Shaw's Misalliance, from July 15-Aug. 2. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Beacon Hill Playhouse
54 Charles St., Boston
Come see the New England premiere of Beth Henley's latest play Abundance, running June 17-July 12. Set in the Wyoming Territory of the late 1860s, Henley's new madcap comedy chronicles the adventures of two mail-order brides who have traveled west to meet their prospective husbands. Tickets are $12. For times or reservations, call 720-0039.

Boston Center for the Arts
Leland Center
539 Tremont St., Boston
Threshold Theatre is proud to announce the second show of its debut season, "Women of Wonder: An evening with some exceptional women." Share an intimate evening of two one-act plays (Emma Goldman: Love, Anarchy and Other Affairs and How She Played the Game) with some of the most influential and dynamic women of our times. Performances are July 16-Aug. 1, Thurs.-Sats. at 8pm; tickets are $10. Call 965-3859 for more information.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
At Wit's End, an irreverent evening with music starring Stan Freeman as the late Oscar Levant will run until July 19. The play glimpses the life of Levant, an unrivaled raconteur whose great style, panache, famous impressions and piano talent made him nationally renowned. Call 426-6912 for times and ticket prices.

(continued on following page)

ARTS

(Theater continued)

Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke St., Cambridge
The Cambridge Theatre Company presents a return engagement of Jackie: An American Life from June 3-July 12. Written and directed by Gip Hoppe, this production tells the life story of Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis, from her days as a young girl in the Hamptons to her first date with JFK to the Onassis yacht.

Lenox Hotel
65 Exeter St., Boston
Manhattan is a dynamic musical revue that features a theatrical collage of memorable musical moments from top Broadway shows. It is celebrating its third extension in Diamond Jim's piano bar and will run until July 31. Call 536-5300 for times and ticket information.

MIT's Kresge Little Theatre
84 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge
Blending humor and suspense with offbeat domestic conflict, On Missing Link Road depicts what happens when two fugitive brothers, fleeing from an accident in which police are killed, hide out with an eccentric New Hampshire family. For five performances only, July 8-12 at 8pm. Admission is free. Call 876-2551 for more information.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

North Shore Music Theatre
62 Dunham Rd., Beverly
Come see the Tony Award-winning musical Damn Yankees from July 2-18. When baseball fanatic Joe Boyd sells his soul to the Devil (played by loveable M*A*S*H* transvestite Jamie Farr), the hilarity begins as the Devil and his seductive sidekick Lola plot to keep him forever! Call 508-922-8500 for times and ticket prices.

Performance Place
277 Broadway, Somerville
"What would you do with a million green stamps?" is the question Threshold Theatre answers with the Boston premiere of Les Belles Soeurs, a raucous comedy about 15 desperate women who want nothing more than a decent life for themselves. Shows run June 18-July 12; call 931-2000 for more information.

Publick Theatre, Inc.
Outdoor Theatre
Christian A. Herter Park
Soldiers Field Road, Boston
The Publick Theatre, Inc., Boston's oldest resident theatre company, presents Gilbert & Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore from July 8-Aug. 2. Young and old alike will delight in the nautical tale of Captain Corcoran, his beautiful daughter Josephine and the other colorful and salty characters on board the H.M.S. Pinafore. Call 782-5425 for more information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

LECTURES

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Pulitzer-prize winning author Alice Walker (The Color Purple, The Temple of My Familiar) will read from her latest work, Possessing the Secret of Joy, at 6pm on July 8 in the Rabb Lecture Hall. Admission is free. On July 18 at 1pm, a panel discussion in the Mezzanine Conference Room on "Sexual Harassment: On the Job and On the Street" will focus on the nature of sexual harassment and ways women and men can organize to confront and end it.

WORKSHOPS

Seminars in the Culinary Arts
at Boston University
808 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
B.U. presents a Bread and Dough Workshop with Jacqueline Cattani, a former executive chef, food stylist and recipe consultant, from July 13-15 (9am-12pm, each day). In this workshop, the class will be making croissants, puff pastry, brioche and French bread. Also offered frrom July 13-15 are three classes on sugar pulling, marzipan and fruit tartes with Delphin Gomes, prize-winning pastry chef and owner of Delphin's Gourmandise. July 20, learn to make Danish pastries; July 21 learn to make sourdough breads, grain breads and sticky buns. Gomes also teaches a fancy cake workshop July 20-22. Tuition is $75 per day for most workshops. Call 353-9852 for more information.

GALLERIES

Alianza
154 Newbury St., Boston
"Tea and Fantasy," an annual exhibition of ceramic teapots, will be on view until Aug. 31. Some are sensuous, delicately airbrushed while others spout bright streams of neon, and one defies the viewer to discover its function. Hours: Mon.-Sat. 10am-6pm; Sundays 12-5pm. Call 262-2385 for more information.

Cheremeteff Gallery
121 Newbury St., Boston
On view now through July is "New Russian Realism: The Traditionalists," portraits and landscapes by Gerasimov, Shankov, Shytkhno and Danilin. Artist-in-residence Shankov is available for commissioned portraiture and landscape renderings. Contemporary Russian iconography by Gassel and Sheglov. Unique and diverse selection of limited editioned prints and graphics. Call 536-1121. Open Tues.-Sat. 10am-7pm and by appointment.

Coco's Salon Gallery
544 Tremont St., Boston
This gallery shows new works every two months, ranging from impressionist works to those of cubism in paintings and sculptures. Hours are Tue and Sat., 9am-5pm; Wed-Fri., 10am-7pm. Call 451-2050 for more information.

Gallery Per Tutti
112 South St., Boston
This unique gallery offers a salon-style format, allowing the public open communication with working artists in the Boston area. It displays affordable fine art, thus providing a necessary step to meet the changing needs of the local art environment. From July 14-Aug. 29, come see "Collaboration, Boston 1992," a collection of Boston-based photography that will be hosted by the photogs themselves. To learn more, call 482-2710.

Levinson Kane Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston
Come see "The Dog Show: Celebrating Man's Best Friend" from June 27-Labor Day. For dog lovers of all ages, this canine-inspired exhibit salutes dogs with paintings, sculpture, prints, ceramics, handmade books, photographs and more. Call 247-0545.

Mugar Memorial Library
at Boston University
771 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Providing a glimpse into an age of entertainment now past, an exhibit celebrating the life of Harry Houdini is on display through January 1993. "It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" includes a variety of correspondence and memorabilia, including old posters and photographs, from the famous magician.

Nostalgia Factory
324 Newbury St., Boston
From July 1-30, the Nostalgia Factory hosts "Ad Lib," an exhibition of original old advertising dating from the 1890s through the 1970s, featuring images and stereotypes of women. Hours: Mon.-Sat. 10am-7pm, Sun. 11am-6pm. Call 236-8754 for more information.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston
101 Arch St., Boston
The SAC celebrates spring with concurrent exhibitions of art for the garden called "Garden Treasures," which runs until July 11. Curator Gretchen Keyworth has commissioned major craft artists to create works for three environments: city, fantasy and country. Fountains, fishpools, birdhouses, lanterns and the like will be featured.

Speedway Gallery
297 North St., North End
See latest paintings by Brian Josselyn on "The Dream Enforcer Tour," offered to the public through July 31. You enter the exhibit through the first painting and come out inside. Two paintings rotate together in the center of the room with images of eyes and hands; other wall contain images of stars, planets and the universe, all in the palm of your hand.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
42 Brattle St., Harvard Square
Art, performances and dancing to the world beat rhythms of Mozamba will combine for what promises to be an extraordinary night on July 18. From 7pm-midnight, come to the Mid-Summer Arts Party, a benefit for the CCAE's scholarship fund. Simultaneous art exhibits, performances and readings begin at 7pm; Mozamba takes the stage at 8:30pm. Call 547-6789 to find out more.

Charles River Canoe & Kayak Center
2401 Commonwealth Ave., Newton
Take a relaxing, evening paddle under a full moon with food and fun on July 15. This Moonlight Tour only costs $30, and you'll never see the Charles River the same way again. Call 965-5110 for more information.

Tribute to Trinidad
at Brookline High School
115 Greenough St., Brookline
Come celebrate the wonderful music and culture of this Caribbean island on July 12 at 2pm. Spend a warm afternoon listening to Calypso music, sampling the cuisine of the Caribbean, meeting old and new friends and dancing to the sounds of Calypso and Steel Band music. Tickets are $3-$12; call 730-2700 for more information.

WGBH 40th Anniversary Gala at Heritage Plantation of Sandwich
Sandwich
Robert J. Lurtsema, host of WGBH's "Morning pro musica," invites you to join him for and evening of musical entertainment, hors d'oeuvres and light summer fare on July 18 from 5:30-9pm. The evening features the Concord Band, performing selections by Mozart, Verdi, Strauss and others, and the world-renowned Canadian Brass. Call 492-2777 for ticket information.

The Arts Calendar Listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editior. We welcome the submission of press releases for all events in and around Boston. To reach us mail to The Improper Bostonian, Attn. Kathy Matheson, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village,MA 02147-0820. Please include information such as date time, duration, price, adress, phone nnumber and contact person. Listings must be recieved no later than 9 days prior to release.

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"Recall your earliest childhood memory."

Jeff, 34, Sharon
"When I was 4, I used to go to the bathroom on my neighbor's lawn."

Lori, 26, Wellesley
"I decorated my nursery with portions of my diaper to spite my mother."

Evan, 26, Brookline
"When I was 8, my parents told me to keep quiet, so I crazy-glued my lips together."

Estelle, 40's, Brookline
"At 3, with chicken pox, I hid under the covers when an ambulance came for my sick grandfather because I thought they would take me too."

Mr. Butch, 34, Kenmore Sq.
"My father gave me a shot of vodka when I was six."

Kristin, 21, Westford
"During my brother's birthday party, I asked my mom when my birthday was. She told me it was a long long time away. I was so upset!"

ARTS

1992 Performing Arts Series at the Hatch Shell

Wednesday, July 8, 8:00 pm
Boston Pops Esplanade
Orchestra - Conductor Harry Ellis Dickson

Thursday, July 9, 8:00 pm
Boston Pops Esplanade
Orchestra
Conductor Grant Llewellyn
Opening concert for "Sail Boston"

Friday, July 10, 8:00 pm
WBZ-TV presents
"An Evening of the Three Stooges"

Saturday, July 11, 6:00 pm
Boston Church of Christ
'Hot Fun in the Summertime'
(various artists)

Sunday, July 12,12:00 pm
Larry Watson (Jazz)

Wednesday, July 15, 7:30 pm
at City Band
(Big Band/Swing)

Friday, July 17, 8:00 pm
WBZ-TV presents
Wayne's World

Saturday, July 18, 2:00 pm
WFNX New Music
Material Issue

Saturday, July 18, 8:00 pm
Middlesex Concert Band
(Classical)

Sunday, July 19, 12:00 pm
Mark Kross Quintet (Jazz)

Wednesday, July 27, 7:30 pm
The Beetles (Oldies)

Thursday, July 23, 7:30 pm
Richard DeLuca and Friends
(Big Band/Swing)

Friday, July 24, 8:00 pm
WBZ-TV presents
"Bugs Bunny Festival"

Saturday, July 25, 8:00 pm
Boston Bar Association(Classical)

Sunday, July 26, 12:00 pm
Herman Johnson Quintet
(Jazz)

Thursday, July 30 through Sunday, August 2, 8:00 pm
(Aug. 2 performance 2:00 pm)
Harvard Summer Dance
(different performances each evening)

Sunday, August 2, 8:00 pm
Mystic Players (Jazz)

Wednesday, August 5, 7:30 pm
Rhythm Slaves (Oldies)

Thursday, August 6, 7:30 pm
Stan McDonald's Blue Horizon Jazz Band
(Big Band/Swing)

Friday, August 7, 8:00 pm
WBZ-TV presents
Close Encounters

Saturday, August 8, 8:00 pm
Harvard Summer Pops
(Classical)

Sunday, August 9, 12:00 pm
Tom Lada & Larry Munroe
Sextet (Jazz)

Wednesday, August 12, 7:30 pm
Against All Odds (Oldies)

Thursday, August 13, 7:30 pm
Didi Stewart and Friends
(Big Band/Swing)

Friday, August 14, 8:00 pm
WBZ-TV presents
The Addams Family

Saturday, August 15, 2:00 pm
WFNX New Music TBA

Saturday August 15, 8:00 pm
Sharon Community Band
(Classical)

Sunday, August 16, 12:00 pm
Brian Walkely
(Jazz)

Wednesday, August 19, 7:30 pm
Stan Jr.
(Oldies)

Thursday, August 20, 7:30 pm
Herb's Herd
(Big Band/Swing)

Friday, August 21, 8:00 pm
WBZ-TV presents
King Kong (original)

Saturday, August 22, 8:00 pm
An Evening of "Opera un Met"

Sunday, August 23, 12:00 pm
Jim Shaw
(Jazz)

Wednesday, August 26, 7:30 pm
The Band That Time Forgot
(Oldies)

Thursday, August 27, 7:30 pm
John Payne Quartet and Sax Choir
(Big Band/Swing)

Friday, August 28, 8:00 pm
WBZ-TV presents
Robin Hood Prince of Thieves

Saturday, August 29, 11:00 pm
MDC Centennial Ethnic Festival

Sunday, August 30, 12:00 pm
US Air Force Academy
"Academy Brass"
(Jazz)

Saturday, September 5, 6:00 pm
5th Annual MDC Inter-Celtic Festival
(Ethnic)

Sunday , September 6, 12:00 pm
Makoto Takenaka
(Jazz)

Friday, September 11, 7:30 pm
MASSABDA
Dance Exhibition
(Swing Dance)

Saturday, September 12, 2:00 pm
WFNX New Music
They Might Be Giants

Saturday, September 12, 7:30 pm
MASSABDA
Dance Exhibition
(Ballroom Dance)

Saturday, September 19, 9 am - 5 pm
7th Annual MDC Sober Day
Say No To Drugs Celebration
(various artists and activities celebrating a day of clean and sober living.)

NEW HARD COURT SURFACE!

NORTHWEST AIRLINES PRESENTS

BlueCrossBlueShield of Massachusetts

1992 U.S. Pro Tennis Championships

With Events to Benefit
THE ENDOWMENT FOR CHILDREN IN CRISIS

Hosted By GUEST QUARTERS SUITE HOTELS

July 27 - August 2, 1992

LONGWOOD CRICKET CLUB
CHESTNUT HILL
MASSACHUSETTS
Featuring

Ivan Lendl
Bjorn Borg
Pat Cash

TICKET INFORMATION & TICKET ORDERS
(617) 731-4500 or (617) 964-7300

Associate sponsors:
Astra Pharmaceuticals
Canada Dry
SportsChannel of New England

Media Sponsor
WSSH 99.5 FM
Soft favorites of yesterday and today

A Modern Day Definition

Lifestyle \ 'lif-sti(ə)l \n: Ups and Downs B: Ins and Outs 2: A Way of Life (living it up yet trimming it down, tucking it in and working it out!) SYN: See Boston Athletic Club.

The Summer Membership $139

Til August 31st!

Please call for further definition 617-269-4300

BOSTON ATHLETIC CLUB

653 Summer Street, Boston MA 02210

Not just your Fitness Club, it's your Lifestyle...

FREE PARKING!

Perspectives on life in Boston.

Reading on the beach

Doesn't that phrase conjure up the ideal picture of summer? Don't you wait all year for those few precious hours of peace and quiet in your hammock, alone with a good book? And isn't that what we all secretly have in mind when we plan that mid-winter Caribbean escape? I fantasize about having the time to just read. These days, for the average working stiff, reading a good book purely for pleasure has become a luxury that is really hard to squeeze into the daily routine. What with aerobic workouts, late nights at the office and the occasional date, it requires effort, planning, and most of all, the ever elusive, free time to really get cracking. Well, now is your chance! Summer is a great time to catch up on all the books - current bestsellers or trusty old classics - that have been waiting for your attention, piling up on your desk or looming in the back of your mind.

Why, everyone is talking about summer reads! It's a veritable phenomenon. In the past month I've observed Oprah as she devoted an entire hour to what she thinks you ought to be reading this season. I've also lent out about fifteen of my own books, half of which I can't even remember to whom! The cause of this phenomenon must be attributable to the fact that in the summer we all tend to loll around a bit more. Even the most ardent of workaholics manage to take at least one long weekend off. We want to get tan, and no matter how athletically inclined we may be, we also want to just relax and do nothing some of the time.

Do nothing, that is, except perhaps, to read. It's the only way to visit a new country, make a new friend, have an adventure and maybe even learn something, all without moving more than a finger muscle! Sounds too good to be true! So here it is, you had to know it was coming. I too, have some books to recommend to you as great company this summer. Whether you do your reading along side the pool, in a quiet nook of a museum courtyard, or in an air conditioned caffe on Hanover Street, I'm sure you'll enjoy these selections, and revel in your time alone, experiencing someone else's world.

A Small Place by Jamaica Kincaid is a short but incredibly powerful book about Antigua, an island in the West Indies, and how it was changed (and in some ways irrevocably destroyed first by British colonization, and second by liberation). Ms. Kincaid speaks to us with a voice so simple and eloquent, that we can stomach with pleasure all the heartbreaking truths she tells about her homeland. She certainly has the gift of putting the reader there, and this book will be eye-opening nostalgia for anyone who has ever visited the West Indies.

Helen MacInnes' North from Rome is another book that takes you to a faraway place. This time it's to Rome in the fifties - a time long gone by. When reading this book you really live the lives of ex-patriots; going from caffés to embassies, from the apartment of an old army buddy to an Umbrian villa belonging to a sinister count. This novel is written in a conversational tone that is so simple and charming that fourteen pages into the book, I felt Bill Latimer (the protagonist) was a good old friend. His romantic heroism and general difficulty dealing with the trappings of becoming a successful playwright, combine to make him a charming travel companion, and a character you won't soon forget.

And finally, to satisfy your hunger for the past, (not to mention wonderful food), The Gastronomical Me by M.F.K. Fisher is without a doubt the most delicious book I've read in ages. Ms. Fisher was the ultimate adventurer, crossing the Atlantic numerous times, back in the days when it was the only way to Europe. Thanks to her flowery, meticulous detail, I almost believe that I, too, lived in Paris - too poor to heat my tiny flat, but with priorities straight in line enough to appreciate the feeling from a good country pate, a hearty cassoulet, and simple, well-made wine.

-E.C.

Angela Wooldridge

Recovering from, a long weekend?

If you're looking for something not too strenuous to do on a Monday night, head to Bill's Bar on Lansdowne Street. Bill's is the premiere venue for Boston's independent film makers. It's free so you're not obligated to sit through something unappealing just because you paid admission.

The showcase consists of a series of short films seasoned with videos of local bands (something that you won't see on MTV) followed by a short feature. The films start at 9 pm and end at 10:30 pm. There are short breaks between the films so you have a chance to discuss what you saw with a friend - before the next showing.

When you enter Bill's on a Monday you are greeted by the blare of loud music and a dimly lit bar. There isn't a lot of sitting room, but there are stools that line the bar, and five or six tables that are ideal for watching the films. Several television sets suspended from the tall ceilings are strategically placed for people sacrificing the view of the big screen for the privacy of sitting in a booth.

Bill's Bar doesn't get too crowded on a Monday night, and the atmosphere is definitely laid back. The sound is almost too loud, but when you're showing films in a lively bar, you need to drown out the din of bubbling bar noise. There is also free fresh popcorn on the stage at the back of the bar.

These aren't boring art films and it isn't a hangout for pretentious film buffs either. So, impress someone with your imagination and swing out to Bill's Bar for their free flicks.

J.P.

FREE
POOL TIME

Buy 1 hour and get the 2nd hour free!
Play must be completed before 10 p.m.
Expires August 31, 1992

Light Fare & Cocktails
Big Screen TV's
Video Games • Pinball

OPEN
7 DAYS
'TIL 2 A.M.

BOSTON
BILLIARD CLUB

617-536-POOL
126 Brookline Avenue,
Boston

508-852-2121
454 Grove Street,
Worcester

Tall Ships Come to Boston

BY MARJ SHANKEN-SOLCOFF

All hands on deck as Boston hosts the 1992 Sail Boston Celebration. Three million visitors are expected to grace Boston's waterfront area for the festivities that will last from July 8th through July 16th. The largest international maritime event to visit New England as of yet, Sail Boston promises to be a thrilling summer spectacular.

More than 150 tall ships from 30 countries will sail into Boston Harbor in honor of the 500th anniversary of Columbus's discovery of the Americas.

This extraordinary event will include a full menu of activities including a fireworks display, Maxi Yacht Regattas, educational forums, music festivals and of course, the magnificent Grand Parade of Sail.

In addition, there will be numerous cultural activities and displays, a land-based parade, and special nautically oriented exhibitions.

The 1992 Tall Ships Celebration guarantees to be a week to remember.

In The Beginning

The idea to hold a Regatta in honor of the Quincentennial of Columbus's voyage dates back a decade. Executive Director of Sail Boston Dusty Rhodes explains, "A group of Europeans had the vision to sail to San Juan, then to New York City. Then the thought came up to add another city, maybe Philadelphia, maybe Baltimore."

Ms. Rhodes explained that the former Executive Director of Massport, Dave Davis, heard of the idea and thought it a good idea to introduce Senator Louis P. Bertonazzi and Rhodes to each other to see what could be done. Bertonazzi is Chairman of the Quincentennial Committee of the State.

Both thought highly enough of the idea to travel down to Washington D.C. to generate support which would include Boston on the Regatta itinerary.

In May, 1989, the Massachusetts delegation invited the naval attaches of various countries to a reception to discuss the possibility of their participation.

"We asked them, 'if we do this, will you come?' The answer was no."

Rhodes explained that it costs between $300-500 thousand for a large boat to sail across the Atlantic.

"We proceeded anyway and tried to compete against the other ports in other cities. We formed a non-profit organization (Sail Boston) and developed a sponsorship plan."

Rhodes recalled that about a year later, the Amerigo Vespucci agreed to sail to Boston and then the rest just fell into place.

In fact, Sail Boston exceeded its initial expectations. Originally, the hope was to bring six class A ships to Boston, like in 1976. But the final number of class A ships adds up to a very pretty 26.

"What was originally supposed to be a small scale celebration," said Massport Senior Public Affairs Manager Lana Razdan, "has just grown and grown."

In preparation for Sail Boston, "We've cleaned up and landscaped commercial waterfront properties to provide physically safe sites for hundreds-of-thousands of tourists and other visitors," confirmed Razdan.

Massport Executive Director Al Raine explained that Sail Boston will provide extensive short term and long term benefits to Boston, the State and its citizens.

"I hope that everything goes well and that everyone has a good time. Looking to the long term, Sail Boston has all the potential to be a trade

Rhodes explained that it costs between $300-500 thousand for a large boat to come across the Atlantic.

"What was originally supposed to be a small scale celebration," said Massport Senior Public Affairs Manager Lana Razdan, "has just grown and grown."

and tourism boost for Massachusetts, even beyond this event," he said.

"You have a huge number of people from all over the world coming to Boston; you don't usually get that kind of attention. Plus the World Cup. The long term international trade (resulting from the exposure) - it can't even be measured now."

Governor William Weld says, "The Commonwealth is excited to have these magnificent ships visit Massachusetts. The number of visitors Sail Boston 1992 is expected to attract to Massachusetts will have a tremendous economic impact throughout the state and region. I can't think of a better way to celebrate our maritime tradition and the discovery of The Americas."

THE TRIP

It all began back in April when the first of the ships sailed from Genoa, Italy and Lisbon, Portugal to join the rest of the vessels in Cadiz, Spain for the official start of the race.

On May 3, the vessels sailed to San Juan, Puerto Rico and then to New York City, where they spent the July 4 Holiday. Next port of call: Boston...the Grand Regatta's last stop in America before heading back to Liverpool, England.

Tall Ships will be berthed at the Black Falcon Cruise Terminal, the Boston Fish Pier, Boston Marine Works, Revere Sugar, North Jetty, Coastal Cement, Constitution Marina and Conley Terminal.

HIGHLIGHTS:

Bostonians and tourists undoubtedly will not be at a loss for something to do during Sail Boston. The question, therefore, is what to do first? And if you're limited on time, how to see the most in a short period?

Sail Boston's main showcase will be the Grand Parade of Sail on July 11. The USS Constitution, the oldest commissioned warship afloat, will set sail from Charlestown Navy Yard to greet the parading vessels in the harbor.

Led by United States Coast Guard Barque Eagle, the parade will feature some of the globe's most enormous Tall Ships, including Esmeralda, a 353 foot vessel from Chile and Italy's Amerigo Vespucci, one of the world's most colorful Tall Ships measuring 331 feet.

WHERE TO WATCH?

Authorities from Massport and Sail Boston are suggesting the North Jetty at Massport Marine Terminal and Castle Island as the best locations to view the Grand Parade of Sail. Best of all, you can watch from these locations free of charge.

Other locations to consider that are also free to the public include: Charlestown Navy Yard, Black Falcon Terrace, the Piers along Northern Avenue, the various Wharves along Atlantic Avenue and Waterfront Park.

Of the public view areas, Massport's North Jetty is the largest. Food for thought: bring a lawn chair.

If you want to avoid the crowds (as if that could actually be possible) and you don't mind paying a fee, there is seating available at the World Trade Center.

SIGHTSEEING MADE TIMELY

If you have several children and your goal is to do it all in one place, the World Trade Center Boston would make for an excellent destination. But, hang on to your hats, because there will be an enormous amount of activities just at that one spot.

WTCB Director of Corporate Communications May Seto suggests, "If you had to choose just one place at the World Trade Center to spend your time, I would recommend the International Pavilion."

MASSIMINO'S
CUCINA • ITALIANA
Columbus Made A Return Voyage To The New World For One Reason Only

IN BOSTON'S HISTORIC NORTH END
OFF THE FREEDOM TRAIL.
207 Endicott Street • 617 523-5959

LEAVE HOME WITHOUT IT.
BECAUSE BOSTON'S BEST STEAK DEAL
DOESN'T TAKE CREDIT CARDS, OR MUCH OF YOUR MONEY.
18 oz Sirloin Steak · $7.95
BROILED TO PERFECTION

COMPARE US TO:	GRILL 23 & BAR	18 OZ STEAK	$27.75
	MORTON'S	20 OZ. STEAK	$28.95
	CAPITOL GRILLE	20 OZ. STEAK	$23.95

Boston Only
Marcella's
1 Appleton Street • Boston, MA • (617) 357-9040

Did You Know That

at a banquet given by the grand cardinal of Spain, Columbus was seated at the most honored place at te table and served with great deference and ceremony. A courtier, jealous of the foreigner's success asked him rudely whether he thought that if he had not discovered the New World, somebody else would have done so. Columbus did not reply at once, but taking an egg in his hand, invited the guests to make it stand on one end. All tried and failed where upon Columbus cracked the egg against the table in such a way as to flatten one end. Then he set it standing on the crushed part. The moral was plain to the company: Once he had shown the way, anyone could follow." (A "true" story from the Book of Anecdotes: Little, Brown's).

Below are a list of questions to test your trivia knowledge of Columbus and his voyage to the New World.

To enter the Improper Bostonian Christopher Columbus Trivia Contest, answer two of four questions and mail your name, address and telephone # and mail the answers in to :

Tall Ships Trivia
P.O. Box 820;
Brookline Village, MA 02147-08120.

A drawing will be held on August 1st. The owner of the first envelope drawn containing all the correct answers will be the winner. Prizes include dinner for two at a fabulous Boston restaurant.

1) Of the three ships that Columbus and his crew sailed to the New World, which was/were chartered?

2)Before proceeding on the long journey across the Atlantic, Columbus stopped at an island to make repairs and re-stock supplies. What is the name of the island?

3) What was the name of the tribe Columbus discovered when he landed in the New World.

4) What are the names of the monarchs that backed the Columbus exploration?

Why the International Pavilion (IP)? There will be more than 200 exhibits. Special attractions include international cuisine, multi-cultural entertainment, maritime exhibits from area museums and interactive areas for the children.

Yes, we can not forget the children. Let the kids know that the McDonald's Journey Beyond the Dinosaurs will be awaiting their arrival. This educational exercise is designed to teach the kids about what to do in case of a fire. There will be a demonstration of fire-fighting equipment as well as a stop, drop and roll exercise.

Now that you have mastered the art of fire safety, why not try some arts and craftsy kinds of things. For starters, learn how to make a model ship, and how to tie a knot. And if you're feeling lucky, sign up for WTCB's raffle. The winner will take home a model of the Santa Maria.

For Fireworks and Grand Regatta Seat reservations, call 617-439-5000.

Just the Ships Sir, Only the Ships

So, the intention isn't to event hop? The main purpose of your visit to Boston is to see the tall ships? No problem, you can do that at the WTCB too.

The World Trade Center will be host to the Gloria (Colombia), the Concordia (Canada), the Shabab Oman (Oman) and the Alexander von Humbolt (Germany). Keeping these tall ships company will be the British Destroyer, the HMS Active.

Additional primary boarding areas include: EDIC Marine Industrial Park and the Charlestown Navy Yard.

Now, you might be saying to yourself..."what else, what else, what else?" Read on...

If you're a believer in the motto Once is never enough, Sail Boston has taken good care of you. Scheduled twice during the week are Maxi Yacht Regattas and the 12 Meter Challenge Cup. The July 13 regatta will take place off the shores of Nantasket Beach; look for the July 14 regattas to be held in Nahant Bay.

For any CNN fans out there, look out for Ted Turner, he'll be at the helm of the U.S. entry, Challenge America.

The Maxi Yacht race will feature 10 of the world's 15 maxi yachts. This will be the first appearance in Boston for these 25 meter long racing vessels, priced at $4 million a piece.

If you're interested in an up close and personal with these high cost, yet impressive vessels, take a trip to Piers 4 and 5 at the Charlestown Navy Yard. The public is welcome from July 8-16.

And, while you're there, check out the USS Constitution and the tall ships. Amerigo Vespucci (Italy) and Esmerelda (Chile) will be in port. Additional activities include wood working demonstrations and a historic encampment by the 47th Regiment of Foot.

Spending the day with a special loved one? If your planning to end your Sail Boston tour at the Navy Yard, a romantic sunset harbor cruise may just add that special touch. Presented by the USS Constitution Museum, it could be the perfect end to a perfect day.

For reservations, call the Charlestown Navy Yard at 617-426-1812.

Other Daily and Evening Activities

Maps, maps and more maps. The Museum of Science will host an Historic Map Exhibit until September 13. More than 60 beautiful and historically interesting maps will be on display, featuring colorful maps from the pre-Columbus era to present day. (Of special interest is a landmark world map dated back to 1538.)

I love a parade. If the impossible occurs - and you've had your fill of tall ships for the day, and would prefer to gaze at the sailors - ladies, practice your whistling skills and venture down to City Hall at 12 noon on July 13 for the Parade of Sailors. Like the Tall Ships, this event is something you won't see all that often during peacetime. The parade will travel through the Commons and down Tremont Street.

Downtown Crossing promises to be a happening place. Summer Stage presents its Tribute to Sail Boston on July 15. Native American Dancers and Singers, dressed in traditional attire, will be performing.

The hour and one-half program begins at noon. Just go to the Summer Street pedestrian mall in the heart of Downtown Crossing, between Jordan Marsh and Filene's Basement.

If you are still down by the wharf at the end of the day, The Boston Harbor Hotel may be of interest. Several ships will be docked there including the Lord Trenchard (Great Britain). You can also listen for the sounding revelry each night at sunset under the arch of the BHH.

Now that the day is done, and the sun has set, what's next? How about an evening with the Boston Pops. Free concerts will be held at the Esplanade on July 9. Conductor Grant Llewellyn and company will dazzle the audience with a musical salute to Sail Boston. On the program are The Fleet's In, Music from Showboat, The Little Mermaid and Jaws .

Travel Made Easy

Live in the suburbs? Do yourself a grand favor, slip your T-pass into a pocket and leave the car at home. The streets leading to the waterfront areas will be closed to public traffic during the length of the celebration. In short, all roads east of the Expressway, including Atlantic Avenue and Summer Street, will not be accessible.

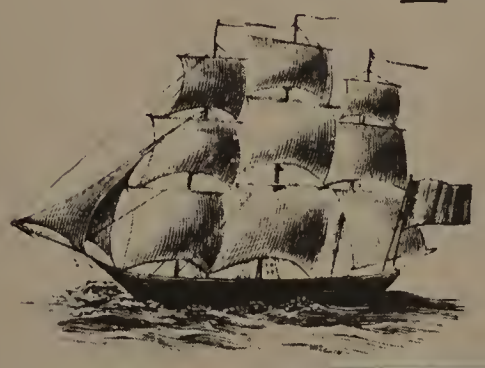
Now that we know what we can't do, let's take a look at what we can do.

The MBTA has set in place a special Sail Boston travel system. Shuttle bus service will operate between South Station and Castle Island and will include the various waterfront points in between. This route will be active from July 11-July 15.

To visit the Charlestown Navy Yard, T bus service will be available from Sullivan Station through Charlestown to the Charlestown Navy Yard. Bus routes #92 and #93 are the ones to look for on Saturday, July 11 and Sunday, July 12.

In addition, the T has arranged for the commuter rail lines to run hourly to and from South and North Stations for the entirety of this important weekend (Sat/Sun). This includes lines that do not traditionally run on Sundays.

The Framingham line, which normally doesn't entertain weekend hours, will also be in service both days and will be on an hourly schedule.



If you prefer to travel by sea rather than land, the Commuter Boat Service has also been extended. On Sunday, July 12, the T boats will sail between Hingham and Rowe's Wharf, and between Long Wharf and the Charlestown Navy Yard. The boats will depart from Hingham every half-hour from 9am-5:45pm. The Navy yard service leaves every 15 minutes beginning at 9am and ending at 6pm.

A final thought concerning travel: For those who live in the city, avoid the rush and stock up on tokens ahead of time. And for those who plan on spending a great deal of time at the multi-day event, investing in a T's Visitor's pass could be advantageous. The benefits: unlimited travel on the bus and subway and $100 worth of discounts at museums, restaurants and entertainment in Boston.

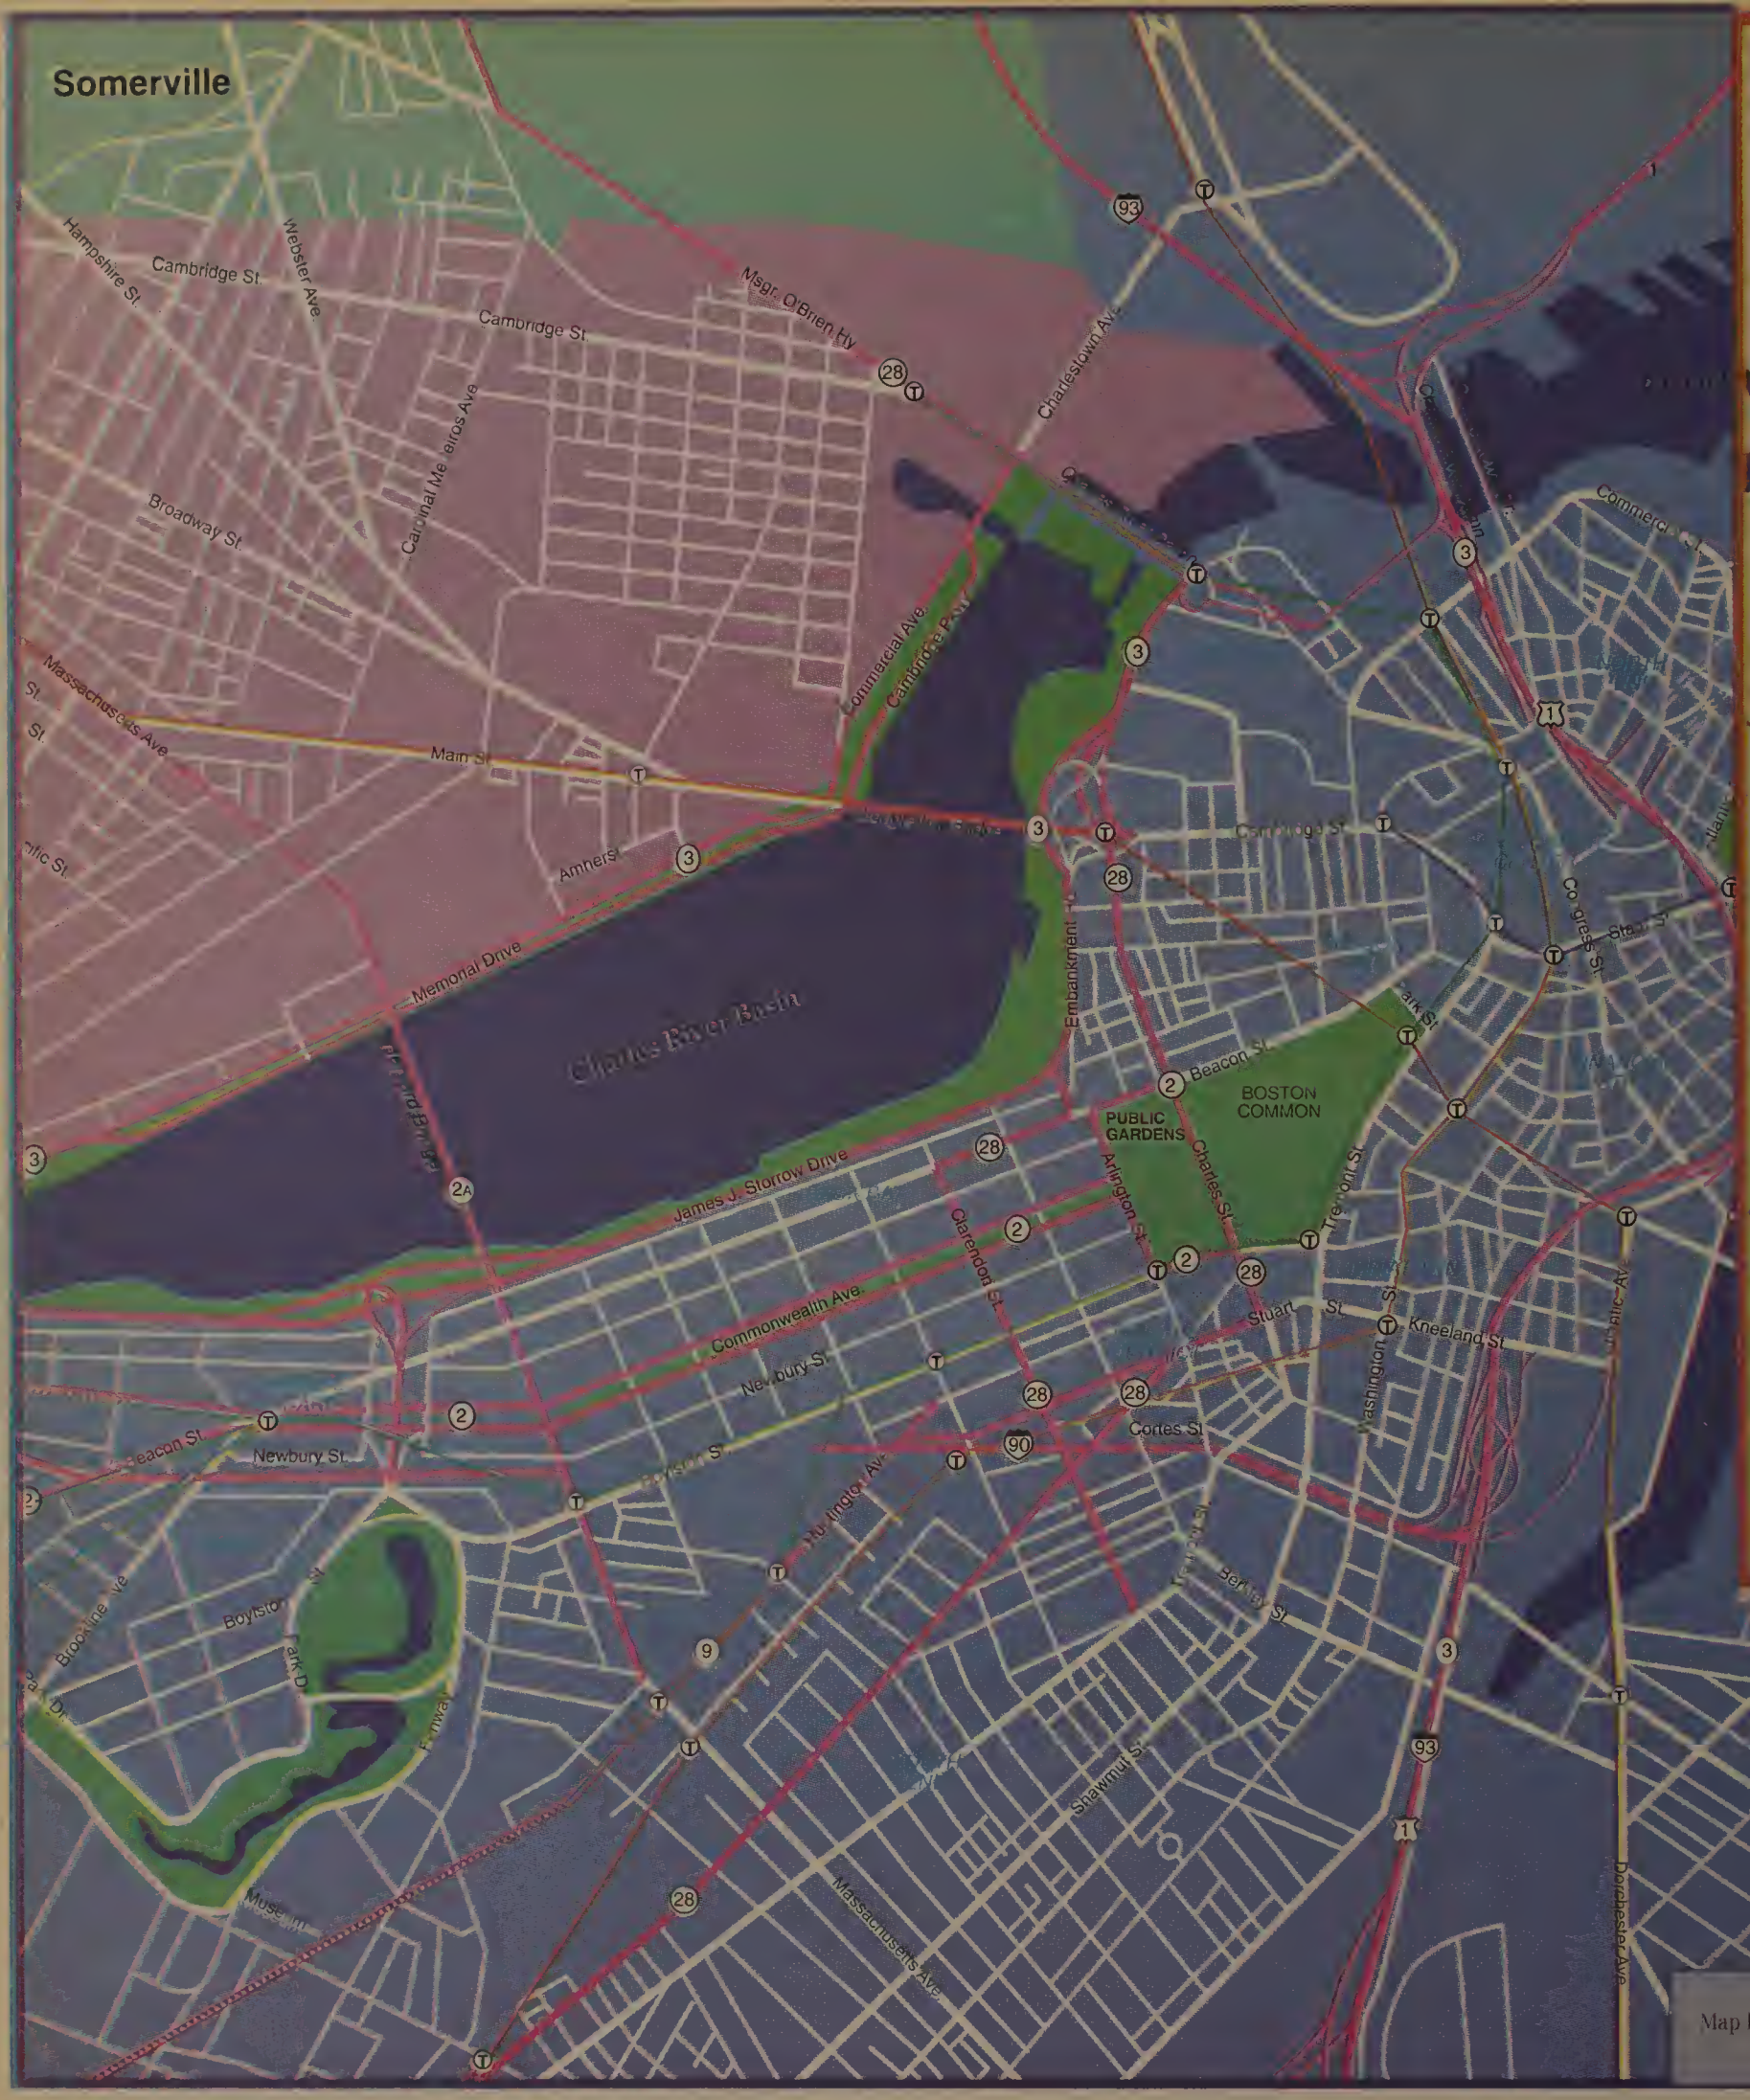
If the T's Visitor's pass is of interest to you, call the T's Customer Service Center at 617-722-3200.

MASSIMINO'S
CUCINA • ITALIANA
If Columbus Landed Here, He'd Swear He Never Left Home.
IN BOSTON'S HISTORIC NORTH END
OFF THE FREEDOM TRAIL
207 Endicott Street • 617 523-5959

Dine Upstairs. Fly Down Under. Free.

Win Round-Trip Tickets to Australia.

SAIL BOSTON 1·9·9·2



Your next dinner out could also be your free ticket to Sydney, Australia. Just visit The Lenox Hotel's Upstairs Grille anytime in July to enter. No purchase necessary.

It's our way of welcoming the arrival of Australia's Young Endeavour during Sail•Boston (July 9-16). As host hotel for its crew, The Lenox will be featuring Australian dishes, beers and wines at The Upstairs Grille from July 9th through 18th. Specials like Grilled King Prawns, Tasmanian Smoked Salmon, and Broiled Barramundi, all flown exclusively from Sydney for the hotel. We've even created a special Sail•Boston Sail Away overnight package just for the occasion.

So, if you're eager for a true taste of Australia, head for The Upstairs Grille. To make reservations, call 617-536-5300, ext. 261. And you and your mate could win a pair of tickets to that land Down Under.

The Lenox Hotel.
Affordable Elegance in the Heart of Boston.
710 Boylston Street at Copley Place, Boston, MA 02116

WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 1992

Nautical Aerial Sculpture
6:00am—10:00pm
South Station (available through July 16)

Harbor View
9:00am—10:15pm
John Hancock Observatory (Available through July 16)

The Age of Discovery & Conquest
10:00am—5:00pm
Heritage Plantation (Available through July 16)

Ship Models and Maritime Art
10:00am—9:45pm
Museum of Fine Arts

Arrival of Maxi Yachts
2:00pm—5:00pm
Charlestown Navy Yard

"The Spinners" Free Concert
7:30pm—10:00pm
Boston City Hall Plaza

THURSDAY, JULY 9, 1992

Arrival of US Naval Vessels
9:00am—5:00pm
Boston's Inner Harbor

Ship Models and Maritime Art
10:00am—4:45pm
Museum of Fine Arts
(Thru July 16)

Sail Boston Celebration Concert
12:15pm—1:45pm
Post Office Square Boston (Free)

Blessing of the Sails
4:00pm
Old North Church

The Fleet's In, Boston Pops Orchestra
8:00pm—9:30pm
Hatch Shell, Esplanade (Free)

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1992

International Rowing Challenge
10:00am—4:00pm
Harbor Islands

Public Boarding of Naval Vessels
12:00pm—5:00pm
Piers*, Conley Terminal

Land/Sea Tour, Uncommon Boston
1:30pm—8:30pm
Boston Waterfront

Tall Ships Arrive at Anchorage
2:00pm—9:00pm
Outer Boston Harbor

Waterfront Park Jazz Concert
6:00pm—8:00pm
North End, Boston

Tall Ships Celebration: Big Band
6:30pm—10:00pm
Quincy

Boston Pops
8:00pm
Symphony Hall

SATURDAY, JULY 11, 1992

Grand Parade of Sail
9:00am—4:00pm
Boston Harbor

47th Regiment of Foot Encampment
9:00am—5:00pm
Charlestown Navy Yard
(Thru July 12)

Apprentice Woodworking Demos

L BOSTON 1992 SCHEDULE OF UBLIC EVENTS

10:00am—4:00pm
Charlestown Navy Yard
(Thru July 16)

Sail Boston Quarter-deck
10:00am—4:00pm
North Jetty, Boston

Marine Detachment 1797
10:00am—4:00pm
Charlestown Navy Yard (Free)
(Also appearing on July 16)

American Sail Training Exhibitions
10:00am—5:00pm
Charlestown Navy Yard
(through July 16)

ASTA's Dockside Demos Exhibitions
10:00am—5:00pm
Charlestown Navy Yard
(Thru July 14)

International Pavilion
12:00pm—8:00pm
World Trade Center

Logan Airport View of Tall Ships
12:00pm on
17th Floor Control Tower
(Thru July 15)

Oldies Concert: Peter Noone
7:00pm—9:00pm
Boston City Hall Plaza

Boston Pops
8:00pm
Symphony Hall

Sail Boston Salute Ball
9:00pm—1:00am
Flagship Wharf & Charlestown Navy Yard

SUNDAY, JULY 12 1992

Quincy-Boston Shuttleboat
8:30am—10:45pm
Marina Bay to Pier 7
(Thru July 15)

Photographic Tour of Tall Ships
9:00am—12:00
Uncommon Boston, Boston

Tall Ships Piers Open
10:00am—9:00pm
Piers*

International Pavilion
10:00am—8:00pm
World Trade Center

Boston Waterfront Festival
10:00am—6:00pm
Waterfront Park

Public Boarding of Naval Vessels
12:00pm—5:00pm
Conley Terminal

Public Boarding of Tall Ships
12:00pm—5:00pm
Piers*

Discovering Boston's Early Shoreline History
1:00pm—3:00pm
Faneuil Hall

"Family Works" Celebration
4:00pm—6:00pm
North Jetty Massport Marine Terminal

Jazz-on-the-Beach
4:00pm—7:00pm
Sturbridge Host Hotel, Sturbridge

Boston Pops
7:30pm
Symphony Hall

Sail Boston Musical Fanfare
7:30pm—9:00pm
North Jetty

Nautical Show
8:30pm
Nick's Comedy Stop, Boston
(Thru July 15)

Fireworks Extravaganza
9:30pm
Boston Harbor

MONDAY, JULY 13, 1992

International Rowing Challenge
All Day
Boston Inner Harbor

International Pavilion
9:30am—8:00pm
World Trade Center (Thru July 16)

Tall Ship Piers Open
10:00am—9:00pm
Piers*

Maxi Yacht Regatta
10:00am—4:00pm
Outer Harbor & Natasket Beach

12-metre Challenge Cup
10:00am—4:00pm
Outer Harbor

Maritime Boston Walking Tours
11:00am
City Hall Plaza (Thru July 15)

International Cadet & Crew Review
12:00pm—2:00pm
City Hall Plaza & State House

Sail Boston Official Games
12:00pm—4:00pm
UMASS Boston (Thru July 15)

Public Boarding of Tall Ships
12:00pm—5:00pm
Piers*

Liberty on Lansdowne Street
8:00pm—12:00am
Lansdowne Street

TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1992

Tall Ship Piers Open
10:00am—9:00pm
Piers*

12 metre Challenge Cup
10:00am—4:00pm
Nahant Bay

Maxi Yacht Regatta
10:00am—4:00pm
Nahant Bay

Public Boarding of Tall Ships
12:00pm—5:00pm
Piers*

Sail Boston Celebration Concert
12:15pm—1:45pm
Post Office Square, Boston

"Ships at Sea," Guided tour
1:30pm—3:00pm
Friends of Art, Boston

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 1992

International Pavilion
9:30am—8:00pm
World Trade Center

Tall Ship Piers Open
10:00am—9:00pm
Piers*

Public Boarding of Tall Ships
12:00pm—5:00pm
Piers*

Native American Dancers/Singers
12:00pm—1:30pm
Downtown Crossing, Boston

"Age of Sail: Ship Models and Art"
1:30pm—3:00pm
Friends of Art, Boston

Mayor's Concert
6:00pm—9:00pm
City Hall Plaza

Sails in the Sunset: Tall Ship Cruise
6:00pm—9:00pm
Pier 1, Navy Yard

THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1992

Tall Ship Piers Open
9:00am—12:00pm
Piers*

International Pavilion
9:30am—5:00pm
World Trade Center

Sail Boston Farewell Undocking
10:00am—2:00pm
Main Ship Channel, Boston Harbor

Sail Boston Celebration Concert
12:15pm—1:45pm
Post Office Square, Boston

"Maritime New England," Guided tour
2:00pm—3:30pm
Friends of Art, Salem

FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1992

USS CONSTITUTION
Gun Salute to Tall Ships, Outer Harbor

*Piers: The primary Sail Boston Piers for berthing the majority of the Tall Ships are the Massport Black Falcon Cruise Terminal in the EDIC/Marine Industrial Park, the World Trade Center Boston and in the Charlestown Navy Yard

Improper Suggestions

Well, actually, the following are rather proper recommendations. First suggestion: travel light. Odds are, you'll be doing a substantial amount of walking during the course of the day. There's nothing worse then having to tote around the unnecessary.

My favorite motto has always been, if you don't want to loose it, don't bring it, or should I say, don't wear it. The event will make for a spectacular afternoon; but take precautions so that your Sail Boston visit stays that way. Now, some of you may tan easily, and others of you may burn. If you have a history of competing in the red lobster contest each year, you may want to invest in a bottle of suntan lotion and possibly some lip balm of sorts.

And in the words of Massport Executive Director, Al Raine, "leave plenty of time and make sure you have everything worked out with the kids. Do what you would do in any crowd situation."

Should you need assistance, information centers will be open for questions at South Station, Long Wharf, The Harbor Hotel and the Boston Common's Visitor's Bureau.

The number for Tourist Information is 617-536-4100.

Additional numbers that may be helpful during your trip through Tall Ship Country:

Massport/Boston: 617-973-5500
Sail Boston: 1-800-SAIL
Sail Boston Information Center: 617-526-9435.
Happy Trails and Happy Sails!

Marj Shanken-Solcoff is Editor in charge of Special Projects for the Improper Bostonian.

Participating Flagships in Sail Boston

Amerigo Vespucci	Italy	331'
ACY Grassetto	Croatia	80'
Aris (Navy Gray Hull)	Greece	328'
Capitan Miranda	Uruguay	205'
Christan Radich	Norway	241'
Concordia	Canada	185'
Danmark	Denmark	254'
Danza	Puerto Rico	60'
Dar Mlodziezy 357.5'	Poland
Eagle	United States	295'
Esmeralda	Chile	371'
Falken	Sweden	131'
Fryderyk Chopin	Scotland	182'
Galaxy	Israel	125'
Gloria	Colombia	249'
Gorch Fock II	Germany	293'
Juan Sebastian de Elcano	Spain	370'
Kaiwo Maru	Japan	361'
Kaliakra	Bulgaria	165'
Kruzenshtern 376'5"	C.I.S.
La Poste	France	80'
Libertad	Argentina	340'
Lokki	Finland	58'
Lord Trenchard	Great Britain	54'
Merit	Switzerland	80'
Sagres II	Portugal	293'
Sedov	Russia	385'
Shabab Oman	Sultanate of Oman	170'
Simon Bolivar	Venezuela	270'
Sparta 54.5'	Lithuania
Sundancer	Austria	34'
S.V. Tradewind	New Zealand	123'
HNLMS Urania	The Netherlands	78'
Young Endeavour	Australia	145'
Zenobe Gramme	Belgium	118'

Pictures for No Profit

22, 23, 24, 25. That's it , you're out of film. Well, this year, Sail Boston visitors can simultaneously re-load and patronize their favorite non-profit organization. In an effort to raise funds, 7 non-profit organizations will be manning Kiosks along the waterfront, equipped with instant and conventional film, instant and conventional cameras and video tapes. In addition, you can have your picture taken on a wave or in old styled clothing. The Kiosks will have it all. Magic buttons will also be available. The monies generated from the sale of these products, donated by Polaroid, will be split equally among the organizations.

Says Sam Yanes, Polaroid Director of Corporate Communications, "I think that if we can use this opportunity to raise money for these community operations, then I would be happy. I would be happy if the minimum they raised was $70,000+."

"We have a long history of involvement in the community on the social service side, the educational side, and the arts. Our citizen record is pretty good. We naturally think of what we could do for the community whenever something pops up. We live here, we're part of the community. If you're neighbors, you think of your neighbors. It's just the way we behave." Polaroid is a primary soponsor of Sail Boston 1992.

Big Sisters Association

Charlestown Navy Yard/Corner of First Avenue

The Cambridge YMCA

Black Falcon Cruise Terminal

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation

Black Falcon Cruise Terminal

(The Joey Fund)

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute

Charlestown Navy Yard

Dance Umbrella

Black Falcon Cruise Terminal

Lena Park Community Development Center

Black Falcon Cruise Terminal

Salvation Army

Roxbury Corps

World Trade Center

Coffee and Dessert Bar at Steve's ice cream

Introducing:

Espresso
Cappucino
Iced Coffees and Teas
Rasberry Lime Rickeys
Homemade Desserts

Cappucino or Large Ice Cappucino $1.00

With this Coupon (Good through 8/5/92) Good at Steve's Mass Ave., Boston Location Only

95 Mass. Ave., Boston ◆ 247-9401

COMEDY

In Therapy With Cathy Ladman

A Comedian for the Patient in All of Us

by Tobin Streett

The best way to get inside Cathy Ladman's head is to see one of her live routines. As one of the country's leading comedians, Ladman's one-woman act is a self probing, anxiety-venting vehicle designed to elicit laughs from empathetic audience members. We caught up with her in St. Louis, during a recent stop of hers with Comedy Central's Road Trip for Comics Only Tour. Performing separately from her current tour, Ladman will appear next week in Boston at Catch A Rising Star in Harvard Square - so mark your calendar. This chick is one sick and twisted comedian and shouldn't be missed.

Ever since she was 13, Ladman had wanted to be a comic. Growing up with her family in Littleneck Queens, New York, she would dream of becoming a comedian, all the while listening to albums of her most influential mentors - Cosby, George Carlin, Robert Klein and her favorite, Woody Allen. "Woody Allen is my largest influence. One of my goals is that I have to work with him before he stops doing movies. I wrote him a four page letter and basically spilled my guts."

On stage, Ladman spills her guts about a lot of things. Going to the public bathroom, for instance. "If the stall door locks and there's a hole in the ground, I'm a happy woman."

Some of her act is planned, but most of her truly personal material erupts during one of her many frequent improvisational runs at her life. "There's nothing riskier than to take a stand on your life," she says, while relaxing in her hotel room. "It helped me to grow up within my family."

It's also kept her fresh on stage. "I've learned how to make myself happy. I've learned that when I'm with one audience, it's different than all the others. It's not desirable to please every single crowd because then you achieve mediocrity."

Ladman says that during some of her performances, she'll have a million thoughts cruising through her brain. She could be cracking a joke about buying enough maxi pads at B.J.'s warehouse to last her until menopause, while wondering about a completely unrelated topic. "The things that go through my head on stage . . . my thighs are rubbing together, my thighs are getting fat . . . you know, things like that."

Ladman writes all of her own material, concentrating on topics from teaching, children and shopping to a major source of material (all self-penned) - her family. They're anything but excused from her act, as her father seems to receive the brunt of her psyche-cleaning wrath. She says that you could effectively torture her "anal-retentive father" by "tying him up to the wall and then refolding a road map in front of him."

Ladman is also a compulsive shopper. "I bought a jock strap and use it to hang garlic in."

In light of her obvious scatterbrained obsessiveness with life's idiosyncrasies, Ms. Ladman is a specialist at relating those things that make the difference between a good day and a bad one for many of us. "A good day for me is when I'm doing my laundry and I get that lint screen off in one piece. Doesn't that feel good?"

No matter what kind of day you're having, make sure you see this talented road warrior.

Cathy Ladman appears at Catch A Rising Star in Harvard Square from July 15-July 19.

Comedy Listings

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Sandwiches and cold appetizers served. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm.
Every Mon. is Cross comedy. Every Tue. is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. Wed 8th. thru Sun 12th.- Joe Yannetty, Steve Trilling, Jennifer Hoag. Mon 13th.- Cross Comedy. Tue 14th.- Jonathan Groff. Wed 15th. thru Sun 19th.- Cathy Ladman, Bill Braudis, Rich Gustis. Mon 20th.- Cross Comedy. Tue 21st.- Brian Kiley.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country. Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Fri. and Sat. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat.
Wed 8th.- Jimmy Smith. Thu 9th.- Rich Ceisler, Mike Lee, Susie Maxi. Frl 10th & Sat 11th.- D.J. Hazard, Danny Scannell, Brian Frazier. Sun 12th.- Billy Martin, Jim McCue, Myra Slotnick. Mon 13th.- Dave Fitzgerald, Carl Derry, Chris O'Carroll. Tue 14th.- D.J. Hazard, Rich Gustos, Jack Lynch. Wed 15th.- Jimmy Smith, Grant Taylor, Roy Wacko. Thu 16th.- Chris Zito, Myra Slotnick, Thom Brown. Frl 17th & Sat 18th.- Mike Donovan, Maria Falzone, James Lewis. Sun 19th.- Chris Zito, Dave Atell, Gerry Thornton. Mon 20th.- Chris Zito, Spike Tobin, Big Bob. Tue 21st.- D.J. Hazard, Marc Snyder, Sue Costello.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700, Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.
Thu 9th.- Anthony Clark. Frl 10th. & Sat 11th.- Frankie Pace. Thu 16th. thru Sat 18th.- Dennis Wolfberg. Sun 19th.- TBA. Mon 20th.- D.J. Hazard. Tue 21st.- TBA.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• ImprovBoston at the Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundays at 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE. Nick's will be the official host to Sail Boston 1992 (July 11-16). Comedy get-togethers are planned.
Wed 8th.- Eddie Brill, Larry Reppucci. Thu 9th. thru Sat 11th.- Margaret Smith. Sun 12th.- Kevin Knox. Mon 13th.- Open Mike Night with Billy Martin. Tue 14th.- Paul D'Angelo, Larry Reppucci. Wed 15th.- Dave Chappelle, Mike Sullivan Irwin. Thu 16th.- Jim Lauletta, Reggie MacFadden. Frl 17th.- Paul Wayne, Jim Lauletta. Sat 18th.- Don Gavin, Paul Wayne. Sun 19th.- Kevin Knox, Reggie MacFadden. Mon 20th.- Open Mike Night with Billy Martin. Tue 21st. thru Sun 26th.- Kenny Rogerson et al.

• Renegade Duck 277-0550, at Play it Again Sam's, 1314 Commonwealth Ave., Allston. Boston's improvisational comedy troupe appears every Saturday at 9pm. Admission is $5.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. Every Tue: "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos. Every Wed: Anthony Clark. A must see! Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-$10. No dress code.
Wed 8th.- Anthony Clark, Frankie Bastille, "Outrageous" Comedy Troupe. Thu 9th.- Cross Comedy. Frl 10th. & Sat 11th.- Tony V., Tom Gilmore, Leann Lewis. Sun 12th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 14th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). Wed 15th.- Chance Langton, Brian Frazer. Thu 16th.- Cross Comedy. Frl 17th. & Sat 18th.- D.J. Hazard, Brian Frazer, John Henson. Sun 19th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 21st.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

DINING

The Moveable Feast

Bombay Bistro - A New Breed of Indian Cuisine

by Meg Worden & Peter McNamara

Indian food has come a long way from the days of small, cramped budget restaurants. Remember when you often had to bring your own wine and beer and wait for reservations. By contrast, the Bombay Bistro is one of the latest in a new breed of stylish Indian restaurants, where the elegant decor and excellent food make you want to celebrate special occasions here. The attractive dining room is light and airy with soft pink walls, mauve benches and well-spaced tables (topped with faux green marble). Enlarged photos of Indian scenes provide an added splash of color. Bombay Bistro's menu is also far from the predictable kind you might encounter at the average Indian restaurant - and chances are, you'll find several new delicacies.

Danielle Pucci

You'll enjoy a menu that's far from predictable at the Bombay Bistro

Indian breads can be extremely filling, but the Bombay Bistro's breads are the lightest and tastiest we've ever come across. We particularly recommend the chicken kulcha and the peshawari naan (each $2.75). Both arrived piping hot and resembled fried pita bread. The first was stuffed with cilantro, chicken and peppers, the second with nuts and raisins. They literally melted in the mouth. From among the appetizers, we particularly liked the shammi kabob ($4.95), a hot and spicy concoction made from ground lamb, nuts, cumin seeds, onion and cilantro; the contrasting textures were memorable, and it was wonderfully complemented by the accompanying mango chutney. We found the aloo chatt ($3.95) - spiced potatoes tossed in tamarind sauce - disappointingly bland. The third appetizer we ordered never showed up. As our main courses arrived at that moment, it seemed rather pointless to select something else in its place. We were a little troubled, too, when it became apparent we were to reuse the same silverware for our entrees (a pet peeve of ours, and inexcusable in a classy establishment such as this).

From the very interesting range of entrees, we decided a combination of both the familiar and not so familiar would be a good test. Chicken xaccuti ($8.95) arrived as pieces of chicken in a coconut tamarind sauce; it wasn't as spicy as we expected, but nevertheless, it was a smooth, satisfying dish. Tali machhi ($10.95) is a most unusual fish preparation in which halibut filet is rolled in gramflour and fried with herbs and spices, making a subtle, yet intriguing combination. The sweet, tender tandoori shrimp ($10.95) was absolutely perfect. A combination dish comprising tandoori chicken and kheema hyderabadi ($10.95) also passed the test with flying colors. The chicken was nicely smoky and moist, while the keema (spiced ground lamb, cooked with peas) was pleasantly assertive, containing generous amounts of fresh ginger.

Since we had enjoyed just about everything else up to this point, we thought we might as well give these a fair trial. Shahi tukra ($3.50) is an Indian style bread pudding, made from reduced milk, and had a flavor rather resembling maple syrup. Gulab jamun ($3.25) is a familiar standby - little balls of fried condensed milk flavored with rose syrup. Finally, vanilla ice cream with mango-ginger sauce ($3.25) brought us back to the more familiar, and the sauce was truly delicious.

As you would expect, there is a good selection of beers, though surprisingly, of the sixteen imported varieties, only three are Indian. There is also a small but serviceable wine list with prices ranging from $14.00-$22.00.❑

Bombay Bistro
1353 Beacon Street,
Brookline
tel. 734-2879
(734-CURY).
Hours: Open daily for lunch and dinner (brunch buffet served on Sundays).
*Credit cards:*AE, MC,V
*Handicapped:*Accessible

Pat's Pushcart Restaurant
Stop in on your way to the Tall Ships

Pat's Pushcart Restaurant has been serving fine Italian Cuisine for the past 20 years in Boston's Historical North End.

Be sure to ask about our specialty dishes.

61 Endicott Street, Boston's North End 523-9616

DINING

In the Realm of the Spirits

Este Margarita Es Mejor (This Margarita is the Best)

by Al Stankus

The margarita just might be the most popular cocktail ever imported into America. However, when most gringos drink them stateside, there's definitely a breakdown in translation.

The tart, cold drink served up in Old Mexico (sorry, but Cancun doesn't count) somehow becomes an over-processed, over-sweetened, slushy concoction. Why, sometimes I've been a victim of Margaritas dispensed from the same contraption that produces soft ice cream. Granted, the requisite tequila and triple sec are somewhere in the glop, but the frozen mix is a mess that's about as much of a Margarita as Dan Quayle is a statesman.

Up here, we're built for speed; down there, comfort holds the edge. Whereas the American bartender uses the standard bar sour mix and the stateside homebody buys frozen limeade or that vile bottled Margarita mixer, no self-respecting Mexican would take such shortcuts.

And while we blessed the bartending habits of a whole nation, let's put to rest the notion of "gold Margaritas" and other such frivolous wastes of top shelf tequila. Plain and simple, besides the fresh lime juice, a Margarita should be made with white tequila and triple sec.

Aged gold tequila (most often it's only caramel color anyway) and the likes of Grand Marnier or Cointreau belong in shot glasses and snifters, not mixed in a lime-addled cocktail.

Imagine taking prime filet and grinding it up for a burger - basically that's what you've done when you adulterate a simple cocktail with such wonderful tequilas like Sauza Hornitos, Commemoritivo, Cuervo 1800 or the blue agave Heradura. Aged spirits such as these (each so wonderful that it can stand alone) deserve front stage and not a role in what's essentially a simple cocktail.

Like the other maligned tropical drink, the Daiquiri, the key to the Margarita is squeezing limes, or using an acceptable bottled lime juice such as Nellie & Joe's. Never can the saccharine Rose's Lime Juice, a bar mix, frozen limeade or anything from a pre-mixed bottle take the place of lime juice. Sure it takes time, but think of it as time well spent.

The Real Margarita
(makes 2 drinks)

5-7 ice cubes or generous amount of crushed ice

1 1/4 -1 1/2 oz. lime juice

2 oz. triple sec

3 1/2 oz. white tequila

Rim two cocktail glasses with salt. Put all ingredients in a cocktail shaker and shake well; strain the drinks into the glasses and, if desired, add a bit of crushed ice. Bracing and simple, this drink bears little resemblance to the cocktails that mask as Margaritas in most bars and homes.❑

Great seafood with a great seaview

CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS
BAR and RESTAURANT

Appetizers — Cup
Mix & Match Raw Bar $1.00 each N.E. Clam Chowder $2.50 Bowl $3.50

Entrees

VEAL SCALLAPINI MARSALA $14.95
(Veal sauteed w/ mushrooms &prosciuto in butter &marsala wine sauce)

BROILED SCROD $9.95

SOUL OSCAR $12.95
(Fillet of soul wrapped around Asparagus, topped w/ lobster meat & shrimp sauce)

CHICKEN CUTLET PARMIGIANA $9.95

On The Waterfront
25 Rogers St.
Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930
1-800-254-0014 508-283-0007

In our almost ten years of existence we have become renowned for our innovative & knowledgeable approach to food & wine.

1983 "New spot downtown overflows with promise"  A. Spinazzola – Boston Globe •1984 "Best after theatre spot" – Boston Magazine •  Gus Sanders – Boston Herald • 1985 Best Shopping Lunch – Boston Magazine • "Hof Properties ... A restaurant with a sense of mission" – Metropolitan Home • 1986  Robert Levey – Boston Globe • 1987

TEN YEARS OF cornucopia

"Best Kept Secret" – People's Choice Awards •  Gus Sanders – Boston Herald • 1988 1/2 Robert Levey – Boston Globe • 1990 Best Wine Bar – Boston Magazine • "Great food and value too" – Boston Magazine Dining Guide • "Perfect score for food" – NE Business Magazine • 1991 1/2 Robert Levey – Boston Globe • 21st most popular restaurant & 24 out of 30 points for food – Zagat Restaurant Survey

Tel (617) 338.4600
15 West Street
Downtown Boston
Validated Parking after 4pm at the Lafayette Garage

Four Winds

266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront

(617) 742-3922

seafood grille

DINING

Appeteasers

by
Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

A New Addition to The Family
Welcome to the North End's newest restaurant - Marco's Ristorante - specializing in seafood dishes from all regions of Italy, plus grilled meats and a raw bar. The location is 93 Salem Street, tel. 367-4878.

Lobster Mania
If lobster's your thing, but you want a change from lobster in the rough, why not check out Dakota's third annual summer-long lobsterfest. For $15.95, you can have a complete dinner, and each day there is a different special - ranging from lobster tempura to lobster chiapino to southwestern grilled lobster. For information, call 737-1777.

Toasting Bastille Day
If you feel like celebrating Bastille Day a few days early, then head off to the romantic setting of Mellea Farm Vineyards in West Dudley, only 18 minutes from Old Sturbridge Village. From noon until 5pm on July 12 you can partake of food prepared by local French chefs, sample the Mellea wines (a real treat) and enjoy French music and art; everything is free of charge. For directions, call (508) 943-5166. Incidentally, Michael Shaps, the winemaker, tells us that all Mellea wines are now available at Kenmore Liquors in Kenmore Square.

RaspberryFest
Berry season is upon us, and if you love raspberries, don't miss the RaspberryFest at Nashoba Valley Winery on July 18, where from 4-8pm, you can pick your own fruit, sample raspberry shortcake, listen to chamber music performed by the Worcester Center for the Performing Arts Trio and go on a tour and tasting of the Winery. The Winery is located in Bolton, MA; call (508) 779-5521 for directions and information.

Eat Your Heart Out, Babaar
Bob Perry, manager of Elephant Walk, that very popular Cambodian/French restaurant in Somerville, tells us that they have added an outdoor cafe (seating 56) in front of the restaurant. And talk about international - they have no fewer than 11 different nationalities on the staff!

Music in the Courtyard
Every Tuesday, from 5-8pm through July 28, you can enjoy concerts in the courtyard at One Kendall Square, sponsored by the restaurants at that location - Goemon, the Cambridge Brewing Company, the Blue Room and Thai's, all of which also offer patio seating.

Going Back To School
The Boston University Seminars in the Culinary Arts program is offering three weeks of Specialty Workshops in Baking, Pastries, Desserts, Cake Decorating, Candy Making and Breads, commencing July 13. These are designed for professionals and experienced bakers, and will include two workshops with Albert Kumin; for more details call 353-9852.

Yee Hah - It's Tex Mex
Tex Mex Zuma's Cafe at Faneuil Hall recently introduced a new lunchtime menu. Nine Mexican style dishes are being offered, all for $4.97 (sic) from 11am-4pm. We also hear they may be signing up soon for September's Great Yankee Rib Cookoff.

Coming Home
Our very favorite blintz place has returned to its original location: Marcia's Blintzes can now be found at 160 Boylston Street, Chestnut Hill, tel. 527-9812. If you don't already have a jewish mother, adopt this one! Her blintzes can't be improved upon.

The Juicy Details
Some juicy bits for you Congratulations to Jill Rodgers of the Oasis Cafe, recently listed as one of America's 2000 by Chefs in America, for "providing culinary leadership into the 21st century"...Congratulations, too, to Tony Sansevero, a star waiter at Papa Razzi in Back Bay, on his success in the recent Beacon Hill Art Walk; we also hear he may soon be designing a wine label for a local winery...A fond farewell to Suzanna Abbott, general manager at the Caffe Luna since its inception, who is going back to school...Goodbye, too, to Ron Fousek, pastry chef at the Four Seasons Hotel...We found a great waiter - Ivan Weldon - at the Warren Tavern, but after 5 years of devoted service while attending college, he has just graduated, so may be moving on. Whatever his plans, he deserves well...Upstairs at the Pudding is now open for lunch Monday through Friday, and has recently opened a roof-top herb garden terrace (complete with night-blooming plants)...We heard that 33 Dunster Street will be transforming into a brewery bar...What will you find lambasted and skewered in the June issue of Harper's? None other than the Frugal Gourmet. Makes us glad we have Julia Child.❑

The North End's Getaway for American Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

"HOME OF THE HEARTY APPETITE!"

Lunch and Dinner, Tuesday through Saturday and Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

"I'll treat you just like family except you won't have to do the dishes"

Come for our Pollo e Vitello alla Verdicchio

This delectable dish is made with chicken and veal with artichoke hearts, olives and mushrooms, sautéed in Verdicchio wine.

Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street"

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

quality n., 1. A characteristic or attribute of something; property; a feature
2. Excellence; superiority

Fresh Louie's Farm Mkt. & Seafood
Hours: Mon-Fri 9am-8pm, Sat 9am-7pm, Sun 12-5pm
349A Newbury St. Boston 247-1474
For a minimum purchase of $10, you can have validated parking right next door.

DINING

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $15.95 (all inclusive); $7.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Raw fish for breakfast? Why not!?! You sushi diehards and adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual buffet brunch. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of raw oriental seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $24.50 for all you can eat; $15.50 under 12. Brunch Sun. 11am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Davio's
269 Newbury St., Bos. 262-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at 11:30am. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. All of Davio's three locations offer this tasty brunch. See Restaurant listings for their locations. Reservations are suggested. Call 262-4810 for more information.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. Another feather in their cap is the New Orleans Jazz B

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Las Brisas
70 E. India Row, Bos. 720-1820
Before your next trip to the Aquarium, spoil yourself with zesty Mariachi music and Mexican-American breakfast delights. Sun. 11am-3pm. Band starts at noon. Adults $12.95, Children $5.95. All you can eat. Park at the garage next door and receive full-day validation for $7.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American homestyle fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

Warren Tavern, 2 Pleasant St., Charlestown, 241-8142
Take a step back into history this Sunday, approximately 212 years. The Warren Tavern is one of the oldest restaurants in the country and the first place to be rebuilt after Charlestown was burned down in the Battle of Bunker Hill. The Tavern features an original decor of low beamed ceilings, church pew benches and a 25 foot oak bar. Cuisine is straight forward American with a little international flair. Brunch served from 12:00 to 3:30. $4.95 - $6.95

MELLEA WINERY

Free Wine Tasting
at Bauer Wine and Spirits, Newbury Street
Saturday, July 18 4:00pm

July 12 is Bastille Day
Come and enjoy authentic French music, food from the area's best French restaurants and arts in our celebration.

Free Tasting and Tours
Enjoy our brookside picnic area and 30 acres of New England Countryside

"As Massachusetts residents, you are required to try it."
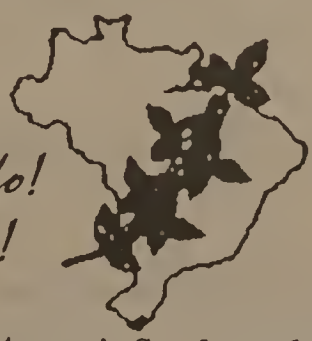
- David Raines, Gordon's

108 Old Southbridge Rd., W. Dudley, Ma. 508-943-5166
Call for info. on summer events; arts shows, concerts & chef visits.

Remington's
OF BOSTON
EATING & DRINKING EXCHANGE

Dinner for 2 • $9.95
with mention of the Improper Bostonian



- Sirloin steak tips charbroiled to taste
- Fresh Boston schrod lightly breaded and broiled
- Boneless chicken breast marinated in teriaki and broiled
- Fresh caught fish and chips

Free Jukebox Play
Thursday through Saturday Midnight–2AM

$4.00 Off ticket price for Dick Dorherty's Comedy Vault with Dinner Purchase
Friday & Saturday Nights

124 Boylston Street Boston • 574-9676

CAFÉ BRAZIL

Bem-vindo!
Welcome!

Serving Beer and Wine.

- Listen to Live, Acoustic Samba and Bassa Nova -
While Enjoying a Scrumptious Dinner!

15% off
w/ this coupon.
*Not valid unless presented when seated.
Good Sun - Thurs for lunch or dinner.
Expires July 30, 1992

421 Cambridge St., Allston MA
789-5980

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Restaurant listings are provided as a service to advertisers. If you would like to have your restaurant listed, please call the Improper Bostonian Advertising Department at 232-3705.

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727
A,MC,V$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Amsterdam's,
54 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel
426-1111
A, MC, V $$
Don't let the name fool you. Amsterdam's is the epitome of American Bistro. The most popular eat at this new hotspot is the Rotisserie roasted chicken. Also choose from a variety of delicious appetizers such as spicy fried squid and steamed mussels. Stick around after dinner on Sunday and Monday nights to catch live Jazz from 9-2am. Casual dress. Open 7 days until 2am.

Ararat
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof,
1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA,
272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose,
21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef,
604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorified chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Come on down! Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles,
Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537
A,D,MC, V$$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Featuring a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees & grilled fresh seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am -11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

Cactus Club,
939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200
A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Café Marllave
10 Bosworth St., Boston 423-6340 $$
If you're an aspiring poet, there's a special place here for you: The Poet's Corner. On the sun-filled roof garden is where the famous American poet John B. O'Reilly was inspired to write his best works. If you're looking for delicious food, there are 14 pasta sauces here to tempt every Bostonian, a spacious glassed-in cocktail roof garden and a wonderful family to make you feel at home. See ad on left.

Caffe Dello Sport, 3
08 Hanover St., Bos. 523-5063 $
Choose from a rotating pastry booth and sip an espresso at this cozy cafe that is also a tribute to Italia, Italy's national soccer team. Italian soccer banners adorn the walls and mirrors add a caffe feel. Try the tiramisu- sublime; or order up a confection to go

Caffe Graffiti
307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016 $
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Italia
279 Newbury St., Boston, 536-3556 $
Sip cappuccino and espresso from the early morning light into the balmy summer night at this authentic Italian cafe. Mangia imported pastries, Gelati, calzone, arancini, panzarotti and more from 8 am-12am Monday through Thursday and 8am-2am Friday through Sunday. Relax and enjoy a late night dessert on their outdoor terrace open until 2 am on weekends.

Caffe Pompei,
280 Hanover St., Bos. 523-9498 $$
This 28 year old restaurant, named and modeled after Italy's famed volcano city , is still the only coffee shop in the North End that's open until 4AM. Famous for it's homemade banana gelato and delicious cappuccinos, Pompei attracts a vibrant late night crowd, however, with the recent addition of a full dinnermenu, Caffee Pompei is no longer just for night owls.

Casa Portugal,
1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880
A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

CAFFÉ Graffiti
"Come In And Sign Our Wall."
▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato
CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid 1280

Mexican Restaurant
THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD. LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.
The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

LOADING ZONE BBQ
BOSTON
617.695.0087
PIT CREW
INDUSTRIAL STRENGTH
150 KNEELAND ST.
All the bbq ribs you can eat
VALID TALL SHIP WEEK JULY 10th-JULY 17th ONLY NO SHARING OR ANY DISCOUNT ALLOWED.....
SALE BOSTON $19.

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Cornucopia,
15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali,
415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254
A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Four Winds,
266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922
A, MC, D, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open from noon to 2am daily.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050
A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I,
71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces.
Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus,
3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499
$
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Joyce Chen,
115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373
A, MC, V $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring a new spring menu. In addition to Joyce Chen's wide variety of dishes on the year-round menu, the seasonal dishes include Chicken Macadamia with asparagus and Wok-seared shrimp with asparagus. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house lab under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

Loading Zone
150 Kneeland St., Boston 695-0087
V, A, MC, DC, D$$
You can load up on a number of barbecue specialties while enjoying one of Boston's more artistic restaurant experiences. Tables are glass-topped over a variety of paintings, sculptures and more - all by Boston artists. For a new patron, you can't go wrong with their combination platter, or "Pig Out" as it's affectionately labeled. This platter offers a wonderful sampling of 3 spare ribs, baby back ribs, pork shoulder, brisket and bbq chicken. Lunch 11:30am to 5pm, dinner from 5pm to midnight. Don't miss their club nights - 3 times a week.

L'Osteria
109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Triestini - three veal cutlets with prociutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959
V,MC $$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former

GRAND OPENING
IN THE RAW!

The Raw Bar at MARCO'S
RISTORANTE
Raw Bar • Cocktails • Grill
Italian Seafood Specials
"Bringing Scunggelli to Boston !"
93 Salem St. North End, Boston
3 6 7 - 4 8 7 8
GRAND OPENING

caffè paradiso
est. 1966
gelati

sorbetto

apertivi

liquers

cognacs

scotches

soft beverages

panini

pizza

255 Hanover Street Boston
3 Water Street Boston
1 Elliot Street Cambridge
349 Newbury Street Boston (May '92)

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century. Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury St. Open noon to midnight.

Noble House,
1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580
A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

The Original Sports Saloon
47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
This neighborhood restaurant and bar is the only place to go in Boston to watch a sporting event. This true authentic establishment roars with excitement no matter which sport is showing on their five satellite T.V.'s. As far as their menu, barbeque is the name of the game here. The Saloon also offers a variety of other menu items from burgers to seafood, but they do it different than anyone else. All items are available for take-out and delivery. Open 11 am-2am, 7 days a week.

Ottavio's
257 North St., Bos. 723-6060
A, D, MC, V $$$
Casual Northern Italian dining with impeccable service and the best Caesar salad served tableside. Mirrored walls, fresh flowers, candles and windows - complete with a sculptured floral design, add flare and romance. Try the chicken ottavio - chicken with prosciutto and cheese in a mushroom sherry sauce or a succulent lobster, only 2 pounders and up in this classy joint! Open daily for dinner 4:30 - 11:00pm.

Patisserie Francaise
54 JFK St., Cambridge, 354-9850
$(lunch)$$(dinner)
If you yearn for Paris in the summertime, try out this little French café in Harvard Square. They serve fresh food from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday and Monday, and until 10 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Lunch consists of omelets, salads, soups, and sandwiches. Dinner adds typical French cuisine, freshly-cooked, to the menu. And the deserts include every chocolate and fruit-filled concoction you could imagine.

Rattlesnake,
382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555
$$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. If you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Ristorante Carlo Marino,
8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltimboca alla Romano - veal layered with prosciutto with fresh sage, sautéed in wine; Spinaci di Casa - spinach sautéed with garlic oil, cannellini beans and prosciutto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Sienna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC, V, A $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary situated in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston.

Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

What's cookin' at Bob the Chef's?

WINE & BEER NOW SERVED!

NEW WEEKEND BRUNCH SPECIAL:
FRIED CHICKEN & WAFFLES!

604 COLUMBUS AVE. · BOSTON (617) 536-6204 · TAKE OUT AVAILABLE
MONDAY - SATURDAY: 8 A.M. - 9 P.M. - SUNDAY: 9 A.M. - 6 P.M.

"Home of Italian Pizza and Pasta"
NOW SERVING DINNER

SIENNA'S

Come Dine with us in our Friendly and Casual Atmosphere with Great Italian Food.

Dinner Served Mon. - Sat.; 5p.m. -11p.m.
214 LINCOLN ST., CORNER OF KNEELAND ST.
426-6665

ARARAT RESTAURANT

Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates
4.75 Each

Falafel, Hommos, and Tabouleh

Musaka
Eggplant with Rice Pilaf

Mujadra
Lentils and Rice with salad

Pilaki
Kidney Beans and Rice Pilaf with Salad

Hommos, Tabouleh, and Yalanji
with Rice Pilaf

We also serve beer and wine. Please come in and visit us.
ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 Arlington Street, Watertown, MA.
(617)924-4100*(617)934-7011

The early bird catches the lasagne al forno for just $8.95.

Not to mention Prime Rib for $9.95, Grilled Chicken for $8.95, Baked Schrod for $9.95, and the Chef's Special of the Day for $9.95. You'll find these complete dinners for under $10 when you come to Parmizzano's between 5 and 7 pm. The food is plentiful, the service delightful, and the check very easy to swallow. Call (617) 252-4444 for reservations.

ITALIAN Parmizzano's CAFFE

Located at the Cambridge Center Marriott • Two Cambridge Center, Cambridge
Parking up to 3 hours for $1, 3–6 hours for $2.

MUSIC

Soup's On!

The Soup Dragons Escape the Manchester Trap

The Soup Dragons - (from left to right) Sushil Dade Jim McCulloch, Sean Dickson and Paull Quinn.

by Rey Roldan

Rising above the diluted British stew of psycho-delic dance bands, the Soupdragons' chunky-style pop has managed to escape the 'Manchester thang' virtually unscathed. Pumping out beefy rhythms and sinewy grooves with a dash of psychedelia, they've proved once again that they do not fall into the homogeneous 'let's-add-heavy-guitar-to-a-hiphop-beat' category. While bands such as Primal Scream, the new Echo and the Bunnymen and (gasp!) the Charlatans wallow in redundency, these four Scots revel in pure pop excellence.

Starting out in Glasgow primarily as a thrashy, post-punk band in 1985, the Soupdragons tore up local clubs and gigs and, in effect, garnered a solid fan base. The band released a string of hit singles on British indie charts and developed a large and faithful following. After the buzz began to vibrate in industry ears, Sire soon signed them and tried all they could to turn these freshly scrubbed faces into the next R.E.M. and/or Replacements. "That Sire deal was a very bad thing for us," commented Jim McCulloch after a recent Cleveland show. "They wanted all the royalties and complete control. So after our second album [1988's This Is Our Art], we left Sire and decided to reinvent ourselves. Big Life/Mercury [their new label] is different for us. Now we create the album and T-shirt designs and pass it on to the art department instead of the other way around. We're a hundred percent happier."

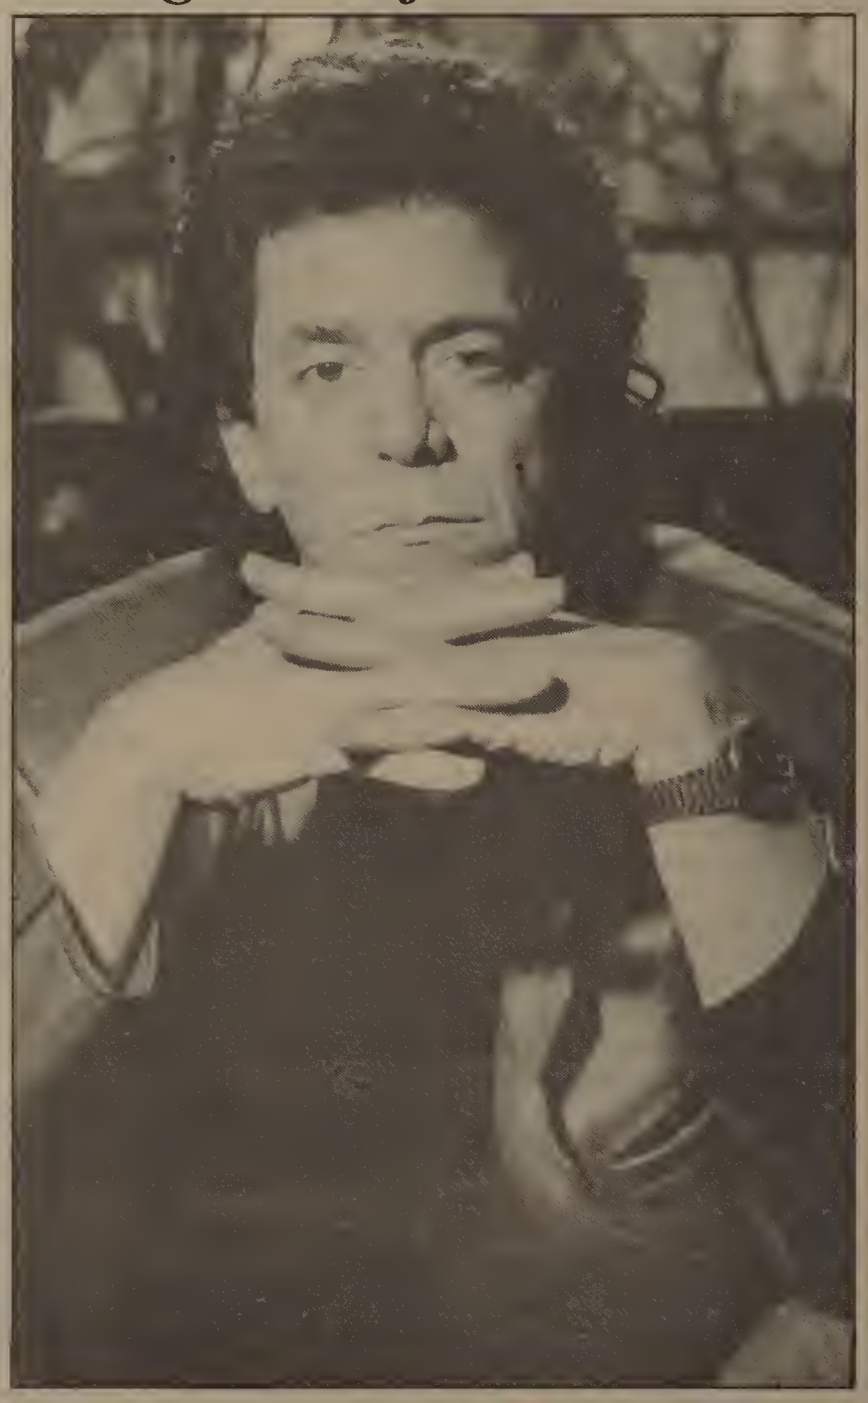
This new found happiness was projected as blatant as it could ever be on Lovegod, their first release on Mercury. A celebration of independence and freedom as well as a flat out party record, this album stripped away the thrashy guitar of 1987's Hang Ten and This Is Our Art and uncovered a psychedelic funkiness that was more akin to the Rolling Stones than anything else in the market. "When we changed our drummer [original drummer Ross left the band to pursue art school] to Paul [Quinn], things started to change," he explained. "Paul has a funky drumming style that Ross didn't."

The added grooves came just in time for the Manchester high tide, in which the Soupdragons cruised comfortably on the crest. Charting in the Top Ten for Dance, Pop, College and Alternative charts, their breakthrough single "I'm Free" (which, in fact, is a Stones' cover) made them radio darlings and club favorites. "We were watching The Stones Live in Hyde Park on the television and they did a really slow version of a song called 'I'm Free'," McCulloch said. "The next day we went into the rehearsal studio and started 'jobbing' it. None of us had actually heard the recorded version so we were pretty flexible with what we did to it." With the added luck of throwing in World Beat artist Junior Reid into the mix, their version far surpassed anything in the Stones-esque genre that sprouted out of Manchester in 1990.

Along with this psychedelic, seventies feel injecting a heavy dose of drug-laden euphoria, the Soupdragons still find room in their music to add a little religious zeal. Equating transcendental experiences such as love and pleasure with grace and salvation, the band winds a beat-heavy rhythm around religious iconography. "[Hotwired] is all about religion and sex. It's not your average pop album. Sean [Dickson, vocalist and songwriter] writes a lot of lovesongs with religious [elements in them] and I can say that we find religious iconography more interesting than the religion itself. Whether he's writing lovesongs about his girlfriend or not, it's not place to say," McCulloch laughed.

The Soup Dragons
Appearing at Avalon
Friday, July 10
with Special Guests
the Catherine Wheel.
Tix are $15,
Doors open at 7pm.

As their future looks toward the heavens for inspiration, their music keeps the earthbound revelling in ecstacy. McCulloch, however, remains firmly earthbound. "I just want to keep doing what we're doing," he mused. "I just want to be able to pay the rent at the end of the month." ❑



John Mellencamp at Great Woods, July 17

Indiana's favorite son and Springsteen's only real competitor, John Mellencamp brings his rootsy rock and roll to Great Woods on Friday, July 17 in support of Whenever We Wanted (Mercury Records), his most mature and introspective release to date. Although musically he's mellowed to legal speed limit, his blistering live shows keep the revving up high. And though his set relies on a heavy dose from his last three albums, he's destined to play his raucous party ditties about Jack, Diane and cherry bombs. Gates open at 8pm. Tickets available at the Great Woods Box Office or call Ticketmaster at 931-2000. ❑

Reed Takes a Trip on the Wildside

Lou Reed Releases a Very Revealing Work of Art

by Joe Viglione

Lou Reeds new boxed set anthology will take you on an emotional rollercoaster ride.

Whenever an artist releases a retrospective box set, it forces a new look at his or her work. This Lou Reed anthology covers his post-Velvet Underground solo career, from his 1972 solo debut Lou Reed through 1986's Mistrial. It is immediately evident that Reed has never stood still and has always been willing to go out on the edge - even at the risk of making lousy records. Of course, what is lousy to one person at a certain point in time can be cathartic to someone else in a more receptive mental space.

Without the sound of VU, Reed was left to try different groups of studio and stage musicians. Because of this, his early albums vary wildly in style and arrangement. The classic Berlin (of which six songs are featured here) borders on overproduction, but still stands as a monument to self-hatred. Transformer has a more homogenized sound, which is probably why it led to Reed's biggest hit "Walk on the Wildside." The dueling guitars of Steve Hunter and Dick Wagner give the live Rock and Roll Animal its penultimate 70's FM radio sound. Disc One ends with a track each from Sally Can't Dance and Coney Island Baby, going from organ-heavy riff-rock to near-folk rock.

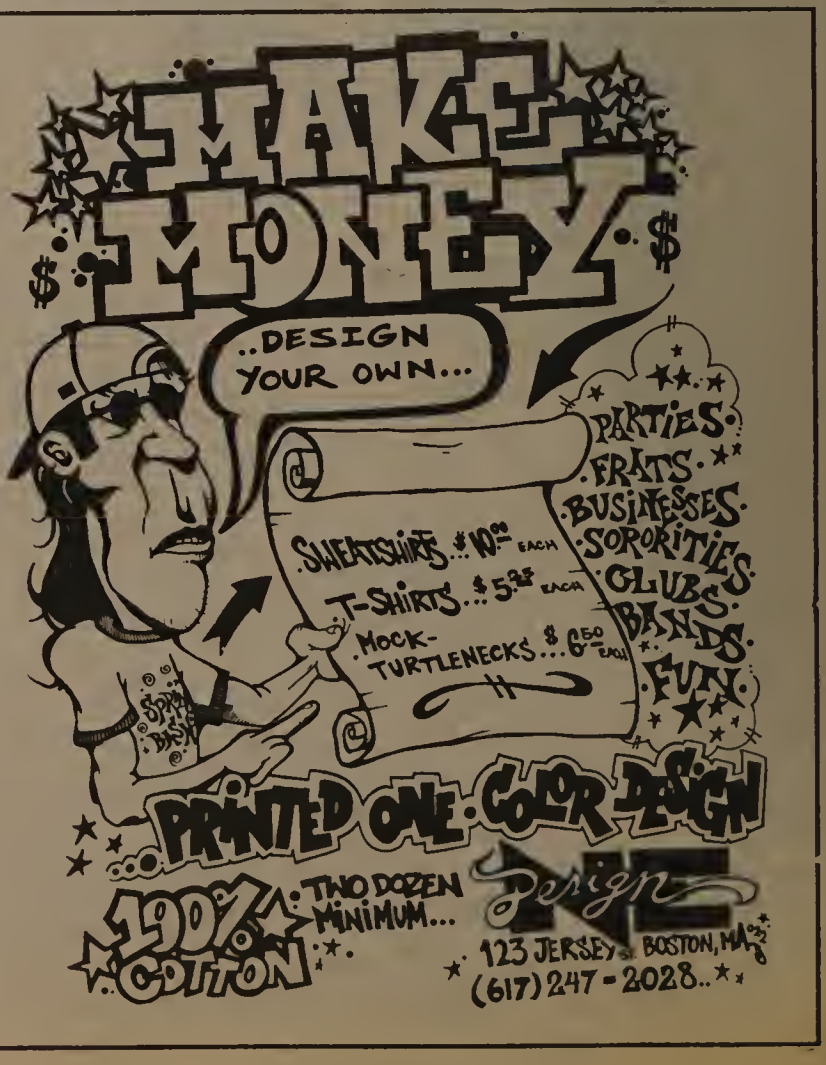
Things get even more uneven, yet more interesting on Disc Two. Picking up with a non-LP B-side "Nowhere At All" through more tracks from Coney Island Baby, Disc Two traces Reed's descent into his private hell of addiction and torment. These songs from Rock and Roll Heart foreshadow the wretched voice that is barely human croaking "we're going to have a real good time together" (from Street Hassle). That old VU party song becomes a highly ironic scream of anguish. The stringing together of the live unreleased version of "Heroin," "Here Comes the Bride," "Street Hassle," a snippet of Metal Machine Music and finally, "The Bells" makes the second half of this disc an unrelenting sonic nightmare. It is probably best listened to on a dark, gloomy day. This portion of Reed's career was his commercial low point, but it yielded some very intense music.

You'll notice a change on Disc Three. It opens up with a useless version of "America" that should have remained in the vault. Then, the next batch of songs begins to reveal a new lyrical focus - home and happiness. At this point, Reed finally got off drugs and booze and it shows, depending on one's taste, for better or worse. The Blue Mask album harks back to the glory days of VU, droning ringing guitars and literary lyrics. A lot of these songs seem to be about the insanity of withdrawal from drugs. "The Last Shot" (from Legendary Heart) is particularly poignant on that subject.

The blissful feelings from The New Sensations are brand new for Lou. This must have been his period of regaining his humanity. But soon his eyes were opened, and instead of looking inward to the world of the junkie, he looks outward to the world around all of us. "Video Violence" and "The Original Wrapper" (from Mistrial) are Reed's first stab at the type of social commentary he would do so well on New York. The set ends with a live cut from the Amnesty International Tour in which he partook.

With an artist as brilliant and erratic as Lou Reed, you are bound to go on an emotional rollercoaster with his music. If you're willing to take the ride, this box set offers you a ticket.❑

On This Rock You Shall Build a Church...



Pop Series to Premiere In Old Cambridge Church

by Rey Roldan

Seeking out solid, local rock bills was once an almost impossible task. But starting on Saturday, July 18, Boston-based HugeBig Productions is hosting its debut concert in support of the local indie scene at the Old Cambridge Baptist Church, 1151 Mass. Ave in Harvard Square. "My reason for this series is pretty selfish actually," said Dan Efram, founder of the series and of HugeBig. "I want to set up shows that I want to see. You know, the bands that I feel are the best Boston has to offer." Supporting his wish, the Gigolo Aunts, Augusta Furnace and the Lotus Eaters are the first bands to perform.

"The success of this show will determine whether or not the series can continue," added Efram. With the added push of the Gigolo Aunts phenomenal new double single "Bloom b/w Cope" (Mean Medve Music) which has been receiving heavy rotation on local radio stations including WFNX and WDJM, the opening gig should be well worth the admission fee of $5. The bread-breaking ceremony begins at 8:30pm. Complimentary beverages will be served. For more info, call Dan Efram at (617) 787-1835. ❑

MUSIC

Musical Notes

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

Angst? Chaotic Past. Their recent gig at T.T. The Bears at Crabdaddy's record release party was great...Bim Skala Bim mixing a live tape due out in the Fall...Beacon Kendall Entertainment bringing Jon Butcher back in Sept...Mr. Butch seen holding court at Father's Too with John Wynne, Dave Vini, and Larry Kelly...Two Saints do the best version of "All The Days And All The Nights" since you know who...Sam Black Church at Bun's on the 17th...Barkeep Of The Week is Jacqui Ridley from The Universal Joint for putting up with wildman/mgr. John Brescia. Go to the club Wed. nites to see The Candles do their Dead stuff...Or go to The Willow Jazz Club on Wed. nites and say high to our Waitress Of The Week Cathleen McNeil and mgr. Brian Walkley and hear The Fringe perform. Brian's band can also be heard jazzing it up all over town...The Tats' "Action Request" is poignant but silly, o.k. Johnnie Totaro?...Hybrid Minds do the best version of "Hush" since you know who...Chopper from Doghouse is a real pool shark. Just ask Bun's mgr. J.D. Crump. Congrats to J.D. and Trina on their engagement...Go to Squid's record release party at The Middle East on the 9th...Soundguy Nick Joyce back from touring with Miles Davis guitarist John Scofield...X-J.Geils lightman D.B. just back from effervescing with RTZ cross country...Best club on the Cape? The Beachcomber in Wellfleet. Say high to mgr. Dan Murray and see The Incredible Casuals every Sunday...Nuff said dept: Tim Gosnell from The Jigsaws and Dick Tate x-Slaves, DeSade were kindergarten cohorts. DeSade's tune "Long Gone" was originally titled "Long Dong" and was written about Lyres pounder Jim Janota...The Stompers in The Lanes recording their next project...See The Brian Washburn Band at Nightstage on the 9th.

Jerry Portnoy, x-Muddy Waters Band harpest really blows! In fact, "I Can't Remember To Forget" is our Song Of The Week cause...um, cause...the reason slips our mind, but we're sure it's a great tune all the same!...Our favorite aryan Eric Gsell now Beer Kommandant at Bunratty's...The Assassins do the best version of "Honey Pie" since you know who...Congrats to Allston Brother Jeff Taylor and wife Julie on their new little bundle of mom, Jennifer...Honestly, Vision Thing's "All Your Lies" is great!...Happy happy to pounder Dave Baker from Johnny Groove. Johnny Groove is groovy...X-Souls four-stringer Carmen DiMarca now owns The Villa Cafe in Lawrence. Members of The Fools, growling guitarists Billy Loosigian and Johnny A, and other assorted legends seen frequenting his venue...Doorman Of The Week is Scott Wolfelspereer from Great Scott's cause he's learned well from Mgr. Dave Liddle and barkeep Bobby Hessian...Newbury Comics' Kathei Logue holding her 5th Literary Science Fiction Conference at The Worcester Mariott Hotel the 10th-12th. Bring your axe or raygun...Recuperating barkeep Bibby from Ed Burke's still looks sick, but still looking better than fellow beer spillers Mark and Bernie...Brett Milano from Alias Records, Clea Simon from Tower Records Pulse Newsletter, and Boston Rock's Tris Lozaw were seen trading footnotes. Clea sez: "Word has it Sally Cragin (x-Cellars By Starlight in The Feenix) is coming home."...Larry Baeder x-James Montgomery Band now gigging in the Big Apple with Amyl Justin-M.C. Kings and Sister Kate Taylor. See Kate on the 9th at the 1992 River Music Fest in Cambridge...Bands send us your updates so we can tell the world about your talents! ❑

ALBUM REVIEWS

Material Issue
Destination Universe
Mercury Records

It still baffles me why Material Issue are a) considered 'alternative' and b) aren't permanently lodged somewhere in the Top 40. One thing's for sure, they certainly are 'pop.' In fact, they love that moniker: last year's debut album was titled International Pop Overthrow. A smart slice of pop, that album was a keeper. Destination Universe forges no new ground. Other than the presence of a few more ballads, Universe could easily be Pop II. No bother, Material Issue are the quintessential American pop-garage band and do it so well that we could be on Pop XVI without tiring of them. Anyone who doesn't find the Beatle-esque guitar of "Next Big Thing" or the eager, Loverboy-esque vocals of Jim Ellison appealing and instantly catchy is either hopelessly jaded or tone-deaf. Earnest, basic, guitar-crunchy songs like "The Loneliest Heart" and "Girl from Out of this World" aren't going to save the Earth, but who cares? With Material Issue as the Beach Boys of the Nineties, let them sing about cars and girls - and, once again, prove pop doesn't have to mean vapid and empty.

-Randee Dawn

Evangeline
Evangeline
Margaritaville/MCA

An all-female line-up primarily from Louisiana, Evangeline is the debut act signed to Jimmy Buffett's brand new label. The five women that comprise the group have diverse backgrounds ranging from pure Cajun (Sharon Leger plays the washboard) to jazz-rock. Making a name for themselves in the New Orleans Jazz Search Talent Contest (this being no small feat in the 'Big Easy' where jazz is as common as crawfish etouffé and chicory coffee), their musicianship is impeccable and the harmonies superb.

Evangeline plays straight ahead country and down-home rock and roll. Not to worry, you won't find any 'crying in your beer' songs here. Sounding as if the Eagles, Bonnie Raitt and Linda Ronstadt were all stirred up in a musical gumbo, the crystal clear production, sparkling vocals and interesting melodies make Evangeline very listenable whether you live north or south of the Mason-Dixon.

Gritty and soulful, Beth McKee's rendition of Van Morrison's "Carry a Torch" would be a perfect song to dance to at your wedding or at least around your living room with someone really cute. Sung partly in Creole by Leger, "Bon Temps La Lousiane (Good Times in Louisiana)" has a fast paced urgency that forces you to get up and dance. "Gulf Coast Highway," a beautiful ballad by Kathleen Steiffel and Jimmy Buffett about a lifelong love, is quite a departure for Buffett who ordinarily sings solo about his antics in tropical weather. Well-written and touching, this CD is an excellent debut from these ladies from Louisiana.

-Liz O'Brien

The Wolfgang Press
Queer
4AD/Warner Bros.

While the homophobic few may cry 'Foul!' at the album title, the Wolfgang Press's new album has as much offensive material as Betty Crocker. Abandoning the dark, twisted tales of albums of yore such as The Burden of Mules and Birdwood Cage, Queer lessens the dank and ups the groovy ante. Destined for the dance-floor, songs such as the remix of "Sucker," "Birmingham" and "Louis XIV" make lethal combinations of brains and boogie and creates probably the most arousingly excellent tracks in the Press's near-decade long career. The single "A Girl Like You" with its viral-ridden hook snatches hold of your feet and doesn't let go, pulling you through the length of the album like an angler reeling in a tuna. Following the Classics-remake trend that's springing up everywhere from Clint Ruin and Lydia Lunch's "Don't Fear the Reaper" to Michael Bolton's horrendous "Sitting on the Dock of the Bay," the Press update Randy Newman/Three Dog Night's "Mama Told Me Not to Come," injecting some innocently incestuous overtones that would make Oedipus blush. While not as groovy as the KLF or as good looking as Chynna Philips, Queer has a juicy rhythm fatter than Carney Wilson. If that's not hefty enough, I don't know what is.

-Rey Roldan

Don McBride
As It Were
Fabola Records

First releases are the toughest for any label. The problem is: how to make the first one stand out? Names? Technology? Money? Let's just say that none of that is available. So go for something a little more subtle, a little harder to find. . . artistry. The folks at Fabola did just that, and did it right. As It Were is a distinctive first disk, requiring just a little patience on the part of the listener.

The first distinction is drummer Don McBride. Now, the other musicians - Hal Galper, piano; Jerry Bergonzi, tenor sax; Charlie LaChapelle, bass - all are recognizable names in this part of the woods. But McBride? He's a Boston native who picked up the sticks at age 13.

So what's so special about the drummer? An unknown Elvin Jones or Max Roach? Forget the firepower and think sublety. On all but one track, McBride uses only brushes and it does make a difference. The insistence of the sticks is gone, the music slows down and the musicians have more time to 'talk' with us. . . softly.

According to the liner notes, the session was done in four and a half hours completely unrehearsed. They picked up the tunes on the moment. If it worked, they kept on going; if not, they tried something else. It's jazz as it used to be and, hopefully, will be again.

-Thomas M. Ullmann, Jr.

BAY STATE TICKET

Wang Center:
Phantom of the Opera	9/5
Worcester Centrum Events:
Bruce Springsteen	8/13, 8/14
Foxboro Stadium Events:
Guns N' Roses / Metallica	7/31
U2	8/20, 8/22, 8/23
Great Woods Events:
George Thorogood / Little Feat	8/6
Lollapalooza '92	8/7 - 8/8
Eric Clapton	8/18
James Taylor	8/26 - 8/29
B52's / Violent Femmes	9/5
Shea Stadium, NY
Elton John & Eric Clapton	8/21 & 8/22

We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold

(617) 731- 4588

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD, 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside.

•ALLEY CAT , 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover.

•ALLEY PUB, 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites.

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE, 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT, 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•ARBUCKLES, 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated Between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON, 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night.

Wed 8th.-- Fri 10th.--Soup Dragons

•AVENUE C, 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos.. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights.

Thur 9th.--The Sense Thur 16th.--O Positive, The Olives, The Paper Sequins

•AXIS, 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos.. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested.

Wed 8th.--Kings X, Galacho Cowboys Thur 9th.--Seka Tree, Cobalt 60 Wed 15th--Babylon A.D., Roxy Blue, Wildside

•BEACON HILL PUB, , 49 Charles St., Bos.. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN, 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos.. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm.

•BILL'S BAR, 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed.

Sun 12th.--Reggae Night with Jah Spirit Mon 13th--Every Monday Movie Madness. SRS Films Producer Eric Yellin will show Independent films and music videos before a feature film. Free admission and popcorn. Tue 14nd.--Local bands every Tuesday: Sexploitation, Twisted Roots, Heavy Heads Sun 19th.--Reggae Night with Mighty Charge Tue 21st.--Local bands: Left Nut, Scumflower, Chet

•BLACK GOOSE, 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover. Live piano music Monday through Friday from 5-7

•BLACK ROSE, 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos.. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress.

•BOATHOUSE, 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb.. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price.

•BORDER CAFE, 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb.. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB, 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

Wed 8th.--The Melons Thur 9th.--Q.E.D. Fri 10th.--The Lime Rockets Sat 11th.--Sat. and Sun. DJ Al Perez Mon 13th--Silas Jr. & the Hot Rib Blues Jam on Mon. Tue 14nd.--Calypso Hurricane Wed 15th--The Storm Dogs Thur 16th.--The Bicycle Thieves Fri 17th.--The Limit

•BOSTON BILLIARD CLUB, 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE, 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos.. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD, 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos.. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT, 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos.. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB, 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb.. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE, 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS), 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos.. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S, 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code.

Wed 8th.--Bad Newz, Keith Bownice Experience Fri 10th.--The Satanics, The Voodoo Dolls, Go to Blazes Sat 11th.--Mystery Jones Doghouse, Cleaopatra Jones Sun 12th.--The Real Kids, Nervous Eaters, Gang Green, Socket Mon 13th--Every Mon., Pajama-Jammy Blues Jam Tue 14nd.--Greenpeace Benefit: C-Creet, Common Ailments, Pax Romana Wed 15th--Die Monster Die, Dead Nude, Lurking About Thur 16th.--Restless Souls, Bugsy Crunch, Stampede, Shaytay Fri 17th.--The Lunachicks, crazy Alice, Sexpod, Snaky Acids Kiss Sat 18th.--The Atom Said, Laughing Academy, Inner Beauty, Different Drum Sun 19th.--Southern Junction, Courage Bros., 12 Strung Gypsy Tue 21st.--Legacy

•CACTUS CLUB, 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos.. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress.

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY, 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb.. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Porter, Tall Tale Pale Ale and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat.

Sat 11th.--The Motorvators Sat 18th.--Shy Five

•CANTAB LOUNGE, 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Central Square's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES, 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb.. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

•CASABLANCA, 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped.

•CASK, 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games.

•CELEBRATION, 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes.

•CHAMPION'S, 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos.. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S, 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.

Thur 9th.--Don White & Guest Fri 10th.--Marsia Shuron Harris Sat 11th.--Julie Woods & Rick Berlin Sun 12th.--The Kathy Phipps Showcase Thur 16th.--The Asa Brebner Showcase Fri 17th.--Focal Point & Guest Sat 18th.--Martin Sexton Sun 19th.--Dean Stevens & Eric Kilburn

•CITYSIDE, 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

Wed 8th.--Shawn and Jamie Thur 9th.--Swinging Johnson's Fri 10th.--Fri. and Sat. Stormdogs Sun 12th.--3-7pm Chad Lamarsh, 8:30pm Chris Wales Mon 13th--Steve Caraway Tue 14nd.--Tremors Wed 15th--Tim Crandall Thur 16th.--Out of the Blue Fri 17th.--C-Jammers Sun 19th.--3-7pm Dave Tecce, 8:30pm Chris Wales Mon 20th.--Dave Tecce Tue 21st.--Used Blues

•THE CLADDAGH, 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos.. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress.

Wed 8th.--Every Wed. is Blues Night

•CLARKE'S, 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos.. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant

Don't get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable livingroom chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over two hundred years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty-five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country; 212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:30-12:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00
Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30, Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

It's Sunsets and Seafood at the Boston Sail Loft

by Theron Hopkins

It's summer. You're meeting friends for a drink after a long day surrounded by mounds of paperwork and artificial air in an office that made you long for either a sweater or a bathing suit. You need a break. You need solace and relaxation. Your friends have suggested a downtown bar. You picture yourself there, elbowing your way to the bar for that first cocktail - dealing with the loud music, oppressive smoke and unimaginative pickup lines in the overcrowded spot. Is this what you deserve?

You call your friends and suggest a spot where you can sit on a patio overlooking the Charles River while enjoying a freshly prepared Strawberry Daiquiri or an ice cold Bass. Sailboats drift lazily by and the cool, early evening breeze caresses the trees that line the front of the patio. Welcome to the Boston Sail Loft in Cambridge.

Michael Powers

It's just over the Longfellow Bridge on the fringe of Kendall Square, with a rare and splendid view of Memorial Drive and the Charles River.

Along with its sister restaurant on Atlantic Avenue in Boston, the Sail Loft has long been known for its fresh seafood and relaxing dining and proximity to the water. However, this summer the Loft has opened an outdoor bar to accompany the indoor bar that is a favorite stopping-off place for the Kendall Square working crowd. But they're not the only ones who frequent this spot. You'll find a mix of couples and singles - young and old alike - appreciating something not often found in other establishments around town: a place to regroup, enjoy the sunset and feel like they're far away from the city.

On the Fourth of July, the Sail Loft christened its new outdoor offering to many full stomachs and smiles from its patrons. Although the bar was packed, there was still plenty of room to relax at the outdoor tables as the spectacle of Independence Day in Boston unfolded all around.

Equally impressive was the outgoing service that the staff offered. They were knowledgeable and prepared to provide an atmosphere that was long on enjoyment and short on discomfort.

Since the July 4 opening, the outdoor bar at the Sail Loft is open on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights from 5 p.m. to 1 a.m. and for dinner and drinks on other evenings as well.

Besides cocktails, the Sail Loft offers a solid list of appetizers headlined by a plate of potato (or is it potatoe?) skins that may be tough to beat anywhere else in town for its $5.95 price. These skins aren't for the faint of heart or the high of blood pressure, but for appetizer aficionados they are a must. For seafood lovers, the Loft offers deep fried Calamari rings ($5.95) that are fresh off the boat and difficult to resist. The Mexican food fiend is not overlooked, as the Sail Loft serves small, medium, and large nacho platters piled high with chili, guacamole, cheese and salsa.

The Sail Loft in Cambridge is located at 1 Memorial Drive. There is limited parking in front of the restaurant and validated parking in the building garage. ❑

The Boston Sail Loft

$$

One Memorial Drive
Cambridge

Phone: 225-2222

Hours: Last Call 12:30

•CLUB 3, 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

Wed 8th.--House of Fire, Rundfunk Haus Thur 9th.--New Family Dog, Soma Crush, Molly McGuires Fri 10th.--Tommy's Drakiing Thrush, Dreams Made Flesh Sat 11th.--Collectics, Black & Grey Sun 12th.--Amyl's Demo Tape and Jam Nite Wed 15th--QED Thur 16th.--Coors Girls, Johnny Dakota and Strike Fri 17th.--Big Blues Meanies, Hybrid Minds Sat 18th.--Dave LaRue Band with Jon Finn and Guy Smille Sun 19th.--Amyl's Rock n' Roll Blues Jam

•CLUB M-80, 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances.

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY, 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos.. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!

Fri 10th.--Calypso Hurricane Sat 11th.--Diversity Fri 17th.--The Search Party Sat 18th.--Kirkland Bodie

•COPPERFIELD'S, 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos.. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must.

•COTTONWOOD CAFE, 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months.

•CRICKET'S, 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress.

Wed 8th.--Every Wed. Calypso Hurricane Thur 9th.--Every Thur. Hamish and Dave Fri 10th.--Fri. & Sat. Uptown Acapella Sun 12th.--4-7pm North Shore Acapella, 8pm The Hot Shots Mon 13th--Every Mon. Hamish and Dave Tue 14nd.--Every Tues. North Shore Acapella Sat 18th.--North Shore Acapella Sun 19th.--4-7pm North Shore Acapella

•DAD'S DINER, 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos.. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S, 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos.. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS, 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR, 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos.. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear.

•DIVISION 16, 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos.. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress.

•DOCKSIDE, 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos.. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs.

•ED BURKE'S, 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos.. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual..

Thur 9th.--God Street Wine Fri 10th.--Rick Russell Band and the Cadillac Horns Sat 11th.--Chuck Norris and Sidewalk Dives with Part Time Lovers Mon 13th-- Fri 17th.--Mark Hummel Band

•EDIBLE REX, 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required.

Wed 8th.--Thanks to Gravity, Q36, What's In the Fridge? Thur 9th.--12 Strung Gypsy, Erogenous Jones Fri 10th.--Genocide, Bitch's Brew, The Pact Sat 11th.--Zen Underfire, Talking to Animals, Curious Ritual, Miranda Warning Wed 15th--Phlange, Square Pyramid Thur 16th.--Placebo, Highway Child, Dead Flower Fri 17th.--No Way Out, Amazing Mud Shark, Laurie Sargent Sat 18th.--Facts About Rats, Opium Den, The Tulips, Sexploitation

•ELIOT LOUNGE, 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches.

•FRED P. OTT'S, 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos.. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line.

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL, 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment.

•GREEN BRIAR, 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress.

Wed 8th.--Karaoke every Wed. Thur 9th.--Mark Morris & Catunes Fri 10th.--Classic Trax Sat 11th.--Tim Crandall Sun 12th.--Every Sun. is DJ Chris Mon 13th--Irish Sessiun every Mon. Tue 14nd.--Tim Crandall Thur 16th.--Dennis Healy band Fri 17th.--Swinging Johnson's Sat 18th.--Erin's Melody Mon 20th.--Irish Sessiun Tue 21st.--Tim Crandall

•GRENDEL'S DEN, 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb.. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code.

•GROG, 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy).

Thur 9th.--Dr. Humble and the Super Bees Fri 10th.--Jump Street Sat 11th.--The Boston Rockabilly Music Company Sun 12th.--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. from 6-11pm Mon 13th--Cabaret is every Monday from 8-10pm Thur 16th.--Joe Lily and the Hometown Heros Fri 17th.--The Henry Welch Band Fri. and Sat. Sun 19th.--Blues Party

•GROVERS, (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies.

•HARBOR CLUB, 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos.. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline.

BARS & CLUBS

Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons.

•HARD ROCK CAFE, 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos.. Sure it's trendy and sure it's touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway.

•HARPER'S FERRY, 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required.

Wed 8th.--Duke Robillard with the Rick Russell Band Thur 9th.--Finals of the Battle of the Blues Bands Fri 10th.--Motor City Rhythm Kings Sat 11th.--Big Blues Meanies Sun 12th.--Spend Sunday Evenings with Boston's Only Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 13th--Upper U.S. Tue 14nd.--The Rockin' Blues Jam with Chance Gardner every Tues. (Come on down and DANCE, DANCE, DANCE!) Wed 15th--Rick Russell's Open Mike Blues Jam Thur 16th.--Prescription Horns Fri 17th.--Heavy Metal Horns Sat 18th.--Larry McCray Mon 20th.--Rhythm Rockers

•HONG KONG LOUNGE, 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover.

•HOULIHAN'S, 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS, 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos.. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu.

•INDIGO, 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb.. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code.

•JACOB WIRTH'S, 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos.. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS, 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos.. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal.

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE, 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos.. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm.

•JOHNNY D'S , 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing..

Wed 8th.--Chris Duarte Thur 9th.--Who's Kiddin Who, Hypnotic Clambake Fri 10th.--Brave Combo Sat 11th.--Annabouboulla Sun 12th.--Blues Jam every Sun. Tue 14nd.--Chris Chandeler, Jim Infantino Wed 15th--Pheromones Thur 16th.--Tish Hinojosa Band Fri 17th.--Barrence Whitfield Sat 18th.--Boston Baked Blues Tue 21st.--Bob Zentz

•KENDALL CAFE, 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb.. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code.

•KINVARA PUB, 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code..

Wed 8th.--5-0 Thur 9th.--DJ Edgar spins every Thurs. Fri 10th.--The Irish Beat Sat 11th.--D'Altar Boys Sun 12th.--Joe O'Meara & Shoot the Moon Mon 13th--Donnegal Cordorise Tue 14nd.--Luck of the Draw Darts every Tues. Wed 15th--The Poor Boys Fri 17th.--Doe-Brothers Sat 18th.--Sat. and Sun., Joe O'Meara and Shoot the Moon Mon 20th.--Donnegal Cordorise

•LAST HURRAH, 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos.. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors the former Boston Mayor, James Michael Curley. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights.

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE, 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos.. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S , 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos.. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code.

•THE LITTLEST BAR, 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays..

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S, 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover..

•MANRAY, 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb.. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged..

Wed 8th.--Every Wed. is Industrial Rage Fri 10th.--Laibach Sat 11th.--Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence every Sat. Sun 12th.--Women of Underground Rock Fri 17th.--Suicide

•MARKET PLACE CAFE, 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress.

•MAXWELL JUMPS, , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor..

Wed 8th.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 9th.--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 10th.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 11th.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 13th--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 14nd.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR, 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos.. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS, 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance club located near downtown crossing and the Boston Opera House. The crowd consists of mostly young professionals. Proper dress required, open for lunch and dinner.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT, 354-5434, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb.. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere..

Wed 8th.--Kudgel, Brick Bat, Deluxx, 10 Tiger Slugs Thur 9th.--Squid, The Mighty Kong,Legion of Doom Fri 10th.--Stolen Equipment Benefit for Left Nut Sat 11th.--Pearl Gandalia and The Brazilian Connection Sun 12th.--Bad Trip, Only Living Witness, Slap of Reality, Arise, Stand Against, Reprise Mon 13th--Jazz with Stan Strickland & Friends Tue 14nd.--Bob Evans, Dr. Rain, Suck, A.C., Bloepoke Joe and the Roadhogs Wed 15th--Everyday Moses, Dr. Rain, Lawn Marys, Randomhouse, Oversoul Seven Thur 16th.--From Good Homes, The Wheelers and Dealers, Xanna Dont, Naked Lunch Box, Angela Petragli Fri 17th.--Dam Builders, Pouch, The Grifters, The Sextons Sat 18th.--The Second Step Sun 19th.--Tree, Upperhand, Dread, Dear Life, Scratch, Chevy S-10, Whitey Mon 20th.--Jazz with The Bruce Bartlett Group Tue 21st.--Marcribot, Rootless Cosmopolitans

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE, 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. .

•MR. DOOLEY'S, 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from 11 to 5 followed by a selsiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartendersli You never know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint)..

Mon 13th--Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX, 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos.. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB, 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos.. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.

•NARCISSUS, 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos.. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE, 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb.. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Wed 8th.--Hybrid Minds, Play Rough Creative Force & The Cynch (18+) Wed 15th--The Gypsy Mechanics, Mercy Beat & One Eyed Jake (18+) Thur 16th.--Thomas Mapfumo & The Blacks Unlimited Fri 17th.--The Heretix

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB, 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos.. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show.

Fri 10th.--Big Catholic Guilt with Wrecking Crew and Blister Sat 11th.--Levitation with Chainsaw Kittens Tue 14nd.--Helmet with Crawl Pappy Wed 15th--Pipes Thur 16th.--Electrica Fri 17th.--Concussion Ensemble

•PASSIM , 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb.. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch Inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

•PERRY'S, 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S, 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher

THURSDAYS
Dance
DJ Mike Lynch
Playing Your Favorites
$1 Cover

ALLEY CAT LOUNGE

"Where Cool Cats Meet
To Tip A Few Back"

1 Boylston Place • Boston • USA • 451-6200

Corrib Pub and Restaurant
Serving Fine Food and Drink
Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials
Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood
Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees
Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95
Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

CLUB
BOONOONONOS
HARVARD SQUARE
LIVE REGGAE
THURSDAYS, 10:30PM
THURSDAY, JULY 9
TECHNOPHONIC
From Hartford, CT
THURSDAY, JULY 16
MIGHTY CHARGE
CO-SPONSORED BY
WERS 88.9FM
CALL 661-0167

BARS & CLUBS

and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress.
Fri 10th.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA, 267-5300, t38 St. James Ave., Bos.. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 1t:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS, 492-9653, 9t2 Mass. Ave., Camb.. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE, 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos.. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night.

•PURPLE SHAMROCK, 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos.. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu.

•RATHSKELLER, 536-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, t0,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code.
Thur 9th.--Bone Horses, Twister, Medicine Pipe Fri 10th.--Parade, Jigglescreen, Jamie Shayler, Crooked Show Sat 18th.--The Fighting Cocks

• RED HAT, 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos.. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGGATA BAR, 864-t200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb.. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.
Wed 8th.--The Happy Feet Dance Orchestra

•RITZ BAR, 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos.. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•ROXY, 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos.. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required..

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB, 876-9330, 2t2 Hampshire St., Camb.. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress.
Fri 10th.--Fri. and Sat., Kat in the Hat Band Tue 14nd.--Tues. In July, Jazz Jam with Trudy Sandhous & Friends Fri 17th.--Fri. and Sat., Cosmos Factory

•SCULLERS LOUNGE, 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb.. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..
Wed 8th.--String Talk and The Eric Pruesser Trio Thur 9th.--Semenya McCord Fri 10th.--Fri. and Sat., Houston Person & Etta Jones Tue 14nd.--David Azarian Quartet Wed 15th--Toni Lynn Washington Band Thur 16th.--Marlon Meadows Live Broadcast Fri 17th.--Fri. and Sat., Gil Scott Express and The Amnesia Express Tue 21st.--Gerry Beaudoin Jazz Ensemble

•SEVENS, 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos.. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S, , 59 JFK St., Camb.. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress.

•SWEETWATER CAFE, 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE, 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb.. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code..
Wed 8th.--Cotton Mouth with Dirt Mechanics, Outback and Crabby Appleton Thur 9th.--Dantes Grin with Tornado Room, Feldman's & Naked Lunchbox Fri 10th.--Letter to Cleo with Trojan Ponies, The Barnies and Jigsaws Sat 11th.--Gigolo Aunts with Rods and Cones and Sunspots Sun 12th.--Svengali Cafe Mon 13th--Stone Soup Poetry- Lewis Hammond Stone and Marvyn Petrucci Tue 14nd.--Minutes To Go with Razor's Edge and Special Guests Wed 15th--12 Strung Gypsy with Thurn and Taxis and The Still Thur 16th.--When I Woke with Thurn and Taxis and The Still Fri 17th.--Green Magnet School with Cell and Sensurround

•T'S PUB, 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER, 277-0982, t648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress.
Wed 8th.--Returnables, Blackwells Thur 9th.--Dertonz Fri 10th.--Search Party Sat 11th.--The Band that Time Forgot Sun 12th.--The Allens & Milc Mon 13th--Jazz Trio and Open Jam every Mon. Tue 14nd.--Acoustic Night with Jim Majorowski, Freddie K and the Breeze Wed 15th--Knots & Crosses Thur 16th.--Asian t3, Maniacal Choir Fri 17th.--The Courage Brothers Sat 18th.--Laurie Sargent Sun 19th.--Song Ready Showcase Tue 21st.--Poco Loco

•33 DUNSTER STREET, 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb.. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch.

Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm..

•VENUS DE MILO, 42t-9595, 1t Lansdowne St., Bos.. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted.
Tue 14nd.--Local bands every Tues.

•WALLY'S, 424-t408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos.. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat..
Wed 8th.--Tedros Thur 9th.--Alan Fri 10th.--Fri. and Sat., John Smith Sun 12th.--Rivers Mon 13th--F.T.F. Wed 15th--Schedule is same as last week

•WARREN TAVERN, 241-8t42, 2 Pleasant St., Boston. A funky little bar whose clientiele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is alwayson for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive.

•WESTERN FRONT, 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb.. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress..

•WHO'S ON FIRST, 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos.. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB, 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (42t-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code..
Wed 8th.--The Fringe performs every Wednesday Thur 9th.--Lelo Molinari Quintet Fri 10th.--Fri. and Sat.,Tom Pollard Quartet Sun 12th.--Bob Baughman, Jim Repa Quintet Mon 13th--Steve Altenberg Quartet Tue 14nd.--Charles Kohlase Quintet Thur 16th.--Mon 13th--Steve Altenberg Quartet Tue 14nd.--Charles Kohlase Quintet Thur 16th.--Lelo Molinari Quintet Fri 17th.--Fri. and Sat., D.K. Trio Sun 19th.--Susan Welby Mon 20th.--Raphae Malik Group Tue 21st.--Phil Person Quartet •ZANZIBAR, 45t-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos.. This large two-story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. Cover varies. Proper Dress req.

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

HOT TICKET

The Improper Bostonian Recommends these shows for some of the area's best entertainment!

July 9-11 Jimmy Buffet
Great Woods, ($25.00/$18.00)
July 13 Ozzy Osbourne
Great Woods, ($22.50-$17.50)
July 16 Reggae Sunsplash
Great Woods, ($20.00/$15.00)
July 17 John Mellencamp
Great Woods, ($37.00-$19.50)
July 25 Paula Abdul/Color Me Badd
Great Woods, ($22.50-$15.50)
July 26 Dolly Parton
Great Woods, ($25.00)
July 31 Beach Boys
Great Woods, ($21.50-$17.50)
July 31 Guns N' Roses, Metallica, Faith No More
Foxboro Stadium, ($27.50)

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8 KC 7:35	9 CHI 7:35	10 CHI 7:35	11 CHI 1:05
12 CHI 1:05	13	14	15	16 MIN 8:05	17 MIN 8:05	18 MIN 1:05
19 MIN 2:05	20 KC 8:35	21 KC 8:35	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 7:35	19 CAL 7:35	20 CAL 7:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 30 CAL	24 OAK 31 SEA	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:05	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 NY 1:05

Away
Home

TV GAMES ON WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

Edited by
Kathy Matheson

CONCERTS

Bud Light Summer Music Series
Charles Sq. Courtyard, Cambridge 491-5282
Come down to Charles Square for free music every Wednesday from 6-7 pm. The Story will play July 8, Greg Greenway will play July 15, and Calypso Hurricane will be here July 22.

Cambridge Brewing Co.
1 Kendall Sq. Building 100, Cambridge
Have a beer and catch some tunes at the Saturday Night Music Series. On July 11 The Motorvators will play, and on July 18, Shy Five. Only a $3 cover at the door.

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge
The Bach's Lunch Series continues with concerts on July 8, 15, and 22. The concerts begin at 12:15 and admission is free.

The Surrey Room
381 Summer St., Davis Sq., Somerville
Every Sunday night from 8 to 11:45 pm the Cellar Dwellers Blues Band and Circus from Hell play at Surrey Room. Admission is free.

EXHIBITS

Boston University
Mugar Memorial Library, 771 Comm. Ave., 353-3728
"It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" is now on display. Admission is free. The library's hours are Monday-Thursday 8 am to 11 pm, Friday and Saturday 8 am to 5 pm, and Sunday 10 am to 11 pm.

Enigma Nine
32 Rugg Rd. #9, Allston
Who says art isn't functional? Enigma Nine, an alternative art gallery, recently opened a mini golf course with the hole themes a little more focused on reality. Hours are Sat. 1-8pm and Sun. 1-5 pm. Only a $2 donation is requested. Call 783-9170.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
266-5152
Cost: $4, $1 Student Discount with presentation of a valid ID.
Free Admission: Thur. 5-8pm.
Hours: Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm., Sun.,Tues., and Wed., 11am-5pm. Closed Mondays.
The Annie Leibovitz exhibit runs until July 26. The exhibit is open seven days a week from 10am to 9pm. Tickets are only $5 and can be purchased in advance thru the ICA or Ticketmaster.

FILMS

Bill's Bar
Landsdowne St., Boston
Every Monday night BIll's hosts Monday Night Movie Madness. SRS Films shows independent films and music videos before the evenings featured film. Films start at 9pm. Admission is free, along with the popcorn.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston, 536-5400
The BPL's Summer Film Festival is paying tribute to Marilyn Monroe with a series of her movies. All movies are free and begin at 6 pm. On July 14, Niagara will be shown, and on July 21, come see why Gentlemen Prefer Blondes.

Boston University
George Sherman Union, 775 Comm. Ave, Boston
BU's summer film festival will continue on Tuesdays at 7pm until August 4 . All films are shown in the Conference room of the GSU. Showing on July 14 is Defending Your Life and on July 21 is The Commitments.

Performing Arts Series at the Hatch Shell
On the Esplanade, Boston
Summer is here and WBZ and the MDC are again hosting Free Friday Flicks at the Hatch Shell. Showing on July 10 is "An Evening of the Three Stooges," and on July17 Wayne's World will be shown. Movies begin at 8pm and admission is free.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Observatory Open Night
Boston University, 705 Comm. Ave.
Observatory Open Night is held every clear Wednesday from 8 to 9pm Astronomers will be there to answer questions and assist with telescopes. For more information, call 353-2630 after 5:30pm on Wednesdays.

TOURS

Boston Garden
North Station, Boston, 227-3206
The Boston Garden History Center is offering guided tours about 45 minutes long that include a tour of the parquet, banners, and team locker room. Prices are $5 for adults, $3.50 for children and $4 for senior citizens and students.

Christian Science Publishing Society
1 Norway St. (off Dartmouth), Boston
Walk through the world in a giant globe made out of stained glass. The Mapparium has a 30-foot diameter and 24-hr. clocks that show the time zone in any region. Don't forget to experience the acoustics. Admission is free. Hours are 9:30 to 4pm daily.

Commonwealth Brewing Co.
138 Portland St., Boston
The Brewing Co. holds free tours on Saturdays at 3:30 and Sundays at noon.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
On Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm, the brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a $1 contribution is requested.

VOLUNTEERING

Women's Lunch Place
67 Newbury St., Boston
Use some of your Free Boston time to volunteer at the Lunch Place on Saturdays for the summer. Volunteers are needed between 7:30am and 3pm with many available shifts. Call 267-1722.

We welcome submissions of free and discount events to this section. Please send pertinent information including prices, dates, telephone number and contact person to: Free Boston, The Improper Bostonian, c/o Deborah Pirraglia,P.O. Box 820 Brookline Village, MA 02147- 0820, Or fax to (617)232-4305

We're Looking For a Few Stars

Boston's fastest growing newspaper is now taking on many additional employees. If you're hard working, possess outstanding talent and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success. We offer unparalleled opportunity, plenty of responsibility and a fun working environment.

Account Executives

If you have achieved success in print or radio advertising sales and would like an opportunity to earn higher levels of income while working in the charged environment of a start-up, here's your chance. The Improper Bostonian is looking for a few experienced and proven account executives for its rapidly expanding sales staff. Must possess outstanding interpersonal skills and strong work habits.
Entry level account executive positions also available.

Advertising Sales Manager

We have an opening for a hard working, ambitious, experienced sales manager. Must have a fantastic sense of humor, several years of print advertising experience and a proven track record, preferably in the Boston market.
Send all resumes directly to the Publisher or call 232-3507 for more details.

Distribution Staff

Looking for steady work a few days a week. Make $5 to $10 per hour delivering The Improper Bostonian in your spare time. Must have valid driver's license. Automobile preferred.

Classified Account Executives

Break into advertising sales through our soon to be expanded Classified Advertising department. Must have pleasant phone voice and experience dealing with people. Computer knowledge a plus.

Photo Journalist

Freelance Writers

Movie Critic

Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.

Please send all resumes to: or FAX it to 232-4305
The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

American Security Bureau

American Security Bureau is a multi-service security company. At A.S.B. we offer the highest degree of competence, courtesy and professionalism on all work assignments no matter how large or small.
Most of our employees have ten plus years experience in various aspects of the security field.

Services Offered
- Bodyguards: Armed and Unarmed
- Repossession Work
- Escort Services
- Investigative Work
- Bounty Tracers
- Alarm Installation (Commercial and Resdential)
- Security Consulting Seminars

A.S.B is a fully insured and bonded, incorporated security company.

24 HOUR SERVICE
945-4269
5 Daniel Ct.
Hyde Park , MA 02136

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Lenny (the CVS man), I'm not sure what your problem is but don't let life pass you by.
R.

Dear Sockman,
Thanks! I know I have sexy legs and let me tell you that's not all! Yes, men are better than boy's so I'll stick with the men.
R.

Denton-
I am still waiting for the lunch you promised at Bob the Chefs.
-Your X-
Receptionist/Secretay

Jon,
Congrats on passing what few managed to achieve. You definitely deserve your degree. Plus, it means I get to go to Oxford!
Your little sis

My Gorgeous Man!
I love you and thanks for being such a great friend and lover! I hope we stay close always and forever.
Rita

SK,
Thanks for the fax, but I'd rather see you in person! Why does jury duty have to exist when I want to take you away to the wilds of Wisconsin?
Love, JL

Alex,
I'm hot. Turn on the A.C. or take me for a cool ride on your new bike.
The Office Administrator

Jen,
I hope my white tennis shorts come back to me without skidmarks.
TC Man

Pam,
You're much too nice a friend! And I really think you should just talk to the boy and find out what's up.
-J

Vicomte de Valmont:
Had any Cherry Garcia lately? I know you miss me blind! Whatever happened to always separation, NEVER divorce!
-Chestnut

Michelle,
You have enough body hair to carpet Texas! Buy a razor and shave.
HaroldP.S. - Have another fudgesickle.

John-John,
Thanks for the awesome gift from Armani. Can't wait to show it off. Thanks for keeping me going-you're a friend indeed.
Love, W.E.

Bowdoin Squad- Engine 4
Let's have that dinner. We'll supply the fuel and you can tend the fire! You won't have to return the wine!
-Irving Street, not #17

Michael, my knight in shining armor. Thanks for helping the lady in distress on rte. 16. You were a lifesaver. I made it home without any trouble, but the next day brought another problem and you didn't show. Thanks again.
-Lynne

Archie-
It has been your lucky week, now when is it going to be my lucky night?
-You know who!

Rucola woman- Words cannot express my delighted surprise to see you and Larry in Pomodoro the other night. Boy, you have some serious powers of persuation!

Mon Amie Evan- boy did we miss you while you were gone! It may have only been three days, but it seemed like three weeks! By the way, did you know that my goal for the summer is to have thighs as hard as yours? -
Erica

Dale- I heard that you played hookey from work last thursday and went to the pool, is that true? Way to go!!! p.s. thanks again for revamping my resume.

Chris- I don't know if you remember me, but we met last Sunday on Memorial drive. Hope we will roll into each other again soon.

Anna, are you reading the Improper Bostonian when you are supposed to be working? I certainly hope so! Give me a call sometime, I miss you.

Mon ami Michel,
"Je ne sais pas" est bon,
Merci.
Genevieve

What kind of a spaced out, thoughtless jerk would run in the middle of the narrowest path along the Charles? Stay to the right, please, some of us carry weapons.

Harvey- Your speech therapy seems to be progressing just fine. And by the way, being a man of little words is not really all it's cracked up to be, so keep on talking.

JL- thanks for the delicious cookies. Next time you feel guilty about leaving work early, how about some bagels and cream cheese? -From your loving co-workers.

If you kiss a prince and he turns and hops away, does that automatically mean he was a frog all along?

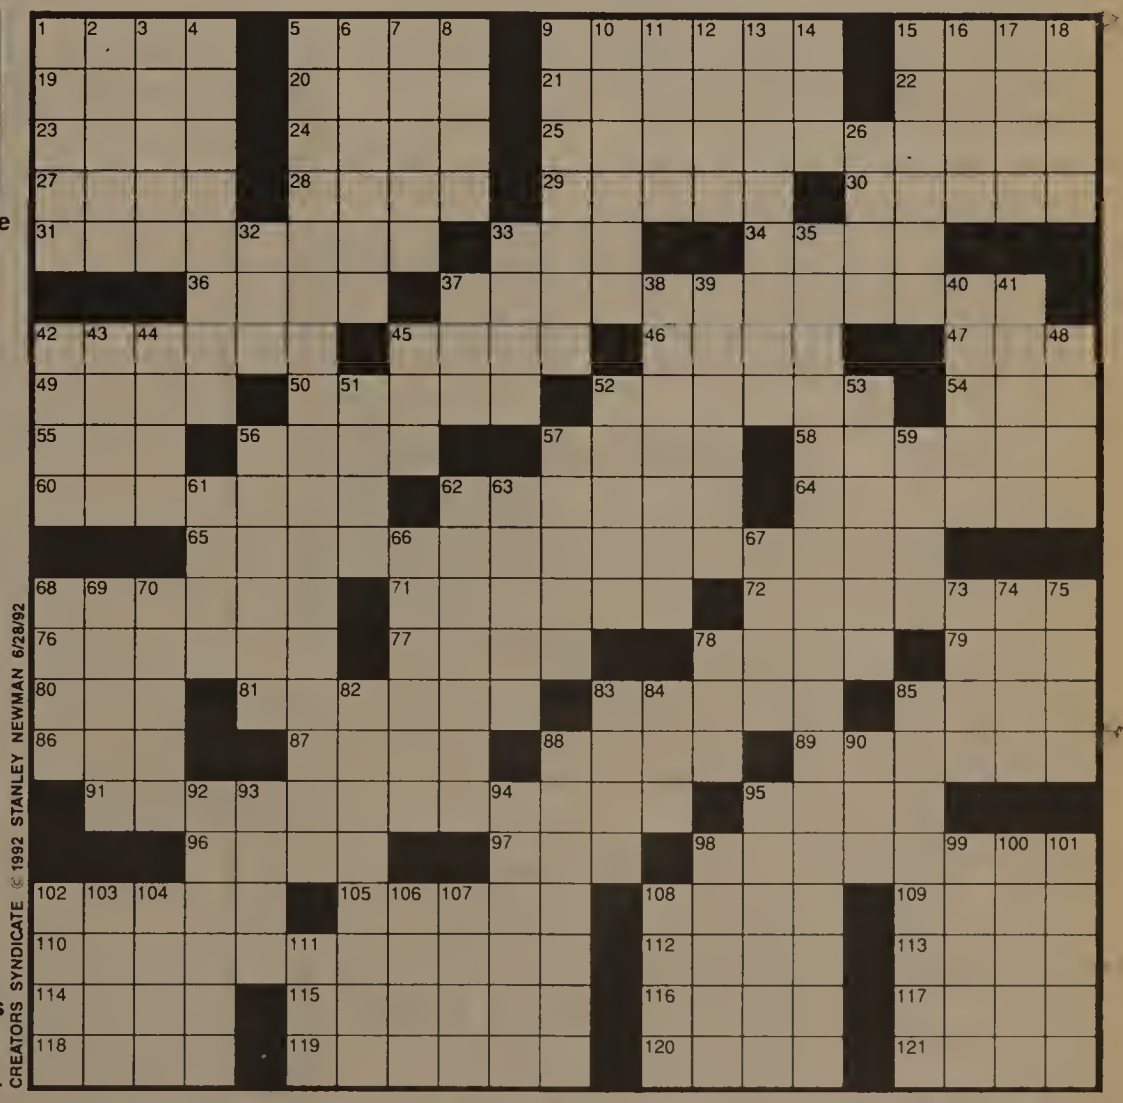
Marcy, the most beautiful baby born 6/27/92. Born to great parents and wonderful aunts and uncles.Love from your favorite uncle. Uncle T.

To all me Improper Pals!
Thanks for the memories.
Good lord P.W.

Happy Birthday
Kimmy Hee-Haw!!

Hope you had fun on the Vineyard.
-Love, Jenny

To the doctor that lives on Harvard St.-
You have the sexiest legs I've ever seen.
-An admirer from afar - too far



The Improper Bostonian welcomes you to berate someone with your own personal message. Thery're free, so send your Impersonals to The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman

OPPOSITE ATTRACTION: Antonyms in close company

by Wayne Robert Williams

CREATORS SYNDICATE © 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN 6/28/92

ACROSS

1 Cool it
5 Lateral prefix
9 Lines of cliffs
15 Joyce Carol Oates novel
19 Finished, for short
20 Surrounding atmosphere
21 Informal restaurant
22 "Ta-__-Boom-De-Ré"
23 Laws: Abbr.
24 Give autographs
25 Of a territorial governor
27 Bryce Canyon's state
28 Very, in Verdun
29 Actress Van Devere
30 Newsstand
31 Work force
33 Author Buscaglia
34 Spots in the Seine
36 Shoshonean Indians
37 Dustin Hoffman film of '70
42 Circus props
45 Female swans
46 Authentic: Abbr.
47 __ Abner
49 Blue shade
50 Express gratitude
52 Scythe cuts
54 "__ been robbed!"
55 Math subj.
56 Evangelist Roberts
57 Take Her, __ Mine
58 Macbeth noblemen
60 Betty Ford, née __
62 Full-grown
64 Mt. St. __, WA
65 Classic Supreme Court oxymoron
68 Richardson heroine
71 Thought the world of 72 Flyer's hazard
76 Ottoman inn
77 Khartoum's river
78 Guns the motor
79 Kayak propeller
80 Auto-race area
81 Shinbone-related
83 All in
85 Abu Dhabi honcho
86 USN rank
87 Remove from office
88 In perfect condition
89 Sits on the fence
91 Stranded
95 Final Analysis star
96 Part of MIT
97 Simple shelter
98 "Eternal" relationship
102 Also-ran
105 NHL team, in headlines
108 Dull situation
109 Pitcher Hershiser
110 "The Highwayman" poet
112 In the chips
113 Ruination
114 Full-grown
115 At leisure
116 Drive the getaway car
117 Frank Herbert classic
118 Blair Brown role
119 Michaels and Greene
120 Garden plots
121 Pole on a ship

DOWN

1 Play the banjo
2 Greek letter
3 Bach's instrument
4 Hum-reducing circuit
5 Cold War concern
6 Paper units
7 Lobbyist, for instance
8 Fleming and McShane
9 Medium-sized bands
10 Donkey's enticement
11 Thine: Fr.
12 LPs
13 Rule out
14 Equivalent wd.
15 Maxim
16 Ring of saints
17 Time periods
18 Gospel writer
26 Water-ski rudder
32 Legendary Giant
33 It may be missing
35 Archie Moore and Maxie Rosenbloom
37 Deighton or Dawson
38 Brought down
39 Clears the tape
40 Dress style
41 Filmdom's Phileas Fogg
42 Wild guess
43 Rossini subject
44 Othello's nemesis
45 Good buddy
48 Not as much
51 Mata __
52 On the Beach author
53 Diaphanous materials
56 Brunch offering
57 Take a long look
59 Betsy's Wedding star
61 Polish/German border river
62 Act as go-between
63 On __ (playing well)
66 Send packing
67 Jury member
68 Bubble maker
69 __ acids
70 Island in the news in '58
73 Awaken, with "to"
74 Narrow margin
75 Goes wrong
78 Turn informer
82 Interrupt
83 Big name in pro basketball
84 Finale
85 50-50 proposition
88 Fluffy desserts
90 Southern constellation
92 Like wedding cakes
93 Concerning
94 Burger topping
95 Brought class to
98 Big family
99 Aggregation
100 Ms. Helmsley
101 Sinclair Lewis character
102 Certain shortening
103 Miscellany
104 Dirty Harry's employer: Abbr.
106 Evening in Paris
107 Where the Rhone meets the Saône
108 Cheerless
111 Australian cash: Abbr.

CLASSIFIEDS

LOOK FOR NEW IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIEDS !

STILL THE BEST WAY TO REACH OVER 190,000 OF THE BEST READERS IN TOWN!

AND WHEN YOU PLACE A NON-COMMERCIAL AD, WE WILL RUN IT UNTIL IT WORKS FOR JUST

$19! WHY PAY MORE?

IF YOU HAVE A NEW, SMALL OR MAIL ORDER BUSINESS, OR IF YOUR BUSINESS JUST ENJOYS THE CLASSIFIEDS, WE WILL RUN A DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENT FREE WHEN YOU RUN YOUR COMMERCIAL CLASSIFIED AD IN 6 ISSUES OF

CALL 232-3705 or FAX: 232-4305

The Improper Bostonian

MASTER CARD, VISA AND AMERICAN EXPRESS ACCEPTED

MORE INFORMATION BELOW.

Alterations/Design

ALTER EGO DESIGNS- Clothing/Home Item Alterations, Reconstruction and Repair. Pillows Custom Made. By Appt. Newbury St. Location. GREAT RATES! 332-0160

Apartments

Boston / Fenway Peterborough Gardens

Stu, 1,2 and 3 bed avail. close to public transportation, shopping, colleges and hospitals. No Fee.
From $475
HHW Inc.
247-3503

APT FOR RENT. 6 rooms each side. Prime Davis Sq location.One side, $900 tile bath. Other side $1100,11/2 tile bath. No utilities. Call 237-1992

WATERTOWN. House. 6 rooms up, 6 rooms down. Possible convert attic for in-law apt..Tile bath each floor. $209,000. Call 237-1992

Apartment Shares

ALLSTON, Roomate wanted: small room, clean bright apt.. Close to Harvard & BU/call Jen or Lee/783-0847/$300/MO I.e.

CAMBRIDGE, Near Galleria Prof. male seking roomate 2 bedroom apt. lt. housekeeping 864-0007

DAVID LOUIE PRODUCES!!

NEWTON, Beautiful large Victorian Home on quiet street near new library. 2 rooms available In 4 bedroom house. Several amenities. All util. included. Call Elspeth 244-1322

HOUSE FOR RENT

WATERTOWN SQUARE 3-5 bdrm. house. Beautiful, $900-$1500 Last & Sec. Req. (617)924-5174

House Wanted

RENT W/OPTION TO BUY A Single, 2-family or Large 2-Bedroom Condo. Must be reasonably priced. Would consider Handyman Special. Pref. loc. : Brookline,Newton or possibly Metro-west. Welll established Couple. Call John 247-2175

VACAT. RENTAL

HARWICH CAPE COD GREAT HOUSE. GREAT LOCATION. LAST 2 WEEKS OF AUGUST. ENJOY THE CAPE IN STYLE CALL ELSPETH AT 244-1322

CLEANING

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition Call Joey 776-1706

SEE SPOT RUN Residential cleaning service Boston and surrounding areas call 247-1009 10-4pm. Ref. upon request

Clothing/Tailoring

QUALITY pre-owned designer and better clothing.Do come browse! $$$ for your wardrobe.Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm daily. 739-3399. See display ad this page.

DATING

BEAUTIFUL CONNECTIONS Get Your Chance Now. Thousands of Beautiful Woman in South America Desire Romance and Marriage (617) 789-LOVE

DATE ANXIETY ?
RELAX
We can help you meet people for fun, romance or marriage.
Call United Dating Service
497-2944

Entertainment

"BROADWAY BABIES." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)396-0550 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744-4094

For Sale

BOAT FOR SALE. 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider. 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/ roller. New boat cover.Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617) 279-4857

FRIDGIDARE- Stackable wash/dryer $350. 2 Gas Stoves $75 each Rockwell 9 " Table Saw $400. Ind. Glass Sander $350. 1930's Sax $400 (617)924-5175

Health Services

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

TIRED, ACHING, MUSCLES? Then you knead a massage. Come in on your lunch break or after work. Mon-Tue-Wed 10am to 7pm $45/hr loc on Boylston St. across from the Boston Common. Call Mary Foster 617-643-8916 leave message. Certified and licensed.

Help Wanted

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DAYS A WEEK? How about doing a few deliveries around the Boston area? For more Info call 232-3507. Ask for Mark.

JOB FOR THE NINETIES. 100 Growth Occupations, Free Brochure; Reid Enterprises, 84B, Dept. TB, Harvard Ave, Allston, Ma 02134

INTERN NEEDED TO ASSIST INSIDE SALES MANAGER GREAT OPPORTUNITY CALL 232-3705 FOR MORE INFO.

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage license. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve267-7171

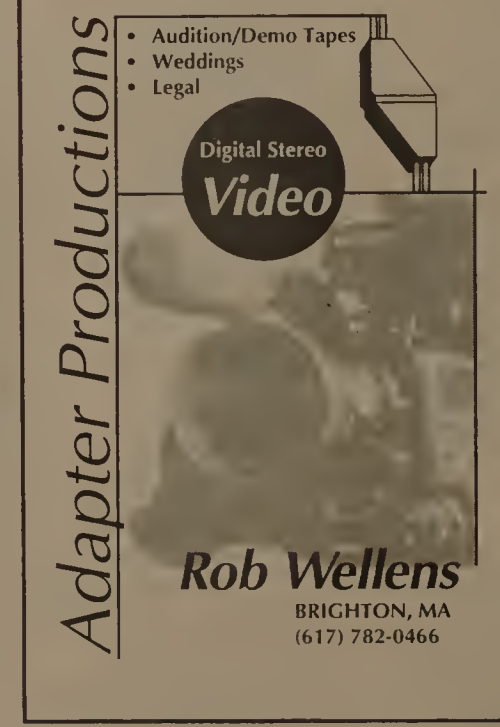
SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASE and HIV testing. Confidential doctors office. Robert Taylor, M.D. Brookline 232-1459

OZODU ASSOCIATES

Personalized Computer Services

868-2927 (1-800-982-3725)

Computer Software Training In a Beautiful, New Central Square Location



*PC Intro * Word Perfect * Desktop Publishing*
*Resumes * Voice Mail *Flex-Times * Affordable!*

552 Mass. Ave. * At Cambridge Business Ctr.

Adapter Productions

- Audition/Demo Tapes
- Weddings
- Legal

Digital Stereo Video

Rob Wellens
BRIGHTON, MA
(617) 782-0466

Silk Road Consignerie

Quality pre-owned designer and better clothing.
1368b Beacon Street
Brookline, Ma 02146
(617) 739-3399

Mon-Sat 11-6
Do come browse!
We buy and consign by appointment

RATES: NON-COMMERCIAL- $5 PER LINE. $15 FOR BOLD HEADLINE. COMMERCIAL- $7 PER LINE. $17 FOR BOLD HEADLINE.
THE $19. "RUN IT UNTIL IT WORKS" ADVERTISEMENTS ARE FOR NON-COMMERCIAL ADS ONLY. REAL ESTATE OWNERS WHO NEED PLACEMENT FOR MULTIPLE UNITS ARE SUBJECT TO COMMERCIAL RATES. COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS WHO PLACE A CLASSIFIED AD IN SIX CONSECUTIVE ISSUES WILL RECEIVE A 6 COLUMN INCH CLASSIFIED DISPLAY AD. COMMERCIAL CUSTOMERS THAT PREPAY FOR SIX ISSUES, MAY RECEIVE A CLASSIFIED DISPLAY IN ANY ISSUE THEY CHOOSE.
COPY REGULATIONS: ALL AD COPY IS SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BEFORE PUBLICATION. ANY AD DEEMED OBJECTIONABLE WILL BE EITHER EDITED OR REMOVED. THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN SHALL BE UNDER NO LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO INSERT AN ADVERTISEMENT. ANY ERRORS THAT DO NOT AFFECT THE MATERIAL VALUE OF THE AD WILL NOT BE CREDITED. ERRORS MUST BE REPORTED WITHIN THE FIRST WEEK OF PUBLICATION.
CANCELLATIONS AND CHARGES: ALL ADS MUST BE PREPAID. THERE WILL BE NO REFUNDS FOR CANCELED ADS. SPACE CREDITS WILL BE ISSUED FOR ADS CANCELLED BEFORE 5 P.M.ON THE THURSDAY BEFORE PUBLICATION. THERE ARE NO COPY CHANGES OR REFUNDS FOR NON-COMMERCIAL ADS. AGENCY DISCOUNTS:15% AGENCY DISCOUNTS APPLY. CALL FOR MORE INFORMATION.

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

AMERICAN EXPRESS · MasterCard · VISA

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

Advertise in
The Improper Bostonian Classifieds and Let Us Be
Your Vehicle to Success.

Miscellaneous

83 YAMAHA XT 550 MOTORCYCLE. 20K. Great cond. $900. Call 232-3507

Even The Improper Bostonian uses PRESSXPRESS (PXP), greater Boston's most comprehensive resource of event information. PXP researches and lists all events to which the public is invited up to ONE YEAR in advance -- everything from black-tie and cultural events to business seminars and conventions -- and transmits it weekly via fax. Just think of the possibilities for your business clients, organization or personal life! Stay in the know -- call PRESSXPRESS at (617) 742-2092 and ask for your free faxed sample today.

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles. Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

KEY-BORED? Berklee Prof offers private keyboard instruction. All levels, styles. Develop your potential! 617-628-7364

Team One
P.C. and Networking Consultants.
Call
(617)566-7358

INTENSE GUITAR LESSONS Whether you are a beginner, intermediate or advanced guitarist. Graig Glendenning will help you do it right. Lowest rates in town! 437-7051

VOICE LESSONS, Beginner to Intermediate, Jazz/Pop styles. Harmony, Ear Training, Sight Reading, Affordable. Sabina 787-4254

Painting

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition. Call Joey 776-1706

Paul Ward Lives!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Fax your ad to 232-4305

Services

HIRE ME TO Edit, proofread and write. Type or Wordprocess term papers, theses, resumes or whatever you need. RATES: Text Editing $25 per hr. WORD PROCESSING: $2.50 per double spaced page. $15 per Resume $4 per Cover Letter.
TODD LARSON
(617)738-1020

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

Looking to share your apartment? Run your apt. share ad until it works for just $19!!

Stuff Wanted

TABLE - Large enough to be used as a small conference table. Call 332-4710

LARGE Comfortable Couch wanted. Call 332-4710

ITEMS NEEDED - Large Kitchen Table, Juicer, VCR, Futon Bed Frame, Used MGB., Macintosh LC Call 899-9362

Tickets

Bay State Ticket
See our ad on page 35 for upcoming concerts.,and plays
617-731-4588

Rose Express
1 Dozen Long Stem Roses.
Free Delivery
$29.99
call 269-4444

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
The best classifieds in town.
Call 232-3705
or Fax 232-4305

CAPTURE YOUR MARKET

80 DATSUN B210 Wgn., Automatic, Stk. No. P269K	$799	81 PLYMOUTH ARROW P.U., Stk. No. P-633	$1395
83 TOYOTA TERCEL 2 Dr., Stk. No. 92-531A	$899	87 MERCURY TOPAZ Auto., AC, Stk. No. JG200	$2799
84 PLYMOUTH RELIANT 4 Dr., Stk. No. JG600	$995	84 NISSAN SENTRA 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92439A	$1999
81 TOYOTA TERCEL 2 Dr., Clean, Stk. No. IC211	$995	83 MERCURY COLONY PARK Wgn., Stk. No. P602A	$1995
80 OLDS CUTLASS 2 Dr., Stk. No. PIC10	$1299	88 DODGE SHADOW 2 Dr., Stk. No. 91782B	$2895
82 MERCURY CAPRI 2 Dr., Stk. No. 92067A	$1595	87 MERCURY GRAND MARQUIS 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92226A	$4995
85 OLDS CUTLASS 2 Dr., Stk. No. 92409A	$1999	86 MAZDA 626 TURBO 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92429A	$2995
86 FORD LTD BROUGHAM Stk. No. 92185B	$2995	85 LINCOLN TOWNCAR 4 Dr., dark blue, Stk. No. 92473B	$4495
86 DODGE RAM P.U., Stk. No. P636	$1995	86 FORD TEMPO 4 Dr., Stk. No. 92321A	$2995

BAD CREDIT? Don't Worry, We Finance.

ARLINGTON AUTO WHOLESALE
Arlington, Massachusetts
Call Mr. Green (617) 648-6538
Mon. - Fri. 10 - 7, Sat. 10 - 5, Sun. 12 - 4
MORE ARRIVING DAILY!

SPRING SPECIAL

MINTA 386DX/33 MHZ COMPUTER

- 64 K Cache • 4 MB Ram • 5¼" and 3½" High Density Disk Drives
- 120 MB Hard Disk • Super VGA 1024 x 768 Monitor (.28 Dot)
- 101 Key Keyboard • 2 Serial, 1 Parallel, 1 Game I/O
- Mouse • DOS 5.0 • Windows 3.0

• 5-DAY DELIVERY • LOCAL SUPPORT • ONLY $2135

CALL
XON Computers
17 Station St.
Brookline, MA
(617) 254-8413

2 YEAR GUARANTEE – NORMAL USE
Hard Disk 1 Year Guarantee

MAGAZINES BY JOSEPH

"WE BUY & SELL USED MAGAZINES"

279 Newbury Street
Boston, MA 02116

Hours

Sunday	Monday - Friday	Saturday
12:00-6:00	11:00 - 6:30	10:00-6:30

Reasonable Prices

HOW IMPORTANT IS THE RIGHT ROOMMATE?
RUN YOUR AD UNTIL IT WORKS FOR $19 AND

WIN A LIMO RIDE AND DINNER FOR TWO.

NEW FROM THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIEDS

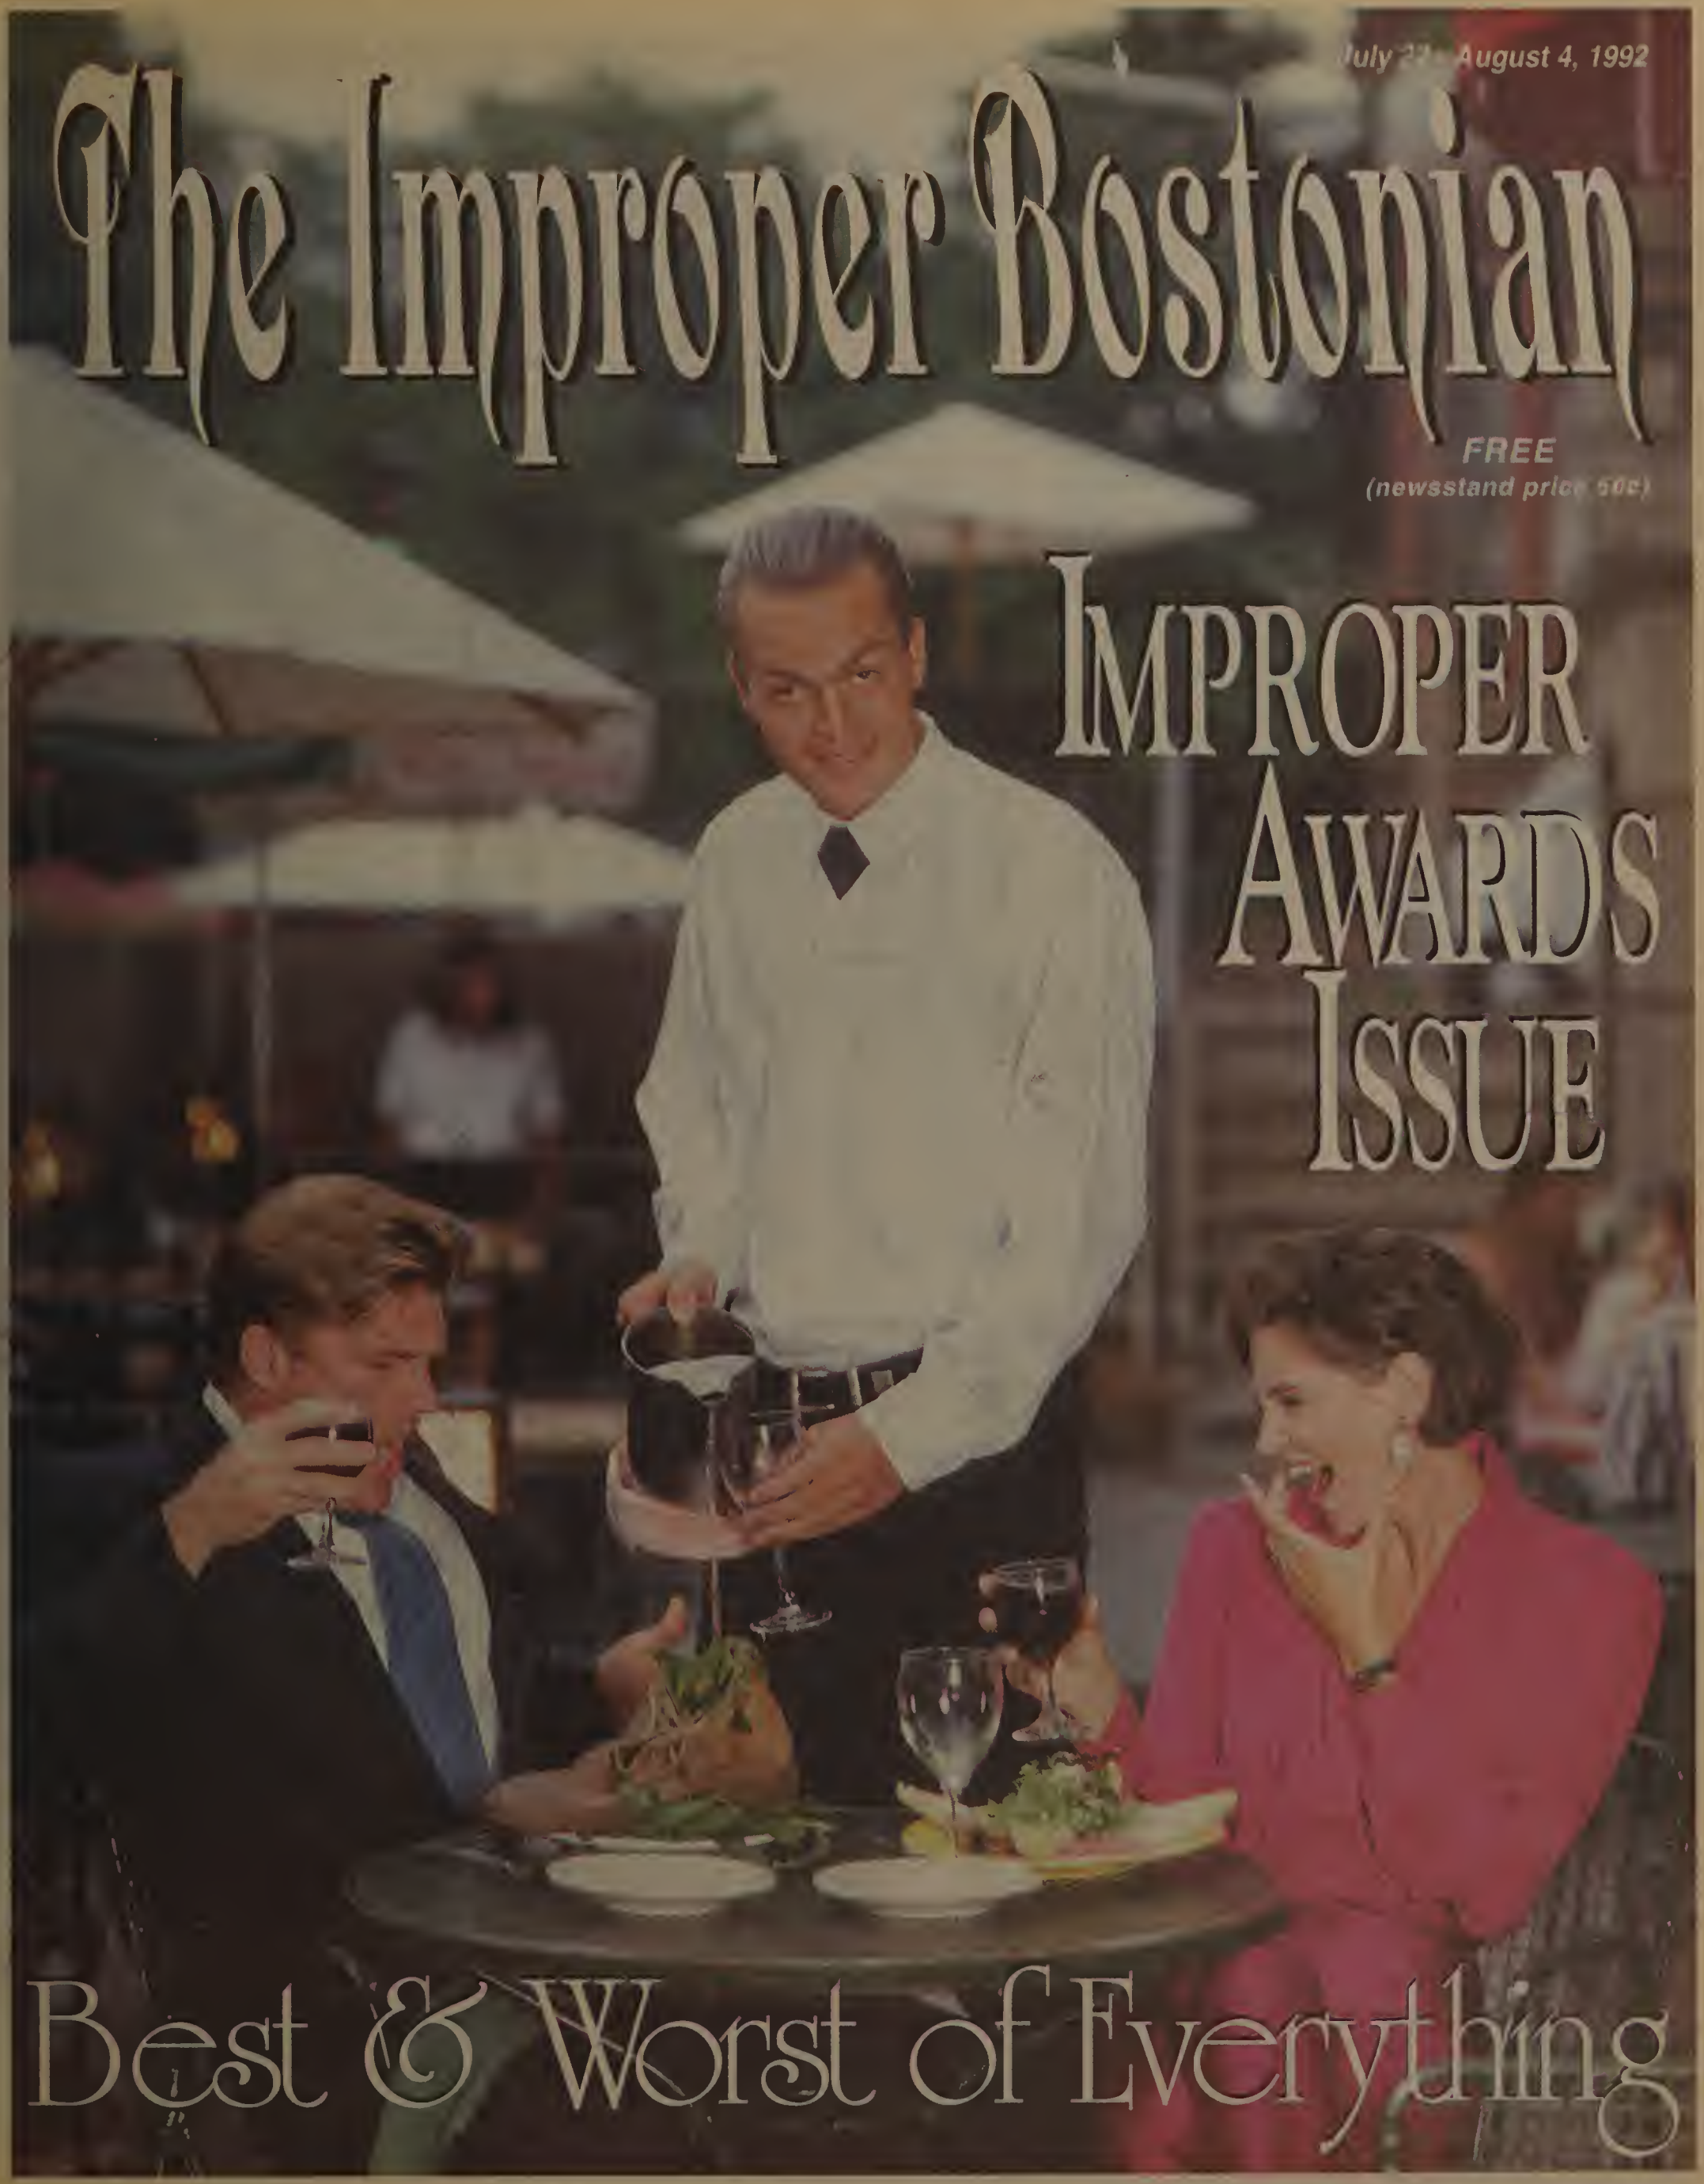
"THE $19 AD!"

NOW, WHEN YOU PLACE YOUR HOUSE OR APARTMENT-SHARE CLASSIFIED WITH THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, WE'LL RUN A FOUR LINE ADVERTISEMENT UNTIL YOU FIND THAT SPECIAL SOMEONE

"THATS $19 UNTIL IT WORKS!"



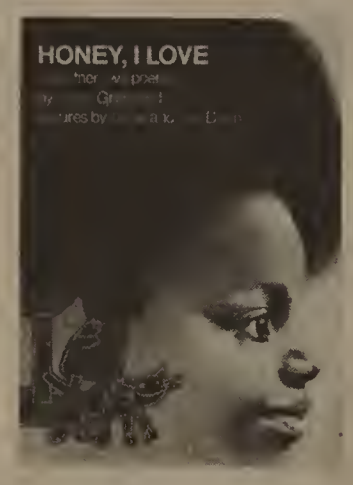
WHEN YOU'RE SUCCESSFUL IN YOUR SEARCH, WE WILL ENTER YOU IN A DRAWING TO WIN A CITY TOUR IN A LIMO FOLLOWED BY A DINNER FOR TWO AT BOODLES!!

ABSOLUT SUBLIMINAL.

July 2[illegible] August 4, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)

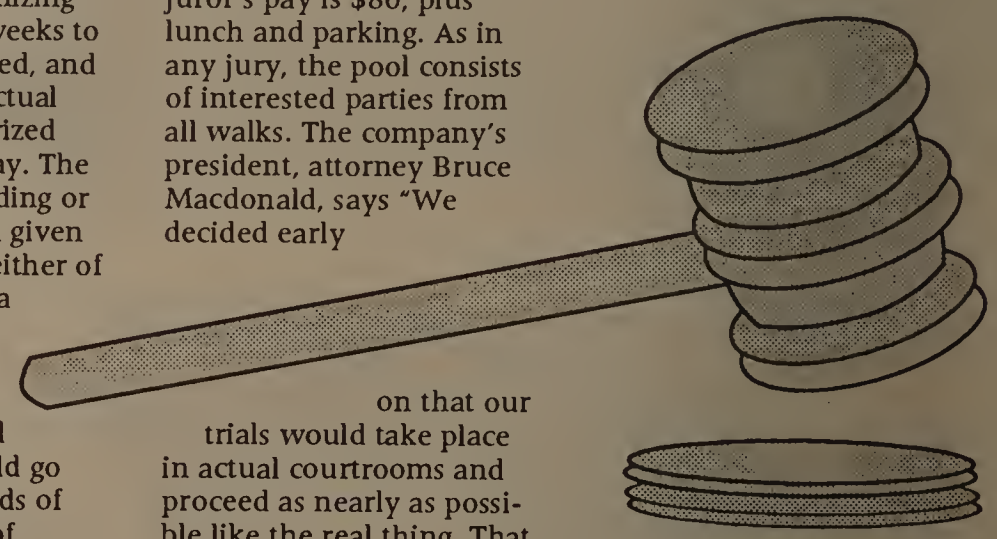


IMPROPER AWARDS ISSUE

Best & Worst of Everything

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Black Bookstore Is Beautiful



Like a little peaceful library where you can sit, read and be dreamy in the sun, Savanna Books is a small shop specializing in books about children of color. And because it focuses on a particular subject, (and really for children all the way up to more literarily and politically advanced years and tastes) - the store offers the chance to really savor the fullness of the range. There is a strong emphasis on the truly African, so the picture books tend to be exotic, bright and mythic. The proliferation of picture books about black children in America is hearteningly broad, and they deal with themes that may or may not be directly about race and racism. A popular book of poems, Honey I Love, deals movingly with black child pride. For kids 10-14, there are lots of folk tales and autobiographies of such popular people as Ella Fitzgerald and Lena Horne, "adolescent empowerment" self-help books and books that are really entire kits that concentrate on particular African countries. Storytellers Bessie Jones and Jackie Torrence are available on tape. By the time the bookshelf has "grown up," you'll find Terry McMillan and Alice Walker, alongside of non-fiction books on Civil Rights, and reference books in a cozier and more comfortable place than a public library. Part of the multi in the multicultural emphasis is found in books about China, books by and about Latinos and Native Americans.

Savanna Books
858 Massachusetts Ave
Cambridge, 02139
868-3423
Tuesday-Saturday 11-5:30.

A Jury Of Your Selves

As a move in the direction of unclogging the courts, and of streamlining and expediting trials in civil cases, a legal "company" known as Massachusetts Judicial Forums will soon be conducting "summary" jury trials. According to this private court system, civil jury trials will be conducted at the request of litigants and their attorneys; the customary agonizing wait lasting from weeks to years will be reduced, and the length of the actual trial will be slenderized down to a single day. The verdict may be binding or non-binding, and a given jury could consist either of 6 or 12 jurors with a fee of $3,000 and $4,000 respectively. As a litigant in search of speed and simplicity, you could go this route in all kinds of cases, making use of retired judges and experienced trial attorneys in the proceedings. And here's where you, John Q. Public, Law-Lover might come in: the jury pool (they have 600, they need 1,000) volunteer on an on-call basis, to be called up randomly by computer. The day (here's a major charm of this method) is far-less-inconvenient than other jury duties always held on Saturday, and the juror's pay is $80, plus lunch and parking. As in any jury, the pool consists of interested parties from all walks. The company's president, attorney Bruce Macdonald, says "We decided early on that our trials would take place in actual courtrooms and proceed as nearly as possible like the real thing. That will give maximum credibility to the jury's verdict, which in turn will encourage litigants who may have their heels dug in to take a hard look at the realities of their case.

Massachusetts Judicial Forums
P.O. Box 1493
Cambridge, Mass. 02139
864-7172

Liquidated, But Solid

What appears to be a warehouse of eternity, stretching ever backwards, contains the wherewithal to equip - in some cases, to actually "furnish" your space of business at a fraction of retail. In the "lower forty" at Office Furniture Liquidators, you've got the less glamorous used stuff - lots and lots of serviceable chairs (some that swivel, some with cloth seats and backs), motley steel filing cabinets of all sizes and shapes and some plainer desks. The discounts in this region run to what owner Bill Pelrine refers to as "whatever" - though the prices are low. In the front part of the store are the closeouts, cancellations and overstocks - mostly brand new, or if not exactly new, still in terrific shape. These come at a savings of 50-60%, and happy would be the office whose owner or inhabitant came here. The chairs - club chairs and swivelers - are spiffy and classy, often running about $100. The desks run to the enormous (often imposing) L-shaped ones with drawers, maybe with a unit on top to hold books and papers and often also equipped to hold computer equipment. (Veritable corner offices without the office.) Names include La Casse, Steelcase, Hon, Doxey, Kimball, Anderson Hickey and soon - La-Z-Boy. Hours are 9-5, Mon-Fri.

Office Furniture Liquidators
519 Broadway
Somerville, MA 02145
625-7060

Cambridge Office Furniture
113 Richdale Avenue
Cambridge, MA 02140
876-6790

Mopsy Strange Kennedy has freelanced for the Atlantic, NY Times Book Review and Magazine, Parent's Choice, Red Book, The Washington Post, Chicago Tribune and was a staff writer for Glamour. She also worked for another local (though their name assumes a much more worldly significance) paper for 10 years, 5 months and 28 days.
Please send all correspondence to: The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

IMPORTED
FRÏS
VODKA
SKANDIA
PRODUCED AND BOTTLED IN COPENHAGEN, DENMARK
45% ALC / VOL
(90 PROOF)
1 LITER
FRÏS™ Vodka Skandia. 100% Grain Neutral Spirits. 45% Alc./Vol. Hiram Walker & Sons, Inc., Farmington Hills, MI © 1992
Photo: Hans Neleman
THE COLDER THE BETTER

CONTENTS

July 22 - August 4, 1992

Features

6 The World According To Us

In today's political climate of toleration and equal opportunity comes an all-female TV show. The first "social commentary through entertainment" show of its kind, The World According to Us airs soon on WGBH. Hear from the brainchildren of this program on their reasons for assembling one of the funniest women's casts on television. by Kathy Matheson

16 The Best and Worst of Boston

We welcome and invite our readers and friends to indulge in an Improper Panel's selection of Boston's Best, Worst, Cheapest and more, in the most exciting awards issue to ever hit our fine town. Join in on the fun and don't be surprised if you blush in the First Annual Improper Awards issue.

31 All in the Name of Fun

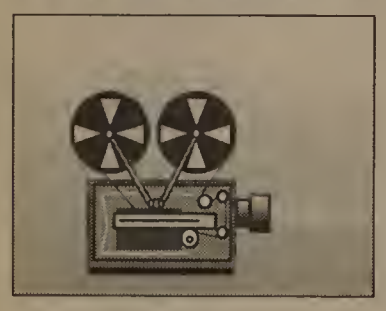
What's the Grateful Dead's Bob Weir doing for his summer vacation? He's teamed up with Rob Wasserman for an album and an upcoming concert at Great Woods. Hear the words of two of the world's most accomplished musicians as they talk of relaxing and performing "just to have a good time."
by Colleen MacDonald

Departments

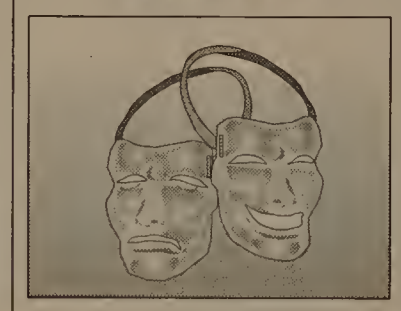
Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Comedy
- Comedy Listings 25

Movies
- Review: Honey I Blew Up the Kid 8
- Review: A Stranger Among Us 9
- Video Review: Jackie Chan Superstar 10
- What's Playing 11

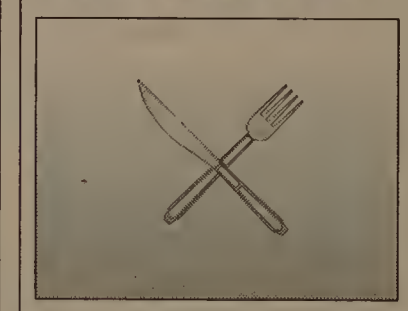
Books
- The Vanished Child 11



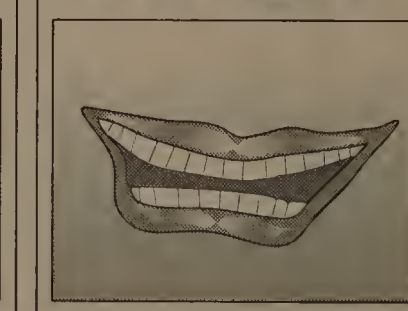
Arts
- Summerstock 12
- Arts Calendar 14



Woman on the Street 15
Dining
- The Moveable Feast: The Warren Tavern 24
- In the Realm of the Spirits: Australian Wines 27
- Appeteasers 28
- Brunch Board 29
- Restaurant Listings 30

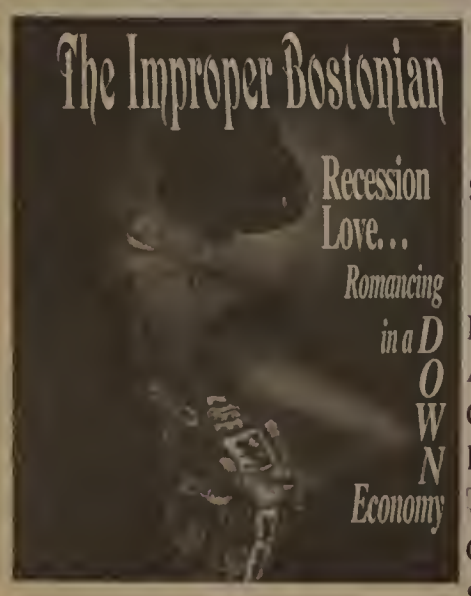


Music
- Interview: Joe Henry 31
- Lush 32
- Tribe at Avalon 32
- Wachtelligence 33
- Album Reviews 33



Bar & Club Listings 33
- Review: Spasso 35

Perspectives 38
Free Boston 39
Classifieds 40
Improper Impersonals 41
Crossword 42



SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:

The Improper Bostonian

17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146

OR CALL:

(617) 232-3705

Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.

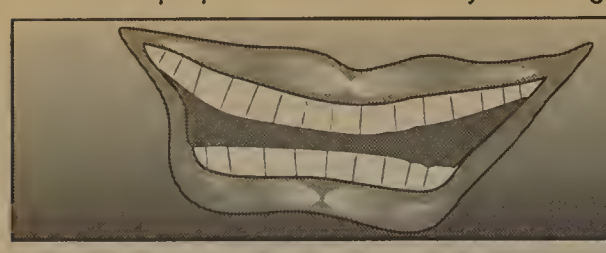
Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

AROUND TOWN

Bring your favorite cactus plant for some desert Volleyball at the Desert Volleyball Tour Series on July 25 and 26 at Salisbury Park in Salisbury. Local beach volleyball players will help raise money for the Leukemia Society of America when they compete for a chance to win it all in Manhattan Beach, California on August 15-16. The winners will be crowned National Amateur Champions by series sponsor DeKuyper Cactus Juice. World champion Greg Lee will be the official beach volleyball pro on hand to conduct clinics and participate in the tournament. Registration, which includes a fee of $25, begins at 8am on July 25. Call 1-800-CJ-Spike for more information.

Mount Snow - in July? Sure thing. The ski resort turns into a Mountain Biking Extravaganza. Brave souls can take their bike up to the 3,600 foot summit via the chair lift - an unlimited number of times per day for $20 to fly down the eyeball-popping slopes. The more horizontal types can explore the miles of trails and beautiful wooded terrain at the mountain's base. Bike rentals run $25 per day for a 21-speed mountain bike. Guided tours are available for various lengths of time and cost. For those who want to learn how, a Mountain Bike School is offered all summer long catering to every level of ability. The cost for the school runs from $132 to $149. For information and reservations call 800-451-4211.

Attention all you folkies! Dress casual and comes as you are. Emmylou Harris is swinging into town for her sole New England date on Saturday, July 25 at the Berklee Performance Center. She and her Nash Ramblers, featuring Sam Bush of the New Grass Revival, will be playing the heavenly bluegrass sounds from their most recent album, Live at the Ryman. Tickets are still available for both the 7 and 9:30pm shows and can be purchased for either $19.50 or $22.50 by calling Ticketmaster at 931-2000 or Folktree Concerts at 641-1010.



Feeling festive? Head down to the Cape for two knee-slappin' good times. The big granddaddy of them all, the 127th Barnstable County Fair, runs from July 21-26. Rides, carny games, arts & crafts and concerts featuring Blood Sweat & Tears and Paul Revere & The Raiders will be going on all week. Admission is $5 for adults and $1 for kids 6-12. Gates open at 11am and close at 10pm. Call (508) 563-3200 for further info. Everybody will be dancin' in the street in Hyannis come Fri. & Sat., July 31 & Aug. 1 at their 16th Annual Hyannis Street Festival. Things start hopping at 10am with something for everyone. Highlights include numerous sidewalk sales, pie & sundae eating contests, a rollerblading race, jugglers, fortune tellers and plenty o' music and food. Questions? Call the Hyannis Chamber of Commerce at (508)775-2201

Spend the weekend being a country bumpkin. The Dept. of Environmental Management is offering primitive camping through Sept. 7 on both Grape and Bumpkin Islands, part of the Boston Harbor Islands State Park. Primitive means that water and electricity is not available, which translates to no phone to answer - making you a happy camper. Peaceful hiking for flora and fauna watching is available aplenty. Permits can be picked up at the Harbor Islands Headquarters. The cost is $5 per night for a regular site which accommodates up to five people. Public transportation to the islands is available. For more info. call the Boston Harbor Island State Park at (617) 640-1605.

Take a relaxing Sunday trip to the country by heading to rustic Harvard Square for the Farmer's Market. Farmers from all over New England including The Good Earth Organic Farm, Bluestone Farm, Coolidge Farm, Cheshire Garden and Verrils Farms will be bringing their wares to the square. Fresh veggies, healthy plants and home- made treats such as syrups and jellies will be on sale between 10am to 3pm every Sunday until Thanksgiving. You'll find it all in the Courtyard at The Charles Hotel. Keep your eyes open for the upcoming Harvest Moon Festival this fall which combines the market's produce with area chefs' recipes for some tasty times. For more information, call Martha Sullivan at The Charles Hotel (617) 864-1200.

COMEDY

The World According to Us

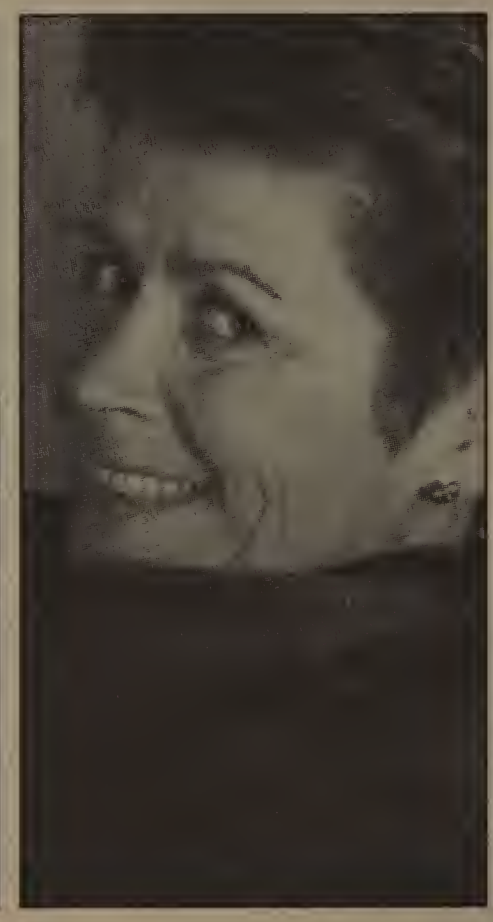
Inside the World of Boston's Only All-Female Comedy Show

by Kathy Matheson

In the materialistic, money - powered '80s, we witnessed The World According to Garp, a story about a white, upper-middle class, family man trying to make his mark in the literary world. How positively passé.

Today, in the political climate of toleration and equal opportunity, it's The World According to Us: an all-female TV show featuring nationally- and locally-known women comedians as well as music, sketches and social commentary from the female point of view.

"The purpose of it is social commentary through entertainment," said co-executive producer Judith Stoia. "Our ambition is that it will become a national program."



Wary, would-be viewers from all bands of the spectrum (conservative, traditional PBS watchers or die-hard, late-night talk show addicts) should know they're not alone. Although Stoia and her "partner-in-crime" Nancy Porter are both award-winning producers for WGBH, both have backgrounds in shows that fall more into the categories of documentaries and public affairs than comedy (They don't know how it will turn out any better than you).

"It remains to be seen whether it works or not," said Stoia. "You can't invent TV programs on paper; you have to experiment and see what works." Things to consider involve questions like, "Does this program have room for more poignant moments, or are we just going for the laughs?" explained Porter.

Stoia said the main difference between producing a news-oriented show and one like The World According to Us is that a documentary offers a safety net as long as the facts are correct. "If you're promising to make people laugh," Stoia explained, "you have no place to hide."

Of course, the most prominent obstacle in developing this show was making sure it wouldn't appeal to an exclusively female audience, despite the all-female cast. Stoia said that "men who have a progressive take on the world will find it really enjoyable," and she has evidence to back that up.

Bertice Berry and Kate Clinton host The World According to Us

In the first place, they have received terrific support and encouragement from various male administrators at both WGBH and the PBS national office. But more importantly, after announcing open tapings to the public, the limited space was completely booked two hours after the reservation lines opened. Now there's a waiting list.

The show will be hosted by a pair of stand-up comedians: Bertice Berry and Kate Clinton. Clinton, from Provincetown, labels herself a "fumerist: i.e. a feminist-humorist or a humorist who fumes," while Berry is self-described as "the Bill Cosby of sociology or the Doctor of Comedy. Or both." (Berry received a Ph.D. in sociology from Kent State University and also taught there.) The reason they were picked, explained Porter, is because "their subject matter is personal as well as political."

"It was a challenge to find more politically-oriented performers," said Porter. She and Stoia watched tapes of women comedians for several months before settling on Berry and Clinton to host. "We wanted people doing material with a political edge to it, more than, you know, shopping," explained Stoia.

Other guests include comedians Betsy Salkind (who just performed her one-woman comedy show at the ICA a few weeks ago) and Lea DeLaria; music groups Betty, Four Bitchin' Babes and Saffire; and various other performers. The World According to Us is scheduled to air on WGBH/Ch. 2 Aug. 3-7 at 11:00pm. If all goes according to plan, the program will soon be receiving accolades from around the country. ❑

Comedy Listings

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Sandwiches and cold appetizers served. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm. Every Mon. is Cross comedy. Every Tue. is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. Wed 22nd. thru Sun 26th.- Bob Nickman, Kim Worth, Lauren Dombrowski. Mon 27th.- Cross Comedy. Tue 28th.- Brian Kiley. Wed 29th. thru Sun 2nd.- Tom Gilmore, Tom Agna, Janine Ditullio. Mon 3rd.- Cross Comedy.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country. Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Fri. and Sat. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat. Wed 22nd.- Jimmy Smith, Brian Frazier, Tom Dunham. Thu 23rd.- Jackie Flynn, Mike Bent. Fri 24th & Sat 25th.- Jackie Flynn, Ed Driscoll, Chris Zito. Sun 26th.- Billy Martin, Jon McGuire. Mon 27th.- Chris Zito, Matt Tully, Joe Rogan. Tue 28th.- D.J. Hazard, Maria Falzone, Paul Elwell. Wed 29th.- Jimmy Smith, Craig Mitchell, Colin Blake. Thu 30th.- Chris Zito, Al Ducharme, Rick Jenkins. Fri 31st & Sat 1st.- Rich Ceisler, Bill Braudes, Steve BjorkRich Ceisler, Bill Braudes, Steve Bjork. Sun 2nd.- Chris Zito, Paul Elwell, Chris Coccia.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700, Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices. Wed 22nd.- TBA. Thu 23rd.- Anthony Clark. Fri 24th.- D.J. Hazard, Don Gavin. Sat 25th.- D.J. Hazard, Anthony Clark. Sun 26th.- D.J. Hazard. Mon 27th. thru Wed 29th.- TBA. Thu 30th thru Sun 2nd.- Carol Leifer.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• ImprovBoston at the Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundays at 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE. Wed 22nd thru Sun 26th.- Kenny Rogerson, et al. Mon 27th.- Open Mike Night with Billy Martin. Tue 28th.- Paul D'Angelo, Larry Reppucci, Kenny Rogerson. Wed 29th.- Peter Sasso, Mike Royce. Thu 30th.- Jim Lauletta, Mike Royce. Fri 31st.- Robbie Printz, Anthony Clark.

• Renegade Duck 277-0550, at Play it Again Sam's, 1314 Commonwealth Ave., Allston. Boston's improvisational comedy troupe appears every Saturday at 9pm. Admission is $5.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. Every Tue: "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos. Every Wed: Anthony Clark. A must see! Every Thu: Cross Comedy. Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-$10. No dress code. Wed 22nd.- Chance Langton, Larry Sullivan. Thu 23rd.- Cross Comedy. Fri 24th.- Frankie Bastille, Larry Sullivan, Grant Taylor. Sat 25th.- Rich Ceisler, Larry Sullivan, Grant Taylor. Sun 26th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 27th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). Wed 29th.- Anthony Clark. Thu 30th.- Cross Comedy. Fri 31st.- Marci Rose, Larry Myles, Dave Chapelle. Sat 1st.- Marci Rose, Dave Chapelle, Larry Myles. Sun 2nd.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 4th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

Managing Editor
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE ROSS
LESLIE SEMONIAN

Photo Editor
MELANIE DUNEA

Food Editors
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
AL STANKUS

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

MUSIC EDITOR
REY ROLDAN

Special Projects Director
MARJ SHANKEN-SOLCOFF

Special Projects Art Director
ALLISON BEGNER

MUSIC COLUMNIST
A.J. WACHTEL

Contributing Writers
LISA M. BONNELL, JONATHON SARNER
JOHN HABER, JON GALLIGAN
CHRISTOPHER WINTERS, PETER SUCIU
JANIS REED, RICHARD WILLIAMS
COLLEEN MACDONALD

Staff Photographers
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE
MICHAEL POWERS, JILL CONNELLY
AYNSLEY FLOYD DANIELLE PUCCI

Advertising Sales Directors
DIANA SMITH, HARVEY BRAVMAN

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, UGO MAZZAROLO
MARK STEVENS, ADAM KURZMAN,
RAMSEY R. TRIMBLE, DOLLY HILLER
WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Production Assistants
GAIL MARCARELLI, JOE SHARRINO
JEFF FILIPOV

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
JENNIFER MCCANN, JENNIFER LEVITSKY,
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE, TREVOR FORD
DEBORAH PIRRAGLIA, JASON PRING
MARIANNE MURPHY, MEG C. LELKO
DEENA KATZ, MIRIAM BLANKENSHIP

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI, CURTIS
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS: Listings are printed free at the discretion of the editor. Send your listings to The Improper Bostonian, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village, MA 02147-0820. They must be recieved 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 17

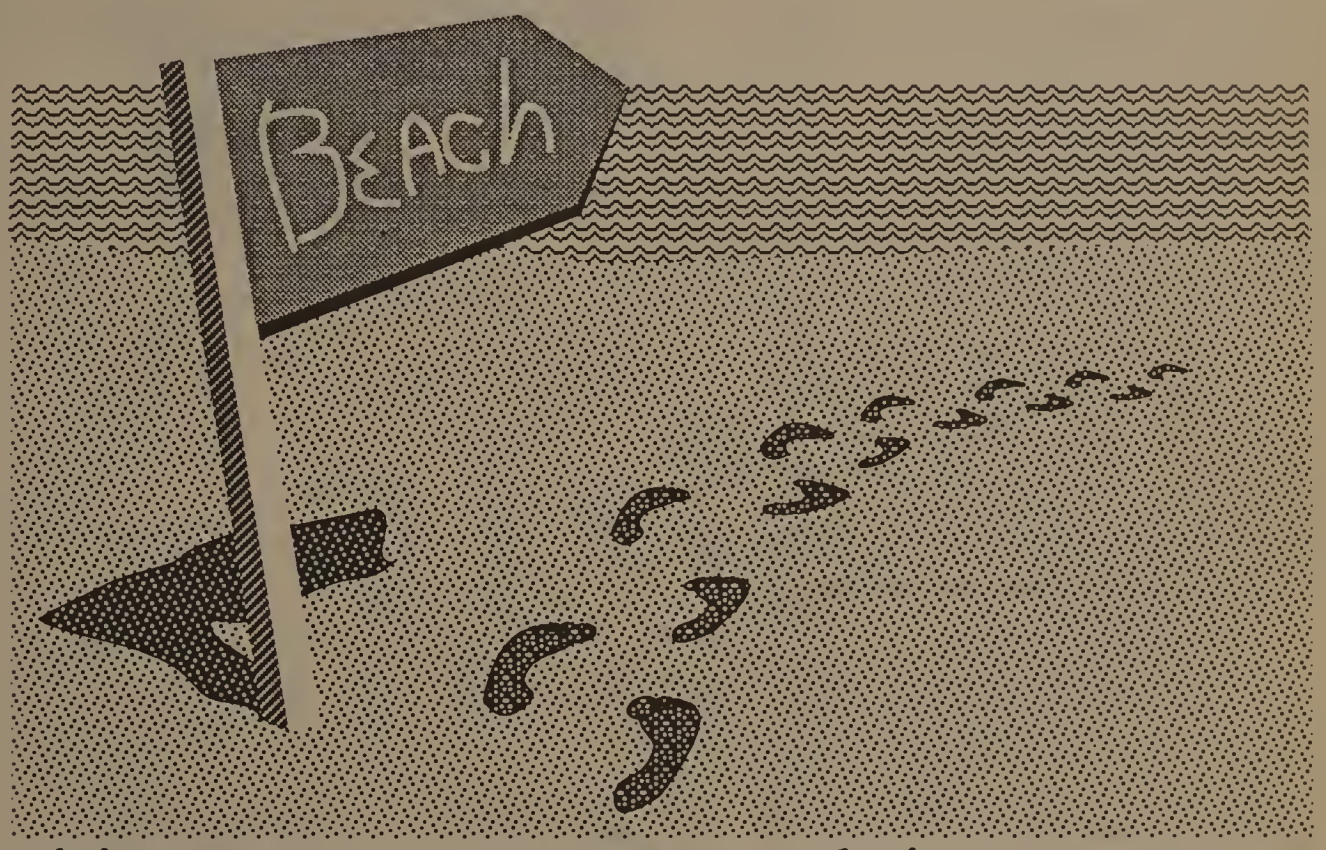
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below.

All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax



ON THE COVER

Photographer	Tracy Aiguier
Makeup	Jay Pendley
Models	Sybil Brian Thurston/ Models Inc. Jeff Palmer
Special Thanks	Spasso Restaurant Model Club

If you enjoy reading The Improper Bostonian, thank us by patronizing our advertisers' businesses.

Corrections for the July 8 Issue
The Article Reed Takes a Trip on the Wild Side should have been credited to Jon Macey and not Joe Viglione.
The correct information for the Behind Locked Doors poster mentioned in Mopsy Strange Kennedy's column should have been $8 plus $1.50 postage: Make payable to Behind Locked Doors, Dorothy W. Dundas. Behind Locked Doors, P.O. Box 407, Newton Highlands, MA 02161 Tel. (617)244-5833

Why worry?
Hit the beach

while we rent your apartment or find you a roommate.

Only $19

Run your ad in our classified section for just $19.00. We will run the ad until it works. Non-commercial ads only. Call for more details.

The Improper Bostonian

Boston's Bi-Weekly Entertainment Leisure Newsmagazine

Phone: 232-3705 • Fax: 232-4305

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Boomerang
"You'll Hope It Won't Come Back"

Eddie Murphy's latest film Boomerang, attempts to be a coming of age film for its star. It's the story of a womanizing perfume executive who meets his match in the company's beautiful new boss (Robin Givens). The film promises to be one of role reversals. Murphy could have been spectacular if his cocksman character had descended into the underworld groveling for love. But Murphy - who created the story for the film - holds himself aloof from such misery. Boomerang also wastes the talents of Eartha Kitt, and Geofrey Holder. Though we're throwing Boomerang away, we still love you Eddie. B.C.

Poison Ivy
"Teen Blonde Wreaks Havoc"

Once again, an innocent suburban family is undone by a blonde, and this time the hand rocking the cradle is Drew Barrymore, ex-child actor and drug addict. Mysterious blonde chick Ivy (Barrymore), shacks up in their humble mansion of a dysfunctional California family Her friend. Cooper (Sarah Gilbert) needs a friend, her emphysemic Mom (Cheryl Ladd) needs a lift, and Dad (Tom Skerritt) needs some confidence building. Ivy dopes up the dog, gives Cooper's Dad a Lolita complex, and pushes Mom over the edge. Sara Gilbert is a likable black-garbed teen, but Drew Barrymore is empty and blasé. Edited down, Poison Ivy would make a scary ABC Afterschool Special. It's like, really wild if you're in, maybe, eighth grade? But if not, like, not. T.S.L.

Batman Returns
"Worth Seeing, But Not Worth a Wait"

Batman Returns has its moments of glory, but too many evil plots make a mess of the story. In Burton's sequel to 1989's Batman, each of three villains — the Catwoman (Michelle Pfeiffer), the Penguin (Danny Devito), and Max Schreck, corporate mogul (Christopher Walken), — has his or her own set of complex schemes. Conflicting plots leave the movie unable to sustain any momentum or sense of suspense at the climax. Michael Keaton shows a firmer grasp of the Batman role this time around, and Michelle Pfeiffer nearly steals the show. Director Tim Burton has decided to repeat the virtues of the original film (good sets and great performances), while expanding its vices. Batman Returns is worth seeing, but not worth spending the weekend in line. .J.H., J.G.

Adam's Rib
"Soviet Soap Opera"

Adam's Rib, the third film by Russian director Vyacheslay Krishtofovitch, focuses on three generations of Soviet women as they live, work and love their way through a deteriorating country. The charm of Adam's Rib is that mother Nina (Inna Chourikova) and her two daughters are no different from American women: they worry about money, wrinkles, vitamin C, subway passes and love. This is one of the very few Russian films showing modern women at work, involved in family issues and domestic crises. Although the film ends on a disappointing note — a birthday party scene for the family matriach fails to match the emotional power of the rest of the movie — Adam's Rib is a personal look at Russian life that flows like vodka (albeit with a twist of lemon at the end). .C.M.

Honey I Blew Up the Kid

The Funniest Accident of the Summer

As Adam (Shalikar twins) begins to grow, his older brother (Oliveri, left) and father (Rick Moranis, center) are dwarfed by his enormous size.

by Jonathan Sarner

Honey, I Blew Up the Kid, the sequel to Honey, I Shrunk the Kids, is a hybrid. It's one part Disney and another part sci-fi schlock. Set the happy, suburban Disney family, complete with brilliant, eccentric paterfamilias, against the plot of the low-budget rampaging-giant movie from the fifties (Attack of the Fifty Foot Woman et al.) and you get The Amazing Colossal Baby.

The special effects are ably handled, and a great deal of magic has been exercised in choreographing the comic rampage scenes. Picture a baby the size of a building who becomes a real horror when told that it's nap time.

Director Randal Kleiser and cinematographer John Hora have done an admirable job bringing off these scenes.

Rick Moranis is back as Wayne Szalinski, the quizzical, amateur inventor. As in the first Honey, he is treated as an oddity, with the neighbors making small talk about his eccentricities (the high-tech gadgets strewn about his house and yard). Only now his electromagnetic beam machine that shrank the kids has been acquired by an R & D company in the hope that a new machine can be produced, one that can achieve the opposite effect - massive enlargement of objects. Adam, Wayne's mischievous baby, accidentally gets into the path of the beam in the midst of an experiment (sound familiar?), and the fun begins.

Honey I Blew Up the Kid
Walt Disney Pictures

Rated: PG
Directed By
Randal Kleiser
Starring:
Rick Moranis
Marcia Strassman
Robert Oliveri

Sequels only invite comparison to their predecessors, and this one is no exception. Although Honey, I Blew Up the Kid, has some wonderful moments, it cannot beat its predecessor for sheer directness and simplicity of plot. The plot entanglements in this one pile up and seem annoying at times: there is Wayne's son who must overcome his shyness in pursuit of a teenage girl, a youngish corporate upstart who threatens to displace Wayne in a Father Knows Best theme that is not explicit but against which Diane, Wayne's wife, has to cope.

Moranis is convincing as the nerdish inventor. He ably tackles the role of the loony Graham Bell, as his furrowed brow and curled lip run the course of the movie. He's masterful in knowing how to treat these affectations comically. This quality was part and parcel of the Second City repertory player, from whence he sprang. He also comes across well as the loving and at times inattentive parent. Likewise, Marcia Strassman, who plays Diane, gives an outstanding performance, providing a measured balance of matriarch and disciplinarian.

There are a lot of laughs in Honey. Wayne's lack of attention to his family has been reckoned with, but he still can't win - a short lapse goes a long way. It was his insularity which in the first movie caused trouble: he gave so little attention to the kids that they were literally consigned to their nonexistence. It might be that the greatest chuckle in the movie is to watch the roving tike goo-gooing amid the neon and the gambling casinos in Las Vegas, wherein he is supposedly energized by the city's electricity. Other clever turns appear, the most explicit of which is sweetly made in the climatic penultimate scene.

Honey, I Blew Up the Kid is enjoyable entertainment for those of all ages - and sizes. It's a cozy, light-hearted and slightly surreal affair that falls short of its predecessor but pleases on its own terms. ❑

In Good Company With A Stranger Among Us

by Tobin Streett

Emily, a detective (Melanie Griffith, right) is aided by a young scholar named Ariel (Eric Thal, left) and his sister, Leah (Mia Sara, center).

For anyone bored with this year's current crop of sequels, look no further for your source of refreshment.

After the opening scene in which Melanie Griffith puts forth an unconvincing effort as an ice-cold police detective, one may wonder what's playing in the theater next door. But within minutes, A Stranger Among Us plants both feet on the ground and moves steadily forward in one of the most spiritually-inspiring, insightful and entertaining films of 1992.

Director Sidney Lumet teases us with a plot that unfolds amidst an enigma of murder, betrayal and surprisingly enough - the fundamental bonds of the family. Set deep within the reaches of the Hassidim community of Brooklyn, A Stranger Among Us contains thematic parallels to the 1985 thriller, Witness. Like Harrison Ford, Griffith's character has to discard her customs and preconceptions of a subculture removed from society, yet surviving in modern times.

Melanie Griffith and Eric Thal star as two cultural-opposites - one a street cop, the other a Hassidic Jew - whose fates draw them together in a tale pitting traditional disciplines against modern police work.

Griffith's overzealous pursuit of street punks lands her on the case of a missing person who just happens to be a Hassidic Jew. After discovering the "subject" of her case to be permanently missing, Emily is forced to go undercover within the Hassidim community. In spite of the initial culture shock, Emily learns and in fact enjoys some of the practices and traditions of the Hassidim. This is the beginning of what - for Emily - is an internal war of her own. Dining with them, working in a family owned store in the jewelry district and witnessing their tight family bonds forces Emily to question her own culture and way of life. With the help of the spiritually-affected Ariel, she finds an inner peace which eventually leads her to an understanding not only of herself, but also of Ariel and his culture.

Producer Howard Rossenman says, "I've always wanted to make a movie about the Hassidim. It was an opportunity to show values that some people might consider old-fashioned - like the centrality of the family. And it speaks to a spirituality that a lot of people are seeking today."

With A Stranger Among Us, spirituality functions more as an anchoring device than a learning tool. Lumet has done well in casting Griffith and Thal (who had never before acted in a film, much less a professional play) as the leads. Their on-screen chemistry only adds to the forbidden fire that burns between them. Thal hands in a wonderful performance as the mystical and disciplined Ariel who spends his time suppressing his emotional attachment for Emily.

One of the most pleasing elements of this film is the realistic portrayal of the Hassidim. And with a little murder thrown in for good measure, you'll witness the unraveling of a drama sure to keep you guessing until the end.

Familiarize yourself with A Stranger Among Us and maybe this year of sequels will have you yearning for another in 1993. ❑

A Stranger Among Us

Hollywood Pictures

Rated: PG-13

Directed By

Sidney Lumet

Starring:

Melanie Griffith

Eric Thal

CRITICS CHOICE

KEY
A Winner
A Toss Up
For the Birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	L.A. Times	Village Voice	Newsweek	People	Time
Batman Returns	Toss Up	Winner	Toss Up	Winner	Bird	Winner	Toss Up	Toss Up	Winner
A League of Their Own	Winner	Winner	Bird	Winner	Toss Up	Bird	Winner	Bird	Toss Up
House Sitter	Winner	Winner	Toss Up	Bird	Bird	Bird	Winner	Toss Up	Winner
Sister Act	Toss Up	Toss Up	Toss Up	Bird	Winner	Bird	Toss Up	Winner	Bird
Patriot Games	Bird	Toss Up	Bird	Winner	Winner	Bird	Toss Up	Toss Up	Bird
Boomerang	Bird	Toss Up	Bird	Toss Up	Bird	Bird	Winner	Bird	Winner
Lethal Weapon 3	Winner	Bird	Bird	Bird	Bird	Toss Up	Toss Up	Bird	Toss Up
Unlawful Entry	Bird	Toss Up	Bird	Toss Up	Bird	Bird	Toss Up	Bird	Toss Up
Pinocchio	Winner	–	–	–	Winner	Winner	–	Winner	–
Far and Away	Toss Up	Bird	Bird	Bird	Bird	Bird	Bird	Bird	Winner

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A League of Their Own
"Steals Home"

Penny Marshall directs A League of Their Own, a fictional movie based on the true events of the first women's professional baseball teams. With an all-star cast on the field, Marshall scores big. Geena Davis plays Dottie, a dairy worker recruited by a scout - the incessantly sharp Jon Lovitz. At the try-outs, we're introduced to "All the way Mae" (Madonna) and tough-talking Delores (Rosie O'Donnell), who in tandem, keep the lines cracking and the audience laughing. As she did with her Oscar-nominated Awakenings, Marshall has once again enlightened the public to a heartwarming and noteworthy story. L.M.B.

Cool World
"Uncool and Insulting"

The driving force behind this badly-animated clunker is that cartoon go-go dancer Holli Would wants to get porked by a human, otherwise known in her "Cool World" universe as a "noid." Cool World is haphazard and uninteresting, vainly trying to emulate Roger Rabbit, but the Paramount release is nowhere near as technically sophisticated or even well-drawn. With the exception of Holli (The air-headed voice of Kim Basinger), all the "doodles" as they are called look weaker in design than the Ninja Turtles. Gabriel Byrne plays noid Jack Deebs, creator of the comic strip "Cool World," who is magically transported into his own universe. Deebs has spent a long stretch in prison, dreaming about Holli. So will they do it, or not? Who cares? Deebs should have stayed in prison for giving genesis to this boring and misogynistic mess. T.S.L.

The Famine Within
"Food for Thought"

The Famine Within is a serious documentary examining the severely dictated, societal ideal that pairs off beauty with thinness. While the movie does not pretend to disclose new insights or evidence into such problems as bulimia and anorexia, it does assert a hypothesis that women who have achieved "equal opportunity in the workplace" still equate success with thinness. The Famine Within is a worthy education for both male and female viewers. With interviews and shocking statistics, the film delivers its message with poignancy and terrific relevance for our times. In a documentary that seriously questions the idea that image is everything, director Katherine Gilday presents us with portraits of women, with bodies and faces, that will not soon leave our memories. L.R.

Patriot Games
"The Audience Comes Out The Loser"

After an hour of watching Patriot Games, the latest adaption of a Tom Clancy pot boiler, it's fairly easy to guess the outcome. Erstwhile CIA analyst Jack Ryan (Harrison Ford) thwarts an assassination attempt by an IRA fringe group, killing the baby brother of the group's leader. Ryan returns to his happy yuppie domain in Baltimore, and the vengeful assassin follows in pursuit, Cape Fear-style. Ford makes a more seasoned and believable Jack Ryan than Alec Baldwin. The man defending home and hearth from intruders has been better portrayed in Cape Fear and Straw Dogs. Rent those two for the same price of Patriot Games and have a more chilling and suspenseful evening. T.S.L.

Housesitter
"Dirty Rotten Housebreakers"

Steve Martin displays his usual élan in comic reaction and timing in Housesitter, but unfortunately his reactions to the movie's comic scenes are funnier than the comic scenes themselves. Martin is Newton Davis, a Boston architect who has built a home for his childhood sweetheart. She refuses his hand, leaving one-night-stand Gwen (Goldie Hawn) to move into the abandoned home and tell Davis' hometown that she is the new Mrs. Davis. The zany panic builds up from there, in a frantic escalation of lies that is slightly reminiscient of Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, a far superior comic tour de force. Fans of Martin and Hawn will not be that disappointed with Housesitter — perhaps only by the rushed and improbable ending — and the suporting cast for the two stars is strong and amiable. T.S.L.

MOVIES

Jackie Chan Superstar

by John Galligan & Jon Haber

Hong Kong action film star Jackie Chan broke away from the pack of Bruce Lee wannabes in the late 1970's with a series of films mixing comedy, martial arts, and wild, outrageous stunts.

After a string of successful action comedies like Drunken Fist Boxing, Fearless Hyena II and Jackie Chan's Police Force, Chan made an effort to break into the lucrative American market, joining Burt Reynolds in the two Cannonball Run films and starring in a pair of films, The Big Brawl and The Protector.

In Brawl, Jackie plays a happy-go-lucky Chinese kid in depression era Chicago whom gangsters (led by Jose Ferrer) force to bareknuckle fight a behemoth wrestler named "The Kiss." The Protector is a grim police buddy movie that has NYPD detective Jackie questing revenge in Hong Kong with his partner played by professional paesan Danny (Do the Right Thing) Aiello.

Despite some decent action scenes, good performances by Ferrer and Aiello and Chan's considerable charm, these films flopped at the American box office, so it was back to Hong Kong for Chan to continue a Sputnik-class rise to the top.

Returning home, Jackie began to add more and more dangerous audience-thrilling stunts to his film mix of karate and comedy in films like Project A, Armour of God and Operation Condor. As director, producer and star of his big-budget films (with a noticeable contempt for stunt doubles), Chan was continually putting his life on the line, breaking a considerable number of bones and box-office records in the process.

In Project A, Jackie plays a recruit in the Hong Kong coast guard, battling pirates and heaping up fast-paced chase scenes, karate battles and multi-story falls from convenient clock towers. (It goes without saying that Chan can't get casualty insurance from anyone in East Asia.)

In Armour of God , Jackie played an Indiana Jones / James Bond do-gooder, jaunting around the world in order to recover the five pieces of God's own plate-mail armor.

Armour's sequel, Operation Condor, is rumored to be the highest-budgeted film in the history of Hong Kong cinema. Chan was reported to have exceeded this budget by 100%, and it certainly shows. Incredible fights, car and motorcycle chases and a climatic battle in a working wind tunnel. No cocaine excess buried in the office-supplies budget here! If you can overlook the thin plot and lighthouse-scale glaring sexism, Condor is Chan's best action film to date.

While American action-film conventions still dominate world screens (much like American cars once owned the roads), there is a lot Hollywood can learn from the wisdom of the East, and a lot American audiences can enjoy in the widely-available films of Jackie Chan.

Any video shop with a self-respecting martial arts section should have a healthy collection of Jackie Chan's movies. For more extensive collections, Video Oasis (740 Cambridge St.), Columbia Video (272 Broadway) in East Cambridge, and Chums Video in Brighton (139 Brighton Ave.) carry terrific assortments of karate movies.

For the most recent films, you may need to visit either Sino Video (66 Harrison Ave.) or Universe Video (26 Kneeland St.) in Boston's Chinatown. ❑

A (Partial) Filmography of Jackie Chan

Film Titles
The New Fists of Fury
Drunken Master
Spiritual Kung Fu
Fearless Hyena I
The Young Tiger
The Big Brawl
Snake Fist Fighter
Project A
Police Story (or Jackie Chan's Police Force)
Fantasy Mission Force
Fearless Hyena II
The Protector
To Kill with Intrigue
Half-a-Loaf of Kung Fu
Armour of God
Dragons Forever
Project A II
Police Story II
The Miracle
Mr. Canton and The Lady Rose
Operation Condor - Armour of God II

GET OOKY.

WIN $1000 CASH!

in the Addams Family Music Video Contest!

Create your own music video using the Addams Family theme song! You could win $1000! But hurry, the deadline is August 1st!

VIDEOSMITH
The Movie Buff's Movie Store

All entry tapes become the property of Videosmith, Inc. and will not be returned. Employees of Videosmith, Paramount Pictures, WFNX-FM are not eligible to enter Winner will be selected on or before August 15th. See store for further details.

BEDAZZLED
Peter Cook
Dudley Moore
&
Raquel Welch
as Lust

Mike's MOVIES

Featuring Films You Won't Find Anywhere Else
557 Tremont St. (At Clarendon St.)
Boston's South End 266-9222

BOOKS

The Vanished Child

By:Sarah Smith
Ballantine Books, Random House, 1992

by Lisa Bonnell

Alexander von Reisden thought he knew himself. Orphaned at a young age and raised by his foster parents, the young royalty lived in Africa before moving to Switzerland to become a chemist. But after Dr. Charles Adair spots him on a train platform and calls out, "Richard, do you know me,?" the mystery begins to unfold and Reisden is no longer sure of his identity.

In Sarah Smith's latest novel The Vanished Child, he is delicately drawn into the search for Richard, the missing heir to murdered millionaire William Knight. Written strongly in the Victorian style of Henry James and Edith Wharton (with long eloquent sentences, heavily ladened with meaning), this psychological crime story is a constant barrage on Reisden's perspectives, so neither he nor the reader knows his true identity.

Reisden agrees with the Knights' legal counsels to come to Boston and prove he is not Richard. Gilbert, William Knight's son can then declare Richard dead (after missing for many years) and his adopted son, Harry, can become the legitimate heir to the family fortune. But the plan backfires, Reisden cannot remember or prove his early childhood and Gilbert believes Reisden truly is Richard . . . the vanished child. As summer progresses, Reisden searches for Richard's body, only to be enveloped in the mystery and further confused about his own life.

Smith's portrayal of the aristocracy and Boston in the 1880's is clear with elements of such local color as the Public Gardens, the Boston Common and the mansion -like brownstones of Commonwealth Avenue. Her descriptions of carriages and snow in winter, set a personality to the historical architecture of Back Bay and Beacon Hill.

While in Boston, Reisden's lonely confusion over the accidental death of his wife gives way to the enticing, yet subtly romantic love triangle of Harry, Perdita, Harry's young innocent fiance and Reisden. Reisden befriends Perdita, a talented pianist who is told she must give up her music when she marries. She is blind and Reisden helps her gain independence and realize her dreams are attainable if married or single. Together they search for the clues to the disappearance, and in a reenactment on the anniversary of William Knight's murder, the truth is unlocked.

Although the style may seem somewhat reserved at first, the intricate plot keeps moving at a steady pace and the reader is compelled to find out the truth. "Someone killed Richard. Now Richard wants to know why." For the reader,there's only one way to find out - and it's worth it. ❑

WHAT'S PLAYING

CALL THEATERS FOR TIMES

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)
ALIEN 3 (R)
CLASS ACT (PG-13)
DEEP COVER (R)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST.(227-1330).
COOL WORLD (PG-13)
MAN TROUBLE (PG-13)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)
PRELUDE TO A KISS(PG-13)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)
PINOCCHIO(G)
BASIC INSTINCT (R)
HOUSESITTER(PG)
FAR AND AWAY (PG-13)
WHITE MAN CAN'T JUMP (R)
SISTER ACT (PG)
BEETHOVEN (PG-13)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID (PG)
ZENTROPA
THE PLAYBOYS (PG-13)
MY COUSIN VINNY (R)
FERNGULLY (G)
THE PLAYER (R)
POISON IIVY (R)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM. AVE NR.KENMORE SQ(424-1500)
HEAR MY SONG (R)
MONSTER IN A BOX (PG-13)
MEDITERRANEO
HIGHWAY 61 (R)
HOWARDS END (PG)
A STRANGER AMONG US (PG-13)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)
A STRANGER AMONG US (PG-13)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)
ZENTROPA
MEDITERRANEO
HOWARDS END (PG)
THE PLAYER (R)
THE ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW
PATRIOT GAMES(R)
COOL WORLD(PG-13)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BOOMERANG (R)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
PINOCCHIO (G)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
HOUSESITTER (PG)
PRELUDE TO A KISS(PG-13)
UNIVERSAL SOLDIER (R)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID (PG-13)
SISTER ACT (PG)
MAN TROUBLE (PG-13)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL
628-7000
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BOOMERANG (R)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
PINOCCHIO (G)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)
HOUSESITTER (PG)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
SISTER ACT (PG)
MAN TROUBLE (PG-13)
SISTER ACT (PG)
A STRANGER AMONG US (PG-13)
COOL WORLD (PG-13)
PRELUDE TO A KISS (PG-13)
UNIVERSAL SOLDIER (R)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID (PG)

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)
BOOMERANG (R)
UNIVERSAL SOLDIER (R)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700
ALIEN 3 (R)

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140
LETHAL WEAPON 3(R)
COOL WORLD (PG-13)

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500
HOUSESITTER (PG)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
SISTER ACT (PG)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)
PRELUDE TO A KISS (PG-13)

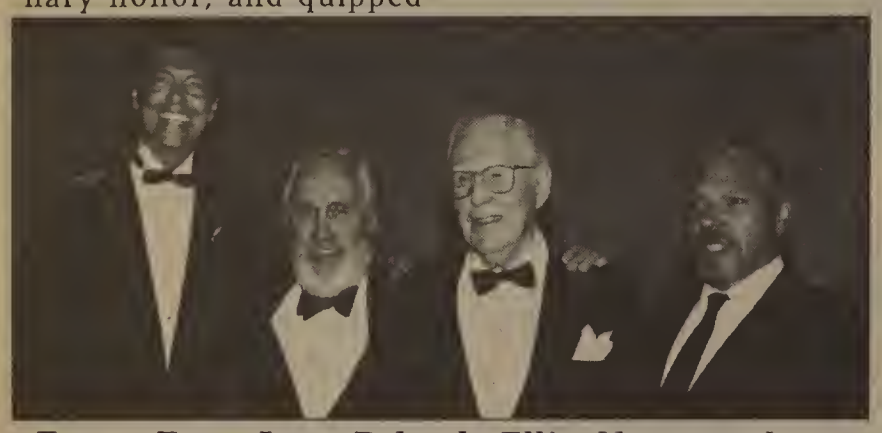
CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040
BOOMERANG (R)
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
MAN TROUBLE(PG-13)
A STRANGER AMONG US(PG-13)
UNIVERSAL SOLDIER (R)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID(PG-13)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)

COOLIDGE CORNER
290 HARVARD ST.- BROOKLINE 734-2500
THE FOURTH ANIMATION CELEBRATION
A WOMAN'S TALE
WIZARDS
WHERE ANGELS FEAR TO TREAD
RAISE THE RED LANTERN
THE FAMINE WITHIN
MY FATHER IS COMING
THE ADJUSTER
VISION OF ANIMALS

BRATTLE
BRATTLE ST., CAMBRIDGE 876-6837
8 1/2

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500
ANTARCTICA AND THE NEW ENGLAND
TIME CAPSULE
RING OF FIRE AND THE NEW ENGLAND
TIME CAPSULE
TO THE LIMIT AND THE NEW ENGLAND
TIME CAPSULE

ARTS



Summer Stock Offerings

"Playing This Week": An Out-of-Boston Experience

by Nancy Leonard

The Elliot Norton Awards

The tenth annual Elliot Norton Awards were capped with the installation of a bronze plaque in the lobby of the Wilbur Theatre. The plaque, designed and donated by sculptor Kahlil Gibran, honors "Boston's beloved and distinguished theatre critic for 48 years." At the June 29 installation ceremony, Mr. Norton thanked everyone for the extraordinary honor, and quipped that it met with his approval because he was afraid it might say "Elliot Norton slept here." That happened only once or twice, he confided.

Tommy Tune, Jason Robards, Elliot Norton and August Wilson share a happy moment at the 10th Annual Elliot Norton Awards.

Williamstown Theatre Festival

Imagine a critic's surprise and no doubt management's consternation - that headliners Blythe Danner and Edward Herrmann both failed to materialize for the mainstage production of Ferenc Molnar's The Guardsman at the Williamstown Theatre Festival. Brochures at the box office were still trumpeting their reunion on-stage "for the first time in eight seasons," but last-minute "movie commitments" apparently scuttled the outing. Fortunately, Anne Twomey and Christopher Reeve were admirable replacements in this pre-World War I comedy - though a bit more rehearsal time would have strengthened the action.

Molnar's work turns on romantic illusion. With the bloom rapidly fading after only six months of marriage, an actor fears that he will lose his new wife to a rival, and decides to impersonate the man of her fantasies - in this case, a guardsman of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Mr. Reeve's talent for comic self-deprecation - you remember his Superman adventures - served him well as the hapless husband and the dashingly ill-at-ease Teutonic soldier. His efforts provided important vigor and compelling detail. Ms. Twomey, a little theatrical and not always distinctly heard, sparked the proceedings with urgent passion and ambiguous gamesmanship. Veteran actors, Ron Holgate, as the couple's confidant, and Anne Pitoniak, as her lady's devoted confederate, added delicious spice along the way. Newcomer Arija Bareikis, a member of the non-Equity company, was impressive as a lovesick maid. Director Michael Bloom's production lost some of its steam in the third act, where he failed to pluck all the dramatic chords of the plot's ultimate inconclusiveness; but the frolicsome personalities and handsome period trappings - principally, Peter Harrison's sets and Rui Rita's lighting - allayed any serious misgivings.

Now under Peter Hunt's leadership, the Williamstown Theatre Festival remains a well-respected artistic beehive - with a full schedule of classics and new works in their main auditorium and a 96-seat extension theatre. The WTF also offers workshops, cabaret entertainment and special events throughout the summer season, by a theatrical family of 280 people. Next up: The Visit by Friedrich Duerrenmatt on the main stage beginning July 22 and running through August 2, and the world premiere of a new play by Joyce Carol Oates, entitled Black, running through July 26, on the other stage. Black stars Victor Love and Anthony Edwards. Tickets can be ordered by phone from the box office: (413) 597-3400. Information is available at (413) 597-3399.

If you're looking ahead to August, Two, by Romulus Linney runs from August 5 through August 16 and The Sweet By and By, by Frank Higgins plays from August 19 through August 30. Two is directed by Thomas Bullard. Sweet By and By stars Blythe Danner and Gwyneth Paltrow (Danner's real life daughter).

Jackie (Susan Winslow) and JFK (Mark Robert Myers study a photo layout of 50 Jackie look-alikes in Life Magazine in JACKIE: An American Life currently playing at the Hasty Pudding Theater.

Shakespeare & Company

Less august, but no less it seems, is WTF's neighbor, Shakespeare & Company, housed at The Mount in Lenox. Artistic Director Tina Packer has made a sufficient splash in Boston this year - first as the feisty Shirley Valentine at the Charles Playhouse, and then as the winner of the first Henry Jewett Prize for Outstanding Direction at June's Elliot Norton Awards - that theatre buffs will want to check out her company's summertime fare in the Berkshires.

Seventeen different productions will be staged in four theatre spaces — two indoors, two outdoors. The Taming of the Shrew, directed by John Hadden, began performances on the outdoor

(continued.)

We Have the Best Stuff

Photo by Concordia

Model: Bonnie McLaren

Starving Artist

224 Newbury St • 247-9453

ART & FASHION BY BOSTON'S FINEST UNKNOWNS

ARTS

main stage July 19. A streamlined Julius Caesar opens the 1992 Bare Bard Series in the newly renovated Stables Theatre. It runs in repertory with the Modern Play Series includes Ms. Packer's own work, Women of Will, that is her performed exploration of the changing role of women in Shakespeare's plays. Actor / director Dennis Krausnick's new play, Maisie, based on Henry James' 1897 novel, "What Maisie Knew," premieres in the Wharton Theatre, and will play alongside adaptations of Edith Wharton's short stories. The outdoor Oxford Court Theatre comes to life in late August, with Summer Training Institute productions of Two Gentleman of Verona and The History of Troilus and Cressida.

Shakespeare & Company is beginning to resemble the multi-stage Ontario festivals - Shakespeare in Stratford, Shaw in Niagara-on-the Lake - and they've retained some skilled actors, seen hereabouts in wintertime productions, for their current season. For more information, call (413) 637-3353.

The ART

In Cambridge, the American Repertory Theatre has announces that it will present Amphigorey: The Musical at the Loeb Drama Center August 26 through September 12 as part of the ART's Fall Festival. This musical revue, designed and adapted for the stage by Edward Gorey from his own prose and poetry (with music by Peter Golub), was well received earlier this year in Philadelphia, where it premiered. Daniel Levans is director and choreographer. The title, by the way, is a play on the word "amphigouri" (meaning a collection of nonsensical writings), and on the author's own name. A cast of 11 brings the whimsy to life.

Meanwhile, the ART has added ten performances to the run of Goldoni's The Servant of Two Masters, through July 28 . Shaw's Misalliance, directed by David Wheeler, returns to the repertory for fourteen performances, beginning July 15. Mr. Wheeler won this year's Elliot Norton Award for staging this work - for turning George Bernard Shaw's windy expansiveness into "wit and sheer theatrical pleasure." For information on any of these ART activities, call (617) 547-8300.

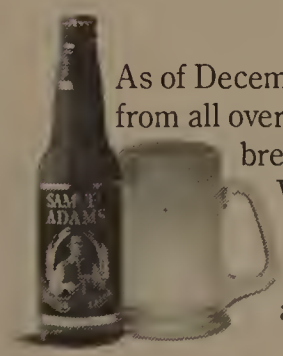
Boston Repertory Theatre

During July, the Boston Repertory Theatre is presenting the musical Yuppies and Christopher Durang's black comedy Baby With the Bathwater at the Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon Street, Boston, along with a late-night "Boston Bops" cabaret. For information, call (617) 437-7172.

Diamond Jim's

The musical revue, Manhattan, has been extended at Diamond Jim's at the Lenox Hotel - now it's scheduled to run through August 9. Stacey Hudler, Magi Merritt, Victoria Reed, Michael Sullivan, Jonathan Tomaselli and Sam Jerris (who directed) are currently in the cast. A number of solo performances have been booked to precede and follow the show. For information, call (617) 536-5300.

More Crowd Pleasers:



The Hasty Pudding

Jackie, An American Life — Gip Hoppe's cartoon-like take on the life and times of Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis - continues its return engagement at the Hasty Pudding Theatre in Cambridge. Forever Plaid - the tongue-in-cheek celebration of the guy groups of the 1950's - remains ensconced at the Terrace Room of the Park Plaza Hotel. Two new cast members were recently announced: Bruce Moore and Roy Chicas. They join Robert Lambert, who arrived last January. Only Jeff Bannon was in the original Boston cast.

Massachusetts Repertory Theatre

Down in southeastern Massachusetts, at U. Mass-Dartmouth, the Massachusetts Repertory Theatre is presenting The Marrano, a new musical, which asks if Columbus was Jewish. The book is by Manuel Mandel, Charles Osias Kelman, and Mark Bramble (who has Broadway credits and is directing). Mandel and Kelman composed the music. Simon Wiesenthal's Sails of Hope inspired the work, which is having its world premiere. The playing dates are July 15-26. For information, call (508) 999-8893. ❑

Whether It's A Wild Boar Or A Gator, An Indian Or A Buffalo, An Anchor Or A Light Ship, You'll Find It At Boodles In The Back Bay Hilton.

As of December 4, we'll proudly serve over 50 different micro beers from all over the continental United States. Beers from the smaller breweries. Beers like Kit Fox Amber from California, Wild Boar from Atlanta and of course, Boston's own, Sam Adams. So come on in, order something from our new lighter fare menu and sample a micro beer with a mega taste.

BOODLES RESTAURANT & BAR

IN THE BACK BAY HILTON · BOSTON

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are now on sale for Boston Ballet's 1992-93 season. Performances include The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, Etudes Program, Cinderella, All Balanchine and Romeo and Juliet. Call 931-2000 for more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
See The Berlin Wall, an exhibit of photographs taken from the Boston Herald-Traveler that document the evolution— and conclusion— of the Cold War (1945-1989). On display in the Wiggin Gallery balcony from 9am-5pm through July. Call 536-5400 x280 for more information.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
World-renowned climber, cartographer and aerial photographer Bradford Washburn displays more than 40 stunning black-and-white photos of the world's most dramatic mountain ranges. Through Sept. 7.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Come see NESOP's student exhibition, work from graduates of the two-year Professional Photography program. The show consists of work in black & white, color, experimental color, advertising, corporate, editorial, photojournalism and portraiture. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm; the show runs through Aug. 28.

CLASSICAL

Boston Chamber Ensemble
at Suffolk University's C. Walsh Theater
41 Temple St., Boston
Come see the Boston Chamber Ensemble perform an all-Schubert concert on July 25 at 8pm. The program will feature both orchestral and choral works by Franz Schubert, including his 5th Symphony, G-major Mass, the Namensfeier Cantata and a duet for 2 sopranos from the opera Feirabras. For ticket information, call 547-2289.

BU School of Music at the Tsai Performance Center
685 Comm. Ave., Boston
The School of Music presents a concert of the music of Johannes Brahms on July 22 at 8pm, as part of its summer concert series. On July 29 at 8pm, the School of Music performs the music of Franz Schubert. Admission for both concerts is $8 for adults; $3 for students and senior citizens. Call 353-5124 for more information.

Great Woods
Mansfield
The world-renowned Boston Pops, conducted by John Williams, return July 24 at 8pm for an evening of musical enjoyment. The program includes several of Williams' own compositions, a few old favorites and excerpts from films and Broadway shows. Tickets are $10-$30; call Ticketmaster at 931-2000

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall
27 Garden St., Cambridge
Trix Kout conducts the Longy Flute Orchestra July 30 at 8pm. Admission is free. On July 31 at 8pm, Jeffrey Rink conducts the Longy Summer Chamber Orchestra, which will perform a program including Dvorak's Symphony No. 7. Admission is $5. Call 876-0956 for more information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass. Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Boston Gay/Lesbian Film Festival
at various locations
This 8th annual festival is held Fridays at the Museum of Fine Arts, Saturdays at the Harvard Film Archive, and Sundays at MFA and the Institute of Contemporary Art. The festival runs until Aug. 1. For more information, call 266-9129.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
The BPL screens award-winning documentaries every Thursday at 6pm this summer: See The Restless Conscience on July 23; on July 30 it's Empire of the Air: The Men Who Made Radio. On Mondays at 3pm and 6:30 pm, the BPL salutes Frank Capra with a film series, It Was a Wonderful Life, Part II, The Glory Years. in Rabb Lecture Hall. On July 27, don't miss Academy-Award winner You Can't Take it With You.; On August 3, it's Mr. Smith Goes to Washington. On Tuesday evenings at 6pm, the Marylin Monroe Film Series-A Candle in the Wind will be take place and on July 28,How to Marry a Millionaire will be shown. The Admission for all films is free.

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. For further film information, call 876-6837.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
See the film series "Classics of French Cinema - Restored!"

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
See Antarctica through November: An extraordinary excursion across Earth's last wilderness in this breathtaking adventure film. Also showing are Ring of Fire (about the active volcanoes in the Pacific Ocean), To the Limit (telling the story of three athletes' quest for the ultimate performance) and New England Time Capsule (giving a breathtaking glimpse at the beauty of New England). Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only museum in the world devoted solely to educating the public about computers and their impact on society. Enjoy over 100 interactive exhibits, including the award-winning Walk-Through Computer. On exhibit through September 7 is "Silicon Sailing." Come design and race your own 75-foot, 11 story yacht against other visitors in a computer simulation of the America's Cup course. This interactive exhibit lets you explore the computer technology behind America^3, the winner of the 1992 America's Cup. This exhibit runs through September 7. On Saturday, July 25, learn how to build, program, and operate a robot. The museum is hosting two workshops from 9am to noon and 1:30pm to 4:30pm. To register, call the Museum's education line at 426-2800. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
Come see the work (1970-1990) of phenom photographer Annie Leibovitz from through July 26. It's something you don't want to miss. This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 5pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
More than 30 superb examples of handcrafted, highly ornate ship models have received a permanent home at MFA. Among the European and American models on view will be a model of the U.S.S. Constitution and the intricately carved ship known as "Royal George." Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Also at MFA is "Prized Possessions," European paintings drawn from the private collections of over 50 Boston-area and regional collectors. Artists featured include Monet, Degas, Beckmann, Rembrandt, Mondrian, Pissaro and many others. Through Aug. 16.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!," the nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs, remains on display through Sept. 7. Through Sept. 13, ponder the Norman B. Leventhal collection of more than 60 colorful, extraordinary maps ranging in age from before Columbus' voyage to the present day. Examine global climate change - its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it - in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth."

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion and dolphin performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are Mon.-Wed., 9am-5pm, Thur., 9am-8pm, Fri., 9am-5pm, Sat., Sun. and holidays 9am-6pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
at Harvard University's Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
Carlo Goldoni's The Servant of Two Masters, directed by Andrei Belgrader, runs through July 28. And returning for a limited engagement is George Bernard Shaw's Misalliance, through Aug. 2. Call 547-8300 for more information.

Hasty Pudding Theatre
12 Holyoke Street, Cambridge
Jacquie, An American Life, a comedy spoof on the life of Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy Onassis, is still going strong. This popular play has now been extended through July 26. Call the Hasty Pudding at 496-8400 for tickets and times.

Boston Center for the Arts
Leland Center
539 Tremont St., Boston
Threshold Theatre is proud to announce the second show of its debut season, "Women of Wonder: An evening with some exceptional women." Share an intimate evening of two one-act plays (Emma Goldman: Love, Anarchy and Other Affairs and How She Played the Game) with some of the most influential and dynamic women of our times. Performances are through Aug. 1, Thurs.-Sats. at 8pm; tickets are $10. Call 965-3859 for more information.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Lenox Hotel
65 Exeter St., Boston
Manhattan is a dynamic musical revue that features a theatrical collage of memorable musical moments from top Broadway shows. It is celebrating its third extension in Diamond Jim's piano bar and will run until July 31. Call 536-5300 for times and ticket information.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

North Shore Music Theatre
62 Dunham Rd., Beverly
The North Shore Music Theatre presents the Broadway musical How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying running from July 23 - August 8. Tickets are available at the theatre's Box Office in Beverly or by calling (508) 922-8500.

(continued on following page)

ARTS

(Theater continued)

Ciiristian A. Herter Park
Soldiers Field Road, Boston
The Publick Theatre, Inc., Boston's oldest resident theatre company, presents Gilbert & Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore from through Aug. 2. Young and old alike will delight in the nautical tale of Captain Corcoran, his beautiful daughter Josephine and the other colorful and salty characters on board the H.M.S. Pinafore. Call 782-5425 for more information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Wang Center
270 Tremont Street
Tickets are still on sale for Phantom of The Opera, running from August 4 through October 10. Prices range from $27.50-$60.00. Call Ticketmaster at 931-2222 or the Wang Center at 482-1242 (Groups of 20 or more) for tickets.

LECTURES

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
The BPL will hold a public forum, "Pornography and Society" co-sponsored by Men to End Sexual Assault (M.E.S.A.) on Saturday, July 25 at 1 pm. The lecture and discussion are free and open to the public. Seating is limited. For more information, call 536-5400, Ext. 336.

Boston Marriott Cambridge
2 Cambridge St.
Dr. Matthew Ralder, a Connecticut gerontologist, will explain the medical perspective on death in a lecture entitled "Death and the Beyond: Medical Investigations and Mystical Perspectives." It takes place July 24 at 7:30pm, and admission is free. Call 444-2021 for more information.

WORKSHOPS

Dance Complex
536 Mass. Ave., Cambridge
Nationally renowned choreographer Geri Houlihan will teach technique, improvisation, repertory and partnering in a series of masterclasses from Aug. 3-7. Single classes are $8.50; masterclass series (10) classes is cheaper. For information/reservations, call 547-9363.

GALLERIES

Alianza
154 Newbury St., Boston
"Tea and Fantasy," an annual exhibition of ceramic teapots, will be on view until Aug. 31. Some are sensuous, delicately airbrushed while others spout bright streams of neon, and one defies the viewer to discover its function. Hours: Mon.-Sat. 10am-6pm; Sundays 12-5pm. Call 262-2385 for more information.

Cheremeteff Gallery
121 Newbury St., Boston
On view now through July is "New Russian Realism: The Traditionalists," portraits and landscapes by Gerasimov, Shankov, Shytkhno and Danilin. Artist-in-residence Shankov is available for commissioned portraiture and landscape renderings. Contemporary Russian iconography by Gassel and Sheglov. Unique and diverse selection of limited editioned prints and graphics. Call 536-1121. Open Tues.-Sat. 10am-7pm and by appointment.

Coco's Salon Gallery
544 Tremont St., Boston
This gallery shows new works every two months, ranging from impressionist works to those of cubism in paintings and sculptures. Hours are Tue and Sat., 9am-5pm; Wed-Fri., 10am-7pm. Call 451-2050 for more information.

Gallery Per Tutti
112 South St., Boston
This unique gallery offers a salon-style format, allowing the public open communication with working artists in the Boston area. It displays affordable fine art, thus providing a necessary step to meet the changing needs of the local art environment. From July 14-Aug. 29, come see "Collaboration, Boston 1992," a collection of Boston-based photography that will be hosted by the photogs themselves. To learn more, call 482-2710.

Levinson Kane Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston
Come see "The Dog Show: Celebrating Man's Best Friend" from June 27-Labor Day. For dog lovers of all ages, this canine-inspired exhibit salutes dogs with paintings, sculpture, prints, ceramics, handmade books, photographs and more. Call 247-0545.

Mugar Memorial Library
at Boston University
771 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Providing a glimpse into an age of entertainment now past, an exhibit celebrating the life of Harry Houdini is on display through January 1993. "It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" includes a variety of correspondence and memorabilia, including old posters and photographs, from the famous magician.

Nostalgia Factory
324 Newbury St., Boston
From July 1-30, the Nostalgia Factory hosts "Ad Lib," an exhibition of original old advertising dating from the 1890s through the 1970s, featuring images and stereotypes of women. Hours: Mon.-Sat. 10am-7pm, Sun. 11am-6pm. Call 236-8754 for more information.

Speedway Gallery
297 North St., North End
See latest paintings by Brian Josselyn on "The Dream Enforcer Tour," offered to the public through July 31. You enter the exhibit through the first painting and come out inside. Two paintings rotate together in the center of the room with images of eyes and hands; other walls contain images of stars, planets and the universe, all in the palm of your hand.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Sports Museum of New England
CambridgeSide Galleria, Cambridge
Attention Bruins fans! The Puck Stops Here!, the die-hard Bruins Fan Magazine, is hosting a party on July 26 to benefit the Sports Museum as well as the Alzheimer's Association. From 1-4pm, enjoy lunch, keynote speakers from the press and the Bruins, museum admission, autographs, photo opportunities and an auction of sports memorabilia. Admission is $15; call 232-4642 for more information.

Thyroid Foundation of America
at the Westin Hotel, Boston
On July 24, First Lady Barbara Bush is coming to Boston to help raise funds for the TFA. (Three years ago, Mrs. Bush had a form of hyperthyroidism known as Graves' disease). She will speak at a luncheon at the Westin Hotel as part of Thyroid Health Day. For more information, call 726-8500.

U.S. Pro Tennis at Longwood
Longwood Cricket Club, Brookline
World-ranked tennis professionals, celebrities and business leaders join The Endowment for Children in Crisis from July 27-Aug. 2. Events include a Pro-Am tournament, celebrity auction, and a gala reception. TECC raises money for the protection of children whose medical, educational and environmental safety are compromised. Call 536-6640 for more information.

WGBH/Channel 2
125 Western Ave., Allston
The public is invited to be part of the studio audience for The World According to Us, a new feminist comedy revue series taping at 7pm July 28 and July 30. The program will showcase women comedians, music groups, sketches and social commentary. Reservations are required: call 492-2777 x3940. (See article in this issue's comedy section.)

The Arts Calendar Listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editior. We welcome the submission of press releases for all events in and around Boston. To reach us mail to The Improper Bostonian, Attn. Kathy Matheson, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village,MA 02147-0820. Please include information such as date time, duration, price, adress, phone nnumber and contact person. Listings must be recieved no later than 9 days prior to release.

BAY STATE TICKET

Shea Stadium, NY
Elton John & Eric Clopton	8/22
Wang Center
Phantom of the Opera	Aug., Sept., Oct.
Worcester Centrum Events:
Bruce Springsteen	8/13, 8/14
Foxboro Stadium Events:
U2	8/20, 8/22, 8/23
Great Woods Events:
George Thorogood / Little Feat	8/6
Dovid Byrne	8/14
Eric Clopton	8/17, 8/18
James Taylor	8/26 - 8/29
B52's / Violent Femmes	9/5
Orpeheum Theater:
Black Sabbath	8/9

We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold

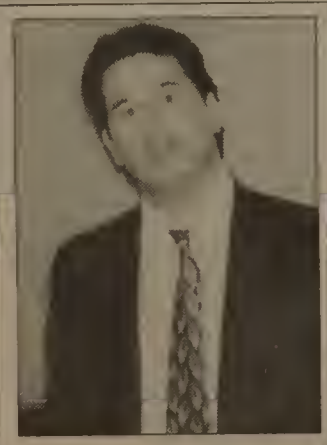
(617) 731- 4588

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"Where is your favorite place in Boston?"

Carla, 24, Watertown
"I like the bike paths along the Charles River and the sites while riding by."



Robert, 43, Dorchester
"Malcom X Park. It is a nice place to bring my children and relax."

Joe, 27, Weymouth
"Daisy Buchanan's for last call. It is a great place to end the night."

Vera, 73, Winchester
"I love Neiman Marcus because I love to spend money."

Adam, 27, Brookline
"The area around the Christian Science Building and the reflecting pool."

Greg, 25, Back Bay
"Faneuil Hall in the summertime. The city comes alive and everyone is in a good mood."

Improper Bostonian Awards

Back in the early spring of '91, when the idea of starting a newspaper entitled The Improper Bostonian was a faint flicker in the eyes of the founders, one fundamental question clarified our mission: "What makes Boston a great city?"

Of course, there were the obligatory responses, such as a highly educated population, an international culture and a history that dates back to our founding fathers. But the determining factors remained evasive at times.

Our motives were sometimes unclear. Though rents lightened paychecks, decent breakfast spots were sparse and bars closed at 2 a.m. sharp, we still chose Boston as our home.

None of this has changed.

From our passion to illuminate the truly worst and best, we offer our outcome on the following pages. The best of the best, the worst of the worst and many areas in between await you to choose for yourself those things that make Boston special.

WORST

Food & Drink

Chef

BEST Susan Regis, Biba, 272 Boylston Street, Boston. A truly difficult decision. So many talented new chefs in the area go unnoticed. But Lydia Shire protégé, Susan Regis, has really come into her own.

Restaurant

BEST Icarus, 3 Appleton St., South End of Boston. Melt your mouth but not your wings at this long neglected South End restaurant. No long lines, reservations accepted, great service and impeccable food.

Seafood

BEST Legal Seafood's, Park Plaza Hotel, Boston. The lines are long, but if you're in a hurry, there's always room at the bar to eat. . . well, almost always.

Mexican

BEST The Forest Cafe, 1682 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. It's hot, hot, hot!

WORST McDonalds new burritos. Seconds anyone? Anyone? No?

Spanish

BEST Dali Restaurant and Tapas Bar, 415 Washington Street, Somerville. With an appetizer selection like this, your appetite will never make it to the main course.

Thai

BEST Thai Gourmet, 1155 Dorchester Avenue, Dorchester. This small Thai family restaurant has yet to be discovered by the Gourmands. Their basil rice will make Savin Hill famous.

Spicy Food

BEST East Coast Grill, 1271 Cambridge Street, Cambridge. Any restaurant that dedicates a "hotter than hell night" deserves to win this award hands down. Enjoy the "pasta from hell" or their hot and spicy sherberts.

Steak

BEST Porterhouse Cafe, 2046 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge. No matter how you slice it, a carnivore's delight..

Pizza By the Slice

BEST Baldini's, 304 Stuart Street, Boston. This tiny little take-out serves an extraordinarily flavorful thin crust pizza. We are pleased to report that they will be opening a second location downtown, real soon.

Burger

BEST Division 16, 955 Boylston Street, Boston. Juicy, big and served with mountainous portions of French fries, this platter is more than a mouthful and a vegetarian's worst nightmare.

Chinese

BEST Ru Yee, 136 Adams St., Newton. Their General Gao chicken is fast conquering the hearts of Chinese food lovers. Expect a bit of a wait as this small restaurant has burst onto the scene in a big way.

Vegetarian Restaurant

BEST Five Seasons, 669A Centre Street, Jamaica Plain. From delicious soups to scrumptious non-diary desserts, this menu is so meaty, you'll never find yourself wondering "where's the beef?"

Soul Food

BEST Bob the Chef, 604 Columbus Avenue, Roxbury. Soul food addicts who need a fix of ham hocks and sweet potato pie should hit the brakes in front of this place.

Pub Grub

BEST Original Sports Saloon, 47 Huntington Ave. Their ribs will stick to yours.

Ribs

It's still a toss up between the Original Sports Saloon, Bob the Chef's, Redbone's and 27 others, but we'll have to put off starting our diets until after The Great Yankee Rib Cookoff on September 26 to make a final decision.

Indian Food

BEST Bombay Bistro, 1353 Beacon St., Brookline. Upscale, pleasant and you won't end up smelling like Tandoori.

Clam Shack

BEST Venus Seafood in the Rough, 88 Sleeper St., Boston. Their collection of past awards is well deserved for this outdoor clam shack. However, "Best-of" awards can go both to the wall and to the menu. Arrive with an empty stomach and a full wallet.

Raw Deal

BEST Clams on the half shell at Joe's Pushcart on the corner of Blackstone and Hanover Streets at Haymarket. $1.25 for three, every Friday and Saturday.

Boston's Best Chef

Susan Regis of Biba reclines in her restaurant with a friend for dinner.

Sushi

BEST Guyhama, Boston. 827 Boylston St., Boston. Go for the Rock 'N Roll Sushi (after midnight) and you'll return at all hours of the day for the freshest sushi served in a charming atmosphere.

WORST Genji 327 Newbury St., Boston. They've been slipping so much that they're in danger of slipping right off of Newbury Street.

Ethnic Restaurant

BEST Jae's cafe (Korean Sushi), 520 Columbus Avenue, South End of Boston. It's hot and trendy and has the long lines to prove it. But no one seems to mind the wait.

Italian Food

BEST Trattoria Il Panino, 11 Parmenter St., North End. When in Rome. . . do as the Romans do. But while you're wandering through the streets of the North End wondering where to eat, follow the locals to the best Italian food and the most congenial Italian waiters around. Open for a year now, it was impossible to keep this place a well-kept secret for long.

WORST The Patriots after Lisa Olson's questionable settlement.

Deli

BEST S & S Deli, 334 Cambridge St., Cambridge. More a restaurant than deli and enormously popular, trying to get a table on a Saturday morning can be a weekend long project, but don't worry they're open until midnight every night of the week.

Diner

BEST The New Yorker Diner, 39 Mt. Auburn, Watertown. For those Kerouacian late nights, they're open from 11pm-4am, Wednesday – Saturday.

Offbeat Restaurant

BEST Seagrape Tree, 890 Mass. Ave., Arlington. If you're feeling adventurous, their pink pudding is rumored to be a very effective aphrodisiac.

Power Meal

BEST Breakfast: Season's Restaurant, The Bostonian Hotel, Corner of North and Blackstone, Faneuil Hall. You're bound to feel important surrounded by local politicians, international business people and even the occasional superstar.

BEST Lunch: Lockober's, 3 Winter Place, Boston. An incredible experience if someone else is paying. They're also the recipient of our Most Conspiratorial Place to Rent a private Room for Dinner award.

Romantic Restaurant

BEST Another Season, 97 Mt. Vernon St., Beacon Hill. Quaint and Romantic (be careful, no telling what might happen). Many unexpected engagements have started here.

WORST Durgin Park, Faneuil Hall, Boston. Even if your ego can survive intact after a barrage of insults from the waitstaff, you still won't sound very romantic shouting, "I love you" over the roar of drunken tourists.

Place to go with the 3am Munchies

BEST Sami's Falafel, 299 Longwood Ave., Brookline. Twenty four hours of Middle Eastern food, seven days a week, 365 days a year.

WORST Store 24 anywhere.

Still Mobbed After All These Years: Kelly's Roast Beef, 410 Boulevard, Revere. Located in the least likely of places, Revere Beach. Even at 3am on a midwinter night, you'll still find a line.

Place To Harden Your Arteries

BEST —It's a tie—Lansdowne Street before during and after a Sox game. or the East Coast Grill on "Unhealthy Food" night. Both places are a greasy nightmare. Just don't forget to bring the draino.

Late Night Dining

BEST Boston Downtown Café, 610 Washington St., Boston. Open 'til 4 am in the morning. The in-place for late night dining.

Honorable Mention: Anywhere in Chinatown after 2am, for hot food and cold tea.

Lunch Takeout

BEST Boston Chicken. In tune with the nineties' sophisticated simplicity, its healthy, quick, inexpensive and delicious.

Free Lunch

BEST Bread and Circus, Saturday afternoons. No, we don't mean constructing sandwiches in the bread aisle while dodging the undercover shopping police. Every Saturday they serve tons of free food samples to satisfy your palate. Invite the relatives next week. No reservations required.

Middle East Takeout

BEST Ararat, 71D Arlington St., Watertown. With their authentic Shish Kebob, Losh Kebob and Pilaf. its an Armenian food lover's dream.

Come Help Us Celebrate Our 1st Anniversary July 25th!

Outdoor Courtyard Cafe Seating Available.

Lunch Sun–Sat 11:30–5:00 including brunch specials on Sunday
Dinner Sun–Wed 5:00–10:00 pm Thurs–Sat 5:00–11.00 pm

Available for private parties and functions. Valet parking.
On the corner of Commonwealth Ave. and Dartmouth St.
160 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

(617) 536-8656

Cheap Date

BEST Commonwealth Brewing Company, 138 Portland St., Boston. Good bands, good food and no cover with dinner.

Best Place to Find a Cheap Date: Playland Cafe, The Combat Zone. We're talking really Cheap.

Restaurant Transformation

WORST Skipjack's Fish House, 2 Brookline Place, Brookline Village. No, the Bundy family isn't hiding in the stock room waiting to shoot their next episode. However you may want to check the markings on the new furnishings to make sure they didn't steal them from your grandmother's attic.

Cup of Coffee

BEST Dunkin Donuts, anywhere. Sorry Coffee Connection.

Outdoor Dining

BEST Spasso, 160 Commonwealth Ave., Boston. Several steps below street level and secluded, Spasso is one place for diners to eat both outdoors and in private.

Bread

BEST Michela's Restaurant, 1 Athenaeum Place, Cambridge. In addition to ranking as one of the top ten restaurants in Boston, Michela's bakery is rising to the top of the breadbasket.

Baked Beans

BEST Durgin Park, 5 Faneuil Hall Market Place, Boston. Beans, beans, they're good for your heart, the more you eat. . . the less likely you are to impress your date.

Also: Kay's Market, 594 Mount Auburn St., Watertown - Outstanding prices and an authentic ethnic atmosphere.

Supermarket

BEST Bread and Circus all locations. The display of food is more akin to a museum than to a supermarket.

WORST Stop and Shop Boston. There's more food on the floor than on the shelves.

Most Romantic Supermarket

Star market in the Prudential center. Save time and shop for both dinner and a dinner companion.

Cheesecake

BEST Alden Merrell Cheesecake Co., 51 Langley Rd., Newton Center or 1361 Beacon St., Brookline. Of course you'll respect yourself in the morning. Not! But this is one gastronomic journey that will be well worth the trip.

Tiramisu

BEST Ristorante Toscano, 41 Charles St., Boston. Great dessert, but call to make sure the waitstaff hasn't closed the restaurant early.

Cookies

BEST Rebecca's Café, 112 Newbury St., Boston. Mocha Chip. Chip, chip, chip . . . Your will power won't stand a chance.

Still a favorite: Mint from the Girl Scouts.

Chocolate

BEST Hotel Meridien Chocolate bar. 250 Franklin Street, Boston. Invest in a glucose monitoring system before indulging in this sweet tooth extravaganza. But you'll have to wait until Labor Day. It's only available Fall, Winter and Spring.

Bakery

BEST Delphin's Gourmandise, 1336 Beacon St., Brookline. Such a fabulous French bakery, people come from far and wide to taste their delicacies.

Most Atmospheric Italian Breadery: Panini's, 406 Washington St., Somerville.

Dessert

BEST White Chocolate Bread Pudding at Cornucopia, 15 West St., Boston. When the chef took it off the menu, it spurred a rebellion among the waitstaff.

Croissant

BEST Patisserie Francaise, 54 J.F.K. St., Cambridge. The oldest croissant maker in Harvard Square is still the best after all these years.

Bagels

BEST Rosenfeld's, Newton Center, Kupel's, 421 Harvard Avenue, Brookline. It was almost a toss up but Rosenfeld's edged out Kupel's for the top billing. True connoisseurs buy bagels at Rosenfeld's and then travel to Kupel's for the cream cheese. Just make sure to get to these places super early on Weekend mornings.

Coffee Shop

BEST Atmosphere: Caffe Vittoria, 296 Hanover St., North End.

BEST Espresso and Cappuccino: Caffe Graffiti, 507 Hanover St., North End.

Diamond in the Rough: Java House, 541 E. Broadway, South Boston. Boston's last holdout against the yuppie onslaught is gently accepting the inevitable (The Java House has been gratefully embraced by both the young upscales and their neighboring locals).

Buffalo Wings

BEST Buff's Pub, 317 Washington St., Newton Corner. Fresh, tasty, meaty and fiery hot. You'll want seconds!

Tabouleh

BEST Eastern Lamajeuhn, 145 Belmont St., Belmont. Considered an appetizer by most, get your hands on this magical concoction and you'll have no room for the main course.

Ice Cream

BEST Toscanini's 84 Massachusetts Ave. and 899 Main Street, Cambridge. Good old fashioned ice cream, it's survived the onslaught of frozen yogurt and now is taking on frozen tofu. One guess who'll last longer.

BEST Neighborhood Shop Tuesday's, 30 Station St., Brookline. All types. All flavors. All toppings. All great.

Best Power Lunch Spot

Lock-Ober's, Boston's most established spot for power lunching.

Theater Popcorn

BEST West Newton Cinema, Washington St., Newton. Real butter for real people.

Addition to Boston

WORST Amsterdam's, 5 Arlington St., Boston. Maybe it's trendy in New York, but grilled Chicken Tartar just doesn't fly in Boston.

Wait for a Table

WORST Olive's 10 City Square, Charlestown. In at 8pm, seated by 10pm. But now that they've relocated, you can wash down the wait for some of the best food in town with drinks at their great new bar.

Meatmarket

BEST John Dewar on Beacon Street, Newton Center. Choice cuts and prime beef - broil, roast or barbecue-even your mother-in-law would be impressed!

After-Theater Dining

BEST Rocco's Restaurant, 5 S. Charles St., Boston. A standing ovation for what is by far the best after theater food available.

Fresh Produce

BEST Fresh Louie's Farm Market, 349A Newbury St. The talk of upper Newbury Street.

Sentimentals Favorite Local Celebrity

Julia Child whipping up a delicious Boston-style meal with some tasty local materials.

Hotel Bar

BEST The Bristol Lounge at the Four Seasons, 200 Boylston St., Boston. Besides a "come as your are" dress code, this is one of the most unpretentious celebrity bars in the city.

Martini

BEST "The Special" at The Bar at The Ritz Carlton Hotel. The Massachusetts Historical Commission should bronze the recipe for this marvelous potion.

WORST The Sports Bar in Harvard Square. Someone should tell them that a martini is made with gin - not scotch.

Margarita

BEST Marley's Landing. If you can't afford the plane fare to the Caribbean, Boston's waterfront cousin to Margaritaville has a concoction to please even the harshest of critics. People lime up at the bar.

Also try Zuma's Tex Mex Cafe. Their blue margarita is almost too pretty to drink. Almost.

Bloody Mary

BEST The Bull & Finch Pub, (Cheers). They're not just for breakfast anymore.

Place to Run into a Pro Athlete on the Make

BEST Champion's in the Copley Marriott. if Bob Wolf has them under contract.

Comedy Club

BEST The Comedy Connection, Faneuil Hall and 74 Warrenton St., Boston. Where the funny are hilarious.

Place to Engage in a Relationship of Limited Duration

BEST Zanzibar, 1 Boylston Place. This tropical theme club's simulated changes in latitudes seem to produce some real changes in attitudes.

Live Rock Club

BEST Paradise, 969 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston. It was a tough call to make, but both the bands and the crowds love this place.

Club Posing Greatest Environmental Hazard

Officer's Club, Saugus. Satellites have detected ozone depletion above the ladies room.

Live Jazz Club

BEST Sculler's, Guest Quarters Hotel, Allston. Can't be beat for an upscale jazz experience.

Honorable Mention Wally's, 427 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston. A funky and dimly-lit smaller-than-your-apartment bar.

Local Act

WORST NKOB. Maybe a bit obvious, but necessary.

In the Public Eye

Sign of the Times

BEST Kennedy Gets Married The Best Sexual Rags to Marital Riches Story - Ted from Miami Beach to Reggie in one year.

Visionary

BEST Joe Malone.

Place to Work in City

WORST Observation Booths in The Callahan Tunnel.

Runner-up- toll-taker on the Tobin Bridge.

Pro Athlete

BEST Reggie Lewis. His performances speaks for itself.

WORST Matt Young. He can't throw to first base.

Coach

BEST MacPherson, The New England Patriots. He's for real, hugs and all.

Athlete to Root For

BEST Pats quarterback Hugh Millen. So what if his running with the football at the end of the Denver game was one of the biggest gaffes since Monsieur Buckner.

WORST Jack Clark. His surly demeanor combined with his atrocious numbers and outrageous salary gives new pleasure to the art of booing.

Favorite Local Celeb

Julia Child Can you believe she's actually going to be 80 this year? Happy Birthday to Boston's one and only!

Comeback

WORST Cam Neely. Though Cam's return to the B's was short-lived, we all hope that this year will be a healthy one.

Evening Radio Personality

Most Boring: David Allen Bouchet, Bedtime Magic (WMJX). What can we say, he does his job.

Most Outrageous: Bradley J, The Sex Palace, WBCN. Sex on the brain, mid-life crisis Howard Stern wannabe.

Television Reporter

BEST Barring our panelist, WHDH reporter, Sarah Edwards from the running, our next logical choice was David Ropeik (WCVB-5). Scoop Ropeik delivers the facts with a personal touch. Makes watching the news fun!

Sportscaster

BEST Eric Clemons. Here's a guy who knows his sports and whose passion is rivaled only by his reporting skills.

Anchor

BEST R. D. Sahl, WHDH channel 7. (He's very together.)

Remington's
OF BOSTON
EATING & DRINKING EXCHANGE

Dinner for 2 • $9.95
with mention of the Improper Bostonian

- Sirloin steak tips charbroiled to taste
- Fresh Boston schrod lightly breaded and broiled
- Boneless chicken breast marinated in teriaki and broiled
- Fresh caught fish and chips

Free Jukebox Play
Thursday through Saturday Midnight–2AM

$4.00 Off ticket price for Dick Dorherty's Comedy Vault with Dinner Purchase
Friday & Saturday Nights

124 Boylston Street Boston • 574-9676

Business and Leisure

Morning Show Radio

BEST Charles Laquidara WBCN. The springs under the Big Mattress never seem to lose their bounce.

New Gossip Column

BEST "Inside Track" by Laura Raposa and Gayle Fee of The Boston Herald. The most popular page in the newspaper?

WORST "Names & Faces" by Michael Blowen of the Boston Globe, the Morrissey Boulevard crew just can't seem to get low enough to land a good undercut .

Hardest Working Socialite

Marilynn Riseman, Director of Special Functions at the Ritz. Always on the go!

Comedian

BEST Mike McDonald. This guy could make Leona Helmsley crack a smile.

Most Reformed Celebrity

Wade Boggs. Who knows what he's doing these days, but at least he's not doing it in public anymore.

Rudest Bostonians

Cops at Logan Airport. These guys would tell their own mother where to go.

Waitstaff

BEST Boodle's in the Back Bay Hilton. A prompt, courteous and well trained staff makes them oodles better than the rest.

Day of Beauty

A day at Le Pli can include a soothing, yet energizing, massage.

WORST 29 Newbury. Rude waitstaff, and its not intentional like Durgin Park.

Waiter

BEST Tony Sansevero at Paparazzi, 271 Dartmouth St., Backbay. After being trained at The Trump Casinos, Tony brings his artistic élan to the polite and sometimes impolite patrons who dine in Boston.

Waitress

BEST Amy Luciani at Geoffrey's, 651 Boylston Street, Boston. We're talking "friendly" here! If Amy dropped a plate of hot lasagna on your lap, you'd thank her and leave a 20% tip.

Bartender

BEST Timmi Lee Vernier at the Hard Rock Cafe, 131 Clarendon Street, Boston. Timmi is one southern bell who can't be stumped.

Highly Seasoned Bartender

BEST Lorraine Kalil at Lenox Hotel, 710 Boylston Street. Lorraine's no novice. Her enthusiasm alone is enough to support this great hotel.

Environmentally Aware Hotel

BEST Park Plaza Hotel for recycling everything except for the mints on the bed pillows. No styrofoam cups here, please.

Powder Room

BEST Marais.

WORST Fenway Park

Hotel Doorman

BEST Eric Avery at Lenox Hotel. He can open doors with just a smile.

Highly Intellectual Movie Ticket Rippers Who May All Have Ph.D.s

BEST The West Newton Cinema, 1296 Washington Street, West Newton.

Taxi Company

BEST Clara Constadine. Just because she's somebody's grandmother doesn't mean she can't motor up a storm. Buckle up and enjoy the ride!

Bookstore Used

BEST Avenue Victor Hugo, 339 Newbury St., Boston. Rumor has it that you need an advanced degree in library technology to work here.

Honorable mention: Harvard Book Service. If you're looking for eighteenth century Buddhist texts, that's the place.

Bookstore New

BEST (A Tie) New England Mobile Book fair, 82 Needham, Newton. Combine a bookstore, library and shopping club and this is what you get. The prices can't be beat and the rules are lax. You could read War and Peace from cover to cover without ever being asked to leave the store.

BEST Waterstone's-26 Exeter Street; Boston. This British contribution to bookstores has made browsing a sheer delight.

WORST B.J.'s Wholesale Club. Bad books, but where else can you buy 500 cans of tuna fish for thirty bucks?

Seasonal, Off-Beat, Old and Sometimes Antique Furniture Treasure Trove

BEST Organic Furniture Cellar , 25 Decatur Street, Cambridge.

New Candy Store

BEST Indulge, 25 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands. The sweetest place west of Boston. It's a candy heaven and a calorie nightmare...as fun as Willy Wonka's factory...and no risk of turning into a giant blueberry.

Wine Shop

BEST Bauer Wines Co., 337 Newbury St., Boston. With one of the largest selections of New England wines, this sophisticated wine shop is perfect for both the expert and the novice.

Most Highly Seasoned Bartender

Lorraine Kalil at the Lenox Hotel. Lorraine's no novice.

Leisure Activities

Best Waiter

Tony Sansevero at Paparazzi will attend to most of your service needs at mealtimes.

Most Dangerous Restaurant

Pizza Pad, Kenmore Square. It's not the food. Just the entertainment.

Safest Restaurant

Doughboy Police Supply, 256 Boston Street, Dorchester. A police supply and doughnut shop under one roof. Go ahead. Make my danish. Punk.

Video Store

BEST Hollywood Express, 1740 Mass. Ave. Cambridge. Great foreign film selection and the employee's best-picks section draws raves.

Politically Correct Retail

BEST WGBH Learningsmith in Harvard Square. Here's one store that refuses to contribute to consumer mind rot.

Example of a Product Masquerading as an Environmental Solution

WORST Zoo Doo, at the Blue Planet, 228 Newbury St., Boston. Gourmet fertilizer from the dumpings of zoo animals, what will they think of next?

Magazine Selection

BEST Tower Records, 360 Newbury Street, Boston. Contrary to popular belief, the best magazine selection is not in Harvard Square, unless you're an outlaw biker or adult mag fan.

Record Store

BEST HMV, 1 Brattle Square, Cambridge. A great selection and shopper friendly set-up, they are really giving Tower Records a run for their money.

Funkiest, Still-60's-After-All-These-Years (and Helpful) Old Records

Cheapo, 645 Mass. Ave.,

New Trend

BEST Upscale Young Meter Maids—the career of choice for 20-something college educated slackers? Hello?

New Fashion Trend

BEST Temporary Tattoos. Believe it or not, they're selling like hotcakes

WORST Permanent Tattoos. They might be easy to obtain with the new proliferation of underground tattoo parlors, but they're expensive to remove when you decide to announce your presidential ambitions.

City Slicking Salon on the Cutting Edge

BEST Diego Salon, 143 Newbury St., Boston.

Most Creative Socks

BEST Super Socks, 516 Commonwealth Avenue, Kenmore Square.

Attire From the Heart

BEST The "Peek A Boo" Bathing Suit, at Saks Fifth Avenue. When wet, this suit is sheer delight.

Lingerie

BEST The Lingerie Factory, 20 Custom House and 164 Newbury Street, Boston. Yes, you can afford sexy underwear on a budget

Day of Beauty

BEST Le Pli, 75 Park Plaza, Boston. Pamper yourself and let someone else make you look and feel great. You deserve it, don't you?

WORST L Street Bathhouse, South Boston. Yuck.

Best Place to Sell Grandma's Jewelry When Your Rent is Due.

BEST Roy K. Eyges, 38 Newbury St. Banking '90's style on Boston's most exclusive street.

A Modern Day Definition

Lifestyle \ 'lif-sti(ə)l \n: Ups and Downs B: Ins and Outs 2: A Way of Life (living it up yet trimming it down, tucking it in and working it out!) SYN: See Boston Athletic Club.

The Boston Athletic Club would like to announce to all Improper Bostonian customers The Summer Membership

$130

Please call for further definition 617-269-4300

BOSTON ATHLETIC CLUB

653 Summer Street, Boston MA 02210

Not just your Fitness Club, it's your Lifestyle...

FREE PARKING!

Bars and Clubs

Club Opening

BEST Marais 116 Boylston Street, Boston. Anyone who's anyone, and lots of people who aren't, shared in the party of the year at their grand opening bash.

Nightclub

BEST Esme, 116 Boylston Street, Boston. A taste of France, and the most chi-chi place to see and be seen.

WORST Destinations Sports Bar, Boston. You may be able to find the entrance, but good luck on finding the exit.

Sports Bar

BEST The Sports Depot, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. A sports fanatic's bonding ground!

Beer Bar

BEST The Commonwealth Brewery, 138 Portland St., Boston. Brewed to perfection, your mugs won't stay full for long.

Waterfront Bar

BEST Marley's Landing, Pier 6, Shipyard Quarters Marina, Charlestown. Also one of the area's best kept secret. Marley's opened within four weeks of the tall ships and has attracted sailors and landlubbers alike.

Neighborhood Bar

BEST Doyle's Braddock Cafe, 3484 Washington Street, Jamaica Plain. Some things never change.

Dive Bar

BEST Playland Cafe Inc., 21 Essex St., the Combat Zone. Even cops won't go in there.

Piano Bar

BEST Diamond Jim's at the Lenox Hotel, 710 Boylston Street., Boston. This Grand Dame of Boston recently witnessed several changes, and now she is back to her grand splendor.

Gay Bar

BEST Napoleon Club, 52 Piedmont, Bay Village. Once known as the "Wrinkle Room," new management has turned this place around to the hottest weekend dance bar.

If you're coming to New York, don't.

But for Chez Josephine, make an exception.

Chez Josephine,
the 2–star (New York Times)
restaurant on Theatre Row.
Good food, good piano, good times.

414 West 42nd Street. (212) 594-1925

TEX-MEX FOOD THAT'S REALLY HOT

Fajitas & 'Ritas

MARGARITAS & BEER THAT'RE REALLY COOL

Fajitas & 'Ritas ▼ 25 West St., Boston (near Downtown Crossing) ▼ 426-1222

Important Places

Best Place to Answer the Call of Nature While Strolling on the Commons

BEST The Four Seasons Hotel. Let the uninformed purchase their obligatory small soft drink to use the loo at Burger King. Instead you can be greeted by a uniformed doorman who welcomes you inside and directs you to the facilities.

Cool and Quiet Inner Sanctum

BEST The Houghton Library, Harvard Yard.

Health Club for Singles

BEST The Squash Club, 15 Gorham St., Allston. Consistently one of the best around.

WORST Any Jenny Craig.

Place to Rollerblade

BEST Castle Island, South Boston. A refreshing change of pace from the crowds on the esplanade.

Swimming Spot

BEST Singing Beach and Manchester-by-the-Sea.

WORST Charles River. Fish don't even like to swim there. Those windsurfers must be crazy!

Place to People Watch

BEST Ciao Bella, 240A Newbury St.. Perfectly located to watch the unsuspecting stroll up and down the street.

New Therapist

BEST The Unemployment Office. A cloud with a silver lining...at least they don't charge $150 hour.

WORST Registry of Motor Vehicles. Too cranky and snappy.

Christmas Party

BEST The Lenox Hotel July.. Though the elves and Reindeer are at the beach, Santa will be ho ho hoing all the way to Boston. Who says Christmas can't come early this year.

LA.. Wannabe

Placid Planet Surf Shop on Newbury St. Dude.

Awards were selected by a panel of judges which included:

Sarah Edwards from WHDH TV; Laura Raposa from the Boston Herald; Tony V of Catch a Rising Star in Cambridge; Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Peter McNamara and Leslie Semonian from The Improper Bostonian; Kristie Raymond from Models Inc.; Tom Bergeron and Cathy Polmorino from WBZ TV; Mary Noble King from Sacks Fifth Ave. and David Shapiro.

Special thanks to: Charles Laquadara of WBCN Radio; Tanya Contos; Jim Daley, Greg Hargrave and the Staff of Boodle's for their wonderful hospitality; Spasso for permission to shoot our cover photo on their patio; and to those on our panel of judges who chose to remain anonymous.

Gifts for Yups

BEST K Mart. All the plastic accessories dear to the downwardly stable.

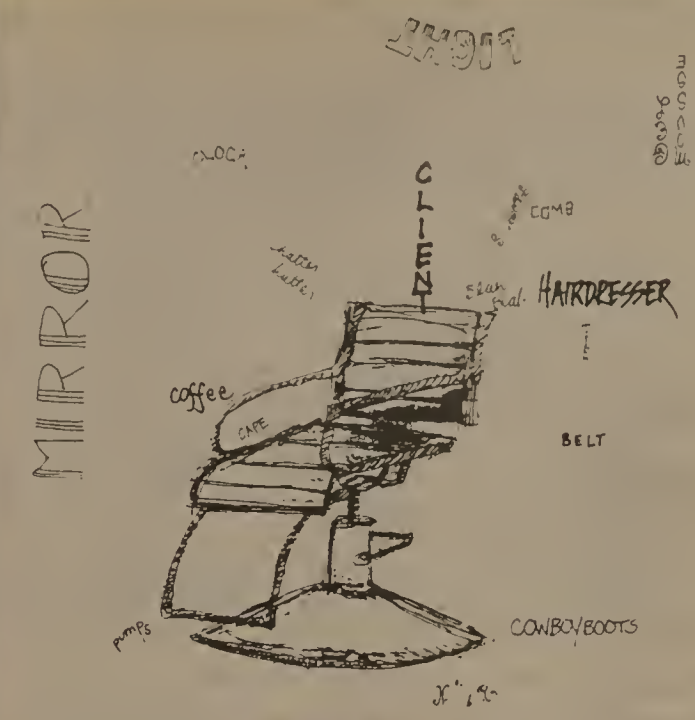
New Place to Live

BEST Jamaica Plain or Charlestown.

WORST Anywhere in the student ghettos of Allston and Brighton.

Escape for the Sophisticated Traveler

BEST Mount Desert Island, ME.

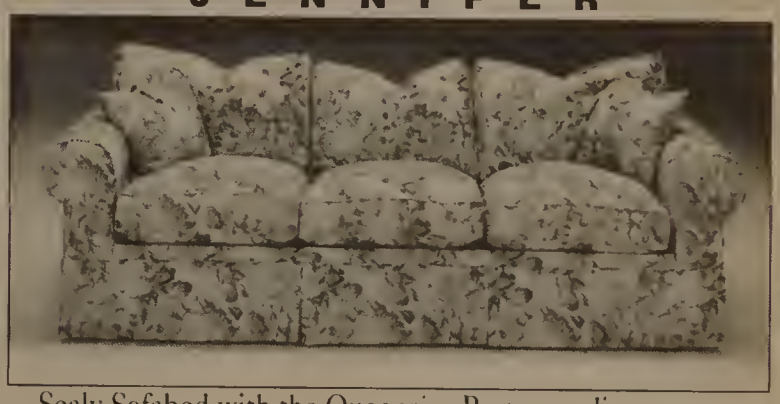


Place to Sunbathe in the Buff

BEST Surfside, Nantucket; North Truro, Cape Cod

WORST The K Street Bathouse, South Boston.

Best Place to Spend a Rainy Afternoon



BEST Isabella Stuart Gardner Museum

COCK

SALON GALLERY
NEW CLIENTS: RECIEVE A HAIRCUT FOR $15
OR 20% OFF ANY CHEMICAL SERVICE!
(Offer Not Good On Saturday)
EXISTING CLIENTS: BRING A NEW CLIENT,
AND GET TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE.
WE NOW OFFER FULL NAIL SERVICES.
544 Tremont St. Boston
(617) 451-2050
Across From Boston Centre For The Arts

SEALY'S FINEST
DOWN-BLEND
EXCLUSIVELY AT
JENNIFER

Sealy Sofabed with the Queensize Posturepedic mattress.

$999.
IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Classic Sealy sofabed with gently rolled arms and dressmaker skirt. Overstuffed down-blend cushions for deep-down seating comfort.

The quality and style you would expect on a sofabed twice the price. Covered in luxurious linen blend tea-stain print. Or choose from hundreds of other designer fabrics—Robert Allen, David & Dash, Chris Stone and others—all available at a range of prices you'd otherwise pay more for elsewhere. C.O.M. available.

JENNIFER CONVERTIBLES

Open 10-9 pm Sat.10-6 pm Sun.12-5 pm America's Largest Sofabed Specialist

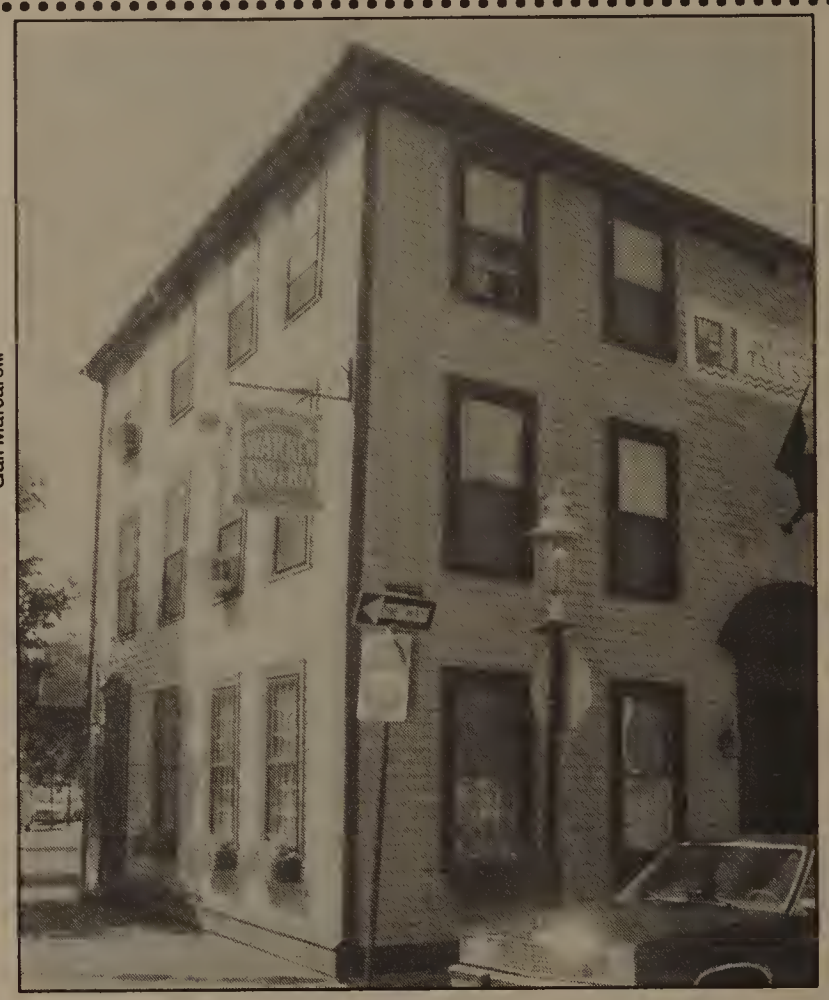
Please call 1-800-JENNIFER for the showroom nearest you.

NEW YORK NEW JERSEY CONN N HAMP WASH. DC MARYLAND VIRG FLOR ILL IND. MISSOURI MICH

DINING

The Moveable Feast

The Warren Tavern



Step Back into History For A Great Taste of the Future

by Meg Worden & Peter McNamara

It's like taking a step into the past when you visit the Warren Tavern. Part of it was built in the 1780s and this long, rambling building - complete with old oak beams and a fireplace - positively exudes authenticity. It's exactly what you'd expect in an old tavern. The oldest part is the low ceilinged bar area, and though the dining room extension was created in 1972, you would never know without being told; it blends in so well. This fascinating building alone is worth a special visit, but stay for the food too, or you'll be depriving yourself of a treat.

The seasonally-changing menu ranges from the traditional (shrimp cocktail, steak and hamburger) to unusual creations, some of which have an international twist. From among the appetizers, we opted first for a bowl of some fabulous clam chowder ($2.95) that had a lovely light cream base and was literally loaded with clams - it was rich without being heavy, and talk about a generous portion! The intriguingly named scampi pie ($6.95) was several perfectly cooked shrimp in a subtly garlic flavored sauce with a hint of citrus, topped with an ethereally light puff pastry crust. The seafood stuffed mushrooms ($4.95) were "absolute heaven" according to one of our party. The delicious stuffing, made from shrimp, scampi and clams, was nicely briny without being "fishy", and the mushrooms provided a most agreeable background flavor. Chicken sate ($4.95) was accompanied by a tasty peanut and sesame dipping sauce but was far outshone by the other appetizers.

After considering the entrees, we decided to test the kitchen's ability to produce both plain and complex dishes. The 12 ounce filet mignon ($15.95) came rare as ordered, and couldn't have been improved upon; it was both attractively presented and so tender that a steak knife was quite superfluous. Chicken Archduke ($14.95) was a light, pleasing combination of perfectly cooked boneless chicken breast with marinated artichoke hearts and roasted garlic cloves in a white vermouth sauce, served over a bed of linguine. The herbal seafood sauté ($16.95), wed together shrimp, scallops, clams and calamari in a dish that surely was a challenge to the kitchen (it's easy to overcook these ingredients), but once again, everything was perfect. This seafood was served over pasta, with a choice of red or white wine sauce; we opted for the white, which was a trifle understated. In fact, if we have a criticism at all, it is that the Tavern seems to underseason, something that's easily corrected.

Gail Marcarelli

Entrees come with a house salad, and of the dressings offered, we highly recommend the house. Made from honey and molasses, it was highly addictive, though the very intense blue cheese dressing was also worthy of note. We also tried some of the vegetables of the day - a very tasty combination of tiny pieces of cauliflower and broccoli on a bed of onions that had been cooked and reduced in beef stock.

After such a rewarding meal, we found ourselves looking forward with pleasure to dessert. The bread pudding ($3.00) was a very hearty version that included mandarin orange as a surprise ingredient. We voted the Indian pudding ($3.50) the best one we'd ever had (even better than the one at you-know-where), while the excellent caramel brownie pie ($3.50) will drive a chocoholic into an eating frenzy (we know - we had trouble wresting away even a small tasting sample from our ecstatic companion).

What a pleasant evening. The service was excellent. the wine list was small but well thought out, and the bar was able to come up with a perfect Ides of Shade on request, even though it had never been requested there before. Incidentally, live entertainment is provided on some evenings (Wednesdays and Thursdays in summer and Tuesday through Friday in winter). ❑

The Warren Tavern
2 Pleasant Street,
Charlestown
Tel. 241-8142
Hours: Open for lunch Mon-Sat; dinner served daily.
Reservations: Accepted
Credit Cards: AX, DC, MC, V
Handicapped: Step up from street; bathrooms not accessible

The early bird catches the lasagne al forno for just $8.95.

Not to mention Prime Rib for $9.95, Grilled Chicken for $8.95, Baked Schrod for $9.95, and the Chef's Special of the Day for $9.95. You'll find these complete dinners for under $10 when you come to Parmizzano's between 5 and 7 pm. The food is plentiful, the service delightful, and the check very easy to swallow. Call (617) 252-4444 for reservations.

Italian Parmizzano's Caffe

Located at the Cambridge Center Marriott • Two Cambridge Center, Cambridge
Parking up to 3 hours for $1, 3–6 hours for $2.

NEWLY OPENED

Raw Bar • Cocktails • Grill

MARCO'S RISTORANTE

Nearly 100 years of culinary excellence in the North End.

Italian Seafood Specialties "Bringing Scunggelli to Boston"

93 Salem St. North End, Boston
3 6 7 - 4 8 7 8

DINING

In the Realm of the Spirits

Lenox Hotel Brings Wine from Down Under Up to Boston

by Al Stankus

Back in the late '70s, just as movie fans were lapping up the new wave of Australian cinema and singing the praises of films like Breaker Morant, Picnic at Hanging Rock and My Brilliant Career, the wine world began to take big gulps of Australian wines. As a matter of fact, Australia became hot stuff.

But while such notable Australian film directors as Peter Weir and Bruce Beresford have moved their chairs to Hollywood, Australian wine remains permanently rooted in native soil.

Although the Australians have been making wine for almost all of their 204-year history, it's been only within the last dozen or so years that its flavor-packed, fairly-priced wines have lept into the foreign market.

On the heavy hitter side, you'll find the Rosemount Show Reserve Chardonnays and Penfold's Grange Hermitage. The latter, a leathery, richly-charred, cigar box tasting beauty jammed with cassis-like fruit, goes for around $65 a bottle. Yet many critics contend that if the bottle's origin read "France" rather than "Australia," it would fetch upwards of $100; the stuff is that good.

Looking to the consumer-friendly end, my personal favorite is Tyrell's Long Flat Red ($7). A lightly tannic, somewhat soft tasting wine, Long Flat Red is made from a blend of Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon and Malbec grapes. The result is a very fruity, easy to drink wine that can stand on its own without food.

Running close behind in the "good buys" category are Rosemount's Black Diamond Shiraz ($9.50), a very rich, deep-toned wine that does best with a few years of bottle age, and the snappy, sparkling wine produced by Yalumba dubbed Angus Brut. At a mere $9 a bottle, this is one of the best bubbly buys in town.

Mindful of what can be delivered from Australia, the Lenox Hotel will be featuring an array of Australian wines as well as beers in both its Pub and Upstairs Grill throughout July. They're also hosting a "Taste of Australia" wine dinner on July 23. The night will feature five Australian wines making their first appearance in America. Howie Rubin, wine buyer for Bauer's Wine and Spirits, says that one of the wines, Blesdale's Verdielho, "is an amazingly rich blend filled with tropical fruit flavors. It should be a great match for the Australian seafood being Fed 'Exed in for the dinner."

Other new wines being served at the dinner include Hollick's Chardonnay, winner of Australia's prestigious Jimmy Watson Trophy, annually awarded at a grand tasting as well as monster red from Scarpantoni Estates, composed of 95% Cabernet Sauvignon and softened with 5% Merlot.

The cost for this dinner is $75. To reserve a space at the Lenox, call 536-5300. ❑

(617) 338.4600

Menus from Hot Climes

Cornucopia welcomes you to our annual inernational festival of warm weather cuisine.
Each Menu features our Chef Stuart Cameron's interpretations of three traditional courses for $25 per person.

cornucopia

15 West Street, Downtown Boston

Spanish	Moroccan	Thai
July 28 – August 1	August 4 – 8	August 11 – 15
Cajun	Mexican
August 18 – 22	August 25 – 29

We Welcome Diners Club International

Validated Parking is available after 4pm at the Lafayette Garage.

Appeteasers

by Peter McNamara& Marge Chryssostomidis

The Real Way To Enjoy Art

Wine, cheese and art is a pleasant combination, and if you head off to Mellea Farm Vineyards in West Dudley on July 26, that's just what you'll find. Landscapes is the theme of the artworks being displayed by New England artists that day from noon-5pm, accompanied by complimentary refreshments. For information, call (508) 943-5166.

Museum Dining

Expect some changes at the Fine Arts Restaurant in the Museum of Fine Arts. During July, the restaurant will be closed while the kitchen is renovated and the dining room remodeled. Word is that the new decor will be very attractive.

Everyone's Got The Blues

We thought that the blue-blooded name "Copley" was overworked, but it pales in comparison to the use of blue in restaurant names. We already have the Blue Diner, the Blue Nile, the Blue Potato, the Blue Room, the Blue Star, the Blue Strawberry and the Blue Wave. Now, here comes the House of Blues, scheduled to open in September at 96 Winthrop Street (Harvard Square). The manager will be Jim Dunn, former manager at Fynn's and the Boston and Paris Hard Rock Cafes.

Cake For A Day

Mike Mercogliano of Mike's Pastry Shop at 300 Hanover Street, Boston, is celebrating 40 years in the business by remodeling his current premises. We hear that marble is featured in the new look.

An Artiste of the Cake

If you've always wanted to try your hand at elaborate cake decoration, you'll have the opportunity at Kitchen Bazaar's Wilton Basic classes which meet weekly for four weeks; choose from Wednesday classes beginning August 5, or Thursday classes beginning August 6. For information, call 621-6990.

Man-Made Vegetables

Return of the Killer Tomatoes? Thanks to a Newton resident (and the New York Times) a new word has entered the food vocabulary - franken-food - referring to the new breed(?) of man-made produce created from genetic odds and ends. We can hardly wait to see them in our local supermarket.

Downtown Fun

A warm welcome back to Dan Holmes, whose Boston's Downtown Cafe recently reopened at 610 Washington Street. It will be open daily from 7am - 4am, and many regular and special events are planned, including a Children's Literary Hour on Mondays at 5pm, Tuesday evening poetry readings, Jackie O's Annual Birthday Party on July 27 (no cheap sunglasses, please), plus wine tastings and seminars. Cheese lovers should note that unusual and hard to find cheeses will be featured. For more information and reservations, call 338-7037.

The Juicy Details

More openings, closings and other changes. Contrary to past rumors, the upstairs dining room at the Hampshire House did not close and reopen, it simply changed its name - to The Library Grille...Keep a lookout for Kaya, a new Japanese /Korean restaurant expected to open soon on Boylston Street between Clarendon and Dartmouth...Having been taken to court by a certain restaurant with a different name, the Soft Rock Cafe on Boylston Street, Boston is now aptly renamed the Counterpoint...Olive's has at last moved to larger premises at 10 City Square, Charlestown; the original restaurant is being converted into a pizzeria (as yet unnamed)...We are sorry to report the loss of a charming North End restaurant with the recent closing of Ottavio's...We also hear that Las Brisas just closed down.

People in the News

Chef Victor Fernandez has returned to the Four Winds on the waterfront after a year's absence from Boston...A belated happy birthday to veteran waiter Jim Dube of Hamersley's Bistro. By the way, Jim, is there any truth to the rumor that Hamersley's might be crossing the road??..Good luck to Moncef Meddeb on the recent opening of his Concord restaurant...Good luck, too, to our friend Hakim Sabri who recently joined the staff at the Harvard Bookstore Cafe...When you go to Geoffrey's Cafe, for service with a smile, be sure to request the charming Amy Luciani as your waitperson. Not only is she helpful and attentive, but she is also in desperate need of a new answering machine (so tip her well).

Thanks For The Memories

Finally, on a sad note, our deepest sympathy to family and friends of Thom Troy, pianist at Diamond Jim's in the Lenox Hotel and at other local nightspots, who unexpectedly passed away recently. He will be sorely missed.❑

The North End's Getaway for HeartyAmerican Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

Chef Jill Rodgers included in America's 2000 for
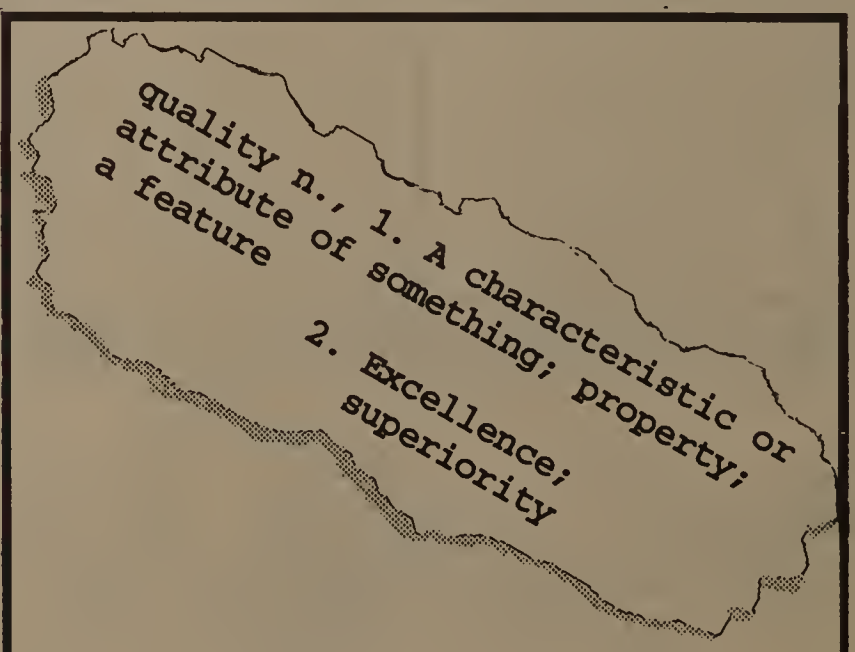
"Providing culinary leadership into the 21st Century"
-Chefs in America

Lunch, Dinner & Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274



"I'll treat you just like family except you won't have to do the dishes"

Come for our Pollo e Vitello alla Verdicchio

This delectable dish is made with chicken and veal with artichoke hearts, olives and mushrooms, sautéed in Verdicchio wine.

Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street."

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

Fresh Louie's Farm Mkt. & Seafood
Hours: Mon-Fri 9am-8pm, Sat 9am-7pm, Sun 12-5pm
349A Newbury St. Boston 247-1474
For a minimum purchase of $10, you can have validated parking right next door.
&

DINING

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change

Aujourd'Hui
Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive, except for tip); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro
1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain starting at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor
2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $16.95 (all inclusive); $9.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo
236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café
1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual summer buffet brunch. Summer brunch will be served now through Sept. 5. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $17.95 for all you can eat; $9.95 under 10. Brunch Sun. 9am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner
178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri
250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Davio's
5 Cambridge Parkway, Camb., 661-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at noon. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. Reservations are suggested.

Hampshire House
84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. New Orleans Jazz Brunch served 10:30am - 2:30p, $12 - $16.

Harbor Terrace
296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the Harbor Terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I
71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill
279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Oasis Cafe
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American home-style fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant
Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Ritz Carlton
15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S Deli
1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

Serendipity III
120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt
575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouthwatering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café
338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station
64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

MELLEA WINERY

Free Wine Tasting
at Beacon Hill Wine & Spirits, 63 Charles Street
Friday, July 24 5-7:00pm

July 26 is our New England Art Celebration with landscapes of New England by regional artists. Enjoy complimentary native wine, cheese and fresh-baked bread!

Free Tasting and Tours
Enjoy our brookside picnic area and 30 acres of New England Countryside

"As Massachusetts residents, you are required to try it."
- David Raines, Gordon's

108 Old Southbridge Rd., W. Dudley, Ma. 508-943-5166
Call for info. on summer events; arts shows, concerts & chef visits.

ARARAT RESTAURANT

Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates
4.75 Each

FREE SOFT DRINK
(12 oz. can)
With Purchase of
Half Rotisserie
B.B.Q. Chicken Plate
includes Rice Pilaf
Salad & Garlic Sauce.
$4.99 plus tax

We also serve beer and wine. Please come in and visit us.
ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 Arlington Street, Watertown, MA.
(617)924-4100*(617)934-7011

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727
A,MC,V$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Amsterdam's,
54 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel
426-1111
A, MC, V $$
Don't let the name fool you. Amsterdam's is the epitome of American Bistro. The most popular eat at this new hotspot is the Rotisserie roasted chicken. Choose from a variety of appetizers such as spicy fried squid. Stick around after dinner on Sunday and Monday nights to catch live Jazz from 9-2am. Casual dress. Open 7 days until 2am.

Ararat
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof,
1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA,
272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only.

The Black Goose,
21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Starting in Nov., Wed.-Sat. nights, eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef,
604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here.Any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Come on down! Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles,
Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537
A,D,MC, V$$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Featuring a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees & grilled fresh seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am -11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

Cactus Club,
939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200
A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, cacti, shark with pineapple salsa as well as more traditional staples. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Caffe Graffiti
307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016 $
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a selection of Easter goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Italia
279 Newbury St., Boston, 536-3556 $
Sip cappuccino and espresso from the early morning light into the balmy summer night at this authentic Italian cafe. Mangia imported pastries, Gelati, calzone, arancini, panzarotti and more from 8 am-12am Monday through Thursday and 8am-2am Friday through Sunday. Relax and enjoy a late night dessert on their outdoor terrace open until 2 am on weekends.

Casa Portugal,
1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880
A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown.It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia,
15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes every three months but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali,
415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254
A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pesos as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette to n/ame a few. The paella, the Spanish national dish of saffron rice, vege-

CAFFÉ Graffiti

"Come In And Sign Our Wall."

▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato

CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

$3 OFF ANY PURCHASE OF $10 OR MORE Indulge!
25 Lincoln Street Newton Highlands, MA
965-7855
Over 200 Varieties of Candies, Nuts & Dried Fruits.
Custom Gourmet Chocolate for Weddings, Bar Mitzvahs & Special Occasions • Customized Gift Baskets • Corporate Gifts • Low Calorie Candy
SHIPPING AND HAND DELIVERY
Not to be combined. Expires 8/31/92

CAFÉ BRAZIL
Bem-vindo! Welcome!
Serving Beer and Wine.
- Listen to Live, Acoustic Samba and Bassa Nova While Enjoying a Scrumptious Dinner!
Reasonable Prices!
15% off w/ this coupon.
*Not valid unless presented when seated. Good Sun - Thurs for lunch or dinner. Expires August 15, 1992
421 Cambridge St., Allston MA
789-5980

"Home of Italian Pizza and Pasta"
NOW SERVING DINNER

SIENNA'S
Come Dine with us in our Friendly and Casual Atmosphere with Great Italian Food.
Dinner Served Mon. - Sat.; 5p.m. -11p.m.
214 LINCOLN ST., CORNER OF KNEELAND ST.
426-6665

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

bles and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Madrid. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Four Winds,
266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922
A, MC, D, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open from noon to 2am daily.

Good Time Billlards
30 Sturtevant St., Sommerville (across from Assem. Sq. Mall)
628-5559
A, MC, V, Diner's Card
$
A good time and a good meal is what you can expect when you dine at this upscale billiards club. To work up your appetite, play a round of pool or try your hand in the batting cages available. The chef, Ray, offers much more than ordinary pub grub with his creative specials. Try the Jalapeno Papa, a deep fried jalapeno stuffed with cheddar cheese for a delicious appetizer. Chicken Cordon Bleu and a 12oz. juicy Porterhouse steak can be found on the menu along with regulars such as chicken & broccoli with ziti and a killer burger and fries combo. The desserts ranging from apple pie and double chocolate cake to ice creams and sherbet will be sure to cure your sweet tooth.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050
A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I,
71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces.
Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus,
3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V
$$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms, braised with roast garlic and sage, with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499
$
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Joyce Chen,
115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373
A, MC, V $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring specialsto celebrate the Dragon Boat Festival. Special dishes include Lotus Salmon, Chinese Country Style Chicken, Tea Smoked Ribs and Empty Heart Greens. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 27 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house lab under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

Loading Zone
150 Kneeland St., Boston 695-0087
V, A, MC, DC, D$$
You can load up on a number of barbecue specialties while enjoying one of Boston's more artistic restaurant experiences. Tables are glass-topped over a variety of paintings, sculptures and more - all by Boston artists. For a new patron, you can't go wrong with their combination platter, or "Pig Out" as it's affectionately labeled. This platter offers a wonderful sampling of 3 spare ribs, baby back ribs, pork shoulder, brisket and bbq chicken. Lunch 11:30am to 5pm, dinner from 5pm to midnight. Don't miss their club nights - 3 times a week.

Marco's Ristorante
93 Salem Street, North End
367-4878
A, MC, V, Diner's Card, Carte Blanche
$$
When you step into this tastefully decorated contemporary decor, you will be in for a treat that won't leave your wallet empty. Begin with a cocktail from the fully licensed bar to compliment your scungelli, seafood insalata, or a selection from their fresh raw bar. While Marco's offers a mainstay of delicious seafood from an excellent clam chowder to a mouthwatering swordfish, they also serve a variety of grilled and broiled entrees. Finish your meal with a scrumptious slice of homemade ricotta pie and a cup of one of the assortment of international coffees available.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959
V,MC $$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

SORENTO'S italian gourmet

Our gourmet food is prepared to order for you with the finest meats and ingredients.

We are committed to serving our customers in the fastest and friendliest way possible.

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

Purchase any pasta dish and receive insalata FREE
Good Sunday - Wednesday
Valid for pick up or delivery orders only.
Limit 1 per order. No double discounts.
Tax based on full value of meal.
Offer expires 8/15/92

Purchase any large combination pizza and receive a small cheese pizza FREE
Good Sunday - Wednesday
Valid for pick up or delivery orders only.
Limit 1 per order. No double discounts.
Tax based on full value of meal.
Offer expires 8/15/92

FREE DELIVERY
(Limited Delivery Area)

Please mention this ad when ordering.

86 Peterborough St. Boston, MA 424-7070 (Behind Star Market in the Fenway)

The Improper Bostonian's Restaurant Listings

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century. Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury St. Open noon to midnight.

Noble House,
1306 Beacon St. Brookline 232-9580
A,D,MC,V $$
Dine on Cantonese and Hong Kong cooking spiced with eccentric flare. Choose from fresh seafood specials daily or sample the tried and true chicken with macademia nuts. For you Szechuan lovers, don't despair, you can still find your dumplings. Noble's boasts a full wine list as well as its own Dim Sum from noon to 3pm on Sundays.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

The Original Sports Saloon
47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
This neighborhood restaurant and bar is the only place to go in Boston to watch a sporting event. This true authentic establishment roars with excitement no matter which sport is showing on their five satellite T.V.'s. As far as their menu, barbeque is the name of the game here. The Saloon also offers a variety of other menu items from burgers to seafood, but they do it different than anyone else. All items are available for take-out and delivery. Open 11 am-2am, 7 days a week.

Patisserie Francaise
54 JFK St., Cambridge, 354-9850
$(lunch)$$(dinner)
If you yearn for Paris in the summertime, try out this little French café in Harvard Square. They serve fresh food from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday and Monday, and until 10 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Lunch consists of omelets, salads, soups, and sandwiches. Dinner adds typical French cuisine, freshly-cooked, to the menu. And the deserts include every chocolate and fruit-filled concoction you could imagine.

Rattlesnake,
382 Boylston St., Bos. 859-8555
$$
This serpentine-style restaurant and bar sports an inlaid python skin on the bar and a new Food of The Americas menu that's sure to wet your whistle. Try the grilled salmon with pumpkin salsa and mango relish or the pepper pot stew, a low calorie blend of meat and vegetables served over rice. If you still need a little lubrication, sip one of their inspirational margaritas. Open from 11:30 to 2am on weekdays and 12pm to 2am on weekends.

Ristorante Carlo Marino,
8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltimboca alla Romano - veal layered with prosciutto with fresh sage, sautéed in wine; Spinaci di Casa - spinach sautéed with garlic oil, cannellini beans and prosciutto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Slenna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC, V, A $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary situated in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston.

Sorento's, 86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC,V $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

1280
Mexican Restaurant

THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD. LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.

The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

RUSSELL UP A TALL ORDER OF RIBS

Score with your crowd by taking home a 5 lb. bucket of the "best ribs this side of Dixie".
A host of food critics have been cheering about the Original Sports Saloon's Memphis Style Ribs for over a year. Now you can treat 8 of your hungriest and best friends to over 5 lbs. of Hog Heaven at our place or yours. It's a great way to make extra points with your home team.

SPORTS The Original SALOON
CORNER OF HUNTINGTON & EXETER
IN BOSTON'S BACK BAY (617) 536-1904
THE PLACE TO TOUCH BASE BEFORE YOU RUN HOME

HOT TICKETS

GREAT WOODS

885 SOUTH MAIN STREET (ROUTE 140) MANSFIELD, MA 02048
1-508-339-2333; BUSINESS OFFICE 1-508-339-0002

Wednesday, July 22
Santana
Opening Act: Phish
$21.50, $20.00 pavilion, $15.00 lawn

Friday, July 24
Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra
John Williams, Conductor
8 pm

Saturday, July 25
Paula Abdul
Opening Act: Color Me Badd
$22.50 pavilion, $15.00 lawn

Sunday, July 26
Dolly Parton
Opening Act: Mike Reid
$25.00 pavilion,
No lawn tickets

Monday, July 27
Lisa Stansfield
$22.50
Intimate 4,000 seat setting

Wednesday, July 29
Emerson, Lake and Palmer
$22.50, $20.50 pavilion, $15.00 lawn

Friday, July 31
Beach Boys
$21.50-$17.50

Saturday, August 1
The Big Gig
$10.00

Sunday, August 2
Bob Weir with Rob Wasserman with Bruce Cockbum, Michele Shocked
$21.50, $19.50 pavilion, $17.50 lawn

CAPE COD MELODY TENT

23 WEST MAIN STREET HYANNIS, MA 02601
1-508-775-9100; BUSINESS OFFICE 1-508-775-5630

Thursday, July 23
Tom Jones
8 pm
$27.00

Saturday, July 25
Stars of the Lawrence Welk Show
2 pm & 8 pm
$20.00

Sunday, July 26
Randy Travis
8 pm
$37.00

Wednesday, July 29
Patti LaBelle
8 pm
$27.50

Thursday, July 30
Tony Bennett
8 pm
$27.50

Friday, July 31
The Preservation Hall Jazz Quartet
8 pm
$18.50

Saturday, August 1
The Everly Brothers & Dion
8 pm
$25.00

Sunday, August 2
An Acoustic Evening with The Manhattan Transfer
8 pm
$29.50

OTHER

Thursday, July 23–August 8
"How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying"
North Shore Music Theatre, Beverly, MA 8pm M–Sat; 2pm Mat. W, Th, Sat

Sunday, July 26
Annie Leibovitz Exhibit
Institute of Contemporary Art 10am–9pm
$5.00

Friday, July 31
Guns N' Roses, Metallica, Faith No More
Foxboro Stadium, 6:30 pm

Sunday, August 2
Natalie Cole
Holman Stadium, 7:30 pm
$30.00-$20.00

Tuesday, August 4
George Thorogood/ Little Feat, 7:30 pm
Riverside Park, MA
$32.00-$21.50

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

JULY

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
			1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22 KC 8:35	23 MIN 7:35	24 MIN 7:35	25 MIN 3:00
26 MIN 8:05	27 TEX 7:35	28 TEX 7:35	29 TEX 7:35	30	31 BAL 7:35

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1 BAL 1:05
2 BAL 1:05	3 TOR 7:35	4 TOR 7:35	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 7:35	19 CAL 7:35	20 CAL 7:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA	24 OAK	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05
30 CAL	31 SEA

□ Away
■ Home

TV GAMES ON WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

MUSIC

All in the Name of Fun

Weir and Wasserman Collaborate on Tour & Album

Bob Weir & Rob Wasserman opt for Great Woods instead of Hawaii

by Colleen MacDonald

They can be called "Bob Weir and Rob Wasserman" or vice versa - and it wouldn't matter. It's not that neither are as accomplished as the other. In fact, the opposite is true. Both are as experienced as the other and both are huge names in the 'Industry.' As collaborators, neither have total control because neither wants to take full responsibility.

"I'd call it two friends who enjoy playing together on stage havin' fun," explains Wasserman, who as an accomplished session musician and solo artist has gained critical support and a wide ranging audience. As a well-respected bass player, he has toured and recorded extensively with the likes of Van Morrison, Rickie Lee Jones and Oingo Boingo. "Working with so many kinds of people made me appreciate the many things a bass can do," he explains. "It also made me realize the things I didn't want to do - like be part of a 10-piece group, doing the same thing over and over. My main pleasure, I learned, is working for myself, coming up with ideas and then being a part of them."

Weir, on the other hand, is a part of a large group, probably one of largest groups audience-wise than any other. As the singer/guitarist of the 'forever' band (The Grateful Dead), he has withstood what Wasserman despises - playing the same gig over and over and over again. Averaging at seventy-five concerts a year, The Dead have defined not only the epitome of a live show but also the whole concert experience. Followed by a faithful following of Deadheads, the band, as well as their audience, have defined a whole subculture of earthy, socially-conscious, hairshirt-toting sprites who revel in the aura of the band.

As a team, Weir and Wasserman have yet to release an album. Instead of the standard tour to support an album, they are taking it in the opposite direction. "We're not trying to sell anything," explains Wasserman. "We don't have an album to sell, though we're working on one. That gives us artistic freedom to play what we want, which isn't to say that we get caught up in this artiste thing. We don't take ourselves seriously."

This forthcoming album (which has yet to be completed) isn't just a collaboration between the two of them. Joining Weir and Wasserman on both pen and instruments are a rather eclectic collection of fresh new faces and tried-and-true musicians, such as Michael Penn, Chris Whitley, Michelle Shocked and the late Willie Dixon. "We're working with different songwriters to create all new material, written especially for this album," says Wasserman. "The idea is to bring the writer into our musical sensibility, which gives each song its own unique personality."

Testing out the new material live is going to be a rather interesting experiment for the two. While some may argue that they are coasting on the coattails of their respective careers and taking advantage of the fame from their own bands, Weir and Wasserman are just doing it to have a good time. Fun is the root of everything that they do together. "We wouldn't be going back on the road so soon if we really didn't enjoy it," Wasserman muses. "Bob and I could just as easily be relaxing on the beach in Hawaii or working on other projects we are involved with." It's too bad that they can't relax on the beach and play their instruments to their audience. ❑

Bob Weir & Rob Wasserman Are Scaring the Children Tour
with special guests
Michelle Shocked &
Bruce Cockburn
At Great Woods,
Sunday August 2
Call Great Woods or
Ticketmaster at 931-2000

Exploring Untravelled Paths

Singer / Songwriter Joe Henry Searches for Meaning

by Rey Roldan

Robert Frost once mused about the road not taken and how that one particular road has "made all the difference." Singer/songwriter Joe Henry has made a life of searching out those untravelled paths and discovering where they lead. With a brand new album Short Man's Room (Mammoth Records) and an intimate, club tour, Henry hopes to bring his audience along for the ride.

"The process of writing is to find out what you're writing about," mused Henry during a recent conversation from Minneapolis. "It's like when you walk down a path when you don't know where it's going. You just follow in good faith and try to keep up. Sometimes it really surprises me where it goes. A song on my new record, 'King's Highway,' came out a surprise. It's about a murder but I didn't know that when I was writing it until I got to the third verse."

This wanderlust is not only evident in his music but in his life as well. Originally signed to Profile Records in 1986, he switched labels and ventured onto A&M Records in 1989. "My first record [Talk of Heaven] was made with a lot of naiveté," he remembered. "There wasn't a whole lot of control coming from my end of it. When I went to A&M, I was a lot happier because I did a lot more for myself." Being a victim of the big PolyGram band purge when a host of labels (A&M and Island among many others), Henry soon found himself without a deal. Instead of waiting for a deal to come to him, he went straight to work on his fourth LP. Completing it in six months, he went searching for labels and contracts. Henry chose Mammoth Records, one of the last great indie labels left in the US. "It's a whole new world and nothing like stepping back into the Minor Leagues," he said. "I had finished Short Man's Room before I ever met anyone at Mammoth. I took it to them as a finished piece. I didn't have to answer to anybody when

(continued on following page)

A Spooky Kind of Band

Lush Opens Lollapalooza '92

by Peter Suciu

The members of Lush, whose music has been described as "Dream Pop," have found themselves quite occupied lately. Recording, touring, recording more, touring again and doing interviews, lots of them. When asked if they were tired of interviews, vocalist/guitarist Miki Berenyi laughed, "We'll pep up. I've got my Diet Coke for the caffeine rush!"

The history of Lush began in London in 1980 when Miki first met up with Emma Anderson. "We both played bass in different bands. Then we met Chris [Acland] and he played drums. So we formed a band." Adding bass player Phil King from the seminal British band Felt, the band was complete.

Musically, only Chris had any formal training. But that never stopped anyone, and certainly not anyone in the London club scene of the post-punk era. "We were more punky then. It was a sound we were capable of making," admits Miki. "You play three chords and shout a lot. It was perfect for what we were doing."

Over the years, Lush developed a unique sound and a musical tightness. Eventually, they signed to 4AD Records. In 1989, Lush released its first EP Scar and a second EP Mad Love a year later, which scored number one on Alternative charts in the UK. Lush was subsequently signed to Reprise Records in America.

Besides their unique sound, some critics have noted their unusual line-up of two female guitarists. "As I said, Emma and I both play bass. A lot of bands have women bass players. But a lot of women want to write music and not just play bass, so they tend to go solo. When Emma and I chose the others to be in the band, we weren't looking on the basis of professionalism. We didn't need great musicians because we weren't great musicians."

With the new record Spooky, many critics are quick to point out other 4AD bands, most notably The Cocteau Twins. "That's to be expected; it's just a journalist opinion. But there are elements of The Cocteau Twins especially since Robin Guthrie of The Cocteau Twins produced this record."

Lush are no strangers to tours. The band co-headlined with their friends Ride before doing several dates with Jane's Addiction. "Both were really fun and successful. It was great getting to see Jane's Addiction six times," jokes Miki. "But it was weird playing for so many of their fans."

When mentioning their own tour, Miki admits that a couple of songs from the new LP couldn't be done because of production reasons. "Live, we can't do all our songs. Some are too complex in the way they were recorded. They have four or five tracks of guitar. And we don't use any backing tapes. Our show is totally live, so we can't do those songs."

Miki also expressed her feelings at being considered an Alternative sex symbol. "Oh please, no. We're not sex symbols. It's because if you're a woman in a band, people have these views that you're pure or raunchy. We don't contrive innocence, but we're not fucking drug queens or would sleep with anyone."

As a band, Lush delivers strong music, and as people, witty and aggressive opinions. With a new album and a much coveted spot on the upcoming Lollapalooza tour, this should be just a sample of things to come. ❑

Phil King, Miki Berenyi, Emma Anderson and Chris Acland of Lush

Lush
Appearing with
The Red Hot Chili Peppers
Ministry, Ice Cube
The Jesus and Mary Chain and Pearl Jam
At Great Woods
Friday & Saturday, Aug.
7&8 from 2pm till whenever
Call the Great Woods Box
Office at (508) 339-2333 or
Ticket Master at 931-2000.

Joe Henry takes the road not taken.

(continued from previous page)

I was writing this record. I had a lot of freedom by default."

While some may call him a visionary because of his poetic style, he prefers to be known simply as a musician and artist. "What kind of idiot would I be to imagine myself as being one of those," he laughed. "People call other people 'visionaries' when they can't understand what they're talking about." While he might not see the connections, others see it in a different light. The Chicago Sun Times, for example, likened his third album Shuffletown (A&M) to Van Morrison's Astral Weeks. "That comparison surprised me," he said. "Astral Weeks is one of my favorite records ever. But I think the songwriting has very little in common. The songs on Shuffletown are very short, sort of like little bursts. Astral Weeks, as a whole, is like a tightrope walk. It's this beautiful thing that's suspended for eight to ten minutes at a time. I don't necessarily see the association."

Short Man's Room is a new start for yet another trek down yet another road. Where this road may take him, neither he nor anyone knows. But his approach to life is very similar to his songwriting. "Living life is like the process of writing," he mused. "I'm just trying to find out what I'm all about." ❑

Tribe at Avalon

Appearing at Avalon on Wednesday, July 29 is Boston's own Tribe. Coming back from an extensive tour of the US and UK in support of their Slash Records release Abort, the critically acclaimed band return for a homecoming bash. Culling hits off Here At the Home and their new release (which contains a good portion of Here), Tribe have made it customary to play an incredible set. Tix are $15 and are available at the Orpheum Theatre Box Office, or call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 for more info. ❑

Tribe - Greg LoPiccolo, Terri Barous, Eric Brosius, Janet LaValley and David Penzo

MUSIC

Musical Notes

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

Atomic Candy is x-Allston Alehouse Rick Paige's new store in Salem...Bosstones on national tour going to Europe in Aug...Luther Guitar Jr. Johnson just back from a national tour. See him at Ed Burke's on the 14th or at Johnny D's on the 24th. At Johnny D's say hi to our Doorperson Of The Week Flo Murdock, who also does some of the booking. Joe Krown left Luther's band and is now with Clarence Gatesmouth Brown touring France...See Chloe and Big Chief at Bun's on the 29th...Marky Mark working on a new album...Eric Boyer's Rock Shop opening a new place in Norwood...Happy happy to Fighting Cock Jamie Sever. Keyboardist Cindy Chen now in his group...Childhood working on a new tape for some stupid record companies who actually want to hear it...See The Incredible Casuals every sun. at The Beachcomber in Wellfleet and say high to mgr. Dan Murray...Snydley Whiplash now Mother Lode...Drummer with a superego problem: Carl Coletti from The Hoods seen reading "Intro To Jung Psychology." "I have no ego," demurs Carl..."Getting Soul The Hard Way" is Katie Traphagen's fave song by Digger...We like it tool See the band at The Rat with The Hendersons on the 25th...Barkeep Of The Week is Michael Martin from the Plough And Stars cause he gets to hang out with Mickey Bones' new band Bones of Contention every Wed. nite there...Change Of Pace really rock on Joe Perry's "Listen To The Rock"...Happy happy to vocalist extraordinaire John Mickevich...The Motherfolkers do a great version of "Hava Nagila." Pass the matzoh, please...Mystery Jones' Jason Moscartolo can burp and say "wow"...The Real Kids are unreal ! Look for a new cd out in Jan. and some live recordings '78-'80 out in the Fall...Turntable Song Of The Week is "Crotch Rot" by The Satanics-formerly The Titanics cause anytime Nat sings about his jewels we go beserk. The band now working on an endorsement deal with Anton LaVey...Ed Spargo new bassist for Heavy Metal Horns who just got back from playing to 25,000 in Montreal...Chris Berrian new guitarist for Turbulent Daughters...See Drapes Of Rain and their folky funk and bluesy rock at Bill's on the 22nd...Gang Green's new metal version of "Alcohol" is great! "I'd rather drink than fuck" is still an anthem to alot of people and their version of 'til tuesday's "Voices Carry" still rocks righteously!

Johnny Groove at Bun's on the 7th celebrating the release of "Shark In The Water." Member Mike Smith's new "Do" combined with his "future assassin" eyes makes him look like a demented character out of a Poe novel. Johnny Groove is groovy !...Happy happy to O'Brien's mgr. Chuck Sullivan and to Chuck and Helen from The Candles' kid Nate. See The Candles every Sat. at O'Brien's, Thurs. at Great Scott's and Weds. at The Universal Joint. They have a new drummer Marc Jeanrenaud and they do the best version of "Revival" since The Allston Bros. Band...Chance and The Crashers' version of Barrence Whitfield and The Savages' "Stop Twistin' My Arm" is supurb...While drummer Joe Donnelly is touring with The Del Fuegoes, Bill MacGillivray has been sitting in with Swinging Steaks. Look for their "Suicide At The Wishing Well" cd out in Aug...Waitress If The Week is Adrienne Bak cause she's a beautiful blond.. Go to her club The Bermuda Triangle every sun. to hear The Purple Toucan Trio play Brazilian music, or jazz on mon. nites and say high to owner Kaz...Listen to Bruce Marshall's new cd "Love Of The Ride"...Go to Ed Burke's and see x-Muddy Waters harpist Jerry Portnoy on the 7th...Bands send us your updates so we can tell the world about your talents! ❑

ALBUM REVIEWS

Deee-lite
Infinity Within Elektra

Long before Right Said Fred and Kris Kross, there was Deee-lite, the premiere novelty act of the 90's. This quirky NYC trio injected a lethal dose of holographic house music into the veins of Club America with its debut World Clique, a clever pastiche of Sixties imagery, smart sampling and solid dance hooks. On the appropriately titled follow-up Infinity Within, we're given more of the same, but in smaller, less delectable doses. Sure, the beats come up better than before, and Miss Kier Kirby's soulful warble hasn't lost its touch, but like a bowl of Cap'n Crunch for dinner, the album doesn't stick to your ribs. Nothing here ascends to the heights of the now landmark single "Groove Is in the Heart," although a few contenders, like "Runaway" and "Thank You Everyday" come close. Elsewhere, members DJ Dmitry and Towa Towa (the sonic masterminds behind Deee-lite) seem as if they'll get fired if they spice things up too much.

Deee-lite suffers another jab when they attempt to tackle social issues a la Phil Collins on record, whether they're environmental ("I Dreamed I Fell Through A Hole of the Ozone Layer"), political ("Vote Baby Vote") or pertain to safe sex ("Rubber Lover"). Their concerns are indeed plausible and well-intended, but ultimately sound cheesy and awkward on a club-oriented record. These gripes aside, Deee-lite have barely survived the sophomore slump with an overall competent yet unfinished and unsatisfying disc. Maybe the groove will fall back into the heart next time around.

-Richard Williams

Army of Lovers
Massive Luxury Overdose
Giant Records

For all who thought disco died with Andy Gibb, you've got another thing coming. Combining campy disco cheese with operatic refrains, house rhythms and world beats, Army of Lovers make no bones about being radical dance divas. Comprised of a countess, a hairdresser and a top Scandinavian producer, Army of Lovers display a diversity which few dance acts can emulate. Instead of the standard slap-and-tickle of heavy dance beats over lyrics that mean little more than "Gonna make you sweat/Baby," their music and lyrics convey meaning with rhythm - without wimping out. "Say Goodbye to Babylon" pulls the Biblical story into a midtempo breezy beat through lyrics such as "Xerxes tore every wall apart/Left our home with a broken heart." The worldwide dance smash "Crucified" sounds as if Andrew Lloyd Webber tried to combine the cast of Hair with C&C Music Factory. The gospel-injected vocal flourishes of the refrain "I'm crucified/Crucified like my savior," adds an oddly operatic quality to what would otherwise be considered a standard dance single. It is little creative nuances like this that pitch Army of Lovers far above its competition, and with Massive Luxury Overdose, the competition is nowhere in sight.

-Rey Roldan

Delbert McClinton and Friends
Everytime I Roll the Dice
Curb

Delbert McClinton once had a hit with great blues singer Bonnie Bramlett (she wrote "Let It Rain" and "Superstar"). Now Delbert's back with Bonnie Raitt, Melissa Etheridge, Waddy Wachtel and Kenny Aronoff - tons of great session people. Everytime I Roll the Dice is an instant classic. It's like a sequel to The Rolling Stones' "Tumbling Dice" with the same chick vocals rumbling and wailing and the guitars thrashing and threshing. Delbert's voice here sounds like an on-key Bob Seger, and the melody is reminiscent of "Old Time Rock and Roll." Springsteen's recent "Just Another Roll of the Dice" is so close to sentiment that I think they both modeled these new songs after The Stones' 1972 hit. If "Tumbling Dice" is your favorite Stones' song (like it is mine), pick up this sequel. Just a tremendous recording by producer Don Was (B-52's, Was (Not Was)) that makes me think: They are making 'em like they used to!

(on tour with Lynyrd Skynyrd 1992: Great Woods, Aug. 20)

-Janis Reed

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 t o 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside..

•ALLEY CAT 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world ot the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated s ingles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney Influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover.

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit ot something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peac etul escape to drink and hang out. There's lots ot play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites.

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside ot Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers. .

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix ot students from both schools and anyone else in search of good tood and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual bu t the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also bo asts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes requir ed. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night.

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases affe r 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights.

Thur 23rd.--Laurie Sargent, Dante's Gun, The Play School Thur 30th.--The Wreckage, Lawn Marys

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos. Axis spans 2 tloors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone trom pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

Wed 22nd.--Saigon Kick with Slick Toxic Thur 23rd.--Godflesh with Cxema Thur 30th.--Heretix

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst ot Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freel y with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern In Boston , this laid-back pub Is frequented by a melange ot tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm.

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, p rogramed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed.

Sun 26th.--Every Sun., Reggae Night Mon 27th.--Every Monday Movie Madness. SRS Films Producer Eric Yellin will show independent tilms and music videos betore a feature film. Free admission and popcorn. Every Tues., local bands

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover. Live piano music Monday through Friday trom 5-7.

Wed 22nd.--Brian Walkey Thur 23rd.--Thurs. and Fri., Brian Walkey and Bob Gay Sat 25th.--Phil Harding and Joe Fairweather Mon 27th.--Rob Gonzalez Tue 28th.--Rich Klessig Wed 29th.--Brian Walkey Thur 30th.--Thurs. and Fri., Brian Walkey and Bob Gay

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The tood is ho me spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 22nd.--Rich McDuff Thur 23rd.--Rich McDuft Fri 24th.--Julie Doherty &Lads & Lassies Sat 25th.--Julie Doherty & Lads & Lassies Sun 26th.--John Corcoran Mon 27th.--Kevin Farley Tue 28th.--Celtic Clan Wed 29th.--Celtic Clan Thur 30th.--Celtic Clan Fri 31st.--Celtic Clan Sat 1st.--Celtic Clan Sun 2nd.--John Corcoran Mon 3rd.--Kevin Farley

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb. A Harvard Square Institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands ou t to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in tor half price.

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cate. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt ot college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surtboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a tew dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often liv e. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

Wed 22nd.--The Chili Brothers Thur 23rd.--Lime Rockets Fri 24th.--Bicycle Thieves Sat 25th.--Sat. and Sun., DJ Al Perez Mon 27th.--Every Mon.,Silas Jr. & the Hot Rib Blues Jam Tue 28th.--Calypso Hurricane Wed 29th.--Out of the Blue Thur 30th.--The Quiet Room Fri 31st.--The Cape Cod All- Stars

•BOSTON BILLIARD CLUB 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation In '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable teel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix ot ages and protessions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Fr ee pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this minI Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No c over. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Frl. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, teaturing country and western music. Thurs. and Frl. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of protessionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need tor entertainment. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bIkers, locals, and dart players. The pertect place to relax over a tew drinks. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed tor years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most ot the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway ot the B ull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite teaturing top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code.

Wed 22nd.--Frankly Scarlett, Love Job Inc., The Delmants Thur 23rd.--Burning Graffe, Medicine Pipe, Purple Octopus Experience Fri 24th.--Sam Black Church, Stompbox, Tree, Necrosis Sat 25th.--Bulkhead, Bad Dreamhouse Sun 26th.--John Monopoly, The Radials Mon 27th.--Every Mon., Pajama-Jammy Blues Jam Tue 28th.--Outback, Ariadne's Thread, The Revolvers Wed 29th.--Big Chief Thur 30th.--Freakboat, The Blow Pops Fri 31st.--J. Groove

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a tew drinks. Make sure to try the Prair ie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress.

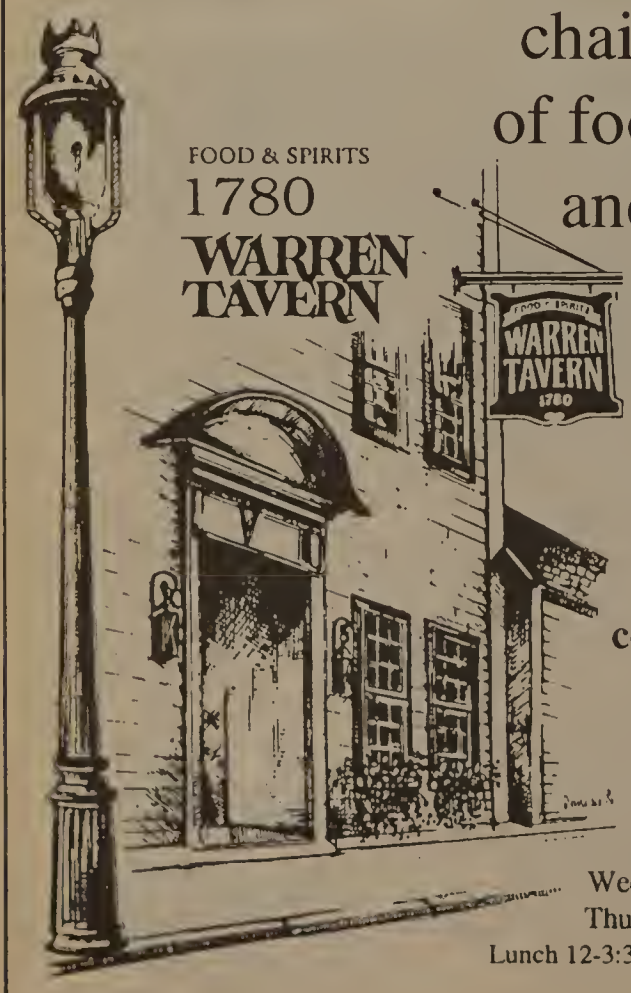
•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Porter, Tall Tale Pale Ale and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. .

Sat 25th.--Sextons

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb. Central Square's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers ot all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu ot Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. It it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum ot food representing everything trom N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped.



•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos. Located across trom Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. F ree appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines betore and after Sox games.

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, tlashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix ot college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

•CHAMPION'S 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos. It's not just for sports tans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young protessionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very wel I be the Hard Rock Caté ot profes-

Don't get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable livingroom chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over two hundred years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty-five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country; 212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:30-12:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00
Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30, Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

BARS & CLUBS

Spasso

A Neighborhood Bar Where Somebody Knows Somebody Who Knows Your Name

by Christopher Winters

If Bobby Hillson had to do it all over again, he'd be in coaching and sports broadcasting. Running an Italian sidewalk cafe in the Back Bay wasn't what the UMass history major originally had in mind, but when he teamed up with Billy Nolan in 1975 to open St. Botolph Street, then later the two Citysides and Cactus Club, he figured he had a good thing going. Now comes Spasso.

Crouched on the corner of Dartmouth Street and Commonwealth Avenue, Spasso includes an open-air patio, two dining rooms and a separate room for the bar. "It's fun decor," Hillson explains. "It's Back Bay, but it has a neighborhood feel to it." The neighborhood, as you can imagine, consists of the 25-50 professional crowd, and those are the people you are likely to find here. As for decor, it varies: exposed brick on one wall, framed drawings of vegetables on another. A photo of Luciano Pavarotti hangs in the barroom, and the smaller dining room has one wall covered with (artificial) graffiti. All the rooms are somewhat small, but airy.

Melanie Dunea

As neighborhood bars tend to reflect the neighborhood, so does this one: if you're an 80-thou executive with a car fax in your Jaguar, come on in and have a martini and you'll fit right in. The cocktails are rather mainstream after-work/after-dinner drinks, although they are not limited to just that. The wine list starts at $12 a bottle for white zinfandel and $17 for red (Chianti Classico), but you'd only want that with the food. (n.b. The menu, Italian cafe style, features pastas, pizzas, antipasti, soups and a few specialties. The lasagna tasted like grilled mozzarella, but the soft-shell crab was quite good.) The variety of beers is small but diverse: Bud, Coors Light and New Amsterdam on tap; Rolling rock, Beck's, Beck's Dark and Moretti in bottles. Prices range from $2.50 to $3.75 for beer, $3.50 to $4.50 for mixed drinks.

Thursday is the "in" night for the bar, but Spasso also offers Sunday brunch. Hours of operation are 11am-10pm (11pm Thursday- Saturday), with the bar open until 1am. The staff is friendly (most of them have been there since it opened last July) and the service good. If you like the upwardly mobile set, Spasso is a good bet, with the hip decor of (but much quieter than) the Cactus Club, and the added plus of the patio. ❑

Spasso Italian Cafe & Bar
$$
160 Commonwealth Ave.
Boston
Phone: 536-8656
Hours: 11:30 AM - 1:00 AM

sional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.

Thur 23rd.--The Lolterers & James Peterson Fri 24th.--The Peter Calo Acoustic Band Sat 25th.--Maria Sanglio & David Goldfinger Sun 26th.--Luko Adjaffi Thur 30th.--Jenniler Johnston & Highway Acoustics Frl 31st.--Dawna Hammers & Dennis Coughlin

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

Wed 22nd.--Shawn & Jamie Thur 23rd.--Yvonne & The Prescription Horns Fri 24th.--Inquiring Minds Sat 25th.--Inquiring Minds Sun 26th.--Steve Caraway, Chris Wales Mon 27th.--Steve Caraway Tue 28th.--Swinging Johnsons Wed 29th.--Tim Crandall Thur 30th.--Swinging Johnsons Fri 31st.--Stormdogs Sat 1st.--Stormdogs Sun 2nd.--Chris Wales Mon 3rd.--Steve Caraway Tue 4th.--Chuck Morris & The Sidewalk Blues

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

Wed 22nd.--Fire Pig Thur 23rd.--Raymaker Fri 24th.--Sky Children, Delayed Reaction, Hangnail Sat 25th.--Dr. Carroll, O-Boyl, Chin Strap Sun 26th.--Amyl's Demo Tape & Open Jam Night Wed 29th.--Third Sight, Square Pyramid Thur 30th.--Knockin Boots, King Friday Fri 31st.--Barnies, Miles Dethmuffin Sun 2nd.--Amyl's Rock n' Roll Blues Jam

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds . Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!.

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months.

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. .

Wed 22nd.--Every Wed., Calypso Hurricane Thur 23rd.--Every Thur., Hamish and Dave Fri 24th.--Uptown Acappella Sat 25th.--Uptown Acappella Sun 26th.--The Hot Shots Mon 27th.--Every Mon., Hamish and Dave Tue 28th.--Every Tues., North Shore Acapella Wed 29th.--Calypso Hurricane Thur 30th.--Hamish & Dave Fri 31st.--Uptown Acappella Sat 1st.--Uptown Acappella Sun 2nd.--The Hot Shots Mon 3rd.--Hamish & Dave Tue 4th.--North Shore Acappella

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear.

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic mea is for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress.

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs.

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .

Thur 23rd.--Groove Tubes Fri 24th.--Big Blues Meanies with Walk That Walk Sat 25th.--Ray Greene and Universal Language Mon 27th.-- Thur 30th.--Transit Fri 31st.--Kenny Neal Sat 1st.--Little Anthony and the Locomotives

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required. .

Wed 22nd.--Out Cold, Strychnine, Naked Windows Thur 23rd.--Drums & Wires, Hurricane Alley, Heretix Fri 24th.--Buzzsaw Frizzbes, The Jukers, Heretix Sat 25th.--Hellcats, Heavy Head, The Keep, Tommy's Darling Thrush Wed 29th.--Outa' Touch, The Maldens, Loco-Motive Thur 30th.--Najarian, Seducer, Tristan Park Fri 31st.--A/K/A Roxx-Anne, One Eyed Jake, Neighborhoods Sat 1st.--Miles DethMuffen, The Uninvited, Paper Squares, Scatterfield

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches.

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line.

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment.

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 22nd.--Every Wed., Karaoke Thur 23rd.--Altar Boys Fri 24th.--Classic 5 Sat 25th.--Insh Beat Sun 26th.--Every Sun., DJ Chris Mon 27th.--Every Mon, Irish Session Tue 28th.--Tim Crandall Thur 30th.--Legend Fri 31st.--Joe O'Meara and Shoot the Moon

BARS & CLUBS

Sat 1st.--Joe Glynn and the Irish Myth Tue 4th.--Tim Crandall

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishme nt has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bav arian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code.

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy).

Sun 26th.--The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party happens every Sun. from 6-11pm Mon 27th.--Cabaret is every Monday from 8-10pm

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos. Sure it's trendy and sure it's touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances ar e, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway. .

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 22nd.--Every Wed., Open Mike Blues Jam with The Rick Russell Band Thur 23rd.--Taylor Made, Little Anthony & The Locomotives, Bruce Marshall Group, Upper U.S. Fri 24th.--James Montgomery Blues Band Sat 25th.--Rick Russell Band Sun 26th.--Every Sun., Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 27th.--100 Proof Tue 28th.--Every Tues., Rockin Blues Jam with Chance Gardner Thur 30th.--Tony Lynn Washington Band with Rapt Rascals & Sorority House Horns Fri 31st.--The Band That Time Forgot

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Bost on. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm.

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a smal l line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu.

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially br ewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner.

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just p lay to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal.

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing.

Wed 22nd.--Guy Clark, Tom Russell Thur 23rd.--TBA Fri 24th.--Luther Guitar Jr. Johnson Sat 25th.--Bobby Radcliff Sun 26th.--Every Sun., Blues Jam Tue 28th.--Roy Bookbinder, Iris Dement Wed 29th.--TBA Thur 30th.--Courage Brothers

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code.

Wed 22nd.--Five-o Thur 23rd.--Every Thurs., DJ Edgar Fri 24th.--Altar Boys Sat 25th.--Altar Boys Sun 26th.--Donegal Corduroy/Joe Neara & Shoot the Moon Mon 27th.--Donegal Corduroy Tue 28th.--Darts Night Wed 29th.--DJ Edgar Thur 30th.--DJ Edgar Fri 31st.--Classic Five Sat 1st.--Classic Five

•LAST HURRAH 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors the former Boston Mayor, James Michael Curley. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charl le Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm.

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code.

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover.

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dan ce floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged.

Wed 22nd.--Every Wed., Industrial Rage Sat 25th.--Every Sat., Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor.

Wed 22nd.--Every Wed.: Sports Night Thur 23rd.--Every Thurs.: T.G.I.Th.- College Night Fri 24th.--Every Fri.: Khris Wales Sat 25th.--Every Sat.: Class of '92 Night Mon 27th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 28th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink- the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night.

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance club located near downtown crossing and the Boston Opera House. The crowd consists of mostly young professionals. Proper dress required, open for lunch and dinner.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-5434, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Als o featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere.

Wed 22nd.--Quest For Tuna, Canine Bastards, Edgel, Rattlehead Thur 23rd.--Sleep Chamber Fri 24th.--Kenny Chambers X of the Moving Targets Sat 25th.--Ethno Funk of the 90's Sun 26th.--Orangutang, Facts about Rats, Liz Xixxo, Doug Thoms, Beverly Ikier, The Queers, The Peecocks, Walter Lure Mon 27th.--Jazz with Ala Modal and So Called Jazz Quintet Tue 28th.--Bicycle Face, Failing August Wed 29th.--Curious Ritual, Frozen Culture, Heavily Medicated Fairytales Thur 30th.--Crazy Alice, Finger, nothing Painted Blues, Pound Fri 31st.--Ellen James Society, Eric Martin and The Illyrians

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. . .

•MR. DOOLEY'S 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from 11 to 5 followed by a seisiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartenders!! You ne ver know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint).

Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress.

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfort ably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info.

Wed 22nd.--Bruce Marshall Group, Third Sight & Macey's Parade Fri 24th.--Shockra Wed 29th.--Mark Halloran Band & Storyteller Fri 31st.--Blood Oranges & Harmony Rockets

•THE ORIGINAL SPORTS SALLOON 47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
With five satellite T.V's and a congenial neighborhood atmosphere, this is by far the best bar for viewing sporting events. Enjoy some of their great barbeque specialities along with a Foster's Lager or Samuel Adams on draft. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancin g on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show. .

Corrib Pub and Restaurant
Serving Fine Food and Drink
Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials
Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood
Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees
Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95
Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury VISA

It Costs Less Than You Think.
To Advertise in
The Improper Bostonian Call
232-3705

BARS & CLUBS

Thur 23rd.--Mellisa Ferrick Fri 24th.--Max Creek Sat 25th.--Bullet LaVolta, Jawbox, The Swirlies Wed 29th.--Change Of Pace Fri 31st.--One People with Wildest Dreams, Loose Caboose Sun 2nd.--Comedy for Kids with Lenny Clarke Tue 4th.--Gun

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch Inspiring Folk an d Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dres s is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm.

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam ? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance r oom and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

Fri 24th.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nitesi

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about b usiness. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm.

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegr ass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap.

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a liv ely but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. .

Wed 22nd.--Rio Thur 23rd.--Jim Plunkett Fri 24th.--Doe Brothers Sat 25th.--Good Question Sun 26th.--The Booze Brothers Tue 28th.--Starmakers Wed 29th.--Rio Thur 30th.--Jim Plunkett Fri 31st.--Classic Trax Sat 1st.--Denis Healy Sun 2nd.--The Booze Brothers Tue 4th.--Starmakers

•RATHSKELLER 536-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clo thes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code.

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGGATA BAR 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out f ast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.

Wed 22nd.--Fred Hersch Group Thur 23rd.--Milk Jackson Quartet Fri 24th.--Milk Jackson Quartet Sat 25th.--Milk Jackson Quartet Tue 28th.--John Payne Quartet

•RITZ BAR 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required.

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dan cers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required.

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. .

Wed 22nd.--Frank Wilkins Trio Thur 23rd.--Mike Metheny Quartet Fri 24th.--Fri. and Sat., Joe Manieri Quartet Wed 29th.--Frank Wilkins trio Fri 31st.--Peter Calo Band

•SCULLERS LOUNGE 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. H eavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers.

Thur 23rd.--Pentangle Fri 24th.--Fri. and Sat.,Rebecca Parris & matk murphy Tue 28th.--Andy Ezrin Quartet Thur 30th.--Mary-Cleere Haran Fri 31st.--Fri. and Sat., La Vern Baker Tue 4th.--Maggie Scott Trio with Alan Dawson

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap.

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night yo u'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress. .

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos. Hit it big in the market, the meet market that is. Mingle with investment types from the nearby brokerage firms during the day and with young collegiate and professionals at night when Stocks and Bonds turns I nto a lively dance club. Situated near fanueil Hall. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts.

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and s hake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code.

Wed 22nd.--Everyday Moses w/Baboon Heart, Ishka Band and The McQueens Thur 23rd.--Catbox Theater, Poe Henry Fri 24th.--League Boots w/ Jerkwater, Groove and Whitey Sat 25th.--The Toasters w/Mr. Cranky Sun 26th.--Simply Elated with Maura Lynch and Laura Wood Mon 27th.--Stone Soup Poetry- Andrew Gettler and Linda Lerner Tue 28th.--Stampede with Flubber and the Bones Wed 29th.--Love Job Inc., Hangnail, Duck & Cover and Jeff Pango Thur 30th.--Sweet Thing Fri 31st.--The Olive with the mles, One Big Room, Black Rose Garden

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid iD's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably price d. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 22nd.--The Quavers w/Rick Barron Thur 23rd.--Great Atomic Power Fri 24th.--The incredible Casuals Sat 25th.--Shy Fire Sun 26th.--The Soul Anecdote Mon 27th.--Tam Jam Tue 28th.--Darien Brahms Wed 29th.--Dr. Carrot and Alizon Lissance Thur 30th.--Laurie Geltman Band and Charlie Dog Fri 31st.--Calypso Hurricane Sat 1st.--Big Blues Meanies

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress.

Wed 22nd.--Every Wed., Blues Night Fri 24th.--Rio Sat 25th.--Doe Brothers

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In tact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays.

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dinin g. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch.

•TIA'S 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially ri ght after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm.

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted.

Tue 28th.--Local bands every Tues.

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer s ign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat.

•WARREN TAVERN 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St., Boston. A funky little bar whose clientiele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at t he tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is alwayson tor sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive. .

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moder ate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress.

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the danc e beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code.

Wed 22nd.--Every Wed., come hear The Fringe Thur 23rd.--Lelo Molinari Quintet Fri 24th.--Fri. and Sat.,Dan Smith Trio Sun 26th.--Jeff Covell tric Mon 27th.--Scott Mullet Quartet Tue 28th.--Dave Maxwell, Bobbie Ward, Marty Balou Thur 30th.--Sergio Brando & Manga-Rosa Fri 31st.--Rob Levit Quartet

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos. This large two-story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. Cover varies. Jacket and tie required.

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a·week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

All this under one roof at...

GOOD TIME BILLIARDS

Indoor baseball & softball batting cages

Indoor driving range & miniature golf

Over 35 Gold Crown pool tables & Verhoeven billiard tables

Bar & restaurant & Color T.V.'s everywhere

Only 5 Minutes From Boston
A/C • Free Parking!

Off Rt. 93 at Assembly Sq. & Loews Theatre
30 Sturtevant St., Somerville 628-5559

Perspectives on life in Boston.

Someday Prince Charming will ride into my life...

on his great white horse and take me away from it all. He won't be shy - he'll be bold. He'll be gallant, hold my hand, and every once in a while put his arm around me and pull me really close. Together we'll find the perfect grassy spot to spread a blanket by the Charles and read, legs entwined. We'll ride bikes or sail or rollerblade or play tennis. We'll listen to each other's sad stories from the past, and share our dreams for the future. Above all we'll be affectionate companions and faithful confidantes; Before we are ever lovers, we'll be intellectual sparring partners. We'll eat out at fun and funky restaurants, but enjoy cooking dinner with family and friends just as much. When everything seems black and I wonder what the heck I am doing with my life, he'll take me to the beach and hold me and comfort me and make everything seem better. We won't have to label ourselves, saying we're 'boyfriend and girlfriend', or 'best friends', because our relationship will speak for itself, and neither of us will feel the need to have the same kind of relationship with anyone else.

Ha! Am I dreaming? Do I stand a chance at finding an honest guy, who doesn't play games, doesn't have a girlfriend, isn't a possessive psycho, and is capable of thinking of something beyond just getting me into bed? Although this question plagues me, so does the question, "Why do I care?" I ought to be happy to hang out with my friends, do my job, and enjoy my favorite pastimes. Who needs a boyfriend or a girlfriend? Well, I don't specifically need a boyfriend, but I do crave romance, and that's pretty hard to have alone, unless you get it vicariously from an awful lot of sappy old movies. Whatever. I know that only time will tell, and what is meant to be will be. I might grow up and get married and have a slew of kids. Then again, I could just as easily end up a carefree old maid, spending my days writing stories and traveling around the world, visiting friends and kidnapping their children for weekends.

In the meanwhile, however, I've got my life to live. Life here in Boston is pretty great (even with petty problems like being broke and unemployed) and I know all it takes is the power of positive thinking and a little effort to make it even better. I don't have a problem keeping myself busy and making the most of every day, and I have plenty of people to be my playmates. And besides, Boston is far from boring. Yes, I've finally resolved to stop keeping my eyes peeled for Prince Charming to appear on the horizon. I'm sure I'll be the better for it, and when I feel really down because he hasn't called or doesn't seem to care, I'll remind myself that even though we all experience a certain aching loneliness inside at times, finding 'the right person' doesn't guarantee a cure for that. In fact, being our own best companion is probably the only thing that will help at all. ❑ by Erica Cantley, a sailor without a ship.

Photo by Mav

TRY A YARD OR A HALF-YARD

LUNCH • DINNER • LATE NIGHT MUNCHIES 'TILL 1 AM•
SUNRISE SUNDAY BRUNCH • FOOD TO GO • FULL MENU

$3.99 LUNCH SPECIALS

CREME DE LA CREME AWARD '88, '89, '90, '91, & '92 BEST BEER SELECTION VOTED BOSTON'S BEST BEER BAR '90 & '91 BOSTON MAGAZINE

TRY OUR SIZZLING STEAMING FAJITAS, KICK ASS WINGS, AND TENDER RIBS

MEET ME DOWN AT . . .

The SUNSET GRILL & TAP
130 BRIGHTON AVENUE BOSTON,
254 • 1331

BOSTON BEER WORKS
BREWERY GRILL

BOSTON RED
RASPBERRY ALE
ACME LIGHT
HERCULES STRONG ALE
BIG LEAGUE ROOT BEER

BUCKEYE OATMEAL STOUT
KENMORE KOLSCH
BEANTOWN NUT BROWN ALE

FULL MENU UNTIL 1 AM 7 DAYS A WEEK

61 BROOKLINE AVENUE, KENMORE SQUARE, ACROSS FROM FENWAY PARK

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS

Bud Light Summer Music Series
Charles Sq. Courtyard, Cambridge, 491-5282
Come down to Charles Square for free music every Wednesday from 6 to 7 pm. Calypso Hurricane will be here on July 22, and Aztec Two Step will play on July 29.

Cambridge Brewing Co.
1 Kendall Sq. Building 100, Cambridge
Have a beer and hear some tunes at the Saturday Night Music Series. On July 25, catch the Sextons for only $3.

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge
The Bach's Lunch Series continues with free concerts on July 22 and July 29. The concerts begin at 12:15.

The Surrey Room
381 Summer St., Davis Sq., Somerville
Every Sunday night from 8 to 11:45 pm the Cellar Dwellers Blues Band and Circus from Hell play at Surrey Room. Admission is free.

Copley Music Series
Copley Square, Boston
Swing by Copley Square after work to catch some tunes. WBOS sponsors the free music series every Thursday night from 5:30 to 7:30 pm. Devonsquare will play on July 23.

DANCE

Harvard Summer Dance
On the Esplanade, Boston
Come see this troupe dance the night away at the Hatch Shell from July 30 through August 2. The free performances begin at 8 pm, except for the August 2 show which begins at 2 pm.

EXHIBITS

Boston University
Mugar Memorial Library, 771 Comm. Ave., 353-3728
"It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" is now on display. Admission is free. The library's hours are Monday-Thursday 8 am to 11 pm, Friday and Saturday 8 am to 5 pm, and Sunday 10 am to 11 pm.

Enigma Nine
32 Rugg Rd. #9, Allston, 783-9170
Who says art isn't functional? Enigma Nine, an alternative art gallery, is a mini golf course with a theme focused on the realities of the world. Hours are Saturday 1 to 8 pm and Sunday 1 to 5 pm. Only a $2 donation is requested.

Small Ships
South Station, above the Grand Concourse
Didn't get enough of Sail Boston? Come see the regatta of small ships created by local youth and art groups and South Station visitors who worked with Sidewalk Sam to create artwork inspired by Sail Boston. The exhibit is free and open to the public through August 31.

FILMS

Bill's Bar
Lansdowne St., Boston
Every Monday night Bill's hosts Monday Night Movie Madness. SRS Films shows independent films and music videos before the evening's featured film. Films start at 9 pm. Admission is free, along with the popcorn.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston, 536-5400
The BPL's Summer Film Festival continues in the Rabb Lecture Hall at 6 pm. See The Restless Conscience on July 23, and Empire of the Air: The Men Who Made Radio on July 30. The Marilyn Monroe Film Series continues with How to Marry a Millionaire on July 28, and The Seven Year Itch on August 4.

Boston University
George Sherman Union, 775 Comm. Ave, Boston
BU's summer film festival continues on Tuesdays at 7 pm until August 4. All films are shown in the Conference room of the GSU. Showing on July 28 is Vincent and Theo, and on August 4 catch the last film in BU's festival, Thelma and Louise.

Performing Arts Series at the Hatch Shell
On the Esplanade, Boston
Summer is here and WBZ and the MDC are again hosting Free Friday Flicks at the Hatch Shell. Showing on July 24 is the "Bugs Bunny Festival." Movies begin at 8 pm and admission is free.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Observatory Open Night
Boston University, 705 Comm. Ave., 353-2630
Observatory Open Night is held every clear Wednesday from 8 to 9 pm. Astronomers will be there to answer questions and assist with telescopes.

Sox Talks
Kids can meet their favorite Red Sox players and coaches at these informal talks given in local parks. On July 28 at 1:30 pm, the Sox Talk will be at Columbus Oark in South Boston, and on August 3 at 1:30 pm, it will be at Townfield in Dorchester.

TOURS

Boston Garden
North Station, Boston, 227-3206
The Boston Garden History Center is offering guided tours about 45 minutes long that include a tour of the parquet, banners, and team locker room. Prices are $5 for adults, $3.50 for children and $4 for senior citizens and students.

Christian Science Publishing Society
1 Norway St. (off Dartmouth) Boston
Walk through the world in a giant globe made out of stained glass. The Mapparium has a 30-foot diameter and 24-hr. clocks that show the time zone in any region. Admission is free. Hours are 9:30 to 4 pm daily.

Commonwealth Brewing Co.
138 Portland St., Boston
The Brewing Co. holds free tours on Saturdays at 3:30 pm and Sundays at noon.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
On Thursdays at 2 pm and Saturdays at noon and 2 pm, the brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a $1 contribution is requested.

VOLUNTEERING

Women's Lunch Place
67 Newbury St., Boston, 267-1722
Use some of your Free Boston time to volunteer at the Lunch Place on Saturdays for the summer. Volunteers are needed between 7:30am and 3pm with many available shifts.

We welcome submissions of free and discount events to this section. Please send pertinent information including prices, dates, telephone number and contact person to: Free Boston, The Improper Bostonian, c/o Deborah Pirraglia, P.O. Box 820 Brookline Village, MA 02147-0820, Or fax to (617)232-4305

CLASSIFIEDS

LOOK FOR THE NEW IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIEDS !

STILL THE BEST WAY TO REACH OVER 190,000 OF THE BEST READERS IN TOWN!

AND WHEN YOU PLACE A NON-COMMERCIAL AD, WE WILL RUN IT UNTIL IT WORKS FOR JUST

$19! WHY PAY MORE?

IF YOU HAVE A NEW, SMALL OR MAIL ORDER BUSINESS, OR IF YOUR BUSINESS JUST ENJOYS THE CLASSIFIEDS, WE WILL RUN A DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENT FREE WHEN YOU RUN YOUR COMMERCIAL CLASSIFIED AD IN 6 ISSUES OF

The Improper Bostonian

CALL 232-3705 or FAX: 232-4305

MASTER CARD, VISA AND AMERICAN EXPRESS ACCEPTED
MORE INFORMATION BELOW.

REAL ESTATE

Apartments

BEACON HILL 1BR. Concierge Bldg.Rootdeck $850 Incl. Util.Avl. 8/14-9/1 2742-7798

THIS IS IT BROOKLINE Oct. 1 4 Bedroom Beautitul 2 Fam. House Large Eat-In Kitchen,Deck. Longwood Med. Area. $1650 Includes Heat & Hot Water 3 ParkingSpaces. Owner: 734-9863

JAMAICA PLAIN Great JP Duplex Needs 2 Sept. Bedroom with 1/2 Bath $390 or Bedroom $335.Also Study. No Smokes or Cats 983-0131

JAMAICA PLAIN Best JP Location Sept. 4 Rooms $725+ 2 Bedroom Very Nice Place 983-0131

SAVIN HILL Over Bridge Oceanside. 4 Rooms, Glassed-In Porch, Off Street Parking, 2 Min. From Red Line, 5 Min.

Boston / Fenway
Peterborough
Gardens
Stu, 1,2 and 3 bed avail. close to public transportation, shopping, colleges and hospitals. No Fee.
From $475
HHW Inc.
247-3503

Walk To Beach Large Eat-It Kitchen, Hardwood floors $550+ Util. Very Quiet Neighborhood 825-1832 "Best Landlord In City"-Tank McNamara, The Improper Bostonian

SOMERVILLE. 6 rms each side Prime Davis Sq loc., $900 tile bath. $1100,11/2 tile bth. No util. Call 237-1992

WATERTOWN. House. 6 rooms up, 6 rooms down. Possible convert attic tor in-law apt..Tile bath each floor. $209,000. Call 237-1992

Apt. Shares

MOVING?
KEN'S MOVING EXPERIENCE SAVE ON YOUR NEXT MOVE.

.DON'T RENT A TRUCK I CAN DO IT FOR LESS ! (617)923-2150

ALLSTON House Near Bus, T, Harvard Square and BU etc. Smoke/Pets OK $275+ 1/3 of Cheap Utilities 787-8811

ALLSTON, Roomate wanted: small room, clean bright apt.. Close to Harvard & BU/call Jen or Lee/783-0847/$300/MO I.e.

BEVERLY Prot. Non-Smoker Female Wanted to Share a Beautifully Furnished 3 Bedroom 3 Bath House In Fantastic Neighborhood Excellent Value at $450 594-1444

BELMONT Near Alewife. Smokeless Plants Placid $280+ 489-1250

BOSTON Share Waterfront Home. Walk to UMASS Red LIne Nonsmoker. Avl.Now. $500 Includes Util. 282-4921 Lv. Message

BOSTON/JAMAICA PLAIN. Large Spectacular Apt. to Share With profesional. Victorian. on Pond. Eat In Kitchen Washer & Dryer Parking Near Mass Transit Non-Smoker $575 Avl. Now. 524-0621or 524-0221

BRIGHTON Spac. Rm. large house. All hdwd. flrs. parking util. w/d includ. Artists/teachers pref. Semi-Coop. Call Nathan Lv. msg. 787-8797

BRIGHTON Prot. Working Mom With 1 Son 11 Years old Seeks Roomate to Share AIII New 4 Bedroom Apt. Must be Neat and Tidy. $425+Util. Call 787-3480

BROOKLINE Coolidge Corner. Large Apt. $600 mo. Heated Gas & Electric Extra.Available Aug. 1 Deposit Required Bonnie 734-7625

BROOKLINE Seeking Responsible Outgoing Female to Share Apt. No Smoking No Pets No Drugs Roofdeck , Laundry in Building 734-5367 $425 Inc. HT.. & HW

CAMBRIDGE, Near Galleria Prof. male seeking roomate 2 bedroom apt. lt. housekeeping 864-0007

CAMBRIDGE Responsible Roomate to Share Beautiful 2 Bedroom. 7 Minute Walk from Harvard Square. Lawn, Fireplace, Off Street Parking, Washer/Dryer, Off Brattle. $1450 Month Plus Utilities. No Smoking Share Days: 693-5118

CAMBRIDGE Central Square Female seeks Female to Share Apt. Conv. Location Drug/Smoke Free $325 Incl. Avl. Now 354-3792

CAMBRIDGE 5 Min. from Harvard Sq. 1 Male Seeks 1M/1F to share 2 bedroom. Hardwood Floors. Rent $360/mo 864-2468 or Lv. Message

CAMBRIDGE North Cambr. Free Rent In exchange tor Lt. Housekeeping and part time Babysitting for 6yr. old Girl. 3 Br. Apt. 491-5809

JAMAICA PLAIN Quiet 2 Bedroom Apt. with side yard 2nd Floor. Close to T. Avl. 8/15 or 9/1 $850+ No Dogs 524-092

JAMAICA PLAIN Great JP Duplex Needs 2 Sept. Bedroom with 1/2 Bath $390 or Bedroom $335. Also Study. No Smokes or Cats 983-0131

JAMAICA PLAIN 3 Females Looking For 4th 27+ to Share Lrg. Sunny Apt. $291/mo+ No Smk/Pets Nr. Pond 524-2008

LOWELL BiWM 29 Seeks Gay/Bi Male/Female for 2 BR Condo Private Bedroom with Full Bath Near 495. Smoker OK $300+ 1/2 Elec. Serious Only (508)459-6728

MALDEN Male or Female tor 2 Bedroom house Wall to Wall Carpeting. Washer/Dryer Off Street Parking. Non-Smoker. No Drugs. $375+ Util. Available Immed. 324-3509

MEDFORD 1 Disc. GWM Seeks 1 GWM/F to share 7 rm. hse. chrs near shopping,T Tufts W/D

OZODU ASSOCIATES
PERSONALIZED COMPUTER SERVICES
868-2927 (1-800-982-3725)
Computer Software Training in a Beautiful,
New Central Square Location
*PC Intro * Word Perfect * D-Base III, IV * Lotus 1-2-3 Destop*
*Publishing & Resumes * Flex-Times * Affordable!*
552 Mass. Ave. * At Cambridge Business Ctr.

AfriChic!
Uniquely you . . .
Creative hair sculpture for all hair types:
Braids • cornrow • threading
By Appointment Only
(617) 547-2707 Cambridge

HOW IMPORTANT IS THE RIGHT ROOMMATE?
RUN YOUR AD UNTIL IT WORKS FOR $19 AND
WIN A LIMO RIDE AND DINNER FOR TWO.
NEW FROM THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIEDS
"THE $19 AD!"
NOW, WHEN YOU PLACE YOUR HOUSE OR APARTMENT-SHARE CLASSIFIED WITH THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, WE'LL RUN A FOUR LINE ADVERTISEMENT UNTIL YOU FIND THAT SPECIAL SOMEONE
"THATS $19 UNTIL IT WORKS!"
WHEN YOU'RE SUCCESSFUL IN YOUR SEARCH, WE WILL ENTER YOU IN A DRAWING TO WIN A CITY TOUR IN A LIMO FOLLOWED BY A DINNER FOR TWO AT BOODLES!!

CLASSIFIEDS

To advertise call:
1-617-232-3705
weekdays between 9AM and 5PM.

OR

Mail it to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St.
Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR

Fax it to us at:
1-617-232-4305
24 hours a day, seven days a week

AMERICAN EXPRESS · MasterCard · VISA

Deadline: One week prior to issue's release.

CBL deck Must be disc. no pet, drugs, alch. $495 mo.no util. 396-0187 lv. msg.

NEWTON 40 Yr. Old Health Care Professional Seeks to Share Quiet Home In Quiet Neighborhood Condusive to Studying. Must be Convenient to Cambridge and In the $400 Range Each. On or Before A Sept. 1 Call 547-6058

PAUL WARD LIVES !!!!!!!

NEWTON, Beautiful large Victorian Home on quiet street near new library. 2 rooms available In 4 bedroom house. Several amenities. All util. included. Call Elspeth 244-1322

NEWTON CENTRE Near T. Nice Room.$335/month Plus. John or Linda, 965-0930 or 332-4800

NEWTON CENTRE Room Available in Friendly Independant Victorian Near Lake and T W/D $375+ No Smoking 25+ 965-6697

NEWTONVILLE- Female 25+ Wanted for 2 Bedroom Yard, Parking Storage Close to Shopping $415+ Util .244-4573

NORTH READING GWM Housemate Wanted Non-Smoker. No Drugs. Under 40 Years Old Luxurious Living. Serious Only. $100 Weekly Rent Includes All Utilities Steven (508)664-4443

QUINCY 4 Bedroom, 2 Full Baths Large Roomy House, Yard, Garden $375+ Utilities Call Stan 786-8878

REVERE Female wanted to share 2 Bedroom 2 Bath Ocean Front Condo.Includes Gym, Pool, Jacuzzi, Concierge $500+ 289-492

SOMERVILLE 1 Male or Female for 4 Bedroom In Inman Square. No Pets N/S $240+ Util. 623-0504 or 253-9850

SOMERVILLE 1 M/F 25+ For Lge. 3 Bedroom Apt. Nr. Union Sq. No Cigs. Nice Yard. Avl. 8/1 $350/mo+ 628-0754

WATERTOWN 2 Female/1 Male Seeks M/F to Join Freindly Spacious Indep. Victorian Hse. 5BR/2BATH Fpl. W/D Pkg. Quiet Res. Street Nr. Pike. Woods, Tennis , Track,T. No Pets/Smoker. $400month + Util. Call 924-5693 Evenings

Apts. Wanted

$1000 Reward for 2 Bedroom Rent Controled Apt. In Mid-Camb.or Back Bay 2nd Fl. or Higher $500-$675 864-0239

Commercial Space

CHARLESTOWN Non-Live In Studio Space Available. 1250 Squ. Ft. $500/mo. 242-0080

Garage for Rent

JAMAICA PLAIN 2 Car Concrete Garage for Rent. Sale, Clean, Water and Fire proof. Asking $200 Call (508)995-1435 Anytime

House for Rent

WEST ROXBURY 4 Bedroom House.9 Rooms 2 Baths elk, W/D, Yd. Parking Near Parks, Y and T. Nice Neighborhood.Purple Commuter Rail. $1400. No Fee. Avail. Now. 327-5625.

WATERTOWN SQUARE 3-5 bdrm. house. Beautiful, $900-$1500 Last & Sec. Req. (617)924-5174

STARTING A BAND? THE IMPROPER BOSTON CAN HELP. CALL: 232-3705

HARVEY HAS COOL SHADES!

House Wanted

RENT W/OPTION TO BUY A Single, 2-family or Large 2-Bedroom Condo. Must be reasonably priced. Would consider Handyman Special. Prel. loc. Brookline/Newton or Possibly Metro West. Well Established Couple. Call John 247-2175

Parking Space

BOSTON Parking Space for Rent Immediately at 170 Tremont St.Covered, Valet. Call 269-7200 x103

Vacation Rental

HARWICH CAPE COD GREAT HOUSE. GREAT LOCATION. LAST 2 WEEKS OF AUGUST. ENJOY THE CAPE IN STYLE CALL ELSPETH AT 244-1322

Room for Rent

BROOKLINE 4 Prof. Clean, Quiet, seek Female 30+. Veggie, Non-Smoker, For Large House, 2 Min to T. Large Yard. Rent- $365 Includes all util. $395. w/pkg. 731-6959 Leave Message

EMILY YOU'RE A SWEETIE. THE KITTIES MISS YOU

Advertise in
The Improper Bostonian
Classifieds
and Let Us Be Your Vehicle to Success

CAPE PAINT

Fully Insured, Experienced
Interior / Exterior Painting, Window Glazing
Reasonable Rates
"We are young, hardworking, conscientious workers."

CALL WILL (617) 224-1322
FREE ESTIMATE

SUMMER SPECIALS

MINTA 386DX/33 MHZ COMPUTER

- 64 K Cache • 4 MB Ram • 5¼" and 3½" High Density Disk Drives
- 120 MB Hard Disk • Super VGA 1024 x 768 Monitor (.28 Dot)
- 101 Key Keyboard • 2 Serial, 1 Parallel, 1 Game I/O
- Mouse • DOS 5.0 • Windows 3.0

• 5-DAY DELIVERY • LOCAL SUPPORT • ONLY $2135

CALL
XON Computers
17 Station St.
Brookline, MA
(617) 254-8413

2 YEAR GUARANTEE – NORMAL USE
Hard Disk 1 Year Guarantee

Moving?

Ken's Moving Experience

Save on your next move.

Don't rent a truck- I can do it for less!

Call (617) 923-2150

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Feel the urge to unleash your frustrations or vent your hostilities on an unsuspecting friend or enemy? Look no further than the Improper Impersonals, a forum designed for pranksters, irate neighbors, relatives, maniacs or any would-be target of your acid tongue. Best of all they're FREE! Send your Impersonals to us at Improper Impersonals, The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146. Or fax it to us at 232-4305.

Jessica,
So the Village wasn't what I expected, but I still had fun eating all day with you! You should have stayed with me at the St. Moritz. Be punchy!
Love, Jen

To the Jeep Lady-
No offense but following strangers in your car to places that are dark and where you are all alone is not only a little daft but it's dangerous! We could have seriously damaged you! I apologize for yelling.
-The Club Rats

Amy-
Hey soul sister! Don't think I don't know when you're hinting at something. Happy double decade. Never move away.
Love from your BFOATAE,
Sara E. Kussmaul

To The Canadian Yo-Yo,
How did you manage to keep down the 36 beers when you jumped?
Mark

Oh My, Oh My-
Caroline, That was fun! Now I should tell you the truth. I'm not a producer.
William

Hey Jen,
Did you really hurt your back lifting something, or were you just trying a new position?
You Pals

Hey Pauletta,
"Season's Greetings!"
-Joe the B.M.

Steve-
Karate may teach you how to blank out life, but don't push me out of your thoughts, or a fortune you once received may come true. Be wary what you wish for in thoughts or actions, you may get it.
-Jen

Miso-
We know who you are.
-The boys in the S.S.B. tent.
Cownips-

Are you still "Comfused"?
-Pizza Man

Melissa at Spasso
I've been admiring you at work. And I need to get to know you better BADLY! If you don't mind older men meet me at the bar Sunday nights. I'll be watching!

J.P.,C.P.,J.G.
I know you've all been hit many, many times and as the great one I must tell you , Keep the flame forever burning! SYD.

Dave the production God-
Even though I won't be here, I'll show you copy mistakes through ESP. Don't worry, I'll be back!
-Jen

Scott-
I've been watching you at DAD'S, and I want to get to know you better.—Deeps

Harvey—
It's been an honor to serve you, OH GREAT ONE!—from your sales slaves.
(not love slaves)!

Maria,
You better come back to Yale next year Otherwise Dean Flick will give me a strange transfer student for a roommate! Just stick it out for the rest of the summer, and school will be here before you know it.
Besitos, Jen

Amy A,
Although twice now I have written this, the first transmission was a miss. And now, times have evolved a bit, and uniqueness lost upon first wit. So now, the weeks after June 28th: two, those verses shall go unpenned, as they are not new. HBD Soul Sister!
Love,
Sara

Ancient Chinese Proverb:
"Judge a person not by his words, but by his actions."
The Landshark

Didi-
How about you, you and me, me?

Ann F.-
You always want to know why guys won't give you the time of day. Well, if you stopped acting like a butch and lost 50 pounds, you'd get a date.
Blueboys

Anna, don't forget what we talked about the other day. Call me anytime.

Karen-
I can't believe you're here! Thanks for coming to visit me, now if there was only some way I could convince you to stay. I love you, best old roommate.

Joni-
You have a body that makes me crazy, and a mind that makes YOU crazy. Thanks for everything.
Your sweetie

Chestnut Eyes-
When you said I would see less of you, I didn't know you meant seven pounds less.
Hand shaker

Bastille Birthday Boy-sorry I missed it, but I'm still thinking of you. Hope your new interset is panning out well. Ton Amie Ericque

Danny D.
You may have a nice body, but your head was screwed on the wrong way. Stop acting like God' Gift to women, because you're not.
Bunny

Normie-
You'll always be my Prince, even if you look like Freddy Mercury with your new Do! I know there's so much more than just our sex-capades at every S.B. Landmark (Except of course, The Mayor's Front Steps-Damn that patrol car)
Well...Key will be forthcoming.
Mwah!! Love Ya, P.B.

Jen
Get your psychic powers straight Jen, you mean 'telepathy' not ESP. Maybe you've had one too many Vulcan mind melds. Lay off the Romulan Ale. Dave.

Allison-
After eating his liver, I ate his bloody bladder with some kidney beans. SLHHHHH! T.

DES- Well, what can I say? I'm sorry to see you go, but at least airfare to London is cheaper than to Budapest.
Cheerio, mate! EWC

Little Jeannie, your warm smiling face always cheers me up. Thanks for letting me scrounge. With love, miss fancy

Eileen-
thanks a lot. All that talking about Italy has done nothing but make me more miserable than I already am. The only possible solution is more wine and pesto at your place.

The Best Roomate Award,
Lynne McGahn

The Worst House guest Award
Bruce the Juice C.

The Best Landlord Award
Remus and Ina.

Giovanni-
If I had known you were reading the Improper Bostonian all this time, you would have recieved an impersonal long ago. Thanks for taking such good care of me and my friends. Chou Chou.

Carcass,
When are you going to escape from that wretched place? Sterling wouldn't approve.

Peter H.
Get a job! Give the TV a rest.

CLASSIFIEDS

Alterations/Design

ALTER EGO DESIGNS- Clothing/Home Item Alterations, Reconstruction and Repair. Pillows Custom Made. By Appt. Newbury St. Location. GREAT RATES! 332-0160

Business Services

IDEAS FOR THE ENTREPRENEUR! 100 NEW BUSINESS IDEAS THAT WORK. SEND SASE TO: B IDEAS, 310 FRANKLIN ST. S#235, BOSTON,MA. 02110

Cleaning

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition Call Joey 776-1706

SEE SPOT RUN Residential cleaning service Boston and surrounding areas call 247-1009 10-4pm. Ref. upon request

Clothing/Tailoring

QUALITY pre-owned designer and better clothing.Do come browse! $$$ for your wardrobe.Gowns also wanted! THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm daily. 739-3399. See display ad this page.

WE WANT YOUR CLOTHING The Garment District is nowaccepting. Mens & Womans Current & Vintage Clothing for Consignment(617)876-9795

"If you are fortunate enough to live in Paris as a young man, it will stay with you forever, because Paris is a moveable feast." Hemmingway

Dating

MEET SOMEONE SPECIAL! For friendship, romance, or marriage Call UNITED DATING SERVICE 497-2944

BEAUTIFUL CONNECTIONS Get Your Chance Now. Thousands of Beautiful Woman In South America Desire Romance and Marriage (617) 789-LOVE

Entertainment

"BROADWAY BABIES." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)396-0550 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for house parties/lectures and private readings. Diverse topics adjusted to suit your needs. Call Gloria 508-744-4094

"If you ain't with me girl, you're gonna be without me." Mark Knoffler

For Sale

BOAT FOR SALE. 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider. 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/ roller. New boat cover.Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617) 279-4857

FRIDGIDARE- Stackable wash/dryer $350. 2 Gas Stoves $75 each Rockwell 9 " Table Saw $400. Ind. Glass Sander $350. 1930's Sax $400 (617)924-5175

SUBERB 7 PC.BEDROOM SET Includes queen size headboard, bureau, mirror bookcase, nightstand, desk and chair. White and Silver. Good Condition $550 Please Call 232-8455

OFFICE FURNITURE 50% -80% Off. Files, Desks Chairs, Conference Tables. .Call For The Best Prices: .(617) 329-1662

3 Piece Livingroom Set Sofa, Love Seat and Recliner Chair Beige Leather Good Condition $750 (508)587-3974

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE JUICE CAFE..BROOKLINE VILLAGE SEEMS TO BE THE PLACE FOR YOUNG SUCCESSFULL ENTREPRENEURS!

Health Services

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

TIRED, ACHING, MUSCLES? Then you knead a massage. Come in on your lunch break or after work. Mon-Tue-Wed 10am to 7pm $45/hr loc on Boylston St. across from the Boston Common. Call Mary Foster 617-643-8916 leave message. Certified and licensed.

MASSAGE Reasonable Rates! Call David (617) 734-7080

Help Wanted

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DAYS A WEEK? How about doing a few deliveries around the Boston area? For more info call 232-3507. Ask for Mark.

JOB FOR THE NINETIES. 100 Growth Occupations, Free Brochure; Reid Enterprises, 84B, Dept. TB, Harvard Ave, Allston, Ma 02134

INTERN NEEDED TO ASSIST INSIDE SALES MANAGER GREAT OPPORTUNITY CALL 232-3705 FOR MORE INFO.

TOP LEVEL SALES EXECUTIVE WANTED

To Manage Real Estate Dept. of New England's Fastest Growing Media Company.This Position Will Offer The Best Compensation Package in the Area. Send Resume In Confidence to: The Improper Bostonian 17 Station St. Brookline,MA 02146 Attn: Inside Sales Dir.

PART TIME EAR AND NOSE PIERCER. Eye for Accuracy. No bed wetters. 247-7092 Ask for Tank Hannibal after 5p.m.

SELL LOVE

Great Expectations The Nations Largest Video Dating Service is Now Interviewing for Inside Sales and Telemarketers at Our Newton Office. Join Our Happy Team!. 332-7755 Ask for Sue

Experienced Full Time Line Cook Wanted. Must Have Flexible Schedule. Call 232-8787 Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Hypnosis

HYPNOSIS $25-Be Who you to be. Certified, David (617) 734-7080 Message Avt.

Instruction

COLLEGE PROFESSOR Spanish and French.Lessons English as a second language. Group and Individual Lessons from Beginner to Advanced. Native Speaker of Spanish .(617)731-5915

"Life is just a tire swing..." Jimmy Buffett

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage Llc.. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve 267-7171

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASE and HIV testing. Confidential doctors office. Robert Taylor, M.D. Brookline 232-1459

"You've just crystalized my philosophy on life... 'thats life'.

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles. Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

KEY-BORED? Berklee Prof offers private keyboard instruction. All levels, styles. Develop your potential! 617-628-7364

INTENSE GUITAR LESSONS Whether you are a beginner, intermediate or advanced guitarist. Craig Glendenning will help you do it right. Lowest rates in town! 437-7051

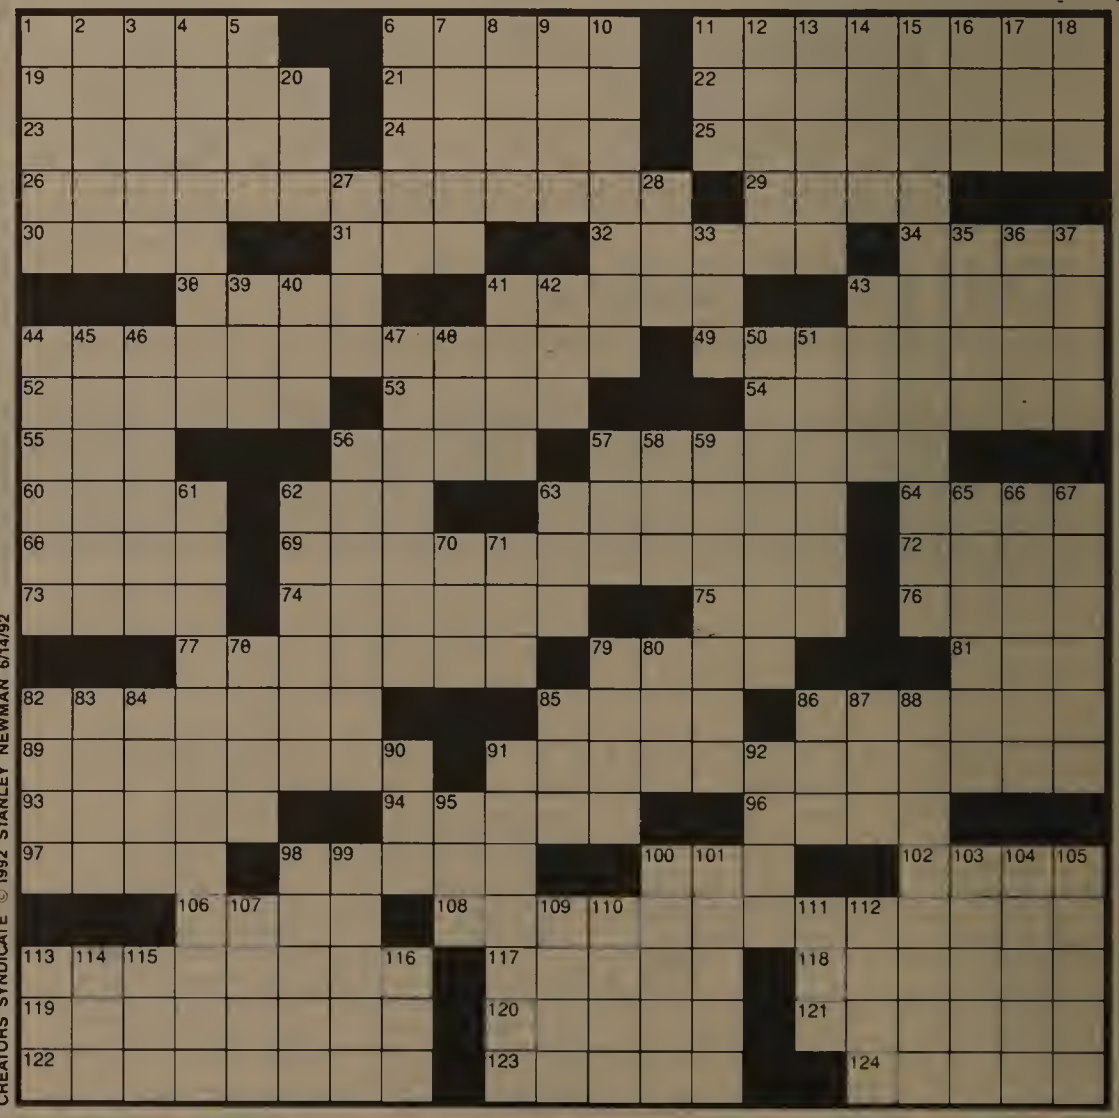
Adapter Productions
- Audition/Demo Tapes
- Weddings
- Legal

Digital Stereo Video

Rob Wellens
BRIGHTON, MA
(617) 782-0466

Silk Road Consignerie

Quality pre-owned designer and better clothing.
1368b Beacon Street
Brookline, Ma 02146
(617) 739-3399



Mon-Sat 11-6
Do come browse!
We buy and consign by appointment

THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman

OFF-BALANCE: Try to stay on your feet

by Bob Lubbers

CREATORS SYNDICATE © 1992 STANLEY NEWMAN 6/14/92

ACROSS

1 Out-of-date
6 Mexican snack
11 Tornadoes, often
19 Sherman and Nevins
21 Green Mountain Boys name
22 Weather, so to speak
23 African nation
24 Pro golfer Stadler
25 Everglades inhabitants
26 Hit bottom, in a way
29 Actress Lee
30 Genesis man
31 Stubborn __ mule
32 Gossip-column entries
34 Carson's predecessor
38 Minuteman III, for one
41 High-minded group?
43 Leo's neighbor
44 Foliage fans' delight
49 Took umbrage at 52 "No kidding!"
53 Cottage-cheese component
54 Volleyball team, frequently
55 S.A. nation
56 Mortgage datum
57 Untrustworthy ones
60 Handle roughly
62 Broadcast
63 Mandrake the Magician's assistant
64 Glasgow girl
68 Highest European volcano
69 Political press agents
72 "__ Ideas"
73 Actress Young
74 Racehorses, slangily
75 Unclose, poetically
76 Earnest appeal
77 "Ye are __ of the earth": Matthew
79 Charlie Brown's expletive
81 Founded: Abbr.
82 Gave out a new hand
85 Singer Turner
86 News-show segment
89 Umbrella knobs
91 Drink garnish
93 College officials
94 Pamplona runners
96 Up-in-smoke sound
97 Makes a shirt
98 __ a customer
100 Absorbed, as costs
102 Rat follower
106 Titicaca, por ejemplo
108 Early Chaplin feature
113 American Leaguers
117 Scratch out
118 Seismograph reading
119 Critical trial
120 Reveal one's feelings
121 Street fight
122 Took a break
123 Daytime TV fare
124 Execs.' aides

DOWN

1 London's St. __ Cathedral
2 Marine life
3 Point of view
4 Dune
5 "Inner" word form
6 Violin parts
7 Imposing hotel lobbies
8 Jeremy's singing partner
9 It grows on you
10 Uninterrupted
11 Sleep stage, for short
12 Wake-up signal
13 Aeneas' mother
14 She loves: Lat.
15 Receive notice, in a way
16 Vane dir.
17 Hwy.
18 Draft org.
20 Actress Laura __ Giacomo
27 Part of Clemens' signature
28 Lb. and oz.
33 Front-page box
35 Comic Johnson
36 Worry, it's said
37 Retinal cells
39 M divided by IV
40 Tarzan's kid
41 Marshy tract
42 Extremity
43 Bridal wear
44 Film units
45 Add fizz to
46 __ Beach, CA
47 Instrument whose name means "little goose"
48 The same old grind
50 Steep slopes
51 Few and far between
56 Counterstroke
57 Fox sitcom
58 ABA member
59 Try to hit
61 Projection transparency
62 Cast __ upon (hex)
63 Article written by Dali
65 Radiant
66 Takes care of
67 Island in the Big Apple
70 Nonexistent
71 Investigative off.
78 Hans' home
79 Social reformer Jacob
80 Part of Q&A
82 USPS designations
83 Extra-wide shoe width
84 Wrestling result
85 __-Faced Woman (Garbo film)
86 Close Encounters . . . craft
87 UN observer grp.
88 Mudslingers
90 Sault __ Marie, MI
91 Gardeners' implements
92 European auto
95 Baseball great Mel
98 S-shaped curves
99 Old-time Scandinavians
100 Famous fabulist
101 High schoolers
103 Musical motifs
104 Choose for oneself
105 Vulcanised products
107 Aardvark's entree
109 Bestselling cookie
110 Pro __ (proportionately)
111 Dol. parts
112 Dangerous whale
113 Damage
114 Crackerjack
115 Ocasek of rock
116 Part of PST

CLASSIFIEDS

Music Lessons

VOICE LESSONS, Beginner to Intermediate, Jazz/Pop styles. Harmony, Ear Training, Sight Reading, Affordable. Sabina 787-4254

Painting

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition.Call Joey 776-1706

Photography

PHOTOGRAPHER HEAD SHOTS/MODELING (617)242-1354

Services

BRAY WOODWORKING 3rd Generation Craftsman-If its Wood, We Do It! Call Scott (508)921-2170

INVISIONS Logos and Lettering Consulting. Call Greg 923-3472 Leave Message

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060!

LUCY'S PROFESSIONAL CLEANING SERVICE Experienced and Reliable. Houses, Apartments and Offices. Professional Cleaning at Reasonable Rates. References Available CALL LUCY 864-0198

Situations Wanted

RESTAURANT OWNERS Need someone to cover employee vacations, fill in at the last minute or help out in a pinch? Very Experienced hostess / service person available for pick-up work. Call Erica @ 742-7942 and leave a mesage.

Team One
P.C. and Networking Consultants.
Call
(617)566-7358

Stuff Wanted

TABLE For use as a conference Table Call 332-4710

Tickets

BAY STATE TICKET
See our ad on page 15
617-731-4588

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
The best classifieds in town.
Call 232-3705 or Fax 232-4305
CAPTURE YOUR MARKET

Even The Improper Bostonian uses PRESSXPRESS (PXP), greater Boston's most comprehensive resource of event information. PXP researches and lists all events to which the public is invited up to ONE YEAR in advance -- everything from black-tie and cultural events to business seminars and conventions -- and transmits it weekly via fax. Just think of the possibilities for your business clients, organization or personal life! Stay in the know -- call PRESSXPRESS at (617) 742-2092 and ask for your free faxed sample today.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

S	T	O	P		E	D	U	I		S	C	A	R	P	S		T	H	E	M
T	H	R	U		A	U	R	A		E	A	T	E	R	Y		R	A	R	A
R	E	G	S		S	I	G	N		P	R	O	C	O	N	S	U	L	A	R
U	T	A	H		T	R	E	S		T	R	I	S	H		K	I	O	S	K
M	A	N	P	O	W	E	R		L	E	D			I	L	E	S
		U	T	E	S		L	I	T	T	L	E	B	I	G	M	A	N
S	T	I	L	T	S		P	E	N	S		D	R	I	G			L	I	L
T	E	A	L		T	H	A	N	K		S	W	A	T	H	S		I	V	E
A	L	G		O	R	A	L		S	H	E	S		T	H	A	N	E	S
B	L	O	O	M	E	R		M	A	T	U	R	E		H	E	L	E	N	S
		D	E	L	I	B	E	R	A	T	E	S	P	E	E	D
P	A	M	E	L	A		A	D	O	R	E	D		E	A	R	A	C	H	E
I	M	A	R	E	T		N	I	L	E			R	E	V	S		D	A	R
P	I	T		T	I	B	I	A	L		W	E	A	R	Y		E	M	I	R
E	N	S		D	U	S	T		M	I	N	T		W	A	V	E	R	S
	O	U	T	I	N	T	H	E	C	O	L	D		G	E	R	E
		I	N	S	T		H	U	T		T	R	I	A	N	G	L	E
L	O	S	E	R		I	S	L	E	S		D	R	A	G		O	R	E	L
A	L	F	R	E	D	N	D	Y	E	S		R	I	C	H		D	D	M
R	I	P	E		O	T	I	O	S	E		A	B	E	T		D	U	N	E
D	D	D	D		L	D	R	N	E	S		B	E	D	S		S	P	A	R

80 DATSUN B210
Wgn. , Automatic, Stk. No. P269K $799

83 TOYOTA TERCEL
2 Dr., Stk. No. 92-531A $899

84 PLYMOUTH RELIANT
4 Dr., Stk. No. JG600 ..... $995

81 TOYOTA TERCEL
2 Dr., Clean, Stk. No. IC211 ..... $995

80 OLDS CUTLASS
2 Dr., Stk. No. PIC10 ..... $1299

82 MERCURY CAPRI
2 Dr., Stk. No. 92067A $1595

85 OLDS CUTLASS
2 Dr., Stk. No. 92409A $1999

86 FORD LTD BROUGHAM
Stk. No. 92185B $2995

86 DODGE RAM
P.U., Stk. No. P636 ..... $1995

81 PLYMOUTH ARROW
P.U., Stk. No. P-633 ..... $1395

87 MERCURY TOPAZ
Auto., AC, Stk. No. JG200 ..... $2799

84 NISSAN SENTRA
4 Dr., Stk. No. 92439A $1999

83 MERCURY COLONY PARK
Wgn., Stk. No. P602A $1995

88 DODGE SHADOW
2 Dr., Stk. No. 91782B $2895

87 MERCURY GRAND MARQUIS
4 Dr., Stk. No. 92226A $4995

86 MAZDA 626 TURBO
4 Dr., Stk. No. 92429A $2995

85 LINCOLN TOWNCAR
4 Dr., dark blue, Stk. No. 92473B $4495

86 FORD TEMPO
4 Dr., Stk. No. 92321A $2995

BAD CREDIT? Don't Worry, We Finance.

ARLINGTON AUTO WHOLESALE
Arlington, Massachusetts
Call Mr. Green (617) 648-6538
Mon. - Fri. 10 - 7, Sat. 10 - 5, Sun. 12 - 4
MORE ARRIVING DAILY!

We're Looking For A Few Stars

Boston's fastest growing newspaper is now taking on many additional employees. If you're hard working, possess outstanding talent and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success. We offer unparalleled opportunity, plenty responsibility and a fun working environment

Account Executives

Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Photo Editor

We're looking for an experienced photographer who is well organized and motivated. Responsibilities include organizing the photographing of all photos and managing a staff of photgraphers. No phone calls please.

Photo Journalist

Freelance Restaurant Critic

Freelance Writers

Movie Critic

Real Estate Account Manager

Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.
Please send all resumes to: or FAX it to 232-4305
The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIED AD FORM

Section Heading _____

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26

1
2
3
4
5
6

Run Dates:
From:____ /____ Month. Day

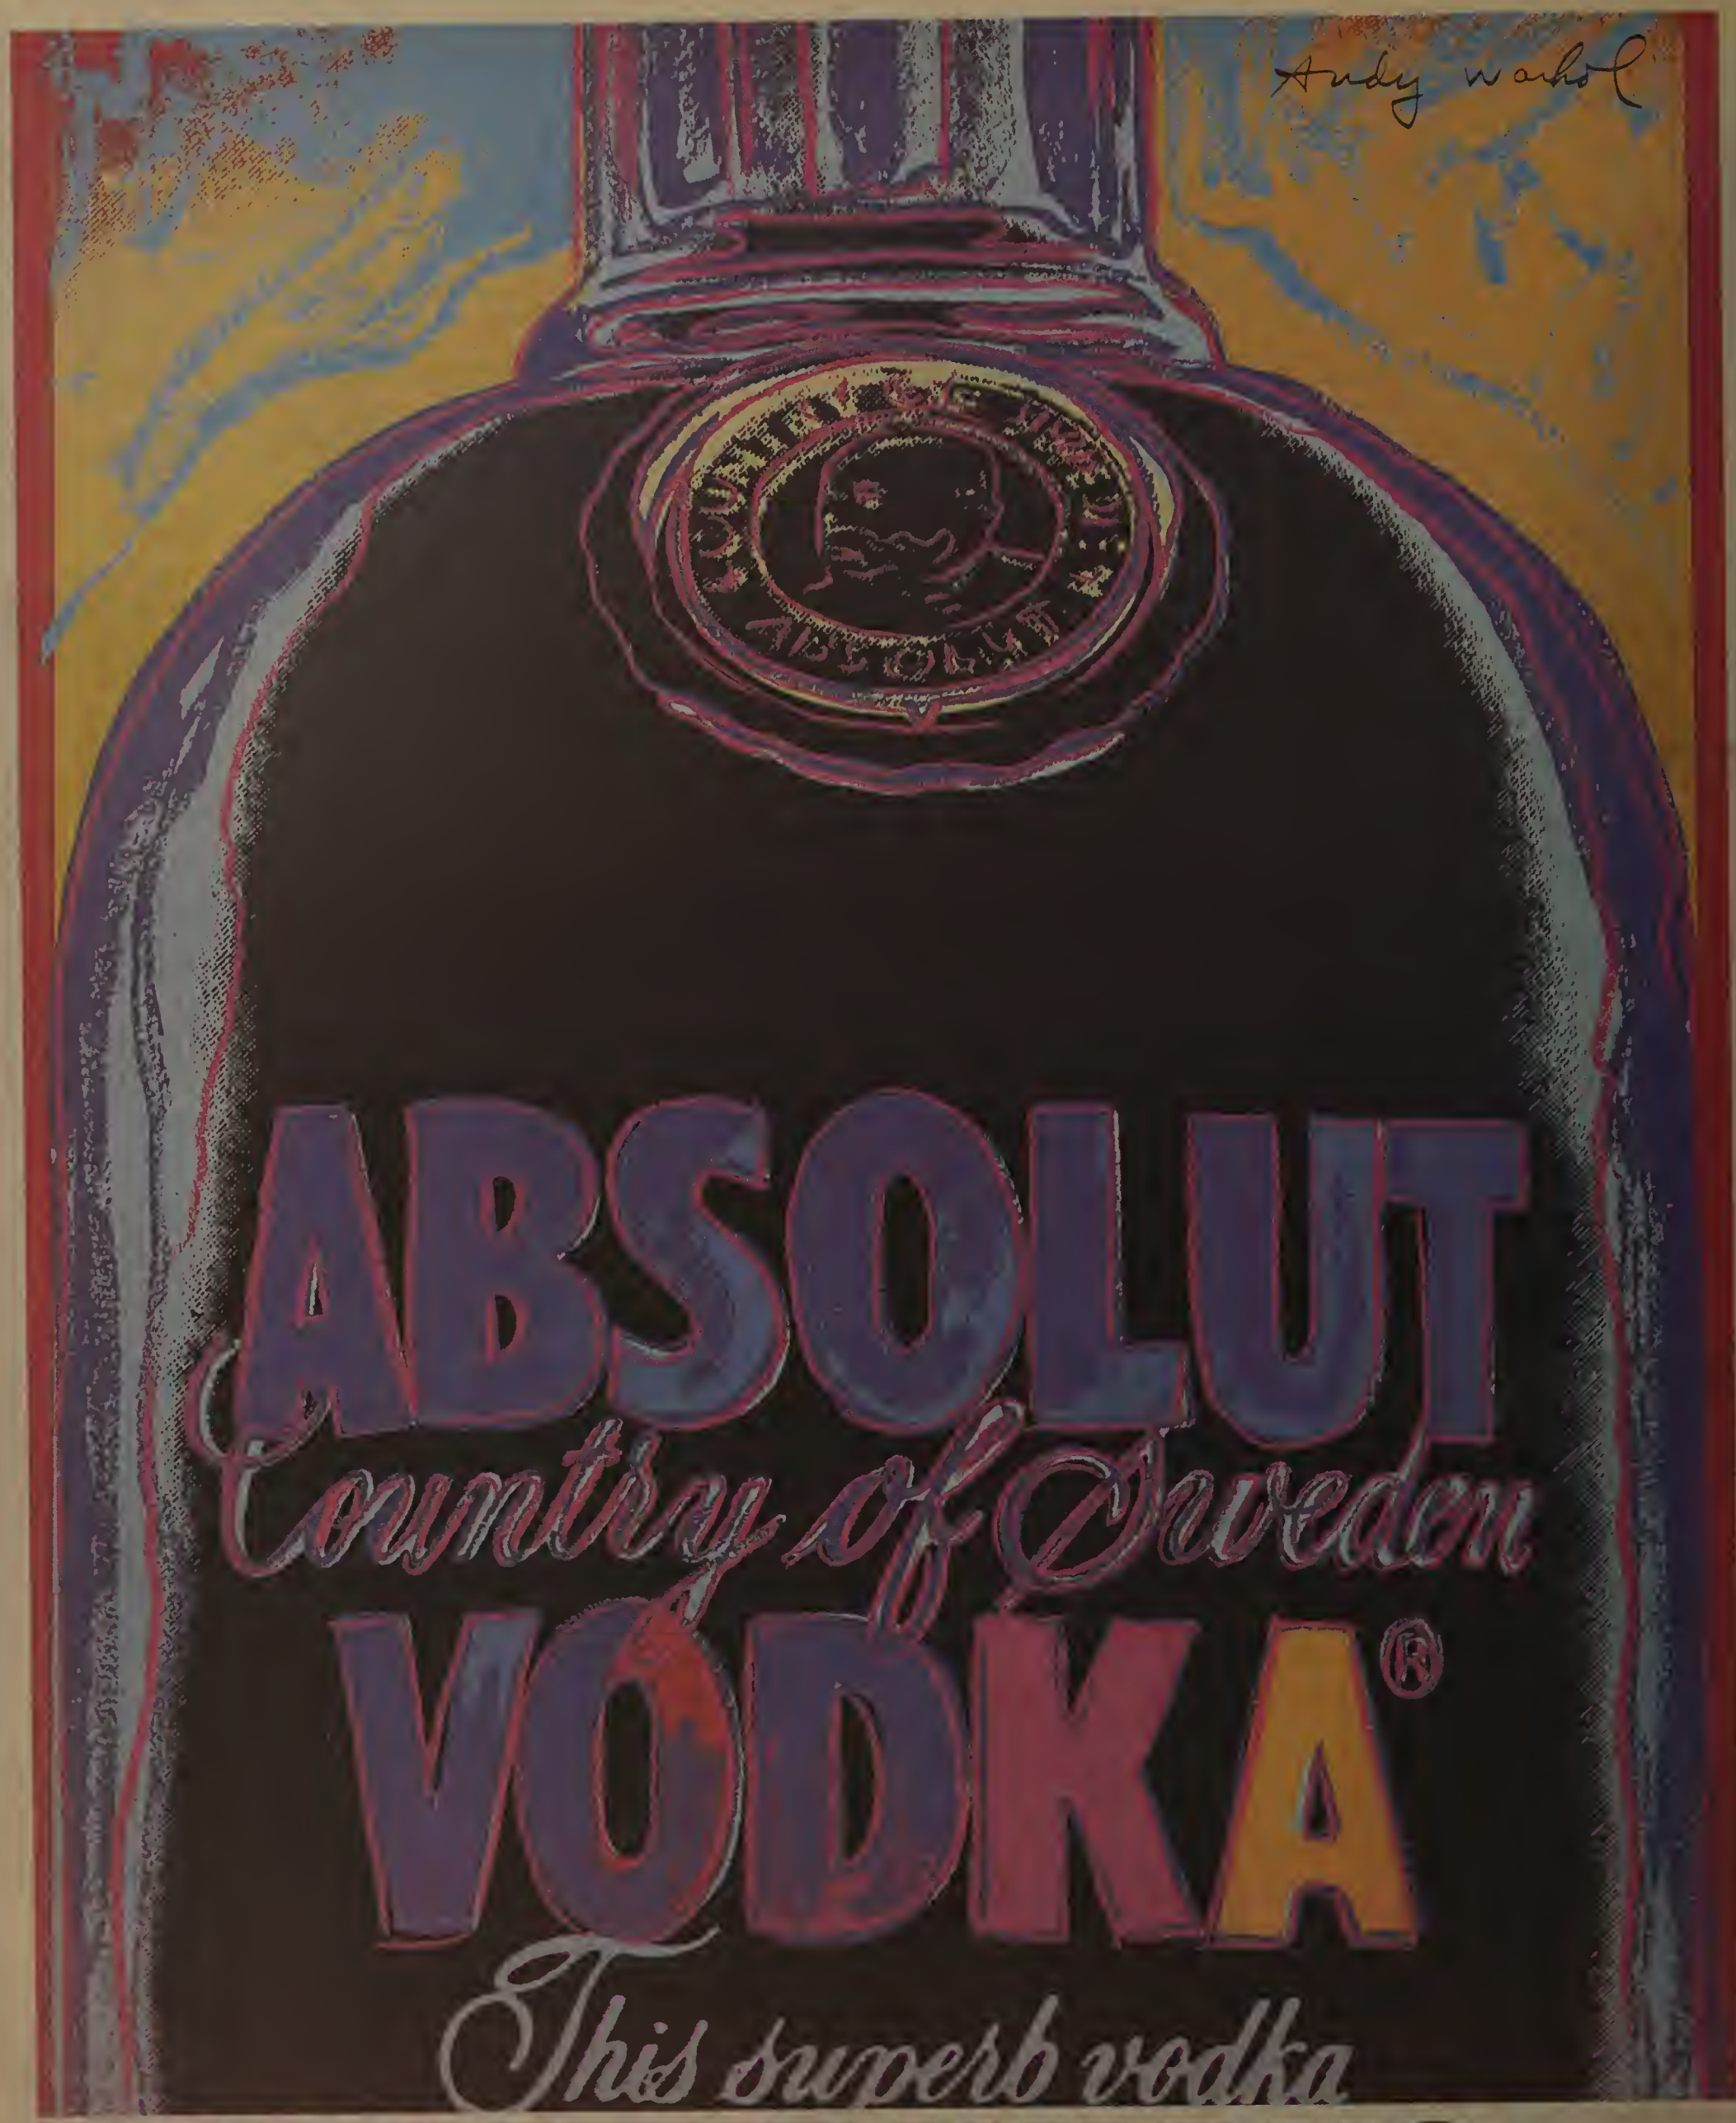
❑ Bold Headline

First 4 lines	19.00*
Additional lines X .$5.00	+
Bold Headline (15$)	+
= Total	+



* The $19.00 'run until it works' rate is for Non - commercial accounts only.

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: Improper Bostonian Classifieds)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card Number _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

Mail orders to: 17 Station St. Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146-7303
The Improper Bostonian
OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

RATES: NON-COMMERCIAL- $5 PER LINE. $15 FOR BOLD HEADLINE. COMMERCIAL- $7 PER LINE. $17 FOR BOLD HEADLINE.
THE $19. "RUN IT UNTIL IT WORKS" ADVERTISEMENTS ARE FOR NON-COMMERCIAL ADS ONLY. REAL ESTATE OWNERS WHO NEED PLACEMENT FOR MULTIPLE UNITS ARE SUBJECT TO COMMERCIAL RATES. COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS WHO PLACE A CLASSIFIED AD IN SIX CONSECUTIVE ISSUES WILL RECEIVE A 6 COLUMN INCH CLASSIFIED DISPLAY AD. COMMERCIAL CUSTOMERS THAT PREPAY FOR SIX ISSUES, MAY RECEIVE A CLASSIFIED DISPLAY IN ANY ISSUE THEY CHOOSE.
COPY REGULATIONS: ALL AD COPY IS SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BEFORE PUBLICATION. ANY AD DEEMED OBJECTIONABLE WILL BE EITHER EDITED OR REMOVED. THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN SHALL BE UNDER NO LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO INSERT AN ADVERTISEMENT. ANY ERRORS THAT DO NOT AFFECT THE MATERIAL VALUE OF THE AD WILL NOT BE CREDITED. ERRORS MUST BE REPORTED WITHIN THE FIRST WEEK OF PUBLICATION.
CANCELLATIONS AND CHARGES: ALL ADS MUST BE PREPAID. THERE WILL BE NO REFUNDS FOR CANCELED ADS. SPACE CREDITS WILL BE ISSUED FOR ADS CANCELLED BEFORE 5 P.M.ON THE THURSDAY BEFORE PUBLICATION. THERE ARE NO COPY CHANGES OR REFUNDS FOR NON-COMMERCIAL ADS. AGENCY DISCOUNTS:15% AGENCY DISCOUNTS APPLY. CALL FOR MORE INFORMATION.

FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW) CALL 1-800-243-3787.
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1985. ESTATE AND FOUNDATION OF ANDY WARHOL.

August 5 - August 18, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50¢)

UNMASKING THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA

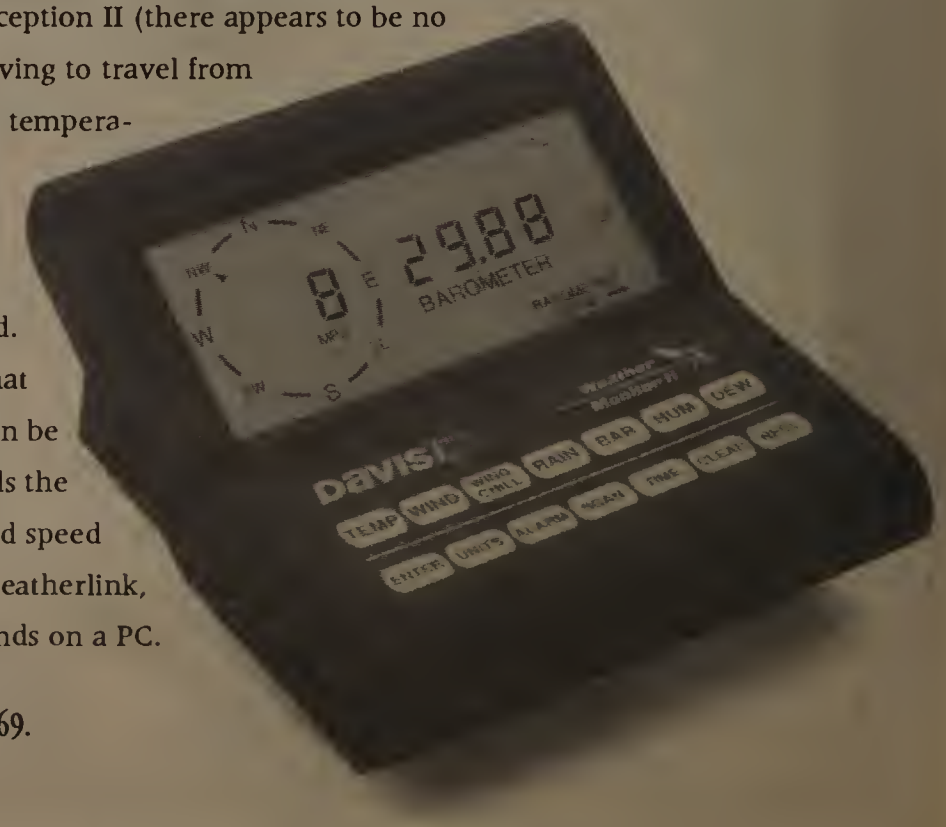
Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Frequent Shopper Miles

It's almost like the friendly Midwest at BJ's, where people are actually laughing and looking happy as they locomote their huge carts up and down the aisles. With very high ceilings and a surprising Big Top feeling, this warehouse "club" for wholesale shopping is an adventure; you do want to justify the annual $25 membership fee in the first visit, but it's quite easy to do (unless your shopping eyes are bigger than the stomach of your car). You should go when you need either Texan-sized containers of such things as canned goods, toiletries, soda pop, toothbrushes (a 9-pack typical of the how-manyness factor here would make your dentist happy that you were cycling through them as told), computer paper - or (when you're muscular enough to haul it home), to commit to a whole bunch of a given thing (like 24 cans of cat food, 100 trash bags or a huge gluggery of olive oil). Already-big stuff like tires and automotive equipment sits side by side with ordinary stuff on steroids (detergent boxes the size of small television sets). The very desirable meat here (in some cases, yards-long roasts and kidney lamb chops in packs of 8) cry out for either big barbecues or freezing. Not everything is merely utilitarian - there are plenty of fancy brands among the familiar, more workaday (but well-known) brands. Such bedfellows as office furniture, fresh vegetables and a big bakery occupy the acreage. If retail has a markup of 25%, BJ's comes in at about 10%.

BJ's WHOLESALE CLUB

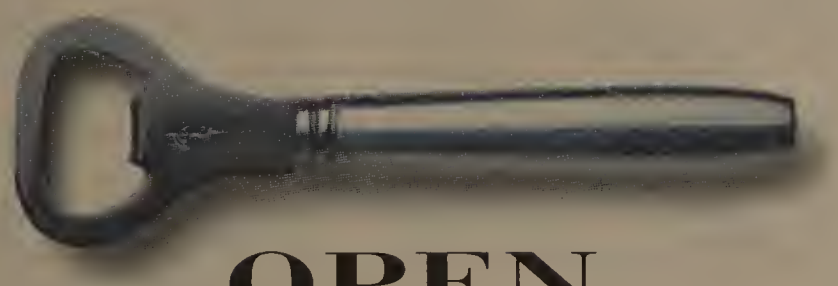
BJ's Wholesale Club
909 The Fellsway
Medford, Massachusetts
396—0235.
Thursdays until 7.



When You Care Enough To Write The Very Best

This completely original genre of book (U and I) - this fretting fretwork of adoration - is a part-jealous, part-self-inquiring, wholly zonked and snowed paeon of praise from one writer (Nicholson Baker) to another (John Updike - he of the slightly computery-sounding 'U' of the title). A lyrical plungingness of style is one of the things that unites them (and a romantic attention to elaborate and microscopic detail), though Baker confesses that, for all his obsessiveness, he hasn't read much of Updike's work (nor will he do so before writing this twirling pinwheel of a crazed fan letter. He gets a lot of mileage out of seeing his mother laughing over a section about golfing in one of Updike's books). But any little bit can be infinitely played out; Updike on the subject of "clogging" in a narrative leads to a disquisition on the clogged sewer in Baker's in-laws' house: 'Around the probe of his machine was a roil of roots and black tampon-fruits and pinkly prosperous earthworms...and why shouldn't this very clog clog some narrative of mine? To the worms it was not obstructive, it wasn't revolting, it was life itself.' No girl with a crush on a guy has so finely split the spectrum of micro-anguish, considerations of the teensy distinctions between shades and meanings, nor worried so elaborately about measuring-up in the eye of the adored one, as Baker does here. And, while it is also a masterpiece of Byzantine literariness, the book is also extraordinarily funny.

U And I by Nicholson Baker. Paperback; at most bookstores.



Your Own Little Weather Station

If you think of the weather as a moody adolescent, always shimmering delicately within a finely split spectrum of attitudes, and you are fascinated by the expanded "Now" of it all, here is the little gadget for you. Echoing the weather itself, Davis Instruments offers slight gradations of gadgethood in electronic devices (kitten-small) that you can put on your desk or mount on the wall. Perception II (there appears to be no Perception I) monitors indoor climate. Without having to travel from barometer to thermometer, you can read the digitized temperature, discover the high and low temperature for the day (you can "order up" a day that's either 12 or 24 hours long) and, as continually stored in memory, the day and time when those record occurrences occurred. It shows barometric pressure and a trend alarm so that those warning frowns of upcoming weather danger can be heeded (this one costs $150). The Weather Wizard adds the outdoor weather, rainfall (an option), wind chill, wind speed and alarms - and costs $195. With something called Weatherlink, the true "Breeze and Freeze" buff can graph the trends on a PC.

Write for a catalogue, or call: 1-800-678-3669.
Mon-Fri. 7-5:30 Pacific Time.

Mopsy Strange Kennedy has freelanced for the Atlantic, NY Times Book Review and Magazine, Parent's Choice, RedBook, The Washington Post, Chicago Tribune and was a staff writer for Glamour. She also worked for another local (though their name assumes a much more worldly significance) paper for 10 years, 5 months and 28 days.
Please send all correspondence to: The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

OPEN

YOUR OWN BREWERY.

The Commonwealth Brewing Company is now available by the bottle. Open one for yourself, and taste the fresh brewed, full-bodied flavor of Boston's finest traditional English pale ale. Best enjoyed slightly chilled and among friends.

New from The Commonwealth Brewing Company.
Boston's Original Restaurant/Brewery.

BOSTON
BURTON ALE

CONTENTS

August 5 - August 18, 1992

6 Unmasking The Phantom of The Opera

Meet Kevin Gray, star of The Phantom of The Opera, as he shares his thoughts on the show and his career. Come backstage and open your ears to his interpretations of the largest traveling show in the world, and get a peek at the man behind the mask.

BY TOBIN A. STREETT

8 Ghost in The Machine

What does it take to produce, move, disassemble and reassemble The Phantom of The Opera? In addition to the 13 trailers loaded with equipment and scenery for the 22 different scenes, you'll discover how much work, how many chandelier candles and how many elephants are required to make The Phantom the spectacle of a lifetime. BY GARY S. KADET

31 A Berkshire Getaway

Into combining some serious cultural activity with your commune with nature? Music, dancing and theater await those "daring enough" to hit the Berkshires. From the Jacob's Pillow Dance Series to the Williamstown Festival, you'll currently find enough entertainment choices to make you head for the mountains.

BY KAREN CAMPBELL

16 Hemlines are Falling

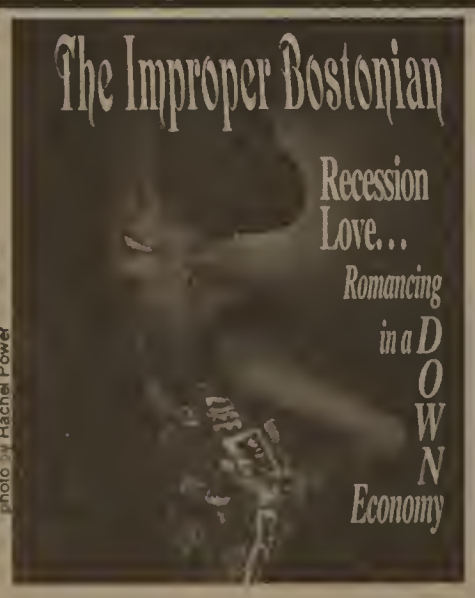
What will women be wearing this fall? Though most of us are enjoying the fashions of summer, it's not too soon to think "fall." Designers say that hemlines are not an issue, so read on for a clear picture of the highlights on the New York runways for fall '92.

BY MARY LAWLOR

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Movies
- Review: Death Becomes Her 10
- Flicks in a Flash 10
- Review: Buffy the Vampire Slayer 11
- Critics Choice 11
- Interview: Polly Walker 12
- What's Playing 12

Comedy
- Interview: Steve Shaffer 13
- Comedy Listings 13

Arts
- The Aliberti Gallery 14
- A Berkshire Gallery 15
- Arts Calendar 16



Woman on the Street 17
Dining
- Review: Dali - Cuisine Worth Bending Time Over 18
- Pink Wines 19
- Appeteasers 20
- Brunch Board 21
- Restaurant Listings 24
- North End Dining 26

Marina Bay: 22
Music
- Two Peas in a Pod: Suzanne Vega & Michelle Shocked 28
- Wachtelligence 29
- Album Reviews 29
- Consistently Eclectic: Sophie B. Hawkins 30
- Hot Ticket 30

Bar & Club Listings 32
- Review:Cambridge Brewing Co. 33

Free Boston 36
Classifieds 37
Improper Impersonals 38
Crossword 39

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year.
(26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146
OR CALL:
(617) 232-3705
Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.
Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

AROUND TOWN

Sprinkle your evening with a little cayenne pepper and take in the zydeco sounds of Terrance Simien and the Mallet Playboys at the Boarding House Park, at the corner of French and John Streets in Lowell. This free show begins at 8:00 and will take you all the way to Baton Rouge. Simien and his Mallet Playboys are one of the hottest new zydeco bands out of the bayou, having received the attention of musical luminaries such as Paul Simon, Los Lobos and The Rolling Stones. Their film debut came when they performed in the Dennis Quaid movie, The Big Easy. Now you can catch these rhythm firecrackers live in Lowell. For more information. call 508-459-1000.

Get out your plastic bucket and shovel and head to Crane Beach in Ipswich for the 16th Annual Sandcastle Day on Saturday, August 22. Expect to see some serious "sand shakers and movers" on the beach beginning around 10:30am as they work around, through, in and out (and any other preposition you want) a "Classic" theme. Almost anything is fair game, but the Friends of Sandcastles recommend, "to reconsider if you are seized with the idea of building any icon of mercantile culture." If you're feeling like building some of your own castles in the air - or sand for that matter - pre-register your $12 waterfront location by calling Concertix at 617-876-7777. The price includes parking ($10), admission ($1), and a building permit ($1). Day-of-event registration is $12 for spectators and $17 for sandworkers.

Bail out to Jailhouse Rock at South Station for the "Jail and Bail" Benefit for the American Cancer Society. Don't miss the King himself, complete with rhinestone-studded bell bottoms as he belts out Jailhouse Rock . Stan Jr. (pictured above) will leave you wondering if this hound dog is for real. For only $25 a Keystone Cop will put a friend under surprise arrest and watch them wallow behind bars as they raise money for the ACS. Elvis will only be there from 12 to 2 pm on August 19, but come down on the 20th also and try a new set of bars for a good cause. For more information or to schedule a surprise arrest, call the Jail and Bail Hotline at 267-2650, extension 318.

UH-OH! Don't forget to mark your calendar to spend an evening with David Byrne at Great Woods on Friday, August 14 at 7:30 pm. The ex-Talking Head will dazzle you with his eclectic visions and sounds drawn from a gathering of world musicians showcasing just about every funky beat short of a cacophony. His new album, UH-OH, reflects both his work with Latin musicians as heard on REI MOMO, and his earlier TH influences. Some songs from the album are "Hanging Upside Down," a ditty about mall culture, and "Now I'm Your Mom" that deals with sex changes. For all this and more, tickets are: $22.50 and $22.00 for pavilion seats and $17.50 for lawn seats. Call ticketmaster at 921-3000 for additional information.

Cyclists of all ages and speeds are invited to join the Pan Massachusetts Challenge taking place on August 8-9. The 192 mile ride begins in Sturbridge and winds its way to Provincetown with an overnight stop at the Mass Maritime Academy in Buzzard's Bay. For those who can't make the whole weekend, a one day, 80 mile ride will also begin and end in Bridgewater. The PMC is a fundraising event for the Jimmy Fund. In its first year (1980), it raised $10,200; this year the PMC hopes to raise $1.7 million. The fund raising requirement for riders is $800 or $400 for the one day event. To be one of the 1,200 cyclists who range from age 15 to 75, put some Charmin under your tush and call 1-800-WE-CYCLE.

Catch swimming Olympians Kim Linehan and Rowdy Gaines in the act when the 1992 Swim Across America comes to Nantucket with a twenty-six mile open water relay swim across the sound on Aug. 8. Jeff Keith, who lost his leg to cancer when he was 12, began this sporting event in 1987 to raise money for cancer research, and to show that cancer hasn't slowed him down at all. A team comprised of BU swimming alums will challenge both Olympians and the water itself with its tricky currents and toothy aquatic life. You can help out by sponsoring a swimmer and coming out to Nantucket to cheer them on. Rumor has it that some Barcelonian Olympians will be joining in on the swim. Call Mark McCullagh at 1-800-628-9034 for more information.

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

Editor in Chief
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE ROSS
LESLIE SEMONIAN

Food Editors
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
AL STANKUS

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

Music Editor
REY ROLDAN

Special Projects Art Director
ALLISON BEGNER

Music Columnist
A.J. WACHTEL

Contributing Writers
GARY S. KADET, JONATHON SARNER
CHRISTOPHER WINTERS, MARY LAWLOR
JANIS REED, KATHLEEN HORVATH
MICKEY O'HALLORAN, LIZ O'BRIEN
KAREN CAMPBELL, JOHN HABER
JON GALLIGAN

Senior Staff Photographer
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE

Staff Photographers
MICHAEL POWERS, AYNSLEY FLOYD
DANIELLE PUCCI

Advertising Sales Directors
DIANA SMITH, HARVEY BRAVMAN

Account Executives
PAUL WARD, UGO MAZZAROLO
MARK STEVENS, WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Production Assistants
GAIL MARCARELLI, JOE SHARRINO
JEFF FILIPOV

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
JENNIFER MCCANN, JENNIFER LEVITSKY,
MARIANNE MURPHY, MEG C. LELKO
MIRIAM BLANKENSHIP, DINA KATZ
TREVOR FORD, JASON PRING
DEBORAH PIRRAGLIA,

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI, CURTIS
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS: Listings are printed free at the discretion of the editor. Send your listings to The Improper Bostonian, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village, MA 02147-0820. Please include information such as dates, prices, telephone numbers and contact person. They must be recieved 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 19

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

On The Cover

Kevin Gray, the Star of The Phantom of the Opera

Photographer: Tracy Aiguier

In our July22 Best and Worst issue, the Paris Salon in Newton Highlands was incorrectly omitted. They are the I.B.'s choice for Best Suburban Hair Salon. Kelly's Roast Beef is the Best—not the Worst—Roast Beef in Boston. The S&S Deli's proper address is 1334 Cambridge Street, Cambridge. The Peek-a-Boo Heart Bathing Suit is courtesy of Lillian and Models, Inc. Special thanks to Mary and Doris at Saks Fifth Ave.

Winners of the Videosmith / Kong Block Volleyball Tournament July 25

Men's Doubles
BJoe Landry & Andy Ducharme of MA
$50/prizes/clothing/free entry

4 Player
Jim Scranton, Norm Costin, David Scranton & Chad O'Connor of MA
prizes/clothing/free entry.

b BEHIND SCENES

GHOST IN THE MACHINE

What Makes The Phantom of the Opera Tick?

By Gary S. Kadet

So, you think you'll be pretty hip if you fly out to New York - or maybe even L.A. - to see Andrew Lloyd Weber's Phantom of the Opera? Be even more hip: stay here in Boston and catch The Phantom at the Wang Center, where the entire special-effects laden mega-musical opens for a limited engagement on August 4, 1992. The Boston version of The Phantom is one leg of what is now the most expensive national touring production in history. And everything that made a smash out of the original will be there at the Wang - plus the charismatic Kevin Gray, who succeeded Michael Crawford as the Phantom in the original Broadway production.

The Phantom is undoubtedly a scary production, but not just on the strength of Gaston LeRoux's original mythic plot line. It is so jammed with high-tech effects that the set alone could very well get up and perform without the show's 36-member cast. The press-packet for the show features a listing of nothing but statistics - like the weight of the second act staircase in tons (2.5), the number of candles that rise from the deck to form an underground lake (181) and the number of glass beads on the chandelier that stops just shy of crashing down on the audience's collective heads (35,000).

That's only a sampling from the "Ripley's Believe It or Not" style facts that make up The Phantom. When a Broadway show hits town, most press conferences usually center on the director, the author and the star - but not in the case of The Phantom. It was made clear that despite the classically delivered score by Andrew Lloyd Weber, the legendary stagecraft of Hal Prince, and the powerful acting of Kevin Gray, the real star of the show is the technical magic.

The show's technical production manager and backstage boss is Marie Barrett, who bears the burden of coordinating the show's massive high-tech superstructure. "There are three categories," said Barrett about setting up the tour: "the Technical Preshow, the Advance and the Show-to-Show." For the Advance, three weeks were devoted to restructuring the auditorium to accommodate the production.

"On the Technical Preshow," Barrett explained, "steel was put in the ceiling to accommodate the weight of the proscenium, the chandelier motor and the 1200 pound chandelier. We have a 'travelator,' a 36 foot flexible ramp suspended between two towers, which is being built. We have what are called the opera boxes. We have a week's worth of work, and then, in Philadelphia, we pull out other scenic elements of the show, load them in the truck and bring them here come Monday and have another week's worth of work before we'll be ready for a technical rehearsal."

And if that weren't enough, the show also has two sets of everything. "That's because we need to cut down on the time that the show is dark from stop to stop. That's so that after Boston, we'll be ready for Detroit. And if there are any modifications that need to happen to anything specifically for Detroit, they will happen and we'll be ready to go to Detroit in November," said Barrett.

"When the Show-to-Show comes, we have a day of technicals and the cast comes on stage. We try and keep the schedule as tight as possible." With barely ten days to spare between cities, the crew must work at a frenetic pace to keep up with the mechanical overlap.

"Our Advance travels with 13 trailers," she continued, "eight trailers for the Show-to-Show. In theory, it takes two weeks to put the show up. Preparation time, whether there's ceilings or holes that need to be cut in the theater before we show up with our Advance, that time varies from stop to stop."

Possibly the most dynamic effect in the show will be the careening chandelier, which merits a separate sheet of stats on its own. According to Barrett, "there are two motors: one in the ceiling, and one on the grid. We'll install the motor and run the cable so that by the 29th the actual chandelier will come with the Show-to-Show." Barrett stressed that though there may be two of everything else, there's only one chandelier.

Veteran Broadway scenic designer Dana Kenn, the carpenters, and technical support team will determine exactly where the one-of-a-kind lighting fixture will go at the Wang. But wherever Putting together the details for the Phantom of the Opera

b

that is, it will hang directly over the audience.

Will the audience be convinced that about half a ton of metal and glass will be coming down upon their heads? "They sure will," said Kenn.

"It's a huge crystal chandelier," commented Lighting Engineer Jason Kantrowitz. The chandelier is 10 feet tall, 12 feet wide, and six feet deep. "Inside it are numerous flashbulbs and four circuits of light that are all radio-controlled, so that we don't have to have cables going down into the chandelier - so it appears to float in mid-air. We actually control the lights in the chandelier through radio signals, as well as the special effects that happen when the chandelier crashes to the floor."

Some of the wealth of scaffolding behind the scenes of the Phantom.

Kenn emphasized the safety of the chandelier effect, pointing out that "it's also dead-tied to a girder in the roof of the Wang. So it cannot, under any circumstances, fall on the audience. It's locked in by the motors that run it, and the way the geometry of its arc works, so it can't hit anybody."

"It gives the illusion of shattering," said Kantrowitz. He explained that there will be no shards of broken glass or any other matter flying out into the audience, just the feel of it.

Barrett and her technical staff have been working with the Boston Inspectional Services Department. Safety inspectors will have to approve effects installations before the show can open. "We have been in constant communication with the Boston Fire department and building inspectors," she said. "The city and the theater really want to do the show, so everybody works together to make it happen." According to Barrett, a major fire official went to New York to see The Phantom and was inspired to help bring it successfully to Boston. "He said: 'You tell us, we'll tell you and we'll make it work.'"

In The Phantom's five year history, there has not even been the slightest audience casualty, despite the numerous things that occasionally go wrong with a show of this complexity - a tribute to the technical virtuosity going on behind the show's 22 different scenes.

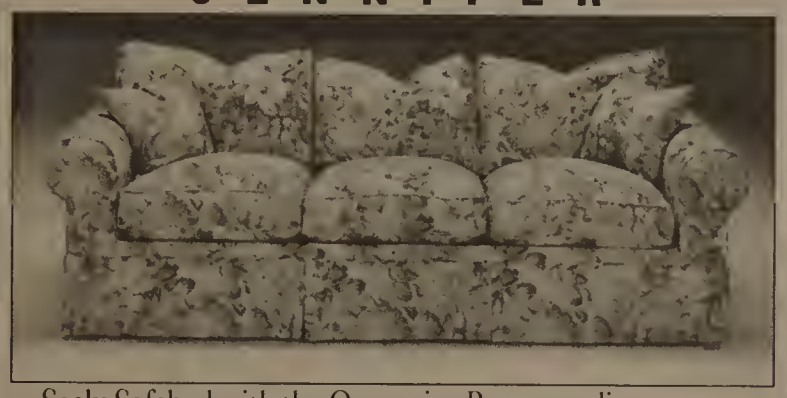
"You never stop putting it in until it's taken out," said Barrett of the show's mechanics. "It's constantly checked."

"There's more ongoing maintenance and upkeep on this Broadway show than any other I've ever worked on or seen," said Kantrowitz. "That makes it perfect for every audience member every night. That's really what we're called on to do."

"When we first came here two years ago to look at the building, it was in desperate need of renovation," Kenn added. "But we decided it was the perfect setting for the show. It's one of the very few theaters in the country that can marry up so well with the visuals of the show."

Computers run the show almost as much as the tech crew does. "The automation is run by two sets of computers," said Barrett. "One computer runs all the deck automation, and another computer runs everything that is automated in the air." The Deus ex Machina Angel which carries the Phantom through the air, the four sets of candelabra "ladies" that move from stop to stop, and the show's drapery are all computer operated. "In all, there are 57 effects that are computerized."

The show also has five completely different opera sets, not Aida or Die Fledermaus, but bizarre concepts from the mind of Costume and Set Designer Maria Bjornson, whose stated purpose in working on the sets for The Phantom was to "distort reality."



"This is unusual, this tour," said Kenn, "as it's one of the first shows in the history of Broadway where the producer didn't want to have anything cut down at all, so it actually includes everything from the roadway production. It's a big, big tour." The principal difference is that certain props, like the candelabra-bearing mannequin ladies, have to come down from the ceiling or from the sides of the stage. In New York, a third of the production comes up from the floor. "If the show's coming to your town," she said, "you'll really do better to see it there."

According to the show's National Press Representative, Merle Frimark, there has been no noticeable drop in the quality of the reviews of the show in the press. "And I've read them all," she sighed.

"The interesting thing about the show," Barrett concluded, "is that it ends with an empty stage, a complete black box when you hit curtain call. What has come in and out during that time are five different operas, 21 different 'looks' or sets in all, an elephant, and it all goes away."

And when it does, you might wonder whether it was The Phantom of the Opera that impressed you so much, or the "Ghost in the Machine." ❑

SEALY'S FINEST
DOWN-BLEND
EXCLUSIVELY AT
JENNIFER

Sealy Sofabed with the Queensize Posturepedic mattress.

$999.

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Classic Scaly sofabed with gently rolled arms and dressmaker skirt. Overstuffed down-blend cushions for deep-down seating comfort.

The quality and style you would expect on a sofabed twice the price. Covered in luxurious linen blend tea-stain print. Or choose from hundreds of other designer fabrics—Robert Allen, David & Dash, Chris Stone and others—all available at a range of prices you'd otherwise pay more for elsewhere. C.O.M. available.

JENNIFER CONVERTIBLES

Open 10-9 pm Sat. 10-6 pm Sun. 12-5 pm America's Largest Sofabed Specialist.

Please call 1-800-JENNIFER for the showroom nearest you.

NEW YORK NEW JERSEY CONN N HAMP WASH. DC MARYLAND VIRG FLOR ILL IND MISSOURI MICH

caffé paradiso
est. 1966

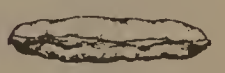
gelati

sorbetto

apertivi

liquers

cognacs



scotches

soft beverages

panini

pizza

255 Hanover Street
Boston

3 Water Street
Boston

1 Elliot Street
Cambridge

349 Newbury Street
Boston (May '92)

Unmasking The Phantom of The Opera

Confronting Its Star, Kevin Gray

By Tobin A. Streett

So whatta ya know? Kevin Gray, who plays the Phantom in The Phantom of The Opera, isn't all that bad a guy. In fact, he's quite nice.

Speaking during an abbreviated vacation in Connecticut, Gray was candid and happy to reflect on the difficulties and rewards of playing such a treasured role.

After performing as the Phantom for a year and a half, Gray has had few chances to prorecreate for extended periods of time. Performing six nights a week, with matinee performances thrown in to reduce his free time even more, Gray should be tired. But instead, he seems full of more life than a kinetic ball of fire.

Kevin Gray plays the role of a killer. Almost daily, he goes through a metamorphosis from a passionate actor to a confused and enraged blemish on society, unrelenting in the pursuit of his passion. And Mr. Gray enjoys this ritual that brings him face to face with the barbarous tortures that most of us would care not to live through more than once.

So what is it that energizes this man? Why is he so enthused about such a grueling performance schedule? "I love to learn and each day that I play the Phantom, I'm learning something new. The energy doesn't all come from me. It comes from the audience."

In a time when theatrical productions leave little to the imagination, Gray and his Phantom have left the doors wide open to interpretation. Audience members who have seen The Phantom of The Opera and have met Gray on the street - unmasked - usually don't quite know how to react to him. Is he an ordinary person, or the evil (and tragic) Phantom?

"It's certainly an interesting situation. Most people who meet me out of the costume are simply curious. But there are some who aren't quite right and come off a little scary. People want to respond to you because of the makeup - they want to see what's behind it. Some people who respond to the character respond in a very dynamic and profound way. It sort of happens with this show and the response is overwhelming."

Can Gray relate to his character?

"Absolutely. I think people can empathize with a character who can't be accepted in society. We've all been abused in some way or another. This character, because of a deformity, in a way, is easy for the audience to identify. It becomes spiritual. For such an old play, it's very contemporary in an odd way."

As a former pre-law student who got into theater because "law and theater are very similar," Gray is quick to reply as to what elements attracted him to the show.

"I knew what the story was. After seeing it, I was absolutely blown away. It's the most beautiful show in history and it's enormously romantic. You're seeing something romantic that's about people, and falling in love and connecting. It's very much about the desire people have to be loved, touched and needed - that's what makes the world go around. But once there, I think that what drew me to it was the character. He has a tremendous amount of healing power."

Don't get him wrong. Gray doesn't liken himself to a modern day shaman. On the contrary, he views his role or "association" with this production as an opportunity to function as a conduit to the audience. Gray makes it clear that his role, his job and his function are merely extensions of the whole project.

"You have an opportunity through your voice, your body - and through the costumes - to touch people and let them know that they are not alone. There's this solitude, this great feeling that the world's a

Joan Marcus

Kevin Gray as "The Phantom" and Teri Bibb as "Christine" in a scene from The Phantom of the Opera, at the Wang Center through October 10.

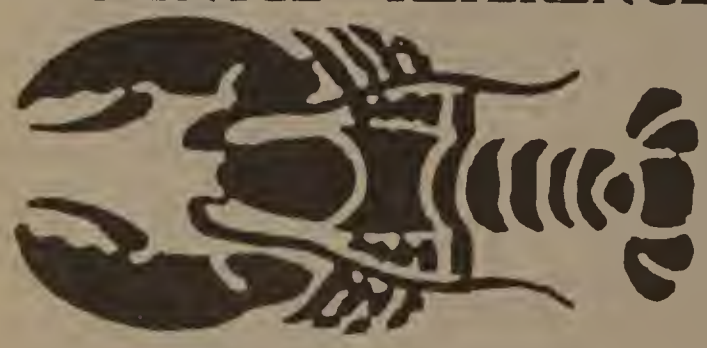
EW ENGLAND CLAMBAKES

by Nationwide Clambake Co.

COOKOUTS & BBQ'S OF ALL TYPES

LEAVE THE COOKING TO US

ANY SIZE • ANYWHERE



PROFESSIONAL STAFF

CUSTOM NEEDS

ALL PRICE RANGES

WE TRAVEL EVERYWHERE

FULL SERVICE • REFERENCES

367-8485

CALL FOR BROCHURE

BOSTON

BOSTON

"Clambakes Catered Coast to Coast"

10 TECHNOLOGY DRIVE, HUDSON, MA 01749

confusing place. I see great amounts of loneliness and fear."

After playing the same character for any length of time, one might wonder whether or not some (or any) of the characteristics have crept into Gray's own personality. Responding to some prodding about any "leakage points," Gray says, "No, I don't think so. I'm an actor who . . . I bring myself to it. I leave my own ticks at the theater and live out my own fears on-stage. I try to bring my own feelings of disconnectedness to the show."

Disassociating himself from a characterized world has simply been something to take in stride for Gray. Prior to The Phantom, he played a variety of roles, including Raoul in The Phantom and Valentin (which he created for the musical version) in Kiss of The Spider Woman.

You might question if after playing such demanding roles (one as a tempter and one as an imprisoned, sexually confused transvestite), Kevin Gray would naturally be a stable person. After searching for any demonstrative traits of emotional lability, there were none to be found. Kevin Gray is his own man. Spend time with him and you'll realize that he's someone who has obviously searched deep within himself to understand the significance of his role as the Phantom, and in a refreshing approach, define his position not as savior to the arts, but as a contributor deeply bent on learning his craft.

"Raoul helped me with the Phantom. I was determined to be a real threat to him, but in general, the Phantom is the one being victimized. He's volatile and fighting his own battles." In fact, it goes much further than that. Gray (or the Phantom) is allowed not only to fight his own battles, but to determine the magnitude of their importance within the production.

In an extraordinary display of trust, director Harold Prince has given an exceptional amount of autonomy to both Gray and his fellow cast members. This freedom to develop is what makes Phantom more of an interpretation of an idea than most other productions. For Gray, it's probably even more so. "I probably have more latitude than the other characters. Over time, we've been encouraged to bring ourselves to it (the character).

"Director Harold Prince takes what the actor brings to it and embraces that, and then molds the character and production around it. In New York, they copy the performance. He then comes to see the show. And for him to mention his interest - after traveling constantly - is just incredible. He'll say, 'you added something there. I like that.' It's a great compliment.

"I've always wanted to be in film. Certain parts of your life can affect other people forever. The first movie I saw was Shane. It's a totally visceral experience. I'd like my work to outlive me. That's what it comes down to.

"In theater, it [the same thing] will never happen again. You can never repeat a live performance. Like in baseball. There's nothing quite like a live game because you're really there."

It turns out that Gray is not only a baseball fan, but a total sports fanatic. He seems to gather much of his philosophy from a "sporting" point of view. Is it a driving force behind him? "In a way, I guess." Gray relates a story about Ivan Lendl and his relationship to his racket. "Even though he walks out with a racket in his hand, there's no racket. Just his hand. Here's somebody doing something so naturally. And that's how playing a character should be. An extension."

With the grueling hours and demands of performing on such a regular basis - at cities around the world - it seemed reasonable to ask if Kevin had placed a cut-off date for playing the Phantom. "I take it one day a week, one month at a time. I relate to athletes. You could be Yaz and then boom, suddenly it's gone. When the time comes to go, I'll know it and I'll go. I'll turn in the mask at the desk and go on."

Playing the same role over and over will leave most actors in a precarious position, perched between a typecast identity and a road heading into the unknown. But this doesn't seem to phase Gray. He offers a philosophy eerily resembling that of the late Henry Fonda.

"There is life after work. I have a very full, happy life. When this is over, I'll be grateful. There will be other journeys. Life is great but I've had my ups and downs. You just have to remember: Like a friend of mine once said, 'It sure beats the alternative.' Plus, this is an extraordinary time on earth. So much is happening. Countries and global communities are being reshaped and redefined. I'm happy to be alive."

But life comes with its daily stresses and challenges. Many of us prepare for them by pursuing activities like sports or charity work. Gray, however, disseminates his stresses in a different way. "I relax in my makeup chair. It's a good place to meditate. At least, that's part of it. I do certain things to break my body down. You have a lot of help. I used to listen to a lot of different music, but I've been reading the papers a lot lately - looking for things that connect."

He's a truly fascinating enigma in time, this Kevin Gray. Emblematic of the meditative qualities needed to perform in such regular performances, Gray hesitates before describing his routine. "A word a friend used to describe the pace is 'relentless,' which is correct. At the beginning, it just keeps coming, with one day off. As it has come about, I've had to force myself to find ways to maintain and create energy. It's a question of getting outside of yourself. On-stage, I've learned how to energize myself and it's the same as the audience. People gather to share communal energy.

"I feel that I can draw off of the people there. I could never create the energy to raise 9,000 people off of their chairs - but they can do it. I draw their energy and their life. And when you do it again and again, it becomes liberating. As long as you don't stop making it as good as it can be. We'll see. This show is still exciting." ❑

Great Leather.
Great Price.

$179 and up

T ⟵ W

TANNERY WEST

Copley Place 424-1410
Faneuil Hall Market 723-5934
The Atrium 527-9395

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Mo' Money
"Less is Mo'"

It is clear that Damon Wayans of TV's In Living Color wants to give us mo' thrills, mo' laughs and mo' plot than other summer flicks, but unfortunately what we wind up with is less. What should have been a fun picture about a scam artist going straight for love becomes a recipe straight from Hollywood: 50 percent funny kid, 50 percent TV sketch comedy characters, 50 love story and 50 percent coming of age drama. To his credit, Wayans is funny in scenes where he gets to scam in his various characters, which include a drug addict and a gay man who sneezes on homophobes. Although he is not as vibrant a performer as Eddie Murphy, Wayans has the advantage of being a writer with a quirky knack of creating characters by combining stereotypes. John Diehl is outstanding as the villain, as are Marlon Wayans (Damon's brother), Stacey Dash (pretty and pert) and Allmayvonne Dixon (underwritten role well played). Mo' Money is sometimes cheap and sometimes funny, but ultimately less than mo'. B.C.

Honey, I Blew Up the Kid
"Disney Sci-fi Schlock"

Honey, I Blew Up the Kid, the sequel to Honey, I Shrunk the Kids, is a hybrid: one part Disney and another part sci-fi schlock. Set the happy, suburban Disney family against the plot of the low-budget rampaging giant-movie from the '50s, (Attack of the Fifty Foot Woman, et al) and you get the Amazing Colossal Baby. The special effects are ably handled, and the movie is replete with laughs and clever turns of plot. Rick Moranis returns as Father Wayne and Marcia Strassman is once again his wife, Diane; both actors give outstanding performances. Sequels only invite comparison with their predecessors, and although Honey I Blew Up the Kid has some wonderful moments, it cannot beat its predecessor for sheer directness and simplicity of plot. Regardless, Honey is enjoyable entertainment for kids of all ages — and sizes. It's a cozy, lighthearted and slightly surreal affair that may fall short of its predecessor, but pleases on its own terms. J.S.

Batman Returns
"Worth Seeing, But Not Worth a Wait"

Batman Returns has its moments of glory, but too many evil plots make a mess of the story. In Burton's sequel to 1989's Batman, each of three villains — the Catwoman (Michelle Pfeiffer), the Penguin (Danny Devito), and Max Schreck, corporate mogul (Christopher Walken), — has his or her own set of complex schemes. Conflicting plots leave the movie unable to sustain any momentum or sense of suspense at the climax. Michael Keaton shows a firmer grasp of the Batman role this time around, and Michelle Pfeiffer nearly steals the show. Director Tim Burton has decided to repeat the virtues of the original film (good sets and great performances), while expanding its vices. Batman Returns is worth seeing, but not worth spending the weekend in line. J.H., J.G.

Boomerang
"You'll Hope It Won't Come Back"

Eddie Murphy's latest film Boomerang, attempts to be a coming of age film for its star. It's the story of a womanizing perfume executive who meets his match in the company's beautiful new boss (Robin Givens). The film promises to be one of role reversals. Murphy could have been spectacular if his cocksman character had descended into the underworld groveling for love. But Murphy - who created the story for the film - holds himself aloof from such misery. Boomerang also wastes the talents of Eartha Kitt, and Geofrey Holder. Though we're throwing Boomerang away, we still love you Eddie. B.C.

DEATH BECOMES HER

A Black Comedy Full of Twists

Lisle von Rhumans (Isabella Rossellini), the eerie mistress of immortality tempts Dr. Ernest Menville (Bruce Willis) in Death Becomes Her.

BY TIM LEMIRE

Death Becomes Her is an anomaly among summer releases: this black comedy, starring Bruce Willis, Goldie Hawn and Meryl Streep, is well-written, engaging from first scene to last, wickedly funny, and unlike a score of other summer movies, worth the price of admission. Credit its success to the inventive screenplay of Martin Donovan and David Koepp and the directorial hand of Robert Zemeckis (Roger Rabbit). All three men help create a movie that avoids a predictable plot and delivers a fine comedy of errors.

Death Becomes Her centers on the rivalry of two women, Helen Sharp (Goldie Hawn) and Madeline Ashton (Meryl Streep) - when the two women meet, they feign delight on each other as well as on the object of both their affections, Dr. Ernest Menville, plastic surgeon (Bruce Willis). When Helen sees Madeline steal Ernest away, she plots a revenge that goes awry, and the circumstances resulting from the dirty deed are hardly what anyone nursed on Hollywood formulas would expect. Indeed, the writing and timing of Death Becomes Her is so well-crafted, that guessing the next scene is next to impossible.

The tone of the comedy is funereal black (to be sure), especially in a hysterical scene in which Madeline falls down a long set of marble stairs and lands in an absurd heap of twisted limbs in the foyer. Blacker (or, "grosser") comedies there have been; Death Becomes Her is reminiscent of the chamber comedy of Arsenic and Old Lace, with a dash of visual effects that rival Terminator 2 in their originality and sophistication.

DEATH BECOMES HER

UNIVERSAL PICTURES
A ROBERT ZEMECKIS FILM
STARRING:
GOLDIE HAWN
BRUCE WILLIS
MERYL STREEP
ISABELLA ROSSELLINI
PG-13

Visual effects supervisor Ken Ralston manages an amazing visual feat in Death Becomes Her, which audiences have no doubt seen in previews and ads for the film: putting Meryl Streep's head on backwards, and putting a hole in Goldie Hawn's stomach the size of a bowling ball. As remarkable as these effects are, as much as they are milked for all their comedy, they thankfully do not rule the film. They are vehicles for laughs, and take up relatively little time onscreen, testimony to the fact that this film doesn't need long stretches of special effects to make it funny or interesting. The actors have assumed that role - and performed in a most convincing style.

Assembling a trio of stars as big as Willis, Hawn and Streep might seem a recipe for failure, but such is not the case. Goldie Hawn eschews her perky image in Housesitter for a believable red-haired she-devil, and Meryl Streep convinces, as she did in Postcards From the Edge, that she can pull off a comedic role without adopting a difficult accent. She is undoubtedly the strongest of the three, surpassing Hawn and Willis in a mastery of gestures and delivery to establish her character. Willis, playing a meek nerd surgeon (a far cry from Die Hard and Hudson Hawk) resurrects his penchant for comedy that we remember from TV's Moonlighting.

Regrettably, Donovan and Koepp write too much distance between the three characters in Death Becomes Her to allow Hawn, Willis and Streep to succeed as an ensemble, but regardless, the parts win out over the whole and each performance is entertaining in its own right.

Isabella Rossellini makes a tepid but fanciful cameo as Lisle, possessor of an unusual beauty secret, showing from the front and behind that she may not be the world's best actress, but is undoubtedly the most alluring female in a film that captures the comical side of the aging process.

Death Becomes Her is a wicked treat, appealing in its originality, amazing in its appearance, and just plain funny. See it. ❑

M

Buffy the Vampire Slayer

A Lifeless Farce From Beyond the Grave

Buffy (Kristy Swanson) "toaster-cakes" another one in this scene from Buffy the Vampire Slayer.

By Tim Lemire

Buffy, a vapid Valley Girl, comes of age when she realizes her ancient birthright as a killer of the undead in Buffy the Vampire Slayer, the latest teen-marketed summer flick. What could have been a bitingly satirical movie combining Heathers and The Lost Boys is instead a lifeless farce with few moments of actual comedy.

Los Angeles is under attack from vampires, and they're ganging up on Hemery High School. Head cheerleader Buffy - who places just above Kelly Bundy in the brains department - is accosted by Merrick (Donald Sutherland), who informs her that in previous lives, her profession of choice was "Vampire Slayer." Merrick trains Buffy to tackle the new batch of bloodsuckers, and Buffy goes along, in the process learning to master discipline and direction in her life.

Valley vernacular like "totally toasty" and "What 's your sitch (situation)?" crowds the first third of the movie, and as annoying as it may be, it provides much of the movie's humor. Unfortunately, screenwriter Joss Whedon doesn't maintain the level of Valley-speak throughout Buffy, and we are left with little to laugh about. We then focus on the vampires (who aren't scary) and Buffy's schoolmates (who aren't interesting).

Kristy Swanson is likable as Buffy, and is more appealing when she loses her dumb blonde facade and tight skirts, looking like a young Mariel Hemingway onscreen. Buffy is funniest when she spits out vicious high school-speak, and regrettably the movie loses its chances for humor when the plot wheels really start turning. Buffy grows up, and we miss her ditzy quality.

Besides, any film that casts Paul Reubens (Pee-Wee Herman) as a vampire and doesn't exploit the comedy of that casting decision isn't doing all it can to be funny.

An interesting touch is that Buffy senses encroaching vampires when her cramps act up. (Yes, you read right.) An underscore of sexuality permeates the film, as Buffy gains the attention of a new beau (Luke Perry) and approaches that pinnacle of adolescent sex rituals, the senior dance. In the obligatory big battle scene between Buffy and the vampires, we see our heroine in her virginal white gown, her heaving bosoms glistening with perspiration, jutting ten-inch wooden spikes into male vampiric offenders. But Fellini this isn't; the script is too uneven and the editing too choppy for a fine film to emerge.

Donald Sutherland walks through his role as Merrick, as does Rutger Hauer as the chief vamp, Lothos. Besides, neither one is given enough onscreen time from director Fran Rubel Kuzui or enough dialogue from Whedon to do anything substantial with their roles.

Despite his best James Dean posturing, heartthrob Luke Perry is Luke "Warm" as Pike. In his motion picture debut, one would think that Perry would have chosen a role more fitting to his character, like a grease jockey at the Ground Round.

There is a funny scene here and there (such as Buffy's principal relating to her bad trip at a Doobies concert), but in the end, Buffy the Vampire Slayer is weak blood meal for a good evening out. In short - sorry, can't resist the pun - it sucks. ❑

Buffy the Vampire Slayer

Twentieth Century Fox
Directed by
Fran Rubel Kuzui
Starring:
Kristy Swanson
Donald Sutherland
Paul Reubens
Rutger Hauer
Luke Perry
PG-13

KEY
A Winner
A Toss Up
For the Birds

CRITICS CHOICE

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	L.A. Times	Village Voice	Newsweek	People	Time
A League of Their Own	★	★	🐦	★	◯	🐦	★	🐦	◯
Boomerang	🐦	◯	🐦	◯	🐦	🐦	★	🐦	★
Sister Act	◯	◯	◯	🐦	★	🐦	◯	★	🐦
Honey I Blew Up the Kid	★	◯	🐦	★	🐦	★	◯	★	◯
Cool World	🐦	🐦	🐦	🐦	🐦	🐦	—	🐦	—
A Stranger Among Us	★	◯	◯	🐦	◯	🐦	—	🐦	🐦
Unlawful Entry	🐦	◯	🐦	◯	🐦	🐦	◯	🐦	◯
Prelude to a Kiss	★	◯	◯	🐦	★	◯	★	◯	★
Universal Soldier	🐦	★	🐦	◯	🐦	🐦	—	🐦	◯
Batman Returns	◯	★	◯	★	🐦	★	◯	◯	★

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A League of Their Own
"Steals Home"

Penny Marshall directs A League of Their Own, a fictional movie based on the true events of the first women's professional baseball teams. With an all-star cast on the field, Marshall scores big. Geena Davis plays Dottie, a dairy worker recruited by a scout - the incessantly sharp Jon Lovitz. At the tryouts, we're introduced to "All the way Mae" (Madonna) and tough-talking Delores (Rosie O'Donnell), who in tandem, keep the lines cracking and the audience laughing. As she did with her Oscar-nominated Awakenings, Marshall has once again enlightened the public to a heartwarming and noteworthy story. L.M.B.

Cool World
"Uncool and Insulting"

The driving force behind this badly-animated clunker is that cartoon go-go dancer Holli Would wants to get porked by a human, otherwise known in her "Cool World" universe as a "noid." Cool World is haphazard and uninteresting, vainly trying to emulate Roger Rabbit, but the Paramount release is nowhere near as technically sophisticated or even well-drawn. With the exception of Holli (The air-headed voice of Kim Basinger), all the "doodles" as they are called look weaker in design than the Ninja Turtles. Gabriel Byrne plays noid Jack Deebs, creator of the comic strip "Cool World," who is magically transported into his own universe. Deebs has spent a long stretch in prison, dreaming about Holli. So will they do it, or not? Who cares? Deebs should have stayed in prison for giving genesis to this boring and misogynistic mess. T.S.L.

A Stranger Among Us
"An Engaging, Inspiring Mystery"

A Stranger Among Us contains thematic parallels to the 1985 thriller Witness, as Melanie Griffith investigates a mysterious disappearance within New York's Hassidic community. After discovering the subject of her case to be permanently missing, Griffith is forced to go undercover within their community, where culture shock gives way to spiritual discovery and enlightenment. Director Sidney Lumet succeeds in casting Eric Thal (a new face) as the young Hassidic scholar Ariel, who assists Emily in her investigation. Emily and Eric are cultural opposites whose fates draw them into a tale pitting traditional disciplines against modern police work. One of the most pleasing elements is the realistic portrayal of Hassidism, and with a little murder thrown in, you'll witness a drama sure to keep you guessing until the end. T.S.

Patriot Games
"The Audience Comes Out The Loser"

After an hour of watching Patriot Games, the latest adaption of a Tom Clancy pot boiler, it's fairly easy to guess the outcome. Erstwhile CIA analyst Jack Ryan (Harrison Ford) thwarts an assassination attempt by an IRA fringe group, killing the baby brother of the group's leader. Ryan returns to his happy yuppie domain in Baltimore, and the vengeful assassin follows in pursuit, Cape Fear-style. Ford makes a more seasoned and believable Jack Ryan than Alec Baldwin. The man defending home and hearth from intruders has been better portrayed in Cape Fear and Straw Dogs. Rent those two for the same price of Patriot Games and have a more chilling and suspenseful evening. T.S.L.

Housesitter
"Dirty Rotten Housebreakers"

Steve Martin displays his usual élan in comic reaction and timing in Housesitter, but unfortunately his reactions to the movie's comic scenes are funnier than the comic scenes themselves. Martin is Newton Davis, a Boston architect who has built a home for his childhood sweetheart. She refuses his hand, leaving one-night-stand Gwen (Goldie Hawn) to move into the abandoned home and tell Davis' hometown that she is the new Mrs. Davis. The zany panic builds up from there, in a frantic escalation of lies that is slightly reminiscient of Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, a far superior comic tour de force. Fans of Martin and Hawn will not be that disappointed with Housesitter — perhaps only by the rushed and improbable ending — and the suporting cast for the two stars is strong and amiable. T.S.L.

M

Beyond Enchanted April

An Engaging Chat With Polly Walker

WHAT'S PLAYING

CALL THEATERS FOR TIMES

LOEWS BEACON HILL
1 BEACON AT TREMONT(723-8110)
BEBE'S KIDS (PG-13)
MO' MONEY (R)

LOEWS CHARLES
95 CAMBRIDGE ST.(227-1330).
COOL WORLD (PG-13)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)

LOEWS CHERI
50 DALTON ST.(536-287)
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG-13)
DEATH BECOMES HER (PG-13)
BUFFY THE VAMPIRE SLAYER (PG-13)
PRELUDE TO A KISS (PG-13)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE
HUNTINGTON AVE. (266-1300)
MOM AND DAD SAVE THE WORLD (PG)
BASIC INSTINCT (R)
HOUSESITTER (PG)
FAR AND AWAY (PG-13)
WHITE MAN CAN'T JUMP (R)
PINOCCHIO (G)
POISON IVY (R)
ZENTROPA (R)
THE PLAYER (R)
MY COUSIN VINNY (R)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID (PG)
LETHAL WEAPON 3 (R)

LOEWS PARIS
841 BOYLSTON ST OPP THE PRU (267-8181)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)

LOEWS NICKELODEON
606 COMM. AVE NR.KENMORE SQ(424-1500)
HEAR MY SONG (R)
MONSTER IN A BOX (PG-13)
MEDITERRANEO
HIGHWAY 61 (R)
HOWARDS END (PG)
A STRANGER AMONG US (PG-13)

LOEWS JANUS
57 JFK ST.(661-3737)
A STRANGER AMONG US (PG-13)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE
10 CHURCH ST. CAMBRIDGE (864-4580)
ZENTROPA (R)
MEDITERRANEO
THE PLAYER (R)
HOWARDS END (PG)
COOL WORLD (PG-13)
ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW (R)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)

LOEWS FRESH POND
168 ALEWIFE BROOK PARKWAY(661-2900).
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BOOMERANG (R)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
BEBE'S KIDS (PG-13)
PRELUDE TO A KISS (PG-13)
UNIVERSAL SOLDIER (R)
BUFFY THE VAMPIRE SLAYER (PG-13)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID (PG)
MO' MONEY (R)
DEATH BECOMES HER (PG-13)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
PINOCCHIO (G)

LOEWS SOMERVILLE
35 MIDDLESEX AVE. ASSEMBLY SQ. MALL 628-7000
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
BOOMERANG (R)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
PINOCCHIO (G)
DEATH BECOMES HER (PG-13)
BEBE'S KIDS (PG-13)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
MO' MONEY (R)
SISTER ACT (PG)
A STRANGER AMONG US (PG-13)
MOM AND DAD SAVE THE WORLD (PG)
BUFFY THE VAMPIRE SLAYER (PG-13)
UNIVERSAL SOLDIER (R)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID (PG)

CINEMA 57
200 STUART ST.(482-1222)
BOOMERANG (R)
UNIVERSAL SOLDIER (R)

SOMERVILLE THEATER
55 DAVIS SQ. 625-5700
MY COUSIN VINNY (R)

ALLSTON CINEMA
214 HARVARD AVE. 277-2140
BEBE'S KIDS (PG-13)
MOM AND DAD SAVE THE WORLD (PG)
UNIVERSAL SOLDIER (R)

CHESTNUT HILL
RTE .9 & HAMMOND ST.- BROOKLINE 277-2500
HOUSESITTER (PG)
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
SISTER ACT (PG)
PATRIOT GAMES (R)
PRELUDE TO A KISS (PG-13)
BUFFY THE VAMPIRE SLAYER (PG-13)

CIRCLE CINEMA
CLEVELAND CIRCLE 566-4040
BOOMERANG (R)
MO' MONEY (R)
A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN (PG)
A STRANGER AMONG US (PG-13)
UNLAWFUL ENTRY (R)
DEATH BECOMES HER (PG-13)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID (PG)

COOLIDGE CORNER
THE FOURTH ANIMATION CELEBRATION
A WOMAN'S TALE
L'ELEGANT CRIMINEL
THE FAMINE WITHIN
MY FATHER IS COMING
THE ADJUSTER
CRIMES OF PASSION

BRATTLE
BRATTLE ST., CAMBRIDGE 876-6837
SUPERMAN: THE CARTOONS
PORKY PIG IN HOLLYWOOD TOUCH OF EVIL
FLAMINGO ROAD
POSSESSED
STREET OF CHANCE
LENSMAN
ATHENS, GA - INSIDE OUT
X: THE UNHEARD MUSIC
CITY OF WOMEN
FELLINI'S CASANOVA

WEST NEWTON CINEMA
STRANGERS IN GOOD COMPANY
PINOCCHIO (G)
THE PLAYER (R)
RAISE THE RED LANTERN (NR)
THE FAMINE WITHIN (NR)
MONSTER IN A BOX (PG-13)
NEWSIES
A WOMAN'S TALE (NR)
THE PLAYBOYS (PG-13)
BEAUTY AND THE BEAST (G)

FRAMINGHAM CINEMA
BATMAN RETURNS (PG-13)
DEATH BECOMES HER (PG-13)
BEBE'S KIDS (PG-13)
PRELUDE TO A KISS (PG-13)
SISTER ACT (PG)
MOM AND DAD SAVE THE WORLD (PG)
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID (PG)

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
OMNI THEATRE 723-2500
ANTARCTICA AND THE NEW ENGLAND TIME CAPSULE
RING OF FIRE AND THE NEW ENGLAND TIME CAPSULE
TO THE LIMIT AND THE NEW ENGLAND TIME CAPSULE

BY GARY S. KADET

"To those who appreciate wisteria and sunshine," reads the ad in the London Times that begins the film Enchanted April. A so-called "little film" impinging on the niche that Merchant-Ivory Productions has carved for itself with such stuffy items as Howard's End, the effect of Enchanted April is instead refreshingly airy, bright and hopeful.

"I liked making this movie very much," says April actress Polly Walker, nibbling her focaccio at Papa Razzi's in Copley Square, fresh from Patriot Games, an action film which couldn't be more different than April. "Even though," she adds, "I was up against three very much more experienced actresses than I am. It was a challenge because I thought on the night before showing up on the set, 'Oh my god, will I be able to do it - can I match my performance to their's?' They've spent so many years doing this and know so many tricks of the trade, it's a bit daunting. They hit the boards hard, so I had to hit back just as hard."

Though released after Patriot Games, April was Walker's first English-speaking movie. "I was cast in Nico Papatakis' Les Equalibriste, a movie based on a Moroccan episode in the life of Jean Genet. I had to do it on the condition that I lived in Paris for six months prior so that I would be able to think in French." Some condition.

Michael Kitchen and Polly Walker in Mike Newell's "Enchanted April"

And although she was a newcomer, Walker emphasized that Director Mike Newell (Dance with a Stranger) did not treat her like one. "He was very receptive as to how I wanted to play the part of Lady Caroline," she says.

Based on an obscure novel by the equally obscure Elizabeth von Arheim, April was shot on the factual site of the fictitious San Salvatore, St. George's Fortress (now Castello Brown). "You could only get there by foot," Walker explains. "The poor guys with cameras had to shove these things up these steep steps. It took about 25 minutes by foot every morning at 5:30 am and then back again. At the end of a really hard day's work, when the only thing you can think about is going into a bath and having a stiff drink, you'd have to climb back down the mountain."

Walker's next film will be an adaptation of Kafka's The Trial, with Anthony Hopkins, Kyle MacLachalan and April's Alfred Molina. "I really want to do more art films like these," says Walker of her future plans. "Although, I did sort of enjoy learning to clip-load a .45 for Patriot Games," she says with a grin.

April begins on a dreary afternoon, as 1920's hausfrau Lottie Wilkins (Josie Lawrence), while riding a bus to her club, spies the ad for the ultimate spring rental - a small, medieval castle in Italy, complete with servants. With almost psychic sensitivity, Lottie zeroes in on a woman at the club with "the face of a disappointed Madonna," (Rose Arbuthnot played by Miranda Richardson), who is eyeing the same ad. She convinces Rose that they should rent the property together. Lottie's fustian solicitor husband, Mellersh, played in grand detail by Alfred Molina, refuses to permit her to go, which she does anyway, spending her nest egg to do it. Realizing that they are ill able to afford the castle without help, Rose and Lottie find a housemate in Victorian grande dame Mrs. Fisher (Joan Plowright), and the rich, beautiful Lady Caroline Dester (Walker) (who is trying to escape the men pawing at her and the memory of a fiancé killed during the great war). After the women move into their idyllic world without men, Lottie takes it upon herself to invite her husband and Rose soon follows suit.

What seems a sure set up for angst-ridden scenery-chewing turns into an unexpectedly gentle comedy of manners where you wind up rooting for everyone's happiness - even the men's. The word uttered most frequently by the preview audience as the lights went up best describes Enchanted April: 'Charming." ❑

SOROTA TUTTLEMAN
GALLERY

"Mom and Dad Think . . ."
Alan Bortman, oil on canvas, 48"x66"

featuring
Alan Bortman
Crash
Kathy Callahan
Daze
Howie Green
Keith Haring
Rodger Kingston
John O'Connor
Tom Wesselman

354 Congress Street, 2nd floor
Boston, Massachusetts 02210
Phone: 426-3445; Fax: 426-2896
2 Blocks Past Children's Museum
Summer Hours: Monday-Friday 10 a.m.-6 p.m., or by appointment

COMEDY

THE ONLY CHEAP SHOTS I TAKE ARE AT DOGS

An Interview With Steve Shaffer

BY KATHY MATHESON

Contrary to popular wisdom, today's comedians weren't always yesterday's class clown.

"I was far from the funniest kid in my class," Steve Shaffer explained. "The funniest kids are all in jail now."

But even though Shaffer may not have shown it to his classmates, the talent for comedy was definitely there. W.C. Fields had it right, explained Shaffer, when he said, "If you're not funny by 12, you never will be."

The 37-year-old South Philadelphia native attended Catholic school (not exactly the most conducive medium for comedy) while growing up, and after graduating from Penn State in 1976, Shaffer, then 22, decided to move to New York to nurture his talent.

Of course, like most struggling artists, he paid the rent by working at a restaurant in various capacities, including a stint as a bouncer - not too remarkable until you find out that Shaffer is 5' 9". Ever seen a bouncer that short? In New York City? Well, Shaffer used that job to prove that the pen (or in this case, the mouth) is mightier than the sword.

"I talked people out of killing each other," he explained. "Nothing got broken, including jaws." He was so good at getting them to stop the fight (or at least take it outside) that many people "thought I was carrying a gun."

Once he broke into the comedy circuit, however, audiences soon began to appreciate his wit, but more importantly, his impressions. Now, his skills of imitation are as sharp as ever (yet in this age of political correctness, how "funny" can an impression be before it offends someone?). Shaffer said he has never received any flak for his imitations.

"I do a lot of voices and noises," he explained. "I don't take a lot of cheap shots; the only cheap shots I take are at dogs." (The A.S.P.C.A. has yet to complain, so the dog jokes can't be that bad.)

"I try not to reinforce negative stereotypes," he said. "You don't get anywhere with comedy like that."

And for the quality of his work, it's amazing how little time he puts into studying his subjects: "Either I get it or I don't," he said simply. But if Shaffer really put his mind to it, he could really imitate anything - and everything.

"Stand-up is such a perfect art form for me because I write it, direct it and perform it," he explained. And doing things the way he wants must be a great feeling after taking orders from various directors. Shaffer has appeared in several plays and TV shows, including Dan Quayle's favorite, Murphy Brown. So, in which direction does he see himself continuing? Comedy or acting?

"There's a saying in comedy: 'Stay on the horse that brung ya,'" he said. "Stand-up has been very, very good to me." ❑

Steve Shaffer performs at Nick's Comedy Stop Aug. 6-9. Watch out for the rubber hose.

Comedy Listings

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Sandwiches and cold appetizers served. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm. Every Mon. is Cross comedy. Every Tue. is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase.

Wed 5th. thru Sun 9th.- Charles Zucker, Julie Barr, Colin Blake. Mon 10th.- Cross Comedy. Tue 11th.- Brian Kiley. Wed 12th. thru Sun 16th.- D.J. Hazard, Brian Kiley, Sue McGinnis. Mon 17th.- Cross Comedy. Tue 18th.- Chris Zito.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country. Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Fri. and Sat. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat.

We needed the listings last week. But thanks anyway.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700, Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.

Wed 5th. thru Sun 9th.- Kathleen Madigan. Mon 10th thru Sun 16th.- Gallagher II. Tue 18th thru Sun 23rd.- Rhonda Shear. On the 18th, from 6-8:30pm, come to Sports Comedy Night to raise money for the Arthritis Foundation. There will be an auction of valuable sports memorabilia, as well as performances from various comedians. $20 donation requested.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• ImprovBoston at the Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundays at 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE.

Thu 6th thru Sun 9th.- Steve Shaffer. Mon 10th.- Tue 11th.- Wed 12th.- Thu 13th.- Fri 14th.-

• Renegade Duck 277-0550, at Play it Again Sam's, 1314 Commonwealth Ave., Allston. Boston's improvisational comedy troupe appears every Saturday at 9pm. Admission is $5.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. Every Tue: "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos. Every Wed: Anthony Clark. A must see! Every Thu: Cross Comedy. Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-$10. No dress code.

Wed 5th.- Anthony Clark, David Cross. Thu 6th.- Cross Comedy. Fri 7th & Sat 8th.- Anthony Clark, Bill Brandis, Mike Lee. Sun 9th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Mon 10th.- Chance Langton, Brian Kiley. Tue 11th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist), Frankie Bastille. Wed 12th.- Anthony Clark, Tony V. Thu 13th.- Cross Comedy, George McDonald. Fri 14th.- Billy Martin, TBA. Sat 15th.- Vinnie Favorito, TBA. Sun 16th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 18th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

THULE SWEDEN
Sport Racks
SALE
RACK UP SAVINGS
• Best Selection
• Lowest Prices
Madd Mike's
617–451–6181
54 Thayer Street Boston
Albany Street/Berkeley Street
Exit off Southeast Expressway

ARTS

The Aliberti Gallery

A New Reason to Explore the North End

BY JENNIFER MCCANN

Among the many restaurants and bakeries that characterize Boston's North End, is an unexpected pleasure that is a veritable feast for the eyes. The Aliberti Gallery, on 165 Salem Street in the North End, houses the collection of local artist Richard Aliberti, who refers to his gallery as "the embodiment of original state-of-the-art objects and a collection of rare antique influences - all surrounded by what seems to be the walls of Pompeii." What sets Aliberti's gallery apart from other galleries is the space that contains his work.

Angela K. Wooldridge

The inside of the gallery was completely redesigned by Aliberti to coexist with the art that is displayed there. The small room was transformed into a Romanesque-style space with paint, plaster and an intense eye for detail. Not pristine in the least, the artist's hands are visible throughout the space. "The work within the gallery and the room itself were made purely instinctively. I really didn't plan anything," explains Aliberti. "I want people to enjoy walking into the space."

Influenced by Rodin, Giacometti and DaVinci, Aliberti's work includes sculpture made of brass, marble and plaster that is a sensuous and natural representation of the human body. He has taken this style and incorporated it into large statues, small figurines, mobiles and jewelry. All original, his work also includes furniture and paintings each with the unique approach that Aliberti has made his own.

Before opening his gallery in May of this year, Aliberti's work was featured only in galleries in Wellfleet, Provincetown and on Newbury Street. He decided to open his own gallery in the North End after becoming a resident of the close-knit neighborhood. He's been welcomed by the community ever since.

When asked if his decision to open in the North End (not exactly a commonplace for art galleries) was a wise one, Aliberti replied, "So far, the response has been very positive." He attracts a wide variety of viewers, from curious pedestrians strolling through the neighborhood to young professionals who have recently made the North End their home. His work appeals to a wide range of collectors with antique and classic contemporary tastes to those who prefer a modern industrial style.

A native of Massachusetts, Aliberti studied at the Museum School of the MFA for three years and began accumulating his work with the hope of opening his own gallery. Now that Aliberti has achieved his short-term goal, he plans on expanding his gallery and hopes to open more galleries in the future. His artwork is for sale and is priced according to the material and size of the piece.

Aliberti will host an official gallery opening in September and plans to extend the gallery's hours in the fall.

The Aliberti gallery is open Friday through Sunday from 10 am - 7 pm. ❑

Angela K. Wooldridge

The Aliberti Gallery

165 Salem Street
North End, Boston
Open Friday - Sunday
10am - 7pm

Angela K. Wooldridge

Artist Richard Aliberti creates a world all his own.

TYPESETTING
DESIGN
ILLUSTRATION

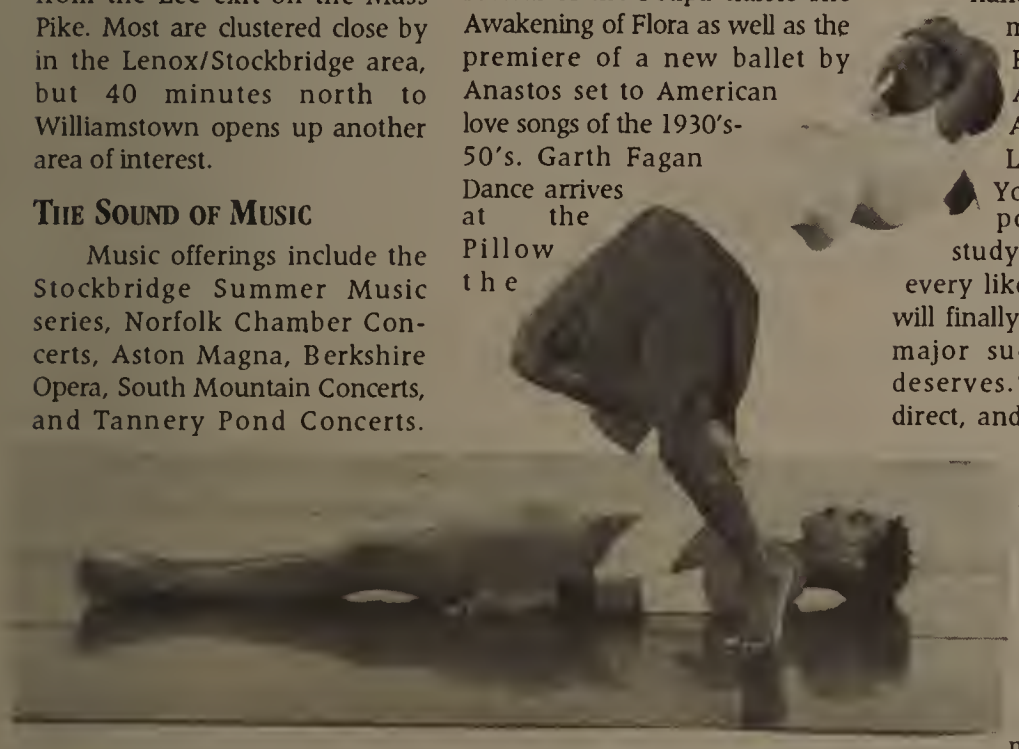
Resumes
Photostats
Business Cards
Advertising
Proofreading
Brochures
Logo Design
Copy Writing
Mechanicals
Direct Mail
Letterheads
Copy Editing

BD Design Group
Bortman

Phone / Fax:
(617) 964-5523
950 Boylston St.
Newton, MA
02161

A

A Berkshire Getaway



By Karen Campbell

In the dead heat of the summer, Bostonians most often seem to flee to the Cape rather than head for the hills. Surprisingly, the Berkshires seem more of a New York "thing" though these lush green mountains and sweeping vistas are practically in our own backyard. However, if you're into combining some serious cultural activity with your commune with nature, "Head west, young man or woman!" There is more happening only a scant two and a half hours west of Boston than in the city itself. The quality is generally first-rate and the digs are definitely nicer.

The range of artistic activity in the Berkshires is quite impressive. In addition to half a dozen museums (like the Clark Institute in Williamstown), there is a boggling array of performing arts series within a 40 minute drive from the Lee exit on the Mass Pike. Most are clustered close by in the Lenox/Stockbridge area, but 40 minutes north to Williamstown opens up another area of interest.

The Sound of Music

Music offerings include the Stockbridge Summer Music series, Norfolk Chamber Concerts, Aston Magna, Berkshire Opera, South Mountain Concerts, and Tannery Pond Concerts.

Jacob's Pillow is among the Berkshire's multitude of high-falutin' cultural activities offered to the general public.

Theatre opportunities include the Berkshire Public Theatre, the Berkshire Theatre Festival, the Miniature Theatre of Chester, and Shakespeare & Co., among others. All are worth checking out on a weekend getaway.

Feel Like Dancing?

The real artistic roost here, however, is ruled by the triumvirate of Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival, the Williamstown Theatre Festival and Tanglewood, the summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Jacob's Pillow performances continue through August 30 with series running Tuesday through Sunday. What dance pioneer Ted Shawn began in 1930 as a personal retreat has evolved into a summer dance center and festival of international renown. This summer, the festival celebrates the 50th anniversary of the newly renovated Ted Shawn Theatre.

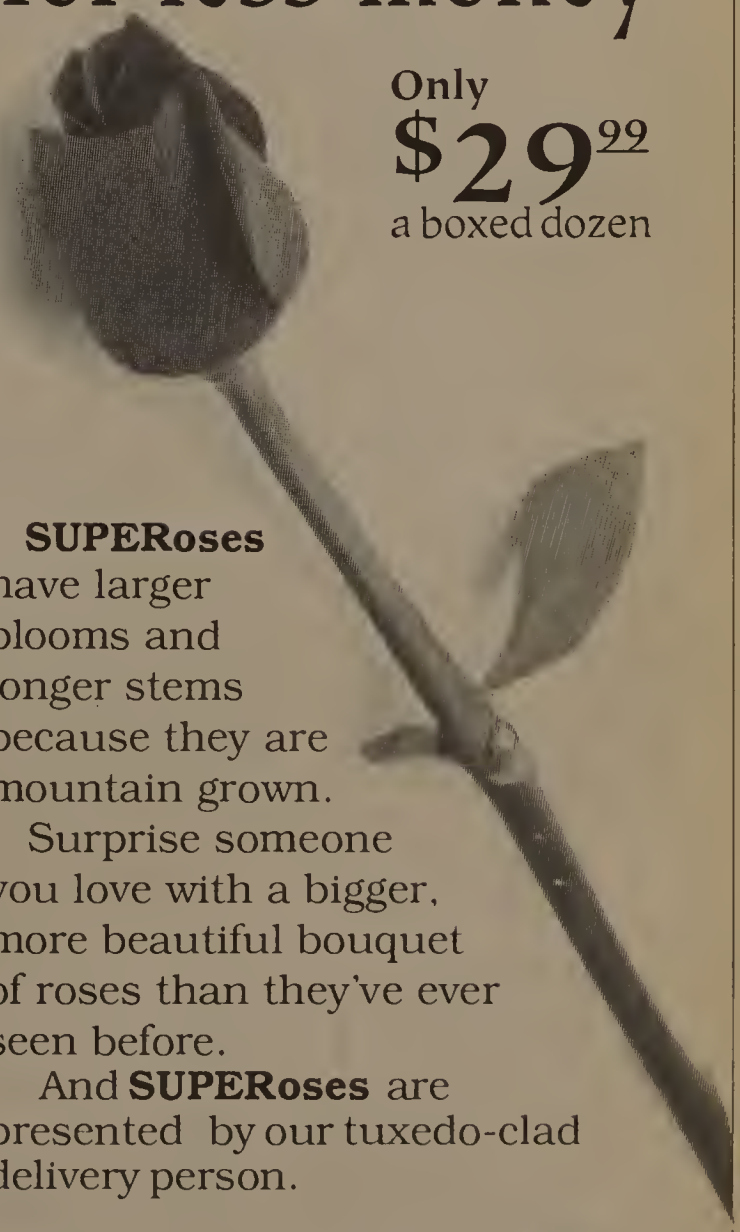
There are some notable highlights of the festival still coming up. On August 4-8, East Coast audiences can savor Chicago's popular Hubbard Street Dance Company, which combines a jazz-oriented aesthetic with ballet technique. Their repertoire will include works by Twyla Tharp and Bob LaFosse. August 11-13 will mark the premiere of a new ballet company, Ballet De Ville, comprised of principal dancers from several major ballet companies and led by Peter Anastos, formerly of Les Ballet Trockaderos de Monte Carlo. The program will include a revival of the Petipa classic The Awakening of Flora as well as the premiere of a new ballet by Anastos set to American love songs of the 1930's-50's. Garth Fagan Dance arrives at the Pillow the following week for six performances that will include his new Griot New York, set to an original score by Wynton Marsalis. Fagan's unique movement vocabulary is a provocative fusing of influences, from his native Jamaica to ballet and modern dance. To close the season, the wide-ranging ODC/San Francisco will debut at the Pillow August 28-30.

Jacob's Pillow is located in Becket, 8 miles east of exit 2 off the Mass Pike on Route 20. For information, call (413)243-0745.

"All The World's A Stage"

The Williamstown Theatre Festival is now in its 38th season of summer presentations and is known to draw some of the best actors in the business. On the small Other Stage, the world premiers of Jane Anderson's Hotel Oubliette is now running through August 16. This drama, based loosely on the experience of former hostages, was commissioned by the festival and is the third of this popular playwright's works to appear here. Hotel Oubliette, named after the French word for a pit-like dungeon, takes place in the mid-1980's and stars Hal Holbrook, Steven Keats and Marcia Hyde. Jenny Sullivan directs.

On the Main Stage August 5-16, the festival will present the searing political drama 2 by Romulus Linney. Set during the 1945 Nuremberg trials following World War II, the play is an explosive historical portrayal of Hermann Goering, Hitler's right hand man. At its 1990 premiere at the Human Festival of New American Plays, by the Actors Theatre of Louisville, the New York Times called 2 "a powerful, personal study" and said "...there is every likelihood that the play will finally bring Mr. Linney the major success he so clearly deserves." Tom Bullard will direct, and the cast will include William Duff-Griffin, David Chandler, Daryl Edwards, Laurie Kennedy, Bernie McInerney, Scott Sowers and John Woodson.



From August 19-30, the festival will present the world premiere of Frank Higgin's The Sweet By 'N' By, a humorous and poignant tale of three generations of women in Appalachian coal country. The central conflict is between a mother's dreams and a daughter's desires, and Blythe Danner and daughter Gwyneth Paltrow star. Anne Pitoniak is cast as the grandmother, with other roles played by Judge Reinhold and Priscilla Shanks. David Dorwart directs. For information, call (413)597-3399, or the Box Office at (413)597-3400.

Classical Inspiration

Then there's Tanglewood, with activity too extensive to thoroughly chronicle here, including orchestra performance, chamber music concerts, recitals, student performances, and visits by popular artists and lectures. If you can't make a concert, you might try for the BSO's open dress rehearsal on Saturday mornings at 10:30. Highlights for the next two weeks include: Seiji Ozawa conducting the BSO and soloists Kathleen Battle, Frank Lopardo and Thomas Hampson in excerpts from Rossini's The Barber of Seville and Oriff's thrilling Carmina burana on August 8; Yo-Yo Ma playing Bach's complete suites for unaccompanied cello on August 12; and James Galway performing the Mozart Flute Concerto No. 1 with the BSO and John Nelson on August 15. Call (413) 637-1666 for a complete schedule and directions.

For general information on the Berkshire area, call the Berkshire Visitor's Bureau in Pittsfield at (800) 237-5747. Then, hit the road! ❑

Give Beautiful SUPERoses© for less money

Only $29.99 a boxed dozen

SUPERoses have larger blooms and longer stems because they are mountain grown.

Surprise someone you love with a bigger, more beautiful bouquet of roses than they've ever seen before.

And SUPERoses are presented by our tuxedo-clad delivery person.

FREE Downtown Boston Delivery
inexpensive delivery to other areas

Call Today
269-4444
Ask for SUPERoses! from ROSExpress.

ROSExpress

© 1992 Lord & Hartley

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are now on sale for Boston Ballet's 1992-93 season. Performances include The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, Etudes Program, Cinderella, All Balanchine and Romeo and Juliet. Call 931-2000 for more information.

Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival
at the Ted Shawn Theatre
Becket
Widely acclaimed for its eclectic repertoire, and the technical virtuosity and precision of its dancers, the Hubbard Street Dance Company returns Aug. 4-8. The company will serve up a slice of its diverse repertoire ranging from two sleek classics by Twyia Tharp to the hip, Broadway jazz dance of Bob Fosse.

In the Studio/Theatre, the modern dance tradition of charismatic soloist/choreographers stretching down from Isadora Duncan continues Aug. 7-9 with "Solo Flights." Also on Aug. 9, see the artistic vision of the future with "Choreographers and Composers." This innovative project unites four pairs of outstanding young choreographers and composers as they develop original collaborative pieces. Admission is free. Call 413-243-0745 for more information.

Hungry i

Fine dining nightly

and Sunday Brunch.

Reservations Suggested.

71 ½ Charles Sreet
Beacon Hill, 227-3524

PHOTOGRAPHY

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
World-renowned climber, cartographer and aerial photographer Bradford Washburn displays more than 40 stunning black-and-white photos of the world's most dramatic mountain ranges. Through Sept. 7.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Come see NESOP's student exhibition, work from graduates of the two-year Professional Photography program. The show consists of work in black & white, color, experimental color, advertising, corporate, editorial, photojournalism and portraiture. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm; the show runs through Aug. 28.

CLASSICAL

Great Woods
Mansfield
One of the great pop singers of our time, Tony Bennett will perform with the Great Woods Festival Orchestra on Aug. 16 at 8pm. The evening's program will feature such favorites as "Stranger in Paradise" and "I Left My Heart in San Francisco." Call 508-339-3333 for more information.

Heritage Plantation of Sandwich
Sandwich
The Liberty Hall Jazz Band will perform Aug. 5 at 7:30pm; the Atlantic Brass Quintet will perform Aug. 8 at 7:30pm; and the Clan Sutherland and Highland Light Scottish Pipe Bands, along with Scottish dancers, will perform Aug. 16 at 1pm and 3pm. All concerts will be performed outdoors. For more information, call 508-888-3300.

Jacob's Pillow
at the Ted Shawn Theatre
Becket
Gospel Sunday will raise the roof on Aug. 16 at 1pm with three gospel choirs guaranteed to stir the soul: Brooklyn's Institutional Radio Choir, the BL&S singers and the Western Massachusetts District Choir. Tickets are $10. Call 413-637-1322 for more information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass. Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
The BPL screens award-winning documentaries every Thursday at 6pm this summer: See Jack Kerouac's Road and Kerouac on Aug. 6, and see Blood in the Face on Aug. 13. On Mondays at 3pm and 6:30 pm, the BPL salutes Frank Capra with a film series: Meet John Doe on Aug. 10 and Prelude to War and The Negro Soldier on Aug. 17. The Marilyn Monroe film series continues Aug. 11 with Bus Stop. All films are screened in Rabb Lecture Hall and admission is free.

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Mondays it's Film Noir; Tuesdays it's Japanimation; come to Rock 'n' Roll Wednesdays; Federico Fellini is showcased on Thursdays; Fridays and Saturdays are special engagements; Sundays are Summer Sizzlers. For further film information, call 876-6837.

DeCordova Museum
Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln
Through Sept. 7, the DeCordova will show a selected group of winning videos from the 17th Annual New England Film and Video Festival. This nationally-recognized, juried competition celebrates the diversity and excellence of independent student media arts within our region.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
See the films of Alain Tanner through Aug. 26. On Aug. 5 at 6pm, see A City at Chandigarh and Nice Time (Piccadilly La Nuit); at 8pm the same day, see The Man Who Lost His Shadow. Aug. 7 at 6pm, see Charles Dead or Alive and at 8pm see Jonah, Who Will Be 25 in the Year 2000. Tickets are $5; all films are screened in Remis Auditorium with English subtitles.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
See Antarctica through November: An extraordinary excursion across Earth's last wilderness in this breathtaking adventure film. Also showing are Ring of Fire (about the active volcanoes in the Pacific Ocean), To the Limit (telling the story of three athletes' quest for the ultimate performance) and New England Time Capsule (giving a breathtaking glimpse at the beauty of New England). Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

Ratiiskeller
528 Commonwealth Ave.,
Kenmore Square, Boston
"Boston Super 8 Film Underground," the new monthly film showcase dedicated exclusively to independent Super 8 filmmakers, is holding its second film event Aug. 11 at 8pm. All the filmmakers will appear at the show in person. Admission is only $4. For more info, call 643-5785.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only museum in the world devoted solely to educating the public about computers and their impact on society. Enjoy over 100 interactive exhibits, including the award-winning Walk-Through Computer. On exhibit through September 7 is "Silicon Sailing." Come design and race your own 75-foot, 11 story yacht against other visitors in a computer simulation of the America's Cup course. This interactive exhibit lets you explore the computer technology behind America^3, the winner of the 1992 America's Cup. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. In the Fogg Museum, see "Italian Old Master Drawings" from the collection of Jeffry E. Horvitz from Aug. 15-Oct. 11. In the Sackler, view Northern Indian paintings and objects of the 17th-19th centuries in the exhibit "Poignant, Picturesque and Beserk." Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 5pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

Joiin F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Now you can take a water shuttle from Long Wharf (Qunicy Market) to the museum. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
"The Grand Tour: European and American Views of Italy" runs through Jan. 17. A companion to "The Lure of Italy" (opening Sept. 16 in the MFA's Gund Gallery), this exhibition features American and European paintings from the 17th through the 19th centuries depicting Italian scenes. The paintings will be drawn from the renowned permanent collection at the MFA.

Also at MFA is "Prized Possessions," European paintings drawn from the private collections of over 50 Boston-area and regional collectors. Artists featured include Monet, Degas, Beckmann, Rembrandt, Mondrian, Pissaro and many others. Through Aug. 16. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!," the nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs, remains on display through Sept. 7. Through Sept. 13, ponder the Norman B. Leventhal collection of more than 60 colorful, extraordinary maps ranging in age from before Columbus' voyage to the present day. Examine global climate change - its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it - in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth."

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are M, T, F, 9am-6pm; W, Th, 9am-8pm; Sat, Sun & Holidays, 9am-7pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

Back Alley Theater
1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge
The BAT presents Fallen Angels by Noel Coward, the infinitely sophisticated author of Private Lives and Blithe Spirit. Best friends Julia and Jane, both now happily married, are thrown into a tizzy when a man with whom they both had an affair writes asking to see them. Tickets are $15 ($12 for students and seniors); the shows are Thus.-Sats. at 8pm, Suns.

(continued on following page)

A

(Theater continued)

at 5pm. Call 576-1253 for more information.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Kendall Cafe
233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave.
Kendall Sq., Cambridge
Every Saturday at 8pm, the Kendall Cafe presents The Drunkard, by W.H. Smith. It's a melodrama from the 1840s with Gay Nineties songs, dances and singalongs. Dinner and show packages are available. Call 661-0993 for more information.

Kresge Auditorium
at MIT
84 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge
The MIT Summer Artistic Repertory Company and the Simple Theater Company present Cyrano de Bergerac through Aug. 8. Tickets for this classic romantic comedy are $6 for students and $7 for the general public. For a complete play schedule, call 225-7107.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

North Shore Music Theatre
62 Dunham Rd., Beverly
The North Shore Music Theatre presents the Broadway musical How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying running from July 23 - August 8. Tickets are available at the theatre's box office in Beverly or by calling (508) 922-8500.

Publick Theatre, Inc.
Outdoor Theatre
Christian A. Herter Park
Soldiers Field Road, Boston
Come see the funny, poignant, romantic classic Cyrano de Bergerac Aug. 12 through Sept. 6. On the 14th, celebrate Valentine's Day in August: present a Valentine card or note to your sweetheart at the box office and they get in for 1/2 price. All performances are at 8pm. Call 782-5425 for ticket prices or more information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Wang Center
270 Tremont Street
Tickets are still on sale for Phantom of The Opera, running from August 4 through November 14. Prices range from $27.50-$60.00. Call Ticketmaster at 931-2222 or the Wang Center at 482-1242 (Groups of 20 or more) for tickets.

WORKSHOPS

Interface
55 Wheeler St., Cambridge
On Aug. 7 (7-9pm) and Aug. 8 (10am-4pm), licensed marriage and family therapist Carly Lund will lead a workshop entitled "A Life Worth Living" for adults who grew up in high-stress families. The workshop will focus on two major issues: overcoming fear and building self-esteem. Pre-registration is required; call 876-4600. Fee is $10 for the first day; $75 for the second.

READINGS / LECTURES

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
Environmentalist Richard Wheeler presents a one-hour narrated slide show about his efforts to increase awareness of the story of the Great Auk. (The Auk is the first documented case of an animal's extinction caused by human activities; it is becoming a symbol of unchecked human interference in nature.) In 1991, Wheeler paddled a solo kayak along the migration route of the Great Auk— the Atlantic coast from Labrador to Buzzard's Bay. The talk is on Aug. 16 at 3:30pm.

EXHIBITS

Alianza
154 Newbury St., Boston
"Tea and Fantasy," an annual exhibition of ceramic teapots, will be on view until Aug. 31. Some are sensuous, delicately airbrushed while others spout bright streams of neon, and one defies the viewer to discover its function. Hours: Mon.-Sat. 10am-6pm; Sundays 12-5pm. Call 262-2385 for more information.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
"Dedications: A Celebration of American Women," a traveling quilt exhibit that honors women who have made a difference, will be on view from Aug. 6-24 in the Great Hall. To celebrate its 115th anniversary, McCall's invited readers to contribute quilted squares dedicated to women whose lives held special meaning to them. This is the phenomenal result.

Coco's Salon Gallery
544 Tremont St., Boston
This gallery shows new works every two months, ranging from impressionist works to those of cubism in paintings and sculptures. Hours are Tue and Sat., 9am-5pm; Wed-Fri., 10am-7pm. Call 451-2050 for more information.

Gallery Per Tutti
112 South St., Boston
This unique gallery offers a salon-style format, allowing the public open communication with working artists in the Boston area. It displays affordable fine art, thus providing a necessary step to meet the changing needs of the local art environment. From July 14-Aug. 29, come see "Collaboration, Boston 1992," a collection of Boston-based photography that will be hosted by the photogs themselves. To learn more, call 482-2710.

Levinson Kane Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston
Come see "The Dog Show: Celebrating Man's Best Friend" from June 27-Labor Day. For dog lovers of all ages, this canine-inspired exhibit salutes dogs with paintings, sculpture, prints, ceramics, handmade books, photographs and more. Call 247-0545.

Mugar Memorial Library
at Boston University
771 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Providing a glimpse into an age of entertainment now past, an exhibit celebrating the life of Harry Houdini is on display through January 1993. "It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" includes a variety of correspondence and memorabilia, including old posters and photographs, from the famous magician.

SPECIAL EVENTS

American Lung Association
at Stitches Comedy Club
835 Beacon St., Boston
Bicycle enthusiasts are invited to learn about the ALA's Autumn Escape Bicycle Trek, and enjoy free admission to Stitches' comedy show. It takes place Aug. 6 at 6:30pm. For more information, call 269-9720.

Falmouth Road Race begins at Woods Hole
The 20th annual Pilgrim Health Care Falmouth Road Race takes place Aug. 16 at 10am, beginning at Woods Hole and traveling seven miles along a scenic route to Falmouth Heights. There are more than 7,000 runners and a prize purse of more than $73,000. On Aug. 14, there is a spaghetti supper for about half the runners; on Aug. 15 the 567th USAF Band gives a concert at the Falmouth Harbor Band Shell.

The Arts Calendar Listings are done without charge and at the discretion of the editior. We welcome the submission of press releases for all events in and around Boston. To reach us mail to The Improper Bostonian, Attn. Kathy Matheson, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village,MA 02147-0820. Please include information such as date time, duration, price, adress, phone nnumber and contact person. Listings must be recieved no later than 9 days prior to release.

BAY STATE TICKET

Wang Center
Phantom of the Opera	Aug .- Nov.
Worcester Centrum Events:
Bruce Springsteen	8/13, 8/14
Symphony Hall
Liza Minnelli	9/23 - 9/27
Foxboro Stadium Events:
U2	8/20, 8/22, 8/23
Great Woods Events:
George Thorogood / Little Feat	8/6
David Byrne	8/14
Eric Clapton	8/17, 8/18
James Taylor	8/26 - 8/29
Bonnie Raitt	8/31
B52's / Violent Femmes	9/5
Orpeheum Theater:
Black Sabbath	8/9

We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold

(617) 734-TIXX

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"If you wanted to look sexy, how would you dress?"

Sandy, 49, Ocala, FL
"I would wear a push up bra underneath a plunging neckline and high 'hooker' heels."

Andy, 31, Waltham
"A towel wrap and nothing else..."

Nancy, 27, Brookline
"A black and white polka dot trenchcoat, high heels and a lot left to the imagination."

John, 31, Back Bay
"A black tuxedo with no underwear on - for late night frolicking."

Perry, 27, Charlestown
"I would pimp out in my Sausage King suit to attract myself as well as others."

April, 27, Roxbury
"It's not what you wear, it's how you project yourself."

DINING

DALI

Cuisine Worth Bending Time Over

By Meg Worden and Peter McNamara

With Spain dominating the news so much this summer, our thoughts naturally turned to Spanish food, and we immediately thought of Dali. The next thing we knew, we were happily dining there. From the moment of entering, you'll feel welcome, thanks to the greeting from the gracious owner who has the happy knack of making you feel that you've come at his special invitation. Even if there's a long wait for a table (not unusual), you somehow won't mind; just absorbing the atmosphere is half the fun.

There are so many interesting touches to the decor that it's impossible to catch them all on a first visit; you can't miss the diagonally hung picture of Salvador Dali behind the bar, or the whole hams that hang above it. Underwear hangs suspended from a line that serves as a room divider, and paintings, fans, plants and assorted other objects adorn the red walls and suspend from the ceiling. In a way, you feel that you are actually dining inside a three dimensional Salvador Dali painting.

In Spain, it is traditional to eat tapas, small tasting portions of a wide variety of foods, in bars and taverns as appetizers to accompany your pre-dinner drink. At Dali, tapas are a particular specialty, so you have the option of working your way through half a dozen or so of these little dishes before moving on to a regular sized entree.

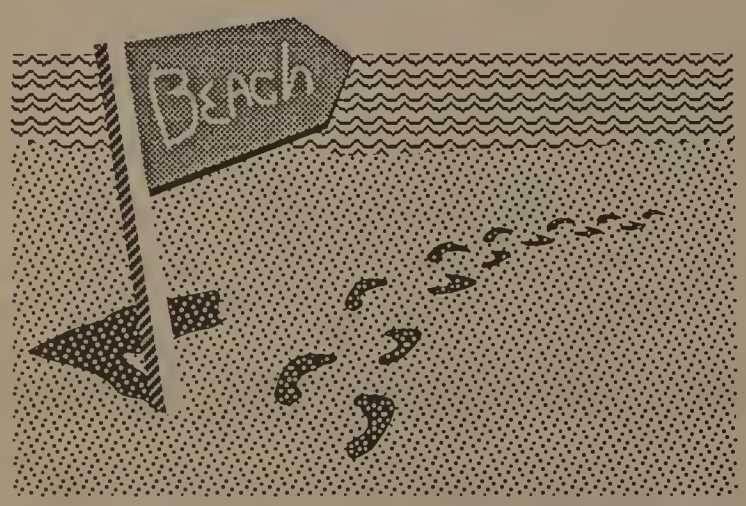
Almost all the tapas cost between $2.50 and $6.00. The current menu lists thirteen cold and fifteen hot selections that range from a simple serving of cured ham to more complex dishes like scallops in saffron cream. There are also at least half dozen daily specials, or inspiraciones. Narrowing down the choices to manageable quantities can be an art in itself. On our last visit, the specials we sampled included an out-of-this-world eggplant flan served with a wonderful carrot and leek puree, brook trout with a mild cilantro sauce, some very tender frogs legs in an assertive tomato sauce and some fabulous sweetbreads served on semolina medallions (in a tantalizing sweet sauce).

From among the tapas on the regular menu, we have always been fans of the stuffed squid and the baked goats cheese, while the marinated olives provide a nice counterpoint to the richer dishes like the pork sausage with figs. Octopus is something you seldom find on a menu, and at Dali, it is boiled, then marinated in vinaigrette which tenderizes and gives it a lovely piquant flavor.

If you can tear yourself away from the tapas, there are some interesting entrees to choose from. Our absolute favorite has always been the restaurant's signature dish, pescado a la sal ($17.00), a specialty from the Cadiz region, in which an entire fish is encased in coarse sea salt and baked. The cooking process draws the excess water out of the fish, but at the same time the salt crust keeps the fish moist and tender. The fish is served at tableside, where the waitperson performs an operation to remove the salt and the skin, leaving you with the delectable boned fillets. The type of fish varies; on this last occasion, we had snapper. Traditionally, a little dish of sauce such as a romesco (red pepper based) or a flavored mayonnaise accompanies it, serving as an intense, rich foil to the delicate fish.

A consistently good bet is the pollo a la chilindron ($14.00), a sautéed chicken dish served with a great almond sauce. If you like the gin-flavor of juniper berries, you will love the conejo escabechado ($14.00), in which rabbit is cooked with the berries, together with cinnamon, serrano chiles, sherry vinegar and red wine.

The zarzuela de mariscos, a shellfish stew ($16.00) and the paella del oœano, a seafood paella ($17.00) were, on this occasion, a little bland, especially when compared with the magnificent fish in salt. The zarzuela contained a generous selection of jumbo shrimp in the shell, baby shrimps, clams, mussels (too large), and squid in a delicate red broth (it was supposed to be spicy) flavored with onions, peppers and tomatoes. The paella was basically the same ingredients as the zarzuela, substituting saffron rice and peas for the broth.



The best choice for dessert is the "ubiquitous flan," which is pretty good as far as flans go; we have never had enough room to try anything else.

As befits a Spanish restaurant, the list of Spanish wines is impressive, and many of them very modestly priced. There is also an excellent selection of sherries, ranging from the driest of finos to the rich dessert type. Sangria, too, is served both by the glass and the carafe. Service is always good, whether you choose to eat at the bar or in the dining area. ❑

DALI

415 Washington Street, Cambridge, 661-3254.
Hours: Open daily for dinner
Credit Cards: AE, Discover, MC, V
Reservations not accepted
Handicapped: Call ahead to arrange access through the side door to lower dining room; bathrooms not accessible

Why worry?
Hit the beach

while we rent your apartment or find you a roommate.

Only $19

Run your ad in our classified section for just $19.00. We will run the ad until it works. Non-commercial ads only. Call for more details.

The Improper Bostonian

Boston's Bi-Weekly Entertainment Leisure Newsmagazine

Phone: 232-3705 • Fax: 232-4305

Dali

Restaurant & Tapas Bar

·IN THE REALM OF THE SPIRITS·

PINK WINE

Pretty Doesn't Have To Be Pretty Sweet

BY AL STANKUS

Any self-respecting wine snob, (unless they happen to be slumming around Provence) would sooner vomit than drink a glass of pink wine.

Thus it was in the name of journalism that I came to open more pink wine in one hour than I had consumed in my entire life. Unless I was slumming around Provence, I'd rather guzzle Drano than drink pink wine. Or so I thought.

Fortified with plates of wonderful Vietnamese food from Allston's Express Cuisine, the thinking went like this: Even if the Antinori Rose, Buehler White Zinfandel, Vin Gris de Cigare from Bonny Doon and the rest were syrupy dreck, the food (which included spring rolls, lemongrass squid and rice sticks with vegetables) would prevent the night from becoming a washout.

But when all was said, drunk, eaten and done, a line from Mr. First Amendment himself - Larry Flint - came to mind: "I knew it was now okay to "Drink Pink."

America's love affair with pink wines grew from its passion for white wines. There simply weren't enough white grapes to go around, so a few clever Californians took some zinfandel, short-vatted it (a process which produces the pretty hue rather than the deep tones found in plain old zinfandel), experimented with the sugar content, and created white zinfandel (a white wine made from red grapes). It was an instant hit.

The biggest share from the market came from producers like Sutter Home and Glen Ellen, two vineyards that continue to turn out a rather sweet wine. I'd still rather puke than drink it.

But not so with Buehler's White Zinfandel ($6). With some zippy acid and as dry as you'll ever find one of these, I found it to be quite nice with spicy food. As a later taste, it was also determined that the Buehler "white zin" was indeed a decent summertime aperitif.

When the '90 Joseph Phelps Vin du Mistral ($12) was poured, someone yelled "Now this is a pink wine." I thought someone had melted a popsicle in the glass. One whiff, and I further clarified it to "strawberry popsicle."

Made from an 85% blend of grenache and mouvedre, this wine proved to be the most complex of the lot. From the nose to the mouth, this Vin du Mistral was thick with a touch of the aforementioned strawberry, and had the stuff to stand up to fish stew or even a paella.

Pink wines—a pleasant surprise for the wine snob in all of us.

Bonny Doon Vineyards Vin Gris de Cigare ($9) (the grey wine of the cigar), while playful in title and label, is a pink wine structure. Composed of grenache, mouvedre, and 4% pinot noir, the wine is bone dry, rather rich and downright assertive. No sissy sweetness here and maybe the only cold wine that I could drink with salmon (and not just because it looks like it).

If you sipped Antinori's '90 Rose ($7) without looking, you might think you're drinking a crisp white wine. But alas, it's pink and with a nifty nose to boot. As for the grapes, it's but a guess, but let's say Sangiovese and Trebiano, kind of a flip-flopped chianti. At $7, it's a neat buy.

Despite its total lack of a nose, the '89 L'Hermitage Bandol ($10.50) was refreshing with plenty of acid. Two things about this Bandol became clear: It was better as an aperitif than with food and it needed a very good chill. For when it warmed up even slightly, nothing was there to taste. ❑

CAFÉ BRAZIL
Bem-vindo! Welcome!
Serving Beer and Wine.
- Listen to Live, Acoustic Samba and Bassa Nova -
While Enjoying a Scrumptious Dinner!
Reasonable Prices!
15% off w/ this coupon.
*Not valid unless presented when seated.
Good Sun - Thurs for lunch or dinner.
Expires August 15, 1992
421 Cambridge St., Allston MA
789-5980

1280 Mexican Restaurant
THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD.
LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.
The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

Four Winds
266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront
(617) 742-3922
seafood grille

Marina Bay

Special Advertising Section

Marina Bay

333 Victory Road

There's a place near Boston that feels three worlds removed. While walking down the boardwalk, you can listen to the sounds of sail ropes clanging against masts. You stop to look in a shop where the store owner greets you like a friend. After stopping in more storefronts, each one being friendlier than the next, you begin to feel a little hungry and stop to meet some friends at a waterfront cafe. Welcome to Marina Bay.

Located in the Squantam area of Quincy, Marina Bay offers panoramic waterfront strolls between a beautiful marina dotted with yachts of all shapes and sizes. Drive down or sail in to shop, dine or just take in the sights and sounds away from the hustle and bustle of the city. Marina Bay knows no stress. It hears no sirens. With a residential population spread loosely behind the marina and boardwalk, most people feel immediately at ease and far away from life in the city. And who said deception was a bad thing?

Whether you arrive day or night, you'll find a pleasing assortment of delightful vistas, timeless sounds of the sea and an array of tasteful stores, cafes, restaurants, ice cream parlors and breakfast spots. So hop in your car and journey to Boston's own answer to Paradise. Marina Bay.❑

McGILLICUDDY'S
Ice Cream Shop
On the Boardwalk

an assortment of over 250 candies to choose from
-chocolates
-homemade fudge
-jelly beans
-saltwater taffy

With this ad get
50¢ off a $1.00 or more purchase of candy,
$1.00 off a $2.00 or more purchase of fudge.

Marina Bay
Real Estate Services

Marina Bay

A great place to visit, a wonderful place to live.

Condo Sales and Rentals

Corporate Park Bldg., • 617-847-1820

RALLY CAPS

•Sports Apparel & Caps
•Gift Items
•Custom Screen Printing •Embroidery

308 Victory Road
Marina Bay

Order your favorite team jacket

6 1 7 - 4 7 9 - C A P S

MARINA BAY
SURF & SPORT
"Your Lifestyle Connection on the South Shore." 617-328-8080

Summer Sale 10%–50% Off

• Sunglasses : Revo, RayBan, Oakley & Bollé
• Sportswear : Bollé, Mossimo, Spot Sport, Sideout & Gotcha,
• Swimwear: Raisins, O.P., Kerrits & Bendigo
• Sandals : Flojos & Reef Brazil

Rollerblade
Sales & Rental Center
Call for rentals and price quotes.
304 Victory Road, No. Quincy, MA 02171

BodyRama Boutique

INNOVATIVE CLOTHING and ACCESSORIES for MEN and WOMEN

New unique styles just for men.....

Jeans • Boating Attire •Shorts
Sweatshirts • T-Shirts

For the woman who dares to be different.....

Cruisewear • Swimwear
Costume Jewelry • Accessories
Sweatshirts • T-Shirts • Handbags
Casualwear • Body Suits • Bustiers

308 Victory Road
Marina Bay
No. Quincy, MA 02171
847-6042

at Marina Bay

Annual Boston Antique and Classic Boat Festival

August 8 and 9: 10th

Classic antique power and sailboats from all over will gather at Marina Bay for their annual boating festival. Open free to the public. There will be a blessing of the fleet, parade, and exhibits. Call for registration at 489-1137.

End of Summer Salute

August 22

Marina Bay Business Association caps off the summer with a blow out bash and casino. The event takes place at the Ocean Terrace and raises money for local charities.

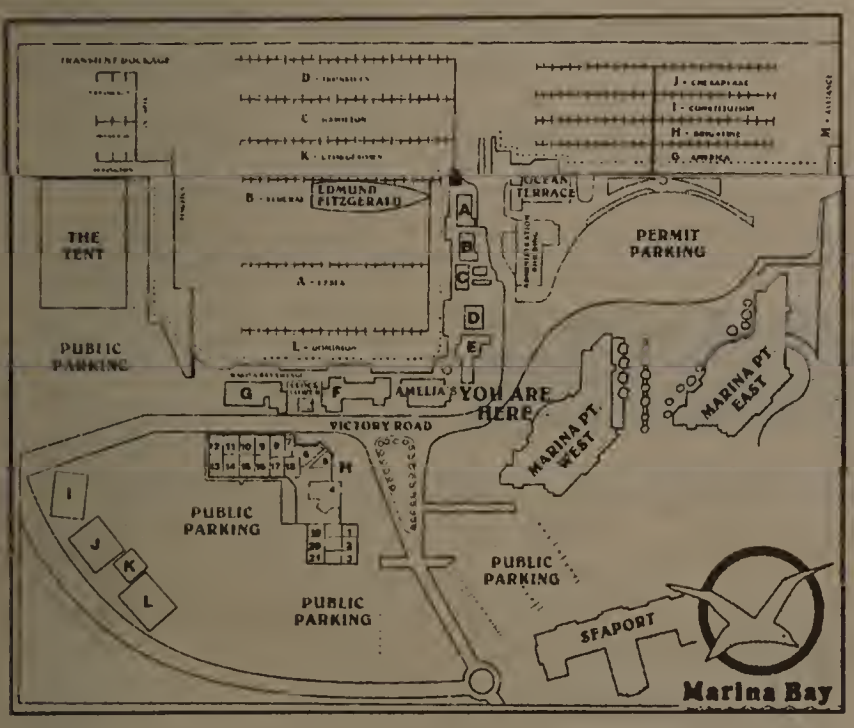
$10,000 Giveaway Dinner and Dance

September 18

Join the Marina Bay business association for an elegant dinner and dance under the stars at the Ocean Terrace. Win a chance at $10,000! Cash prizes awarded to every 10th name drawn. Open bar and champagne fountains. Tickets are $150. Dinner only, tickets are $35.

Marina Bay

333 Victory Road



N Quincy, MA 02171

617/847-1800

International Flag and Food Festival

October 4

Marina Bay hosts the Mount Rushmore Flag, a 45 ft x 85 ft, 300 lb. American flag, along with the Italian, Irish and Canadian flags for a day of international food and flag waving fun. Come see these magnificent flags unfurl at Marina Bay. For more information and volunteer registration, call Nancy at 847-1800.

Why worry?

Hit the beach

while we rent your apartment or find you a roommate.

Only $19

The Improper Bostonian

Run your ad in our classified section for just $19.00. We will run the ad until it works. Non-commercial ads only. Call for more details.

Boston's Bi-Weekly Entertainment Leisure Newsmagazine

Phone: 232-3705 • Fax: 232-4305

Prime Travel— Carlson Travel Network

VACATION & BUSINESS TRAVEL
for INDIVIDUALS & GROUPS
DELUXE TOURS

We can stretch your dollar!
No fees or service charges.
Free corporate delivery.

CRUISE SPECIALISTS
WE ARE
• NATIONAL AGENTS FOR ALL CRUISE LINES
WE CAN OFFER
• OUTSTANDING DISCOUNT RATES
• MOST CRUISE LINES OFFER FREE AIR FARE

EVEN IF YOU MADE YOUR RESERVATIONS directly with the AIRLINE, we can issue your TICKETS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE!

617-472-3697
500 Victory Road • Marina Bay
Open Mon. - Fri., 9 - 6
Sat. 10-4, Sun. Noon - 5
Evening consultations available by appointment

Marina Bay

SHOES, SHIRTS & SHADES

"Covering you from head to toe."

Marina Bay

SHOES Shoes and sandals from Reef, Flojos, Sporto for men and women and kids, too...

SHIRTS T-Shirts, tanks and sweats, offering an unbelievable selection of prints and designs.

SHADES Sunglasses from RayBan, Revo, Oakley & Bollé

Summer Shop Hours

Mon. thru Thurs. 11-7, Fri. and Sat. 11-9, Sun. 12-8

Victory Road, No. Quincy, MA 02171 • 617-328-1133

APPETEASERS

By Marge Chryssostomidis & Peter McNamara

The Wonders of Women

Fabulous Food from Female Chefs is once again the name of the gastronomic benefit being sponsored by the Boston YWCA on August 20 at the Hynes Convention Center. Delectable treats like onion focaccia and Kahlua chocolate truffles will be prepared by local women chefs. Proceeds from this sixth annual event will benefit the YWCA's programs for vulnerable women and children. Tickets cost $30 in advance ($35 at the door); to obtain them, call 536-7940 ext. 103. Last year's event sold out, so order them right away.

MELLEA WINERY

Free Tasting and Tours
Enjoy our brookside picnic area and 30 acres of New England Countryside

Mellea Wines can be found at:
Cornucopia, West St.
On The Square, Watertown
Beacon Hill Wine & Spirits, Charles St.
De Lucas Market, Charles St.
Wine Cave, Union St.
Kenmore Liquor, Kenmore Sq.
Bauer, Newbury St.
Murrays, Newton Center
Gordons Liquor, Waltham
Ristorante Schifino, Broad St.
Giannino's, Charles Hotel Crtyrd., Hvd., Sq.
Federal Wines & Spirits, Water St.
Upper Falls Discount Liquors, Needham St., Newton

"As Massachusetts residents, you are required to try it." - David Raines, Gordon's

108 Old Southbridge Rd., W. Dudley, Ma. 508-943-5166
Call for info. on summer events; arts shows, concerts & chef visits.

There's A New Brew in Town

John Harvard's Brew House is the name of the new brewery restaurant that's opening the week of August 17 at 33 Dunster Street in Harvard Square. It will feature eight fresh brews, including both top fermented (English style) and bottom fermented (German style) beers, but this doesn't mean that food will be neglected, as the owners are committed to serving high quality, freshly prepared food at moderate prices. Executive chef Joseph Kubik, formerly at Rowes Wharf Restaurant, plans to present dishes like buttermilk fried chicken with maple-spiced corn bread, and grilled sausages with warm potato and pancetta.

Why Leave Town?

Devotees of Al Forno in Providence, RI will be delighted to learn that the owners are negotiating to open a restaurant at the upper end of Newbury Street in a building being renovated by a famous Italian clothing designer. We'll keep you informed.

Growth Ain't Bad

We have also confirmed that Gordon and Fiona Hamersley are indeed negotiating for larger premises (complete with full liquor license) across the road in the Cyclorama building for their ever popular Hamersley's Bistro.

Some New Products

Some interesting products we've come across recently: Once you've tried Carolyn's Spiced Pecans you'll never go back to the supermarket kind. These crunchy spicy treats are out of this world. To order or find a local outlet, call Carolyn Schaefer at (508) 369-8212...One of our favorite mustards is Old Cape Cod Cranberry Mustard, a terrific hot, slightly tart variety that goes wonderfully with cold meats and coarse pate. It's available at Le Saucier in Quincy Market...If you like capers, then you will be intrigued by caperberries, which are a kind of grown up version of the caper bud. They make a great alternative to pickled peppers, and are available at Marty's in Allston (where, incidentally, you can buy large capers by the pound at considerable saving).

Unsung Heroes

Remember the recent fund-raiser on board the Russian tall ship Mir? We'd like to take the opportunity to give some credit to two unsung heroes of this event: Shelton Reece and Moses Badillo, both from the kitchen at the Original Sports Saloon, who cheerfully worked nonstop from start to finish, turning their hands to anything and everything. Without their Herculean efforts this event could not possibly have been so successful - $15,000 was raised.

Happy To Have Crabs

Chilled, boiled one pound lobsters for $4.00 each. Beer for 99 cents. No you aren't dreaming - that's what you'll pay Monday –Friday from 5–7pm through August 10 at The Last Hurrah in the Omni Parker House. Then if you want a different kind of crustacean, check out the hotel's 5th Annual Crab Bash, which will take place in The Last Hurrah from August 10–September 5; you can expect to find steamed crabs, chilled crab claws, Maryland soft shell crabs, crab cakes, crab quesadillas and many other choices on the lunch and dinner menus.

The Juicy Details

A recent fire at 224 Boston Street has resulted in the temporary shutdown of operations, but the restaurant should have remodeled and reopened by the time we go to press. Call 265-1217 to confirm...Genji on Newbury Street has temporarily suspended operations...The Armadillo Cafe will be opening at the location occupied by Play it agaln Sam's on Commonwealth Avenue in Brighton with a Tex-Mex menu...Look for new and exciting changes in the food section at Marty's . ❑

Come for our Pollo e Vitello alla Verdicchio

This delectable dish is made with chicken and veal with artichoke hearts, olives and mushrooms, sautéed in Verdicchio wine.

Ristorante CARLO MARINO
"That little Italian place on Prince Street."

8 Prince Street, North End, Boston 523-9109

(617) 338.4600 | Menus from Hot Climes

Cornucopia welcomes you to our annual international festival of warm weather cuisine. Each Menu features our Chef Stuart Cameron's interpretations of three traditional courses for $25 per person.

cornucopia

15 West Street, Downtown Boston

Moroccan	Thai
August 4 – 8	August 11 – 15
Cajun	Mexican
August 18 – 22	August 25 – 29

We Welcome Diners Club International

Validated Parking is available after 4pm at the Lafayette Garage.

D

BRUNCH BOARD

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change.

AUJOURD'HUI

Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive, except for tip); $18.50 for children.

BANGKOK BISTRO

1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain starting at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

BARRETT'S ON BOSTON HARBOR

2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $16.95 (all inclusive); $9.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

BELLO MONDO

236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

BENNETT ST. CAFÉ

1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual summer buffet brunch. Summer brunch will be served now through Sept. 5. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $17.95 for all you can eat; $9.95 under 10. Brunch Sun. 9am-2pm. Reservations.

BLUE DINER

178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

CAFE FLEURI

250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

DAVIO'S

5 Cambridge Parkway, Camb., 661-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at noon. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. Reservations are suggested.

HAMPSHIRE HOUSE

84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. New Orleans Jazz Brunch served 10:30am - 2:30p, $12 - $16.

HARBOR TERRACE

296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the harbor terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

HUNGRY I

71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

JOE'S AMERICAN BAR AND GRILL

279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

JONAH'S SEAFOOD CAFE

575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

OASIS CAFE

176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American home-style fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

PARKER'S RESTAURANT

Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

THE RITZ CARLTON

15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

S&S DELI

1334 Cambridge St., Cambridge 354-0777
Tucked away in Inman Square, Cambridge, the S&S Deli, whose modest beginnings were as an authentic Jewish deli, has evolved through its 70 year existence to become a local institution. The S & S continues to draw a dedicated clientele who frequent the place for its atmosphere and dishes. Try the delicious potato pancakes, with sour cream and apple sauce, or one of their many well prepared omelettes. Don't be alarmed by the lines on the weekend. They move quickly and the food is well worth the wait.

SERENDIPITY III

120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

SPINNAKER ITALIA AT THE HYATT

575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

THE TRIDENT BOOKSTORE AND CAFÉ

338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 NEWBURY

29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

VICTORIA STATION

64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

It's time for Another Season.
Fine dining at reasonable prices in a lovely setting.

97 MOUNT VERNON STREET
BEACON HILL, BOSTON 367-0880

ARARAT
RESTAURANT
Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates
4.75 Each

FREE SOFT DRINK
(12 oz. can)
With Purchase of
Half Rotisserie
B.B.Q. Chicken Plate
includes Rice Pilaf
Salad & Garlic Sauce.
$4.99 plus tax

We also serve beer and wine. Please come in and visit us.
ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 Arlington Street, Watertown, MA.
(617)924-4100*(617)934-7011

Remington's
OF BOSTON
EATING & DRINKING EXCHANGE

Dinner for 2 • $9.95
with mention of the Improper Bostonian

- Sirloin steak tips charbroiled to taste
- Fresh Boston schrod lightly breaded and broiled
- Boneless chicken breast marinated in teriaki and broiled
- Fresh caught fish and chips

Free Jukebox Play
Thursday through Saturday Midnight–2AM

$4.00 Off ticket price for Dick Dorherty's
Comedy Vault with Dinner Purchase
Friday & Saturday Nights

124 Boylston Street Boston • 574-9676

D

Restaurant Listings

Restaurant listings are provided as a service to advertisers. If you would like to have your restaurant listed, please call the Improper Bostonian Advertising Department at 232-3705.

Addis Red Sea Ethiopian Restaurant

544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727
A,MC,V$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

Amsterdam's,

54 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel
426-1111
A, MC, V $$
Don't let the name fool you. Amsterdam's is the epitome of American Bistro. The most popular eat at this new hotspot is the Rotisserie roasted chicken. Also choose from a variety of delicious appetizers such as spicy fried squid and steamed mussels. Stick around after dinner on Sunday and Monday nights to catch live Jazz from 9-2am. Casual dress. Open 7 days until 2am.

Ararat

71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

Averof,

1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA,

272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

The Black Goose,

21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D $
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Every Thurs.-Sat. night at 7:30pm eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

Bob The Chef

604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V $
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorified chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouthwatering food in town. Weekend brunch features fried chicken and waffles- a new combo for your AM tastebuds. Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

Boodles,

Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537
A,D,MC, V, En Route $$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Featuring a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees & grilled fresh seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am -11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

Cactus Club,

939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200
A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, Navajo braised rabbit, as well as more traditional staples are served up daily. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Caffe Graffiti

307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016 $
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a mindbending selection of goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

Caffe Italia

279 Newbury St., Boston, 536-3556 $
Sip cappuccino and espresso from the early morning light into the balmy summer night at this authentic Italian cafe. Mangia Imported pastries, Gelati, calzone, arancini, panzarotti and more from 8 am-12am Monday through Thursday and 8am-2am Friday through Sunday. Relax and enjoy a late night dessert on their outdoor terrace open until 2 am on weekends.

Casa Portugal,

1200 Cambridge Street, Camb. 491-8880
A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

Chau Chow Seafood Restaurant

52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266 $$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu–you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

Cornucopia,

15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,DC,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes with the seasons but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Desserts are always spectacular here-Cornucopia won the coveted 1B's Best of Boston Tastiest Dessert award. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet

112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali

415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254
A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pezatas as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette–to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Valencia. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park

340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 MC, V, A $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Four Winds,

266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922
A, MC, DC, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open daily from noon to 3:30pm for lunch and 5:30 to 10:30 dinner.

Grendel's Den

89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050
A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I,

71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry I is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces. Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus,

3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your chanterelle glazed lobster with fennel ravioli with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

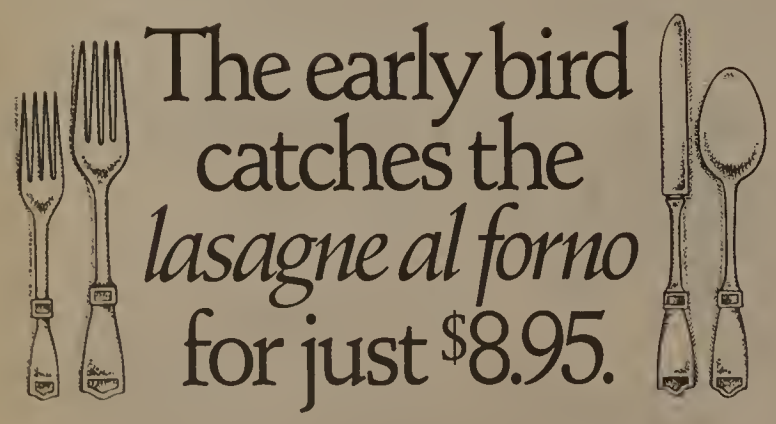
India Quality Restaurant

536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Boston
267-4499 $
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25–$5.95 (11:30–3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95–$10.95 (5–10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Joyce Chen

115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373
A, MC, V, D $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring a new spring menu. In addition to Joyce Chen's wide variety of dishes on the year-round menu, the seasonal dishes include Chicken Macadamia with asparagus and Wok-seared shrimp with asparagus. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry



30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods

Park Plaza Hotel, 35 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700 $$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house lab under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole–a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. In the suburbs.

L'Osteria

109 Salem St., Bos. 723-7847
A, D, MC, V $$
Relax at this Italian bistro that serves up regional specialties from both north and south. Enjoy the friendly service and good food with a glass of wine. The Boccancini di Vitello Triestini–three veal cutlets with prociutto, mozzarella, garlic and parsley rolled with tomatoes, mushrooms and bread crumbs is a must.

Not to mention Prime Rib for $9.95, Grilled Chicken for $8.95, Baked Schrod for $9.95, and the Chef's Special of the Day for $9.95. You'll find these complete dinners for under $10 when you come to Parmizzano's between 5 and 7 pm. The food is plentiful, the service delightful, and the check very easy to swallow. Call (617) 252-4444 for reservations.

ITALIAN Parmizzano's CAFFE

Located at the Cambridge Center Marriott • Two Cambridge Center, Cambridge
Parking up to 3 hours for $1, 3–6 hours for $2.

NEWLY OPENED

Raw Bar • Cocktails • Grill

MARCO'S RISTORANTE

Nearly 100 years of culinary excellence in the North End.

Italian Seafood Specialties "Bringing Scunggelli to Boston"

93 Salem St. North End, Boston
3 6 7 - 4 8 7 8

D

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959 . V,MC $$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina –chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century. Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury St. Open noon to midnight.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274. M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues–Sat. 11:30am–10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

The Original Sports Saloon
47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
MC, V, A, D, CB, En Route
This neighborhood restaurant and bar is the only place to go in Boston to watch a sporting event. This true authentic establishment roars with excitement no matter which sport is showing on their five satellite T.V.'s. As far as their menu, barbeque is the name of the game here. The Saloon also offers a variety of other menu items from burgers to seafood, but they do it different than anyone else. All items are available for take-out and delivery. Open 11 am-2am, 7 days a week.

Patisserie Francaise
54 JFK St., Cambridge, 354-9850 $(lunch) $$(dinner)
If you yearn for Paris in the summertime, try out this little French café in Harvard Square. They serve fresh food from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday and Monday, and until 10 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Lunch consists of omelets, salads, soups, and sandwiches. Dinner adds typical French cuisine, freshly-cooked, to the menu. And the deserts include every chocolate and fruit-filled concoction you could imagine.

Ristorante Carlo Marino,
8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltimboca alla Romano–veal layered with prosciutto with fresh sage, sautéed in wine; Spinaci di Casa–spinach sautéed with garlic oil, cannellini beans and prosciutto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Sienna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC, V, A $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary situated in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston

Sorento's
86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC, V, D $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

Winner of the Improper Bostonian's
Best of Boston Award—
Outdoor Dining

Lunch Sun–Sat 11:30–5:00
including brunch specials on Sunday
Dinner Sun–Wed 5:00–10:00 pm
Thurs–Sat 5:00–11.00 pm

Available for private parties and functions.
Valet parking.
On the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Dartmouth Street
160 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

(617) 536-8656

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

Our gourmet food is prepared to order for you with the finest meats and ingredients.

We are committed to serving our customers in the fastest and friendliest way possible.

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

Purchase any pasta dish and receive insalata FREE
Good Sunday - Wednesday
Valid for pick up or delivery orders only.
Limit 1 per order. No double discounts.
Tax based on full value of meal.
Offer expires 8/30/92

Purchase any large combination pizza and receive a small cheese pizza FREE
Good Sunday - Wednesday
Valid for pick up or delivery orders only.
Limit 1 per order. No double discounts.
Tax based on full value of meal.
Offer expires 8/30/92

FREE DELIVERY
(Limited Delivery Area)

Please mention this ad when ordering.

86 Peterborough St. Boston, MA 424-7070 (Behind Star Market in the Fenway)

Buon Appetito!

Dining in Boston's North End

There are so many Italian restaurants in the North End that deciding which one to visit poses quite a dilemma. Let's face it, there are both good and bad eateries, so we'd like to briefly share with you some of our recent experiences.

BY
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS
AND PETER MCNAMARA

At the very charming Carlo Marino (8 Prince Street, tel. 523-9109), there is an emphasis on chicken, veal and shrimp dishes - primarily sautéed and baked - such as Pollo al prezzemolo con prosciutto (chicken sautéed with lemon, butter, capers, parsley and prosciutto in a wine sauce) and Cotoletta parmigiana (pan fried, breaded veal cutlet topped with mozzarella and baked with tomato sauce), not to mention a very noteworthy Gamberi alla Margherita (shrimp with egg and cheese batter sautéed with butter and lemon). In addition, there are always several "off the menu" specials, which owner Anna Marino will describe to you. At her suggestion we tried some excellent appetizers - ricotta fried in batter, an asparagus frittata, and penne with tomato and basil (a simple yet outstanding combination) and a delicious special that involved prosciutto sandwiched between two veal scallops that were then breaded and sautéed with mushrooms and marsala sauce. Chicken and Veal Rimini (sautéed in white wine with red peppers) is a dish that is not actually on the menu but appears to be always available. The only dessert is little cannoli that are prepared at your table. You can't fail to feel at home here, and as for the service - it's outstanding.

A newcomer to the dining scene is Marco's Ristorante (93 Salem Street, tel. 367-4878), a small family run storefront type establishment serving up some really delicious food derived from family recipes. The owner has a particular weakness for scungelli (sea conch), and this appears among the appetizers, where it is offered in a marinara sauce (available in both hot or mild versions), and is also present in the seafood insalata, (served cold in a vinaigrette sauce with calamari and shrimp). The conch is unusually tender and both versions are so good, we don't know which we prefer. If you favor plainer food, there is the raw bar, which offers cherrystones, oysters and shrimps. The entrees emphasize seafood, though several kinds of grilled meat are available. You can't go wrong ordering anything with seafood; Shrimp Marco was some perfectly cooked shrimp with a delicate butter and wine sauce served over linguine, while a daily special of stuffed calamari was out of this world - the very tender calamari were stuffed with breadcrumbs, parmesan and herbs and served over linguine in a robust (obviously homemade) marinara sauce. Grilled sirloin steak came with a wonderfully flavored herbal coating, but was too overcooked; the kitchen needs a bit more practice here. Service, too, needs to be improved, but considering how short a time Marco's has been open, we were willing to overlook this.

There always seems to be a line outside the Villa Francesca (150 Richmond Street, tel. 367-2948), and despite the inevitable wait and the crowded tables, we return here frequently for the hot, hot Chicken Abbruzese (a whole chicken breast sautéed with hot peppers). The homemade pasta here, too, is very good, especially the ziti. There are actually two menus; one is your fairly standard North End selection, while the second lists the Kitchen Specialties, which are more unusual, like Chicken bona boca nizza (chicken rolled around artichoke hearts - with mozzarella cheese - and seasoned with anchovy in a red sauce with mushrooms) and Shrimp gondola (shrimp stuffed with breadcrumbs served with clams, calamari and mussels in a white wine sauce). The atmosphere here is fun and festive what with the red and white checked tablecloths and the fine tenor who strolls around the restaurant regaling diners with operatic arias and Neapolitan songs.

The Four Winds (266 Commercial Street, tel. 742-3922) is a very smart and

Don't Miss These North End Festivals

Madonna Della Cava	Aug. 7-9	Hanover Street
Madonna Del Soccorso (The Fisherman's Feast)	Aug. 13-16	North & Lewis St.
St. Anthony di Padua	Aug. 21-24	Endicott & North Margin Street
St. Lucy	Aug 24	"

Pat's Pushcart Restaurant

Pat's Pushcart Restaurant has been serving fine Italian Cuisine for the past 20 years in Boston's Historical North End.

Be sure to ask about our specialty dishes.

61 Endicott Street, Boston's North End 523-9616

CAFFÉ Graffiti

"Come In And Sign Our Wall."

- ▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
- ▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
- ▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
- ▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
- ▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
- ▲ Italian Gelato

CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid appealing restaurant; the very pleasing decor is Caribbean with a piscatorial theme (check out the huge tank of tropical fish behind the bar), while the menu combines American and Italian favorites with an emphasis on seafood. Here, traditional dishes are often given a new twist; only fresh ingredients are used, and everything is attractively presented. Appetizers are mostly the barfood type; the Baked potato skins are not only good, but also unusual, being topped with little vegetable strips. We particularly recommend the Cajun shrimp appetizer, which was similar to Cajun popcorn. Entrees we enjoyed included Lobster fradiavolo - a whole lobster that could easily have served two, with a sweet, hot tomato sauce, and a beautifully prepared Shrimp scampi that added cheese to the sauce, making the pasta nicely creamy. The frutti di mare, a daily special, was outstanding, combining tiny scallops, shrimp and haddock in a delicious lemon-butter sauce enhanced with fresh dill.

Here's a quick roundup of some other places that are definitely worth a visit: If you peek through the window at Massimino's (207 Endicott Street, tel. 523-5959), you will see tables filled with contented looking customers with smiles on their faces, and when you try the food here, you will understand why. The Eggplant appetizer (in garlic and oil) is to die for, and they do a pretty mean Stuffed veal chop as a daily special...The Daily Catch (323 Hanover Street, tel. 523-8767) is a perennial favorite serving up the freshest of fish, with an emphasis on calamari. Preparations are unusual and imaginative; the only drawback is the tiny size of this restaurant, necessitating a long wait...For a leisurely meal with attentive service, try Nicole (54 Salem Street, tel. 742-6999); the food's not cheap, but this is definitely the place to go for a special occasion... For a quick and inexpensive bite, you can't go wrong at Giorgio's Pizzeria (69 Salem Street, tel. 523-1373), where you'll find both red and white pizzas available whole or by the slice, as well as calzones. Everything is delicious, and very good value for money. When the place gets too crowded, you can use the additional seating in the room across the street...If you are really starving, go to the Piccolo Venezia (63 Salem Street, tel. 523-9802), where you will find hearty portions served in a bustling, crowded atmosphere...Finally, top it all off with a coffee at the Caffe Graffiti (307 Hanover Street, tel. 367-3016), which serves coffee, wine, beer, soft drinks and desserts and allows you to write on the wall.

Shopping in the North End: For cheese, go to either the Purity Cheese Co. (55 Endicott Street), which has riccotta and mozzarella fresh daily, or Pace & Son (42 Cross Street), which also offers a full line of cold cuts and grocery items. Both places carry a wonderful romano with peppercorns...If you need bread (or an insult) in the middle of the night, all you need do is pay a visit to the Bova Bakery (76 Prince Street), which just happens to be open 24 hours. It's one of the few places that sells the nice country bread that you seldom see outside Greece. The best buy we've found for pignolia nuts is at Dairy Fresh Candies (57 Salem Street); when they can, they carry the much lower priced Chinese ones. They are also have the largest selection of dried fruits, nuts and bulk chocolate in the area...For Italian cookware at reasonable prices, take a look around A & J Distributors (236 Hanover Street), who sell pasta machines, beautiful pasta bowls, espresso makers, etc. as well as homemade vinegars. They also have the largest selection of beer and wine making supplies in New England. ❑

If you're coming to New York, don't.

But for Chez Josephine, make an exception.

Chez Josephine,
the 2–star (New York Times)
restaurant on Theatre Row.
Good food, good piano, good times.

414 West 42nd Street. (212) 594-1925

The North End's Getaway for HeartyAmerican Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

Chef Jill Rodgers included in America's 2000 for
"Providing culinary leadership into the 21st Century"
-Chefs in America

Lunch, Dinner & Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

Serving
Lunch and Dinner

7 days a week
Breakfast on Weekends

Italian Cuisine
with daily specials

Fine wines by the glass or bottle
Elegant, charming, unique
Romantic European atmosphere

464 Thames Street
Newport, RI
(Corner of Pope & Thames)
401-847-5251
MC/VISA

MUSIC

Two Peas in a Pod

Suzanne Vega and Michelle Shocked Ponder Their Origins and Fates

Suzanne Vega

BY REY ROLDAN

Beginnings and ends have fascinated philosophers since Plato wrote Republic. Likewise, beginnings and ends have a deep foundation in folk music. Artists such as Joan Baez, Joni Mitchell and Jim Croce picked up guitars and sang about people's beginnings, ends and everything in between. Like that terribly clichéd puzzle, each song adds yet another piece to the full picture of human nature. Suzanne Vega and Michelle Shocked are no strangers to this domain. Part of the new progression of folkies to emerge in the last decade, both Vega and Shocked have wallowed in human psychology and emerged smelling like platinum.

"One thing that happened between the last album [Solitude Standing] and [Days of Open Hand, both on A&M] is that I made contact with my biological father," says Vega, remembering that day when her past and present came to a fateful intersection. "I hadn't seen him since I was a baby. There was a sense of coming to terms with that, with where I come from physically. You feel there's a piece of the puzzle that's been put into place when you meet a person of your own flesh and blood that you haven't seen before."

Understanding her origins have made the source of her music all the more clearer. "I recognized portions of myself in him," she muses. "I also found out my grandmother had been a musician, a drummer in an all-girl band in the Thirties and Forties, whom [my father] never met because he had been adopted as a child. It seemed very strange how the musical ability followed through the generations, though we didn't know each other. Knowing that story suddenly made me trust my own blood. It gave me confidence. Before, I just felt it was my instinct. Now, I know music is in my blood."

Worshipped when she emerged out of the Soho scene in 1985 with her self-titled A&M debut, Vega won raves for her minimalist folk that covered all types of dysfunctional relationships from noncommunicative ("Marlene on the Wall") to abusive ("Small Blue Thing") to callously murderous ("The Queen and the Soldier"). Setting the stage for her second release, Solitude Standing, she wielded the Top Five single "Luka" which opened the doors for the masses and let them peek into her earth - toned world. Unfortunately, her third album Days of Open Hand proved to be the low point of her career, not raking in huge sales or hit singles.

For the quirky, unpredictable Michelle Shocked, however, her origins remain a murky mystery. "I have always been fascinated with the details of my conception," Shocked says. "I asked my grandma [about my parents wedding and] she pursed her lips and said, 'I don't remember!' But I remember, not what she said but what my mother said. In church each Testimony Sunday, she would stand in front of the congregation and bear witness to the tragedy of her young life, (my conception) and then, lip trembling. . . 'and I was not married.' I would squirm there on the front pew we always sat in, a shining example of a Mormon family (eight kids, for chrissakes!). Now you know my deepest secret. I was born illiterate [sic.]."

Michelle Shocked

Shocked, who has three albums as well (Short Sharp Shocked, Captain Swing and the recently released Arkansas Traveller all on Mercury), tends to think her influences are not part of her nature, but part of her nurture. "Some folks think I keep changing styles," she adds. "Naw. I've tried to show where my musical sources come from - Texas songwriters like Guy Clark, uptempo blues/swing like Bob Wills and Louie Jordan and homemade jam like I grew up playing with my dad and brother."

As far as the ends are concerned, Vega remains optimistic and earthbound. "I've always wanted to be a really great artist," she wishes. "And I think I'm learning how to be a better performer. Those are my dreams at the moment. My dream is to put together a show where I'm really giving my best." Shocked, in her usual unpredictable self, adds, "I don't know where this road goes from here. I've just tried to explain how I got here." ❑

Newport Folk & Jazz Festivals

Ben & Jerry's Newport Folk Festival
(401) 847-3700

Saturday, August 8
Suzanne Vega
Bruce Cockburn
The Band
Michelle Shocked
Cris Williamson
Yomo Toro
David Wilcox
Patty Larkin
Pat Donohue

Fort Adams State Park
11:00 am-6:30 pm

Sunday, August 9
Joan Baez
Mary-Chapin Carpenter
Amy Ray & Emily Saliers
Beausoleil
Loudon Wainwright
Nashville Bluegrass Band
Fairfield Four
Rachel Polisher
Pat Donohue

Fort Adams State Park
11:00 am-6:30 pm

Ticket Information
$23.00 per day in advance
$25.00 per day during the festival
$10.00 for children under 12 at all times
Tickets available from all Ticketmaster outlets.

JVC Jazz Festival
Friday, August 14
Cleo Laine and John Dankworth and the John Dankworth Quartet
Toots Thielmans with Fred Hersch, piano Harvie Swartz, bass Adam Nussbaum, drums

Newport Casino, 194 Bellevue Avenue
Champagne Cocktail Party, 6:30-7:30 pm
Concert, 8 pm, Centre Court

Saturday, August 15
A Tribute to Miles Davis featuring Herbie Hancock, piano
Wayne Shorter, sax
Ron Carter, bass
Wallace Roney, trumpet
Tony Williams, drums
The Shirley Horn Trio
The McCoy Tyner Big Band
Tower of Power
Thelonius Monk, Jr.

Fort Adams State Park
11:30 am-6:30 pm

Sunday, August 16
Roberta Flack
Bobby McFerrin
Max Roach Quartet
Maceo Parker with Fred Wesley and Pee Wee Ellis
The New York Jazz Giants featuring
Jon Faddis, trumpet
Carl Allen, drums
Tom Harrell, trumpet
Ray Drummond, bass
Bobby Watson, alto sax
Mulgrew Miller, piano
Lew Tabackin, tenor sax

Fort Adams State Park
11:30 am-6:30 pm

Ticket Information
Friday: $37.50 and $55.00, reserved seats
Saturday and Sunday:$28.50 per day in advance
$30.00 on the festival weekend
$12.50 for children under 12 at all times
Tickets available from all Ticketmaster outlets.

m

Musical Notes

WACHTELLIGENCE

by A.J. Wachtel

Aimee Mann and Peter Wolf in the studio together. Growling guitarist Stu Kimball x-Face To Face says "bootleggers will love this, alot of studio tracks available"...Marky Mark's new album "You Gotta Believe" to be released 9/15 and then to Europe...Big Daddy from Ointment overheard saying "I've Got Gas." This may be true but the band is looking for a singer...X-Dogmatic Jerry Lehane's new gig Hotbox at Midnite Court in Fanueuil Hall every Thurs...Hard Rock Cafe's The Cavern Club hosting live music once a month. First act was Dave Herlihy from O Positive...RTZ, Charlie Farren and The Tat's at Ovations on the 7th. Every Wed., the club goes country. Check out J.LWright on the 19th...Tim Street at O'Briens. sneirB'O ta teertS miT..Uh-oh. Something's not right here...The Lost 45's Concert Series with WBOS' Barry Scott hosting continues. See Paul Anka on the 12th and The Temps/Four Tops on the 14th...Doorperson Of The Week is Jennifer Hanson from The Western Front cause she talks Rasta real well. Go to her club and see The I-Tones on the 8th. Every Sun. in Aug. will feature Motion's reggae...The 360's on a US/Canadian tour, then to Europe. Happy Happy to guitarist Eric Russell. Check out his article in Guitar Player mag. The Feldmans in the studio working on a single. They've all moved into a party pad. BYONO3. Drummer Steve Mullaney recently arrested for disturbing the peace and he wasn't even behind his kit! X-Moving Targets Kenny Chambers in Twin Labs Studios...Pinocchio 2000 with Dennis Allen and Paul O'Grady in Birdog Studios. The band really sucks. Oops! Why is my nose getting bigger?...Song Of The Week is "Den Of Iniquity" by Sam Black Church cause it registers 9 on the Richter Scale...Harper's Ferry club owner Charlie finally laid to rest the question "Is Charlie Abel?" with the birth of his son Charles Harold Abel! Check out Fat City at his joint on the 8th...City Pete and The Eels at The Atlantic Lounge on the 6th...X-V-66 jock David O'Leary now on WBOS and the proud father of Sean Patrick who at 3 months "can already hold a guitar."

James Montgomery going to Europe in the fall followed by a nat'l tour. In Detroit he'll jam with members of Was Not Was and Sun Messengers...Bun's barkeep Mikey Drucker insists that "Punk will make a comeback"...Joe Stump's Guitar Dominance will be distrubuted by Leviathan Records...Beat Surrender has broken up. Ted Lyon's new gig is Neon Religion...Mark Nelson vocal teacher who's worked with Aerosmith's Steve Tyler singing for Restless Souls...Waitress Of The Week is Beth O'Connor from The Harbor Club cause she's a beautiful blond. Go to her club Fri. for karaoke with Billy Costa from KISS 108. And that great free buffet Wed/Thurs/Fri...CGY jock Harvy Wharfield!!!'s new club Wharfield's at the Peabody Mariott. The Stompers opened the club...X-GNO Alizon Lissance just finished a video of her song "So What About You." See her and old bandmate Myanna at The Regatta Bar on the 5th...Listen for The Atom Said's new tune "(The Way We) Whirr." They also do the best version of "Blackbird" since you know who...Happy happy to production ace Tom Dorenkamp, X-STF Jesse Mayer and to Axis/Bill's sound guy Mark Davis...Barkeep Of The Week is Kevin Norton from The Linwood Grille cause he's WILD! The club's working on getting a permanant entertainment license...X-Slaves Bill Close in The Freeze with Iron Sausage/Nervous Eaters pounder Walter Gustafson...Heavy Metal Horns on a Booze Cruise with Bim Skala Bim on the 7th. This gig reeks of danger!...Bands send us your stuff so we can tell the world about your talents! ❑

ALBUM REVIEWS

360's
SUPERNATURAL
Link Records

Since they've received enough write-ups to wallpaper the bathroom, there's probably not much left to be said about this semi-psychedelic guitar army known simply as 360's. Fueled by the voracious twin-axe attack of Eric Russell and vocalist Audrey Clark, this Boston-area band stomps out a continuous barrage bolstered by the simple but effective quadstringing of Brian Evans. Although the whole musical house is built on the foundation supplied by Johnny Grady, these songs emphatically state how guitars were meant to be played - with shades of Hendrix in some spots, and melodic ascending Byrds-type progressions in others. This homegrown product was recorded at Fort Apache Studios and produced by Sean Slade. The group has been wildly received in Britain, where the band saw Top 10 Indie success for an earlier effort "Texas," - from their debut Illuminated.

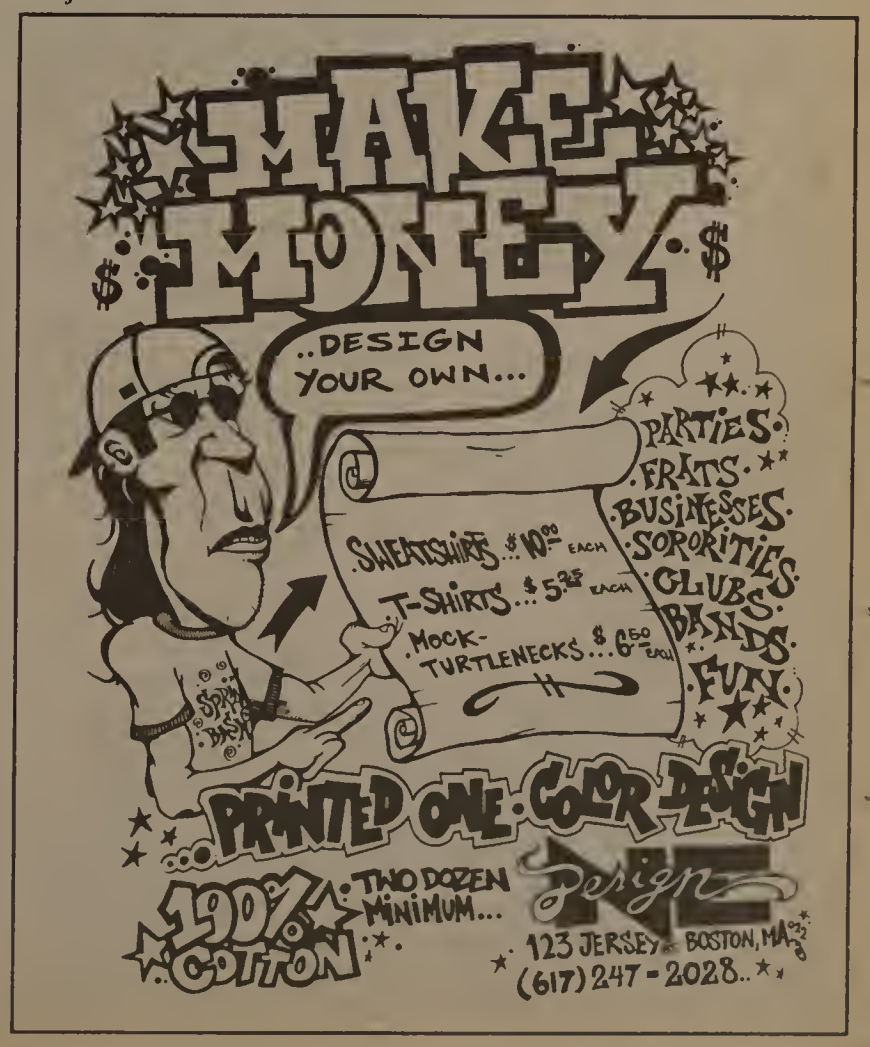
The Nineties "Yank Invasion" begun by The Pixies was barely underway when the sonic blast of the 360's caused concussions west of the Cliffs of Dover. The title track "Supernatural" is a masterful interweave of guitar and lyrics, while the dark-dreamy rhythms on the opening cut "Dead 1970" is on turntables everywhere. Stardom beckons the 360'.

-Mickey O'Halloran

2 Unlimited
Get Ready
Critique Records

This eclectic Techno / Dance / Euro- rock outfit on the Woburn-based label is a wonderful array of sound. A.K.A. Kid Ray and A, 2 Unlimited's music is of the cosmos, from "Get Ready for This" right into the instant club hit "Twilight Zone" (not to be confused with those other European band Golden Earring's Eighties hit). . . the kind of dance music that grabs you and won't let go. In addition to the full album, the CD also has four bonus mixes for those who can't get enough of the original versions, a Rave Version edit of "Twilight Zone", "a vocal version of "Get Ready for This" and two instrumental versions of "The Magic Friend" and "Workaholic." A unique and inventive use of synths and rap, the Netherlanders are a strange complement to Cliffs of Dooneen, their brother act on Critique.

-Janis Reed



Jimmy Buffett
Boats, Beaches, Bars and Ballads
Uni Distribution

Jimmy Buffett was turned down by 26 record companies before he turned one on. Very few of his songs ever get played on radio. Yet, he manages to sell out virtually every venue he plays. People from all walks of life in every age category (three generations worth of Parrot Heads) listen to him. Like that whole Dead scene, Buffett has created a major subculture with his Parrot Headonism. "People come to my concerts with their own personal Mardi Gras attached to them," he says in the handbook that comes with this four disc set. "There is no official Parrot Head outfit. . . I don't want them to have uniforms because I don't want the show to feel like Catholic school. Parrot heads go to concerts to have a good time," which is precisely the reason why people listen to Buffett in the first place. He pushes that intangible of all intangibles - total escapism - that everyone seeks but no one ever really finds. He is a pilot, a sailor, a restauranteur, a record label owner, but most of all, he is the clown prince of storytelling. This box set is a tribute to twenty plus years in music and it is a must for all that follow that Hawaiian-shirted, tropical troubadour Jimmy Buffett.

-Liz O'Brien

m

CONSISTENTLY ECLECTIC

Sophie B. Hawkins Finds Comfort in Change

BY KATHLEEN HORVATH

Sophie Hawkins in her video, Damn, I Wish I Was Your Lover

There are a lot of bands who stick to well-worn and tried and true formulas, attracting masses of bebopping, beat-addicted bohemians who don't care what the song says as long that it has a dandy, dancey beat. And there are some bands who try their darndest to be eclectic and attract listeners with some songs but alienate them with others. Sophie B. Hawkins falls somewhere in between - consistently eclectic with heavy beats and heavy lyrics. Her debut Tongues and Tails, displays her pop versatility, ranging from a silent, folky hush to a seductive, lustful temptress.

"I'm a different type of musician," she says about herself. "I'm spontaneous. I can fit in with anybody, anywhere." Her easygoing nature translates well into her music. Constantly jumping musical boundaries like a thoroughbred from Top 40 to Rock, to Easy Listening Jazz and even into Alternative, Hawkins is the epitome of a record label's wet dream - a talented, attractive singer who attacks a few different markets at once.

Being quite the marketing expert, Hawkins employed one surefire way to attract a variety of audiences - hire diverse session and professional musicians who will add their own special touch to each song. Pulling in such artists as Eric Brazilian (Hooters), Omar Hakim (Weather Report, Sting) and Sammy Merendino (Cameo) among others, she created an aural, worldly extravaganza that doesn't sound like porridge. Each musician has their own special place in each song (best exemplified in "Carry Me," an homage to her mother). After the lyrics have trailed off, the music dissolves into a chaotic but organized array of swirling instruments that fade off like a marching orchestra.

"Each song is a crystallization of a whole stream of events," she explains. "Every detail, every dream, every conversation matters and shows up in the song." With the emotional clarity that throws Mariah Carey back into the kennel, Hawkins gushes lyrics dealing with love, loss and lust but tosses in a few taboos and incongruities to liven things up. In the spoken outtro to "Don't Stop Swaying," she narrates an incestuous take on "Hansel and Gretel," ("The two have fallen in love, and so amidst the creatures of the night, they begin to kiss"). Whether this falls into her book of experiences or dreams, it's rather uncertain but humor always has a place in her career. "Laughter," she says, "is the payoff of all this."

The media has been warming up to Hawkins whose single and video "Damn I Wish I Was Your Lover" has been moving up the charts. Whether the industry pigeonholes her as a folk, jazz vocal, rock or Top 40 performer remains to be seen. Her ever-brightening future is almost as unpredictable to her as it is to the media. "I never know what's going to happen next," she says. "It just keeps changing." ❑

SOPHIE B. HAWKINS

AT PARADISE ROCK CLUB
SATURDAY, AUGUST 15
TICCKETS:
AVAILABLE AT HE BOX OFFICE OR
CALL TICKETMASTER : 931-2000
CALL 254-2054 FOR MORE INFO

HOT TICKETS

GREAT WOODS

885 SOUTH MAIN STREET (ROUTE 140) MANSFIELD, MA 02048
1-508-339-2333; BUSINESS OFFICE 1-508-339-0002

Thursday, August 6
George Thorgood and the Destroyers
Little Feat
7 pm
$25.00, $22.50, $20.00 pavillion,
$15.00 lawn

Friday and Saturday, August 7 and 8
Lollapalooza '92 featuring:
Red Hot Chili Peppers, Ministry, Soundgarden, Ice Cube, Pearl Jam, The Jesus and Mary Chain, Lush
2 pm
$28.50 pavillion, $22.50 lawn

Sunday, August 9
Natalie Cole
Opening Act: Ottmar Liebert
7:30 pm
$27.50, $25.00 pavillion, no lawn

Wednesday, August 12
The Steve Miller Band
Opening Act: Curtis Salgado and the Stilletos
7:30 pm
$22.50, $19.50 pavillion, $17.50 lawn

Friday, August 14
David Byrne
7:30 pm
$22.50, $20.00 pavillion, $17.50 lawn

Saturday, August 15
Michael Bolton
7:30 pm
$22.50, $20.00 pavillion, $17.50 lawn

Sunday, August 16
Tony Bennett
Great Woods Festival Orchestra
8 pm

CAPE COD MELODY TENT

23 WEST MAIN STREET HYANNIS, MA 02601
1-508-775-9100; BUSINESS OFFICE 1-508-775-5630

Wednesday, August 5
Howie Mandel
8 pm
$25.00

Thursday, August 6
Paul Anka and Jerry Van Dyke
8 pm
$27.50

Friday, August 7
The Statler Brothers
8 pm
$32.50

Saturday, August 8
Englebert Humperdinck
8 pm
$29.50

Sunday, August 9
Joan Rivers
8 pm
$25.00

Thursday, August 13
Nell Sedaka
Captain & Tennille
8 pm
$26.00

Friday, August 14
Kenny Rogers
8 pm
$37.00

Sunday, August 16
Sinbad
8 pm
$20.00

OTHER

Saturday and Sunday, August 8 and 9
Ben & Jerry's Folk Festival
Fort Adams State Park
Newport, RI
$23.00

Friday, August 14
Allman Brothers Band
Holman Stadium
$25.00-$17.50

Saturday and Sunday, August 15 and 16
JVC Jazz Festival
Fort Adams State Park
Newport, RI
$28.50

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1
2	3	4	5 TOR 1:05	6 NY 1:00	7 NY 7:30	8 NY 1:30
9 NY 1:30	10 CLE 7:35	11 CLE 7:35	12 CLE 7:35	13 CLE 7:35	14 MIL 8:05	15 MIL 8:05
16 MIL 2:35	17	18 CAL 7:35	19 CAL 7:35	20 CAL 7:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA 30 CAL	24 OAK 31 SEA	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:05	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 NY 1:05

TV GAMES ON
WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

Away ■ Home

Hemlines are Falling

A Look at Fall Fashions 1992

What will women be wearing this fall? Will it be short, long or pants? Designers say that hemlines are not an issue and not to agonize over skirt lengths. Why is it that the first question women ask each fashion season is "what's the skirt length?" After reading this report, you'll have a clear picture of the highlights and what was featured on the New York runways for fall '92.

BY MARY LAWLOR

For the first time since mini skirts appeared on the runways about three years ago, there's a new look: a long, narrow silhouette that won't go away. This doesn't mean you have to throw out everything that's in your closet as there are plenty of short skirts on the racks, too.

It means OPTIONS. That's the big word being bandied about (and its liberating connotations should put smiles on the faces of millions of ill-fitted skirt-wearers). The choices are short, long, and pants.

It'll be fun to buy a new long skirt. They're a far cry from the dowdy midi skirt of the 70's. The 1992 versions are sexy and show lots of leg due to long, seductive slits, zippers and buttons.

These skirts, which fall anywhere from mid-thigh to below-the ankle, work best when teamed with matching hose. Example: a black skirt with black hose, gray skirt with gray hose, etc. They also look right when worn with a shoe or boot that has a slight platform sole. Done properly, the total look gives the illusion of height.

Though most of us are enjoying the beaches and fashions of summer, it's not too soon to think "fall." The department and specialty shops are stocked with early merchandise - especially previews of the new longer skirts. Wherever you shop, you'll find them. Try on a few different styles and be sure to look at yourself in a full-length mirror to be certain the skirt is right for you.

OK. Let's look at the short skirts. Many women who resisted them at first and found them unattractive, now love them. They feel they're young looking. Our guess is that in just a few seasons, "short" will look tired and "long" will look sexy.

For those who want to "skirt" the issue altogether, then consider the option of pants. There were more trousers than ever in the New York designer shows that we covered back in April. Pants and pantsuits showed up in almost every collection.

Lizwear Holiday 1992

The width of the pant legs run the gamut from fitted (leggings are being called the pants of the 90's) to wide pajama styles. Chances are, whatever you own will work. However, the latest ones have a men's wear look and are designed in pinstripes, flannels and the like. They're often worn with vests and ties.

Expect to pay more for the pants than the skirt - even if the quality is the same. Traditionally, that's the way it works.

Speaking of prices, most designers have a second, lower-priced line. Happily, in the world of fashion, there are always knock-offs. Study the good stuff. It'll help you to recognize the best look-alikes. If you buy these copies in solid, dark colors, they'll look more expensive. Simplicity is the key word.

Now that you know the fall fashion options, you may want to take a look at the trends. Here they are:

ANIMAL PRINTS - They first showed up in Europe. Now they've hit Seventh Avenue. From scarves to skirts, there's faux zebra and leopard patterns.

LEATHER - Suits, coats and jackets done in lambskin are favorites. There are even gold lame jeans.

COLORS - Black is featured from head to toe. Red is another top color as well as the usual fall earth tones.

EVENING - There's lace, velvet, satin, taffeta and more, created in short, long and skinny (and ball gowns).

SUITS - The suit jackets are fitted and curvy with slightly smaller shoulders.

SHOES - Platform shoes are making a major comeback with both thin and thick soles. Ditto for boots.

HOSE - Black is at the top of the list but watch for color, too. For example, red hose with a red pantsuit or hose teamed to the color of your skirt.

JEWELRY - Chains continue at the waist, a la Chanel. Small clusters of jeweled insect pins such as beetles and lady bugs are being shown on lapels. There's a return to tiger pieces with jet beads - and earrings are bigger than ever. ❑

Donna Karan New York

I settle for nothing less than the very best.
Designer names, that I've come to know, are what I want. Quality, in an unpretentious environment
where I can shop at my own pace
and be myself.
The Lingerie Factory,
because value is important
to me and I like knowing that I get 40%-60%
off all merchandise,
all the time

LINGERIE FACTORY

Coolidge Corner, Brookline 232-9097 • 167 Milk St., Boston 330-1990 • 164 Newbury St, Boston 421-9335
St. James Ave. and Berkley, Boston 338-9728 • 1 Porter Square Arcade Cambridge 576-2024 • 55 Langley
Rd. Newton 964-0638 • 109 Summer St. (100 yds from Downtown Crossing) Boston 695-0844

BRING IN THIS AD FOR YOUR FREE GIFT!

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside.

•ALLEY CAT 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover.

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites.

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night.

Sat 15th.--They Might Be Giants

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights.

Thur 6th.--5-0

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

Wed 5th.--In the Pink, Tin Pan Alley, Scream Her Thur 6th.--Soma Crush, Absolute, Sarah Laughs Wed 12th.--Wicked Witch, The Beautiful, Expozed

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm.

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed.

Sun 9th.--Every Sun., Reggae Night Mon 10th.--Every Monday Movie Madness. SRS Films Producer Eric Yellin will show independent films and music videos before a feature film. Free admission and popcorn. Tue 11th.--Chloe, Zinc, Dr. Rain Tue 18th.--Satanics, Morphine, Allan Najarian

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover. Live piano music Monday through Friday from 5-7.

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 5th.--Eugene Byrne Thur 6th.--Every Thurs., Harvest Home Fri 7th.--Fri. and Sat., Celtic Clan Sun 9th.--Every Sun., John Corcoran Mon 10th.--Every Mon., Kevin Farley Tue 11th.--Celtic Clan Wed 12th.--Wed.-Sat., Celtic Clan Fri 14th.--Fri. and Sat. upstairs, Lads and Lassies Tue 18th.--Eugene Byrne

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price.

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

Wed 5th.--DJ Tony Tone Thur 6th.--WFNX Night Fri 7th.--The Modern Pladz Sat 8th.--Sat. and Sun., DJ Al Perez Mon 10th.--Every Mon.,Silas Jr. & the Hot Rib Blues Jam Tue 11th.--Calypso Hurricane Wed 12th.--The Melons Thur 13th.--WFNX Night Fri 14th.--Cape Cod Travelin' All-Stars Tue 18th.--Calypso Hurricane

•BOSTON BILLIARD CLUB 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code.

Wed 5th.--Crossed Wire, Shrubs, Dirt Merchants Thur 6th.--Hell Cats from Outer Space, Phudpucker Fri 7th.--J. Groove Sat 8th.--Del Fuegos, Jigsaws, Derangers, Blackwells Sun 9th.--Madcap Laughs, Bang Sang Satellite, Four Last Things Mon 10th.--Every Mon., Pajama-Jammy Blues Jam Tue 11th.--Seducer, Sarrela, Cannibal Kings Wed 12th.--27 Various Artists, Lobby Magnets, Drysdales Fri 14th.--Letters to Cleo, Scatterfield, Greenhouse, Spinning Jenny Sat 15th.--Adams Said, Merry Beat Sun 16th.--Midnight Call, Committee of Public Safety Tue 18th.--The Bones, Hangnail, Devils Avocado

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress.

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Porter, Tall Tale Pale Ale and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. .

Sat 8th.--Hyena Club Sat 15th.--The Candles

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb. Central Square's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped.

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games.

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

•CHAMPION'S 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.

Thur 6th.--Diane Zeigler & Rachel Bissex Fri 7th.--Kip London & Stewart Furgason Sat 8th.--Doshie Powers w/ McDonnel & Tane Sun 9th.--Tim Hughes & Tim Reis Thur 13th.--Rachel Pearle w/ Andy & Maureen Fri 14th.--Marsia Shuron Harris Sat 15th.--Paul Rogeshewski & Lix Brahm Sun 16th.--Laurie Geltman & Angelo Petraglia

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae.

Don't Get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable living room chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over 200 years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country: 212 years of character & tradition.

212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:30-12:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00

Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30,
Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

Cambridge Brewing Company

A Brew Pub With "Yards" of Libatious Pleasure

BY JONATHAN SARNER

As you enter the Cambridge Brewing Company, you see a dizzying, mammoth-sized mural depicting the diverse bunch of folks who both work and play there. Look around and you'll find yourself among the colorful characters portrayed in the mural - only these characters are real. College students as well as professionals are drawn to the CBC and attest to its appeal. It's an agreeable place to sip a casual late-night beer or an early evening, after-work glass of wine.

This combination bar and restaurant has many selling points: an informal and generally relaxed atmosphere, an excellent assortment of appetizers, salads, sandwiches and entrees, and musical entertainment on Tuesday and Saturday nights. But, as one might guess, the brew is the biggest attraction.

Aynsley Floyd

The Cambridge Brewing Company brews its ale right on the premises. During the day you can watch the brewing process and the brewery, complete with heat exchangers and fermentation tanks. When the brewing has run its course, customers can choose from four basic ales, like Regatta Golden, which has a light, crisp flavor. Or, on the flip side, try Charles River Porter, which is dark with a brisk, malt flavor ("A bronze medal winner at the 1990 Great American Beer Festival," according to the menu). In addition, seasonal ales are featured from time to time. For summer, the CBC offers a sweet tasting Wheaten ale, a product not surprisingly made from wheat.

You can try these ales on a small or large scale. If you just want to sample a bit, there is the "Cambridge Brewery Sampler," a five-ounce glass of each of the basic four. Other sizes include 9 and 16 ounce glasses, priced at $1.75 and $2.75 respectively, and 60 ounce pitchers for $8.75.

For those souls who choose to brave a real bounty of brew, there is the "Yard of Ale," literally a yard-long tubular flask filled to the brim. If not rendered speechless at first sight, you might want to inquire about maneuverability (though such matters are unimportant to the serious ale enthusiast). Given the variety of the CBC's customers, you'd get a wide array of answers: from the down-to-earth, "very carefully," to the managerially inclined, "could only be handled by a support staff of five minimum," to the technocompetent, "could be made accessible to the mouth via a robotically designed hoist triggered by cerebroelectro impulses." Drinkers of the yard are most serious.

Sure, microbreweries are fast becoming a staple in the American beer industry and yes, the brewpub is becoming an even more familiar sight today. But with amateur brewers populating the regional beer map, we must remain careful in choosing the right environment in which we fulfill our thirst for hops, yeast and barley. In this case, the Cambridge Brewing Company is the only way to indulge in the real thing. ❑

Cambridge Brewing Company

$$
One Kendall Square , Cambridge
494-1994.
Hours: Open daily for dinner
Credit Cards: AMEX, MC, V
Handicapped Accessible: Yes
Hours: Sat, Sun 12pm - 1am
11:30am - 1am Mon - Fri
Easily Reached on the Red Line

Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

Wed 5th.--Shawn & Jamie Thur 6th.--Out of the Blue Fri 7th.--Fri. and Sat., Swinging Johnsons Sun 9th.--Chad LaMarsh, Kris Wales Mon 10th.--Dave Tecce Tue 11th.--Used Blues Wed 12th.--Tim Crandall Thur 13th.--Yvonne Taylor and the Prescription Horns Fri 14th.--Fri. and Sat., Inquiring Minds Sun 16th.--Chad LaMarsh, Kris Wales Mon 17th.--Steve Caraway

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!.

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cactl. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months.

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. .

Wed 5th.--Every Wed., Calypso Hurricane Thur 6th.--Every Thur., Hamish and Dave Mon 10th.--Every Mon., Hamish and Dave Tue 11th.--Every Tues., North Shore Acapella

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear.

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress.

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs.

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .

Thur 6th.--God Street Wine Fri 7th.--Jerry Portnoy and the Streamliners Sat 8th.--Mighty Sam McLain Mon 10th.-- Fri 14th.--Luther Guitar Johnson Sat 15th.--Debbie Davies

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required. .

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches.

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line.

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment.

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 5th.--Every Wed., Karaoke Thur 6th.--Mark Morris and Catunes Fri 7th.--Doe Brothers Sat 8th.--Boston Irish Sun 9th.--Every Sun., DJ Chris Mon 10th.--Every Mon, Irish Session Tue 11th.--Tim Crandall Thur 13th.--Pour Boys Fri 14th.--DJ Sat 15th.--Alan and the Wild Rovers Tue 18th.--Tim Crandall

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code.

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy).

Thur 6th.--The Shirley Lewis Experience Fri 7th.--Madhouse Sat 8th.--The NorEasters Sun 9th.--Every Sun., The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party Thur 13th.--The Roads Fri 14th.--Show Some Mercy Sat 15th.--Chicken cacciatore

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos. Sure it's trendy and sure it's touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway.

BARS & CLUBS

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 5th.--Terence Simien and the Mallet Boys Thur 6th.--Son Seals w/ Fri 7th.--Young Neal and the Vipers Sat 8th.--Fat City Sun 9th.--Every Sun., Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 10th.--Honest Ed's Blues Band Tue 11th.--Every Tues., Rockin Blues Jam with Chance Gardner Wed 12th.--Open Mike Blues Jam Thur 13th.--Bruce Marshall Group Fri 14th.--Motor City Rhythm Kings Sat 15th.--Little Ed and the Blues Imperials Mon 17th.--Close Quarters

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu.

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal.

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing..

Sun 9th.--Every Sun., Blues Jam

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a bolsterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code..

Wed 5th.--Harvest Home Thur 6th.--Every Thurs., DJ Edgar Fri 7th.--Fri. and Sat., Gorman and O'Cane Sun 9th.--DJ Kenny Mon 10th.--Donegal Corduroy Tue 11th.--Every Tues., Luck of the Draw Darts Night Wed 12th.--5-0 Fri 14th.--Fri. and Sat., Swinging Johnsons Sun 16th.--DJ Kenny

•LAST HURRAH 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors the former Boston Mayor, James Michael Curley. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code.

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover..

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged..

Wed 5th.--Every Wed., Industrial Rage Sat 8th.--Every Sat., Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor..

Mon 10th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 11th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance club located near downtown crossing and the Boston Opera House. The crowd consists of mostly young professionals. Proper dress required, open for lunch and dinner.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-5434, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere..

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. . .

•MR. DOOLEY'S 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from 11 to 5 followed by a seisiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartenders!! You never know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint)..

Mon 10th.--Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Wed 5th.--Stant 6 & The Jumpstarts, The Shrubs, Rampage & The Naughty Bits Wed 12th.--Judgemental, Huck 2, and Splash Thur 13th.--Gamalon

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show. .

Wed 5th.--Benefit for New England Performer Thur 6th.--Think Tree w/ Rise Robot Rise Fri 7th.--Cavedogs Mon 10th.--Shanice Wilson Tue 11th.--Seven League Boots Wed 12th.--Del Fuegos Thur 13th.--Live w/ Wire Train and Spent Poets Fri 14th.--Acoustic Junction Sat 15th.--Sophie B. Hawkins

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch Inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a focal collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

Fri 7th.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. .

Fri 7th.--Fri. and Sat., Shoot the Moon Tue 11th.--Every Tues., the Starmakers Fri 14th.--Fri. and Sat., Doe Brothers

•RATHSKELLER 536-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code.

Wed 5th.--Chop Chop Thur 6th.--Chaotic Past Fri 7th.--Brave New World Sat 8th.--The Liars Sun 9th.--Left Nut

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGGATA BAR 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.

•RITZ BAR 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required..

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required..

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. .

•SCULLERS LOUNGE 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..

Wed 5th.--Didi Stewart and Friends Thur 6th.--Danilo Perez Afro-Latin Jazz explosion Fri 7th.--Fri. and Sat., EFX live Tue 11th.--Sonny Stanton & Hakim Shariff Trio Wed 12th.--Boston Jazz Orchestra Thur 13th.--Lisa Thorson and Friends Fri 14th.--Fri. and Sat.,Jack McDuff Tue 18th.--The Sean Lyons Group

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Serving Fine Food and Drink

Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials

Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood

Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees

Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95

Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

b

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover Casual dress. .

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal sout mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•33 DUNSTER STREET 354-0636, 33 Dunster St., Camb. A restaurant/bar catering primarily to grad students and locals. A good place to procrastinate and chitchat with friends or to catch a bite on your way out to tackle the day's tasks. Open for late night dining. No cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. Drop in Sun. for the Jazz brunch.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code..

Wed 5th.--Handheld Revolution, Organ Donor, Sam Hill, Diesel Thur 6th.--Done Lying Down, High Stepping Seafood, L, Madbox Fri 7th.--O Positive, Failing August Sat 8th.--Blood Oranges, Little Buffalo Mon 10th.--Stone Soup Poetry- Jennifer Johnson, Steve Gallo Tue 11th.--PJ Harvey, the Groove, Killbilly, Thanks to Gravity Thur 13th.--the Keep, the Still, Alien Dance Party Fri 14th.--the Rafters, Free World Note, Pickle Juice, We Saw the Wolf Sat 15th.--360's, Tsunami Poets, Cleopatra Jones Mon 17th.--Carol Weston, Mary McDonald

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 5th.--Undercover Thur 6th.--the Barnies, Lotus Eaters Fri 7th.--Universal Language w/ Ray Greene Sat 8th.--Swinging Steaks, Miss Xanna Don't, the Wanted Sun 9th.--Bones of Contention, Hot Tamale Brass Band Mon 10th.--Jazz Trio and Open Jazz Jam Tue 11th.--acoustic Night w/Al Halliday and Lisa Gallant Wed 12th.--Nevermore, Tats Thur 13th.--Mark Nelson and Machinery Hall Fri 14th.--Calypso Hurricane Sat 15th.--M.I.I.c. Sun 16th.--Benefit for Children w/AIDS Mon 17th.--Jazz Trio and Open Jazz Jam

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover Casual dress.

Wed 5th.--Every Wed., Blues Night Sat 8th.--Doe Brothers Fri 14th.--Fri. and Sat., Pat Catrell

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays..

•TIA'S 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm..

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted.

Tue 11th.--Local bands every Tues.

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat..

•WARREN TAVERN 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St., Boston. A funky little bar whose clientele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is alwayson for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive. .

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress..

Wed 5th.--IFA: Spirit of Divination Thur 6th.--Weepin' Willie and the All-Star Blues band Fri 7th.--Errol Strength and the Conscious Band Sat 8th.--I-Tones Sun 9th.--Motion Tue 11th.--Tom Zicarelll Quartet Wed 12th.--Night of Country Blues w/ Geoff Bartley Thur 13th.--Weepin' Willie Fri 14th.--Fri. and Sat., Loose Caboose Sun 16th.--Motion Tue 18th.--City Trees

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code..

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos. This large two-story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests. Cover varies. Jacket and tie required.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

P	A	S	S	E		N	A	C	H	O		R	A	V	A	G	E	R	S
A	L	L	A	N	S		E	T	H	A	N		E	L	E	M	E	N	T	S
U	G	A	N	D	A		C	R	A	I	G		M	A	N	A	T	E	E	S
L	A	N	D	O	N	S	K	I	O	R	O	W		R	U	T	A
S	E	T	H			A	S	A			I	T	E	M	S		P	A	A	R
			I	C	B	M			M	E	N	S	A			V	I	R	G	O
F	A	L	L	C	D	L	O	R	I	N	G		R	E	S	E	N	T	E	D
R	E	A	L	L	Y		C	U	R	D				S	P	I	K	E	R	S
A	R	G			R	A	T	E		R	A	S	C	A	L	S
M	A	U	L		A	I	R		L	C	T	H	A	R		L	A	S	S
E	T	N	A		S	P	I	N	O	O	C	T	O	R	S		I	G	E	T
S	E	A	N		P	O	N	I	E	S			O	P	E		P	L	E	A
			T	H	E	S	A	L	T		R	A	T	S				E	S	T
R	E	D	E	A	L	T				T	I	N	A		U	P	D	A	T	E
F	E	R	R	U	L	E	S		T	W	I	S	T	O	F	L	E	M	O	N
D	E	A	N	S			T	O	R	O	S			P	O	O	F
S	E	W	S		O	N	E	T	O			A	T	E		A	T	A	T
		L	A	G	O		T	W	O	R	E	E	L	C	O	M	E	D	Y
M	A	R	I	N	E	R	S		E	R	A	S	E		T	R	E	M	O	R
A	C	I	D	T	E	S	T		L	E	T	O	N		S	C	R	A	P	E
R	E	C	E	S	S	E	D		S	O	A	P	S			A	S	S	T	S

All this under one roof at...

GOOD TIME BILLIARDS

Indoor baseball & softball batting cages

Indoor driving range & miniature golf

Over 35 Gold Crown pool tables & Verhoeven billiard tables

Bar & restaurant & Color T.V.'s everywhere

Only 5 Minutes From Boston
A/C • Free Parking!

Off Rt. 93 at Assembly Sq. & Loews Theatre
30 Sturtevant St., Somerville 628-5559

THE MASTER OF MANAGEMENT DEGREE

THAT WILL ALTER YOUR VISION

If you want a more progressive vision of management, we offer a Master of Management degree that will change the way you view people, problems and opportunities in the workplace. The learning environment is designed for working adults, is responsive to their needs, and builds on their experiences.

Cambridge College
Cambridge & Springfield

1-800-877-GRAD

4th Anniversary SALE

WINGS COMM. INC.
永聲傳呼
620 Washington St., Boston, 451-9221

NEC P-400 $450

Motorola Micro TAC-Lite $750* Free car cord

Motorola Ultra Classic M $250

- Largest Selection of Cellular Accessories
- Knowledgeable Staff
- Open on Saturdays Too!

An Authorized Service Provider of: CELLULARONE

Cellular phone prices apply to new customer activations and require 199 days minimum services agreement through Wings.

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS

Bud Light Summer Music Series
Charles Sq. Courtyard, Cambridge, 491-5282
Come down to Charles Square for free music every Wednesday from 6 to 7pm. See Chris Smither on Aug. 5 and the Jazz Harp Trio on Aug. 19.

Cambridge Brewing Co.
1 Kendall Sq., Building 100, Cambridge
Have a beer and catch some tunes at the free Saturday Night Music Series. On Aug. 8 come listen to the Hyena Club. The Candles play Aug. 15.

City Hall Plaza Concert Series
City Hall Plaza, Boston
The music continues on City Hall Plaza every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 10pm. The Count Basie Orchestra will play on Aug. 5, and the Glen Miller Orchestra will be there on Aug. 12.

Copley Music Series
Copley Square, Boston
Swing by Copley Square after work to catch some tunes. WBOS sponsors the free music series every Thursday night from 5:30 to 7:30pm.

South Station
Grand Concourse
Weekly Wednesday lunch time jazz concerts are held 12:15 to 1:15pm. Do lunch with The Ron Levit Group on Aug. 5, and the Rob Smith Quartet on Aug. 12.

EXHIBITS

Boston University
Mugar Memorial Library, 771 Comm. Ave., 353-3728
"It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" is now on display. Admission is free. The library's hours are Monday-Thursday 8am to 11pm, Friday and Saturday 8am to 5pm, and Sunday 10am to 11pm.

Enigma Nine
32 Rugg Rd. #9, Allston, 783-9170
Who says art isn't functional? Enigma Nine, an alternative art gallery, is a mini golf course with a theme focused on the realities of the world. Hours are Saturday 1 to 8pm and Sunday 1 to 5pm. Only a $2 donation is requested.

Small Ships
South Station, above the Grand Concourse
Didn't get enough of Sail Boston? Come see the regatta of small ships created by local youth and art groups and South Station visitors who worked with Sidewalk Sam to create artwork inspired by Sail Boston. The exhibit is free and open to the public through Aug. 31.

FILMS

Bill's Bar
Lansdowne St., Boston
Every Monday night Bill's hosts Monday Night Movie Madness. SRS Films shows independent films and music videos before the evening's featured film. Films start at 9pm. Admission is free, along with the popcorn.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston, 536-5400
The BPL's Summer Film Festival continues in the Rabb Lecture Hall at 6pm. See Meet John Doe on Aug. 10, Prelude to War and The Negro Soldier on Aug. 17. The Marilyn Monroe Film Series continues with Bus Stop on Aug. 11 and Some Like it Hot on Aug. 18.

Performing Arts Series at the Hatch Shell
On the Esplanade, Boston
Summer is here and WBZ and the MDC are again hosting Free Friday Flicks at the Hatch Shell. "Close Encounters" is playing Aug. 7 and on Aug. 14 is "The Addam's Family." Movies begin at 8pm and admission is free. As with all events at the Hatch Shell, please take the T since parking is limited on Storrow Drive.

SEMINARS

Women's Lunch Place
67 Newbury St., Boston, 267-1722
Use some of your Free Boston time to volunteer at the Lunch Place on Saturdays for the summer. Volunteers are needed between 7:30am and 3pm with many available shifts.

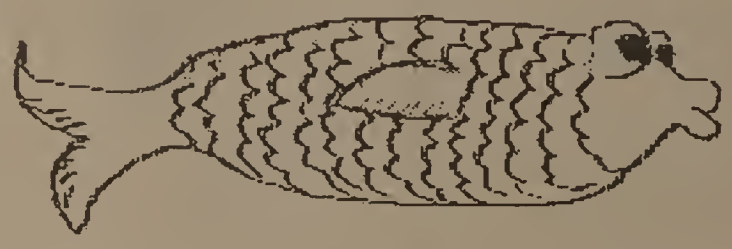
TOURS

Boston Garden
North Station, Boston, 227-3206
The Boston Garden History Center is offering guided tours about 45 minutes long that include a tour of the parquet, banners, and team locker room. Prices are $5 for adults, $3.50 for children and $4 for senior citizens and students.

Commonwealth Brewing Co.
138 Portland St., Boston
The Brewing Co. holds free tours on Saturdays at 3:30pm and Sundays at noon.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
On Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm, the brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a $1 contribution is requested.

SPECIAL EVENTS



Port Visit of the Three Caravels
Boston Harbor, 635-3911
Exact replicas of the Nina, the Pinta, and the Santa Maria will set down their anchors in the Harbor until Aug. 18. The ships will be accompanied by an exhibit illustrating the historical context of the voyages of Columbus.

Feast of the Madonna della Cava
North End
Come celebrate the feast's 72nd year at a free festival in the North End from Aug. 7 to 9. Bands will be playing at the Hanover St. bandstand all weekend, and there will also be several parades during the afternoons.

Fisherman's Feast
North End
If you didn't get enough of the North End last weekend, come back for the 81st Fisherman's Feast from Aug. 13 to 16. Comedy acts, karaoke, and live music areamong the types of entertainment you'll find at this free festival. Food booths will also be set up.

We welcome submissions of free and discount events to this section. Send pertinent inforto: Free Boston, The Improper Bostonian, c/o Tobin Streett, P.O. Box 820 Brookline Village, MA 02147- 0820

The Sandwich Board Deli
Recommended by USA Today
The Biggest Hot & Cold Sandwich Combinations in Newport
397 Thames Street
Catering & Party Platters
Meat, Cheese & Salads By The Pound
We Deliver • 849-5358
Featuring Fire Island Welcome Wagon!

Edwards Fishing Tackle
Live and Frozen Bait

Both Salt and Fresh Water Rods, Reels and Terminal Tackle
401-846-4521

36 Aquidneck Avenue
Middletown, RI
Located near Newport's 1st Beach

Saturday & Evening art
Courses Beginning September 8
Anatomy
Animation
Art Foundations
Cartooning
Carving
Children's Books
Clay/Ceramics
Color
Computer Art
Design
Drawing
Graphic Design
Illustration
Lithography
Metals:
Silversmithing & Jewelry-Making
Mixed Media
Music Video
Painting
Papermaking
Photography
Portraiture
Printmaking
Sculpture
Silkscreen/Aquascreen
Stained Glass
Watercolor
Woodworking
For more information please call or write:
the boston museum school
Continuing Education
230 The Fenway
Boston, MA 02115
(617) 267-1219
The School of the Museum of Fine Arts admits students of any race, color and national or ethnic origin.

CLASSIFIEDS

IT'S JUST $19!
WHY PAY MORE?

The New IMPROPER BOSTONIAN Classifieds Is Still The Best Way To Reach Over 190,000 of the Best Readers in Town. And When You Place a Non-Commercial Ad We'll Run It Until It Works for Just $19. If You Have a New or Small Mail Order Business, Or If Your Business Just Enjoys The Classifieds, We'll Run A Display Advertisement Free When Your Run Your Commercial Classified Ad in Six Issues.

The Improper Bostonian

CALL 232-3705 or FAX: 232-4305
MASTER CARD, VISA AND AMERICAN EXPRESS ACCEPTED
MORE INFORMATION BELOW.

REAL ESTATE

Apartments

BOSTON/BRIGHAM CIRCLE NU MEDICAL AREA LARGE 3&4 BEDROOM $900 AND UP, SECURE BLDG. ON T. CLOSE TO STORES AND BANKS, SOME WITH PARKING. NO FEE. CALL 731-0165

BEACON HILL 1BR. Concierge Bldg.Roofdeck $850 Incl. Util.Avl. 8/14-9/12742-7798

THIS IS IT BROOKLINE Oct 1 4 Bedroom Beautiful 2 Fam. House Large Eat-In Kitchen,Deck. Longwood Med. Area. $1650 Includes Heat & Hot Water 3 ParkingSpaces. Owner: 734-9863

BOSTON Bay Village, small 1 bedroom, Hardwood Floors, Clean, Newly Renovated Ouiet Building, $595 Includes Heat & Hot Water 332-0427

Boston / Fenway Peterborough Gardens
Stu, 1,2 and 3 bed avail. close to public transportation, shopping, colleges and hospitals. No Fee.
From $475
HHW Inc.
247-3503

BOSTON Arlington St.-Bay Village. Small Studio In Ouiet, Safe Building. Newly Renovated, Hardwood Floors $525 Includes Heat & Hot Water 332-0427

JAMAICA PLAIN Great JP Duplex Needs 2 Sept. Bedroom with 1/2 Bath $390 or Bedroom $335.Also Study. No Smokes or Cats 983-0131

JAMAICA PLAIN Best JP Location Sept. 4 Rooms $725+ 2 Bedroom Very Nice Place 983-0131

SAVIN HILL Over Bridge Oceanside. 4 Rooms, Glassed-in Porch, Off Streef Parking, 2 Min. From Red Line, 5 Min. Walk To Beach Large Eat-It Kitchen, Hardwood tloors $550+ Util. Very Quief Neighborhood 825-1832 "Best Landlord In City"-Tank McNamara, The Improper Bostonian

SOMERVILLE. 6 rms each side Prime Davis Sq loc., $900 tile bath. $1100,11/2 tile bth. No util. Call 237-1992

WATERTOWN. House. 6 rooms up, 6 rooms down. Possible convert attic for in-law apt..Tile bath each floor. $209,000. Call 237-1992

Apt. Shares

MOVING?
KEN'S MOVING EXPERIENCE
SAVE ON YOUR NEXT MOVE.
.DON'T RENT A TRUCK
I CAN DO IT FOR LESS !
(617)923-2150

ALLSTON House Near Bus, T, Harvard Square and BU etc. Smoke/Pets OK $275+ 1/3 of Cheap Utilities 787-8811

ALLSTON, Roomate wanted: small room, clean brighf apt.. Close to Harvard & BU/call Jen or Lee/783-0847/$300/MO i.e.

BEACON HILL 1 Female 27+, Prof. or grad. student to share 3 bedroom/2 bath Condo with Prof. Female & 2 cats. No More Pets Please/NoSmoking. Fireplace, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting, washer/dryer Roofdeck $450. 742-7512

BEVERLY Prof. Non-Smoker Female Wanted to Share a Beautifully Furnished 3 Bedroom 3 Bath House In Fantastic Neighborhood Excellent Value at $450 594-1444

BELMONT Near Alewife. Smokeless Plants Placid $280+ 489-1250

BOSTON Share Waterfront Home. Walk fo UMASS Red Line Nonsmoker. Avl.Now. $500 Includes Util. 282-4921 Lv. Message

BOSTON/JAMAICA PLAIN. Large Spectacular Apt. to Share With profesional. Victorian. on Pond. Eat In Kitchen Washer & Dryer Parking Near Mass Transit Non - Smoker $575 Avl. Now. 524 -- 0621 or 524- 0221

BRIGHTON Spac. Rm. large house. All hdwd. flrs. parking util. w/d includ. Artists/teachers pref. Semi-Coop. Call Nathan Lv. msg. 787-8797

BRIGHTON Prof. Working Mom With 1 Son 11 Years old Seeks Roomate fo Share Alll New 4 Bedroom Apt. Musf be Neat and Tidy. $425+Util. Call 787-3480

BROOKLINE Coolidge Corner. M or F for 2 Bedroom 1 1/2Bath Large Apt. $600 mo. Heated Gas & Electric Extra.Avallable Aug. 1 Deposit Required Bonnie 734-7625

BROOKLINE Seeking Responsible Outgoing Female to Share Apt. No Smoking No Pets No Drugs Roofdeck , Laundry in Building 734-5367 $425 Inc. HT.. & HW

CAMBRIDGE, Near Gallerla Prof. male seeking roomate 2 bedroom apf. It. housekeeping 864-0007

Moving?
10 years experience. Ask about our "2" fer special when we leave our customers are smiling. Call Moose Randolf Moving 354-3883 today to find out why.

CAMBRIDGE Responsible Roomate to Share Beautiful 2 Bedroom. 7 Minute Walk from Harvard Square. Lawn, Fireplace, Off Sfreet Parking, Washer/Dryer, Off Brattle. $450 Month Plus Utilities. No Smoking Share Days: 693-5118

CAMBRIDGE Central Square Female seeks Female to Share Apt. Conv. Location Drug/Smoke Free $325 Incl. Avl. Now 354-3792

CAMBRIDGE 5 Min. from Harvard Sq. 1 Male Seeks 1M/1F to share 2 bedroom. Hardwood Floors. Rent $360/mo 864-2468 or Lv. Message

CAMBRIDGE North Cambr. Free Rent in exchange for Lt. Housekeeping and part fime Babysiting tor 6yr. old Girl. 3 Br. Apt. 491-5809

JAMAICA PLAIN Ouiet 2 Bedroom Apt. with side yard 2nd Floor. Close to T. Avl. 8/15 or 9/1 $850+ No Dogs 524-092

JAMAICA PLAIN Prot. to share spacious 3 Bedroom with 2 Housemates, 1 Cat 1 Dog Near T, Offstreet Parking, Washer/ Dryer, Deck,Yard $300 including Heat. Call Hollis 427-7175 ect. 232

JAMAICA PLAIN Great JP Duplex Needs 2 Sept. Bedroom with 1/2 Bath $390 or Bedroom $335. Also Study. No Smokes or Cats 983-0131

JAMAICA PLAIN Prof. 43, Non-Smoker, Pianist Activists seeks m/f roomate for large 2 Bedroom In Sumner Mill. Near T $325+ 1/2 Utils Avl. 7/1 522-4420 evenings or 267-2949 days.

JAMAICA PLAIN 3 Females Looking For 4th 27+ to Share Lrg. Sunny Apt. $291/mo+ No Smk/Pets Nr. Pond 524-2008

LOWELL BiWM 29 Seeks Gay/Bl Male/Female for 2 BR Condo Private Bedroom with Full Bath Near 495. Smoker OK $300+ 1/2 Elec. Serious Only (508)459-6728

MALDEN Male or Female for 2 Bedroom house Wall to Wall Carpeting. Washer/Dryer Off Streef Parking. Non-Smoker. No Drugs. $375+ Util. Available Immed. 324-3509

MEDFORD 1 Disc. GWM Seeks 1 GWM/F to share 7 rm. hse. chrs near shopping,T Tufts W/D CBL. deck Must be disc. no pet, drugs, alch. $495 mo.no util. 396-0187 lv. msg.

NEWTON 40 Yr. Old Health Care Professlonal Seeks fo Share Oulet Home In Oulet Neighborhood Condusive fo Studying. Must be Convenient to Cambridge and In the $400 Range Each. On or Before A Sept. 1 Call 547-6058

NEWTON, Beautiful large Victorian Home on quiet street near new library. 2 rooms available In 4 bedroom house. Several amenities. All util. included. Call Elspeth 244-1322

NEWTON CENTRE Near T. Nice Room.$335/month Plus. John or Linda, 965-0930 or 332-4800

NEWTON CENTRE Room Available in Friendly Independant Victorlan Near Lake and T W/D $375+ No Smoking 25+ 965-6697

NEWTONVILLE- Female 25+ Wanted for 2 Bedroom Yard, Parking Storage Close to Shopping $415+ Util .244-4573

NORTH READING GWM Housemate Wanted Non-Smoker. No Drugs. Under 40 Years Old Luxurlous Living. Serious Only. $100 Weekly Rent Includes All Utilitles Steven (508)664-4443

QUINCY 4 Bedroom, 2 Full Baths Large Roomy House, Yard, Garden $375+ Utilities Call Stan 786-8878

REVERE Female wanted to share 2 Bedroom 2 Bath Ocean Front Condo.Includes Gym, Pool, Jacuzzi, Concierge $500+ 289-4922

SOMERVILLE 1 Male or Female for 4 Bedroom in Inman Square. No Pets N/S $240+ Util. 623-0504 or 253-9850

SOMERVILLE 1 M/F 25+ For Lge. 3 Bedroom Apt. Nr. Union Sq. No Clgs. Nice Yard. Avl. 8/1 $350/mo+ 628-0754

WATERTOWN 2 Female/1 Male Seeks M/F to Join Freindly Spacious Indep. Victorian Hse. 5BR/2BATH Fpl. W/D Pkg. Ouiet Res. Street Nr. Pike. Woods, Tennis , Track,T. No Pets/Smoker. $400month + Util. Call 924-5693 Evenings

Apts. Wanted

$1000 Reward for 2 Bedroom Rent Controled Apt. In Mid-Camb.or Back Bay 2nd Fl. or Higher $500-$675 864-0239

Commercial Space

CHARLESTOWN Non-Live In Studio Space Available. 1250 Squ. Ft. $500/mo. 242-0080

Garage for Rent

JAMAICA PLAIN 2 Car Concrete Garage for Rent. Safe, Clean, Water and Fire proof. Asking $200 Call (508)995-1435 Anytime

House for Rent

WEST ROXBURY 4 Bedroom House.9 Rooms 2 Baths eik, W/D, Yd. Parking Near Parks, Y and T. Nice Neighborhood.Purple Commuter Rail. $1400. No Fee. Avail. Now. 327-5625.

WATERTOWN SQUARE 3-5 bdrm. house. Beautiful, $900-$1500 Last & Sec. Req. (617)924-5174

House Wanted

RENT W/OPTION TO BUY A Single, 2-family or Large 2-Bedroom Condo. Must be reasonably priced. Would consider Handyman Special. Pref. loc. Brookline/Newton or Possibly Metro West. Well Established Couple. Call John 247-2175

Parking Space

BOSTON Parking Space tor Rent Immediately at 170 Tremont St.Covered, Valet. Call 269-7200 x103

STARTING A BAND? THE IMPROPER BOSTON CAN HELP. CALL: 232-3705

HARVEY HAS COOL SHADES!

Vacation Rental

HARWICH CAPE COD GREAT HOUSE. GREAT LOCATION. LAST 2 WEEKS OF AUGUST. ENJOY THE CAPE IN STYLE CALL ELSPETH AT 244-1322

Room for Rent

BROOKLINE 4 Prot. Clean, Ouiet, seek Female 30+. Veggie, Non-Smoker, For Large House, 2 Min to T. Large Yard. Rent- $365 Includes all util. $395. w/pkg. 731-6959 Leave Message

TOP LEVEL SALES EXECUTIVE WANTED

To Manage Real Estate Dept. of New England's Fastest Growing Media Company.This Position Will Offer The Best Compensation Package in the Area.
Send Resume in Confidence to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St. Brookline, MA 02146
The Improper Bostonian

OZODU ASSOCIATES
PERSONALIZED COMPUTER SERVICES
868-2927 (1-800-982-3725)
Computer Software Training in a Beautiful, New Central Square Location
*PC Intro * Word Perfect * D-Base III, IV * Lotus 1-2-3 Destop Publishing & Resumes * Flex-Times * Affordable!*
552 Mass. Ave. * At Cambridge Business Ctr.

CAPE PAINT
Fully Insured, Experienced
Interior / Exterior Painting, Window Glazing
Reasonable Rates
"We are young, hardworking, conscientious workers."
CALL WILL (617) 244-1322
FREE ESTIMATE

AfriChic!
Uniquely you . . .
Creative hair sculpture for all hair types:
Braids • cornrow • threading
By Appointment Only
(617) 547-3707 Cambridge

M o v i n g ?
Ken's Moving Experience
Save on your next move.
Don't rent a truck- I can do it for less!
Call (617) 923-2150

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Feel the urge to unleash your frustrations or vent your hostilities on an unsuspecting friend or enemy? Look no further than the Improper Impersonals, a forum designed for pranksters, irate neighbors, relatives, maniacs or any would-be target of your acid tongue. Best of all they're FREE! Send your Impersonals to us at Improper Impersonals, The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146. Or fax it to us at 232-4305.

To N.A.S.,
You're such a ____ sometimes. I'm no Mel Gibson, but God knows you're no Cindy Crawford. You couldn't find a nicer guy than me.
-R.G.M.

Mace,
You've got to learn how to slow down. Also, you now owe me three-pay up!
-Lynne Z.

Tammi Topless,
I'm glad to see your keeping your top on. Watch out for the doormen, even the guys who lose teeth for ya! stick with the O'Italions!
Betsy Bottomless

Kirsten,
I heard Minnesota is very nice this time of year.
Guess Who?

Susan: You passed the bar in two states and you have the body of a model. Do you think this pain will ever go away?
-B

Dori: Stop being grandiose. You don't know the first thing about using the telephone, never mind a thought process.
-Disconnected to avoid self-destruction

Corky,
Thanks for the lumps. I'm glad I bit it, if I did. Next time I'll bite it off, SOBER. Hope you're in pain.
-Mary

SK-
Thanks. Now I'll try to live up to my own expectations! Don't think of it as nagging, think of it as concern for your mental well-being.
Love,
JL

Jose:
The HOT donuts kept me alive. But I'm getting fat. Now that I have a job, can I start stealing fruits and veggies?
-The dog's best friend

Don,
I wonder why-You are so shy-Please ask me out-Don't pass me by! If you're wondering who I am, look around the next time you work-YOU BIG ADORABLE JERK!! Thinking of you,
A SECRET ADMIRER

Sunshine,
Either I care about you a lot or I'm a complete psycho.
Love,
J.J.

P.S. Have fun at the Beach Ball and I hope you don't meet the woman of your dreams!

What did God say after he created man? "I can do better than this!"

Mama's Boy,
It was great seeing you on Newbury Street last week.
-Tank

HELP! I can't remember who borrowed my copy of LOLITA, but I need it back. Sorry for the brain lapse. -E.

Joe the BM,
We are wondering what B.M. means. Is it Big Male, Bitchen Monster or Bell Man. If so, Super Joe, what do you know? See you at the "Wrinkle Room."-Psycho Giovanni - Che ti posso dire? Sei il massimo, grazie per tutto che mi hai insegnato. Bionda

To the Catcher of Rye on Anderson St:
When your neighbor throws bread for the birds, don't throw it away when you pick it up; make pudding. Remember, rats are just puppies we haven't scratched behind the ears yet.
-The Pitcher

Deb at Flagship,
Come get something to eat at Bildner's sometime.
-Slim

M.F.
Where are you? Waltham, in L.A. with Aaron Spelling, or the little town where they make Saturns? Keep in touch.
-Your old drinking buddy

Alex,
Our checks are bouncing. Get your little butt back to the office, will ya?
-The Troops

Dr. Donny,
One daughter in the office is too much. Get rid of the idiots, and beg for forgiveness and maybe your nurse will come back to you. I won't.
-Impatient Patient

To the TALL and cute guy named Mike at Brigham & Womens-
Thanks for your help in the ER. With a bedside manner like that, you should have your PhD!
-Rose M.

Taffy,
Did the best I can. Don't damn me. It's time to face the music. It's my life. I can't make you love me. My hand on my heart, come to me-cause nothing lasts forever, even cold November rain.
-J.D.

Dearest Lodie,
Good luck at UNH! I'll miss you!
Love, Hurls

To the sexy blond at B&J's-
I saw you dancing to the "Commitments" soundtrack the other day. Your moves made me crazy!
-A Peeping "Tom" from the Four Seasons

Crock,
Come on! "To be perfectly frank with you?" . . . I think we now know where the term "It's a crock" came from.
. . . Cheers!

Holly,
Did anyone ever tell you that you look like Cindy Crawford, only better?

Cindy,
I'll trade you your toothpaste for $40.00. Sound fair?

Clancy,
Thanks for last night. I can't stop wagging my tail.
Beauj

Mundy,
Sleeping well or has the guilt driven you insane? Just send them some money and maybe the nightmares will stop.

CLASSIFIEDS

Alterations/Design

ALTER EGO DESIGNS- Need Clothing or Home Item Alterations, Repair, Custom Work? Call us at 332-0160 For Estimates and Appointment.. . GREAT RATES!

Business Services

IDEAS FOR THE ENTREPRENEUR!100 New Business Ideas That Work. Send SASE To: Business Ideas, PO Box 391707 Cambridge,Ma. 02139

Cleaning

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition Call Joey 776-1706

SEE SPOT RUN Residential cleaning service Boston and surrounding areas call 247-1009 10-4pm. Ref. upon request

Clothing/Tailoring

QUALITY pre-owned designer and better clothing.Do come browse! $$$ for your wardrobe.Gowns also wanted!

THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11am-6pm daily. 739-3399. See display ad this page.

WE WANT YOUR CLOTHING The Garment District is nowaccepting. Mens & Womans Current & Vintage Clothing for Consignment(617)876-9795

Dating

BEAUTIFUL CONNECTIONS Get Your Chance Now. Thousands of Beautiful Woman in South America Desire Romance and Marriage (617) 789-LOVE

Entertainment

"BROADWAY BABIES." Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators,D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula-Dancers, Ballons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable." (617)396-0550 M/C VISA AMEX.

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT. Professional psychic available for parties/lectures and readings. Diverse topics to suit your needs! Gloria 508-744-4094

For Sale

BOAT FOR SALE. 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider. 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/ roller. New boat cover.Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617) 279-4857

FRIDGIDARE- Stackable wash/dryer $350. 2 Gas Stoves $75 each Rockwell 9 " Table Saw $400. Ind. Glass Sander $350. 1930's Sax $400 (617)924-5175

SUBERB 7 PC.BEDROOM SET Includes queen size headboard, bureau, mirror bookcase, nightstand, desk and chair. White and Silver. Good Condition $550 Please Call 232-8455

OFFICE FURNITURE 50% -80% Off. Files, Desks Chairs, Conference Tables. .Call For The Best Prices: .(617) 329-1662

3 Piece Livingroom Set Sofa, Love Seat and Recliner Chair Beige Leather Good Condition $750 (508)587-3974

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE JUICE CAFE..BROOKLINE VILLAGE SEEMS TO BE THE PLACE FOR YOUNG SUCCESSFULL ENTREPRENEURS!

MEET SOMEONE SPECIAL!
For friendship, romance, or marriage Call
UNITED DATING SERVICE
497-2944

Health Services

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

TIRED, ACHING, MUSCLES? Then you knead a massage. Come in on your lunch break or after work. Mon-Tue-Wed 10am to 7pm $45/hr loc on Boylston St. across from the Boston Common. Call Mary Foster 617-643-8916 leave message. Certified and licensed.

MASSAGE Reasonable Rates! Call David (617) 734-7080

Help Wanted

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DAYS A WEEK? How about doing a few deliveries around the Boston area? For more info call 232-3507. Ask for Mark.

JOB FOR THE NINETIES. 100 Growth Occupations, Free Brochure; Reid Enterprises, 84B, Dept. TB, Harvard Ave, Allston, Ma 02134

INTERN NEEDED TO ASSIST INSIDE SALES MANAGER GREAT OPPORTUNITY CALL 232-3705 FOR MORE INFO.

PART TIME EAR AND NOSE PIERCER. Eye for Accuracy. No bed wetters. 247-7092 Ask for Tank Hannibal after 5p.m.

SELL LOVE
Great Expectations The Nations Largest Video Dating Service Is Now Interviewing for Inside Sales and Telemarketersat Our Newton Office. Join Our Happy Team!. 332-7755 Ask for Sue

Experienced Full Time Line Cook Wanted. Must Have Flexible Schedule. Call 232-8787 Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Hypnosis

HYPNOSIS $25-Be Who you to be. Certified, David (617) 734-7080 Message Avl..

Instruction

COLLEGE PROFESSOR Spanish and French.Lessons English as a second language. Group and Individual Lessons from Beginner to Advanced. Native Speaker of Spanish .(617)731-5915

Medical Services

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage Llc.. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 CommAve 267-7171

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DISEASE and HIV testing. Confidential doctors office. Robert Taylor, M.D. Brookline 232-1459

Music Lessons

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles. Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

KEY-BORED? Berklee Prof offers private keyboard Instruction. All levels, styles. Develop your potential! 617-628-7364

INTENSE GUITAR LESSONS Whether you are a beginner, Intermediate or advanced guitarist. Graig Glendenning will help you do it right. Lowest rates in town! 437-7051

Music Lessons

VOICE LESSONS, Beginner to Intermediate, Jazz/Pop styles. Harmony, Ear Training, Sight Reading, Affordable. Sabina 787-4254

Painting

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition.Call Joey 776-1706

Photography

PHOTOGRAPHER HEAD SHOTS/ MODELING (617)242-1354

Situations Wanted

RESTAURANT OWNERS Need someone to cover employee vacations, fill in at the last minute or help out in a pinch? Very Experienced hostess / service person available for pick-up work. Call Erica @ 742-7942 and leave a mesage.

Stuff Wanted

TABLE For use as a conference Table Call 332-4710

Tickets

BAY STATE TICKET See our ad on page 15 734 -TIXX

IMPROPER CLASSIFIED AD FORM BOSTONIAN

Section Heading _____

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26

1
2
3
4
5
6

Run Dates:
From: ____ / ____ Month. Day

❑ Bold Headline

First 4 lines	19.00*
Additional lines X .$5.00	+
Bold Headline (15$)	+
= Total	+

* The $19.00 'run until it works' rate is for Non - commercial accounts only.

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: Improper Bostonian Classifieds)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card Number _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

Mail orders to: The Improper Bostonian 17 Station St. Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146-7303
OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Painting

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition. Call Joey 776-1706

Fax your ad to 232-4305

Photography

PHOTOGRAPHER HEAD SHOTS / MODELING (617) 242-1354.

Services

BRAY WOODWORKING3rd Generation Craftsman-lt its wood, We do it.Call Scott (508)921-2170

HIRE ME TO Edit, proofread and write. Type or Wordprocess term papers, theses, resumes or whatever you need. RATES: Text Editing $25 per hr. WORD PROCESSING: $2.50 per dbl spaced page. $15 per Resume $4 per Cover Letter. TODD LARSON (617)738-1020

INVISIONS Logos and lettering consulting. call Greg 923-3472 Leave a message.

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licensed & Insured Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

LUCY'S PROFESSIONAL-CLEANING SERVICE Experienced and Reliable. Houses, Apartments and Offices.Professional Cleaning at Reasonable Rates.References Available CALL LUCY 864-0198

Situations Wanted

RESTAURANT OWNERS Need someone to cover employee vacations, fill in at the last minute or help out in a pinch? Very experienced Hostess / service person available for pick up work. Call Erica @ 742-7942 and leave a message.

Stuff Wanted

TABLE - Large enough to be used as a small conference table. Call 332-4710

LARGE Comfortable Couch wanted. Call 332-4710

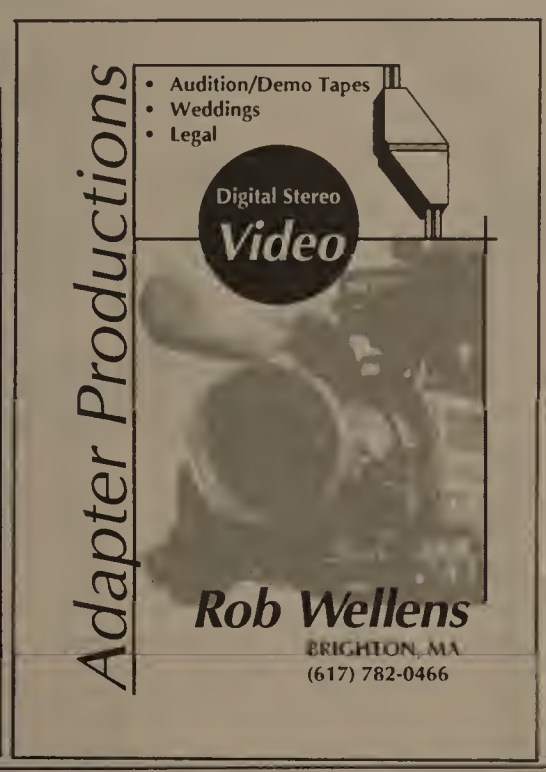
Even The Improper Bostonian uses PRESSXPRESS (PXP), greater Boston's most comprehensive resource of event information. PXP researches and lists all events to which the public is invited up to ONE YEAR in advance -- everything from black-tie and cultural events to business seminars and conventions -- and transmits it weekly via fax. Just think of the possibilities for your business clients, organization or personal life! Stay in the know -- call PRESSXPRESS at (617) 742-2092

We're Looking For A Few Stars

Boston's fastest growing newspaper is now taking on many additional employees. If you're hard working, possess outstanding talent and consider yourself a future star, The Improper Bostonian could be your ticket to success. We offer unparalleled opportunity, plenty responsibility and a fun working environment

Account Executives

Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.



Managing Editor

We're looking for an experienced, self starting, dynamic individual for our number two editorial position. Must have a minimum of two years editing experience, a strong personal portfolio of published clips and a fantastic sense of humor.

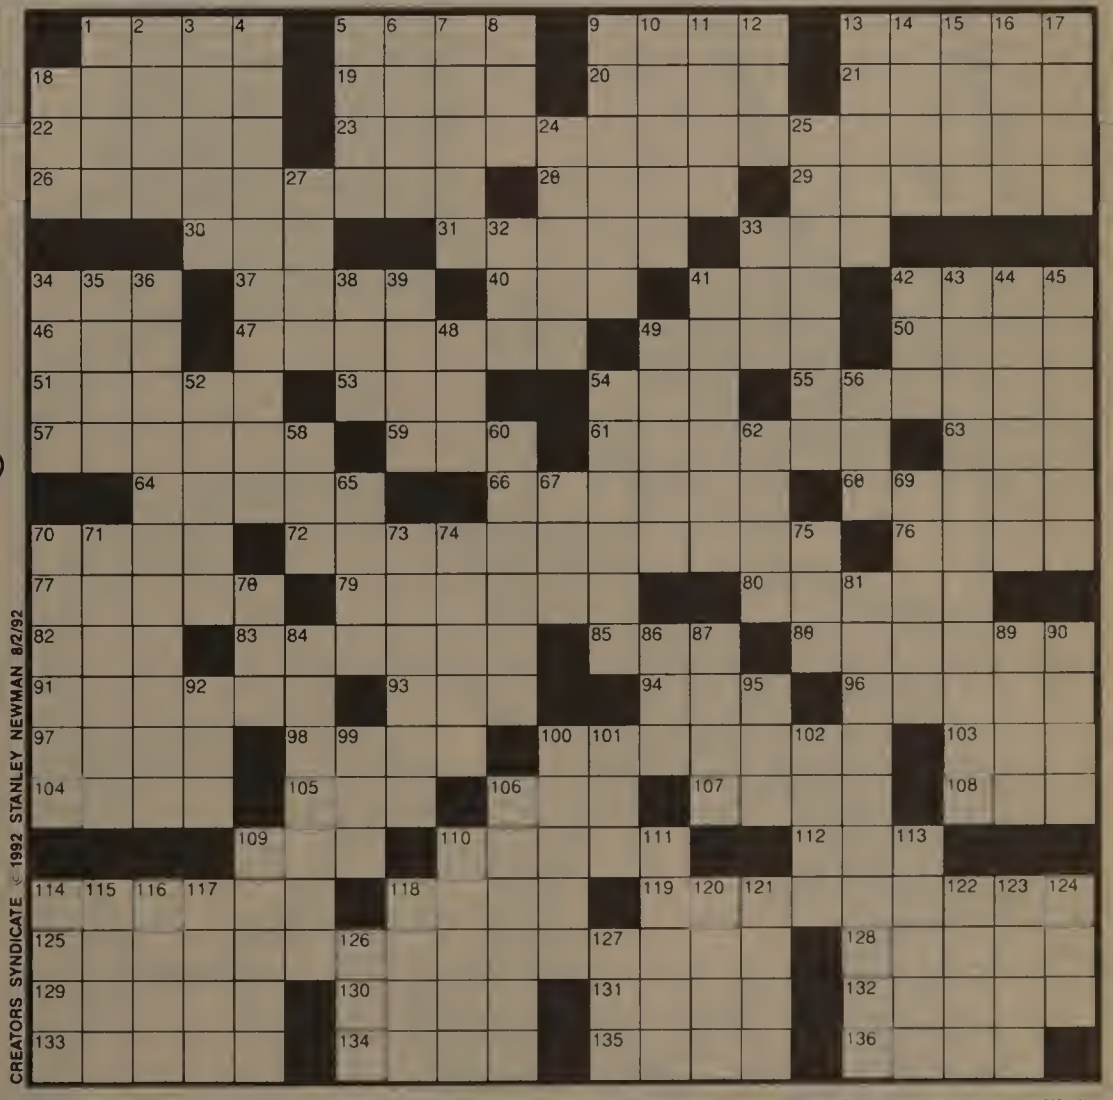
Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.

Please send all resumes to:The Improper Bostonian Office of the Publisher 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146-7303 or FAX it to 232-4305

BATES: NON-COMMERCIAL- $5 PER LINE. $15 FOR BOLD HEADLINE. COMMERCIAL- $7 PER LINE. $17 FOR BOLD HEADLINE. THE $19. "RUN IT UNTIL IT WORKS" ADVERTISEMENTS ARE FOR NON-COMMERCIAL ADS ONLY. REAL ESTATE OWNERS WHO NEED PLACEMENT FOR MULTIPLE UNITS ARE SUBJECT TO COMMERCIAL RATES. COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS WHO PLACE A CLASSIFIED AD IN SIX CONSECUTIVE ISSUES WILL RECEIVE A 6 COLUMN INCH CLASSIFIED DISPLAY AD. COMMERCIAL CUSTOMERS THAT PREPAY FOR SIX ISSUES, MAY RECEIVE A CLASSIFIED DISPLAY IN ANY ISSUE THEY CHOOSE.

COPY REGULATIONS: ALL AD COPY IS SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BEFORE PUBLICATION. ANY AD DEEMED OBJECTIONABLE WILL BE EITHER EDITED OR REMOVED. THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN SHALL BE UNDER NO LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO INSERT AN ADVERTISEMENT. ANY ERRORS THAT DO NOT AFFECT THE MATERIAL VALUE OF THE AD WILL NOT BE CREDITED. ERRORS MUST BE REPORTED WITHIN THE FIRST WEEK OF PUBLICATION.



CANCELLATIONS AND CHARGES: ALL ADS MUST BE PREPAID. THERE WILL BE NO REFUNDS FOR CANCELED ADS. SPACE CREDITS WILL BE ISSUED FOR ADS CANCELLED BEFORE 5 P.M.ON THE THURSDAY BEFORE PUBLICATION. THERE ARE NO COPY CHANGES OR REFUNDS FOR NON-COMMERCIAL ADS. AGENCY DISCOUNTS:15% AGENCY DISCOUNTS APPLY. CALL FOR MORE INFORMATION.

THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman

CELEBRITIES OF THE MONTH: Luminaries with something timely in common by S.N.

ACROSS

1 Out of control
5 Famous 2nd baseman
9 South African activist Steve
13 Small splotches
18 Kate Nelligan film of '85
19 Olden days
20 Senator Hatch's home
21 __ di Lammermoor
22 Wild cattle
23 The Razor's Edge author
26 Gary Cooper role
28 "Ma, He's Making Eyes __"
29 Actually: Lat.
30 Tiny bit
31 Sups in style
33 Bad guy in 63 Across
34 Road-rally reference
37 Army group
40 Showed the way
41 Soup sampling
42 Reindeer herder
46 Slangy suffix
47 Parliamentary provision
49 Saintly attribute
50 Stubborn sort
51 Worthwhile
53 The Skin of __ Teeth
54 Alfalfa, to Spanky
55 American Leaguer
57 Cowboys' home
59 Wind up
61 Gets used (to)
63 Rocky __ ('82 film)
64 Great pleasure
66 Home style
68 Perfect
70 It may be grand
72 Christian philosopher
76 Tacks on
77 Successful strokes
79 Exciting feeling
80 Donna Summer's music
82 Pile on the floor
83 Elizabeth's father
85 Elevator compartment
88 Ho Chi Minh City, formerly
91 Ladies and gentlemen
93 Sea, to Henri
94 Brit's raincoat
96 Flowing rock
97 Ballet bend
98 Nobleman
100 Persian poet
103 Distinctive doctrine
104 "Auld Lang __"
105 __ up to (admit)
106 Ivy League athlete
107 High-strung
108 __ out (supplement)
109 Actor's signal
110 Parting word
112 Dict. notation
114 Digressive remarks
118 High point
119 Maid on Maude
125 Captain Bligh portrayer
128 Did lobbying
129 Rumba bandleader
130 Bugle, e.g.
131 Tough spot
132 Sea breathers
133 Puts away
134 Pay attention to
135 Butter substitute
136 Robert of Airplane!

DOWN

1 "I cannot tell __"
2 Phoenix suburb
3 Come __ (visit)
4 Mythical stable owner
5 Swiss folklorist
6 Catcall
7 Packing a pistol
8 Golf-course area
9 Ran in
10 List elements
11 Actress Capshaw
12 Resistance unit
13 Straight-talking
14 Olympic sled
15 Folk singer Phil
16 Inclination
17 All the __ (regardless)
18 Flow away
24 Indian princess
25 Hayes Oscar film
27 Author Ferber
32 Not well
33 $1,000,000, for short
34 State of mind
35 __ Romeo
36 Painter of Tahiti
38 "__ to Pieces"
39 Beyond question
41 Deli meat
42 K-O center
43 Cartoon canine
44 Daughter of Atlas
45 Pauline's problems
48 Samovar
49 Fought with
52 Slugger's woe
54 Star Trek distance
56 "__ was saying . . ."
58 Urban ways: Abbr.
60 Macbeth prop
62 Remain unsettled
65 Conductor Klemperer
67 Adjective suffix
69 Ancient Romania
70 Plate leftovers
71 What forte means
73 Flyers
74 Lemmon role
75 "__ even more than anyone that you adore"
78 An NCO
81 Hall-of-Fame quarterback
84 Make one's own
86 Drs.' lobby
87 Comedienne Martha
89 Siberian city
90 Big shot
92 Inventor De Forest
95 Fred's Silk Stockings costar
99 Farm female
100 Film set's __ light
101 Make haste
102 Quite excited
106 Climber Hillary
109 NBA team, for short
110 Have __ (be wary)
111 Time-limit word
113 Narrow groove
114 Tax pros: Abbr.
115 Seal off
116 Shakespearean villain
117 Poker variety
118 Succulent houseplant
120 Top-rated
121 Bring to naught
122 The __ American
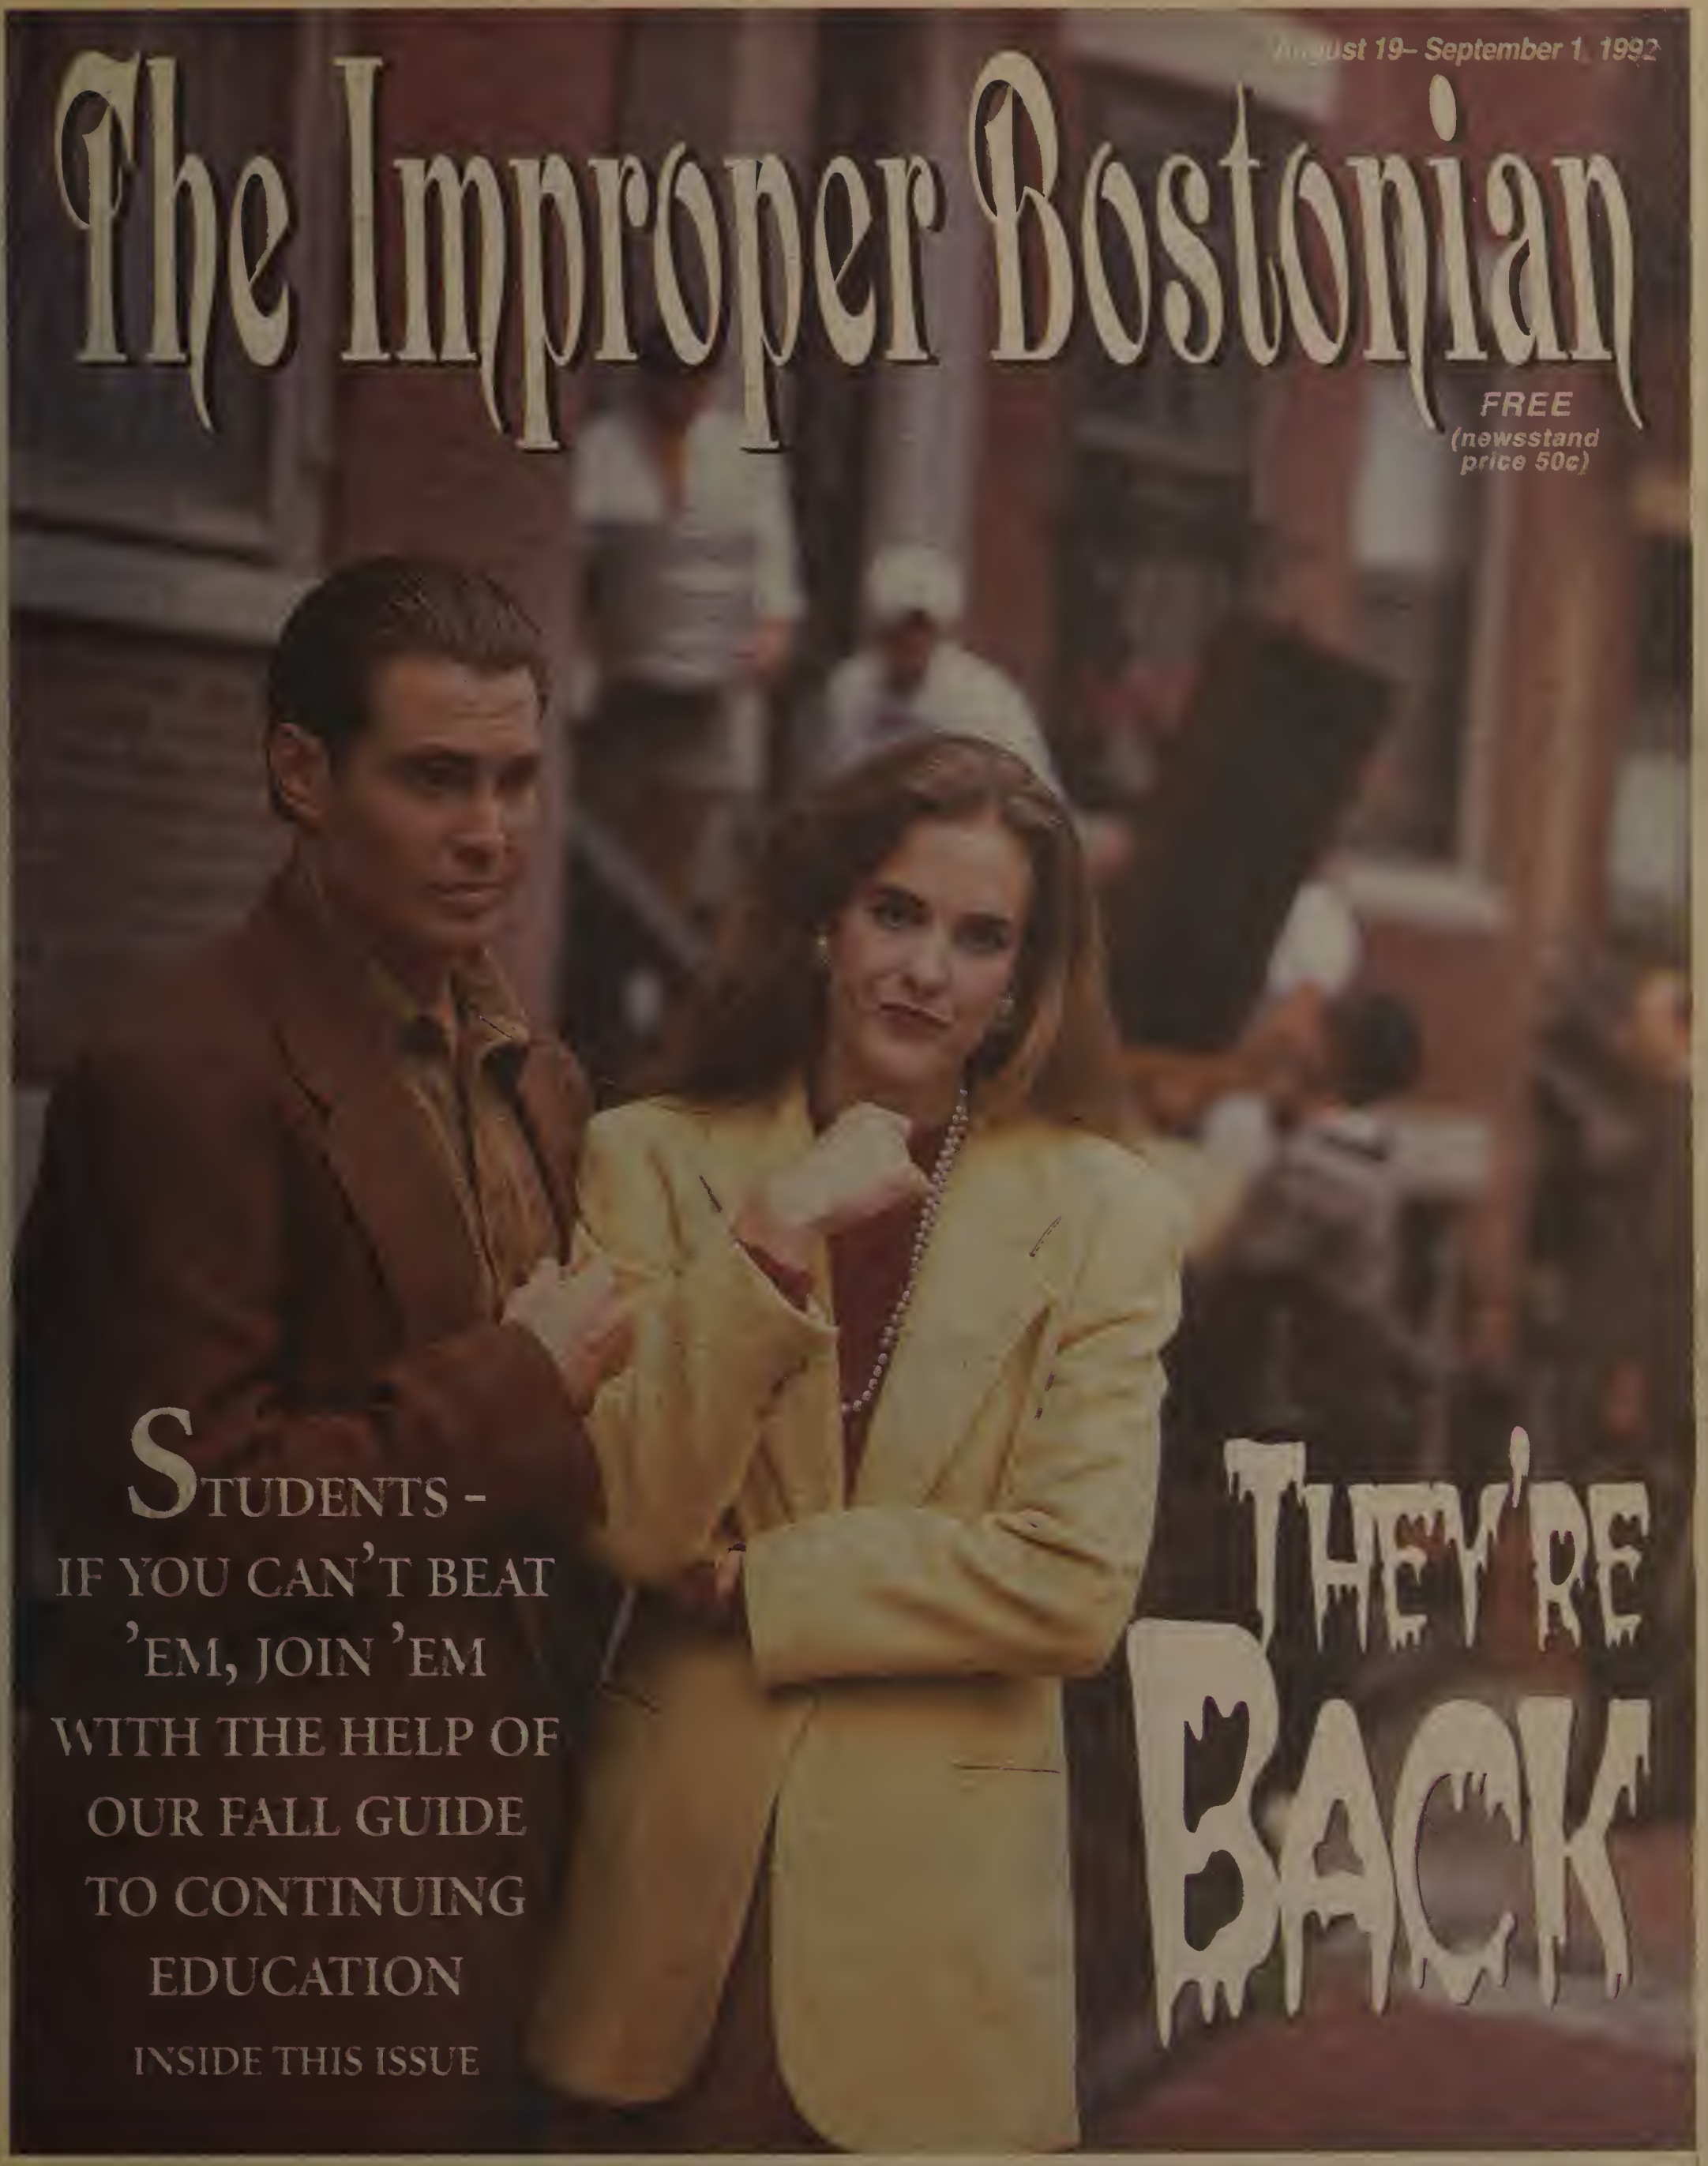
123 Animation art
124 Percussion instruments: Abbr.
126 "Be quiet!"
127 Showtime rival



ABSOLUT BRITTO.

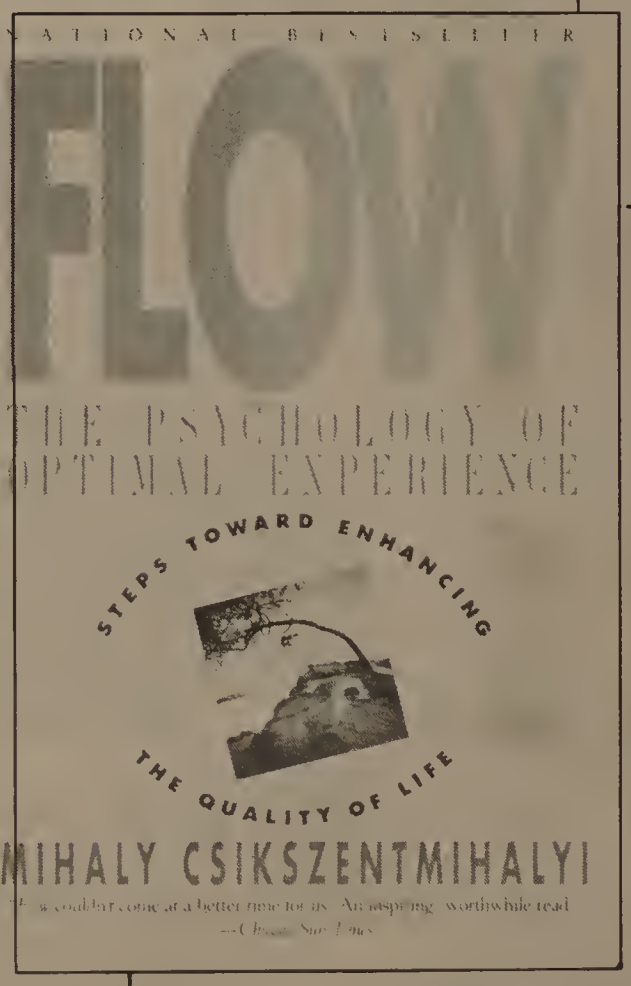
FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA OR LITHOGRAPH OF ABSOLUT BRITTO ART (POSTER COST: $200), CALL 1-800-243-3787 (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW).
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1990 CARILLON IMPORTERS, LTD., TEANECK, NJ. © ROMERO BRITTO 1990.

August 19– September 1, 1992

The Improper Bostonian

FREE
(newsstand price 50c)

STUDENTS - IF YOU CAN'T BEAT 'EM, JOIN 'EM WITH THE HELP OF OUR FALL GUIDE TO CONTINUING EDUCATION



INSIDE THIS ISSUE

THEY'RE BACK

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Flow With the Flow

It's easy to identify inner and outer conflicts in our lives, and to feel the stretches and tears in life that produce that misery. But what of its opposite: a sense of liquid wellbeing in which concentration and ease are in untroubled balance, when one is moving along in happy productivity? What Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi has dubbed "Flow" is that state of optimal experience (something he has studied for more than two decades) that encompasses a wide range of activities and states of being. Singers whose consciousness seems to become dissolved in the multiple one-ness of a choir, chess players at the peak of skillful play, runners, American Indian dancers in trances, meditaters and Zen masters are 'in' flow, but so, gratifyingly enough, are we all at key times. This rather anecdotal stroll through multi-cultural instances of flow builds up a good case - not a "how-to," rather a "you - already-are." Flow tends to come during times when we are confronting completable tasks, when we can concentrate (though lightly and deliciously) when we have goals and get feedback, and when a "deep but effortless involvement" removes us from the worries of everyday life. A certain unmuscly control is a factor, and so is the feeling that one self has disappeared. Time during flow appears to still or gallops forward. Read all about it. Easily.

"Flow" (in paperback) by Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi
Harper and Row
At most bookstores (Psychology)

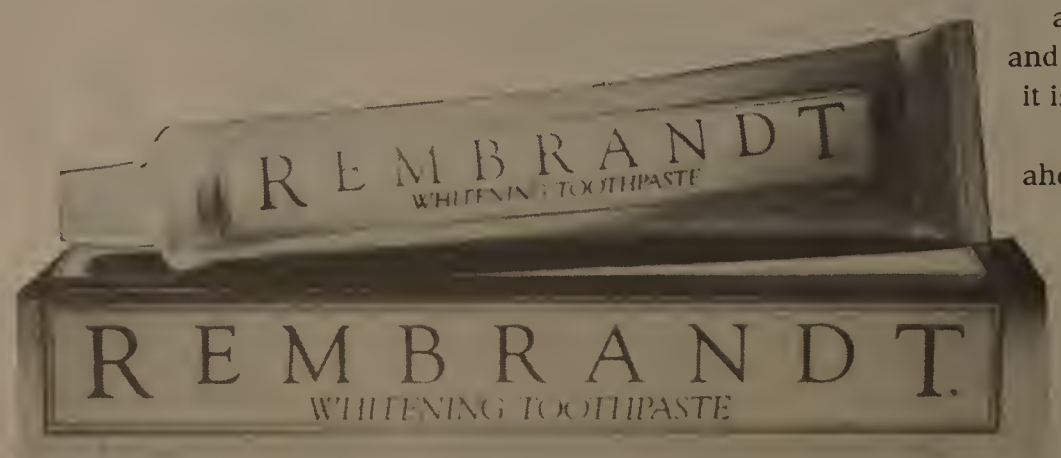
Let's Do Truffles and Tea

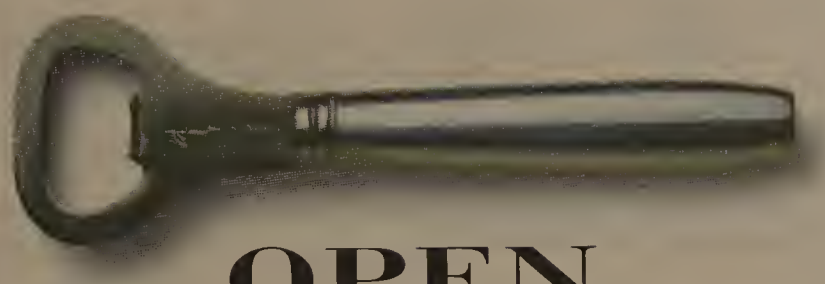
Given its small space, this nooklike shop - along with making you feel as if you were in England on a cozy rainy day - serves more purposes than you'd think. First, and ulteriorly, it's a place to buy delicious chocolates that are so special as to transcend the mere matter of calories. Twenty-two hand-made kinds of truffles, each with its own dense little flavor-treasure, are the reason for their rhapsodic slogan (ecstasy's supreme dream-dance) and the reason most people come here. Praline, noisette, ginger (with its sharp surprise in the heart of the matter) and peanut butter (a way upper-Reese's) are the sort of sweets you don't so much 'wolf' down as 'fox' down - sharply attending to the particularities of flavor. Secondly, people come for the croissants, muffins, cookies, cakes and espresso (from the best restaurant supplier) and Toscannini's ice cream. But, it's no hit-and-run place of snapping bags and noisy cash registers; people come to the Chocolate Box to sit and enjoy tete-a-tetes at the little lace-covered, glass-topped tables - stretching out the afternoon to the brink of dusk.



THE CHOCOLATE BOX

The Chocolate Box
1768 Massachusetts Avenue
Cambridge (868-7575)
-and-
1375 Massachusetts Avenue
Arlington (646-7575)

Your Teeth are So White Goldilocks



It's funny that this whitening toothpaste is named Rembrandt, given that painter's murky-golden pallette, yet maybe what they're after is classiness. That, the pretty dentrifice has got. It's a temptation, even at around $8 a pop (but don't worry, the paste comes out in agonizingly small squeezes, reminding you not to use too much). Imagine as you brush, that you are a movie star, or a royal, who simply needs very snowy pearlies and has, perhaps, a personal dentist who comes to the house every morning for a cleaning; in fact, one Boston t.v. personality's daughter, herself a newscaster in the West, asked her mother to send her some Rembrandt to celebritize her smile. What Rembrandt does, is to remove tooth-darkening stains produced by tartar and plaque; it is not a tooth-bleaching agent, and it's acid-free. Apparently, according to tests, it is no more abrasive than Colgate or Crest. So meteoric has been its rise that it has zipped ahead in 5 months to outstrip 99% if all health and beauty aids - a huge category totaling 25,000 items. It must be the Prozac of oral prophylaxis; gray teeth brushers must be thinking "gray mood." White teeth, energy, social zest, photogenically alive.

Rembrandt Whitening Toothpaste
At most pharmacies

Mopsy Strange Kennedy has freelanced for the Atlantic, NY Times Book Review and Magazine, Parent's Choice, RedBook, The Washington Post, Chicago Tribune and was a staff writer for Glamour. She also worked for another local (though their name assumes a much more worldly significance) paper for 10 years, 5 months and 28 days.

Please send all correspondence to: The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

OPEN

YOUR OWN BREWERY.

The Commonwealth Brewing Company is now available by the bottle. Open one for yourself, and taste the fresh brewed, full-bodied flavor of Boston's finest traditional English pale ale. Best enjoyed slightly chilled and among friends.

New from The Commonwealth Brewing Company.
Boston's Original Restaurant/Brewery.

BOSTON
BURTON ALE

CONTENTS

August 19 - September 1, 1992

7 Re-Educating the Educated

Do you feel that your education is incomplete? Are you wondering how to get back to school without leaving a comfortable job? Read about which universities, programs and testing services await those ready to make that bold return to everybody's favorite institution: school.

BY AMY GOLDBERGER

16 To Weave For The Sun

In an exhibit that transports one to another place and time, the Museum of Fine Arts displays 50 of their finest Andean textiles dating from approximately 500 B.C. to the Spanish Colonial period. Enjoy a trip through these beautiful and intricate fabrics, now through November.

BY CARRIE SHEPHERD

28 Totally Naked

In a very candid and revealing interview, Howard Jones strips down his music and origins - showing us the meat behind the original one man band. Hear Jones' thoughts on his new album, his writing and selling out in the '90s.

BY REY ROLDAN

31 The Best Dressed Male

Want to be the best dressed male this fall? For the first time in a while, retailers are listening to consumers. Read on and see how fashion is moving from complex and costly to friendly and affordable.

BY MARY LAWLOR

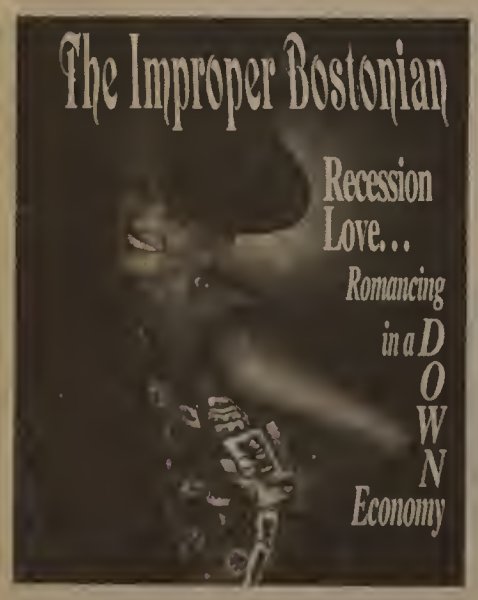
Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Comedy
- Interview: James Wesley Jackson 11
- Comedy Listings 11

Movies
- Review: The Best Intentions 12
- Flicks in a Flash 12
- Review: Single White Female 13
- Critics Choice 13
- Review: Life in Omnimax 14
- What's Playing 14

Books
- Credit Approved 15

Arts
- Play Review: The Phantom of the Opera 17
- Arts Calendar 18

Woman on the Street 19



Dining
- Review: Roccos 20
- In the Realm of the Spirts: The Adult Soft Drink 21
- Appeteasers 22
- Brunch Board 23
- Chef of the Month 24
- Restaurant Listings 25

Music
- Bonnie Raitt 29
- Hot Ticket 29
- Wachtelligence 30
- Album Reviews 30

Bar & Club Listings 32
- Review:Corrib Pub 33

Free Boston 36
Improper Impersonals 36
Classifieds 37
Crossword 39

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year.
(26 issues a year)

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State_____Zip_____
Phone(_____)_____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____Exp._____
Signature (if paying by credit card)_____

Mail orders to:
The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146
OR CALL:
(617) 232-3705
Visa, MasterCard and American Express accepted.
Allow up to 21 days after order is received. Issues are distributed bi-weekly. Cancellation subject to restrictions. Expires 12/31/92

AROUND TOWN

Finish off the summer with rockin tunes and food from over 25 Massachusetts restaurants during Taste of Massachusetts, a project of the Boston Jaycees. Designed to raise money to combat hunger and homelessness, the Taste will feature non-stop musical entertainment by local and national acts. Blood, Sweat and Tears and Manly Moondog and The Three Kool Kats (pictured above and featuring Woody Harrelson of Cheers fame) are just some of the acts. Kids can check out clowns, magicians, a carousel and the ferris wheel as they join you in listening to these bands. The festival runs from September 3 to September 7 at Government Center. For more information, call 227-1173.

Writer, director and performer Laurie Carlos brings the visceral and highly charged White Chocolate for my Father to the Ted Shawn Theatre in Becket, Ma. from August 21 to 23. Father is told from the perspective of a 10 year girl growing up in 1959 New York City. Carlos mixes dance with history in explaining a young girl's search for identity and roots. Both Carlos and her troupe appear courtesy of Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival. Tickets are $10 for shows at 8pm on Friday, 5pm on Saturday and 7pm Sunday. Call 243-0745 for more information.

Let the mood lift your spirits as the sweet sounds of Jazz bring romance and music to a Sunset Serenade Under The Arch from Thursday, August 20 to Saturday August 22 at the Boston Harbor Hotel. Celebrating this first annual event with their own distinct sounds are Dave McKenna and The Jazz All-Stars (including clarinet star Dick Johnson) on Thursday, The White Heat Orchestra on Friday and El Eco, Wendy Eligon John and Maria Maria on Saturday. The concerts all begin at 7pm and run until 10pm. All shows are free to the public and one and all are encouraged to bring someone special to romance your way into the night with the serenading sounds of summer jazz. Call 439-7000 x7388 for more information.

Doing their best to assist the poor women of the world are Oxfam America who will sponsor Celebrate The Power, a world music dance concert on September 11. The benefit, at Boston University's Tsai Auditorium, will feature the Beth Soll Dance Company and Libana (Pictured above) in one of two Oxfam events planned for Boston this autumn. Celebrate The Power will combine the innovative dance of Beth Soll with the intoxicating world beat of Libana to raise funds for - and awareness about - Oxfam America's women-oriented development projects around the globe. Tickets for the 8pm show are $20 (with student, senior and group rates available) and can be purchased by calling Oxfam at 728-2416 or BU at 353-8725.

They're still not making any sense! Those wacked-out nuns at the Theatre Lobby have just celebrated their 200th performance of Nunsense and are on their way to claiming the longest-running musical in Boston's history. Follow the story of the funniest gathering of heavenly helpers as they work their way through song, dance and escapade after escapade in a must-see show. Performances run Wednesday through Friday with 8pm performances, Saturday evenings at 6pm and 9pm and Sunday evenings at 6pm. Matinees on Wednesday and Sunday at 3pm. Ticket prices range from $17.00 to $25.00. Call 227-9872 for more information.

The only place where Plaid looks cool for the summer is at The Terrace Room in The Park Plaza Hotel. Boston's long-running musical hit Forever Plaid, which opened last fall, is continuing to thrill audiences with new cast members Bruce Moore and Roy Chicas. Plaid follows the journey of a semi-professional harmony group that was cut short by an unfortunate car accident on the night of their first professional gig in 1964. In addition to belting out some classic hits, the Plaid give their own shorter (yet complete with mice, jugglers, etc...) version of the Ed Sullivan Show and a tribute to Perry Como. Performances are Thursdays at 2pm, Fridays at 8pm, Saturdays at 7pm and 10pm and Sundays at 3pm and 7:30pm. Call 357-8384 for reservations and more information.

Brewing Up Some History

The Commonwealth Brewery's Boston Burton Ale. Now available at stores, restaurants and bars in the Greater Boston Area.

It's not often that Boston sees one of its native beers on the shelves of liquor stores. We've seen Sam Adams and Harpoon make it successfully in one of the tightest and competitive product markets in the country. And now, they're going to have to make some room for Boston Burton Ale.

Brewed by the Commonwealth Brewing Company, Burton Ale is the very first beer brewed initially for on-premise consumption to be bottled and sold in stores.

While its bottled version is available in such stores as Kappy's, Macy's, Martignetti's, McHugh Discount and Gimbels, Burton Ale is still available in original form - on tap - at The Commonwealth Brewery on Portland Street near the North Station. So conduct your own taste test of Boston's finest brews. With another new beer on the map, perhaps beans, sports and politics won't be the only items keeping Boston on the map. ❑

On The Cover

Photographer: Tracy Aiguier
Models: Martha Porter & Dean Ford Model Management
Makeup: Jay Pendley
Special Thanks: Bob Sherwood

Corrections for the August 5, Issue Correct Dates for these North End Festivals are as follows:
St. Anthony: August 28-30 St. Lucy: August 31st

Great Leather, Great Price, Great Look,
For Back to School

$179
and up

T ← W

TANNERY WEST

Copley Place 424-1410
Faneuil Hall Market 723-5934
The Atrium 527-9395

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

Editor in Chief
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE SEMONIAN

Food Editors
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
AL STANKUS

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

MUSIC EDITOR
REY ROLDAN

MUSIC COLUMNIST
A.J. WACHTEL

Design Director
ALLISON BEGNER

Contributing Writers
AMY GOLDBERGER, MARY LAWLOR
BETSY CARPENTER, LISA BONNELL
CARRIE SHEPHERD, MARY LAWLOR
ANDREW BLANDINO
CHRISTOPHER WINTERS

Senior Staff Photographer
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE

Staff Photographers
MICHAEL POWERS, AYNSLEY FLOYD
DANIELLE PUCCI

Advertising Sales Directors
DIANA SMITH, HARVEY BRAVMAN

Account Executives
UGO MAZZAROLO, MARK STEVENS
MAUREEN FINNIGAN,
SUSANNE SCHANTZ, WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
MARK GARRETT

Assistant Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Inside Account Executives
JANET DEBENEDICTIS, PEGGY SCANLON

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Production Assistants
GAIL MARCARELLI, JOE SHARRINO

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
JENNIFER MCCANN, JENNIFER LEVITSKY,
MARIANNE MURPHY, MEG C. LELKO
MIRIAM BLANKENSHIP, DINA KATZ
TREVOR FORD

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI, CURTIS
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
PAUL WARD, JEFF FILIPOV
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS: Listings are printed free at the discretion of the editor. Send your listings to The Improper Bostonian, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village, MA 02147-0820. Please include information such as dates, prices, telephone numbers and contact person. They must be recieved 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 20

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising
(617) 232-4305 Fax

R

RE-EDUCATING THE EDUCATED

Examining Your Options When the Time Arrives to Return to School

BY AMY GOLDBERGER

Something is bugging you. Could it be the nagging feeling that your education is incomplete? By now, the pressures of college requirements have faded to a warm and fuzzy longing to curl up with a textbook and highlighter. Intellectual stimulation and subsequent career advancement beckon.

But for most, it's essential to continue collecting the paycheck. Financially, school can strain your lifestyle and college loan payments. Professionally, you have just begun to progress and you're not willing to commit to graduate school full-time.

Who says you have to leave your job to go back to school?

It's possible to do both. Boston is well equipped to help its young work force fulfill post-college educational goals while they maintain employment. Through one and two-course explorations into graduate study or evening matriculation in a host of graduate degree programs, the curious and unfulfilled obtain direction and purpose...not to mention social opportunity. Colleges, institutes and universities around Boston offer programs, some with financial aid, in everything from business to wallpaper hanging. Career guides and seminars offer methods of making real sense of the myriad choices. A perusal through the yellow pages and a phone call are all it takes to get your body (quickly molding to the shape of your desk chair) in gear.

"I felt I had to make a step forward but I want to ease my way into school," said Kristen Knapp, 26, a video production manager at Fred Woods Productions. She will begin a class in Emerging Communications Technology at Simmons College in September. Knapp is interested in combining business with her video production skills. "This way I can stay on the job. It's an exploration without a full time commitment," she said.

COMMUNICATIONS...

Simmons' Communications Management graduate program, which culminates in a Master's of Science and straddles the line between communications and an M.B.A., allows students to enroll in up to two classes before matriculating. At a cost of $1,808 per class, it may be wise to test the waters before taking the plunge. The program offers branch concentrations in public relations, graphic design and non-profits. Formal acceptance would apply the exploratory credits and requires the GRE or Miller Analogy test.

Television and print careers in journalism and communications are not out of reach for evening students. Boston University Graduate School of Communications and Emerson College offer evening classes. Both schools allow students to take up to two classes before matriculating, at which time the GRE or Miller Analogy Test is required. Classes at B.U. (353-3481) are about $2,000. Emerson (578-8160) charges $1,650.

BUSINESS/LAW...

For those with a mind for business or management, programs abound. Boston University, Northeastern University, Babson College and Suffolk University are just a few that have part-time M.B.A. programs with evening classes. All require matriculation and the GMAT. B.U. and Northeastern have satellite campuses for students outside Boston proper. Financial aid is available for part time students, as classes cost close to $2,000 each.

Some employers offer tuition reimbursement so don't be shy, ask your boss. Bank of Boston gives its approved employees $2,625 per year towards graduate courses in schools of the employee's choice, provided he or she gets a B or better.

"I always knew I wanted to get an M.B.A. and this is a way for me to do it," said Kay Wells, 29, a financial analyst at Bank of Boston who is currently enrolled at Suffolk's night M.B.A. program. "This way I can work and keep up with the other people with M.B.A.'s." With a husband and baby on the way, Ms. Wells swears by the B.O.B.'s contribution to the cost of her graduate education.

You can even go to law school part time. The New England School of Law and Suffolk University offer evening classes. Requiring the LSAT and formal matriculation, the schools offer the same professors as the day classes. Tuition is $7,665 per year at New England (451-0100) and $9,870 for Suffolk (573-8000); both have financial aid programs. It's too late to begin this fall, but prepare for the LSAT and get the applications in by March 1, 1993 for Suffolk and March 15 for New England.

Angie Wooldridge

Angie Wooldridge

Health Services...

There are few things more appreciated than a nurturing bedside manner. Simmons College offers an evening Primary Health Care Nursing graduate program. Registered nurses may pursue their master's solely in the evenings, straight through until the final requirement - a fulltime clinical lab. At a cost of $452 a credit or $1,800 per class, most students work in the field by day.

Maybe health service is your forte, but you can't imagine yourself as a nurse. How about social work? Boston College offers a part-time evening master's program designed for working people. At four satellite campuses as far away as Portland, Maine, Worcester, Springfield, and Southeastern, Mass., B.C. provides career advancement at convenient venues. Students may complete two of the three-year requirement in the evenings with the final year's full-time commitment to practical social work. The Miller Analogy Test or GRE is required for the application. Matriculation is a must.

The Arts...

For the musically inclined, or at least those who want to be, the New England Conservatory offers continuing education classes in everything from chamber music to jazz acappella. Berklee College of Music (266-1400) does the same. Classes range in cost from $250 to $330 per semester. N.E.C. is just beginning a certificate program that is transferable to other schools. Call for a catalog at 262-1120, ext. 350.

The New England School of Photography has a strong program for people in any stage of mastering the art of point-and-shoot. Twelve-week evening and weekend workshops in basic camera operation and darkroom are available to anyone for $375. Fashion photography, photojournalism and portraits are just a few of the offerings. For $2,900 (financial aid is available), students may enroll in a six-month Applied Photography for Career program complete with a job placement service. Call 437-1868 for the info.

The School of Fashion Design on Newbury Street has a host of day and evening classes including flat pattern drafting, clothing construction, fashion sketching, portfolio art, color, French draping and couture detail to name a few. Classes cost $450 for a 15-week semester. Enroll before September 1. Call 536-9343.

A gift of fresh flowers is a frivolity, but arranging them is an art. For those with a passion for flora, the New England School of Floral Design in Norton offers a professional floral training program in the evenings. The eleven-week training course in the ABC's of flowers and arranging, as well as owning and operating a florist, freelancing and profiting from the exercise is yours for $800.

Applied Science/Liberal Arts...

Computer-o-philes may find their futures at Harvard Extension's Certificate in Applied Science (CAS) program. Forty courses including Introduction to Compilers; Operating Systems principles; Data Communications Network Design are open to anyone with a bachelor's degree and $700-$875 per class.

It's unnecessary to enroll in the full certification program to participate. "Most of the students are not formally enrolled in the certificate program," said Henry Leittner, the program's director. "No one needs to abandon their current jobs for this program."

Again, ask your boss about tuition reimbursement.

Although Harvard Extension also offers certification programs in Public Health, Museum Studies and Administration and Management, it is best known as a potpourri of liberal arts curricula. Foreign languages, psychology, literature, history and math courses are open to anyone for the exploring, and the approximate cost of $800 per class.

Perhaps you rank among the throng of medical school aspirants who took no pre-med courses in college. The Extension offers a Health Careers program to prep students for eligibility for medical school. The course of study, known as post baccalaureate, is administered by Owen Peterson. Call him at Harvard at 495-8066.

Other programs for intellectual dabbling include the Boston and Cambridge Centers for Adult Education. The BCAE offers more than 500 classes - for about $70 each - every 2 months. Some are: art history, West African Cooking, career decision-making, rock climbing, yoga, Japanese and a crash course in Lotus 1,2,3. "Students come with a certain itch they need scratched," said David Garvey, the marketing director. You can pick up a catalog in laundromats and convenience stores. Call 267-4430.

How To Add Acumen To Your Savvy

A Master's degree could change your life.
It's a way to add skills to the experience you have.
Master's and Graduate Studies Preparation
Programs for Working Adults.

Master of Education in Counseling Psychology • Education • Integrated Studies
Master of Management

Cambridge College
Cambridge & Springfield

1-800-877-GRAD

LSAT • GRE • GMAT • MCAT

WHY OUR STUDENTS SCORE MORE

	The Princeton Review	Stanley Kaplan
At least 3 computer-analyzed diagnostic tests, pinpointing strengths and weaknesses	YES	NO
Class size	12 OR Fewer	30-50
Extra help sessions always with a teacher – not a tape	Absolutely	No Way
Teachers expertly trained by people – not a tape	Of Course!	Not a Chance

The Princeton Review
The only choice for test preparation
Call TODAY for course information or for information about a free introductory session or a free diagnostic test near you.
617/277-5280

The Cambridge Center for Adult Education offers the same type of fare. There are over 700 courses and the average cost hovers at $96. Classes include housecleaning, basic sculpture, quiltmaking, jazz funk, Native American history and conversational Italian. Call 547-6789 for a catalog or pick one up at the Brattle Street location.

MISCELLANEOUS...

For Bostonian would-be entrepreneurs, The New England School of Wallpaper Hanging in Newton Upper Falls offers a 16-week course designed for self-managing a wallpaper hanging business. At a cost of $1,850, students learn in all evening classes, the hands-on approach to the method behind the madness of hanging wallpaper. Call 1-800-660-1642. A new class begins every six weeks.

For those who have no green thumbs and prefer handling fauna, perhaps the Dalton School of Dog Grooming (508-755-5551) is the place to have some evening water fights and learn a trade in the process.

Bartending seems like fun. It certainly is a great way to meet people, but the job entails serious responsibility and most restaurants require some sort of certification. The New England Bartenders School has an accredited 46-hour program that teaches drink-making, functional operations, inventory, product knowledge, customer service, etc. "There are only two ways to get behind a bar," said director Lee Gamelin. "One is to work your way up the ranks in a restaurant. The other is to take a course which gets you to your job objective faster." Call 247-1600.

GUIDANCE...

Need some help figuring out how to turn that nagging feeling into productive motivation? Several books and a new seminar may provide the "umph." The Complete Job Search Handbook: All the skills you need to get any job and have a good time doing it by Howard Figler; Wishcraft by Barbara Sher; Do What You Love, the Money Will Follow by Marsha Sinetar.

The latest rage among area educational consultants is the "Career Successing" seminar. Designed to help college grads target and pursue effectively a career, the 18 person five-session seminar "fills the gap between what students look for and what career centers provide," said director David Michelson, 31.

The $450 course offers a varied approach relying on non-lecture techniques including interactive group exercises, role playing and videotaped practiced

Angie Wooldridge

LONGY
School of Music

Private and Group Instruction
Masterclasses ❦ Early Music
Longy Chamber Singers
Theory ❦ History
Jazz ❦ Chamber Ensembles
Diploma/Degree Programs
Dalcroze Eurhythmics
Alexander Technique
Music & Movement for Children
Suzuki Violin and Cello
...and much, much more!

One Follen Street, Cambridge
617-876-0956

DIVISION OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

DAYTIME DEGREE PROGRAM FOR WOMEN
16 LIBERAL ARTS MAJORS
INDIVIDUALLY DESIGNED MAJORS
7 CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

EVENING DEGREE PROGRAMS FOR WOMEN AND MEN
CONCENTRATIONS IN COMMUNICATION
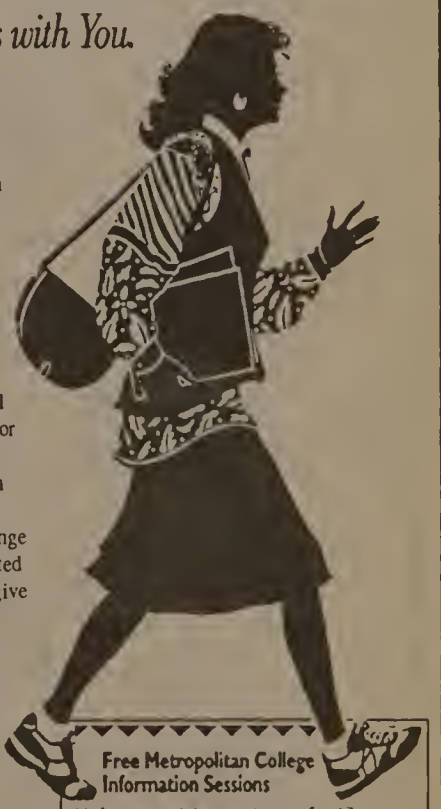
GRAPHIC ARTS
MANAGEMENT

The REGIS Difference

Regis offers a liberal arts education from which its students will acquire the values, ideas, and techniques that will foster continual self-education of free, independent and inquiring minds.

- full or part-time study
- flexible course loads
- adult-oriented career and academic advising

Classes Begin September 8!



Registration Ongoing

CALL 617 893-1820
ext. 2008 (day)
or ext. 2023 (eve.)
for more information

REGIS COLLEGE
Weston, MA

Boston University Metropolitan College

A College That Works with You.
An Education That Works for You.

You work hard at keeping up with your profession, home responsibilities, and the uncertain New England job market. You know education is a must in your future, but you're not sure how to begin or where you'll get the time.

Boston University Metropolitan College has been part of an educational success story for people like yourself for more than 25 years. Whether you're looking to broaden your background in liberal arts pr business; continue your professional development; start or change your career; or complete your interrupted education, Metropolitan College will give you an education that works.

Whatever your choice, you can be sure that at Metropolitan College you'll get education at its finest, from Boston University's highly regarded professional faculty. And our flexible, evening scheduling makes it possible for you to attend college part-time.

Call Metropolitan College today! Come in and talk with our academic and career counselors. They'll help you develop a curriculum that suits your specific needs. Or fill out the coupon below and you'll receive a free copy of our current class schedule.

Free Metropolitan College Information Sessions

All of the sessions below meet between 5 and 7 p.m. in Room 315 of the George Sherman Student Union, at 775 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston. Call the Office of Counseling and Student Services, 617/353-2980, for more details.

- Wednesday, August 26, 1992
- Tuesday, September 29, 1992
- Wednesday, October 28, 1992
- Monday, November 30, 1992
- Thursday, December 17, 1992

Free Parking is Available

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Name _____
Address _____
City _____
State _____ Zip _____
Day Telephone _____
Evening Telephone _____

I am interested in:
❑ An undergraduate degree program
❑ A graduate degree program
❑ Noncredit certification program
❑ Boston Campus
❑ Tyngsboro Campus
❑ I will like to talk to a Metropolitan College Counselor

The Best time to call me is
❑ Day ❑ Evening

Call 617/353-6000

Boston University Metropolitan College • 755 Commonwealth Avenue, Room 203, Boston, MA 02215
An equal opportunity, affirmative action institution

interviews. Call 739-1470.

Michelson advises potential career-changers to do plenty of informational interviewing to get the facts about your field of interest and make contacts. "That is a real missed opportunity," he said.

Financial Aid...

Graduate financial aid is often easier to obtain than undergrad. In order to find out your eligibility, get a GAPSFAS form from any local university financial aid office and send it to the Graduate and Professional School Financial Aid Service in Oakland, California. This form will determine the possibility of your receiving a Perkins loan (at 5% interest) or a Stafford loan (guaranteed student loan). You will need to submit your tax records and any financial aid transcripts you may have had in undergraduate school.

In terms of scholarships and grants, the Boston Public Library has a clearing house for scholarships in its basement. The yellow pages has several scholarship providers listed under Educational Consultant.

Educational Consultant Don Dunbar's rule of thumb, "Find out how well-endowed a school is in terms of loans for graduates." The bigger the endowment, the better the chance for a grant, he said.

Angie Wooldridge

Testing...

Essential to the graduate school application process, standardized tests are a fact of life. Preparing for them can be a personal venture, but many find the motivation from a class. Princeton Review (277-5280) and Stanley Kaplan (266-8378) offer prep classes for about $500.

A fall/winter testing schedule:

GRE - October, 10 and December 12.
LSAT -October, 3 and December 5.
GMAT -October, 17 and January 16, 1993.
MCAT- September 19
MAT-(Miller Analogy Test) is given by university digression.

Eric Stuttman, 26, has tested the waters of a few of the area's graduate study programs. He finally settled into a biomedical engineering program at B.U. An electrical engineering major in college, Stuttman worked for Stratus Computers and thought he wanted the business side of applied science. He took a few classes in Babson's M.B.A. program, found out it wasn't for him and went on to take a computer engineering class at Harvard Extension. Two years later, the bug was still there and now he is a teaching fellow at B.U. - a post that virtually pays his tuition.

So don't sweat if you're not sure what graduate field you want to pursue. If you have the bug, take a course. "It was valuable, absolutely," Stuttman said. "It was a very good way to figure out what I wanted, and now it's fun to be back in school." ❑

Saturday & Evening
art
Courses
Beginning
September 8

Anatomy
Animation
Art Foundations
Cartooning
Carving
Children's Books
Clay/Ceramics
Color
Computer Art
Design
Drawing
Graphic Design
Illustration
Lithography
Metals:
Silversmithing
& Jewelry-Making
Mixed Media
Music Video
Painting
Papermaking
Photography
Portraiture
Printmaking
Sculpture
Silkscreen/Aquascreen
Stained Glass
Watercolor
Woodworking

For more information please call or write:

the boston museum school

Continuing Education
230 The Fenway
Boston, MA 02115
(617) 267-1219

The School of the Museum of Fine Arts admits students of any race, color and national or ethnic origin.

SEALY'S FINEST
DOWN-BLEND
EXCLUSIVELY AT
JENNIFER

Sealy Sofabed with the Queensize Posturepedic mattress.

$999.

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Classic Sealy sofabed with gently rolled arms and dressmaker skirt. Overstuffed down-blend cushions for deep-down seating comfort.

The quality and style you would expect on a sofabed twice the price. Covered in luxurious linen blend tea-stain print. Or choose from hundreds of other designer fabrics—Robert Allen, David & Dash, Chris Stone and others—all available at a range of prices you'd otherwise pay more for elsewhere. C.O.M. available.

JENNIFER CONVERTIBLES

Open 10-9 pm Sat 10-6 pm Sun 12 5 pm America's Largest Sofabed Specialist

Please call 1-800-JENNIFER for the showroom nearest you

NEW YORK NEW JERSEY CONN N HAMP WASH DC MARYLAND VIRG FLOR ILL IND MISSOURI MICH

COMEDY

WHAT EXACTLY IS AN ENVIROMEDIAN?

It's James Wesley Jackson

BY TOBIN A. STREETT

He's the kind of guy you'd find hanging out in the library. Or so you might think. Soft spoken and curiously glowing, James Wesley Jackson and his accompanying intellectual wit will perform from August 19-23 at Nick's Comedy Stop to reacquaint and re-bond with his favorite audience. It doesn't really matter who that audience is, because Jackson is an Enviromedian.

An "Enviromedian" is a comedian who, according to Jackson, makes use of the environment surrounding him while on stage. For someone who does it so well, you'd think that he's done it his whole life. But he hasn't. In fact, Jackson never even thought that he'd be a comedian.

"I used to do things that would cause the class to laugh, but I didn't think that I'd be a comedian. Comedy has always been motivational to me. Even in college." As a Chicago native who attended Howard University, Jackson began his career not as a comedian, but as a magician. "I was a magician. My friends kept telling me to give up magic, some of which I did, but instead of sleight of hand, it comes as sleight of mind. Some of my magic translates into comedy."

As a former sensitivity trainer, Jackson applies a trained sense of patience to his act and frequently improvises his material. But the amount of improvisation depends on a few factors. "As much as I'm relaxed, if I say something and the audience has a lot of uncertainty, I'll say something to make them really think. I'll say 'I work to get off. Most people call in sick, but I call in serious.' My spontaneity is based on my relaxedness. It's off-stage that I'm acting."

While some of his influences are American, Jackson also claims a passion for English comedy. "I love British humor, but my big influence is Woody Allen. And myself."

With humor that sometimes pokes fun at racial differences, Jackson separates himself from most comedians through his courage at testing the boundaries. No playing it safe. "Yes, I do give it a little consideration. I suggest some changes in the pigeon holes. Why don't they have white history month? Black History Month is February but that's only half of a month."

Sound a little insensitive? He's not. In fact, the most insensitive thing that he has done on stage pales in comparison to what could have happened. "Oh, I walked off. We had several thousand people in the audience on this tour. The audience was standing up and I put the mic back on the stand because somebody in the audience was louder than me. I walked in the back and a woman came back and said 'I was listening to you.'

"My need for approval and acceptance is strong, just like anyone else. When people laugh, it's incredible gratification. This is a form of self-therapy. There are times when I truly have things on my mind. I get my center and usually my gut tells me more about what's going on then my eyes."

Don't miss Enviromedian James Wesley Jackson, this week at Nick's Comedy Stop.

Jackson will initially treat an audience as a single, one-minded entity. "When they come to a club, they have a collective personality. When they interrupt me, then that forms my timing."

And timing is something that James Wesley Jackson has learned through training and an apparent genuine shyness. "Genuine? That's genuine, because I usually don't know them." ❑

Comedy Listings

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Sandwiches and cold appetizers served. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. New show hours are Sun. at 7:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, and Fri-Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30pm. Every Mon. is Cross comedy. Every Tue. is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase.

Wed 19th.- Jon Stewart, Chris Zito, Janine Ditutlio. Thu 20th thru Sun 23rd.- Jon Stewart, Chris Zito, Helene Lantry. Mon 24th.- Guilty Children (improv). Tue 25th.- Ed Driscoll. Wed 26th.- Brian Regan, Brian Frazer, Julie Barr, Steve Bjork. Thu 27th thru Sun 30th.- Brian Regan, Brian Frazer, Brian Coyne. Mon 31st.- Cross Comedy. Tue 1st.- Brian Kiley.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Fri. and Sat. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat.

Wed 19th.- Jimmy Smith, Todd Parker, Bob Keene. Thu 20th.- Jackie Flynn, Byron Allen, Chris Coccia, Rano. Fri 21st & Sat 22nd.- Mike Donovan, Brian Kiley, Charlie Daily. Sun 23rd.- Jackie Flynn, Dave Barend, Leann Lewis. Mon 24th.- Chris Zito, Cindy Freeman, Jon Groff. Tue 25th.- D.J. Hazard, Don White, Herry Monster. Wed 26th.- Jimmy Smith, Rayme Albert, Carl Yard. Thu 27th.- Chris Coccia, Ralph Nash, Steve Hurley. Fri 28th & Sat 29th.- Jonathan Katz, Chris Coccia, Bob Aubin. Sun 30th.- Chris Zito, Jon Shipman, Rick Jenkins. Mon 31st.- Chris Zito, John Rodgers, Rayme Albert. Tue 1st.- D.J. Hazard, Helene Lantry, James Lemur.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700, Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.

Wed 19th thru Sun 23rd.- Rhonda Shear. Mon 24th.- D.J. Hazard. Tue 25th & Wed 26th.- TBA. Thu 27th.- Anthony Clark. Fri 28th & Sat 29th.- Robert Wuhl.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casuat dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• ImprovBoston at the Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundays at 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE.

Wed 19th thru Sun 23rd.- James Wesley Jackson. Mon 24th.- Open Mic Night with Billy Martin. Tue 25th.- Paul D'Angelo, Larry Reppucci Wed 26th thru Sat 29th.- Eddie Brill, Chance Langton, Jim Lauletta. Sun 30th.- Kevin Knox, Bob Sibel. Mon 31st.- Open Mic Night with Billy Martin. Tue 1st.- Paul D'Angelo, Bob Sibel.

• Renegade Duck 277-0550, at Play it Again Sam's, 1314 Commonwealth Ave., Allston. Boston's improvisational comedy troupe appears every Saturday at 9pm. Admission is $5

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. Every Tue: "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos. Every Wed: Anthony Clark. A must see! Every Thu: Cross Comedy. Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-$10. No dress code.

Wed 19th.- Anthony Clark & guests TBA. Thu 20th.- Cross Comedy. Fri 21st & Sat 22nd.- Chance Langton, Peter Bales, Jerry Thorton. Sun 23rd.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 25th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). Wed 26th.- Anthony Clark, Mike Bent. Thu 27th.- Cross Comedy. Fri 28th & Sat 29th.- Mike Donovan, Bill Campbelt, Julie Barr. Sun 30th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 1st.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

"Best Comedy Club In The Country" --USA Today

THE comedy CONNECTION

FANEUIL HALL
Open 7 Nights A Week!

SHOWPLACE OF THE BIGGEST STARS

TONIGHT, SAT. & SUN.

ROBERT WUHL Aug 28 & 29

KEVIN MEANEY Oct 1 & 2

BOB NELSON Oct 30

ALSO COMING SOON!

Paul Rodriguez Sept 18

David Brenner Oct 16

Felicia Michaels Oct 27-Nov 1

Jimmy Tingle Nov 3-8

Tom Irrera Nov 13

Pat Cooper Nov 27-28

AND MORE!
ACTS SO BIG WE CAN'T MENTION THEM IN THE PAPERS!
RESERVATIONS

248-9700

$3 VALIDATED PARKING

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Death Becomes Her
"A Black Comedy Full of Twists"

Death Becomes Her is an anomaly among summer releases: this black comedy, starring Bruce Willis, Goldie Hawn and Meryl Streep, is well-written, engaging from first scene to last, wickedly funny, and unlike a score of other summer movies, worth the price of admission. The movie centers on the rivalry between two women, Helen Sharp (Goldie Hawn) and Madeline Ashton (Meryl Streep), as well as on the object of both their affections, Dr. Ernest Menville (Bruce Willis), plastic surgeon. When Helen sees Madeline steal Ernest away, she plots a revenge that goes awry, and the circumstances resulting from the dirty deed are hardly what anyone nursed on Hollywood formulas would expect. There has been a lot of press about Death Becomes Her being a ludicrous foray into lookism, but with all this slapstick and morbidity, one gathers that the intention was hardly to be severely non-p.c. Death Becomes Her is funny, surprising and a wonderful guilty pleasure.T.S.L.

Honey, I Blew Up the Kid
"Disney Sci-fi Schlock"

Honey, I Blew Up the Kid, the sequel to Honey, I Shrunk the Kids, is a hybrid: one part Disney and another part sci-fi schlock. Set the happy, suburban Disney family against the plot of the low-budget rampaging giant-movie from the '50s, (Attack of the Fifty Foot Woman, et al) and you get the Amazing Colossal Baby. The special effects are ably handled, and the movie is replete with laughs and clever turns of plot. Rick Moranis returns as Father Wayne and Marcia Strassman is once again his wife, Diane; both actors give outstanding performances. Sequels only invite comparison with their predecessors, and although Honey I Blew Up the Kid has some wonderful moments, it cannot beat its predecessor for sheer directness and simplicity of plot. Regardless, Honey is enjoyable entertainment for kids of all ages — and sizes. It's a cozy, lighthearted and slightly surreal affair that may fall short of its predecessor, but pleases on its own terms. J.S.

Batman Returns
"Worth Seeing, But Not Worth a Wait"

Batman Returns has its moments of glory, but too many evil plots make a mess of the story. In Burton's sequel to 1989's Batman, each of three villains — the Catwoman (Michelle Pfeiffer), the Penguin (Danny Devito), and Max Schreck, corporate mogul (Christopher Walken), — has his or her own set of complex schemes. Conflicting plots leave the movie unable to sustain any momentum or sense of suspense at the climax. Michael Keaton shows a firmer grasp of the Batman role this time around, and Michelle Pfeiffer nearly steals the show. Director Tim Burton has decided to repeat the virtues of the original film (good sets and great performances), while expanding its vices. Batman Returns is worth seeing, but not worth spending the

Buffy the Vampire Slayer
"A Lifeless Farce from Beyond the Grave"

Buffy, a vapid Valley Girl, comes of age when she realizes her ancient birthright as a killer of the undead in Buffy the Vampire Slayer, the latest teen-marketed summer flick. What could have been a bitingly satirical movie is instead a lifeless farce with few moments of actual comedy. An underscore of sexuality permeates the film, as Buffy gains the attentions of a new beau (Luke Perry) and approaches that pinnacle of adolescent sex rituals - the senior dance. In the obligatory battle scene, we see our heroine in her virginal white gown, her heaving bosom glistening with perspiration, jutting ten-inch spikes into male vampiric offenders. Kristy Swanson is likeable as Buffy, but Rutger Hauer and Donald Sutherland sleepwalk through their roles. T.S.L.

The Best Intentions Strikes Gold

Henrik Bergman (Samuel Froler) shares a tender moment with wife Anna Bergman (Pernilla August) in Bille August's The Best Intentions

BY TIM S. LEMIRE

Samuel Johnson, paraphrasing the bible, said that hell is paved with good intentions. The Best Intentions, the new Samuel Goldwyn release written by Ingmar Bergman and directed by Bille August, dramatizes the aphorism in a moving love story between a young aristocrat and an aspiring priest. The directness of Bergman's script, articulated in fine performances by Samuel Froler and Pernilla August (she won Best Actress for this role at Cannes), make The Best Intentions one of the finest films of the year to date.

Few of this film's characters are confident about the love relationship between Anna Akerblom and the brooding priest-in-training, Henrik Bergman. Like Leonard Bast in Howard's End (who, ironically, Henrik bears an uncanny resemblance to), young Bergman is of a lower class, and Anna's white lace and crumpet family cannot approve; moreover, Henrik is already engaged. When Anna's mother plots to keep her daughter and Bergman separated, she undoubtedly has the best intentions; however, the "disaster" she seeks to avoid in allowing them to unite becomes a disaster of lies and time wasted on misunderstandings.

When the lovers do come together, it is Henrik's confused emotions and violent truculence that create discord; we can tell, however, that he attempts only to find the good. Anna, meanwhile, takes steps to protect herself and her marriage, asserting her best intentions even if it hurts Henrik.

THE BEST INTENTIONS

THE SAMUEL GOLDEN COMPANY
DIRECTED BY BILL AUGUST
STARRING:
SAMUEL FROLER
PERNILLA AUGUST
MAX VON SYDOW

Bergman's script is intensely direct; when characters speak, they are forthright and genuine. In one scene, Henrik's fiancée Frida (played by Lena Endre) talks to Anna about the man they both love, saying, "He needs someone to like, so that he doesn't have to hate himself so much." Such insight doesn't sound stilted coming from the mouth of a lower-class waitress - rather it resounds with genuine emotion. Director Bille August handles Bergman's script masterfully, and indeed knows when not to depend on it to give the movie its power.

August has such trust in the actors he directs that he frequently relies on long shots of peoples' faces without dialogue, where minute reactions and the smallest gestures convey deep-laden emotion. When Anna and Henrik are left alone beside a river, with Anna absent-mindedly picking flowers, she turns to him and the exchange of glances is powerful enough for the entire sequence to lack any dialogue. A spare musical score by Stefan Nillson haunts the background, reminding the viewer of the value of economy and succinctness.

Lead actress Pernilla August is magnificent, portraying with tenderness and fierce emotion Anna's growth from a blushing young girl to an independent and strong-minded woman. Samuel Froler as Henrik Bergman is her emotional foil; the majority of the time on screen he must convey his inner turmoil while wearing the bland veneer of his unchanging, brooding face.

The Best Intentions clocks in at a little over three hours, so prepare yourself for a good sit. The last third of the film does lose a little steam - Bergman introduces a subplot of a workers' strike that isn't developed very much - but overall the movie is paced well and the ending comes, like many great endings, when you least expect it. ❑

M

Single White Female

Doesn't Keep Her Promise

Allison Jones (Bridget Fonda, left) admires the earrings that her new roommate, Hedra Carlson (Jennifer Jason Leigh), has given her.

BY BETSY CARPENTER

Allison Jones kicks her boyfriend out of her huge rent controlled apartment in New York and finds herself the Roommate From Hell in Single White Female. Directed by Barbet Schroeder (Reversal of Fortune and Barfly), this urban nightmare features two of the brightest lights in today's firmament of young actresses - Bridget Fonda (Peter's daughter who appeared in Scandal and Strapless) and Jennifer Jason Leigh (who was stunning in Last Exit to Brooklyn). The promise of an intriguing situation, high-voltage talent and an esteemed director has lead to speculation that this would be one of the best films of the summer.

Allie(Fonda) picks Hedy(Leigh) to be her new roommate. During the next few months, Hedy intertwines her life with Allie's. Hedy wears her perfume, lipstick, clothes and has her hair cut and colored to match her roommate's. She also becomes disturbingly possessive. When stealing the mail and erasing messages doesn't prevent Allie's romance from reviving, Hedy surprises Allie's sleeping boyfriend at his hotel room and, in a landmark scene, orally rapes him.

How do you deal with an identity stealing psycho?

With everything that Single White Female has going for it, it is a pity that it falls short of being a taut, spooky, psychological thriller. Despite the poor pace which this film seems to enjoy, there are a couple of scary moments to be found. The opening sequence of two twins playing dress-up is beautifully rendered, as is a scene where Hedy is left alone with their whimpering dog. But the poignancy of these scenes only draws more attention to the promise that the film offers, but fails to keep.

In a very real sense, if you've seen the trailer of the film, you have seen the movie.

The performances from Fonda and Leigh - which should have led the picture to a very high place - simply fall flat in scene after scene. By the end, Single White Female has deteriorated into just another slasher film, with Hedy wandering around armed with knives and hooks. It is terrible thing to see a film which could have been a Silence of the Lambs choose to end up as this year's The Hand that Rocks the Cradle.

Ultimately, Barbet Schroeder must shoulder the responsibility for the weaknesses of this picture. He misses too many opportunities and is far too direct and obvious. Schroeder seems so bent on filming a commercial slasher film that he shoots past the rich underbelly which the audience really wants to explore.

Single White Female has its moments, it also has its shame. This one didn't even try to be good. ❑

SINGLE WHITE FEMALE

TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX
DIRECTED BY
BARBET SCHROEDER
BRIDGET FONDA
JENNIFER JASON LEIGH
R

CRITICS CHOICE

KEY
A Winner
A Toss Up
For the Birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	L.A. Times	Village Voice	Newsweek	People	Time
A League of Their Own
Mo' Money						—	—		—
Sister Act
Honey I Blew Up the Kid
Death Becomes Her
Buffy the Vampire Slayer
Unlawful Entry
Bebe's Kids						—	—		—
Universal Soldier							—
Batman Returns

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A League of Their Own
"Steals Home"

Penny Marshall directs A League of Their Own, a fictional movie based on the true events of the first women's professional baseball teams. With an all-star cast on the field, Marshall scores big. Geena Davis plays Dottie, a dairy worker recruited by a scout - the incessantly sharp Jon Lovitz. At the try-outs, we're introduced to "All the way Mae" (Madonna) and tough-talking Delores (Rosie O'Donnell), who in tandem, keep the lines cracking and the audience laughing. As she did with her Oscar-nominated Awakenings, Marshall has once again enlightened the public to a heartwarming and noteworthy story. L.M.B.

Raising Cain
"A Campy Horror House Ride"

"Do you realize how little we know about the development of the personality?" exclaims Dr. Carter Nix in the first few minutes of Raising Cain. Brian DePalma's latest thriller doesn't help us learn anything more. John Lithgow plays Carter Nix, child psychologist, as well as four of his multiple personalities, all of whom are involved in an insidious plot of murder and kidnapping. Had writer/director DePalma given Lithgow more time onscreen to display his talent in taking on multiple roles, Raising Cain would have been an intelligent film: Sybil meets Psycho. Instead, Cain is a campy horror house ride, filled with self-effacing parody and a downright dumbheaded resolution. DePalma's use of imagery is heavy-handed, yes, and his script tells instead of shows, but Cain is still good stupid fun and thrills that's saved by John Lithgow's performance. T.S.L.

A Stranger Among Us
"An Engaging, Inspiring Mystery"

A Stranger Among Us contains thematic parallels to the 1985 thriller Witness, as Melanie Griffith investigates a mysterious disappearance within New York's Hassidic community. After discovering the subject of her case to be permanently missing, Griffith is forced to go undercover within their community, where culture shock gives way to spiritual discovery and enlightenment. Director Sidney Lumet succeeds in casting Eric Thal (a new face) as the young Hassidic scholar Ariel, who assists Emily in her investigation. Emily and Eric are cultural opposites whose fates draw them into a tale pitting traditional disciplines against modern police work. One of the most pleasing elements is the realistic portrayal of Hassidism, and with a little murder thrown in, you'll witness a drama sure to keep you guessing until the end. T.S.

Enchanted April
"A Delightful Escape"

Anyone craving a trip to Italy should book a passage on Enchanted April. Based on Elizabeth von Arnim's autobiographical novel, and sounding like the latest Merchant-Ivory period piece, the plot follows a quartet of 1920s English ladies who escape rain-soaked London for Italy's blue skies and bluer Mediterranean. Both Lottie (English comedienne Josie Lawrence) and Rose (Miranda Richardson) need an escape from their boorish husbands. They find travel companions in the cantankerous Mrs. Fisher (Joan Plowright), and the radiant Lady Caroline Dester (Polly Walker), who craves a rest from a social whirl. Directed by Mike Newell, you can almost smell the wisteria. Enchanted April provides a delightful respite. W.S.

Mistress
"A Minor-League Player"

In Mistress, failed screenwriter Marvin Landisman is a Hollywood fringe-dweller who directs cooking videos. He must make a sudden decision: stay in L.A. or accept a safe teaching job at Queens college in New York. This should be a difficult choice, but it's not: Marvin's screenplay, about a sensitive artist driven to suicide, is awful! The movie's title refers to the fact that the trio of rich philistines who agree to finance the film do so only because they want parts for their girlfriends. There are several good performances, including Robert DeNiro as a money-man who believes all Marvin's movie needs is "more sex." His curiously likable creep smartly slings his car keys at a restaurant valet in a rare moment of vitality in an otherwise limp satire. A.L.

M

Life in Omnimax

An Adventure in Film at the Museum of Science

BY KATHY MATHESON

". . . images are very large and life-like. If you feel motion sickness, close your eyes and the feeling should pass . . . "

Yeah, they give you a little spiel before showing the films at the Mugar Omni Theatre, but I have a little spiel of my own to give you before you sit back for "the ride of a lifetime."

I beg of you: buy your tickets a day in advance, go after all the little kids' bedtimes, and get there early; if you don't arrive early, you and your date are virtually assured to be seated in single seats. More importantly, you won't have to worry about the four-year-old sitting next to you whispering "Mom, what's that?" throughout the entire film.

No matter which of the three main films you see, each feature is preceded by New England Time Capsule. It's an eight-minute film that serves not so much as an introduction to New England as a preview of what Omnimax can do to your senses - especially after taking the audience on a harrowing, high-speed interchange from the Central Artery onto Storrow Drive. Yikes! Next exit: Antarctica.

It sounds hokey to criticize filmmakers who braved temperatures of 60-below (and colder) to bring you this movie, but, Antarctica tries to squeeze too much into a small amount of time. Of course, you'll come away having learned many things you didn't know before, but how much did you know about the Seventh Continent before you went, anyway? The movie is definitely a patchwork of information, but you try fitting all the mysteries of Antarctica into a 39-minute film.

To the Limit is a quasi-biology lesson as you follow three athletes through their various endeavors and then learn how their body allows them to do it. You get some great footage of the inside of the human body, so if you're squeamish, you may want to pass on this one. For example, you move from a shot of a ski-tip's view of Aspen's downhill course to a shot of the skier's inner ear, and how the brain uses sound to balance the body.

In another type of downhill course, the molten lava flows with abandon down the sides of various volcanoes in Ring of Fire. Very roughly, the "ring" is composed of hundreds of volcanoes that rim the Pacific Ocean. The main focus of the film is how various nationalities deal with the presence of a very volatile climate: from the annual evacuation drill in the Japanese city beneath Mt. Sakurajima to the San Francisco earthquake in '89. The computer graphics in this film are neat, but the explanations about the working forces behind volcanoes is a little confusing.

Basically, the films give you a rough understanding of the science behind each one's main theme; but don't look for magical enlightenment. These movies no more make you an expert on ecology, biology or seismology than "Jeopardy" would make you a historian. The films' accomplishments lie in creating an awareness of issues beyond Life in the Big City; now that your curiosity has been piqued, it's up to you to learn the rest on your own. ❑

WHAT'S PLAYING

Call Theaters for Times

Loews Beacon Hill
Bebe's Kids (PG-13)
Mo' Money (R)
Boomerang (R)
Loews Charles
A Stranger Among Us (PG-13)
Batman Returns (PG-13)
Patriot Games (R)

Loews Cheri
A League of Their Own (PG-13)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Unforgiven (R)
Single White Female (R)

Loews Copley Place
Three Ninjas (PG)
Basic Instinct (R)
Housesitter (PG)
Stay Tuned (PG)
White Man Can't Jump (R)
Pinocchio (G)
Sister Act (PG)
Buffy the Vampire Slayer(PG-13)
The Player (R)
My Cousin Vinny (R)
Honey, I Blew Up the Kid (PG)
Lethal Weapon 3 (R)
Unlawful Entry (R)

Loews Paris
Whispers in the Dark (R)
Loews Nickelodeon
The Hairdresser's Husband
Enchanted April (PG)
Highway 61 (R)
Howards End (PG)
The Best Intentions

Loews Janus
A Stranger Among Us (PG-13)

Loews Harvard Square
Enchanted April (PG)
The Hairdresser's Husband
The Player (R)
Howards End (PG)
Raising Cain(R)
The Rocky Horror Picture Show (R)

Loews Fresh Pond
A League of Their Own (PG)
Boomerang (R)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Boomerang (R)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Unforgiven (R)
Buffy the Vampire Slayer (PG-13)
Honey, I Blew up the Kid (PG)
Mo' Money (R)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Single White Female (R)
Diggstown (R)

Loews Somerville
A League of Their Own (PG)
Boomerang (R)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Raising Cain (R)
Unlawful Entry (R)
Mo' Money (R)
Sister Act (PG)
Unforgiven (R)
Diggstown (R)
Buffy the Vampire Slayer (PG-13)
Whispers in the Dark (R)
Honey, I Blew up the Kid (PG)
Single White Female (R)

Cinema 57
Diggstown (R)
Raising Cain (R)

Somerville Theater
The Playboys (PG-13)

Allston Cinema
Bebe's Kids (PG-13)
Boomerang (R)
Unlawful Entry (R)

Chestnut Hill
Whispers in the Dark (R)
Batman Returns (PG-13)
Sister Act (PG)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Prelude to a Kiss (PG-13)
Buffy the Vampire Slayer (PG-13)

Circle Cinema
Raising Cain (R)
Mo' Money (R)
A League of Their Own (PG)
Diggstown (R)
Unforgiven (R)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Single White Female (R)

Coolidge Corner
The Fourth Animation Celebration
A Woman's Tale
L'elegant criminel
One False Move
A Midnight Clear
Monster in a Box
Near Dark

Brattle
Blue Velvet
The Elephant Man
Wild at Heart
Rear Window
Anatomy of a Murder
I Wake Up Screaming
The Girl in Black Stockings
First of the North Star
Something Wild
Stop Making Sense
The White Sheik
Variety Lights

Framingham Cinema
Stay Tuned (PG)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Whispers in the Dark (R)
Sister Act (PG)
Raising Cain (R)
Honey, I Blew up the Kid (PG)
West Newton Cinema
Strangers in Good Company
Pinocchio (G)
The Player (R)
Raise the Red Lantern (NR)
Enemy of the People
Honey, I Blew Up the Kid (PG)
Three Ninjas (PG)
A Stranger Among Us (PG-13)
Mediterraneo
Beauty and the Beast (G)

Museum of Science
Antarctica & The New England Time Capsule
Ring of Fire & The New England Time Capsule
To the Limit & The New England Time Capsule

Featuring Films You Won't Find Anywhere Else
Mike's MOVIES
557 Tremont St.
(At Clarendon St.)
Boston's South End
266-9222

4th Anniversary SALE
WINGS COMM. INC.
永聲傳呼
620 Washington St., Boston, 451-9221

NEC P-400 $450
Motorola Ultra Classic M $250
Motorola Micro TAC-Lite $750* Free car cord
- Largest Selection of Cellular Accessories
- Knowledgeable Staff
- Open on Saturdays Too!

Cellular Phone Prices Valid with 199 days minimum new Cellular One activation on standard service rate plans.
Appropriate New England Telephone and Roaming Charges Apply.
(SALE PRICES VALID TILL SEPT. 10 1992)
An Authorized Service Provider of: CELLULARONE

BOOKS

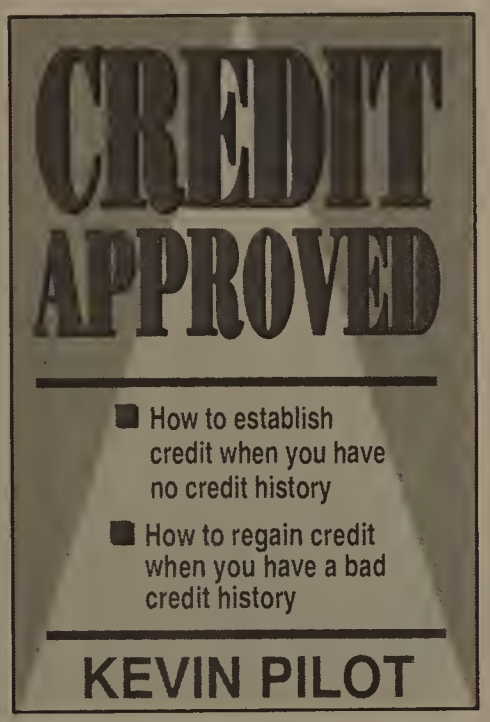
CREDIT APPROVED

BY KEVIN PILOT
BOB ADAMS, INC.
1992, PAPERBACK

BY: LISA M. BONNELL

"Ugh! How am I going to pay my Visa Bill?"

If this is a question frequently on your mind, you are not alone. Due to today's recessionary times, many people who may have not been able to obtain credit a few years ago have it now and the monthly statements to prove it. Whether you're paying for school, necessities or just dinner, charging has become a way of life.



A way of life that some people just can't control. Kevin Pilot's Credit Approved, attempts to answer all your credit ills. This new manual tells you how to get it, what to do if you can't pay your bills, and how to regain credit after you've lost it. It also details credit bureaus and their credit history reports but it simply cannot adequately answer all the questions that are raised.

Filled with this smattering of information on credit as a whole, this book lacks the in-depth analysis needed to truly understand each aspect of the subject. Pilot has written this book in a conversational tone that speaks to the reader, yet it quickly becomes redundant. Often he repeats the same point several times and his commentary is muddled with cliché's (Credit is a double edged sword).

Pilot takes a defensive stance on the practices, accuracy and ethics of credit bureaus and their reports, yet never backs up his accusations sufficiently to claim solid journalistic objectivity. When referring to the credibility of some reports, he says, "...too often very little in-depth research is actually done, an according to some reports, 'credit analysts' are often encouraged to make inferences and even tell outright lies." Never does Pilot attribute these statements or tell "whose" reports they are.

Later he goes on to say, "If you are like most consumers, you will probably find at least one error in your credit report, and possibly negative information." While this may be true, Pilot lacks facts and statistic information to back up much of his claims in the book.

The heart of the book deals with what to do when you can't pay your bills, managing your debt and considering bankruptcy. Much of this information seems like common sense (Prioritize your expenses: beginning with shelter and food). However, for those creditors who are out of control and need guidance, they need and deserve a little more help than three chapters in Credit Approved. ❑

EMPOWER YOUR LIFE

Meditation Enlightenment
Buddhism Happiness
Power Miracles
Balance Wisdom
Career success Reincarnation

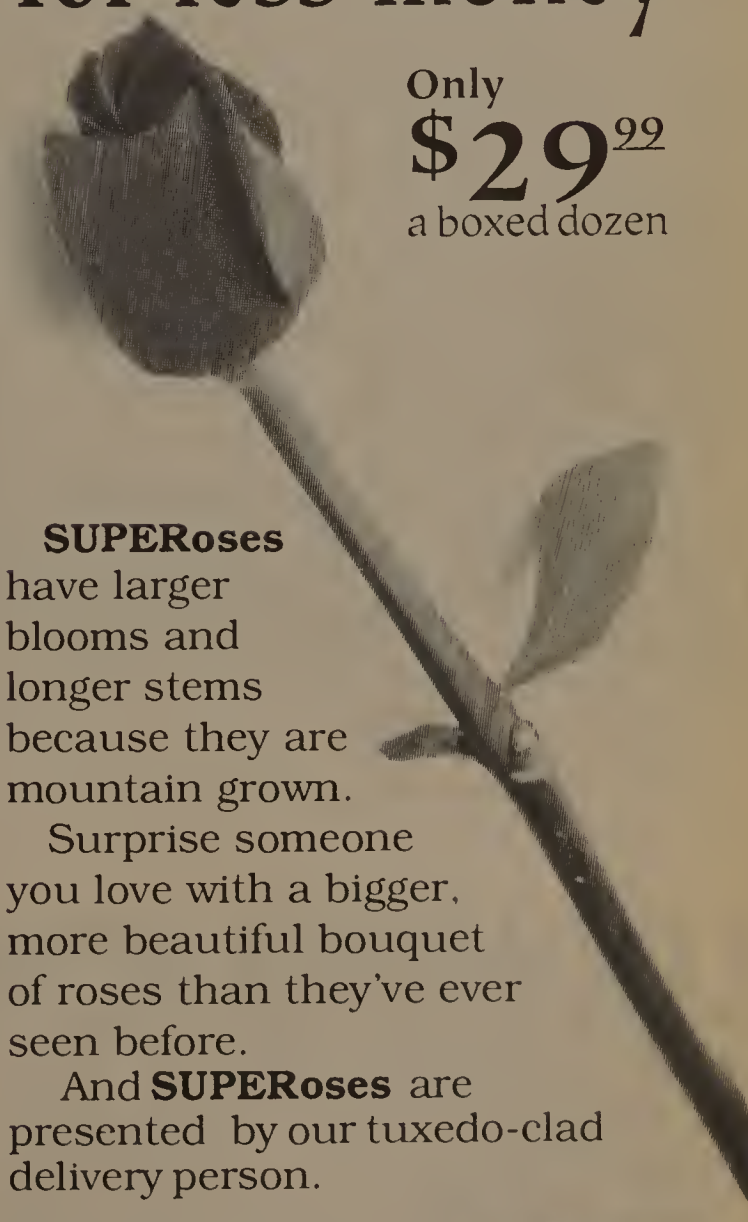
Wednesday, August 26, 7:30–9:00 pm
Wednesday, September 2, 7:30–9:00 pm
Sheraton Commander Hotel
16 Garden Street
Cambridge, MA
(across from Cambridge Common)
(617) 446–9719

MEDITATION
PSYCHIC DEVELOPMENT
& TALES OF POWER

FREE CLASSES FREE

The New England Meditation Society



Futons • Frames • Desks • Dressers • Chairs • Stools • Tables

Assembled Solid Pine
Ready to Finish Bookcases
Over 500 in Stock
*Low Low Prices
36" X 72"X 9½"
$75.64
Also custom made bookcases

The Bookcase Factory Outlet
435 Mass. Ave., Central Sq., Cambridge
617-547-0802 • Open 7 Days
For additional savings ask about our Connections Special*
Telephone orders accepted. Visa, MC, Am. Ex.. Delivery can be arranged.

Give Beautiful
SUPERoses©
for less money

Only
$29.99
a boxed dozen

SUPERoses have larger blooms and longer stems because they are mountain grown.

Surprise someone you love with a bigger, more beautiful bouquet of roses than they've ever seen before.

And SUPERoses are presented by our tuxedo-clad delivery person.

FREE Downtown Boston Delivery
inexpensive delivery to other areas
Call Today
269-4444
Ask for SUPERoses! from ROSExpress.

ROSExpress

Cynthia Laird & Hanley © 1992

ARTS

To Weave For the Sun

Andean Textiles at the Museum of Fine Arts

BY CARRIE SHEPHERD

In an exhibit that transports one to another place and time, the Museum of Fine Arts' To Weave for the Sun displays 50 of their finest Andean textiles dating from approximately 500 B.C. to the Spanish Colonial period. These fabrics are remarkable for their beauty and intricate techniques alone, but informative plaques accompanying every item provide facts that aid in understanding the importance and significance of each piece - edification for history buffs, fashion enthusiasts and art-lovers alike.

The dimly lit room - necessary to prevent fading and deterioration of the fabrics - adds to the exhibit's ambiance. The textiles of the Andean world were precious commodities as evidenced by the Inca's ritualistic burnings of their finest tapestry weavings as sacrifices to the sun. The elaborate design, as well as the required skill and time to create these tapestries and garments added to their value; many of the finest were woven for Wari officials or had religious significance. Several of the items surrounded thickly-wrapped bodies buried in Peru's desert sands for 2000 years. These sands provided a service which preserved the rich, vibrant colors.

Museum of Fine Arts

Pair of Miniature Shoes with Metal Plaques and Soles, Late Intermediate Period, 1000 - 1476 AD

One such poncho (dating from the first century B.C.) is midnight blue - with the neck and outer edge bordered with embroidered birds on blocks of red, green and gold. Within the birds are other birds, in a characteristic nesting design.

The Andean people were masters of detail. One deep blue mantle is covered with extremely detailed bird men, each holding a snake in one hand and a "trophy head" in the other. Each figure is embroidered in different color combinations; two tiny heads cover each of their chests and others, even smaller, line their wings.

Fabrics were created with the simplest of means, but reveal a wealth of technical sophistication. Made on basic frame looms, they were embroidered, brocaded, painted and dyed in any number of combinations. A sleeveless tunic with tie-dyed stepped triangles is an example of such innovative construction. Stepped-triangle shapes of cloth were woven separately within a single fabric,

Museum of Fine Arts

Four cornered hat with composite Avian-camelid figures, Middle Horizon, probablyt Wari,500-800 AD with threads called scaffolds stretched across the loom to hold the various sections together during weaving. Strips of triangles were tie died and reassembled in a cacophony of colors and patterns.

A small red bag for coca leaves (chewed to stave off hunger and provide energy during mountain treks), displays seven weaving techniques and is indicative of the pride and care these artisans took in creating even everyday items. The fringed bag is covered with large crosses and butterflies on its top section and many tiny llamas on its bottom. A tiny triangular fringed appendage also is decorated with a llama.

The colors of these fabrics is a unifying element of the works. The cream and brown occur naturally in Andean cotton, the vibrant scarlet was obtained from the cochineal beetle. A cup of dried, pulverized beetles generated dye for one pound of yarn. The indigo blue was rare and difficult to obtain: one mantle covered with many headdressed figures has this color solely on the lower zigzag band of teeth on a single figure.

Almost all the textiles are made from the hair of animals native to the mountainous region - the llama, alpaca, guanaco and vicuna - but the Spanish contest brought new materials to the indigenous people of the Andes. A late 16th or 17th century cushion cover depicting a coat of arms is made of Spanish linen and Chinese silk. The figures on this fabric are shaded (a new innovation), while the use of silk enabled artisans to work with extreme detail and subtle colors.

Perhaps the most unique item is a featherwork tunic fragment estimated to be from the period of 500-800 A.D. Bright orange, yellow and blue tropical bird feathers combine to form upright figures adorned with tapestry tunics. Another interesting piece is a knit cap many trendy people today would die for: it's fringed with more than 90 human hair braids wrapped in bands of dyed thread.

To Weave for the Sun is open through November. A concert of traditional Andean music on September 27, weaving demonstrations beginning August 16, and lectures beginning October 18, will complement the exhibit. ❑

Museum of Fine Arts

Mantle/Shroud with Tocapu Motifs

LOOKING FOR A COMPUTER OR
A BICYCLE BUILT FOR TWO OR A GRAPHIC DESIGN OR A NEW SONG TO SING
OR A FLOWER FOR YOUR SWEETIE OR VINTAGE PROM DRESS OR A BOAT TO FLOAT OR A NEW ROOMMATE OR AN OLD WATCH OR BLOOD TEST OR DATE FOR DINER OR A CATERED LUNCH OR A JOB FOR THE NINETIES
?

WE'VE GOT WHAT YOU NEED.
The Improper Bostonian
Classifieds.
Phone it to 617-232-3507. Fax it to 617-232-4305.

A

The Phantom of the Opera

A Lush Score and Talented Acting, but Where's the Passion?

Kevin Gray as "The Phantom" and Teri Bibb as "Christine" in "The Phantom of the Opera"

BY NANCY LEONARD

Hyped into a mega-hit, Andrew Lloyd Webber's The Phantom of the Opera (the real one) is actually rather small-scale in its emotional reach and decorative impact. To be sure, there's considerable splendor in the production at the Wang Center, which lacks nothing of the original, and seems perfectly at home in the restored gilt antiquity. But there's no thrill in the oh-so-precisely executed proceedings. The chief virtues of this grand endeavor are its newness and its special effects. That may or may not be enough for theatregoers.

Webber - who composed the music and wrote the book with Richard Stilgoe - culled the essentials from Gaston Leroux's pulp novel, published in 1911. Set in the Paris Opera House in the late 19th century, the story focuses on a hideously deformed composer/inventor, whose secret and dominant will has advanced the career of a young dancer-singer but not won her heart. Christine Daae, whom the unknown Phantom plucked from the chorus and trained for stardom, loves her childhood friend, Raoul, the Vicomte de Chagny.

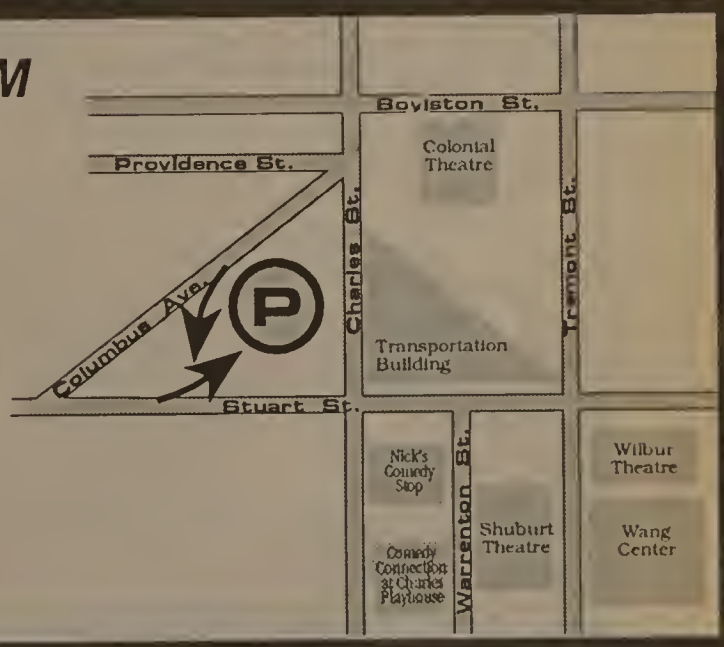
As Christine takes the place of Carlotta Giudicelli, the company's leading soprano, she is torn by feelings of loyalty to her Angel of Music and fear of his wrath. His presence is everywhere in the opera house, and his tricks are deadly. She yearns for Raoul to set her free.

The irresistible tension of the competing romances should drive the story, but it simply doesn't in this Wang Center incarnation. Though everyone hits the right points, there's little sense of power or passion crossing the footlights. (A notable exception is the frisson stirred by the Phantom's disguise in his own opera.) Some segments, too, dissolve into plot-stopping blankness, as the sound system obscures any sense of meaning when voices combine in song. For some reason, one is reminded of a perfectly adroit gymnast, skillfully tackling elaborate routines without cracking a smile: something is missing without infectious exultation.

Director Harold Prince's staging is darkly atmospheric - with Andrew Bridge's magnificent lighting and Maria Bjornson's fabric reproductions filling the relatively bare stage. Gillian Lynne's choreography and musical staging add further luster. The action flows smoothly through elaborate scene changes, taking us swiftly from the onstage proscenium, to various back stage locations, to the candle-lit subterranean vault beyond the lake. It's a rich and stylish theatrical vision.

As a prime example of "techno-theatre," the production is filled with special effects. Repeatedly, the Phantom hurls lightning bolts, and magically disappears from view.

He materializes suddenly behind a mirror, and beckons Christine inside. Eavesdropping on every conversation, he casts ominous shadows, disrupts scenery, throws his voice, and perches astride statuary which can do his bidding. Overall, the tricks are vivid, impressive stagework, but they're less than dazzling. The best effect is the eruption of hot flames from the stage floor. The most famous - the falling chandelier - is disappointing in its slow descent, followed by an overly abrupt first-act curtain. And if you're going to spend millions making a chandelier crash at the feet of your heroine, you'd think there'd be a sound!



The score is lush, operatically sung through, and pleasantly engaging. Few numbers stand out in the musical flow; but apart from the already familiar selections ("The Music of the Night," and the title song), there are some attractive discoveries ("Angel of Music," "All I Ask of You," "The Point of No Return"). The populous "Masquerade" makes a strong impression, but seems overly long. Although the musical themes and the lyrics (by Charles Hart and Mr. Stilgoe) were carefully designed to advance the plot and illustrate feelings and character, too much gets lost in the Wang Center expanse. A novice would do well to bone up on the libretto and score before attending.

The performers are talented, with fine acting skills and strong voices, but there's more precision than passion in their art. Kevin Gray - looking occasionally like Quentin Crisp in a black fedora - sings wonderfully, and nicely captures the Phantom's anguish. The evildoing, though, remains confusing. Terri Bibb is a lovely and substantial Christine, with a high soprano that strengthens as her stardom increases. Nat Chandler is handsome but too young and callow as Raoul. Patricia Hurd is funny as temperamental Carlotta. Olga Talyn is extremely good as the Phantom's stern messenger while David Huneryager and Rick Hilsabeck capably play the beleaguered managers.

This full-scale Phantom is filled with fine art and technical wizardry. It's a sure-fire theatrical draw but surprisingly, contains little magic to move its audience. ❑

- Enter garage after 5PM Mon.- Fri. or 9 AM Sat. & Sun. exit by 3AM.
- Present same day theatre ticket stub to lobby cashier.
- Pay just $5.50.

Motor Mart Garage
Kinney System, Inc.
26 Park Plaza, Boston
617-482-8380

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are now on sale for Boston Ballet's 1992-93 season. Performances include The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, Etudes Program, Cinderella, All Balanchine and Romeo and Juliet. Call 931-2000 for more information.

Dance Complex
536 Mass. Ave., Cambridge
The new generation of choreographers bring their work to the public in the second Shared Choreographers Concert on Aug. 21-22 at 8pm. Audience members are treated to movement by the dance makers of today; this is modern dance at its freshest. Tickets are $6.

Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival
at the Ted Shawn Theatre
Becket
From Aug. 18-22, choreographer Garth Fagan examines the physical and psychological aspects of exile, journey and discovery in Griot New York. (In West Africa, a griot is the keeper of oral history.) David Parsons and his stunning eight-member company will perform Aug. 25-29. Parson, a former leading dancer with the Paul Taylor Company, creates movement from a dance vocabulary ranging from stark post-modern dance to light-hearted choreography peppered with humor and wit. Tickets are $24-$28.

Gifted poet, director and actress Laurie Carlos brings the visceral and highly-charged White Chocolate for my Father to the Studio Aug. 21-23. From Aug. 28-30, the Studio/Theatre will feature the Jacob's Pillow debut of the eclectic, athletic ODC/San Francisco. ODC's movement vocabulary stems from ballet yet includes diverse theatrical influences. Tickets are $10. Call 413-243-0745 for times and more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
See "The Berlin Wall," an exhibit of photographs covering the Cold War, 1945 to 1989, from the BPL's Boston Herald-Traveler collection. On display Mon.-Fri. 9am-4pm, through August.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
World-renowned climber, cartographer and aerial photographer Bradford Washburn displays more than 40 stunning black-and-white photos of the world's most dramatic mountain ranges. Through Sept. 7.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Come see NESOP's student exhibition, work from graduates of the two-year Professional Photography program. The show consists of work in black & white, color, experimental color, advertising, corporate, editorial, photojournalism and portraiture. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm; the show runs through Aug. 28.

Photographic Resource Center
at Boston University
602 Comm. Ave., Boston
Montreal photographer Donigan Cumming brings his gothic installation "The Mirror, the Hammer and the Stage" to the PRC from Sept. 1-27. Cumming is known for his gothic portraits of people, often aging or infirm, sometimes just odd. The PRC is open Tue.-Sun. 12-5pm and Thur. until 8pm. Admission is $3; free Thur. from 5-8pm.

CLASSICAL

Great Woods
Mansfield
The world-renowned Boston Pops Orchestra closes the Great Woods 1992 season on Aug. 23 at 8pm. Innovative vocalist Bobby McFerrin will be the guest conductor. Call 508-339-3333 for more information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass. Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

Nichols House Museum
55 Mt. Vernon St., Boston
The Nichols House Museum offers a unique glimpse into 19th- and early 20th-century life in Boston's Historic Beacon Hill District. This impressive four-story townhouse was constructed in 1804, when Yankee fortunes were being amassed through mercantile trading. Call for tour times: 227-6993.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
The BPL screens award-winning documentaries every Thursday at 6pm this summer: See Coney Island and The Satellite Sky on Aug. 20 and on Aug. 27 it's Isadora Duncan: Movement from the Soul and The Man They Call Will James. On Mondays at 3pm and 6:30 pm, the BPL salutes Frank Capra with a film series: Aug. 24 it's Arsenic and Old Lace. The Marilyn Monroe film series continues Aug. 25 with The Misfits. It was both Monroe's and Clark Gable's last film. All movies are screened in Rabb Lecture Hall and admission is free.

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Mondays it's Film Noir; Tuesdays it's Japanimation; come to Rock 'n' Roll Wednesdays; Federico Fellini is showcased on Thursdays; Fridays and Saturdays are special engagements; Sundays are Summer Sizzlers. For further film information, call 876-6837.

DeCordova Museum
Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln
Through Sept. 7, the DeCordova will show a selected group of winning videos from the 17th Annual New England Film and Video Festival. This nationally-recognized, juried competition celebrates the diversity and excellence of independent student media arts within our region.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
See the films of Alain Tanner through Aug. 26: Aug. 19 it's Return from Africa and The Woman from Rose Hill; on the 21st see The Salamander and Flame in My Heart; on the 26th, see The Middle of the World and Messidor. From Aug. 27-Sept. 18, the MFA presents "Of Blazing Passions: Hong Kong Films in the Eighties": Aug. 27-28 see Chicken and Duck Talk and Encounter of the Spooky Kind. Tickets are $5; all films are screened in Remis Auditorium with English subtitles. Call 267-9300 for times.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
See Antarctica through November: An extraordinary excursion across Earth's last wilderness in this breathtaking adventure film. Also showing are Ring of Fire (about active volcanoes in the Pacific Ocean), To the Limit (telling the story of three athletes' quest for the ultimate performance) and New England Time Capsule (giving a breathtaking glimpse at the beauty of New England). Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only museum in the world devoted solely to educating the public about computers and their impact on society. Enjoy over 100 interactive exhibits, including the award-winning Walk-Through Computer. On exhibit through September 7 is "Silicon Sailing." Come design and race your own 75-foot, 11 story yacht against other visitors in a computer simulation of the America's Cup course. This interactive exhibit lets you explore the computer technology behind America^3, the winner of the 1992 America's Cup. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. In the Fogg Museum, see "Italian Old Master Drawings" from the collection of Jeffry E. Horvitz from Aug. 15- Oct. 11. In the Sackler, view Northern Indian paintings and objects of the 17th-19th centuries in the exhibit "Poignant, Picturesque and Beserk." Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 5pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Now you can take a water shuttle from Long Wharf (Quincy Market) to the museum. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
MFA presents "To Weave for the Sun: Andean Textiles" through Nov. 15. Representing almost 2,500 years, this exhibition of 50 Andean textiles from the permanent collection presents a chronological overview of Pre-Columbian and Colonial period textiles.

For those into contemporary art, the MFA houses a traveling exhibition devoted to Jackie Winsor until Nov. 1. Her "human-scaled" sculptures are made in a variety of materials— rope, cement, brick and wood.

"The Grand Tour: European and American Views of Italy" runs through Jan. 17. A companion to "The Lure of Italy" (opening Sept. 16 in the MFA's Gund Gallery), this exhibition features American and European paintings from the 17th through the 19th centuries depicting Italian scenes. The paintings will be drawn from the renowned permanent collection at the MFA. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-4:45pm, 9:45pm for exhibits. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!," the nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs, remains on display through Sept. 7. Through Sept. 13, ponder the Norman B. Leventhal collection of more than 60 colorful, extraordinary maps ranging in age from before Columbus' voyage to the present day. Examine global climate change - its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it - in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth."

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are M, T, F, 9am-6pm; W, Th, 9am-8pm; Sat, Sun & Holidays, 9am-7pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

(continued on following page)

BAY STATE TICKET

Wang Center
Phantom of the Opera	Aug .- Nov.
Boston Garden
Grateful Dead	9/25 - 9/27
	9/29, 9/30, 10/1
Symphony Hall
Liza Minnelli	9/23 - 9/27
Foxboro Stadium Events:
U2	8/20, 8/22, 8/23
Guns N Roses / Metallica	9/11
Great Woods Events:
James Taylor	8/26 - 8/29
Bonnie Raitt	8/31
B52's / Violent Femmes	9/5
Elton John	9/15, 9/16

Theater, Red Sox and Patriot Tickets
We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold

(617) 734-TIXX

A

(Museums continued)

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
The stylish, enigmatic and wickedly funny drawings of Edward Gorey come to life in Amphigorey: The Musical. The title is a play on the word "amphigourl," meaning a collection of nonsensical writings. The cast brings to live stories such as "The Gashlycrumb Tinies," "The Curious Sofa" and "The Weeping Chandelier." The play runs Aug. 26-Sept. 6. Call 547-8300 for times and ticket information.

Back Alley Theater
1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge
The BAT presents Fallen Angels by Noel Coward, the infinitely sophisticated author of Private Lives and Blithe Spirit. Best friends Julia and Jane, both now happily married, are thrown into a tizzy when a man with whom they both had an affair writes asking to see them. Through Aug. 29. Tickets are $15 ($12 for students and seniors); the shows are Thus.-Sats. at 8pm, Suns. at 5pm. Call 576-1253 for more information.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Kendall Cafe
233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave.
Kendall Sq., Cambridge
Every Saturday at 8pm, the Kendall Cafe presents The Drunkard, by W.H. Smith. It's a melodrama from the 1840s with Gay Nineties songs, dances and singalongs. Dinner and show packages are available. Call 661-0993 for more info.

M.I.T. Theater
on campus, Cambridge
The M.I.T. Gilbert and Sullivan players present She Stoops to Conquer, a comedy by Oliver Goldsmith, Aug. 28-30 and Sept. 4-6 at 8pm in Room 6-120 (enter at 77 Mass. Ave.) Information: 547-5065. The M.I.T. Musical Theatre Guild presents the classic Sunday in the Park with George in the Kresge Little Theater (84 Mass. Ave.) on Aug. 28-30, Sept. 3-6 and 10-12. Information: 253-6294.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

North Shore Music Theatre
62 Dunham Rd., Beverly
See Gypsy Aug. 20-Sept 5. This musical about the career of Gypsy Rose Lee stars Oscar, Emmy, Grammy and Tony Award-winner Rita Moreno as Mama Rose! Tickets are available at the theatre's box office in Beverly or by calling (508) 922-8500.

Publick Theatre, Inc.
Outdoor Theatre
Christian A. Herter Park
Soldiers Field Road, Boston
Come see the funny, polgnant, romantic classic Cyrano de Bergerac Aug. 12 through Sept. 6. On Aug. 24, the Publick Theatre presents a special performance called The Women of Shakespeare, Shaw & Sondheim (in case of rain, this performance will be moved to the Days Inn across the street). All performances are at 8pm. Call 782-5425 for ticket prices or more information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Wang Center
270 Tremont Street
Tickets are still on sale for Phantom of The Opera, running from August 4 through November 14. Prices range from $27.50-$60.00. Call Ticketmaster at 931-2222 or the Wang Center at 482-1242 (Groups of 20 or more) for tickets.

LECTURES/READINGS

AIDS Action Committee
131 Clarendon St., Boston
The AAC presents a free and confidential seminar to answer the financial, legal, insurance and job-related questions of men and women who have recently tested HIV positive. It takes place Aug. 19 from 6:30-8:30pm on the 4th floor. Confidentiality assured. Call 437-6200 for more information.

Bookcellar Cafe
1971 Mass. Ave., Cambridge
Patricia Smith and Michael Brown host the Boston Poetry Slam Aug. 20 at 7pm. It starts with an open reading followed by featured readers Ryk McIntyre and Cathy Coley, and then finishes with the "slam." There is another "slam" on the 22nd. For more information, call 864-9625.

Trident Booksellers and Cafe
338 Newbury St., Boston
Erik Jendresen, co-author of Journey to the Island of the Sun, will be reading and signing his book Aug. 20 at 7:30pm. Journey is a compelling, true-life narrative of discovery and adventure set in the mountains and jungles of Peru.

WORKSHOPS

New England Wildflower Society
Hemenway Road, Framingham
On Aug. 30 from 10am-3pm, visit the unique floral community of Cape Cod's coastal ponds (Sandwich, Mass.) to see a cornucopia of rare plants. Pre-registration is required; fee is $22.

EXHIBITS

Alianza
154 Newbury St., Boston
"Tea and Fantasy," an annual exhibition of ceramic teapots, will be on view until Aug. 31. Some are sensuous, delicately airbrushed while others spout bright streams of neon, and one defies the viewer to discover its function. Hours: Mon.-Sat. 10am-6pm; Sundays 12-5pm. Call 262-2385 for more information.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
"Dedications: A Celebration of American Women," a traveling quilt exhibit that honors women who have made a difference, will be on view from Aug. 6-24 in the Great Hall. To celebrate its 115th anniversary, McCall's invited readers to contribute quilted squares dedicated to women whose lives held special meaning to them. This is the phenomenal result.

Coco's Salon Gallery
544 Tremont St., Boston
This gallery shows new works every two months, ranging from impressionist works to those of cubism in paintings and sculptures. Hours are Tue and Sat., 9am-5pm; Wed-Fri., 10am-7pm. Call 451-2050 for more information.

Gallery Per Tutti
112 South St., Boston
This unique gallery offers a salon-style format, allowing the public open communication with working artists in the Boston area. It displays affordable fine art, thus providing a necessary step to meet the changing needs of the local art environment. From July 14-Aug. 29, come see "Collaboration, Boston 1992," a collection of Boston-based photography that will be hosted by the photogs themselves. To learn more, call 482-2710.

Levinson Kane Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston
Come see "The Dog Show: Celebrating Man's Best Friend" from June 27-Labor Day. For dog lovers of all ages, this canine-inspired exhibit salutes dogs with paintings, sculpture, prints, ceramics, handmade books, photographs and more. Call 247-0545.

Mugar Memorial Library
at Boston University
771 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Providing a glimpse into an age of entertainment now past, an exhibit celebrating the life of Harry Houdini is on display through January 1993. "It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" includes a variety of correspondence and memorabilia, including old posters and photographs, from the famous magician.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston
Vose Galleries is pleased to present a selection of over 25 lively watercolors and oils chronicling summertime life on Cape Ann, from festive beachgoers to fishermen laboring on the Gloucester wharves. The show runs through Sept. 25. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri. 8am-5:30pm; Sat. 9am-4pm.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Feast of St. Anthony
North End, Boston
Celebrate and honor St. Anthony all weekend, Aug. 28-30. Street festivals, bands playing and worship mark this event.

Hynes Convention Center
900 Boylston St., Boston
"Fabulous Food from Female Chefs" comes to the Hynes Aug. 20. Sample gourmet delicacies prepared by Boston's best female chefs at this benefit for the YWCA. Call 424-8585 for more information.

Sandcastle Day
Crane Beach, Ipswich
The 16th annual Sandcastle Day, the oldest sandcastling event in America, will be held Aug. 22 (raindate: Aug. 23). Awards will be given, but pre-registration is required. Call 876-7777 for more information.

The Strand
543 Columbia Road, Dorchester
Come to the Gospel Music AIDS benefit on Aug. 22 at 7:30pm. The show includes performances by many local gospel acts, and the money raised goes to support a variety of programs for AIDS patients, including assisting with funeral expenses for families of AIDS patients and care for AIDS patients in the final stages of the illness. Tickets are $15 for adults, $12 for children and seniors. Also at The Strand New Land/scapes: A Contemporary Exploration of Shakespeare on Aug. 28 at 7:30pm. Call 282-8000 for more information.

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"Recall a white lie your mother once told you."

Gary, 25, Millis
"My mother always said that if I kept making cross eyes, they would stay that way."

Gloria, 48, Dorchester
"My mother always told me that if I kept sucking my thumb, I would get buck teeth."

John, 35, South End
"If you don't have clean underwear on, you are liable to get hit by a bus."

Daniella, 46, North End
"Mom used to tell me that if I french-kissed a boy, I'd get pregnant. I guess I took my chances."

Fred, 49, Belmont
"Never marry a redhead - they're too temperamental. To be safe, I made my wife dye her hair."

Melissa, 25, Newton
"When I was in junior high, she told me that if I wore too much make up, I would look vampy."

DINING

Rocco's

The Perfect Marriage of Food and Atmosphere

By Meg Worden and Peter McNamara

Chef Danny Wiesel has been delighting us for years with his unusual and interesting food combinations, so when we heard that the menu at Rocco's had been completely revamped and was now regional Italian in style, we were not only intrigued, but also curious to see how well Chef Wiesel would adapt to the change. We are happy to report that not only are the prices lower than in the past, but also, just about everything we tried was an out-and-out winner.

Rocco's is known for its bizarre decor featuring high-ceilings; actually the ceiling paintings now seem rather appropriate for an Italian restaurant. The festive "larger than life" atmosphere makes this a great spot for a special celebration (at 10:30 midweek, the place was still jumping). With art objects on each table (available for purchase), you'll be amused during any wait period - though service is so good that any "hang" time is fortunately limited.

Each table is set with a bottle of rosemary-infused olive oil (delicious), and in lieu of butter, we were brought a small dish containing a freshly roasted head of garlic for spreading on bread; a very unusual and pleasant change. The menu was so packed with fascinating choices that we were hard put to come to a decision. We liked how the menu identified the geographical origins of many dishes. Bruschetta ($4.50) was toasted olive bread topped with sautéed escarole, pinenuts and caciovala cheese, complemented by chopped onion and capers; the resulting sweet blend of flavors was very pleasing. Rocco's crabcake ($7.75) came with a light parmesan-endive sauce; we would have preferred the outside to be crisper, but the combination of flavors worked well.

We're pleased to note that most pastas are available in both full and half portions. Cappeletti with rabbit ($7.75 or $14.25), the only disappointment of the evening, was a "pasty" hat shaped and cheese-stuffed pasta, served with a surprisingly bland rabbit and sausage sauce. Spaghetti carbonara ($6.75 or $12.50) was a splendid example of this classic; the crunchy pieces of pancetta were the ideal foil for the perfectly cooked pasta, and the cheesy - and understated - cream sauce blended in beautifully. It also contained some tomato - a nontraditional touch that worked extraordinarily well.

Angela Wooldridge

Rocco's decor features ceiling paintings and art objects at tables.

Rocco's

5 Charles Street
South Boston
Tel: 723-6800
Hours: Lunch Mon. - Fri.
11-2:30
Brunch Sat & Sun
Noon - 3
Dinner Mon. - Weds.
5:30 - 10
Thurs. - Sat.
5:30 - 11:30
Sun 5 - 10-
Credit Cards: All Major Cards Accepted
Reservations Recommended
Handicapped Accessible

The grilled duck ($16.75) was a beautifully cooked entree, with pink breast meat and moist dark meat, while the accompanying wild mushrooms and the asparagus wrapped in bacon were wonderful. Osso bucco ($16.25) is a classic dish from Lombardy that is popping up on menus fairly regularly these days. This very healthy sized portion of stewed veal shanks was a little on the fatty side (a little more trimming in the kitchen would make it visually more appealing) but was nonetheless perfectly executed. Baked tuna steak ($17.50) was cooked precisely to our specifications (underdone) and came with some memorable accompaniments including a "coleslaw" of green pepper and radicchio, plus tomatoes with a garlicky breadcrumb topping, and a tasty Sicilian casserole of potatoes, olives and tomatoes.

We were a little surprised that the Italian theme was not continued into the desserts. Some were undoubtedly Italian, like the white chocolate Amaretto tart, which came with a very nice raspberry sauce, but the two other delicious desserts we tried didn't strike us as particularly Italian. The lemon tart was refreshing, and the Rocco road parfait was totally sinful with its bewildering array of flavors (including brownie chunks, caramel nut ice cream and vanilla cookie dough). An added plus about the desserts is that three come in both full sized and tasting portions.

In keeping with the menu, the wine list, too, has been completely overhauled, and contains wines from around the world, including a splendid selection of Italian wines, many of which are very reasonably priced. ❑

BEST Winner of the Improper Bostonian's Best of Boston Award— Outdoor Dining

Italia SPASSO café & bar

Lunch Sun–Sat 11:30–5:00
including brunch specials on Sunday
Dinner Sun–Wed 5:00–10:00 pm
Thurs–Sat 5:00–11.00 pm

Available for private parties and functions.
Valet parking.
On the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Dartmouth Street
160 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

(617) 536-8656

What's cookin' at Bob the Chef's?

WINE & BEER NOW SERVED!

NEW WEEKEND BRUNCH SPECIAL:
FRIED CHICKEN & WAFFLES!

"SOUL CUISINE at its finest!"

Beer

BOB THE CHEF'S

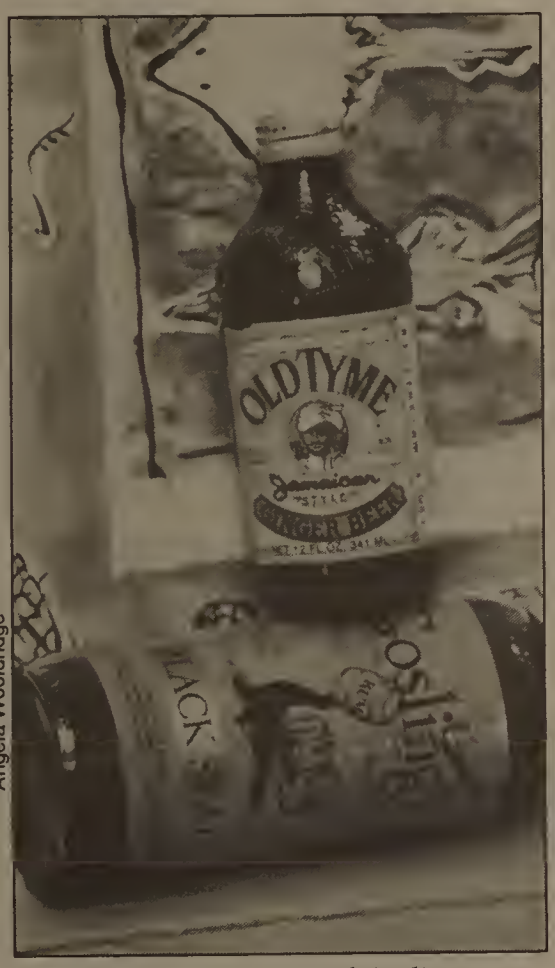
604 COLUMBUS AVE. · BOSTON (617) 536-6204 · TAKE OUT AVAILABLE
MONDAY - SATURDAY: 8 A.M. - 9 P.M. - SUNDAY: 9 A.M. - 6 P.M.

The Adult Soft Drink

Brace Yourself for Ginger Beer

BY AL STANKUS

Let's make some comparisons. Just as WCDJ's brand of music is weenie jazz when compared to Eric Jackson's playlist on WGBH, so too are all other ginger-flavored soft drinks rendered a weenie brew when paired against the bracing bite delivered by Old Tyme's Jamaican-Style Ginger Beer.



Made in Wyomissing, Pennsylvania with plenty of imported Jamaican ginger, Old Tyme Ginger Beer is not for the weak - despite its non-alcoholic status.

Bracing, refreshing and packed with a tangy, crisp bite, the ginger beer is part of a line that contains 14 other Old Tyme carbonated beverages. It's also what Eliott Platt, the Vice President of Chatham Beverage, Old Tyme's parent company and distribution arm, calls, "our flagship product."

In addition to being able to stand on its own as a non-alcoholic refresher. Platt and the folks at Chatham Beverages recognized that "Old Tyme Ginger Beer was very mixable with spirits."

While some of the product's stateside mixability can be traced to transplanted West Indians and tourists who want to recall their island time, the big boost in using Old Tyme with spirits came from yacht clubs, sailors and country clubs.

Some years back, a Bermuda bartender looking to boost sales of Goslings (the dark rum bottled - but not produced - on Bermuda), mixed it with ginger beer. Christened the "dark and stormy," the drink's rather foreboding appearance in concert with its taste (the bite of the ginger tempered by Goslings' subtle sweetness), wreaked of down time on the high seas and became a hit with the Top Sider crowd.

Angela Wooldridge

Old Tyme Ginger Beer and Goslings rum are the key ingredients to a Dark and Stormy Relaxing its mixability, Chatham Beverages not only prints the recipe for a "Dark and Stormy" (1 oz. dark rum with ginger beer and ice), on each six pack container of Old Tyme Ginger Beer, it also gives the formulas for three other cocktails in which their ginger beer is the non-alcoholic base.

The "Shandygaff" combines equal parts beer and Old Tyme Ginger Beer while the "Moscow Mule" teams 1 oz. vodka, 3 ozs. Old Tyme Ginger Beer and a squeeze of lime all over ice.

However, the most interesting and most complicated is something they've dubbed the "Ginger Daiquiri." ❑

Ginger Daiquiri
1 1/2 ozs light rum
1 part sugar
2 parts lime juice (note: fresh is best)
Shake the above with ice, strain into tall glass and fill with Old Tyme Ginger Beer. Makes 1 drink.

CAFFÉ Graffiti
"Come In And Sign Our Wall."
▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato
CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

CAFÉ BRAZIL
Bem-vindo! Welcome!
Serving Beer and Wine.
Listen to Live, Acoustic Samba and Bassa Nova While Enjoying a Scrumptious Dinner!
Reasonable Prices!
15% off w/ this coupon.
*Not valid unless presented when seated.
Good Sun - Thurs for lunch or dinner.
Expires August 15, 1992
421 Cambridge St., Allston MA
789-5980

Four Winds
266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront
(617) 742-3922
seafood grille

D

APPETEASERS

By Marge Chryssostomidis and Peter McNamara

Afftah-Theatah Dinnah

Going to the theatre can be an expensive proposition, and when you include dinner, the costs keep on adding up. At Boston's Downtown Cafe, however, you will find an innovative alternative Wednesdays through Saturdays when a special theatre dinner is offered from 5pm. You can choose from three appetizers and three entrees, attend your event and return any time between 9:45pm and midnight for a dessert sampler plus tea or coffee. All this for just $15.00. If you want to skip dinner and just drop in for the dessert sampler and coffee, the cost is $7.00. For information, call 338-7037.

Isn't That Special

Some special events at local restaurants: At the Back Bay Bistro, white burgundy will be the featured wine from August 19-31, then from September 8-30, East Coast Foods and Wines will be showcased; expect to find some surprising wines along with local produce and seafood ...Cornucopia's Menus From Hot Climes are being offered for the fourth consecutive year; Cajun/New Orleans food will be on the menu from August 18-22, while Mexican is the order of the day from August 25-29. Cornucopia is also running a Wine and Food Pairing Series; Rieslings from around the world will be served on August 26, while on September 9, look for some surprises when New England's own Sakonnet and Westport Rivers Wineries challenge their peers from Oregon and Washington ...Meanwhile in Watertown, On the Square is holding a Royce Vineyard Dinner on August 26, where Jack Duarte, co-owner of Royce Vineyards, will be the special guest.

Are You A Cookie Monster?

Are you a cookie lover? Then if you haven't already tried Cookie Lover's Cookies, you haven't lived. Miss Ashley makes them the old fashioned way, without preservatives and artificial ingredients. The varieties currently available are chocolate crinkles (our favorite), coconut crisps, molasses/spice, pecan-toffee bars and butter/ fruit. They will be available soon in specialty food stores, but meanwhile you can order them by calling 859-0172 weekdays from 9am -5pm.

The Juicy Details

The very trendy Blue Wave now has a full liquor license ...Just Cookbooks moved recently from Porter Square to 99 Mount Auburn Street (right in Harvard Square), tel. 864-0006 ...Fancy a trip to London? The Capital Grille in cooperation with American Airlines is offering two round trip tickets from Boston to London; if you dine there during August, you could be the lucky winner. The drawing takes place at the end of the month...The Wilton Cake Decorating classes at Kitchen Bazaar in the Cambridgeside Galleria proved to be popular, so will be repeated every month, starting September 2. The four week sessions will be held on Wednesdays and Thursdays, and cost $20.00. For information, call 621-6990.

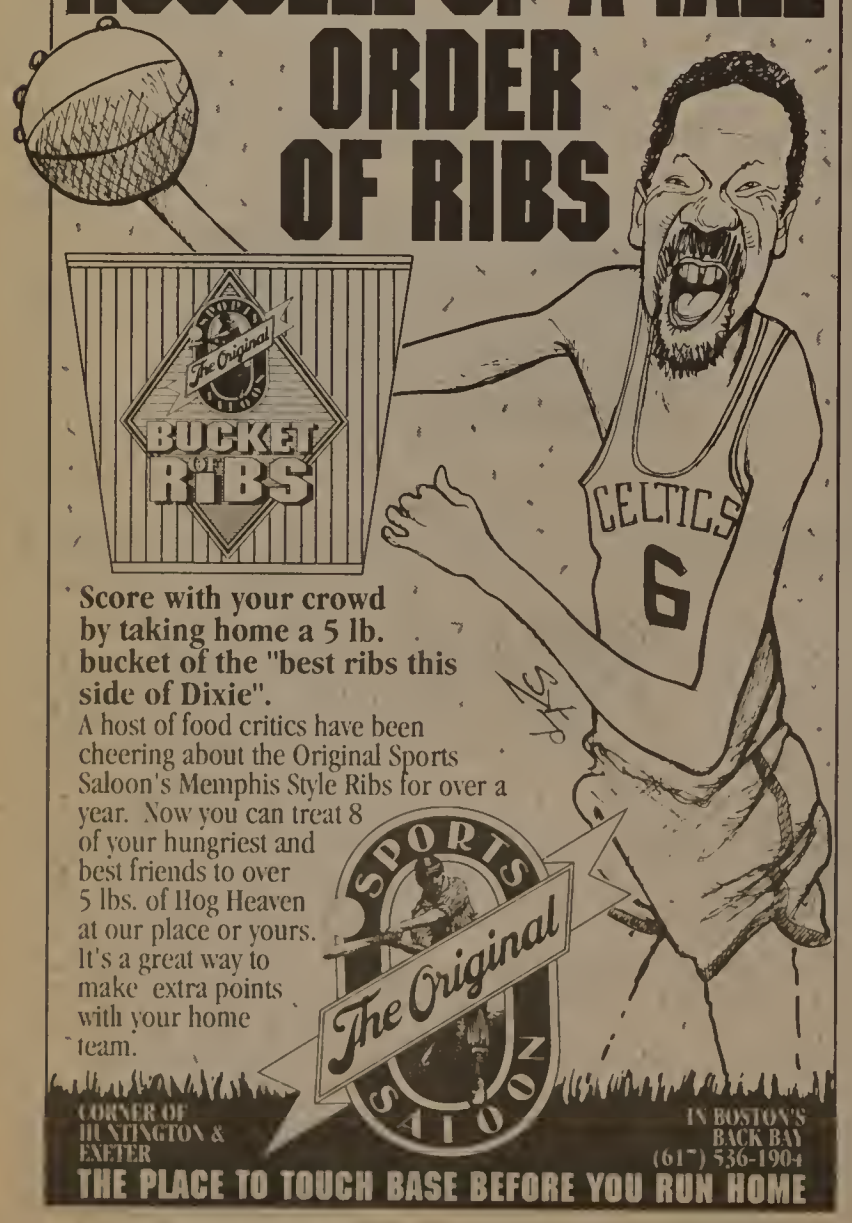
People in the News

A belated welcome to Julia Brant, recently appointed Executive Chef at the Club Cafe, whose new and imaginative menu includes delicious dishes like smoked trout horseradish paté, grilled salmon with a cassis mint vinaigrette, and grilled tuna with niçoise vegetables and anchovy butter (but we did miss the mashed potatoes that used to accompany most dishes - hint, hint!)...Congratulations to Steve Sampson, recently hired as captain at Enzo's in Brookline. Steve brings with him a history of long and distinguished service at the Cafe Promenade and at Veronique ...A warm welcome to Nickie Woods who just joined the staff in the Bristol Lounge of the Four Seasons Hotel; and talking of the Bristol Lounge, don't forget their wonderful weekend dessert buffet...At Parker's you cannot fail to be impressed if you are waited on by the very personable Stanton Kilpatrick, who has been praised by guests and staff alike for his attentive and professional service. Farewell to Claud Lesellier, head baker of Rudi's Bakery, who has left for Atlanta, Georgia, to open up his own bakery, though his son Cyril, an outstanding waiter at DuBarry, is remaining in the area. Goodbye, too, to Michael Cerrato, concierge at the Boston Harbor Hotel, who is living it up in Paris before departing for the West Coast. ❑

NEWLY OPENED

Raw Bar • Cocktails • Grill

MARCO'S RISTORANTE



Nearly 100 years of culinary excellence in the North End.

Italian Seafood Specialties "Bringing Scunggelli to Boston"

93 Salem St. North End, Boston

3 6 7 - 4 8 7 8

RUSSELL UP A TALL ORDER OF RIBS

Score with your crowd by taking home a 5 lb. bucket of the "best ribs this side of Dixie".

A host of food critics have been cheering about the Original Sports Saloon's Memphis Style Ribs for over a year. Now you can treat 8 of your hungriest and best friends to over 5 lbs. of Hog Heaven at our place or yours. It's a great way to make extra points with your home team.

The Original SPORTS SALOON

CORNER OF HUNTINGTON & EXETER

IN BOSTON'S BACK BAY (617) 536-1904

THE PLACE TO TOUCH BASE BEFORE YOU RUN HOME

(617) 338.4600

Wine & Food Events

Cornucopia invites you to our international festival of warm weather cuisine. Each menu features our Chef Stuart Cameron's interpretations of three traditional courses for $25/p.

Hot Climes Series

Cajun/New Orleans — August 18 – 22

Mexican — August 25 – 29

cornucopia

15 West Street, Downtown Boston

Wine & Food Pairing Series

Rieslings from around the World — August 25

East vs. West — September 9

Wine & Food Pairings are held Wednesdays 6–8 pm. Two light courses are matched with four or more wines. There is a short presentation followed by an informal discussion. ($25/p).

Validated Parking available after 4pm at the Lafayette Garage

Diners Club International

D

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change.

Aujourd'Hui

Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive, except for tip); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro

1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain starting at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor

2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $16.95 (all inclusive); $9.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo

236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café

1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual summer buffet brunch. Summer brunch will be served now through Sept. 5. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $17.95 for all you can eat; $9.95 under 10. Brunch Sun. 9am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner

178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri

250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Davio's

5 Cambridge Parkway, Camb., 661-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at noon. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. Reservations are suggested.

Hampshire House

84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. New Orleans Jazz Brunch served 10:30am - 2:30p, $12 - $16.

Harbor Terrace

296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the harbor terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I

71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill

279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe

575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Oasis Cafe

176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American home-style fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant

Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Ritz Carlton

15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

Serendipity III

120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt

575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café

338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury

29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station

64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

Warren Tavern,

2 Pleasant St., Charlestown, 241-8142
Take a step back into history this Sunday, approximately 212 years. The Warren Tavern is one of the oldest restaurants in the country and the first place to be rebuilt after Charlestown was burned down in the Battle of Bunker Hill. The Tavern features an original decor of low beamed ceilings, church pew benches and a 25 foot oak bar. Cuisine is straight forward American with a little international flair. Brunch served from 12:00 to 3:30. $4.95 - $6.95

It's time for Another Season.
Fine dining at reasonable prices in a lovely setting.

97 Mount Vernon Street
Beacon Hill, Boston 367-0880

ARARAT
RESTAURANT
Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates 4.75 Each

FREE SOFT DRINK
(12 oz. can)
With Purchase of
Half Rotisserie B.B.Q. Chicken Plate includes Rice Pilaf Salad & Garlic Sauce.
$4.99 plus tax

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 ARLINGTON STREET WATERTOWN, MA
(617) 924-4100 * (617) 934-7011
Open Monday - Saturday 9 - 11

1280
Mexican Restaurant

THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD. LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.

The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

D

Chef of the Month:

Chris Douglass of Icarus

By Marge Chryssostomidis and Peter McNamara

You might say that Chris Douglass became a chef by accident. His only early recollection of cooking reflected on some classes at school when he was 14. At the time, he was intrigued, and thought it "cool," but gave no more thought to the subject until his family moved to Boston and his mother pressured him into taking a summer job. He was hired as a dishwasher in a newly opened restaurant, but hated the work. As it happened, the kitchen was understaffed, so he was instead given chopping tasks, and he began to develop some basic skills. After some time in college, Chris moved to Charlestown. Needing a job - and realizing his only work experience was in restaurants - he automatically gravitated towards this kind of work. First, he worked at Creative Gourmet, then moved on to Another Season, where he learned a great deal from Odette Bery, whose strong foundation in classic cuisine and excellent teaching skills made this one of his best learning experiences. Here, the kitchen staff rotated responsibilities, so he became proficient in all aspects of the kitchen. Next, he moved on to Cybele's, but all along, he had had his heart set on working with Tom Hall and John Belott at Icarus and finally joined them in the mid 1980s at their old location on Tremont Street. In those days, Icarus was a funky, offbeat kind of place, serving a small menu that evolved gradually from European "peasant" dishes to modern American.

When Icarus relocated in 1987, Chris, Tom and John worked together to design and renovate the new premises, and Chris became a partner. In the new elegant quarters, the menu expanded, becoming more ambitious, yet still retaining some of the peasant roots (who can forget Chris' smoked cod and potato gratin from the November 1987 menu—a simple yet flawless dish). Over time, as tastes change, the menu has gradually changed style, but is always innovative, a very successful example of this being the "Wine Cafe" menu of tapas style dishes offered on Sunday evenings (on hiatus during the summer months). The new regular menu offerings include breast of veal stuffed with porcini and portobello mushrooms braised with roast garlic and sage and duck with artichokes, olives and sun dried tomatoes served with spinach risotto. One item on the menu has become a fixture, however, and has become Chris' signature dish. This is his baked polenta with wild mushrooms, and when you try it, you'll see why. Chris has generously allowed us to share this recipe with you.

Aynsley Floyd

Our Chef of the Month, Chris Douglass, hangs out with some of his ingredients.

Chris Douglass' Baked Polenta With Braised Wild Mushrooms

(serves 8 as a first course)

The Polenta

2 leeks, minced
4-6 shallots, minced
4 tbl butter
1/2 tsp salt
1 cup corn meal
2 cups cold water
2 cups milk
1/2 cup plus 1/4 cup grated parmesan
salt and pepper

Sautée leeks and shallots slowly in half the butter until soft and translucent. Transfer to a saucepan and add milk and half the water. Add salt and bring to a boil. Meanwhile, mix together the corn meal and the remaining water to form a very loose paste. When the milk boils, whisk in the paste. Bring back to the boil, stirring constantly to prevent lumps. Turn heat to low and stir occasionally. After about 10 minutes, start to test mixture by spooning a small amount onto a counter or plate. When cool, the polenta should be firm and set. Finish by stirring in the remaining butter and 1/2 cup of parmesan cheese. Pour into a lightly buttered mold and refrigerate until set.

Braised Wild Mushrooms

1 lb assorted wild mushrooms (eg pleurottes, shiitake, portobello, cepes, chanterelles)
1/2 - 1 tsp garlic, minced
4 tbl butter
1/4 cup Madeira
1 cup chicken stock
1/4 tsp fresh thyme or a pinch of dried thyme
1/4 tsp fresh sage, chopped or a pinch of dried
Salt and pepper to taste

Clean and slice mushrooms. In a large sautée pan, sautée garlic in half the butter over a medium heat. Add mushrooms and sautée until they become soft. Add Madeira and chicken stock, cooking until reduced to a light syrup. Add herbs and swirl in remaining butter. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

To Serve

Cut polenta into 8 equal pieces. Place on a buttered baking dish and top with remaining 1/4 cup parmesan cheese. Bake 15 minutes at 450 degrees. Serve on warm plates and top with the mushrooms. Garnish with a sprig of fresh thyme. ❑

The North End's Getaway for HeartyAmerican Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

Chef Jill Rodgers included in America's 2000 for
"Providing culinary leadership into the 21st Century"
-Chefs in America

Lunch, Dinner & Sunday Brunch
176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

PRONTO

Serving
Lunch and Dinner

7 days a week
Breakfast on Weekends

Italian Cuisine
with daily specials

Fine wines by the glass or bottle
Elegant, charming, unique
Romantic European atmosphere

464 Thames Street
Newport, RI
(Corner of Pope & Thames)
401-847-5251
MC/VISA

D

RESTAURANT LISTINGS

Restaurant listings are provided as a service to advertisers. If you would like to have your restaurant listed, please call the Improper Bostonian Advertising Department at 232-3705.

ADDIS RED SEA ETHIOPIAN RESTAURANT
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727
A,MC,V$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

ANOTHER SEASON
97 Mount Vernon St., Boston 367-0880
A, MC, V, $$$
A classic restaurant with a modern menu served in style is what you will find at Another Season. Luncheon is served Tuesday-Friday, featuring light, fresh fare. Dinner is served Monday through Saturday from 5:45 to 10:00pm. The diverse menu offers wonderful specials and a creative three-course prix fixe menu for $22.00 (Mon. - Thurs.) For reservations, information or a copy of the prix fixe menu for Fall please call 367-0880.

ARARAT
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

AVEROF,
1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA,
272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

THE BLACK GOOSE,
21 Beacon St., Bos. 720-4500 A,MC,V,D
$
Housed in the old Bellevue Hotel, this casual restaurant caters to Italian food fans. Dinner is always a bargain and lunch is a steal at $4. Taste the giant-sized sandwiches, Caesar salad and veal Tuscany- tender veal sautéed with artichoke hearts. Every Thurs.-Sat. night at 7:30pm eat to live jazz. Closed Sun.

BOB THE CHEF,
604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V
$
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Weekend brunch features fried chicken and waffles- a new combo for your AM tastebuds. Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

BOODLES,
Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537
A,D,MC, V, En Route $$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Featuring a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees & grilled fresh seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am -11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

CACTUS CLUB,
939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200
A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, Navajo braised rabbit, as well as more traditional staples are served up daily. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

CAFFE GRAFFITI
307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016 $
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a mind-bending selection of goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

CAFFE ITALIA
279 Newbury St., Boston, 536-3556 $
Sip cappuccino and espresso from the early morning light into the balmy summer night at this authentic Italian cafe. Mangia imported pastries, Gelati, calzone, arancini, panzarotti and more from 8 am-12am Monday through Thursday and 8am-2am Friday through Sunday. Relax and enjoy a late night dessert on their outdoor terrace open until 2 am on weekends.

CASA PORTUGAL,
1200 Cambridge St., Camb. 491-8880
A,MC,V $
If you're in the mood for intimate yet humble dining and wish you were miles away on the sands of Portugal, you'll love this cozy and inexpensive restaurant. Relish in traditional Portuguese tastes and fragrances; carne de porco a alentejana (pork marinated with clams in a spicy sauce) and mariscada (1/2 a lobster, shrimp, mussels, clams and squid served in a pot like a bouillabaisse). Open 7 days for dinner.

CHAU CHOW SEAFOOD RESTAURANT
52 Beech St., Chinatown, Bos. 426-6266
$$
A no-frills joint for great chow in the heart of Chinatown. It's no surprise Chau Chow is always crowded for lunch and dinner. It's even packed late night at 4am. Choose from a menu that is so extensive it's daunting. Excellent stir-fry and steamed dishes, crisp and fresh. Noodles, pork, shrimp, chicken, vegetables, duck, beef, tofu - you'll have to make it a regular fix-stop to sample all the plates!

CORNUCOPIA,
15 West St., Bos. 338-4600
A,D,DC,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes with the seasons but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Desserts are always spectacular here-Cornucopia won the coveted 1B's

LOOKING FOR AN APARTMENT OR A DINING ROOM SET OR A REPUTABLE HOUSEPAINTER OR A CLEANER OR A THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE OR A JOB THAT PAYS OR SOMEONE TO PAY FOR A JOB WELL DONE OR LEARN TO PLAY THE GUITAR OR TEACH HOW TO WHISTLE ODDE OR HAVE YOUR DOG WASHED OR YOUR CAR PAINTED OR YOUR THIGHS TAN ?

WE'VE GOT WHAT YOU NEED.

The Improper Bostonian
Classifieds
Phone it to 617–232–3507. Fax it to 617–232–4305.

appetizers

calzones

sandwiches

pasta

pizza

free delivery

86 Peterborough Street

Boston, MA

617–424–7070

Visa/MC accepted

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

Boston's Best Japanese Restaurants

GYUHAMA OF JAPAN

827 Boylston St.
(opposite the Prudential Center)
437-0188

GYOSAI

MarketPlace Ctr.
Faneuil Hall
345-0942

D

Best of Boston Tastiest Dessert award. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Dali,
415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254
A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pezatas as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Valencia. Open daily for dinner

Durgin Park
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 MC, V, A $$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Fajitas & 'Ritas
25 West St., Boston 426-1222
MC, V $
Laid back Tex-Mex is served up sizzlin' style here, featuring chicken, beef, vegetable, and shrimp fajitas with homemade guac, pico de gallo, and sour cream. The margaritas are blended just right, or if your preference leans towards brews, F&R's pours some great Mexican and Texan suds. Open Mon.-Wed. 11am- 9pm, Thurs. 11am- 10pm, Fri. 11am-midnight, Sat. 11am- 11pm and closed on Sundays. Also available for private parties.

Four Winds,
266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922
A, MC, DC, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open daily from noon to 3:30pm for lunch and 5:30 to 10:30 dinner.

Grendel's Den
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050
A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I,
71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry I is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces.
Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus,
3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V
$$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your chanterelle glazed lobster with fennel ravioli with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499 $
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Joyce Chen,
115 Stuart St., Bos. 720-1331, 390 Rindge Ave., Camb. 492-7373
A, MC, V, D $$
In business since 1958, this famous Chinese restaurant with two great locations is featuring a new spring menu. In addition to Joyce Chen's wide variety of dishes on the year-round menu, the seasonal dishes include Chicken Macadamia with asparagus and Wok-seared shrimp with asparagus. They also offer an all-you-can-eat luncheon buffet. Handicap access. Open Sun.-Thurs. 11:45am-10pm, Fri.-Sat. 11:45am-12am.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including: dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 35 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700
$$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house lab under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959
V,MC $$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Newbury Steak House
94 Mass Ave., Boston 536-0184
A.V , MC, Carte Blanche $
A Boston landmark restaurant and pub serving Back Bay for over half a century.

D

Featured in Boston Globe column "Things That Should Not Be Tinkered With" (along with Fenway Park). Offering charboiled sirloin steaks, filet mignon, prime rib, fresh local seafoods, pasta and poultry dishes. All entrees include a limitless salad bar and homemade bread. Moderate prices from $8.95 to $13.95. Corner of Mass. Ave and Newbury St. Open noon to midnight.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

The Original Sports Saloon
47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
MC, V, A, D, CB, En Route
This neighborhood restaurant and bar is the only place to go in Boston to watch a sporting event. This true authentic establishment roars with excitement no matter which sport is showing on their five satellite T.V.'s. As far as their menu, barbeque is the name of the game here. The Saloon also offers a variety of other menu items from burgers to seafood, but they do it different than anyone else. All items are available for take-out and delivery. Open 11 am-2am, 7 days a week.

Parmizzano' s
Two Cambridge Center, Cambridge
252-4444
$$
Located in the Cambridge Center Marriott, this caffe offers regional Italian cuisine in a casual yet elegant atmosphere. The house favorite is petti di pollo alla casalingha, a multi-cheese stuffed chicken breast. Breakfast is served 6:30 am- 11:30 am Monday through Friday and 6:30 am - 12 pm on weekends. Lunch is served from 11:30 am - 3 pm Monday through Friday only and dinner is served nightly 5 pm - 10:30 pm. Reservations are accepted and parking up to 3 hours is available for $1.

Patisserie Francaise
54 JFK St., Cambridge, 354-9850
$(lunch)$$(dinner)
If you yearn for Paris in the summertime, try out this little French café in Harvard Square. They serve fresh food from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday and Monday, and until 10 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Lunch consists of omelets, salads, soups, and sandwiches. Dinner adds typical French cuisine, freshly-cooked, to the menu. And the desserts include every chocolate and fruit-filled concoction you could imagine.

Pat's Pushcart
61 Endicott St., Boston, 523-9616
MC/V $$
Serving fine Italian cuisine for over twenty years, Pat's Pushcart is a mainstay in Boston's North End. Dinner is served 5 - 10:30 pm Tuesday through Saturday. Don't forget to ask about their everchanging daily specialties—the highlights of their menu.

Pronto
464 Thames St., Newport, R.I. (401) 847-5251
MC/V $$$
Enjoy Italian and continental cuisine among fresh flowers and great music in charming Newport. This elegant European-style bistro serves lunch daily 11:30 - 4 pm. Dinner is served 5 - 10:30 pm Monday through Thursday and 5:30 - 11 pm on weekends. Fine wines are available by the glass and for the months of August and September, breakfast will be served 8 am - 12 pm on weekends.

Ristorante Carlo Marino,
8 Prince St., Bos. 523-9109 A,DC$$$
After dining at Carlo Marino, you'll know why they chose Prince Street as their location. This adorable restaurant will give you the royal treatment in everything from their impeccable service to their diverse and well-chosen menu specialties. Some good bets: Veal Saltimboca alla Romano - veal layered with prosciutto with fresh sage, sautéed in wine; Spinaci di Casa - spinach sautéed with garlic oil, cannellini beans and prosciutto for flavor. Open Tues.-Sat., 5-10:30 and Sun., 4-9pm.

Sienna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC, V, A $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary situated in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston.

Sorento's,
86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC, V, D $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

Spasso Italia Cafe & Bar
160 Commonwealth Ave, Boston
536-8656
AMEX, V, MC, D, CB $$
Spasso means fun in Italian - in Boston, it also means great food. We've captured the flavor and excitement of Italy and have brought it fresh to you. With its comfortable casual decor and tucked-away location, the restaurant "is one place for diners to eat both outdoors and in private." (Best of Boston awards issue, The Improper Bostonian) The Back Bay's largest outdoor cafe has been redecorated with rows of beautifully blossoming flowers which will surround the discriminating diner. So join us for lunch or brunch off the beaten path, or dinner under the stars at Spasso!

Answer to Previous Puzzle

	A	M	O	K		W	H	A	T		B	I	K	O		B	L	O	B	S
E	L	E	N	I		Y	O	R	E		U	T	A	H		L	U	C	I	A
B	I	S	O	N		S	O	M	E	R	S	E	T	M	A	U	G	H	A	M
B	E	A	U	G	E	S	T	E		A	T	M	E		I	N	E	S	S	E
		T	A	D			D	I	N	E	S		M	R	T
M	A	P		U	N	I	T		L	E	D		S	I	P		L	A	P	P
O	L	A		G	A	G	R	U	L	E		H	A	L	O		M	U	L	E
O	F	U	S	E		O	U	R			P	A	L		R	A	N	G	E	R
D	A	L	L	A	S		E	N	D		A	D	A	P	T	S		I	I	I
	G	U	S	T	D			A	F	R	A	M	E		I	D	E	A	L
S	L	A	M		S	T	A	U	G	U	S	T	I	N	E		A	D	D	S
C	O	U	P	S		T	I	N	G	L	E			D	I	S	C	D
R	U	G		G	E	O	R	G	E		C	A	R		S	A	I	G	O	N
A	D	U	L	T	S		M	E	R			M	A	C		M	A	G	M	A
P	L	I	E		P	E	E	R		K	H	A	Y	Y	A	M		I	S	M
S	Y	N	E		D	W	N		E	L	I		E	D	G	Y		E	K	E
		C	U	E		A	D	I	E	U			D	B	S
A	S	I	D	E	S		A	C	M	E		N	A	U	G	A	T	U	C	K
C	H	A	R	L	E	S	L	A	U	G	H	T	O	N		U	R	G	E	D
C	U	G	A	T		H	O	R	N		B	I	N	D		G	I	L	L	S
S	T	O	W	S		H	E	E	D		O	L	E	O		H	A	Y	S

Wanted:
Dog walker
twice a week.
Cambridge/Porter
Square area.
Call Allison, 232-3507.

Edwards Fishing Tackle
Live and Frozen Bait
Both Salt and Fresh Water Rods, Reels and Terminal Tackle
401-846-4521
36 Aquidneck Ave.
Middletown, RI
Located near Newport's 1st Beach

The Quality of Your Life is Important to Us
• Are you stressed?
• Would you like more energy?
Our clinic is committed to giving you the direction that you need to reach more optimal health and fitness.
Complimentary classes:
Relieving Stress
• Monday August 24th, 7pm
• Saturday September 12th, 4pm
Energy Levels and Exercise
• Wednesday September 2nd, 7pm
Please call to reserve space in our classes and for more information.
Dr. Robin Bruck Dr. Julie Burke
964–3336

FUTONS
FREE DELIVERY
776-9429
360 Mystic Avenue
Somerville, MA
THE Futon Outlet
For The Best Deal In Town
*Ask About Our Student Specials

YOU ZOOM
YOU CROP
YOU FRAME...
YOU MAKE BIGGER PRINTS YOURSELF IN MINUTES IN OUR STORE
Quality Photofinishing
Brookline 1 Hr. Photo
617-566-1261
2 Brookline Place
Brookline, MA 02146

MUSIC

TOTALLY NAKED

Howard Jones Strips Down His Music for New Album and Tour

BY REY ROLDAN

Back in the mid-80's, one man shows were usually limited to street performers wielding an accordion under one arm, a guitar under the other, a harmonica around the neck, a bass drum on the back and a set of cymbals attached to the knees. Although not the first to do it, Howard Jones broke that icon. Surrounded by a slew of keyboards, drum machines and sequencers, Jones opened the door to a band's worst nightmare - one man who can do everything, including vocals. Popping onto the scene in 1984 with Human's Lib (certified platinum), he automatically caused commotion and controversy over whether or not this one man could actually produce a full aural environment. Proving skeptics wrong about his transience, he released Dream Into Action in 1985, gathering hit singles and plaudits from every angle. In the Running (Elektra), his most recent album, has just been released and Jones has just gotten back from an acoustic US/UK tour.

How is your new record doing?

It's not selling very much but it seems to be really well appreciated. I really don't know who's really selling at the moment. It's not very good for music at the moment. It's in a recession just like everything else.

I understand In the Running is a departure from your previous albums.

It is, really. It's a 'move on' for me. I wanted to have piano playing on every track for a start. And I wanted to feature really strong songwriting. That's why I spent so long [in the studio]. I spent a year writing, which is a long time really. I wrote a lot of songs but I ended up with ten that I swear by and I spent a lot of time recording them.

Is there any chance that we may see those other songs on future releases?

No. I think you should write what you're doing at the time. All that period of writing belongs to that era, and I'd like to leave it there. When it comes to writing new material, it comes from what I am feeling and thinking at the time. I think it should be as current as possible.

So, if everything is as current as possible, would you say that this album is more mature than your last?

I hope so. [Laughs] I hope that one should do that as a process. I don't want to stay in one place. One thinks of it as 'moving forward,' but I think it's just 'gaining experience'.

But wouldn't you say that because you started out with technology through synths and have moved back to the traditional piano, you're moving backwards instead of forward?

[Laughs] I suppose it seems that way. It's really a kind of journey. Back in the early 80's, I wanted to do something really different and I didn't want to make a record in the same way that they made records in the '60s or '70s. I wanted do something really different and it was very exciting to be at the cutting edge of that. Of course, now it's different. The biggest problem that I've had in the past is that I couldn't get musicians to do what I wanted. Now, if you have a vision of something you really want, you need to spend a lot of time getting them to play it the way you want it and then chopping it up and putting it back together later on. Then you can retain your vision. Although it seems like I'm going backwards, it's going forwards for me. I've broadened the palette to be able to use great players as well as technology.

Would you say that you are musically where you want to be or are you back where you started from?

I feel that I've progressed a lot. This is definitely my best work by a long way. Artistically, [In the Running has] been a huge success. I don't think that we live in an age of great quality to be honest. Everything has to do with whether you have Pepsi sponsorship or whether you have videos with semi-naked girls in gauze [laughs]. For me, that's an all-time low when people are resorting to selling music like Coke or chocolate. I absolutely hate [using rock music for advertising].

What would you do if Geritol asked you to use "Life in One Day" for $6 million?

I wouldn't take it. Though I'd probably think twice [laughs]. If it was an incredibly ethical product, then I would think twice. But if it were Proctor and Gamble, it would do my brain so much damage that the money wouldn't compensate for it. You don't know what these companies do. I'm a great animal rights supporter and a lot of these companies still test on animals. I got an inquiry from an Italian company offering bucket loads of money to use "Hide and Seek" for a soap commercial. And we said to them, 'We'll consider it if you can prove that you don't test on animals.' And we heard nothing back [laughs]. But at least we made the point.

In the Running* pushes you more toward the thirtysomething generation of Don Henley and Bruce Hornsby and away from the younger generation of EMF and C&C Music Factory listeners.

I think it would be wrong for me to try and relate to a generation that's much younger than myself. I have a family and I have children and all the things that I've gone through, younger generations haven't experienced. So, of course, I'm going to relate to people more of my same age. You should enjoy the fact that you're getting older and you should respond to it in the correct way and not try to play young when you're not young.

What about your children? Their generation is going to grow up in a really messed up world. Are you scared for their future?

I'm not worried about it. I don't think being worried about it is the proper response. I take very seriously how they're brought up. If they're mentally sound and psychologically whole, they're going to stand a better chance dealing with whatever circumstances they're going to encounter when they get there [laughs]. Know what I mean? It's no good really moaning about the way the world is if you don't try to do something different in your own life.

Patti Ouderkirk

Howard Jones plays to an intimate crowd at the Botom Line in NY

What was one of the ways you tried to better your own world for the sake of the planet?

I became a vegetarian. When I was twenty one, I finally realized what I was actually doing [by eating meat]. My brother was telling me about someone who worked in a slaughterhouse. And then suddenly it clicked in my head exactly what I was doing. I hadn't thought about it before - that I was eating dead animals. I was twenty-one and I hadn't even thought that one through, but then again there are so many other things to think about when you're a teenager.

Speaking about vegetables, I understand you got your first synthesizer through vegetable means.

[Laughs] Well, not really. When I was younger, I was doing any kind of job that I could. One of my jobs was selling vegetables door-to-door and I absolutely hated it [laughs]. I used to hide in the front of the van and let my wife deal with the customers. A drunk driver hit the front of the van and my wife got injured. We got compensation from that and I bought a lot of gear with that money [laughs]. That was a turning point because I realized 'What the fuck am I doing?' It was music that I should be doing and I should just go for it. I didn't care if I ended up on the street. At least I could say that I had a go with it. It was almost like a sign from the heavens [laughs] that I should just go for it completely.

When you started out back in the 80's, you had a sidekick, Jed Hoile, who danced while you performed. What ever happened to him?

[Laughs] He doesn't perform anymore. He's got a low-key job as a courier. He's not a very ambitious guy and he's not driven to do anything. So he's quite happy doing that. In the early days, the music was sort of cinematic and [what Jed did] emphasized the story. The music lent itself to theatrical interpretation. From 1987 onwards, the music started to change toward something that you couldn't really do that to.

So what's next?

Right now, I'm rewiring my studio. But I'm also writing furiously at the moment. For some reason I've got loads of ideas and I fancy the idea of doing an album that is quite simple and barely hangs together, very underproduced and very direct. If you look at painters, when they start out, their paintings are very complex that are full of technique. By the time they reach fifty or sixty, they're just doing a few lines. But those lines say everything [laughs]. And that's my philosophy on it, you know. Less is more. [Joan] Miro, for instance, would do just a few shapes and lines and very basic colors and the impact of those would be just huge. His early work was so full of technique and complexity. It's a measure of confidence in your own ability to get [ideas] over in that sparsity. You learn to trust yourself more that your audience will get it.❑

m

With A Little Help From Her Friends

Bonnie Raitt Finds Herself in Mixed Company

BY ANDREW BIANDINO

Bonnie Raitt has always been a bit of a musical anomaly. Her recent success with Nick of Time (for which she won three Grammies in 1990) and 1991's Luck of the Draw (Capitol) pitched her misleadingly as a new artist although she has a hefty eleven albums under her belt. Riding on a frothy crest of critical acclaim, her earlier works were widely and diversely appreciated by fellow musicians - but unfortunately overlooked by the buying public. Her presence was felt however, even though it may not have been recognized. She's appeared on dozens albums by artists like David Crosby, Jackson Browne, Little Feat and even popped on Little Steven's Sun City record and video.

"Considering the last couple of years I've had, I thought [the title Luck of the Draw] was pretty apropos," she said in a recent interview. Luck, however, did not seem to play a big part in creating a niche for the platinum-selling artist. Twenty-one years in the industry has seasoned her into a hard-working musician. Instead of tossing off singles and killer hooks like they were her wardrobe, a great deal of effort went into the triple-platinum album. "It's a real effort to come up with the tunes I like," she continued. "I listen to tons of material and call up every friend I know who writes, so these songs are hard fought." Among the roster of friends she contacted are John Hiatt (who wrote "No Business"), Bonnie Hayes ("Slow Ride") and Irish singer/songwriter Paul Brady ("Not the Only One" and the title track). "Sometimes, the only thing that holds [all the songs] together is my taste," she added. In addition to those who contributed to the songwriting, Raitt recruited many others for session work such as Bruce Hornsby, Richard Thompson and Kris Kristofferson. One artist whose appearance really swept her away is longtime friend Delbert McClinton. "It's been a lifelong dream of mine to sing anything with Delbert on record." She recently repaid the favor by playing slide guitar on McClinton's recent "Everytime I Roll the Dice" (Curb Records).

Aside from her hectic recording schedule, Raitt devotes massive amounts of time to various causes including human rights, woman's organizations and environmental concerns. One which she feels especially strongly about is the Rhythm and Blues Foundation of which she is a founding member. "[The artists in the organization] are people who recorded from the late '40s to the late '60s who created the foundation for all the music that we make our living on," she explained. "People like Ruth Brown and Charles Brown either did not have a royalty agreement or didn't get proper royalty statements. A lot of these people are in their 60's and 70's now, they didn't make enough money to be in the union and they have no health insurance, not to mention people like Sam Moore and Lauren Baker who are singing better than ever - and they're barely known."

Bonnie Raitt

When asked why this was the case, she replied, "It's still a very racist situation and it's an unfortunate one. The people who love rhythm and blues need to figure out a way to give these people their due."

Although some may argue that Raitt's success came in the nick of time and skeptical others may think that it's just the luck of the draw, Raitt tends to look deeper into her own life and the hardships she went through to put the records out. "Nick of Time expresses a sentiment of throwing away one kind of relationship and looking for something better," she mused. "And I said what I meant at that point in my life. But while making this record and choosing these songs, I discovered they're mostly about being older and more mature, and about where you go in a relationship you're already in. . . I mean, what's the point of singing if you can't relate to where you are at the time?" ❑

BONNIE RAITT

APPEARING AT GREAT WOODS ON AUGUST 30 & 31

WITH SPECIAL GUEST LYLE LOVETT & HIS LARGE BAND

HOT TICKETS

GREAT WOODS

885 SOUTH MAIN STREET (RTE 140) MANSFIELD, MA
1-508-339-2333; BUSINESS OFFICE 1-508-339-0002

Monday, August 17
Eric Clapton
$42.00-$22.00

Wednesday, August 19
Allman Brothers Band
$17.50-$21.50

Friday, August 21
The New York Rock and Soul Revue
$17.50-$27.50

Saturday, August 22
Peter, Paul & Mary
$17.50-$23.50

Wednesday, August 26
Richard Marx
$17.50 & $19.50

Thursday, August 27-Saturday, August 29 and August 31
James Taylor
$18.50-$25.00

Sunday, August 30
Bonnie Raitt
$17.50-$25.00

CAPE COD MELODY TENT

23 WEST MAIN STREET HYANNIS, MA 02601
1-508-775-9100; BUSINESS OFFICE 1-508-775-5630

Wednesday, August 19
Kenny Loggins
8pm
$25.00

Thursday, August 20
George Carlin
8pm
$26.00

Friday, August 21
Clancy Brothers w/Robbie O'Connell and Northeast Winds
8pm
$16.00

Sunday, August 23
The Temptations & The Four Tops
8pm
$29.00

Monday, August 24
World Beat '92 w/Jimmy Cliff, Burning Spear, Majek Fashek
8pm, $25.00

Wednesday, August 26
Travis Tritt
8pm
$29.50

Thursday, August 27
Ray Charles w/John Hammond
8pm
$27.50

Friday, August 28
Anne Murray
8pm
$37.50

Saturday, August 29
Alabama
5pm and 9pm
$35.00

Sunday, August 30
Bill Cosby
5pm and 8:30pm
$31.50

OTHER

Orpheum
Saturday, August 29
The Black Crowes
$21.00
Hamilton Place, off of Tremont

Holman Stadium
Sunday, August 23
James Taylor
$17.50-$25.00

Sunday, August 30
The Beach Boys
$17.50-$25.00

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

AUGUST

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19 CAL 7:35	20 CAL 7:35	21 SEA 7:35	22 SEA 1:05
23 SEA	24 OAK	25 OAK 7:35	26 OAK 1:05	27	28 CAL 10:35	29 CAL 10:05
30 CAL	31 SEA

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1 SEA 10:35	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:05	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 NY 1:05

TV GAMES ON WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

Away ■ Home

MUSICAL NOTES

WACHTELLIGENCE

BY A.J. WACHTEL

Alizon Lissance X-GNO's video "What About You" features Del Fuegos pounder Joe Donelly on the tracks but Heavy Metal Horns drummer Jim Sturdivant in the clip...Rob Jefferies from The Subterraneans is a man so famous, Indians in the mountains sing a folk song about him...Check out The Incredible Casuals at The Beachcomber in Wellfleet every week and say high to mgr. Dan Murray...Hotbox new c.d. "Flic Flac" out in Oct...Roger Clemens' wife Debbie threw a surprise 30th b-day party for The Rocket at The Hard Rock Cafe...Absolute at The Tamon the 2nd...Vision Thing's "Lose Yourself" and The Vindicators' "Many Smiles" will be released as a split 45...Fish has offered to drive Organ Donors' van to NYC for their CBGB's gig. We're sure he knows all the cops on the way down...Barkeep Of The Week is Joe Chelsea from Ovation's cause he really knows how to handle a bottle! While you're at his club be sure to say high to God-emperors Rocco Laudano and Joe Palmeri and Cheryl Moore another beautiful blonde...Perry James X-Divinity School, Ata-Tat now in Big Catholic Guilt replacing skinsman J. Potts who's now playing with Keith Smith, X-Zug Zug in a metal band called Cobalt 60. See them at Avalon on the 16th...Waitress Of The Week is Jennifer Collins from Cityside cause she gets to see The Khris Wales Show every Sun. and she works for the legendary Tony Carbonetti...See The Turbulent Daughters at Bill's Bar on the 1st...Sidewalk Gallery just back from a 6 week stint in the Virgin Islands...Congrats to X-Royal Pimps Jessica Trefonides and X-Wandells Eric Brennan on finally tying the knot. X-Pimp Rafe Maybry in L.A. with Revolution Love Army...Hellcats now X-15...Sax extraordinaire Gordon Beadle left Luther "Gtr Jr" Johnson's band and now blows for Mighty Sam McLain...Happy happy to Grandma Walter, Johnny Groove's Mike Smith, Heavy Metal Horns Henley Douglas and OOna...The Uninvited are ungreat ! Dave Amaral from Peter Wolf's band and Ducky Carlisle have a new single "Sheila Na-Gig"/"Revelation" and they do the best version of "Savoy Truffle" since you know who...For Allman Bros. see The Allston Bros. at Bunratty's on the 2nd. Judgemental to release a savage new tape after pounder Chris Ahern recovers from elbow surgery...Extreme has a story in Rolling Stone. Listen for "Extreme III Sides To Every Story"...Song Of The Week is The Del Fuegos "In A Rough Spot" cause it rocks righteously. Their version of Englebert Humperdink's "Please Release Me" also raised a few eyebrows...Slash from Guns N' Roses, Lars Ulrich from Metallica and Vinnie Appice from Black Sabbath came to Bun's for some fun on separate nites. Slash came with the X-Mrs. Joe Perry, Elissa, now married to James Kottak X-Kingdom Come, Poison. Jef Cole served as guide each nite...Middle East Cafe contest: Name the new club downstairs and win 1 year free admission and 2 bills of free food. "Joseph's Hole" is already taken...Doorman Of The Week is Randy Jenkins from Ryles cause of his expertise in roller blading. See him in action every Fri/Sat with Herman Johnson Quartet now in their 15th year at the jazz venue...BCN wildman Chachi Loprete in Tonny Bennett's new video playing the crooner's son Danny. Talk about typesetting...Charlie Farren working on a vocal-oriented solo project...As The Hoods disband, drummer Carl Colletti going to San Fran to join up with Frank Swart X-Ultra Blue, Who Be Dat. The Hoods will do a cross-country farewell tour in Oct. X-bandmate Mike Quaglia now in Doghouse overheard grinning with a sneer "Fuck 'em." This is my last column so SUPPORT THE LOCAL SCENE!

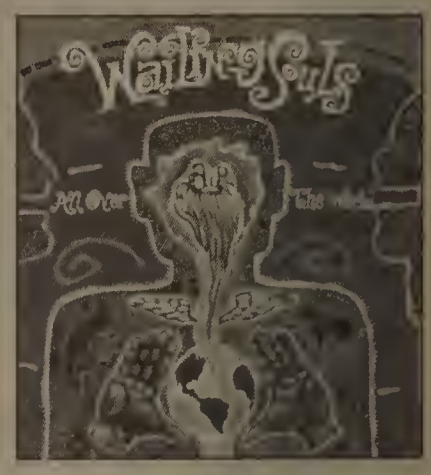
ALBUM REVIEWS

CARTER THE UNSTOPPABLE SEX MACHINE
1992: THE LOVE ALBUM
CHRYSALIS

Like any British or U.S. musical trend that soon loses its steam, the recent bastardization of rap, dance and rock in one neat little package known as the Manchester sound has died an untimely death. With its demise, it dragged down almost all of the bands which epitomized the sound at the time, like the Charlatans and EMF. Fortunately, the truly talented have remained unscathed and Carter USM fill that niche quite well. Loosely structuring powerful guitars amidst a shifty beat, Carter haven't really outdone their past efforts 101 Damnations and 30something, as opposed to matching their brilliance. Armed with guitars, keyboards and samplers, Fruit Bat and Jim Bob have combined the best of the Sex Pistols with the pop wit of the Wonderstuff and the vocals of Robyn Hitchcock. The spotlight of excellence beams heavily on "Suppose You Gave a Funeral and Nobody Came," a vulgar rant on the fleeting importance of pop stars. Starting off with a rapid machine gun guitar attack worthy of Ministry, and dissolving into a Technopop outtro worthy of Crush-era OMD, "Suppose..." offers a painful view of Carter's Dickens-esque poverty strewn world. Like Dickens and Lou Reed's New York, Fruit Bat and Jim Bob don't complain about the poor, they give them due respect. And on that note, they close the album with "The Impossible Dream" (from Man of La Mancha). Optimistic? Yes. Cheesy? Yeah right.

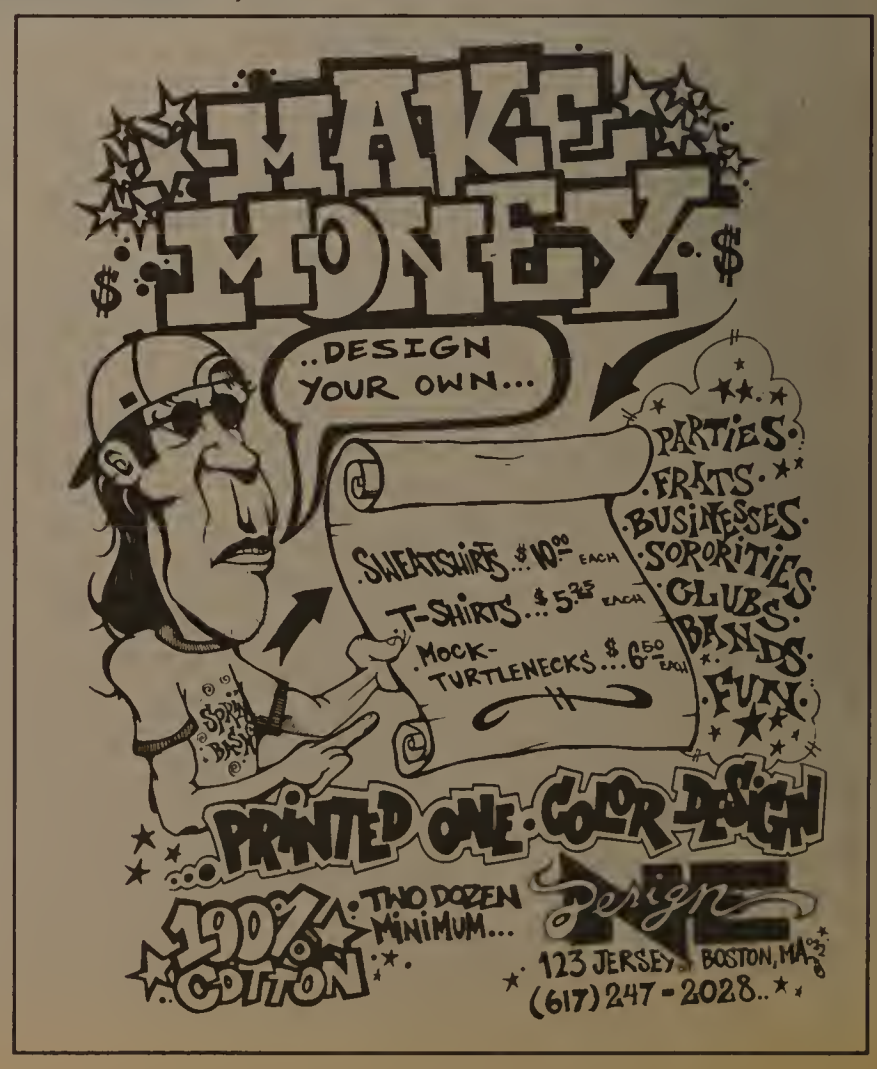
-REY ROLDAN



WAILING SOULS
ALL OVER THE WORLD
COLUMBIA RECORDS

Unlike many other reggae/soca bands, the Wailing Souls explore modern technology and inject synths and samples into the mix without making them sound like a Bob Marley Vanilli. Splicing traditional beats amidst untraditional sounds, their music doesn't fall in the tiresome-after-three-songs category in which a lot of reggae succumbs. "If I Were You" shoots off in three directions at the same time; the melody contrasts against the rhythm which in turn contrasts against the vocals. It's a challenging track that at first sounds like radio reception caught between two similar channels; but after a few listens, the paths diverge and the songs takes on a complex structure not unlike that of Mercury Rev and Sonic Youth. The strongest track, "She Pleases Me" plays like soca worthy of David Rudder with toasting that comes close to Ranking Roger. Forget UB40 and Ziggy Marley. If you want modern reggae that sticks true to its roots, the Wailing Souls may be barking up your tree.

-KERRIE SHAHEEN



JOHN MORAN
ARIAS, INTERLUDES & INVENTIONS FROM DESERT OF ROSES; OPEN VEINS; TEN MILES OVER ALBANIA
ARGO

Even as far back as the Middle Ages, composers have looked to the past for models on which to base their works. In some cases, it is old wine in new skins, such as Stravinsky's Pulcinella; in others, it is new wine in old skin, as is this suite from Desert of Roses, Moran's opera based on the legend of Beauty and the Beast. The vocabulary here is neo-renaissance; Carl Orff's Entrata After William Byrd comes to mind more than once as the piece unfolds. But also present is a romantic lyricism reminiscent of current musical theater. Open Veins is a semi-improvisational piece for violin and small ensemble. Driven by a relentless motor, it depicts the forced suicide of Petronius during which he enjoyed a final feast among friends. Rhapsodic and bacchanalian, it would be quite at home in any film portraying the decadence of Rome. Ten Miles High Over Albania, scored for eight harps (multi-tracked on this recording by Mario Falcao), doesn't quite measure up to the rest of the program. But the strength of Desert Roses and Open Veins is reason enough to recommend this release to contemporary music enthusiasts and New Agers alike.

-STEVEN D. BROWN

FASHION

The Best Dressed Male

Want to be a best dressed male this fall? All it takes are a few key items such as a new rugged jacket, knit vest or a tweed sport coat. The Men's Fashion Association in New York combed the market, working with leading designers and manufacturers, and came up with fashionable, practical and non-pricey menswear. Read on and see how fashion is moving from complex and costly, to friendly and affordable.

BY MARY LAWLOR

If you want to be a best dressed male this fall, get yourself a rugged jacket, a knit vest or a denim shirt. These are just a few of the key items that'll update your wardrobe. These days, more than ever, the retailers are listening to consumers and giving them what they want - clothing that's fashionable, practical and priced right.

The experts at the Men's Fashion Association in New York combed the market to come up with these best-selling basics. They realize that the "back to basics" movement always picks up speed when the market slows down. However, this doesn't mean that clothes will be dull or that there will be fewer choices.

Fact is, there are several important categories that are making news. Let's take a look at these trends:

Tonal Dressing

Back in the '70s, women began dressing in a monochromatic style. Today, this look is gaining ground as an accepted way for men to dress. The big color both here and in Europe is gray. Black and white, a winning combination that dates back to The Prince of Wales, is also strong. It's showing up in tailored fashions in checks, plaids and herringbone (and don't forget about olive and taupe).

Best Sellers

The clothes that are considered best sellers are chosen on the basis of price, look and fashion appeal. On the top of the list are such things as vests. The vests are done in quilted finishes, knits and contrasting fabrics. They're meant to be worn as an item - not part of a suit. At the Milan shows, the vests were shown over and under almost everything.

Rustic Country

With so much interest in the environment, the niche grows for durable and practical clothing. In Europe, the collections featured a country gentlemen look with English tweeds as well as country clothes designed for city streets. This all leads to an increased focus on outerwear for autumn.

Varsity

Many companies have been inspired to create lifestyle clothing and sportswear that's rooted in collegiate traditions. It's young and international. Look for varsity jackets, pea coats, v-neck sweaters, oxford shirts, sweatshirts, casual pants and activewear.

Western

In the 1930's, people took to dude ranches for vacations, and the cowboy look was reintroduced. It appeared throughout the decades in updated styles - wool shirts were changed to silk, and boots transformed from high to low. In this grouping, there are jeans, piped and yoked shirts, blanket striped jackets, Navajo patterned sweaters, big buckle belts and street-styled boots.

Accessories

It only takes one or two new accessories to give your clothes a more contemporary look. Watch for printed suspenders, caps, hand-painted neckwear, boots, suede slip-on shoes, moccasins and round metal sunglasses. ❑

The photos shown here were taken at the Hotel Conrad in Dublin, Ireland, and supplied by the Men's Fashion Association, who represent leading menswear designers and manufacturers.

Haggar, a member of MFA, designed this Donegal, wool tweed sport coat. It features notch lapels, flap pockets and is ideal for the weekend with triple pleated slacks.

From Alfred Dunhill, a brown suede car coat with quilted detailing tops a gray cable patterned sweater, blue/tan cotton shirt, navy silk foulard and sand, cotton-wool, double-pleated pants.

I settle for nothing less than the very best.
Designer names, that I've come to know, are what I want. Quality, in an unpretentious environment
where I can shop at my own pace
and be myself.
The Lingerie Factory,
because value is important
to me and I like knowing
that I get 40%-60%
off all merchandise,
all the time

LINGERIE FACTORY

Coolidge Corner, Brookline 232-9097 • 167 Milk St., Boston 330-1990 • 164 Newbury St, Boston 421-9335
St. James Ave. and Berkley, Boston 338-9728 • 1 Porter Square Arcade Cambridge 576-2024 • 55 Langley
Rd. Newton 964-0638 • 109 Summer St. (100 yds from Downtown Crossing) Boston 695-0844

BRING IN THIS AD FOR YOUR FREE GIFT!

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside.

•ALLEY CAT 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover.

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. This enormous, new college sports bar has a little bit of something for everyone. The basement is a fully-equipped dancing bonanza. The ground level is a relaxed conversation hall. And the upstairs is a peaceful escape to drink and hang out. There's lots of play on Thur. Nites. Moderate cover. Live music Fri. Nites.

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night.

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights.

Thur 20th.--5-0

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

Wed 19th.-- Thur 20th.-- Concussion Ensemble Wed 26th.-- Thur 27th.--Toad the Wet Sprocket

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm.

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed.

Sun 23rd.--Every Sun., Reggae Night Mon 24th.--Every Monday Movie Madness. SRS Films Producer Eric Yellin will show independent films and music videos before a feature film. Free admission and popcorn. Tue 25th.--Tue 1st.--

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover. Live piano music Monday through Friday from 5-7.

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

Thur 20th.-- Fri 21st.-- Sun 23rd.-- Harvest Home Mon 24th.-- Rich McDuff Tue 25th.-- Rich McDuff Wed 26th.-- Fri 28th.-- Sun 30th.--Harvest Home Mon 31st.--Shannon Tue 1st.--

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price.

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

Wed 19th.-- The Shivers Thur 20th.--WFNX Night Fri 21st.-- Cape Cod Travelin' Allstars Sat 22nd.--Sat. and Sun., DJ Al Perez Mon 24th.--Every Mon.,Silas Jr. & the Hot Rib Blues Jam Tue 25th.--Calypso Hurricane Wed 26th.-- Poco Loco Thur 27th.--WFNX Night Fri 28th.-- Lime Rockets Tue 1st.-- Mighty Charge

•BOSTON BILLIARD CLUB 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights. .

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and bolsterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code.

Wed 19th.-- Thur 20th.-- Fri 21st.-- Sat 22nd.-- Sun 23rd.-- Mon 24th.--Every Mon., Pajama-Jammy Blues Jam Tue 25th.-- Wed 26th.-- Fri 28th.-- Sat 29th.-- Sun 30th.--Tue 1st.--

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress.

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Porter, Tall Tale Pale Ale and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat. .

Sat 22nd.-- One Thin Dime Sat 29th.-- Memphis Rockabilly

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb. Central Square's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

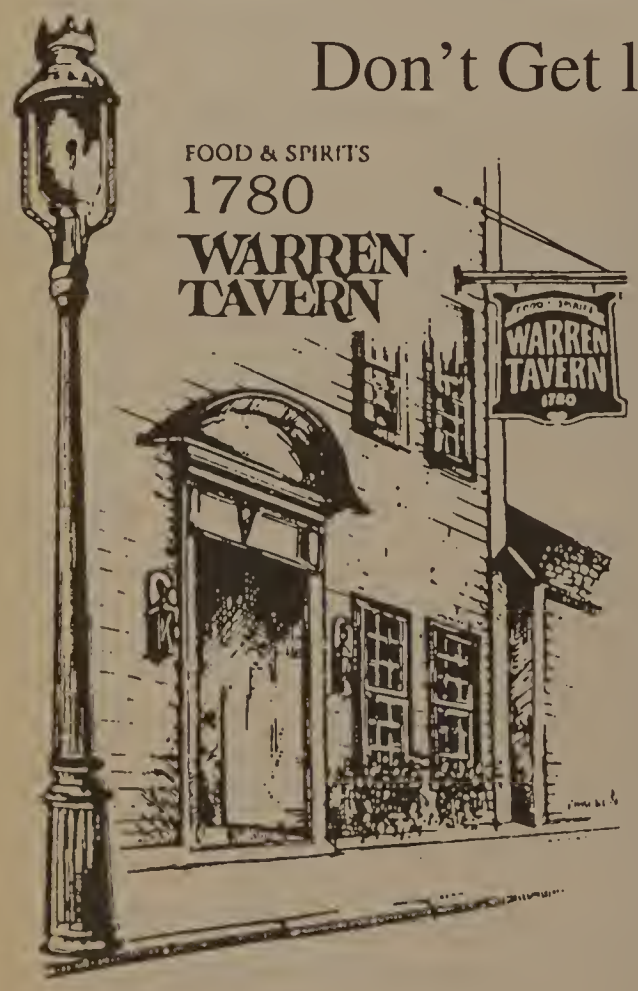
•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped.

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games.

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes. .

•CHAMPION'S 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.



Thur 20th.-- Jennifer Trynin & Guest Fri 21st.-- Ellis Paul & Geoffrey Cary Sather Sat 22nd.-- Dawna Hammers & Eltie Marshall Sun 23rd.-- David Finnerty & John Troy Thur 27th.-- Catherine David & Darrel Scott Fri 28th.-- Erin Ryan & Layla Stone Sat 29th.-- Kathy Phipps & Wendy Sobel Sun 30th.-- Dave Herlihy (of O Positive)

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

Wed 19th.--Shawn & Jamie Thur 20th.-- Swinging Johnsons Fri 21st.-- Storm Dogs Sat 22nd.--Yvonne Taylor and the Prescription Horns Sun 23rd.--Steve Caraway, Kris Wales Mon 24th.--Dave Tecce Tue 25th.-- Tremors Wed 26th.--Tim Crandall Thur 27th.-- Inquiring Minds Fri 28th.--Fri. and Sat., Out of the Blue Sun 30th.-- Chad La Marsh, Kris Wales Mon 31st.--Steve Caraway

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular

Don't Get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable living room chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over 200 years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country:

212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:30-12:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00

Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30,
Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

b

Corrib Pub

Backgammon and Beer are Man's Best Friends

BY CHRIS WINTERS

The Corrib Pub is a study in Balkanization, although this isn't immediately obvious. From the outside, it could be mistaken as a den for renegade attorneys - even with the tiny shamrock in the sign. Inside, you enter an oversized, room dominated by a hardwood feel and so clean that you can see your reflection in the brass fixtures at the end of the bar. The room is divided between an eating area and the rest of the bar. While the decor is reminiscent of an earlier age (including backgammon and checker boards on the central bar, and wooden ceiling fans), the most interesting thing about the Corrib is the people.

Angela Wooldridge

The bar has its own distinctive crowd. We're talking Old Boston Irish here, a line of folks over fifty who probably remember a skyline without the Pru. Then there's the "middle of the aisle" crowd - a mixed group of singles or couples (the larger group I came with encountered some awkwardness, as the central bar prevented us from talking together). There were a couple of young guys drinking away at the end of the bar, and next to them, two older men painstakingly concentrating on the chess match of the century. The eating area featured a younger, more diverse crowd, and had photographs of Old Boston on the wall.

All these folks made it quite noisy (I wouldn't say "lively," but it was still early). There were trophies over the bar, TVs in three corners tuned to the Sox game and colored glass lamps hanging over the center of the bar.

And then there are the drinks. The strawberry daiquiri was so smooth, I wondered if there was any liquor in it at all (a $4.00 price says there was). The strawberry margarita wasn't as subtle, and oddly enough, it had a blob of whipped cream on top. As for beers (and this is a beer bar, judging by the patronage), the Corrib offers LaBatt's Blue, Lite, Coors, Bud, Guinness and Bass Ale on tap.

There is an additional selection of coffee as well, which I would have tried, had I liked coffee. Since I don't, that should give you one reason to go and check out the Corrib Pub for yourself. In short, this is a light, airy, noisy hangout for a mixed crowd (although if you pierce your ear more than four times or are heavily into tattoos, you'll stand out). For a single night, it was nice, but unremarkable. The Corrib Pub has an unpretentious air to it that seems at once protected while at the same time encouraging of new friendships and bonds. ❑

Corrib Pub

$
201 Harvard Street, Brookline
Near Coolidge Corner
Hours:
8am - 2am, Mon. - Sat
Til 1am Saturday
(Due to an obscure Brookline Law)
Sun. noon - 2am

meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

Wed 19th.--The Immigrants Thur 20th.--Blair's Carriage, Mr. Cairo Fri 21st.--Heavy Metal Horns, Mad House Sat 22nd.--Free Society Sun 23rd.--Amy L's Rock N' Roll Blues and Demo Night Wed 26th.--Verdi 90 Thur 27th.--Great Ceasar's Ghost, Daydream Nation Fri 28th.--The Neighborhood's, Close Enough Sat 29th.--Chin Strap with Orlando West Sun 30th.--Amy L's Rock N' Roll Blues and Demo Night

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances. .

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!.

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must. .

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months.

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress. .

Wed 19th.--Every Wed., Calypso Hurricane Thur 20th.--Every Thur., Hamish and Dave Mon 24th.--Every Mon., Hamish and Dave Tue 25th.--Every Tues., North Shore Acapella

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear.

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress.

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs.

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays. Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual. .

Thur 20th.-- Transit Fri 21st.-- Taylor Made Sat 22nd.--Johnny Clyde Copeland Mon 24th.-- Thur 27th.--Groove Tubes Fri 28th.-- Rick Russell Band Sat 29th.-- Ray Greene and the Universal Language

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required. .

Thur 20th.--Null & Void, The Freeze and The Cool Jerks Fri 21st.--Hartwell, One Eyed Jake, Digney Fingus Wed 26th.--The Button Kings, Universal Joint, Last Cry Thur 27th.--Sam's Rat, Thanks to Gravity, Darkyves Fri 28th.--Chucklehead, Tongue & Groove, Whoopie Cat

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches.

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line.

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment.

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates. Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 19th.--Every Wed., Karaoke Thur 20th.--Mark Morris and Catunes Fri 21st.--Doe Brothers Sat 22nd.--Boston Irish Sun 23rd.--Every Sun., DJ Chris Mon 24th.--Every Mon, Irish Session Tue 25th.--Tim Crandall Thur 27th.--Pour Boys Fri 28th.--DJ Sat 29th.--Alan and the Wild Rovers Tue 1st.--Tim Crandall

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code.

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy).

Wed 19th.--Old and New Acoustic Night w/ Rio and Special Guests Thur 20th.--Luther Guitar Jr. Johnson and the Magic Rockers Fri 21st.-- K.D. and the Dimension Sat 22nd.-- The Deb Huston Band Sun 23rd.--Every Sun., The Peter Giftos Parker Wheeler Blues Party Wed 26th.--Old and New Acoustic Might w/ Rio and Special Guests Thur 27th.-- The Search Party Fri 28th.-- The Stovall Brown Band Sat 29th.-- The Bobby Watson Band

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons. .

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos. Sure it's trendy and sure it's touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-

BARS & CLUBS

ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway. .

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required. .

Wed 19th.-- Thur 20th.-- Little Anthony and the Locomotives Fri 21st.-- Tinsley Ellis Sat 22nd.-- Eight to the Bar Sun 23rd.--Every Sun., Rhythm & Blues Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 24th.-- Plan B Tue 25th.--Every Tues., Rockin Blues Jam with Chance Gardner Wed 26th.--Open Mike Blues Jam Thur 27th.-- Slipknot Fri 28th.-- Taylor Made Sat 29th.--the Big Blues Meanies Mon 31st.--

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress.

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm.

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu.

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner.

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal.

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing.

Wed 19th.--Eve Goodman, Laurie Goldsmith and Jim Infantino Thur 20th.--The Story Fri 21st.--Boston Baked Blues Sat 22nd.--The Band That Time Forgot Sun 23rd.--Every Sun., Blues Jam Tue 25th.--Peter Keane, Dave Goldtinger Wed 26th.--Tempest Thur 27th.-- Fri 28th.-- Cajun Party Boogaloo Swamis Sat 29th.--Zulu Spear Tue 1st.--Eric Anderson/Barbara Kessler

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code.

Wed 19th.--Harvest Home Thur 20th.--Every Thurs., DJ Edgar Frf 21st.--Fri. and Sat., Gorman and O'Cane Sun 23rd.--DJ Kenny Mon 24th.--Donegal Corduroy Tue 25th.--Every Tues., Luck of the Draw Darts Night Wed 26th.--5-0 Fri 28th.--Fri. and Sat., Swinging Johnsons Sun 30th.--DJ Kenny

•LAST HURRAH 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors the former Boston Mayor, James Michael Curley. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm.

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code.

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover.

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged.

Wed 19th.--Every Wed., Industrial Rage Sat 22nd.--Every Sat., Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor.

Mon 24th.--Every Mon.: The Candles Tue 25th.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night.

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance club located near downtown crossing and the Boston Opera House. The crowd consists of mostly young professionals. Proper dress required, open for lunch and dinner.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-5434, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere.

Thur 20th.--Some Velvet Sidewalk, Dredd Fool, Oswald 5-0,Spinnanes, Gunk Fri 21st.--Mente, Malachite, Lotus Eaters, King Friday Sat 22nd.--The Drovers Sun 23rd.--Grind Tue 25th.--Pickle Juice, Mark Nelson, Terri Bright, Frankly Scarlett, Fat Albatross Wed 26th.--Men With No I.Q.'s Thur 27th.--Steve Shelley, Jad Fair, Cul de Sac, Urban Ambience, Committee for Public Safety Fri 28th.--Morphine, Barkmarket, Twister, Blaire Carriage Sun 30th.--Noise Party, Letters to Cleo, Lotus Eaters, Amoeba Cross Section

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. . .

•MR. DOOLEY'S 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from 11 to 5 followed by a selsiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartenders!! You never know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint).

Mon 24th.--Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress.

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. .

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies. .

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info.

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos. One of Boston's best five clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and International acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show. .

Wed 19th.-- Thur 20th.--Buffalo Tom Fri 21st.--Flash Addict, Are We Dead Yet, Blazing Angels Sat 22nd.--All Ages: Sick Of It All, Wrecking Crew, Head Creamer, Out Crowd Tue 25th.-- Tangueray Rock Showcase Wed 26th.-- L-7, Surgery Thur 27th.--The Jesus Lizard, Dung Beetle Fri 28th.-- Cavedogs Sat 29th.-- The Zoo with Mick Fleetwood

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress. .

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm.

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

Fri 21st.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm.

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap.

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night. .

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu. .

Fri 21st.--Fri. and Sat., Shoot the Moon Tue 25th.--Every Tues., the Starmakers Fri 28th.--Fri. and Sat., Doe Brothers

•RATHSKELLER 536-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code. .

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGGATA BAR 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.

•RITZ BAR 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required.

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music. The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly. A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer. Heavy cover. Jacket required.

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress.

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Serving Fine Food and Drink

Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials

Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood

Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees

Don't forget our Sunday Specials

Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95

Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm

201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

VISA

b

Fri 21st.--Fri. and Sat. Cosmos Factory Fri 28th.--Fri. and Sat. Industrial Strength - Dr, Carrot

•SCULLERS LOUNGE 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly. The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers.

Wed 19th.-- Peter Calo Acoustic Band Thur 20th.--Dave Van Ronk Fri 21st.--Fri. and Sat., The Manhattans Tue 25th.-- Human Feel Wed 26th.-- Thur 27th.-- The Arida Conta Group Fri 28th.--Fri. and Sat., Jackie Caln and Rou Kral Tue 1st.-- The Brian Walkley Septet

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap.

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress. .

•THE ORIGINAL SPORTS SALLOON 47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
With five satellite T.V's and a congenial neighborhood atmosphere, this is by far the best bar for viewing sporting events. Enjoy some of their great barbeque specialities along with a Foster's Lager or Samuel Adams on draft. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

•STOCKS AND BONDS 723-8505, 53 State St., Bos. Hit it big in the market, the meet market that is. Mingle with investment types from the nearby brokerage firms during the day and with young collegiate and professionals at night when Stocks and Bonds turns into a lively dance club. Situated near Faneuil Hall. Moderate cover varies. No sneakers or T-shirts.

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band. No dress code.

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 19th.-- Talking to Animals and The Blackwells Thur 20th.-- Downtime; CD Release Party Fri 21st.-- 5-0 Sat 22nd.-- Laurie Sargent Sun 23rd.-- Frankly Scarlett Mon 24th.--Jazz Trio and Open Jazz Jam Tue 25th.-- Spinning Jenny Wed 26th.-- Knots and Crosses Thur 27th.-- Barry Marshall's R & B Revive Fri 28th.-- Boston Baked Blues Sat 29th.-- The Band That Time Forgot Sun 30th.-- Heavily Medicated Fairy Tales Mon 31st.-- Jazz Trio and Open Jazz Jam

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress.

Wed 19th.--Every Wed., Blues Night Sat 22nd.--Doe Brothers Fri 28th.--Fri. and Sat., Pat Catrell

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays.

•TIA'S 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm.

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted.

Tue 25th.--Local bands every Tues.

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat.

•WARREN TAVERN 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St., Boston. A funky little bar whose clientiele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is alwayson for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive. .

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress.

Wed 19th.-- Reggae Dance Party, D.J. Thur 20th.--Thurs., Fri. and Sat. SATTA Fri 21st.-- Sat 22nd.-- Sun 23rd.-- Motion Tue 25th.-- Tom Zicarelli Quartet Wed 26th.-- Tony Pennisi Group Thur 27th.--Thurs. and Fri.; Mighty Charge Sat 29th.-- New Horizon Sun 30th.-- Motion Tue 1st.--

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway. Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover. No dress code.

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos. This large two-story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele. Cover varies. Jacket and tie required.

Why worry?
Hit the beach

while we rent your apartment or find you a roommate.

Only $19

Run your ad in our classified section for just $19.00. We will run the ad until it works. Non-commercial ads only. Call for more details.

The Improper Bostonian
Boston's Bi-Weekly Entertainment Leisure Newsmagazine
Phone: 232-3705 • Fax: 232-4305

All this under one roof at...

GOOD TIME BILLIARDS

Indoor baseball & softball batting cages

Over 35 Gold Crown pool tables & Verhoeven billiard tables

Indoor driving range & miniature golf

Bar & restaurant & Color T.V.'s everywhere

Only 5 Minutes From Boston
A/C • Free Parking!

Off Rt. 93 at Assembly Sq. & Loews Theatre
30 Sturtevant St., Somerville 628-5559

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS

BUD LIGHT SUMMER MUSIC SERIES
Charles Sq. Courtyard, Cambridge, 491-5282
Come down to Charles Square for free music every Wednesday from 6 to 7pm. See the Jazz Harp Trio on Aug. 19. and Heavy Metal Horns on Aug. 26.

CAMBRIDGE BREWING CO.
1 Kendall Sq., Building 100, Cambridge
Have a beer and catch some tunes at the free Saturday Night Music Series. On Aug. 22 come listen to One Thin Dime; catch Memphis Rockabilly night, Aug. 29.

CAMBRIDGESIDE GALLERIA MUSIC FESTIVAL
Kendall Sq., Cambridge
Free Thursday evening music from 6-7pm at the mall. "Shop and bop 'til you drop." Chase away the Big Blues Meanies on Aug. 20 and hit the target with the Poussett Dart Band on Aug. 27.

CITY HALL PLAZA CONCERT SERIES
City Hall Plaza, Boston
The Grand Finale Show is on Wednesday, Aug. 26 from 7:30 to 10pm, come on down to catch the musical fireworks of the National Guard Band and Pat Cooper.

COMMOMWEALTH BREWERY
Portland St., Boston
Live Reggae and Calypso music every Fri. and Sat. 9:30 to 1:00am, no cover with dinner. Search Party sets up camp on Aug. 21, Diversity does their thing on Aug. 22 and Aug. 28, and Kirkland Bodie plays Aug. 29.

COPLEY MUSIC SERIES
Copley Square, Boston
Swing by Copley Square after work to hear some tunes. WBOS sponsors the free music series every Thursday night from 5:30 to 7:30pm.

SOUTH STATION
Grand Concourse
Weekly Wednesday lunch time jazz concerts are held 12:15 to 1:15pm. Do lunch with The Monty Craig Band on Aug. 26, and munch to the beat of New Brazilian Bossa with Teka and Paris on Sept. 2.

EXHIBITS

BOSTON UNIVERSITY
Mugar Memorial Library, 771 Comm. Ave., 353-3728
"It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" is now on display. Admission is free. The library's hours are Monday-Thursday 8am to 11pm, Friday and Saturday 8am to 5pm, and Sunday 10am to 11pm.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY
Copley Square 536-5400
"Dedications: A Celebration of American Women" is a collection of quilts bringing women's lives to the forefront sponsored by McCall's Magazine. The exhibit being shown in the Great Hall closes Aug. 24.

SMALL SHIPS
South Station, above the Grand Concourse
Didn't get enough of Sail Boston? Come see the regatta of small ships created by local youth and art groups and South Station visitors who worked with Sidewalk Sam to create artwork inspired by Sail Boston. The exhibit is free and open to the public through Aug. 31.

FILMS

BILL'S BAR
Lansdowne St., Boston
Every Monday night Bill's hosts Monday Night Movie Madness. SRS Films shows independent films and music videos before the evening's featured film. Films start at 9pm. Admission is free, along with the popcorn.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY
Copley Square, Boston, 536-5400
The BPL's Summer Film Festival continues in the Rabb Lecture Hall at 6pm. See Arsenic and Old Lace on Aug. 24, and It's a Wonderful Life on Aug. 31. The Marilyn Monroe Film Series ends with The Misfits on Aug. 25.

PERFORMING ARTS SERIES AT THE HATCH SHELL
On the Esplanade, Boston
Summer is here and WBZ and the MDC are again hosting Free Friday Flicks atthe Hatch Shell. King Kong stomps in on Aug. 21 and Robin Hood: The Prince of Thieves swings by on Aug. 28. Movies begin at 8pm and admission is free. As with all events at the Hatch Shell, please take the T since parking is limited on Storrow Drive.

SEMINARS

AIDS ACTION COMMITTEE
131 Clarendon St., Boston, 437-6200, ext. 281
If you have financial, legal, insurance, and job-related questions about being HIV+, the AAC can answer your questions in a confidential nighttime seminar held on Aug. 19 from 6:30 to 6:30pm. The seminar will be held on the fourth floor at the AIDS Action Committee.

TOURS

BOSTON GARDEN
North Station, Boston, 227-3206
The Boston Garden History Center is offering guided tours about 45 minutes long that include a tour of the parquet, banners, and team locker room. Prices are $5 for adults, $3.50 for children and $4 for senior citizens and students.

COMMONWEALTH BREWING CO.
138 Portland St., Boston
The Brewing Co. holds free tours on Saturdays at 3:30pm and Sundays at noon.

SAMUEL ADAMS BREWERY
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
On Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm, the brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a $1 contribution is requested.

SPECIAL EVENTS

MDC CENTENNIAL ETHNIC FESTIVAL
Hatch Shell, Esplanade
Come down on Aug. 29 to celebrate the many different ethnic varieties of food and customs represented at this fun festival starting at11am. Call 227-0627 for more info.

ST. ANTHONY'S FEAST
North End
The North End streets come alive with colorful parades, unending music and delicious Italian foods. Take the T to Haymarket and enjoy the festival which starts Fri., Aug 28 at 7pm and runs through Sun., Aug 30.

We welcome submissions of free and discount events to this section. Please send pertinent information including prices, dates, telephone number and contact person to: Free Boston, The Improper Bostonian, c/o Tobin Streett, P.O. Box 820 Brookline Village, MA 02147-0820, Or fax to (617)232-4305

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Feel the urge to unleash your frustrations or vent your hostilities on an unsuspecting friend or enemy? Look no further than the Improper Impersonals, a forum designed for pranksters, irate neighbors, relatives, maniacs or any would-be target of your acid tongue. Best of all they're FREE! Send your Impersonals to us at Improper Impersonals, The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146. Or fax it to us at 232-4305.

Yo Arliel Why would those bikini girls want to look at a wrinkled old prune like you anyway? I told you to wear sunscreen ...... For someone 30, you have enough lines to cover a road map! Better get a face lift if you want a little beach bunny. B.

Chad- I missed you so very much when you were in LA all summer. We have to catch up on times, where do you want to go first? Love, Mummy Dearest

Sean, I know I'm nagging, but if U are technically separated, even though your wife still lives in the same house, prove U wanna be with me, by kicking your digits my way hunny. I'm sick of the pay phone, next time don't bother putting in another nickel! Let it be automatically terminated! There are more studs out there! Love, Cheryl

Kathy, The FBI is coming to get you! J.E. Hoover

Kirsten, Do you want it a little louder or a little softer? Don't forget my 501's. "Brad" from MN

To Secret Admirer, If you weren't going out with my best friend, I might have been interested. I' ll make you a pizza the next time you visit me at work. I'm not shy, just know my boundaries. I'm still your friend whenever you need a shoulder to cry on... Love, Don

Chuck, You're a pretty SHARP guy! Go Habs Go! -that Canadian guy

Rose M., Glad you're sticking around. Besides, El-hosehead would miss you and your black bag too much. -XOXO Eugenie

Hey Squeaky, Yeah, I'm talking to you. Do you still want forever? I do, despite your little duck impressions. Smile. Love, S.R.

Bob, Meet me at HoJo's in N.H. They are starting to catch on about us. No more Holiday Inn. -Your ice cream lover.

Jen, I guess Single White Female made a dent on your roommate. Glad she's staying. Dr. x

Amy, Those brown eyes of yours are making me crazy. Write me soon, E

Tunnelwoman, Don't you know that the ring means no more nooky? Enjoy the smell of low tide forever. A.B.

Slodi, We're psyched to see you. B'Town misses you and so do we. See you at the Cape. Love, Melbs and Cecil

C.L. The iced coffee doesn't taste the same. The clouds of smoke are not yours. I know we can probably never happen, but I want you to know that I just plain miss you. Thinking of you as always, REK

K.-the sex machine-H. We're all waiting for you! -The entire male population

Dear Psycho, You were only half correct. While I am a bellman at one of Boston's finest hotels, I like to think of the "BM" as bowel movement, since so many guests here treat me like a piece of shit!!! Joe the B.M.

P.S. As for seeing me at Nappy's, forget it; try like the Ramrod on a Thursday or Sunday night.

Nancy Nurse,Did you take 15 mini-donuts and about 100 smackaroos? Sincerely, F. Owen

Dr. S, I miss your face. - J-Bug

Angie, I'll be at the studio all night as you know. Don't hesitate to drop by anytime. I'll be waiting! -Dick A.

Clancy, You can lick my bone anytime you want. Love, Beauj p.s. Woof!

Joe, you were right, there is a lock on the door and we'll be contacting you for a job. Not!

Jane, you were right, I did run over your dog when I was P.O'd at you last week, I'll buy you a new one to make up for it. OK?

Jason, we didn't think you were going to survive in that sweatshop through the summer. Have they successfully neutralized any remaining neuro activity or will the lobotomy take a few more months?

Mary Eeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeelizabeth. Don't forget to write!

We're Looking For A Few Stars

Account Executives

Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Photo Editor

We're looking for an experienced photographer who is well organized and motivated. Responsibilities include organizing the photographing of all photos and managing a staff of photographers. No phone calls please.

Inside Sales

Largest Bi-weekly in New England needs experienced inside salesperople. Excellent compensation.Tterrific work environment. Call 232–3705

Sales Interns

Assist the sales staff of the larges bi-weekly in New Wngland. Terrific work environmnet. Learn about the newspaper business from the inside. Call Harvey at 232–3705.

Photo Journalist

Freelance Writers

Interns

We offer as much responsibility as you can handle.
FAX your resume to 232-4305 or send it to:

The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303

☆ ☆ ☆

CLASSIFIEDS

IT'S JUST $19! WHY PAY MORE?

The New IMPROPER BOSTONIAN Classifieds Is Still The Best Way To Reach Over 190,000 of the Best Readers in Town. And When You Place a Non-Commercial Ad We'll Run It Until It Works for Just $19.If You Have a New or Small Mail Order Business, Or If Your Business Just Enjoys The Classifieds, We'll Run A Display Advertisement Free When Your Run Your Commercial Classified Ad in Six Issues.

CALL 232-3705 or FAX: 232-4305

MASTER CARD, VISA AND AMERICAN EXPRESS ACCEPTED
MORE INFORMATION BELOW.

REAL ESTATE

APARTMENTS

BEACON HILL 1 Br. Concierge Bldg., Roofdeck $850 Incl. Util. Avl. 8/14-9/12 742-7798

BOSTON Bay Village, Small 1 bedroom, hardwood floors, clean. Newly renovated quiet bldg., $595 includes heat & hot water 332-0427

BOSTON Arlington St.-Bay Village. Small studio in quiet, safe bldg. Newly renovated, hardwood floors $525 includes heat & hot water 332-0427

BOSTON Historic Marlborough St. 1 bedroom, patio, 1 block to T and bus. $600 includes heat. Lv. message on voice mailbox 1-800-244-2756 ext. 603

BOSTON 3-4 Bedroom apt. located on 2nd & 3rd flrs of a 3 family house. Includes microwave, washer/dryer, dishwasher, hardwood floors, track lighting, spiral staircase, sky lights, all beautifully detailed $1200 Call: 442-3326 or 225-2034

BOSTON/BRIGHAM CIRCLE NU MEDICAL AREA LARGE 3&4 BEDROOM $900 AND UP, SECURE BLDG. ON T. CLOSE TO STORES AND BANKS, SOME WITH PARKING. NO FEE. CALL 731-0165

Boston / Fenway Peterborough Gardens
Stu, 1,2 and 3 bed avail. close to public transportation, shopping, colleges and hospitals. No Fee.
From $475
HHW Inc.
247-3503

BROOKLINE This is it Brookline! Oct.1 4 Bedroom Beautiful 2 Fam. House. Large eat-in kitchen, deck. Longwood Med. Area. $1650 includes heat & hot water, 3 parking spaces. Owner: 734-9863

CAMBRIDGE New 4 room townhouse, near MIT, d/d, laundrey, yard. Perfect for couple, close to all T lines $895+ 661-8656

CHELSEA Luxury 2 bedroom apt. 1 1/2 baths, w/d, parking, convenient to T, balcony, pool and health club $825 (617)648-8109

DORCHESTER Ashmont Hill, 5 rooms on Red line. 2 bedrooms, deck, laundrey, pantry, brick building. $800 heated Call 265-3203

DORCHESTER Contemporary renovated 1st floor apt. in quiet , owner occupied 3 decker. 1400 sq. ft. 17-windows, sundeck, oak floors, livingroom with french doors, dining room with china cabinet, new eik, dw, walk in pantry, 2 bedroom study, entry hall, porches, w/d, garden, $690+ Call 282-1919 or 572-0038

JAMAICA PLAIN Great JP duplex needs 2 for Sept. Bedroom with 1/2 bath $390 or Bedroom $335. Also study. No smokes or cats 983-0131

JAMAICA PLAIN Best JP location Sept. 4 rooms $725+ 2 bedroom. Very nice place 983-0131

ROSLINDALE 2 Bedroom in apt. building with heat & hot water, hardwood floors, laundrey facilities on premises, disposal, on bus line. Sec. dep. and references required. $650 Call (617)364-6585

ROSLINDALE 2 bedroom in apt. building with heat and hot water, hardwood floors , laundrey facilities on premisis, disposal, on bus line. Security Deposit and References Required. $650 Call (617) 364-6585

SAVIN HILL Over Bridge, Oceanside. 4 Rooms, Glassed-in Porch, Off Street Parking, 2 min. from Red Line. 5 min. walk to Beach. Large Eat-In Kitchen, Hardwood Floors $550+ Util. Very Quiet Neighborhood 825-1832 "Best Landlord in City" Tank McNamara, The Improper Bostonian

SOMERVILLE 6 rooms each side. Prime Davis Square location. $900 tile bath. $1100 1 1/2 tile bath. No Util. Call 237-1992

SOMERVILLE 5 room apt. 7 minute walk to Tufts. Central air & vacuum, w/d, frig., partially furnished. $700+ Ann/Bill 721-0592

SOMERVILLE Lg. 6 room, 3 bedroom, living room, dining room, eat-in-kitchen, modern bath. Avail immed. $850+ Laundrey, No fee. 666-4734

SOMERVILLE Walk to Davis Sq. Large 4 bedroom. Hardwood floors, white walls, ultra modern kitchen, dw/disposal, deck laundrey $1200. 662-5390

SOMERVILLE Somerville east, 4 rooms, large bedroom hardfloors near T $700 Nice Area (617)488-0101

APT. SHARES

ALLSTON House Near Bus & T, Harvard Square and BU etc. Smoke/Pets OK $275+ 1/3 of Cheap Utilities 787-8811

ALLSTON Roomate wanted: small room, clean bright apt. Close to Harvard & BU/call Jen or Lee / 7830847 / $300/MO i.e.

BEACON HILL 1 Female 27+, Prof. or grad student to share 3 bedroom 2 bath condo with prof. female & 2 cats. No more pets please. No smoking. Fireplace, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting, washer/dryer, roofdeck $450 594-1444

BEACON HILL Female grad student seeks female roomate for 2 bedroom apt. nonsmoking, $350 mo. heat water included Call Jill at 720-0511

BELMONT Near Alewife. Smokeless, Plants, Placid $280+ 489-1250

BEVERLY Prof. Non-Smoker Female wanted to share a beautifully furnished 3 bedroom 3 bath house in fantastic neighborhood. Excellent Value at $450. 594-1444

BOSTON Share Waterfront Home. Walk to UMass, Red Line. Nonsmoker. Avl. Now $500 includes util. 282-4921 Lv. Message

BOSTON/JAMAICA PLAIN Large spectacular apt. to share with professional. Victorian. On pond. Eat-in kitchen, washer/dryer, parking , Near mass transit. Nonsmoker $575 Avl. Now. 524-0621 or 524-0221

BRIGHTON Spac. room in large house. All hardwood floors, parking util. w/d included Artists/teachers preferred Semi-Coop. Call Nathan Lv. msg. 787-8797

BRIGHTON CENTER Looking for woman 25+ with group spirit and exp.to join household of 1 woman/2 men. 2 cats, sunny spacious victorian, T access, new kitchen and bath, fireplace $350 + util. Call 783-1931

BROOKLINE COOLIDGE CORNER. M OR F 2 Bedroom 1 1/2 Bath large apt. $600 mo. Heated, gas & electric extra. Avl. 8/1 Deposit required. Bonnie 734-7625

BROOKLINE Seeking responsible outgoing female to share apt. No smoking. No pets. No drugs. Roofdeck. laundrey in building 734-5367 $425 includes heat & hot water

CAMBRIDGE Near Galleria Prof. male seeking roomate for 2 bedroom apt. Light housekeeping. 864-0007

CAMBRIDGE Responsible roomate to share beautiful 2 bedroom. 7 min. walk from Harvard Square. Lawn, fireplace, off street parking, Washer/dryer, Off Brattle. $450 month plus util.. No smoking. Share Days:693-5118

CAMBRIDGE Central Square female seeks female to share apt. Conv. location, Drug/smoke free $325 avl. now 354-3792

CAMBRIDGE 5 Min. from Harvard Square. 1 male seeks 1m/1f to share 2 bedroom. Hardwood floors. $360/om. 864-2468

CAMBRIDGE North Cambridge. Free rent in exchange for light housekeeping and part time babysiting for 6 year old girl. 3 bedroom apt. 491-5809

CAMBRIDGE NORTH CAMBRIDGE, 1 female seeks to share 2 floor apt. in safe neighborhood with responsible veggie female. 3 rooms will be for new roomate. Deck, no smoking or pets. Near T & Buses $350 includes heat 354-2739

DORCHESTER GWM to share large colonial home with others. $300 util included 282-0567 Leave Message

JAMAICA PLAIN Quiet 2 bedroom apt. with side yard. 2nd floor. Close to T. Avl. 8/15 or 9/1 $850+ No dogs 524-0924

JAMAICA PLAIN Prof. to share spacious 3 bedroom with 2 housemates, 1 cat 1dog Near T, offstreet parking, washer/dryer, deck, yard $300 includes heat. Call Hollis 427-7175 ext. 232

JAMAICA PLAIN Great JP duplex needs 2 for Sept. Bedroom with 1/2 Bath $390 or Bedroom $335. Also study. No Smokes or cats 983-0131

JAMAICA PLAIN Prof. 43, Non-smoker, pianist activists seeks m/f roomate for large 2 bedroom in Summer Mill. Near T $325+ 1/2 Util. avl. 8/1 522-4420 evenings or 267-2949 days

JAMAICA PLAIN 3 Females looking for 4th 27+ to share large sunny apt. $291/mo+ No smoking/pets. Near pond 524-2008

JAMAICA PLAIN Quiet well kept 2 bedroom apt. with off St. parking for GM or GF. You can have bedroom furnished or unfurnished for $325, all util. included. Call Ed after 6 pm. 524-0421

LEXINGTON 26+ independant quiet, neat, pleasant room on Pleasant St. Bus to Cambridge $400 includes util. 861-8737

LOWELL BIWM 29 seeks Gay/Bi male or female for 2 bedroom condo. Private bedroom with full bath near 495. Smoker OK $300+ 1/2 elec. Serious Only. (508)459-6728

MALDEN Male or Female for 2 bedroom house. Wall to wall carpeting, washer/dryer, off street parking. Non-smoker No drugs. $375+ Util. Available Now 324-3509

MEDFORD 1 Disc. GWM seeks 1 GWM/F to share 7 room house. Chrs. near shopping, T, Tufts W/D CBL deck, must be disc. no pet, drugs, alch. $495 mo. no util. 396-0187 lv. msg.

MOVING? KEN'S MOVING EXPERIENCE SAVE ON YOUR NEXT MOVE. DON'T RENT A TRUCK. I CAN DO IT FOR LESS! (617)923-2150

NEWTON 40 Yr. old health care professional seeks to share quiet home in quiet neighborhood condusive to studying. Must be convenient to Cambridge and in the $400 range each. On or before Sept. 1 Call 547-6058

NEWTON Beautiful large Victorian home on quiet street in near new library. 2 rooms avl. in 4 bedroom house. Several amenities. All util included. Call Elspeth 244-1322

NEWTON 2M seeks 2 M/F to share 4 bedroom. Great yard, garden, w/d. Near Watertown Square & T Avl NOW!!! $350+ Smoking OK 965-7805

NEWTON CENTRE Near T. Nice room. $335/month plus. John or Linda, 965-0930 or 332-4800

NEWTON CENTRE Room available in friendly independent Victorian. Near lake and T. W/D $375+ No Smoking 25+ 965-6697

NEWTON CENTRE Housemate, m/f, 30+ for large bedroom with parking, washer/ dryer, storage in lovely 4 bedroom house with view of Crystal Lake 969-7124

NEWTONVILLE Female 25+ wanted for 2 bedroom. Yard, parking, storage, close to shopping $415+ Util. 244-4573

NORTH READING GWM Housemate wanted Non-smoker. No drugs. Under 40 Years Old Luxurious living. Serious only. $100 weekly rent includes all utilities. Steven (508)664-4443

QUINCY 4 Bedroom, 2 Full Baths in large roomy house, yard, garden $375+ Utilities Call Stan 768-8878

REVERE Female wanted to share 2 bedroom 2 bath ocean front condo. Includes gym, pool, jacuzzi, concierge $500+ 289-4926

SOMERVILLE 1 Male or female for 4 bedroom in Inman Square. No Pets N/S $240+ Util. 623-0504 or 253-9850

SOMERVILLE 1 M/F 25+ for large 3 bedroom apartment near Union Square. No cigs. Nice yard. Avl. Now. $350/mo+ 628-0754

WATERTOWN 2 Female/1 Male seeks M/F to join friendly spacious independant victorian house. 5BR/2 Bath fpl., w/d, parking. Quiet res. street near pike, woods, tennis, track, T. No pets/smoker. $400+ util. Call 924-5693

WATERTOWN Seek 1 Nonsmoker ASAP. 2 bedroom apt. in 2 family house. Great condition, laundrey, yard, parking. Call 924-7094

WATERTOWN Cambridge Line. Female for 2 bedroom for sunny 1st. floor house. Nonsmoker, no pets , near T, washer, parking, sunny back porch. Avl. 8/1 $375+ util. 926-2166

WEYMOUTH Nonsmoker female for 2 bedroom apt. includes all utilities . With Balcony, parking, a/c $275 call 340-2131

APTS. WANTED

$1000 Reward for 2 Bedroom Rent controlled Apt. in mid-Camb. or Back Bay 2nd fl. or higher $500 - $675 864-0239

COMMERCIAL SPACE

CHARLESTOWN Non-Live in studio space available. 1250 square ft. $500/mo. 242-0080

GARAGE FOR RENT

JAMAICA PLAIN 2 Car concrete garage for rent. Safe, clean, water and fire proof. Asking $200 Call (508)995-1435 Anytime

HOUSE FOR RENT

WATERTOWN SQUARE 3-5 bdrm. house. Beautiful $900 - $1500. Last & Sec. Req. (617)924-5174

WEST ROXBURY 4 Bedroom house 9rooms/2 baths eat-in-kitchen, w/d yd,. parking, near parks, Y and T. Nice neighborhood, purple commuter rail. $1400 No fee. Avl. Now. 327-5625

HOUSE WANTED

RENT W/OPTION TO BUY A single 2 family or large 2 bedroom condo. Must be reasonably priced. Would consider handyman special. Pref. loc. Brookline/Newton or possibly Metro West. Well established couple. Call John 247-2175

PARKING SPACE

BOSTON Parking space for rent immediately at 170 Tremont Street. Covered, valet. Call 269-7200 x103

ROOM FOR RENT

BROOKLINE 4 Prof. clean, quiet, seek female 30+, veggie, non-smoker. For large house, 2 min. to T, large yard. Rent- $365 includes all util. $395 with parking 731-6959 lv. message

VACATION RENTAL

HARWICH CAPE COD GREAT HOUSE IN GREAT LOCATION. LAST 2 WEEKS OF AUGUST. ENJOY THE CAPE IN STYLE CALL ELSPETH AT 244-1322

SKI 5 MOUNTAINS IN NH Season - monthly rental (Dec.- Feb) Chalet sleeps 6. 2 baths, mountain view. Elegant Chrisimas Mountain Resort. Owner (617)437-9757

VACATION RENTALS

DISNEYWORLD 3 bedroom/2 bath brand new condo, pool, jacuzzi, tennis , exercise rooms. (617)846-6622

CAPE PAINT

Fully Insured, Experienced
Interior / Exterior Painting, Window Glazing
Reasonable Rates
"We are young, hardworking, conscientious workers."

CALL WILL (617) 244-1322
FREE ESTIMATE

ROSE EXPRESS
Only $29.99 for a boxed dozen. Free Downtown Boston Delivery
Call 269-4444

CLASSIFIEDS

ALTERATIONS/ DESIGN

ALTER EGO DESIGNS Need Clothing or Home Item Alterations, Repair, Custom Work? Call us at 332-0160 for Estimates and Appointment GREAT RATES!

BUSINESS SERVICES

IDEAS FOR THE ENTREPRENEUR! 100 New Business Ideas That Work. Send SASE To: Business Ideas, PO Box 391707 Cambridge, Ma. 02139

CLEANING

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition. Call Joey 776-1706

SEE SPOT RUN Residential cleaning service Boston and surrounding areas call 247-1009 10-4pm. Ref. upon request

LUCY'S PROFESSIONAL CLEANING SERVICE Experienced and reliable. Houses, Apartments and Offices. Professional Cleaning at reasonable rates. References availabe. Call Lucy at 864-0198

CLOTHING/ TAILORING

QUALITY pre-owned designer and better clothing. Do come browse! $$$ for your wardrobe. Gowns also wanted!

THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11 am-6pm daily. 739-3399. See display ad this page.

WE WANT YOUR CLOTHING The Garment District is now accepting. Mens & Womens Current & Vintage Clothing for Consignment (617)876-9795

DATING

BEAUTIFUL CONNECTIONS Get Your Chance Now. Thousands of Beautiful Women in South America Desire Romance and Marriage (617)789-LOVE

ENTERTAINMENT

"BROADWAY BABIES" Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators, D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula Dancers, Balloons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable" (617)396-0550 M/C VISA AMEX

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT Professional psychic available for parties/lectures and readings

FOR SALE

3 Piece Livingroom Set Sofa, Love Seat and Recliner Chair Beige Leather Good Condition $750 (508)587-3974

BOAT FOR SALE 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider, 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/roller. New boat cover. Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617)279-4857

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE JUICE CAFE..BROOKLINE VILLAGE SEEMS TO BE THE PLACE FOR YOUNG SUCCESSFULL ENTREPRENEURS!

FRIDGIDARE Stackable wash/dryer $350. 2 Gas Stoves $75 each Rockwell 9" Table Saw $400. Ind. Glass Sander $350. 1930's Sax $400 (617)924-5175

FUTON OUTLET For the best deal in town! Free delivery. 360 Mystic Ave. Somerville 776-9429 Ask about our Student Specials!

OFFICE FURNITURE 50%-80% off. Files, Desks, Chairs, Conference Tables. Call for The Best Prices: (617)329-1662

PHOTO EQUIPMENT 28-80mm Quantaray lens with case. Adaptable to 35mm, Nikon base cameras. Barely used. $65 Please Call 232-8455

SUPERB 7 PC. BEDROOM SET Includes queen size headboard, bureau, mirror bookcase, nightstand, desk and chair. White and Silver. Good Condition $550 Please call 232-8455

HEALTH SERVICES

MASSAGE Reasonable Rates! Call David (617)734-7080

THERAPEUTIC MESSAGE on the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

TIRED, ACHING MUSCLES? Then you knead a massage. Come in on your lunch break or after work. Mon-Tue-Wed 10 am to 7pm $45/hr loc on Boylston St. across from the Boston Common. Call Mary Foster 617-643-8916 leave message. Certified and licensed.

HELP WANTED

Experienced Full Time Line Cook Wanted. Must Have Flexible Schedule. Call 232-8787. Corrib Pub and Restaurant

INTERN NEEDED TO ASSIST INSIDE SALES MANAGER GREAT OPPORTUNITY CALL 232-3705 FOR MORE INFO.

JOB FOR THE NINETIES 100 Growth Occupations, Free Brochure, Reid Enterprises, 84B, Dept TB Harvard Ave, Allston, MA 02134

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DAYS A WEEK? How about doing a few deliveries around the Boston area? For more info call 232-3507. Ask for Mark

PART TIME EAR AND NOSE PIERCER Eye for accuracy. No bed wetters. 247-7092 Ask for Tank Hannibal after 5 p.m.

Moving?

Ken's Moving Experience

Save on your next move.

Don't rent a truck- I can do it for less!

Call (617) 923-2150

Even The Improper Bostonian uses PRESSXPRESS (PXP), greater Boston's most comprehensive resource of event information. PXP researches and lists all events to which the public is invited up to ONE YEAR in advance -- everything from black-tie and cultural events to business seminars and conventions -- and transmits it weekly via fax. Just think of the possibilities for your business clients, organization or personal life! Stay in the know -- call PRESSXPRESS at (617) 742-2092 and ask for your free faxed sample today.

MEET SOMEONE SPECIAL!

For friendship, romance, or marriage Call

UNITED DATING SERVICE

497-2944

NATURAL ❤ SELECTION

Like thousands of other happy couples, Kimberly Clayton and Kent Kellough found each other easily and naturally, through Great Expectations. Here is their story.

Q. "And what was the advantage of joining Great Expectations?"

A. "Members of Great Expectations know what they want. They don't play games. My first date with Kent was very comfortable, which was a rare first date experience."

Q. "Kent, what do you tell people about Great Expectations?"

A. "It absolutely works. It's not just for people who are looking for dates, it's also for people who have plenty of dates who aren't finding the right person."

Great Expectations® "We make meeting people easy"

You can take the first step toward a fulfilling relationship. Call

(617)332-7755

29 Craft St., Suite 550 Newton, MA 02158

Adapter Productions

- Audition/Demo Tapes
- Weddings
- Legal

Digital Stereo Video

Rob Wellens

BRIGHTON, MA

(617) 782-0466

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIED AD FORM

Section Heading _____

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26
1
2
3
4
5
6

Run Dates: From:____/____ Month. Day

❑ Bold Headline

First 4 lines	19.00*
Additional lines X .$5.00	+
Bold Headline (15$)	+
= Total	+

* The $19.00 'run until it works' rate is for Non - commercial accounts only.

Name_____

Address_____

City_____State____Zip_____

Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: Improper Bostonian Classifieds)

Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX

Card Number _____Exp.___/____

Signature (if paying by credit card)

X_____

Mail orders to: The Improper Bostonian 17 Station St. Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146-7303

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705

OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Rates: Non-commercial, $5 per line. %15 per bold headline. Commercial: $7 per line. $17 per bold headline. The $19 "Run it until it works" advertisements are for non-commercial ads only. Real estate owners who need placement for multiple units are subject to commercial rates. Commercial advertisers who place a classified ad in six consecutive issues will receive a 6 column inch classified display ad. Commercial customers that prepay for six issues may receive a classified display in any issue .

Copy regulations: All ad copy is subject to approval before publication Any ad deemed objectionable will be either edited or removed. The Improper Bostonian shall be under no liability for failure to insert an advertisement. Any errors that do not affect the material value of the ad will not be credited. Errors must e reported within the first week of publication.

Cancellations and charges: All ads must be prepaid. There will be no refunds for canceled ads. Space credits will be issued for ads cancelled before 5pm on the Thursday before publication There are no copy changes or refunds for non-commercial ads. Agency discounts: 15% agency discounts apply. Call for mor information.

SELL LOVE Great Expectations The Nations Largest Video Dating Service is Now Interviewing for Inside Sales and Telemarketers at our Newton Office. Join our Happy Team! 332-7755 Ask for Sue

HYPNOSIS

HYPNOSIS $25 per hour. Certified. David (617)734-7080 Message Avl.

INSTRUCTION

COLLEGE PROFESSOR Spanish and French Lessons. English as a second language. Group and Individual Lesons from Beginner to Advanced. Native Speaker of Spanish. (617)731-5915

Motor Mart Garage Kinney System Inc. $5.50 Theater Parking. •Present same day theatre ticket stub to lobby cashier 26 Park Plaza Bos.

MEDICAL SERVICES

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DESEASE and HIV testing. Confidential doctors office. Robert Taylor, M.D. Brookline 232-1459

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage Lic. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 Comm. Ave 267-7171

MUSIC LESSONS

ACCEPTING SERIOUS STUDENTS for famous vocal method. Beginners welcome 437-9141

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles. Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

GUITAR LESSONS Berklee grad teaching private lessons for guitar. 1/2 hour - 1 hour lessons. Beginner to advanced. Phil 859-8104

INTENSE GUITAR LESSONS Whether you are a beginner, intermediate, or advanced guitarist. Graig Glendenning will help you do it right. Lowest rates in town! 437-7051

KEY-BORED? Berklee Prof. offers private keyboard instruction. All levels, all styles. Develop your potential (617)628-7364

PRIVATE LESSONS in jazz, classial by exp. pianist/composer/ perc. All backrounds welcome. Rates negotiable 924-3671

VOICE LESSONS Beginner to intermediate, Jazz/Pop styles. Harmony, Ear Training, Sight Reading, Affordable. Sabrina 787-4254

MUSICAL INSTR.

ALTO SAX Bundy II Brand New. Best Offer. Call 340-2131 leave messages.

HAYNES solid silver hand made french model flute. Complete and in mint condition. 789-4964

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

GRAND PIANO Steinertone Circa 1890. Ebony Grand with New Renner Keyboard, New Strings. For recording or pleasure. Planning to move and will consider any reasonable offer. Call Peter (617)522-1458

PAINTING

CAPE PAINT Fully Insured, Experienced, Interior/Exterior, Window Glazing, Reasonable Rates. Call Will 244-1322 For Free Estimate!

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition. Call Joey 776-1706

PHOTOGRAPHY

DARKROOM WANTED LOOKING FOR FLEXIBLE PHOTOGRAPHER WITH DARK ROOM IN THE BROOKLINE AREA FOR OUTSIDE CONTRACTING. CONVENIENCE A MUST! CALL ANGELA 232-3507

PHOTOGRAPER HEAD SHOTS/MODELING (617)242-1354

SERVICES

BRAY WOODWORKING 3rd Generation Craftsman-If its wood, We do it. Call Scott (508)921-2170

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licenced and Insured. Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

HIRE ME TO Edit, proofread and write. Type or Wordprocess term papers, thesis, resumes or whatever you need. RATES: Text Editing $25 per hr. WORD PROCESSING: $2.50 per dbl spaced page. $15 per Resume $4 per Cover Letter. TODD LARSON (617)738-1020

INVISIONS Logos and Lettering consulting. Call Greg 923-3472 Leave a Message.

SITUATIONS WANTED

RESTAURANT OWNERS Need someone to cover employee vacations, fill in at the last minute or help out in a pinch? Very Experienced hostess/ service person person available for pick-up work. Call Erica@ 742-7942 and leave a message

STUFF WANTED

TABLE For use as a conference table. Call 332-4710

THERAPY & COUNSELING

NEED TO TALK to someone? Heartline Services will respond.. Telephone/ personal counseling by appointment. Visa/MC (617)536-6518

TICKETS

Concerts, Red Sox, Patriots, Theater BAY STATE TICKET See our Display Ad on page 18, 734-TIXX

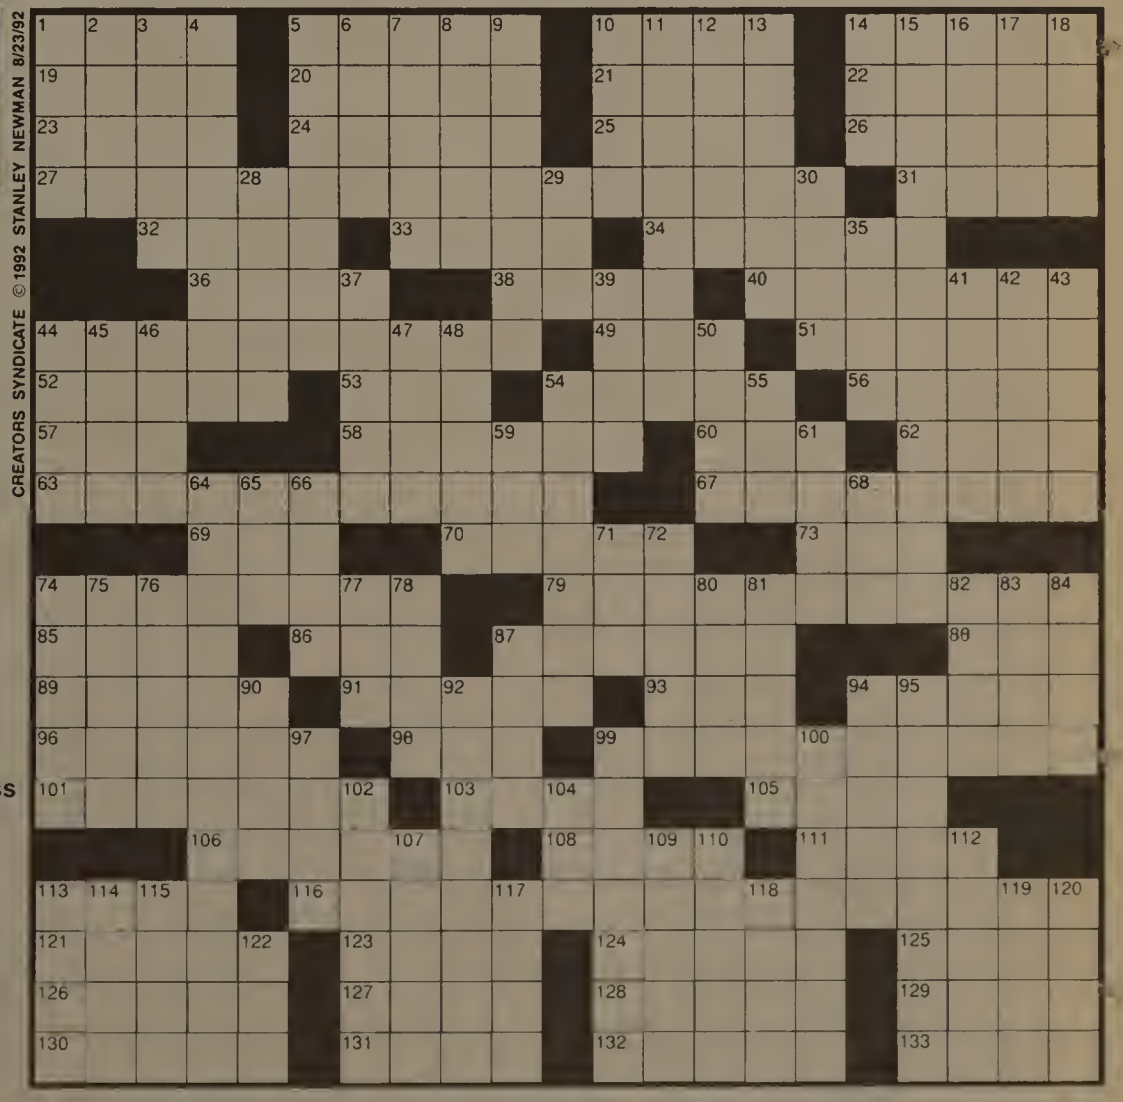
All types of Masonry
J.D. Masonry Co.
• Specializing in Chimney Repointing & Repair
• Stairs • Walkways
• Foundations
Fully Insured–Free Estimates
Call Jim 776–8124

JOHN'S MOVING SERVICE
Local & Long Distance
24 Hour Service
617–381–0328

We are paying people with Asthma to participate in a research study on Asthma at the Beth Israel Hospital. If interested please call 735-2676.

CREDIT PROBLEMS?
- Get a VISA, bad credit, bankruptcy OK.
- All dynamic credit correction methods available.
- Info on Credit Bureaus and how they operate.
- When you can get automatic removal of derogatory items from credit reports.
- In-depth use of dispute method used effectively to your advantage.
- Create excellent credit in 30 days or less.
- Establish or re-establish AAA-1 credit.
- 6 years experience in credit field.

Featured by Boston Herald, WBZ-TV, UPI. Don't wait 7 years, Call Now! 536-0639, TPC 25 Huntington. 606 Boston 02116.



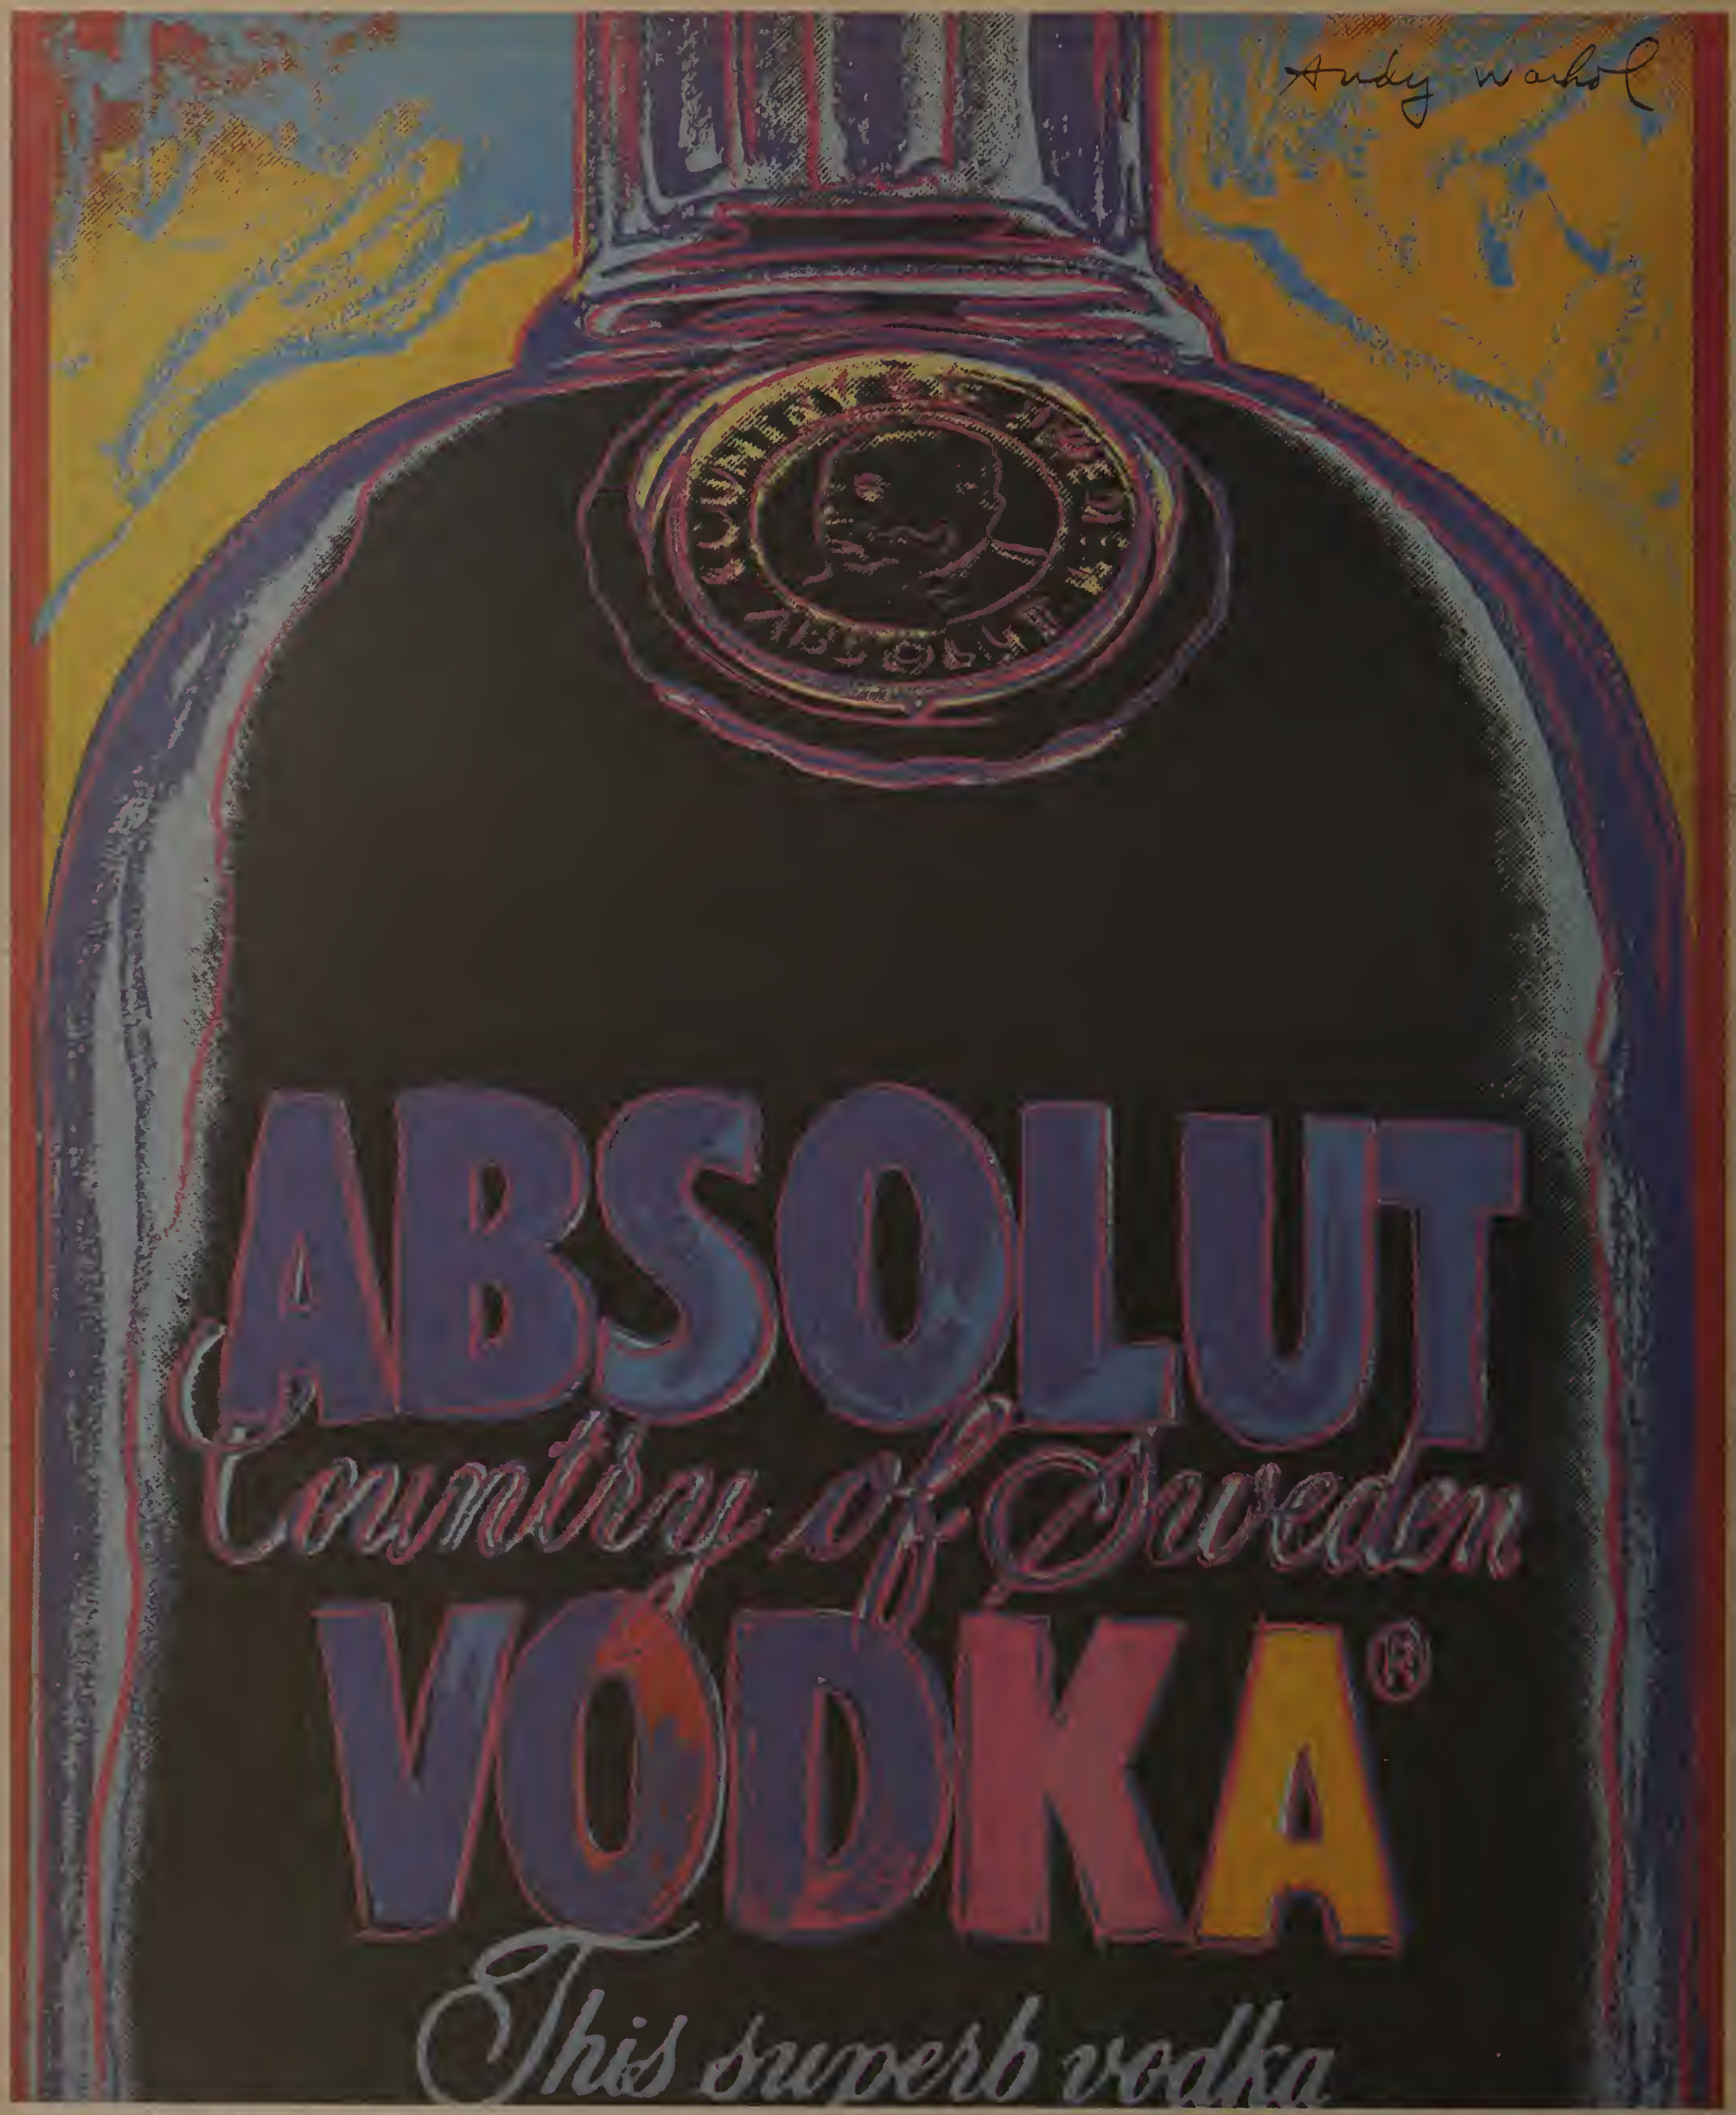
AfriChic!
10% OFF Autumn Special!
Uniquely you . . .
Creative hair sculpture for all hair types:
Braids • Cornrow • Threading
By Appointment Only
(617) 547-3707 Cambridge

THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman

GARDEN SPOTS: No green thumb necessary

by Shirley Soloway



ACROSS

1 Express shock
5 Fairway bunkers
10 Sail holder
14 Tool buildings
19 Thickening agent
20 Word form for "sun"
21 Architect Saarinen
22 Clytemnestra's sister
23 Make a judicial decision
24 Live coal
25 Pasta-sauce name
26 Governor Stevenson
27 Give an evasive answer
31 Irving hero
32 Strike out, in a way
33 Mangle
34 Kane's Xanadu, e.g.
36 Tennis pro Yannick
38 Spanish I verb
40 Relocating families' concerns
44 The common people
49 Publicity, so to speak
51 Where boxers are boarded
52 Theater sections
53 Genetic initials
54 Shellac, for example
56 In dire straits
57 Rebus-puzzle conjunction
58 They're often registered
60 __ de plume
62 Stuffing flavoring
63 Expands one's activities
67 Crab
69 Letters of debit
70 Pick up the tab
73 Cedar Rapids college
74 House wear
79 Slow things down
85 Either Holbein
86 Swerve, at sea
87 Oversold, as the stock market
88 Performers' union: Abbr.
89 Paper Moon role
91 Some skirts
93 DXXX + DXXI
94 Not __ in the world
96 Flashes of light
98 Stylish, sixties-style
99 He won't dance
101 '62 World's Fair locale
103 Pasternak heroine
105 Adventuress Montez
106 "__ the Chief"
108 Mr. Knievel
111 Goodbye, Columbus author
113 Conditioner additive
116 Reform
121 Supercharged engine
123 It twice precedes "Doo" in a '28 tune
124 Ring boundaries
125 If not
126 Come to mind
127 Supplements, with "out"
128 Royal decree
129 Where the quarter goes
130 General at Gettysburg
131 Spanish painter
132 Office furniture
133 Office furniture

DOWN

1 What's on?
2 Fit of fever
3 First course
4 Make-believe
5 Paul Bryant film bio
6 San __, Italy
7 Shot holder
8 Michelangelo masterpiece
9 Military missions
10 Dried out
11 Soup ingredients
12 Mythical monster
13 Drives out
14 __ Na Na
15 Play it safe
16 Cinder ending
17 High-priced
18 Presumptuous one
28 At __ for words
29 Bounty initials
30 Banal writer
35 At that time
37 Opera star Marilyn
39 Musical markings
41 Portrayer of 89 Across
42 Narrow shelf
43 Comparatively clever
44 Bit of whipped cream
45 Crowd sound
46 Center of the Mogul Empire
47 Responsibility
48 Diviner's deck
50 Double checker
54 Follow-up exams
55 Eur. nation
59 Big __, CA
61 "No, Not __!" ('56 tune)
64 Puts an early end to
65 One of the Hill Street Blues
66 Rock singer Newton
68 Beatle haircut originator?
71 Strain __ gnat
72 Actress Hopkins
74 Thick rugs
75 Tureen accessory
76 Stop for da Gama
77 NFLer
78 Sink alternative
80 Richard of Night Court
81 Suit fabric
82 "__ Mommy Kissing Santa Claus"
83 Meet defiantly
84 German/Czech river
87 Opera set in Thebes
90 Jazz singer James
92 Opposite of "still"
94 Let pass
95 In one's shirt-sleeves
97 Thin cut
99 Wasn't so sure
100 Black and Sherwood
102 Gets away from
104 Gun the engine
107 Tot's transportation
109 Wear down
110 __ lazuli
112 Lionel Richie #1 tune
113 Literally, "indivisible"
114 He created Life
115 Dangerous whale
117 Heating unit
118 Bottle part
119 Starting
120 Goat cheese
122 Get a lode of this

ABSOLUT WARHOL.

FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW) CALL 1-800-243-3787.
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1985. ESTATE AND FOUNDATION OF ANDY WARHOL.

The Improper Bostonian

Summer's End Issue

Inside:

Lauren Dare - Braving The Boston Bar Scene

Page 33

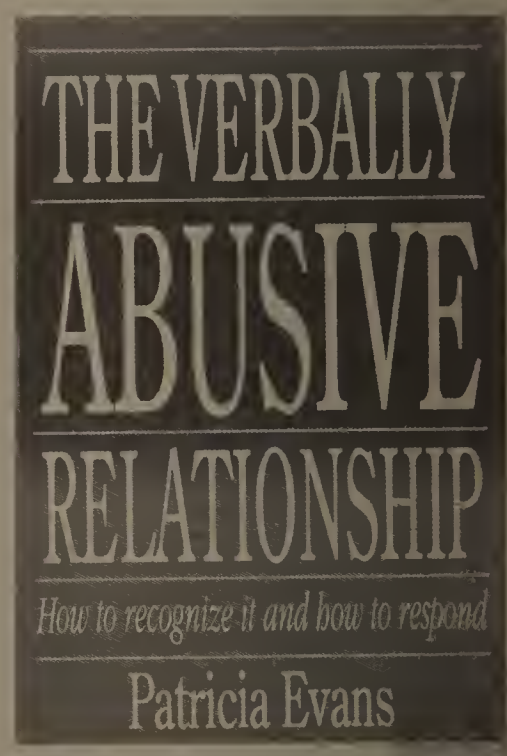
Interview: Travel With A Twist - Exploring America With Monk Magazine

Page 6

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

Bargain Without the Basement

It's not uncommon for a shop or a mall to label itself a "designer outlet" (for who but designers design clothes?), but this really is one. Looming out of the unlikely climes of one of New Bedford's non-designer neighborhoods, Howland Place is a large, open and peaceful renovated mill building. And it's worth the trip. Throughout, the discounts amount to 30-60% off retail, and each fancy shop sells the fancy merchandise of these high-fliers, and many others: Adrienne Vittadini, Arrow Shirts, Calvin Klein, Colours by Alexander Julian, Gitano, Gloria Vanderbilt, Herve Benard, Jones New York, KidZone, Natori, Perry Ellis and Silk Club. There are also a few shops that sell china and crystal (Royal Doulton) and very upper-postmodern cookware and German appliances (a store called Alessi, Bourgeat & Rowenta). Each store is so uncontaminatedly itself that you can explore, for instance, one whole fashion meadow of cool, classy post-preppy looks - then move onto a store that sells hot parrotty colored dresses and suits (by Escada and Crisca). Top that sizzle at a shop almost exclusively full of sequinned evening (in Las Vegas) dresses, then buy a black suede man's jacket for a considerable price ($340) that used to cost even more. The sales help is cheery and big-city professional, and the place is divinely uncrowded. Fifty minutes from Boston.



Howland Place
(Factory Outlet Mall)
651 Orchard Street
New Bedford, MA
1-800-SHOP
508-999-4100

Words Are Sticks And Stones

Author Patricia Evans has taken the urgent matter of domestic abuse, and focused on a form of it, in which it may not require a call to the cops or leave external bruises, but will definitely cause confusion, alienation, self-doubt and fear: verbal abuse. She uses men (some men) for her prototype of this sort of abuse, and makes a distinction between "Personal Power" - which is good, grounded, and non-aggressive - and "Power Over," which is used in a dominating, controlling and punishing fashion. A man who is in the latter category tends. at his worst, or perhaps even daily, to attack, withhold, invalidate, undermine, threaten and blame his wife or girlfriend and as such exists in what Evans calls "Reality I," an attitude characterized by dominance. The more enlightened philosophy, "Reality II," is espoused by people who feel power through mutuality and empathy. This fascinating book - though it does not propose that men in the 'Power Over" camp can be rehabilitated, nor that residents of "Reality I" can advance to the better "Reality" - discusses and presents dialogues in which truly baffled well-meaning women are put down and ground down by hurtful interactions with their men - in both ordinary and exceptional situations. Albert Camus pinned down the problem like this: "We can't do without dominating others. The essential thing, in sum, is being able to get angry without the other person being able to answer back." Traveling the road from that position to one of security, dignity and independence from verbal brickbats is what this book is about.

The Verbally Abusive Relationship
Patricia Evans
Publisher: Bob Adams, Holbrook Mass. 02343

Kennewinnit?

You have probably never imagined that two hundred and fifty words could have the mightiness to lift a house into your life - have you? But in fact, the owners of a contemporary three bedroom house by the water in Kennebunkport Maine have proposed this literary/real estate nexus as a way of "selling" their house to an ingenious and deserving seeker. The house is a year round one overlooking a bay and salt marsh in Cape Porpose (appraised at $344,000). Entrants must send $99 (banker's check or money order) and they must receive 3,599 entries; less than that and they'll send them back. The owners propose that suitable motivated seekers are budding real estate barons, students and non profit organizations looking to resell the property below market value as a fund raiser. Perhaps your little essay (with introduction, body, conclusion and shipshape with proper spelling and grammar) will pinpoint some excruciatingly original reason "Why I would like to live by the water in Kennebunkport Maine." Or perhaps you have some unusual and generous scheme in mind regarding the use of the house - with you as owner. One person who probably will not be entering the contest, lives about a mile away, by water, and, depending on the turn of upcoming events may be a sort of neighbor to the winner. Second prize is $5,000 towards a scholarship to the school of your choice.

Kennebunk House Essay Contest
1-800-43 ESSAY
(107-985-7586 in Maine)
or write: Essay Contest Sponsors
P.O. box 292, Kennebunk, Maine 04043-0292

Mopsy Strange Kennedy has freelanced for the Atlantic, NY Times Book Review and Magazine, Parent's Choice, RedBook, The Washington Post, Chicago Tribune and was a staff writer for Glamour. She also worked for another local (though their name assumes a much more worldly significance) paper for 10 years, 5 months and 28 days.
Please send all correspondence to: The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

OPEN

YOUR OWN BREWERY.

The Commonwealth Brewing Company is now available by the bottle. Open one for yourself, and taste the fresh brewed, full-bodied flavor of Boston's finest traditional English pale ale. Best enjoyed slightly chilled and among friends.

New from The Commonwealth Brewing Company.
Boston's Original Restaurant/Brewery.

BOSTON
BURTON ALE

CONTENTS

September 2, - September 15, 1992

6 MAD ABOUT MONK

"Reduce, Recycle and Read Monk." These are the words of co-founder and outspoken guru Jim Crotty of Monk magazine. Join Jim in a whirlwind conversation about the foundings, beliefs and grounding philosophies which make Monk the funniest, wackiest and only mobile magazine in the country. Monk has hit Boston and we have hit Monk. BY TOBIN STREETT

16 WHEN ART HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

A mysterious Egyptian pectoral has landed at the Museum of Fine Arts. Believed to have been part of the decoration of a royal sarcophagus, this Pectoral boasts a history of art theft that has taken it from tomb to university to storeroom to the MFA. BY JENNIFER MCCANN

28 B- 52's

While other New Wave bands like Missing Persons, Flock of Seagulls and Talking Heads have gone the way of the brontosaurus, the B-52's have evolved mammalian style, picking up new vestiges and talents. Hear the newest developments in the lives of America's favorite party band.

BY REY ROLDAN & MAUREEN BLANDINO

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Movies
Review: Twin Peaks, Fire Walk With Me 10
Flicks in a Flash 10
Review: Diggstown 11
Critics Choice 11
Video Review: The Stepsons of Romulus 12
What's Playing 12
Books
Outside is America, U2 in the US 13
Comedy
Laff Appeal II 14
Comedy Listings 14
Fashion
Career Dressing 15
Arts
Play Review: Amphigorey: The Musical 17
The Arts Calendar 18
Woman on the Street 19
Dining
Review: 1280 Restaurant 20
Wine: In Vino Veritas 21
Appeteasers 22
Brunch Board 23
Restaurant Listings 24
Music
Hariett Schock 29
Album Reviews 30
Hotline to the Underground 30
Free Boston 31
Improper Impersonals 31
Bar & Club Listings 32
Review:Joes American Bar.& Grille 33
Classifieds 36
Crossword 38

Corrections: In last issue's Record Reviews, Robert Moran was incorrectly identified as John Moran. Assisting him in the recording were : Jayne West, Soprano; Alexander Balanescu, Violin; Mario Falcao, Harp; Piano Circus Band; Craig Smith, conductor.

ON THE COVER

Photographer:
Tracey Aiguier

Models:
Sean and Kendall Stewart

Men's Clothing:
Forrestel - available at
Patrick Kelly
40 Charles St. & 443 Boylston St.

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

Editor in Chief
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE SEMONIAN

Food Editors
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
JONATHON ALSOP

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

Music Editor
REY ROLDAN

Design Director
ALLISON BEGNER

Contributing Writers
JONATHON SARNER, LISA M. BONNELL
MARY LAWLOR, LAUREN DARE
BETSY CARPENTER, JON HABER
JOHN GALLIGAN, MAUREEN BLANDINO
DAVID DALEY, JANIS REED
RICHARD WILLIAMS
ZACHARY SIMMONS, STEVEN D. BROWN

Senior Staff Photographer
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE

Staff Photographers
MICHAEL POWERS, AYNSLEY FLOYD
DANIELLE PUCCI, MARY BARTOLOMEI
MYRIAM BABIN

Advertising Sales Directors
DIANA SMITH, HARVEY BRAVMAN

Assistant Outside Sales Manager
UGO MAZZAROLO

Account Executives
MARK STEVENS, MARK GARRETT
SUSANNE SCHANTZ, WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Inside Account Executives
JANET DEBENEDICTIS, PEGGY SCANLON,
JOHN WEBSTER

Advertising Designer
GAIL MARCARELLI

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
JENNIFER MCCANN, JENNIFER LEVITSKY
MARIANNE MURPHY, MEG C. LELKO
MIRIAM BLANKENSHIP, DINA KATZ
TREVOR FORD

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI, CURTIS
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
PAUL WARD, JEFF FILIPOV
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS: Listings ara printed frea at the discretion of tha aditor. Sand your listings to The Improper Bostonian, P.O. Box 820, Brooklina Village, MA 02147-0820. Please includa information such as datas, prices, talaphona numbers and contact person. They must ba racieved 9 days prior to issua relaase.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 21

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Phone(_____) _____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____ Exp. _____
Signature (if paying by credit card) _____

The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA
OR CALL:
(617) 232-3705

AROUND TOWN

Do you look like a member of America's favorite family, the Bundys? WFXT-Fox 25 wants to meet you or anyone else who resembles a member of the Bundy family of Married With Children fame. Show your allegiance during the Boston Bundy Bash on September 27 at the Great Yankee Cook-off. The bash is a look-a-like contest whose winner and a guest will be flown to Hollywood to see a taping of the show and meet one of the cast members. So if you're daring enough, bring your TV clicker, your nail polish or your slut outfit to City Hall Plaza from 2-4pm. Who knows, your friends may all soon be calling you "Bundy."

Come and see the horsies as they jumpety-jump over the obstacles on September 13 at Fox Hollow Farm in Hamilton. The Ritz Carlton Jumper Classic will showcase some of the country's top riders on a specially designed course of challenging jumps as they ride for prizes totaling $40,000. Other featured entertainment will include a horse-drawn carriage parade, the flying patriots and a Dixieland band. General admission for adults is $12.50 and $7.00 for children aged 6-12 - high-rollers with a little more expendable cash can fork out $100.00 for a champagne luncheon with ringside seating. Tickets can be ordered in advance by calling 1-800-828-7080. Call 338-2288 for more information.

Halfway around the world at the same latitude as Massachusetts, sits our sister-state, the island of Hokkaido, Japan. Celebrate Bridge to the Future: Hokkaido Week in Massachusetts from September 11-15 with a variety of free cultural and educational events. From the Japanese music concert at the Berklee Performance Center on Friday, September 1 at 8pm, to the two outdoor concerts in Faneuil Hall on September 13 at noon and 1pm, Hokkaido week promises to be a time of increased understanding and learning of our sister culture. Concert tickets, like all other events, are free and can be ordered from Autumn Hills International, 20 University Rd., Suite 525, Cambridge, 02138. For more information, call 367-1830.

He gave us Love Letters, and as of September 9, we'll have a chance to see the world premiere of The Fourth Wall, the newest play and by A.R. Gurney. Opening the 1992 season at the Hasty Pudding Theater in Harvard Square, Gurney's newest play will have a two-week run, with performances Tuesdays through Sundays. The play stars Tony Roberts, whose Broadway credits include Play It Again Sam, Arsenic and Old Lace and Murder at The Howard Johnson's Tony Award winning Kelly Bishop, Jack Gilpin (who has starred in Gurney's The Middle Ages) and E. Katherine Kerr. Show times are Tuesdays through Fridays at 8pm, Saturday at 5pm and 9pm and Sunday at 2pm and 7pm. The September 10 performance begins at 7:30pm. Call 496-8400 for more information. Ticket prices are $18-$30.

Do you ever wonder where your lettuce or tomatoes come from? The Courtyard in The Charles Hotel hosts a Farmer's Market every Sunday from 10am-3:30pm now through November in Harvard Square. The market is sanctioned by the Massachusetts Department of Food and Agriculture, and features fresh vegetables, plants, berries and more. Meet the folks who plant and harvest the food that appears on your plate as you sample organic vegetables, home-made vinegar, herbs, syrups and fruit. Harvested by farmers from Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire and Vermont, the market food demands a second look. For more information, call The Charles Hotel at 864-1200.

MONK

MAD ABOUT MONK

BY TOBIN STREETT

Jim Crotty is an entrepreneur. He's a publisher, a writer and a traveler. A renaissance man. Give him any topic and he'll discuss its merits at length - all the while listening and ever so subtlely injecting subliminal messages into the conversation. After all, he's a Monk.

"I like to be called Jim '1-800-GET MONK' Crotty! That's my real name."

In a time when much of the world has witnessed a return to tradition and family values, Jim Crotty and partner, friend, ex-lover and confidante Michael Lane drive the roads of America in true beatnik fashion. Not to be confused with "slackers," Crotty and Lane are men with a mission. Every three months, the two Monks publish a mobile travel magazine entitled MONK.

"This is the antithesis of Travel & Leisure and we are America's alternative travel magazine," says Crotty during one of several half hour phone conversations held during a day's break at his parents home in Omaha Nebraska. Our first phone call was cut short since Jim was interviewing his mother. "I was tape recording her. We interview each other about 'things.'" Hmmm.

The catch is that the two Monks publish their travel magazine while traveling themselves in a 26-foot long beat up and psychedelically-decorated mobile home. Accompanied by their cats Nurse and Nurse's Aid, Crotty and Lane have covered areas like San Diego, Santa Fe, San Francisco, Maine, Colorado, Texas and Boston. While they're on the road, they have a staff of one additional person who, according to Crotty works extremely long days. "Now, we actually have a staff of three people who work 16 hours a day, six days a week." But the traveling is only done by Crotty, Lane, the cats and the motor home.

"It's a 26-foot long hunk of metal. The funk mobile." The interior of this eyesore is described by Crotty as comfortable, fun and custom-fitted. "We decided that we would keep the interior that the motor home people provided us with: Cheap wood! It's American made for chrissake. Plywood and particle board. It's cheap, tacky, frumpy and we like it. Originally, it had a little powder room in the back, you know, for the old folks to primp in before they go out for their walk around the park. We ripped out the sink in the back and there were two little walkways. We took them out, filled them in, put a platform there and a gigantic Futon, and on the back we wrestle and molest people. We seduce them. Safe Sex, of course. One day, we'll have Madonna back there."

If it's hard to imagine a monk whooping it up with Madonna, one must first understand this particular brand of monk. It's a challenging - and certainly rewarding - task to comprehend the all-encompassing power resulting from the magnitude of such ethereal understanding. These Monks have taken the guts from Zen and the skeleton from Buddha and shrouded them in a psychedelic coat of '60s hippiedom to create a better, stronger and purer '90s Monk. And it all began in a San Francisco bar called The Barefoot Boogie.

"Monk was basically an outlet for my craziness. Mike and I left San Francisco in '85 after meeting at the Boogie. It was a dance jam place. Smoke free, heroin free, crack free. The boogie meister was playing a tape and we were grooving to it. I was doing a perverse version of Tai Chi. . . and we met. We moved in a year later. Mike was more of a quintessential '60s hippie and I was traveling around to monasteries. I didn't actually take any vows but I was certainly a Monk. I was following Zen.

"Mike was doing some of the same traveling. We were called the Space Monks and were very thin at the time. We were astronauts." After settling into a routine of a "non-routine," these two traveling addicts attempted entrepreneurial ventures like Space Monk Cookies and a service that sold dinners out of their home. The cookies, called "Ohm Domes," had a brief lifespan. When the two Monks were left with 300 unsold cookies after a rainstorm forced thousands of Grateful Dead fans to seek shelter before a concert, the Monks called it quits. A year later, after working in several jobs - Michael as a controller and Jim as a publicist - the Monks found themselves in Paradise, California publishing a newsletter for their friends. "We let go of our house and sold our possessions - like nouveau oakies. Sort of a Thoreauean vision of the late '80s."

"This is the antithesis of Travel & Leisure and we are America's alternative travel magazine"

Although Crotty and Lane didn't initially intend to publish MONK as a magazine, their newsletter subscription demands (with accompanying financial donations) were excessive and provided the Monks with enough money to publish the first issue. "Although the original concept was a letter home to our friends, the Lifetime after Lifetime subscriptions gave us enough money for our first publication. We are the pioneers of dashboard publishing. We took desktop publishing to a new frontier."

Indeed they have. A circulation of 40,000 proves that the Monks have a strong following of readers who anxiously await their next edition.

Each new issue features a city of the Monks choice (including Boston), in which during a two month stay, the Monks dig for - and get - the inside scoop on the city's secret spots to hang out, dance, eat, drink and anything else imaginable. When pressed on why he thought people enjoyed the magazine so much, Crotty boasted "We're a perzine, a magazine about the people doing the magazine. It's all about the people we meet. We are the hosts of the show, and the founders of the perzine - it's documented in Folio magazine."

You may wonder how a magazine designed and written specifically for and about the residents of one city, could hold such a mass appeal. "Being personal is what it's all about. Sometimes, painfully. We really do it just to keep our mom's informed. We spend a few months in a city and get to really know it. This way, they won't worry too much."

Since recently leaving Boston, Crotty has had time off to return to Omaha, Nebraska where he grew up, although he claims "I haven't grown up yet." Interesting words from a 33 year-old publisher. As of yesterday, the Monks picked up where they left off and are on their way to Seattle - what Crotty calls "the grunge capitol of the world."

The newest MONK features Boston inside the covers and is currently available around town at selected stores and newsstands. For their Beantown edition, the Monks parked their home on Chestnut Hill Avenue in Brookline, although they had an even better offer. Governor Weld met with the Monks for some inspirational chit chat, and in the process, offered the guys a parking spot at the State House during their visit here. "He offered it," says Crotty, "but we took the other spot instead. He did, however, offer us his help if we ever get into any future trouble."

Speaking of the future, Crotty has a pretty good idea on what his may bring. "I'll still be involved with MONK. No doubt. But I have to do my conservative "schtick." I am going to find the largest and the wealthiest corporation in the world - and make it bigger and richer. As a kind of lark, I'm going to take one of the most conservative career paths. When the world becomes like MONK, then I will become like the world. Polished shoes, republican. Because people now think that radical is living on the road, but later, it will change. The Monk will become very conservative. It's part of my calling on the planet. And, I've turned everything over to Nurse. I think that by the end of the '90s, the whole world will be more politically correct. It's becoming more democratic - even the religious Right will become a fringe element."

The Monks also have a forthcoming book, titled Mad Monks on the Run. "The book

DIVISION OF CONTINUING EDUCATION

DAYTIME DEGREE PROGRAM FOR WOMEN
16 LIBERAL ARTS MAJORS
INDIVIDUALLY DESIGNED MAJORS
7 CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

EVENING DEGREE PROGRAMS FOR WOMEN AND MEN
CONCENTRATIONS IN COMMUNICATION
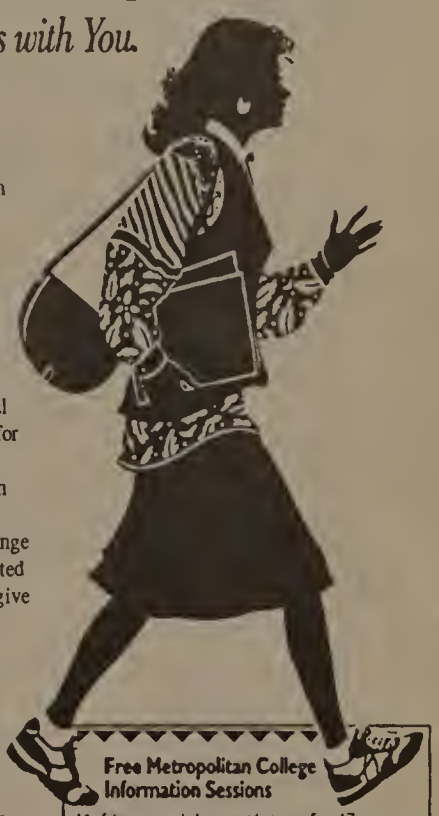
GRAPHIC ARTS
MANAGEMENT

The REGIS Difference

Regis offers a liberal arts education from which its students will acquire the values, ideas, and techniques that will foster continual self-education of free, independent and inquiring minds.

- full or part-time study
- flexible course loads
- adult-oriented career and academic advising

Classes Begin September 8!



Registration Ongoing

CALL 617 893-1820
ext. 2008 (day)
or ext. 2023 (eve.)
for more information

REGIS COLLEGE
Weston, MA

Boston University Metropolitan College

A College That Works with You.
An Education That Works for You.

You work hard at keeping up with your profession, home responsibilities, and the uncertain New England job market. You know education is a must in your future, but you're not sure how to begin or where you'll get the time.

Boston University Metropolitan College has been part of an educational success story for people like yourself for more than 25 years. Whether you're looking to broaden your background in liberal arts pr business; continue your professional development; start or change your career; or complete your interrupted education, Metropolitan College will give you an education that works.

Whatever your choice, you can be sure that at Metropolitan College you'll get education at its finest, from Boston University's highly regarded professional faculty. And our flexible, evening scheduling makes it possible for you to attend college part-time.

Call Metropolitan College today! Come in and talk with our academic and career counselors. They'll help you develop a curriculum that suits your specific needs. Or fill out the coupon below and you'll receive a free copy of our current class schedule.

Free Metropolitan College Information Sessions

All of the sessions below meet between 5 and 7 p.m. in Room 315 of the George Sherman Student Union at 775 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston. Call the Office of Counseling and Student Services, 617/353-2980, for more details.

- Wednesday, August 26, 1992
- Tuesday, September 29, 1992
- Wednesday, October 28, 1992
- Monday, November 30, 1992
- Thursday, December 17, 1992

Free Parking is Available

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Name _____
Address _____
City _____
State _____ Zip _____
Day Telephone _____
Evening Telephone _____

I am interested in:
❑ An undergraduate degree program
❑ A graduate degree program
❑ Noncredit certification program
❑ Boston Campus
❑ Tyngsboro Campus
❑ I will like to talk to a Metropolitan College Counselor
The Best time to call me is
❑ Day ❑ Evening

Call 617/353-6000

Boston University Metropolitan College • 755 Commonwealth Avenue, Room 203. Boston, MA 02215
An equal opportunity, affirmative action institution

Saturday & Evening

art

Courses
Beginning
September 8

Anatomy
Animation
Art Foundations
Cartooning
Carving
Children's Books
Clay/Ceramics
Color
Computer Art
Design
Drawing
Graphic Design
Illustration
Lithography
Metals:
Silversmithing
& Jewelry-Making
Mixed Media
Music Video
Painting
Papermaking
Photography
Portraiture
Printmaking
Sculpture
Silkscreen/Aquascreen
Stained Glass
Watercolor
Woodworking

For more information please call or write:

the boston museum school

Continuing Education
230 The Fenway
Boston, MA 02115
(617) 267-1219

The School of the Museum of Fine Arts admits students of any race, color and national or ethnic origin.

of course will make us rich and famous and after that, we'll probably come out more. I'm in a retro '80s time warp. I'm more interested in making money - and lots of it.. The book, however, will be the springboard to meet Madonna. The book serves no other purpose except to meet Madonna. Otherwise, we are not worthy."

For now, Crotty soothes himself with his suggested daily dose of twisted religion. "There are three things you need to do everyday. Meditate. You've got to meditate. Exercise. Don't get attached to drugs as a means of enlightenment. Take risks. When you get older, you become conservative. When you are young, you take risks." Interesting words - bad timing.

We asked Crotty if his personal philosophy on risk-taking caused any regrets or unnecessary hardships on his routine and relationships. "Though Crotty was once romantically involved with Lane, he claims that he's now broadened his horizons. "Now I'm trisexual. Men, women and sheep. I miss some things about being stable but I'm so free. And, we're about to move into that "next" phase. By us traveling and enduring that particular pain, we're carrying that cross. By us suffering on that cross of nomadic living, we're bearing the burden for the rest of the world."

Speaking of crosses, Crotty finds some interesting similarities between himself and another man more closely associated with the cross: Jesus Christ.

"I'm thirty three, Jesus' age when he died. And we have the same initials but I don't plan to be crucified. I plan to be publicized. We're writing a book [Crotty and Lane]. His [Jesus] book came out way after his death so he wasn't

Those nutsy Monks and their Boston issue, aptly situated near one of Boston's finest entertainment establishments...

...and in some more Southern climes.

MONK is currently available at hip places like Starving Artist, Tang records, Pennsylvania Co., Cafe Lampara, newsstands, Strutters Clothing, the Blue Diner, Allston Beat, and Primal Plunge. The Monks chose Boston because Diane was there. She is a Monkette and as she is a Monkette, it is a duty of the Monks to visit the Monkettes.

able to get any royalties - which I think is a big crime. Mine will come out. A justice for the initials J.C. I'm going to be a lot richer than Jesus. But you must get MONK. There will be no peace on the planet until you all have MONK."

"Getting" MONK won't necessarily free you from all of life's troubles, but for many readers, it's a form of spiritual enlightenment? Placing faith in free expression, Crotty is happy to verbalize any and in fact all of his beliefs. His grounding philosophy is both direct and appealing.

"Our mantra now is 'Reduce, Recycle and Read MONK!' You can say it once and achieve spiritual enlightenment. Just say it with true authenticity and mix it with true absurdity. Embracing them both, seeing the absurdity - this will bring you there. This is the mantra of the '90s. We say 'World peace through World MONK.' Everybody must get MONKed. Once everyone in the world has been MONKed, there will be pizza on earth. The goal here is to give pizza a chance."

Food for thought? According to Crotty, "I thought the food once. Once."

Forgetting the food and the sometimes nonsensical banter, the Monks are serious about their art and have the training to prove it. Crotty once meditated for 16 hours a day through a 90 day period at a Zen retreat outside of Providence. From his intense stay there and at various other monasteries, Crotty has learned the art of balance. "I know what it's like to be dead serious about the traditional past. I've seen the core of my personality and it's rotten [laughs]. It's the serious and the silly. You've got to have both."

Readers or would-be readers of MONK can know that in Jim Crotty, they will find information, humor and compassion. "I'm they're best friend. Look to MONK for the way, the light - the truth." Though practicing and surely spreading these words of wisdom must excite and please the monks, there does exist an interesting dichotomy between their Monkish backgrounds and some of the subject matter covered within the walls of their magazine. Crotty was asked whether he thought it an insult to the monasterily-committed brothers of the hood to print certain stories within his covers.

"A true calling of the monk is to laugh at one's self. We have many monks that read the magazine. Those that are anally retentive and too serious are in the dark. They have missed the point. They have not been MONKed." ❑

The Futon Shops:

Handmade Excellence Converts

Superb Sofas to Sleek Beds

Ingenious Beds & Convertibles from $175 at:

Home Designs
1033 Mass. Ave.
Cambridge 354-2525

Bedworks
15 Western Ave.
Cambridge 547-6000

Futon Warehouse
244 Brighton Ave.
Allston 254-5040

Futon Express
1030 Mass. Ave.
Cambridge 547-2300

LONGY
School of Music

Private and Group Instruction
Masterclasses ❦ Early Music
Longy Chamber Singers
Theory ❦ History
Jazz ❦ Chamber Ensembles
Diploma/Degree Programs
Dalcroze Eurhythmics
Alexander Technique
Music & Movement for Children
Suzuki Violin and Cello
...and much, much more!

One Follen Street, Cambridge
617-876-0956

EMPOWER YOUR LIFE

Meditation Enlightenment
Buddhism Happiness
Power Miracles
Balance Wisdom
Career success Reincarnation

Wednesday, September 9, 7:30–9:00 pm
Wednesday, September 16, 7:30–9:00 pm
Sheraton Commander Hotel
16 Garden Street
Cambridge, MA
(across from Cambridge Common)
(617) 446–9719

MEDITATION
PSYCHIC DEVELOPMENT
& TALES OF POWER

FREE CLASSES FREE

The New England Meditation Society

MOVIES

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Death Becomes Her

"A Black Comedy Full of Twists"

Death Becomes Her is an anomaly among summer releases: this black comedy, starring Bruce Willis, Goldie Hawn and Meryl Streep, is well-written, engaging from first scene to last, wickedly funny, and unlike a score of other summer movies, worth the price of admission. The movie centers on the rivalry between two women, Helen Sharp (Goldie Hawn) and Madeline Ashton (Meryl Streep), as well as on the object of both their affections, Dr. Ernest Menville (Bruce Willis), plastic surgeon. When Helen sees Madeline steal Ernest away, she plots a revenge that goes awry, and the circumstances resulting from the dirty deed are hardly what anyone nursed on Hollywood formulas would expect. There has been a lot of press about Death Becomes Her being a ludicrous foray into lookism, but with all this slapstick and morbidity, one gathers that the intention was hardly to be severely non-p.c. Death Becomes Her is funny, surprising and a wonderful guilty pleasure. T.S.L.

The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag

"Girls Just Want To Have Guns"

Penelope Ann Miller is Betty Lou, a mousy librarian who longs for more adventure in her new film The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag. She's married to Eric Thal, an overcommited cop who takes her for granted. She is so mad at him for forgetting their anniversary that after she pulls a gun out of the river, she "confesses" to shooting some man at the nearby motel. Suddenly, she's a new woman. She gets a reaction from her hubby, respect and fashion tips from the hookers in the holding tank, and envious looks from her friends. Unfortunately, she also gets the attention of the cruelest mobster in the world who was after the stiff in the motel. Penelope Ann Miller (The Freshman and Other People's Money) is sweet, but she doesn't have enough power to offer the film a firing pin. What we see is the diet soda, She-Bop version of Louise (in Thelma and Louise). There is no real anger, humor, joy or danger in this picture . . . just the fluffy, gooey stuff that nutrasweet and "new images" are made of. B.C.

Single White Female

"Doesn't Keep Her Promise"

Allison Jones (Bridget Fonda) kicks her boyfriend out of her huge rent-controlled apartment in New York and finds herself Hedra (Jennifer Jason Leigh), the Roommate From Hell in Single White Female. With everything that the movie has going for it (esteemed director, high-voltage acting talent in Leigh and Fonda), it is a pity that Female falls short of being a taut, spooky, psychological thriller. By its end, Female has deteriorated into just another slasher film, with Leigh's character wandering around armed with knives and hooks. Director Barbet Schroeder seems so bent on filming a commercial slasher film that he shoots past the rich underbelly which the audience really wants. B.S.

The Best Intentions

"Mo' Better Bergman"

A moving love story between an aspiring priest and a young female aristocrat, The Best Intentions is one of the finest films of the year. The directness of Bergman's script, articulated in fine performances by Samuel Froler and Pernilla August (the movie's lovers, Henrik and Anna), is the strength of Best Intentions, combined with the directorial hand of Bille August. August trusts his actors enough to rely on long facial shots, scenes with sparse dialogue and grand landscapes to establish mood. Pernilla August is magnificent as Anna, portraying with tenderness and fierce emotion Anna's growth from a blushing young girl to an independent and strong-minded woman. Intentions clocks in at three hours plus, so prepare yourself for a good sit, but the time is well spent. T.S.L.

Fire Walk With Me

Twin Peaks Returns

Bobby Briggs (Dana Ashbrook, left) confronts Laura Palmer (Sheryl Lee, center) as she walks home with her girlfriend Donna Haywayrd (Moira Kelley, right) in David Lynch's "Twin Peaks: Fire Wlak With Me"

BY TIM LEMIRE

David Lynch's Twin Peaks prequel, Fire Walk With Me, opens with the image of a static-ridden television being smashed by a large pipe. In a welcome piece of symbolism, Lynch forsakes the limitations of television (censors, ratings) and takes Twin Peaks to the big screen. In smashing the TV, Lynch also rejects the farcical melodrama the Twin Peaks TV series became in its second season. Fire Walk With Me is Twin Peaks at its most comic and its most disturbing, and counts as both a success and a step up for Lynch's last film, the abysmally chaotic Wild At Heart.

The movie begins as the FBI investigates the murder of a young woman, Teresa Banks. David Lynch is the loudmouth Gordon Cole, assigning Special Agent Chet Desmond (Chris Isaak) and the bumbling Sam Stanley (Kiefer Sutherland) to the case. This opening scenario (the film's strength) holds all the humor Fire Walk With Me will contain; afterwards Lynch descends straight into terror and does not surface. Some comic relief from the psycho/sexual drama that ensues would have been welcome, and would have made the film a more balanced production.

Amid familiar incidental music from the TV series, we return to the tucked-away town of Twin Peaks. Sheryl Lee is once again Laura while Ray Wise is a much more ominous Leland, her father. When Laura tells her confidante Harold that the believed-imaginary figure BOB has assumed physical dimensions, and that "Bob has been having me since I was twelve," it doesn't take much to leap from B-O-B to D-A-D. The sexual tension between Lee and Wise is as taut as a wire, and played well by both actors. Lee is a frantic, confused Laura, starving for affection; Leland, with his stern expression, is a simmering volcano of emotion.

Fire Walk With Me

New Line Cinema
Directed by David Lynch
Starring:
Sheryl Lee
Ray Wise
Kyle MacLachlan
Chris Issak
Rated R

Another plus to Fire Walk With Me is that in the movies, the seediness underlying Twin Peaks can be exploited and explored in greater depth. On television, Lynch could never have been able to show Laura Palmer dancing doped-up and topless in a red light Canadian bar. Much of the violence and gruesome images in the movie, too, while not as potent as those in Wild at Heart, would have sent most viewers to their TV clickers. (Or you can walk out of the theater, as two people did during the screening this reporter attended.)

Replacing Laura Flynn Boyle as Donna Hayward, Laura Palmer's best friend, is actress Moira Kelly, whose mousy stature and Joan of Arc good looks are a more fitting foil to Laura, the bad girl blonde. The two are believable as adolescent yin and yang: Donna, the good one, lends Laura stability in friendship, while Laura leads Donna on a joy ride over the border to a seedy Canadian tavern; pure Lynch territory. "Don't be like me," Laura pleads with Donna, so as much as telling her, "I want to be like you."

Kyle MacLachlan returns all too briefly as Special Agent Cooper. Also present on the roll call from the TV series are Shelly (Madchen Amick), Bobby (Dana Ashbrook), Mike (Gary Hershberger) Leo (Eric DaRe) and The Log Lady (Catherine E. Coulson), although Lynch gives them practically one line a piece. All those looking for Deputy Andy, Sheriff Truman, Ben Horne and Audrey will have to rent the TV series, now available on videocassette.

But can you enjoy the movie without having seen one episode of Twin Peaks on TV? Yes, although references to The Black Lodge may befuddle newcomers, as will a scene in which Annie Blackburn appears and says, "The good Dale is still in the Black Lodge and can't get out." The best advice may be to find a friend who knows the series, and will answer any questions before, during or after seeing Fire Walk With Me. But see it you should, if a healthy dose of disturbing weirdness from the Lynch mob is your desire. ❑

M

DIGGSTOWN

Digs Deep But Misses the Gold

James Woods (left) and Louis Gossett, Jr. (right) star in MGM's "Diggstown"

BY JONATHAN SARNER

The difference between a hustler and a good con man is that a hustler has to get out of town as fast as he can. A good con man doesn't leave until he wants to," asserts James Woods in Diggstown. Fancy yourself a hustler and take this advice if you find yourself in the audience - leave the theater as fast as you can. Diggstown is a silly and unexciting comedy about con artists scamming one another in the boxing game.

The plot is a variation on the "hooker with a heart of gold" story. Woods is the con with the heart of something a notch below gold. Like a miner sensing buried riches, the verbally nimble Woods sets off to small, rural Diggstown, Georgia, with a partner-in-con (Oliver Platt). Using the local boxing arena (a haven for illicit gambling), he schemes to take a fortune from Bruce Dern, a con with a heart of iron. Dern is a sort of robber baron who made his fortune off the locals by drugging his star boxer and betting against him. Woods wagers that his champion, an old partner, played by Louis Gossett, Jr., can take on ten of Diggstown's finest.

Gossett's character, given the charming name "Honey" Roy Palmer, hasn't boxed in years, is slow on his feet and, at 48, is armed with a middle-age paunch. Woods attempts to fix the fight with bribery and sabotage, but even with this intrigue, the narrative is boring and the "twists" are dry. Replete with crude and tiresome one-liners virtually bury the film. Perhaps the director and the writer took a good look at the Rocky movies and felt that if Sugar Ray Gossett sweatily trained to a feverish rock score, he would magically transcend his physical limitations. And so, in the style of true con artistry, they neatly fixed the plot: the climactic fight, the outcome of which is unsurprising, seems unremittingly long but not unremittingly suspenseful. Equipped with twists that do not startle, Diggstown has no punch.

Woods' performance is the only redeeming feature of Diggstown. Both he and Dern Solidly evoke their roles; they smoothly deliver their lines, which comingle with a slyly deceptive demeanor and a gleam in their eyes.

Dern's con artistry is elegant and slowly paced, Woods' is suffused with adrenaline. He has a peculiar, perhaps innate, feel for the shifty, the predatory, as his past roles attest - from the deprogrammer of cult victims (Split Image) to the cynical, radical lawyer who left the sixties far behind him (True Believer). In any case, one fine performance does not a recommendation make. Diqqstown is a losing bet. ❑

DIGGSTOWN

METRO GOLDWYN MAYER
DIRECTED BY MICHAEL RITCHIE
STARRING
JAMES WOODS
LOUIS GOSSETT JR.
BRUCE DERN
RATED R

KEY

A WINNER

A TOSS UP

FOR THE BIRDS

CRITICS CHOICE

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	L.A. Times	Village Voice	Newsweek	People	Time
Unforgiven	★	★	★	★	★	★	★	🐦	★
Single White Female	◯	◯	🐦	★	🐦	🐦	◯	🐦	🐦
3 Ninjas	◯	★	🐦	🐦	◯	—	—	🐦	—
Stay Tuned	🐦	◯	🐦	🐦	🐦	—	—	🐦	—
Raising Cain	★	🐦	★	★	🐦	★	—	★	★
Death Becomes Her	★	◯	◯	◯	🐦	🐦	◯	◯	🐦
Sister Act	◯	◯	◯	🐦	★	🐦	◯	★	🐦
Mo' Money	🐦	◯	🐦	🐦	🐦	—	—	◯	—
A League of Their Own	★	★	🐦	★	◯	🐦	★	🐦	◯
Honey I Blew Up the Kid	★	◯	🐦	★	🐦	★	◯	★	◯

FLICKS IN A FLASH

RAPID FIRE

"Shooting Blanks"

Bruce Lee's son, Brandon Lee, makes his bid to the action picture throne with Rapid Fire. Lee plays a fatherless art student who sees a mobster (Nick Mancuso) whack someone. Luckily, he just happens to be a martial artist who can drive motorcycles through glass art-installations minutes before drawing the mobster's picture to I.d. him. When Lee finds a surrogate father in cop Mace Ryan (Powers Boothe), the bullets, glass and feet really begin to fly. While the fledgling star's martial arts skills do not compare to his old man's, Brandon is nonetheless a handsome galoot who shows some actual acting ability. Wait for the sequel, a path which Rapid Fire clearly prepares for him. B.C.

RAISING CAIN

"A Campy Horror House Ride"

"Do you realize how little we know about the development of the personality?" exclaims Dr. Carter Nix in the first few minutes of Raising Cain. Brian DePalma's latest thriller doesn't help us learn anything more. John Lithgow plays Carter Nix, child psychologist, as well as four of his multiple personalities, all of whom are involved in an insidious plot of murder and kidnapping. Had writer/director DePalma given Lithgow more time onscreen to display his talent in taking on multiple roles, Raising Cain would have been an intelligent film: Sybil meets Psycho. Instead, Cain is a campy horror house ride, filled with self-effacing parody and a downright dumbheaded resolution. DePalma's use of imagery is heavy-handed, yes, and his script tells instead of shows, but Cain is still good stupid fun and thrills that's saved by John Lithgow's performance. T.S.L.

A STRANGER AMONG US

"An Engaging, Inspiring Mystery"

A Stranger Among Us contains thematic parallels to the 1985 thriller Witness, as Melanie Griffith investigates a mysterious disappearance within New York's Hassidic community. After discovering the subject of her case to be permanently missing, Griffith is forced to go undercover within their community, where culture shock gives way to spiritual discovery and enlightenment. Director Sidney Lumet succeeds in casting Eric Thal (a new face) as the young Hassidic scholar Ariel, who assists Emily in her investigation. Emily and Eric are cultural opposites whose fates draw them into a tale pitting traditional disciplines against modern police work. One of the most pleasing elements is the realistic portrayal of Hassidism, and with a little murder thrown in, you'll witness a drama sure to keep you guessing until the end. T.S.

Enchanted April

"A Delightful Escape"

Anyone craving a trip to Italy should book a passage on Enchanted April. Based on Elizabeth von Arnim's autobiographical novel, and sounding like the latest Merchant-Ivory period piece, the plot follows a quartet of 1920s English ladies who escape rain-soaked London for Italy's blue skies and bluer Mediterranean. Both Lottie (English comedienne Josie Lawrence) and Rose (Miranda Richardson) need an escape from their boorish husbands. They find travel companions in the cantankerous Mrs. Fisher (Joan Plowright), and the radiant Lady Caroline Dester (Polly Walker), who craves a rest from a social whirl. Directed by Mike Newell, you can almost smell the wisteria. Enchanted April provides a delightful respite. W.S.

Mistress

"A Minor-League Player"

In Mistress, failed screenwriter Marvin Landisman is a Hollywood fringe-dweller who directs cooking videos. He must make a sudden decision: stay in L.A. or accept a safe teaching job at Queens college in New York. This should be a difficult choice, but it's not: Marvin's screenplay, about a sensitive artist driven to suicide, is awful! The movie's title refers to the fact that the trio of rich philistines who agree to finance the film do so only because they want parts for their girlfriends. There are several good performances, including Robert DeNiro as a money-man who believes all Marvin's movie needs is "more sex." His curiously likable creep smartly slings his car keys at a restaurant valet in a rare moment of vitality in an otherwise limp satire. A.L.

M

VIDEOS: THE STEPSONS OF ROMULUS

BY JON HABER & JOHN GALLIGAN

"Do you like gladiator movies son?"

With that line, Peter Graves (playing a pedophilic pilot) and the writers of Airplane put the final nail in the coffin of one of filmdom's most abused genres.

The history of the gladiator movie began in postwar Italy where the sword and sandal genre helped to rebuild a film industry that had already been devastated by Benito Mussolini, General Patton and the 8th Air Force.

It was Hercules (1957), starring Steve Reeves that was the genres first international success. The movie recounts the story of Jason's quest for the golden fleece from Hercules perspective as a crewman on the Argo. The pumped up hero helps his fellow Argonauts battle sirens, dragons and amazon babes in a well paced action picture.

American producer Joseph E. Levine imported this early beefcake classic to the U.S.A. for a mere $100,000 and proceeded to gross 6 million in a national marketing blitz. Thus began an endless parade of greco-roman demi-Gods across American movie screens.

Some recommended titles include Hercules In The Haunted World (1960), a stylish atmospheric tale of Hercules' descent into Hell starring stolid Reg Park and a dubbed Christopher Lee as the undead villain (natch). The film was directed by Italian horror auteur Mario Bava.

Hercules And The Captive Women (1961) features just one captive woman (who spends the bulk of the movie tied to various stakes). This time our title man again played by Reg Park visits (and sinks) an Atlantis ruled over by one of the genres many evil queens.

As a casual glance at any actors lips will tell you, dubbing is destiny with most gladiator movies. Fondness for this genre requires acceptance of the dubber-editor as just one more link in the films artistic chain.

In fact, a review of the original Italian titles reveals that many Hercules movies (including the prototypical Hercules Against The Moon Men) began life as "Maciste" films. Maciste - pronounced "mah-chee-stay" - is the muscular superheroic creation of Italian film pioneer Giovanni Pastrone. Since 1914, Maciste has wandered the Italian filmscape doing good deeds with little more than a miniskirt and a horse to his name. One Maciste movie that has preserved it's identity is the offbeat Maciste In Hell starring Kirk Morris. Our hero turns up in Cromwellian Scotland just in time to save a woman from an unjust charge of witchcraft.

As the genre waned, filmmakers began creating the beefcake equivalent of pro wrestling tag team-ups. Sampson and his Mighty Challenge was one such film, a mesomorphic comedy free-for-all featuring Sampson (on loan from the old testament), Maciste, a bad tempered Ursus and a particularly dimwitted Hercules.

A few gladiator films starring big-name musclemen such as Arnold Schwartzeneggar or Lou Ferrigno can be found at any well-stocked video store. For more off-beat items, Video Oasis (740 Cambridge St., East Cambridge) has the best and largest collection of sword and sandal movies in metropolitan Boston. One Stop Video of Newton (344 River St., Newton) also has a few hard to find tapes in their Italian language film section. ❑

Call Video Oasis at 547-3740: One Stop Video is at 332-1212

WHAT'S PLAYING Call Theaters for Times

Loews Beacon Hill (723-8110)
Bebe's Kids (PG-13)
Mo' Money (R)
Boomerang (R)
Diggstown (R)

Loews Charles (227-1330)
A Stranger Among Us (PG-13)
Raising Cain (R)
Christopher Columbus (PG-13)

Loews Cheri (536-2870)
A League of Their Own (PG-13)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Unforgiven (R)
Single White Female (R)

Loews Copley Place (266-1300)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Basic Instinct (R)
Housesitter (PG)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Hairdresser's Husband
Freddy F.R.O.7. (PG)
The Mistress (R)
Highway 61 (R)
The Gun In Betty Lou's Handbag (PG-13)
Little Nemo (G)
Honey, I Blew Up the Kid (PG)
Lethal Weapon 3 (R)
Batman Returns (PG-13)
A League of Their Own (PG-13)

Loews Paris (267-8181)
Honeymoon Ion Vegas (PG-13)

Loews Nickelodeon (424-1500)
Twin Peaks (R)
Enchanted April (PG)
The Living End
Howards End (PG)
The Best Intentions

Loews Janus (661-3737)
Twin Peaks (R)

Loews Harvard Square (864-4580)
Enchanted April (PG)
The Hairdresser's Husband
The Living End
Howards End (PG)
Raising Cain(R)
The Rocky Horror Picture Show (R)

Loews Fresh Pond (661-2900)
Pet Sematary 2(R)
Christopher Columbus (PG-13)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Unforgiven (R)
The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag (PG-13)
Honeymoon in Vegas (PG-13)
Mo' Money (R)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Single White Female (R)
Rapid Fire (R)
Freddy F.R.O.7. (PG)
The Player (R)
Little Nemo (G)
A League of Their Own (PG-13)

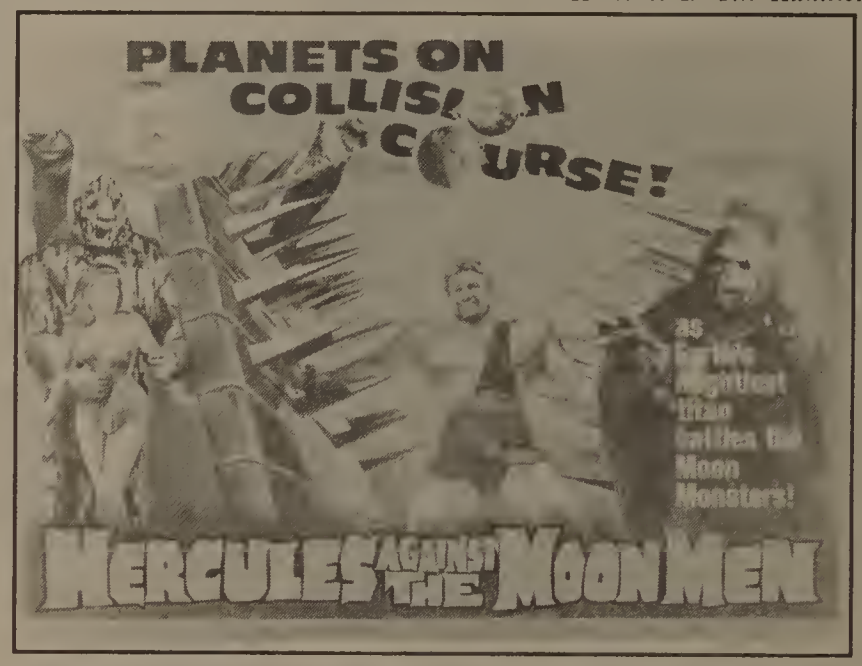
Loews Somerville (628-7000).
A League of Their Own (PG)
Rapid Fire (R)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Raising Cain (R)
Christopher Columbus (PG-13)
Mo' Money (R)
Freddy F.R.O.7. (PG)
Unforgiven (R)
The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag (PG-13)
Honeymoon in Vegas (PG-13)
Honey, I Blew up the Kid (PG)
Single White Female (R)
Twin Peaks (R)
Pet Sematary (R)

Cinema 57 (482-1222)
Rapid Fire (R)
Pet Sematary 2(R)

Somerville Theater (625-5700)
Prelude to A Kiss (PG-13)

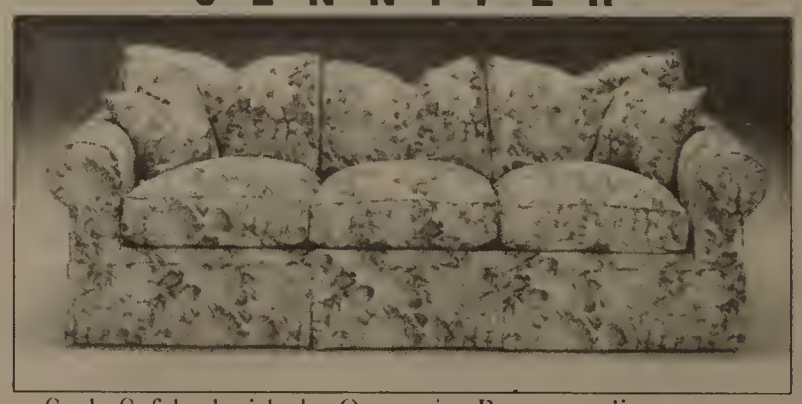
Allston Cinema (277-2140)
Raising Cain (R)
A League of Their Own (PG-13)
The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag (PG-13)
Freddy F.R.O.7. (PG)

Chestnut Hill (277-2500)
Whispers in the Dark (R)
Enchanted April (PG)
Sister Act (PG)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Christopher Columbus (PG-13)



Circle Cinema (566-4040)
Pet Sematary 2 (R)
Rapid Fire (R)
Twin Peaks (R)
Honeymoon In Vegas (PG-13)
Unforgiven (R)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Single White Female (R)

Coolidge Corner (734-2500)
Manhattan
Near Dark
Andy Warhol's "Bad"
One False Move
For Sasha
Proof
L'elegant criminel
The Fourth Animation Celebration
Female Trouble



Brattle (876-6837)
How to Marry A Millionaire
Let's Make Love
The Seven Year Itch
Bus Stop
Picnic
Hud
Detour
Ruthless
Animation by Jan Svankmajer and the Brothers Quay
Dream Deceivers
The Decline of Western Civilization, Part II: The Metal Years
Ginger and Fred
Top Hay

Framingham Cinema (235-8020)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Whispers in the Dark (R)
Rapid Fire (R)
Raising Cain (R)
The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag (PG-13)
Freddy F.R.O.7. (PG)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Sister Act (PG)
Honey, I Blew up the Kid (PG)

West Newton Cinema (964-6060)
Strangers in Good Company
Pinocchio (G)
The Player (R)
Mistress
Honey, I Blew Up the Kid (PG)
Three Ninjas (PG)
A Stranger Among Us (PG-13)
Mediterraneo
Beauty and the Beast (G)
L'elegant criminel

SEALY'S FINEST
DOWN-BLEND
EXCLUSIVELY AT JENNIFER

Sealy Sofabed with the Queensize Posturepedic mattress.

$999.

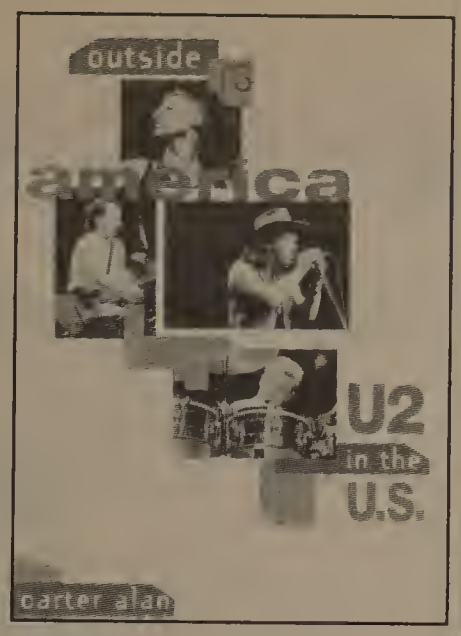
IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Classic Sealy sofabed with gently rolled arms and dressmaker skirt. Overstuffed down-blend cushions for deep-down seating comfort.

The quality and style you would expect on a sofabed twice the price. Covered in luxurious linen blend tea-stain print. Or choose from hundreds of other designer fabrics—Robert Allen, David & Dash, Chris Stone and others—all available at a range of prices you'd otherwise pay more for elsewhere. C.O.M. available.

JENNIFER CONVERTIBLES

Open 10-9 pm Sat 10-6 pm Sun. 12-5 pm America's Largest Sofabed Specialist



Please call 1-800-JENNIFER for the showroom nearest you.

NEW YORK NEW JERSEY CONN N HAMP WASH DC MARYLAND VIRG FLOR ILL IND MISSOURI MICH

BOOKS

OUTSIDE IS AMERICA, U2 IN THE US

BY LISA M. BONNELL

OUTSIDE IS AMERICA,
U2 IN THE US
BY CARTER ALAN
FABER AND FABER, $13.95

Carter Alan's easy flowing narrative guides the reader quickly through Outside is America , the story of one of America's biggest bands of today and arguably of all time. From the preface, the present day music director of WBCN-Boston defines his close relationship with the band as colleague, friend and fan. He explains that through extensive WBCN radio interviews as a deejay in the early 1980s , his professional connection and friendship with the band has steadily grown from the time he first heard their song "A Day Without Me." He credits much of U2's early success to a receptive Boston audience beginning with their first show at the Paradise and early radio play.

Outside is America chronicles the emergence of the idealistic and personal U2 at the beginning of America's punk movement which quickly segued into the "new wave" phenomenon. At the beginning of the book, Alan forewarns the reader of impeding problems by highlighting the essence of the band: their spirituality, idealism and their desire for a personal relationship with their audience. He speaks of the U2 he met in 1980; "U2 treated fans with a tremendous amount of respect, working hard to inspire them during live performances...the band members possessed an idealism and unflagging belief in their music, matching it with the courage to express their ideas openly on stage."

Seeing U2 live had always been an intimate and magical experience - the question of whether or not a band can maintain that level of personal interaction when they reach super stardom. The answer and the story of the struggle is Alan's book. Song by song, hit by mega-hit, he provides the until now unknown background events that surrounded the songs. Here, U2's history, endurance and personality are revealed to present the band in a unique light. The reader learns of the grueling demands of a rising rock group and grabs glimpses at the gritty side that the band experiences long after the band exits their town after a concert stay.

Though no conflict between band members is ever documented in this book, Alan supplies no criticism at all. This halts the books natural flow. In twelve long years of road trips, concerts, recording sessions and video and movie production, these members never quibbled? They are presented as jovial, fun loving, yet serious and politically proactive.

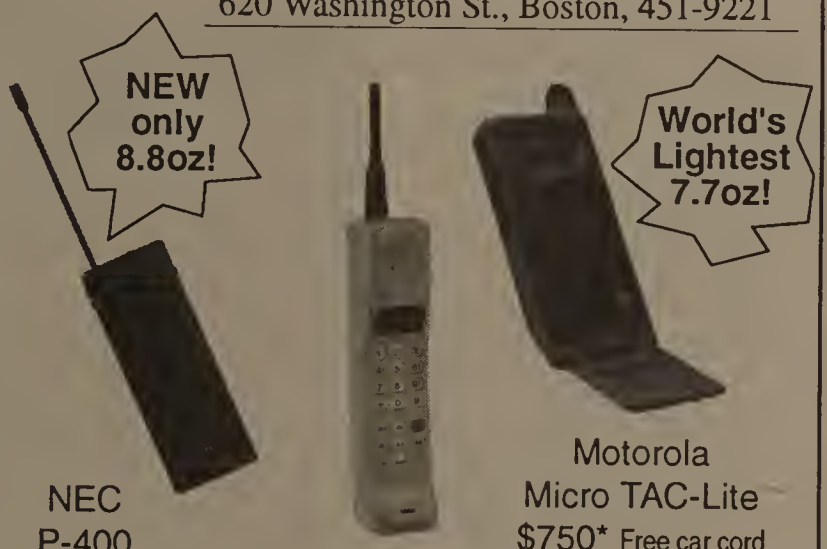
Repeatedly throughout the book (through interviews), the band is questioned intensively about their political stance. Early on, U2 was labeled a "band with a conscience" because of the emotionally charged lyrics off of their War album. Yet Bono's response remained steadfast interview after interview saying, "I am more interested in the people than the politics."

Audience began to doubt the truth in this and other similar statements after the huge success of the Joshua Tree, when the band was regularly playing the massive stadiums, and then launched the album and documentary movie Rattle and Hum. It was a bad press time for the band; many critics thought U2's ego was now running the show and not their heart.

As the book charts their rise to notoriety, highs and lows of the band and the expectations to always produce again, it displays the bands desire to be ever changing and always produce a product that "jells" for each band member. Alan holds fast the notion that U2 is driven by their need to remain creative artists and not be pushed one way or the other because of a top forty hit.

After a two year hiatus in 1989, which Bono explained as a time for a "breakup" and rebirth in which the band would reevaluate and reinvent themselves, U2 came back with Achtung Baby - a new sound, less political more sexual, but successful all the same. Riding high on the crest of their latest album, U2's future looks bright. The reader has to wonder if Alan will also return with a volume II. ❑

Futons • Frames • Desks • Dressers • Chairs • Stools • Tables



Assembled Solid Pine
Ready to Finish Bookcases
Over 500 in Stock
*Low Low Prices
36" x 72"x 9½"
$75.64
Also custom made bookcases

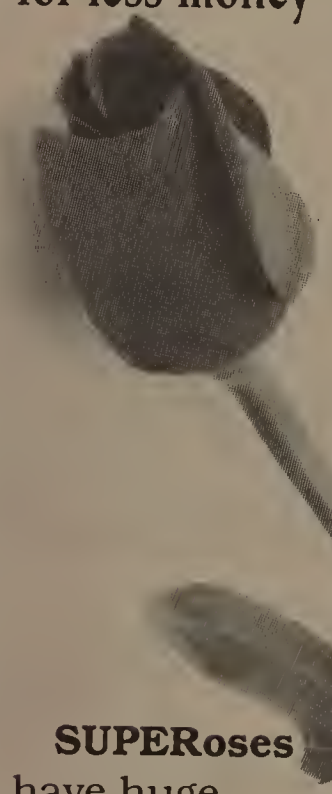
The Bookcase Factory Outlet
435 Mass. Ave., Central Sq., Cambridge
617-547-0802 • Open 7 Days
For additional savings ask about our Connections Special*

4th Anniversary SALE

WINGS COMM. INC.
永聲傳呼
620 Washington St., Boston, 451-9221

NEC
P-400
$450

Motorola
Ultra Classic M
$250



Motorola
Micro TAC-Lite
$750* Free car cord

- Largest Selection of Cellular Accessories
- Knowledgeable Staff
- Open on Saturdays Too!

Cellular Phone Prices Valid with 199 days minimum new Cellular One activation on standard service rate plans.
Appropriate New England Telephone and Roaming Charges Apply.
(SALE PRICES VALID TILL SEPT. 10 1992)

An Authorized Service Provider of: CELLULARONE®

Send your love
in a big way
for less money

Only
$29.99
a boxed dozen

SUPERoses
have huge blooms and 2 foot + long stems because they're grown high in the mountains.

Get a super reaction when the biggest roses ever seen are presented by our rose-bearing, tuxedo-wearing messenger.

Call today for fast delivery.

FREE Downtown
Boston Delivery inexpensive delivery to other areas

Call Today
269-4444
Ask for SUPERoses!
from ROSExpress.

ROSExpress

© 1992 Land & Bentley

COMEDY

COMEDIANS FOR HIRE

Laff Appeal II: A Benefit for Kids with AIDS

BY KATHY MATHESON

You might think national spelling champ Dan Quayle organized "Laff Appeal II," but then you remember the vice president would have spelled "laff" with an "e" on the end.

OK, OK. But the good news is that the comedians performing in this benefit for the Children's Aids Program at Boston City Hospital will tell better jokes than the one you just read.

Laff Appeal II is an opportunity to help HIV-positive children while enjoying a night of comedy (and good food) at Estelle's in the South End. Sponsored by CAP and Progression Through Comedy, all the money raised from the $10 tickets goes to benefit CAP and the new house on the campus of Mattapan Hospital (it's being built for kids infected with the HIV virus). The home, scheduled to open Sept. 12, is the first of its kind in the United States and will be available for children up to six years old.

Comprised of professional comedians with "a social message," PTC offers a unique way of raising money for various organizations. PTC performed in the first Laff Appeal about four months ago, gave a benefit for the family of a victim of a random shooting, and has also been approached by the Roxbury chapter of Big Brothers to help them raise money.

"We're essentially new," said PTC co-founder and comedian George Brickhouse, adding that the group is only about five months old. "Right now, we're just establishing ourselves." So far, all the benefit performances have been on a volunteer basis, but Brickhouse said that PTC is a business venture and eventually the performers will be paid.

"At this point, the performance is free," he explained. "We're just getting off the ground."

Carl Yard is one of several comedians performing for Laff Appeal II.

The line-up for the Sept. 9 event includes local headliners Sue McGinnis, Bob Siebel, emcee Gerroll Bennett, Rano and Rhymin' "Cool Papa" Hemingway, to name a few. "We basically do clean stuff," explained Brickhouse, adding that the real appeal of the group lies in the diversity of the comedians - all races and ages are represented. Comedian Harry Harris, for example, is 70 years old.

But all joking aside, the members of PTC know that the money they raise is going toward good causes, and that's something to be proud of. "We're really serious about what we're doing," said Brickhouse. "We put a lot of time into it."

Time enough to look up how to spell "laugh?" ❑

Laff Appeal II is being held Sept. 9 at 8pm at Estelle's, 888 Tremont St. in the South End. Tickets are $10; all proceeds go to CAP.

HIT THE DIRT BEFORE YOU CRACK THE BOOKS!

Save $30 to $100 on all kinds of bikes!

RADICAL SAVINGS ON

Hybrid Bikes			Mountain Bikes
Bianchi Avenue	Reg. $299.95	NOW $269.95	Nishiki Manitoba	Reg. $329.95	NOW $299.95
Bianchi Main Street	Reg. $339.95	NOW $304.95	Bianchi Ocelot	Reg. $329.95	NOW $299.95
Nishiki Sport	Reg. $319.95	NOW $279.95	Mongoose Alta	Reg. $419.95	NOW $369.95
Nishiki Meridian	Reg. $379.95	NOW $349.95	Mongoose Rockadile	Reg. $449.95	NOW $419.95 plus many more but only while supplies last....

542-8623 542-2219

COMMUNITY Bicycle Supply

490 Tremont St. Corner of Berkeley & Tremont Sts. South End BOSTON

Comedy Listings

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Sandwiches and cold appetizers served. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. New show hours are Sun. at 8:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, Fri. at 8:30, 10:30 and Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 & 11:30pm. Every Tue. is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. To celebrate its 5th birthday, Catch is also giving away a trip for two to Las Vegas. Drawing is Sept. 16 at 6pm at HMV in Harvard Square.

Wed 2nd.- Jonathan Katz, Paul Elwell, Susie Maxi, "Picture This" (sketches). Thu 3rd thru Sun 6th.- Jonathan Katz, Rick Jenkins, Paul Elwell. Mon 7th.- The Tony V Show (sketch comedy), Five Minute Funnies (stand-up comics). Tue 8th.- Brian Kiley. Wed 9th.- Dana Gould. Thu 10th thru Sun 13th.- Dana Gould, Todd Barry, Ned Gold. Mon 14th.- The Other White Meat (sketches), Five Minute Funnies (stand-up comics). Tue 15th.- Jim deCroteau.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country. Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Fri. and Sat. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat.

Wed 2nd.- Jimmy Smith, Julie Barr, Kevin Flynn. Thu 3rd.- Jackie Flynn, Al Ducharme, Sue Costello, Jim McCue. Fri 4th & Sat 5th.- Tony V, Charlie Hall, Greg Fitzsimmons. Sun 6th.- Dave Fitzgerald, Todd Parker, Vinnie Favorito. Mon 7th.- Chris Zito, Bill Braudes, Steve Bjork. Tue 8th.- D.J. Hazard, Steve Bean, Jon Shipman. Wed 9th.- Jimmy Smith, Mike Lee, Susie Maxi. Thu 10th.- Vinnie Favorito, Brian Frazier, Dave Barend. Fri 11th.- Anthony Clark, Vinnie Favorito, Bob Somerby. Sat 12th.- Billy Martin, Jim McCue, Myra Slotnick. Sun 13th.- Dave Fitzgerald, Brad Mastrangelo, Bob Keene, Cindy Freeman. Mon 14th.- Chris Zito, Rich Gustis, Jack Lynch. Tue 15th.- D.J. Hazard, Grant Taylor, Myra Slotnick.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700, Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.

Fri 11th & Sat 12th.- Rob Magnotti.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• ImprovBoston at the Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundays at 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE.

Wed 2nd.- Paul Lyons, Jim Labriola, Larry Repucci, Sam Greenfield. Thu 3rd.- Jim Lauletta, Paul Lyons, Jim Labriola, Sam Greenfield. Fri 4th.- Sam Greenfield, Jim Labriola, Tom Gilmore. Sat 5th.- Sam Greenfield, Tom Gilmore, Don Gavin. Sun 6th.- Kevin Knox, Frank Santorelli, Paul Lyons, Jim Labriola. Mon 7th.- Open Mic Night with Billy Martin. Tue 8th.- Jim Lauletta, Eric Nesbaum, Larry Repucci, Jack Simmons. Wed 9th.- Paul Lyons, Jim Labriola, Eric Nesbaum, Jack Simmons. Thu 10th.- Paul D'Angelo, Jack Simmons, Paul Lyons, Jim Labriola. Fri 11th & Sat 12th.- Jack Simmons, Frank Santorelli. Mon 14th.- Open Mic Night with Billy Martin.

• Renegade Duck 277-0550, at Play It Again Sam's, 1314 Commonwealth Ave., Allston. Boston's improvisational comedy troupe appears every Saturday at 9pm. Admission is $5.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. Every Tue: "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos. Every Wed: Anthony Clark. A must see! Every Thu: Cross Comedy. Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-$10. No dress code.

Wed 2nd.- Anthony Clark, Lewis Black. Thu 3rd.- Cross Comedy, Lewis Black. Fri 4th & Sat 5th.- Lewis Black, George MacDonald, James Lemur. Sun 6th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 8th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). Wed 9th.-Anthony Clark, Steve Kravitz. Thu 10th.- Cross Comedy, Steve Kravitz. Fri 11th & Sat 12th.- Anthony Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist) at 8pm; Steve Kravitz, David Cross, Mike Lee at 10pm. Sun 13th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 15th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

Special Note: The Children's AIDS Program is sponsoring Comedy Nite Sept. 9 at Estelle's Entertainment & More, 888 Tremont St., in collaboration with Progression Through Comedy. Tickets are $10 and the money goes to the new home CAP built for children with AIDS. Call 499-8658 for times.*

FASHION

CAREER DRESSING

BY MARY LAWLOR

Dress for success" suit of the '80s is gone - once and for all. In its place is another suit - a plaid one, a check and a pinstripe. And if all this weren't exciting enough, suits are showing up for the office in colors that range from bright red to purple.

Except for a few conservative businesses such as banking and the like, there is no one single corporate look.

"In the '90s, women know themselves and don't need a corporate look," says designer Alfred Fiandaca, who divides his time between salons in Boston and New York. "Women can show their femininity and be more feminine on the job. There are some women who have gone from that navy blue clone suit to the Armani clone. But at least it's a soft, wearable look."

Boston based designer Denise Hajjar says her customers want two things. "They want clothes that are lightweight and travel from hot to cold," she says. "And they want fashions that can be worn from day to evening. Women attorneys, for example, don't want to look like Vogue models. This is not reality. It's too slick. They don't want plunging necklines, fussy clothes or extremes. You can't wear extremes to court."

Hajjar uses lots of color in her collections for professional women. "I've educated my customers to color. When you have color, you can add to an existing wardrobe. A gorgeous red suit is alive," she says. (Red has a new status. Once considered bold in the corporate world, it's now thought of as a neutral). New York designer Donna Earan successfully zeros in on what professional women like season after season.

"Women know themselves and know what they look good in. This season is different in that throughout the industry, it's all about an ITEM and not a head to toe outfit," says Patti Cohen, Fashion Director at Donna Karan. "Prices are high and none of us need clothes. An important item such as a new long skirt can update what you already own. We've done three skirt lengths; below the knee, mid-calf and ankle."

Karan knows the type of dressing that will go from the office to the opera, as they say. For instance, when she shows a new man-tailored suit, she's apt to team a lace top with it. This not only softens the look but adds that piece of item dressing. "That item can be a scarf or a wonderful belt to add to a jacket you have in the closet," says Cohen. "These things work."

Linda Allard, director of design, at Ellen Tracy, is another designer whose creations are ideal for professional women. Her fall collection includes everything from feminine, Dietrich-like tuxedos to dresses and suits. One of the snappiest suits is done in a gray pinstripe wool crepe. The double-breasted jacket is short and the matching skirt features a new cuffed hemline. She teams it with a black, matte jersey pullover for daytime.

Karan Ross, Director of JH Collectibles, VP of Servicing, says, "Our clothes are geared for today's women's lifestyle - going from the office to a night on the town. Fall '92 has no restrictions for the working woman. The latest word on skirt options is short to long, depending on personal needs and style."

One of the highlights in the fall collection is a sleek tartan plaid suit with velvet collar worn with opaque hose and a wing tip laced up pump.

By the way, professional women are not overlooking pantsuits for the office. They realize that a quality pantsuit is not only classy but comfortable. Even in the most conservative offices, pantsuits are no longer a no-no.

Liz Claiborne, long considered the working woman's designer, recently presented one of her pantsuits accessorized with a croco-embossed belt, leather shoulderbag, red and cream dot tie, textured hose and tie oxfords. It looked pulled-together, polished and profesional. ❑

Menswear pinstripe takes on a feminine look in this wool crepe suit from Ellen Tracy by Linda Allard. It features a new cuffed skirt.

Designer Liz Claiborne uses her latest accessories to put this pantsuit together and give it a pulled-together, polished, professional look for the office.

I settle for nothing less than the very best.
Designer names, that I've come to know, are what I want. Quality, in an unpretentious environment
where I can shop at my own pace
and be myself.
The Lingerie Factory,
because value is important
to me and I like knowing
that I get 40%-60%
off all merchandise,
all the time

LINGERIE FACTORY

Coolidge Corner, Brookline 232-9097 • 167 Milk St., Boston 330-1990 • 164 Newbury St, Boston 421-9335
St. James Ave. and Berkley, Boston 338-9728 • 1 Porter Square Arcade Cambridge 576-2024 • 55 Langley
Rd. Newton 964-0638 • 109 Summer St. (100 yds from Downtown Crossing) Boston 695-0844

BRING IN THIS AD FOR YOUR FREE GIFT!

ARTS

When Art History Repeats Itself

Mysterious Egyptian Pectoral Lands at the MFA

BY JENNIFER MCCANN

An Egyptian pectoral that has been the object of controversy from ancient Egypt into modern-day America will be on display at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston beginning September 9.

In ancient Egypt, tomb thefts were often responsible for the loss or destruction of valuable treasures that were buried with wealthy kings. The pectoral, which depicts a vulture made of silver, gold and electrum with inlays of carnelian and glass, is believed to have been part of the decoration of a royal sarcophagus. The vulture has its wings outstretched and is grasping in its talons two round shen signs - symbols of universal power. To the left of the body of the bird is an Egyptian cobra with its hood extended and its tail curling around itself ready to strike. The pectoral is a considerable size for an example of Egyptian goldwork.

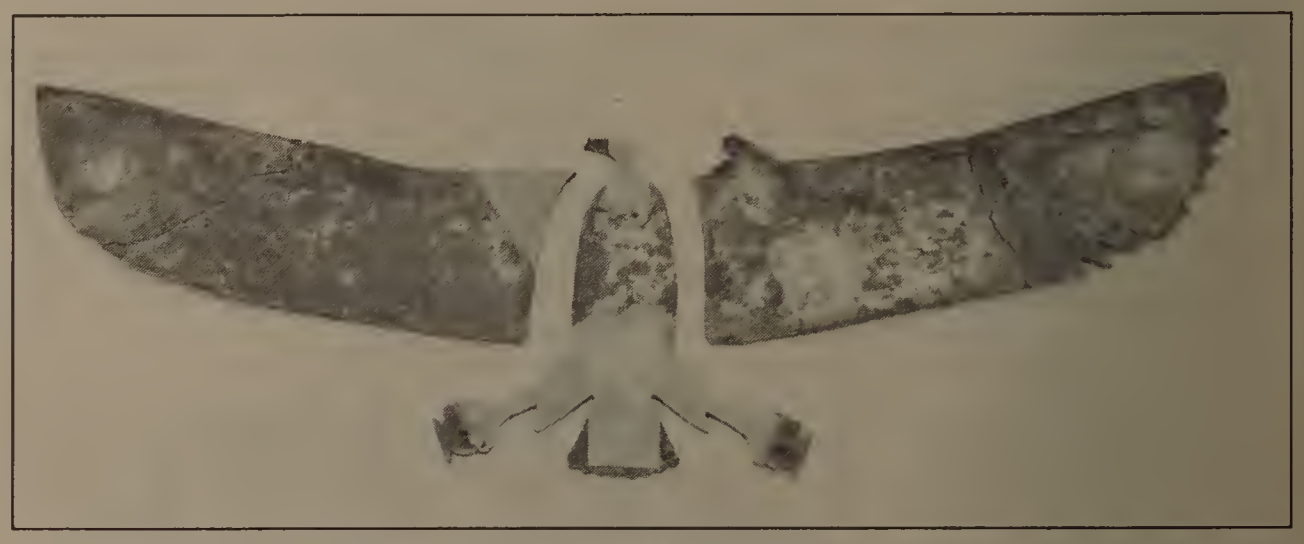
According to ancient Egyptian iconography, the vulture is a symbol of Nekhbet, the goddess of Upper Egypt, and the cobra represents the goddess Wadjet of Lower Egypt. Its composition signified the union of two lands.

Although difficult to date, the pectoral is believed to be from 1786-1558 B.C. Purchased along with a papyrus, tablet and scarab by an engineer from Roxbury, Massachusetts in Thebes in 1858, the pectoral came to America and was eventually sold separately to an alumnus of Lafayette College in Pennsylvania who then gave it to the college.

The pectoral was on display at Lafayette until the Skillman Library was built in 1961; consequently it went into storage in a vault. Similar to the tomb thefts in ancient Egypt, the pectoral was stolen by a college staff member in the 1970's and subsequently went unreported as lost or stolen.

The staff member allegedly removed the pectoral and records of its existence from the library and put it on the market. A Pennsylvania antique dealer bought the piece and later consigned it to Sotheby's auction house in New York. A private purchase was arranged between Sotheby's and the MFA .

In the late 1980's, an art curator and Lafayette's archivist learned of the pectoral's existence and followed its trail to the MFA.



Legal controversy began in 1991 just after Lafayette College claimed title to the object. The MFA filed a motion in the U.S. District Court in Mass., on March 27, 1991, asking the court to make a ruling on the ownership of the Egyptian pectoral.

The settlement stated that both parties agreed that the Museum's acquisition of the pectoral was proper and therefore acquired the artifact's legal title.

After extensive historical research conducted by the MFA, it has learned through scientific analysis and comparisons with stylistic changes throughout Egyptian history, that the pectoral was most likely derived from the coffin of a king during the Second Intermediate Period.

The pectoral's survival from ancient Egyptian times into modern-day controversy has given the artifact its mysterious appeal.

The rare pectoral will begin its display on September 9 at 9am in the museum's Lower Rotunda and run for several weeks. Next stop: a return to the permanent collection of Egyptian Art at the MFA. ❑

Museum of Fine Arts

Pectoral Inlay from a Royal Coffin, ca 1200-900 BC, (back view), Egypt, Artist Unknown, Silver backplate, cloisons & gold leaf.

Museum of Fine Arts

Pectoral Inlay from a Royal Coffin, ca 1200-900 BC, (back view), Egypt,Artist Unknown, Silver backplate, cloisons & gold leaf, 13 3/8" x 4 3/8"

Stage Notes

On September 17 and 19, Boston audiences will be able to witness a new American opera in development based on Alfred Jarry's savage satire Ubu Roi. Don Dinicola's updated Ubu will be presented at Suffolk University's C. Walsh Theatre, under the auspices of the Boston Music Theatre Project. The nine member cast features some of Boston's finest vocal talent, including James Kleyla and Susan Larson, who sing the title roles. For information and tickets, call the box office at (617) 573-8680.

In Cambridge, the Nora Theatre Company is presenting Accidental Death of an Anarchist, a social protest farce by Dario Fo, until September 5. Associate Director Daniel Gidron staged the work.

* * * *

Mark your calendars: The Wilbur Theatre re-lights with Breaking Legs, September 29 - October 18. It stars Vincent Gardenia and Karen Valentine. The Colonial Theatre opens with Evita, October 6 - 18, then follows with The Secret Garden, November 3 - 22, and Annie, December 22 - January 3.

A

Amphigorey: The Musical

Tragic Fun Under a Cloud of Doom

Paxton Whitehead in Edward Gorey's Amphigorey: The Musical

BY NANCY LEONARD

Off we go
Through the snow
To the windswept stories of the poet Gorey
But keep in mind
They're so bleak, you'll find
You might wish you were home in bed, instead
Of watching the whimsical characters all fall dead.

That about sums up the critical reaction to Amphigorey: The Musical, which is the first of four offerings in the American Repertory Theatre's Fall Festival '92. Edward Gorey - poet, storyteller and designer - adapted over a dozen of his off-center stories and verses, in collaboration with composer Peter Golub, and director/choreographer Daniel Levans, to create this modest musical of bright, stylized whimsy.

At first, it's great tragic fun, with comic characters elaborately hopping across Mr. Gorey's cardboard cut-out set, creating cartoonlike action to illustrate a pithy but zestful narration. Vivid tales are separated by outrageous limericks. But the collection of woe becomes repetitious and heavy, eventually surpassing its measure of entertainment. There's more gloom than elation by the close.

The anthology is built upon a slender but serviceable premise: Mr. Earbrass, an authorial stand-in, has a whole range of titles and characters in his notebook, but no plots. Then his balletic Muse appears, and storytelling begins. For those unfamiliar with Mr. Gorey's work, his tales can be described as bedtime stories for morbid tastes. There's a childlike glee in all the fantasy and gore, and in the precise literary wordplay. Unlikely names, odd events and non-sequiturs sweep though his phantasmagorical world, shunting time and reality far aside.

The first act is more entertaining than the second, and the best pieces seem to have a moral dimension. The evening begins with "The Frozen Man," a tale of revenge, in which a jilted youth creates a rival suitor, from old clothes and "ruined gewgaws," to woo his beloved. "The Forty-Seven Questions" cleverly weaves a narrative wholly from interrogatories.

"The Weeping Chandelier" vividly covers half a lifetime - with three bats and a young girl forming a tango troupe and entering royal circles - but glides too quickly over its eponymous image. "The Curious Sofa" - billed as a pornographic work by Ogdred Weary - celebrates concupiscence with the verve of Noel Coward's Marvelous Party, but goes on a while, and ends on a note of musical obscurity. "The Blue Aspic" is a shaggy-dog send-up of obsessive love and operatic ambition.

Bleakness accumulates early in the second act, weighing heavily by the fourth number. There's good material here - the introductory tongue-twisting of "The Deranged Cousins," for example - but the balance is off. "The Inanimate Tragedy" would seem much wittier in a lighter context. Only the "The Admonitory Hippopotamus," a tightly crafted cautionary saga, has real punch. A little more perspective and insight amidst the intellectual sense and nonsense would do wonders.

Paxton Whitehead is just wonderful as Mr. Earbrass, a Dickensian figure in a fur-collared coat. Incessantly brooding, surrounded by cardboard replicas of himself, he sparks the evening with polished authority and an irreverent literary flair. His crisp British diction and love of language reach to the heart of the Gorey creations. The ten supporting players - who do all the eccentric cavorting - are skilled in acting, song and movement. Lori Ann Mahl's kewpie doll blondness is a particularly bright spot. There's good work in featured roles from Susanne Blakeslee, Catherine Ulissey (who doubles as the Muse), Clare Stollak, Allison De Salvo, Kevin McDermott, Richard Parent, Nick Corley and Tony Azito.

The fanciful costumes - designed by Kelly Lamb and James Hammer under Ann Roth's supervision - carry out the black-and-white motif of the author's scenic design. The lighting, by Roger Morgan and Deborah D. Peretz, is alternately brightly exuberant and darkly atmospheric. Mr. Golub's music is mostly frolicsome, turn-of-the-century simplicity, dotted with tragic undertones. The direction invests the assemblage with a unifying and unflagging spirit.

Amphigorey - whose title is derived from the word "amphigouri" (a collection of nonsensical writings) and the author's own name - is a modest musical of limited appeal. Its stylized whimsy is quite winning, but its repetitious gloom cancels much of the fun. Mr. Gorey's already-committed fans will be the most impressed. ❑

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are now on sale for Boston Ballet's 1992-93 season. Performances include The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, Etudes Program, Cinderella, All Balanchine and Romeo and Juliet. Call 931-2000 for more information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
Through September, see "The Berlin Wall," a photo exhibit chronicling the Cold War (1945-89), from the BPL's Boston Herald-Traveler collection. In the Wiggin Gallery balcony.

French Library in Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
Photographs taken in France by Ivan Massar will be on view until Sept. 30. The exhibit is free; hours are Tue., Fri., Sat., 10am-5pm and Wed.-Thu., 10am-8pm.

George Sherman Union Gallery at Boston Universtiy
775 Comm. Ave., Boston
An exhibit of black-and-white and hand-colored images by photographer Kalman Zabarsky will be on display through Oct. 4. Zabarsky's unique technique includes a combination of photography, hand-coloring and color copying technology. Call 353-3635 for more information.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
World-renowned climber, cartographer and aerial photographer Bradford Washburn displays more than 40 stunning black-and-white photos of the world's most dramatic mountain ranges. Through Sept. 7.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Sue Kyllonen's black and white photographs are expressive of the fact that aging is a human experience. She attempts to raise questions about aging by looking at the elderly from various ethnic backgrounds. See her work in through Sept. 24. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm.

Photographic Resource Center
at Boston University
602 Comm. Ave., Boston
Montreal photographer Donigan Cumming brings his gothic installation "The Mirror, the Hammer and the Stage" to the PRC from Sept. 1-27. Cumming is known for his gothic portraits of people, often aging or infirm, sometimes just odd. The PRC is open Tue.-Sun. 12-5pm and Thur. until 8pm. Admission is $3; free Thur. from 5-8pm.

CLASSICAL

Longy School of Music
at Edward Pickman Concert Hall
27 Garden St., Cambridge
As part of the Longy Septemberfest 1992, the Longy Artists Ensemble presents "Brahms— Just Because!" on Sept. 11 & 12 at 8pm. It's an all-Brahms program featuring his F major Cello Sonata and Piano Quintet in F minor. Admission is $5. Call 876-0956 for more information.

TOURS

Art and Architecture Tours of the BPL
Boston Public Library, Copley Square
From the original, classically designed wing of the BPL to the modern one, these guided tours are fascinating - and free. Mon., 2:30pm; Tues.-Wed. 6:30pm; Thurs. and Sat. at 11am.

Mass. Brewing Company, Inc.
Harpoon Ale and Golden Lager
306 Northern Ave., Boston
On Fri. and Sat., the Harpoon Brewery offers free tours beginning at 1pm. The Brewery is located across from Jimmy's Harbor Side Restaurant on Boston's historic waterfront. For more information call 455-1935.

New England Wildflower Society
Hemenway Rd., Framingham
Informal walks on Tues., Fri., and Sat. mornings at 10am are offered for individuals who want to stroll through the Garden in the Woods with a guide. Included with $6 admission.

Nichols House Museum
55 Mt. Vernon St., Boston
The Nichols House Museum offers a unique glimpse into 19th- and early 20th-century life in Boston's Historic Beacon Hill District. This impressive four-story townhouse was constructed in 1804, when Yankee fortunes were being amassed through mercantile trading. Call for tour times: 227-6993.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
See beer memorabilia from two centuries and learn about the venerable history of brewing in Boston. Thousands of people have already been to the tours and tastings held on Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm. A $1 contribution is requested at the door; it will be donated to a local children's charity.

FILMS

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. Mondays it's Film Noir; Tuesdays it's Japanimation; come to Rock 'n' Roll Wednesdays; Federico Fellini is showcased on Thursdays; Fridays and Saturdays are special engagements; Sundays are Summer Sizzlers. For further film information, call 876-6837.

DeCordova Museum
Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln
Through Sept. 7, the DeCordova will show a selected group of winning videos from the 17th Annual New England Film and Video Festival. This nationally-recognized, juried competition celebrates the diversity and excellence of independent student media arts within our region.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
From Aug. 27-Sept. 18, the MFA presents "Of Blazing Passions: Hong Kong Films in the Eighties." Sept. 3 see Shanghai Blues and Boat People; Sept. 4 & 9 see Rouge and A Chinese Ghost Story— Part One; Sept. 10 & 11 see A Better Tomorrow and God of Gamblers. Tickets are $5; all films are screened in Remis Auditorium. Call 267-9300 for times.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
See Antarctica through November: An extraordinary excursion across Earth's last wilderness in this breathtaking adventure film. Also showing are Ring of Fire (about active volcanoes in the Pacific Ocean), To the Limit (telling the story of three athletes' quest for the ultimate performance) and New England Time Capsule (giving a breathtaking glimpse at the beauty of New England). Special headsets are now available for the sight-impaired and hearing-impaired visitors. Foreign language translations are available in Dutch, Korean, Japanese and Spanish. Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only museum in the world devoted solely to educating the public about computers and their impact on society. Enjoy over 100 interactive exhibits, including the award-winning Walk-Through Computer. On exhibit through September 7 is "Silicon Sailing." Come design and race your own 75-foot, 11 story yacht against other visitors in a computer simulation of the America's Cup course. This interactive exhibit lets you explore the computer technology behind America^3, the winner of the 1992 America's Cup. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Reisinger Museum (Northern and Central European art), the Fogg Art Museum (European and American art) and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum (ancient and Asian art) comprise Harvard's art museums. In the Fogg Museum, see "Italian Old Master Drawings" from the collection of Jeffry E. Horvitz from Aug. 15- Oct. 11. In the Sackler, view Northern Indian paintings and objects of the 17th-19th centuries in the exhibit "Poignant, Picturesque and Beserk." Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 10am-5pm. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am-5pm and Thur.-Sat., 11am-8pm. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. Museum hours are Wed.-Sun., 11am to 5pm and Tues., 11am to 5pm. Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum
Columbia Point, Boston
This museum focuses on the political career and family heritage of President John F. Kennedy. Now you can take a water shuttle from Long Wharf (Qunicy Market) to the museum. Museum hours are daily 9am-5pm. For more information call 929-4523.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
MFA presents "To Weave for the Sun: Andean Textiles" through Nov. 15. Representing almost 2,500 years, this exhibition of 50 Andean textiles from the permanent collection presents a chronological overview of Pre-Columbian and Colonial period textiles.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
"DINOS! DINOS! DINOS!," the nation's most popular group of traveling dinosaurs, remains on display through Sept. 7. Through Sept. 13, ponder the Norman B. Leventhal collection of more than 60 colorful, extraordinary maps ranging in age from before Columbus' voyage to the present day. Examine global climate change - its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it - in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth."

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Aquarium hours are M, T, F, 9am-6pm; W, Th, 9am-8pm; Sat, Sun & Holidays, 9am-7pm. Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Museum hours are Tues.-Sun., 9:30am-4:15pm. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history. Hours are Mon.-Fri., 9am-4pm and Sun., 9am-5pm.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
Loeb Drama Center
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
The stylish, enigmatic and wickedly funny drawings of Edward Gorey come to life in Amphigorey: The Musical. The title is a play on the word "amphigouri," meaning a collection of nonsensical writings. The cast brings to live stories such as "The Gashlycrumb Tinies," "The Curious Sofa" and "The Weeping Chandelier." The play runs Aug. 26-Sept. 6. Call 547-8300 for times and ticket information.

The Master of Monologue Eric Bogosian returns to the A.R.T. Sept. 9-13 to present his "stadium" show of all-new material (plus a few familiar characters) in Dog Show. Call 547-8300 for times and ticket information.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Performance times are Tues.-

(continued on following page)

Hungry i

Fine dining nightly

and Sunday Brunch.

Reservations Suggested.

71 ½ Charles Sreet
Beacon Hill, 227-3524

BAY STATE TICKET

Wang Center
Phantom of the Opera	Aug .- Nov.
Symphony Hall
Liza Minnelli	9/23 - 9/27
Foxboro Stadium Events:
Guns N Roses / Metallica	9/11
NE Patriots vs. Seattle Seahawks	9/20
NE Patriots vs. Buffalo Bills	9/27
Great Woods Events:
B52's / Violent Femmes	9/5
Tesla w/ Firehouse	9/6
Elton John	9/15, 9/16
Worcester Centrum
Frank Sinatra with Shirley MacLaine	10/2
Providence Civic Center
Frank Sinatra with Shirley MacLaine	10/3
Orpheum Theater
Jethro Tull	10/2, 10/3

All Area Events / Limo Packages Available
We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold
(617) 731-TIXX

A

(Theater continued)

Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6:30 and 9:30pm and Sun. at 3 and 7:30pm. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Joyous, upbeat and just plain fun, Ain't Misbehavin' is a rousing tribute to jazz legend Fats Waller's energetic and expressive style of music. This Tony Award-winning musical runs through Sept. 27. For times and ticket information, call 426-6912.

Chiswick Park Theatre
Rte. 20, Sudbury
La Cage Aux Folles, the dazzling Tony Award-winning musical, runs Sept. 11 through Oct. 4. A sensitive yet humorous stroy about relationships, acceptance and love, La Cage Aux Folles is one of the most highly-acclaimed musicals of our time. Call 508-443-5550 for times and ticket information.

Hasty Pudding Theater
Harvard Square, Cambridge
The world premiere of The Fourth Wall, a new play by A.R. Gurney (author of Love Letters and The Cocktail Hour), will open Sept. 9 for an open-ended run. For times and ticket information, call 1-800-828-7080.

Huntington Theatre
264 Huntington Ave., Boston
The Huntington opens its 11th season with the American musical classic Pal Joey, running from Sept. 11-Oct. 17. Call 266-0800 for times and ticket information.

Kendall Cafe
233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave.
Kendall Sq., Cambridge
Every Saturday at 8pm, the Kendall Cafe presents The Drunkard, by W.H. Smith. It's a melodrama from the 1840s with Gay Nineties songs, dances and singalongs. Dinner and show packages are available. Call 661-0993 for more information.

M.I.T. Theater
on campus, Cambridge
The M.I.T. Gilbert and Sullivan players present She Stoops to Conquer, a comedy by Oliver Goldsmith, Sept. 4-6 at 8pm in Room 54-100 (enter at 77 Mass. Ave.) Information: 547-5065. The M.I.T. Musical Theatre Guild presents the classic Sunday in the Park with George in the Kresge Little Theater (84 Mass. Ave.) Sept. 3-6 and 10-12. Information: 253-6294.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents The Boardwalk Melody Hour Murders every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $27.95-$32.50 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

North Shore Music Theatre
62 Dunham Rd., Beverly
See Gypsy Aug. 20-Sept 5. This musical about the career of Gypsy Rose Lee stars Oscar, Emmy, Grammy and Tony Award-winner Rita Moreno as Mama Rose! Tickets are available at the theatre's box office in Beverly or by calling (508) 922-8500.

Publick Theatre, Inc.
Outdoor Theatre
Christian A. Herter Park
Soldiers Field Road, Boston
Come see the funny, poignant, romantic classic Cyrano de Bergerac Aug. 12 through Sept. 6. All performances are at 8pm. Call 782-5425 for ticket prices or more information.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Wang Center
270 Tremont Street
Tickets are still on sale for Phantom of The Opera, running through November 14. Prices range from $27.50-$60.00. Call Ticketmaster at 931-2222 or the Wang Center at 482-1242 (Groups of 20 or more) for tickets.

LECTURES/READINGS

Boston University
Terrace Lounge, George Sherman Union
775 Comm. Ave., Boston
BU's Center for Judaic Studies will present "China, Israel and the Middle East: Retrospect and Prospect" on Sept. 14 at 7pm. Professor Pan Guang of the Chinese Institute for Peace and Development Studies in Shanghai will be the featured speaker. Free. Call 353-4428 for more information.

French Library in Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
Lawrence Franko will present a lecture entitled "When Doing Business in France...Think SIGLOPLEC" on Sept. 15 at 6:15pm. Franko will address the unique aspect of doing business in the French economic and cultural environment focusing particularly on the role of the State, industrial policy, and the elite training of French managers. Reservations are recommended; admission is $7. Call 266-4351 for more information.

European Cultural Consultants
121 Mt. Vernon St., Boston
Register now for a Tourist Travel Preparation Seminar on Switzerland, Sept. 9 from 6-9pm. Call 720-1025 for prices and further information.

Heritage Plantation
Sandwich
A Shaker Black Ash Kitten Pincushion workshop will be held on Sept. 12 from 11am-5pm in the theatre of the Round Barn. Gerri Kennedy, resident basketmaker at Hancock Shaker Village in Pittsfield, will instruct this one-day workshop. Fee is $90; all materials will be provided. To register, call 508-833-2901.

EXHIBITS

Gallery Per Tutti
112 South St., Boston
This unique gallery offers a salon-style format, allowing the public open communication with working artists in the Boston area. It displays affordable fine art, thus providing a necessary step to meet the changing needs of the local art environment. To learn more, call 482-2710.

Levinson Kane Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston
Come see "The Dog Show: Celebrating Man's Best Friend" from June 27-Labor Day. For dog lovers of all ages, this canine-inspired exhibit salutes dogs with paintings, sculpture, prints, ceramics, handmade books, photographs and more. Call 247-0545.

Mugar Memorial Library
at Boston University
771 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Providing a glimpse into an age of entertainment now past, an exhibit celebrating the life of Harry Houdini is on display through January 1993. "It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" includes a variety of correspondence and memorabilia, including old posters and photographs, from the famous magician.

Vincent's Obsession
8 Newbury St., Boston
On exhibit from Sept. 8-Oct. 20 is "Eugenio Cuttica: Romanticism in the 90's." Cuttico is one of the most famous young masters in Argentina; this is his first show in the Northeast. Gallery hours are Tue.-Sat. 10am-6pm.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston
Vose Galleries is pleased to present a selection of over 25 lively watercolors and oils chronicling summertime life on Cape Ann, from festive beachgoers to fishermen laboring on the Gloucester wharves. The show runs through Sept. 25. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri. 8am-5:30pm; Sat. 9am-4pm.

SPECIAL EVENTS

A Taste of Massachusetts
City Hall Plaza, Boston
Sample specialties from more than 25 Boston-area restaurants, plus non-stop musical entertainment by national, regional and local performers at this free festival over Labor Day weekend: Sept. 3-7 from 11am-11pm.

American Lung Association
Cape Cod
Join hundreds of bicyclists on this year's "Autumn Escape Bicycle Trek" from Plymouth to Provincetown to benefit the ALA of Massachusetts. Explore the beauty of Cape Cod by bicycle on this 3-day, 160-mile ride Sept. 18-20. Riders must raise a minimum of $350 in pledges and wear an ANSI-approved helmet. Call 269-9720 for more information.

Heritage Plantation
Sandwich
The Model A Restorers Club of Weymouth will hold a rally and club car show Sept. 12 on the special events field. The club expects between 75 and 100 Model A Fords to attend the show, which lasts from 10am-4pm. Judging and awarding of prizes will be done by the club; the public is invited to attend the show.

Italian Sports Car Festival
North End, Quincy Market
The North End and Waterfront areas of Boston will be alive with excitement when the first annual Italian Sports Car Festival is presented from 10am-5pm on Sept. 13. Approximately 150 rare Italian cars (combined value $20 million!) will be on display in Marketplace Center, The Bostonian Hotel, Paul Revere Park and Christopher Columbus/Waterfront Park.

WGBH Ice Cream FunFest
125 Western Ave., Allston
One of the largest selections of gourmet ice cream to be found under one tent will be ready for tasting Sept. 12 & 13 from 12-5pm both days. Live music and entertainment will be served up along with ice cream and frozen yogurt from Herrell's, Ben & Jerry's, Rosev Dairy, Toscanini's, Steve's and more. Tickets are $7.

SOROTA TUTTLEMAN
GALLERY

"Mom and Dad Think . . ." Alan Bortman, oil on canvas, 48"x66"

featuring
Alan Bortman
Crash
Kathy Callahan
Daze
Howie Green
Keith Haring
Rodger Kingston
John O'Connor
Tom Wesselman

354 Congress Street, 2nd floor
Boston, Massachusetts 02210
Phone: 426-3445; Fax: 426-2896
2 Blocks Past Children's Museum
Summer Hours: Monday-Friday 10 a.m.-6 p.m., or by appointment

WOMAN ON THE STREET

Edited by Leslie Semonian

"What is the best advice you have received?"

Ellie, 63, Brookline
"My sister told me to move from Canada to the United States. I moved to Boston and I love it here."

Scott, 25, Back Bay
"My father always said...'D.T.A.- Don't Trust Anybody'. Words to live by."

Karon, 25, Milton
"My mother always said that I don't have to do anything I don't want to. Just stay black and die."

Joel, 32, Boston
"Choose the career you wanted to do as a child. I wanted to be a family practice doctor and will be one in four more years."

Donna, 28, Norwood
"It's just so simple...the family is the foundation of happiness."

David, 42, Belmont
"Be willing to accept B+ work because it gives you leeway to be more creative and well rounded."

DINING

1280 RESTAURANT

Don't Worry About the Name Just Eat There

BY MEG WORDEN AND PETER MCNAMARA

Names can sometimes make or break a restaurant, although in the case of the 1280 Restaurant, (variously known as Lynch's 1280 Restaurant, 1280 Beacon and 1280 Mexican Restaurant) we've definitely found an exception. You would never guess from the name that behind those doors is some of the best Southwestern food outside Tucson. Yes, Southwestern - not Mexican, as the owners would have us believe. The night we ate there, the place was practically empty, and we couldn't help speculating that the name may have a lot to do with it. 1280 used to be known as a place for traditional New England fare, and this venture into Southwestern cuisine is very recent. Actually you can still dine on traditional American food here, as there are now two completely different menus, one designed for the long-standing regulars who may not care for the new approach, while the other (from which we ordered) is the recently introduced Southwestern one. Chef Reuben Roman previously cooked at Arizona's and at Cantina Zapata , and is well versed in the nuances of this type of cuisine. Roman is very amenable to changing dishes around, adjusting the spice levels and substituting different kinds of sauces (so taking the two menus together, there is literally something for everyone here).

Michael Powers

The 1280 Restaurant features delicious Southwestern fare.

From the short list of appetizers, we tried the melt-in-the-mouth quesadilla del mar ($4.75), a very light and crisp turnover deliciously filled with shrimp, scallops, tomatoes and some very mellow Mexican cheeses. This portion was generous enough for two to share. The chilled grilled scallop salad ($4.95) contained perfectly cooked scallops on a bed of greens tossed with an excellent, intense cumin and cilantro vinaigrette, combined with toasted pignolia nuts. Even our least favorite appetizer, the anticouchos ($3.95) was pretty good, comprising a generous portion of sirloin marinated in cilantro, garlic, lime and red chiles then grilled on a skewer; this was very flavorful, though a little chewy.

One of our initial choices from among the entrees was puerco con salsa junta ($8.95), a roasted pork loin marinated in fresh herbs, chiles and oranges, then sliced and grilled with a tomatillo sauce (but when it was suggested that we substitute Mexican chile sauce for the tomatillo sauce, we went with this idea). The Mexican sauce was a very pleasant, sweetish sauce that uses orange juice and honey as the base. It went extremely well with the tender pork slices. We requested that the world grill tagliatelle ($9.50), one of the hotter dishes on the menu, be prepared extra hot, and it indeed had a nice bite to it, with a forward, peppery kind of flavor. It consisted of grilled shrimp, scallops and chunks of salmon tossed with pasta in a sauce combining chile oil, fresh herbs, red peppers, poblano chiles and some luscious wild mushrooms. The pasta was cooked just right, with each mouthful providing a delicious yet different taste sensation. The grilled chile-glazed fish of the day ($11.95), was salmon on this occasion. As we had by now come to expect, the salmon was perfectly cooked, and the accompanying tomato, scallion and roasted garlic relish was nothing short of sensational. Should the chef ever decide to market this relish, we'll be the first in line.

Of the three desserts offered, we tried two. The banana-raisin-bread pudding was very tasty and typical of the Southwestern / Mexican genre (which tends to be on the overcooked side), but the flan was incredible. Put it this way; one of our party, an admitted flan hater, took one nibble and immediately insisted we order a second one. The taste and texture were different from the run-of-the-mill flan; it was not in the least "custardy," and was instead very rich and sinfully creamy (and very, very addictive). Without doubt, the best we've ever had.

The decor at 1280 is what you might call "typical Tuscon," with light peach walls and faux marble columns. The smoking section is by far the nicer dining area because it is so spacious; the only drawback is the noise from the lounge on evenings when the sounds of live entertainment fill the air (it reminded us of something from the Gong Show). By contrast, the non smoking section resembles a small and noisy purgatory (are customers being punished for not smoking?).

Our servers were friendly and good-natured, making up in enthusiasm for what they lacked in experience; for this we were willing to overlook the distant sounds of dropping trays, breaking plates and falling waiters. Here, the food's the thing, and it really is so good that you don't notice your surroundings once it arrives. ❑

Currently, the Southwestern menu is only available at dinner, but there are plans to extend it to lunch in the future.

1280 RESTAURANT

1280 BEACON ST., BROOKLINE
TEL: 232-1280
HOURS: LUNCH 11:30-3:00
DINNER MON. - FRI. 5 - 10-
DINNER SAT & SUN 5 - 11
CREDIT CARDS: AMEX, DISCOVER, MC, V
HANDICAPPED: MAIN DINING ROOM AND LOUNGE ACCESSIBLE BATHROOMS ARE NOT

BEST Winner of the Improper Bostonian's Best of Boston Award— Outdoor Dining

Lunch Sun–Sat 11:30–5:00 including brunch specials on Sunday
Dinner Sun–Wed 5:00–10:00 pm
Thurs–Sat 5:00–11.00 pm

Available for private parties and functions.
Valet parking.
On the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Dartmouth Street
160 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

(617) 536-8656

CAFÉ BRAZIL

Bem-vindo! Welcome!

Serving Beer and Wine.

- Listen to Live, Acoustic Samba and Bassa Nova - While Enjoying a Scrumptious Dinner!

Reasonable Prices!

15% off w/ this coupon.

*Not valid unless presented when seated. Good Sun - Thurs for lunch or dinner. Expires September 30, 1992

421 Cambridge St., Allston MA
789-5980

D

In Vino Veritas

BY JONATHON ALSOP

"In vino veritas" is the true wine lover's motto. Some people say that loosely translated, it means, "When I drink wine, I start telling the truth," or "They drink wine at Harvard."

I think it means, "There's truth in wine," and this is it: wine is food, not booze."

Just as effortlessly as our love for food, we're supposed to be able to drink and enjoy wine. We're meant to have wine as a part of our lives - naturally and casually. We're allowed to order it and serve it to ourselves and our friends without having a wine snob/wine etiquette nightmare. Once I got that straight, everything else about wine began to fall into place for me.

We Americans have huge wine inhibitions. No other culture in the world (except maybe the fun-loving Pol Pot regimes) treats wine the way we do. It's taken nearly 75 years for the physical plant of America's wine industry to recover from Prohibition, and on a bad day it seems like America's wine culture is a quarter century behind that.. On a good day, however, it feels like wine is on the right side of the power curve.

From a demographic standpoint, wine is young again as the baby boomers (eternally young themselves) enter their classic, wine-buying, cholesterol- conscious years. We've known for years that wine in moderation wasn't overtly bad for you; now we know wine is actually good for you, and may even be better than no wine at all. The price of wine grapes has escalated on California's spot market, and it looks like lots of wine on the horizon for all of us.

Let's start having fun with wine as of right now. Over the next couple of months, we'll get into a few tastings. We'll do a forbidding turkey/ham taste-off to see which wine we're going to ruin at Thanksgiving this year, and the annual Beaujolais Nouveau feeding frenzy is just around the corner (followed closely by the Beaujolais Nouveau death watch).

If you need to reach me with news tips, suggestions or ideas, leave me a message at the Improper Bostonian office at (617) 232-3507 or fax at (617) 232-4305.

Now where did I put that cork screw....?!

Tastings Around Town

Blanchard's in Allston, free tastings every Friday 5-8 pm and every Saturday 2-5 pm, usually new wines or exclusives. Winecellar of Silene, Copley and Waltham, Fridays 4-6:30 pm and Saturdays 1-3 pm. Sometimes they pick the wines about ten minutes before show time. No wine tastings in September at Brookline Liquor Mart (BLM), Allston, in deference to their annual month-long September Storewide Sale. Regular Saturday tastings from 2-4:30 pm start up again in October.

Retail News

BLM: aforementioned September Sale, all wines 20% off six bottles or more. Buy from the Discount Basement at the same time, and pay an average 33% off. See — you can beat the system. Marty's, Allston: Ian White is the new wine manager, by the way of London and Australia. September's Wine Selection at Marty's is ALL French wines, 20% off six bottles or more.

Tasting Notes

1990 Sakonnet Vidal Blanc: sexy bottle, fresh citrus fruit, bright and lovely, lots o' zing, Marty's, Bauer's, others, $8

1990 Les Violettes: beautiful red Rhone, smells like flowers, tastes like blackberries, great body, normally $10, on sale everywhere right now for $8.

Fine Wine on a Tight Budget

Via della Chiesa Vineyard & Winery, 24 South past 495 to Rte. 44 East, Raynham, MA. Excellent line of Italian-style whites and reds by winemaker Matyas Vogel at $45/case, a sincerely incredible $3.75 a bottle! Best buys, Cayuga Dry & Semi-Dry, Cayuga-Muscat Blend, decent daily Zinfandel. Definitely worth the drive.

Stealth Wine Shop

Downstairs at DeLuca's Market on the corner of Newbury and Fairfield is a hidden wine shop. Invisible from the sidewalk because of some neighborhood sign ordinance, the shop is a mixed bag of high-priced bottles side by side with some great buys: '90 Clos du Bois Barrel Fermented Chardonnay, $8 (around town, $11-$12), '89 Mitchelton Shiraz, $7, '91 Heitz Grignolino Rose, $7, '89 Callaway Fume Blanc, $9.

Grill 23 & Wine List

Although clearly far from Boston Magazine's favorite restaurant, Grill 23's wine list is nowhere near Boston's worst. Wine lists can be tough to take in general, but I do not see what makes this one such a negative object lesson.

Grill 23's wine feature for September: Cain Cellars Chardonnay, Meritage with dinner every Wednesday night through the month. ❑

CAFFÉ Graffiti
"Come In And Sign Our Wall."
▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato
CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

D

APPETEASERS

BY MARGE CHIRYSSOSTOMIDIS AND PETER MCNAMARA

SHUT UP AND EAT YOUR MARIGOLDS

Lemon cucumbers, burgundy okra, red bottle onions, squash blossoms...These, and other unusual vegetables can be found at Marino's Lookout Farm in Natick, and also at their farmstand at the weekly Farmer's Market on Friday afternoons at Copley Square. Meanwhile, at Ristorante Marino, edible flowers like pansies, marigolds, calendula and herb blossoms are being featured in the salads.

MINCING NO MEMORIES

Restaurant food in Boston seems to be getting better and better. Some memorable dishes we've tried lately include a luscious portion of pan seared foie gras with duck confit, a special of the day at Olive's (we hope Todd English makes this a permanent fixture on the menu), an unforgettable chanterelle glazed lobster with fennel ravioli at Icarus (surely lobster and fennel is a marriage made in heaven), while at Biba, we found an unbelievably good roast suckling pig (roasted whole over fruit woods).

A HOME AWAY FROM HOME

Welcome and good luck to Andrea Cordova and Lisa Martell, new owners of On The Park in the South End. They tell us they have redecorated the restaurant, installing marbelized tables, and have eliminated the "Pee Wee Herman" look. There is a new wine list, and they describe the food as the kind of food you would eat at home, only better. Everything is homemade, including the desserts. Lisa does the cooking, and Andrea manages the front of the house. Both partners previously worked at Rebecca's on Charles Street, and Lisa also cooked at one time at 224 Boston Street.

TOP GUN DINING

Surely one of the best elegant lunch bargains around (and one of the best kept secrets) can be had at the award winning Cafe Budapest. The set lunch offers you soup, salad, an entree (such as poulet au paprikas), coffee and a pastry at prices ranging from $14.50-$16.50. Trust us, you won't find prices as low as this at dinner. The Cafe Budapest was recently awarded a gold medal for Best Hungarian Restaurant in the United States at the Best of the Best Dining Awards ceremony, and has also just received the DiRoNA Award presented by the Distinguished Restaurants of North America.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

The countdown is on. Only a few more days are left to eat at 798 Main before Bruce Frankel hangs up his spoon. Remember, too, that some of the most popular dishes from the days of Panache are being featured, so this will be a really nostalgic treat.

THE JUICY DETAILS

Some people in the news: We hear pastry chef Millie D'Olio has left the Marais and joined the bakery department of Rebecca's on Charles Street. Of course we could not confirm this, as we have never yet had a phone call returned by Rebecca...Talking of the Marais, sous chef Wayne Gibson is leaving in a couple of weeks...A special welcome to the very talented food writer Craig LaBan who is now Boston correspondent for Food Arts magazine...Happy 40th birthday to Brian Angelo, a member of the waitstaff at the CafeBudapest, who will soon be celebrating his fifteenth anniversary on the staff... Joseph LaSpada has just been appointed general manager at Ristorante Marino. He comes there from the Top of the Hub, where he was also general manager...If you have fond memories of the Venetian Gardens you will be pleased to learn that owner Peter De Grandis is now the chef at Carlo Marino at 8 Prince Street in the North End...Rosalie Harrington and Todd Fineberg of Rosalie's in Sudbury and Marblehead now host a radio restaurant show on WADN 1120 AM, broadcast on Wednesdays from 9-10am.

HELLO, GOODBYE

Births and deaths: Look for a new funky cafe with bakery opening very soon at 85 Newbury Street (where the Cafe Florian used to be). The name will be Mirabelle; owner Steve Elmont was the founder of Creative Gourmet...Still on Newbury Street, good luck to the Kashmir, an Indian restaurant that opened recently at number 279. A couple of unusual items on the menu are tandoori duck and tandoori rack of lamb...Figs is coming soon to Charlestown. This is Todd and Olivia English's latest venture, and will be on the site of the original Olive's at 67 Main Street. It will be a gourmet pizzeria, and is expected to open the second week of September. For more information, call Olive's at 242-1999...Jimmy Mac's, the Durgin Park of rib restaurants, recently closed...The Rebel's Yell has gone, and in its place is Jake's Ivories, also a piano bar. Stop the presses! Savenor's Market is opening on Charles Street.On a final note, the annual Taste of Massachusetts festival planned for September 3-7 has been cancelled. ❑

WHO SAYS THERE AREN'T ANY GREAT BREAKFAST SPOTS CONVENIENT TO BOSTON!!

For Absolutely The Best Breakfasts and Reasonably Priced Italian Entrees in Town - Come to

CASA D'PASQUALE'S FINE FOODS

63 White St, Waverly Square, Belmont
Breakfast served until 2pm. Weekends
Dinner Hours until 10pm. Weekends
489-6535

Casa D'Pasquale's

PRONTO

Serving Lunch and Dinner

7 days a week
Breakfast on Weekends

Italian Cuisine
with daily specials

Fine wines by the glass or bottle
Elegant, charming, unique
Romantic European atmosphere

464 Thames Street
Newport, RI
(Corner of Pope & Thames)
401-847-5251
MC/VISA

(617) 338.4600

Wine & Food Events

fixed-price dinner

An international dinner inspired by Belgium's best beers and New England's best produce; 4 courses and 5 handmade beers with the brewmaster Pierre Celis. $45.00 per person including tax and tip; 6.30 pm.

Belgian Beer Dinner

September 17

cornucopia

15 West Street, Downtown Boston

Wine & Food Pairing Series

East vs. West Coast Wines

September 9

A Wine and Food pairing of chardonnays, Rieslings and Pinot Noirs from New Engalnd's own Sakonnet and Westport Rivers vineyards challenging wines from Oregon and Washington state. $20.00 per person; 6–8 pm.

Validated Parking available after 4pm at the Lafayette Garage

Diners Club International

D

Brunch Board

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change.

Aujourd'Hui

Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive, except for tip); $18.50 for children.

Bangkok Bistro

1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain starting at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

Barrett's on Boston Harbor

2 Constitution Plaza, Charlestown 242-9600
Take in a stupendous view of the USS Constitution while you savor this buffet-style brunch. Barrett's is also reputed to have the largest Chocolate Bar in Boston - if you can't handle the sugar high, you can still admire the chocolate sculptures and lollipop trees. $16.95 (all inclusive); $9.95 for children. Brunch Sun. 10am-2:30pm. Reservations for parties of 5 or more. Parking available.

Bello Mondo

236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

Bennett St. Café

1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual summer buffet brunch. Summer brunch will be served now through Sept. 5. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $17.95 for all you can eat; $9.95 under 10. Brunch Sun. 9am-2pm. Reservations.

Blue Diner

178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

Cafe Fleuri

250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations.

Davio's

5 Cambridge Parkway, Camb., 661-4810
This guarantor of great Northern Italian cuisine now offers a smashing Sunday brunch beginning at noon. Enjoy a selection of items from warm spinach salad, with fresh shrimp and veggies, poached eggs on grilled onions, herbed focaccia and roasted red pepper hollandaise or the grilled marinated sirloin. Reservations are suggested.

Hampshire House

84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. New Orleans Jazz Brunch served 10:30am - 2:30p, $12 - $16.

Harbor Terrace

296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the harbor terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

Hungry I

71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

Joe's American Bar and Grill

279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

Jonah's Seafood Cafe

575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

Oasis Cafe

176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American home-style fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

Parker's Restaurant

Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

The Ritz Carlton

15 Arlington St., Bos. 536-5700
A sybarite's delight! Choose from over 100 buffet items in the formal European dining room while listening to chamber music. Rawbar, carving table, full dessert buffet and more. Sun 10:45am-2:30pm. $42 adults; $21 children. Jacket and tie required. If you prefer more traditional fare in less formal surroundings, eat à la carte in the café. Sat. and Sun. 6:30am to 2:30pm. Tie optional.

Serendipity III

120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

Spinnaker Italia at the Hyatt

575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Trident Bookstore and Café

338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

29 Newbury

29 Newbury St., Bos. 526-0290
Dine on eggs 29 - poached eggs with hollandaise, spinach and beef tenderloin on englishes, or indulge with a house cured gravlox - that's salmon at its traditional best. They make their own bloody mix at this casual trendy establishment and the art display changes every six weeks. Brunch Sun. 12 - 4pm

Victoria Station

64 Sleeper St., Bos. 542-7771
Enjoy an all you can eat Sunday brunch while overlooking Boston Harbor at this good value, casual place. $11.99 includes bbq ribs, prime rib, your choice of omelettes, fruit, cheese, an extensive salad bar and more. Parking available.

Warren Tavern,

2 Pleasant St., Charlestown, 241-8142
Take a step back into history this Sunday, approximately 212 years. The Warren Tavern is one of the oldest restaurants in the country and the first place to be rebuilt after Charlestown was burned down in the Battle of Bunker Hill. The Tavern features an original decor of low beamed ceilings, church pew benches and a 25 foot oak bar. Cuisine is straight forward American with a little international flair. Brunch served from 12:00 to 3:30. $4.95 - $6.95

It's time for Another Season.
Fine dining at reasonable prices in a lovely setting.

97 Mount Vernon Street
Beacon Hill, Boston 367-0880

ARARAT
RESTAURANT

Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates
4.75 Each

FREE SOFT DRINK
(12 oz. can)
With Purchase of
Half Rotisserie
B.B.Q. Chicken Plate
includes Rice Pilaf
Salad & Garlic Sauce.
$4.99 plus tax

We also serve beer and wine. Please come in and visit us.
ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 Arlington Street, Watertown, MA.
(617)924-4100*(617)934-7011

1280
Mexican Restaurant

THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD. LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.

The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

caffé paradiso
est. 1966

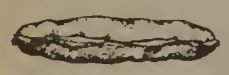
gelati

sorbetto

apertivi

liquers

cognacs



scotches

soft beverages

panini

pizza

255 Hanover Street
Boston

349 Newbury Street
Boston

3 Water Street
Boston

1 Elliot Street
Cambridge

RESTAURANT LISTINGS

Restaurant listings are provided as a service to advertisers. If you would like to have your restaurant listed, please call the Improper Bostonian Advertising Department at 232-3705.

ADDIS RED SEA ETHIOPIAN RESTAURANT
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727
A,MC,V$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric. Open daily. Reservations accepted. Closed Tue.

ANOTHER SEASON
97 Mount Vernon St., Boston 367-0880
A, MC, V, $$$
A classic restaurant with a modern menu served in style is what you will find at Another Season. Luncheon is served Tuesday-Friday, featuring light, fresh fare. Dinner is served Monday through Saturday from 5:45 to 10:00pm. The diverse menu offers wonderful specials and a creative three-course prix fixe menu for $22.00 (Mon. - Thurs.) For reservations, information or a copy of the prix fixe menu for Fall please call 367-0880.

ARARAT
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

AVEROF,
1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA
272 Boyiston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

BOB THE CHEF,
604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V
$
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Weekend brunch features fried chicken and waffles- a new combo for your AM tastebuds. Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

BOODLES,
Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537
A,D,MC, V, En Route $$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Featuring a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees & grilled fresh seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am -11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

CACTUS CLUB,
939 Boyiston St., Bos. 236-0200
A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, Navajo braised rabbit, as well as more traditional staples are served up daily. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Pat's Pushcart Restaurant

Pat's Pushcart Restaurant has been serving fine Italian Cuisine for the past 20 years in Boston's Historical North End.

Be sure to ask about our specialty dishes.

61 Endicott Street, Boston's North End 523-9616

CAFFE GRAFFITI
307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016 $
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a mind-bending selection of goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

CAFFE ITALIA
279 Newbury St., Boston, 536-3556 $
Sip cappuccino and espresso from the early morning light into the balmy summer night at this authentic Italian cafe. Mangia imported pastries, Gelati, calzone, arancini, panzarotti and more from 8 am-12am Monday through Thursday and 8am-2am Friday through Sunday. Relax and enjoy a late night dessert on their outdoor terrace open until 2 am on weekends.

CORNUCOPIA,
15 West St., Bos. 338-4600 A,D,DC,MC,V
$$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes with the seasons but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Desserts are always spectacular here-Cornucopia won the coveted IB's Best of Boston Tastiest Dessert award. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

COUNTRY LIFE VEGETARIAN BUFFET
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

DALI,
415 Washington St., Somerville 661-3254
A,D,MC,V $$$
If you have a hankering for Spanish food, in surroundings as savory as the menu, Dali is an excellent bet! Prepare to spend a few pezatas as you choose from an endless array of tapas (Spanish appetizers), and down it with the best sangria in town. Baked goat cheese, Duck with blackberry sauce, asparagus flan, octopus vinaigrette - to name a few. The paella, Spain's national dish of saffron rice, vegetables and chicken or seafood, is as good as anything you'd find in Valencia. Open daily for dinner

DURGIN PARK
340 Faneuil Hall, Bos. 227-2038 MC, V, A
$$
Famous for ample portions and brusque and burly waitresses, this Boston institution serves up New England clam chowder, succulent lobster and thick prime rib for cheap. Eat at long, family-style tables with other patrons. Indulge in oysters at the newly refurbished raw bar. Lunch is also served at the piano bar. Reserve for parties of 15 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

FAJITAS & 'RITAS
25 West St., Boston 426-1222
MC, V $
Laid back Tex-Mex is served up sizzlin' style here, featuring chicken, beef, vegetable, and shrimp fajitas with homemade guac, pico de gallo, and sour cream. The margaritas are blended just right, or if your preference leans towards brews, F&R's pours some great Mexican and Texan suds. Open Mon.-Wed. 11am- 9pm, Thurs. 11am- 10pm, Fri. 11am-midnight, Sat. 11am- 11pm and closed on Sundays. Also available for private parties.

FOUR WINDS,
266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922
A, MC, DC, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open daily from noon to 3:30pm for lunch and 5:30 to 10:30 dinner.

GRENDEL'S DEN
89 Winthrop St., Camb. 491-1050

D

A,D,MC,V $$
This casually elegant dining spot corners the international market on gourmet specialities. Some favorites of the Harvard Sq. crowd are the salad bar, cheese and chocolate fondues and Greek spinach pie. Imbibe Cambridge ale (the real stuff that doesn't give hangovers) at the bar; or warm your toes by one of three roaring firesides. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

Hungry I,
71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry i is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces.
Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus,
3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V $$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your chanterelle glazed lobster with fennel ravioli with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499 $
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including; dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 35 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700
$$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house lab under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole - a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

Massiminos Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959
V,MC $$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

NEWLY OPENED

Raw Bar • Cocktails • Grill

MARCO'S RISTORANTE

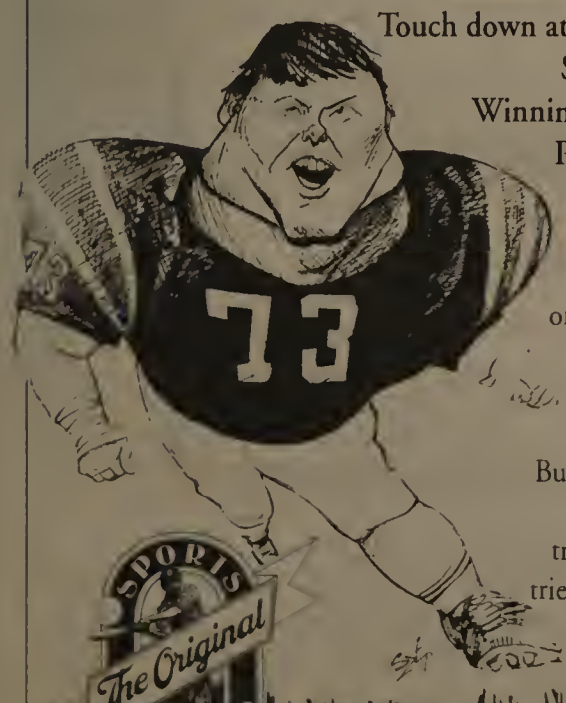
Nearly 100 years of culinary excellence in the North End.

Italian Seafood Specialties "Bringing Scunggelli to Boston !"

93 Salem St. North End, Boston

3 6 7 - 4 8 7 8

The North End's Getaway for HeartyAmerican Home Cooking



Oasis Cafe

Chef Jill Rodgers included in America's 2000 for
"Providing culinary leadership into the 21st Century"
-Chefs in America

Lunch, Dinner & Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

HOG HEAVEN

Touch down at The Original Sports Saloon for our Award Winning Ribs in our "New" Pigskin Tailgate Pack. Whether you're eating in or taking out, there's no tastier way to cheer on your football favorites than with our Pigskin Tailgate Pack. It's a 5 lb. "fullback" Bucket of Award Winning Ribs plus all the tasty trimmings. Once you've tried it, you'll think you've gone to Heaven; Hog Heaven, that is.

CORNER OF HUNTINGTON & EXETER
IN BOSTON'S BACK BAY • (617) 536-1904
THE PLACE TO TOUCH BASE BEFORE YOU RUN HOME

appetizers

calzones

sandwiches

pasta

pizza

free delivery

86 Peterborough Street

Boston, MA

617-424-7070

Visa/MC accepted

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

D

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

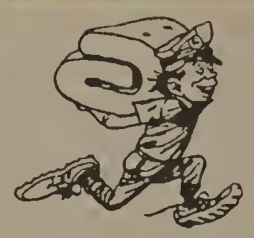
The Original Sports Saloon
47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
MC, V, A, D, CB, En Route
This neighborhood restaurant and bar is the only place to go in Boston to watch a sporting event. This true authentic establishment roars with excitement no matter which sport is showing on their five satellite T.V.'s. As far as their menu, barbeque is the name of the game here. The Saloon also offers a variety of other menu items from burgers to seafood, but they do it different than anyone else. All items are available for take-out and delivery. Open 11 am-2am, 7 days a week.

Parmizzano' s
Two Cambridge Center, Cambridge
252-4444 $$
Located in the Cambridge Center Marriott, this caffe offers regional Italian cuisine in a casual yet elegant atmosphere. The house favorite is petti di pollo alla casalingha, a multi-cheese stuffed chicken breast. Breakfast is served 6:30 am- 11:30 am Monday through Friday and 6:30 am - 12 pm on weekends. Lunch is served from 11:30 am - 3 pm Monday through Friday only and dinner is served nightly 5 pm - 10:30 pm. Reservations are accepted and parking up to 3 hours is available for $1.

Patisserie Francaise
54 JFK St., Cambridge, 354-9850
$(lunch)$$(dinner)
If you yearn for Paris in the summertime, try out this little French café in Harvard Square. They serve fresh food from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday and Monday, and until 10 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Lunch consists of omelets, salads, soups, and sandwiches. Dinner adds typical French cuisine, freshly-cooked, to the menu. And the desserts include every chocolate and fruit-filled concoction you could imagine.

Pat's Pushcart
61 Endicott St., Boston, 523-9616
MC/V $$
Serving fine Italian cuisine for over twenty years, Pat's Pushcart is a mainstay in Boston's North End. Dinner is served 5 - 10:30 pm Tuesday through Saturday.

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE



SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1	2 SEA 10:05	3	4 OAK 9:15	5 OAK 4:05
6 OAK 8:05	7 TEX 8:05	8 TEX 8:35	9 TEX 8:35	10	11 DET 7:35	12 DET 1:05
13 DET 1:05	14 MIL 7:35	15 MIL 7:35	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 NY 1:05

Away ■ Home

TV GAMES ON
WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

FUTONS

FREE DELIVERY
776-9429
360 Mystic Avenue
Somerville, MA

THE Futon Outlet

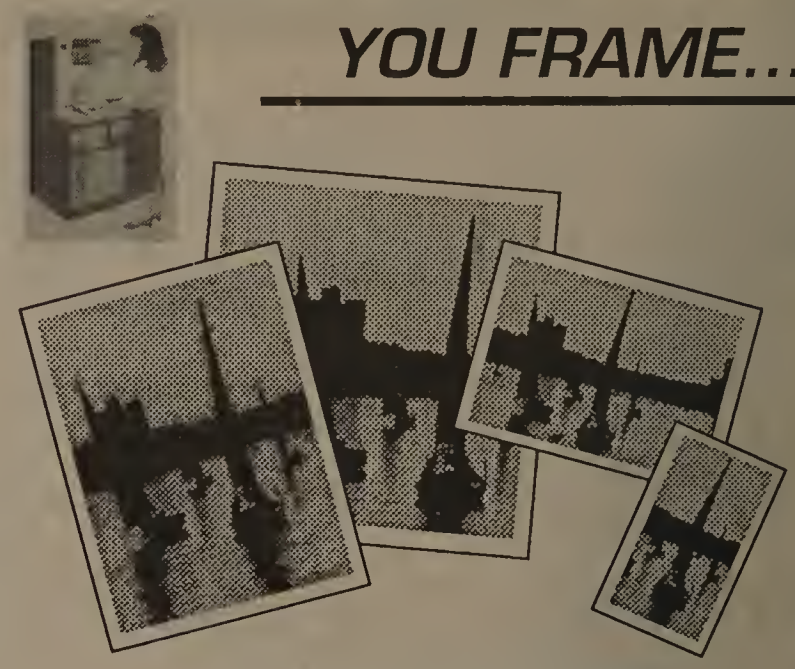
For The Best Deal In Town
*Ask About Our Student Specials

SPRITZ
SELTZER HOME DELIVERY

- ◆ Sodium Free, 0 Calories.
- ◆ Seltzer in original old-fashioned spritzer bottles
- ◆ No more carrying heavy bottles
- ◆ No recycling problems - Easy on the Earth.
- ◆ Never goes flat - Fizz to the bottom of the bottle

Call now to arrange delivery to your home or business.
Spritz Seltzer Company
1-800-698-2771 ◆ (617) 739-2770 ®

The Quality of Your Life is Important to Us



- Is stress holding you back?
- Would you likethe energy you had when you were younger?
- Our clinic is committed to helping you reach optimal health and fitness.

Complimentary classes:
Breaking the Cycles of Stress
- Saturday September 12th, 4pm
- Monday September 21st, 7pm

Relaxation Techniques
- Saturday September 19th, 4pm

Please call to reserve space in our classes and for more information.
Newton Chiropractic Centre
Dr. Robin Bruck Dr. Julie Burke
964–3336

YOU ZOOM
YOU CROP
YOU FRAME...

YOU MAKE BIGGER PRINTS
YOURSELF IN MINUTES
IN OUR STORE

Quality Photofinishing

Brookline 1 Hr. Photo
617-566-1261
2 Brookline Place
Brookline, MA 02146

Cheers.

Beer Bar
BEST The Commonwealth Brewing Company, 138 Portland St., Boston. Brewed to perfection, your mugs won't stay full for long.

Cheap Date
BEST The Commonwealth Brewing Company, 138 Portland St., Boston. Good bands, good food and no cover with dinner.

Winner of two 1992 Improper Bostonian Awards.
The Commonwealth Brewing Company
Boston's Original Restaurant/Brewery
138 Portland Street (617) 523-8383

Open 7 days a week for lunch and dinner.

D

Don't forget to ask about their everchanging daily specialties—the highlights of their menu.

Pronto
464 Thames St., Newport, R.I. (401) 847-5251
MC/V $$$
Enjoy Italian and continental cuisine among fresh flowers and great music in charming Newport. This elegant European-style bistro serves lunch daily 11:30 - 4 pm. Dinner is served 5 - 10:30 pm Monday through Thursday and 5:30 -11 pm on weekends. Fine wines are available by the glass and for the months of August and September, breakfast will be served 8 am - 12 pm on weekends.

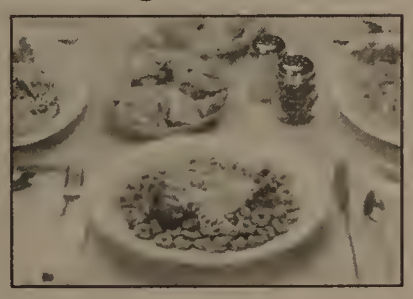
Sienna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC, V, A $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary situated in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston.

Sorento's
86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC, V, D $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

Spasso Italia Cafe & Bar
160 Commonwealth Ave, Boston
536-8656
AMEX, V, MC, D, CB $$
Spasso is Italian for fun - in Boston, it also means great food. We've captured the flavor and excitement of Italy and have brought it fresh to you. With its comfortable casual decor and tucked-away location, the restaurant "is one place for diners to eat both outdoors and in private." (Best of Boston awards issue, The Improper Bostonian) The Back Bay's largest outdoor cafe has been redecorated with rows of beautiful flowers which surround the discriminating diner. So join us for lunch, brunch or dinner under the stars at Spasso!

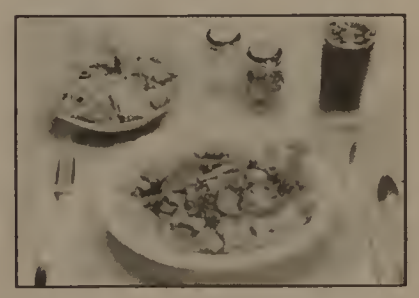
'92 New England Patriots Schedule

HOME GAMES:	AWAY GAMES:
August 14 San Diego Chargers 7:05 pm	September 6 Miami Dolphins 4 pm
September 20 Seattle Seahawks 1 pm	September 13 L.A. Rams 4 pm
September 27 Buffalo Bills 1 pm	October 4 New York Jets 8 pm
October 11 San Francisco 49ers 1 pm	November 1 Buffalo Bills 1 pm
October 25 Cleveland Browns 4 pm	November 14 Indianapolis Colts 1 pm
November 8 New Orleans Saints 1 pm	November 29 Atlanta Falcons 1 pm
November22 New York Jets 4 pm	December 13 Kansas City Chiefs 1 pm
December 6 Indianapolis Colts 1 pm	December 20 Cincinnati Bengals 1pm
December 22 Miami Dolphins 1 pm



WATCH HOSPITAL Jewelers
*BEST OF BOSTON
OVER 30 YEARS OF SALES & SERVICE
IT'S TIME WE START WATCHING YOU!
20% OFF
Pulsar • Citizen • Noblia • Casio
Bring this ad and receive an additional 5% Off
• Batteries and minor repairs done while you wait
• Student Discounts
537 Comm Ave, Kenmore Sq 617-859-0064
(inside Opticus Opticians)
40 Bromfield Street, Boston 617-542-8332

International Specialty Foods
• Stuffed Grape Leaves-Dammus • Tabouleh • Baba Gannoui • Cheorog • Daily Fresh Lamejun • Arm. Pallavah
Eastern Lamejun Bakers
• Coffee Beans • Spices • Nuts • Grains • Pastries • Cheese • Dry Fruits • and Much More.
Middle Eastern Gourmet Grocer • 145 Belmont St, Belmont
617-484-5239 • est. 1942



SIENNA'S
Pizzeria & Ristorante
Come Dine with us in our Friendly and with Great Italian Food

Casual Atmosphere

214 Lincoln Street,
corner of Kneeland Street
426-6665 Full Service Delivery
Dinner Served Mon–Sat, 5pm–11pm; Lunch 11am–3pm.

Crashing the Party in Normaltown Tonight

The B-52's Offer Some of Their Good Stuff

BY MAUREEN BLANDINO AND REY ROLDAN

"Music has the power to induce a deep shift in consciousness and, on a large scale, you think this could effect change," says bassist Keith Strickland of the irrepressibly fun band, the B-52's. While other New Wave bands like Missing Persons, Talking Heads and Flock of Seagulls have gone the way of the brontosaurus, the B-52's have evolved mammalian-style, picking up new vestiges and talents while still dragging the party favors along like a scaly, reptilian tail. What's changed the most in their music is not the structure of the instrumentals, but the message within.

Tell It Like It T-I Is

When Strickland, Kate Pierson, sibs Ricky and Cindy Wilson and Fred Schneider released their Warner Bros. self-titled debut in 1979, the focus of the Sixties mindset combined with the goofiness of Seventies fashion proved to be mind altering enough to shatter everyone's conception of pop music. The aquatic surrealism of "Rock Lobster" kept critics bobbing for labels, something that's evaded the B's forever, while the retro-dance steps of "Dance This Mess Around" kept the club-babies smack happy. Album after album kept them fooling around with topics such as butterbeans, conterfeiting, wild potatoes and wigs, but the serious topics kept escaping them. Then, disaster struck. Ricky died of AIDS in 1985.

Something Good Can Happen...

The last album on which Ricky appeared, Bouncing Off the Satellites, wasn't among their best. Romantic, introspective and not as bouncy and absurd as the earlier releases, it didn't fare so well in the market. So, as a healing period, the B's took a few years off from the scene and became one with the universe and (as Keith states in "Song for a Future Generation") tried "to find the essence from within." The result? Cosmic Thing thrusted them back into the party atmosphere with hippy shakin', politically correct pop gems. "Love Shack" catapulted them into Top 40 and they scored phenomenally with a new crowd that probably never even heard "Rock Lobster."

"Some people still think of us as a new band," chimes Fred. "They forget that our music is accessible. It came from left field, but the real problem was that when we started out, Top 40 radio was so right field - make that wrong field."

With the massive success of Cosmic Thing, the band headed off for a lengthy tour that weighed heavily toward record sales, pushing the album into platinum status, but also weighed heavily on Cindy. She decided that she needed a break and left the band in March 1991.

She Brakes for Rainbows

The parting was friendly and, as far as everyone is concerned, not definitely permanent. "We'd finished the Cosmic Thing tour, and [Cindy] knew that if she did another record, she'd be committing herself to another tour," explains Keith.

"Say I've gone chasing a rainbow," replies a tired Cindy. "I'd been a B-52 for a long time, and it just felt like time for a change. I really want to move closer to my family in Georgia, and just lay back."

Some say that the B-52's should've called it quits after a pivotal member like Cindy left, but those who remained saw it differently. "Keith and Fred and I still really wanted to continue," replies Kate. "Cindy's absence made us take a new approach. Our rapid-fire three-way vocals evolved into a back-and-forth dialogue between Fred and me, and that worked out great. I loved the challenge of doing the harmonies myself. It is different, but it still sounds like the B-52's."

The Summer of Love

The B's emerged from the coccoon early summer with Good Stuff and the new three-piece took off. With rave reviews across the board, it marked not only a comeback from the loss of a central member but also a major increase in social awareness. "We focus on AIDS organizations, environmental concerns and animal rights," Kate says. "Music changes people, and people can change the world. We want to show it can be fun to try and change the world."

"Our messages have gotten more overt than they were in the past," segues Fred. "We've turned up the volume on our rage - we're saying the things that we feel we need to say," splices Keith. "Here we are in 1992 and our institutions are completely out of sync with nature. Are we going to continue the way things have been or are we going to realign ourselves with our true selves and with nature?"

"We're out there to entertain people," says Fred (remembering the original motive of the B-52's), "but it's great to get people thinking and dancing at the same time." ❑

Fred Schneider, Kate Pierson and Keith Strickland - The B-52's

The B-52's

Appearing at Great Woods Saturday, September 5 with Special Guests: The Violent Femmes

An American Romantic

Hariett Schock Steps into the Spotlight

BY JANIS REED

The piano on Side Two comes in with sensitivity, and the elegant sound of crystal clear ivory vibrations . . . it's this writer/singer's most famous tune: "Ain't No Way to Treat a Lady." I've not stopped playing this tape since it arrived last week. My only qualm with the five star record (a true masterpiece) is why put two great songs together in a suite? A fax to veteran producer Nik Venet (Linda Ronstadt, Jim Croce, the Beach Boys, etc. etc. etc.) gets Janis on the phone with not only Nik, but through the miracle of conference calling, Harriet Schock herself!

Having written film soundtrack songs for diverse companies as Motown (Berry Gordy's Last Dragon) and Walt Disney (the second Little Mermaid album), Harriet is a major figure behind the scenes. As Carole King emerged writing pop hits for many artists in the 60's to become the singer/songwriter of the 70's, Schock has produced an album which should catapult her from the prestigious position of 80's film score person to 90's writer/singer.

"I felt earlier versions of 'Ain't No Way to Treat a Lady' displayed only the anger," Harriet explained. "The inclusion of 'One Time Lover' shows the other side of the love affair." [Paraphrased. Janis isn't as quick with the tape recorder as she used to be!] Well, "Lady" is such a powerful song, lyrically, structurally and melodically . . . it's one of those rare events in pop music, like "Hey Jude" or "Ruby Tuesday" or "Hey Girl" (Carole King's version) - perfectly crafted pop songs immaculate in construction and performance, that the fan in me feels they are sacred territory, not to be tampered with.

"One Time Lover," being powerful in itself, makes putting the two together a venturous, almost risky move - perfectly in sync with the artistic statement that "American Romance" makes. It would have been nice to analyze the other tunes while I had Harriet on the phone but, since many things escape a writer when they appreciate an artist, perhaps it's best my first impressions go to paper. We'll save the analyzations for an interview with the author.

And author is a good word because from the very first track, "OK, You Win, I Give Up (You're Right, I'm Gone)," the piano and the voice move you through the story like a good romance novel.

(continued on following page)

m

PSYCHOCANDY

Boston's Drop Nineteens Aren't Too Proud To "Pop"

BY DAVID DALEY

A post-modern teenaged girl stands alone outside a run-down barbershop on Main Street in Middle America, looking both innocent and world-wise (wearing her nothing-to-do, nowhere-to-go face). It's an expression and scene so compelling that the gun in her hand goes almost unnoticed. An album cover rarely captures the spirit contained within as forcefully as this portrait on the debut of Boston's Drop Nineteen's Delaware (Caroline). Drop Nineteens go beyond merely contrasting feedback with pop sensibilities; they make melody out of noise, noise out of melody and, in the process, celebrate and challenge every traditional expectation associated either with Top 40 or college radio. Consider it ear "psychocandy."

Delaware's unique stamp comes from the band's loving embrace of the early 80's Top 40 songs they grew up with, and their willingness to confess to a pop sweet tooth, even now that their tastes are more inclined to the Jesus and Mary Chain, Teenage Fanclub and Dinosaur Jr.

"Most people are just afraid to admit it," grinned lead singer/songwriter Greg Ackell. "Some people go to the '60s to find their musical roots," he said, alluding to bands like Teenage Fanclub and Ride, who have confessed their respective adulation for Big Star and the Byrds. "I never did that. I'm willing to give into the pop culture I grew up with. For some reason that's not valid, and I don't agree with that at all."

One manifestation of Ackell's pop culture addiction is "Ease It Halen," which blends a bubblegum chorus about listening to the radio in the summertime with his mumblings of Van Halen song titles. They wrap those verses around a minimalist structure of single guitar chords that burst, echo and explode like fireworks. "It's actually Satanic chants being played backwards," laughs singer and guitarist Paula Kelley. Besides Ackell and Kelley, the band is rounded out by guitarist Motohiro Yasue, drummer Chris Roof and the only non-Boston University student, bassist Steve Zimmerman.

Just bring on the dancing adjectives because Delaware is drenched from start to finish in such memorable musical adventures. They recently completed a video for "Winona," their first single - a pure adrenaline rush of a song about space aliens who have run out of stars on their planet, come to Earth in search of celebrities and ultimately fixate on Winona Ryder.

Perhaps Delaware's highlight though is "My Aquarium," a duet between Ackell and Kelley that he wrote as a tug of war between two sides of his mind. "I think most people like it because it's a cool little, cheezy boy-girl ballad, which is cool with us," Ackell said. "It's as good a reason as any."

"And you can hear the words," Roof pointed out laughing.

Nowhere is the band's mastery of pop dynamics more evident than on their cover of Madonna's "Angel," which buoyantly swells and swoons along on a blissful waterbed of melody and noise, twisted together like a cruller. "People think we're making fun of Madonna, and that's a real big misconception about this band," explained Ackell. "That's an incredible song and we just wanted to do our variation on it."

Chris Roof, Paula Kelley, Greg Ackell, Motohiro Yasue and Steve Zimmerman are the Drop Nineteens

Now the Drop Nineteen's have also done their own variation of the classic hit "young local band make it big." Delaware sits ahead of the Cure and Jesus and Mary Chain on the college radio charts, even though the band has yet to really play many live shows nationwide (they opened several of Chapterhouse's U.S. dates earlier this year), or ever play out in their hometown (they will play Boston this fall when their American and British tour begins). [They played their first Boston gig at Paradise two weeks ago. -Ed.]

"It will just make it all the better when we finally do play," Kelley argues. "Nobody will show up is what will happen. For all intents and purposes, we don't exist," laughs Ackell, before getting serious. "I really respect people who play Boston years on end. That's not the way we did it."

Ackell did not even send copies of the band's demo tapes to American labels originally, opting instead to target independent British labels like Creation and dedicated that house European bands with a similar guitar-based approach. A British music press feeding frenzy ensued, since British listeners had never heard this sort of European-styled guitar swell emanating from the states before, and then American interest was suddenly piqued. Don't call them overnight sensations though.

"It took a year for us to work out which deal we wanted to sign," insists Ackell. "Yeah, but it only took weeks for us to get interest," Kelley reminds him.

The college junior who negotiated his way through the music industry while taking a full course load at BU (English, not Business), shrugs. "We were just lucky. We really don't know what we're doing," he insists. ❑

HOT TICKETS

GREAT WOODS

Wednesday, Sept. 2
Joe Cocker
The Neville Brothers
$25.00

Tues.-Weds. Sept. 15-16
Elton John
$27.50 & $35.50

Saturday, Sept. 5
The B-52s
Violent Femmes
$17.50-$23.50

885 SOUTH MAIN STREET (RTE 140) MANSFIELD, MA
1-508-339-2333; BUSINESS OFFICE 1-508-339-0002

CAPE COD MELODY TENT

Wednesday, Sept. 2
Smokey Robinson
8pm
$27.00

Sunday, Sept. 6
Olivia Newton-John
8pm
$35.00

Saturday, Sept. 5
The Smothers Brothers
Yakov Smirnoff
8pm
$26.00

23 WEST MAIN STREET HYANNIS, MA 02601
1-508-775-9100; BUSINESS OFFICE 1-508-775-5630

HARIETT SCHOCK (CONTINUED)

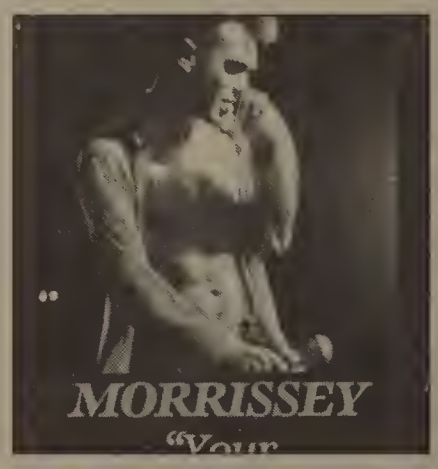
Harriet's great with opening lines: "If I can get this old pen to write/ I'll get it all written down tonight." And her lines throughout the song get even more intense (". . . this heart's still trying to take your side/and so I turn off the light/to drive the memories away").

Hariett Schock

When I received an advance copy of this recording, I thought producer Nik Venet had been too lean. I was wrong in retrospect. This is an amazing record by one of the great masters of songs. As Jimmy Page and Buddy Guy are adept on the guitar, Harriet Schock is in complete control of lyric, composition and melody.

Venet, sensing this, skillfully exhibits equal command of the direction of this record. Essays on all his work will not be able to convey the elegance of his 'less is more' production of Harriet's American Romance. I've listened to this record over and over again, and more than "reviewing" it and trying to convince others that I've found a real gem of a performance, the highest compliment I can give this work is that I know I will continue to receive hours of pleasure listening to it nonstop. ❑

If you can't find this recording at The Coop, Tower or the usual outlets, write to Godsdog Records, 520 Washington Blvd., Marina del Rey, CA 90292.



HOTLINE TO THE UNDERGROUND

BY JANIS REED

J. Geils re-emerges! He's been seen onstage with The Blood Street Band (named after a real street), a group that includes Kevin Visnaskas, guitarist in Eastwood Peak (1976!), and brother to Pure & Easy Records president John Visnaskas. Pure & Easy released discs by Gary Shane, The Reflectors and many others. Blood Street have been seen at The Groton Inn with Danny Klein (bassist for J. Geils) and Magic Dick (harp) time and again... J. played guitar with Blood Street at the new club Wharfields at the Peabody Marriot on August 14th. Producer Rob Fraboni (Clapton, Joe Cocker, Bonnie Raitt) was seen in the audience... Hmmm... What's going on?... Turbulent Daughters have been causing a stir from the Middle East to the North Shore. Managed by Attorney Roland Regan, who has handled Sports stars in the past (and present)... Dionne Warwick and Black Sabbath played on the same night in town! Darn! My two favorite acts - doesn't anyone believe in solid double-bills anymore?... Two Beats for the price of one! The Beat magazine, created and named by I.B. staffer Mickey O'Halloran and pretty much destroyed by "Editor" Michael Hill, and The Beat Nightclub in Danvers both folded in the month of August. Like The Go Go's who sang "We Got the Beat," the mag and the club went went... Mickey O'Halloran may be the new manager of Celebrations at The Kenmore Club in Kenmore Square... Mickey brought Aerosmith, The New York Dolls, Steam (Na Na Hey Hey Kiss Him Good-Bye), Bruce Springsteen and many others into town in the early 70's... With half of the Dolls dead and Aerosmith so huge, it looks like there won't be any reunions happening there! Maybe a Steam reunion!!!... But the sensational T. Chenel will be playing there on her birthday! Sept. 6 will see T. Chenel, Schoolboy and other local rappers/singers celebrating her turning 21. She's legal now, watch out! T. Chenel sang in Michael Bolton's choir at Great Woods on August 15; she also backed up Kathy Tricolli at the KISS party at Great Woods... so on Tuesday Nights at The Peabody Marriot, my friend Ed McMann from KISS 108 does his bikini contest... Does his wife know?... 2 Unlimited were seen at Stars on Route 1 recently. The European duo is signed to the Woburn-based Critique Records... Also at Stars is the band quickly becoming Boston's biggest drawing group Fortune. These guys have to be seen to be believed. Bob Vose is the front man, and talk about a dance card getting filled, the girls line up for Bobby... If Janis was a little younger, maybe. But God knows, I'm almost as old as Wharfield, McMann, Oedipus, Lacquidara and Sunny Joe. No one is as old as those guys!!!... certainly not One Eyed Jake, the band that played SO WELL at The Big Gig at Great Woods, August 1 along with 79 other bands including The Tears, High Noon, Forty Thieves, Lord Grey (formerly Martial Law), The Verdict, The Cinch, Play Rough, Creative Force, Flesh and many other Boston groups... It's now in The Guinness Book of World Records, along with Bob Duteau and John Inomorato, the organizers... Bruce Marshall Group continue to play their stylish, jazz influenced rock. Produced by Paul Hornsby (no relation to Bruce; he produced all the Marshall Tucker albums that went Gold & Platinum, as well as Charlie Daniels & The Dixie Dregs), Bruce was in Toy Caldwell's group (Ex-Marshall Tucker songwriter/vocalist), but don't confuse the name dropping. BMG (Bruce Marshall Group) are hip Steely Dan-ish adult rock... Q-36 (with Brian Rorke, formerly of The Phaze) got played on both WFNX and WCGY 8/23/92... Carmelita at WAAF could make it a hat trick!... Suzanne Tonaire at Pixie on the Cape is interviewing 40 Thieves... ❑

Janis wrote for Musician's Magazine from 1979-1984 and The Beat from 1984-1985. HOTLINE TO THE UNDERGROUND has kept the Boston community informed on all the Boston Music happenings.

ALBUM REVIEWS

Morrissey
Your Arsenal
Reprise Records

These days, Morrissey has been in a position few could have even imagined during his tenure with the Smiths. Time was when even pairing his name with the words "disappointing" or "inept" in the same sentence was impossible. As leader of the Smiths (and sometimes solo), Morrissey's penchant for dark humor, teen angst and sharp irony made him the pop poet of the 80's. Unfortunately, the dim self-parody Kill Uncle proved how he may never regain the poetic grip he once had, but Your Arsenal, Mozzer's third solo affair, finally has the celibate vegetarian moving in the right musical directions.

Much of the credit goes to producer (and ex-Bowie sidekick) Mick Ronson and guitarist Alain Whyte, whose sonic ammunition - powerhouse guitars, 70's glam-laced rock and grabbing hooks - makes this arsenal all the more dangerous. And Morrissey's lyrics retain much of their bite; the best of these is "Seasick, Yet Still Docked," a slow, piercing, plaintive number in which a subdued Moz bleats, "I wish I had the charm to attract the one I love/But, you see, I've got no charm." Old fans can take a trip down memory lane on another gem, "We'll Let You Know," whose Marr-esque melody (dare I say it?) recalls the Smiths circa 1985. And nods of approval are in order for "The National Front Disco" and the new single "Tomorrow," two solid rockers. But the sluggish rockabilly "Certain People I Know" and the last single "We Hate It When Our Friends Become Successful," a decent song searching for good lyrics, threaten to drag the disc into the realms of mediocrity. But they hardly tarnish this solid, if flawed, disc.

-Richard Williams

Rachmaninoff:
Suites Nos. 1&2;
Symphonic Dances
Martha Argerich, Piano;
Alexandre Rabinovitch, Piano
Teldec

Though better known as an orchestral piece, the Symphonic Dances were also set in an arrangement for two pianos by Rachmaninoff and were first performed by him in partnership with Vladimir Horowitz. What is most revealing about his alternate setting is how well it translates to two pianos, illustrating that Rachmaninoff the pianist was never very far removed from Rachmaninoff, the composer. (Much the same can be said of Brahms, whose four-hand reductions of his four symphonies indicate their pianistic origins.) In all three works on this generously-filled CD, Argerich and Rabinovitch offer crisp, clean readings, informed by a consummate level of virtuosity that yields to the music's essence rather than to self-indulgent pyrotechnics. This release may not gain the widespread media hype that a good many less worthy releases do, but it is one of the finest instrumental programs to have been issued this year. Argerich and Rabinovitch can also be heard in a first-rate performance of the late Olivier Messiaen's Vision de l'Amen on EMI. As for the earlier mentioned Brahms symphonies, a cycle by this duo would be most welcome.

-Steven D. Brown

Rusty Kershaw
Now & Then
Domino Records

Sixty-four years after his birth in the swamps of Louisiana, Rusty Kershaw's latest work shows no sign of aging. Now & Then is a jumbalaya of Cajun, rock, blues and country music. This album's sound is raw and naturalistic. Though the songs are very clear and well-recorded, the piece has a live sound to it. If you drift while listening, you might think Rusty is playing on your porch or that you borrowed someone's bootleg Grateful Dead tape. That is not to say that Now & Then sounds like a Dead bootleg. . . at least not during every song.

East/West artists (the subdudes) accompany Kershaw on the album, which appropriately, is a reflection of its 'subdued' sound. The other dudes on the album are anything but 'sub,' namely Neil Young and Art Neville (yes, one of the Neville Brothers). The strongest track, the bluesy "I Like to Live on the Bayou," features Young playing a pulsating nasal drone on his harmonica that hovers around Kershaw's Dobro guitar plucking. It captures some fundamental Cajun blues that can hold its own without being over-inflated by English musicians.

The album as a whole travels slowly but steadily. It's not for metalheads, but for blues/country fans who'll relish its gradual unfolding. Deadheads may grab up this album, as well as Neil Young fans.

Producer (and founder of the new Domino label) Rob Fraboni's grass-roots approach to presenting such raw talent is refreshing. There aren't too many labels interested in artists like Kershaw whose music is a foundation upon which to build.

If you're trying to take a break from the technopop and harsh pings of electronic music, put Now & Then into your system and let its moods and textures whisk you away.

-Zachary Simmons

FREE BOSTON

A GUIDE TO FREE AND DISCOUNT ACTIVITIES IN THE BOSTON AREA

CONCERTS

CAMBRIDGE BREWING CO.
1 Kendall Sq., Building 100, Cambridge
Have a beer and catch some tunes at the free Saturday Night Music Series.

COMMONWEALTH BREWERY
Portland St., Boston
Live Reggae and Calypso music every Fri. and Sat. 9:30 to 1:00am, no cover with dinner.

NEW ENGLAND CONSERVATORY
290 Huntington Ave., Boston
Karen Lee gives a free violin recital Sept. 16 in Jordan Hall at 8pm. Program includes works by Paganini, Mozart, Bach and Debussy.

EXHIBITS

BOSTON UNIVERSITY
Mugar Memorial Library, 771 Comm. Ave., 353-3728
"It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" is now on display. Admission is free. The library's hours are Monday-Thursday 8am to 11pm, Friday and Saturday 8am to 5pm, and Sunday 10am to 11pm.

For you star-gazers out there, the BU Astronomy Department hosts open observatory nights at 8:30pm every Wednesday that's clear. Call 353-2630 if the weather looks questionable. Entrance is at 705 Comm. Ave., take the elevator to the fifth floor.

MIT MUSEUM
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, 253-4444
For only a $2 donation, visitors can explore many wonderful exhibits that you don't have to be a rocket scientist to appreciate. First, there's "Crazy After Calculus: Humor at MIT," which chronicles some of the best college pranks ever committed. For the more science-minded, there's "MathSpace," a hands-on exploration of geometry that lets you tinker with math playthings.

FILMS

BILL'S BAR
Lansdowne St., Boston
Every Monday night Bill's hosts Monday Night Movie Madness. SRS Films shows independent films and music videos before the evening's featured film. Films start at 9pm. Admission is free, along with the popcorn.

PERFORMING ARTS SERIES AT THE HATCH SHELL
On the Esplanade, Boston
Sept. 6 at 12pm enjoy the sounds of Makoto Takenaka's jazz, while for more alternative-minded people WFNX brings you They Might Be Giants on Sept. 12 at 2pm. For dance aficionados, there is a swing dance exhibition Sept. 11 at 7:30pm and a ballroom dance exhibition Sept. 12 at 7:30pm. Admission to all events is free. As with all events at the Hatch Shell, please take the T since parking is limited on Storrow Drive. Also, inclement weather may cancel or postpone these events; call 727-5215 for updates.

SPECIAL EVENTS

FANEUIL HALL BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION
Faneuil Hall, Boston
To celebrate the 250th anniversary of America's "Cradle of Liberty," Faneuil Hall will have its grand reopening Sept. 10-12 after one-and-a-half years of restoration.

MDC INTER-CELTIC FESTIVAL
at the Hatch Shell, Esplanade
The MDC hosts the 5th annual Inter-Celtic Festival Sept. 5 at 6pm.

ITALIAN SPORTS CAR FESTIVAL
North End, Quincy Market
The first annual Italian Sports Car Festival will be held Sept. 13 from 10am to 5pm with a display of approximately 150 rare and one-of-a-kind Italian cars, with a value estimated at $20 million. The cars will be on view at Quincy Market, the Bostonian Hotel at Dock Square, Paul Revere Park in the North End and Christopher Columbus/Waterfront Park.

TOURS

BOSTON GARDEN
North Station, Boston, 227-3206
The Boston Garden History Center is offering guided tours about 45 minutes long that include a tour of the parquet, banners, and team locker room. Prices are $5 for adults, $3.50 for children and $4 for senior citizens and students.

COMMONWEALTH BREWING CO.
138 Portland St., Boston
The Brewing Co. holds free tours on Saturdays at 3:30pm and Sundays at noon.

SAMUEL ADAMS BREWERY
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
On Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm, the brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a $1 contribution is requested.

READINGS

WATERSTONE'S BOOKSELLERS
Newbury St. at Exeter, Boston
Ron Hansen reads from his book Mariette in Esctasy on Sept. 15 and Paul Auster, author of Music of Chance and New York Trilogy, reads from his new novel Leviathan. Both readings take place at 7pm and are free.

MAGAZINES BY JOSEPH

"WE BUY & SELL USED MAGAZINES"

279 Newbury Street
Boston, MA 02116

GQ
Life
Elle
Vogue
Forbes
Foreign Gourmet
Antiques
Rolling Stones

Why pay full price for your favorite magazines?
Reasonable Prices - "the best buy in Back Bay"
New issues coming in everyday....

Hours: Open Seven days a week 11 - 6:30

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Feel the urge to unleash your frustrations or vent your hostilities on an unsuspecting friend or enemy? Look no further than the Improper Impersonals, a forum designed for pranksters, irate neighbors, relatives, maniacs or any would-be target of your acid tongue. Best of all they're FREE! Send your Impersonals to us at Improper Impersonals, The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146. Or fax it to us at 232-4305.

Mary, We love ya and we all miss ya! Don't forget us. -Your friends in Boston, especially the one you lived with.

Hi to Fred, Bernie, IRA (aka FBI) and J. Edgar! Hope to see you soon at the Beach Club, I miss you guys! -Kathy

Barbecue-T, I don't know why they call it sleeping OVER! I'm glad I installed the chandeliers! -Gepetto

Hey Jim- Who's gonna taste your sloppy wet kisses ? Who's gonna love you as good as I? -Chris

Hey Cockroach, You venomous guttersnipe! Try another stunt like that and I'll put your lights out!! -Raid

Hey Miss America, what you gonna do? I'd like to tell you that I'm in love with you! Let's get married, stay together 'til we're old and grey. Besides, who else would pay for your tummy tuck, face lift and liposuction!? -Davey Doos

Dan, Duh, No No Duh, No Really Duh -Randster

Mary, You'll get yours someday -(What goes around comes around)- you unspeakable bitch! -The Head Hunter

Tall Man: All we're doin' is havin' a little java and suddenly you're as cold as an ice sculpture! What's your problem anyway? This act is boring!! Get over it! Smartin' up or you'll be walkin' tall, but alone... -Dynasty, Annie and Eva

Prince Charming- for (;;) cout "I love you." end l: -Your object

Dear Beatrice ("B") Maybe I could use a facelift, but a fork lift wouldn't help you!! Yours truly, Arlie

Cedric, You're a decent guy and a good friend ....and you work very hard and all that. It's just that ....well....well.... YOU ARE EVIL AND MUST BE DESTROYED!

Hurry up with the thesis - the world is in dire need of another Robust Nonlinear Control Methodology.
- Your officemate, Dino

Bonnie, I think you're so AWESOME!! Thank you for the picture. I hope you get the job in Tokyo. You deserve it because you are a WINNER! -Doll Face

Rat Arms, From what I hear, sounds like you should have joined in on the Chicken Out idea. How's the new babe?

Teri..Um..Smith (Yeah, that's it!) I want my money and clothes. Please wash them . (I've heard about your hygiene problem) - Sweetwater Gal

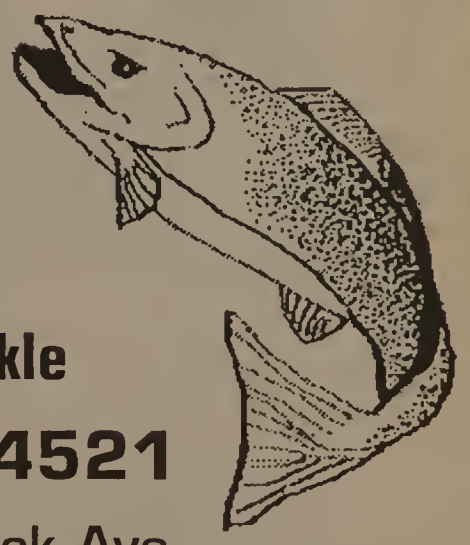
P.S. What are you doing for money NOW? P.S.S. We're still looking for you.

"To the redhead at Brookline Photo, You are exquisite - but would be even more so if you smiled back at me even once. I hope the roll of film I brought in on the 19th made you smile. (That is my body you saw). I'll bring in more pictures like that if it would make you mine. -a well-endowed customer."

To my anal retentive boy....Forever is doable, but only if you wear a helmet, so your beautiful head doesn't get squished! -Jr

Terry Proksch Normal people vacation in florida....

Clancy, Please don't leave me you spotted fountain of cream. Who will give methe loving and licking that wakes me up in the morning. Sporting Some Pink, Beauj



To the undercover Worcester Police, Why go after the little men who try to sell one or two concert tickets at the Centrum when the streets are filled with murderers, rapists and thieves ? -The guys who sat in jail for four-and-a-half hours dreaming of Bruce Springsteen and waiting for the bail bondsman to show up.

McKenzie, Screw real jobs, let's move to Seattle and start a glam-rock band! I heard you've got the connections. Love, Sybie

Lee Locker You're how old?.... So is that fancy new mail the only exciting thing to do in Minneapolis? No, dealing with the goofy staff at the Tannery is!

Edwards Fishing Tackle

Live and Frozen Bait

Both Salt and Fresh Water Rods, Reels and Terminal Tackle

401-846-4521

36 Aquidneck Ave.
Middletown, RI

Located near Newport's 1st Beach

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week.There's never a cover and the dress is casual.Diverse crowd.On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside.

•ALLEY CAT451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat.Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar.Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney intluenced decor.Live bands on Wednesdays.Expect a short line, but its worth the wait.No cover.

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. While primarily a college bar, this attractive, friendly pub has become known as a popular sports bar that offers something for everyone.The bottom floor features dancing, satellite T.V.'s, digital sound system, full service kitchen; top floor features pool tables.Entertainment includes karaoke, college nights, Happy Hours, pool/dart leagues, and live reggae.Call for details.Minimal cover. .

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment.With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd.Kitchen's open daily.Casual attire.Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden.No cover and no dress code.Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers. .

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good food and drink at a good price.20 oz. drafts for $2!!!The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at thiscolossal dance club.Music varies nightly.Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, placid lounge, and intimate booths.Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town.The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable.Cover charge varies.Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required.Great place to see live shows.Sun. night is gay night.

Wed 2nd.--Wed 9th.--P.I.L.Fri 11th.--The Special Beat Sat 12th.-- Mon 14th.--The Spindoctors Tue 15th.--Concrete Blond

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common.Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm.Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early.No jeans or collarless shirts.Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights.

Thur 3rd.--Lime Rockets Thur 10th.--5-0

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black).The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students.Moderate cover varies with the night.Creative dress suggested.

Wed 2nd.--Thur 3rd.-- Sat 5th.--Front Line AssemblyWed 9th.--Wasp

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall.Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar.Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you).The crowd is friendly and unpretentious.Thur.-Sat. college students abound.No cover.Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub isfrequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals.No cover.Casual dress.Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm.

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs.It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie.Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf.It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally.Casual and very relaxed.

Every Sun., Reggae Night .--Every Monday Movie Madness. SRS Films Producer Eric Yellin will show independent films and music videos before a feature film. Free admission and popcorn. Tue 8th.--Tue 15th.--The Pipes

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse.Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best.It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve.No cover. Live piano music Monday through Friday from 5-7.

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British.The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish.The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show.Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring!Moderate cover weekends.Casual dress.

Wed 2nd.--Wed.-Sat. Downstairs: Eugene Burn and Co. .--Every Thurs. Upstairs: Harvest HomeFri 4th.--Fri. and Sat. Upstairs: ShannonSun 6th.--Sun. and Mon. Downsatirs: Rich McDuff Mon 7th.--Tue 8th.--Tues.-Sat. Downstairs: Celtic ClanWed 9th.-- Fri 11th.--Fri. and Sat. Upstairs: Harvest HomeSun 13th.--Downstairs: Rich McDuffTue 15th.--

BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else?Harvard students and recent grads.Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia.In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio.Casual dress.Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price.

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe.Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals.The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel.No cover.Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A strong seaside theme prevails.Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis.The crowd is young and the music often live.There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

Wed 2nd.--The Shivers Thur 3rd.--The Bicycle Thieves Fri 4th.--The Modern Plaids .--Every Sat. D.J. AL Perez--Every Mon.,Silas Jr. & the Hot Rib Blues Jam Wed 9th.--The Stormdogs Thur 10th.--Delirians Fri 11th.--The RocketsTue 15th.--Mighty Charge

•BOSTON BILLIARD CLUB 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, thismodern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room.The crowd is a wide mix of ages and professions.Located just outside Kenmore Sq.Free pool lessons Mon. nights.Waiters bring drinks to your table.No cover.Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV.Enthusiastic crowd.No bandwagon fans here!No cover.Casual dress.Bruin players sometimes drop in.Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos. An active gay bar in the Fenway area.Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+.Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm.Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music.Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights..

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view of the harbor.The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people.With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment.No cover.Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq.A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks.No cover.Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people.One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts.No cover.Casual dress.Full menu.Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail!The TV show Cheers uses the doorway of the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else.Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere.Try it at least once.No cover.Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly.The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive.Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s).No dress code.

Wed 2nd.--Bad Rationale, Allston Bros. Band, Backlash Thur 3rd.-- Asa Brebner's Idle Hands, Xanna Don't and The Wanted, Wheelers and Dealers, Ragiron Fri 4th.--Fighting Cocks, De Sade, Bugsy Crunch, Gracie Sat 5th.-- Sun 6th.--Toast, Glass Culture -Every Mon., Pajama Jammy Blues Jam Tue 8th.--Outta Touch, OutbackWed 9th.--Webber Keith, Goodfoot, Duck and CoverThur 10th.--Tin Pan Alley, Joe Stump Fri 11th.--Miles Dethmuffin, Tacklebox, Crabadddy, Pluck Theatre Sat 12th.--In the Pink, Mystery Jones, Insult, Glorius UnionSun 13th.--John Monopoly, The Revolvers Tue 15th.--Atomic 61, Goldmouth, Slump

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here.The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo.A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks.Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.'No cover.Casual dress.

•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Porter, Tall Tale Pale Ale and Summertime Wheat Ale.Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals.No cover.Casual dress.Pub fare served.Live bands Sat. .Sat 5th.--Roadhouse Shrieks Sat 12th.--King Kane

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb. Central Square's much loved Blues/Jazz bar.Live music by local bands.Filled predictably with music lovers of all types.Moderate cover varies depending upon the night.Casual dress.A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian.Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next.Cover varies from moderate to heavy.Casual dress.Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week.Handicapped equipped.

•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot.DJ dance music Thur.-Sat.No cover.Casual dress.Full menu.Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm.Beware of long lines before and after Sox games.

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way?DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience.The crowd is young a mix of college students and other singles.Under 21s are admitted during the week.Moderate cover varies.No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes.

•CHAMPION'S 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave.,Bos. It's not just for sports fans.Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young professionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of professional athletics.No cover.Casual dress but no T-shirts.Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb. Coffeehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals.Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound.Music varies each night.Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun.Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.

Thur 3rd.--Julie Woods & Luko Adjafil Fri 4th.-- Acousticity Sat 5th.--Nancy L. Snyder & Jill Stein & Ken Slicer Sun 6th.--Singer/Songwriter NightThur 10th.--Maria Sanglolo Fri 11th.-- Laurie Goldsmiths Rodeo Kids & Jamie Morton Sat 12th.-- Rick Berlin & Matt York Sun 13th.--Ben Swift & Deby Pastenak

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists.Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds.Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer.Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae.Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

Wed 2nd.--Shawn and Jamie Thur 3rd.--Swingin' Johnsons Fri 4th.--Fri. and Sat., Enquiring Minds.--Every Sun., K[illegible]

Don't Get lost in Boston.

Lose yourself in a comfortable living room chair, a generous portion of food, a tall glass of beer and over 200 years of history.

At The Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends, who have found what can't be found anywhere else in the country:

212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:30-12:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00

Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30,
Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

b

The "Last Call" Lady

Dare to Do Joes

BY LAUREN DARE

Joe's American Bar & Grille, 279 Dartmouth Street 536-4200

Joe's is roaring on a Friday night, with both the restaurant and "quiet" bar upstairs, and the rowdy basement level bar/cafe packed. The downstairs bar has seemingly crammed more people than exist in the Third World into a space approximately the size of my bedroom (Wait, is this my bedroom? No way. I don't have bartenders in my bedroom, a fact that I consider to be a sore inconvenience). Anyway, it's kinda crowded, and the sweat is pouring off of people and the walls. Joe's downstairs bar has somehow discovered a method of creating the greenhouse effect on a small scale, adding to the plasma pool-like ambiance. But it's FUN. Hey, don't get me wrong; if I wanted to be alone, I would have stayed home and waxed my bikini line.

The upstairs and the downstairs bars at Joe's offer you a distinct choice in terms of atmosphere and crowd. Upstairs, jazz plays in the background, and the clientele tends to be older and better dressed (though not necessarily better behaved). Downstairs, the crowd is younger, sweatier and has a sort of glazed, hungry look while the jukebox booms out top 40 tunes. This is where the action is, so naturally, it's where I am.

Being on Newbury Street, and at one of the best locations on that street, Joe's has acquired a somewhat "upscale" reputation, and if you follow along with that reasoning, the drink prices and sizes are pretty much what you expect. It's not a dive and you won't find dollar draughts or ocean-sized Long Island Ice Teas, but the drinks are semi-reasonable ($3.50 for bar liquor, $3.75 for call liquor, $4.25 for Alabama Slammers), although $3.00 seems a lot to pay for Bud in a bottle. They do have some of those funky gimmicks like the Finlandia jars with the fruit in them, which, if you can convince a bartender to make you a little fruit cocktail, (I did) will rock your world, and they will serve shots up until 12:45am (last call). Joe's also offers bar appetizers such as spicy buffalo wings and potato skins - both of which can help sustain you through a grueling night of cocktailing.

The weekend bartenders at Joe's tend to be mostly men who frequently displayed the disturbing habit of serving women who displayed some cleavage, before even glancing at the average guys sitting across the bar from them. I, personally, was not too disturbed.

The ladies room at Joe's always seems to have a line, and more toilet paper on the floors than in the dispensers, and NO condom machines (Major Bad). Being unfamiliar with the men's room, I can't comment on it directly, but I could hear the alarming sound of someone being loudly and disgustingly sick in there while I was outside in the hallway (so I can't imagine that it held any more attractions than the ladies' room).

The crowd at Joe's, as anywhere, is the key criteria for determining how fun and/or successful your evening will be. It's a pretty mixed bunch, from the outrageously bimbo-ish to buttoned-up yuppie types, but in general, it's young and good looking. Some people do seem to be here with dates, but mostly there appears to be a ferocious amount of scamming going on. Joe's is definitely a place where one could meet Mr. or Ms. Right Now, so I spent a fair amount of time scanning the scene to pick out my most likely candidate, and opted for a tall, dark cutey who looked like he could give me a walk on the wild side. I derived some quality entertainment from our flirting, with those long, lingering looks that make you wonder whether a guy is wearing boxers or briefs (I am such a boxer woman). However, with my sterling reputation at stake, I decided that this was not the night to start a meaningful short term relationship, so I concentrated instead on getting the bartenders to pay lots of attention to me.

On my left were two guys who obviously hadn't scored a successful evening. They were making derogatory comments about the source of their miserable loneliness - the two women who had recently escaped to the other side of the bar. On my right was a very proper young lady who was telling this guy that she never wears underwear (quick, someone give me a million dollars to predict the outcome of their evening). I felt the warm glow that one gets from being surrounded by intellectual stimulation, and decided I had better make my exit before I became too over-adrenalized to resist Mr. Right Now, so I went home alone (but not before giving out my number to a guy who had, by all appearances, consumed a reservoir's worth of beverages, and insisted that I "looked jush like Shindy Crawford.")

How could I resist? ❑

Angela Wooldridge

Wales Mon 7th.--Steve Caraway Tue 8th.--Johnny's Secret Wed 9th.--Tim Crandall Thur 10th.--Swingin' Johnsons Fri 11th.--Fri. and Sat., Storm DogsSun 13th.--Mon 14th.--Chad LaMarsh Tue 15th.--Stone Blue

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students.Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down.Expect a line on weekends.No cover.Casual dress.Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands.Types of music vary like the weather.Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing.Moderate cover varies.Casual dress.

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen.It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types.Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform.Cover varies and is generally steep.The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances.

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos. Let no man thirst for the lack of real ale is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process.The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks.Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap including Burton's Bitter served at 52 degrees.Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds.Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples.$3 Cover.Have dinner here and the cover is free!.

Fri 4th.--Search Party Sat 5th.--Kirkland BodieFri 11th.--Poco Loco Sat 12th.--Diversity

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd.Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere.Basketball and video games too.Modest cover Thur.-Sat.Collared shirts are a must.

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona.The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti.Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months.

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars.The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors.No cover charge.Casual dress.

-Every Wed., Calypso Hurricane Thur 3rd.--Every Thur., Hamish and Dave Fri 4th.--Uptown Acapella Sat 5th.--Sat. and Sun. North Shore AcapellaMon 7th.--Every Mon., Hamish and Dave Tue 8th.--Every Tues., North Shore Acapella

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos. A restaurant on weekdays.A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends.The crowd varies from collegiate to professional.No cover.Dress is casual.You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make.A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call.No cover.Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time?This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia.The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere.Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music.The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+).No cover.Dress varies from casual to business wear.

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant.They serve monster portions of food.The crowd consists of students and young singles.It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place.No cover.Casual dress.

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall.The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles.Large-screen TV for game viewing.Jukebox music.No cover.Casual dress.More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs.

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul.Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays.Bands on Thur. and weekends.Modest cover charge on band nights.Dress is casual. .

Thur 3rd.--TransitFri 4th.--Heavy Metal Horns Sat 5th.--Chili BrothersMon 7th.-- Fri 11th.--Jimmy Rogers Sat 12th.--Satan and Adam

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun.Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered.Modest cover varies.Clothing is required. .

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon.Casual atmosphere that attracts all types.Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights.Modest cover on Sat. nights.No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches.

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists.Dance to DJ music on weekends.Moderate cover Fri. and Sat.Casual dress.Arrive early to beat the line.

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare.No cover or dress code.Jukebox for indoor entertainment.

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center.Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band.The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates.Modest cover on weekends.Casual dress.

-Every Wed., Karaoke Sat 5th.--The Odd Couple -Every Sun., DJ Chris.--Every Mon, Irish Sessiun Thur 10th.--ResponseSat 12th.--Standing Hamptons

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts.Harvard students eat, drink and live here.Some have chosen to move here after graduation.But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap.If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm).Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace.No cover.No dress code.

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights.The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified.One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room.(Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder)Cover varies.No dress code.Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy).

Wed 2nd.--and every Wed. Old and New Acoustic Night with Leo Thur 3rd.--Joe Lily and the Duke and the Drivers Reunion Fri 4th.--The Movers Sat 5th.-- The Blue Hornets Sun 6th.--and every Sun. Peter Tiftos Blues Party Wed 9th.--Thur 10th.--Kaos Fri 11th.--Catherine and The Greats Sat 12th.--Wildest Dreams

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music.Rock, Vocals, Blues.Moderate cover varies.Casual dress.

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline.Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur.Free buffet every Wed.- Fri.Also available for private functions.Valet parking.Free cover before 9pm.Proper dress.Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons.

BARS & CLUBS

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos. Sure it's trendy and sure it's touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince.Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway.

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly.Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night.Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor.Moderate cover varies depending on the act.Collared shirts are required.

Wed 2nd.--and every Wed., Open Mike Blues Jam Thur 3rd.--Mike Duke and the Soul Twisters Fri 4th.--Blue Heaven Sat 5th.--Boston Baked Blues Sun 6th.--And every Sun., Open Mike R&B Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 7th.--Stub Junkman Tue 8th.--And every Tues., Rockin Blues Jam with Chance GardnerThur 10th.--Bruce Marshall Group Fri 11th.--Heavy Metal Horns Sat 12th.--The Band that Time ForgotMon 14th.--Past Fires

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once.Look for pictures of friends on the walls.This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure.No cover.Casual dress..

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall.Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night.Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals.Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston.Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm..

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant.It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks.On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists.Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only.No cover.Casual dress.Full menu.

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes.Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early.No dress code. .

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut).Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specially breweddark beer.Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights.Free parking with dinner..

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play.Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement.Play to win or just play to play.Pub fare, beer and wine.No cover.Informal.

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond.Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks.A busy singles spot on weekends.No cover.Casual dress.Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm. .

•JOHNNY D'S776-9667, 17 Holland St. , Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc.The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals.Moderate cover varies depending on the act.Dress is casual.Tues. is acoustic night.Sun. is open Blues.Dancing..

Wed 2nd.--Ranch Romance Thur 3rd.--Blood Oranges Fri 4th.--Shirley Lewis Sat 5th.--Laurie Sargent Sun 6th.--And every Sun., Blues JamTue 8th.--Ed GerhardThur 10th.--Tribal TechFri 11th.--Lynn August and The Hot August Knights Sat 12th.--Del Fuegos Tue 15th.--Spider John Koerner

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele.Live entertainment weekly.Modest cover on Mondays only.No dress code. .

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub.Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale.Cover varies.No dress code..

Wed 2nd.--Tim Crandall Thur 3rd.--And every Thurs., DJ EdgarFri 11th.--Fri. and Sat., Joe O'Meara and Shoot the Moon

•LAST HURRAH 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors the former Boston Mayor, James Michael Curley.2 bars and a full restaurant.They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover.Casual attire.Open 7 days a week.Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights.

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub.Attracts an older, quieter crowd.No cover.Neat dress.Sun. brunch 11:30am-2:30pm..

•LILY'S720-5580, 101 S. MarketFaneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights.No cover or dress code.

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor students.On weekends, it gets pretty crowded.So beat the lines and get there early.The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat.Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy.Best of all, there's never a cover..

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types.The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively.Two dance floors - one featuring live music.Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends.Creative dress encouraged..

Wed 2nd.--And every Wed., Industrial Rage Sat 5th.--And every Sat., Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm.Casual atmosphere and dress.

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly.Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor..

Mon 7th.--And every Mon.: The Candles Tue 8th.--and every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater.Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king.Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury.The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it.Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands.Call for reservations.Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night..

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance club located near downtown crossing and the Boston Opera House.The crowd consists of mostly young professionals.Proper dress required, open for lunch and dinner.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-5434, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends.During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day.Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands.The moderate cover varies with the act.Casual dress and atmosphere..

Wed 2nd.--The Moores, Derangers, Rick Berlin, Bob LaRue, Tom Holland Thur 3rd.--New Alien, Chicelets, Head Too Big Fri 4th.--Bulkhead, Flying Nuns, Twister, Sugar Bitch Sat 5th.--Heavily Medicated Fairy Tales Sun 6th.--Seige, Post Mortem, Julianna, D, Mark Sandman, AngeloTue 8th.--Spining Jenny, Blackwells Wed 9th.--Gilette, Digger Thur 10th.--Zen Under Fire, The Balls, Mind Grinder, Grind Ring Fri 11th.--Satanics, Elvis Hitler, Thumb Cramp, Boss Fuel Sat 12th.--Heavily Medicated Fairy Tales Sun 13th.--Confusion, Stark Weather, Toxic Narcotic, Life of Agony, Brick Layer, HypnosonicsTue 15th.--Red Bliss, Grances Gum, Metroploitan Rage Warehouse

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia.Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies.Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail.It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover. . .

•MR. DOOLEY'S 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from 11 to 5 followed by a seisiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartenders!! You never know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint)..

Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood.The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds.DJ music.Healthy mix of young & old.Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.Casual dress..

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos. Popular gay dance club.Piano music downstairs every night.Dancing upstairs.Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos. A glitsy dance club for the younger set.People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound.Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends.Moderate cover varies. .

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250.National and well known local acts.Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back.One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs.Casual dress.Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info..

Wed 9th.--Thur 10th.--

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos. One of Boston's best live clubs.Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy.Dress is casual.Dancing on non-band nights.For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000Minimum age varies by show.

Wed 2nd.-- Fri 4th.-- SelectorThur 10th.--Diamanda Galas Fri 11th.--Urban Blight Sat 12th.--Matthew Sweet

•PASSIM492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there.One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol.It is, however, the spot to catch Inspiring Folk and Bluegrass.The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here.The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso.Moderate cover.Casual dress.

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens.While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat.Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent!Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm..

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam?Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club.Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat.DJ dancing the rest of the week.Moderate cover.Casual dress.

D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm.A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business.The mood is relaxed, albeit formal.No cover.Proper dress required. Full menu.Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm..

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars.(Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile)This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge.Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass.The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy.No dress code.Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap..

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar.The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats.No cover.Casual dress.Full menu until 12:30am.Tue. night is Dead night.

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall.Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music.Giant-screen TV.Moderate cover varies.Casual dress.Full menu.

Thur 3rd.--And every Thurs., Jim Plunkett Fri 4th.--Fri. and Sat., Purple ShamrockSun 6th.--BrogueTue 8th.--And every Tues., Starmakers Fri 11th.--Fri. and Sat., Good QuestionSun 13th.--Tom O'Carroll

•RATHSKELLER 536-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power.Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M.The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets.No cover upstairs.Varies downstairs.No dress code. .

Thur 3rd.--Canine Bastards, Cataplexy, Banana SideFri 4th.--Stickmen, Allans, 236, Maldens, Premiers Sat 5th.--Stompbox, Dreams Made Flesh, Doug and the Lonely Tidal WavesSun 6th.--Benefit: Bristols, Chloe, Crazy Alice, Facts About Rats, Freeze, Hellcats, Left Nut, Mung, Voodoo Dolls Fri 11th.--Orangutang Sat 12th.--Heretix

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub.Dark and casual atmosphere.Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents.No cover.Casual dress.One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGGATA BAR 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system.And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live.The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead.Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.

•RITZ BAR 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO.This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music.No cover.Proper dress required..

•ROXY 227-7699, 279 Tremont St., Bos. Located across from the Wang Center, this animated, sophisticated and ritzy dance club features Swing music performed by the 14-piece White Heat Swing Orchestra, Jazz vocalists and DJ dance music.The Roxy Dancers put on shows nightly.A noteworthy alternative for the occasional club goer.Heavy cover.Jacket required..

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles.Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Serving Fine Food and Drink

Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials

Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood

Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees

Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95

Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm -- Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

b

to traditional Jazz music.Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians.Feel free to move between floors.Cover varies from moderate to heavy.Casual dress.

Wed 2nd.--Downstairs: Alex Deutsch Quartet, through Sept. Thur 3rd.--Downstairs: Future Reference through Sept. Fri 4th.--Fri. and Sat. Downstairs: Herman Johnson Quartet through Sept., Fri. and Sat. Upstairs: Blues Kitchen SwingSun 6th.--Downstairs: Purplr Tucan Trio through Sept.Tue 8th.--Downstairs: Bruce Bartlett Trio through Sept., Upstairs: Every Tues., Jazz Jam with Prudie Sandhouse Fri 11th.--Fri. and Sat. Upstairs: Stan Strickland Group

•SCULLERS LOUNGE 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly.The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood.The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance.Heavy cover.Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers..

Wed 2nd.--Mid Life Crisis Jazz BandThur 3rd.--Ronnie Earl & The Broadcasters Fri 4th.--Fri. and Sat., Dakota StatlonTue 8th.--Al Vega Trio with Liz EnglshWed 9th.--Boston Jass Orchestra Thur 10th.--Richie Cole and Greg Abate Alto MadnessFri 11th.--Fri. and Sat., Billy Cobham Trio with Ira Coleman and Wayne KrantzTue 15th.--Rudy Linka Group

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos. An English pub on Beacon Hill.A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year).No cover.Casual dress.An added bonus - Guinness on tap..

•SHAY'S , 59 JFK St., Camb. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub.Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint.The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students.Patio seating in the warm weather.No cover.Casual dress.

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate.But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound.No cover.Casual dress.Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts.Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St. , Camb. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music.On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act.The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises.Cover varies depending upon the band.No dress code..

Wed 2nd.--Thur 3rd.--Fri 4th.--Sat 5th.--Mon 7th.--Tue 8th.--Thur 10th.--Fri 11th.--Sat 12th.-- Mon 14th.--

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside.Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!).Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced.College and thirtysomething crowd.Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars.Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover.Casual atmosphere and dress. .

Wed 2nd.--Absolute Thur 3rd.--Maniacal Choir Fri 4th.--Letters to Cleo, Tragic SamSat 5th.--The Incredible Casuals Mon 7th.--Jazz Trio and Open Jam Tue 8th.--Acoustic NightThur 10th.--Walk That Walk Fri 11th.--Universal Language Sat 12th.--Eleventh Hour Sun 13th.--John Sheldon and Blue Streak Mon 14th.--Jazz Jam Tue 15th.--Pickle Juice

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality.Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone.Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long.No cover.Casual dress.

Wed 2nd.--And every Wed., Blues NightFri 4th.--Fri. and Sat., Rich McDuff Fri 11th.--Fri. and Sat., Rich McDuff

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre,As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little.In fact, the place only seats 17 people.Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap.Edibles also served.Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays..

•THE ORIGINAL SPORTS SALLOON
47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
With five satellite T.V's and a congeniai neighborhood atmosphere, this is by far the best bar for viewing sporting events. Enjoy some of their great barbeque specialities along with a Foster's Lager or Samuel Adams on draft. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

•TIA'S 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf.The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds.Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early.No cover.Casual dress.Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm..

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals.Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ.Wed. night is gay night.Cover varies from moderate to heavy.Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy.21+ unless otherwise noted.

Thur 3rd.--Rave Party with DJ James Christian, John Debo, Tim RyanSat 5th.--And every Sat., Retro 70's Night, Retro Wear Preferred Thur 10th.--Rave Party with DJ onion Z, Micro, John Debo

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's.Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss.The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front.The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic.Mon. is Blues night.No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat..

-Every Mon. is Blues Night

•WARREN TAVERN 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St.,Boston. A funky little bar whose clientlele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is alwayson for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive.

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit.It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage.Cover varies from moderate to heavy.On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5.Casual dress..

Fri 4th.--Sat 5th.-- Wed 9th.--Tue 15th.--

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway.Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans.(Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat.Cover varies from modest to moderate.Casual dress.Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place.Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing.Moderate cover.No dress code..

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos. This large two-story dance club's theme is tropical.The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees.Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests.Cover varies.Jacket and tie required.

DOLLAR DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN

$

BUSCH FOR A BUCK

$

BUSCH 12 OZ. LONGNECK BOTTLES FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER AT THE FOLLOWING PUBS AND SALOONS:

FATHER'S FIRST
122 Harvard Avenue, Allston
Darts–Video–Pinball–Basketball
We Feature Bud & Bud Light on Draft
Big Screen–Cable
Open until 2am

BEACON HILL PUB
149 Charles Street, Boston
Darts–Video–Pinball
Basketball–Football–Cable
We Feature Bud & Bud Light on Draft
Free Chicken Wings
Wed–Thur–Fri–5pm to 7pm
Open until 2am

BOW & ARROW PUB
1 Bow Sreet, Cambridge,
Harvard Square
Darts–Video–Pinball
Football–Basketball
Free Chicken Wings, Wed 10 pm
Open until 1am–cable–51 inch TV

FATHER'S TOO
822 Beacon Street Boston
Darts–Darts–Darts
Video–Pinball
We Feature Bud & Bud Light on Draft
Satellite Dish
Free Chicken Wings Thur 12 midnight
Open til 2am

MARY ANN'S
1936 Beacon Street Cleveland Circle
Video–Pinball–Basketball
We Feature Bud & Bud Light on Draft
Satellite–51 inch TV
Free Chicken Wings Fridays 4–7pm
Open til 2am

TEELE SQUARE PUB
1133 Broadway Somerville
Near Tufts University
Dancing Thurs–Fri–Sat
Starting at 8pm
Darts–Satellite–51 inch TV
Free Chicken Wings Fri 4-7
Karaoke Wed at 8pm
Open til 1am

CLASSIFIEDS

REAL ESTATE

APARTMENTS

BACK BAY Modern 2BR, dishwasher, garbage disposal, tiled full bathroom, washer/ dryer in building. Perfect location. No fee. $1,100 244-9148

BEACON HILL 1 Br. Concierge Bldg., Roofdeck $850 Incl. Util. Avl. 8/14-9/12 742-7798

BEACON HILL No fee. 2 BR apt. Ht/h.w. incl. $800. Avl 9/1 323-9559/ 742-0418

BOSTON Bay Village, Small 1 bedroom, hardwood floors, clean. Newly renovated quiet bldg., $595 includes heat & hot water 332-0427

BOSTON Arlington St.-Bay Village. Small studio in quiet, safe bldg. Newly renovated, hardwood floors $525 includes heat & hot water 332-0427

BOSTON Historic Marlborough St. 1 bedroom, patio, 1 block to T and bus. $600 includes heat. Lv. message on voice mailbox 1-800-244-2756 ext. 603

BOSTON 3-4 Bedroom apt. located on 2nd & 3rd flrs of a 3 family house. Includes microwave, washer/dryer, dishwasher, hardwood floors, track lighting, spiral staircase, sky lights, all beautifully detailed $1200 Call: 442-3326 or 225-2034

BOSTON/BRIGHAM CIRCLE NU MEDICAL AREA LARGE 3&4 BEDROOM $900 AND UP, SECURE BLDG. ON T. CLOSE TO STORES AND BANKS, SOME WITH PARKING. NO FEE. CALL 731-0165

BROOKLINE This Is It Brookline! Oct.1 4 Bedroom Beautiful 2 Fam. House. Large eat-in kitchen, deck. Longwood Med. Area. $1650 includes heat & hot water, 3 parking spaces. Owner: 734-9863

Boston / Fenway Peterborough Gardens
Stu, 1,2 and 3 bed avail. close to public transportation, shopping, colleges and hospitals. No Fee.
From $475
HHW Inc.
247-3503

CAMBRIDGE New 4 room townhouse, near MIT, d/d, laundry, yard. Perfect for couple, close to all T lines $895+ 661-8656

CHELSEA Luxury 2 bedroom apt. 1 1/2 baths, w/d, parking, convenient to T, balcony, pool and health club $825 (617)648-8109

DORCHESTER Ashmont Hill, 5 rooms on Red line. 2 bedrooms, deck, laundrey, pantry, brick building. $800 heated Call 265-3203

DORCHESTER
Contemporary renovated 1st floor apt. in quiet , owner occupied 3 decker. 1400 sq. ft. 17-windows, sundeck, oak floors, livingroom with french doors, dining room with china cabinet, new elk, dw, walk in pantry, 2 bedroom study, entry hall, porches, w/d, garden, $690+ Call 282-1919 or 572-0038

DORCHESTER 3/4 BR, unheated. $750. Nr T. No pets. Call 617-963-0224

JAMAICA PLAIN Great JP duplex needs 2 for Sept. Bedroom with 1/2 bath $390 or Bedroom $335. Also study. No smokes or cats 983-0131

Boston/ Brookline Village
Riverway House Condos. Lux. studios fm. $525, 1 BR $650, 2 BR $850 htd, garden roof deck, exer. & steam rm., lndry, pking, owner. No Fee 547-0026, 739-6212.

Somerville/ Cambridge Line
Near Harvard, sunny 2 & 3 BR apts, avail. in 3 & 6 family houses, 2 BR fm. $600, 3 BR fm. $725. Owner. No Fee 547-0036.

Watertown/ Cambridge Line
Near Harvard, sunny 2 & 3 BR apts fm. $625. No Fee 547-0036.

JAMAICA PLAIN Best JP location Sept. 4 rooms $725+ 2 bedroom. Very nice place 983-0131

ROSLINDALE 2 Bedroom in apt. building with heat & hot water, hardwood floors, laundrey facilities on premises, disposal, on bus line. Sec. dep. and references required. $650 Call (617)364-6585

ROSLINDALE 2 bedroom in apt. building with heat and hot water, hardwood floors , laundry facilities on premisis, disposal, on bus line. Security Deposit and References Required. $650 Call (617) 364-6585

SAVIN HILL Over Bridge, Oceanside. 4 Rooms, Glassed-in Porch, Off Street Parking, 2 min. from Red Line. 5 min. walk to Beach. Large Eat-in Kitchen, Hardwood Floors $550+ Util. Very Quiet Neighborhood 825-1832 "Best Landlord in City" Tank McNamara, The Improper Bostonian

SOMERVILLE 6 rooms each side. Prime Davis Square location. $900 tile bath. $1100 1 1/2 tile bath. No Util. Call 237-1992

SOMERVILLE 5 room apt. 7 minute walk to Tufts. Central air & vacuum, w/d, frig., partially furnished. $700+ Ann/Bill 721-0592

SOMERVILLE Lg. 6 room, 3 bedroom, living room, dining room, eat-in-kitchen, modern bath. Avail immed. $850+ Laundry, No fee. 666-4734

SOMERVILLE Walk to Davis Sq. Large 4 bedroom. Hardwood floors, white walls, ultra modern kitchen, dw/disposal, deck laundry $1200. 662-5390

SOMERVILLE Somerville east, 4 rooms, large bedroom hardfloors near T $700 Nice Area (617)488-0101

APTS. WANTED

$1000 Reward for 2 Bedroom Rent controlled Apt. in mid-Camb. or Back Bay 2nd fl. or higher $500 - $675 864-0239

APT. SHARES

ALLSTON House Near Bus & T, Harvard Square and BU etc. Smoke/Pets OK $275+ 1/3 of Cheap Utilities 787-8811

ALLSTON Roomate wanted: small room, clean bright apt. Close to Harvard & BU/call Jen or Lee / 7830847 / $300/MO I.e.

BEACON HILL 1 Female 27+ , Prof. or grad student to share 3 bedroom 2 bath condo with prof. female & 2 cats. No more pets please. No smoking. Fireplace, dishwasher, wall to wall carpeting, washer/dryer, roofdeck $450 594-1444

BEACON HILL Female grad student seeks female roomate for 2 bedroom apt. nonsmoking, $350 mo. heat water included Call Jill at 720-0511

Need help writing a Great Classified ad?
Call our Classifieds Medics*
Dr. Janet Dr. Peg
Dr. Jen Dr. John
*All Our Classified Doctors Hold advanced Degrees in Classificology
To Talk to a Doctor Call 232-5356
To Fax to a Doctor Dial 232-4305

BELMONT Near Alewife. Smokeless, Plants, Placid $280+ 489-1250

BEVERLY Prof. Non-Smoker Female wanted to share a beautifully furnished 3 bedroom 3 bath house in fantastic neighborhood. Excellent Value at $450. 594-1444

BOSTON Share Waterfront Home. Walk to UMass, Red Line. Nonsmoker. Avl. Now $500 includes util. 282-4921 Lv. Message

$19 UNTIL IT WORKS!!!

BOSTON/JAMAICA PLAIN Large spectacular apt. to share with professional. Victorian. On pond. Eat-in kitchen, washer/dryer, parking , Near mass transit, Non-smoker $575 Avl. Now. 524-0621 or 524-0221

BRIGHTON Spac. room in large house. All hardwood floors, parking util. w/d included Artists/teachers preferred Semi-Coop. Call Nathan Lv. msg. 787-8797

BRIGHTON 1 Bedroom and work space available for male or female in 3 bedroom in Brighton. 1/2 block from T, Quiet area, antique decor, HDWD flrs., furnished except bedroom. Non-smoker an no pets preferred. Available immediately. 400+. Call Wendy or Stephan 782-6808

BRIGHTON CENTER Looking for woman 25+ with group spirit and exp.to join household of 1 woman/ 2 men. 2 cats, sunny spacious victorian, T access, new kitchen and bath, fireplace $350 + util. Call 783-1931

BROOKLINE COOLIDGE CORNER. M OR F 2 Bedroom 1 1/2 Bath large apt. $600 mo. Heated, gas & electric extra. Avl. 8/1 Deposit required. Bonnie 734-7625

BROOKLINE Seeking responsible outgoing female to share apt. No smoking. No pets. No drugs. Roofdeck. laundry in building 734-5367 $425 includes heat & hot water

BROOKLINE Seeking non-smoking roomate M/F to sublet in Chestnut Hill w/2F Profs. Washer/Dryer/ Porch, near T. 1 cat. Call Camy # 731-1714. Non-smoking.

CAMBRIDGE Near Galleria Prof. male seeking roomate for 2 bedroom apt. Light housekeeping. 864-0007

CAMBRIDGE Responsible roomate to share beautiful 2 bedroom. 7 min. walk from Harvard Square. Lawn, fireplace, off street parking, Washer/dryer, Off Brattle. $450 month plus util.. No smoking. Share Days:693-5118

CAMBRIDGE Central Square female seeks female to share apt. Conv. location, Drug/smoke free $325 avl. now 354-3792

CAMBRIDGE 5 Min. from Harvard Square. 1 male seeks 1m/1f to share 2 bedroom. Hardwood floors. $360/om. 864-2468

CAMBRIDGE North Cambridge. Free rent in exchange for light housekeeping and part time babysiting for 6 year old girl. 3 bedroom apt. 491-5809

CAMBRIDGE North Cambridge, 1 Female seeks to share 2 floor apt. in safe neighborhood with responsible veggie Female. 3 rooms will be for new roomate. Deck, no smoking or pets. Near T & Buses $350 includes heat 354-2739

DORCHESTER GWM to share large colonial home with others. $300 util included 282-0567 Leave Message

APT . SHARES

JAMACIA PLAIN 2 GWM + cat seek third for A/C 3 BDS Condo in Forest Hills near T and arboretum. Parking, W/D, big back yard, $300 includes heat and hot water plus 1/3 utilities , 522-3962

JAMAICA PLAIN Quiet 2 bedroom apt. with side yard. 2nd floor. Close to T. Avl. 8/15 or 9/1 $850+ No dogs 524-0924

JAMAICA PLAIN Great JP duplex needs 2 for Sept. Bedroom with 1/2 Bath $390 or Bedroom $335. Also study. No Smokes or cats 983-0131

JAMAICA PLAIN Prof. 43, Non-smoker, pianist activists seeks m/f roomate for large 2 bedroom in Summer Mill. Near T $325+ 1/2 Util. avl. 8/1 522-4420 evenings or 267-2949 days

JEFF HALPERN KNOWS ALL

JAMAICA PLAIN 3 Females looking for 4th 27+ to share large sunny apt. $291/mo+ No smoking/pets. Near pond 524-2008

JAMAICA PLAIN Quiet well kept 2 bedroom apt. with off St. parking for GM or GF. You can have bedroom furnished or unfurnished for $325, all util. included. Call Ed after 6 pm. 524-0421

LEXINGTON 26+ independant quiet, neat, pleasant room on Pleasant St. Bus to Cambridge $400 includes util. 861-8737

LOWELL BiWM 29 seeks Gay/Bi male or female for 2 bedroom condo. Private bedroom with full bath near 495. Smoker OK $300+ 1/2 elec. Serious Only. (508)459-6728

MALDEN Male or Female for 2 bedroom house. Wall to wall carpeting, washer/ dryer, off street parking. Non-smoker No drugs. $375+ Util. Available Now 324-3509

MEDFORD 1 Disc. GWM seeks 1 GWM/F to share 7 room house. Chrs. near shopping, T, Tufts W/D CBL. deck, must be disc. no pet, drugs, alch. $495 mo. no util. 396-0187 lv. msg.

MOVING? KEN'S MOVING EXPERIENCE SAVE ON YOUR NEXT MOVE. DON'T RENT A TRUCK. 1 CAN DO IT FOR LESS! (617)923-2150

NEWTON 40 Yr. old health care professional seeks to share quiet home in quiet neighborhood condusive to studying. Must be convenient to Cambridge and in the $400 range each. On or before Sept. 1 Call 547-6058

JEFF HALPERN KNOWS ALL

NEWTON Beautiful large Victorian home on quiet street in near new library. 2 rooms avl. in 4 bedroom house. Several amenities. All util included. Call Elspeth 244-1322

NEWTON 2M seeks 2 M/F to share 4 bedroom. Great yard, garden, w/d. Near Watertown Square & T Avl NOW!!! $350+ Smoking OK 965-7805

NEWTON CENTRE Near T. Nice room. $335/month plus. John or Linda, 965-0930 or 332-4800

NEWTON CENTRE Room available in friendly independent Victorian. Near lake and T. W/D $375+ No Smoking 25+ 965-6697

NEWTON CENTRE Housemate, m/f, 30+ for large bedroom with parking, washer/ dryer, storage in lovely 4 bedroom house with view of Crystal Lake 969-7124

NEWTONVILLE Female 25+ wanted for 2 bedroom. Yard, parking, storage, close to shopping $415+ Util. 244-4573

NORTH READING GWM Housemate wanted Non-smoker. No drugs. Under 40 Years Old Luxurious living. Serious only. $100 weekly rent includes all utilities. Steven (508)664-4443

QUINCY 4 Bedroom, 2 Full Baths in large roomy house, yard, garden $375+ Utilities Call Stan 768-8878

REVERE Female wanted to share 2 bedroom 2 bath ocean front condo. Includes gym, pool, jacuzzi, concierge $500+ 289-4926

SOMERVILLE 1 Male or female for 4 bedroom in Inman Square. No Pets N/S $240+ Util. 623-0504 or 253-9850

SOMERVILLE 1 M/F 25+ for large 3 bedroom apartment near Union Square. No cigs. Nice yard. Avl. Now. $350/mo+ 628-0754

WATERTOWN 2 Female/1 Male seeks M/F to join friendly spacious independant victorian house. 5BR/2 Bath fpl., w/d, parking. Quiet res. street near pike, woods, tennis, track, T. No pets/smoker. $400+ util. Call 924-5693

WATERTOWN Seek 1 Nonsmoker ASAP. 2 bedroom apt. in 2 family house. Great condition, laundry, yard, parking. Call 924-7094

WATERTOWN Cambridge Line. Female for 2 bedroom for sunny 1st. floor house. Nonsmoker, no pets , near T, washer, parking, sunny back porch. Avl. 8/1 $375+ util. 926-2166

WEYMOUTH Nonsmoker female for 2 bedroom apt. Includes all utilities . With Balcony, parking, a/c $275 call 340-2131

COMMERCIAL SPACE

CHARLESTOWN Non-Live in studio space available. 1250 square ft. $500/mo. 242-0080

GARAGE FOR RENT

JAMAICA PLAIN 2 Car concrete garage for rent. Safe, clean, water and fire proof. Asking $200 Call (508)995-1435 Anytime

HOUSE FOR RENT

WATERTOWN SQUARE 3-5 bdrm. house. Beautiful $900 - $1500. Last & Sec. Req. (617)924-5174

WEST ROXBURY 4 Bedroom house 9 rooms/2 baths eat-in-kitchen, w/d yd,. parking, near parks, Y and T. Nice neighborhood, purple commuter rail. $1400 No fee. Avl. Now. 327-5625

HOUSE WANTED

RENT W/OPTION TO BUY A single 2 family or large 2 bedroom condo. Must be reasonably priced. Would consider handyman special. Pref. loc. Brookline/Newton or possibly Metro West. Well established couple. Call John 247-2175

PARKING SPACE

BOSTON Parking space for rent immediately at 170 Tremont Street. Covered, valet. Call 269-7200 x103

HARVEY HAS COOL SHADES

ROOM FOR RENT

BOSTON Light, airy room in third flor apartment for quiet, serious professor or grad. student. Near T, expressway. Big park, beach. Safe area. On street parking; 15 minutes from Cambridge. Share bath, cat, Mac II ci. $400 with meals: $325 without. 268-9399.

BROOKLINE 4 Prof. clean, quiet, seek female 30+ , veggie, non-smoker. For large house, 2 min. to T, large yard. Rent- $365 includes all util. $395 with parking 731-6959 lv. message

VACATION RENTALS

DISNEY/EPCOT AREA Disney/Epcot Area Condo Rentals 1,2,3 bedroom condos available from $55 per night. Call Condo Lodge 1 800 377-5628

DISNEYWORLD 3 bedroom/ 2 bath brand new condo, pool, jacuzzi, tennis , exercise rooms. (617)846-6622

HARWICH CAPE COD GREAT HOUSE IN GREAT LOCATION. LAST 2 WEEKS OF AUGUST. ENJOY THE CAPE IN STYLE CALL ELSPETH AT 244-1322

MARTHA'S VINEYARD - VACATION HOME RENTALS

Excellent selection. All areas and prices. Brown Associates, 508-627-4741

SKI 5 MOUNTAINS IN NH Season - monthly rental (Dec.- Feb) Chalet sleeps 6. 2 baths, mountain view. Elegant Christmas Mountain Resort. Owner (617)437-9757

LOOKING TO SHARE OR RENT OUT AN APARTMENT OR HOUSE? CALL THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN 232-5356 JUST $19 UNTIL IT WORKS!!!!!!!!!!!!

CAPE PAINT

Fully Insured, Experienced
Interior / Exterior Painting, Window Glazing
Reasonable Rates
"We are young, hardworking, conscientious workers."

CALL WILL (617) 244-1322

FREE ESTIMATE

C

WHERE CAN YOU FIND BETTER CLASSIFIEDS RATES FOR AN 80,000 CIRCULATION NEWSPAPER!! NOWHERE.

ALTERATIONS/ DESIGN

ALTER EGO DESIGNS

Need Clothing or Home Item Alterations, Repair, Custom Work? Call us at 332-0160 for Estimates and Appointment GREAT RATES!

AUTOS

BMW HOTLINE 1-800-696-BMW1

Deal with us and save! Foreign Engine Co. 67 Chelsea St. Everett, MA

BALLOONS

Something Special Want to wish someone a happy birthday or tell someone you love them or congratulate a collegue? Call Something Special. Distinctive balloon arrangements whatever the event. Something Special can brighten any occasion. Call 617-268-0063 for same day delivery.

BED & BREAKFAST

HONEYSUCKLE HILL-CAPE COD Remember us! Featherbeds, home-made cookies, private baths, full country breakfasts. Pampering! A few choice days still available for fall vacation. (508) 362-8418 1-800-441-8418.

CHARMING & AFFORDABLE NEW ENGLAND "GETAWAY" ACCOMMODATIONS

Many locations including scenic coastline, lake and mountain areas. Call for information, 1-800-285-5595.

BUS. OPPS.

DELI/CAFE-MARINA BAY Take-out, seating inside & out, beer/wine license, on Boardwalk, growth potential. All new equipment. 250,000 negotiable. Call David (617) 696-1543 ASAP

MANAGING PARTNER WANTED

Seeking independence, self-fulfillment, & financial security? Investment, $80 - $100K. Call 617-273-2720. ABS Inc., 6 New Engl. Exec. Park, Suite 400, Burlington, MA

BUSINESS SERVICES

IDEAS FOR THE ENTREPRENEUR!

100 New Business Ideas That Work. Send SASE To: Business Ideas, PO Box 391707 Cambridge, Ma. 02139

CALLIGRAPHY For all occasions. Hand carved lettering in stone. 617-862-1583

CLEANING

PAINTING AND CLEANING

Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition. Call Joey 776-1706

SEE SPOT RUN Residential cleaning service Boston and surrounding areas call 247-1009 10-4pm. Ref. upon request

EXPERIENCED HOUSE CLEANERS We will clean homes, apartments, condos. References available. Very reasonable rates. $5 off with this ad. Call 395-5180 or 396-2044.

CLOTHING/ TAILORING

QUALITY Pre-owned designer and better clothing. Do come browse! $$$ for your wardrobe. Gowns also wanted!

THE SILK ROAD CONSIGNERIE 1386B Beacon, Brookline. 11 am-6pm daily. 739-3399. See display ad this page.

WE WANT YOUR CLOTHING

The Garment District is now accepting. Men & Womens Current & Vintage Clothing for Consignment (617)876-9795

COMPUTERS

IBM 38633 MHZ, 8 MB, 120 HD, fax/modem, lazer printer (30C). $1800/BO 617-298-8561

IBM PS/2 hard drives, many sizes, dealer liquidation. Next day Fed Express to you! Call 617-499-7912

IBM + COMPATIBLES IBM + Compatible Systems: $225 + Up W/ Hard Drive, Base Macs: $200 + Up. Also Comodore, Apple, Atari, Amiga. Call 789-4122 M-W 9-6 , TH +FR 9-9, SAT 9-5. Progenius Computers.

CONTRACTORS

ASPHALT PAVING S.M.. CONSTRUCTION, 50 years in business. No job too big or small- we paved Logan Airport. Driveways, parking areas- anything! FREE estimates, unparalleled service. (617) 825-3763.

WELCOME TO THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIEDS

HOPE YOU FIND WHAT YOU'RE LOOKING FOR!!!

PHONE: 232-3705
FAX: 232-4305

DATING

BEAUTIFUL CONNECTIONS

Get Your Chance Now. Thousands of Beautiful Women In South America Desire Romance and Marriage (617)789-LOVE

ENTERTAINMENT

"BROADWAY BABIES" Entertainment Grams. "The Stripper" M&F Exotics, Female Impersonators, D.J.'s, Belly Dancers, Hula Dancers, Balloons, Singing Grams, "Fun and Affordable" (617)396-0550 M/C VISA AMEX

PSYCHIC ENTERTAINMENT

Professional psychic available for parties/lectures and readings

ENTERTAINMENT

Merlin the midieval magician will perform his magic at your special event, Halloween party, children's events and special occasions. Call Peter 617-536-6695

FARMS

VIETNAMESE POT BELLY PIGS Cute new babies, registered ans guaranteed healthy, $250.and up. Also minature goats & minature donkeys. (508) 252-9850

FOR SALE

3 Piece Livingroom SetSofa, Love Seat and Recliner Chair Beige Leather Good Condition $750 (508)587-3974

BOAT FOR SALE 17' 1983 Stingray Bowrider, 120hp Merc I/O. Many new parts FM stereo cassette, galvanized tilt trailer w/roller. New boat cover. Well maintained, very easy to launch, needs nothing! $4900 or b/o. Call Sid at (617)279-4857

MEET SOMEONE SPECIAL!
For friendship, romance, or marriage Call
UNITED DATING SERVICE
497-2944

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE JUICE CAFE. BROOKLINE VILLAGE SEEMS TO BE THE PLACE FOR YOUNG SUCCESSFULL ENTREPRENEURS!

FRIDGIDARE Stackable wash/dryer $350. 2 Gas Stoves $75 each Rockwell 9" Table Saw $400. Ind. Glass Sander $350. 1930's Sax $400 (617)924-5175

FUTON OUTLET For the best deal in town! Free delivery. 360 Mystic Ave. Somerville 776-9429 Ask about our Student Specials!

OFFICE FURNITURE50%-80% off. Files, Desks, Chairs, Conference Tables. Call for The Best Prices: (617)329-1662

PHOTO EQUIPMENT 28-80mm Quantaray lens with case. Adaptable to 35mm, Nikon base cameras. Barely used. $75 Lens cost $140 new. Please Call 232-8455

$67 TO RUN A COMMERCIAL CLASSIFIED FOR 4 ISSUES! WHAT A DEAL!

FOR SALE

INDIAN PHOTOGRAVURES
E. S. Curtis 1905-1920 from "The Hopi Volume XII." Most priced at $210- $250. Call 207-439-4861

KAJI ASO STUDIO
Institute for the Arts
New Session Begins September 14th
Register by Septmeber 9th.
recieve 10% discount

CLASSES IN: Painting, Watercolor, Drawing, Ceramics, Chorus and Poetry

JAPANESE CULTURE CLASSES IN: Calligraphy*, Sumi Painting, Tea Ceremony, Language, Renga, Haiku

*Mass College of Art Credit Available

Call 247-1719 for information.
40 Stephen Street, Boston

Harvest Time

Come to a real working farm to experience autumn at it's best. You owe it to yourself. Come feed our barnyard critters and visit our newly expanded poultry palace. Free bag of food with each visit!

harvey's
FARM AND GARDEN CENTER

NATURAL ❤ SELECTION

Like thousands of other happy couples, Kimberly Clayton and Kent Kellough found each other easily and naturally, through Great Expectations. Here is their story.

Q. "And what was the advantage of joining Great Expectations?"

A. "Members of Great Expectations know what they want. They don't play games. My first date with Kent was very comfortable, which was a rare first date experience."

Q. "Kent, what do you tell people about Great Expectations?"

A. "It absolutely works. It's not just for people who are looking for dates, it's also for people who have plenty of dates who aren't finding the right person."

Great ❤ Expectations®
"We make meeting people easy"

You can take the first step toward a fulfilling relationship. Call

(617)332-7755

29 Craft St., Suite 550 Newton, MA 02158

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN CLASSIFIED AD FORM

Section Heading _____

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26

1
2
3
4
5
6

Run Dates:
From: ____ / ____ Month. Day

❑ Bold Headline

First 4 lines	19.00*
Additional lines X .$5.00	+
Bold Headline (15$)	+
= Total	+

* The $19.00 'run until il works' rate is for Non - commercial accounts only.

Name_____
Address_____
City_____State____Zip_____
Phone(____)_____

❑ Check enclosed (pay to: Improper Bostonian Classifieds)
Charge my: ❑ Visa ❑ MC ❑ AMEX
Card Number _____Exp.___/____
Signature (if paying by credit card)
X_____

Mail orders to: The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St. Suite 7A
Brookline, MA
02146-7303

OR CALL: (617) 232-3705
OR FAX: (617) 232-4305

Adapter Productions

- Audition/Demo Tapes
- Weddings
- Legal

Digital Stereo Video

Rob Wellens
BRIGHTON, MA
(617) 782-0466

FOR SALE

MARK JONES Experienced furniture designer, solid craftsmanship. Custom furniture, built-ins, corporate and home. Shop located at 840 Summer Street, Boston. Please call for appointment at our shop or your location. Mark Jones 617-464-2224 VI/MC/AMEX

"BEDTIME PRAYERS" Porcelain collector doll, still in box, from Danbury Mint, $150/BO. (508) 238-9577

FURNITURE Glass marble and brass coffee table with matching end table. $200. Call Gail at 617-846-9194

REFRIGERATOR AND FREEZER Student size refigerator 4 cubic feet (3 years old) $75 and 15 cubic feet frost free freezer chest $150. 254-1374

HAIRSTYLISTS

HAIR WEAVING AND BEADING Hair weaving and beading with this ad- Any style. Call for free consultation. Bring a picture and choose from your selection. 361-6299

HEALTH SERVICES

MASSAGE Reasonable Rates! Call David (617)734-7080

THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE On the North Shore. Relaxing and Revitalizing. $35 gift certificates available. Please call Patricia at 508-526-7209

TIRED, ACHING MUSCLES? Then you knead a massage. Come in on your lunch break or after work. Mon-Tue-Wed 10 am to 7pm $45/hr loc on Boylston St. across from the Boston Common. Call Mary Foster 617-643-8916 leave message. Certified and licensed.

THE POINT AFTER The art, pleasure, and therapy of an ancient practice: message, and laying-on of hands. A very thorough hot oil message and polarity. Certified. Arthur:(617)236-7009

MASSAGE The Point After.The art, pleasure, and therapy of an ancient practice: massage, the laying-on of hands, A very thorough hot oil massage and polarity, Certified. Call Arthur at617-236-7009

HOLISTIC HEALING FOR PHYSICAL AND EMOTIONAL ISSUES Pain, stress, self healing. Anna, (617) 643-7629

HELP WANTED

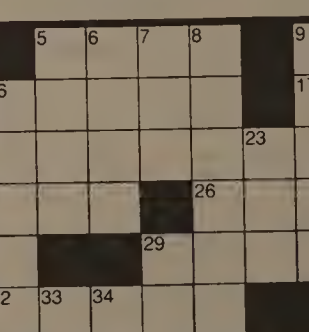
Experienced Full Time Line Cook Wanted. Must Have Flexible Schedule. Call 232-8787. Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Even The Improper Bostonian uses PRESSXPRESS (PXP), greater Boston's most comprehensive resource of event information. PXP researches and lists all events to which the public is invited up to ONE YEAR in advance -- everything from black-tie and cultural events to business seminars and conventions -- and transmits it weekly via fax. Just think of the possibilities for your business clients, organization or personal life! Stay in the know -- call PRESSXPRESS at (617) 742-2092 and ask for your free faxed sample today.

JOHN'S MOVING SERVICE
Local & Long Distance
24 Hour Service
617–381–0328

We are paying people with Asthma to participate in a research study on Asthma at the Beth Israel Hospital. If interested please call 735-2676.

CREDIT PROBLEMS?



- Get a VISA, bad credit, bankruptcy OK.
- All dynamic credit correction methods available.
- Info on Credit Bureaus and how they operate.
- When you can get automatic removal of derogatory items from credit reports.
- In-depth use of dispute method used effectively to your advantage.
- Create excellent credit in 30 days or less.
- Establish or re-establish AAA-1 credit.
- 6 years experience in credit field.

Featured by Boston Herald, WBZ-TV, UPI. Don't wait 7 years, Call Now! 536-0639, TPC 25 Huntington. 606 Boston 02116.

DANTE PROVONE
VOICE COACH

Who has successfully taught his widely known vocal method to thousands of pop singers, can solve all types of vocal problems, correct all types of damage and give you greater vocal range and power. Learn correct breathing, solid vocal technique and achieve your full vocal potential. All top vocal styles from metal to musicals. Beginners will improve quickly.

617-423-7581
after 12:30 PM

AfriChic!
10% OF Autumn Special

Uniquely you . . .

Creative hair sculpture for all hair types:

Braids • Cornrow • Threading

By Appointment Only

(617) 547-3707 Cambridge

THE NEWSDAY CROSSWORD

Edited by Stanley Newman

CREATURE FEATURES: Fictional animals

by Randolph Ross

CREATORS SYNDICATE ©1992 STANLEY NEWMAN 8/30/92

ACROSS

1 Opposed to
5 Oscar-winner Jannings
9 Not in sch.
12 Little lump
15 Jule Styne collaborator
16 Line of work
17 Carvey of Saturday Night Live
19 Western star Lash
21 Canine musical?
24 States positively
25 Went a few practice rounds
26 Fiddler on the Roof tune
27 House climbers
28 Proportion words
29 Taurine novel?
31 Bilko's rank: Abbr.
32 Antonym for "aridly"
35 Ending for fit or fret
36 Where sailors go
38 Louis or Carrie
39 Tiny bit
43 Shirley, to Warren
48 Feeling poorly
49 Ursine play?
53 Nectar collector
54 Sailor's saint
55 Intl. agency based in Paris
56 Midnight Cowboy role
57 Part of GE
59 Long, long time
60 Actor Rip
61 UK honorees
63 Secretary's slip
64 With The, feline novel?
67 Wilander of tennis
71 Permission seeker's query
73 Wear a long face
74 Immigrant's subj.
75 Sing like Ella
76 Angus, for instance
79 Hershey rival
81 __ impasse
83 Move hurriedly
84 Canine bestseller?
87 Flamenco dancer's shout
88 Safari guide, perhaps
89 French/Belgian river
90 Mr. Chaney
91 Robin portrayer in '38
93 Ignition-system part
95 Boxes with combinations
97 Benelux loc.
98 Cervine novel?
106 Looseleaf dividers
108 Piano adjective
109 Tobacco juice
110 Psychological prods
113 Uncanny
114 Fowl novel?
117 Ambler and Bogosian
118 Punta del ___, Uruguay
119 Ephron and Dunn
120 __ song (cheaply)
121 Language ending
122 Units of energy: Abbr.
123 PSAT, for one
124 Quick cut

DOWN

1 Law passed by Congress
2 Slangy negatives
3 Porcine film?
4 Too quickly
5 Fish-eating bird
6 Anti-DWI grp.
7 Oath words
8 __ the wayside (abandoned)
9 "Never __ moment!"
10 Sweet leaf
11 React to ragweed
12 Michelangelo masterpiece
13 Rink or ring
14 Martin Van __
16 Burden of Proof author
18 __ spades
19 Jeweled pendant
20 Standard Oil of New Jersey, for short
22 Table scrap
23 Soft: Fr.
29 Hebrew letter
30 Limbaugh of radio
31 Apt rhyme for "wholely"
33 Captivating
34 Power in movies
36 High country
37 Burrows or Vigoda
39 Single-lensed
40 Says over and over
41 Nonstandard negative
42 Bus. letter abbr.
44 Bursts of activity
45 Sylvester, to Tweety Bird
46 Hesitater's syllables
47 King Kong studio
50 Gray work
51 "Take Me __ Ball Game"
52 Where the Earps worked
58 Acquire
62 Fraternity regulation
65 Areas behind choirs
66 __ approval (OK)
68 Leonine musical?
69 Alteration maker
70 Big name in romances
72 Phone numbers
76 Part of NYSE
77 Longest article
78 Poetic nighttime
80 Tarzan portrayer Ron
82 Pilot's hdg.
85 Literary miscellanies
86 Custard dessert
92 Spurns
94 Union general
95 At peace
96 Mixes a martini
98 S-shaped curve
99 Jacques, for one
100 Slugger of '61
101 In abeyance
102 Divert
103 Brokaw's employer
104 Fakes, in hockey
105 Brooks or Blanc
107 Poet Lowell
110 Blood components
111 Cable car
112 Calvary initials
115 Post-office offering
116 Tot's timeout

C

INTERN NEEDED TO ASSIST INSIDE SALES MANAGER GREAT OPPORTUNITY CALL 232-3705 FOR MORE INFO.

JOB FOR THE NINETIES 100 Growth Occupations, Free Brochure, Reid Enterprises, 84B, Dept TB Harvard Ave, Allston, MA 02134

LOOKING FOR WORK A COUPLE DAYS A WEEK? How about doing a few deliveries around the Boston area? For more info call 232-3507. Ask for Mark

PART TIME EAR AND NOSE PIERCER Eye for accuracy. No bed wetters. 247-7092. Ask for Tank Hannibal after 5 p.m.

SELL LOVE
Great Expectations The Nations Largest Video Dating Service is Now interviewing for inside Sales and Telemarketers at our Newton Office. Join our Happy Team! 332-7755 Ask for Sue

HYPNOSIS

HYPNOSIS $25 per hour. Certified. David (617)734-7080 Message Avi.

INSTRUCTION

COLLEGE PROFESSOR Spanish and French Lessons. English as a second language. Group and individual Lesons from Beginner to Advanced. Native Speaker of Spanish. (617)731-5915

LIMOUSINES

AUTOMALL LIMO Renting for concerts, weddings, bachelor and bachelorette parties, and all other special occasions. $25/HOUR 986-2533

MARRIAGE SERVICES

DIVORCE ONLY $1500.00

Want inner peace, tranquility, serenity and calmness? Call for information on a legal, reliable, uncomplicated, non-combative, inexpensive, and really quick divorce in the beautiful Dominican Republic. Call Harriet (508) 251-4192

All types of Masonry
J.D. Masonry Co.
• Specializing in Chimney Repointing & Repair
• Stairs • Walkways
• Foundations
Fully Insured–Free Estimates
Call Jim 776–8124

MASONRY

MASONRY C. SCANLON MASONRY CONTRACTOR - Brick & Block, Concrete walls & walks. Quality restoration work, residential & commercial. Licensed & insured. References, Free Estimates. 783-6340.

MASSAGE

MASSAGE! 1/2 hours $40.00. Stressed out or just for healing. Westford Therapeutic Massage. Licensed. Strictly non-sexual. 508-251-4192

MEDICAL SERVICES

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED DESEASE and HIV testing. Confidential doctors office. Robert Taylor, M.D. Brookline 232-1459

STATE LAW REQUIRES B.T. for marriage Lic. No appointment necessary. Fast service and documentation. Boston Evening Medical Center. 388 Comm. Ave 267-7171

MUSIC LESSONS

ACCEPTING SERIOUS STUDENTS for famous vocal method. Beginners welcome 437-9141

GUITAR LESSONS Beginner to advanced, acoustic/electric styles. Rock/Jazz/Blues. Theory/Improvisation. Mark 723-9483

GUITAR LESSONS Berklee grad teaching private lessons for guitar. 1/2 hour - 1 hour lessons. Beginner to advanced. Phil 859-8104

Piano Lessons
by Berklee grad in piano performance in Brookline (D line). Call gene 566-4145

INTENSE GUITAR LESSONS Whether you are a beginner, intermediate, or advanced guitarist. Graig Glendenning will help you do it right. Lowest rates in town! 437-7051

KEY-BORED? Berklee Prof. offers private keyboard instruction. All levels, all styles. Develop your potential! (617)628-7364

PRIVATE LESSONS in jazz, classial by exp. pianist/composer/ perc. All backrounds welcome. Rates negotiable 924-3671

VOICE LESSONS Beginner to intermediate, Jazz/Pop styles. Harmony, Ear Training, Sight Reading, Affordable. Sabrina 787-4254

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

ALTO SAX Bundy II Brand New. Best Offer. Call 340-2131 leave messages.

HAYNES Solid silver hand made french model flute. Complete and in mint condition. 789-4964

GRAND PIANO Steinertone Circa 1890. Ebony Grand with New Renner Keyboard, New Strings. For recording or pleasure. Planning to move and will consider any reasonable offer. Call Peter (617)522-1458

PAINTING

CAPE PAINT Fully Insured, Experienced, Interior/Exterior, Window Glazing, Reasonable Rates. Call Will 244-1322 For Free Estimate!

PAINTING AND CLEANING Quality work, free estimates. Priced to beat the competition. Call Joey 776-1706

Motor Mart Garage Kinney System Inc. $5.50 Theater Parking. •Present same day theatre ticket stub to lobby cashier 26 Park Plaza Bos.

PSYCHIC

RADIO/T.V. PSYCHIC COUNSELOR Caren Chalifour. For an accurate understanding, a clear view. Consultations by phone or in person, lectures on self - empowerment ,"Learn how to manifest your future yourself" meditation instruction and personalized meditation tapes produced upon request. For more information (508) 921-2170 MC/V

ROOFING

SHAM ROCK ROOFING Roofing all types, flat, slate, rubber, church steeples, etc. Old roofs removed free on any new roof installation. We also do repairs on roofs. Call Brian for free estimate 24 hours a day. 556-9210. Complete carpentry service.

SERVICES

BRAY WOODWORKING 3rd Generation Craftsman-If its wood, We do it. Call Scott (508)921-2170

ELECTRICAL SERVICES Fully Licenced and Insured. Reliable Same Day Service. Call Tony 924-9060

HIRE ME TO Edit, proofread and write. Type or Wordprocess term papers, thesis, resumes or whatever you need. RATES: Text Editing $25 per hr. WORD PROCESSING: $2.50 per dbl spaced page. $15 per Resume $4 per Cover Letter. TODD LARSON (617)738-1020

INVISIONS Logos and Lettering consulting. Call Greg 923-3472 Leave a Message.

PROFESSIONALS Need more time to yourself or to spend with your kids? Time solutions is your answer. We do children and adult party planning, organize cabinets, closets, filing systems, put together photo albums, put your time to better use and let us do your grocery shopping, dry cleaning, or even your gift shopping. Call Time Solutions 762-7665

FLOORS Installed, sanded, and refinished. Expert and curtious service. Please call The Floor Sanders Co.783-1711

ALICE DARLING SECRETARIAL SERVICES Papers, resumes, mass mailings, word processing, tape transcription.1384 Massachusetts Avenue Cambridge, MA 02138Tel: (617) 876-8750 Fax: (617) 661-2617in Harvard Square since 1913

IMAGE DYNAMICS What's the right look for you this Fall? We'll show you how to look your best! Image makeovers, color analysis, cosmetic makeovers. $25 with this ad. Call for appointment. Wendy, Image Dynamics 695-8092 HANDYMAN DOES ALL Carpentry, electrical, mechanical, outdoor work. Senior citizen discounts. Call 617-332-1033, leave message.

SITUATIONS WANTED

RESTAURANT OWNERS Need someone to cover employee vacations, fill in at the last minute or help out in a pinch? Very Experienced hostess/ service person person available for pick-up work. Call Erica@ 742-7942 and leave a message

SPORTS

QUICK CASH For sports cards, non- sports cards, and memorabilia in excellent or better condition. 332-6269

STUFF WANTED

TABLE For use as a conference table. Call 332-4710

THERAPY & COUNSELING

NEED TO TALK to someone? Heartline Services will respond.. Telephone/ personal counseling by appointment. Visa/MC (617)536-6518

TICKETS

BAY STATE TICKET See our Display Ad 734-TIXX

GREAT SEATS LIMITED Tickets for any event. Jets, Sinatra, Elton John, Dylan, Guys & Dolls, Phantom, U.S. Open, Giants, and Nicks. 302-734-8441 or 1-800-734-8441

TRAVEL

ATTENTION FREQUENT FLYERS Travel Card will save up to 50% on short notice Domestic Flights of 7 Days or Less . PLUS EARN YOUR FREQUENT FLYER MILEAGE. Call Executive Travel Experts at 1 (800) 872-8284 M-F 8-5 PM CST

PHOTOGRAPHY

DARKROOM WANTED LOOKING FOR FLEXIBLE PHOTOGRAPHER WITH DARK ROOM IN THE BROOKLINE AREA FOR OUTSIDE CONTRACTING. CONVENIENCE A MUST! CALL ANGELA 232-3507

PHOTOGRAPER HEAD SHOTS/MODELING (617)242-1354

Answer to Previous Puzzle

G	A	S	P		T	R	A	P	S		S	P	A	R
A	G	A	R		H	E	L	I	O		E	E	R	O
R	U	L	E		E	M	B	E	R		R	A	G	U
B	E	A	T	A	B	O	U	T	T	H	E	B	U	S
		D	E	L	E		M	A	I	M		E	S	T
		N	O	A	H			E	S	T	A		S	C
G	R	A	S	S	R	O	O	T	S		I	N	K
L	O	G	E	S		R	N	A		R	E	S	I	N
O	A	R			N	U	R	S	E	S		N	O	M
B	R	A	N	C	H	E	S	O	U	T			G	R
		I	O	U			T	R	E	A	T		C	O
S	L	I	P	P	E	R	S			S	T	E	M	T
H	A	N	S		Y	A	W		A	T	A	L	O	W
A	D	D	I	E		M	I	N	I	S		M	L	I
G	L	I	N	T	S		M	O	D		W	A	L	L
S	E	A	T	T	L	E		L	A	R	A		L	O
		H	A	I	L	T	O		E	V	E	L		R
A	L	O	E		T	U	R	N	O	V	E	R	A	N
T	U	R	B	O		D	I	G	A		R	O	P	E
O	C	C	U	R		E	K	E	S		E	D	I	C
M	E	A	D	E		S	E	R	T		D	E	S	K

Improper Bostonian Classifieds Menu

Line ads

Non-Commercial	$19 "until it works"
Commercial	$29 one issue
Commercial	$67 four issues

All Line ads include bold font at no charge. Call our friendly wait staff– Janet, Peg, Jen & John at 232-5356

Display ad

Two Column Inch	$40 one issue
Four Column Inch	$80 one issue
Six Column Inch	$120 one issue
Nine Column Inch	$180 one issue
Daily Special	4 for price of 3

Call our Head Waiter-Harvey for Display Info:

Tel: 232-3705 Fax: 232-4305

WANTED
OLD PAINTINGS
(Prior to 1960)
Any Condition Considered
1-800-344-0760
William Currier
CURRIER FINE ART INC.
Brockton, MA 02401

Larry the Lizard presents
The 2nd Annual UMASS Alumni Boston Harbor Cruise
FEATURING CLIFF MYERS
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19TH, 7PM
on The Bay State leaving from Long Wharf
For tickets: 232-8455 $15 ea. $20 date of cruise.
Hurry, they're going fast!...
♠ ♦ ♣ ♥ ◆
OUTA-MY-HEAD PRODUCTIONS - THE FIRM®

We're Looking For A Few Stars

Managing Editor

We're looking for an experienced, self starting, dynamic individual for our number two editorial position. Must have a minimum of two years editing experience, a strong personal portfolio of published clips and a fantastic sense of humor.

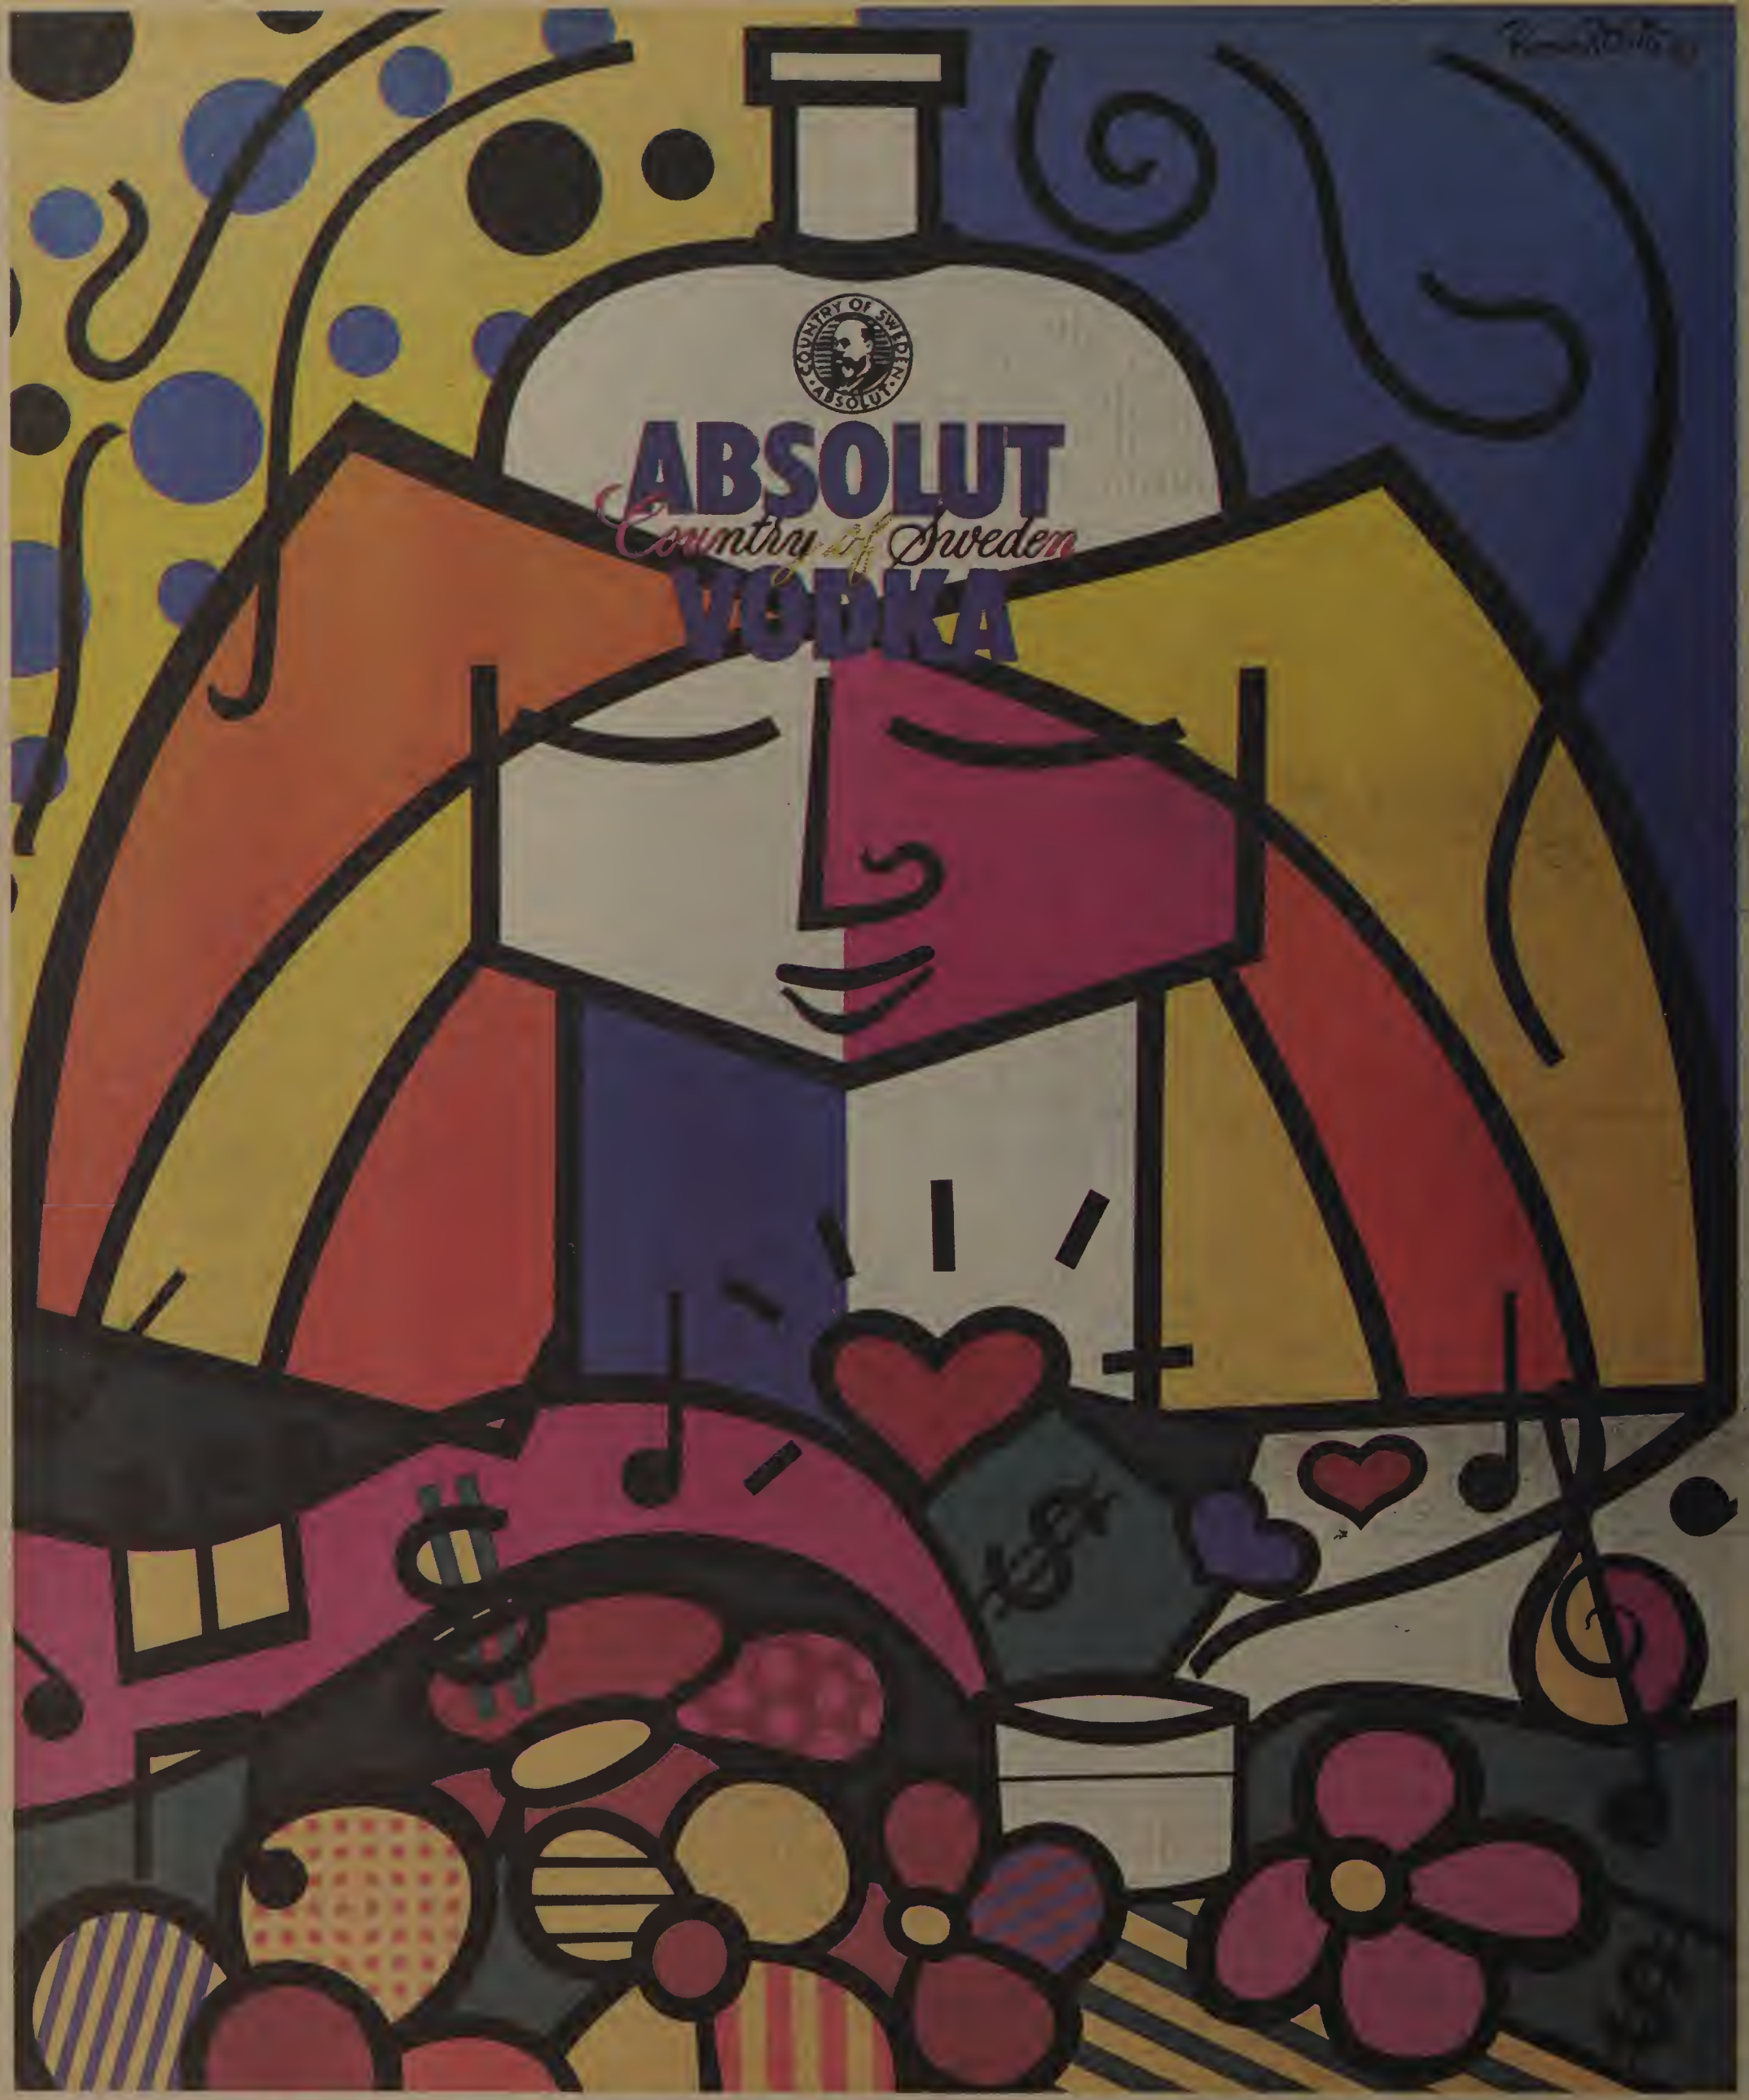
Sales Interns

Assist the sales staff of the larges bi-weekly in New England. Terrific work environment. Learn about the newspaper business from the inside. Call Harvey at 232–3705.

Editorial & Production Interns

Assist the staff in a variety of challenging and rewarding assignments. If you're responsible, enthusiastic and willing to learn send us your resume. Terrific Environment.

Account Executives



Do you have what it takes to work in the fast paced world of newspaper advertising? The Improper Bostonian has a full time position available for a self motivated person with exceptional interpersonal skills, a hard working attitude and a desire to achieve unlimited earning potential.

Inside Sales

Largest Bi-weekly in New England needs experienced inside salespeople. Excellent compensation. Terrific work environment. Call 232–3705

FAX your resume to 232-4305
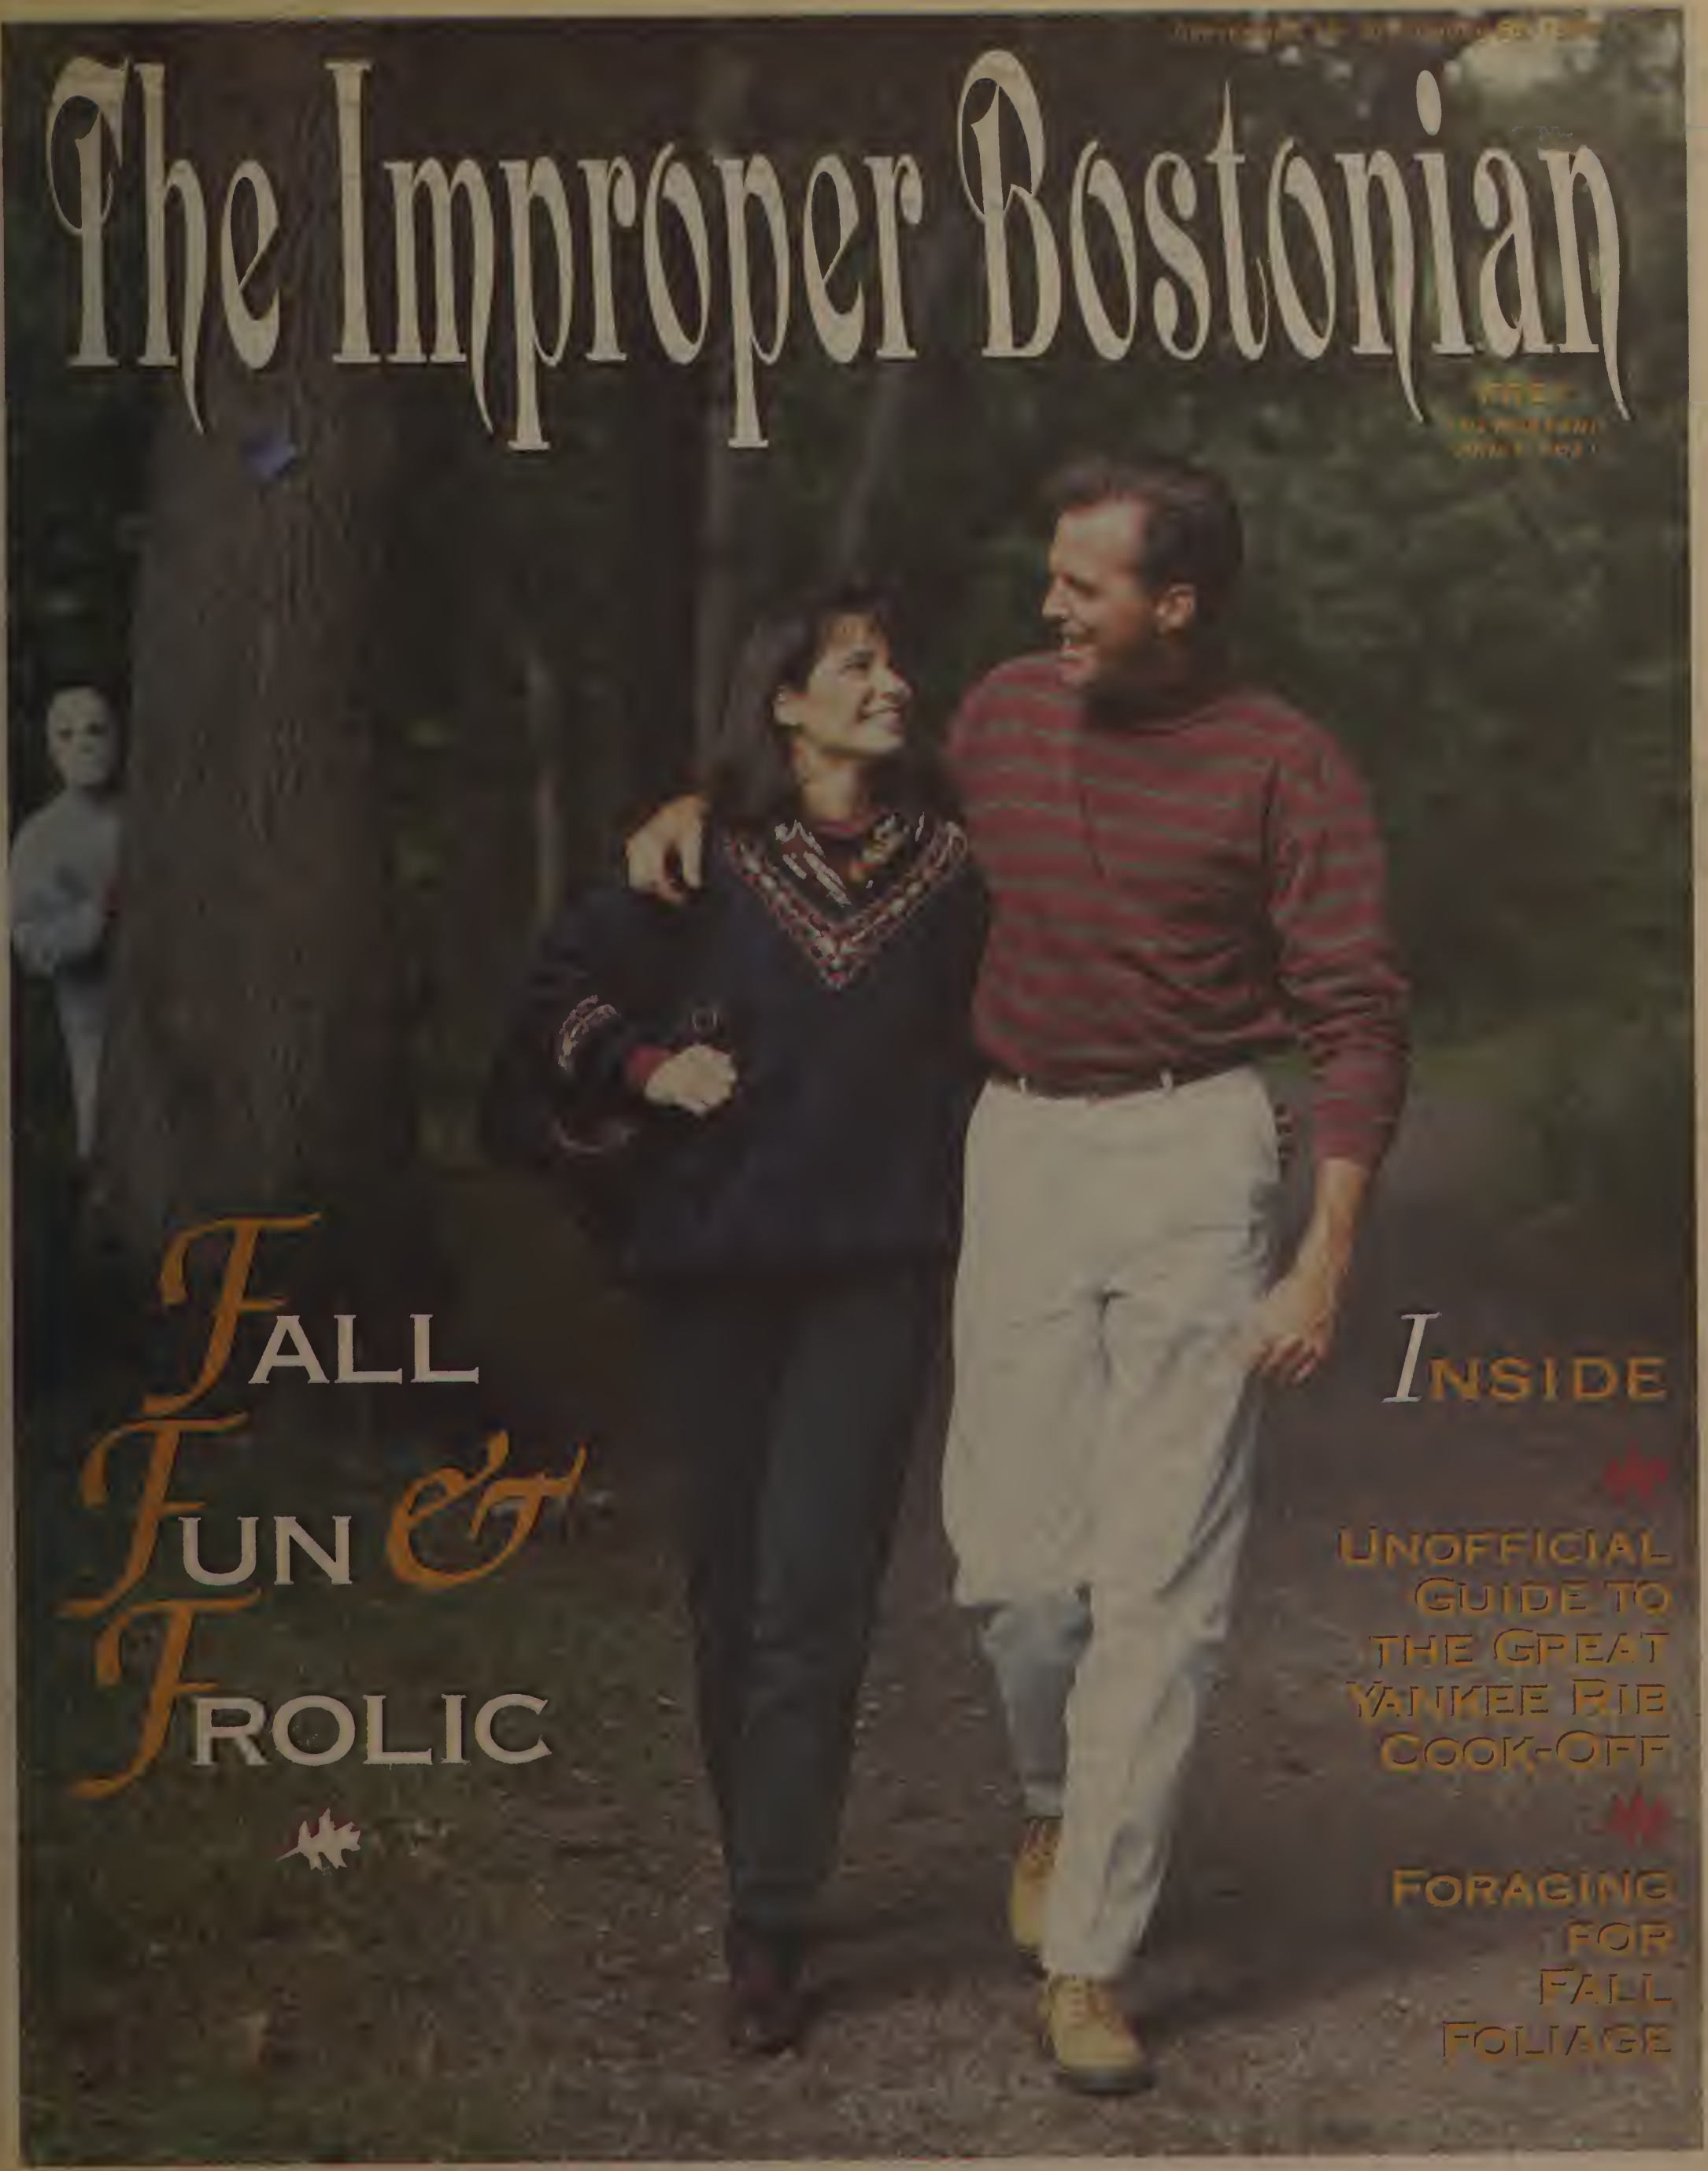
or send it to:
The Improper Bostonian
Office of the Publisher
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303



☆ ☆ ☆

ABSOLUT BRITTO.

FOR GIFT DELIVERY OF ABSOLUT® VODKA OR LITHOGRAPH OF ABSOLUT BRITTO ART (POSTER COST: $200), CALL 1-800-243-3787 (EXCEPT WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW).
PRODUCT OF SWEDEN. 40 AND 50% ALC/VOL (80 AND 100 PROOF). 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS. ©1999 CAROUSEL IMPORTERS LTD., TEANECK, N.J. © ROMERO BRITTO 1999.

The Improper Bostonian

Fall Fun & Frolic

Inside

Unofficial Guide to the Great Yankee Pie Cook-Off

Foraging for Fall Foliage

Mopsy Strange Kennedy

He / She and It

This book reads - and almost sounds - like it's being narrated out loud in the nerd-nasal voice of Pat him/herself, Saturday Night Live's creature of elusive gender. Pat chats on in a sort of illustrated lifelong yearbook of her struggles and joys, beginning with her glasses-wearing infancy. She plays Puck in the school play, learns the tuba, has asthma, takes social dancing classes (in which she learns to dance the fox-trot - both ways) and comments: "As you can see I was very active in high school. That's because I'm such a people person." Her pet expression is "This is madness!" At college she lives in George Sand Hall. At EST seminars she "Got It," so well that "It" became her nickname. Pat's erotic adventures are always with some member of the opposite sex (people with names like Chris, Freedom, Ulie and Salehe). Her list of favorite songs includes: "Dude Looks Like A Lady," "Both Sides Now," "Is That All There Is?" and "Hey Look Me Over." And her cat, echoing Pat's mystery self gets both spayed and neutered. But the fact is, Pat, just as wonderful in photo form as she is on TV, is the most lovable dorky person around.

It's Pat
My Life Exposed
Hyperion
$7.95

A Warmer Shade of Glowing

Emery Pineo's backyard and barn are full of the sundered guts of antique stoves. Some have been brought for repair, but more often they are coal or wood-burning stoves waiting in readiness for a customer to finger for adoption. It is then that Emery Pineo will restore, repair, and refurbish the piece - sandblasting and caulking it - and sell the glistening result to that interested person. Mostly dating from the 1870's-1930's, they are gorgeous structures, usually black, and often adorned with lusciously ornamental silvery trim (made of nickel) that can come back to life as efficient and inexpensive sources of heat or, in the case of the "ranges" he sells, both heat and cooking. Usually, they have a sheet metal body and a cast iron firepot. Some are tall, big-bellied ones once used to heat railroad stations, while others are enormous furnituresque beauties; not infrequently they have beasts or mythological characters twining around on them, or urnlike decorations on top. In some cases, they emanate their heating glow like an opened-up fireplace. Pineo says they may cut a heating bill in half, and, though they do involve a little worthy Yankee labor of filling and emptying, the coal can be dealt with in relatively non-messy ways. Prices range from the hundreds to the low thousands.

Antique Stove Hospital
Long Highway
Little Compton, R.I. 02837
401-635-4896

Wear It Again Samantha

When people talk about Cambridge, it's always with a tone insinuating that the place is full of distinctive flavors. High on such a list of Cambridge flavors would be the mostly used-clothing store Wearevers, a comfy place where dresses can be bought to wear on an easy afternoon say, reading Virginia Woolf. The clothes are all made of natural fibers which already gives a certain look, with often a floaty, funky feeling to the clothes. The look here in dresses and skirts is typified by faded florals. Another mainstay is the solid color camisoles and tops of a subtle palette, minor-key peach, oyster white and melancholy green. Very post-hippie stuff stonewashed by time into a look of the present is the order of the day in the Inman Square store; a slightly more office-clothes version is at the Prospect St. branch. A garment may be technically "used" yet in fact, a virgin because it didn't fit the former owner. Wearever clothes often cost around $25, with higher prices on the new clothes that work tactfully in and among the oldies, only occasionally going up to $100 (chic things from Zashi and Phool and the like, constituting the exceptional). Among the random good hits, there recently was a luscious sweater from the Andes that went for $8 and some surprisingly sexy high heels. The store is pleasantly neighborhoody, yet there's always a dash of amusing style in the window. If you like Clothware in the Square, then you'll drift easily to Wearevers. Consigners (50%/50%) must make an appointment.

Wearevers
1356 Cambridge Street
491-4427
106 Prospect Street

Mopsy Strange Kennedy has freelanced for the Atlantic, NY Times Book Review and Magazine, Parent's Choice, RedBook, The Washington Post, Chicago Tribune and was a staff writer for Glamour. She also worked for another local (though their name assumes a much more worldly significance) paper for 10 years, 5 months and 28 days.
Please send all correspondence to: The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A Brookline, MA 02146

OPEN

YOUR OWN BREWERY.

The Commonwealth Brewing Company is now available by the bottle. Open one for yourself, and taste the fresh brewed, full-bodied flavor of Boston's finest traditional English pale ale. Best enjoyed slightly chilled and among friends.

New from The Commonwealth Brewing Company.
Boston's Original Restaurant/Brewery.

BOSTON
BURTON ALE

CONTENTS

September 16 - September 29, 1992

6 Foraging For New England's Fall Foliage Surprises

As many arboreal wonders gradually change their colors, people from around the world hit the roads of New England in search of visual delights. Travel Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts to sample the hidden treats of the Northeast.

BY AMY GOLDBERGER

Special Section THE GREAT YANKEE RIB COOK-OFF

Thirty barbecue pits will fire up their power from September 24-27 in Boston's City Hall Plaza for the First Annual Yankee Rib Cook-Off and Music Festival. Amidst free concerts by the likes of Bo Diddley and Tribe, "Ribbers" will serve up some of the country's best ribs in a competition sure to make the sauce go a-flyin.

BY LISA RAFFAELE

31 THE LAST-CALL LADY

Lauren Dare, Boston's living benchmark of late night libatious enjoyment, hits her most recent bar in a tell-it-like-it-was review. Join Ms. Dare as she reminisces about another sizzling moment of honesty familiar to one and all: Last Call.

BY LAUREN DARE

ON THE FRONT COVER

Photographer: Tracey Aiguier
Models: Lisa, Model Club
Scott Ariel, Models Inc.

RIB COOK-OFF COVER

Photographer: Mim Michelove
Chef: Maurice
Pig: Oscar Meyer (Courtesy of David)

Mopsy Strange Kennedy 2
Around Town 5
Movies
Review: Wind 12
Flicks in a Flash 12
Review: Crossing the Bridge 13
Critics Choice 13
What's Playing 15
Fashion
What's In For Fall 14
Books
Kill Hole 13
Comedy
Interview: Don Gavin 16
Comedy Listings 16
Arts
Under the Influence of Italy 17
The Arts Calendar 18
Woman on the Street 19
Dining
Review: Jae's Cafe 20
Wine: Tasting Through 21
Appeteasers 22
Brunch Board 23
Restaurant Listings 24
Sports Schedules
Patriots 26
Music
Rave On - Techno Teaches Dance a Faster Step 27
Cliffs of Dooneen 28
Hot Ticket 28
Album Reviews 29
Hotline to the Underground 29
Bar & Club Listings 30
Free Boston 34
Improper Impersonals 34
Classifieds 36
Crossword 38

SUBSCRIBE AND SAVE 20%

photo by Sandra Kimball

All The Action, Every Other Wednesday

Subscribe to the best new magazine in Boston at $30 a year. (26 issues a year)

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Phone(_____) _____
❑ Check enclosed (payable to The Improper Bostonian)
Charge my: ❑Visa ❑MC ❑AMEX card _____ Exp. _____
Signature (if paying by credit card) _____

The Improper Bostonian
17 Station St. Suite 7A, Brookline, MA
OR CALL:
(617) 232-3705

The Improper Bostonian

Publisher
MARK SEMONIAN

Production Manager
DAVID LOUIE

Editor in Chief
TOBIN STREETT

President
DAN SILVER

Director of Marketing
PAUL PICCIRILLO

Staff Writers
MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY
TIM LEMIRE, LESLIE SEMONIAN

Food Editors
PETER MCNAMARA
MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS

Wine Critic
JONATHON ALSOP

Theater Critic
NANCY LEONARD

Music Editor
REY ROLDAN

Design Director
ALLISON BEGNER

Contributing Writers
AMY GOLDBERGER, LISA RAFFAELE
LISA M. BONNELL MARY LAWLOR
LAUREN DARE, JANIS REED
RICHARD WILLIAMS, STEVEN BROWN
DAVID FENIGSOHN
MATT HENDRICKSON, GEORGE POULOS

Senior Staff Photographer
ANGELA WOOLDRIDGE

Staff Photographers
MICHAEL POWERS, AYNSLEY FLOYD
DANIELLE PUCCI, MARY BARTOLOMEI
MYRIAM BABIN

Advertising Sales Directors
DIANA SMITH, HARVEY BRAVMAN

Assistant Outside Sales Manager
UGO MAZZAROLO

Account Executives
MARK STEVENS, MARK GARRETT
SUSANNE SCHANTZ, MARK SULLIVAN
WENDY SEMONIAN

Circulation Manager
JEFF HALPERN

Inside Account Executives
JANET DEBENEDICTIS, PEGGY SCANLON,
JOHN WEBSTER, ANDREW STEELE

Advertising Designer
GAIL MARCARELLI

Assistant to the Publisher
ERICA CANTLEY

Listings Editor
KATHY MATHESON

Interns
JENNIFER MCCANN, JENNIFER LEVITSKY
MARIANNE MURPHY
MIRIAM BLANKENSHIP, DINA KATZ
TREVOR FORD

Special Thanks
BOB JOHNSTON, GREG SARKISIAN
JOSH GORDON, CHUCK GOLDMAN
RALPH WHITEHEAD, JUSTIN BELTRAN
THOMAS K. IACCOBUCCI, CURTIS
COURTNEY LOFTUS, BOB SEMONIAN
PAUL WARD, JEFF FILIPOV
AND ESPECIALLY,
MARION AND LEON

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

CALENDAR LISTINGS: Listings are printed free at the discretion of the editor. Send your listings to The Improper Bostonian, P.O. Box 820, Brookline Villege, MA 02147-0820. Please include information such as dates, prices, telephone numbers and contact person. They must be recieved 9 days prior to issue release.

VOLUME I, ISSUE 22

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN is published bi-weekly for $30 per year by Improper Publications Inc. Application to mail at Second Class Postage Rates is Pending at Boston, MA.

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to the address below. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

Please send all inquiries to:

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
17 Station St., Suite 7A
Brookline, MA 02146-7303
(617) 232-3507 General
(617) 232-3705 Advertising

AROUND TOWN

Remember those days when you could roll around in the mud, get wet and dirty and never have to worry about acting like a kid? Well, those days are back! Get out your bike and mark your calendar for October 4 for the First Annual Mud, Sweat N' Gears Mountain Bike Duathlon. Held 45 minutes from Boston in Nashua, New Hampshire, this run-bike-run race promises a good time for all involved. With race entries at $22.00 individual fees and $35 for group members, racers receive long sleeve heavyweight tees, a race number, post-race refreshments and a free pre- and post-race massage. Do it for the race or do it just for the massage. Call 603-891-0844 for information.

It's not about a Mafia hit man but it is another first in Boston. Breaking Legs, the comedy hit of New York's 1991-1992 season, hits the Wilbur Theatre from September 29 through October 18. Starring Karen Valentine (pictured above) , Vincent Gardenia (also above), Gary Sandy, Larry Storch and an all-star cast, Legs begins its national tour in Boston. Performances run Tuesdays through Saturdays (Thursday matinee at 3pm) with 8pm curtain time, Saturday matinees at 2pm and Sunday matinees at 3pm. Ticket prices range from $27.50 to $42.50. Mail orders to the Wilbur Theatre, 246 Tremont Street, Boston, MA, 02116. Or call Ticketmaster at 931-ARTS for phone orders.

It doesn't have to be cold and clammy for you to enjoy the tenth annual Bud Light "Chowda" Fest on Sunday September 20 at the Charlestown Navy Yard. Twenty five restaurants will compete for the "Chowda Champ" title throughout the day, as folks stock up on all the chowder they can eat from noon to 6pm. Continuous live entertainment will rock all day in this rain or shine event. Proceeds will go to benefit Horizons for Youth, a nonprofit organization that provides environmental education and camping programs to needy children. Ticket prices are $6.00 for adults and $3.00 for kids under 12 and senior citizens. Boston Harbor Cruises will provide free water shuttle service between Long Wharf in Boston and the Navy Yard. For more information, call 828-7550.

What are the Navy's A-6 Intruder team, a colorful parachute team and the Air Force's F-15 Eagle Team doing at Hanscom Field in Bedford on September 26 and 27? They're preparing for an assault on New England - but not of an unfriendly nature. Celebrating the 7th Annual New England Escadrille Show, these daredevils, accompanied by the Six of Diamonds precision flight team, wing walkers and Kathy Gray in the BD-5 Micro Jet, will thrill and scare you as they perform breathtaking and entertaining in-air feats throughout the day. In addition to the in-air activities are ground events which include displays of military aircraft, a market fair of vendors, helicopter rides and more. Tickets are $6 for adults and $4 for children at the gate. Advance sales at Osco drug stores are $5 for adults and $3 for children. Call 274-0002 for more information.

Time makes some things offensive. Like relatives or better yet-advertisements. Recognizing this truth, the Nostalgia Factory at 324 Newbury Street begins "Let's Offend," an exhibition of original advertising which, through time, would be considered offensive by today's society. Themes and images that are racist, sexist, homophobic, anti-Semitic and more are on view now through the end of September. Take a walk down this offensive memory lane as you see ads from the legalization of Marijuana and fur coats to games like the late sixties game "Orgy," pictured here. For more information, call the Nostalgia Factory at 236-8754.

Engulf yourself in the splendor of the White Mountains of New Hampshire

Bob Grant

Foraging For New England's Fall Foliage Surprises

BY AMY GOLDBERGER

As the bright clarity of the September sun replaces summer's haze, Autumn rears its multi-colored head. At least, it will any day now, and it would be a shame to miss the splendor.

As the maples, oaks, elms and other arboreal wonders gradually change their homogeneous green leaf coats to red, orange, yellow and magenta, the passage of time and the wonders of nature are illustrated no better than in fall. For four weeks, beginning around September 20, the bright colors will enchant New England, attracting thousands of "leaf peepers" - a name our northern neighbors call city folk from the "down country."

Due to their short vibrant demise (bright leaf colors result from a gradual loss of nutrients from the roots to the leaves as trees prepare for winter), area innkeepers, tourism officials, restaurateurs, farmers and local entrepreneurs pack the month full of hayrides, smoked cheddar cheese, wine tastings, balloon rides, country cooking, candied apples and festivals galore.

How daunting it can be to make inroads and sense into the reams of information Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine departments of travel and tourism and chambers of commerce gladly mail off to anyone inspired enough to dial their lists of 800 numbers. Most of the areas' towns and counties have their own 800 numbers, and by mid-September each state will even have its own fall foliage progress report 800 numbers set up to guide leaf-watchers toward the areas where the leaves are most vibrant.

The first step: choose one of the four states and call its 800 number for the brochure.

The second step: ask your friends and colleagues for suggestions. A surprising number of Bostonian's have favorite haunts for peeping at the leaves.

The third step: pick up one of seemingly a million bed and breakfast, bicycle trip, backroads or hiking guides in any of Boston's omnipresent bookstores. It just takes one place to give you a destination, and let's face it - the leaves are beautiful all over New England.

A lot of the B&B's have 800 numbers and reasonable prices too.

New Hampshire:

For example, The Mountain Lake Inn in Bradford, New Hampshire (southwest N.H.) is only one-and-a-half hours from Boston and is nestled in the lakes region and foothills of the White Mountains. Its innkeepers Phil and Carol Fullerton answer their 800 number (800-662-6005) late into the night. Set on 167 acres of woods, streams and brightly colored leaf-bearing trees, the Inn boasts the results of many a day and night of toil by the Fullertons. He, a stock commodity broker and she, a caterer, decided to leave big city life behind and after six years of looking for the perfect romantic and rustic getaway, purchased the circa 1760 inn complete with its own sandy beach on Lake Massasecum.

Fullerton raves about the trail hikes up Mount Kearsarge and Mount Sunapee. Lake Sunapee offers boat cruises for $9 per person through Columbus Day weekend, when Bradford hosts a fall foliage festival, he said.

"We have a road behind the Inn, as the crow flies five or six miles." Its Route 31 and it goes into Hillsborough, New Hampshire and its right out of a picture book," Phil Fullerton said. "There is a village green, school house, church and town center." He and Carol - like most bed and breakfast keepers - offer maps to their patrons and encourage them to go out and observe the scenery.

To get to the Lakes Region, take 93N to 89N at Concord, NH into the depths of the state. From there, you may turn off onto Route 11 and Route 4 for serious leaf peeping.

A bit closer to Boston, and a familiar drive to the skiing crowd, the Kancamagus Highway and Mt. Monadnock regions offer easy on and off hiking and scenic drives. These can be very congested areas during the height of leaf-peeping season so beware and think about taking time off mid-week to maximize your time. Fifteen peaks over 1,500 feet high offer bikers and hikers the rigors of rewarding trails. The White Dot Trail is a fun day hike to the summit of Mt. Monadnock. (Off NH Route 124). The Kancamagus Highway veers right past Loon Mountain. Take 93N to the Lincoln exit. The highway will take you right past a multitude of campgrounds and hiking trails. Gulleys and waterfalls as well as panoramic views spread throughout the region which is part of the White Mountain National Forest, easily discernible on the N.H. map as the large green area. The Attitash Alpine Slide is just north of the highway.

Horseback riders and even those who've never tried it can spend an hour or two trotting through trails covered with the boughs of changing trees. The Morning Mist Farm in Hillsborough, NH offers rides for $25 each hour and a half. Call 603-428-3889 for details. Take 93N to 89N to Exit 5 and Route 9W to the heart of the riding area.

New Hampshire fairs celebrate the harvest with foods, crafts, agriculture, hayrides and pumpkin decorating throughout the season. Sept 17-27 is the Rochester Country Fair. October 1-4 is the Deerfield Fair, the oldest fair in N.H. The Sandwich Fair will take place October 10-12. Call 1-800-944-1117 for the official New Hampshire Guide Book and Map.

This is the state where Robert Frost grew up and later revealed as his inspiration.

VERMONT:

Many of Vermont's best foliage environs boast miles and miles of bike trails.

The Northeast Kingdom, a term used for the three northern-most Vermont counties (Caledonia, Essex, and Orleans) bordering Canada is miles of thick woods and rural vistas. Craftsbury, VT is the home of the Craftsbury Sports Center (802-586-7767) of world class mountain biking in the fall season and teases its patrons with wonderful cross country possibilities for the winter. 93N to 91N will lead you directly there - to prime areas for fabulous mountain biking in VT. Call 1-800-Lake Willoughby, a 600-foot glacial scrape is often called the Lake Lucerne of America. The Willowvale Restaurant lies on the edge of the river. A beautiful drive away from the river to Montgomery brings hungry leaf peepers and aficionados of the eccentric to Zacks on the Rocks, a dramatically decorated fantasy restaurant. "It sure is a lesson in how you can create an atmosphere through interior decorating," said Peggy Day Gibson a Northeast Kingdom merchant.

A colored newspaper brochure, "Vermont: Autumn Events" is an eight page spread teaming with suggestions, locations, times and phone numbers of attractions for VT leaf lovers. It is a must-read for Vermontophiles. Call the "Vermont Makes it Special" travel division for a quickly delivered copy at 802-338-0189. They will include a pink sheet called "Bicycling in Vermont" with tips and phone numbers.

Aerial views of the changing leaves in the Green Mountains and White Mountains are yours for the price of $150 - through a ride in a hot air balloon! Brian Boland operates his business from Fairlee, Vermont. Take 93N to 89N to White river Junction and then 91N to Exit 15 (Fairlee) to the Post Mills Airport. Boland offers sunrise and sunset rides with complimentary champagne. He's been at it for 22 years and makes the balloons during his spare time. In fact, he just sold one in China.

This weekend (Sept 19-20), Shelburne Farms hosts its 13th Annual Harvest Festival. Call 802-985-8686 for details. Stratton Mountain begins its 29th Annual Stratton Arts Festival on September 20 and continues through the whole season. Stowe's Foliage Craft fair on September 25-27 promises to display some of the finest artwork in New England.

MASSACHUSETTS:

Massachusetts's Pioneer Valley is abundant with hills and valleys that cyclists would love to explore. Williamsburg's Twin Maples bed and breakfast has just three rooms, but the hosts do a wonderful job with the caretaking of the quarters and the guests. Trail maps, food and good cheer are abundant according to recent guest, Lowell Weiss, 24.

By driving two hours on rustic Route 2, a familiar road to many Bostonians, Weiss and his girlfriend made themselves a one-night weekend get-away filled with gastronomic delights, mountain biking and the areas romantic charm so prevalent in the paintings of Berkshire resident Norman

(continued on following page)

A friendly straw couple displays their wares in Northwood, New Hampshire

Buy any Polaroid camera Now and Save up to $15.00 on Admissions to Spooky World!*

Pick up a pack of Polaroid film or other Polaroid product and save another $3.00! Total savings up to $18.00 on one of Halloween's newest attractions!

600 PLUS Instant Film
Single Pack $10.99
2-Pack $19.99

sale price
One Step Flash $29.95
•Uses 600 PLUS film with a battery in every film pack.
•Fold away flash fires every time; flash range, 4-10 ft.
•Focus-free; no focusing required.

special price
Spectra $109.95
Spectra High Definition Instant Film
Single Pack $10.99
2-Pack $19.99

*Virtually all Polaroid consumer cameras and films qualify, September 15 through October 31, 1992. Polaroid business, professional and industrial products excluded. Spooky World open evenings October 1 through October 31, 1992. Located at Berlin Fun Farm, 100 River Road, Berlin, MA 01503. Discount coupons valid only Monday through Wednesday. Coupons redeemable at New England Ticket Master and Spooky World box office. Camera discount coupon allows $3 discount for each family member, up to family of 5 ($15) total. Limit one discount per ticket purchased.

Register to win FREE Spooky World tickets from Polaroid! Entry forms at photo counter.

Campus Camera
660 Beacon St.
B.U. Bookstore Mall • Kenmore Sq.
Boston 236-7474

SPOOKY WORLD

TICKETMASTER

Polaroid
The official photographic company of Spooky World

THE PHANTOM YOU CAN'T SEE IN BOSTON

Music by Tony Award Winner MAURY YESTON

Phantom

Book by Tony Award Winner ARTHUR KOPIT

"Keith Rice's strong and sensitive portrayal of the Phantom...showcases the lyric magic of Yeston's score and Rice's remarkable voice...Lisa Vroman sounds divine as Christine."
Fort Worth Star-Telegram

"This Phantom is one of the most appealing American musicals of recent years."
The Dallas Morning News

"A powerful, breathtaking triumph!"
Star Publications

"I don't just recommend it, I urge you to see it."
NBC TV, Houston

"This Phantom is not the Andrew Lloyd Webber version. But in some ways it is much better."
Chicago Daily Herald

"Musical Theatre at its best! Even if you've seen other Phantoms, don't miss this one!"
WGN TV Super Station

"Wherever it plays, it is cheered by audiences and critics alike...and is a sellout."
Chicago Sun

It's less than 30 minutes from Boston, with lots of free parking, in a theatre where every seat is close to center stage.

With Special Guest ANNA MARIA ALBERGHETTI

SEPTEMBER 10-26

NORTH SHORE MUSIC THEATRE

Marino RISTORANTE & MARKET

The Biggest Musicals. The Brightest Stars.

62 Dunham Road, Beverly, MA 01915 • Route 128, Exit 19

FOR TICKETS CALL 508-922-8500

Mike Rounds

The annual Fall Foliage Festival in Warner, New Hampshire attractspeople from around the world

(continued from previous page)

Rockwell. In fact, a museum of his work sits on the corners of Main and Elm Streets in Stockbridge, MA. There is one in Rutland, Vermont too.

The floral wallpaper, fireplaces (for show only), high beds and gingerbread decor bring the country flavor of the Pioneer Valley right into the bedroom at Twin Maples. Seven miles from Williamsburg by car, Northhampton, MA offers the wealth of civilization.

"Probably the greatest movie theater I've ever seen is there," Weiss, a graduate of nearby Amherst College said. "It was an old opera house that's been restored." The theater, called the Academy of Music, has plays and concerts as well. A painting of it even hangs in New York City's Metropolitan Museum of Art.

After a morning repast complete with the sound of sausage sizzling and the fresh aroma of real blueberry muffins, pancakes, homemade jams and fresh fruit, the two set out on a bike ride that would take them through four towns. Weiss, an avid cyclist, came to the area without any specific routes in mind. "And we were the better off for not having planned it. I was really winging it. There were very small roads," Weiss said. "We rode on dirt roads and sometimes carried our bikes through streams when bridges were out. It was gorgeous." Weiss raved about the terrain - and the hunger they worked up pedaling the Pioneer Valley. At one point the two came upon an "impromptu" wine tasting on the side of the road.

Nearby Northhampton's food selection varies from ethnic restaurants to fresh pasta and gourmet pizza. One establishment, called Spoleto, adorns its brick oven pies with fresh interesting ingredients.

Massachusetts not only boasts the thickly forested towns surrounding the Five College Consortium of Amherst, UMass-Amherst, Mt. Holyoke, Smith and Hampshire Colleges, the Berkshires, lying just west of that region stretching up to the southwest boundary of VT, offer music, art, theater, food and picturesque vistas to visitors.

Leading the collection of charming Berkshire hamlets, is Lenox, MA. Route 7 connects

(continued on following page)

SEALY'S FINEST

DOWN-BLEND

EXCLUSIVELY AT JENNIFER

Sealy Sofabed with the Queensize Posturepedic mattress.

$999.

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY

Classic Sealy sofabed with gently rolled arms and dressmaker skirt. Overstuffed down-blend cushions for deep-down seating comfort.

The quality and style you would expect on a sofabed twice the price. Covered in luxurious linen blend tea-stain print. Or choose from hundreds of other designer fabrics—Robert Allen, David & Dash, Chris Stone and others—all available at a range of prices you'd otherwise pay more for elsewhere. C.O.M. available.

JENNIFER CONVERTIBLES

Open 10-9 pm Sat 10-6 pm Sun 12-5 pm America's Largest Sofabed Specialist

Please call 1-800-JENNIFER for the showroom nearest you

NEW YORK NEW JERSEY CONN N HAMP WASH DC MARYLAND VIRG FLOR ILL IND MISSOURI MICH

Summer Bike Sale

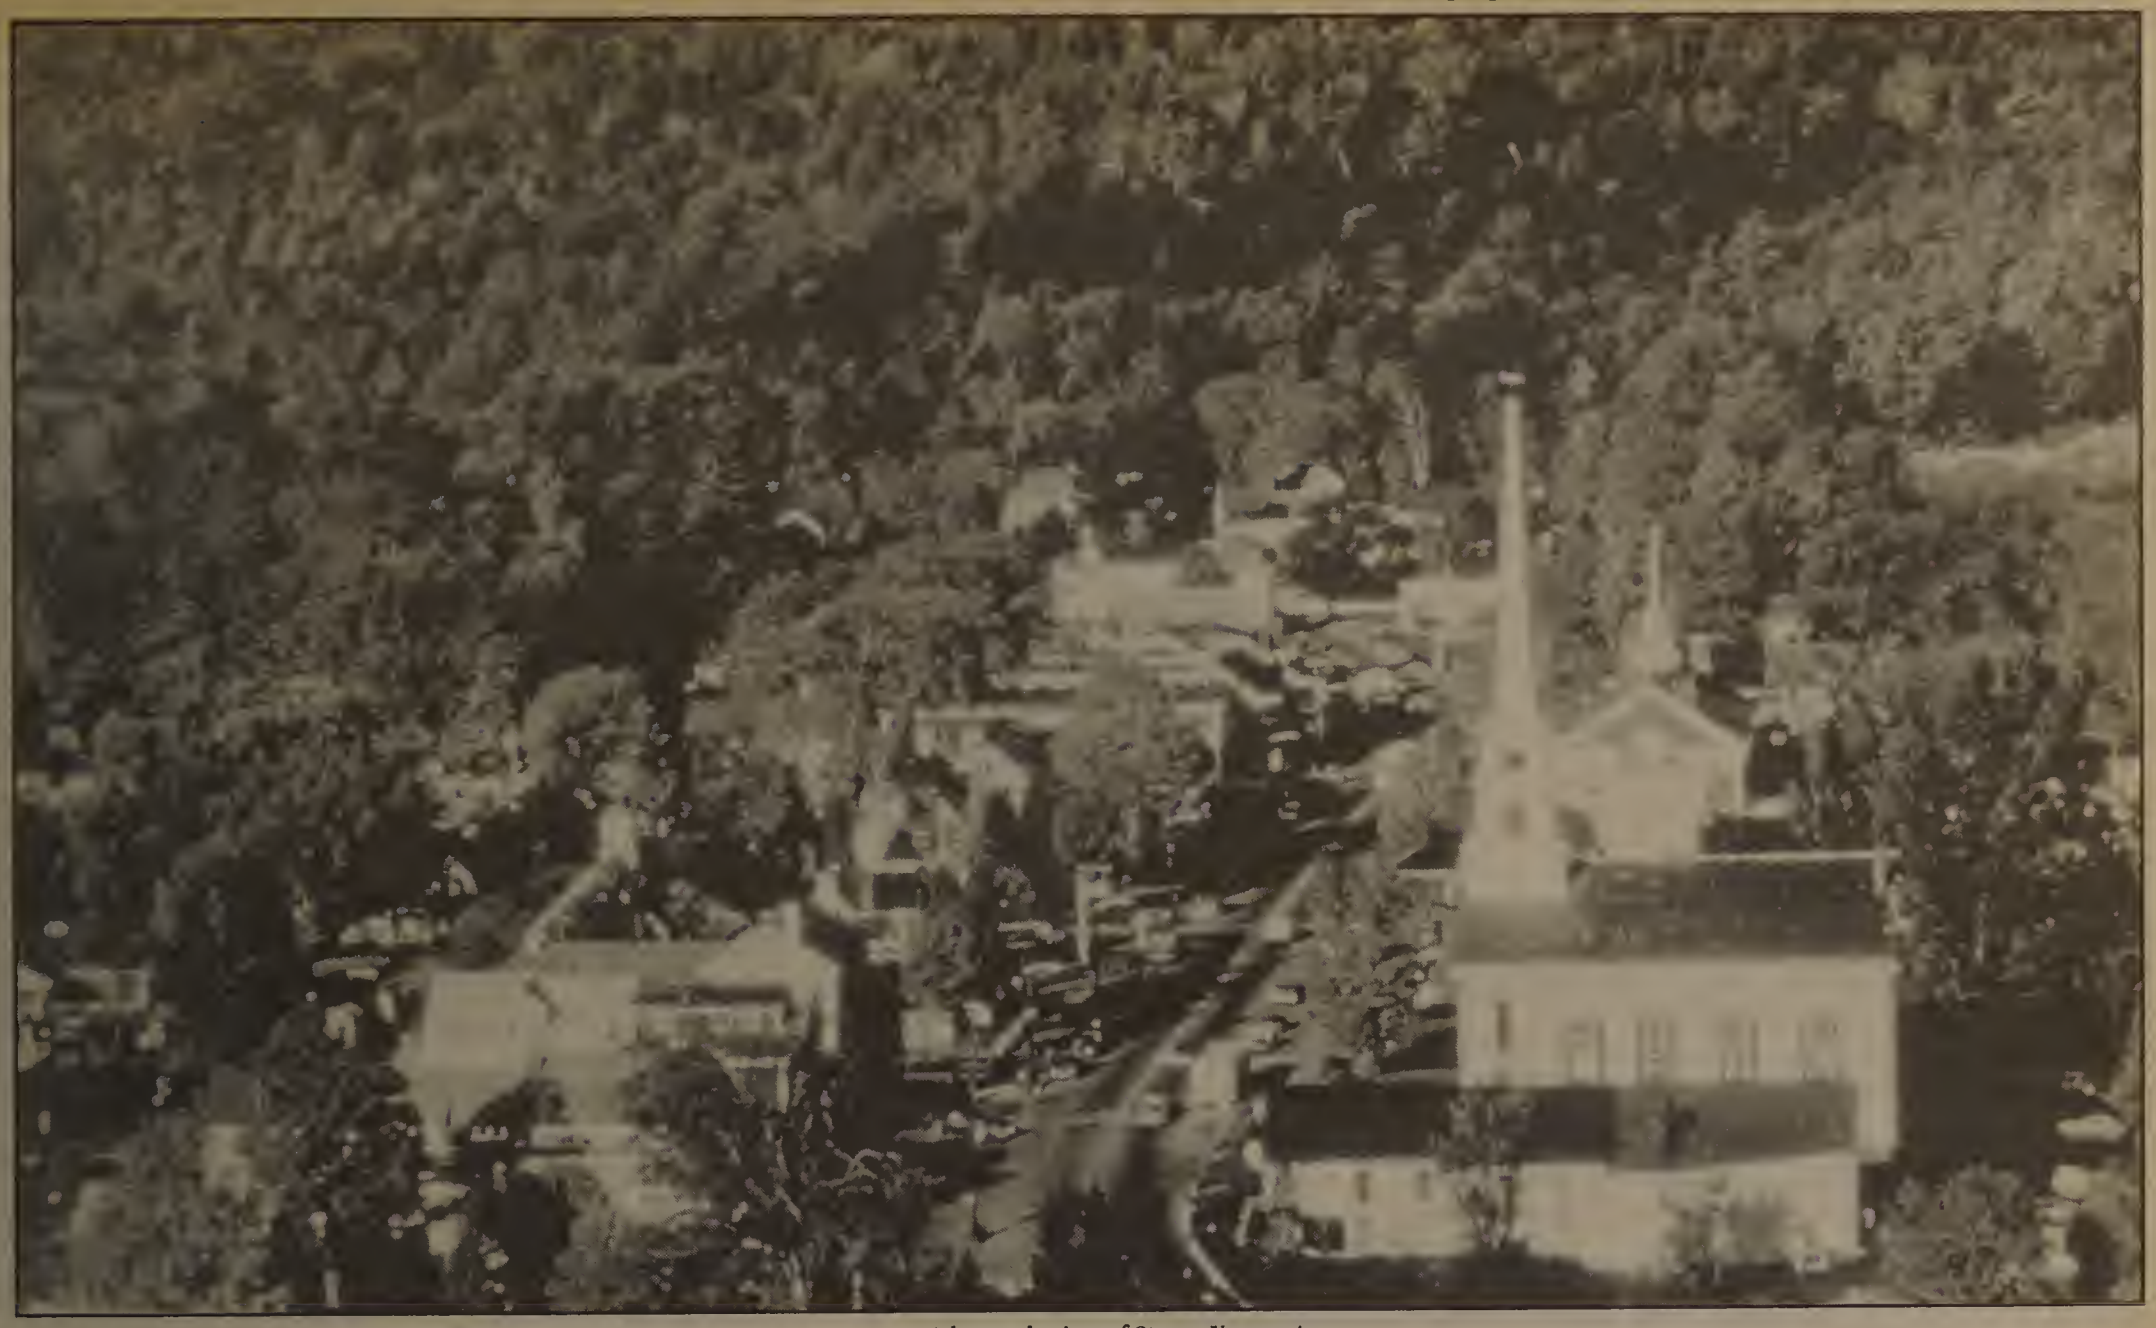
BICYCLE BILLS

783–5636

10–25% OFF!

- Closest Shop to Harvard Square
- Just a 10 minute walk past Blodgett Pool
- $10 Off Any Helmet with Student I.D.

RON



HARO DESIGNS

RALEIGH

DIAMOND BACK

BRIDGESTONE

Hours: M, Tu, Th, F 10:30–6:30, W 1–7:30, Sat 10–5

A heavenly view of Stowe, Vermont

Great Leather. Great Price.

$179
and up

T—W

TANNERY WEST

Copley Place 424-1410
Faneuil Hall Market 723-5934
The Atrium 527-9395

Send your love in a big way

for less money

Only
$29.99
a boxed dozen

SUPERoses
have huge blooms and 2 foot + long stems because they're grown high in the mountains.

Get a super reaction when the biggest roses ever seen are presented by our rose-bearing, tuxedo-wearing messenger.

Call today for fast delivery.

FREE Downtown Boston Delivery
inexpensive delivery to other areas

Call Today
269-4444
Ask for SUPERoses! from ROSExpress.

ROSExpress

© 1992 Card & Party

The Richmond Round Church is a breathtaking sight in Richmond, Vermont

Idlease & Shorelands Guest Resort
Kennebunkport

A family resort with beautiful gardens, pool, yard games — a relaxed country atmosphere only a short walk to beach, yet close to the restaurants and shops of Kennebunkport, Wells and Ogunquit.

Fall Getaway-$99

"Kennebunkport Sampler" $169.00
2 nights lodging, third night free
1 Breakfast - 1 Lunch - 1 Gourmet Dinner
Reservations Helpful

1-800-99 BEACH
Route 9, P.O. Box 769, Kennebunkport, ME 04046

(continued from previous page)

it to Great Barrington, Stockbridge, Pittsfield, Williamstown and to the east, North Adams. By driving west on the Massachusetts Turnpike (Rte. 90) to exit 2 (Lee), the signs will lead you to Lenox, the hometown of Tanglewood, the Boston Symphony Orchestra's summer retreat. Visitors delight in strolling up and down Main Street - browsing through gift shops, antiques stores, book sales and fantastic foods.

Cheesecake Charlie's offers picnickers a vast selection of exotic foods including its latest novelty - dried persimmons and of course, fantastic cheesecakes. Adjacent to the rich food store is its sister store, Wholesome Harold's, for the whole-food minded traveler. "It's like a yin/yang of foods," said owner Ralph Petrillo. His wife, Sophie, suggests Under Mountain Road for fabulous leaf peeping off the beaten track. "There are farmhouses with ducks to feed and beautiful views," she said.

Perfect Picnics in the town center specializes in gourmet picnics-to-go, and is priced reasonably to boot.

The annual Apple Squeeze will take place the weekend of September 19-20 at Church and Main Streets in Lenox. Community merchants and farmers gather to celebrate the harvest. Hayrides and square dancing add romance to the crisp fall air. Tanglewood's rolling lawns (music-free until next summer) provide a place to flop down and sample your gourmet picnic. Don't forget to bring a candle for evening picnics.

Follow Routes 83, 7, and 7a for even more fabulous foliage. Out of Town News in Harvard Square carries the Berkshire Eagle which lists events each Friday.

The Northern-most part of the Berkshires, Williamstown, has the fantastic Clark Art

DIONNE ATHLETIC RACING EVENTS
DO YOU DARE???
DIONNE ATHLETIC RACING EVENTS

The First Annual
MUD, SWEAT N' GEARS MOUNTAIN BIKE DUATHLON

TWINLAB
HYDRA FUEL
THE ULTIMATE FLUID REPLACEMENT DRINK

Partial Proceeds Will Be Donated to The Boys Club of Nashua, Inc.

R BROWN PARTNERS
REAL ESTATE
SALES MANAGEMENT RENTALS

B 106.3 FM WHOB

Sunday, October 4th, 1992
9:30AM race start (rain or shine)
Mine Falls Park
Nashua, NH (just 45 minutes from Boston)

Center for PHYSICAL THERAPY and EXERCISE, INC.
522 Amherst St., Route. 101A, Nashua, NH
880-0448

Duathlon Course: (4k-20k-4k) Cross country run and three loop mountain bike. Just minutes off Route 3 in the heart of the fall foliage. Run and bike along the dirt trails of Mine Falls Park. Multi-loop bike course with many opportunities for spectators. Great picnic area!

Race Information: Call Brenda at (603) 891-0844

The Improper Bostonian
Boston's Bi-Weekly Entertainment & Leisure Newspaper

•100% cotton long sleeve heavyweight tee to all pre-entries •• race tee to first 25 entries on race day •
• post-race food fest •• free pre and post-race massage by the Center for Physical Therapy & Exercise •
• live music by WHOB -- the station that keeps you pedaling •
PRIZE RAFFLE EXTRAVAGANZA

SportClub
1 800 345-3610

Institute, called a "jewel" by reviewers in Good Housekeeping magazine.

Accommodations in the Berkshires can range from modest and reasonable to elegant. The Garden Gables Inn in Lenox offers rooms from $90-$160. Weekdays the rooms cost less. With its white clapboards and green shutters outside and the watercolor paintings inside, the old home boasts the best of New England country charm - and the lazy companionship of its two pet turtles. Call 413-637-0193.

Bread and Roses, a bed and breakfast in Egremont, MA charges the same rate for every room - $95 (it's even less in November). A popular honeymoon spot, the arching bridge over the brook and the wrap-around porch lend a touch of enchantment to the place. Mozart wafts through the dining room during breakfasts of spinach soufflés with mushrooms, French Toast Grand Marnier, homemade muffins and breads and fresh squeezed orange juice.

For more information on lodging and sight-seeing call the Berkshire Visitors Bureau at 800-237-5747.

MAINE:

For the season's first leaves turn northward again, and head for America's northeastern tip - Maine. "The farther North you go the better off you are," said a spokesperson at the Maine Department of Tourism (800-258-3608). 95N will take you straight up through the center of ME. Maine attracts seekers of lobster, clam chowder, maple syrup and environments where authors like Harriet Beecher Stowe and Steven King crafted - and still craft - their novels.

Rooms at the Blackberry Inn in Camden, ME (207-236-6060) range in price from $75 for a room or $100 for the carriage house. The parquet floors and intricate plaster-adorned ceilings lend elegance to the rustic vistas of Mount Battie and is within easy walking distance of the harbor. The blackberry candies sweeten the country flavor. Theater and chamber concerts characterize the cultural offerings of the area and hiking trails offer rigorous or relaxing downeastern exercise. Vicki and Ed Doudera operate the Inn where Ed, the chef, prepares delectable breakfasts replete with apricot crunch toast, granola, cheese blintzes with blackberry sauce and fresh ground coffee. They're even fluent in French.

The Home Nest Farm in Fayette, ME (207-897-4125) is nestled in hill country with a 65-mile panoramic view of the White Mountains. For as little as $50 per room in the main house and $80 in the Red Schoolhouse on the premises, guests can enjoy the homestead of Arn and Leda Sturtevant. They are happy to direct their patrons to waterfalls, orchards, woods and berry picking. Guests may prepare their own breakfast in the well stocked kitchen or enjoy a full breakfast buffet. Take Route 1 to Route 201 to Augusta and take a left on Route 17. The farm is just a mile from Rte. 17.

Just an hour from Boston, Kittery, ME (in the state's southern tip) is the perfect day trip getaway for noticeably crisp clear air, lobster and outlet shopping in stores like L.L. Bean (open 24 hours) and Patagonia. Take take Route 1 straight up from Boston.

The New England foliage rivals none other in the United States. Tourists from all over the country - and the world - descend on the area to soak up the last warm sun and the bright colors of the year. Crowds and traffic can be expected on weekends as far north as Manchester, NH. But for those willing to drive beyond, the mountains and valleys of New England's tapestry unfold to the solitude and peace of the country. Inns and B&B's often book solid a year in advance so consider traveling mid-week or to farther reaches of the foliage areas. Besides, you may discover a whole new kingdom to tell your friends about, or to keep all to yourself. ❑

BROMFIELD PEN SHOP
Boston's Oldest & Most Complete Pen Store

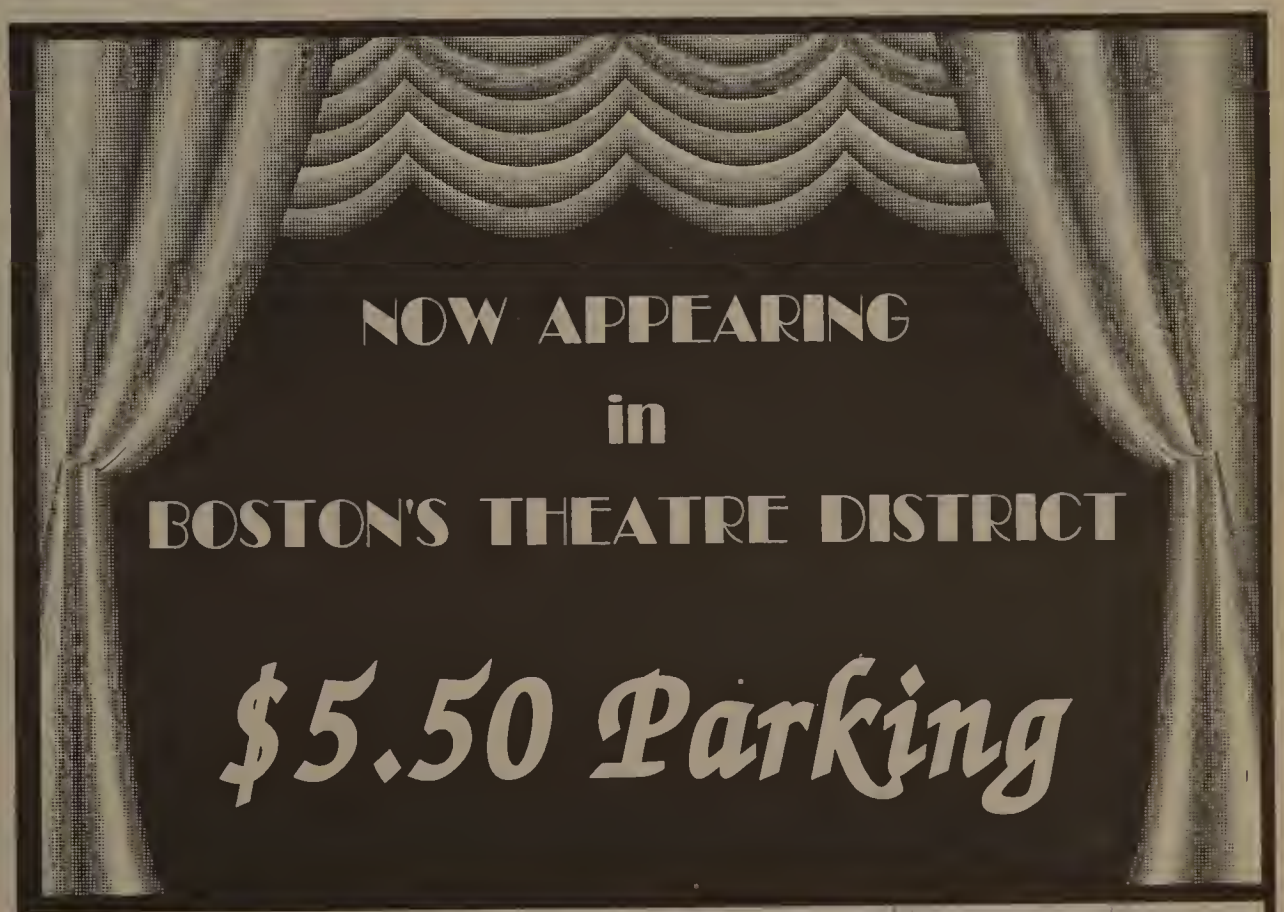
Used pens bought, sold and repaired.

Art & Calligraphy Supplies

37 Bromfield St.
Boston, MA 02108
617-482-9053

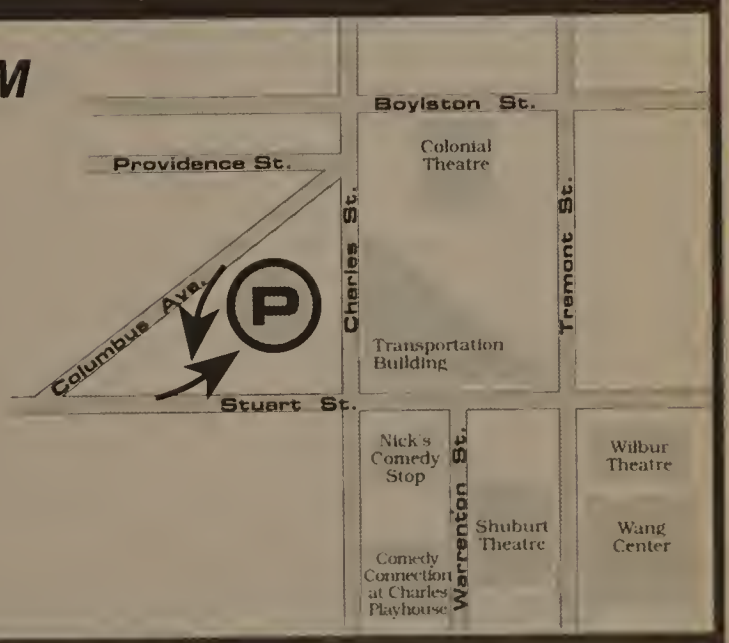
There is NO Substitute for Feeling Good

- Is stress holding you back?
- Would you like the energy you had when you were younger?
- Our clinic is committed to helping you reach optimal health and fitness.



Complimentary classes:

Relaxation Techniques
- Saturday September 19th, 4pm



Soothing the Cycles of Stress
- Monday September 21st, 7pm
- Saturday October 10th 3pm

Please call to reserve space in our classes and for more information.

Newton Chiropractic Centre
Dr. Robin Bruck Dr. Julie Burke
964–3338

- Enter garage after 5PM Mon.- Fri. or 9 AM Sat. & Sun. exit by 3AM.
- Present same day theatre ticket stub to lobby cashier.
- Pay just $5.50.

Motor Mart Garage
Kinney System, Inc.
26 Park Plaza, Boston
617-482-8380

FLICKS IN A FLASH

A Winner

A Toss up

For the birds

Death Becomes Her

"A Black Comedy Full of Twists"

Death Becomes Her is an anomaly among summer releases: this black comedy, starring Bruce Willis, Goldie Hawn and Meryl Streep, is well-written, engaging from first scene to last, wickedly funny, and unlike a score of other summer movies, worth the price of admission. The movie centers on the rivalry between two women, Helen Sharp (Goldie Hawn) and Madeline Ashton (Meryl Streep), as well as on the object of both their affections, Dr. Ernest Menville (Bruce Willis), plastic surgeon. When Helen sees Madeline steal Ernest away, she plots a revenge that goes awry, and the circumstances resulting from the dirty deed are hardly what anyone nursed on Hollywood formulas would expect. There has been a lot of press about Death Becomes Her being a ludicrous foray into lookism, but with all this slapstick and morbidity, one gathers that the intention was hardly to be severely non-p.c. Death Becomes Her is funny, surprising and a wonderful guilty pleasure. T.S.L.

The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag

"Girls Just Want To Have Guns"

Penelope Ann Miller is Betty Lou, a mousy librarian who longs for more adventure in her new film The Gun in Betty Lou's Handbag. She's married to Eric Thal, an overcommited cop who takes her for granted. She is so mad at him for forgetting their anniversary that after she pulls a gun out of the river, she "confesses" to shooting some man at the nearby motel. Suddenly, she's a new woman. She gets a reaction from her hubby, respect and fashion tips from the hookers in the holding tank, and envious looks from her friends. Unfortunately, she also gets the attention of the cruelest mobster in the world who was after the stiff in the motel. Penelope Ann Miller (The Freshman and Other People's Money) is sweet, but she doesn't have enough power to offer the film a firing pin. What we see is the diet soda, She-Bop version of Louise (in Thelma and Louise). There is no real anger, humor, joy or danger in this picture . . . just the fluffy, gooey stuff that nutrasweet and "new images" are made of. B.C.

Pet Semetary II

"Nothing But Blood and Bore"

After his movie star mom is electrocuted on the set of her latest movie, Jeff (Edward Forlong) and his veterinarian father (Anthony Edwards) move to the house inhabited by the family from Stephen King's Pet Semetary. Jeff first gets the idea to resurrect his mother when a neighborhood boy, Peter (Chris Weaver), brings his dog back to life. The plot of Pet Semetary II succeeds in presenting more blood and gore than the original. The sequel slashes countless innocent victims. Notable performances by Forlong (Terminator II) and by newcomer, Weaver, as the chubby outcast of the school. Unless you're into chuckling at the decapitations of crazed characters, slaughtered kitties and mutilated mutts, skip this movie. L.B.

Single White Female

"Doesn't Keep Her Promise"

Allison Jones (Bridget Fonda) kicks her boyfriend out of her huge rent-controlled apartment in New York and finds herself Hedra (Jennifer Jason Leigh), the Roommate From Hell in Single White Female. With everything that the movie has going for it (esteemed director, high-voltage acting talent in Leigh and Fonda), it is a pity that Female falls short of being a taut, spooky, psychological thriller. By its end, Female has deteriorated into just another slasher film, with Leigh's character wandering around armed with knives and hooks. Director Barbet Schroeder seems so bent on filming a commercial slasher film that he shoots past the rich underbelly which the audience really wants. B.S.

Wind: How the Cup Was Won (And Lost and Won Again)

Kate Bass (Jennifer Grey) tests a new sail design in "Wind", a TriStar Pictures Release

by Tim Lemire

Wind, the story of how the United States lost the America's Cup in the late '80s to the Aussies and then won it back, contains all the formulaic elements of a good time at the movies: a dream lost and won again, a love lost and won again, plus action, thrills and characters for which we can cheer.

Matthew Modine is Parker, "the famous fumbler," as one character calls him: a key blunder of his on the American boat Radiance cost the U.S. the America's Cup, the first time it had been culled from the trophy cases of Newport, RI, in 130 years. So psychologically drained is Parker that he embarks for Deadman Flats, Nevada, to seek out his girlfriend and sailing partner of 15 years, Kay Bass.

Kay, having been kicked off the Radiance because of her womanhood, has hooked up with a new beau, a scientist who is conducting aeronautic experiments in the desert. Together they work to build the boat that will win back the Cup, and even if you didn't follow the news, they succeed. (Knowing Hollywood, the American team would succeed in the movie even if they didn't in real life.)

As feel-good as Wind is, it has some unfortunate flaws. Early on in the picture, as Parker is training to skipper a sailing boat, a colleague impresses upon him the urgency of turning the crew into a team. "There are ten guys who want to drive the boat," Parker's friend tells him. "You have to make them feel as if they're making a contribution." Regrettably, we learn next to nothing about the other members of the crew; to see Wind, you'd almost think Parker and Bass won the Cup single-handed.

We also never really understand what these important contributions are that the other teammates make; if you don't know your jib from your mizzenmast, screenwriter Rudy Wurlitzer isn't there to help you out. To his credit, Wurlitzer doesn't have a spell-it-all-out-for-you script on every detail of sailing, but too often, sailing terms and techniques breeze past, detracting from a deeper enjoyment and appreciation of the action. There are orders shouted onboard the speeding ships, but the pounding waves, the whipping sails and the unrelenting musical score drowns out the bulk of what's being said.

Wind

TriStar Pictures
Directed by Carroll Ballard
Screenplay by Rudy Wurlitzer
Starring: Matthew Modine
Jennifer Grey
Rebecca Miller
Stellan Skarsgard
Rated PG-13

Skipper Morgan (Cliff Robertson) is right when he tells his crew, "Gentlemen, you part of en elite group of men": as the audience, we watch this world from the outside, and are forced to cheer from a distant shore.

Modine and Grey play lovers Parker and Bass with a very fine touch: they are believable as a couple, but possess strong enough personalities for us to believe that they may not always be together. (Even the ending leaves us guessing.) But Grey outweighs Modine, bringing more passion to her character; as Parker, Modine says he wants the Cup, but in his face, in his voice and his gestures, it frequently seems insincere; too often he just doesn't look as if he really means it.

Rebecca Miller is appealing as Abigail, the eccentric sugar mommy for the American's second try for the Cup, and Stellan Skarsgard is well-cast as Joe, the scientist who lounges in an inflatable tube with a palm tree.

Writer Wurlitzer, thankfully, has enough good sportsmanship and good sense not to turn the Aussies into Bad Guys who steal away the Cup, and in the final win, everyone celebrates together.

Wind, at times, wants to be something more than a movie about sailing (there are references to wind being "your own personal power," and so on), but ultimately that's what it is, and therein is no shame.

And, hey, America wins in the end. ❑

M

Crossing the Bridge

A Bad Trip

Josh Charles (standing) stars as Mort Golden, a young man whose post-hihg school life is at a standstill, until he faces a crossroads that changes him forever in "Crossing the Bridge"

BY TIM LEMIRE

Remember the kids from high school who graduated to hang around town, sleep late, drink beer and pick fights? One was a nerd, one was a once-great footballer, one fought at home with his dad? If you didn't care about these kids back then, chances are you won't care about them now in the lame coming-of-age drama Crossing the Bridge.

Danny, Tim and Mort are three lads who have been out of high school for three years, cruising aimlessly around Detroit in their beat-up blue Buick (called "The War Wagon" for reasons unbeknownst to the audience), when suddenly opportunity knocks: druggie friend John informs the trio that they can garner some serious bread if they smuggle hash over the Canadian border, just a few miles away over Ambassador Bridge. "This just wasn't any night crossing the bridge," says the voice-over of Mort, as an adult. "This was a night that would change our lives forever."

Too bad it doesn't change the audience's. Once this plot complication is introduced, it is abandoned and not until far later in the picture is it picked up again. Meantime, we are regaled with scenes of Danny et al playing football in the mud and an irrelevant love interest between Mort and his old flame, Carol. Although these scenes are as enjoyable as anything you might encounter on a slow night of television, they clunk along like the "War Wagon" itself.

Pity, because writer/director Bender has the opportunity to explore the inside of the strip joint (he already has an "R" rating with profanity) but he robs the audience and the movie of a potentially interesting scene.

Binder taps the collective unconscious of urban adolescence, much in the same vein that TV's The Wonder Years played to the least common denominator of childhood. Binder gives us easy stereotypes throughout the flick: The Girl Who You Never Got Over (and the Snotnose She Dumped You For), the Lazy Dad Who Sits on the Front Stoop All Day, the Uncle Who Gives Mort a Job, and so on. In terms of character development, this is as far as Binder can go, or wants to go. Details like; What tough guys Danny and Tim are doing hanging out with a dork like Mort or; How we can believe Mort as an aspiring writer when we never see him write are apparently too trivial to interfere with the flow of this thin plot.

Stephen Baldwin and Jason Gedrick are thoroughly believable — albeit mostly wooden — as beat-up losers Danny and Tim; Josh Charles, as Mort, succeeds in bringing more emotional range to his role, but ultimately can't distinguish himself as an extraordinary narrator of this bogus journey - as someone we believe in, and someone we wouldn't still ridicule in gym class. ❑

Crossing the Bridge

Touchstone Pictures
Written & Directed by Mike Binder
Starring: Josh Charles
Jason Gedrick
Stephen Baldwin
Rated R

Critics Choice

Key
A Winner
A Toss Up
For the Birds

	Improper Bostonian	Boston Globe	Boston Herald	New York Times	L.A. Times	Village Voice	Newsweek	People	Time
Unforgiven	★	★	★	★	★	★	★	🐦	★
Single White Female	🎟	🎟	🐦	★	🐦	🐦	🎟	🐦	🐦
Honeymoon in Vegas	🎟	🎟	★	★	★	🎟	★	★	🐦
Stay Tuned	🐦	🎟	🐦	🐦	🐦	—	—	🐦	—
3 Ninjas	🎟	★	🐦	🐦	🎟	—	—	🐦	—
Death Becomes Her	★	🎟	🎟	🎟	🐦	🐦	🎟	🎟	🐦
Pet Semetery 2	🐦	🎟	🐦	🎟	★	—	—	🐦	—
Rapid Fire	🐦	🎟	🎟	🐦	★	🐦	—	🎟	—
A League of Their Own	★	★	🐦	★	🎟	🐦	★	🐦	🎟
Twin Peaks	★	🐦	🐦	🐦	★	—	—	—	🐦

Flicks in a Flash

Fire Walk With Me

"Twin Peaks Returns"

David Lynch's Fire Walk With Me opens with the image of a static-ridden television being smashed by a large pipe. In a welcome piece of symbolism, Lynch forsakes the limitations of television and takes Twin Peaks to the big screen. With the return of Shelly (Madchen Amick), Bobby (Dana Ashbrook), Mike (Gary Hershberger), Leo (Eric Darae) and Chet Desmond (Chris Issak), Walk is Twin Peaks at its most comic and most disturbing. The movie begins as the FBI investigates the murder of a young woman, Teresa Banks. This opening scene holds all of the humor of the film. Sheryl Lee (Laura) and Ray Wise (Leland) also return in a healthy dose of disturbing weirdness from the Lynch mob - if that's what you desire. T.S.L.

Raising Cain

"A Campy Horror House Ride"

"Do you realize how little we know about the development of the personality?" exclaims Dr. Carter Nix in the first few minutes of Raising Cain. Brian DePalma's latest thriller doesn't help us learn anything more. John Lithgow plays Carter Nix, child psychologist, as well as four of his multiple personalities, all of whom are involved in an insidious plot of murder and kidnapping. Had writer/director DePalma given Lithgow more time onscreen to display his talent in taking on multiple roles, Raising Cain would have been an intelligent film: Sybil meets Psycho. Instead, Cain is a campy horror house ride, filled with self-effacing parody and a downright dumbheaded resolution. DePalma's use of imagery is heavy-handed, yes, and his script tells instead of shows, but Cain is still good stupid fun and thrills that's saved by John Lithgow's performance. T.S.L.

Rapid Fire

"Shooting Blanks"

Bruce Lee's son, Brandon Lee, makes his bid to the action picture throne with Rapid Fire. Lee plays a fatherless art student who sees a mobster (Nick Mancuso) whack someone. Luckily, he just happens to be a martial artist who can drive motorcycles through glass art-installations minutes before drawing the mobster's picture to i.d. him. When Lee finds a surrogate father in cop Mace Ryan (Powers Boothe), the bullets, glass and feet really begin to fly. While the fledgling star's martial arts skills do not compare to his old man's, Brandon is nonetheless a handsome galoot who shows some actual acting ability. Wait for the sequel, a path which Rapid Fire clearly prepares for him. B.C.

Enchanted April

"A Delightful Escape"

Anyone craving a trip to Italy should book a passage on Enchanted April. Based on Elizabeth von Arnim's autobiographical novel, and sounding like the latest Merchant-Ivory period piece, the plot follows a quartet of 1920s English ladies who escape rain-soaked London for Italy's blue skies and bluer Mediterranean. Both Lottie (English comedienne Josie Lawrence) and Rose (Miranda Richardson) need an escape from their boorish husbands. They find travel companions in the cantankerous Mrs. Fisher (Joan Plowright), and the radiant Lady Caroline Dester (Polly Walker), who craves a rest from a social whirl. Directed by Mike Newell, you can almost smell the wisteria. Enchanted April provides a delightful respite. W.S.

Mistress

"A Minor-League Player"

In Mistress, failed screenwriter Marvin Landisman is a Hollywood fringe-dweller who directs cooking videos. He must make a sudden decision: stay in L.A. or accept a safe teaching job at Queens college in New York. This should be a difficult choice, but it's not: Marvin's screenplay, about a sensitive artist driven to suicide, is awful! The movie's title refers to the fact that the trio of rich philistines who agree to finance the film do so only because they want parts for their girlfriends. There are several good performances, including Robert DeNiro as a money-man who believes all Marvin's movie needs is "more sex." His curiously likable creep smartly slings his car keys at a restaurant valet in a rare moment of vitality in an otherwise limp satire. A.L.

FASHION

Designer Donna Karan can always be counted on for such great looks as this new, longer stripe skirt with cardigan jacket. She likes things belted this season.

Designer Adrienne Vittadini sees sweater sets as important weekend items for fall. She has designed these in an interesting pattern and teamed them with matching pants.

Designer Gabriela Hirsch, of Go Silk, has a roster of celebrities who wear her silks. This 3/4 trench coat with softly shaped silk pants is ideal for travel.

Designer Linda Allard of Ellen Tracy, is a favorite of many fashionable women. Pictured here is her shapely wool crepe dress in red with black insets.

What's In For Fall

BY MARY LAWLOR

Although designers claim they "do their own thing" each season, there are always fashion influences that run through each collection. When we covered the New York American Designer's Shows, we spotted them and decided to call them "the things that count."

At the top of the list are the new, longer skirts. They're designed in many different styles. Some zipper, others wrap and still others button. Then there are the leather jackets. What makes them different these days is that they're now being worn with dressy fabrics such as chiffon. (The rules are gone!) In addition, the leathers are done in new, softer finishes. Silk is another baggie - washable silk. There are 3/4 silk coats shown with matching pants that are ideal for travel as well as day-to-evening dressing. For weekends, the sweater sets team with coordinated pants, making the runway models look even taller. You can't beat the monochromatic look. Dresses appear in short and long versions and evening wear couldn't be sexier - especially in fall's most important color: RED. ❑

I settle for nothing less
than the very best.
Designer names, that I've come to know, are what I want. Quality, in an unpretentious environment
where I can shop at my own pace
and be myself.
The Lingerie Factory,
because value is important
to me and I like knowing
that I get 40%-60%
off all merchandise,
all the time

LINGERIE FACTORY

Coolidge Corner, Brookline 232-9097 • 167 Milk St., Boston 330-1990 • 164 Newbury St, Boston 421-9335
St. James Ave. and Berkley, Boston 338-9728 • 1 Porter Square Arcade Cambridge 576-2024 • 55 Langley
Rd. Newton 964-0638 • 109 Summer St. (100 yds from Downtown Crossing) Boston 695-0844

BRING IN THIS AD FOR YOUR FREE GIFT!

BOOKS

KILL HOLE

BY LISA M. BONNELL

KILL HOLE
JAMAKE HIGHWATER

After a mysterious epidemic kills off thousands of people in his world, Sitko Ghost Horse ventures into the forest and becomes an intruder into a primitive culture. Captured as "the evil one," he is imprisoned in a cave-like jail and left alone haunted only by the night-filled cries of children and the faces of his past. As his only means of survival, he scratches pictures on the walls of his lost loved ones and eventually befriends the hermaphroditic woman, Patu, who brings him his food. Here unravels the painful exhibition of the injustices of Sitko's life.

Kill Hole, Jamake Highwater's first novel in six years, delves deeply into the life of an Indian man, Sitko Ghost Horse, and into the heart of American society. Highwater is an accomplished writer, having written over twenty books including works of Native American fiction (Anpao) and nonfiction (The Primal Mind). He is also an established critic and arts commentator.

Much of Highwater's personal history is reflected in his latest character. Indian by birth and given up for adoption at a young age, he too neither knows his birthday nor birth year. With sparingly chosen words, Highwater creates the delicate and lucid description of one man's struggle to survive and be accepted as an individual in the cruel yet realistic world of today.

Orphaned as a child and adopted by a Jewish stepfather (with his biological mother who denies her heritage), Sitko encounters the first of his many dilemmas. Trapped on edges of societies, he can never become one person in a world where cultures clash and hybrids are rejected. When interrogated on his origins, he cries helplessly, "My name is Sitko Ghost Horse! But I do not know where I come from!"

Kill Hole is a remarkable blending of Sitko's past and present life. As he waits prejudged and imprisoned by uncivilized strangers, he relives the ridicule and abandonment of his life. Beautifully, the two experiences mirror one another and create a clear foundation for the reader's understanding of Sitko's plight.

He is one man, an Indian, a homosexual, an artist; yet, he is a symbol that becomes the embodiment of all discriminated people. As an interloper into this mysterious culture, he is responsible for things beyond his control. With a messianic quality, he becomes the feared unknown: "They have judged me ... these men who do not know me. They have judged and condemned me."

Helplessly watching his lover die of a plague, similar to AIDS, he feels there is no reason left to live. After months of introspection, he fights for his innocence: "Even if he could not survive, he vowed that he would make something of his death. The frail idea of freedom grew more and more urgent as the thunder pounded upon his prison and a hard rain began to fall."

Through another long discussion with Patu, the reader meets Sitko as a young adult. Breaking away in his teens to become an artist, he starts anew with his lover, Eric. After enjoying fame for several years, he is embroiled in a skirmish over artistic freedom of expression similar to that of the controversies of Robert Mapplethorpe's work. Through his journey, Sitko sees the truth in his grandmothers words: "You must learn to use the pain to rise above whatever harms you."

Highwater punctuates each section with quotations from many different sources such as Jean Cocteau, Emily Dickinson and finally Joseph Campbell. These excerpts do not break the text, but instead splinter the story to allow it to attain more global proportions. Kill Hole is not the average read, it is an insightful look at the world through the eyes and life of a mystical man. ❑

Futons • Frames • Desks • Dressers • Chairs • Stools • Tables

Assembled Solid Pine
Ready to Finish Bookcases
Over 500 in Stock
Low Low Prices*
36" x 72"x 9½"
$75.64
Also custom made bookcases

The Bookcase Factory Outlet
453 Mass. Ave., Central Sq., Cambridge
617-547-0802 • Open 7 Days
*For additional savings ask about our Connections Special

Cheers.

Beer Bar
BEST The Commonwealth Brewing Company, 138 Portland St., Boston. Brewed to perfection, your mugs won't stay full for long.

Cheap Date
BEST The Commonwealth Brewing Company, 138 Portland St., Boston. Good bands, good food and no cover with dinner.

Winner of two 1992 Improper Bostonian Awards.
The Commonwealth Brewing Company
Boston's Original Restaurant/Brewery
138 Portland Street (617) 523-8383
Open 7 days a week for lunch and dinner.

WHAT'S PLAYING CALL THEATERS FOR TIMES

LOEWS BEACON HILL (723-8110)
Bebe's Kids (PG-13)
Mo' Money (R)
Boomerang (R)
Rapid Fire (R)

LOEWS CHARLES (227-1330)
Wind (PG-13)
Raising Cain (R)
Out on a Limb (PG)
Crossing the Bridge (R)

LOEWS CHERI (536-2870)
Sneakers (PG-13)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Unforgiven (R)
Single White Female (R)

LOEWS COPLEY PLACE (266-1300)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Basic Instinct (R)
Housesitter (PG)
Stay Tuned (PG)
Hairdresser's Husband
A Stranger Among Us (PG-13)
The Mistress (R)
Whispers In the Dark (R)
Sister Act (PG)
Little Nemo (G)
Honey, I Blew Up the Kid (PG)
Lethal Weapon 3 (R)
Batman Returns (PG-13)
A League of Their Own (PG)

LOEWS PARIS (267-8181)
Honeymoon in Vegas (PG-13)

LOEWS NICKELODEON (424-1500)
Twin Peaks (R)
Enchanted April (PG)
The Living End
Howards End (PG)
The Best Intentions

LOEWS JANUS (661-3737)
Twin Peaks (R)

LOEWS HARVARD SQUARE (864-4580)
Enchanted April (PG)
The Hairdresser's Husband
The Living End
Howards End (PG)
Raising Cain(R)
The Rocky Horror Picture Show (R)

LOEWS FRESH POND (661-2900)
Out on a Limb (PG)
Wind (PG-13)
Hellraiser 3 (R)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Unforgiven (R)
Honeymoon in Vegas (PG-13)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Single White Female (R)
Crossing the Bridge (R)
Little Nemo (G)
A League of Their Own (PG)
Sneakers (PG-13)

LOEWS SOMERVILLE (628-7000).
A League of Their Own (PG)
Rapid Fire (R)
Hellraiser 3 (R)
Three Ninjas (PG)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Raising Cain (R)
Wind (PG-13)
Sneakers (PG-13)
Unforgiven (R)
Honeymoon in Vegas (PG-13)
Honey, I Blew up the Kid (PG)
Single White Female (R)
Crossing the Bridge (R)
Pet Sematary 2 (R)
Out on a Limb (PG)

CINEMA 57 (482-1222)
Hellraiser 3 (R)
Pet Sematary 2 (R)

SOMERVILLE THEATER (625-5700)
The First International Festival of Short Films
Housesitter (PG)

ALLSTON CINEMA (277-2140)
Pet Sematary 2 (R)
Twin Peaks (R)
Out on a Limb (PG)

CHESTNUT HILL (277-2500)
Whispers in the Dark (R)
Enchanted April (PG)
Sister Act (PG)
Wind (PG-13)
Crossing the Bridge (R)

CIRCLE CINEMA (566-4040)
Hellraiser 3 (R)
Sneakers (PG-13)
Honeymoon In Vegas (PG-13)
Unforgiven (R)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Single White Female (R)
A League of Their Own (PG)

COOLIDGE CORNER (734-2500)
Father
One False Move
For Sasha
Manhattan
Sick and Twisted Festival of Animation
London Kills Me
Deep Cover

HIGHWAY 61

BRATTLE (876-6837)
Blast 'Em
The Good, the Bad and the Ugly
Bolero
Nightmare
Hangover Square
The Crucible
The Children's Hour
The Thin Man
The Philadelphia Story
Aguirre: The Wrath of God
Woyzeck

FRAMINGHAM CINEMA (235-8020)
Out on a Limb (PG)
Death Becomes Her (PG-13)
Sneakers (PG-13)
Rapid Fire (R)
Hellraiser 3 (R)
Crossing the Bridge (R)
Enchanted April (PG)

WEST NEWTON CINEMA (964-6060)
Strangers in Good Company
Pinocchio (G)
The Player (R)
Mistress
Honey, I Blew Up the Kid (PG)
Three Ninjas (PG)
A Stranger Among Us (PG-13)
Mediterraneo
Beauty and the Beast (G)
The Hairdresser's Husband

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE (723-2500)
Antarctica and The New England Time Capsule
Ring of Fire and The New England Time Capsule
To the Limit and The New England Time Capsule

COMEDY

If you're fast enough you can c atch Don Gavin Saturdays at Nick's

The Fastest (and Funniest) Talker in Boston

An Interview With Don Gavin

BY KATHY MATHESON

The world will never know how lucky it is that Don Gavin became a comedian and not a used car salesman. He's been a star on the comedy circuit since 1979, but if you'd had too much to drink one Saturday night at Nick's Comedy Stop, you might walk out of the building thinking Gavin had sold you a 1975 Pinto. He is absolutelypositivelythefastesttalkingperformer you've seen in a long time.

Gavin knows he's a speed talker, and he explained that it works both to his advantage and his disadvantage. On the negative side, he has to slow down his act when taking his comedy on the road. "The smaller the city," he joked, "the slower you go." On the positive side, his speediness discourages hecklers (not to mention interviewers). "By the time they heckle, they're way behind," he said.

But there really isn't anything offensive enough in Gavin's material that would provoke anyone in the audience; his humor is mainly observational - and sometimes self-deprecating. "Usually if it's making fun of myself, it's making fun of everyone," he said. "People take themselves too seriously."

One subject he totally avoids is politics. "I'm not particularly enamored of politics," Gavin explained, adding that most people's political jokes center around Vice President Dan Quayle, and that material is generic and overused. "I don't see anybody doing a good job with [political humor]."

The 43-year-old West Roxbury native has traveled all across the USA, Australia, Canada and Mexico (no, he doesn't perform in Spanish; just on cruise ships and in clubs) with his routine; however, Boston is really his town. As one of the Founding Fathers of Nick's Comedy Stop (around 1981), you'll see a large photo of him on the celebrity wall, along with the likes of other famous comedians like Dennis Wolfberg and Jerry Seinfeld.

Ironically, the funniest thing about Gavin is that he never even planned comedy as a career; he worked as an English teacher, basketball coach and guidance counselor at a high school in Weymouth until he decided to try the microphone in 1979. What Gavin found was that not only did he have a natural talent for it, but that teaching had been good training for him. "Would you rather have 30 [kids] ignoring you or 250 people listening?" he quipped. "You have to be an entertainer to be a teacher."

Like Seinfeld, Jay Leno or Robin Williams, you would think that Gavin will use stand-up as a stepping stone to bigger and better things, but you'd be wrong; stand-up is his medium. "I'd like to work bigger venues with bigger crowds," said Gavin, but if someone offers him a lot of cash to do some acting, he's not going to turn it down. Whaddyathinkheisstupidorsomethhing? ❑

• Comedy Listings •

• Catch A Rising Star 661-0167/9887, 30B JFK St., Camb. This legendary comedy club in the heart of Harvard Square is celebrating five years in business. Local and national acts. Sandwiches and cold appetizers served. Cover varies. Casual dress. For tickets, call 661-0167 or Teletron at 720-3450. New show hours are Sun. at 8:30pm, Mon-Thur. at 8:30pm, Fri. at 8:30, 10:30 and Sat. at 7:30, 9:30 & 11:30pm. Every Tue. is Boston's Brightest Comedy Showcase. To celebrate its 5th birthday, Catch is also giving away a trip for two to Las Vegas. Drawing is Sept. 16 at 6pm at HMV in Harvard Square.

Wed 16th.- Mark Schiff, Ray Ellin, Mass Hysteria. Thu 17th thru Sun 20th.- Mark Schiff, Jim de Croteau, Ray Ellin. Mon 21st.- Guilty Children (sketch comedy), Five Minute Funnies (stand-up comics). Tue 22nd.- Music benefit for Recycling Initiative Campaign. Wed 23rd.- Randy Credico, Mary Martha, Paul Elwell, Al & the Monkeys. Thu 24th.- Reggae night. Fri 25th thru Sun 27th.- Randy Credico, Mike Moto, Cato & Schnelder. Mon 28th.- Mass Hysteria (sketches), Five Minute Funnies (stand-up comics). Tue 29th.- Colin Blake, Ed Driscoll, Dave Fitzgerald.

• The Original Connection 426-6339, 76 Warrenton St., Bos. Named by USA Today as the number one comedy club in the country. Boston's oldest original comedy club since 1968. Rated by Rolling Stone and Vanity Fair as the nation's top comedy club. Noteworthy headliners have included Roseanne Barr, Robin Williams and Steven Wright. Shows are 8:30 Sunday-Thursday, 8:30 & 10:45 Fri. and Sat. Prices are $7 on Sun, $5 Mon, $6 Tues.&Wed., $8 Thur. and $10 Fri.&Sat.

Wed 16th.- Jimmy Smith, Thom Brown, Rick Jenkins. Thu 17th.- Shecky Flynn, Lewis Black, Matt Tully. Fri 18th & Sat 19th.- Mike Donovan, Bob Somerby, Chuck Sklar. Sun 20th.- Maria Falzone, Susie Maxi, Wendy Liebman. Mon 21st.- Chris Zito, Marc Snyder, Steve Cáito. Tue 22nd.- D.J. Hazard, Tom Dunham, Randy Look. Wed 23rd.- Jimmy Smith, Mike Bent, Brian Coyne. Thu 24th.- Jackie Flynn, Ed Driscoll, Chris Zito. Fri 25th & Sat 26th.- Mike McDonald, Larry Sullivan, Randy Look. Sun 27th.- Marla Falzone, Mike McCarthy, Leann Lewis, Mike Lee. Mon 28th.- Chris Zito, Maria Falzone, Paul Elwell. Tue 29th.- D.J. Hazard, Craig Mitchell, Colin Blake.

• The Comedy Connection at Faneuil Hall 248-9700, Shows are seven nights a week. Sunday through Thursday at 8pm and Fri. and Sat., 8:00 and 10:15. Call for ticket prices.

Fri 18th.- Paul Rodriguez.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Hut at AKU AKU 491-2422, 149 Alewife Brook Pkwy., N. Camb. Loosen your belt, sit back and get ready to howl at this comedy club, which features both national celebs and local favorites. Show times: Fri at 9:00, Sat at 8:00 and 10:30. Cover $8. Always packed and smoky. Casual dress.

• Dick Doherty's Comedy Vault at Remington's 337-6920, 124 Boylston St., Boston. See above. Show times: Fri and Sat at 10:00. Cover $9.

• ImprovBoston at the Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., on Fridays at 10:45pm and Sundays at 7:30pm; at the Back Alley Theatre, 1253 Cambridge St. (Inman Square, Cambridge) on Saturdays at 10:30pm. Call 437-7172 or 576-1253 for more information.

• Nick's Comedy Stop 482-0930, 100 Warrenton St., Bos. This Comedy Club is one of Boston's most popular attractions when it comes to local and national acts. Call for times and prices. Box Office -1-800-441-JOKE.

Tue 22nd thru Sun 27th.- Al Romero.

• Renegade Duck 277-0550, at Play it Again Sam's, 1314 Commonwealth Ave., Allston. Boston's improvisational comedy troupe appears every Saturday at 9pm. Admission is $5.

• Stitches 424-6995, 835 Beacon St., Bos. You'll be in stitches at this hot and hilarious comedy club located near Kenmore Square. Every Tue: "R" Rated Hypnotist Frank Santos. Every Wed: Anthony Clark. A must see! Every Thu: Cross Comedy. Call 424-6995 or Ticketmaster 931-2000 for tickets. Prices vary from $6-$10. No dress code.

Wed 16th.- Anthony Clark. Thu 17th.- Cross Comedy. Fri 18th & Sat 19th.- Joey Kola, Jackie Flynn, Lauren Dombrowski. Sun 20th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 22nd.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). Wed 23rd.-Judy Gold, Jonathan Groff. Thu 24th.- Cross Comedy, Judy Gold, Jonathan Groff. Fri 25th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist). Sat 26th.- Judy Gold, Jonathan Groff, Chris Scheeno. Sun 27th.- Open Mic Nite with Vinnie Favorito. Tue 29th.- Frank Santos (The "R" Rated Hypnotist).

FREE

NICK'S COMEDY STOP

Boston's #1 Comedy Club

- Boston Globe Readers Poll

Up to (4) People Any Night

(Except Fri or Sat)
Not Valid for Special Events
Holiday Evening Shows
Subject to Availability
Expires Oct 1, 1992
IB

In the Theater District 100 Warrenton St., Bos. 482-0930

Buy One Ticket Get One Free (With this Coupon)

"Best Comedy Club In The Country" –USA Today

The Comedy Connection

FANEUIL HALL
Open 7 Nights A Week!

SHOWPLACE OF THE BIGGEST STARS

PAUL RODRIGUEZ SEPT 18

KEVIN MEANEY Oct 1 & 2

DAVID BRENNER Oct 16

BOB NELSON Oct 30

ALSO COMING SOON!

Special Comedy Event
Rosie O'Donnell
Nov. 6 and 8

Felicia Michaels
Oct 27-Nov 1

Dom Irrera
Nov 13

Pat Cooper
Nov 27-28

AND MORE!
ACTS SO BIG WE CAN'T MENTION THEM IN THE PAPERS!
RESERVATIONS
248-9700
$3 VALIDATED PARKING

ARTS

UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ITALY

The MFA Hosts American Artists and the Italian Experience, 1760 - 1914

BY JENNIFER MCCANN

Although most of America's well-known artists traveled abroad to seek inspiration, never has there been a more detailed examination of those influenced by Italy available for exhibition until now.

Beginning September 16 through December 13, the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston will feature The Lure of Italy: American Artists and the Italian Experience 1760-1914.

The exhibition will feature paintings, sculptures, manuscripts, photographs and other memorabilia showing how Italian art and the Italian landscape lured the talents of more than seventy American artists such as Benjamin West, John Singleton Copley, Thomas Cole, James Whistler, John Singer Sargent and Edmonia Lewis.

Presented in three sections, the show will study the various influences of American artists during different time periods. The first section will feature the years 1760 through 1830 when American artists went to Italy to examine the remains of Roman civilization and admire the greatest products of the Renaissance. The second featured period between 1830 to 1870 focuses on the Italian landscape and its influence on artists of the American Landscape School led by Thomas Cole. Part three will cover 1870 through 1914 during Italy's reunification when American artists sought inspiration in Venice rather than Rome and began a new movement and a new aesthetic.

Apart from the alluring Italian culture, many African American artists went to Italy to escape discrimination. Artists such as Edmonia Lewis and Henry Ossawa Tanner enjoyed artistic freedom in Italy and were well received by the art community. The Italian influences on works by African American artists will be examined during the exhibition.

In addition to the displayed works of the featured artists, there will be a series of lectures presented by curators of the MFA, art professors and others in the field. The lectures will include The Sights They Saw: Tracing the Routes of American Painters in Italy, in which MFA Curator Theodore E. Stebbins Jr. follows the footsteps of Thomas Cole, George Inness, John Singer Sargent and other artists in Italy. The American Discovery of Italy will examine the impact of Italy's four great cities; Rome, Florence, Naples and Venice, on American painters and sculptors.

Concerts, performances, film specials and a special Italian menu at the Fine Arts Restaurant will be featured at the MFA in celebration of The Lure of Italy exhibition.

The Lure of Italy; American Artists and the Italian Expression 1760-1914 begins September 16 and is open in the MFA's Gund Gallery Thursday and Friday evenings. ❑

Museum of Fine Arts

"Splash of Sunshine and Rain", 1899 Maurice Brazil Prendergast, (U.S. 1859 - 1924) Watercolor & pencil on paper.

Museum of Fine Arts

"View of Florence from San Miniato," 1837, Thomas Cole, U.S., 1801 - 1848, Oil on Canvas

Museum of Fine Arts

"Roman Newsboys," 1848, Martin Johnson Heade, U.S., 1819-1904, Oil on Canvas

KATHY CALLAHAN

HOWIE GREEN
JOHN O'CONNOR

GROUP
SHOW
PAINTINGS
SCULPTURE
FURNITURE
PHOTOGRAPHY
SOROTA TUTTLEMAN
GALLERY
2 blocks past Children's Museum
354 Congress St., 2nd Floor
Boston, MA 02210 (617) 426-3445
OPENING RECEPTION
Artists will be present.
6-9pm, Friday, Sept. 25

ALAN BORTMAN

DAZE
RODGER KINGSTON

CRASH

ARTS

THE ARTS CALENDAR

DANCE

Boston Ballet
at the Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston
Tickets are now on sale for Boston Ballet's 1992-93 season. Performances include The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, Etudes Program, Cinderella, All Balanchine and Romeo and Juliet. Call 931-2000 for more information.

P. DiMuro & Associates
Boston Ballet's Grand Studio
19 Clarendon St., South End
P. DiMuro & Associates presents For Bodies and Soul, a concert of performance and dance works, featuring the choreography of Peter DiMuro and guest David Parker. Performances will be held Sept. 24-26 at 8pm and on Sept. 27 at 3pm. On the 26th, a gala evening will feature guest performers from both the Boston Ballet and Mark Morris Dance Group, with entertainment and a reception to follow. Call 262-2880 for ticket information.

PHOTOGRAPHY

French Library in Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
Photographs taken in France by Ivan Massar will be on view until Sept. 30. The exhibit is free; hours are Tue., Fri., Sat., 10am-5pm and Wed.-Thu., 10am-8pm.

New England School of Photography
537 Commonwealth Ave., Boston
Sue Kyllonen's black and white photographs are expressive of the fact that aging is a human experience. She attempts to raise questions about aging by looking at the elderly from various ethnic backgrounds. See her work in through Sept. 24. Gallery hours are Mon.-Fri. 9am-5pm.

Photographic Resource Center
at Boston University
602 Comm. Ave., Boston
Montreal photographer Donigan Cumming brings his gothic installation "The Mirror, the Hammer and the Stage" to the PRC from Sept. 1-27. Cumming is known for his gothic portraits of people, often aging or infirm, sometimes just odd. The PRC is open Tue.-Sun. 12-5pm and Thur. until 8pm. Admission is $3; free Thur. from 5-8pm.

CLASSICAL

French Library of Boston
53 Marlborough St., Boston
Pianist Samuel Bartos will present a program of works by Bach, Schubert, Farrand and Beethoven on Sept. 22 at 6:15pm. A reception will follow the concert; reservations are recommended. Admission is $7. Call 266-4351 for tickets.

Heritage Plantation
Sandwich
"Sheer Music," a benefit concert for the Samaritans (a suicide prevention organization) will be held Sept. 27 at 2pm on the outdoor stage. John Salerno's Big Band, renowned classical-jazz pianist David Crohan, and vocalist "Jo" Marra-Fletcher are all on the program. Tickets are $7. Call 508-888-3300 for more information.

Longy School of Music
at Edward Pickman Concert Hall
27 Garden St., Cambridge
Concerts abound during the Longy Septemberfest! Sept 16: Music of Arthur Honegger and Darius Milhaud. Sept. 18-19: The Rossini Centennial. Sept. 24: Mingus, Monk and Ellington. Sept. 25: An Evening of French Baroque Music. Sept. 26: All-Schumann Program. Sept. 29: The Golden Age of Christopher Columbus (1492). All shows are at 8pm and cost $5. Call 876-0956 for more information.

TOURS

New England Wildflower Society
Hemenway Rd., Framingham
Informal walks on Tues., Fri., and Sat. mornings at 10am are offered for individuals who want to stroll through the Garden in the Woods with a guide. Included with $6 admission.

Nichols House Museum
55 Mt. Vernon St., Boston
The Nichols House Museum offers a unique glimpse into 19th- and early 20th-century life in Boston's Historic Beacon Hill District. This impressive four-story townhouse was constructed in 1804, when Yankee fortunes were being amassed through mercantile trading. Call for tour times: 227-6993.

FILM

Brattle Theater
40 Brattle St., Cambridge
The Brattle Theater presents a variety of film entertainment from classic to cult features. For further film information, call 876-6837.

M.I.T.
Room 10-250
Enter at 77 Mass. Ave, Cambridge
Come see the 1964 Japanese classic Woman in the Dunes Sept. 21 at 7:30pm. It's an allegorical narrative dealing with themes of dehumanization, disillusionment, isolation and loss of identity in contemporary society.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
From Aug. 27-Sept. 18, the MFA presents "Of Blazing Passions: Hong Kong Films in the Eighties." Sept. 16 see Father and Son and City on Fire; Sept. 17 & 18 see Armor of God (Part One) and Long Arm of the Law. Tickets are $5; all films are screened in Remis Auditorium. Call 267-9300 for times.

Museum of Science
Mugar Omni Theatre
Science Park, Boston
See Antarctica through November: An extraordinary excursion across Earth's last wilderness in this breathtaking adventure film. Also showing are Ring of Fire (about active volcanoes in the Pacific Ocean), To the Limit (telling the story of three athletes' quest for the ultimate performance) and New England Time Capsule (giving a breathtaking glimpse at the beauty of New England). Call 723-2500 for show times. Ticket purchase 24 hours in advance is advised.

Ratiskeller
528 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square
Boston Super 8 Film Underground, the new monthly film showcase dedicated exclusively to Super 8 film, presents "Bizarrethon," a festival of the most bizarre and outrageous Super 8 films imaginable, on Sept. 27 at 8pm. Admission is $4. Call 643-5785 for more info.

MUSEUMS

Computer Museum
300 Congress St., Boston
The Computer Museum is the only museum in the world devoted solely to educating the public about computers and their impact on society. Enjoy over 100 interactive exhibits, including the award-winning Walk-Through Computer. For more details, call 423-6758.

Harvard University Art Museums
32 Quincy St., Cambridge
The Busch-Resinger Museum, the Fogg Art Museum and the Arthur M. Sackler Museum comprise Harvard's art museums. In the Fogg Museum, see "Italian Old Master Drawings" from the collection of Jeffry E. Horvitz from Aug. 15- Oct. 11. Call 495-9400 for more information.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
This museum exhibits and presents contemporary art in all media, including photography, painting, sculpture and special installations such as performance art, film, music and video. Call 266-5151 for more information.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston
Come see the permanent exhibit of primarily early Italian and Renaissance pieces at the museum. . Fashioned after a 15th century Venetian palace, the Gardner holds one of the most eclectic art collections in Boston and features a quaint and open courtyard. Call 566-1401 for more information.

Sorota Tuttleman Gallery
354 Congress St., Boston
Beginning Sept. 25, Tuttleman will present a Group Show of paintings, sculpture, furniture and photography. Works by Alan Bortman, Crash, Kathy Callahan, Daze, Howie Green Rodger Kingston and John O'onnor. Call 426-3445 for info

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston
MFA presents "To Weave for the Sun: Andean Textiles" through Nov. 15. Representing almost 2,500 years, this exhibition of 50 Andean textiles from the permanent collection presents a chronological overview of Pre-Columbian and Colonial period textiles.
For those into contemporary art, the MFA houses a traveling exhibition devoted to Jackie Winsor until Nov. 1. Her "human-scaled" sculptures are made in a variety of materials— rope, cement, brick and wood.
"The Lure of Italy" features American and European paintings from the 17th through the 19th centuries depicting Italian scenes. The paintings will be drawn from the renowned permanent collection at the MFA. Call 267-9300 for more details.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston
Examine global climate change - its reality, its causes, and what we can do about it - in this exciting national exhibition called "Greenhouse Earth."

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline
Located in an 1889 castle-style carriage house, this museum highlights the impact of the automobile on American society. It is currently hosting "Different by Design," an exhibit illustrating three major aspects of automobile design as the creative synthesis of art, technology and fantasy. The exhibit is on display until the end of the year.

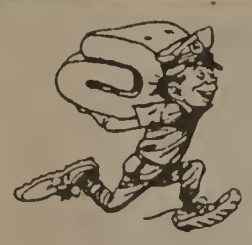
New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston
Meet the denizens of the water world, including divers who hand-feed sharks, plus daily sea lion performances. See the new, expanded tidepool: A hands-on experience! Call 973-5200 for more information.

Paul Revere House
19 North Square, Boston
Built in 1680, the Revere House is the only surviving building from 17th century Boston. Paul Revere lived there from 1770 to 1800. Call 523-2338 for more information.

The USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston
Located 200 yards from "Old Ironsides," the museum is dedicated to interpreting the ship's nearly 200-year history.

THEATER

American Repertory Theatre
64 Brattle St., Cambridge
From Sept. 16-27, the A.R.T. presents Frida, the new music theatre production that explores the personal and artistic history of Frida Kahlo, Latin America's most renowned woman artist. It captures the fiery spirit of a woman who triumphed over a devastating handicap and a stormy relationship with muralist Diego Rivera to become one of the most distinctive painters of our time. Call 547-8300 for times and ticket prices.



Cambridge Center for Adult Education
42 Brattle St., Harvard Square
The CCAE and Playwright's Platform present the Fall Festival of One-Act Plays from Sept. 18-Oct. 3. Works performed will include Accompanist for a Seduction; The Man Behind the Moose; Fast Food; Taking Five; Ten Minutes; and Deliver the Blow. Tickets are $8. For more information, call 547-6789.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Acknowledged by the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest-running, non-musical play in U.S. history, Shear Madness is continuing its run at the Charles Playhouse. Set in the city in which it plays, Shear Madness allows the audience to become sleuths and solve the murder mystery. Tickets range from $19 to $24 and are available at the box office or by calling 426-5225.

Charles Playhouse
74 Warrenton St., Boston
Joyous, upbeat and just plain fun, Ain't Misbehavin' is a rousing tribute to jazz legend Fats Waller's energetic and expressive style of music. This Tony Award-winning musical runs through Sept. 27. For times and ticket information, call 426-6912.

Chiswick Park Theatre
Rte. 20, Sudbury
La Cage Aux Folles, the dazzling Tony Award-winning musical, runs Sept. 11 through Oct. 4. A sensitive yet humorous story about relationships, acceptance and love, La

(continued on following page)

FUTONS

FREE DELIVERY
776-9429
360 Mystic Avenue
Somerville, MA

THE Futon
Outlet

For The Best Deal In Town
*Ask About Our Student Specials

A

(Theater continued)

Cage Aux Folles is one of the most highly-acclaimed musicals of our time. Call 508-443-5550 for times and ticket information.

Hasty Pudding Theater
Harvard Square, Cambridge
The world premiere of The Fourth Wall, a new play by A.R. Gurney (author of Love Letters and The Cocktail Hour), will run Sept. 9-27. For times and ticket information, call 1-800-828-7080.

Huntington Theatre
264 Huntington Ave., Boston
The Huntington opens its 11th season with the American musical classic Pal Joey, running from Sept. 11-Oct. 17. Call 266-0800 for times and ticket information.

Leland Center
at the Boston Center for the Arts
539 Tremont St., Boston
The Sugan Theatre Company presents Away Alone, a contemporary play which focuses on the lives of a group of young Irish people as they come to grips with the challenges of immigrant life in New York. It is a humorous, engaging and moving story of their close relationships, their personal struggles and aspirations. Performances are Sept. 17-Oct. 3 at 8pm; tickets are $10. Call 646-5983 for reservations.

Lyric Stage
Boston's oldest resident professional theatre, opens its new season Sept. 16 with Rodgers and Hart: A Celebration. Featuring 56 glorious songs by Richard Rodgers and Lorenz Hart, this lovely show is a must for audiences of all ages. Through Oct. 25. Call 437-7172 for times and ticket prices.

Mystery Cafe
290 Congress St., Boston
The Mystery Cafe presents Let's Kill the Boss every Thur. at 7:30pm, Fri. at 8pm, Sat. at 6 and 9pm and Sun. at 7pm. Tickets, which include a four course dinner plus the show are $29-$33 and are available at Bostix or by phone at 262-1826.

New Repertory Theatre
54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands
The New Rep opens its new season with And A Nightingale Sang... Warmth and quirky humor abound in this radiant comedy about a working-class family in World War II England. A glowing testament to the power of family, this exquisite love story has charmed audiences on both sides of the Atlantic. It runs Sept. 17-Oct. 25; call 332-1646 for times and ticket prices.

PATCH
Ellsworth Hall
Pine Manor College, Chestnut Hill
A Celebration of Life, a Broadway musical revue to benefit The Hospice at Mission Hill, will be presented by Performing Arts Theatre Collaborative for Hospice and will feature songs from The King and I, Sweeney Todd, Fiddler on the Roof, Mame, and many others. Performances will take place Sept. 19 at 8pm and Sept. 20 at 2pm. (The Hospice at Mission Hill is the first facility in the U.S. to offer full in-patient care for men and women terminally ill with AIDS.) Tickets are $10 and $15. Call 239-1132 for more information.

Somerville Theater
Davis Square, Somerville
Underground Railway Theater's The Christopher Columbus Follies interweaves tales of Columbus' interaction with the indigenous population and the myths of the people who discovered his ships entering their waters 500 years ago. Performances begin at 8pm on Sept. 25 & 26. Tickets ($10 now, $12 at the door) are available through Ticketmaster: 931-2000.

Terrace Room
Boston Park Plaza Hotel
64 Arlington St., Boston
Forever Plaid, a musical hit about a group's second chance at stardom, is continuing their stint at the Park Plaza Hotel's Terrace Room. Legal Seafood dinner/show packages are $52 and $49. Tickets are available by phone from Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080 or at the Terrace Room. For times, prices and reservations, call 357-8384.

Theatre Lobby
216 Hanover St., Boston
Those zany nuns from Nunsense have suddenly taken up residence at the Theatre Lobby in Boston's North End. The Little Sisters of Hoboken can now be seen with a brand new cast and set. Special restaurant/theatre packages are available with the European Restaurant ($27-$35) or Paolo's Restaurant ($42-$50), both restaurants in the Theatre Lobby building. For more information on dinner packages, call 227-9872. For times and prices, call Ticketmaster at 1-800-382-8080.

Wang Center
270 Tremont Street
Tickets are still on sale for Phantom of The Opera, running through November 14. Prices range from $27.50-$60.00. Call Ticketmaster at 931-2222 or the Wang Center at 482-1242 (Groups of 20 or more) for tickets.

Wilbur Theatre
246 Tremont St., Boston
The Mob meets Broadway in Breaking Legs, the all-star smash hit comedy playing at the Wilbur Sept. 29-Oct. 18. The plot centers around a group of shady characters who get it in their heads to become Broadway angels; the hilarity begins when these "goodfellas" try to produce a Broadway play. Call 931-ARTS for times and ticket prices.

WORKSHOPS

Boston University
808 Comm. Ave., Boston
BU presents an intensive creative writing seminar with world-renowned novelist and non-fiction writer George Higgins from 6-9pm each Wednesday from Sept. 23-Nov. 18. Tuition is $250. BU also continues its culinary arts program with a wine tasting and demonstration, "Cooking with Herbs and Wines," on Sept. 21 from 6-8pm. Tuition is $25. Call 353-9852 for more information on either workshop.

Heritage Plantation
Sandwich
"Approaching the 21st Century...The Opportunity to Become More Knowledgeable— for Dealers and Collectors," an all-day seminar hosted by the Cape Cod Antique Dealers Association, will be held Sept. 23 from 8:30am-5pm. Fee is $25; please call 508-255-4272 to register.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Chowdafest
Charlestown Navy Yard
Sample chowda from some of the areas best restaurants as 25 establishments compete for the 1992 "Chowda Champ" title on Sept. 20 from 12-6pm. Admission is $6; there will be free water shuttle service between Long Wharf and the Navy Yard. Rain or shine.

BARD Celebrity Softball
Cornelia Warren Softball field, Waltham, MA.
The Boston Association of Retail Druggists will host its annual Celebrity Softball Game on Sept. 20 from 1-4 P.M. Former Sox pitcher Bill Lee will join area celebs including Avi Nelson and Dick Lutsk. The event is free, and a raffle will be held with all proceeds benefiting the American Lung Association.

Fall Art Newbury Street
Newbury St., Boston
Boston's leading art dealers unite for the 13th annual celebration of Fall Art Newbury Street on Sept. 20 from 1-5pm. Newbury Street will be closed to vehicular traffic, and jazz and classical music is performed along the sidewalks all afternoon.

Newton Chiropractic Center
345 Boylstion St., Suite 300
Newton 964-3332
Breaking The Cycles of Stress
Dr. Robin Bruck and Dr. Julie Burke are offering instructional sessions on releasing stress and incresing energy. Monday, September 21 at 7pm.

Ladies Ten
at the Carver Lodge
70 Talbot Ave., Dorchester
The Ladies Ten present an "AIDS Benefit Masquerade Ball" on Sept. 26 at 7pm. Live entertainment will feature Lil. Robin, Steel Vibration & D.J. John Cromwell. For tickets, call 442-1442.

MSPCA
350 S. Huntington Ave., Boston
The Mass. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals hosts the 12th annual "Mutts 'n' Stuff" Day on Sept. 20 from 10am-3pm. This yearly canine festival features a dog walk-a-thon, dog-owner obstacle course, and amateur dog show, with categories such as "Waggingest Tail," "Best Vocalist" and "Dog/Owner Look-Alike." There is a $5 registration fee for the dog show. Call 522-7400 for more information.

BAY STATE TICKET

Wang Center
Phantom of the Opera	Sep .- Nov.
Symphony Hall
Liza Minnelli	9/23 - 9/27
Great Woods Events:
Elton John	9/15, 9/16, 9/18
Worcester Centrum
'92 Tour of Gymnastics Olympians	9/27
Frank Sinatra with Shirley MacLaine	10/2
Providence Civic Center
Frank Sinatra with Shirley MacLaine	10/3
Orpheum Theater
Jethro Tull	10/1, 10/2, 10/3
Boston Garden Events
Bruins vs. LA Kings	10/29
Bruins vs. NY Rangers	11/7
Bruins vs. Philadelphia Flyers	11/21

All Area Events / Limo Packages Available
We Deliver / Mail Order /Fed Ex /Tickets Bought & Sold
(617) 731-TIXX

WOMAN ON THE STREET

by Leslie Semonian

"What is the worst advice you have received?"

Keith, 40, Illinois
"When people have told me not to listen to what other people say."

Elizabeth, 29, Arlington
"'Life is easy if you make it easy'. Nobody told me you have to go through a lot of difficult times first."

Roland, 30, Allston
"A friend suggested I go on a blind date and it definitely did not work out."

Wendi, 24, Miami, FL
"Law school's a great way to make an impact on the world and guarantees a solid future. Too bad so many other people have the same idea."

Duba, 25, S. Dartmouth
"BMAC always said...'Your best friend is your best protection.'"

Sarah, 29, Brighton
"Some guy once told me that if I am interested in a guy I should never let him know that I am smarter than he is."

DINING

Jae's Cafe & Grill
Unmistakably Oriental

BY MEG WORDEN AND PETER MCNAMARA

There was a very good reason for the line at Jae's on a traditionally slow night. This tiny South End restaurant is gradually being discovered by people looking for food that is good, reasonably priced, and above all, different. Add to that the warm welcome from the charming and friendly staff (who remain unfailingly courteous no matter how busy the place is), and you have the makings of a pleasant meal.

Melanie Dunea

Jae's Cafe & Grill offers quality food with a "Korean Accent"

"Food with a Korean accent" is how the owner describes the menu at this beguiling little restaurant, and indeed, the choices are unmistakably oriental. In addition to a large selection of traditional Korean dishes, there are also Japanese and Thai influences at work here. Not that you would guess this from the background music; you can be forgiven for initially wondering if you have been seated in the right restaurant when you hear the eminently listenable music ranging from samba and jazz to 60s classics and reggae, depending upon the owner's particular mood that evening. Similarly, the wine list has quite an international accent, with an intriguing selection that includes Spanish, Italian, French and American wines, including the celebrated Opus One.

There are dining rooms on two floors. The street level room uses a huge mirror to good effect as a way of minimizing the cramped seating; we expected the downstairs dining area to be claustrophobic, but the far end of the room opens out onto a patio, which adds a dimension of spaciousness. In any case your eyes are immediately drawn towards the huge tank of unusually friendly, inquisitive tropical fish, which provide a nice diversion (though perhaps it was a little unkind to put them beside the sushi bar).

Sushi is one of the highlights at Jae's and there is a very large selection; we were impressed that very few were unavailable the night we sampled them. All the sushi we tried were uniformly excellent; the smoked eel was particularly good, and the uni (sea urchin) was the best we have had in Boston. Prices are comparable with those elsewhere, with most items costing $3.50, except for the more exotic varieties like the uni, which are around $4.50.

Returning to the regular menu, the hot and sour soup ($2.95) was a extremely generous sized bowl packed with vegetables and tofu. The flavor of the broth was tantalizing, with a nice zing. The soup was flawed only by the overcooked carrots, whose flavor was a little too, shall we say, "carroty," and tended to overwhelm the other ingredients. We happily worked our way through Julie's tidbits ($5.95), which included some very light, flavorful fried dumplings stuffed with shrimp and vegetables, succulent, tender chicken and beef satay served with a very nice peanut dipping sauce and grilled vegetables with a soy-sesame based sauce. From among the Korean appetizers, we can recommend the kimchee ($1.95), a very good, quite hot homemade version of the classic pickled cabbage.

The entrees comprise noodle dishes (including whole-wheat, egg, buckwheat and cellophane - plus pad thai), grilled marinated fish and chicken, stir-fried rice dishes, curries and vegetable dishes served with your choice of protein (including tofu), as well as a full range of Korean dishes. From the vegetable dishes, we opted for the garlic vegetables with chicken ($6.95): nicely cooked chunks of chicken were tossed in a well balanced base made from garlic, soy and oyster sauce combined with carrot, baby corn, tomato, red pepper, red cabbage, garlic pieces and incredibly delicious broccoli florets. From the Korean entrees, we tried the oh jing ah bokum ($9.95) - very tender and delicious pieces of steamed squid combined with vegetables in a hot sauce, made from red chile pepper and bean sauce. We also sampled the fish of the day - a salmon steak grilled and served with a slightly sweet yellow curry ($10.95).

Desserts are a choice of ice cream bon bons (.85 each) in flavors like espresso, chocolate, vanilla and strawberry, or pastries supplied by Japonaise, that wonderful Japanese bakery in Brookline. Only two choices remained on our evening there, so we tried both; they were described as "shortcakes," one kiwi and one strawberry. These were not your traditional shortcake, but rather ethereal slices of melt-in-the-mouth light sponge layers interspersed with whipped cream and fruit.

We thoroughly enjoyed our meal at Jae's, but there are certain inevitable disadvantages to dining at a very small and popular eatery. Service was efficient (perhaps too efficient?), and the courses arrived in rapid succession, so lingering over a leisurely dinner is not on the cards. On the other hand, if it's serious food you want, Jae's is definitely worth a visit. ❑

JAE'S CAFE & GRILL

520 COLUMBUS AVE., BOSTON
TEL: 421-9405
HOURS: LUNCH MON - SAT 11:30 - 4:00
DINNER MON. -SAT. 5 - 10-
SUNDAY OPEN NOON - 10
CREDIT CARDS: AMEX, DISCOVER, MC, V
STREET LEVEL DINING ACCESSIBLE FOR HANDICAPPED
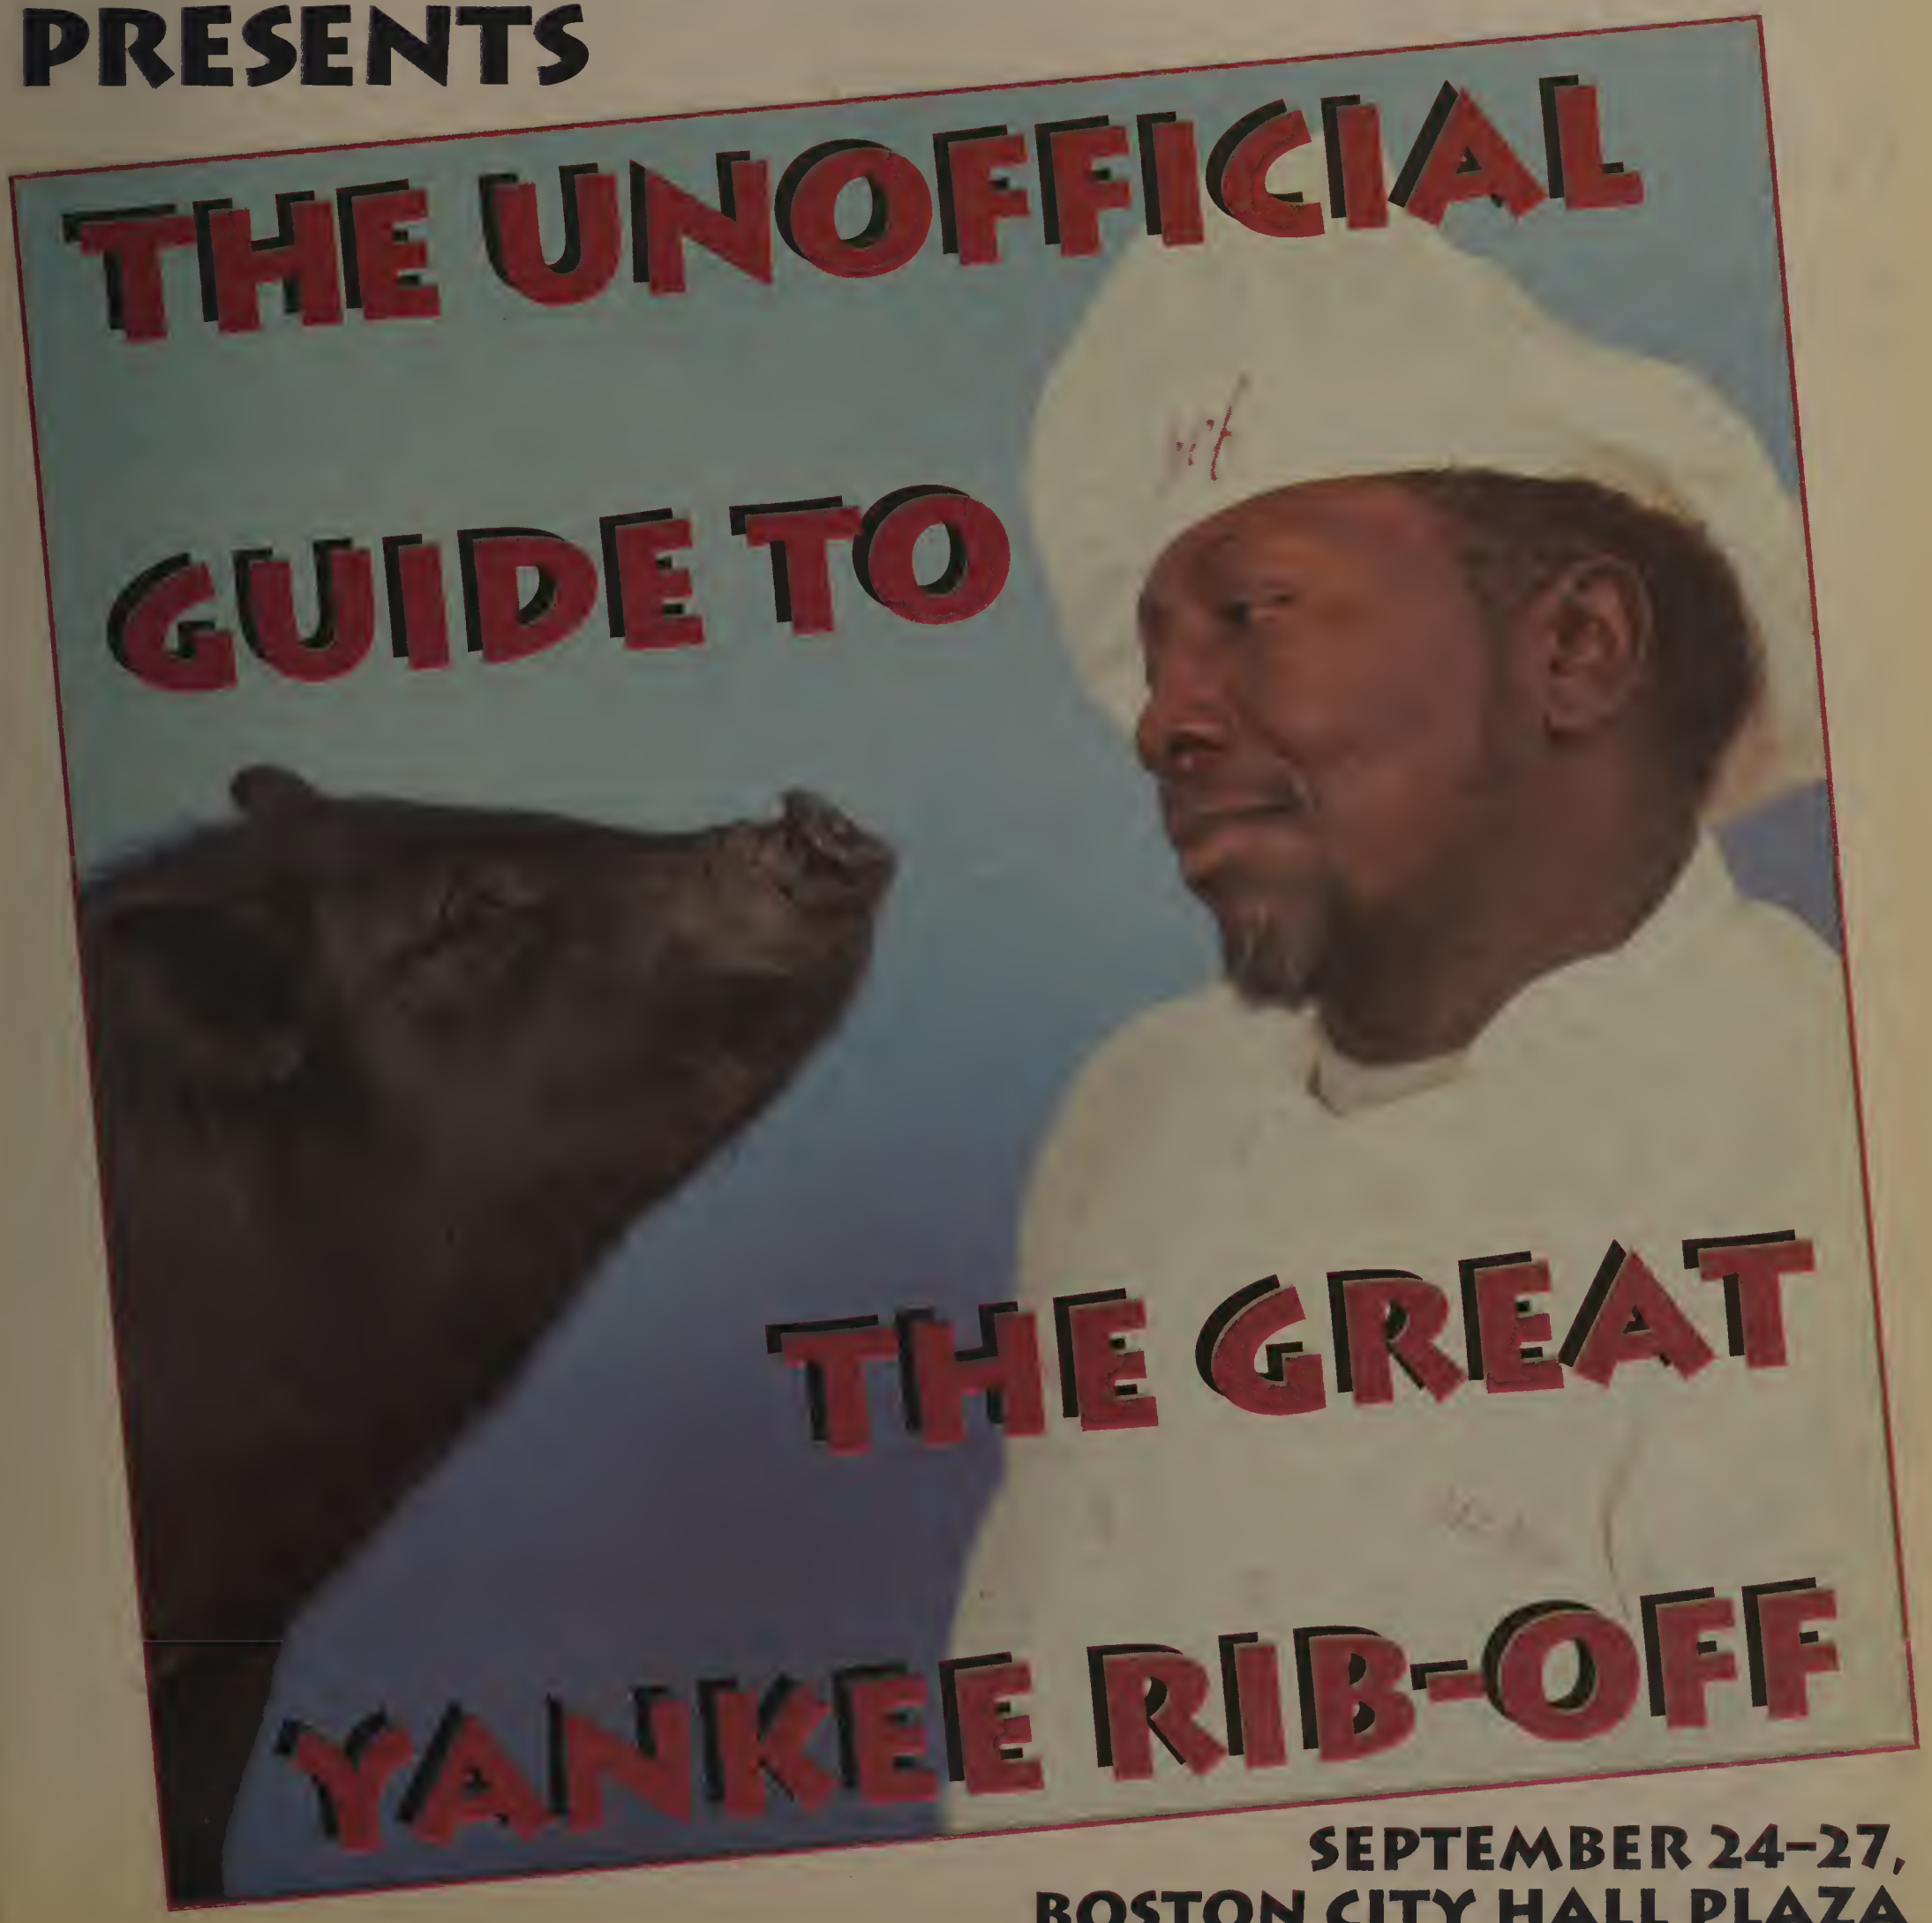
RESERVATIONS ONLY ACCEPTED FOR SIX OR MORE
VALET PARKING TUES - SAT

Serving Homemade Italian Specialties
B·L·O·S·S·O·M·S
CAFE AND CATERING
Historic Charlestown Navy Yard



La Trattoria
Fridays and Saturdays 5pm - 10pm
Blossoms Cafe, just a water shuttle ride from downtown Boston's Long Wharf Mariott.
One First Avenue (Rear), Building 34
Historic Charlestown Navy Yard
Charlestown MA 02129 • 617-242-1911

1280
Mexican Restaurant
THE 1280 RESTAURANT IS NOW FEATURING CREATIVE MEXICAN AND AMERICAN FOOD.
LET CHEF RUBEN ROMAN PREPARE EXOTIC FARE FOR YOU AT THIS NEW LOCATION.
The 1280 Mexican and American Restaurant is located at 1280 Beacon St., Brookline on the Green Line. 232-1280

The Improper Bostonian

PRESENTS

SEPTEMBER 24–27,
BOSTON CITY HALL PLAZA

THE GREAT YANKEE RIB COOK-OFF

BY LISA RAFFAELE

Boston's not just a beantown anymore. At least not after September 24 when City Hall Plaza will literally sizzle with the heat of thirty barbecue pits fired up for the First Annual Yankee Rib Cook-Off and Music Festival.

You can forget the cooler fall temperatures for four days as "ribrateurs" from New England and beyond concoct some of the hottest barbecue sauces around while vieing for the $10,000 Grand Prize for "The Best Damn Yankee Ribs."

Yankee Ribs may sound oxymoronic, but there's actually a strong fraternity of "Ribbers" in the New England area. Each has a very strong opinion about which cuts of meat and cooking techniques lock in the most flavor and produce the most tender rib. Then there's the crucial sauce recipe. Ribs can be basted in anything from a mild regional tomato-based sauce to a sweet and sassy Memphis style, to the more exotic Cajun, Caribbean and Texas recipes.

Every Ribber believes their techniques are the best, and none take too kindly to being told otherwise. All are determined to win the Yankee title of what Memphis Rib guru John Willingham terms the "next great American sport. A sport that transcends all racial, geographical, taste and age barriers." And John should know. This Tennessee legend has won more Rib Cook-Offs than "a mother pig has teats." He's developed special W'Ham sauces and cookers, and even coaches novice barbecuers contemplating their first Cook-Off.

According to John, the most successful competitions begin with the preparation of a "comprehensive game plan - the ahwella we be here justa have a good time attitude" doesn't fly.

Just as in any other sport, in barbecuing there are veterans and rookies. Most Ribbers from outside New England are seasoned competitors who've racked up the miles traveling the Spring/Summer Cook-Off Circuit from Florida to Los Angeles. It was Steve Uliss of "The Original Sports Saloon" who decided that Boston needed a good ribbing. And the tradition was born.

Jim Fahey of The Porter House Cafe Texas Chili Parlor and Pit Barbecue in Cambridge is ready to take the bull by the horns. He boasts the ability to "do any sauce from Austin to Boston." He's a self-proclaimed "Barbecue Man" devoted to Texas Style barbecuing as a way of life. He's even named a special sauce the "ZZ Top Mop Sauce" after his favorite Texan band. Short of a glass of Drano, he claims nothing burns hotter. For the more timid taste buds, there's the "weenie" Yankee Sauce.

Chef John Levins of The Green Street Grill in Cambridge sells more than 10,000 pounds a year of his Caribbean style Baby Back, Spare, and Beef ribs. His secret sauce combines more than ten different exotic herbs, spices and citrus juices imported from all over the globe to create a sweet, smoky flavor. The Rib-Off is his chance to introduce thousands of rib lovers to his eclectic blend of big, spicy tropical flavors.

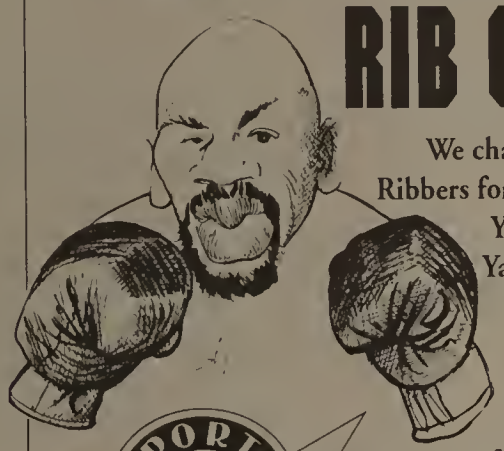
John Hall won't need any introductions when he pulls into the competition in a seventeen foot long covered wagon to serve the Texas Barbecue Express' famous "falling off the bone ribs." These tender, slightly spicy ribs are always a crowd pleaser according to John. He'll also be a fixin' barbecue chicken on a stick, hickory smoked pork and buffalo wings - mild, hot and wild.

Ever hear of Rocky Mountain Oysters? Let me assure you they bear no resemblance to the ones New Englanders are accustomed to. "Sticky Fingers" owner Arnold Hahn first encountered this "delicacy" while researching ribs out in Colorado. Suffice it to say, they're the male reproductive organs of a common frontier animal herded by cowboys. I'm sure the legendary cowboy Sticky Fingers will be able to tell you more about them. He'll be on hand for the festivities.

Expect an explosion of sound as well as taste. There's a lot more to barbecuing than

Loading Zone BBQ Blues
1992 1st Place Boston Baked Beans
Jazz, Blues & Dinner.
Saturdays 9:30-2:00 with Buddy Johnson's All-Star Band.
Kitchen Serving until midnight.
The Best Ribs, Chicken, Catfish, Louisiana Bayou Gumbo, Authentic Brazilian Churrasco, Vegetarian salads & Homemade dessert.
Loading Zone
150 Kneeland Street
695-0087
Reservations accepted.
Plenty of Parking.

Porterhouse Café
Texas Chili Parlor
& Pit Bar-B-Que
★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★
Come on down to the first annual Yankee Rib Cookoff to try our killer down and dirty spare ribs featuring Weenie Yankee BBQ Sauce. Spicy ZZ Top Mop Sauce and our brutally hot Southwest Texas BBQ Sauce.
★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★
2046 Mass. Ave., Cambridge
354-9793 • 864-2426



slapping some sauce on a rib, it's a slow, painstaking process that can take anywhere from four to 30 hours including preparation time. While each Ribber prepares and strategizes, the music festival kicks off. The Boston Phoenix sponsors local favorites Tribe on Thursday, September 24. On Friday, WILD 1090 presents the Smokin' Blues Concert with the Blues King himself, Bo Diddley. Saturday, WBCN sponsors The Rock of Boston starring Nils Lofgren and Poco. Boston favorites Paul Revere and The Raiders wrap up Sunday evening's concert courtesy of Oldies 103. Also on Sunday, fans of Fox TV's Married With Children can show their allegiance by dressing as their favorite Bundy at Boston's Bundy Bash.

Admission is set at $3 a day and $5 a night for adults, half price for seniors and children with ribs selling for a "buck a bone." A charitable contribution will be made to Boston's Fund for the Neighborhood. Admission is free from 11am - 4pm Thursday and Friday. For those who need a respite from the crowds of ravenous rib eaters, there will be a VIP Village with exclusive seating on the City Hall Courtyard Veranda. Call (617) 236-5700 for more information. ❑

THE GREAT YANKEE RIB COOK - OFF

SEPTEMBER 24 - 27
CITY HALL PLAZA
THURS SEPT. 24
THE "HEAR AND NOW" CONCERT
FRI. SEPT. 25
HEAVY METAL HORNS
BO DIDDLEY
SAT. SEPT. 26
*NILS LOFGREN
SUN. SEPT. 27
PAUL REVERE AND THE RAIDERS
TICKETS FOR CONCERTS AT STRAWBERRIES OR CALL 695-8765
ACT MAY BE SUBJECT TO CHANGE*

THE HEAVYWEIGHT FAVORITE TO WIN THE RIB COOK-OFF

We challenge all New England's Ribbers for the title of "Best Damn Yankee Ribs" at The Great Yankee Rib Cook-Off, City Hall Plaza, Sept 24-27. Our award winning Memphis-Style Ribs are beefing up to be the hands on favorite of all the judges and rib lovers. So come into the Saloon today and preview the "knock out" taste of our spicy smokehouse wares.

SPORTS The Original SALOON

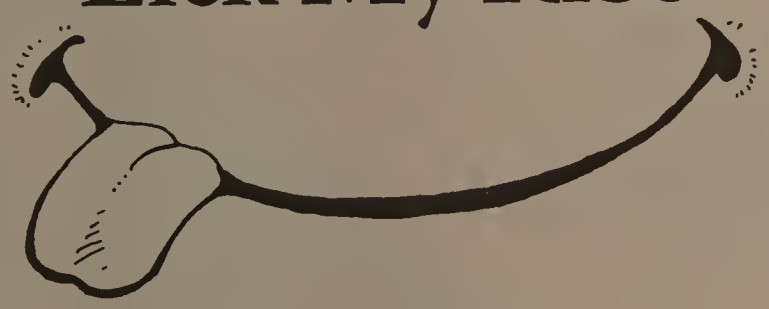
CORNER OF HUNTINGTON & EXETER IN BOSTON'S BACK BAY • (617) 536-1904

THE PLACE TO TOUCH BASE BEFORE YOU RUN HOME

HARPOON OCTOBERFEST

The First Weekend Of October
2nd - 4th • Rain Or Shine

Beer, Music & Dancing.
Live Oohmpa Bands. Give Away Trips To Munich. All At The Brewery, Under The Big Tent



Call 617 455 1935 For Information

GREETINGS BOSTON!

Taste Why We Are the Top Winning Rib Team in 1989–90–91 & 92

ROMAN HOLIDAY

— Lick My Ribs® —

1992 $15,000.00
1st Place Winners
"Greatest Ribs in America"
National Champions

National Championship
Rib Team
From Cleveland Ohio
Invading Boston
September 24–27
Boston

Other 1992 Wins

- 1st Prize Best Ribs Allegheny Rib Cook-Off Pittsburgh, PA
- Major Award Canton, Ohio Pro Football Hall of Fame
- 1st Place Stow Rib Cook-off
- Best Ribs Pensacola ,FLA
- Best Ribs Columbus , Ohio
- 1st Place People's Choice Washington, PA
- Niles, Ohio Best Ribs
- Parma Rib Cook-Off Ribs & People's Choice
- Carnation Festival Rib Cook-Off
- Strongsville Rib Cook-off
- Best Ribs & Sauce Washington, PA

"America's Most Tender Ribs"

CAUTION: OUR RIBS ARE HABIT FORMING

MARLEY'S LANDING

Pier 6
Charlestown Navy Yard

BOSTON

"Boston's Best Waterfront Bar"
...Improper Bostonian

"Boston's Best Marguerita"
...Improper Bostonian

Revel Without a Pause

Entertainment
★ Thursdays ★
Starting Sept. 24
Featuring
The Cape Cod All-Stars

M&M BARBECUE

Where the South Melts in Your Mouth

Enjoy M & M's with a 16 oz. Bud
What a Combo!!!

In Vino Veritas

Tasting Through

BY JONATHON ALSOP

There's no greater moment in the life of a bottle of wine than when you open it up and drink it down. Tasting is what wine's all about. You might say it was born to die, sort of, if you were in a maudlin way. A good wine "con" (short for connoisseur) can put on quite a tasting display with all kinds of swirling, sniffing, slurping and spitting. But for all the grape-growing and winemaking and vintage testing that goes on, it all comes down to this: How does it taste? And what does it taste like?

Wine is a process of tasting and remembering. I'm not sure how a person learns or develops or discovers "sense memory" but the sense of taste certainly grows with exposure people. For most people, wine is an acquired taste. They begin by drinking one kind of easy-going, user-friendly wine, and slowly but surely, they branch out into more complicated wines. It's all a matter of taste and tasting.

The most succinct wine tasting observation I ever heard came from my 8 year-old daughter in front of about two dozen wine cons at a Brookline Liquor Mart tasting of top-drawer white Burgundy candor: "This wine tastes like Jay's cat smells!" It silenced the crowd, but no one could disagree. Essence of kitty was coming through loud and clear. As it turns out, this "cat box" aroma, or "pee-pee du chat" as it's also known, is relatively common in some Sauvignon Blanc and white Burgundy. When I told this story to a colleague of mine she said, "That's my favorite!" So go figure.

Wine is infinitely more fun to drink and talk about than any other beverage I can think of. There are a number of free wine tastings all over Boston nearly every weekend of the year. Check the "Tastings Around Town" section below for listings.

Tastings Around Town

Blanchard's in Allston, free tastings every Friday 5-8 pm and every Saturday

2-5 pm. Winecellar of Silene, Copley and Waltham, Fridays 4-6:30 pm and Saturdays 2-4:30 pm. Marty's in Allston, Saturdays 1-3 pm. Brookline Liquor Mart (BLM) Allston, no wine tastings in September, but regular Saturday 2-4:30 pm tastings start up again in October.

Vineyard Fest

Diamond Hill Vineyards in Cumberland RI, 6th Annual Harvest Fest, Sunday September 27 from noon to 5 pm. Previous bashes have been excellent, with fine French country meals and great barrel tastings and tours. Five stars. Call Claire Bernston for reservations, (401) 333-2751/(800)752-2505, $26.75 pp. Also at Sakonnet Vineyards in Little Compton RI, their Master Chefs Series continues through the fall. (401) 635-8486 for reservations.

Wine Speak

Wine people love to talk and describe wine and discern previously un-perceived flavors every time they have a chance. The wine word sweeping Boston right now is "vegetal." Early reports indicate vegetal may mean "tastes just like asparagus smells," or simply, "I hate it in every way."

Fine Wine on a Tight Budget

Marty's, Allston; Liberty School Three-Valley Select, Vendange Merlot, Valentin Bianchi Malbec, 2/$9. Beacon Beverage, B'line; Buena Vista Chardonnay & Pinot Noir in the new 500 ml (2/3's) bottle, 2/$10. Bauer's, Newbury Street; Mellea Revolutionary Red, $6, delicious Pinot Noir made in Massachusetts from imported Oregon grapes. The goofy Minuteman label makes it look bad but don't be fooled.

Zin & the Art of Wine Shopping

1979 Fetzer Lolonis Vineyards Zinfandel: beautifully mature Zin, very smooth and round, ultra-ripe fruit - now enjoying its golden years. This is the last of it (in the world probably) but I left a few bottles on the top shelf at Beacon Beverage next to Star Market in B'line. Irrationally low price: $7.

Tell Me Why

A couple of months ago, the Wine Spectator (a.k.a. Wine Expectorator) tapped the '90 Wente Brothers Central Coast Chardonnay as its Best Buy of the Millennium. At $7.50, it is a great wine, but can someone explain to me why we can't get it in town for under $10? Some places charge $12 and $13, going on TWICE the manufacturer's suggested retail price. Same thing happened with the '90 Callaway Calla-Lees, MSRP $6, all over Boston at $10 and $11. I just don't get it.

❑

CAFFÉ Graffiti

"Come In And Sign Our Wall."

▲ Homemade & Imported Cakes & Desserts
▲ "Skim" Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Espresso, Cappuccino, Caffé Latte, & Mocha
▲ Imported Italian Fruit Juices & Soft Drinks
▲ Decaffeinated Italian Coffees
▲ Italian Gelato

CAFFÉ GRAFFITI
Located in Boston's Historic North End.
307 Hanover Street, 367-3016
hours 6am - 12 mid M - Sat, Sun 8am - 12 mid

Four Winds
266 Commercial St Boston's Waterfront
(617) 742-3922
seafood grille

APPETEASERS

BY MARGE CHRYSSOSTOMIDIS AND PETER MCNAMARA

Ribs, ribs and yet more ribs. You are planning to attend the Great Yankee Rib Cook-Off on September 24-27 at City Hall Plaza, aren't you? For full details, see elsewhere in this issue.

SPORTING SOME WOOD

Whether it's ribs or just vegetables you're grilling or smoking at home, you will be truly impressed with the quality and range of woods available from Nature's Own. This company makes charwoods from a variety of Canadian maple hardwood, and herbwoods from the woody stalks of wild herbs like basil, sage, rosemary, dill and thyme. You'll be in good company, too, as these products are used by several local chefs, such as Lydia Shire, Chris Schlesinger and Todd English. These woods can be purchased locally at Marty's, or call 1-800-BUY CHAR for other outlets near you. Incidentally, 5% of profits are donated to the Spruce Fund, dedicated to restoring and creating "Green Belts" in urban areas.

WANNA GO TO ANAGO?

It used to be 798 Main, but now it's Anago. New owner-chef Bob Calderone has been cooking at this location for Bruce Frankel for some years; he and his partner Susan Finegold (who runs the front of the house) tell us the food will be modern American with a Mediterranean influence, the atmosphere will be more casual and the prices more affordable. Pasta is one of Bob's favorite items, so will always be on the menu; we can say without reservation it's among the best we've ever had. And on no account pass up the fabulous fresh shrimp when it's offered. For information and reservations, call 876-8444.

HOME IN TUSCANY

At Icarus, a traditional five course Tuscan dinner complete with regional wines is planned for September 22. All three owners visited Tuscany during the last year, and are looking forward to sharing their experiences at this third annual event; for information and reservations, call 426-1790. Also at Icarus, Sunday brunch has now been resumed, while on Sunday evenings, a cafe menu is being offered in addition to the regular menu.

IT'S A MATCH

Wine tasting dinners are a great way to learn about new wines, as well as the way they can be matched with food. A case in point was the recent Royce Vineyards dinner at Watertown's On the Square, where we sampled some splendid wines, including a great thirst-quenching and rare - yet inexpensive white Zinfandel (available at Kenmore Wines and the Cambridge Bread and Circus). We also discovered what a very talented chef Russell Thiel is, and his skillful pairing of food and wine was nothing short of brilliant. You can test this for yourselves at future wine dinners here; the Women in Wine Vintner Series begins on September 30. For information, call 923-1522.

GREETINGS STRANGER

We always like to hear about family run restaurants, and so a special welcome to the recently opened Omonia at 75 Charles Street South, tel. 426-4310, where the Pantazopoulos family will introduce you to delicious, moderately priced Greek food.

THERE'S A HEN ON MY PLATE

The latest in luxury lunch bargains can be enjoyed at Rowes Wharf Restaurant in the Boston Harbor Hotel, and what a special lunch it is! From September 15 - November 18, a set three course lunch featuring New England products is offered for only $14.92. Chef Daniel Bruce has been on some foraging expeditions for wild mushrooms, and has even tracked down some hen-of-the-woods, which has been in very short supply this year. These special ingredients and dishes are only available at lunch; for reservations and information, call 439-7000.

DOWN THE ROAD

Not open yet, but...We hear that Rattlesnake owner Gordon Wilcox has his eye on an empty store at the Arlington end of Boylston Street for his proposed Parish Cafe...The owners of the newly opened John Harvard Brew House have plans to open yet another brew pub about six months from now, this time on Newbury Street, on the site of the old Genji restaurant...Two out-of-town chains, California Pizza Kitchen and Johnny's Rocket Diner have been looking for Boston locations; we hear the Prudential Center is being considered...Watch out for Mary's Cafe, expected to open by the end of the month at 111 Dartmouth Street, tel. 353-9673; chef Doug Chapman has designed a menu to suit all tastes, we hear...October 1 is the expected opening date of Appetito, a sophisticated but casual Italian restaurant in Newton Centre, at 761 Beacon Street. A special feature will be the antipasto bar. For information, call 244-9881.

THE JUICY DETAILS

People in the news: Many congratulations to Jeanette Stefko, recently promoted to General Manager at Boston's Hard Rock Cafe. We're glad this company has finally recognized how many talented women are on the staff...Congratulations, too to Fred Pahl on his appointment to Assistant General Manager of the Boston Hard Rock Cafe...Good luck to Remy Remsnyder, who just joined the staff at the John Harvard Brew House. Remy brings with his many years of experience at Pizzeria Uno and the Stage Deli...We hear that Chris Spann, formerly of 29 Newbury and Lulu's Backyard has been appointed manager at Olive's. ❑

WHO SAYS THERE AREN'T ANY GREAT BREAKFAST SPOTS CONVENIENT TO BOSTON!!

For Absolutely The Best Breakfasts and Reasonably Priced Italian Entrees in Town - Come to

CASA D'PASQUALE'S FINE FOODS

63 White St, Waverly Square, Belmont
Breakfast served until 2pm. Weekends
Dinner Hours until 10pm. Weekends
489-6535

Cornucopia presents a Spanish Wine Dinner co-sponsored by the Wine Cask of Somerville and Peter Sagansky of Wines of Spain. We will begin with a 45 minute reception with Spanish Sparkling Wines (Cava), Sherries and Tapas styled Hors d'oeuvres. Following this will be a three course dinner paired witn Rioja Wines, and a special tasting of Spanish dessert wine and brandy to finish.

Spanish wine dinner at cornucopia

Held on Thursday October 8th at 7 pm the cost of this event will be $40/p inclusive. Reservations are required. Validated parking is available, as always, after 4 pm at the Lafayette Garage. Cornucopia is located in the heart of Boston at 15 West Street.

Tel: (617) 338.4600

Diners Club International

PRONTO

Serving Lunch and Dinner

7 days a week
Breakfast on Weekends

Italian Cuisine with daily specials

Fine wines by the glass or bottle
Elegant, charming, unique
Romantic European atmosphere

464 Thames Street
Newport, RI
(Corner of Pope & Thames)
401-847-5251
MC/VISA

D

BRUNCH BOARD

Menu items and Buffet prices subject to change.

AUJOURD'HUI

Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Bos. 451-1392
Fast for several days before sampling this opulent Sunday buffet. Enjoy a view of the Public Garden and fine decor while you sip mimosas. Buffet items vary weekly. Save room for the dessert buffet. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $35 (all inclusive, except for tip); $18.50 for children.

BANGKOK BISTRO

1952 Beacon St., Cleveland Circle, Brighton 739-7270
Tired of eggs benedict and dim sum? This casual bistro across from Cleveland Circle Cinema offers a changing array of authentic Thai specials Saturdays only from 12-3:30pm. It's a bargain starting at $5 and most dishes can't be found elsewhere, so come early. It sells out!

BELLO MONDO

236-5800
Enjoy a lavish Sun. brunch at one of Boston's finest Italian restaurants, located in the Boston Marriott Copley Place. The weekly specials are served buffet style in elegant surroundings at an all you can eat steal of only $18.95. Sun. 10:30am - 2pm.

BENNETT ST. CAFÉ

1 Bennett St., Camb. 661-5005
Adventurous eaters will be impressed with Bennett's casual summer buffet brunch. Summer brunch will be served now through Sept. 5. Set in a safari-like atmosphere, Bennett's offers a wide selection of seafood dishes as well as freshly cut meats. Unlimited juice and coffee to wash it down. Courtyard dining available. $17.95 for all you can eat; $9.95 under 10. Brunch Sun. 9am-2pm. Reservations.

BLUE DINER

178 Kneeland St., Bos. 338-4639
When was the last time you were at an original 40's diner? This kitsch joint is decorated with red neon, antique booths and a vintage jukebox. Try luxurious two-inch challa bread French toast, sour cream flapjacks or ployes (pancakes made of wheat and buckwheat flour and then rolled up sleeping-bag style). Brunch is served Sat. and Sun. 7am-4:30pm and, for night owls, from midnight to 7am during the week. Dress funky.

CAFE FLEURI

250 Franklin St., Bos. 451-1900
In the Cafe Fleuri's atrium setting, The Hotel Meridien offers a Sunday brunch that will make your mouth water. Crepes made to order include fillings such as mixed nuts, whipped cream, fresh berries and chocolate topping. Made-to-order omelets, a sushi display, a variety of pates and homemade ice cream and sorbets are also available to tempt your palete. Brunch is from 11am to 2pm and costs $29.50. Reservations. suggested.

CROSSROADS

405 Beacon St. 262-7371
Located in the heart of the Boston's historic Back Bay, the crossroads is a perfect place to top off your Sunday morning activities. Enjoy home cooking at its finest in a casual dining atmosphere. Crossroads offers a traditional brunch menu highlighted by their homemade breads and muffins. From 11 - 2 take advantage of the "all you can eat" special for just $5.95. Don't forget the kids who receive half off their meals if they're 10 or under.

HAMPSHIRE HOUSE

84 Beacon St., Bos. 227-9600
Overlooking the Public Gardens, this oak-panelled Georgian interior serves dishes as rich in diversity as the homemade sauces that accompany them. The Eggs Ellington is a lovely combination of a tender fillet, poached eggs and Bernaise sauce, that though well portioned, still leaves space for their Creme Caramel or Magnolia Pie. The Creole Omlette is another entree that is sure to tempt your palate. New Orleans Jazz Brunch served 10:30am - 2:30p, $12 - $16.

HARBOR TERRACE

296 State St. at the Marriot Longwharf Hotel, Bos. 227-0800
A veritable smorgasbord with over 60 breakfast, lunch and dinner items awaits you at the harbor terrace. Take in the harbor vista at this Sunday buffet from 10am-2:30pm. $21.95; under 12 half price.

HUNGRY I

71 1/2 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
Voted Boston's Most Romantic Restaurant, Hungry I offers a French country-style brunch. During the summer, dine in the courtyard; winter months, warm yourself by one of the dining room fireplaces. Sun. 11am-2pm.

JOE'S AMERICAN BAR AND GRILL

279 Dartmouth St., Bos. 536-4200
Enjoy a traditional brunch of fresh waffles, bacon omelettes, petite filet benedicts and more. Eat upstairs or on the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Sat. and Sun. 11am-4pm.

JONAH'S SEAFOOD CAFE

575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
The reasons for their award-winning Sunday Brunch Buffet are immediately evident upon entering here. For $22.95, it's all-you-can-eat from their seafood-theme brunch which includes a raw bar, carvings and omelette stations and more.

OASIS CAFE

176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274.
Stuff yourself and a friend at this lively Art Deco café. Enjoy American home-style fare. If you're really hungry , try "Pig Out for Two": a giant-sized breakfast including a pitcher of coffee - all for $10.95. Sun 11am-3pm.

PARKER'S RESTAURANT

Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Bos. 725-1600
Cut-glass windows and a traditional decor for Proper Bostonians compliment this award-winning Sunday brunch. Fresh seafood, cheeses, fruit, salads and a complementary glass of champagne. Service is tops. Sun. 11:30am-2:30pm. $24.

ROWES WHARF RESTAURANT BOSTON HARBOR HOTEL

70 Rowes Wharf on Atlantic Avenue, Boston 439-3995
"Boston's Best Sunday Brunch" (Concierge Guide To Boston) The scenic view of Boston Harbor is a unique setting for enjoying a spectacular traditional American brunch buffet with a superb selection of shrimp, fresh and smoked salmon, brook trout, and peppered mackerel; homemade sausages and pates, salads, omelettes, carved roast prime rib; hot entree selections include coulibiac of salmon and scallops and seasonal vegetables; cinnamon French Toast, fritters or pancakes, and luncheon breads. The spectacular dessert selection includes tortes, mousses, pastries, flans and exotic cheesecakes, as well as New England favorites. Special seating for large groups. Private rooms available. Complimentary self parking. Brunch is served from 10:30am - 2:30pm. $35 per person. Children under 12, $17. No charge to children under three.

SERENDIPITY III

120 S. Mkt. Bldg., Faneuil Hall, Bos. 523-2339
It will indeed be serendipitous if you stumble upon this sophisticated brunch spot, but it's worth seeking out. Sample the challah French toast, homemade quiche or whole wheat blueberry and banana pancakes. Also listen to jazz by local artists. Sun. 10:30am-2:30pm. Outdoor seating available.

SPASSO ITALIA

160 Commonwealth Ave.
536-8656
Winner of the Improper Bostonian's "Best of Boston" award for Outdoor Dining, this lively cafe is a hit inside and out! Featuring a brand new brunch menu, Spasso offers an array of appetizers, antipasta, pasta and pizza in addition to delicious specials like eggs benedict done the "Spasso" way with home fries ($5.95), or salmon hash with peppers, red onion and potato, topped with poached eggs and a tomato-mustard sauce ($7.95).Wether it be out under the stars or in from the cold, come join us at Spasso!

SPINNAKER ITALIA AT THE HYATT

575 Memorial Drive, Camb. 492-1234
Boston's only revolving rooftop restaurant. Spectacular Sunday Champagne Brunch from 10am-2pm, $23.95. The hot entrees change weekly but the pasta and omelette stations make mouth-watering delicacies to order. The theme here is Northern Italian and you won't be disappointed having brunch in Italy - Hyatt style! The brunch features a complimentary glass of champagne.

THE TRIDENT BOOKSTORE AND CAFÉ

338 Newbury St., Bos. 267-8688
Don't dribble on the tables as you sip café au lait from a bowl and play your favorite parlor games. Chess and backgammon boards courtesy of your hosts. If you're not into games, grab a mag from the racks and kick back to New Age music while feasting on one of the many vegetarian specials. Sun. 12-9pm.

WARREN TAVERN,

2 Pleasant St., Charlestown, 241-8142
Take a step back into history this Sunday, approximately 212 years. The Warren Tavern is one of the oldest restaurants in the country and the first place to be rebuilt after Charlestown was burned down in the Battle of Bunker Hill. The Tavern features an original decor of low beamed ceilings, church pew benches and a 25 foot oak bar. Cuisine is straight forward American with a little international flair. Brunch served from 12:00 to 3:30. $4.95 - $6.95

It's time for Another Season.
Fine dining at reasonable prices in a lovely setting.

97 MOUNT VERNON STREET
BEACON HILL, BOSTON 367-0880

ARARAT
RESTAURANT
Middle Eastern Vegetarian Plates $4.75 Each

Falafel, Hommos and Tabouleh

Musaka
Eggplant with Rice Pilaf

Mujadra
Lentils and Rice with Salad

Pilaki
Kidney Beans and Rice Pilaf with Salad

Hommos, Taboulch and Yalanji

ARARAT RESTAURANT
71 ARLINGTON STREET WATERTOWN, MA
(617) 924-4100 * (617) 924-7011
Open Monday - Saturday 9 - 11

International Specialty Foods

Eastern Lamejun Bakers

- Stuffed Grape Leaves-Hammus
- Tabouleh
- Baba Gannoi
- Cheese
- Daily Fresh Lamejun
- Arm Baklavah
- Coffee Beans
- Spices • Nuts
- Grains
- Pastries
- Cheese
- Dry Fruits
- and Much More.

Middle Eastern Gourmet Grocer • 145 Belmont St, Belmont
617-484-5239 • est. 1942

RESTAURANT LISTINGS

Restaurant listings are provided as a service to advertisers. If you would like to have your restaurant listed, please call the Improper Bostonian Advertising Department at 232-3705.

ADDIS RED SEA ETHIOPIAN RESTAURANT
544 Tremont St., Bos. 426-8727
A,MC,V$$
If you feel like broadening your dining experience venture to Addis' cozy basement quarters nestled in the South End. Sit on low seats around the mesob, an intricate straw table on which the meal is served. Drink a bottle of tej, Ethiopian honey wine, and eat with your hands,- using injera, a tasteless, white spongy bread, to scoop up "yummy" dishes of vegetables, and chicken or lamb seasoned with spices such as curry and turmeric.

The North End's Getaway for HeartyAmerican Home Cooking

Oasis Cafe

Chef Jill Rodgers included in America's 2000 for
"Providing culinary leadership into the 21st Century"
-Chefs in America

Lunch, Dinner & Sunday Brunch

176 ENDICOTT STREET BOSTON
523-9274

BEST Winner of the Improper Bostonian's Best of Boston Award— Outdoor Dining

Italia
SPASSO
café & bar

Lunch	Sun–Sat 11:30–5:00 including brunch specials on Sunday
Dinner	Sun–Wed 5:00–10:00 pm Thurs–Sat 5:00–11.00 pm

Available for private parties and functions.
Valet parking.
On the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Dartmouth Street
160 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston

(617) 536-8656

ANOTHER SEASON
97 Mount Vernon St., Boston 367-0880
A, MC, V, $$$
A classic restaurant with a modern menu served in style is what you will find at Another Season. Luncheon is served Tuesday-Friday, featuring light, fresh fare. Dinner is served Monday through Saturday from 5:45 to 10:00pm. The diverse menu offers wonderful specials and a creative three-course prix fixe menu for $22.00 (Mon. - Thurs.) Private rooms are available for parties, meeting and weddings. For these special events all menus are custom designed to suit the needs and tastes of the client. For reservations, information or a copy of the prix fixe menu for Fall please call 367-0880.

ARARAT
71 Arlington St., Watertown 924-4100 $
Dine in this casual, clean cut and authentic Middle Eastern and Armenian restaurant. With only one item priced over five dollars, their menu offers the best deals in this category. Choose between rotisseried chicken and kabobs. You'll be an addict of their lamb kebobs after trying them only once. All dishes are served with generous portions of rice pilaf, salad and pita and hommos. Ararat also offers take-out service. Hours are 11am-9pm, Mon.-Sat. Beer and wine available.

AVEROF,
1924 Mass Ave., Camb. 354-4500
A D,MC,V $$
Travel to Greece and dine on delectable lamb, beef, chicken and seafood dishes. Though lamb seems to be the specialty here, you wouldn't be disappointed if you tried the grilled vegetable kabob. Sink your teeth into spanokopita (spinach cheese pie) if you're really hungry. Live entertainment nightly. Open Mon-Wed. 11-1am, Thur.-Sat., 11-2am. Sunday brunch 11:30am-5pm.

BIBA
272 Boylston St,. Bos. 426-7878
D,MC,V $$$$
Overlooking the Boston Common, this mod newcomer to Boston's best offers outstanding service, chic colorful decor and an eclectic menu. Where else can you sample offal (innards) and venison cooked to perfection flavored with figs? Chef Lydia Shire offers delectables such as saddle of rabbit, dark roasted in honey and fresh juniper. Specials vary daily. Dining at BIBA is pricey but worth its weight in culinary nostalgia. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Sat., dinner only. Huge bar crowd downstairs. Call ahead for reservations.

Fennells & Co. Fine Wines, etc.
"Boston's Oldest Liquor Store" est. 1878
Town Without Pity –Gene Pitney, 1962

Whatever your state of mind is in around September 1st, change it fast!! You Fennell regulars know what I mean. So to our new neighbors and friends read on...

FIRST Welcome to historic Back Bay. It' s crazy, but fun, students have I.D.'s, no exceptions! Boston is in a bit of a political snit. Watch the local news as much as possible; also keep an eye on weather, you have heard about it.

SECOND If you have a car you really like, but don't actually need, leave it somewhere else!! Boston is loaded with taxi cabs, an excellent transit system, or just walk and bike it.

THIRD Use the telephone to expedite services, such as arranging diner parties, functions, etc. It helps us, too.

FOURTH Never ever leave your stuff unprotected, even for a second. Take it from us, the guys in the trench. This town doesn't care about you or your stuff. So watch it!! Otherwise you will be O.K.

FINALLY Remember to stop at Fennells' for your Fall & Winter requirements... Think of us as your "Service Sanctuary" and a good source of local information. Come by anytime. We are opened from 10:30 am to 11:30 pm, Monday through Saturday. Located on the corner of Mass. Ave and Comm. Ave. Serving Back Bay since 1878...

Clos du Bois Sonoma1990 Cabernet & Chardonnay "Delicious" Reg. $14.99	$11.99
Hallcrest Chardonnay 1990 Reg. $11.99	$8.99
Villa Tebaiue Italy Merlot, Pinot Grigio Reg. $9.99	$6.99
John Powers Irish Whiskey 750 ml	$11.99
Gordons Vodka 1.75 ml	$12.99
Moosehead 6 pk. bottles	$4.99
St. Pauli Girl 6 pk bottles	$4.99
Stroh's 15 pk.cans	$6.99
Miller Genuine Draft 12 pk. cans	$7.99
Lowenbrau 12 pk. bottles	$7.99
Molson & Light 12 pk. bottles	$8.99
LaBatts & Light 12 pk. bottles	$8.99
Becks 12 pk. bottles	$8.99
Fosters & Light 12 pk. bottles	$9.99
Knickerbocker 16oz. "Fat Boy" bottles	$11.99 case
Rolling Rock Bar bottles	$15.99 case

• Back Bay Delivery Service • VISA, AM EXPRESS, MC Accepted
Fennells & Co. 57–59 Mass. Ave, Boston
536-0222, 536-0233

BOB THE CHEF,
604 Columbus Ave., Bos 536-6204 MC/V
$
This unique restaurant is the only soul food joint in Boston. Their barbecued ribs and glorifed chicken are the most popular dishes. With the average entree priced around $8, you can't go wrong here. Bob The Chef will make any new diner feel right at home with friendly service and some of the most mouth-watering food in town. Weekend brunch features fried chicken and waffles- a new combo for your AM tastebuds. Open Mon to Sat. 8am-9pm and Sun., 9am to 6pm.

BOODLES,
Back Bay Hilton Hotel, Bos. 266-3537
A,D,MC, V, En Route $$$$
Boodle's offers dining in a fun, relaxed atmosphere. Featuring a wide variety of fare from gourmet sandwiches and salads to sumptuous entrees & grilled fresh seafood and steaks. B: 7am-10:45am. Continental Breakfast: 10:45am -11:30am. L: 11:30am-2pm. Light fare: 2-5:30pm. D: 5:30-10pm, Fri. & Sat. till 11pm.

CACTUS CLUB,
939 Boylston St., Bos. 236-0200
A,D,MC,V $$
Get a piece of the Southwest in Boston. Rustle up lunch for $4.50. Ride in for dinner and choose from a "fiesta of flavors". Fried corn fritters dipped in honey, Navajo braised rabbit, as well as more traditional staples are served up daily. Call to reserve for parties of 8 or more. Open daily for lunch and dinner.

CAFFE GRAFFITI
307 Hanover St., Bos. 367-3016 $
Grab a paint marker and a steaming cup of caffe mocha at this fun and yummy caffe. Mark up those walls with reckless abandon while you relish a taste of "Boston's best' tiramisu, or choose from a mind-bending selection of goodies, Italian pastries and gelati. Open 6am to midnight weekdays, opens at 8am Sat. and Sun. Soon to display blow-ups of Boston's most notable graffiti.

CAFFE ITALIA
279 Newbury St., Boston, 536-3556 $
Sip cappuccino and espresso from the early morning light into the balmy summer night at this authentic Italian cafe. Mangia imported pastries, Gelati, calzone, arancini, panzarotti and more from 8 am-12am Monday through Thursday and 8am-2am Friday through Sunday. Relax and enjoy a late night dessert on their outdoor terrace open until 2 am on weekends.

COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY
138 Portland St., Boston 523-8383 A, MC, V, DC $$
Boston's Original Restaurant/Brewery. Enjoy hearty platters of fresh seafood, great BBQ and the biggest, spiciest Buffalo Wings in town. Great daily specials for both lunch and dinner. All enjoyed in an atmosphere that feels like a brewery. Its big and bold, with copper everything - four huge copper brewing kettles, copper tabletops, copper bar and even copper ventilation ducts overhead. All around you are floor to ceiling windows that look out over the streets of Boston's North End. The English-style ales are all robust top fermented, unpasteurized, hand pumped and brewed right on the premises. Live Reggae and Calypso music every Fri. and Sat. nights. Hours are from 11:30AM to 12 midnight Sun.- Thurs. and until 1:00AM Fri. & Sat. Casual Dress.

CORNUCOPIA,
15 West St., Bos. 338-4600
A,D,DC,MC,V $$$
New American cuisine is served at this classy Art Deco restaurant located at Downtown Crossing. The creative menu changes with the seasons but there's always a duck confit cooked with a fruit sauce. Desserts are always spectacular here-Cornucopia won the coveted 1B's Best of Boston Tastiest Dessert award. Open for lunch Mon.-Fri. and dinner Tue.-Sat. Reservations are advised.

Country Life Vegetarian Buffet
112 Broad St., Bos. 350-8846 $
Sample creative macrobiotic dishes buffet-style in quaint country surroundings. Eggplant Parmesan made with tofu and broccoli quiche with tahini sauce. All-you-can-eat lunch buffet for $6, ($7 for dinner). Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch. Tue., Wed., Thu. and Sun. for dinner. Sun. brunch 10:00am-3pm.

Fajitas & 'Ritas
25 West St., Boston 426-1222
MC, V $
Laid back Tex-Mex is served up sizzlin' style here, featuring chicken, beef, vegetable, and shrimp fajitas with homemade guac, pico de gallo, and sour cream. The margaritas are blended just right, or if your preference leans towards brews, F&R's pours some great Mexican and Texan suds. Open Mon.-Wed. 11am- 9pm, Thurs. 11am- 10pm, Fri. 11am-midnight, Sat. 11am- 11pm and closed on Sundays. Also available for private parties.

Four Winds
266 Commercial St., Bos. 742-3922
A, MC, DC, V $$
This casual seafood grille sits across from Boston Harbor and though not claiming to have barnicles on the back door step, the Four Winds can claim a nice water view and some great fresh seafood and salad dishes. Stop by for the Cajun swordfish, broiled yellowfin tuna or one of their tasty sirloin steaks. Open daily from noon to 3:30pm for lunch and 5:30 to 10:30 dinner.

Hard Rock Cafe
131 Clarendon St. Boston, 353-1400
A, MC, V $$
Where can you eat a smoked pork sandwich called a "pig," sit next to Noel Reddings leather jacket hanging on the wall and listen to the greatest rock and roll in town?....At Boston's own Hard Rock Cafe! Though famous for its rock and roll treasures, the Hard Rock cafe boasts a menu that is expertly prepared, diverse and moderately priced. The Hard Rock specializes in burgers, barbecue items and much more. Open daily 11:30 - 2:00 am.

Hungry I
71 Charles St., Bos. 227-3524
MC, V$$
Voted Boston's most romantic restaurant, the Hungry I is located in Beacon Hill on one of Boston's favorite streets. The cuisine is French country and the ambiance is marriage proposal material, whether in the outside courtyard or next to one of the dining room fireplaces.
Dinner nightly and Sunday brunch.

Icarus
3 Appleton St., Bos. 426-1790 A,D,MC,V
$$$
Melt your mouth but not your wings at this informal but sophisticated American regional restaurant in the South End. Dine at mahogany tables under softly lighted period fixtures. A favorite appetizer on the ever-changing menu is the polenta with braised wild mushrooms. Compliment your chanterelle glazed lobster with fennel ravioli with one of 100 choice wines. Enjoy jazz at the bar every Fri. Casual dress. Dinner daily. Sun. brunch is served 11am-3pm.

India Quality Restaurant
536 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos.267-4499 $
India Quality offers a wide variety of authentic North Indian cuisine amid, cozy and relaxed atmosphere. Luncheon specials vary from $4.25 - $5.95 (11:30 - 3:00) and daily dinner specials $6.95 - $10.95 (5 - 10pm). Special breads $2.95 (stuffed with spinach, potatoes, meat, mint). Dine in or take out. 10% student discount on all entres.

Kebab'N'Kurry
30 Massachusetts Ave., Bos. 536-9835
A,D,MC,V $$
This small basement restaurant offers an extensive menu. The nan (Indian bread) is superb, often stuffed with potatoes and other goodies. Order a maharani thaali (Queen's platter) and sample a variety of dishes including: dal (lentils), paneer (cheese in a curried sauce) chickpeas and basmati rice. Open daily for lunch (except Sun.) and dinner.

Legal Sea Foods
Park Plaza Hotel, 35 Columbus Ave., Bos. 426-4444 A,D,MC,V $$
5 Cambridge Ctr., Camb. 864-3400
43 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill 270-9700
Copley Place, Bos. 266-7775
Burlington Mall, Burlington 270-9700
$$$
Legal, rightly known as Boston's best fish house, has an unquestioned standard of excellence. Founder George Berkowitz lives by his motto, "If it's not fresh, it's not Legal". In fact, all fish is personally inspected in Legal's in-house lab under the direction of a certified Microbiologist. One of many highlights is the Seafood casserole

NEWLY OPENED

Raw Bar • Cocktails • Grill

MARCO'S RISTORANTE

Nearly 100 years of culinary excellence in the North End.

Italian Seafood Specialties "Bringing Scunggelli to Boston !"

93 Salem St. North End, Boston
3 6 7 - 4 8 7 8

4th Anniversary SALE

WINGS COMM. INC.
永聲傳呼
620 Washington St., Boston, 451-9221

NEC P-400 $450

Motorola Ultra Classic M $250

Motorola Micro TAC-Lite $750* Free car cord

- Largest Selection of Cellular Accessories
- Knowledgeable Staff
- Open on Saturdays Too!

Cellular Phone Prices Valid with 199 days minimum new Cellular One activation on standard service rate plans.
Appropriate New England Telephone and Roaming Charges Apply.
(SALE PRICES VALID TILL SEPT. 10 1992)

An Authorized Service Provider of: CELLULARONE

appetizers

calzones

sandwiches

pasta

pizza

free delivery

86 Peterborough Street

Boston, MA

617-424-7070

Visa/MC accepted

SORENTO'S
italian gourmet

D

- a medley of salmon, scallops, shrimp and scrod. Open Mon.-Fri. for lunch and dinner. Sat./Sun., dinner menu only in town; lunch available. in the suburbs.

Massimino's Cucina Italiana
207 Endicott St., Bos. 523-5959
V,MC $$
You'll dine in a comfortable atmosphere and elegant surroundings as you feast on specialties from master chef Massimino. This former head chef of Naple's Hotel Astoria and Switzerland's Metropolitan Hotel, serves mouth watering dishes that are unmatched. Try the swordfish stuffed with fresh mozzarella and basil in a marinara sauce or the Chicken Florentina - chicken breast with artichokes and black olives in a Verdicchio wine sauce baked with mozzarella. Available for functions. Handicap access. Open Mon.-Sat., 11am-10pm.

Moon Villa
15-19 Edinboro St., Bos. 423-2061
A, D, MC, V $
A dynasty of its own, this Chinese eatery has a long history in China Town. Known for its seafood, try the fresh specials steamed, deep fried, with black bean sauce or without. Open daily for lunch and dinner - until 4am for those with late night munchies. Come for dim sum Sat. and Sun. noon - 3pm.

Oasis Café
176 Endicott St., Bos. 523-9274
M, V $$
If you want to eat at home but don't want the hassle of cooking and dishes, this pink and black Art Deco cafe is an oasis in a sea of Italian eateries. Mirrored neon reflections lend romance while fresh flowers and jazz tunes add atmosphere. And the food, well, "mom's only better". Try the roast of the day with a hulking slice of corn bread and banana caramel pie for dessert. The chocolate cake is a regular, only the icing changes. Open Tues - Sat. 11:30am - 10pm. Open Sun. for brunch. Closed Mon.

The Original Sports Saloon
47 Huntington Ave., Boston, 536-1904
MC, V, A, D, CB, En Route
This neighborhood restaurant and bar is the only place to go in Boston to watch a sporting event. This true authentic establishment roars with excitement no matter which sport is showing on their five satellite T.V.'s. As far as their menu, barbeque is the name of the game here. The Saloon also offers a variety of other menu items from burgers to seafood, but they do it different than anyone else. All items are available for take-out and delivery. Open 11 am-2am, 7 days a week.

Parmizzano' s
Two Cambridge Center, Cambridge
252-4444
$$
Located in the Cambridge Center Marriott, this caffe offers regional Italian cuisine in a casual yet elegant atmosphere. The house favorite is petii di pollo alla casalingha, a multi-cheese stuffed chicken breast. Breakfast is served 6:30 am- 11:30 am Monday through Friday and 6:30 am - 12 pm on weekends. Lunch is served from 11:30 am - 3 pm Monday through Friday only and dinner is served nightly 5 pm - 10:30 pm. Reservations are accepted and parking up to 3 hours is available for $1.

Patisserie Francaise
54 JFK St., Cambridge, 354-9850
$(lunch)$$(dinner)
If you yearn for Paris in the summertime, try out this little French café in Harvard Square. They serve fresh food from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Sunday and Monday, and until 10 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday. Lunch consists of omelets, salads, soups, and sandwiches. Dinner adds typical French cuisine, freshly-cooked, to the menu. And the desserts include every chocolate and fruit-filled concoction you could imagine.

Pat's Pushcart
61 Endicott St., Boston, 523-9616
MC/V $$
Serving fine Italian cuisine for over twenty years, Pat's Pushcart is a mainstay in Boston's North End. Dinner is served 5 - 10:30 pm Tuesday through Saturday. Don't forget to ask about their everchanging daily specialties—the highlights of their menu.

Pronto
464 Thames St., Newport, R.I. (401) 847-5251
MC/V $$$
Enjoy Italian and continental cuisine among fresh flowers and great music in charming Newport. This elegant European-style bistro serves lunch daily 11:30 - 4 pm. Dinner is served 5 - 10:30 pm Monday through Thursday and 5:30 - 11 pm on weekends. Fine wines are available by the glass and for the months of August and September, breakfast will be served 8 am - 12 pm on weekends.

Sienna's Ristorante
214 Lincoln St. Boston 426-6665
MC, V, A $$
At this Gourmet pizza and pasta sanctuary in the Leather District, you'll find friendly atmosphere in an informal setting. It was recently awarded "One of the Best Restaurants in Boston" by Boston's Best Guide. Dinner is served 5pm-11pm Mon. through Sat. Free delivery to downtown Boston, N. End, S. End, Beacon Hill and S. Boston.

Sorento's
86 Peterborough St., Bos. 424-7070
MC, V, D $$
Enjoy a wide variety of scrumptious Italian dishes, at very reasonable prices. The gourmet pizzas are mouth-watering. The casual atmosphere and quick and friendly service all make for a quaint little Italian restaurant. Free delivery is also offered in a limited area.

Spasso Italia Cafe & Bar
160 Commonwealth Ave, Boston
536-8656
AMEX, V, MC, D, CB $$
Spasso is Italian for fun - in Boston, it also means great food. We've captured the flavor and excitement of Italy and have brought it fresh to you. With its comfortable casual decor and tucked-away location, the restaurant "is one place for diners to eat both outdoors and in private." (Best of Boston awards issue, The Improper Bostonian) The Back Bay's largest outdoor cafe has been redecorated with rows of beautiful flowers which surround the discriminating diner. So join us for lunch, brunch or dinner under the stars at Spasso!

SIENNA'S

Pizzeria & Ristorante

Come Dine

with us in our

Friendly and

Casual

Atmosphere

with Great

Italian Food

214 Lincoln Street, Boston
(corner of Kneeland Street)
426-6665
Dinner Served Mon–Sat,
5pm–11pm; Lunch 11am–3pm.

2 For 1
Buy Any Pasta Dish
and Get One of Equal or Lesser Value Free.
or
$2 off Any Large Pizza

Full Delivery Service

'92 New England Patriots Schedule

HOME GAMES:	AWAY GAMES:
September 20 Seattle Seahawks 1 pm	September 6 Miami Dolphins 4 pm
September 27 Buffalo Bills 1 pm	September 13 L.A. Rams 4 pm
October 11 San Francisco 49ers 1 pm	October 4 New York Jets 8 pm
October 25 Cleveland Browns 4 pm	November 1 Buffalo Bills 1 pm
November 8 New Orleans Saints 1 pm	November 14 Indianapolis Colts 1 pm
November22 New York Jets 4 pm	November 29 Atlanta Falcons 1 pm
December 6 Indianapolis Colts 1 pm	December 13 Kansas City Chiefs 1 pm
December 22 Miami Dolphins 1 pm	December 20 Cincinnati Bengals 1pm

RED SOX 1992 SCHEDULE

SEPT. / OCT.

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
		1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16 MIL 7:35	17 MIL 7:35	18 DET 7:35	19 DET 3:00
20 DET 1:35	21 DET 7:35	22 CLE 7:35	23 CLE 7:35	24 CLE 7:35	25 BAL 7:35	26 BAL 7:05
27 BAL 1:35	28 BAL 7:35	29 TOR 7:35	30 TOR 7:35	1	2 NY 7:35	3 NY 1:05
4 NY 1:05

BOSTON RED SOX

Away Home

TV GAMES ON
WSBK 38 AND NESN
RADIO ON WRKO AM 680

MUSIC

RAVE ON

Techno Teaches Dance A Faster Step

BY RICHARD WILLIAMS

A pulsating house beat accelerated at 140 beats per minute is interlocked with a whirlpool of bleeping synths, and the crowd is driven into a frenzy on the dancefloor at the nearby "rave." Bright colors and flashing lights abound, and the crowd becomes so immersed in their own surroundings that it becomes one with the music.

The above scene is what usually happens at a rave, where scores of ravers flock to the nearest empty warehouse and dance at all hours to the hottest dance sensation today - techno. Best known as the bastard child of house and industrial, techno has become more than a mere dance genre; it's suddenly become an attitude and a way of nightlife. Too unlistenable for conventional radio and too intense for most club-goers, techno, like heavy metal and hiphop, has found its niche with youths who are bored and frustrated with monotony.

Its origins date as far back as the 70's, when Kraftwerk began building the framework for computer-generated pop. But it wasn't until the mid 80's when Detroit DJ's Juan Atkins, Derek May and Kevin Saunderson gave techno its legitimate place in the clubs. And as is the case with R&B, the English and other European acts contorted and distorted techno into its own studio creation (which later became acid).

Kevin S., the mastermind behind the Detroit outfit Inner City, recalls how he was lured into the club scene while he was a student in NYC. "I went to many clubs where I got really into the scene and met Juan [Atkins] and Derek [May] who were regular DJ's at the time." It was only a matter of months until he joined forces with the two and, with Inner City vocalist Paris Grey, released its 1989 debut Big Fun, a solid melange of house, 70's R&B and techno. Their third album, the recently released Praise (Virgin) promises to be the band's best and should push the band further into the foray of club America.

New York DJ Moby (whose remixing credits include Erasure, the Shamen and Pet Shop Boys) perceives techno as a means of rebellion against mainstream America and its norms. "Rock and Roll," which he matter-of-factly contends has lost its usefulness "was a reaction against conservatism and is now [under corporate rock] conservatism itself."

Saunderson agrees that techno is youth's way of breaking the chains of monotony. "Kids are tired of Rock and Roll and through techno, they want to try something new and break new grounds."

But how does one defend a genre many believe is artificial, unemotional and even nonexistent because its main instruments are keyboards, computers and samples? "Music has no rules or limits; it's an expression that comes from within," argues Saunderson. "And if it feels good, go with your own feelings."

Although techno's popularity is rising slowly on these shores, many acts like Moby and Inner City have fared much better on the UK charts where both acts have landed a string of Top Ten hits. Techno has yet to make a ripple on the Billboard Top 40, although 2 Unlimited and LA Style have briefly caused some chart momentum. Moby believes that Europeans are more apt to changes in music whereas America frowns upon dance music for its association with the gay and Afro-American communities. Moreover, he believes that many can't dance to techno because "they're afraid to dance, for by doing so, you're making yourself vulnerable to criticism."

As is the case with other forms of "new" music, rock connoisseurs and naysayers are doubting if techno has a future in clubs. Hazze, one third of the LA outfit The Movement (whose terrific "Jump" on Arista is available also on the SBK compilation Rave Til Dawn) firmly believes techno is here to stay. "Ten years ago, people thought rap music was just a passing trend and now it's one of the most intelligent forms of music today. The same will happen with techno." ❑

TEN TECHNO RECORDS WORTH INVESTIGATING

RAVE TILL DAWN (SBK)
SMART E'S SESAME'S TREET (UK IMPORT)
INNER CITY PRAISE AND BIG FUN (VIRGIN)
TECHNO SONIC VOLUMES I AND II (SONIC)
MOBY MOBY(INSTINCT)
ONLY FOR THE HEADSTRONG (FFRR)
ALTERN 8 ACTIV-8 (UK IMPORT)
T99 CHILDREN OF CHAOS (COLUMBIA)
PRAGA KHAN KICK BACK FOR THE RAVE ALARM (SONIC)
LORDS OF ACID I SIT ON ACID (CAROLINE)

AJ, Hazze and Richard of The Movement

Perla den Boer of T 99

Inner City

IMPROPER CD GIVEAWAY CONTEST

IMPROPER CD GIVEAWAY CONTEST

What is Moby's real name and who is his famous relative?

To win one of five copies of the techno compilation Rave Till Dawn and a fab CD sing'e by Imago Recording Artsits The Sextants, send your answers on a postcard postmarked no later than September 23 to:

The Improper Bostonian
Attn: CD Giveaway

P.O. Box 820, Brookline Village, MA 02147-0820

Special thanks to Kriss Ferraro (Chrysalis/EMI) and Elyse Margolis (Imago)

Cliff Diving

Boston's Cliffs of Dooneen Plunge into their Forthcoming New Album

BY DAVID FENIGSOHN

Despite the huge success of their debut album The Dog Went East and God Went West, Cliffs of Dooneen frontman Eric Shaun was expecting a slower summer.

Instead, the Boston foursome ended up doing extensive touring, playing to increasingly larger audiences nationwide. "Originally, the summer was going to be a time to mellow out for a bit," said Murphy. "Instead, it got really busy with touring, as we played Providence, Detroit, Washington, New York and the whole circuit."

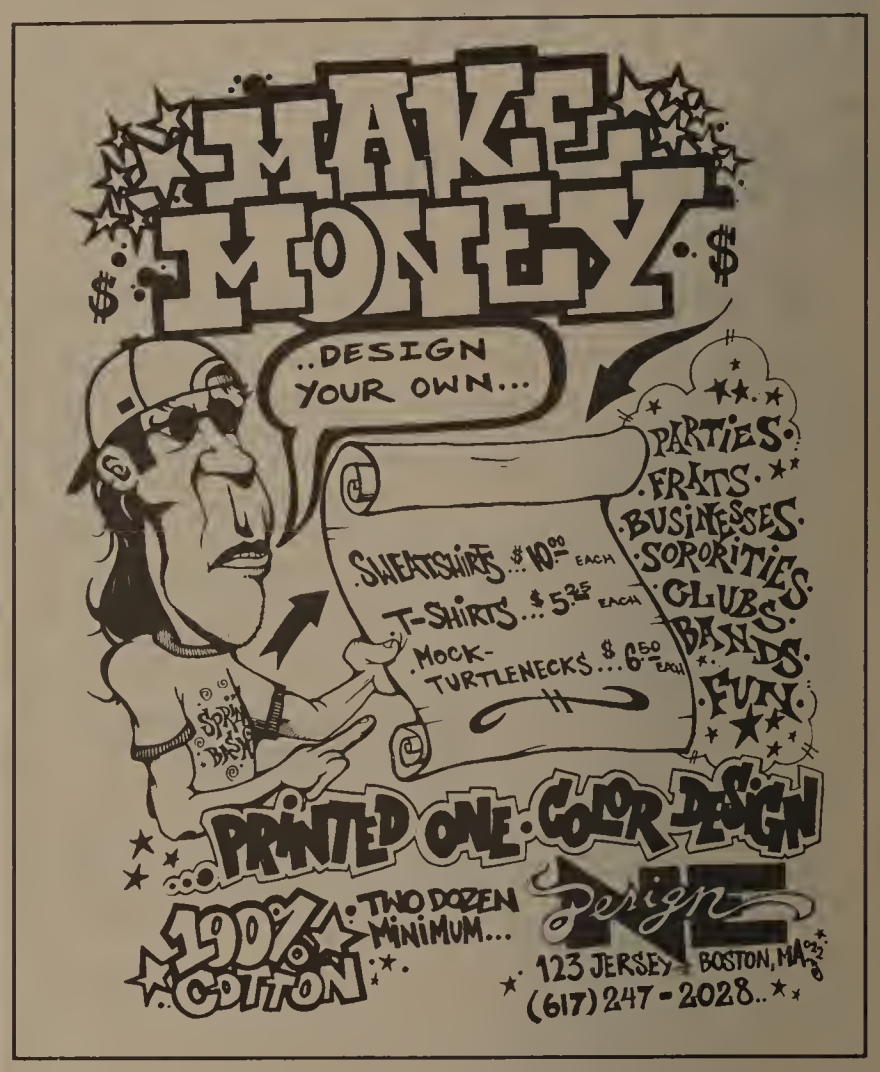
A successful summer tour is just the latest step in the band's rapid ascent to national prominence. The Dog Went East and God Went West has sold approximately 15,000 copies nationwide on Critique Records and is distributed by BMG. The album spawned the single "Through an Open Window," which made the Billboard charts and the video was shown for six weeks on MTV's 120 Minutes. Media attention has included a Boston Phoenix cover story and widespread radio airplay, both locally and nationally.

Now, Cliffs of Dooneen are going into the studio for their eagerly awaited follow-up. The band has spent three weeks in late August/early September in a Memphis, Tennessee recording studio, working with veteran Boston producer Ross Humphries who has previously produced the Heretix and spent the summer touring with the Cliffs.

Murphy is pleased with the new material. "The new songs are a little more consolidated, more focused," he explained. "The songs will either be a lot harder or a lot softer. The extremes will be more pronounced."

The band has achieved their success by mixing furious heavy metal with lilting Irish folk. Guitarist Martin Crotty is equally at home going for the jugular in a feedback-laced solo as he gently plays a traditional number acoustically. Ira Nulton on bass and drummer Lex Lianos provide a tight, versatile rhythm section to complete the mix.

Cliffs of Dooneen



The new album, scheduled for a January release and not yet titled, will continue along similar lines, and Murphy promises that at the same time, will display a marked growth. Several songs, including "Hold On," "El Diablo" and "Let Go" have been staples in the band's live shows for a while now, and the band reports a positive response to the new material. Still, until the recording is finished, the exact songs to be placed on the album will remain undecided.

"There are some songs that are integral to the record," said Murphy. "They are what you want the album to be about. But some songs [record] don't come out as well as they could have, and others come out better. So we really won't know until we go into the studio and jump around."

The band will be aided by having studio experience as well. Prior to The Dog..., they had released an EP, which was locally well-received. Having formed in 1989 after playing in four separate local bands, the Cliffs have learned to function as a cohesive unit with each member providing their share of creative input. "We have fun jamming together and things just work themselves out," said Murphy.

While the band is excited to be going into the studio, they are still very much performance-oriented. Live, Murphy paces the stage, frequently interacting with the crowd and symbiotically feeding off their enthusiasm. Cliffs of Dooneen's high energy concerts frequently excite the moshers and stage divers despite the often gentle nature of the band's sound. "Seeing us live is where the band is at," said Crotty. "Sometimes it is difficult to capture that on record."

An Irish flavor is clearly audible in the band's sound as well. Originally from the Emerald Isle, Crotty has played with a host of Irish folksingers from whom he has gained some techniques. The band's name itself was borrowed from an old Gaelic folk song with the same title and while cover songs often do not find their way into their set list, the band has been known to throw in a few songs by Irish singer/songwriter Luka Bloom. "Ireland is a very melodic country," mused Crotty. "And I've been influenced by [the melody of the Celts]." Seems like the only thing that separates the Cliffs of Dooneen and that country's music is an electric guitar and an overactive moshpit. ❑

HOT TICKETS

GREATWOODS

Wednesday, September 16
Elton John
$35.50/$27.50
Mansfield, MA 1-508-339-2333

GOSMAN AUDITORIUM

Saturday, September 19
Morrisey
$20.00
Waltham, MA

CUMBERLAND COUNTY CIVIC CENTER

Wednesday, September 16
B-52's
$22.50-$17.50
Cumberland Maine

PARADISE

Thursday, September 17
Shockra

Friday, September 18
Chucklehead
$8.50

ORPHEUM THEATRE

Tuesday, September 22
Joan Armatrading
$21.50

m

HOTLINE TO THE UNDERGROUND

BY JANIS REED

The Roxy has closed. It's now Silverado, a Country & Western club, the first one in Boston. Thursday, Sept. 17th is the private party celebrating its opening. . . Now, if you want Janis to date herself, wasn't the country bar in Boston The Hillbilly Ranch, formerly across the street from Howard Johnson's Sack 57? Wasn't it owned by the uncle of Harry & Peter Booras, the former owners of The Channel? Didn't he write a book on the restaurant business? By the way, The Roxy (now Silverado) is the nightclub at The Tremont House Hotel (279 Tremont St., Boston) in the Theater District. . . It looks like The Showboat, formerly The Channel, will open soon. . . New York/Pennsylvania Rocker moves to Boston. . . Remember Emmit Rhodes, the Paul McCartney lookalike/soundalike on ABC Dunhill in the 70's who played all the instruments himself? Well, Keith Clark is on his way up to Boston from Erie, PA and has released his own self-written, self-played CD entitled Keith Clark. . . Harvey Wharfield celebrates The First Year of Boston Music Showcase! WCGY has played about 50 songs a week for the past 52 weeks every Sunday from 6-10pm and six songs a week Mon-Fri starting in June 1992. That's over 3,000 local spins on a major radio station. Oct. 9th is the official party at (where else) Wharfield's at the Peabody Marriot (Exit 28 off 128 in Peabody). West and Paris will be the groups performing at the First Year Anniversary Party. . . Rock 93's Zachary Simmons (who also contributes to I.B.) took his first week off to frolic on Labor Day weekend in Canada. Feminists beware: Zach and his buddies' male bonding ritual quickly became a macho conquest of any and all Canadian females. . . Janis does not approve, especially since Zach promised me a roll in the hay for those Kansas tickets. . . Janis is still waiting. . . But will Janis lose young Zach to the gorgeous Maria Erickson, manager of The Fighting Cocks (what an appropriate name!). Well, she's now in a major court battle with former Boston manager Charlie McKenzie (you know, brother-in-law to ex-Missing Persons' Dale Bozzio!) over the rights to Jamie Sever & Co. . . Oh, what an incestuous town we live in! . . So The Cavedogs gave their final show at The Paradise on August 28. WBCN's Albert O and Boston Music Showcase's Joe Vig were in a heated argument over who played the group more and who would introduce the band. . . it was silly. . . but while they were fighting, lo and behold, the group's ex-manager came in from New York and intro'd the group and that was that. Now boys, Janis has slept with you both and neither of you are worth fighting over, with each other or anybody else! Does that make sense?. . . The next night at the Mick Fleetwood's Zoo show at The Paradise, there was Liz O'Brien, Carter Alan from BCN formerly of WFNX (Janis loves to drop names and places and useful info!) and former Fleetwood Mac/ Steely Dan/ Lou Reed/ The Byrds soundman Stuart "Dinky" Dawson. . . Bonnie Bramlett (the waitress on Roseanne) has a beautiful daughter "Bekka" Bramlett, who is one of the lead singers of The Zoo. And it looked like a zoo. . . musicians all over the stage like baboons in heat! But they were tight and fun and LOUD! . . . B-106's Rick Newman had a live broadcast of local bands on Sept. 13 in Nashua, NH. Creative Force, Tristan Park, October Road, Boston Scarecrow, Third Sight and other groups. . . Love, Life & Fury broke up! Singer Chris Ragucci is looking for a new group. They opened for Brian Maes & the Memory (3/5 of RTZ). . . Fortune and West in The Paradise Sept. 24th - a wild party precedes the show. One-Eyed Jake opens. . . Drew Ferrante, ex-MCA, ex-Shout, now at Chaos/Sony. . . Former Sony rep Sal Ingeme retired and got married. Charlie Walk took his place. . . Lenny Collins won a million bucks in the lottery and Kim Stolz took over his position at Epic. . . Chris Billé now a full-time ASR at PolyGram. . . Every issue we'll tell you the changing face of radio promotion in Boston. . . Bobby Bland at EMI, Bill Hurley at Atlantic, Bill Fisher at MCA all rumored to be moving to other territories. . . Till next issue, keeping the vibe of Norma Nathan holding everyone hostage with terror tactics, this is Janis Reed signing off. Oh, by the way, former WBZ jock now at WVBF Tom Kennedy better beware. . . Janis is researching an exposé on that adult contemporary radio personality. . . It'll make Fergie Blush! ❑

ALBUM REVIEWS

VICTOR BORGE
LIVE (!)
SONY MASTERWORKS

Recorded in 1953 live at the Plymouth Theater in Washington Street's erstwhile theater district, this generously-filled program features classic Borge routines that have been delighting audiences for decades. Much of the world has changed since then, but Victor Borge remains refreshingly lighthearted. "This concerto was written in four flats because Rachmaninoff had to move four times while he wrote it," he announces before launching into the second concerto, explaining that his performance is short by about ninety-five players. More than anything, Borge debunks the myth of classical music being a dreary affair. Just when you think that he is going to play it straight, he plants his tongue firmly in cheek and veers off into the absurd. This is humor in music at its best; it doesn't talk down, nor does it talk up. Victor Borge is one of a kind and his routines are as fresh today as they were nearly forty years ago.

-STEVEN D. BROWN

VARIOUS ARTISTS
SINGLES: THE ORIGINAL MOTION PICTURE SOUNDTRACK
EPIC

If you're a fan of the Seattle scene (grunge, flannel, rain), this album is your wet dream. Every performer (save for Paul Westerberg and Smashing Pumpkins) is or was an integral part of the Seattle "sound."

The Seattle Sound is, of course, the grungy, thick guitar with screaming vocals. Surprisingly, however, the best songs on the album are the acoustic ones. Soundgarden's Chris Cornell contributes a gorgeous solo acoustic ballad that laments the change of seasons and the feelings that accompany those changes. But the best song is the epic "Chloe Dancer/ Crown of Thorns" by Mother Love Bone. Former lead vocalist Andrew Wood's harrowing tale of his heroine starts a piano and moves to a crashing climax.

On the heavier side, the standout tracks are Screaming Trees' best single in years, "Nearly Lost You" and Alice in Chains' "Would?"

The only unfortunate misfires are the two disastrous songs from former Replacements' frontman Westerberg. With their cheesy "Na na na na na" choruses, "Dyslexic Heart" and "Waiting for Somebody" would be better suited on the soundtrack to Romper Room.

Strangely absent from the soundtrack is Nirvana, but who really needs Kurt and Co. when the rest of the heavyweights are more than adequate?

-MATT HENDRICKSON

MEGADETH
COUNTDOWN TO EXTINCTION
CAPITOL

Within a whirling blender of confusion, anticipation is futile, and astonished ears are bombarded by a relentless ambush of surprises. Megadeth provides such needlepoint ecstasy. Marty Friedman's majestic guitar solos and David Mustaine's sarcastic snarls come across with such diamond-cut production that the sonnance stimulates all senses. Rick Menza's sharp rhythm changes power the frenzy down slow straight-aways and around hairpin turns at breakneck pace.

At the center of Megadeth stands Mustaine, Metallica's original guitarist who quit, spawned Megadeth and acerbically growled through three albums before succumbing to drug habits. Three years later, he rose from the ashes to cleanse and reconstruct Megadeth. Countdown to Extinction is an aural document of Mustaine's new sober genius. He buries narcotic addiction, breaks through self-confusion, sentences the judicial system and defends endangered species. The cry-baby of metal has released his Mona Lisa.

-GEORGE POULOS

ERASURE
ABBA-ESQUE
MUTE/ELEKTRA

Remember Abba? Erasure's Vince Clarke and Andy Bell do and, on their second American EP, the duo resurrects four of the 70's Swedish pop band's hits. No, they didn't cover "Dancing Queen," as many would expect, but they did take a handful of tracks, and with the help of a keyboard, they transformed them into their own sonic creations. Quirky synths, bleeping noises and an infectious Hi-NRG beat revamp the irresistible "Voulez-Vous" and "Lay All Your Love On Me," while they breathe 90's technology into the old chestnut "Take a Chance on Me," another welcome treat. Clarke restructures these tracks so well, it's often easy to forget that they were written by outsiders. But this EP proves how dance music can interplay with almost anything, provided you have the wit and technology to do it.

-RICHARD WILLIAMS

BARS & CLUBS

•A STEAK IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD 236-2000, 39 Dalton St., Boston. This 'Real Food-Good Tunes' restaurant and bar features eight TV's, two big screens and DJ dancing seven nights a week. There's never a cover and the dress is casual. Diverse crowd. On Monday nights from 6 to 9, WZLX's Sportsrock is broadcasted live inside.

•ALLEY CAT 451-6200, 1 Boylston Pl., Boston. Enter the world of the Alley Cat. Located at the gateway to the theatre district between Sweetwater Cafe and Zanzibar. Rather than appealing to skid row loners, Alley Cat attracts devoted crowds of educated singles who enjoy its casual atmosphere and Disney influenced decor. Live bands on Wednesdays. Expect a short line, but its worth the wait. No cover.

•ALLEY PUB 437-0529, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Square, Boston. While primarily a college bar, this attractive, friendly pub has become known as a popular sports bar that offers something for everyone. The bottom floor features dancing, satellite T.V.'s, digital sound system, full service kitchen; top floor features pool tables. Entertainment includes karaoke, college nights, Happy Hours, pool/dart leagues, and live reggae. Call for details. Minimal cover.

•ALLSTON ALE HOUSE 787-9797, 85 Harvard Ave., Allston. A neighborhood/college bar, quaint in its surroundings but not in entertainment. With Karaoke on Friday Nites and Live bands on Saturday Nites, Allston Ale House caters to a rowdy and exciting crowd. Kitchen's open daily. Casual attire. Cover varies.

•ALLSTON SPORTS DEPOT 783-2300, 353 Cambridge St., Allston. With 2 satellite dishes and over 20 TV sets, this may be the best place to catch a game outside of Fenway or the Garden. No cover and no dress code. Just a plethora of sports fans chatting- and arguing about, what else, sports - over beers, appetizers and killer burgers.

•ARBUCKLES 782-9508, 1249 Comm. Ave, Brighton. Situated between BU and BC, Arbuckles attracts an even mix of students from both schools and anyone else in search of good tood and drink at a good price. 20 oz. drafts for $2!!! The dress is always casual but the atmosphere ranges from mellow and relaxing to noisy and boisterous.

•AVALON 262-2424, 15 Lansdowne St., Bos. Boogie to Hip Hop, Funk, House, Progressive and Top 40 music at this colossal dance club. Music varies nightly. Take advantage of the enormous dance floor, placid lounge, and intimate booths. Avalon also boasts having the best light show in town. The crowd here is a good mix; anyone in the mood for dancing should feel comfortable. Cover charge varies. Dressy slacks, collared shirts, and dark dress shoes required. Great place to see live shows. Sun. night is gay night.

•AVENUE C 423-3832, 5 Boylston Pl., Bos. A chichi dance club located in the Theatre District across from the Common. Inside you'll find a mix of young professionals who arrive to meet, mix, mate, or just dance up a storm. Cover charge increases after 10 pm, so arrive early. No jeans or collarless shirts. Progressive music Fri. & Sat. nights.

Thur 17th.--Figures On A Beach

•AXIS 262-2437, 13 Lansdowne St., Bos. Axis spans 2 floors and is a progressive dance club with a primitive feel (lots of black). The crowd is mixed - everyone from pseudo-anarchists to college students. Moderate cover varies with the night. Creative dress suggested. .

Wed 16th.-- Flesh Catharsis, Flesh Divine Thur 24th.--Heretix

•THE BARMUDA TRIANGLE 437-1011, 200 Brookline Avenue, Boston. Located just outside of Kenmore Square, The Triangle features live music seven nights a week. Catch Boston's best Jazz early in the week, and kick up your heels to Latin, R&B, Reggae and Rock through the weekends. Full bar. Reasonable entertainment charge after 9:30. Weekly giveaways include free passes, round trip tickets to Bermuda, T-shirts, parties and more! .

Thur 17th.--Jennifer Kienan Band with Dave Cowens & Kevin Barry Fri 18th.--Blues Express-ly 4 U with Watermelon Slim Sat 19th.--Rising Suns Wed 23rd.--Rhythm Stick Thur 24th.--Small Town No Airport Sat 26th.--Mind Over Matter Tue 29th.--Tino Derado Group

•BEACON HILL PUB , 49 Charles St., Bos. A scene straight out of Star Wars reads the Worst of Boston award hanging on the wall. Anything goes at this popular Beacon Hill dive bar. Inside you'll find upscale Beacon Hill professionals mixing freely with members of skid row (not the band, mind you). The crowd is friendly and unpretentious. Thur.-Sat. college students abound. No cover. Free wings and dogs 4-7pm weekdays.

•BELL IN HAND TAVERN 227-2098, 45 Union St., Bos. Self-proclaimed the happiest tavern in Boston, this laid-back pub is frequented by a melange of tourists, Boston professionals, college students and locals. No cover. Casual dress. Juke box music and free munchies weekdays 5-7pm.

•BILL'S BAR 421-9678, Lansdowne St., Boston. Located in the midst of Lansdowne St., Bill's can be a great alternative to the dance clubs. It caters to a crowd consisting anywhere from punk to preppie. Bill's reputedly has the best jukebox in the city, programed by Peter Wolf. It's loud, clean and showcases live music occasionally. Casual and very relaxed.

Sun 20th.--Every Sun., Reggae Night Mon 21st.--Every Monday Movie Madness. SRS Films Producer Eric Yellin will show independent films and music videos before a feature film. Free admission and popcorn.

•BLACK GOOSE 617-720-4500, 21 Beacon St., Boston. A relaxed jazz club situated a stones throw from the Statehouse. Sit back and enjoy superb live jazz at its best. It's casual, unassuming and you don't have to wear an I love jazz attitude on your sleeve. No cover. Live piano music Monday through Friday from 5-7.

Wed 16th.--Piano Every Night 5:30 - 7:30pm Thur 17th.--Live Jazz Every Thurs., Fri. and Sat.

•BLACK ROSE 742-2286, 160 State St., Bos. Live, traditional Irish music 7 days and an atmosphere that thrives on patron participation characterize this Faneuil Hall bar whose name is a symbol of Irish Catholic repression by the British. The food is home spun and the beer, well. . . Irish. The upbeat crowd is composed of students, professionals, locals etc. and they all get involved in the show. Beware, people will know your status by stealing a glance at your claddagh ring! Moderate cover weekends. Casual dress. .

Wed 16th.--Wed.-Sat. Upstairs: Shannon. Thur 17th.--Every Thurs. Downstairs: Harvest Home Fri 18th.-- Fri. and Sat. Downstairs: Celtic Clan Sun 20th.-- Mon 21st.-- Tue 22nd.-- Wed 23rd.-- Fri 25th.--Fri. and Sat. Downstairs: Harvest Home

•BOATHOUSE 491-6476, 56 JFK St., Camb. A Harvard Square institution catering to who else? Harvard students and recent grads. Inside, you'll find a small, tightly packed room adorned with crew paraphernalia. In the summertime the action expands out to the outdoor patio. Casual dress. Tell the bouncer that you're from Yale and get in for half price.

•BORDER CAFE 864-6100, 32 Church St., Camb. If you're not in a hurry and crave Mexican food, or just margaritas, stop by the Border Cafe. Always crowded and noisy, its a favorite haunt of college students and young professionals. The walls are adorned with animal skulls and sombreros for that Southwestern feel. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON BEACH CLUB 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A strong seaside theme prevails. Surfboard tables, plastic sharks, tropical drinks and a guy next to you wearing a Hawaiian shirt adorned with a few dozen neon leis. The crowd is young and the music often live. There is a small dance floor for those who like to bop.

Wed 16th.--The Chile Brothers Thur 17th.--WFNX Nite Fri 18th.--Cape Cod Travellin' All Stars Sat 19th.--Every Sat. D.J. AL Perez Mon 21st.--Every Mon.,Silas Jr. & the Hot Rib Blues Jam Tue 22nd.--Poco Loco Wed 23rd.--D.J. Tony Tone Thur 24th.--WFNX Nite Fri 25th.--The Lime Rockets Tue 29th.--Mighty Charge

•BOSTON BILLIARD CLUB 536-POOL, 126 Brookline Ave., Bos. Voted #1 billiard club in the nation in '91, this modern-day upscale pool hall has the comfortable feel of a living room. The crowd is a wide mix ot ages and professions. Located just outside Kenmore Sq. Free pool lessons Mon. nights. Waiters bring drinks to your table. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOSTON GARDEN SPORTS CAFE 723-6664, 120 Causeway St., Bos. If you couldn't get tickets to the Garden but still want to enjoy the game atmosphere, stop in at this mini Garden museum and watch the game on big screen TV. Enthusiastic crowd. No bandwagon fans here! No cover. Casual dress. Bruin players sometimes drop in. Closes early on non-game nights.

•BOSTON RAMROD 266-2986, 1254 Boylston St., Bos. An active gay bar in the Fenway area. Patrons range in age from 21 to 50+. Appetizers served Mon.-Fri. 5-8pm. Tue. is two-step night, featuring country and western music. Thurs. and Fri. are leather nights.

•BOSTON SAIL LOFT 227-7280, 80 Atlantic Ave., Bos. A popular waterfront bar with a full menu and view ot the harbor. The crowd is young and on the move - lots of professionals and business people. With a superb harbor vista, there isn't much need for entertainment. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOW & ARROW PUB 547-6819, 1 Bow St., Camb. An unpretentious local bar tucked away just off Mass. Ave. in Harvard Sq. A well kept secret by several college students, bikers, locals, and dart players. The perfect place to relax over a few drinks. No cover. Casual dress.

•BOX SEAT LOUNGE 267-3100, 575 Comm. Ave., Bos. A hotel bar popular with Red Sox fans, BU faculty members, and local business people. One of Kenmore Sq.'s few post-college hangouts. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free cheese and crackers 5-8pm weekdays.

•BULL & FINCH PUB (CHEERS) 227-8665, 84 Beacon St., Bos. A recent study confirmed what many Bostonians have assumed for years, The Bull & Finch actually attracts more tourists than most of the sights on the Freedom trail! The TV show Cheers uses the doorway ot the Bull & Finch for their opening shot, but nothing else. Still, it offers a comfortable and boisterous neighborhood atmosphere. Try it at least once. No cover. Casual dress.

•BUNRATTY'S 254-9804, 186 Harvard Ave., Allston. A rock club favorite featuring top local talent nightly. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, but once the music starts jamming the place comes alive. Moderate cover varies depending on the act(s). No dress code.

Wed 16th.-- Lord Bane, Strychnine, High Defiance Thur 17th.-- Love Pollution, Stampede, Motherlode, Liquid Kaos Fri 18th.--CXEMA, The Trojan Ponies, The Uninvited Sat 19th.-- The Lyres, The Barnles, The Jigsaws, The Blow Pops Sun 20th.-- Ms. Crabtree, Crabby Appletin, Frankly Scarlett Mon 21st.--Every Mon., Pajama Jammy Blues Jam Tue 22nd.-- Wed 23rd.--Red Crescent Sect, Cirossis, Happy the Clown, The Fold Thur 24th.-- Uncle Green, The Vouts Fri 25th.-- The Neighborhoods Sat 26th.-- Gumball Sun 27th.-- Tue 29th.-- Out Cold, Six, Immortal Alice

•CACTUS CLUB 236-0200, 939 Boylston St., Bos. Upscale Tex-Mex is the theme here. The atmosphere is decidedly Southwestern, right down to the stuffed buffalo. A lively spot to catch dinner and a few drinks or just a few drinks. Make sure to try the Prairie Oysters, 'they're the balls.' No cover. Casual dress.

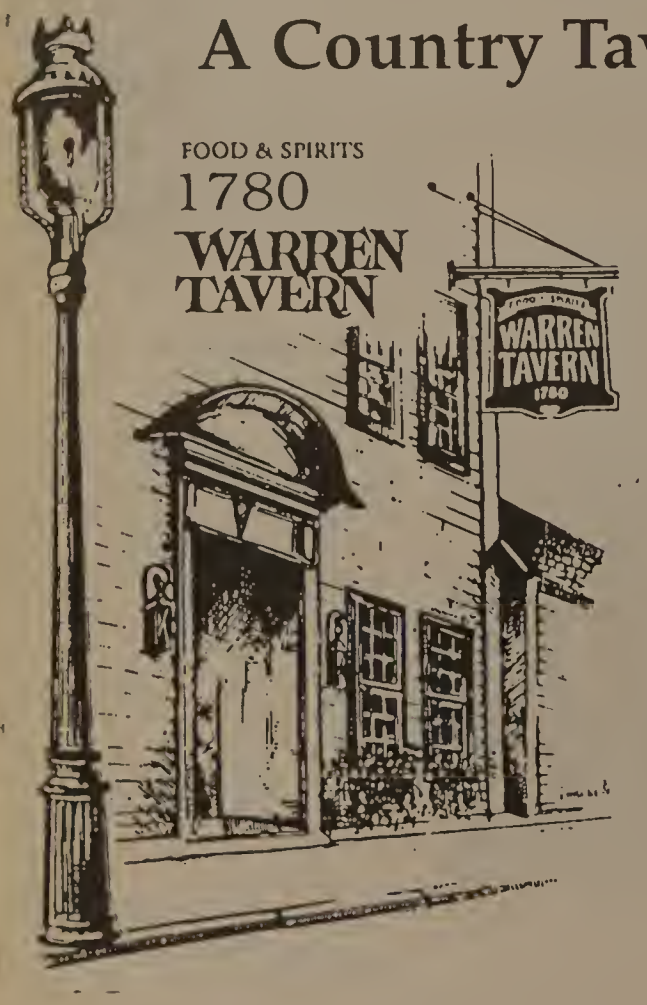
•CAMBRIDGE BREWING COMPANY 494-1994, 1 Kendall Sq., Camb. A light, open bar that brews its own; Regatta Golden, Cambridge Amber, Charles River Porter, Tall Tale Pale Ale and Summertime Wheat Ale. Attracts everyone from tourists and singles to young professionals. No cover. Casual dress. Pub fare served. Live bands Sat.

Sat 19th.--Agent 13 Sat 26th.--Lois Lane and the Daily Planets

•CANTAB LOUNGE 354-2685, 738 Mass. Ave., Camb. Central Square's much loved Blues/Jazz bar. Live music by local bands. Filled predictably with music lovers of all types. Moderate cover varies depending upon the night. Casual dress. A must for Blues fans.

•CANTARES 547-6300, 15 Springfield St., Camb. A funky dance club featuring live music and an occasional comedian. Catch Latin music one night and Jazz or Blues the next. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress. Check out the full menu of Mexican and Spanish cuisine while you're there.

•CASABLANCA 876-0999, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge. If it's Mediterranean cuisine you want, they have it. Their menu offers a wide spectrum of food representing everything from N. African delicasesé to colorful Greek salads. Dress is casual. All types of drinks are served. Open 11:30am-2am all week. Handicapped equipped.



•CASK 536-4840, 62 Brookline Ave., Bos. Located across from Fenway Park, this friendly neighborhood bar & grill is a combination sports bar (on game days) and a happening night spot. DJ dance music Thur.-Sat. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu. Free appetizers weekdays 4-7pm. Beware of long lines before and after Sox games.

•CELEBRATION 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Teenybopping Kenmore style, is there any other way? DJ dance music, flashy attire, light shows, wall mirrors and an elevated dance floor are all a part of the Celebration experience. The crowd is young a mix of cotlege students and other singles. Under 21s are admitted during the week. Moderate cover varies. No jeans, sneakers or casual clothes..

•CHAMPION'S 236-5800, 110 Huntington Ave., Bos. It's not just for sports fans. Most nights Champion's is a frenzied dance spot for singles, young protessionals and college students. Adorned with sports paraphernalia, this popular sports bar could very well be the Hard Rock Café of protessional athletics. No cover. Casual dress but no T-shirts. Full menu.

•CHRISTOPHER'S 876-9180, 1920 Mass. Ave., Camb Cotteehouse crowd - veggies, granolas, academics and locals. Enjoy a 60's atmosphere listening to Jazz, Folk, Bluegrass and live acoustic sound. Music varies each night. Food is served and there is a modest cover on live music nights Thur.-Sun. Stop in for the Sun. Jazz brunches.

A Country Tavern in the City

Come home to a comfortable living room chair, a tall glass of beer and over 200 years of history.

Try specials like our pasta for two which includes a jug of sangria

At the Warren Tavern you'll find low beamed ceilings, church benches, Old English lace draperies and a twenty five foot solid oak bar that has been a common place for friends who have found what can't be found what can't be found anywhere else in the country:

212 years of character & tradition.

Wednesday nights: Inquiring Minds 8:3012:00
Thursday nights: Martin Sexton Trio 8:30-12:00

Lunch 12-3:30, Dinner 5-10:30
Sunday Brunch 12-3:00, Dinner 5-9:00

2 Pleasant Street, Charlestown MA 02129, 241-8142

b

The "Last Call" Lady

No Luck at Friar Tuck's

BY LAUREN DARE

Friar Tuck, that medieval aficionado of a good brew and a good time (did you see Robin Hood?) has lent his name to a little downtown watering hole, and I, sharing his appreciation of the finer things, decided it would behoove me to make a pilgrimage in honor of the good Friar's memory. Thus it was, that I wriggled into my last-call duds on a recent Friday night and headed to Friar Tuck's, located conveniently near the downtown financial district. I went out with my usual mission in mind: to find the ultimate spot at which to greet the last-call bell (that "lights on" warning signal hinting that if you're gonna get lucky, do it now or spend another restless night alone).

So there I was, surrounded by hostile natives - no, wait, that was another night - sitting on a comfy bar stool at Friar Tuck's, while two extremely accommodating bartenders (Roger and Mike) attended to my needs , and even went so far as to buy me shots (but don't expect them to do this for just anybody.) Roger and Mike fit right in with the general ambiance of Tuck's, which is along the lines of a neighborhood bar, even though it's located in a part of the city that really couldn't be called anybody's neighborhood, because no one lives in the financial district, do they?

Angela Wooldridge

FRIAR TUCK'S

18 PROVINCE STREET
523-9417
$
LAUREN DARE GIVES
FRIAR TUCK'S
"HALF A SKIRT UP"

Friar Tuck's is pretty easy on the pocket (not that I often buy my own drinks, of course!). Draughts are $1.75, and shots are $3.75. Although they didn't have any specials or drink promotions, they do serve food until 12:45am - a great time to up your energy levels if you're planning on any late-night heavy machinery operation (or indoor sports). Last call (the Witching Hour) usually falls around 1:30. The jukebox was adequate but fairly uninspiring, offering the usual gamut of Top 40 favorites.

The decor of Friar Tuck's hails pretty much from the early Art-Budweiser period, but it was clean and comfortable; probably all the more comfortable due to the fact that even on Friday night, it wasn't very crowded. There are pluses and minuses to this: on the positive side, I could maneuver my way through the bar without having to come into close bodily contact with anything unsavory. On the more negative end, there wasn't much to choose from as far as companionship goes. After a quick perusal of the assembled contestants, I decided I'd probably be keeping my condoms in my purse. I had, of course, come prepared (no pun intended), and it was a darn good thing I did, too, because Friar Tuck's DOES NOT have condom machines in the bathrooms (What is this with everyone? This is the 90's!), but this could have been due to the lack of space; there wasn't enough room to change your mind in the bathroom, much less dig for change to buy a condom.

In any case, it was Home Alone again for moi. The crowd on this particular evening seemed to be comprised of a bunch of guys in baseball hats who made their livings doing something with trucks; call me funny, but I didn't want to wake up on Saturday morning and see a "Diesel Power" hat hanging on my bedpost.

All things considered, Friar Tuck's was a good place to stop in for a late-night pop and maybe a snack; it's comfortable and casual, and the bartenders were great. But if you're shopping in the meat department, you may not find the prime rib of your dreams (I think there were only three women in the whole place, and remember what I said about the trucks), and the atmosphere lacked that certain je ne sais quoi that might have made it special; maybe the bartenders should wear those sacks with ropes tied around the waists. On a good night, I would give it about a half a skirt up. Until next time, look for me when the lights come on. ❑

Thur 17th.--Diana Kirk & Michael Greenspan Fri 18th.--Paul Rishell Sat 19th.--Laurie Sargent Sun 20th.--Chris Dunn and Daina Rootnik Thur 24th.--Frank Wilkins Fri 25th.-- Martin Sexton Sat 26th.-- Adrienne Sun 27th.-- The Kathy Phipps Showcase

•CITYSIDE 742-7390, 262 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. A familiar spot to young professionals, college students, and tourists. Located downstairs in Faneuil Hall, it has the feel of a local pub despite the crowds. Sample the scenic outdoor cafe in the summer. Nightly offerings of Rock, R&B, and Reggae. Be sure not to miss Sun. nights with the R-rated songs of Khris Wales. Moderate cover varies.

Wed 16th.--Shawn and Jamie Thur 17th.--Out of the Blue Fri 18th.--Fri. and Sat., Swingin' Johnsons Sun 20th.--Every Sun., Khris Wales Mon 21st.--Steve Caraway Tue 22nd.-- Chuck Morris and the Sidewalk Blues Band Wed 23rd.--Tim Crandall Thur 24th.--Yvonne Taylor and the Prescription Horns Fri 25th.--Fri. and Sat , Enquiring Minds Sun 27th.-- Mon 28th.--Chad LaMarsh Tue 29th.-- Shawn and Jamie

•THE CLADDAGH 262-9874, 335 Columbus Ave., Bos. Under the same ownership as the Black Rose and Purple Shamrock, this quintessential Irish pub in the South End provides live music and fun decor without reeking of pretension or formality. Come as you are, and don't feel like you've got to impress anyone. Enjoy the varied music and join in a sing-a-long. No cover. Casual dress.

Wed 16th.--Every Wed., Blues Night Fri 18th.--Fri. and Sat., Shannon Fri 25th.-- Fri. and Sat., Doe Brothers

•CLARKE'S 227-7800, 21 Merchant's Row, Bos. Located just outside of Faneuil Hall, this is a popular meeting place for Boston singles and college students. Clarke's has that old-fashioned saloon appeal that makes it easier to let your guard down. Expect a line on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu in the restaurant.

•CLUB 3 623-6957, 608 Somerville Ave., Somerville. An established and much loved club that features local bands. Types of music vary like the weather. Mixed crowd depending on the draw of the particular band playing. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

•CLUB M-80 254-2054, 969 Comm. Ave., Bos. A New York/Euro-style club, complete with selective doormen. It's just a small room (actually part of the Paradise), but it attracts a good-sized crowd of foreign exchange students and other chic types. Music is usually DJ dance music, but occasionally live acts perform. Cover varies and is generally steep. The crowd is trendy so dress up; it will improve your chances.

•COMMONWEALTH BREWING COMPANY 523-8383, 138 Portland St., Bos. "Let no man thirst for lack of real ale" is the motto at this microbrewery and restaurant which features glass walls so thirsty patrons can longingly observe the brewing process. The decor consists of copper tables, pipes and beer tanks. Approximately 10 English ales are served on tap as well as "Boston Burton Ale" served frosty cold in the bottle. Close proximity to the Boston Garden translates to before and after game crowds. Live Reggae and Calypso every Friday and Saturday Nite 9:30 to 1:00. Brewery tours are free, but sorry, this isn't the Molson factory. No samples. $3 Cover. Have dinner here and the cover is free!.

Fri 18th.--Search Party Sat 19th.--Kirkland Bodie Fri 25th.--Search Party Sat 26th.-- Kirkland Bodie

•COPPERFIELD'S 247-8605, 98 Brookline Ave., Bos. Traditionally a beer soaked college bar except after Sox's games when Copperfields attracts an avid sports crowd. Large crowds, Juke box, local live acts blaring Rock & Roll and a small dance floor liven the atmosphere. Basketball and video games too. Modest cover Thur.-Sat. Collared shirts are a must.

•COTTONWOOD CAFE 661-7440, 1815 Mass. Ave., Bos. Open daily for lunch and dinner, this casual yet upscale cafe makes you feel like you've landed in the heart of Arizona. The southwestern cuisine (try the grilled specials) is complemented by the adobe booths and multitude of cacti. Relax in the outdoor cafe during the hot summer months.

•CRICKET'S 720-5570, 1015 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. Enjoy piano music and fresh air at one of Faneuil Hall's most visible bars. The atmosphere can provide a welcome respite from the bustle of people in the outside marketplace. The patio is covered by a greenhouse so there is no chance of being rained out, or try the more traditional indoor section, decorated with wood and mirrors. No cover charge. Casual dress.

Wed 16th.--Every Wed., Calypso Hurricane Thur 17th.--Every Thur., Hamish and Dave Fri 18th.-- Uptown Acapella Sat 19th.--Sat. and Sun. North Shore Acapella Mon 21st.--Every Mon., Hamish and Dave Tue 22nd.--Every Tues., North Shore Acapella

•CROSSROADS 262-7371, 405 Beacon Street, Boston. Hailed as one of the last neighborhood pubs in Back Bay, this casual hotspot is frequented by locals, students and young professionals. Among its many attractions are three dart boards, cable sports, a loud jukebox and Guiness on tap. Open 7 days a week 'til 2.

•DAD'S DINER 296-DADS, 911 Boylston St., Bos. A restaurant on weekdays. A hopping 50's bar at night and on weekends. The crowd varies from collegiate to professional. No cover. Dress is casual. You'll love the old-fashioned juke box!.

•DAISY BUCHANAN'S 247-8516, 242 Newbury St., Bos. This Newbury St. late night hot spot packs up consistently with singles on the make. A dark and noisy place, where at least one anonymous source has protested the lack of condom dispensers at the bar. More action as the night wears on, this is a great place to be for last call. No cover. Casual dress.

•DESTINATIONS 742-1212, 1 Congress St., Boston. Where else can you have a drink, catch a game and learn the waterways of Sumatra all at the same time? This upscale bar has probably one of the easiest methods of learning geographic trivia without having to crack open a map or encyclopedia. The dress code is on the neater side, so no jeans please.

•DIAMOND JIM'S PIANO BAR 536-5300, 65 Exeter St., Bos. A hotel piano bar with a relaxed atmosphere. Melt into an oversized lounge chair and absorb the music. The crowd runs the age gamut (from 21 to 60+). No cover. Dress varies from casual to business wear.

•DIVISION 16 353-0870, 955 Boylston St., Bos. This art deco police station is now a bar and restaurant. They serve monster portions of food. The crowd consists of students and young singles. It's a great place for a fun dinner, but save the romantic meals for a quieter place. No cover. Casual dress.

•DOCKSIDE 723-7050, 183 State St., Bos. A cozy sports bar not far from Faneuil Hall. The crowd is varied - from jocks and business people to singles. Large-screen TV for game viewing. Jukebox music. No cover. Casual dress. More than one Celtic has been spotted downstairs.

•ED BURKE'S 232-2191, 808 Huntington Ave., Bos. This unassuming spot located at the foot of Mission Hill is where students, singles, and working people mix to the sounds of R&B, Rock, and Soul. Darts, pinball, and juke box music on weekdays Bands on Thur. and weekends. Modest cover charge on band nights. Dress is casual.

Thur 17th.--Signs of Life Fri 18th.--Animal Train Sat 19th.--Band That Time Forgot Mon 21st.-- Thur 24th.--Groove Tubes Fri 25th.-- Prescription Horns featuring Yvonne Taylor Sat 26th.--Ray Greene and Universal Language

•EDIBLE REX 508-667-6393, 251 Old Concord Rd., Billerica. This club, whose logo is king of the dinosaurs, offers a variety of live music with 3 bands playing nightly Wed.-Sun. Rock & Roll is the standard, but Heavy Metal, Acoustic or Thrash can also be heard. Edibles offered. Modest cover varies. Clothing is required.

•ELIOT LOUNGE 262-1078, 370 Comm. Ave., Bos. A sometimes rowdy and extremely preppie sports bar is known as the unofficial headquarters for the Boston Marathon. Casual atmosphere that attracts all types. Dancing to DJ music on Sat. nights. Modest cover on Sat. nights. No dress code. Their café serves American food, including pizza, burgers and sandwiches.

•FRED P. OTT'S 227-9373, 29 North Market St., Bos. This definitive Faneuil Hall pickup bar draws predominantly students and tourists. Dance to DJ music on weekends. Moderate cover Fri. and Sat. Casual dress. Arrive early to beat the line.

•FROGG LANE BAR & GRILL 720-0610, 245 Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos At this large Faneuil Hall patio bar, the crowd is a mix of tourists and locals. Lofted above the crowd in Faneuil Hall, Frogg Lane offers a mixed menu of American and Mexican fare. No cover or dress code. Jukebox for indoor entertainment.

•GREEN BRIAR 789-4100, 304-306 Washington St., Brighton. This neighborhood Irish pub in the heart of Washington Square has the best combination of the Celtic feel far from the parking mess of Government Center. Entertainment ranges from Irish music to the occasional progressive band. The crowd is a healthy mix of neighborhood folk and recent college graduates Modest cover on weekends. Casual dress

Wed 16th.--Every Wed., Karaoke Thur 17th.-- 5-0 Fri 18th.--Classic Tracks Sat 19th.--

BARS & CLUBS

Response Sun 20th.--Every Sun., DJ Chris Mon 21st.--Every Mon, Irish Session Tue 22nd.--Tim Crandall Thur 24th.--Thurs. and Fri. Mark Morris and the Catunes Sat 26th.--Swinging Johnsons Tue 29th.--Tim Crandall

•GRENDEL'S DEN 491-1050, 89 Winthrop St., Camb. In this casual underground (literally) Harvard Sq. bar, you'll see a lot of maroon sweatshirts. Harvard students eat, drink and live here. Some have chosen to move here after graduation. But this establishment has a dark-paneled, German beer house feel and offers Cambridge Lager on tap. If you're not engaged in a philosophical debate, you can enjoy the free appetizers (weekdays 5-7pm). Upstairs offers a full Bavarian menu and has an ongoing fire in its oversized fireplace. No cover. No dress code.

•GROG 508-465-8008, 13 Middle St., Newburyport. Rock, R&B and dance music is the entertainment Thur.-Sun. nights. The crowd and the ambiance at Grog is diversified. One can choose from 3 bars and a formal dining room. (Mexican, steaks, seafood and chowder) Cover varies. No dress code. Gargle a grog (their version of a hot toddy).

Wed 16th.--Every Wed. Old and New Acoustic Night with Leo Thur 17th.--The Search Party Fri 18th.--The Boogaloo Swamis Sat 19th.--George Ley & Rockin' Shoes Sun 20th.--Every Sun. Peter Tiftos Blues Party Wed 23rd.-- Thur 24th.--The Roads Fri 25th.--Shadow Sat 26th.--The Steve Canty Band

•GROVERS (508) 927-7121, 392 Cabot Street, Rte. 1A, Beverly. At Grovers, you'll merge with an eclectic crowd while listening to electrifying live music. Rock, Vocals, Blues. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress.

•HARBOR CLUB 426-8600, 145 Northern Ave., Bos. This 2 floor, 6 bar club offers a sweeping view of the harbor and of Boston's spectacular skyline. Contemporary music with live Jazz Thur. Free buffet every Wed.- Fri. Also available for private functions. Valet parking. Free cover before 9pm. Proper dress. Suit jacket and tie required for male patrons.

•HARD ROCK CAFE 424-7625, 131 Clarendon St., Bos. Sure it's trendy and sure it's touristy, but where else can you watch people ooh-ing and aah-ing at a shrine devoted to Prince. Save any important and serious conversation for the ride home because, chances are, you won't be able to hear each other over the loud music anyway.

•HARPER'S FERRY 254-9743, 158 Brighton Ave., Allston. Perhaps Boston's best known R & B bar, Harpers offers live music nightly. Most of the bands are top local blues acts, but on Sun. the amateurs take over with open-mike night. Smoky but lots of fun with darts and billiards and a large dance floor. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Collared shirts are required.

Wed 16th.--Every Wed., Open Mike Blues Jam Thur 17th.--Texas Flood Fri 18th.--Fat City Sat 19th.--Rick Russell Band Sun 20th.--Every Sun., Open Mike R&B Jam with Stovall Brown Mon 21st.--Gary & The Mood Swingers Tue 22nd.--Every Tues., Rockin Blues Jam with Chance Gardner Thur 24th.--Shirley Lewis Experience Fri 25th.--Matt "Guitar" Murphy Sat 26th.--James Montgomery Blues Band Mon 28th.--Honest Ed's Blues Band

•HONG KONG LOUNGE 864-5311, 1236 Mass. Ave., Camb. Every college student should try bowling at the Hong Kong at least once. Look for pictures of friends on the walls. This is one place you'll need a designated driver for sure. No cover. Casual dress.

•HOULIHAN'S 367-6377, 60 State St., Bos. A restaurant/bar at the edge of Faneuil Hall. Dancing to Top 40 DJ music every night. Typical downtown crowd - students, tourists, and young professionals. Frequently voted Best Singles bar by Best of Boston. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Dress is casual, but no jeans or sneakers after 7pm.

Summer's Brewing

Relief from the heat... 7days a week... freshly brewed, handcrafted beers and a wide variety of interesting and inexpensive dishes.

Open 7 days a week for lunch (12N) and dinner.

Parking available in the Binney Street Garage

"Because fresh beer is best"

One Kendall Square, Bldg. 100 at Hampshire & Broadway
Cambridge, MA. (617) 494-1994

Outside Patio Seating

Corrib Pub and Restaurant

Serving Fine Food and Drink

Daily Luncheon and Dinner Specials

Everyday Specials including
Chicken, New York Sirloin and Seafood

Guinness, Bass and Domestic Beers
International Coffees

Don't forget our Sunday Specials
Baked Ham $6.95 & T-Bone Steak $7.95
Fresh Roast Turkey Dinner $5.95 (while it lasts!) & Baked Scallops $7.95
also - on Thursdays - Our Corned Beef & Cabbage Dinner - $5.95

Lunch 11 am-3pm -- Dinner 3pm-9pm – Sundays 12 noon-10pm
201 Harvard Street • Brookline • 232-8787
396 Market St., Brighton Ctr. • 2030 Centre St., W. Roxbury

•HUNTER'S FOOD AND SPIRITS 262-5551, 885 Boylston St., Bos. An American pub with a small outdoor restaurant. It's a good place to get a solid bite to eat and a few drinks. On the pub side, the crowd is composed of singles, college students and tourists. Expect a small line on weekends and standing room only. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu.

•INDIGO 497-7200, 823 Main St., Camb. This womyns' night club can become rowdy after hours as womyn party and polish the floor to DJ house and dance pop tunes. Cover after 10:30pm so arrive early. No dress code.

•JACOB WIRTH'S 338-8586, 37 Stuart St., Bos. Jacob Wirth has been serving hearty German fare since its doors opened in 1868 (superb sauerkraut). Its large beer hall is a great place to come to sample a wide array of beers including their own specialty brewed dark beer. Sing-alongs to piano music on Fri. nights. Free parking with dinner.

•JILLIAN'S BILLIARDS 437-0300, 145 Ipswich St., Bos. This pool hall/nightclub caters to students and professionals alike who love to play. Billiards, ping pong, darts, shuffle board, and even a batting cage are provided for your amusement. Play to win or just play to play. Pub fare, beer and wine. No cover. Informal.

•JOE'S AMERICAN BAR & GRILLE 536-4200, 279 Dartmouth St., Bos. A restaurant/bar with 2 floors: one for the 20's crowd, another for 30's and beyond. Try the outdoor patio for a relaxing lunch or a few drinks. A busy singles spot on weekends. No cover. Casual dress. Free appetizers Thur.-Fri. 5-7:30pm.

•JOHNNY D'S 776-9667, 17 Holland St., Somerville. Live bands play everything from Blues to Cajun to Ska to Zydeco to Reggae, etc. The crowd is a blend of students, young professionals and locals. Moderate cover varies depending on the act. Dress is casual. Tues. is acoustic night. Sun. is open Blues. Dancing.

Wed 16th.--Hypnotic Clambake, Red Dog Blues Band, Eidolon & Angry Salad Thur 17th.--Ralph Tower Fri 18th.--Who's Kiddin' Who, Stan Strickland & First Choice Sun 20th.--Every Sun., Blues Jam Wed 23rd.--Outback Thur 24th.--Joan Osborne Fri 25th.--Lazy Lester

•KENDALL CAFE 661-0993, 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Camb. This relaxed cafe offers staple American cooking to a mixed clientele. Live entertainment weekly. Modest cover on Mondays only. No dress code.

•KINVARA PUB 783-9400, 34 Harvard Ave., Allston. The Irish certainly have nothing to complain about in this town! Everyone, even if you're not Irish will enjoy this pub. Often packed with a boisterous crowd, Kinvara serves hearty pub food and stout ale. Cover varies. No dress code.

Wed 16th.--Tim Crandall Thur 17th.--Every Thurs., DJ Edgar Fri 18th.--Doe Brothers Sat 19th.--Classic Tracks Sun 20th.--D.J. Colm Mon 21st.--Donegal Courdise Tue 22nd.--Luck of the Draw Darts Wed 23rd.--Tim Crandall Fri 25th.--Fri. and Sat., The Lookalikes Sun 27th.--D.J. Colm Mon 28th.--Donegal Courdise Tue 29th.--Luck of the Draw Darts

•LAST HURRAH 227-8600, 60 School St., Bos. Steeped in history, this bar's name honors the former Boston Mayor, James Michael Curley. 2 bars and a full restaurant. They have live Jazz and there isn't a cover. Casual attire. Open 7 days a week. Charlie Harris and Company performs Wed-Sat nights. .

•LENOX PUB & GRILLE 536-5300, 710 Boylston St., Bos. Enjoy casual dining and an extensive array of imported and domestic beers in an authentic British pub. Attracts an older, quieter crowd. No cover. Neat dress. Sun. brunch 11.30am-2.30pm

•LILY'S 720-5580, 101 S. Market Faneuil Hall Mktpl., Bos. The tourists have found a good deal at this cafe/piano bar where one can sample quality cheap eats and listen to piano Fri.-Sat. nights. No cover or dress code

•LUCKY JOHNNY'S 731-6753, 1098 Comm. Ave., Boston. Classic Rock rhythms fill the air at this upbeat college bar frequented mostly by BU, BC and Pine Manor students. On weekends, it gets pretty crowded. So beat the lines and get there early. The barback grill is always open and the smaller underground lounge is a nice place to chat. Dress is a relaxed casual to somewhat dressy. Best of all, there's never a cover.

•MANRAY 864-0400, 21 Brookline St., Camb. Well, you won't dance with the provocative photographer whose namesake this artsy dance club popularizes with college students and alternative types. The atmosphere is dark and smoky, and very lively. Two dance floors - one featuring live music. Moderate cover varies but increases after 10pm on weekends. Creative dress encouraged.

Wed 16th.--Every Wed., Industrial Rage Sat 19th.--Every Sat., Music Mayhem with DJ Chris Ewan and DJ Linda Lawrence

•MARKET PLACE CAFE 227-9660, 300 Faneuil Hall Mkt., Boston. In a comfortable, relaxed area in Faneuil Hall, sit back and listen to the great sounds of the Brian Walkley Band with special guest Bruce Bartlett every Wednesday at 6:30pm. Casual atmosphere and dress.

•MAXWELL JUMPS , 335 Huntington Ave., Boston. The consummate Northeastern University Dive (it's located across the street), drinks are large and cheap and shot specials are advertised regularly. Maxwell's draws a lively collegiate crowd and has a small but well utilized dance floor.

Tue 22nd.--Every Tues.: Brian Maes

•MEDIEVAL MANOR 423-4900, 246 E. Berkeley St., Bos. Boston's oldest, best-known dinner theater. Set in a Medieval royal court, diners take their instructions from the king. Be sure to ask permission to travel to Canterbury. The louder you yell for your drink-the quicker the bar wench will bring it. Waiters and waitresses entertain while serving food which is eaten Robin Hood style; with your hands. Call for reservations. Tickets are $27+ (includes meal & drinks) depending on the night.

•METROPOLIS 338-6999, 533 Washington St., Boston. An eclectic three-tier dance club located near downtown crossing and the Boston Opera House. The crowd consists of mostly young professionals. Proper dress required, open for lunch and dinner.

•MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT 354-5434, 472 Mass. Ave., Camb. This is not just an ethnic restaurant, although Greek and Arabic music are featured on weekends. During the week it's a great place to see up-and-coming Jazz on Mon., Rock bands on almost every other day. Also featured are Blues and Alternative bands. The moderate cover varies with the act. Casual dress and atmosphere.

Wed 16th.--Lungfish, Cheater Slicks, God's Favorite Band, Metro Rage, Warehouse Thur 17th.--Mucky Pup, Meltdown, Bulldog Front Fri 18th.--Shutter to Think, The Dambuilders, Helium, Manifold Sat 19th.--Heavily Medicated Fairytales, Cleopatra Jones, Maniacal Choir Sun 20th.--Confusion, Starkweather, Toxic Narcotic, Bricklayer, Life of Agony, Hum, The Lune Mon 21st.--Mandala Octet CD Release Party Wed 23rd.--Morphine Thur 24th.--Gigilo Aunts, Small Factory, Honeybunch, Kevin Salem, Jigsaws, Blowpop Fri 25th.--The Atom Said, Ginger Butkiss, The Allens, Zen Butcher Sat 26th.--The Bad Livers, We Saw the Wolf, Sloe Poke Joe, Freddie K Sun 27th.--Common Ailments of Maturity, Grind, Button, Sutton, Dee T Rock'n Soul Review, Thumbcramp Mon 28th.--Angelo Petraglia of the Immortals, Simon Rooney of Crime and the City, Solution, J.D. Foster, George Howard and the Lotus Eaters, The Hyena Club Tue 29th.--Asa Brebner, The Wheelers and Dealers, John Lincoln Wright

•MIRACLE OF SCIENCE 868-2866, 321 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. This brand-spanking new establishment has all the best qualities of a New York-style bar with a huge dash of scientific paraphernalia. Though its location is only a few blocks from M.I.T., it's not loaded with Techies. Drink out of lab beakers and ponder whether centripetal force affects a dog chasing its own tail. It's comfortable, relaxed and casual and there's never a cover.

•MR. DOOLEY'S 338-5656, 77 Broad St., Boston. Best 20 pint of Guiness in Boston. Great music and conversation, outstanding traditional Irish breakfast every Sunday from 11 to 5 followed by a seisiun. Don't forget the great looking Irish Bartenders!! You never know what Irish bands show up there too(hint hint).

Mon 21st.--Every Monday is Monkey Mind

•N.Y.C. JUKEBOX 542-1123, 275 Tremont St., Bos. A 50's and 60's dance club on one side and a modern dance club on the other can match your mood. The dancing becomes more frenzied and energetic as the night unfolds. DJ music. Healthy mix of young & old. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat. Casual dress.

•NAPOLEON CLUB 338-7547, 52 Piedmont Street, Bos. Popular gay dance club. Piano music downstairs every night. Dancing upstairs. Moderate cover Thur.-Sat.

•NARCISSUS 536-1950, 533 Comm. Ave., Bos. A glitsy dance club for the younger set. People come dressed - spandex and hair spray abound. Even though the dance floor is large, it gets crowded on weekends. Moderate cover varies.

•NIGHTSTAGE 497-8200, 823 Main St., Camb. An intimate, well laid-out club with a seating capacity of just 250. National and well known local acts. Blues, Rock, Zydeco, Jazz, Folk and Country are propelled by a sound system that will blast you comfortably to the outer limits of space and back. One of Boston's best up-close-and-personal clubs. Casual dress. Call Ticketron 931-2000 for ticket info.

Thur 17th.--Rory Block Fri 18th.--Thinktree Wed 23rd.-- Thur 24th.--Allen Holdsworth Fri 25th.--Flora De Cana

•PARADISE ROCK CLUB 254-2052, 967 Comm. Ave., Bos. One of Boston's best live clubs. Inside, you'll find one of the last of the small stages which still attracts national and international acts. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Dress is casual. Dancing on non-band nights. For show tickets, call Ticketmaster at 931-2000 Minimum age varies by show.

Wed 16th.--Sense Thur 17th.--Shockra Fri 18th.--Chucklehead Sun 20th.--Shakespeare's Sister Mon 21st.--Soul Asylum Wed 23rd.--High Hats Sat 26th.--Sam Black Church

•PASSIM 492-7679, 47 Palmer St., Camb. The word Passim in Latin translates to here and there. One of the oldest coffeehouses in the nation, this relaxing place at Harvard Sq. serves no alcohol. It is, however, the spot to catch inspiring Folk and Bluegrass. The music is contemporary and acts such as Tracy Chapman, Suzanne Vega and Tom Waits have headlined here. The menu highlights light fare and strong espresso. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

•PERRY'S 367-1297, 199 State St., Boston. Upstairs young professionals follow their favorite teams on six TV screens. While downstairs, college students and young professionals dance the night away Wed.-Sat. Located in the Faneuil Hall area, the dress is casual and the popcorn is excellent! Lunch and dinner served 11:30am-11pm.

•PLAY IT AGAIN SAM'S 232-4242, 1324 Comm. Ave., Allston. Did you know that neither Bogie nor Bergman ever say, Play it again Sam? Sam's attracts primarily a local collegiate crowd, primarily BC and BU students. The club is split up into a bar area, a movie/dance room and a downstairs comedy club. Beer is readily available by the pitcher and bands play on Tue. and Sat. DJ dancing the rest of the week. Moderate cover. Casual dress.

Fri 18th.--D.J. Dancing every Fri. and Sat. Nites!

•PLAZA BAR AT COPLEY PLAZA 267-5300, 138 St. James Ave., Bos. Plunge into a posh leather lounge, sit back and enjoy some cabaret style entertainment featuring local and national artists Mon.-Sat. until 11:30 pm. A good place for a business crowd to mix and forget about business. The mood is relaxed, albeit formal. No cover. Proper dress required. Full menu. Hors d'oeuvres served 5-6pm.

•PLOUGH AND STARS 492-9653, 912 Mass. Ave., Camb. Another of Boston's popular Irish bars. (Now we know what makes those Irish eyes smile) This is a great place to see live music without the cover charge. Music ranges from Rock and Reggae to Blues and Bluegrass. The atmosphere is festive - even a little rowdy. No dress code. Features Bass, Guinness and Harp on tap

•POUR HOUSE LOUNGE 236-1767, 907-909 Boylston St., Bos. Take a welcome escape from upscale Newbury St. and join professionals, artists, punks, and college students in drinking or just socializing at this lively, unpretentious dive bar. The Pour House provides a lively but relaxed atmosphere and a menu with a cornucopia of cheap eats. No cover. Casual dress. Full menu until 12:30am. Tue. night is Dead night.

•PURPLE SHAMROCK 227-2060, 1 Union St., Bos. An Irish bar with a touch of Faneuil Hall. Entertainment alternates between traditional Irish music and DJ dance music. Giant-screen TV. Moderate cover varies. Casual dress. Full menu.

Thur 17th.–Every Thurs., Jim Plunkett Tue 22nd.–Every Tues., Starmakers

•RATHSKELLER 536-2750, 526 Comm. Ave., Kenmore Sq., Bos. Affectionately known as the Rat, this is a rock club with staying power. Past headliners have included the Police, 10,000 Maniacs and R.E.M. The Rat attracts a hardcore alternative crowd - lots of black clothes and biker jackets. No cover upstairs. Varies downstairs. No dress code. Wed 16th.--Heavy Metal Night Chinese Soul Christ, Bitches Brew Thur 17th.–Hymnic Maneuver, Gestalt, Grindring Fri 18th.--Voodoo Dolls, The Senders, The Vouts, Thumbcramp Sat 19th.--The Outlets Wed 23rd.–Nevermore, Four Last Things, Captain Black Sat 26th.–The Real Kids, Incredible Casuals, Tomato Monkey, Muskellunge

• RED HAT 523-2175, 9 Bowdoin St., Bos. You'll feel just like you're in a London pub. Dark and casual atmosphere. Attracts young professionals and Beacon Hill residents. No cover. Casual dress. One of the few places you can still get pitchers of mixed drinks.

•REGGATA BAR 864-1200, 1 Bennett St., Harvard Sq., Camb. You can be sure to hear noteworthy local and national acts such as Herbie Mann, Ahmad Jamal, and others on the top-notch sound system. And if you're lucky, you may even catch them live. The tickets sell out fast, so plan ahead. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. No sneakers or jeans.

•RITZ BAR 536-5700, 15 Arlington St., Bos. Oak-panelled walls and lots of ambiance, not to mention friendly service - even if you're not a corporate CEO. This bar is a vestige to what Boston used to be like in the era of the Proper Bostonian. Sit back and relax to soothing piano music. No cover. Proper dress required.

•RYLE'S JAZZ CLUB 876-9330, 212 Hampshire St., Camb. If you're a Jazz fan, don't miss Ryles. Downstairs you'll find an older crowd listening to traditional Jazz music. Upstairs is funkier with talented fusion musicians. Feel free to move between floors. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Casual dress.

Wed 16th.--Downstairs: Alex Deutsch Quartet, through Sept. Thur 17th.--Downstairs: Future Reference through Sept. Fri 18th.–Fri. and Sat. Downstairs: Herman Johnson Quartet through Sept., Fri. and Sat. Upstairs: The Solution Sun 20th.–Downstairs: Purple Tucan Trio through Sept. Tue 22nd.--Downstairs: Bruce Bartlett Trio through Sept., Upstairs: Every Tues., Jazz Jam with Prudie Sandhouse Fri 25th.-- Sat 26th.--Upstairs:Semenya McCord and Quintet

•SCULLERS LOUNGE 783-0811, 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Camb. Renowned Jazz singers entertain here nightly The bar is well stocked, the chairs are comfortable and the walls are paneled, evoking a mellow mood. The nighttime view of the Charles adds an air of romance. Heavy cover. Casual dress but no jeans or sneakers.

Wed 16th.--Pontius Pilate's Decision Thur 17th.–Dotsero Fri 18th.–Fri. and Sat., Chris Connor Tue 22nd.--The Matt Gordy All Stars Wed 23rd.–Myanna Thur 24th.--Thurs., Fri. and Sat.,Rebecca Parris and Friends

•SEVENS 523-9074, 77 Charles St., Bos. An English pub on Beacon Hill. A favorite among singles, young professionals, college students, locals and, of course, dart players (they almost won the championship this year). No cover. Casual dress. An added bonus - Guinness on tap.

•SHAY'S, 59 JFK St., Camb. Harvard Square's sophisticated college pub. Sit back and enjoy wine by the glass in this intimate little joint. The crowd here tends to be a little older - professors and their friends - but on Thur. night you'll still find plenty of students. Patio seating in the warm weather. No cover. Casual dress.

•SWEETWATER CAFE 357-7027, 3 Boylston Pl., Bos. This active Western bar has earned the deserved reputation as a hot spot to fraternize with the opposite gender. There is no guarantee of meeting your ideal soul mate. But it's undoubtedly worth a try in this bar where single young professionals abound. No cover. Casual dress. Famous for its drink specials and $1 drafts. Tex-Mex food and an outdoor patio when the weather is warm.

•T.T. THE BEAR'S PLACE 492-0082, 10 Brookline St., Camb. A smoky, dark rock club featuring Garage Rock, Blues, Alternative and an abundance of local music. On any given night you're likely to catch an up-and-coming national act. The crowd isn't afraid to slam and shake so be prepared for a few bruises. Cover varies depending upon the band No dress code.

•T'S PUB 254-0807, 973 Comm. Ave., Boston. Great food, lively atmosphere and there's always something going on inside. Younger bar-hoppers beware: Only Valid ID's accepted (they're really tough!). Lunches and dinners are delicious and reasonably priced. College and thirtysomething crowd. Never a cover but always a good time.

•TAM O'SHANTER 277-0982, 1648 Beacon St., Brookline. Washington Square in Brookline's only offering of live music and one of Boston's hot restaurant/bars. Keep seated after dinner and wait for the band, but don't expect to be exempt from the moderate cover. Casual atmosphere and dress.

Wed 16th.--The Moors Thur 17th.--King Kane's Junko Partners with Dave Champagne Fri 18th.--Shy Five Sat 19th.--Big Blues Meanies Sun 20th.–Song Writer's Showcase Benefit for Children's AIDS Program Mon 21st.--All Jazz Musicians and Enthuslasts Welcome 10:00-2:00 Tue 22nd.--Spinning Jenny Wed 23rd.–Pat Wallace Band and the Derangers Thur 24th.–Ducks in Space Fri 25th.–Stovall Brown Sat 26th.--T.H. and the Wreckage Sun 27th.--Bruce Marshall Group Mon 28th.--Tam Jam Tue 29th.--Dennis Brennan and the Iodine Brothers and the Hyena Club

•THE LITTLEST BAR 523-9766, 47 Province, Boston. Located near Downtown Crossing. A quick walk from the Orpheum Theatre, As its name implies, The Littlest Bar is quite little. In fact, the place only seats 17 people. Guinness and Rolling Rock are among the beers served on tap. Edibles also served. Hours are from 8:30am-12am Weekdays and Saturdays.

•TIA'S 227-0828, 200 Atlantic Ave., Bos. An open air meeting place adjacent to the Marriott Long Wharf. The crowd is young and single and the outdoor patio large enough to accommodate sizable crowds. Tia's gets crowded on warm nights - especially right after work - so arrive early. No cover. Casual dress. Live a capella group Sun. 3-6pm.

•VENUS DE MILO 421-9595, 11 Lansdowne St., Bos. Attracts a Euro crowd as well as the usual crowd of college students and young professionals. Hip Hop, House and Funk music by DJ. Wed. night is gay night. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. Know who you are and dress accordingly is the club's policy. 21+ unless otherwise noted.

Thur 17th.--Rave Party with DJ James Christian, John Debo, Tim Ryan Sat 19th.–Every Sat., Retro 70's Night, Retro Wear Preferred Thur 24th.–Rave Party with DJ onion Z, Micro, John Debo

•WALLY'S 424-1408, 427 Mass. Ave., Bos. Treat yourself to unadulterated Jazz nightly at Wally's. Neatly tucked away on Mass. Ave. not far from Northeastern U., Wally's is easy to miss. The only indication that you've arrived is a small white beer sign out front. The atmosphere is dark, smoky and crowded and above all authentic. Mon. is Blues night. No cover. Casual dress. Arrive early to get a seat.

Mon 21st.--Every Mon. is Blues Night

•WARREN TAVERN 241-8142, 2 Pleasant St., Boston. A funky little bar whose clientiele includes young professionals athletes. Reputedly having some of the most beautiful women in Boston.The bar now attracts manly manly athletes.Stars don't mind hanging out at the tavern , because no one bothers them. TV is always on for sports. No tank tops. Bring I.D. Please don't drink and drive.

•WESTERN FRONT 492-7772, 343 Western Ave., Camb. A multicultural Reggae and Jazz bar where it's difficult not to get caught up in the rasta spirit. It's dark and dingy inside, but the place sparks alive when the bands take the stage. Cover varies from moderate to heavy. On Sunday nights, visit the Arts Café and enjoy music, comedy, performance art and poetry for only $5. Casual dress.

Wed 16th.--D.J. Ragga Don International Thur 17th.--Weepin' Willie and the All-Star Blues Band Fri 18th.–S.W.A.M.P. - reggae Sat 19th.--S.W.A.M.P. Tue 22nd.--Tom Zicarelli Group Wed 23rd.-- Fri 25th.--Motion - reggae Sat 26th.–Motion Sun 27th.--D.J. Ragga Don International Tue 29th.--George Levas Group

•WHO'S ON FIRST 247-3353, 23 Yawkey St., Bos. A sports bar nestled just a baseball throw away from Fenway Who's plays host to a mix of jocks, college students and baseball fans. (Yankee fans, beware) DJ music and an occasional live band provide the dance beat. Cover varies from modest to moderate. Casual dress. Free buffet and singing contest Fri. afternoons.

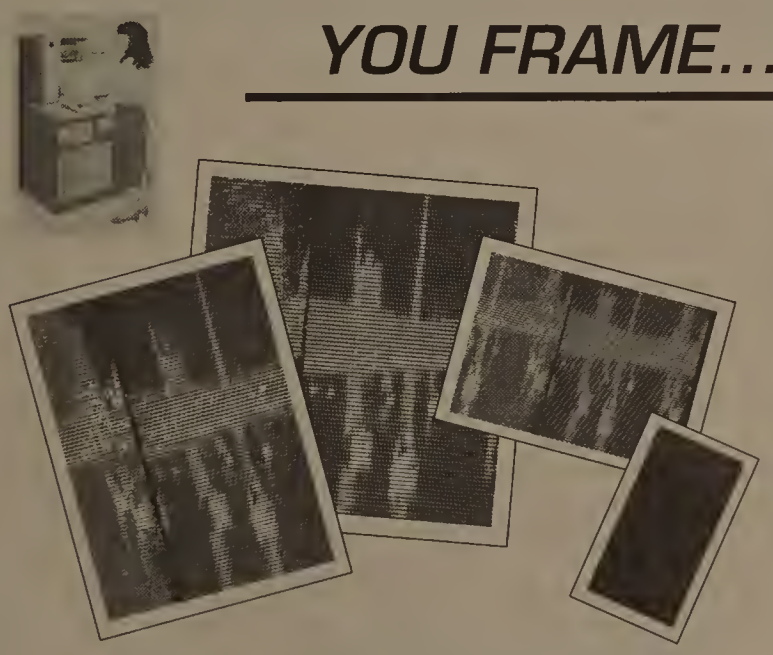
•WILLOW JAZZ CLUB 623-9874, 699 Broadway, Ball Sq., Somerville. An alternative Jazz club that's seemingly dark and bleak; but fans love the place. Call the Concert Line (421-9333) to find out which acts are playing. Moderate cover No dress code.

•ZANZIBAR 451-1955, 1 Boylston Pl., Bos. This large two-story dance club's theme is tropical. The inside is patterned after a Caribbean dwelling; complete with palm trees. Top 40 and Dance music is played to an upscale clientele and the local hotel concierges often recommend Zanzibar as a choice pick to their guests Cover varies. Jacket and tie required.

MELLEA WINERY

Wine Without An Attitude

Enjoy our brookside picnic area and 30 acres of New England Countryside



Mellea Wines can be found at:

Cornucopia, West St.
On The Square, Watertown
Beacon Hill Wine & Spirits, Charles St.
De Lucas Market, Charles St.
Wine Cave, Union St.
Kenmore Liquor, Kenmore Sq.
Bauer, Newbury St.
Murrays, Newton Center
Gordons Liquor, Waltham
Ristorante Schifino, Broad St.
Giannino's, Charles Hotel Crtyrd., Hvd., Sq.
Federal Wines & Spirits, Water St.
Upper Falls Discount Liquors, Needham St., Newton

"Official Wine Sponsor of the Great Yankee Riboff"

108 Old Southbridge Rd., W. Dudley, Ma. 508-943-5166
Catt for info. on summer events; arts shows, concerts & chef visits.

YOU ZOOM
YOU CROP
YOU FRAME...

YOU MAKE BIGGER PRINTS
YOURSELF IN MINUTES
IN OUR STORE

Quality Photofinishing

Brookline 1 Hr. Photo
617-566-1261
2 Brookline Place
Brookline, MA 02146

Join us...

12 FOOT TV SCREENS FOR ALL SPORTING EVENTS

DANCING SUNDAY NIGHT WITH DJ MIKE LYNCH

KARAOKE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

T's Pub
973 COMM. AVE.
BOSTON
254-0807

The Place to Meet

CROSSROADS

A Neighborhood Tradition

Every Tuesday
10–11pm Upstairs
Free Buffalo Wings!

Every Wednesday
Upstairs
Free Cheese Pizza!
with a Pitcher of Beer

Back Bay's Best Neighborhood Restaurant-Bar

495 Beacon Street, at Mass Ave Boston (617) 262-7371

FREE BOSTON

A Guide to Free and Discount Activities in the Boston Area

CONCERTS

Cambridge Brewing Co.
1 Kendall Sq., Building 100, Cambridge
Have a beer and catch some tunes at the free Saturday Night Music Series.

Commonwealth Brewery
Portland St., Boston
Live Reggae and Calypso music every Fri. and Sat. 9:30 to 1:00am, no cover with dinner.

New England Conservatory
290 Huntington Ave., Boston
Fenwick Smith gives a free flute recital Sept. 20 in Jordan Hall at 3pm. On Sept. 22, returning students perform jazz standards and original music as part of the Keller Jazz Series; in the Keller Room, at 8pm.

EXHIBITS

Boston University
Mugar Memorial Library,
771 Commonwealth Avenue,
353-3728
"It Could Be Magic: Harry Houdini and a Celebration of Conjuring" is now on display. Admission is free. The library's hours are Monday-Thursday 8am to 11pm, Friday and Saturday 8am to 5pm, and Sunday 10am to 11pm.

For you star-gazers out there, the BU Astronomy Department hosts open observatory nights at 8:30pm every Wednesday that's clear. Call 353-2630 if the weather looks questionable. Entrance is at 705 Comm. Ave., take the elevator to the fifth floor.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston
The ICA has free admission Wednesdays and Thursdays from 5-9pm. Currently, the museum is hosting "Ways to See: New Art from Massachusetts." Regular hours are Wed., 5-9pm; Thu., 12-9pm; Fri., Sat. & Sun., 12-5pm.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge,
253-4444
For only a $2 donation, visitors can explore the many wonderful exhibits that you don't have to be a rocket scientist to appreciate. First, there's "Crazy After Calculus: Humor at MIT," which chronicles some of the best college pranks ever committed. For the more science-minded, there's "MathSpace," a hands-on exploration of geometry that lets you tinker with math playthings. And you thought pi r^2 would never come in handy.

FILMS

Bill's Bar
Lansdowne St., Boston
Every Monday night Bill's hosts Monday Night Movie Madness. SRS Films shows independent films and music videos before the evening's featured film. Films start at 9pm. Admission is free, along with the popcorn.

Boston Public Library
Copley Square, Boston
This fall, the BPL presents the last segment of its tribute to film director Frank Capra. On Mondays at 3pm and 6:30pm, his films will be screened for free in Rabb Lecture Hall. On the 21st, see State of the Union; Sept. 28, it's Riding High.

SPECIAL EVENTS

First International Food Sail
Community Boating, Hatch Shell
The International Food Sail features a wide array of restaurants offering delicious samples from their outstanding menus ($5), free rollerbladings, rollerblading expo, live cultural music and free sailing. All this takes place Sept. 19 from 12pm-4pm; raindate is the 20th.

Performing Arts Series at the Hatch Shell
On the Esplanade, Boston
On Sept. 19, come celebrate the 7th annual MDC Sober Day: Say No to Drugs. Various artists and activities celebrate a day of clean and sober living. Included in the festivities is a softball tournament and live music. Also, inclement weather may cancel or postpone this event; call 727-5215 for updates.

TOURS

Commonwealth Brewing Co.
138 Portland St., Boston
The Brewing Co. holds free tours on Saturdays at 3:30pm and Sundays at noon.

Samuel Adams Brewery
30 Germania St., Jamaica Plain
On Thursdays at 2pm and Saturdays at noon and 2pm, the brewery hosts tours and tastings. Only a paltry $1 contribution is requested.

READINGS/LECTURES

AIDS Action Committee
131 Clarendon St., Boston
The AAC offers "Answers Plus," a free and confidential seminar to answer the financial, legal, insurance and job-related questions of those who have recently tested HIV positive. Confidentiality assured. Call 437-6200 for more information.

Boston University
Tsai Performance Center
685 Comm. Ave., Boston
BU professor of economics Jeffrey A. Miron lectures on Sept. 17 at 7pm on "The Pros and Cons of Drug Legalization." The lecture is free and open to the public; a question/answer session will follow. Call 353-4623 for more information.

Cambridge Center for Adult Education
56 Brattle St., Harvard Square
For only $1.50 per evening, you can come to the CCAE every Tuesday at 8:15pm for a series of thought-provoking lectures. On Sept. 29, Dan Connell & Debbie Hird speak on "Eritrea: The Challenge of Peace." After 30 years of war for independence from Ethiopia, the Eritreans are embarking on a bold experiment to build a new, democratic nation.

Waterstone's Booksellers
Newbury St. at Exeter, Boston
Readings: Paul Auster (Leviathan), Sept. 16; Gary Paulsen (Clabbard Dirt, Sweet Grass), Sept. 17; Joe Steffan (Honor Bound), Sept. 18; Janette Turner Hospital & Ellen Lesser at 3pm, Sept. 20; Norman Rush (Mating), Sept. 23; Nat Hentoff (Free Speech for Me— But Not for Thee), Sept. 29. All readings take place at 7pm unless otherwise noted.

WordsWorth Books
at the Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St., Harvard Square
Renowned fiction writer and essayist Susan Sontag will read from her new novel The Volcano Lover: A Romance on Sept. 23 at 5:30pm. The book is based on the famous love triangle of Sir William Hamilton; his wife, Emma; and her lover, Lord Nelson. The reading is free, but you must get tickets beforehand at the bookstore (30 Brattle St.).

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS

Feel the urge to unleash your frustrations or vent your hostilities on an unsuspecting friend or enemy? Look no further than the Improper Impersonals, a forum designed for pranksters, irate neighbors, relatives, maniacs or any would-be target of your acid tongue. Best of all they're FREE! Send your Impersonals to us at Improper Impersonals, The Improper Bostonian, 17 Station St., Suite 7A, Brookline, MA 02146. Or fax it to us at 232-4305.

Mary, A person who makes a face after eating a grapefruit has a better puss than yours! (And far less offensive too.) The Head Hunter p.s. You're still a bitch

Mr. Boston Cab, Remember those extra four miles you added on to our trip. And remember how you got out of the cab to buy cigarettes after I paid my fare? Well, enjoy your new tires. Particularly satisfied

Watchmaker, Maybe you should apply some of that unrestrained dedication to your profession, to our marriage. For all you know, while you're out fixing watches, I'm in bed fixing the milkman. Home Alone

Neighbor, You may not realize it, but those late night strip shows you put on in your living room window aren't getting anyone HOT except maybe the squirrels looking to stock up on some winter fat. Thanks for the dieting impetus Goodyear. Sick to my stomach.

Carla, If you haven't noticed, the entire department hates your guts not because you're stupid or you don't know what you're doing - but because you still haven't used the bottle of Ban roll-on that we sent. We thought "Anonymous" would be a tactful approach but next time I'll tie you down and glide it on myself. Injured Olfactory

Boo Boo Kitty, You're the best pussy around. Meow

J.B. The boys are making a visit soon. Better break out the turtleneck and Maalox. S.J.'s

Roger, The girls at the DBJ need some more loving. If it's temporary love you want, we're the right people. Otherwise, go screw. We're horny - not sympathetic! K.L.

Gov'na, What happened to your promise? I want results and I don't care how you get them. It's very simple: Pink, Peach or Black. Preferably unwashed. Q.

Butler, You, your red house and your cane are treading on thin ice. If we'd have known that would have happened, we'd have brought along a little chloroform and superglue for the party. The Boys in the Big Yellow Truck

Anthony, I hope Harvard knocks some sense into your head. You weren't that great in bed, but maybe you can impress some new freshmen. Unsigned

Beauj, Labor Day Weekend. Wow. Your tongue never felt so good. Sorry about the corn and Eukanuba chunks. I just felt like letting loose. Love Clancy

Karl, That graduate degree should be good for fire starter. Why did you waste two years and fifty grand for a Master's of Malinterpreted Elizabethan Poetry. Nice drugs. Lori

Lisa, No matter how cold you get, or tired you become, or sagging your breasts are, or ignorant of the world around you - there's one thing you can count on: My love. Not for you, but for other women. The Captain

Rat Arms, Send us a picture of you, Lance the Wonder Mutt and your new bitch! That is, if you're not too busy applying your daily doses of Rogain, Minoxidol and Ben and Jerry's. How's the pool at the hotel? Choppin Brocc

Marvin, A little love can go a long way and sometimes it can even please me. L-chick

Janet, Nights at the club are long and the air is hot but when you wear those skirts, I want to rip them off and go at it right on the floor. You know I want you. Just ask. Judy

Dearest Samantha, You never cease to amaze us; many still struggle with the notion of interracial dating. Baby, you're breaking new ground with this multi-racial dating thing of yours. Love Katie and Grace

Dimwitt-Sportin the spandex, eh? What are you hoping, that some bike courier-babe will think you're cute and jump you? I think not. Though I must admit: most guys don't have the balls to wear spandex to the office. You don't. Don't show off your flab and what equipment you don't have.

Hey Boss-man, When'll you notice we're using YOUR precious fax machine to send out for pizza and send you these wonderful Impersonals? Teehee.

To No-Name, Words of advice: The incorrect salutation at the body shop for visitors is "Hey, Buddy."

Try Sir and Maam from now on. It'll pay the bills Fred

Bets, Ever since that stamp-licking party, I can't keep my eyes off of you. Let's get together soon - and don't worry about the stamps. We'll get something else wet. Lori

Heather, Oh my, oh my, oh my. I'm glad we met. My wife's away for the weekend and I thought that if you weren't busy, we could get together at my place this weekend. Have you ever really listened to Madame Butterfly? D

To the Bastard who ran over my cat, What did you mean "You should keep the thing on a leash."? Keep away from Lower Beacon St. or suffer the wrath of Vilmor.

CLASSIFIEDS

REAL ESTATE

APARTMENTS

BACK BAY Modern 2BR, dishwasher, garbage disposal, tiled full bathroom, washer/ dryer in building. Perfect location. No fee. $1,100 244-9148

BEACON HILL 1 Br. Concierge Bldg., Roofdeck $850 Incl. Util. Avl. 8/14-9/12 742-7798

BEACON HILL No fee. 2 BR apt. Ht/h.w. Incl. $800. Avl 9/1 323-9559/ 742-0418

BOSTON 3-4 Bedroom apt. located on 2nd & 3rd flrs of a 3 family house. Includes microwave, washer/dryer, dishwasher, hardwood floors, track lighting, spiral staircase, sky lights, all beautifully detailed $1200 Call: 442-3326 or 225-2034LOOKING TO SHARE OR RENT OUT AN APARTMENT OR HOUSE? CALL THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN 232-5356 JUST $19 UNTIL IT WORKS!!!!!!!!!!!!

BOSTON Arlington St-Bay Village. Small studio in quiet, safe bldg. Newly renovated, hardwood floors $525 includes heat & hot water 332-0427

Boston/ Brookline Village
Riverway House Condos. Lux. studios fm. $525, 1 BR $650, 2 BR $850 htd, garden roof deck, exer. & steam rm., Indry, pking, owner. No Fee 547-0026, 739-6212.

Somerville/ Cambridge Line
Near Harvard, sunny 2 & 3 BR apts, avail. in 3 & 6 family houses, 2 BR fm. $600, 3 BR fm. $725. Owner. No Fee 547-0036.

Watertown/ Cambridge Line
Near Harvard, sunny 2 & 3 BR apts fm. $625. No Fee 547-0036.

BOSTON Bay Village, Small 1 bedroom, hardwood floors, clean. Newly renovated quiet bldg., $595 includes heat & hot water 332-0427

BOSTON/BRIGHAM CIRCLE NU MEDICAL AREA LARGE 3&4 BEDROOM $900 AND UP, SECURE BLDG. ON T. CLOSE TO STORES AND BANKS, SOME WITH PARKING. NO FEE. CALL 731-0165

BRIGHTON 1 BR in house modern kitchen and bathroom, porch, parking, excellent location. $560. 254-4186

BROOKLINE This is it Brookline! Oct.1 4 Bedroom Beautiful 2 Fam. House. Large eat-in kitchen, deck. Longwood Med. Area. $1650 includes heat & hot water, 3 parking spaces. Owner: 734-9863

CAMBRIDGE New 4 room townhouse, near MIT, d/d, laundry, yard. Perfect for couple, close to all T lines $895+ 661-8656

CHELSEA Luxury 2 bedroom apt. 1 1/2 baths, w/d, parking, convenient to T, balcony, pool and health club $825 (617)648-8109

DORCHESTER 3/4 BR, unheated. $750. Nr T. No pets. Call 617-963-0224

DORCHESTER Ashmont Hill, 5 rooms on Red line. 2 bedrooms, deck, laundrey, pantry, brick building. $800 heated Call 265-3203

DORCHESTER

Contemporary renovated 1st floor apt. in quiet , owner occupied 3 decker. 1400 sq. ft. 17-windows, sundeck, oak floors, livingroom with french doors, dining room with china cabinet, new elk, dw, walk in pantry, 2 bedroom study, entry hall, porches, w/d, garden, $690+ Call 282-1919 or 572-0038

DORCHESTER Jones Hill 2 bedrooms in 3 decker. 5 rooms near Savin Hill T. $550.00 call owner 282-1471

ROSLINDALE 2 Bedroom in apt. building with heat & hot water, hardwood floors, laundrey facilities on premises, disposal, on bus line. Sec. dep. and references required. $650 Call (617)364-6585

ROSLINDALE 2 bedroom in apt. building with heat and hot water, hardwood floors , laundry facilities on premisis, disposal, on bus line. Security Deposit and References Required. $650 Call (617) 364-6585

SAVIN HILL Over Bridge, Oceanside. 4 Rooms, Glassed-in Porch, Off Street Parking, 2 min. from Red Line. 5 min. walk to Beach. Large Eat-In Kitchen, Hardwood Floors $550+ Util. Very Quiet Neighborhood 825-1832 "Best Landlord in City" Tank McNamara, The Improper Bostonian

SOMERVILLE 5 room apt. 7 minute walk to Tufts. Central air & vacuum, w/d, frig., partially furnished. $700+ Ann/Bill 721-0592

SOMERVILLE 6 rooms each side. Prime Davis Square location. $900 tile bath. $1100 1 1/2 tile bath. No Util. Call 237-1992

SOMERVILLE Lg. 6 room, 3 bedroom, living room, dining room, eat-in-kitchen, modern bath. Avail immed. $850+ Laundry, No fee. 666-4734

SOMERVILLE Somerville east, 4 rooms, large bedroom hardfloors near T $700 Nice Area (617)488-0101

SOMERVILLE Walk to Davis Sq. Large 4 bedroom. Hardwood floors, white walls, ultra modern kitchen, dw/disposal, deck laundry $1200. 662-5390

APT. SHARES

ALLSTON House Near Bus & T, Harvard Square and BU etc. Smoke/Pets OK $275+ 1/3 of Cheap Utilities 787-8811

ALLSTON Roomate wanted: small room, clean bright apt. Close to Harvard & BU/call Jen or Lee / 7830847 / $300/MO I.e.

